GREAT MIXUP TAKES PLACE OVER WALLACH

His Backers Hitherto in the Board of Health Denounce Him and Opponents Become His Champions---Deferred One Week.

Vandeville is the word to describe the situation the Wallach matter developed yesterday's conference of the Committee of Ten with the Board of Health.

What seemed to have been settled at the like conference of last week became very much unsettled whenever the performance opened.

When the curtain was rung down it was for a continuation of the performance next week.

It was Wallach's new conditions, signed by him and presented by the Ten, which upset everything. Readers already know what the new stipulations of the professed healer are—simply (1) that he, accompanied by three of that committee, should be permitted to go to Molokai and pass upon the twelve patients to be selected by a committee of five physicians, and (2) that he have a key to the outer as well as the inner gate of the Kalihi receiving station.

For President Pinkham the first surprise was in store. After relating, in his regular business message to the board, the communications, written and oral, which had passed between himself and Chairman Lane upon the question of amending the conditions, he seemed to take for granted that the board would practically comply with the amended conditions, at least so far as giving Mr. Wallach selective privileges were concerned. This is what he said:

"I stated that board had no wish to force an unacceptable patient on J. Lor Wallach and that he could reject any presented to him by giving his reasons in writing. The board will in my opinion submit the patients to said Wallach before any examination by five physicians as the expense of such examination would be saved in case said Wallach elected to reject such patient."

"Other patients will be presented to Mr. Wallach until the stipulated twelve are secured, provided such a number voluntarily present themselves."

Mr. Pinkham, in opining what the board would do, evidently reckoned without the other members of the majority that his casting vote had constituted last week. For here the funny business started.

Dr. Wayson, who had stood all along for giving Wallach a trial, now assumed the demeanor of a member of the Territorial Medical Association. He stood up for the dignity of the purfesh. Wallach, in asking to be placed on an equal footing with "five reputable physicians," had reached the limit. Therefore the doctor demanded a categorical answer from Wallach's sponsors as to whether or not the new conditions were an ultimatum.

Mr. Robinson, who had changed his position with the president last week, now emphatically denounced Wallach as a faker who did not desire to have his claims tested.

Mr. Kalauekalanani even voted at the meeting to refuse Wallach a hearing.

On the other hand—and more fun to it—the two out of the three irreconcilable opponents of having the board have anything to do with Wallach now appeared as his champions. At least they wanted the board to treat Wallach with the respect due to him as one of the board's own licensed practitioners. They stood alone in voting to give Wallach a personal hearing when he had asked for it.

Mr. Smith wanted to have Wallach treated as a man.

Dr. Baldwin thought the board's license ought to be treated as a gentleman. His irony was a little biting.

THE PROCEEDINGS.

The matter was introduced through the message as stated. In the course of the proceedings the correspondence was read.

President Pinkham, on calling up the business for action, said it was up to the Committee of Ten to present its case. The board did not know Mr. Wallach. It had dealt with the Committee of Seven at the Settlement. He did not know whether the board desired him to make a statement. He could make a statement of what occurred at the Settlement.

"All I want to know," Dr. Wayson warmly interjected, "is whether Wallach refuses to accept the conditions if he is not allowed to visit the Settlement."

Senator Lane, chairman of the Ten, started to answer by referring to his official reply to the president's notification of the agreement. Then he gave the now familiar reasons that had influenced the committee in endorsing Wallach's new conditions. Wallach thought it would be inhuman to bring patients down here who might have to be sent back to Molokai in the event of his finding them unacceptable for his treatment at Kalihi. After discussing the matter pro and con the committee decided that the amendments requested were reasonable.

Dr. Wayson said it mattered not whether Wallach visited the Settlement or not. Whether the patients had other diseases was a matter entirely to be decided by the physicians. As a physician of the board he had always been willing to support the Hawaiians in their desires, but he now thought it was going just a little too far to ask that Wallach, and not the physicians, should decide whether patients had other diseases than leprosy. Wallach merely wanted to go to Molokai to visit the Settlement and make a sensation as he had been trying to do all the time.

"I do not think," the doctor continued, "you can get five reputable physicians to consent to it. I have stood by you all through," he said to Lane and the others, "but if Wallach is to be allowed to dictate anything he pleases it will ball the thing all up." Mr. Lane went into explanations, when Dr. Wayson told him that two of the five physicians were to be selected by the Ten themselves.

"If you have no confidence in the physicians of your own selection," Committee member Mossman broke into the doctor's speech to add to Lane's explanations, telling of the reluctance of people at the Settlement to be separated from relatives, the pain of disappointment which would be occasioned by sending any patients back, etc.

Dr. Wayson in turn interrupted the Democratic leader to inform him—waving a paper—that the conditions were from the Molokai people themselves.

"If I had a cure," he went on to say, "I would agree to be locked up five years. You are willing to support the Board of Health?"

"Yes," Mossman replied.

"And you want to prevent heart-burning among the people at Molokai? Then you ought to stand by the agreement made by the people."

Mr. Pinkham, on the confinement question, said the board was responsible. "If Wallach has a key to the outside and inside gates, where does the board get off? The board would have no way of knowing whether he is attending to his business or not. He might absent himself for days at a time."

Dr. Wayson, again addressing the committee, said he had been in their country thirteen years. For a time he was in charge of the Kalihi station, where he had seen people die not only from leprosy, but other diseases. When therefore he asked them to have a little respect for his profession, and to leave the selection of the twelve patients to five reputable physicians, they ought to comply. "If Wallach has any honesty in him," Dr. Wayson concluded, "he will not insist on these things. And if you are honest you will not encourage him in his objections."

Mr. Notley then rose and made a legal discourse on the elements of an agreement, arguing that there must be more than one party to a compact.

Mr. Pinkham stopped him to ask if he was not aware that when the lepers were asked about the selection of patients they said they would attend to that matter themselves.

MORMONISM AT LAIE AND IN UTAH

What Mr. Sheehy of Reorganized Church Has to Say About It.

The indictment of M. M. Harmon, acting head of the Mormon church at Laie, for subornation of perjury, brings into investigation and under examination by the courts some of the questions which were investigated by the committee of the United States Senate in the Reed Smoot inquiry.

Reed Smoot was elected to the United States Senate by the Legislature of Utah. Immediately there were protests against his being allowed to take his seat. These protests, came from Utah and from individuals and organizations in every part of the United States. It is doubtful if there was ever presented to the United States Congress, protests from as many people and from as many different organizations having moral purposes, as were presented against the admission of Reed Smoot, unless it was in the case of Brigham H. Roberts, elected from Utah to the House of Representatives.

Reed Smoot was admitted to his seat in the Senate pending the result of the investigations by the committee on privileges and elections. These investigations were carried on through three years, and resulted in a volume of testimony regarding the practices of the church in Utah such as had never before been gathered together. In the end, by a party vote, Smoot was confirmed in his seat.

Elder F. M. Sheehy of the Reorganized Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints, who came here a month or so ago with President Joseph Smith of the Reorganized Church, was in Washington and in attendance at practically every one of the sessions of the Reed Smoot investigation. His intimate knowledge of what was attempted and what was accomplished by the Senate committee in its investigations is probably not surpassed by that of any one.

Speaking of the indictment against Elder Harmon, he said: "If there has been any violation of the law here among the Mormons it is not surprising, in view of the disclosures of law-breaking among the heads of their church. Joseph Fielding Smith, the president of the Utah church, before the Senate committee investigating the Smoot matter, admitted under oath that he was living in violation of the law of the land and of his own conception of the law of God. Francis M. Lyman, the head of the apostles and next to the head of the church, said the same thing. So also did John Henry Smith, a second or third cousin of Joseph Fielding Smith, and one of the twelve apostles of that church. So too did Brigham H. Young, one of the presidents of the seventies and one of the historians of the church."

FAVORS MORE SALARY FOR ISLAND JUDGES

The Hawaiian Bar Association went on record yesterday in the matter of favoring an increase of salary for the various judges of the Territory, passing the following resolution at their regular meeting:

"Resolved, By the Bar Association of the Hawaiian Islands, that: 'Whereas, The salaries at present provided for the Chief and Associate Justices of the Supreme Court, the Judge of the United States District Court and the Circuit Judges in this Territory are inadequate; and

"Whereas, The important duties required to be performed by said Judges demand that they receive compensation commensurate with the amount and quality of the work they are required to perform; and

"Whereas, Within the past few years there has been a marked increase in the cost of living, which has been recognized by Congress in the increasing of the salaries of the Federal Judges on the mainland;

"Be it Resolved, That this Association strongly recommends an increase in the salaries of the Judges of said Courts as follows:

"Chief Justice, $6500.
Associate Justices of the Supreme Court, $6000 each.

"United States District Judge, $6000.
Circuit Judges, $4000 each."

"Resolved, Also, That a copy of this resolution be transmitted to the Delegate of Hawaii to the United States Congress, the President of the Senate, Speaker of the House of Representatives, and the Attorney General of the United States."

A committee, consisting of B. L. Marx, W. O. Smith and A. L. C. Atkinson was named by the chair to draft a suitable resolution in reference to the death of Charles Creighton, to be read at the first sitting of the Supreme Court.

STATEMENT BY THE ENGINEERS

The Increase in Captains' Pay Started the Present Pilikia.

Editor Advertiser: In reference to the article in the Advertiser November 27, 1907, under the heading, "The Whole Story Told," I request space to insert the other side of the story, which is as follows:

The marine engineers of Honolulu in their efforts to obtain an increase of wages have considered it a matter concerning only the Inter-Island Steam Navigation Company and themselves, and, believing their cause to be a just and honorable one, did not court publicity or endeavor to enlist public sympathy through the press.

But since the I. I. S. N. Co. have made public all the correspondence on the subject between the marine engineers and themselves, the engineers now feel that in justice to themselves they should comment on their side of the case and present some of the more important causes that led up to their request for an increase of wages.

Some twelve months ago the captains of the I. I. S. N. Co. made a threatening demand for an increase of wages and gave the company a very short time in which to comply, and their demands were met, and as the wage-schedule proposed by the engineers has been published, I herewith enclose the schedule presented and put into effect by the captains in the Inter-Island employ:

First class—Kinau, Claudine, Mauna Loa.

Second class—Maul, Helene, W. G. Hall, Mikahala.

Third class—Likelike, Iwalani, Kanai, Noeau, Niihau, Ke Au Hou, Kaiulani.

Schedule for masters will be as follows: First class, $185 per month; second class, $175 per month; third class, $165 per month. Allowance for board increased to $1 per day, or 33 1-3 cents per meal, extra compensation at the rate of $10 to be paid to masters of vessels which are required to give their services on Sundays or legal holidays in conveying excursionists, emigrants or upon being dispatched on special trips conveying cargo to or from any port, where Sundays or legal holidays are consumed in so doing.

This success of the captains made the engineers sit up and take notice and wonder if they, also, could not get a raise on the increased cost of living in Honolulu, and, knowing they would not get any raise in pay without asking for it, determined on the 14th of September to present a new and increased scale of wages to the I. I. S. N. Co. and ask for a conference, which the already published correspondence shows took place. At the conference (Continued on Page Seven.)

DR. ATCHERLEY TALKS OF SUSPICIOUS DEATH

In connection with the facts alleged in the following communication, Dr. Atcherley states that the matter has been brought to the attention of the County Attorney and will be passed up to Coroner Deputy Sheriff Jarrett this morning for an investigation. Dr. Atcherley states that he suspects foul play in connection with the death of his patient, referred to in the communication, and refused to sign a death certificate. A certificate, or what purports to be one, was issued, however, by the President of the Board of Health. The communication is:

Honolulu, November 27, 1907.
Editor Advertiser.

Dear Sir: As a member of the sisters of the Keaukeouli Lodge, I should like to know what right the authorities have to bury one of our brother members without a legal death certificate.

The paper handed to Mr. Nakooko, our brother vice president, as a pretended certificate, was an illegal and useless document, not being signed by a medical man, but by Mr. D. P. Lawrence, and inserting Dr. MacDonald's name as the attending physician, when it was not so.

I shall make no useless comment on this, as the most unspeakable corruption is now passed over with indifference, but it forms another item to follow many of its kind to the quarter where our Territory is building a unique record. I am, sir, yours very respectfully,

MARY H. ATCHERLEY,

Assurances have been given that the Japanese government is willing to meet the views of the American and Canadian governments respecting immigration of Japanese laborers.

YAQUIS ATTACK A PROSPECTING PARTY

EL PASO, Texas, November 28.—Word has been received here of an attack upon a prospectors' pack train in the State of Sonora, Mexico, by a war party of Yaqui Indians. Four of the prospectors were killed and two injured in the fighting.

The attacking of Americans by the Yaqui Indians is something of comparatively recent date, although the Mexicans and the Indians have been at war for years, a war of extermination on the part of the soldiery. The reasons given now for the attacking of bands of American miners and prospectors by the Indians is that the latter must have arms to defend themselves and to secure these are ambushing the Americans.

LAUNDRIES ARE NOT RESTRICTED

President Pinkham's Exclusion Plans Are Summarily Turned Down.

Sing Wo was yesterday granted permission by the Board of Health to erect a washhouse on Fort street above School street. This was contrary to the recommendation of President Pinkham, in his message submitting business to the Board, where he concluded a lengthy resume of the relations between the Government and laundries in these words:

"I look at this as an entering wedge to scatter laundries all over Honolulu. It would seem a question of the placing of private rights over the general good of the community. The opinion of the Attorney General has been sought."

It proved that the Attorney General's opinion was against the turning down of Sing Wo's application.

Mr. Pinkham told about the loan appropriation of $14,500 for new government laundries in Honolulu passed in 1905, which project had been frustrated by the Legislature of 1907, after he had procured scientific plans for "a first-class, disinfecting, steam washing and drying laundry, provided with the most modern machinery." By Act 111 of 1907 he said "the right of washing for hire was extended from government owned washhouses to those designated in the Act as 'or in such buildings as may be approved and designated by the Board of Health.'"

"It would be almost an impossibility," Mr. Pinkham continued, "to watch washhouses scattered all over the city, and certainly the citizens can not wish a renewal or repetition of conditions that have existed at Iwilei and formerly on the Nuuanu stream." He went on to tell about and describe "excellent and sanitary washhouses and accommodations erected on Vineyard street and directly opposite on Liliha street," under the direction of E. G. Keen, building inspector, whose "unremitting effort and patience in the matter" are mentioned. Relying on the authority in the act of 1907, the president said he had "resisted all attempts to scatter laundries."

E. C. Peters, when the business was called up, as attorney for Sing Wo was permitted to address the meeting. First he denied that Wo's application was an entering wedge for others, it having been presented on the 23rd or 24th of August. There had been no other applications since. Sing Wo's laundry was sanitary in location and would comply with all health regulations. Mr. Peters took up the legal question, arguing that laundrying was a legitimate business and its prosecution a right. There was no law to restrict the business to any locality. Folks could do their washing at home. He understood that the Attorney General had advised the Board that the law did not restrict laundries to any one place.

Attorney General Hemenway's opinion, being called for, was read by Secretary Charlock. It stated that in a case decided here before annexation the Supreme Court refused to follow a decision of the United States Supreme Court denying similarly restrictive authority to the board of supervisors of San Francisco. Mr. Hemenway advised that the Board act "with great caution," being of opinion that no discrimination in localities could be made and that the Board's control was limited to sanitary conditions.

There was no discussion.

Dr. Wayson moved that the petition of Wing So be granted.

Mr. Smith seconded the motion, provided the laundry was in a sanitary location and condition.

"Yes," Dr. Wayson amended, "I move it be granted subject to sanitary rules and regulations."

The motion carried.

"Thank you, gentlemen," Mr. Peters ejaculated and left the meeting with a broad smile illuminating his features.

OTHER MATTERS.

Beyond this matter and the Wallace affair elsewhere reported, the only other business done was the ratification of a contract with Lucas Brothers for the erection of the buildings at Kalihi receiving station—the main building for $6776, and kitchen and diningroom and covered way for $1824, a total of $8600.

President Pinkham told about an unfinished dispute with Dr. John Atcherley, some correspondence being read, with regard to fees for services as a medical examiner by permission in the case of three suspects at Kalihi. Dr. Atcherley disagreed with the other examiners in one case, refusing to certify that it was one for Molokai, and Mr. Pinkham said, in the course of his narration, that he had told Dr. Atcherley he had been looking for trouble ever since he (Mr. Pinkham) had become connected with the Board.

Another matter, submitted in the message but not discussed, related to the Queen's Hospital. An agreement had been reached, through Vice President E. F. Bishop, whereby the hospital will "admit non-contagious, non-infectious diseases known to be incurable but requiring alleviation from some intercurrent condition, with the understanding that when relieved of their intercurrent ailments they will be discharged or removed to some institution for incurables."

Mr. Pinkham, on this subject, concluded thus:

"The Queen's Hospital is an institution of great usefulness and the president of the Board can only express his appreciation. The relations of the Board have been of hearty cooperation and harmony, except in a few incidents dependent on temporary isolation, a point on which our opinions differ. The president in all seasons and times has advocated enlarged means, scope and public support for the Queen's Hospital, for that institution has the making of a model and great hospital if its opportunities are embraced."

REBEKAH DANCE

ENJOYED BY MANY

In spite of the numerous other social affairs in many parts of the city last night, a large number of dancers took part in the very pleasant function arranged by the members of Olive Branch Bebekah Lodge in the roof garden pavilion of the Alexander Young Hotel, the first dance in the series of social affairs this popular lodge will have during the season. The number in attendance filled the makal pavilion comfortably without undue crowding, many well known people being among the guests. Kaal's orchestra furnished the music, while between dances the many couples promenaded in the palm garden, which was brightly illuminated.

The committee to which the success of last night's dance is due was composed of Mrs. Mae Cantin, Mrs. C. S. Crane, Miss J. H. Macaulay, Miss Anita Phillips and Mrs. H. H. Williams. M. T. Simonton officiated as floor manager.

Mr. Robertson Corrects Misstatement of the Matter.

The proposed liquidation of the Ookala Sugar Plantation Company is not the result of any inability to reach an agreement concerning an extension of the leases of the plantation lands (though the question of leases had some weight in the matter), as reported more or less sensationally in the Star yesterday afternoon, according to the following letter written by George H. Robertson, the company's treasurer, to the Advertiser. Mr. Robertson quoted an editorial from the Star, which states that "the inability of the government and Ookala plantation to agree upon terms of land leases, resulting in the liquidation of the company, is the first failure to agree of this kind, among many possible ones," and says:

"Editor Advertiser: The enclosed slip is cut from the editorial column of this afternoon's Star.

"In this connection I beg to say the Star has been misinformed as to the question of government leases, being the direct cause of the proposed liquidation of the Ookala Sugar Plantation Co. It is simply a combination of unfavorable circumstances that has moved the directors to bring the matter before the stockholders for action. The charter of incorporation of this company will expire by its own limitation on October 1st, 1909.

"GEO. H. ROBERTSON,
"Treasurer O. S. P. Co."

In addition to the letter Mr. Robertson said:

"It has been considered for several months past on the part of the agents advisable to notify the directors of the plan that it would not be convenient to continue as agents.

The proforma statement of possibilities was drawn up by the treasurer and unofficially presented to the largest individual stockholders who in turn presented it to the directors.

"The result was that the matter was taken up by the directors in a formal manner, when it was decided to place the whole question before the stockholders. Of course the charter of the company could be renewed, but the question seems to be whether the stockholders would not rather draw out now and place their money to better advantage."

At the meeting of the directors, held on the twenty-third instant, the statement of the possibilities was considered and a resolution in the matter was passed, calling a special meeting of the stockholders and concluding as follows:

"Whereas, It was further shown that the corporation is at further disadvantage by reason of the fact that almost its entire landed estate used for cane is leasehold (about two hundred (200) acres being owned in fee), and (1) that with the renewal of every lease higher rentals are demanded, (2) that the agents are not prepared to finance the corporation after July 1, 1908, as a going concern, (3) that the bonds of the corporation, $80,000, are due in 1909, and it is uncertain whether or not same can be floated anew, or the bonded debt reorganized, (4) that in the twenty-eight years of its existence this company has paid but 21 1/2 per cent in dividends, making evident that it is a property not advantageously located or possible to operate with any certainty of a reasonable profit.

"Therefore, Be it resolved by this board of directors that it recommend to the shareholders at a special meeting to be called for the purpose December 14, 1907, that it proceed to liquidate its affairs along the lines indicated by the foregoing memorandum for the benefit of the shareholders, it being understood that the present agents will if desired continue to act as agents of the corporation during such process of liquidation."

The notice calling the special meeting explained the object fully, as follows:

"The object of the above-called meeting is covered by a resolution passed at a meeting of the board of directors held this day, as follows: "Whereas, At a meeting of the directors of the Ookala Sugar Plantation Co., held this day, the following memorandum showing the probable result of liquidating the affairs of the corporation was submitted and considered by the board, viz:

"Proforma memoranda of possible outcome for stockholders of the Ookala Sugar Plantation Co., should the plantation go into liquidation.

BOYS' SCHOOL

Two New Pests of the Sweet Potato Have Been Found.

Two pests that attack the sweet potato vine have appeared in the sweet potato patches of the Boys' Industrial school at Waialea. One is a "mining" worm which hides itself between the layers of the leaf and feeds on and destroys it. The other is a worm that attacks the stem of the vine working in the direction of the root. Neither wholly destroys the vine nor the crop, but very materially retards and lessens the crop. It is not known whether the insect pest is an entirely new one or not. It is reported that it has been experienced at Lahaina, but there does not seem to be very definite information regarding it.

In spite of the melon fly, a fairly good crop of cucumbers was grown at the school this year, the first that has been grown there on account of the melon fly. The Japanese beetle has injured the crop of beets this year, which otherwise would have been a very large one.

Superintendent Gibson has for some time been experimenting with cultivation on the mauka lands of the institution, which constitute a considerable portion of the lands of the school. A fine crop of corn was grown up there this summer, about four acres in all. Beans, however, did not do well on these lands. On the makai lands beans of many varieties do well though some varieties do better than others.

The agricultural successes of the school so far have included sugar cane, of which one good crop has already been taken off, and a rattoon crop is now growing which will be ready next April or May; corn, taro, beans, sweet potatoes, and a large variety of other vegetables. Tomatoes do not do well, being stung by the melon fly or something akin to it.

Fruit trees do not do well either on the low lands or the high, on account of the wind. But there is a little valley in the upper lands of the school which is protected, and this Mr. Gibson has planted to mangoes and alligator pears.

The number of boys at the institution is now 120. The highest number ever there was 121.

SIGNAL CORPS GIVES A JOLLY SMOKER

The Signal Corps of the National Guard gave a smoker in the bungalow last night which turned out to be a great success. The guests of the evening were Mique Fisher and the ball players who came down from the Coast. One of the events of the evening was the speech made by Fisher, in which he related, in a most graphic manner, the experiences that he went through coming down on the Alameda. Jess Woods replied to Mique, telling a few stories of the old days in Sacramento, when Fisher was a policeman part of the time and a baseball manager the rest. They were listened to with great delight, Fisher being specially pleased at some of the tales, as he had never heard of them before. Kendall Fellows, of the Elleford company, was one of the late arrivals and his Chinese stories took the house by storm.

The music of the evening was rendered by the Signal Corps quintet, which made such a name for itself on the trip to the national shoot. Those who took part in the musical entertainment were: F. S. Warren, Eugene Allen, Tom Evans, Sam Chillingworth, Will Chillingworth, Dude Lemon, Sam White, Dick Gilliland, A. K. Smythe, Ben Clarke and John Clarke.

PITCHER BURNS IS A BUSTER

There is a strong possibility that one of the Pacific Coast aggregation of baseball players will contest in the big Wild West Show in Honolulu. Mike Fisher was greatly interested when he saw the list of events for the cowboy carnival published in the Advertiser. "Say, our man Burns from the Texas League is the greatest broncho buster I ever saw, and I've seen some pretty clever ones," said Fisher after he read of the coming show. "If the Wild West Show people will permit him to enter, the Spalding team will put up the entire gate receipts on Burns."

Eben Low says that he will be glad to have Burns enter, as the contest is free for all, and one of the entries will be John Winters, who came all the way from Cheyenne for that purpose. If Burns enters as a representative from the lone star State, it will make a national affair out of the contest.

Everybody in town is talking cowboy show and the indications are that the crowd seeing it will be double that of two years ago.

THURSDAY : : : : : NOVEMBER 28

THANKSGIVING.

There is always enough to be thankful for in America even when the money market is uncertain; and in no part of the country is there more reason to be thankful than in the Territory of Hawaii.

Citizens of the United States live in a land where there is enough to eat, where there is no danger of revolution and little of foreign war; where education is free and religion tolerant; where charity abounds; where there is enough sound public spirit to keep official corruption in check; where self-government is guaranteed by the national charter and where the natural riches of the soil and the rock and the teeming waters assure the material welfare of posterity.

Hawaii is one of the favored spots of earth. Here there is neither cold nor suffocating heat; no poverty that holds out a ragged cap in the market-place for alms; no lack of sustenance; no ferocity of nature's elemental forces; no dire burden of taxation. Here is the assurance of a great income from the bounty of the earth; a condition of general public health and over all the protection, under Providence, of a strong and benign government.

It is fitting in such a land to meet in thankfulness on a stated day in each year and part in hope and courage and faith to assume the responsibilities to come.

A TROUBLE-MAKING POLICY.

The American Federation of Labor, a distinctively anti-Asiatic body, presents a curious spectacle here in its efforts to combine with Japanese field hands against their white employers. On the mainland the Federation has a stick for every Japanese head; in Hawaii it proposes to welcome the Asiatic as a brother providing he will treat the white employing class as an enemy.

Could anything make the ulterior purpose of this Federation more evident? That clan can not pretend to be acting in the interest of American unskilled labor on these islands because such labor does not exist here and does not want to come here. Efforts to get it into the cane fields even on a liberal cooperative basis, have proved futile. So the only possible result of the mission of the walking delegate, who is seeking to affiliate our Japanese laborers with the Federation, is to make trouble between labor and capital. Apparently, that is the object.

DUMB, MUM AND GLUM.

Simon Cameron, once Secretary of War, the father of Don Cameron, a senator from Pennsylvania, was a man of force if not of culture. He once described newspaper men as those "— littery fellers," and in replying to a question by President Lincoln as to the response given by a certain politician to a request for news, wrote: "He's as dum as a dam clam."

Newspaper men of Honolulu who are trying to unravel the mystery of the diplomatic faux pas committed at the capitol, find themselves regarded with Cameronian disfavor; and in the utter unresponsiveness of all concerned they see an illustration of dumbness which no ordinary clam, even without the handicap of an anathema, could achieve without chloroform.

It is thus that the public is being deprived of one of the choicest pieces of news that has taken form here in a long time. The story suggests the spectacle of a department chief, who, upon receiving an ordinary business note from a foreign consul, rises like an arbiter of nations and launches his official javelin into the field of international politics—and gets so many spear-thrusts in return that he looks like a checker-board grating.

What is the name of this unfortunate victim of megalomania? One asks and listens for an answer in vain. The voice of the press is as one crying in the wilderness.

THE AMERICAN CUISINE.

Is there a city hotel in the United States which advertises an American cuisine and makes a specialty of American dishes? Perhaps there is. But in the experience of most travelers it is as hard to find as a circus menagerie which specializes in American fauna.

In mainland village hotels the American cuisine, usually in debased form, may be found, but the cooks are bad and the meals unpopular. Now and then are noteworthy exceptions. Tucked away among the wooded hills of central New York is a little hostelry which has been, for thirty years, making a reputation for domestic cookery which, during the season, reaches out for an automobile trade to cities a hundred miles away, saying nothing of the cities, towns and villages nearer by. There is not a single hint of France or Spain or Germany in the menu. It is distinctively American and the crowds that flock to the modest table are testimonies to the worth of the food.

Nobody ever cooked for the average American palate like the well-to-do New England housewife. Who, but her, ever made baked beans and brown-bread a delicacy? Who could beat her at stuffing or roasting ducks, turkeys, chickens and pigs? Recall her incomparable fried salt pork and cream gravy; her corned beef and cabbage and boiled dinners; her omelets and her cake and pies; her doughnuts and hot cakes and cornbread; her smoked hams and beef; her headcheese and scrapple; her chicken pies and scalloped oysters; her cottage cheese, biscuits and honey; her meat and vegetable soups and home-made sauces and pickles—who can name all the good things in her culinary art, the apotheosis of which comes on Thanksgiving day.

Far be it from us to criticize the delicate feasting of the French, or the skill of a really fine chef; but who can give sincere thanks on this day of days after eating the dull imitations of French cookery which pervade so many American hotels and cafes—the thin soups, the chicken incased in asbestos, the tepid boiled tongue upon which, as it would seem, an umbrella had been permitted to drip, the airy nothings of the dessert? From all such cookery on Thanksgiving day or any other day, good Lord deliver us.

THE RIGHTS OF SUPERVISORS.

If all a rejected candidate for appointment by consent of the Board of Supervisors needs to do to get a salary is to demand the pay of the office that was lawfully denied him, then the Board needs new legislation to secure its rights. In the Brown back pay case the Board is considering whether to hold its independence as the legislative branch of the County government or acknowledge itself the servant of the executive branch; in other words to maintain its right to reject a given appointment or yield to the coercive assumption that an executive officer may overrule it when he pleases to, making whatever appointment suits him and compelling the Board to pay the bill. It is the belief of this paper that the recourse to new legislation is not needed and that the coordinate independence of the Board is clear. All that is required by that body is the backbone to stand out for its rights and preserve its self-respect. If Mr. Brown asks the courts to sustain the plea that anybody, at the instance of the County Attorney, can break into office with an axe and force himself upon the payroll despite the lawful opposition of the supervisors, the latter need not worry about it. Let him go ahead. It will only lead him to the badarene slide as it did the original feed-trough politicians.

It appears from yesterday's dispatches that when the Czar wants to disgrace a man he puts him in command of a cruiser.

The only people who have not been consulted by the Republican managers as to a candidate for Mayor of Honolulu are those who are looked to for the campaign funds.

There is a fine chance for some public-spirited citizen to bear the expense of sending a scientific man to India to secure the parasite that preys on the melon fly.

In the new entente between Japan and the United States on the question of labor immigration, how is Hawaii coming out?

There would still seem to be room for an honorable compromise between the engineers and the Inter-Island company.

Up to the hour of going to press no more suicides of bank presidents have been reported.

"President Joseph Fielding Smith is looked on by his people as a prophet of God, to whom the Almighty reveals His mind and will. His influence and that of the others whom I have mentioned goes farther than that of an ordinary minister. If a minister of any of the denominations in Honolulu were to say that he was living in violation of the law of the land and the law of God, how long would his influence last? Yet that is what President Joseph Fielding Smith of the Utah church said under oath to the Senate committee that he was doing, and the general conference of the church, year after year, votes its confidence in him as prophet, seer and revelator, and teacher of religion.

"The history of the duplicity of the leaders of the Utah church in this matter is interesting and important in this connection. While Utah was a Territory and the Edmunds Act was in force there, the Mormons were generally disfranchised by its conditions, and much property was confiscated. In this state of affairs President Wilfrid Woodruff in 1890 issued what is known as the Woodruff Manifesto, by which the practice of polygamy was discontinued, and an agreement was entered into by the church authorities by which in return for amnesty granted by President Cleveland and President Harrison it was agreed, among other things, that no more polygamous marriages should be celebrated with the permission or approval of the church. Yet in the Reed Smoot investigation it was proved that Abraham H. Cannon, one of the twelve apostles of the church, entered into a polygamous marriage with Lillian Hamlin, the marriage ceremony being performed by Joseph Fielding Smith, himself the president of the Utah church. The ceremony was performed on a vessel plying from the Coast of California to Santa Catalina Island. In regard to this marriage ceremony, President Joseph Fielding Smith testified before the Senate committee that he had never performed it on this earth, but when pressed by further inquiry, he admitted that he had performed it on board a vessel on the ocean. A child of this marriage was born which inherited property from Abraham H. Cannon on his death, so that there can be no dispute about the relationship that existed between Cannon and Lillian Hamlin.

"There were others of the leading apostles whom it was shown during the Reed Smoot investigation were leading polygamous lives and had taken additional wives since the Woodruff Manifesto.

"That United States Attorney Breckons has been able to secure three members of the church at Laie to testify to this charge against Mr. Harmon, as I understand that he has, is to me quite wonderful. It is more than the Reed Smoot committee of the United States Senate could do."

CAMPAIGN AGAINST CONSUMPTION.

The Boston Consumptives' Hospital, in opening an out-patient department in Burroughs place for the treatment of tuberculosis, is extending a practice with regard to controlling the spread of the disease that has been approved and advised by numerous scientific authorities and societies. Even the women's clubs have for some time urged that measures be taken by which people can be instructed in the best ways to adapt to their home life and rules and regulations followed at hospitals and sanatoriums for the arresting or cure of consumption. Those who are farthest advanced in knowledge concerning the treatment of tuberculosis have long been of the opinion that the way one lives rather than the place of living may be depended upon to prevent or even to cure the ailment where cure is possible. This is the answer to the threatening quarantine against consumptives from the north, recently instituted by statute in Texas and likely to be followed in other southern and western communities.—Boston Transcript.

THE FLEA A DISEASE CARRIER.

The California flea will be examined by the Department of Bacteriology of the State University of California, to discover if this insect, like the mosquito, propagates disease. Fleas and rats on the ships that come into the port of San Francisco from the Orient seaports, where a plague is known to prevail, will be collected by the university students, taken to the laboratories at the State institutions, examined, and classified. The work will be carried on along the same lines as the government's labors with the mosquito. Believing that rats are also carriers of contagious diseases, the city authorities of San Francisco have declared an open war against them. It is determined to exterminate these animals. Along the miles of water front and in cellars, basements, and old buildings, these animals fairly swarm, and are a great menacing pest. Every expedient will be used to destroy these creatures root and branch; for it is the strong belief of medical men that they help to distribute contagious germs.—Scientific American.

WHERE THE LADY SCORED.

At a recent social gathering various scientific topics were intelligently discussed, and finally the conversation turned to Marconi and his wireless telegraphy. The gentlemen were battling with it from every possible standpoint, when one of the ladies looked up and smiled.

"This wireless telegraphy," said she, "reminds me of a groundless quarrel." "In what way?" asked a gentleman. "I fall to see any connection." "It is practically having words over nothing," was the lady's prompt rejoinder.

"Does your honor wish to charge the jury?" asked the legal light, when all the evidence was in. "No, I guess not," replied the judge. "I never charge 'em anything. These fellows don't know much, any way, an' I let 'em have all they can make."—Harper's Weekly.

AUTO MEET AT KAPIOLANI PARK

The Contests Will Start at Nine o'Clock This Morning.

The automobile meeting which will be held this morning at Kapiolani Park should prove to be a great attraction to the local people who are interested in that line, and as a social event should also be a great success. The first event will be started shortly after 9 o'clock and the contests will take place as quickly as possible after that.

There will be no formal entries, but the owners of cars may enter any or all the contests that they see fit, and the list of prizes will be such that the winners will be by no means disappointed. In two of the events steam cars are barred, but in the others all the different styles will be welcome,
and many are expected to be on hand for the first meet of its kind that has ever been held in the Territory.

The following events will take place:
1. 75-yard Dash (steam cars barred);
1st prize, clock; 2nd prize, cap; 3rd prize, ten gallons gasoline.

2. Tilting the Ring—1st prize, twenty gallons Fort Putnam oil; 2nd prize,
leggings; 3rd prize, six Columbia batteries.

3. See-Saw—1st prize, inner tube;
2nd prize, transmission lubricant; 3rd prize, five gallons Fort Putnam oil.

4. One Mile Run—Nearest to four minutes wins. 1st prize, Gabriel horn; 2nd prize, ten gallons Fort Putnam
oil; 3rd prize, auto washer.

5. Cupid Race—1st prize, gauntlets;
2nd prize, ten gallons gasoline; 3rd prize, transmission lubricant.

6. Obstacle Race—1st prize, fifteen
gallons Fort Putnam oil; 2nd prize,
transmission lubricant; 3rd prize, six Columbia batteries.

7. 50 Yards, High Gear Slow (steam cars barred)—1st prize, ammeter; 2nd prize, ten gallons gasoline; 3rd prize,
six Columbia batteries.

These events are open to members of the Automobile Club of Hawaii.
Steam cars are barred from events 1 and 7. The decision of the committee will be final on all points. Make entries to members of the committee.

Slow Race—Conditions of contest:
The contestant shall drive his car a distance of seventy-five yards, in a straight line, on the high gear without manipulation of the clutch. The contestant covering the distance in the longest time shall be the winner.

The home stretch of the track should accommodate at least three cars abreast for such a contest. It will be necessary to get the time of the winner of each heat, provided more than three cars enter.

Quick Start Contest—Conditions of the contest: The contestants shall bring their cars up to a starting line, kill the engine in such a way that it will not start on "switch," and stand in front of their cars. The engine must be dead, the switch off, and the clutch disengaged. At the signal to start, the driver, without assistance, shall start his car by cranking and drive a distance of seventy-five yards, where he will be required to bring his car to a stop with the front wheels between two lines drawn across the track. The contestant will be disqualified if the front wheels of his car are not between the two lines at the finish
or are touching either mark.

The track is wide enough for three cars to compete in each heat of this contest. The time of the winner of each heat will have to be taken if more than three cars compete. The winner will be the contestant who covers the distance in the least time.

BRITT WILL BOX ON SATURDAY

When the local sports learned that Jimmy Britt was going to give an exhibition at the Opera House next Saturday evening, they were a joyful bunch. They are all hungry for some boxing and Britt is the man who can certainly show them. Just think—Honolulu will have the chance to see the greatest little fighter who ever crawled between the ropes of a prize ring. He is the greatest drawing card that San Francisco ever had and the local fans are extremely lucky that they have a chance to see such a wonderful lad as Britt perform. The whole United States has clamored to see this little fellow on the boards and he has appeared in every American theater of any note and has drawn huge crowds to just such a show as he will give Saturday evening.

When the curtain goes up, Britt will be seen doing road work, and from there he will appear in a gym, where he will punch the bag, use the dumb bells and do shadow sparring.
He will then go on with "Bill" Helmüller, a brother of Heine, the ball player. Helmüller has acted as Britt's sparring partner during his training and is a very clever lad. The two can put up four of the fastest rounds that have ever been seen here.

In addition, there will be motion pictures, illustrated songs, a monologue by Britt, relating many of his ring experiences, and also other attractions.

Saturday night will be a good time for this show, and a packed house is sure to greet the great lightweight when he faces the footlights.

Seats will be sold at Wall, Nichols
Co., Ltd., for 50c, 75c and $1.

DICK REUTER IS HAWAII'S HOPE

Henley Will Once More Pitch Against the Local Batsmen.

The batteries for the game today will be Henley and Bliss, for the Coast
team, and Reuter and Joy, for the All-Hawaii.

It was decided to put Henley in the box, in place of Devereaux,
as the former wants a chance to shut out the local men. His work for the past three years for San Francisco has been such that he feels that the local boys have no right to bat two runs off him. If he does not keep the record clean today, he has promised Barney to eat the biggest bowl of poi that the latter can find for him, and he says that this is punishment enough.

That the local boys are glad to see Henley in the box once more goes without saying. They are more used to a right-handed man than to a southpaw, and know that they can hit Henley, while in the last game Burns had most of them buffaloed.

Barney will hold down the receiving end of the local team and big Dick Reuter will try to better his record of last Saturday. If he can win it will be a big feather in his cap, and may mean a good contract for next season.

Joy may pitch another game on Sunday, and in the hopes of some Hampton will be seen in the box for a game. Bill has the best head work of all the local men and many of the Honolulu fans believe that he could hold the big fellows down better than any pitcher here.

The Coast team will not leave for Hilo till a week from Friday, sailing on the Claudine.

FISHER PLANS TRIP TO ORIENT

National and American League
Players for Games
Next Year.

So pleased is Mique Fisher with the reception that his team has met with here, that he is already planning for more worlds to conquer. He is now laying his lines for a trip to be made here a month earlier in the season, or at the close of the National and American leagues next year, which will extend farther yet from home.

Hawaii will by no means be left out of this. The plan, as outlined by Fisher, will include a start from San Francisco, with a team composed exclusively of players from the National and American leagues. They will stop off for a week here, playing a short series with the local clubs, and then go on to Japan. There they will play with the best teams which can be found in the Empire of the Rising Sun, and then go on still further.

Manila will be Fisher's next objective point, and there he expects to make a great hit. There are enough Americans in the city to make sure of a good picked team to play against, and there should be big crowds ready to pay admissions to see a team of champions. Fisher says that he has received assurances from Japanese here, that they will be only too glad to have a team of the caliber mentioned in that country, and will be ready to put up big guarantees before the team leaves the Coast. It is possible that the stay in this city will not be made till the team is on its way home, as the early start will be needed to assure good weather in the Orient.

STRONG TEAM IS PICKED OUT

There will be something doing at the senior league baseball grounds this afternoon at 1:15 p. m., when the Chinese Athletic Club will cross bats with Bernard's Star players.

After hard hustling, Bernard Kele-kollo has gathered together some of the star players from former Riverside leagues, and is confident that his team
today will defeat the Chinese A. C., having no excuse to offer if he loses.

Why not, with Jack Flores and W.
Espinda, the wonder of the twirlers of the former Riverside League, in the box; Vernin Ayau, considered the best of shortstops and the rival of Zelder,

BRITT ANXIOUS TO FIGHT GANS

Lightweight Started to Get Into Shape for the Ring
Yesterday.

Jimmy Britt, who is down here on a vacation trip with the baseball team from the Coast, started in his training for his next fight, at the Hotel Baths Tuesday afternoon. He seems to be in fair condition at present, but wants to get in a little more work before leaving here, and will continue his stunts daily till it is time to get on board the Alameda for San Francisco.

Yesterday morning he commenced road work, taking a long walk of seven or eight miles and winding up with a run for the last two or three. The surplus flesh which he has accumulated since his arrival will quickly disappear and leave him in shape for regular training by the time he gets back to the Coast.

When asked for information in regard to his future plans he said:

"What I want to do is to fight Gans once more. That's got to come off, don't you know? I am the only man at present who seems to have the class to take him up and he has never beaten me yet. The first time, of course, he won on a foul, and in the last fight
he won because I dislocated a small bone in my hand. But he never has beaten me yet. I want to show the public that I can take his measure."

"I don't mean to say that I will knock his head off, or any of that sort of guff. But I can beat him and I am sure that he knows it, too. In the meantime I am willing to fight this little fellow Memsic (Jimmy Burns) if he wants to take me on or any other lightweight in the world."

"I only expect to stay in this fighting game for a year or so longer anyhow. The chief reason for this is that my mother wants me to stop. I have always lived with her and she doesn't like the game. Besides that, it keeps me away from home all the time, and she doesn't like that either. I have bought her a fine country home in Ross Valley, which is not far from San Francisco. I got that for her after the Nelson fight. That's where most of those big bugs who have been caught in the hoodling live in the summer. It's a great place and I have spent over $10, 000 on the house and grounds there."

"Say, you people down here are certainly the real thing at giving a crowd a good time. I have been all over the United States and have always been entertained wherever I went, but never struck anything like this. Someone wants to take you every minute. They can't find enough to do. I know all the other boys think the same way that I do. They certainly are a good bunch of ball players, aren't they?"

"I just felt like taking a little vacation, and since the baseball boys were coming, and I know them all, they seemed to be a pretty good bunch to get out with. Then, too, there were two fights already arranged for San Francisco. They only allow one professional fight a month there, you know, and the fight for November was the Moran-Neil contest, which has already been pulled off, and the one of next month is Thomas against Ketchell. As there was nothing doing for me, I thought I might as well try the climate down here, and I certainly am glad that I came."

"It's too bad that you can't have any more fighting here. I should like to go on for a short bout with some local man, but of course that is out of the question, from what I hear. When the laws say no, Jimmie Britt says no, and that goes. You people here have been too decent for one to start anything that's not the real thing."

"So long, then; I'm off to see a hula dance."

In Mike Fisher's Star players; Kaimi
Joshua holding the second bag; Manuel Correa, the star first baseman of the Kaala A. C.; Albert Akana, the king of the third sack, and Hannibal Brito, the bulldog at the receiving station? This is enough to satisfy the public that before they will be able to defeat
this aggregation of players.

Following will be the lineup of Bernard's All Star players: Hannibal Brito (also called Joe Gans), c.; W.
Espinda, p.; M. Correa, 1b.; Kaima Josiah, 2b.; Albert Akana, 3b.; V. Ayau, ss.; J. Flores, lf.; Joe Clement, cf.;

Now Doctors Say: "Don't Drug"

No doctor can cure all diseases.
That's all moonshine. They are "pretenders."
If you can't cure a man, tell him
so.

Physicians use too many drugs.
There are only a few great drugs
worth handling—I'll not name them.
—Dr. Wm. Osler in a recent address to physicians.

I do not believe that the average length of human life would be diminished by an hour if all the drugs of Christendom were dumped
into the sea—Alfred Leffingwell,
M. D., American
Humane Association.

At last some of our eminent physicians are beginning to tell the truth about drugs.
They have deceived the people
just about as long as they can, unless they check
the advance of science. It is seldom that has "shown them up." It has proved that man's body is electrical; that electricity runs our bodies and produces what we call life. It has shown that most all sickness and chronic disorders are due to a lack of electric energy.

Drugs do not help Nature. Nature needs electricity, something that builds up. Drugs contain no nourishment—no electricity—just poison
which tears down.

My way of curing is to restore electricity where it is needed, and pain and sickness will disappear.
That's because electricity gives strength, power to the body, enabling every organ to perform its work properly, and when every organ is in a strong, healthy condition
there can be no pain or sickness.

Wear Electro-Vigor while you sleep. It feeds a constant stream of electricity to your nerves, and they carry it to every organ and tissue of your body, restoring health and vim.
Electro-Vigor is a simple electric appliance. It is not an electric belt.
It never needs charging, for it makes its own power continuously.

My digestion
has greatly improved under the use of Electro-Vigor and I can eat almost anything without distress. My circulation has improved and I am sure my strength
is greater.

FIRST VIEW OF ART EXHIBITION

Works of Art Placed Before
Public by Kilohana Art League.

The fall exhibition of the Kilohana Art League opened with a first view for members Tuesday evening. The inspiration that has come to the league in its new quarters was reflected in the attendance. A very large proportion of the members of the league were present at this first view. And they were well rewarded in an exhibition that excels anything that the league has shown for several years.

D. Howard Hitchcock has contributed a larger number of canvases than any other artist, and throughout they show a surer technique, and a more comprehensive grasp of subject, than his previous work. In a number of his pictures he has presented some of the results of his last summer's stay in the Waimea region of Kauai, and these are a revelation in Hawaiian scenery to most of us, in the depth and magnitude of canyon and gorge effect they present. To all but the few who have penetrated these somewhat inaccessible regions, it was known that these islands presented such effects, rivaling in gorge and precipice, though of course not in extent, such things as the Grand Canyon of the Colorado. In these Waimea pictures, besides making a contribution to art, he has done a real service to Hawaii.

Otto Wix is another prolific contributor who has become enamored of the entrancing beauty of Hawaiian scenery. He delights more in the reposeful and gentler aspects of the scenery, and in the detail of wanton luxuriance of vegetation, than Hitchcock does, and in this field he has presented some delightful canvases. Grace Robertson displays a larger number of pictures than she has ever done before at any of these exhibitions, and she, too, has shown a growth both in power and method. One of her canvases, "Under the Old Hau Tree," is done in a style that ought to make it a prize for any magazine publisher as a cover design.

Mrs. Lillia G. Marshall is another contributor upon whom the league can depend. She limits her brush to still life, but in the realm of that branch of art she does serious, capable work. Mrs. H. M. von Holt has presented a view of her beloved Waianae mountains, of whose purple Robert Louis Stevenson spoke so lovingly, and she has given an interesting study of a mountain stream.

James A. Wilder is represented in portraiture, and there is, as in all his work, a psychological power that gives his work nobility and rank.

A. R. Gurrey presents Nature in certain moods with fidelity and sincerity.

In plastic art, Mr. J. Rosenstein has two or three examples that are worthy.

S. Decoto is represented by a Hawaiian scene, entirely creditable.

In decorative art there is a much better collection than has been seen for several previous exhibits. There are several really fine collections of decorated china. Miss L. McStocker exhibits a large number of pieces, some of which are exquisite. Mrs. J. L. Moore is the largest contributor in this department, and she has a large number of really admirable things. Miss A. Low and Mrs. W. M. Graham are also contributors who show taste and skill.

Miss A. H. Parke's collection of illuminated and decorative Christmas cards are effective in design and in coloring.

A collection of Miss Colman's sachets and calendars is very attractive and much sought after. Her miniature picture of the Pali is a pleasing souvenir of the spot.

At the request of many members, the plans for the McKinley park pavilion were exhibited for inspection and were objects of great interest, especially the design for the rough stone entrance suggested by a number of gentlemen interested in the project.

The exhibit as a whole is indeed well worth visiting.

Mr. Hitchcock and Miss Parke were both unable to attend the reception.

The Pictorial Circle was represented by the following ladies, who received the guests on behalf of the artists: Mrs. D. Howard Hitchcock, Mrs. H. M. von Holt, Mrs. W. M. Graham, Miss Lydia McStocker and Miss Grace Robertson. Miss de Lartigue and Miss Hall served lemonade.

During the exhibition, which closes Thursday, December 5, afternoon tea will be served by different ladies of the league as hostesses between the hours of 3 to 5.

The exhibition is open to the public each day from 9 to 5; each evening except Friday from 7:30 to 9. No admission is charged and all are cordially invited to attend.

HAWAIIAN HOTEL UNDER NEW MANAGEMENT

Despite all rumors to the contrary, this popular hostelry is not only open for business, but is planning a better service than ever. In view of the retirement of Mr. Bews, Mr. Edwin O. Child of New York city has been engaged as manager; and the directors believe that they have been particularly fortunate in their selection, which was made on the recommendation of Mr. Alexander Young, during his recent visit to the mainland, upon the endorsement of Mr. Wood of the St. Francis and Mr. de Wolfe of the Imperial Hotel, San Francisco.

Mr. Child is a hotel expert of large experience, and what is perhaps of equal importance, he is a broadminded man who has seen much of the world. As such, it is confidently expected that he will be fully competent to adapt the knowledge gained in his past career to the new environment in which he is now placed as manager of the Royal Hawaiian Hotel. He has been manager of the Yarmouth Hotel, Atlantic City, N. J.; the Ocean House, Long Branch, N. J.; the York and the Ogden, both in New York. Previously to these engagements, he was chief clerk of the Ponce de Leon, St. Augustine, Fla.; the Auditorium, Chicago, and the Victoria, New York.

Mr. Child is enthusiastic about the beautiful surroundings of the Hawaiian Hotel, and is sanguine of making it a financial success. Being a thoroughly up-to-date American, he believes that the surest way to attain that end is to give his patrons exactly what they demand, to give them sterling quality, rejecting all cheap substitutes. He strongly advises the immediate reopening of the dining-room, which was temporarily closed during the dull season, and it is understood that this will be done on or about December 1.

WOMAN FREED ON HER APPEAL

McCandless Recovers Land--
The Divorce Mill--Probate Matters, Etc.

A jury in Judge Lindsay's court yesterday found Maria Rodrigues not guilty. She had appealed from a sentence of thirty days' imprisonment and fine of costs of court by District Magistrate Andrade, for violating Sec. 3195, Revised Laws.

MCCANDLESS WINS.

In the ejectment case of L. L. McCandless v. Honolulu Plantation Co., Ltd., Judge De Bolt yesterday rendered a decision, finding for the plaintiff, McCandless, for the restitution of the land and his costs. A witness had been brought from Molokai who testified that he signed a deed of the land to McCandless and that his purported signature to a deed of the same land to the defendant corporation was not genuine. Robertson for plaintiff; Prosser for defendant.

PROBATE MATTERS.

Judge De Bolt appointed Maurice Brash guardian of the five minor children of the late Mrs. Flora J. Levy, under a bond of $2500.

William T. Schmidt, administrator of the estate of the late Wilhelmine Schmidt, had his final accounts approved and himself discharged by Judge De Bolt yesterday.

TWO CHILDREN ADOPTED.

Judge De Bolt formally legalized an agreement of adoption whereby Edward H. F. Wolter and Barbara Wolter adopt as their own children, giving them their name and agreeing to maintain them, their two grandchildren, Edward Charles Quinn and Henry William Bertram Froboese. The children are surrendered by their mother, Mr. and Mrs. Wolter's daughter, Mrs. Eliese Wilhelmene Edwin Bolton.

DIVORCES.

Judge De Bolt granted Annie Aylett Poole a divorce against Thomas Poole for nonsupport.

Kaloia Kahalewai Dias was granted a divorce from Joe Dias on the ground of defendant's having contracted Chinese leprosy.

COURT NOTES.

Judge De Bolt gave judgment in favor of Thos. F. McTighe and against D. Paole for $55.02. Attorney Peterson had secured a cut of one-fifth in the bill sued on, by showing that some of the sales were unauthorized in quantity.

Hale, under sentence of five years and a fine of $1000 for criminal assault on a child of seven years, has had a motion for a new trial filed by his attorney, W. C. Achil.

The Weedon v. Chapin $4500 damage case will go to the jury tomorrow. All the Territorial courts are adjourned till tomorrow.

ACQUITTED OF LIQUOR SELLING

Japanese Couple Get Off--Hun Sentenced--The Referee Man Appears.

Suzuki and Soyo Suzuki, Japanese man and wife, were put on trial before U. S. Judge Dole yesterday for carrying on business of retail dealer in liquors without the special tax. The place of their alleged traffic was Waluku. Assistant District Attorney Dunne appeared for the United States and Judge Humphreys for the defendants.

These twelve men were sworn to try the case: W. F. Heilbron, W. S. Terry, E. C. Bond, S. A. Walker, F. H. Kilbey, J. N. Wood, E. A. McInerney, John Effinger, J. H. Schnack, J. J. Macdonald, Samuel Parker and Daniel Lovell. A verdict of not guilty was returned in the afternoon. One of the principal witnesses against the couple was a Porto Rican who said he had obtained a drink at their house one night.

COUNTERFEITER'S PENALTY. Six months at hard labor and a fine of $100 and costs made up the penalty imposed by Judge Dole on Kim Yong Hun, the Korean convicted of having in possession a counterfeiting die.

THE INDICTED PERSONS. Arraignments were among the orders of the day before Judge Dole. Melville M. Harmon, subornation of perjury; George Kekauoha and Jennie K. Kekauoha, perjury, had pleas continued until December 7.

Louis Florioff's plea to larceny was continued until November 29, when the court will assign counsel for his defense.

THE REFEREE CASE. Herbert M. Ayres, depositing unimpaired matter in the postoffice, and Rose D. Coito, bigamy, failed to appear in the morning and their cases were continued until 2 o'clock.

At the appointed hour, Mr. Ayres appeared and, answering the court's question if he had counsel, said: "I have not. I did not know of my indictment until about 10 o'clock. Yes," answering a further question, "I would like to obtain counsel."

Judge Dole continued the case until 10 o'clock Saturday, fixing bail at $1000 as it was from Ayres' committal to the grand jury.

At the close of the day the court adjourned over Thanksgiving.

Only One "BROMO QUININE" That is LAXATIVE BROMO Quinine. Used the world over to Cure Colds in One Day. E. W. Grove's signature on box.—Made by PARIS MEDICINE CO., Saint Louis, U. S. of A.

LITTLE WAIF IS MOTHERED

Child Found in Street at Birth Nurtured and Adopted by Native Woman.

Here is an intensely pathetic story of genuine human motherhood gathered from the ordinarily dry routine of judicial proceedings. It is of a beautiful child cruelly abandoned in the street at birth, but rescued by a good Samaritan reincarnate in the person of a motherly native woman, who nurtures the babe to strength and vigor. Now she claims it as her own child and, to assure herself of its possession and the infant of a comfortable home, she rivets her motherhood upon the little waif by the inviolable sanction of law.

William Moses Kapu, as his new mother names him, is a handsome boy of almost perfectly white skin, who bids fair to grow up an honor to his warm-hearted preserver.

A decree of adoption by Judge De Bolt gives Malle Iuko the charge of William Moses Kapu, with all the relations of parent and child including the latter's right of inheritance. The child's biography thus far, as related by his adoptive mother in her petition, is as follows:

"That William Moses Kapu, of the age of ten months," the petition declared, "is a child found by this petitioner on the night of January 18, 1907, on Queen street, in said Honolulu, said child having apparently been born but a few hours and deserted by its mother."

"That your petitioner does not know who the parents of said child are, and no one has made any claim to said child since said 18th day of January, 1907."

"That your petitioner has had the care, control and custody of said child from January 18, 1907, to the present time."

"That your petitioner is desirous of adopting said child so that it shall sustain toward her the legal relation of child and parent, with all of the privileges and duties appertaining to such relationship, and with full rights of inheritance from and through each other to the same extent as if said child were the petitioner's own child."

"And your petitioner further says that she is able and willing to adopt said child; to give it a comfortable home and such care and support as it may need."

Chas. F. Peterson represented the petitioner. As his contribution of sympathy for the rescued waif he gave his services in the adoption proceedings free.

AH KUM AND AH CHEONG THREE TIMES THIS WEEK

The police specials under the direction of Chief of Detectives Taylor, last night raided a gambling game in a back room of one of the buildings on King street opposite Aala park. Sixteen gamblers were captured, besides $260 and the leather dominoes with which the game was being played. Leather dominoes are a new feature in Chinese gambling, and are used because they make no noise to guide the police to the gambling place.

As important a feature of the raid as any, in the view of the police, is that the banker and cashier, Ah Kum and Ah Cheong, were also captured in the raid made by the police on Sunday night at the lively stable on Liliha street; and were captured again in the raid on Monday night at the Maunakea street place. Thus they have been captured three times in four nights by the police in gambling raids.

HERE AT HOME

Honolulu Citizens Gladly Testify and Confidently Recommend Doan's Kidney Pills.

It is testimony like the following that has placed Doan's Backache Kidney Pills so far above competitors. When people right here at home raise their voice in praise there is no room left for doubt.

Mrs. N. Joseph living at the corner of Liliha and King streets, Honolulu, states as follows: "I was troubled for seven months with a lame back, and also suffered from occasional attacks of chills. These various complaints made my condition by no means a happy one, so that I much desired some remedy which would bring relief. This I found in Doan's Backache Kidney Pills, some of which I obtained at the Hollister Drug Co.'s store. I am pleased to say that they gave me not merely temporary but permanent relief and I have not the least hesitancy therefore in recommending Doan's Backache Kidney Pills. They are a good kidney medicine."

Doan's Backache Kidney Pills are for sale by all dealers at 50 cents per box, (six boxes $2.50). Mailed by the Hollister Drug Co., Ltd., Honolulu, wholesale agents for the Hawaiian Islands.

COUNTY OVERSEEING THE WORK.

A county luna assumed charge of the telephone company's gang filling in the cable trenches on King street yesterday, there having been more or less dispute between the road supervisor and the telephone officials over the manner in which the work had been going on. A steam roller was also put on the work and the relaying of the macadam is being properly done. The expense of this is being borne by the company. The fact that the luna had not the power of hustling the shoveling gang, being there only to see that what work was done was done properly, was distinctly noticeable.

EVERETT GOES TO JAIL FOR SIX MONTHS

"I will give you what you have been looking for some time, six months in jail and fine you the costs of the court." In this way Judge Andrade concluded the talking to be handed out to Joe Everett, bootblack, hack driver, burglar and sneak thief. Everett was convicted yesterday morning of having stolen a bicycle, the property of Dr. F. E. Clark, which he had sold for $2.50. He pleaded in defense that he had bought the wheel from a Hawaiian, but could not produce the man nor tell anything about him.

Joe Lima, who had been arrested on a bench warrant for failure to keep his promise and appear for trial when wanted after having been released on his own recognizance for drunkenness, was fined $7, three of this amount being to pay for the warrant. When Joe was released four others had been let go in the same manner and failed in the same way. Since then the police have gathered in all but one.

The charge of furious driving against Jas. E. Thompson, the automobilist who ran down a young Chinaman, was not pressed, the prosecuting witness failing to appear.

Ah Fong and Tam Lum, who smashed a lot of furniture in an opium joint in Palama, were fined $7 apiece. The proprietor of the place, a Chinese woman, appeared against the two men.

H. W. S. Edmonds, who holds the record for swearing to complaints, was the prosecuting witness against S. S. Paxson, for assault, but failed to answer when he was called yesterday and the case was not pressed. Half an hour afterwards Edmonds appeared and tried to get the case reopened. Failing in this he swore out another complaint and Paxson was rearrested.

J. G. Faria, the defendant in a blind pig case, living on Beretania street, had his trial continued until December 4.

IT'S A HARD PINCH.

A striking instance of the intensity of the financial stringency on the mainland is conveyed in a private letter from a lady in Minnesota. Her husband is proprietor of a small flour mill turning out 500 barrels a day. Lately, while the mill was running day and night on lucrative export orders, the proprietor sent good checks amounting to $4000 to his bank, but was refused even $1000 in currency thereon.
