Assessor Pratt Claims Laukea's Bonds Are Altogether Too High

A meeting of the Board of Supervisors of the County of Oahu was held this morning, there being present the following: J. A. Gilman, Mark Robinson, A. Hocking, Jack Lucas and Clerk Harry Murray.

Mr. Lucas announced that he had asked Mr. Pratt, of the Tax Office, to come down and explain some of the workings of the department which the supervisors wished to know about. Mr. Pratt was not yet present, so the supervisors attended to a few other minor matters.

Speaking of what the Board would do on Monday, Mr. Gilman said that it was necessary to do as little as possible in the way of incurring expense. If the decision of the Supreme Court on the County Act should go against the supervisors then much will have been saved. If the act should be sustained, then no harm was done. High Sheriff Brown had sent up for the police books but had been refused. Mr. Gilman said he had told the sheriff it would not be well to start in on the heavy, expensive books of the police department when there was a possibility of the County Act being knocked out. The business of the department would have to be kept in temporary books.

Mr. Gilman went on to say that he had had a talk with Chief Justice Frear on the question of the decision. Asked if it would be on Wednesday, he replied in the negative and stated that it would be at least a week or ten days. At this point, Captain Berger appeared before the supervisors and stated that he wanted to usher in the county with music on Monday next. He promised to be present outside the Castle & Cooke building at 12 o'clock noon at which time he would "blow the county in."

Mr. Pratt entered the room and, in answer to questions, gave desired information as to the method of carrying on business in the Tax Office.

Mr. Lucas stated that Mr. Laukea, the county assessor, had stated that he believed it better to have all the men work in the central office, sending them out to the country districts when occasion should demand, paying no regular salaries but commissions instead. In the past, outside assessors had been in the habit of going to plantation offices and getting the bookkeeping done.

JACK WEDAY WANTS ANOTHER FIGHT WITH DAVE BARRY

Jack Weday is not satisfied with the fight of last night. He wants another chance. He claims he was not in good condition, having had to work off too much flesh in too short a time to get down to the weight. He says further that he rushed the fighting too hard in the first two rounds and then could not stand the clip. Had he been in good condition, he could continue for a long time fighting just as he did in the beginning.

SAILOR LIBELS ENCORE FOR $5,000 DAMAGES

Sailor William Jackson libels the barkentine Encore, Captain Palmgreen, for $5,000 for personal damages alleged to have been sustained on October 17, 1903, while the vessel was sailing from Newcastle for Honolulu, by the sudden parting of a rotten fore-top-gallant sheet which, with others, he was hauling on, causing him to fall heavily to the deck and injure his left hand to such an extent that he was incapacitated as a mariner.

Assistant United States District Attorney J. J. Dunne is proctor for libellant. Depositions will be taken. Most all telephone girls are proud of their calling.

PRATT DISCOVERS CROWN LANDS

Old Timers At Kaneohe Give Commissioner Pointer.

SURVEY DEPARTMENT INVESTIGATING FACTS

NO PATENTS EVER ISSUED FOR TWO PIECES OF LAND ON WINDWARD SIDE OF OAHU.

Land Commissioner Pratt, while on a trip around this island, made a peculiar and highly interesting discovery.

At Kaneohe, on the windward side of Oahu, certain old Hawaiians who have resided in that locality near the whole of their lives informed the land commissioner of the fact that there were two pieces of crown land in that vicinity of which the Territorial Government knew nothing.

Pratt's kamaaina informants described the metes and bounds of the lots in question and the land commissioner has already started the Survey department on the tract of what promises to be a valuable discovery for the Government.

Pratt is satisfied, after an investigation, that no patents have ever been issued for the land in question. He is not certain who occupies the area at present but this makes no difference as to the Government's title.

HE TOOTED.

Robert Marmont, a boilermaker, seems to have started the new year in a very poor way. This morning John Sinos went to the police station and swore to a warrant for his arrest. Sinos is an employee at Walker's rice mill in Kawaiahae lane. At 12 o'clock he greeted the arrival of the rice mill whistle. Sinos alleges that while he was blowing the whistle Marmont came out of his house and threw bottles and old bones at him. One bone hit Sinos on the back. A bottle whizzed close past his head and was splintered on the wall behind him. Marmont then produced a revolver and threatened Sinos that he would shoot him if he did not stop blowing the whistle. Sinos stopped.

Government Band May Be Dropped To Save the Public Cash

Following in the line of the retrenchment scheme urged by the administration in order to keep Territorial expenses within the bounds of revenue it is now suggested that the Territorial band be dispensed with and that the money so saved be used in directions of necessity rather than luxury.

The general cutting in Government departments as the result of the Governor's economy recommendations has not yet been completed and it is not thought likely that the Territorial band will escape.

Even as Bandmaster Berger led his musicians in beautiful strains in the Capitol grounds bandstand this morning, to the delight of all, it is believed that thoughts of cutting out the Territory's official music were being entertained.

Honolulu would be the greatest sufferer in the event of such a step, for this city monopolizes the twenty-seven bandsmen with the lady vocalists and their leader.

The Legislature provided for only two trips of the band to East Hawaii, two trips to West Hawaii and trips each to Maui and Kauai during a period of eighteen months commencing with this year, so that the other islands would, it is said, not be likely to object very strenuously to the dropping of the band altogether. In fact they would welcome such an action as the most reasonable of all cuts, accordingly to the prophecy of a Government officer this morning.

To drop the band would mean a saving of between thirty-five and forty thousand dollars.

If the band's trips beyond Honolulu were dispensed with, $5,000 would be saved but a howl would go up from the other islands whose people would insist on hearing Berger's music once in nine months, as provided for by the Legislature.

Act 13 of the last Legislature appropriates almost ten thousand dollars as follows: Incidentals, etc., of band, $1,800; traveling expenses of the band to other islands, as follows: to East Hawaii, 2 trips, $2,000; to West Hawaii, 2 trips, $1,500; to Maui, 2 trips, $1,800; to Kauai, 2 trips, $1,500; Oahu (country districts), $700; settlement, $500; total, $9,800.

Act 17 provides as follows: Salary of 27 bandsmen, $20,967; emergency pay roll for band, $1,350; salary of 2 singers, 2 lady vocalists, each $900, $1,800; salary of bandmaster, $4,230; total $27,447; grand total $37,247, the amount which would be saved the Territory between now and June 30th, 1904 should the band be dispensed with.

Honolulu, should the band be dropped as a Territorial institution would not likely lose its music altogether. The band, it is suggested, could still maintain its organization, giving its services to hotels, steamship companies, advertising and promotion committees, public and private entertainers on a large scale, theatrical companies and the many other concerns willing to pay for music.

The Rapid Transit people, so it is pointed out, might find it to their benefit to engage the band to play at different attractive points on their line at frequent intervals.

While the retrenchment sword hangs by a hair above the heads of several public servants, Bandmaster Berger and his boys have not yet received warning, though that warning is expected to be near.

CUT NEARLY $150,000

BOARD OF HEALTH HAS PRACTISED SHARP ECONOMY

DR. COOPER'S LETTER TO GOVERNMENT PHYSICIANS—OFFICES CONSOLIDATED.

President Cooper and members of the Board of Health have taken up the economy program with a vigorous hand. The first result of their effort is a cut of some $50,000 in salaries and payroll and about $90,000 in current expenses for the remaining eighteen months of the year.

The Board has found the task a difficult one, as it fears that efficiency may be sacrificed to expense and it has been forced to eliminate officers who have done their work thoroughly and well at all times.

One of the largest items cut out is the government physicians, whose salary roll amounts to $39,420. The attitude of the Board on this item is shown in a letter sent by President Cooper to the various physicians. This letter follows:

Honolulu, Hawaii, Dec. 31, 1903.

Dear Sir:—The financial condition of the Territory has made it imperative for the administration to demand retrenchment of expenditures in all departments. As provision has been made in the County Act for the appointment of health officers in each county and as the bulk of the income of the Territory goes to the counties, it is only right that this expenditure should be borne by individual counties.

A committee was appointed to confer either personally or by letter with the Supervisors of each county laying before them the absolute necessity of keeping these positions and we do not doubt but your appointment will follow a careful consideration of the situation. By a unanimous vote of the Board of Health, held on this date, your position of Government Physician was abolished, to take effect December 31st, 1903.

The Board of Health sincerely regret to be obliged to take this step, preferring to keep the Government Physicians under Territorial control, but they feel that all will come right under the County Act.

Very truly yours,

(Signed) CHAS. B. COOPER, M.D.,

President of the Board of Health.

The position of Chief Health Officer, occupied by Dr. Pratt is cut out, saving $1500. Dr. Pratt will take the position of City Sanitary Inspector at $175. Mr. Tracey having been given a private position by a member of the Board. The Insane Asylum pay roll is reduced, saving $3600. Sanitary inspectors for Honolulu are reduced and cut out for other points of the islands, making a saving of $10,800. The fish and food inspector for Honolulu, $1800, is cut out, also the assistant plumbing inspector, $2700, and nurse at the dispensary, $1980. The milk and poi inspector, $1800, is cut out, the duties of this office falling to Dr. Monsarrat, the veterinarian of the Board.

As will be noted from Dr. Cooper's letter it is anticipated that the counties will look after the government physician question. In Honolulu the dispensary physicians, Dr. Myers and Dr. Sinclair, have proffered their services gratuitously until such time as provision shall be otherwise made. This is done that the poor may not suffer during the reorganization and that

Theatre Managers Are Held For Manslaughter

[Associated Press Special Cable.] CHICAGO, Jan. 2.—Five hundred and eighty-six bodies have been recovered from the ruins of the Iroquois theater.

The managers of the theater, Davis and Powers, have been held to answer the charge of manslaughter, through their failure to comply with regulations for the protection of their audiences.

An order has been issued closing every theater in the city until it is shown that they are not violating city ordinances for the control of theaters and protection of the public.

Schmidt Prevents Delivery Of Kahn-Livernash Ballots

[Associated Press Special Cable.] SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 2.—Mayor Schmidt has suspended Registrar Walsh from office to prevent his taking the ballots in the Kahn-Livernash contested election case to Washington. Production of the ballots before the House Elections Committee was recently ordered. Schmidt's action is taken in behalf of Livernash, who was the labor candidate.

[Associated Press Special Cable.] OMAHA, Neb., Jan. 2.—President Burt, of the Union Pacific, has resigned.

Princess Mathilde Is Dead

[Associated Press Special Cable.] PARIS, Jan. 2.—The Princess Mathilde, daughter of Jerome Bonaparte, died today.

The Board may not be hampered. The Board has canvassed the situation carefully and not without some misgivings that a sacrifice in efficiency has been made owing to the forced dropping of trained and trusted officers. It has cut down at every conceivable point determined to carry on the work with the smaller force if possible until such future time as provision can be made for reestablishment of the offices or the counties be able to take over the work now done under the Board. The matter of hospital subsidies is still under consideration. The hospitals may be turned over to the counties as the government physicians have been.

Between Two Fires

Some years ago the man who wished to be well-dressed and didn't care to spend his income realizing his wish was between two fires. On the one hand was the skilled tailor with sky-high prices; on the other, ready-made stuff so common no self-respecting man would wear it. The happy medium arrived with the advent of ALFRED BENJAMIN & CO. in NEW YORK, today the world's representative makers of ready-for-service apparel for men. Barry Defeats Weday In Five Rounds Before a Crowded House

Barry, the California boy who came all the way from San Francisco to fight Jack Weday, Hawaii's lightweight champion, has met and defeated his man and now returns to his home to add fresh laurels to those he has already gathered.

Before a crowd that filled every part of the Orpheum theatre last night these two men, who for weeks past have been denying themselves of all things except those prescribed by the strict rules of modern training, met in the squared ring intent each on sending his adversary to the floor. The crowd was a very good-natured one, including hundreds of Honolulu's best people, County Supervisors and officers, officers of the Federal and Territorial governments, naval and military men and many others in prominent walks of life were there to see the battle of the strong. It was a truly representative crowd.

It was somewhat after 8 o'clock before all the lights were turned on and soon, through the haze of smoke from mixed Manila, Havana and promiscuous cigars emerged two little bantam weights, St. Clair of the darker hue and Vierra of the lighter.

The gong tapped and the little fellows went at it. The first round was a very good imitation of a combination hornpipe and quadrille with a few hula-kui movements thrown in. The fighters landed scarcely a tap. The first of the four rounds finished in a hug. The second round was more promising. Vierra landed on the right jaw and the little fellows began their dance with more vigor, making beautiful wind-cutting passes. The third round started with the blood of the contestants somewhat warmed. St. Clair became aggressive and landed right and left. He slipped once and went down but was soon on his feet again and at it with renewed vigor. St. Clair had the best of this round. In the fourth St. Clair with shoulders and chest bedewed and blood appearing at the nose, landed frequently on his antagonist but himself received a lot of punishment. Vierra showed himself the stronger lad but he was outclassed in cleverness by the other. Bill Hul-hui, who refereed the fight, awarded the decision to St. Clair, much to the satisfaction of the audience.

Next came Nigel Jackson and Santos, the latter a Porto Rican apprentice painter who took the place of Anderson, the man who was to fight Jackson.

In the first round, the Porto Rican went at Jackson like a cyclone, punishing heedlessly and wasting all his wind. Evidently he calculated on quick results. Jackson was slightly affected by the onslaught but immediately figured out the situation. He kept standing his man off and allowed him to swing his arms around like a boomerang in the bush. Then he went at his darker friend and landed on jaw, chin and body until he became groggy and went down. He arose in time and was next sent to the ropes. The fight was really all over but Santos was game and came up for the second round in slightly better condition. He was so anxious that he hit in the clinches, much to Jackson's amusement, and continued to punch after the gong had sounded. The secret of the renewed energy in the round was the fact that the timekeeper allowed a two-minute rest. In the third round, Jackson landed a few more punches and then it was all off with the Porto Rican. He dropped his hands to his sides and then walked out of the ring like a drunken man. Jackson was awarded the decision.

McDonald and McCarthy, a couple of lightweights, entered the ring for the final preliminary but they did not stay long. The fight was to have been between Graham and McDonald but, in the afternoon when McCarthy and Graham were working together, he knocked out the latter and so it was decided he should go into the ring.

It is claimed that McDonald has knocked out Kid Kennard and from his exhibition last night, it is very easy to believe this. He went at McCarthy from the start, landed right and left and wound up with a series of body blows that resounded throughout the house. He has a habit of crouching low and upon springing, of throwing the whole weight of his body into the blow about to be delivered. McCarthy could not stand up against such a cyclone and, bleeding and dazed he was soon out of the fight. Though he did not go down, he was decidedly groggy and quit.

After about a half an hour, the contestants in the principal fight of the evening came walking into the arena and parleyed for ten minutes or so on the definition of a clean break. It was finally settled, the contestants agreeing to break clean at the command of the referee; otherwise Marquis of Queensberry rules to obtain.

First round—At the tap of the gong by L. H. Dee, the time-keeper, Weday and Barry advanced to the center of the ring and started right in, the former taking the initiative and landing constantly with right hook and body blows. Barry tries for a couple of swinging blows but misses, Weday ducking splendidly. The frequent looks with the right appear to disconcert Barry who begins a more careful game, holding Weday away better than at first. The first round was plausibly Weday's and his supporters went wild with excitement, believing fully the fight was his. However, it was only the first round.

Second round—Barry lends with a right on the mouth and follows up with a couple of light taps. The next blow catches Weday full in the heart and he staggers. Then come a series of swinging punches for wind and jaw and Weday shows signs of weakening while Barry, apparently unhurt by the terrific blows he received in the first rounds, follows up his advantage. Weday groggy.

Third round—Weday a little stronger and making for the wind with a right hook now and then. A chance blow might give him the fight but he is too weak to deliver it and resorts to clinches and ducks to escape punishment. Barry lands his left on the tip of the jaw and Weday staggers. Another of the same kind, a swinging blow with the right and Weday goes to the floor. Seven times he went down but giving up was not in his nature and each time as Referee Jess Woods counted "nine," he arose and met his antagonist. The gong sounded while the last count was going on.

Fifth round—It was not thought that Weday would fight another round but his tenacity was magnificent and he made a final try. Weday lands with left and on the wind and is met with a blow on the left jaw and a paralyser in the wind. Down he goes again and then twice more. Weday is out of the fight, though when the gong sounds he retires to his corner for another round. In a very short time his seconds throw up the sponge and the fight is over.

Jess Woods, who refereed the fight, had his hands full separating the two men in the clinches but he did his work well and afterwards received many congratulations from his friends.

SOCKER FOOTBALL

The Association Football League will have its second game of the present season on the Makiki grounds at 4 p. m. The Pacifics and the Punahous will be the contesting teams. Their line-up will, in all probability, be as follows:

Pacifics—W. Duisenberg, goal; S. Beardmore, A. S. Guild, full backs; H. B. Sinclair, J. Stokes, B. F. Beardmore, half backs; R. A. Churton, J. S. Gray, J. Catterall, J. N. Shafer, Jas. Henry, forwards; J. L. Brett, Fred Young, reserves.

Punahous—A. A. Catton, goal; P. Gleason, R. McCarriston, full backs; W. Rycroft, H. Birkinmyre, J. H. Harrison, half backs; W. W. Thayer, C. Cooke, C. P. Morse, J. L. Cockburn, Geo. Waterhouse, forwards; J. Spaulding, reserve.

J. W. Waldron will act as referee. J. H. Catton will be linesman for the Punahous. The colors of the Pacifics are blue and white; those of the Punahous buff and blue.

A RAPID TRANSIT EPISODE.

This morning about half past ten, a tall lady with a half-sized husband, boarded a King street car, the lady was wearing her husband on her right hand, when they entered the husband looked up, and said to his wife: "You're tall enough to reach a strap, but what can I hold," she said, "If I was as short as you are, I'd hold my tongue," so he took hold of his tongue, the car started and he fell down, whereupon his dutiful spouse bellowed, "What's the matter, can't you stand up?" Said hubby, "They both slipped." "Both what," said the wife. "Both my feet and my tongue," said the little husband, but let's get off the car and go and see Bath the plumber and have a look at that new line of Douglas Patent Closets that have just arrived. His telephone is 61 Main.

Don't Stay Sick

When a Postal Will Bring You a Way to Get Well.

You who stay sick and don't write me—I address this to you. While you are waiting I am curing thousands just like you. They simply write me a postal, then I do this: I mail the sick one my book, and with it an order on his druggist for six bottles Dr. Shoop's Restorative. He takes it for a month at my risk. If it succeeds, the cost is $5.50. If it fails, I pay the druggist myself. And the sick one's mere word decides it.

I am ready to do that with you.

My book will tell you how I cure these troubles, and it tells you so clearly that you will know that I am right. If you then wish to test the remedy, your druggist will supply it on trial. If it succeeds, you are well. If it fails, it is free.

Two facts make this offer possible. One is that people in general are honest. The other is that I have learned how to cure. In the past 12 years I have supplied my Restorative on trial to over half a million sick ones, and 59 out of each 40 have paid for the treatment gladly, because they were cured. I have willingly paid for the rest.

My Restorative strengthens the inside nerves. For a lifetime I have studied to perfect a way to bring back the nerve power, which alone makes the vital organs act. When an organ is weak we know that its nerve power is weak. It is like a weak engine—it needs more steam. When we restore that nerve power, the organ does its duty, and the cure is permanent.

To doctor the organ is useless. The best results are but temporary; and that is why common treatments fail. My Restorative cures the cause, and when the cure is complete the sick one is well all over.

Won't you write a postal to learn about a remedy like that?

Simply state which book is wanted and address Dr. Shoop, Box 331, Racine, Wis.

Book No. 1 on Dyspepsia.
Book No. 2 on the Heart.
Book No. 3 on the Kidneys.
Book No. 4 for Women.
Book No. 5 for Men (Sealed).
Book No. 6 on Rheumatism.

Mild cases, not chronic, are often cured by one or two bottles. Dr. Shoop's Restorative is sold by all druggists.

TEMPUS FUGIT.

"Yon rising Moon that looks for us again—
How oft hereafter will she wax wane;
How oft hereafter rising look for us
Through this same Garden—and for one in vain!"

—The Rubiyat.

Yesterday.

"Here's a health, to the year that is fled!"
And we'll hallow the toast with a tear,
(O'er the banquet so joyously spread.)
For the friends that no more can be here.

Aye, call back the faces of those,
Who once feasted and joined in our mirth.
—Nay; check not the tear when it flows,
For the true hearts that slumber in earth:

"Here's a health to the Year that is fled!"

Today.

"Here's a health to the Year that is here!"
Its birthday we'll baptize, in bright wine,
With a smile for the friends who are near.
—And a sigh for the friends of long syne.

Here's a health to the joys yet to come,
To fresh hopes, which may brighten each day.
While here, from our mid-ocean home,
Goes a "Good health!" to our friends far away:

"Here's a health to the Year that is here."

Other Maui candidates for the judgeship are calling Kopeikai an outsider in their newspaper correspondence. Noah Kopeikai, malihini! Wouldn't it make you laugh.

Supervisor Gilman does not appear as confident of the County law's fate in the Supreme Court as he did early in the week. We trust that his call upon the Chief Justice was not the cause for his apparent increased feeling of distrust.

Supervisor Lucas is right. The Board of Supervisors should aim to deal fairly on all subjects, even to the bonds of non-Republican officials. Republicans are now in control, and their greatest asset will be a record of precedents free from political trickery and needlessly harsh interpretations.

Hand in hand with the assertion of inevitable war between Russia and Japan goes the prediction that this will be the beginning of the greatest war the world has ever seen, involving every nation in Europe and finally deciding the forecast of Napoleon that the world within a hundred years from his day would be either Cossack or Republican. It is safe to say the English-speaking alliance will not view with indifference the possible rule of the Cossack.

The Bulletin Bookman publishes today a few stray notes which indicate the general interest taken in this department by Bulletin readers throughout the Territory. There is probably no English-speaking community in the world that contains a larger proportion of good book lovers than Hawaii, and Bulletin readers are indeed fortunate in having placed at their disposal a review that tells what the book is, adding comment that is sensible and interesting reading.

Cutting down expenses to the lowest possible margin is an experience Hawaii has not encountered in years if at all. In some respects, it is an experiment. It has yet to be determined whether the public business can be done with a smaller force. The Bulletin has ever maintained that it can be done and every thoughtful official, every friend of local self-government will throw himself into the struggle, if struggle it proves, to establish the fact that the Territorial and county governments can be conducted at comparatively small expense without lowering the standards of efficiency.

SABBATH AND SPORTS.

Noting the Bulletin's comment on the Friend's objection to a European Sabbath, a correspondent asks, of what kind of Sabbath does the Bulletin approve.

The Bulletin believes every man is entitled to spend his Sunday in a manner that satisfies his own conscience so he does not interfere with the rights of those about him to do the same. The particular opposition to Sunday baseball at the League park, which has given rise to this Sabbath discussion, contains nothing in the estimation of this paper but an intense exhibition of first class Phariseism.

It is said that Hawaii has a law against Sunday sports. It also has a law against Sunday labor. Sunday sport is very general throughout the Territory. A fair share of those who hold up their hands in holy horror at the suggestion of a Sunday baseball game at the League park draw their income, if they have any, from the toll of men who labor seven days in the week. Men who claim they have Christian rights in this Territory do not refuse the coin that comes to them from this Sunday toll. The shock to their consciences is probably softened by the fact that this Sabbath labor of men who assist in providing dividends is done far distant, in plantation fields and mills, and the noise and hurry of Sabbath industry does not echo within the church walls. The clang of the street car gong does. This represents Sunday labor. The anti-baseball Christian however, appears to be satisfied that it is better for several hundred men to work while he goes to church rather than he be forced to the necessity of walking to Sunday services.

The Bulletin believes there is reason in all things. It would be folly to bring the Sunday labor law to bear upon the plantation. Your self-appointed Christian admits that. He also recognizes that the street car employees do valuable Sunday service by working all day, carrying him possibly to church in the morning, possibly a pleasure trip to Waikiki in the afternoon. This Christian balks, however, when Sunday baseball is suggested, claiming that it will turn the commun-

CAUGHT BY THE GRIP. RELEASED BY PE-RU-NA.

Congressman Geo. H. White's Case.
A Noted Sculptress Cured.

The world of medicine recognizes Grip as epidemic catarrh. - Medical Talk.

LA GRIPPE is epidemic catarrh. It spares no class or nationality. The cultured and the ignorant, the aristocrat and the pauper, the masses and the classes are alike subject to la grippe. None are exempt—all are liable.

Have you the grip? Or, rather, has the grip got you? Grip is well named. The original French term, la grippe, has been shortened by the busy American to read "grip." Without intending to do so a new word has been coined that exactly describes the case. As if some invisible giant with awful Gait had

THE RUSSIAN AS A SOLDIER.

"The Russian soldier, as I saw him during the Boxer campaign, impressed me as being a fatalist of a very practical sort," writes O. K. Davis in the December Everybody's. "If it is his time to lose his life he will lose it, and there is little use in trying to save it. He might as well go to one place as another, and it makes no difference whether he goes into a fight or keeps out of it. He travels the line of least resistance, and from this develops a blind, but often unintelligent obedience. That sort of man makes a dangerous fighting machine."

"With all these good qualities, however, there are others not so attractive. Big, strong, patient of toil and hardship, he is also clumsy, stupid, and very slow—a serious fault in fighting men. There was a good exhibition of the Russian lack of speed the day the Pekin relief column marched from Mahto to Chang-chia-wan. For that morning it had been arranged that a Russian battery and battalion of infantry should form part of the advance guard with the Japanese whom the regular formation of the column placed in the lead. The Japanese were doing their full share, but the Russians could not or would not keep the pace. After repeated attempts to get them to do so Japan was obliged to ask Russia to withdraw its men and give room to the Japanese so that the required speed

Mrs. Celeste Covell writes from 210 N. avenue, Aurora, Ill.:
"Only those who have suffered with la grippe and been cured can appreciate how grateful I feel that such a splendid medicine as Peruna has been placed at the door of every suffering person."

Noted Sculptress Cured of Grip.
Mrs. M. C. Cooper, of the Royal Academy of Arts, of London, England, now residing in Washington, D. C., is one of the greatest living sculptors and painters of the world. She says:
"I take pleasure in recommending Peruna for catarrh and la grippe. I have suffered for months, and after the use of one bottle of Peruna I am entirely well."
—Mrs. M. C. Cooper.

D. L. Wallace, a charter member of the International Barber's Union, writes from 15 Western avenue, Minneapolis, Minn.:
"Following a severe attack of la grippe I seemed to be affected badly all over. One of my customers who was greatly helped by Peruna advised me to try it, and I procured a bottle the same day. Now my head is clear, my nerves are steady, I enjoy food and rest well. Peruna has been worth a dollar a dose to me."
—D. L. Wallace.

Lieutenant Clarice Hunt, of the Salt Lake City Barracks of the Salvation Army, writes from Ogden, Utah:
"Two months ago I was suffering with severe cold that I could hardly speak. Our captain advised me to try Peruna and procured a bottle for me, and truly it worked wonders. Within two weeks I was entirely well."
—Clarice Hunt.

Congressman White's Letter.
Tarboro, N. C.
Gentlemen:—I am more than satisfied with Peruna and find it to be an excellent remedy for the grip and catarrh. I have used it in my family and they all join me in recommending it as an excellent remedy."
—George H. White, Member of Congress.

Mrs. T. W. Collins, Treasurer Independent Order of Good Templars, of Everett, Wash., writes:
"After having a severe attack of la grippe I continued in a feeble condition even after the doctors called me cured. My blood seemed poisoned. Peruna cured me."
—Mrs. T. W. Collins.

If you do not derive prompt and satisfactory results from the use of Peruna, write at once to Dr. Hartman, giving a full statement of your case and he will be pleased to give you his valuable advice gratis.

WHAT KEPOIKAI WILL DO.

It was rumored this morning that Treasurer Kepoikai would refuse to turn over to the County Government certain Territorial properties, even should the Supreme Court's decision favor the County Act as valid. The Treasurer stated, however, that while he had considered certain means of holding the water works to the Territory, the Supreme Court decision would settle the matter and he would drop the business there.

Mr. Kepoikai added that he did not see, however, how any local court could turn over Federal property entrusted to the Territory, to the County. He had done all he could for the public benefit and would cease fighting the proposition if the Supreme Court decided against him in the present case.

RUSSIA IN MANCHURIA.

Russia has acquired a far stronger hold on Manchuria than the world at large realizes, according to O. K. Davis in the December Everybody's. She has been far from idle during her time of un molested occupation of those Chinese provinces. Even before the Boxer outbreak she had proceeded with unwonted celerity. The guards allowed by contract to protect her great railroad had grown into an army of occupation. At every important post on the 1500 miles of railway, horse, foot, and artillery have been stationed. Permanent barracks have been built, forts erected, strategic points fortified. Great quantities of military stores have been collected. At Liao Yang, forty miles south of Mukden by railway, the great highways from Pekin and Korea converge. There the Russians have stationed a strong force and constructed fortifications. It is an admirable base for military operations either against Korea or to the south to meet a force advancing from the sea toward Mukden. Such a situation only the arbitrament of armies can clear.

LAUKEA'S BOND TOO HIGH

The returns would amount to about $900,000.

Taking up the question of the bonds of the assessor Mr. Pratt made the statement that he did not believe it was fair to require of the assessor, the same amount of bonds as the treasurer. If the bond of the latter was $300,000, then the assessor should not be made to give bond for more than $150,000. At ordinary times, this amount would cover a day's receipts.

Mr. Lucas said he believed there should be a reconsideration by the supervisors of the bond of the assessor. Mr. Gilman then quoted the following section from the County Act:
"The amount of the bonds of the treasurer and assessor and tax collector shall not be less than the greatest amount of money shown by the books of the county to have been in the hands of the officer at any one time during the preceding year."

Mr. Gilman observed that there were no books to go by and therefore this section could not be made to apply. He then quoted the following:
"In fixing the amount of the bonds of the treasurer and tax collector, the Board shall act upon the best information it can secure as to the greatest amount of money which may be in the hands of any such officer at any time during his term of office."

Continuing, Mr. Gilman said he admitted that it was within the discretion of the supervisors to set the amount of the bond. All he wished to do was to protect the people of the County of Oahu. Any catastrophe which might result from a bond too small to protect the interests of the people would lay the Board open to severe criticism. He did not believe that the treasurer would ever have much more than was handed over to him by the assessor. Mr. Robinson said that the present arrangement of the bonds of the treasurer and assessor looked unfair to him. The former might have a whole month's receipts in his hands at one time.

Mr. Lucas said he believed the supervisors could be fair and protect the county and still cut down the bond of Mr. Laukea.

The question was left at the point but will undoubtedly be reverted to on Monday.

Mr. Gilman next brought up the matter of district magistrates, saying that he had had a talk with Judge Dickey and a number of prominent lawyers on the subject. Judge Dickey had stated that one good man could take care of the work. The present salaries were absurd. He was getting twice as much as the work of his office was worth and Judge Lindsay was underpaid. The lawyers Mr. Gilman had seen all agreed that one man could do the work.

The supervisors next took up other court matters and salaries, deciding to cut out Judge Dickey but taking no formal action thereon. Adjournment was then taken until this afternoon at 2 o'clock.

THE GRIP OF HONOR

Cyrus Townsend Brady,
Author of "The Southerners," "In the War's Heat," Etc.

Copyright, 1900, by CHARLES SCRIBNER'S SONS

By and by Elizabeth slipped down from the thwart and crouched down in the boat at his feet. O'Neill held the tiller with one hand, the other lightly stroked her golden head. She was perfectly content. Everything was out of her heart but he and the present. She was very still. He could see the soft curve of her cheek resting upon her sweet white hand in the moonlight. After one of the little intervals of silence he looked down upon her again. She made no motion, and did not reply to a word he said softly, and he discovered that she was asleep. He did not wonder. The experiences of the past few days would have killed any ordinary woman. How heroic she had been! With what abandon she had put aside everything for the purpose of saving him! She had hesitated at nothing. His love for her was measured by his honor; hers for him was boundless. "Was ever so, and he had reproached her, spoken harshly to her, upbraided her, turned away from her! How could he have been so cruel! She was so young, his heart yearned over her. He vowed that if God did permit them to escape from the perils which environed them he would make up to her for every unkind word spoken, every reproach, every cutting glance, by an eternity of devotion.

The night, the ocean, the loneliness, impressed him. What had he ever come to be so blessed in the love of this noble woman? His life, as he had said, had been an idle one. In the courts he had played at hearts as he had played at war on the ships—for the fun of the game. With her a serious purpose had entered his life and was before him. The silence of the night was broken only by the soft splash of the waves as the little boat rocked gently through them. The gentle wind grew fainter and fainter. Presently the flap of the idle sail against the mast apprised him that it had gone.

The white Serapis and her consort were far, far ahead, going fast and leaving a long white wake across the sea. They seemed to have kept the breeze which had failed the small boat. Coming up from the southward he could see the black shapes of the Richard and her attendant ships. What would he have given to be upon the deck by the side of that dauntless captain! But even could he approach the two ships that privilege would be denied him, for honor demanded that he present himself upon the deck of the Serapis without delay. It might be that it would be too late even then to save Coventry, but he would go and do his best. When the boat lost way he sat a moment in indecision. He was so loath to waken the tired girl, but it was necessary. Gently he raised her head.

"Why, my dearest," she said, "was I asleep?" "What has happened? Oh!" it came back to her—"you are going back to the Serapis." Then she looked eagerly forward. The ships were far off now, several miles away, and as the breeze still held with them the distance was increasing with every passing moment.

"We do not advance!" she cried, a note of joy in her voice as her ear detected the flapping of the sail. "The wind has died out. She laughed triumphantly. "We shall never reach them."

"And poor Coventry!" said O'Neill. "I cannot help it," she answered simply. "I think only of you. Now if I could go back alone and take his place and let you go free I would cheerfully do that."

"What advantage would that be to me?" he asked her. "Well, there is little use in our discussing it any more," she answered, "for you cannot reach either ship now before it is over. The wind has gone over to them, and we are still."

"Ah, but I have another way of getting along!"

"How is that?"

"I shall row," he said quietly. "Will you take the tiller?"

He handled with the skill of long practice and strong arms. The difference of speed between the boat and the two ships was now of course greater than before.

"Why fatigue yourself unnecessarily?" she said to him at last, after he had been rowing for some time. "You gain nothing. 'Tis useless."

"No matter," was his reply as he desperately tugged at the oars. "I shall

"Why fatigue yourself unnecessarily?"

at least have the consciousness of knowing I did what I could." But after pulling hard for an hour he leaned over the handles of the oars and, turning his head, looked forward. She was right. It was a perfectly hopeless task. The nearest ships were now ten or a dozen miles away, and going farther, when a flash of light pierced the darkness on the horizon, followed some time after by the roar of a heavy gun.

CHAPTER XVIII.

THE BOYS IN COMMAND.

"The ship is clear, sir," said Lieutenant Richard Dale, saluting smartly. He was a handsome, dashing young sailor, the picture of sea gallantry as he ran lightly up the ladder from the main deck and stopped before the little captain of the Bon Homme Richard, standing on the weather side of the poop surveying the scene.

"Very good, sir," said the little man, nodding his head, but not turning toward his executive officer. "Look yonder," he added, pointing ahead and toward the shore. "What do you make that, sir?"

"It cannot be the Alliance!" exclaimed Dale in great surprise, as he shaded his eyes and gazed intently in the direction of the setting sun at a large war ship which was edging in shore toward the harbor of Scarborough, which apparently sheltered a numerous convoy of merchant ships.

"This indeed she!" replied Jones sternly. "I have repeatedly signaled to Captain Landais to follow in our wake to form line ahead. If we get out of this thing safely!" He stopped, repressed his feeling by a strong effort, compressing his lips passionately in a way which promised trouble for Captain Landais and the Alliance, a new and handsome frigate, the best of Jones' squadron. After a momentary pause the commodore a man of few words in time of action at least, turned toward the stern of his ship.

"Look aft there, too," he added. "That will be the Palms, of course," said Dale as his eye fell upon a smaller ship which was following the Bon Homme Richard. "And the Vengeance, sir?"

"There! Hull down on the horizon, looking like a coward," said Jones bitterly.

"And those two white fellows forward there," continued Dale, "reaching out from the harbor!"

"Are the Serapis and the Scarborough?" interrupted the captain. "If the information sent us by O'Neill be correct."

"Would he were here!" exclaimed Dale.

auctioneer, hereby chosen and designated for that purpose, at the auction sales rooms of said James F. Morgan, Nos. 817-837 Kaahumanu street, in the city of Honolulu, Island of Oahu, Territory of Hawaii, on Saturday, January 9th, 1904, at the hour of 12 o'clock M. of that day, to the highest bidder, beyond or for the sum of twenty thousand dollars, the entire property, assets, and goodwill of the said Puuloa Sheep and Stock Ranch Company.

DESCRIPTION OF PROPERTY.
List of Freehold and Leasehold Lands and Improvements, Sheep and other Live Stock and Property owned by the Puuloa Sheep and Stock Ranch Company, viz:

FREEHOLD LANDS.
LAND OF OULI, Ahupuaa, containing 4,000 acres, more or less, and extending from the sea, near Kawaihae, to the top of the Kohala range of mountains, with a stream of water running through same, said stream having its origin in those mountains.

LAND AT LIHUE, in Waimea, the former homestead of James Luzada and Frank Spencer, and formerly the headquarters of the Lihue Cattle Ranch and Beef Packing Establishment, adjoining the land of Ouli and containing 30 acres. This also has a stream of water running through it, and is a beautiful block of land.

LAND OF AHULI, in Waimea, the former homestead of Edward Sparke, and formerly the headquarters of the Sparke Sheep Ranch. This is probably the finest residence site in the District of Waimea, and is a magnificent block of land having an area of 22 acres, through which there is also a running stream of pure water.

There are valuable stone fences and pens on the above properties.
The two last mentioned blocks of land are very advantageously situated, and are almost in conjunction with the fine residence property of the late Hon. John P. Parker, the headquarters of the Parker Cattle Ranch.

These lands are covered with fine Maunaloa Grass, ornamental trees, &c., and the climate of this locality has no rival anywhere else in the islands, being at an elevation of 1500 feet and at the base of snow-capped Mauna Kea, where the average temperature is from 50° to 60°.

LEASED LANDS.
LEASE OF THE LAND OF HOLOKAWA, near Waimea, from the Hawaiian Government, containing 1035 acres, and expiring January 10th, 1909. Rent, $62.25 per annum. There are two streams of water from Mauna Kea flowing through this land.

RACE WINNERS

The Japanese Bicycle Club held its initial tournament at Kapiolani park yesterday afternoon in the presence of a crowd that numbered some two thousand, the majority being Japanese. There were fifteen events in all, Nakashima being awarded the championship prize, a fine bicycle. Winners of individual races were given, clocks, lamps and other useful articles. These were delivered to the winners immediately upon their names being announced. Entries for the championship race were limited to the winners in other events. Two consolation prizes were given in this race, a pair of trousers to second man and $3.50 to third.

Miki was starter and the judges were Yamashita and Kurokawa. There will be another meet on February 11, the anniversary of the Japanese Empire.

Following is a list of the events and winners of yesterday:
1. One mile—Matsumoto 1, Saki 2.
2. One mile—Abe 1, Ogata 2.
3. One mile—Geo. Ueyama 1, Hanaka 2.
4. Boys' one mile—Tanaka 1, Hida 2.

5. Slow race, eighth mile—Nakayama 1, Itohima 2.
6. One mile—Kawasaki 1, Horiuchi 2.
7. One mile—Nakashima 1, Kawadomari 2.

8. One mile—Zamihiro 1, Nakayama 2.
9. Track riding—The Japanese who was to perform being absent through illness, Edwards, a native boy, took his place.

10. Slow race, eighth mile—Moriji 1, no second.
11. Gentlemen's mile race—Kishi 1, Ishikawa 2.

12. Same as 11—Ozawa 1, Miki 2, close finish.
13. One mile with running start on foot 30 yards—R. Miki 1, Zenhiro 2. Miki is a boy of 15 years. The finish was close.

WHO KNOWS
When His Kidney Trouble Has Festered and Reached the Chronic Stage? If It Has It Is Incurable by Anything Known Except the Fulton Compounds. We Are The Sole Agents.

As an evidence of the unusual character of the Fulton Compounds that company does not publish or invite testimonials except those reporting recoveries in kidney disease that have reached the chronic stage, alleged to be incurable. Here is another recovery in a case incurable till the advent of the Fulton Compounds, reported by John A. Johnson, the agent of the Fulton Compounds in Los Angeles:

W. H. Fridley, a resident of Los Angeles, having chronic kidney disease (Bright's Disease) had, like everybody else, found all treatments futile. He commenced on Fulton's Renal Compound in February, 1903, and on December 10 of the same year reported the total disappearance of the disease. He writes that he has gained fifteen pounds in weight and is again able to do a good hard day's work. John A. Johnson, the Los Angeles druggist, confirms this recovery and knows of several other recoveries in similar cases of chronic kidney disease in Los Angeles, all of which were incurable by anything else known to druggists.

R. A. Palmer, the leading druggist of Santa Cruz, H. B. Maynard, the Peruvian druggist, the Perry Drug Company of No. 3 Market street, San Francisco, W. R. Bond, the Berkeley druggist, Dr. Markley, the Cleveland druggist, Willis & Martin, the Sacramento druggist, and scores of other California druggists all report specific recoveries in chronic kidney diseases that were positively incurable by anything known except the Fulton Compounds.

Droopy, rheumatism from uric acid, gout and bladder troubles are proofs that the kidneys are not performing their functions. The chronic stage of kidney trouble is Bright's Disease. If you feel languid or miserable, if your kidney trouble hangs on and for Pains, Pains, Pains, percentage of recoveries nearly 90 per cent among purely chronic cases. Fulton's Renal Compound for Bright's and Kidney Disease. $1.00 per bottle. John A. Johnson, Co., 20 West Division street, San Francisco, sole compounders. Free analyses for patients. We are the sole agents for the Fulton Compounds in this city.

OLD SAM, BOATBOY, GOES TO SLEEP TO WAKEN NO MORE

"Old Sam," the boatboy who for years has been a familiar waterfront character, is no more. He was found dead by the watchman on Brewer's wharf early this morning. The boatboys had a big inau on the boat landing yesterday afternoon. Sam was one of the moving spirits. He was fond of the cup that cheers and imbibed quite heavily. At 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon he went to sleep on some hay bales on Brewer's wharf. He lay there through the night. The watchman noticed him but as it was Sam's habit to sleep in this manner, he paid no particular attention to him.

At about 3 a. m. the watchman was struck by the fact that Sam had not changed his position. He was lying face downward in the bay. The watchman shook him and found that he was dead. The police were notified and the body removed.

"Old Sam," as he was commonly known along the waterfront, was one of the oldest of the boatboys. He started in the business in 1887. He lived, ate, drank and slept on the landing, having no other home. He was a bon vivant in his way, investing what he made in good living. He had, however, made provision for funeral expenses. He left no family or relatives.

In his younger days Sam was a sailor and had travelled quite extensively. He was with Captain Tripp, assistant harbor master, whaling one season in the Arctic.

Sam was well liked. He always had a cheery word and a happy smile for all of his friends of whom he had many. He will be missed from the boat landing by the kamauinas who have known him as a fixture there for years.

TALKED OF SUICIDE.
A very gruesome tale has just come to light in connection with the suicide of W. S. Hancock at the Hawaiian hotel yesterday forenoon. It appears that on New Year's while the young man was shooting off his revolver on the hotel grounds, he was asked by some of the guests of the hotel to go over to their room for a while. As he started to go away he called one of them aside and began talking about suicide, showing that he was contemplating the matter at the time. He spoke generally and did not seem to have any reference whatever to himself. He was told of the cowardliness of such action and seemed to agree with the sentiments expressed. He then returned to his room and that was the last of him.

T. J. LYNCH DEAD.
Hilo, Jan. 1.—Thos. J. Lynch, an aged kamaaina, died last Tuesday night. He was in his 83rd year and had been in the islands since the early 50s. He came as captain of a whaler and on land was a wheelwright by trade. He was married on Molokai before coming to Hilo in 1862. He worked in his time on many of the different plantations on this island. He was in Puna with Mr. Ryerott and at one time had a business in Hilo. Deceased was a native of the State of Virginia.

KILAUEA'S ACTIVITY.
Hilo, Jan. 1.—Manager Bldgood reports that the volcano at Kilauea is keeping up a pretty steady gait of activity. Most of the visitors are given a splendid view of what tumbling fire looks like at the bottom of the great pit. During Christmas week many parties have gone down. Wednesday morning two gentlemen started for the top of Mauna Loa in the belief that there are still good sights at the top.

ROUND TABLE STUDY.
At 4:30 Sunday afternoon the Y. M. C. A. holds its song services and study in the hall, which is well decorated. Rev. Frank L. Nash, recently from the First Foreign Church of Hilo will lead. All men are invited to hear him. Supper is served at 5:30 to all present.

The steamer Kinau arrived from Hilo and way ports this forenoon at 11:15 o'clock. She brought the following cargo: 27 sbs. coffee, 16 sbs. corn, and 111 pkgs. indse. Admiral Beckley reports fine weather throughout the trip.

TENNIS IN HILO.

Hilo, Jan. 1.—The lovers of tennis in Hilo were given some good sport in this line Christmas day and last Saturday. Eugene and Arthur Horner of Puna came to town, and in doubles with Prouty and Mellor showed themselves familiar with the tricks of the trade. In the doubles Friday the Horner boys won after a very spirited game. The score was 6-4, 6-3, 6-1.

The singles were played Saturday afternoon. Prouty regained the banner for Hilo by defeating Eugene Horner in a score of 6-3, 6-4, 7-5. Arthur Horner maintained the prestige of Hamana by winning against E. Mellor with a score of 6-3, 6-1.

LAURIER OPPOSES DOWNING STREET

Sir Wilfred Lawson is quoted as having determined, in case the Imperial authorities persist in the refusal which they gave some time ago for the publication of the correspondence between the Canadian and British Governments relative to the conduct of the Dominion to the recent Alaskan arbitration, "to leave it to the electorate of Canada whether they shall govern themselves in future or be ruled from Downing street."

Secretary Hitchcock's Review Of Hawaii's Affairs From Report Of Governor Dole

(Special to The Bulletin.)
Washington, D. C., Dec. 10.—The report of the Secretary of Interior was made to Congress today. It contains the following references to Hawaii:

A review of the extended and interesting annual report of the governor of the Territory of Hawaii, Hon. Sanford B. Dole, presents some valuable information as to the progress, development, and present status of the Territory, with recommendations as to further measures of administrative policy. Social conditions, finances, fire-claims commission, coinage, commerce, immigration, public lands, agriculture, forestry, labor, elections, education, public health, corporations, appropriations, legislative judicial, and executive departments are all extensively discussed in the report.

The school children of the Hawaiian, Portuguese, Japanese, and Chinese races number 16,229, being an increase of 945 over the previous year. The school children of European descent other than Portuguese, and of American descent other than Porto Rican, number 1,505, an increase of 18 over the previous year.

Intermarriages are frequent between Hawaiian women and white men, and the offspring of such marriages are an improvement in thrift and enterprise over the pure Hawaiian.

The census of 1900 showed that there were among the population 56,234 Japanese, 29,799 Hawaiians, and 27,741 Chinese. From these three classes there were during the year 1902 an aggregate of 7,480 arrests, principally for gambling and drunkenness.

Presenting financial conditions, the report shows that on July 1, 1902, there was on hand a balance from appropriations of $5,068,509.24, of which $3,675,312.45 had been drawn by June 30, 1903, leaving an unexpended balance of $1,393,196.79, and that of the sum of $804,242.80 appropriated by the legislature of 1903 and available before July 1, 1903, there remained an unexpended balance at the latter date of $409,356.27. The receipts for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1903, from taxes amounted to $1,651,023.13, and from other sources $987,238.35, which revenues, added to the sum of cash on hand in July 1, 1902, make a total of $2,935,393.88, against which the disbursements made by the Treasury Department amounted to $2,962,212.25, leaving a balance in hand of $73,181.63.

Of the taxes collected $500,456.31 was from real estate, $392,325.37 from personal property, $205,096.77 from income tax, and the remainder from various franchises.

The total appropriation for "fire claims commission awards" was $1,500,000, of which amount $1,000,000 was assumed by the United States Government. The commission paid awards amounting to $1,473,173, leaving an unexpended balance of $26,827.

The United States Government has assumed $1,000,000 of the bonded debt of the Territory, and had paid on this account up to June 30, 1902, $3,011,870.31.

Hawaii has still outstanding bonds amounting to $1,917,100.

The legislature made appropriations in the nature of subsidies to the amount of $80,493.33 and of pensions to the amount of $8,300.

The "Chinese fund" accumulated under laws existing in Hawaii prior to the creation of the islands into a Territory, for the deportation of Chinese laborers, when they should cease to work as such, was the result of a deduction from their wages for this purpose. It amounted to $155,546.70.

Under an act of the Territorial legislature approved April 28, 1903, this fund is being distributed to those entitled to it, and up to July 22, 1903, 2,300 claims amounting to $89,886.30 had been settled.

Of an issue of $773,000 of Hawaiian coins the United States had redeemed up to August 18, 1903, $763,000. Strangely enough the entire issue of $25,000 of dimes was gathered up by collectors and souvenir hunters and none of them were redeemed.

Commercial statistics show a gratifying condition as indicated by an increase in the value of shipments of many of the products of the Territory, and especially of sugar, coffee, fresh fruits, honey, hides, and raw wool.

The increase in the value of sugar alone, which is the largest item, amounted to $1,390,571, and the value of the sugar amounted to $25,310,684. Coffee exports, after having fallen off in the previous year, show an increase of shipments amounting to 720,456 pounds. Rice is a diminishing product, by reason of competition of other fields in Texas and Louisiana, and as a result of the diminishing number of Chinese in the Territory. The imports from the United States were of the value of $12,075,026, and from foreign countries $3,142,013. The exports to the United States were valued at $26,242,869, and to foreign countries at $32,569.

The vessels engaged in this commerce are represented by a record of 551 entries, with an aggregate tonnage of 980,847 tons, of which 426 were American vessels, with a tonnage of 673,418 tons, and 552 clearances, with an aggregate tonnage of 971,359 tons, of which 430 were American vessels.

The ocean cable recently completed connecting the Hawaiian Islands with the United States is represented by the report of the governor to be of great importance to the Territory.

The total number of civil cases in the courts during 1901-2 was 5,056. The arrests in criminal cases were 21,752, and there were 15,999 convictions, of which 11 were for murder, 5 for homicide, 3775 for drunkenness, and 5,097 for gambling.

The military organization of the Territory is represented by the First Regiment of National Guard of Hawaii, consisting of seven companies (A, B, C, E, F, G and H) comprising 23 officers and 581 enlisted men, and commanded by Col. J. W. Jones. The regiment is supplied with field pieces, small arms, and other ordnance and military equipments to the value of $32,427.82.

All of the public schools of the Territory are free and open to all classes of the population. The American, the Asiatic, the Malay, and the European, sit side by side and associate in the playground in perfect harmony. The total enrollment of pupils in all of the schools is 18,415, of which 13,793 are in the public schools and 4,622 in the private schools. There are nearly 3,000 more pupils in the schools than there were in 1900.

There are 203 schools, of which 141 are public schools and 59 private schools, employing in all 433 teachers, of whom 450 are female and 183 male. A few more than one-half of the teachers are Americans. The Hawaiian, part Hawaiian and Portuguese children represent two-thirds of the pupils. The American children number only 799. A strenuous effort has been made for the establishment of two industrial schools of a reformatory character, one for girls and another for boys. The Waihee Industrial School has been established upon an estate of 700 acres, located about 5 miles from Kahuku, and 68 boys from the old reformatory school at Honolulu, which had failed to be a success, have been installed therein, and instructions are being given in agricultural and mechanical work and in other studies.

The buildings and fittings of the girls' industrial school have also been provided, and were, at the date of the report, ready for occupancy.

The disbursements for the year for the maintenance of the public schools, including salaries, current expenses, and new buildings, amounted to $390,514.18.

great importance to the Territory officially, commercially, and socially.

The department of public works has supervision of the construction and maintenance of roads and bridges and other public works. Roads and bridges are maintained by appropriations and by a special road tax, and the expenditures for roads and bridges in the islands of Hawaii, Oahu, Kauai and Niihau, Maui, Molokai and Lanai amounted to $569,260.10. The expenditures of the department amounted to $925,526.48.

The work of the public survey has been limited through inadequate appropriations, though some field and office work has been done at a cost of $30,748.23.

The Commissioner of Public Lands submits a detailed report of the work of his Office. Under the land act of 1895 there were taken up through right of purchase leases, cash freeholds, special agreements, and homestead leases 209 holdings, with an acreage of 29,912.41 acres and a value of $18,231.82. Of these holdings over two-thirds were taken up by white settlers. Land revenues from rents, interest, and land sales amounted to $123,069.38, being an increase of $9,116.95 over the previous year.

The most promising crop for the Hawaiian farmer are leaf fiber, castor beans, vanilla beans, starch (Hawaiian and Kasawa), and pineapples, and by an act of the legislature all property actually in use for the production of these crops are exempt from taxation for the next five years. A great variety of vegetables of all kinds are raised for home consumption. Tobacco, vanilla beans, and rubber are as yet experimental. Hawaiian, Java, and Guatemala coffee are raised upon the islands, and the public lands still available for settlement are suitable for coffee cultivation. Cost of production and freight and foreign competition have somewhat discouraged the enterprise of coffee raising.

There are eight large pineapple plantations in the Territory, and there are two canneries for preserving the fruit which grows in abundance, but up to the present is not being exported profitably to other markets as fresh fruit. The value of the exported pineapples has regularly increased annually from $348 in 1897 to $18,000 in 1902. Sisal is produced in quantities. The Hawaiian Fiber Company (Limited) has for several years been engaged in the production and sale of the raw material, and a statement of the cost of production per ton covering a period of more than four years, taken together with the high freight rates to New York, show the disadvantage under which this valuable product meets competition in the market. The existing company is, however, extending its operations, and a new company is being formed to cultivate large areas in sisal.

Efforts are being made to introduce many additional varieties of forest trees into the Territory, and the forests are being carefully inspected by Mr. William S. Hall, of the Bureau of Forestry.

The work of reforesting Nuuanu Valley, near Honolulu, was begun five or six years ago and has been only partially successful.

The manufactured fertilizer produced in the Territory has an annual value of $1,500,000, and is consumed in local agricultural enterprises.

In the field of mechanical and other classes of labor the competition of the Japanese and Chinese is formidable to the Anglo-Saxon, and there appears to be a growing sentiment that since the Territory has been placed under American supervision these industries should be beneficial to American citizens, and suggestion is made that Federal authority, legislative or executive, should stipulate that only citizens of those eligible to citizenship shall be employed on Federal work in the Territory.

Much important and progressive legislation was passed during the regular session of the legislature, which convened on February 18, 1903, but it adjourned without passing the necessary appropriation bills, and was convened in extra session on April 30, 1903, and sat for sixty days, passing appropriation bills to the amount of $5,004,544.51, to be paid out of the current revenues.

Governor Dole criticizes the expenses of the legislature as excessive and a waste of public funds beyond the necessities of the case, and points out several items of serious conflict between the organic law of the Territory and the provisions of a voluminous statute known as "the county act," providing for the "organization and government of the counties and districts and the management and control of public works and public institutions therein." The questions involved cover the management of public institutions and the control of public property, and will require Congressional sanction or local Territorial legislative amendment.

The total number of civil cases in the courts during 1901-2 was 5,056. The arrests in criminal cases were 21,752, and there were 15,999 convictions, of which 11 were for murder, 5 for homicide, 3775 for drunkenness, and 5,097 for gambling.

The military organization of the Territory is represented by the First Regiment of National Guard of Hawaii, consisting of seven companies (A, B, C, E, F, G and H) comprising 23 officers and 581 enlisted men, and commanded by Col. J. W. Jones. The regiment is supplied with field pieces, small arms, and other ordnance and military equipments to the value of $32,427.82.

All of the public schools of the Territory are free and open to all classes of the population. The American, the Asiatic, the Malay, and the European, sit side by side and associate in the playground in perfect harmony. The total enrollment of pupils in all of the schools is 18,415, of which 13,793 are in the public schools and 4,622 in the private schools. There are nearly 3,000 more pupils in the schools than there were in 1900.

There are 203 schools, of which 141 are public schools and 59 private schools, employing in all 433 teachers, of whom 450 are female and 183 male. The disbursements for the year for the maintenance of the public schools, including salaries, current expenses, and new buildings, amounted to $390,514.18.

The classification of school children includes Hawaiian, part Hawaiian, American, British, German, Portuguese, Scandinavian, Japanese Chinese, Porto Rican and other foreigners. Attendance at some school is compulsory between the ages of 6 and 15 years, and there are 16,218 pupils in the schools between these ages.

The superintendent of education reports that with only a few exceptions, chiefly among the Asiatics, the pupils are by right of birth American citizens, and he estimates that these amount to 18,000.

Laws against the adulteration of foods, medicines, and drinks in the Territory are made effective by a system of inspection.

There were 166 patients in the insane asylum at Honolulu on June 30, 1903, and there had been 35 discharges and 15 deaths during this year.

At the latter settlement at Kalawao the government conducts a considerable farm, upon which rice, milk and pork are produced for the inmates, of whom there are 888. Of this number 797 are Hawaiians and 8 are Americans. Out of 129 persons inspected during the year on suspicion, 124 were found to be lepers, of whom 81 were males and 43 females.

The vital statistics show 396 marriages, 2,286 births, and 2,581 deaths. The annual death rate per 1,000 of population was 16.76.

Fishery laws prohibit the use of explosives in taking fish may not be taken. The principal fishermen are Japanese and Chinese.

On June 30, 1902, there were in force 409 domestic and 24 foreign corporations, to which were added during the year 33 domestic and 3 foreign corporations.

There are four steam railways in the Territory for passengers and freight, and one electric passenger railway, known as the Honolulu Rapid Transit and Land Company. The latter company reports that during the year it carried 4,779,933 passengers, had a gross income of $235,912.13 and a net income of $74,757.78. The road has a total mileage of 15.88 miles. Two other lines of railway have been surveyed, but the construction has not been begun. Statistics are only given as to two of the steam roads which are in operation. The Kahului Railroad Company has a mileage of only 12 miles, 4 locomotives, 5 passenger cars, and 90 freight cars. The Hawaii Railway Company has a mileage of 22 miles, 4 locomotives, 4 passenger cars, and 70 freight cars. It carried during the year 1,200 passengers at an average fare of 50 cents and 15,000 tons of freight at the rate of 10 cents per ton per mile. It paid 6 per cent dividend on its capital stock of $50,000.

The legislature of 1903 passed "An act to license the brewing and sale of malt liquors," for a term of fifteen years, upon an annual payment of $250 annual license. Under this statute only one license has been issued, and that to the Honolulu Brewing and Malting Company (Limited). Three other important franchises were granted by special acts. One of these was for the manufacture and supply of fuel and illuminating gas and its by-products, in Honolulu, another for the construction of a railroad on the island of Kauai, from Kekaha to Hanalei, and a third for the right to the Hawaiian Electric Company (Limited) for the period of thirty-five years, to manufacture and sell electric light and power in the island of Oahu.

The governor recommends that Coconut Island, in Hilo Bay, be reserved as a free public pleasure ground, as the Federal authorities do not desire it for a quarantine station, for which it had been reserved.

That section 80 of the organic act be so amended that the governor may suspend any officer, in regard to the removal of whom the advice and consent of the Senate is necessary, until the next succeeding session of the Senate and may, except in the case of the auditor, appoint some one to fill the office in question pro tempore until the question of the removal of the suspended officer is settled, such officer not to be entitled to pay for the period of the suspension in case of his ultimate removal by the governor and Senate; or, in the alternative, that the governor may remove any of such officers without the advice and consent of the Senate.

The warrants of the auditor be required for payments of legislative expenses, with authority in the auditor to refuse such warrants unless satisfied that charges for service or material correspond to prevailing prices for such work or material; that the Federal Government assist the Territory in the scientific study of leprosy and investigation of measures and remedies for its cure and amelioration; that section 55 of the Organic Act be so amended that bonds and other instruments of indebtedness authorized by the Territory may be made redeemable in ten years instead of five, as now limited, and may be made payable in twenty, twenty-five, or thirty years instead of fifteen, as now required. That the payments of taxes for calendar years previous to a general election, and before the end of such year, be made a pre-requisite for registration for voting at such general election, except taxes upon assessments that have been appealed from and are in litigation at the time of registration of voters.

That section 54 of the organic act be so amended that the governor shall not be required to call an extra session of the legislature for consideration of appropriations for necessary current expenses of carrying on the government and meeting its legal obligations in case of the failure of the legislature to make such appropriations in the regular session, and that in case of such failure the last appropriation bills for such purposes shall be deemed to have been reappropriated. That a tariff duty on foreign coffee of 2 or 3 cents a pound be established. That a limited immigration of Chinese laborers to the Territory be permitted upon their engaging only in agricultural, mill and domestic work during their stay, and subject to deportation at their own expense upon their ceasing to do so.

That there be recognition by treaty of authority in Chinese consuls accredited to the Territory to administer the estate of Chinese citizens dying intestate in the Territory. That an expert forester be maintained in the Territory for a sufficient time for him, acting with the Territorial board or commissioner of agriculture and forestry, to organize a system for the conservation, development and management of Hawaiian forests.

That the Federal Government assume the management of Hawaiian light-houses and the improvement and care of Hawaiian harbors, or, in the alternative, that the transfer be made to the Territory of a sufficient portion of the customs revenue received at the ports of entry in the Hawaiian Islands so as to permit the Territorial authorities to make these improvements.

That the expenses incurred by the Territory in the improvement of light-houses and the improvement and care of harbors from and after June 14, 1900, be refunded by the Federal Government. That buildings for the offices of Federal officials be erected in Honolulu and Hilo. That a breakwater be constructed for the protection of Hilo Harbor, Hawaii.

The governor estimates for appropriations as follows:

HARBOR IMPROVEMENTS.
Widening the channel and dredging the harbor and channel of Honolulu..... $ 250,000
Maintenance of buoys..... 5,000
Constructing of breakwater, Hilo Harbor..... 1,000,000
Dredging of projecting coral and sand spits, Pearl Harbor..... 100,000
Total..... $ 1,355,000

NEW BUILDINGS.
Federal buildings, Honolulu, 1,000,000
Federal buildings, Hilo..... 100,000

LIGHT-HOUSES.
The governor also submits a list of sites suggested for light-houses in Hawaiian Islands with probable cost of construction, amounting to $74,400, and submits that these suggestions for lights have been made after a personal inspection of each locality and consultation with masters of vessels directly concerned. He recommends that such light-houses and dwellings of keepers as may be decided on be transferred to the United States, under the provisions of section 91 of the organic act. special acts. One of these was for the manufacture and supply of fuel and illuminating gas and its by-products, in Honolulu, another for the construction of a railroad on the island of Kauai, from Kekaha to Hanalei, and a third for the right to the Hawaiian Electric Company (Limited) for the period of thirty-five years, to manufacture and sell electric light and power in the island of Oahu.

The governor recommends that Coconut Island, in Hilo Bay, be reserved as a free public pleasure ground, as the Federal authorities do not desire it for a quarantine station, for which it had been reserved.

That section 80 of the organic act be so amended that the governor may suspend any officer, in regard to the removal of whom the advice and consent of the Senate is necessary, until the next succeeding session of the Senate and may, except in the case of the auditor, appoint some one to fill the office in question pro tempore until the question of the removal of the suspended officer is settled, such officer not to be entitled to pay for the period of the suspension in case of his ultimate removal by the governor and Senate; or, in the alternative, that the governor may remove any of such officers without the advice and consent of the Senate.

The warrants of the auditor be required for payments of legislative expenses, with authority in the auditor to refuse such warrants unless satisfied that charges for service or material correspond to prevailing prices for such work or material; that the Federal Government assist the Territory in the scientific study of leprosy and investigation of measures and remedies for its cure and amelioration; that section 55 of the Organic Act be so amended that bonds and other instruments of indebtedness authorized by the Territory may be made redeemable in ten years instead of five, as now limited, and may be made payable in twenty, twenty-five, or thirty years instead of fifteen, as now required. That the payments of taxes for calendar years previous to a general election, and before the end of such year, be made a pre-requisite for registration for voting at such general election, except taxes upon assessments that have been appealed from and are in litigation at the time of registration of voters.

That section 54 of the organic act be so amended that the governor shall not be required to call an extra session of the legislature for consideration of appropriations for necessary current expenses of carrying on the government and meeting its legal obligations in case of the failure of the legislature to make such appropriations in the regular session, and that in case of such failure the last appropriation bills for such purposes shall be deemed to have been reappropriated. That a tariff duty on foreign coffee of 2 or 3 cents a pound be established. That a limited immigration of Chinese laborers to the Territory be permitted upon their engaging only in agricultural, mill and domestic work during their stay, and subject to deportation at their own expense upon their ceasing to do so.

That there be recognition by treaty of authority in Chinese consuls accredited to the Territory to administer the estate of Chinese citizens dying intestate in the Territory. That an expert forester be maintained in the Territory for a sufficient time for him, acting with the Territorial board or commissioner of agriculture and forestry, to organize a system for the conservation, development and management of Hawaiian forests.

That the Federal Government assume the management of Hawaiian light-houses and the improvement and care of Hawaiian harbors, or, in the alternative, that the transfer be made to the Territory of a sufficient portion of the customs revenue received at the ports of entry in the Hawaiian Islands so as to permit the Territorial authorities to make these improvements.

That the expenses incurred by the Territory in the improvement of light-houses and the improvement and care of harbors from and after June 14, 1900, be refunded by the Federal Government. That buildings for the offices of Federal officials be erected in Honolulu and Hilo. That a breakwater be constructed for the protection of Hilo Harbor, Hawaii.

The governor estimates for appropriations as follows:

HARBOR IMPROVEMENTS.
Widening the channel and dredging the harbor and channel of Honolulu..... $ 250,000
Maintenance of buoys..... 5,000
Constructing of breakwater, Hilo Harbor..... 1,000,000

CARDUI BABIES

Many homes are more lonely abodes because no children are there. Barrenness exists in almost every case because female diseases have paralyzed the organs of womanhood. Wine of Cardui imparts health and strength to the diseased parts and makes motherhood possible in thousands of cases where barrenness is supposed to be incurable. Wine of Cardui regulates the menstrual flow and also prevents miscarriage and cures bearing down pains. Wine of Cardui removes the cause of barrenness by making the female organism strong and healthy.

Go to your druggist and secure a $1.00 bottle of Wine of Cardui. The use of Wine of Cardui will bring happiness to your home.

BRYANT, VA., Feb. 18, 1902.
My daughter-in-law, Lizzie Giles, found great benefit in Wine of Cardui. She had a miscarriage in March 1901, before using your medicine. She was in very bad health, so I persuaded her to try Wine of Cardui. Since then she has had a fine baby boy. Soon he will be three weeks old. She highly recommends Wine of Cardui.
My daughter, Fannie Hindon, also has a fine baby boy by your treatment. She highly appreciates Wine of Cardui.

E. B. Browning.

"Prompt Aid to the Injured." By Al-tan H. Doty, M.D. Fourth Edition revised. Clo. 5 x 7 in. 302 p.p. Ills. D. Appleton & Co., New York, $1.50.

"The object of this manual is to instruct those who are desirous of knowing what course to pursue in emergencies," which it does in a masterful way whether "those" medical or lay men.

There are few persons who are not in this sense of unforeseen injuries, their "brother's keeper," and the deaths which occur daily because the person at hand did not know what to do, or how to do it, are truly lamentable.

To tie up an artery, or at least stop its bleeding; to bandage a sprain, ease a fracture, render a cut aseptic, administer an antidote, use disinfectants intelligently, treat a burn, resuscitate a drowning person, or even help the delivery of a child in cases of peculiar emergency, should not be strange or so nearly impossible an operation as it is to the majority of people.

Such books as this by Dr. Doty take the place of letters on medical subjects which are being delivered in some of our large cities. Indeed, more and more attention is being paid to preventive medicine, and we may some day think it is as necessary for our children to know how to save life as it is for them to be able to play the piano or tie a four-in-hand.

Success is all that the name implies, at least in material prosperity. A large and increasing circulation with paying advertisements. Dr. Marden, the editor and proprietor, has had enough experience, or "experiences" enough, to be a success at last.

When the B. B. was in Roxbury he ran up against an old friend of Marden's who told him the story. Dr. Marden graduated first from a Theological Seminary and went to preaching, but considering himself unfitted for that work, he studied law. After practicing a few years he concluded he had missed his calling, so he entered a medical school and graduated. Medicine did not suit at all. With professions in triplicate, he started a store, then ran a boarding house, afterwards a newspaper, but failed in each. Then he wrote three books, and, soon after, launched Success. The rest of the story is generally known. "If you don't at first succeed, try, try again."

All communications, books and periodicals for this department should be sent to the "Bulletin Bookman," P. O. Box No. 4, Koloa, Kauai, H. T.

A BATCH OF NOTES.

At college after notes had fallen down upon the Arena like snowflakes over the fields in winter, the Professor would slowly pick them up, read them aloud one by one, and then tear them in a thousand pieces.

Today the Bulletin Bookman tears up thirty-two notes which have fallen upon his desk from various places in Hawaii, but before doing so he will cull from some of them a few extracts to be used after the vain fashion of newspapers and magazines, as a sort of Columnar Gratulation.

Unlike the notes to the Professor, these are all kindly, and the B. B. takes this occasion to thank his interested correspondents to whom he cannot well send personal answers. Editors do not get much praise in this life, and they may be excused for making the most of it.

"Read 'Books, Bookish People and Things' with great interest. L. Hilo, H. T."

"Saw two or three reviews in Saturday's Bulletin; wish you'd have them in the weekly. E. Honolulu, Kona."

"We thought we'd write to the editor—then decided to send to the Bulletin Bookman and say that we read every line in his department. What is more, we have sent for every book favorably reviewed by you. W. Wailuku."

"Never miss a paper. Molokai."

Three notes from Lihue:

"Thank you for the review on 'Peonies of Taste. C.'"

"The first thing I read. W."

"I like the Bulletin's enterprise. S."

"Keep it up. B. Waikeae, Kauai."

"I thought I recognized your grip. Tear 'em to pieces—don't let a single underserving book escape. J. Pain, Maui."

Ten notes from Honolulu:

"Glad you don't give all your attention to the latest novels but seem to prefer profitable reading. B."

"I have ordered all the books containing helpful hints to parents which you have reviewed. B."

"I've written for 'Canadian Men and Women of the Time. C.'"

"Thank you for your many note on 'The Unspeakable Scot.' Them's my sentiments. A Scotsman."

"I got 'The Simple Life' and have read it twice. T."

"I wish you would take up 'The Intellectual Life, chapter by chapter. It has been my vade mecum. S. B."

"This real book will be reviewed later. It is indeed helpful, and of it Hamilton's own words can be said: 'Now the only Croesus that I envy is he who has a better book than this.'"

"Where can I get a copy of E. W. Emerson's 'An April Day' reviewed in Bulletin of Jan 13?"

(This poem is not procurable as it is an author's edition and is kept for presentation to friends. Later it may be issued in another form.)

"Are the agricultural books you mention issued free by the Agricultural Department? M."

Yes

"I've been discontented ever since I read your notice of John Muir's book. As soon as we get enough ahead we're going to the Sierras. R."

"It is a satisfaction to have books read for one. I wish you'd take up medical books. An M.D."

"We borrow our reviews which do not come in the weekly. P. Koolia, Kauai."

"I've always read the S. F. Bulletin's reviews, but we've exchanged for these D. F. Makawao."

"Is the 'Land of Sunshine' still published? W. Hilo."

It has been merged into "Out West" and is published in Los Angeles.

"I am pleased to see the notice of Mr. Henshaw of this place. People in Hawaii may do justice to books but they seldom do to individuals. M. Hilo."

"I notice you are going away. Don't give up 'Books, Bookish People and Things.' R. S. Kona."

"The people in out of the way places here are fonder of such reviews than they are given credit for. M. Waikeae, Kauai."

"That one on 'The Unspeakable Scot' settled me. Reader, Makawao."

The B. B. didn't know he was pleasing anybody; he simply told his opinion. The same with the "Eggregious English." When "The Irrepressible Irish," "The Abominable American," "The Gastronomic German," "The Facile French," and "The Naughty-cold Norwegian" come out, he will try to do even better by them.

"May your shelf book never grow less. Reader, Kilauea."

"If I'd read your review on 'New Technology' I'd have saved $1.50. G. Wailuku."

The other letters contained thanks. The B. B. may say that he has more books for review than he can read in the next month. At the end of the year when he makes resolves he will make a fire and burn the books he does not want handed down to posterity. In the mean time, he will continue his department, and assure his readers that he is always glad to have their notes.

After December, 1903, the Bulletin Bookman's address will be Honolulu.

IS IT RADIUM

THAT WILLIAMS

IS EXHIBITING

Is it radium or what?

J. J. Williams is exhibiting a specimen ore, presented to him by Mr. Fitch of Santa Cruz now visiting the city, that has stirred up the mining experts of California who are wondering whether they have discovered a pocket of the product that is worth $2,000,000 per pound. If this is radium Williams has been giving his friends chunks that are worth thousands of dollars—if.

The metal or ore whatever it may be is curious to say the least. It is dark gray in appearance, not unlike solidified clay, its peculiar and remarkable property is the sparks given off when struck or scratched with a piece of metal. When struck with a key or any metallic substance the rock emits sparks in great profusion. Williams finds also that the sparks are even more brilliant when the ore is put in water.

The sample was given Williams a few days ago by Mr. Fitch in return for courtesies extended and Williams has been exhibiting the thing to curious friends.

The Examiner of December 11 tells the following story of the discovery of the ore in Mariposa County:

Who will unravel the mystery of the flaming gold?

The experts of the State Mining Bureau, the skilled miners of the Sierras, the savants of Berkeley and Stanford are wrinkling their brows over a new mineral—a mineral which, like the Jabberwock, has eyes of flame. It sparkles and flashes on the slightest provocation, and yet gives forth no heat. What is it?

There's gold in it. In fact, it runs about $18 to the ton in gold, silver and copper at the Selby Smelting Works. Down at the State Mining Bureau they've found, too, that there also is in it a trace of antimony, with lead and zinc blende. But what makes it flash and sparkle?

Up in Mariposa county, on the Coulterville road, is a mine of it. The mine is, or was, the property of a Mr. Fitch, whose home is at Santa Cruz. Some men who think they have discovered the mystery of the strange mineral, wanted to buy the mine. They were told it had been sold. Rumors go the rounds that the sale figure was $200,000 or thereabouts, the mystery of the mineral giving the mine its principal value.

It is a soft mineral. If you scratch it with a knife it showers sparks and cuts away like the graphite of a pencil. Scratch it with a wooden toothpick or even a fingernail, and the sparks fly. The men picking in the drift of the mine seem like demons of the pit as they strike fire at every blow. Yet there is no phosphorus to account for the light; there is no heat, with the fire flashes, and no man here ever saw the like of the stuff before.

So the laboratories at Berkeley and Stanford are at work in the effort to discover the mineral's secret. Some have been sent to the geological survey at Washington, some to the Smithsonian Institution, and still another sample to Professor and Madam Curie in Paris—the discoverers of radium.

But as yet no one has been able to unlock the secret of the flaming gold.
