Wharf Tolls to be Considered By Maui Chamber

Tentative Schedule For Territorial Charges Is Submitted For Consideration by Harbor Board.

Proposed wharfage tolls for the islands will be considered by the Maui Chamber of Commerce at its meeting Thursday afternoon. A letter submitting a tentative schedule which has been prepared by the Harbor Board was received from Lyman H. Bigelow, chairman of the board, by Secretary D. H. Case of the Chamber at the end of last week.

Hitherto the territory has received not one penny on the vast volume of business passing across its wharves. Its income has been confined to port charges and pilot fees, which yielded sums insufficient to pay interest on the bonds, from the sale of which the piers and wharves were built. In short, the millions expended by the board of harbor commissioners, while contributing to the prosperity of the territory and thus indirectly to the upkeep of the government, were a source of additional outlay instead of an investment for revenue. When Congress passed the rehabilitation act it empowered the Territory to levy tolls.

Senator Rice, during the last session of the legislature suggested the holding up of wharf building programs until such time as the territory might secure a revenue from such wharves.

Tolls are divided into three classes: (1) incoming freight, to include all shipments to an island port from any port outside of the Hawaiian Islands, (2) outgoing freight, to include all freight shipped from any island port to any port outside the Hawaiian Islands, and (3) intra-island freight to include all freight shipped from one island port to any other island port. Tax Revision Bill Is Passed by Senate With Many Changes

(ASSOCIATED PRESS)

WASHINGTON, Nov. 8.—Much revised as to form and provisions from the shape in which it was adopted by the house of representatives, the Tax Revision Bill was passed by the Senate this morning at 1:35 o'clock. The vote on final passage was 28 to 24. Only one democrat, Broussard, voted for the measure and three republicans, LaFollette, Moses and Norris, recorded their votes again it.

It is estimated that the bill will yield a revenue of three and quarter billion dollars for the fiscal year, $200,000,000 less than the present law. If all the changes contained in it shall become effective the measure will ultimately work a reduction of $750,000,000.

The measure will go back to the house and it is expected conference committees will be appointed at once.

In the night session that preceded final passage of the bill, the senate agreed to an amendment taxing gifts at rates ranging from one percent on those of $20,000 or less up to 25 percent on $10,000,000, to prevent a division of property in the life of the donor in order to escape the provisions of the inheritance tax. It struck out provisions permitting holding companies to deduct from its corporation taxes sums that may have been paid in taxes by the subsidiary stock companies. It adopted an amendment making corporation stock taxes the same as under the present law, one dollar on each thousand dollars of capital stock above $5000 and defeated another effort to continue excess profits taxes beyond the sum agreed upon. It agreed to LaFollette's amendment making tax returns public and defeated three efforts to change corporation income taxes from the 15 percent previously agreed upon.

Lahaina Takes Lead In Plans to Observe Signing of Armistice

Armistice Day will be observed in Lahaina with a community program, the day being selected since on Maui there will not be a plantation holiday on Friday though places of business are expected generally to close, flags are to be at half staff, it is hoped and asked that here will be observed the two minutes of silent prayer at noon and the President has asked that church bells shall ring from 11:45 to noon, their cessation being the signal for silent prayer and reverence to those who gave up their lives or their health in the great war.

Saturday evening, the American Legion will hold an Armistice ball in the Territorial Building at Kahului. It is an All-Maui observance of the anniversary of the ending of the war for it is open to the whole public and is entirely without cost to those who may see fit to enjoy the hospitality the legion offers on that occasion.

In Lahaina, the National Guard, the churches, the schools, Boy Scouts and Girl Scouts and citizens generally will unite in the Sunday ceremonies. The armory is to be the meeting place and from there a procession will form and move to the banyan tree back of the court house. Chairman S. E. Kalamia has been asked to preside at the meeting. "Pop" Hutton, Boy Scouts' commissioner, has consented to sing and Rev. J. O. Warner of Honolulu will be the chief speaker of the occasion.

Foreign Debt Interest Too Uncertain for Bonus Basis

(ASSOCIATED PRESS)

WASHINGTON, Nov. 7.—Senator Lodge speaking before the senate opposed the immediate payment of the soldiers' bonus from interest on the foreign debts and said in part, "Whenever we pay the bonus, as we undoubtedly shall, I shall want it to be a real payment. No one knows when we shall begin to get the foreign credit interest and we certainly are not going to use force to collect it."

Bandit Gang Loots Train But Leaves Valuables Behind

(ASSOCIATED PRESS)

PAXTON, Ill., Nov. 8.—Fully ten bandits participated last night in one of the most daring train holdups ever reported in this vicinity. As a result one passenger and five train hands were injured.

Three of the bandits took charge of the locomotive while others assisted in bombing and dynamiting the safe containing the mail and express matter or protecting those who were doing the looting in the car. They took their time about it and the robbery consumed an hour.

Two of the mail clerks were shot as were a porter, the fireman and a passenger, the porter being seriously wounded. A third mail clerk was beaten over the head with a revolver.

A mail pouch containing $100,000, believed to have been the object sought by the bandits was found beside the train after they had left, evidently overlooked by them on their departure.

Posses of hundreds of men have organized this morning and are hunting the country for the bandits. Before leaving the train the robbers set fire to the mail car burning all mail except what they carried off and the pouch left by the car.

Assurances For Her Security All France Wants From World

(ASSOCIATED PRESS)

WASHINGTON, Nov. 7.—France has no objections to naval armament limitations for she is far behind the other nations in that respect and will gladly reduce land armaments if she has the assurance of other nations against future aggression from Germany and assistance in securing promised reparations, was the assurance of Premier Aristide Briand of France on the arrival here of the French delegation.

Premier Aristide Briand, Rene Vivanti, former premier of France, and Senator Albert Sarraut, the republic's chief delegates to the conferences which open here this week, arrived today and departed for Washington immediately.

Premier Briand said that France was ready to join in every endeavor to avert a new war, provided she has nothing to fear for her own security. "As soon as President Harding sent out his noble appeal, France answered 'present,' and here I am to demonstrate the earnest good will of France by every means in my power," Premier Briand said.

Policies Outlined
Premier Briand outlined France's general policies at the coming conferences as follows:

First—Obligations to the league of nations does not prevent France from considering the limitation of armaments and other questions which the league of nations considers are within its jurisdiction.

Second—The French policy is identical with that of America for equal commercial opportunities in China.

Third—Naval restrictions present no difficulties to France because her navy already is below any formula likely to be adopted by the conference.

Fourth—France is interested mainly in land armaments. The strength of these and France's ability to pay the debt she owes to America depend on Germany and the German reparation payments.

Work on Agenda

The American delegation to the conferences which open Saturday held a session today at which it is believed that the delegation's naval limitation formula was completed.

It was stated authoritatively that no outline of the American suggestions for reductions of armaments would be given out to the other delegations before the meeting of the conference.

The Holland delegation to the armament conference, headed by Jonkheer van Karnebeek, foreign minister of the Netherlands, arrived in Washington today. The delegates were received by Secretary of State Hughes.

The governing board of the general committee to organize the conference met today and elected Oscar Strauss, former ambassador to Turkey, its chairman.

Thrown From Auto Manuel Rocha Dies

Accident on Outskirts of Lahaina Ends Fatally for Well Known and Popular Traveling Salesman.

Manuel Rocha, one of the best known commercial travelers visiting Maui from Honolulu, died in Lahaina hospital at 11:55 o'clock on Friday night of injuries sustained in an automobile accident earlier in the evening. His body was sent to Honolulu on the Claudine Saturday night. The injuries consisted of a crushed and fractured skull.

Rocha, as do many other traveling men, had been making his headquarters at Wailuku and had gone to Lahaina Friday to close up his business on that side of the island. He engaged a Ford car from Domingo Coelho and Eddie Aki was the driver. Rocha finished his work in Lahaina and started for home about six o'clock.

Dodges Other Vehicles

As the car approached the Choy place, Aki says, he saw an automobile parked on one side of the road and a vegetable cart was pushed out from behind it. He applied his brakes and the car swerved into a tree and then over the low bank at the side of the road and turned over. Rocha was thrown out. Aki found himself under the car and crawled from beneath it, partially raising it to extricate himself. He found Rocha unconscious but breathing, his skull crushed in at the back and, investigation at the hospital later showed, fractured at the base as well. The mail stage coming along took Rocha to Lahaina hospital. Aki escaped any serious injury.

On the arrival of medical aid it was evident that nothing could be done to save the life of the injured man. He never recovered consciousness after the accident. Word of the accident was sent to Wailuku and H. M. McKenzie, another salesman of Davies & Company secured Louis Distel's car and went to Lahaina and did all that was possible. The wireless operator was found, it being out of hours for the wireless service, and messages were sent to Mrs. Rocha, L. M. Judd and others in Honolulu. Mrs. Rocha and a representative of Davies & Co. caught the Wilhelmnia and arrived at Kahului Saturday morning. They and M. G. Paschoal, representing the Foresters of which order Rocha was a member, accompanied the body to Honolulu. While in Maui Mrs. Rocha was a guest in the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. Garcia.

Foresters Honor Brother

Saturday afternoon the body of Rocha was brought to Kahului and placed in Foresters' Hall, the casket covered with floral offerings. About six o'clock fully a hundred members of the order proceeded with the casket, acting as escort, to the steamer. Manuel Rocha had been with Theo. H. Davies & Co. for more than 10 years and was one of the most valued employees in the sales department by reason of the conscientious and energetic work he did for his firm. He had a large clientele of customers and made them his friends.

Funeral services were held from the Catholic Cathedral in Honolulu Sunday afternoon.

Japan Dependent on Outside Enterprise

(ASSOCIATED PRESS)

WASHINGTON, Nov. 8.—J. Inouye, governor of the Bank of Japan, was interviewed by an Associated Press correspondent before the correspondent left Tokyo with the Japanese delegation to the armament conference. The banker is quoted by the correspondent as saying that Japan as a nation is really unfit to send emigrants abroad.

"It is almost hopeless," he said, "to think of removing our surplus population abroad. There is no raw cotton and wool in our land to keep the spindles and the looms going. There is nothing for the securing of the existence and maintenance of this nation except its economic activity in foreign lands. Naturally Japan chooses Manchuria, Mongolia and China with which she is most intimately related historically and geographically."

"But Japan should not be misunderstood, there is not the faintest shadow of doubt that she has no intention of excluding the trade enterprises of other nations."

Second Arrest For Killing Hara Made By Tokio Officers

(ASSOCIATED PRESS)

TOKIO, Nov. 8.—The elder statesmen met yesterday and considered the question of a successor to the late Premier Hara but reached no determination.

A second arrest in connection with the assassination of the Premier last Friday evening was made today. The suspect of complicity in a plot to kill the premier is Sigoro Hashimoto, assistant station master at the Otsuka railroad station under whom Ryotchi Nakaoaka, the 19-year old assassin was employed as a switchman. The assassin is a son of an old Samurai family, is regarded as a radical and perhaps as a fanatic.

The young man says he acted alone and had no accomplices. Some of the authorities, however, have expressed the belief that he was merely a tool in the hands of conspirators.

Two youths, said to be students, were arrested today on suspicion of being connected with a conspiracy for the murder of the premier.

Funeral services were held at the late residence of Hara yesterday and today the body lies in state at Selyukai headquarters where it is being viewed by thousands. Tomorrow it will be taken to Morioka where it will be interred on Friday.

Angus McPhee Made Manager of Raymond Ranch; Takes Charge

Angus McPhee has gone to Ulupalakua to undertake the management of the ranch. This is in accordance with plans heretofore announced by Dr. J. H. Raymond for the incorporation of a company to which the ranch will be transferred in the near future. It is reported that R. B. Rietow will leave the Kahului Store and become storekeeper and postmaster at Ulupalakua but that report could not be confirmed yesterday afternoon for Mr. Rietow was up the mountain.

In announcing his plans for turning over the Raymond Ranch to a company Dr. Raymond said he was anxious to relinquish the management of the property and gave a general outline of the plan under which the trustees for the ranch will hold a majority of the stock in the new company and the public be given a chance to invest in an enterprise which in the past has been highly profitable and grown to its present proportions through the efforts of Dr. Raymond.

As yet the steps that will lead to incorporation have not yet been taken, the exact course that is to be pursued to be determined by the form in which the Federal tax law will finally pass congress but the plan is held in abeyance only temporarily and Dr. Raymond recently said he expected to see it carried out by the first of the year.

Meantime it is evident by McPhee's going up the mountain, other preliminaries are under way.

Ample Water Supply Flows From Intake Into the Reservoir

No more complaints of a shortage of water either for Wailuku or for Kahului are heard and none are likely in the opinion of A. Garcia, superintendent of the water works system. He considers that there will be an adequate supply for a long time to come.

Connection up of the larger intake to the reservoir was made last week though more of the larger pipe is still to be laid for a connection lower down the valley. Garcia does not expect the later connection to add materially to the supply and does not think it will need so in order to satisfy all demands.

Practically a double supply for the reservoir has resulted from the putting in of the enlarged pipe, Garcia says. The old intake would give only 700,000 gallons a day for the reservoir and to store up enough to last through the day it was necessary to shut down at night for a few hours else there was an inadequate pressure in the mains to the houses of Wailuku. Now, Garcia says, there flows into the reservoir more than 1,200,000 gallons every 24 hours which exceeds the demands of the two towns upon it.

If it shall develop later that the mains are not large enough to carry an adequate supply to both Wailuku and Kahului it will be necessary to enlarge the size of the mains, not to increase the storage capacity, if the views of Garcia as to its adequacy are well founded.

Government's Fate Lies With Ulster

Climax Reached in Irish Negotiation and Lloyd George May Resign If Failure Is Reported Thursday.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS)

LONDON, Nov. 8.—Everything depends on the conference on the Irish question which is to be held Thursday in the opinion of an authoritative circle. The climax appears to be at hand they say after the long conference which was held yesterday between the Premier and Craig, the representative from Ulster.

It is understood that at yesterday's conference Craig told Lloyd George that he could not consider shouldering the responsibility of accepting the proposals submitted to him for Ulster without consulting with his colleagues and has gone to hold such consultations.

It is said that everything depends on his report to the Thursday conference and that if Ulster shall reject the proposals it is considered quite possible that Lloyd George may resign as Premier. The Sunday newspapers were almost unanimous in saying that storm clouds were looming on the British political horizon from the threatened break in negotiations for the settlement of the Irish question and that escape from the storm depends upon the attitude of Ulster.

It is reported in official circles that Craig told Lloyd George that he considers the proposed basis of settlement imperils the rights of Ulster.

Letters Substantiate Charges by Watson

(ASSOCIATED PRESS)

WASHINGTON, Nov. 7.—In substantiation of his statement regarding the conduct of American officers overseas toward army nurses, Senator Thomas A. Watson, Democrat of Georgia, read to the senate a letter which he said was from a formerly army nurse, whose name he withheld in which she declared:

"American army officers made courtesans of the nurses whenever possible, and nurses who resisted them were subjected to personal indignities."

Senator Watson presented in evidence additional letters and telegrams supporting his charges that American soldiers had been illegally hanged, without trial.

Among them, he read a letter from George Carborough of Georgia, who wrote that he had served in the 605th Engineers overseas, that Senator Watson's charges were true and that he, Carborough, was prepared to testify to that effect.

Wailuku Wins by Goal From Field

Pogue Makes Long Drop Kick When Last Quarter of Second Football Game is Drawing Near to End.

By a beautifully kicked field goal from the boot of Captain Pogue Wailuku won from Paia by a score of 3-0 a football game which the spectators had grown to expect would end in a scoreless tie Sunday afternoon on the Wailuku grounds. Practically evenly matched they battled through the afternoon with the ball in mid-field much of the time until the sun had gone behind the West Maui mountains and the summit of Haleakala was bathed in a pink glow that preceded dusk. There was but a scant four minutes left for play when from far back in the field the platoon covered oval soared high in the air and settled behind and well between the goal posts for the winning score.

Paia Grows Desperate

Earlier in the game Captain Pogue had made two fruitless efforts, one from a bad angle, to score by a field goal and his final success for a moment stunned with surprise the maroon jerseyed Paia and the crowd alike. Then the latter awoke and the Wailuku rosters went wild for a few minutes. Condemned to move frantic efforts and with only three and a half minutes to play the Maroons started a march down the field. Desperately they ripped and tore through the Blue line straight towards the goal, covering more than half the field, but the great effort came too late and the whistle blew with the ball almost in striking distance of the Wailuku line. The Blues, fairly exempt of their rest for a few minutes had pulled just in time. It was the second time they had held almost in the last trench.

It would be difficult to find two more closely matched football teams than are the Wailuku and the Paia as shown by the Sunday afternoon game. The Blues had materially strengthened both their offense and defense and their improved play was a surprise to the East Maui players. The Wailuku line held far better than in the first meeting and there was a marked improvement in aggressiveness. Even with such improvement it was impossible to break down the Paia defense sufficiently to score a touch down and punting and forward passes were of necessity resorted to. Both sides attempted the latter play repeatedly and there were three or four that were splendidly executed. In the kicking game Wailuku excelled but Paia was cleverer in running back the ball.

Line Shift Gains

In its offense Paia worked successfully a line shift with variations of plays from behind it, now a line plunge, again between end and tackle and yet again around the open end. It was a play that the Wailuku found difficult to fathom and would have produced at least one score if executed with a little more speed and snap. Wailuku showed poor judgment in punting across the goal line on one that one occasion early in the game instead of punting just at the line near the goal line and yards were lost as a result but later on that fault was not manifested. Fumbling and intentional roughing was notably absent.

In the first quarter Paia, working the line shift frequently took the ball into Wailuku territory only to lose it and the Blues then forced it into the Maroon ground and kept it there till the close of the quarter. Through the second quarter Wailuku had a shade the better of it most of the time and it was then that Pogue twice tried for goals and the half ended with just a shade of advantage for the Blues. In the third quarter Paia carried the ball down the field to the Wailuku eight yard line, a fine forward pass helping largely in the rush goalward. There, however, the Blue line held like a stone wall. For the greater part of the quarter the ball was between the two 25 yard lines.

Score Near End

In the last quarter the ball zeesawed back and forth and both sides booted it freely when held by the strong defense developed. Finally Wailuku got the ball almost in mid-field and carried it to the 25 yard line where the backs were thrown for losses. Then Pogue dropped back to the 40 yard line, received the pass cleanly, dropped the pigskin to earth and caught it with his toe just as it started to rise. Over the heads of the Paia eleven it soared, higher and higher, then settled slowly earthward again. Squarely over the cross bar between the uprights it had passed. The game was won. Then came the Paia rush which must have won had such desperation been shown early in the game.

In ground gaining Kalua and Pogue started for Wailuku and Chartrand, Souza and Machado for Paia, the weight of the latter telling repeatedly in line plunge. Frankie Bal and Enos both showed some excellent tackling but it is difficult to pick stars where all the individual members of the two teams shone brightly.

Puunene Nine Is Baseball Champ

Huskies Take Well Played Game from Wacs and Season Is Brought to Its Close On Fair Ground Diamond.

Puunene has the champion baseball team of Maui. The season for the national game came to an end on the Fair Grounds diamond Sunday afternoon in a hard fought game, the climax of the year, with the Huskies the victors over the Wacs, 3 to 2. It was the second, and as it proved, the deciding game of the Championship series. Unlike the first game it was not won nor lost through errors and the misplays of opponents. The Huskies shined the Wacs and won.

It was the second extra series the Wacs have lost for Puunene took the series for the first half season and repeated again for final honors. With Tim Cockett twirling for the Wacs, opposing Moniz of the Huskies it took the aspect of a fight to the finish from the start, but by getting away in the early stages of the game the H. C. & S'ville boys secured a lead that could never be headed, though the Ponies threatened to tie the score on several occasions.

Puunene Leads Off

Puunene started right off, ringing the bell twice in the second inning; Massa walked, took second with Nakamura safe on L. Cockett's error, R. Freitas singled scoring Massa, Nakamura going to third, scoring a moment later on a wild throw. Following this Cockett tightened up, fanning both Enos and Joe Silva.

The next frame saw them score another, which lead was never over come. Shim filed out to center, Haake singled and stole second going to third after Rego's catch of a long fly by Dal, scoring when Rego dropped a fly knocked out by Massa who took third on the error but failed to score. Nakamura going out at first. This ended the scoring for Puunene.

Wacs Score Two

Moniz held the Wacs to one hit until the fifth inning when with two down another hit aided by an error by Enos and a wild throw gave them a run. The sixth saw their last run come over, Wells Cummings doubled, L. Cockett knocked a short fly to Enos, Alfonso sacrificed short to first scoring Cummings, here Rego walked and stole second but Tim Cockett failed to deliver the hit that would have sent him home, being thrown out at first. Three times again the Wacs put a runner on the bases, twice as far as second with but one down, and failed to send him across with the tying score.

The box score will tell its own story:

Third Eleven Forms And Will Meet Blues In Game on Sunday

Enters a third team into the football arena of Maui. A Puunene team has been organized and will make its first appearance on the gridiron before the Maui sport loving public next Sunday afternoon.

For more than a week past it has been reported that Puunene would put an eleven in the field and confirmation of the report has come. It had been said that it was to be an "All-Haale" team but such is not the fact for it will be made up of the best players obtainable no matter what their race or nativity. Hard practice under skilled coaches has been started and will be continued through the week in preparation for the Sunday game.

It has proved a surprise to fans to learn how much available material for football there is on Maui and they will be interested to see what Puunene has been able to gather and what has been done in developing the material. It will also serve to give a line on the actual strength of Wailuku in comparison with another aggregation than the Paia.

Before Paia meets Wailuku again, according to reports that were current yesterday, some new material will be tried out and it is said there is some promising material at Haiku that may be added to Meinecke's stalwart bunch.

Wailuku Gym Team Is Junior Ball Leader

Junior baseball came to an end for the season with games on Saturday and Sunday unless it shall be decided to play a final game between the Gym and Lahaina teams. The latter is the only team that has bested the Wailuku Gym boys and each of the nines has a victory to their credit as a result of the meeting of last Saturday when the Gym team was victor over the school on the hill 16 to 11. Sunday the Gym boys had an easy win from the Giants at Kahului, 18 to 5 which made their record for the season's play ten victories and a single lone defeat by Lahaina.

Some fast ball is looked for by the youngsters in the spring for they will not wait until next autumn before getting out on the diamonds again.

Tennis

In the final sets of the preliminary All-Maui mixed doubles championship played off in the past few days the following results were announced though the actual scores were not obtainable at present.

Gannon-Blach defeated Bevins-Bevins.

Alfred Hansen and Mabel Taylor defeated David Wadsworth and Miss Simons.

Engle-Fitzgerald defeated Ed. Walsh and Mrs. Wadsworth.

These sets complete the preliminaries of the Maui mixed doubles championship and the next sets are to be played beginning November 20.

Through the omission of a line in last week's tennis news it was made to appear that Phelps and Todd beat Rietow and DeKay by default while the match was played and was won by the former team 7-5, 6-6, 6-2. It was Brass and Brady who defaulted to Herbert and Grady.

In the Settlement House men's singles handicap tournament these results are announced, D. C. Lindsay defeated Chock Chin, 6-1, 6-2. Harold Chang defeated William Baldwin, 6-3, 7-5.

Sunday five teams from the Lahaina Tennis Club came to Wailuku to play five teams from the Alexander Settlement House Club, resulting in the Alexander House teams taking 53 games and the Lahaina teams returning victor in 35. Following the games Sunday evening the members of the playing teams of the Settlement House had as their guests at a dinner their opponents from Lahaina.

With the Alert Boy Scouts of Maui

Lahaina No. 5

Forty-two scouts, two assistant scoutmasters present. Some meeting. Where on the Islands can such a record as this be equalled. Only by the Queens Own in Honolulu, the crack troop of the islands.

The business meeting was held in the school house as the armory was locked and no one present with the key, which was a great disappointment to the scouts and also to the commissioner as a splendid program had been arranged for this meeting and we needed plenty of room for tests and games. The desks held two scouts each and all were intensely interested from start to finish. The program was the same as other troops for this week. After roll call, review of oath, law, etc., the scouts went out on the street under the electric lights and had a number of exciting and interesting scout games. The meeting closed with the scout oath. Scoutmaster Langa of Troop No. 6 assisted the commissioner.

Scout News

"Say fellows," scribe Brown of Paia troop, was the only one who sent in notes of his troop doings. What do you fellows know about that. Only one scribe to send in his troop notes for publishing in the Maui scout column. How do you expect us to get the news before the other troops if you do not take the trouble to write them. Get busy and see that your scribe sends them in for next week or there will be vacant space in the News where yours should be. Don't leave it all up to the commissioner. He's getting tired of being the goat.

Paia No. 1

What do you think of this? The commissioner was a tired but happy man when he arrived at home at 5:30 p. m. Sunday evening. Why? "Well I'll tell you." The powers that be gave a truck to take the troop up to Makawao to pass tracking tests. But that is not the reason, though one of them. This is the secret. Committeemen Watkins and Brown were both on deck and assisted the commissioner in seeing the scouts through. The first time in the experience of the commissioner as a scout worker that such a thing ever happened. Do you know what this means, not alone to the members of Troop No. 1 at Paia, but to scouting in general? It means, that when men of this type and position in the community, get in with the youngsters, that the troop with which they are connected is going to do real scouting. A good example for other troop committeemen.

The Troop Scribe

Too much attention can not be brought to bear upon the duties of the troop scribe. Upon his shoulders rests the responsibility of the troops records, etc. It looks easy; just sit down at the meeting and scribble a few notes to be read at the following meeting. "Oh, no." It is the most responsible office in the whole troop, barring none. Certainly he has to write the troop minutes, but he must also keep an up-to-date record of every test passed by the scouts; all moneys paid in and disbursed and there are several other things he has to do, and do them well.

Remember, in the competition which began November the scribe book showing the best kept records, most complete minutes, and most neatly kept will be given 5000 points towards the cup. The rest of the books will be judged by the 500 point.

TROOP DOINGS

Makawao No. 6

It was raining and the weather was anything but promising nevertheless all but two of the troop were present. This in spite of the fact that some of the scouts had to come at least three miles to attend the meeting. How does this stack up with interest shown by town scouts?

The meeting was full of pep and a number of the troop passed tests. After the regular business meeting the troop took up triangular and roller bandaging, oral review of the oath, law, motto, and habit.

History and respect of the American flag, good turns, etc. Then knot tying. Assignment of candidates for tenderfoot instruction, etc.

At the close of this work the commissioner and Scoutmaster Langa took the scouts out on the grass and had some interesting games. In closing the scouts joined hands in a circle and repeated the scout oath.

Wailuku No. 3

The regular meeting of the troop on Tuesday night was well attended and most of the scouts were in full uniform. The program was the same as used by all the troops for this week. The meeting was held in the Alexander House Gymnasium and the troop enjoyed games at the close of the business meetings. Deputy Commissioner Weissblatt was present and assisted in the games.

Kahului No. 9

The meeting of the troop was held in the Community Building on Wednesday night and was well attended. Commissioner Hutton took charge of the meeting and put through a special program so that the troop could get an idea of the proper way of conducting meetings. The scouts were given tests in knot tying, and oral review of the scout oath, law, motto, and habit. Particular stress was laid on the scouts daily good turn. Scribe Toshi Enomoto was the first of the troop to pass his tenderfoot test. Others tried for the compass but failed to pass. Many scouts are on their toes for the start and promise to be fully prepared by next Wednesday night.

Deputy Commissioner Weissblatt was present at the meeting and gave the boys a drill in signalling. He will later teach them splicing and the use of ropes. Scoutmaster Spencer has a dandy bunch.

Paia and Wailuku have already held meetings for Patrol leaders and have arranged programs for the coming month. The program used by all troops this week, was arranged by patrol leaders Hoomalu and Pullatchik of Paia. How did you like it?

WATSON'S CHARGES

Assertions such as those made by Senator Watson that American soldiers were hanged in France without the preliminary of a trial, that men were shot by their officers without any kind of a trial and that wounded men were neglected while officers made courtesans of too many of the nurses, demands the fullest investigation.

It is rather surprising that the remarks of the Georgia senator were permitted to pass with little notice or attention and that the full weight and importance of the charges should not have been borne into the minds of the senators until they read them several days later in the Congressional Record.

Watson is quoted as saying that he has a photograph of one gibbet on which 21 were hanged, while army sources say there were only 19 legal hangings. He is quoted as saying in part:

"How many senators know that private soldiers were frequently shot by their officers because of some complaint against the officer's insolence, and that they had gallows upon which men were hanged day after day without a court martial or any other form of trial? How many senators know that I have here photographs of one of these gallows upon which 21 white boys had already been executed at sunrise, when the photographs were taken, and there were others waiting in the camp jails to be hanged morning after morning?"

"I will tell the senator from New York," shouted Senator Watson, "I meant every word I said, and I can prove it. I can produce kodak pictures hastily taken of at least one of the gallows upon which white men, volunteering, as it was said, to save civilization and to make the world safe for democracy were hanged like dogs. I can produce witnesses, if it were safe for witnesses to appear, to prove that men were shot by their officers without any kind of trial, and that in hospitals the wounded men were neglected while the officers made courtesans of too many of the nurses. Not all of them, but too many of them in the hospitals and on the roadsides the suffering and dying men were treated inhumanly, and I was told so by the men themselves."

Certainly the fullest investigation should be given to such assertions. If there be any truth in them the country should know it and if they be false then political and social ostracism would be a light penalty for the author of them. It is said democratic members will seek to halt such an investigation. It can hardly be believed any more than can the charges. If there be such a lasting disgrace upon our army as he asserts, it should be known, if not, then the name of the officers of the army should be cleared speedily.

This paper can give no credence to his utterances until substantiated.

HARA'S ASSASSINATION.

Japanese officials in the Islands express the view that the death of Premier Hara of Japan from the knife thrust of a young political fanatic will have little effect on Japanese governmental policies. Some effect it certainly will have for no great political leader and statesman can be removed without some bearing on his country's progress resulting. The opinion is also expressed that the slaying of the premier will have no important effect upon the course to be pursued by the Japanese delegation at the conference in Washington for the limitation of armaments, though some of the delegates and advisors may return to Japan at once.

There is something ironical in the fate of the premier, that he who has been called the "commoner" should be the victim of an assassin, he who has been held forth as the friend of the Japanese common people, an advocate of extensions of suffrage and of wider liberties. One expects acts of violence rather from radicals than from reactionaries.

It is said that the murderer is a son of the Samurai class, the old soldiery and hence militaristic element of Japan, and has been considered erratic if not fanatic. Such may be the explanation. It may be that seeing the slipping away of the preeminence of the class into which he was born, hearing and reading the criticisms advanced against the government and its participation in a conference that may limit and decrease the armaments of the country and reach decisions vital to its interests he was impelled to the act of violence. He may even regard himself as a hero. That class which becomes relegated to the rear in the advancement of a nation will naturally entertain a feeling of rebellion against those whom they blame for it.

The militaristic element in Japan is reported to be the one that is most unfriendly to the United States. If so the obverse of the situation must be that the party of the former premier is the more friendly and if such be the case, it must be assumed that the United States has lost a valuable friend in the councils of the Japanese. Under such circumstances regret here will be the more profound but in any event Americans cannot but sympathize with the nation that has lost one of its leading citizens and statesmen in such an untoward incident as that reported Friday.

CLEANLINESS IS ESSENTIAL.

Visits such as the recent one made by M. B. Bairos, food inspector and analyst of the board of health, are bound to prove beneficial to a community even if not accompanied by a number of prosecutions and convictions for violations of rules of the health board relating to sanitation and cleanliness of places where food is sold or prepared for sale. It has a tendency to waken those engaged in such lines of business to the necessity of cleaning up from time to time, to a realization that a reasonable degree of care is necessary in handling articles of food. Housewives know how easy it is to fall into careless and shiftless ways and the loss that is occasioned thereby.

It may be taken as an accepted fact that the average dealer in food, especially a restaurant keeper wants to have his place kept at least reasonably clean. Such cleanliness is a business asset. If it becomes reported about that a kitchen is filthy, over-run with cockroaches and vermin business will fall off quickly, so, as a general thing, a warning to one who has become careless will suffice, a threat of publicity will inspire terror, for publicity might, probably would, entail a greater financial loss than any fine that a court would impose.

In Hawaii there is only one food inspector with one assistant and that inspector is also the analyst so that he is overloaded with duties. In Maui county there is only one general health inspector and he has duties connected with investigations of contagious diseases and a hundred other subjects besides foods and cleanliness in their keeping. It would be well if more frequent visits could be paid to the other counties by an official from the territorial capital. It has been two years since Inspector Bairos had been here before. Certainly each of the counties should have attention once a year and if possible at least quarterly.

There are times when sternness and severity are essential in handling subjects of the kind referred to, when offenders must be brought up with a sharp turn but as a general thing explanations as to the rules, their purpose and the necessity of heed being paid to them would suffice. But where a period of two years intervenes between campaigns for sanitation and health in relation to food supplies, the difficulties encountered are multiplied for each effort becomes in a way a new campaign instead of a constant warfare against ill conditions being conducted.

There still is heard some complaint as to the lighting service in Wailuku. Rates have been reduced and the service is better than formerly but there is room for improvement still. The directors say they know this and are seeking to better service as rapidly as it can be done without increasing capital stock which would mean a maintenance of high rates. Cables have been ordered which will work for improvement soon.

Reductions of freight rates by transcontinental railroads averaging 20 percent on hundreds of articles, including dry goods, are reported to have been announced according to Associated Press dispatches. Those who think that will mean a 20 percent reduction in prices will be disappointed. Freight rates are more of an excuse than a reason for making prices higher than they should be.

There will be a hearing on the proposed traffic ordinance Thursday afternoon before the board of supervisors. It is a subject in which others than automobile drivers and owners are interested and there should be some opinions of value to the board if the holders of such views would advance them. It is constructive criticism in advance that is desirable, not destructive criticism later.

Friday will be Armistice Day. Reverence is to be shown all of the unknown dead through honors paid to one at Arlington cemetery. Citizens are asked to pause with bowed, bared heads and maintain silence for two minutes at noon. It seems little to do when so much was being done only a short three years ago.

The American Legion is reported to have taken action favorable to Hawaii at the present convention in Kansas City but whether it was the resolution favoring the emergency labor legislation that was favored, the reports have not made clear. Hawaii hopes that it was.

Ample water supply for Wailuku and Kahului now is reported by the superintendent of the system. Since the opening of the enlarged intake last week there flows into the reservoir nearly double the former supply. Necessity for strict conservation no longer exists.

MAUI TWENTY YEARS AGO

(From Maui News of Oct. 19, 1901.)

(From Maui News of Nov. 9, 1921.)
A regular meeting of the West Maui Teachers' Association was held at the Lahaina School House Friday night.

Hallowe'en was observed at the home of James Lindsay in Haiku in real, old fashioned Scotch style. After a sumptuous dinner all the guests indulged in the playing of appropriate games after which a session of ghost tales followed. A climax was reached when a series of shrieks and yells was heard after which a ghostly figure appeared, but the visitor was captured and proved to be a well known member of the party of the fair sex.

Sanitary conditions are improving at Lahaina and there is very little sickness there at present.

The Kahikini Ranch Company has sold its Wailuku plant.

It is probable that the injury to the Wailuku reservoir will prove less serious than was expected at first and may be repaired at the cost of a few hundreds of dollars.

Last Sunday morning in the presence of a large congregation the new Chinese Mission Church was dedicated on the Settlement Houses grounds. Rev. Ting Ah Ling spoke in Chinese and Hawaiian and the sermon was delivered by Rev. E. W. Thwing.

Charles D. Lufkin came over on the Claudine Wednesday and is arranging preliminaries for the opening of the new bank.

Potatoes on Maui, especially the far famed Kula potatoes are seriously affected with blight.

Love M. Vettesen has been appointed inspector and collector for Lahaina, Kaaanapali and Kihel.

The Pioneer Hotel Company is the name of the concern which owns the new hotel at Lahaina nearing completion. Its capital is $7500 and the hotel will soon be opened by George Freeland.

Oyster cocktails have been introduced to the drinking public in the Aloha Saloon.

Dullness in Atlantic freights accounts for the presence in Atlantic Basin, Brooklyn, of 124 berthed steamers and numerous floating grain elevators.

The French Government has prevented the threatened coal strike by announcement it would prosecute leaders under charges of attempting to incite civil war.

From Cuba there is reported a widespread movement in the interest of annexation to the United States. Meetings are to be held soon in Havana, Santiago and other cities. Large sugar interests are behind the efforts.

Agriculture

(By J. F. O'Brien)

Cultivation

The objects of cultivation are: (1) to destroy weeds, (2) to aerate the soil, (3) to save moisture.

As already stated one of the best methods to destroy weeds is to allow them to start and then give another harrowing before the crop is planted. If this cultivation is thorough most of the weed seedlings will be destroyed. Deep cultivation at any time is bad for the crop as many plant roots are destroyed especially in the case of crops that are surface feeders and whose roots run long distances for food, such as corn. Cultivation should be as shallow as possible, just sufficient to break the crust.

Rotation of Crops

As already stated if the same crop is planted year after year on the same ground, the production will show a yearly decrease until finally it will not pay for the seed and labor expended. The land is said to be "crop sick." The reason is that each plant excretes or forms a substance poisonous to itself but a stimulant to other plants. Deep rooting plants should be followed by those that have shallow roots legumes place nitrogen in the soil and send their roots deep. They should be followed by crops which are surface feeders but require an abundance of nitrogen. Corn should follow a legume as it requires an abundance of nitrogen and is a surface feeder. Oats may follow corn crops which encourage the growth of weeds should not succeed one another as grain crops are liable to be infested with insects, fungi, scab, or rot such as potatoes should not be repeated on the same land each year. A good rotation for Hawaii would be, beans or peas, corn alone or intercropped with a legume if potatoes are to follow, potatoes, clover, vetch and alfalfa can be grown between the corn and potato rows and if the tops are plowed under will add humus and nitrogen to the soil. Lime will greatly improve the crops but should be applied at least thirty days before any crop is planted. The one crop system has studied the United States all over with derelict farms, a thing unknown of in European countries. Where rotation of crops is strictly carried out, and although the land has been under cultivation for centuries it is as just as fertile today as it was a hundred or more years ago, perhaps more so. Every farmer should draw a map of his farm showing the fields and their location. Each year make a note of the crops grown. You can then carry out an intelligent system of rotation and be able to make comparisons.

Dry Land Farming

Is a name given to tilling the land in sections where the rainfall is scant or uncertain. We have many such sections in Hawaii. The essential points of successful dry land farming are (1) a deep seed bed. This can only be accomplished by plowing deep. If the surface soil is shallow

Homes Commission Is Inspecting Its Lands
On Island of Molokai

Aboard the Claudine when she left Honolulu Friday night were George P. Cooke, executive officer of the Hawaiian Homes Commission, Governor Farrington, Albert Horner, Rev. Akai-ko Akana, Delegate Kubio, John Wise, F. G. Krauss, formerly in charge of agricultural experiment work on Maui but now of the University of Hawaii, Jared G. Smith, L. T. Lyman, L. Borden, W. T. Pope, Herbert Kins-ten, Howard Case and J. B. Lightfoot. The party is the commission, agricultural experts, territorial officials and newspaper men. They will look over the available lands of the commission on Molokai and possibly select a site for the first experimental farm that will be instituted there.

Arrangements when they left Honolulu were that the Claudine should be met in the channel by Mr. Cooke's sampan Letileona to which they were to transfer and proceed to the landing place on Molokai. Saturday, Sunday and yesterday were to be devoted to inspection trips and they were to be back in Honolulu Thursday morning.

This is the first visit the whole commission has paid to Molokai since its creation and organization.

Declares Foreign Competition
Is Crippling American Marine

(ASSOCIATED PRESS)

NEW YORK, Nov. 2.—Senator Ransdell, speaking before the New York advertising club declared that foreign competition "aided by Americans" was one of the underlying causes in crippling the development of the American merchant marine. He added, "that nearly a score of American railroads had filed copies of contracts in the Interstate Commerce Commission wherein they agreed to use their best efforts to obtain freight for foreign shipping companies, and if needed, to the exclusion of others."

a subsoil plow must be used to help in storing water. If the land cannot be plowed deep on account of sand, or gravel, or rock, dry land farming cannot be practised successfully. (2) Discing before plowing. This will insure a compact contact between the bottom of the furrow and the furrow slice. If this is not done the stored water is unavailable because the air spaces prevent capillary attraction. (3) Discing after plowing and packing. (4) Success depends upon storing the water when it does fall. (5) Maintaining a surface mulch to prevent evaporation, but all cultivation must be extremely shallow in order not to destroy the roots of the plants. (6) A good supply of humus must at all times be provided to make the soil spongy and supply the needed nitrogen. (7) Plant only healthy, plump and acclimated seed.

Judge Burr Presides In Criminal Actions

Criminal cases in Honolulu this week are being tried before Judge Leslie L. Burr who went over to Honolulu from Maui Saturday night as it was announced last Friday that he would do. He is taking the place of Judge Banks who is on vacation and will probably remain about two weeks, until Judge Franklin, who is also away on vacation, shall return to duty.

Associated Press despatches received after going to press on Friday said that the Maui judge would assist in clearing up the "tremendous dockets" and would preside in the third division of the circuit court until Judge Franklin comes back from the mainland, which was expected to be about November 15.

Deputy City Attorney Stafford was quoted in the Advertiser Sunday as saying that he would have a case ready for trial Monday morning and a number of defendants indicted by the grand jury last week would be brought before him in the afternoon. Judge De Bolt was quoted as saying he would transfer all criminal matters to the branch of the court over which Judge Burr would preside.

With the absence of Judges Franklin and Banks there has been so much work for Judge De Bolt that it was impossible to keep up with demands and business and trials fell steadily and further behind.

Goods at Bargains—George Soon opened his pre-holiday clearance sale at his store in the Foresters' Building, Kahului, yesterday and is offering some highly attractive bargains in men's and women's shoes and men's furnishings. Maui Women's Club

A very interesting meeting of the club was that held yesterday, the 7th, at 2:30 p. m. Mrs. Osmer and Mrs. Charles Savage were hostesses for the day. After the routine business had been disposed of, Mrs. Joel B. Cox and Miss Marion Morse gave the review of "Queen Victoria" and "The Gay-Donkeys," a most delightful literary treat for all present. Mrs. Cox deserved great credit for the very excellent paper she prepared on these two books, and it is to be hoped that the club may be given something similar at some other time. Mrs. Linton, whose talk to the club had been postponed, was prevailed upon to say a few words, and used the time in urging that the club get behind the Christmas seal movement, in the hope of raising as large a sum as possible for the worthy purpose, which is to aid in the fight against tuberculosis. After some discussion of the matter, it was decided to leave to the Humane Department the arranging of details. These Christmas seals are always sold in large numbers early in December all over the mainland, and there is no reason why we should not do our share here, particularly when we have as great a need as they exist.

It was decided to hold meetings at 2:30 hereafter, since it is difficult to get through the very extensive programs before five o'clock, otherwise, and the days are so short now that many members have been obliged to drive home after dark.

The next meeting of the Study Department will be Wednesday, November 16th, at 3 o'clock.

The next Educational Department meeting will be November 14th, at 3 o'clock.

The Music Department will meet at the home of Mrs. George Steele in Paia, Thursday, November 17, at 3 o'clock.

More Friends Gained For Emergency Labor Relief For Hawaii

Letters sent to influential business acquaintances on the mainland by business men of Hawaii urging that support from congressmen for the Hawaii emergency labor resolution be secured in the interest of the business on the mainland that is dependent upon prosperity of the Islands continue to bear fruit and friends for Hawaii's cause are being constantly won as is shown by the following correspondence which has been handed to Maui News.

The writer of the letters is a California capitalist and the correspondence is self explanatory. It follows:

"San Francisco, Cal.
October 13th, 1921.

"J. Patterson, Esq.,
"c/o Kahului R. R. Company,
"Kahului, Maui, T. H.

"My dear Mr. Patterson:

"In accordance with the request in your recent letter that I write to our California congressmen advocating the passage of the proposed H. R. Joint Resolution No. 171 for the labor relief in the Territory of Hawaii, I enclose copies of my letters to the Hon. Julius Kahn and Hon. J. A. Elston respectively.

"Trusting that you will find same in order and that the Islands will receive the relief to which they are certainly entitled.

"With kind regards, I remain,
"Yours sincerely,
"A. McMillan."

Letter to Kahn
"San Francisco, Cal.
October 13th, 1921.

"Honorable Julius Kahn,
"Member of Congress, 4th, Cal. Dist.
"San Francisco.

"My dear Mr. Kahn:

"I presume that you already know all that there is to know about the labor shortage in Hawaii, and the measure for relief of the situation, H. R. Joint Resolution No. 171.

"Nevertheless, I venture to add my opinion to the many that have been obtruded upon your attention.

"The evidence that the shortage of labor actually exists is convincing to my mind. I am also convinced that the proposal to admit to the Islands a limited number of Chinese agricultural laborers, under regulations that will assure their return to China when the emergency shall have passed, is the only practical method that has been proposed.

"I have always opposed the immigration of oriental laborers to the continent, and I cannot conceive of any emergency here that would cause me to change my view. But here we have a case where, if the work is to be done at all, it must be done by oriental laborers; and it seems to me clear that temporary and well regulated importation of Chinese is the only way to meet the situation.

"I thank you for your attention, and trust that you will not consider it inappropriate for me to add my thanks for your long and able service to the state and to the nation.

"Yours very truly,
"ANTHONY McMILLAN."

Letter to Elston
"San Francisco, Cal.
October 13th, 1921.

"Honorable J. A. Elston,
"Member of Congress, 6th Cal. Dist.,
"Washington, D. C.

"Dear Sir:

"As one of your constituents, I take the liberty of urging upon you favorable consideration of the measure now pending in Congress, having for its purpose the relief of the Territory of Hawaii from its shortage of labor in the sugar and pineapple industries.

"As you doubtless know, the relief measure is embodied in proposed H. R. Joint Resolution No. 171.

"I am convinced that the emergency exists; that if relief is not afforded, the interests of California, as well as of Hawaii, will be adversely affected to a great extent; and that the only feasible method of meeting the crisis is to provide for the admission to the Islands of a limited number of Chinese agricultural laborers, under such regulations as will assure their return to China when the emergency shall have passed.

"I am, and always have been, unconditionally opposed to the immigration of oriental laborers to the American continent; but it is manifest that the unskilled labor that is necessary to produce the Hawaiian crops must be done by orientals, if it be done at all.

"Thanking you for your attention, I am,

"Yours respectfully,
"ANTHONY McMILLAN."

Boy Falls Into Ditch, His Leg Is Fractured

Joseph Kalaupapa is in Paia hospital recovering from injuries which include a broken leg and cuts about the head and were sustained on the night of October 24.

Mrs. Kalaupapa was conducting night school and sent her boy for a clock. He did not return and she went home about eight o'clock thinking he had gone to a neighbor's house. She went out to call him and finally found he had fallen into the deep ditch only a few steps from where she stood. He answered faintly and with the help of Mr. Kalaupapa was rescued.

Assistance was sought from Mrs. Tiernan and the 13-year old boy was taken into her automobile and carried to the Paia hospital where he received the necessary attention.

Schooner Goes Ashore Off Coast of Molokai

Officers of the Schooner Carrier Dove which went ashore in a water logged condition at Kalae Point, Molokai last Wednesday night were taken to Honolulu last Friday. The schooner was copra laden from Tonga and sprung a leak shortly after her departure which was on September 18. As time went on her gasoline pumps became disabled. Under sail she tried to reach Honolulu but finally went ashore and broke in two on the rocks of Molokai.

Propose Raising Age For Use of Liquor

LONDON, Oct. 12 — (Associated Press Mail)—A movement is under way in England to prohibit the sale of all intoxicants to any person under the age of 18 years instead of 16 as at present. A petition to that effect, signed by thousands of teachers, has been presented to the Home Secretary, and temperance reformers are pressing parliament for a bill dealing with this question.

Attention is called to the fact that the mother country is behind the dominions in such restrictions. In Australia, the age limit for the sale of intoxicants has been fixed at 18, and in New Zealand, Tasmania, Ontario and Nova Scotia at 21.

In France, Poland and Czechoslovakia the age is 18, in Sweden 17.

Intoxicated Persons 'Infrequent in Russia

MOSCOW, Oct. 3 — (Associated Press Mail)—In three weeks of travel through Soviet Russia The Associated Press correspondent has seen but one intoxicated man. That was a workman in Moscow who was so far under the influence of liquor that he was unable to tell a group of curious and thirsty men where he found the liquor.

The new decree permitting 12 percent of alcohol in beverages has not produced the results wine-bibbers and beer-lovers had hoped for. Wine-cellar have not produced hidden supplies and apparently there are no vegetables, fruit nor grain available for conversion into drinks.

Restaurants and cafes have no alcoholic drinks for sale. There is an abundance of kvass and various non-fermented drinks alleged to be made from fruit but probably largely chemical in their composition.

If there are alcoholic stores in Russia they have not yet reached the markets of Central and Northern Russia. The enactment of the law permitting the sale of alcoholic beverages of low grade was defended by the Soviet officials on the ground that it was necessary to save the Caucasian and Crimean wine-growers from ruin.

Judge Homer Ross Is Not Superstitious But Glad Case Over

Did Judge Homer L. Ross narrowly escape a fatal accident on Maui, because he tried a case in which there has been three fatalities since it was first filed, inquires the Hilo Post Herald and continuing explains the query.

Details of the circumstances surrounding the case and the judge's near accident have followed him here from the Valley Isle, which, at least, give color to the superstitious belief that this particular case was one with a jinx.

After Judge Ross concluded trying the case—Ambrose versus Kealaka—the Maui county attorney, Elmer R. Bevins, confided to the judge that the case had seemed to be jinxed. He explained that after it was first filed a material witness had died. Then when it was first sent to trial an attorney identified with the case was killed in an automobile accident. And finally, before it went to trial again, following the attorney's death, another important witness died.

Judge Ross admits he thought these details had impressed him very little until they jumped into rapid, recurring realities while an automobile in which he was riding skidded dangerously on the edge of a Maui pail. The car was not brought to a standstill until it had swung completely around on the narrow and muddy road.

Intimate friends of the Hilo judge are now spoofing him by asserting: "Of course Judge Ross has no human frailties like being superstitious, but he was not so sure of it while that automobile was skidding."
