That Tired Feeling AND GENERAL DEBILITY.

The cause is poor, thin blood, resulting in deficient vitality. To overcome this, the blood needs to be enriched and vitalized, and for this there is no medicine in the world equal to Ayer's Sarsaparilla.
The cures it has worked, the men, women and children it has restored to health, are countless in number. One such experience is related by Mr.
Robert Goodfellow, Mitcham, South Australia, as follows: "I have used

AYER'S Sarsaparilla

in my family for years, and would not be without it. I used to suffer with boils and skin eruptions, attended with great lassitude and general debility. In fact, I was so ill that I could not attend to my business. Being advised to try Ayer's Sarsaparilla I did so, and I am happy to say that the medicine restored me to perfect health. I have since used Ayer's Sarsaparilla for my children, in various complaints, and it has always proved effective. I can safely recommend it to sufferers as

FIGHTING BETWEEN GREEK GUER- ILLAS AND TURKISH REGULARS.

Rebels Give the standards a setback in Cuba—Full Budgets from

TURKEY AND GREECE.

Battle Between Greek Irregulars and Turkish Troops.

On the 9th of April a party of Greek brigands crossed the border and entered Turkish territory near Grevena. The Turkish troops at that place opened fire upon the invaders and an engagement between the brigands and Turks, beginning at 5 in the morning,
was still in progress at noon.
There were about 1000 Greeks, who crossed the border at 3 a. m.
They were discovered by the Turkish outposts in a forest. The outposts fired on them and then retired on the main body. At noon when the dispatch was sent fighting was proceeding vigorously and the Greeks were holding their own. A detachment of artillery was being hurried up by the Turks, and it was thought if this could be brought into action the Greeks would be dislodged speedily from their position.

Edhem Pasha, commander in chief of the Turkish forces in Macedonia, will advance immediately if he learns that regulars are taking part in the fighting.
Orders to that effect have been issued, and it would not be surprising if the whole Turkish army should soon advance into Greece.
The situation is critical. War has not been so near since the trouble began. Telegrams are constantly passing between the military commander at Grevena and the Government at Constantinople.

It is rumored that three bands of insurgents, each numbering about 600 men, have appeared at different points in Macedonia.

The correspondent of the Associated Press was ordered to make a close investigation of the Turkish line of defense. It revealed everything in excellent shape.
The transport service is excellent.
Four thousand pack horses are employed and enormous quantities of war stores, pontoons, cannon, tents, munitions, ammunition and, in fact, everything needed for a large army have been gathered here.

A dispatch to the London Daily News from Ellassona, dated 3:20
p. m., 9th, says: The invading Greeks number 1000 and are holding their own. Telegrams are proceeding incessantly between Grevena and Constantinople.

Russians Shell Cretans.

Canea, April 9.—The Mussulmans and others, who had sought refuge in the fortress of Kissamo, arrived here today on board an Austrian transport. The garrison of the place, however, remained there under a continuous fusillade from the insurgents, who killed two soldiers today.
Later in the day a Russian gun-boat bombarded the insurgents and compelled them to retire to the heights in the vicinity of Kis-samo.

Position of Italy.

The Marquis Venosta, Minister of Foreign Affairs, in a statement to the Italian Chamber of Deputies, said it was to Italy's interest that there should not be a general war. Italy had always supported the application of effectual reforms in the Cretan question.
She had remained faithful to the concert and has cooperated in all efforts to promote the settlement desired and in every proposal calculated to render the position of Greece easier. If only Greece had lent an ear to the counsels of moderation, no humiliation would have been involved for her in deferring to the wishes of Europe. If Greece had deferred she would have attained her ob-

MRS. DIMOND'S BACKER

A MONTANA MAN WHO HAS MONEY TO BURN.

She is Studying Under Kivalty and Can Already Kick Higher Than Her Head.

Mrs. Dimond has found an "angel," according to The Call of April 9. This particular seraph, who is anxious to sing his wings with theatrical fire, hails from Montana, and, according to the lady, has more millions than he can count off on the fingers of both his hands. But he is not a reckless angel and there is a limit to his bounty. One hundred thousand dollars will be ventured on the Dimond theatrical scheme and no more. But so great is his faith in the lady's talent that he feels confident that he is going to win back his money many times over.

Mrs. Dimond is working hard to live up to the bright future predicted by the generous man from the Northwest. She is devoting four hours daily to her music and half as many to her dancing.

"I am studying under Kivalty," the lady explained, "and he says
I am making unusual progress.
I can already kick higher than my head. I practise in short skirts and am gradually feeling my way toward tights. Then I take a spin on my wheel every morning, not necessarily to reduce myself, but to harden me. My bicycle record is twenty-five miles in two hours, and that includes four stops."

Mrs. Dimond's "angel" has a representative here in the person of W. G. Hunter. He spends the greater part of his time with his superior star and superintends her studies. Mrs. Dimond, before she consented to unfold her plans, appealed to her "friend Mr. Hunter," who obligingly took the matter of explanation upon himself.

"I represent the Montana millionaire," he complacently remarked, "and whatever I say goes. He has more money than he knows what to do with, and he would just as soon drop $100,000 or so as not."

"He will put Mrs. Dimond at the head of a high class vaudeville company and star her in New York late in the fall. We will play all the big Eastern cities and San Francisco can't see our star for a year."

At present the millionaire who is so anxious to rid himself of his surplus wealth is spending money and picking orange blossoms—according to his representative—in Southern California.

"He may bring some of those blossoms home for a certain lady to wear," said Hunter. And then Mrs. Dimond smiled and blushed a delightful, progressive blush that made her fair face flush from throat to eyebrow.

There was a faraway look in her eyes when she said: "The only fault my friend finds with me is I'm too modest; but he promises me I'll get over that."

The Montana "angel," with his orange blossoms, is expected about Thursday of next week.

Oliver Optic Excluded.

As usual on the appearance of obituaries of authors, there has been a fresh demand for the profuse works of the late William T.
Adams, who as "Oliver Optic" minted stories by the bushel for youth throughout a generation past. Those who have sought to gratify their sympathetic interest at the Boston public library have,
however, met with disappointment. Seven years ago the works of "Oliver Optic" were excluded from that institution, at the suggestion of S. A. B. Abbott, whose fellow trustees at the time coincided with his opinion that they ranked with yellow covered novels of a trashy and ultra-sensational character.

ANNEXATION COMING NOW

SPALDING RESOLUTION WILL HAVE LITTLE OPPOSITION.

Follows the Plan of the Admission of Texas—Movement to Be Pushed After the Tariff.

CHICAGO, April 8.—The Chicago Chronicle's Washington correspondent sends the following:
The administration is heartily in sympathy with the scheme to annex the Hawaiian islands. The movement will be pushed with vigor as soon as the tariff bill is out of the way. The President will send a special message to Congress on the subject, if necessary, but it is believed when Congress takes the matter up it will be speedily settled to the satisfaction of the annexationists without any special interference on the part of the Executive.

Minister Hatch and Attorney-General Smith, representing the Hawaiian Government, have been actively at work during the past thirty days cultivating annexation sentiment. They have held frequent conferences with President McKinley, Secretary Sherman, Speaker Reed and the members of the Foreign Affairs Committees of both houses of Congress. They urge that annexation is necessary to save the islands from Japanese domination.

The plan agreed upon for annexation is similar to that followed in the case of Texas. The independence of Texas, like that of Hawaii, was secured mainly through the assistance of citizens of the United States. The movement for the annexation of Texas first took definite shape in the Congress of the United States. A resolution providing for annexation passed Congress in 1845.
The President of the Texas republic immediately called a convention which accepted the resolution and adopted a constitution which was satisfactory to the authorities in this country and annexation followed.

The plan to be observed in regard to Hawaii is embodied in a resolution which was presented in the House March 29th by Spalding of Michigan. It is an exact copy of the resolution which was used in the Texas case, except that the word "Hawaii" is inserted where-ever the word "Texas" occurred in the original resolution. The first section of Spalding's resolution provides that Congress consents "that the territory properly included within and rightfully belonging to the Government of Hawaii and commonly known as the Sandwich islands may be erected into a new State to be called the State of Hawaii, with a republican form of government to be adopted by the people of Hawaii by deputies, in convention assembled, with the consent of the existing Government, in order that the same may be admitted as one of the States of this Union."

It is provided in the second section that the "consent of Congress is given upon the following conditions and with the following guarantees, to wit: First, said State to be formed subject to the adjustment by the Government of all questions of boundary or jurisdiction that may arise with other Governments or former Governments of Hawaii; and the constitution thereof, with the proper evidence of its adoption by the people of the Government of Hawaii, shall be transmitted to the President of the United States, to be laid before Congress for its final action on or before the 1st day of January, 1898. Second, said State when admitted into the Union, after ceding to the United States all public edifices and all property and means pertaining to the public defense belonging to the Government of Hawaii, shall retain all public funds, debts,

THE MOLOKAI MURDERERS

SHERIFF TRIMBLE ALLOWS ONE OF THEM TO ESCAPE.

The Two Others Are Behind the Bars in This City—Hopes of Recapturing the Third.

Lieutenant Chamberlain and a force of police were on hand when the steamer Mokoli tied up at the wharf at midnight last night to escort the three Kamalo murderers who were expected on board.
Only two of them came, Sam Kuu and Sam Paahao. The third, Noa, it was explained, had escaped from Sheriff Trimble.

Last Wednesday the men were given a hearing before the Distric Magistrate and promptly committed to trial. They admitted the murder and robbery, Noa confessing that he had choked the Chinaman first and then brained him with a stone, as detailed exclusively in the BULLETIN.

On Thursday morning Sheriff Trimble took Noa into the mountains where the money that was stolen was concealed, both being on horseback. When Noa reached a likely spot he slid off his horse and was soon lost in the thick underbrush. Sheriff Trimble took several shots at him on the way but missed him and returned for more help. When the Mokoli left the Sheriff and a large posse were still looking for the murderer.

Marshal Brown is very much disgusted with the way Sheriff Trimble let Noa slip through his fingers, but he hopes that deputy marshal Hitchcock, who is now on the scene, will effect his recapture.
Hitchcock knows every man, woman and child on Molokai and is familiar with the country in which Noa is hidden. He has also a man with him who knows every foot of the mountain gulches in the vicinity.

Marshal Brown had the two accused men before him this morning separately. They both claim that Noa has approached them seven or eight times with a proposition to murder the Chinaman and rob the store, and that after holding out a long time they finally consented to help. They broke into the store, choked the woman into insensibility and dragged the man out. He fought desperately and in choking him Noa was severely scratched about the throat himself. Noa then proposed to kill the Chinaman and Ku held him while he mashed his head with a stone. Paahao refused to assist in the deed, saying it was more than he bargained for, and turned his face away so as not to see it. They then returned to the store and took a quantity of things.
Noa broke open the money drawer, but the two men say he did not find anything in it, and that when they divided the stolen property afterward Noa told them there was no money.

Both men say that Noa's story of buried money was only a blind to get Sheriff Trimble up in the mountains and give him a chance to escape. They say there is abundance of water, wild taro and bananas in the gulches where Noa is hiding and that the officers will have a hard time in capturing him.

Reasons Why.

There are two reasons why people are now paying car fare all the way from Waikiki to the Palama Grocery and back. Reason
1. It is the only place on the Islands where the celebrated Salvation Army tea is sold. Reason 2. After paying car fare both ways patrons find they are money in pocket by dealing at this "live and let live" establishment. We also deliver goods between Diamond Head and Moanalua free.

TOM WALKER'S ESCAPE

FIRE A RIFLE BULLET INTO EM- MELUTH'S NEW BUILDING.

The Shot Supposed to Have Been Directed at Emmeluth, With Whom He Had Trouble.

Considerable excitement was created on King street this morning in the vicinity of the new Emmeluth building. Tom Walker is the contractor for putting up the brick work and from all accounts has not been attending to his work as he should have done for the past week, for which he has been called down by the owner. There were high words this morning after the work had commenced and Walker went off in a rage.
About 8:25, while Emmeluth was standing in the front of the upper story of the building, some one called out to him from the street to come down. He looked down and saw Walker standing behind the wall in front of the Arlington hotel with a rifle pointed up in his direction. Almost at the same instant a report was heard and a bullet went unpleasantly close to Mr. Emmeluth, who made good time in reaching the rear of the building.

The report of the rifle drew a large number of people to the spot and in the excitement Walker disappeared. Captain Parker and a number of officers were quickly on the scene, but Walker was nowhere about the building. The rifle was found standing against the rear wall of the ground floor, which looks as though he had intended to go up the elevator ladder but had altered his mind.

Mr. Emmeluth, who carries one arm in a sling as the result of a recent severe accident at his pineapple cannery, came down the ladder shortly afterward and was asked as to the cause of the trouble.

"Well," he said, "Tom has been off for a week and not doing right. I told him pretty plainly what I thought of him. He went off in a huff and the next I saw of him was in the Arlington grounds.
He called to me to come down and have it out or words to that effect. He had his rifle pointed in my direction and I suppose he shot at me. The man is crazy. That's all there is to it."

Captain Parker took the rifle to the police station. Mr. Emmeluth put on a temporary foreman to continue the work at 9 o'clock and matters soon resumed their wonted appearance about the building.

When Captain Parker got back to the police station he found Walker there before him. He said: "I want to deliver myself up, I have just shot Emmeluth?"
He was booked for investigation and locked up.

Captain Parker made a further investigation later on and showed a BULLETIN reporter the bullet which he had picked out of the wooden ceiling over the spot where Emmeluth was standing. From where Walker stood by the side of a big tree inside the Arlington wall and near the gate to where the ball struck was in a direct line with the place where Emmeluth stood. The aim was good enough but Walker forgot to make sufficient allowance for the upper deflection in shooting to such a height. As it was the ball passed just four feet over Emmeluth's head and one foot from the head of another man working near.

It was learned later that the cause of the trouble was over Walker's contract, on which it appears he lost money. He has drawn the full amount due him and the work is yet uncompleted. Mr. Emmeluth insisted on his bondsmen completing the work and there has been trouble ever since. About two weeks ago Walker commenced to drown his sorrows in drink and according to some of his fellow workmen has been crazy drunk the past few days.

FLOWERS IN DECORATION.

Floral Arrangements For the Table—Bonquets For Dances and Receptions.

Floral arrangements for the table are still flat and low of build, making no barrier to one's vision of the opposite neighbor. One of the prominent dinner givers of the early winter season ordered, in flat, oblong arrangement, a basket of these American Beauties in which the roses mustered 300 strong, the basket being 1 1/4 yards in length. The shallow basket edge was hidden by an outer row of the blossoms hanging their heads lightly against the snowy damask tablecloth. Six high standing vases held bunches of roses of the same species at regular intervals along the table. Very pretty was the basketful of roses.

The introduction of butterflies among floral decorations is a novel fashion. Large wooden boxes of these gauzy winged insects, in careful condition of preservation, are shown on demand, and when ordered are placed on very fine wires, which give the effect of a live insect just about to flutter, which is most decorative and attractive. The butterflies are imported from Paris, whence came the custom of employing them for additional decoration. A high vase filled with flowers, over which fluttered several butterflies, met with applause at the reception of a New York woman of fashion.

American Beauty leads among the roses. Other roses of fame and fashion are the Mme. Cusin, of rare beauty, pink of color—such a pink—the Bride-maid's rose, with shading of pink cultivated to tone in and contrast with the Bride rose of spotless white, so fitly named and used for bridal bouquets. These interspersed with orchids are most beautiful for a bride to carry on her wedding day, while in shape, as a variety of build, the English shower bouquet may be used, being graceful and popular. As is known, this is a broad, flat bunch, spreading fanlike, the flowers falling one beneath the other in shower effect half way down the gown. These are, however, heavy to carry and must be held in the one position. Bouquets for dances, opera and debutante's receptions are varied in having ferns interspersed with the roses or not, according to fancy. They oftentimes are tied with many bows and ends of satin ribbon and vary in size from one to many dozens of blossoms.

The violet of the season is the Marie Louise, deep blue and double, while the Parma is accounted second in rank owing to its lighter coloring. For simple decoration the pale carnation has not a peer, says Vogue, authority for the foregoing.

Billy Mason and His House.

An Illinois member of congress had dined with Billy Mason in Chicago. They had talked of the desire of Mr. Mason to go to the senate, had admired the beautiful house in which he lived, and then, smoking an after dinner cigar, the two friends walked down town together. When they were some distance from the house, the congressman turned and looked back at the large and brilliantly lighted dwelling. "You have a beautiful home," said the congressman. "Yes," replied Mason, with a smile that was both proud and a sigh, "but I can hear that house drawing interest two squares away."—Argonaut.

For more than fifty years has PERRY DAVIS' PAIN KILLER stood the test against all remedies prepared to eradicate pain, and today stands at the head of the list among the medicines that are so essential to keep at hand in the home.

It is not a new fangle remedy nor do the proprietors lay claim to any wonderful revelation of the ingredients that enter into the manufacture of this ever popular remedy.

It is perfectly harmless, you need have no fear of becoming habitually inclined to its use.

For Colic, Cramps, Dysentery, Colds, and all painful affections, a few doses will certainly give relief. You cannot afford to be without a bottle in the house.

Your forefathers used it and found it beneficial.

Why experiment with some remedy that is new and its effect on the system unknown?

It has many rivals but no equal.

Price 25c. and 50c. a bottle.

SHE STROVE TO PLEASE.

But Her Inconsistent Husband Refused to Be Satisfied After All.

"What's this?" he exclaimed as he scanned the bill. "Who ordered all these dry goods and notions?"

"I did, dear," his wife replied.

"Haven't you clothes enough?"

"Certainly not. You had asked me to go driving with you this afternoon, and I did not desire to be a sight."

It was all said without any great asperity, but with that unhesitating frankness which shows that the honeymoon has been over for many years.

"Well," he commented, "it seems to me that the women of the present day exert themselves with more industry than sense in their efforts to be beautiful. As they get themselves up now they are simply outlandish."

"Is that intended as a personal remark?"

"Not at all. You are only one of the many. You are not to be expected to step forth and defy these absurd fashions, praiseworthy as such a course would be. You are not the stuff of which martyrs are made. I don't blame you for yielding to the inevitable. I yield myself, but I cannot help sighing for the sweet simplicity of days gone by."

"Perhaps I do not seem as attractive to you now, because I have grown older."

"It isn't that," he protested. "You are more sensible and companionable than ever. But I say, without desiring to hurt your feelings, that you don't dress with the taste that you showed 20 years ago, when we were married."

"I—I do my best."

"Of course you do. As I said before, you can't help it."

"But I am anxious to please you."

"Well, you can please me by being ready early. If we can avoid being late, as usual, I'll not have a word to say. We're always late wherever we go, and I won't have a word to say about how you're dressed, provided only that it's done in a hurry."

That afternoon he sat down in the library to wait till his wife had completed her attire. He lifted his gaze from the paper in response to her inquiry, "How do I look, dear?"

He sprang to his feet and vainly struggled for words. She wore a very small hat, a large chignon and strangely proportioned masses of millinery, for which his vocabulary could find no polite phrase. A diminutive parasol completed the absurdity.

"Arabella," he exclaimed, in a dazed manner, "we're just going driving, you know! It isn't any masquerade."

"Don't you like it?" she queried in a tone of astonishment.

"Like it!"

"I expected you to say I was pretty," she pouted.

"Arabella, I'm fond of you, but I can't lie. You aren't any prettier than a cross-eyed pelican. Whatever possessed you to do anything like that?"

"It was simply to please you, dear."

"To please me!"

"Yes. It's the way I dressed 20 years ago, when we were married."—Washington Star.

Mr. C. W. MacFarlane—It affords me pleasure to recommend, to any one whose hair is falling out, the use of DR. POTTIE'S HAIR OIL. My hair was coming out at such a rate as led me to believe that I would soon become bald. After using the oil for five weeks this ceased entirely; none whatever is now falling out. I consider it the best and only worthy remedy for this trouble and also recommend it as a stimulant to new growth.

The Evening Bulletin.

DANIEL LOGAN, Editor.

SATURDAY, APRIL 17, 1897.

In the German parliament early this month a motion prevailed for the complete abrogation of the Jesuit exclusion law, also a motion to restore in the courts the administering of the oath according to the religious of witnesses. Unmingled tolerance is good policy in the long run. There are abundant resources of tried merit for the protection of free communities from clerical interference in politics. On the very same date as that of these transactions in the Reichstag, the Minister of Justice of France was able to give a satisfactory answer to an interpellation regarding the alleged aggressive attitude of Clericals in that country. After saying that the statements in respect to the interference complained of had been greatly exaggerated, he declared that the Cabinet would always resolutely enforce all proper respect for the rights of the civil authorities. The questioner expressed himself as satisfied with this declaration on the part of the Government.

Uruguay is sustaining the equatorial reputation with an old-fashioned revolution. Political doldrums never prevail long in that quarter. The latest by the Mariposa's mail was that the insurgents had been defeated with heavy loss, but there were more where they came from, and pouring to the front over the Brazilian border. It is a wonder the universal moralist who cries out for interference with outrage in the old world has nothing to say about the perennial freebooting and throatcutting in the new world.

Great Britain has scored again in great feats of diplomacy by getting a lease of Delagoa Bay for thirty years and that without the knowledge of the Transvaal Government. The annual rental she is to pay is two and a half million dollars. Apparently the transaction signifies the retirement of Portugal from Africa. It gives Great Britain new vantage ground of tremendous importance.

In its issue of the 9th inst. from which the Chicago Chronicle's dispatch elsewhere printed has been cut, the San Francisco Examiner editorially comes out flatfooted for the annexation of Hawaii. It argues that the issue now is between the Americans and the Japanese, also that the control of the natives has passed away forever.

Next to arbitration the friendly game of chess being arranged between the House of Commons at Westminster and the House of Representatives at Washington is most significant of good international feeling. If the game should interfere with quorums it may thereby only check hasty legislation in either or both of the assemblies.

Annexation is coming now.

LATEST FOREIGN NEWS.

ject, namely, the liberation of the Cretans. In conclusion the Marquis said no government dare assume the responsibility of isolated action in the Eastern question.

Blockade Doubtful.

The conviction still prevails at Athens that the blockade of Greece will not be enforced, although some diplomats believe it will soon be an accomplished fact. The ministerial Proia indignantly denies the charge that the Government is prepared to barter Crete for the territory assigned to Greece by the Berlin conference. It is urged at Athens that the powers cannot lawfully prevent Greece from advancing to the frontier granted her by the decision of united Europe, and of which she was deprived by the refusal of Turkey to confirm the decision.

Preparing for War.

War preparations throughout the Turkish empire continue to be steadily pressed.

It is believed at Constantinople that the Powers are losing their hold over the course of events, and that their so-called concert is a failure.

From Larissa, Greece, it is stated that in spite of the official intelligence that the Powers have arranged to settle the Cretan question by a plebiscite of the island, there is no cessation of war preparations. Troops are being forwarded daily to the frontier and posts are being strengthened. The transportation arrangements are admirable. The troops are full of enthusiasm and they are splendidly equipped.

UNITED STATES.

The Patriarchs, a once powerful oligarchy in New York society, have disbanded owing to decline.

Miss Grace Dinmore of Birmingham, N. Y., in answer to an advertisement has consented to part with the middle finger of her right hand, at the middle joint, for $1000. It is to be grafted on the hand of Mrs. C. V. Barton of Houston, Texas, to replace a diseased member. Miss Dinmore is an orphan who has an ambition to be a singer, and will use the money for her finger to educate her in the Boston Conservatory of Music.

Torrents pouring into the lower Mississippi threaten Southern cities. Whole families are afloat in Arkansas.

Seventeen guests of the Hotel Knox, Knoxville, Tennessee, are missing since the burning of the hotel in a conflagration on the 8th inst. The fire destroyed property valued at $1,611,000, on which the insurance was $614,210.

A cyclone in Georgia has devastated towns with much loss of life.

President McKinley is taking a southern trip in the dispatch boat Dolphin.

Hunter is within two votes of being elected Senator for Kentucky.

Sugar and other weighty matters of the tariff will not be considered in the Senate until the simpler schedules are disposed of.

The Navy Department invites tenders for three more 30 knot torpedo boats.

A cargo of 3100 tons of sugar, the first ever received direct from Egypt, has arrived at New Orleans.

Speaker Street of the Kansas Legislature has testified to an attempt to bribe him with $1000.

Bradstreet's latest issue shows no improvement in business, and has a generally depressing tone.

Durrant was to be produced in court on the 10th for sentence to San Quentin to await execution. His lawyer was to move for a stay of proceedings and, if not granted, would press an appeal in the United States Supreme Court in the sixty days that must at least elapse before execution.

Indianapolis street railways are fighting a three cent fare law in the courts.

Warrants are out for the arrest of the officers of the defunct

Globe Savings Bank of Chicago, on the charge of receiving money when the bank was insolvent. Bonds of the University of Illinois and a cash grant by the Legislature to that institution, both together amounting to more than $800,000, seem to be lost in the swindle.

The Greater New York charter has been returned to the Legislature with the disapproval of Mayor Strong of New York and Mayor Wuerster of Brooklyn. Mayor Gleason of Long Island City approved the charter.

Arbuckles Bent.

The Arbuckles have lost their injunction suit in Ohio against the Sugar Trust. While the Court finds that the Woolson company is being run for the benefit of the trust, and that coffee prices were lowered to hurt the Arbuckles, etc., yet it holds the Arbuckles are not prosecuting the case in good faith, but to protect their greater interests as coffee roasters, and, therefore, though an ordinary stockholder might have relief, the Arbuckles cannot.

EUROPE.

The French Government will present a bill to more effectually safeguard public morality. It will have stricter censorship against immoral songs, papers and pictures.

The American Chamber of Commerce in Paris has passed a resolution opposing duties on literary and artistic products.

The Jameson Raid.

At the Transvaal parliamentary investigation Dr. Jameson indignantly denied having told the officers that he had the Queen's Government at his back, remarking that it would have been idiotic in him and absolutely untrue to say so.

Sir John Willoughby, in telling his story, said he gathered from his talks with Mr. Jameson that if he succeeded in entering Johannesburg, Lord Rosemead, the then Governor of Cape Colony and British High Commissioner for South Africa, would do the rest.

VARIOUS LANDS.

President Kruger has ordered that his grandson, Lieutenant Eloff, shall be placed on trial before a special court for the offensive language recently used by him in a public reference to Queen Victoria at Johannesburg. Peru has stopped the coining of silver and prohibited the importation of silver coins.

April 16 was appointed by the Government of New South Wales as a day of humiliation and prayer for rain.

The Congress of Central America at Tegucigalpa, Honduras, has granted a concession for a railway from the Atlantic to the Pacific.

The Dominion Government is going to organize a territorial government to facilitate the development of the gold fields of Platinio, which the geological survey reports to be the richest on the continent. The chief difficulty is not the winter cold, but the trouble of getting supplies into the country.

Mgr. Del Val, the Papal legate to Canada, has held a conference with the Catholic hierarchy at Montreal behind closed doors. The subject was the Manitoba school controversy.

CUBA.

At Last a Fight and the Cubans Win.

One thousand insurgents defeated the Spanish battalion of Gerona at San Miguel de Encrucijada. After a hard to hand fight the Spanish retired, leaving on the field their dead and wounded, also horses, arms and ammunition.

Since Maceo's time no other battle of such importance has been fought in the province of Pinar del Rio. The effect produced in Havana by the news is almost unprecedented. The Spaniards explain that the combination of two columns, which were to attack the Cubans on two sides, failed. The victory has been especially grateful to the Cubans, as they were in need of ammunition, and had decided to use their last in this action. They captured 200 rifles and about 200,000 rounds of ammunition.

General Rivera is still a prisoner.

The United States Senate resolution regarding Rivera is filed in the State Department, no action being deemed necessary in view of the information that Rivera would not be shot.

THE NATIONAL FEED BOX is a perfect device for slow feeding in the stables or on the road and is a boon both to the horse and his owner. It is the best device yet invented for feeding all kinds of grain, chopped food, bran mash, water or medicine.

It is made of steel, practically indestructible. The follower slides on a malleable iron rod, riveted to the box, our latest invention. Finely galvanized. Easily Cleaned. Pure and Odorless. Light and Portable. The only box for campaigning. Used and approved by owners and drivers of the fastest horses in the world. Especially adapted to the use of fire and police departments, stock farms, and public and private stables.

Owners and drivers of horses entered for the 11th of June races should see that their animals are provided with these feed boxes. They will be sure winners if they do. Betting men should not invest a dollar on a horse that has not been fed from the NATIONAL FEED BOX. They will be sure losers if they do.

but unfortunately for us it is not glistening on them in this country, as our shipment of STEARNS wheels was put on the "W. H. Dimond," so is not due here for a week. Our COLUMBIAS also are still out of wheeling range, as they got to S. F. the day before the steamer sailed, and no more freight would be received, but they will come along soon, and in the meantime we want you to know that we received 97 RAMBLERS by yesterday's steamer, and can fit you out with either a '96 or '97 wheel, and we know we can suit you. The 1896 RAMBLER is the bargain of the year and the chance to buy a well known high grade wheel for $75 and $80 will not last long, as we are informed by the makers that this is the last lot of '96 wheels they can furnish, for, as they write, "our sales have been phenomenal, and you took the last '96 wheels we had in stock."

WE RENT BICYCLES by the hour, day, week or month, and we rent high grade new wheels, such as RAMBLERS, STEARNS, and COLUMBIAS, so if you want a short ride or a long ride, want to ride single or want to ride double, drop in and see how nicely we can fit you out. You will get just as good a mount if you telephone us, and we will send your wheel to your door. Your chance to buy a '96 RAMBLER cheap will only last a few days, don't miss it.

ABOUT CARVING.

How to Do It Well—By an Expert in the Art.

First, as to the position of the carver, he should not stand, but should have his chair high enough so that he can work comfortably seated.

The platter, which must be sufficiently capacious to hold the entire joint, or bird, when carved, should be placed near enough to prevent a moving of the dish or an awkwardness in his movements. And of all things no string or skewer should be left in the meat when it is brought to the table. Neglect of this particular may cause no end of annoyance.

Large birds, such as geese and turkeys, should have their heads placed always to the left. Smaller birds, like partridges and grouse, which are usually placed across the platter, should have their heads on the farther side. A saddle of mutton should be placed with the tail end to the left of the carver; a haunch of venison or mutton with the loin or backbone nearest the carver; a leg of mutton or veal with the thickest part toward the back of the platter; a shoulder of mutton or veal with the thickest part up, and a rib roast or a sirloin roast with the backbone at the right. In a sirloin beefsteak, the tenderloin should be next the carver. A fillet of beef should have the thickest end at the right, but a calf's head must be placed with the face to the right. A roast pig's head should be placed to the left and the thickest side of a roast ham on the farther side of the platter.

Now, as to the actual carving. Suppose it is a leg of mutton or lamb. Put the fork in the top, turn it toward you and cut slices through to the bone; slip the knife under and cut them away. The best way to learn to carve a fowl is to study it in an uncooked state. When one finds a joint and cuts the grille, the leg or wing is free. In carving roast chicken the leg and wing are first removed from one side and then from the other. Next the breast is carved on each side, and then the wishbone comes off. Separate the collar bones and shoulder blades, the breastbone from the back, then the back from the body, and then the side bones.

How to Dye Straw Black.

Take about half a pound of logwood chips for each hat, and to every half pound add 4 quarts of soft water, or as much as will cover the hats. Boil the hats in this for half an hour without bruising the straw. Then remove them; add more water and a bit of copperas about the size of a bean for each hat. When quite dissolved, return the hats and simmer for 20 minutes. Lift while simmering, to get the air, then remove entirely. Rinse well in plenty of cold water and hang out in the shade to dry. When ready, stiffen the hats by brushing over with light glue, and when dry block as usual.

To Clean a Barrel.

To remove an odor from a barrel half fill it with cold water. Heat half a dozen stones the size of the palm of the hand until they are redhot and throw them into the water and let the water remain in the barrel until cold. Then rinse the barrel with clean cold water.

For Music Pupils.

Excerpts from sonatas, concertos, etc., comprising single movements can be used to great advantage as studies.

By practicing sight reading an hour each day you can easily acquire facility. Don't guess regarding a note, but think it out and know all about it.

Read somewhat in advance of your playing for correct time, fingering and notes.

Read by pulses (counts), groups and motives, rather than by single notes.

The gyrostile is a small device or machine to develop the hands of musicians by scientific method. It can be carried to the hand of the student or in the pocket. List of exercises goes with each machine.

It is quite possible for persons without previous musical knowledge to acquire much for vocal use, from the rudiments to phrasing and expression, by means of singing societies under able leadership.—Etude.

A VOICE FROM THE BLEACHERS.

Local interest in the cricket games as reflected from the "bleachers" is increasing. During Saturday's games the "bleachers" were particularly vociferous and kept the players under a running fire of good natured banter. One small boy brought down the crowd by advising the batsman to "go buy a case of Rainier Beer and get some life in you." The crowd applauded the remark, knowing that Rainier Beer is celebrated for its invigorating and strength-giving propensities. On tap or in bottles at the Criterion.

THE BULBUL OF POHICK.

she Drops Into Poetry Once More and Specially Immortalizes Chickings.

"It is a long time since I have burst into song," writes the Bulbul of Po-hick, "owing to the fact that we all have gone into the chicking business, which do take a great deal of time until it gets well under way. But do not think, gentle reader, that you cannot tend chickings and have thoughts at the same time. If I had not anything to do except to think and write down day in and day out, I would most likely turn out a great deal more poetry than what I do, but I think that melody is all for the best. Poems are not artificial products. Like eggs, they come in the natural course of events, and there is no use of trying to crowd the hen. The true poet always chooses the subject that is closest to his or her heart, and therefore the title of this piece is:

CHICKINGS.

"O gentle two legged animals, your feathers
Protect you in all kinds of weathers!
And though
The chilly winds of winter blow,
You do not care how much they do so.
But let them go ahead and blow,
And blow.

Bounteous nature showers on you
Her gentleness the whole year through.
She furnishes you with a covering rare
With which, for beauty and durability, our Sunday clothes cannot compare.
With graceful plumage your girth she trims,
And you are born with ruffles around your limbs.

Therefore, O chickings, look up and cease re-pinning!

Your lot is full of gloom!
Thou hast many reasons for declining
To change places with such as me, as me,
To change places with such as me.
For you do not heed the seasons shifting.
Nor the clouds which into a life are drifting.
Though skies are bleak and branches bare,
You get your board and lodging free and do not care.

With me it is a very different thing.
When the snow has fell and the birds do not sing,
And the mercury drops with great persistence,
I think of my own sad, cold existence.
So take this lesson and ponder it over.
Do not trifle with the heart of a fond, true lover.
Look, like me, you find your legs well fringed—Me, who am no one's and might have been his'n."

—Washington Star.

Fatigued Freddie—Say, does yer believe in de old sayin dat it's a pore rule dat won't work both ways?

Languid Lawrence—Nit. It tink it's a pore rule dat'll work at all.—New York World.

A Reckless Buyer.

He walked into a store on Marietta street and asked:

"What's them ginhams wuth?"

"Ten cents," replied the clerk.

"By de whole bolt?"

"It comes a little cheaper by de bolt. How many bolts?"

"Got any jeans?"

"Stacks of 'em."

"What's hit by de 500 yards?"

"Oh, it's away down in big lots like that."

"How's quilt linin by de wholesale?"

"Say," said the salesman with excitement, "we can beat de world on quilt linin. We can make it to you in carload lots at 2 cents a yard. How much will you take?"

"Bout half a yard."—Atlanta Constitution.

An Uncrossed Limitation.

"They say that these pugilists are very ill tempered people," remarked Maud.

"Yes," replied Maudie, "and it is my opinion that they have been misrepresented."

"I don't see how you know."

"I have read about them. And I have noticed that however much they quarrel they never get so angry that they won't speak to one another."—

TWO LINERS ARRIVE

THIS A LIVELY DAY ALONG THE DOCKS.

U. S. S. Philadelphia Anchors in the Bay This Morning—Many Interesting Marine Notes.

S. S. Warrimoo sails for the Colonies at 4 p. m.

The schooner Ka Moi is to sail for Paauilo at 2 Monday.

The Lehua will leave at 2 p. m. Monday for Honohina, Hakalau, Honomu and Pepeekeo.

The ship Kenilworth and bark Alden Beale left San Francisco for Honolulu on April 3.

The ex-revenue cutter Kaena is on the boards to sail at 9 Monday for Waiialua, Pauiki and Moku-leia.

With four warships in port, the boatboys are happy. There will soon be a lot of surplus money in town.

On April 4 the German ship H. F. Glade sailed from Bremen for Honolulu. She passed Dover on the 6th.

Tomorrow, high tide large 5:07 p. m.; high tide small 4:00 a. m.; low tide large 9:38 a. m.; low tide small 10:00 p. m.

Arrived at San Francisco—April 4: U. S. S. Alert, 13 days from Honolulu; April 7: Bright, W. G. Irwin, 15 days from Honolulu; Schr. H. C. Wright, 18 days from Kahului. April 8: S. S. Monowai, 6 days 14 hours, Schr. Fred E. Sander, 19 days, from Honolulu.

The schooner Ka Moi, Captain Sam, sailed on Saturday the 10th for Paauilo with a cargo of fertilizer and merchandise at 10 a. m., arriving there at 9 a. m. Monday. After discharging his general cargo he loaded with sugar and set sail for Honolulu on Wednesday, arriving on Thursday night. The schooner Moiwahine came in this morning with a load of sugar, and the Kauikaeouli with another load is due. The weather at Paauilo is reported to be good at present. There are 10,000 bags of sugar, more or less, awaiting shipment from there.

The S. F. Chronicle of April 2 says: Spain will send a cruiser to take part in the naval ceremonies over the reinterment of the remains of General Grant. Quite likely, however, she will instruct the Captain to keep clear of the Brooklyn Navy Yard. In 1873, just before the Virginius difficulty, the Spanish cruiser Anrapales went there to use the drydock and could not get out of it until the trouble had been settled, some months later. From that time until the Columbian naval parade no Spanish war ship ever entered New York harbor.

S. S. Warrimoo.

The C. A. S. S. Warrimoo, W. E. White, R. N. R., commander, left Vancouver April 9 at 5 a. m. and Victoria the same day at 3 p. m. Experienced fine weather and smooth sea the whole passage.

The Rio.

The S. S. City of Rio de Janeiro, from San Francisco, April 10 at 2 p. m., arrived at daylight this morning. She tied up at Oceanic dock. A smooth, pleasant trip is reported. Among the passengers for Honolulu were Hon. W. O. Smith and Col. Z. S. Spalding. The Rio leaves for the Orient at 4 p. m. today.

Lively Day.

Things were quite lively along the waterfront today. Two big steamships arrived this morning, besides several island steamboats and sailing craft. Sugar is being rushed into two big ships for New York, while other foreign vessels are discharging coal, lumber and merchandise. The U. S. Flagship Philadelphia entered this morning and dropped anchors in naval row in the extreme west end. As the great white cruiser passed the wharves, her band played some lively airs. Many people lined the waterfront to see the warship steam to her berth. Pilot Macaulay guided the vessel safely into port.

Original Bock.

The Warrimoo that is expected here April 16 from Victoria will bring a large consignment of Original Bock Beer for the Anchor Saloon. While there has been Bock Beer on the Honolulu market, it does not begin to compare with the consignment that the Anchor will have on tap after the arrival of the Warrimoo. The reason for this is that the Bock that has already arrived is too fresh. The Bock Beer in the States is made at the first of the year and kept till May 1. The consignment to arrive is some of the original beer and is guaranteed to be better than any Bock ever imported. Wait for it. It will be on tap at the Anchor after the arrival of the Warrimoo.

Hicks—What a confounded chatter those women are keeping up in that room! Wonder what they're up to? Wicks—Having a game of whist, I believe. Hicks—Of course; I ought to have known it.

U. S. S. PHILADELPHIA.

Uncle Sam's White Flagship Arrived Last Night.

About 8 o'clock last night, the U. S. S. Philadelphia, Admiral Beardslee's flagship, was sighted from Diamond Head. At 9 o'clock she was anchored near the bell-buoy off the harbor. Signals with rockets and lights were exchanged with the war vessels in the harbor. Pilot Sanders boarded the ship and received orders from the admiral for the Marion to move to another berth in the harbor, as he wished the flagship to have the most westerly position. Early this morning the Marion moved to the east of H. B. M. S. Wild Swan, and about 8:30 the Philadelphia dropped anchor and swung into her place in naval row. As the white cruiser steamed into the harbor, her little band played some fine music, which was much appreciated by people on the waterfront and aboard the other vessels.

The trip from San Diego was made in 8 days. Following are the officers: Commander in chief, Rear Admiral L. A. Beardslee; Staff, Lieut. G. M. Stoner, flag lieutenant; Ensign A. L. Willard, flag secretary; Commander, Capt. C. S. Cotton; Lt. Commander, R. R. Ingersoll; Lieutenants, W. P. Elliott, A. G. Winterhalter, J. B. Bligh, G. W. Brown, R. E. Coontz; Ensigns, G. N. JAPAN AND HAWAII.

Japanese Demand of Designs to Annex or Control the Islands.

Seattle (Wash.), April 9.—A party of distinguished gentlemen of Japan are in the city en route to Eastern and European cities. They leave for San Francisco in the morning. The party includes one member of the diplomatic service on his way to London, six Government officials and three prominent business men. One is a Japanese commissioner on his way to Washington to attend the Postal Congress. Another is a noted architect who has been entrusted with the formation of plans for the new imperial palace. Japanese officials, they say, deny that Japan has any intention to annex or control Hawaii. They ridicule the idea of any possible trouble between Japan and the United States over the affair, saying that no two countries in the world are more closely bound by ties of mutual commercial interests.

CITIZENS' ATTENTION.

These are days of considerable anxiety and perplexity to all who have possessions or other interests in the Republic of Hawaii, and it is time that our citizens came to a mutual understanding on several important issues. The prospects for Annexation appear at present vague and indistinct, and our destiny cannot be foretold with certainty. There are those, also, who still fondly cling to the hope of a return to the old order of things, and who cannot be persuaded otherwise, yet this outlook appears far more hazy than that of Annexation even to the most hopeful disciples of the Monarchy. But, fortunately, in the midst of all this uncertainty there is solace in the fact that Buffalo Beer has come to stay and that patrons of all sorts and opinions may equally share the benefits of its invigorating and sustaining properties. We are moreover assured that this favorite brew will continue to be dispensed as heretofore at the Royal, Pacific and Cosmopolitan Saloons.
