POLITICAL

DRIFT WOOD

How Woman Suffrage Might Elect Some

Candidates With a Female Pull Safely in the Swim.

By AHUIMAI.

It is a pity that we are not enjoying the benefits of Woman Suffrage.
An admirer of that privilege told me the other day that by admitting women to the suffrage, they purify politics somewhat and all the surroundings thereof. I think we should have it, by all means, if it is such a boon to be enjoyed.

But I fear that if we had such a privilege, Candidate Arthur Brown would go in whooping, for surely, he'll sweep everything that would come in his way. Only the other day, I overheard one of the many girls say that she still has a place in her memory, mind you, not in her heart, for dear Arthur; although she is now married, she cannot help but think of him once in a while and of the lively days that are gone.
This same girl only wished she had a vote to give dear Brown, but of course, she was going to try and induce her husband to vote for him. I think Brown to be awfully lucky to have such an agent as this gal is.
Whoop'er up Brown; it's your making and the defeat of Wilcox. Sure kela, Moike, says Theresa. And shure he'll be it, if he'll but show his shape around again to the girls.
Is it a go?

And I think that Frankie Harvey, the erstwhile cowboy and expert dancer, can do as much, if not better, than Arthur Brown, for he can show something for his pranks. He also bears the same reputation among a large section of the feminine gender that will surely ensure his election, providing we had the good fortune to enjoy Woman suffrage, but as luck would have it, that is now out of the question.
Faith, for shure, he'll also win everything else in sight around this island, as it has been his stamping ground in the past as well as in the present case, and will be so in the future as has been his wont. It is his good fortune to be in the favor of the gentler sex, many of whom, if I mistake not, are good workers for his success at the polls. I think, for his own success with the mass, he should now and then launch forth with some hula stanzas, then he'll be assured of winning a place for Japanese A Kennedy, and probably assist Asiatic Hocking and that other Joe Asiatic Gilman in the interest of the sugar planters. Who knows what they'll be!

But there's poor Jimmie Boyd, who once squandered a fortune, so the yaro goes, on these many sided good times, but he has reformed since then and has become a good hubby and a fine daddy. He who was once a staunch Republican, and you could not make him anything else, is now as a Home Ruler staunch to the core, and would you believe it of him? No, no, I would not; but sure it is. He had his days of sowing his wild oats and he has had his innings as well, being an office-holder for about a quarter of a century. But I pity him, for he no doubt feels his loss of office keenly and would like to be in again, for he cannot remain long out in the rain. If he can't beat Joker Lucas, then he ought to

PUTS LIE ON LIE.

Prof. W. T. Brigham, curator of the Bishop Museum, has done precisely what we thought he would do when, on the 14th instant, we published an account of his tirade upon the late Father Damien in the presence of the Messrs. Boulton, of London. He has gone whining to the Trustees of the Bishop Estate and has there denied the truth of the account. In grasping this means of defense Prof. Brigham feels safe behind the fact that the gentlemen to whom he made his extraordinary statements regarding Father Damien have left the country. It is well for the public to know, however, that Brigham knew before they sailed that his statements to them would be published, and he was requested to make any denial or statement at that time he might see fit, the desire being to settle the matter between the gentlemen before they separated. To this reasonable proposition Brigham replied that he had nothing to say, or words to that effect.

Now that the gentlemen have gone the curator comes out with a denial that he vilified Father Damien before them at the Museum last Monday. He figures that as the witnesses are no longer here he can deny and there can be no reply to his denial. In this, however, he will find himself greatly mistaken. Before leaving Honolulu the Boultons made their statements to a number of people, but more particuther Valentin at the Catholic Mission. The statements show beyond any question of doubt that the curator of the Museum indulged, in the presence of the two gentlemen, in the most extraordinary and unreasonable abuse of the late Priest.

The Independent's editorial of the 14th was re-published in the Advertiser of October 15. A copy of the latter paper, containing the article, was sent by the Trustees of the Bishop Estate to Prof. Brigham together with the following letter:

"Prof. W. T. Brigham, Director B. P. Bishop Museum, Honolulu. Dear Sir: Enclosed we send you a copy of this morning's Pacific Commercial Advertiser which contains an article charging that recently while two gentlemen, named Boulton, were visiting the museum you made to them statements and remarks derogatory to the memory of Father Damien.

"We would ask that you inform us as to the truth of this published statement."

In reply to this communication the committee received a reply from the Director in which he made the following statement: "The article to which you refer had no truth in it. These two gentlemen, named Boulton (father and son) came here with a special request of Governor Dole that I would show them the Hawaiian portion of the collection. While fulfilling this request one of them asked me about certain persons and I replied that I must decline to discuss such matters."

After reading the letter of Prof. Brigham one is led to wonder at once why he did not deny the statements of the Boultons while they were still here, knowing as he did that the facts would come out. There is but one answer: He at first felt secure, but reckoned that if the charges were actually made against him his word would counter-balance any hearsay evidence. The following letter from Father Valentin will, however, doubtless arouse him from this untenable night-mare:

Editor The Independent.

Sir:—In answer to the article of the Advertiser, appearing in today's issue, with regard to the Damien-Brigham matter, I will state here that your editorial was correct and that I was informed about the fact by the two gentlemen at the Young hotel. Later on the Messrs. Boulton, father and son, made the same statement in presence of Bishop Libert and myself at the Mission.

Yours truly,

FATHER H. VALENTIN.

Honolulu, Oct. 17, 1903.

People who know Bishop Libert and Father Valentin know that they will under no circumstances and for no purpose distort a fact or facts. When they say that the Boultons made these statements to them the public knows that they speak the truth. The Boultons are prominent men of London, both noted for their integrity and superior standing. They are men who would not speak falsely of another, and in this instance they had not and could not have any reason to misstate the words of Prof. Brigham. The question resolves itself into one of who is to be believed. Should it be the word of two gentlemen of known veracity and un-eccentric individual who has earned the reputation of being an unmitigated calumniator and prevaricator?

TOPICS OF THE DAY.

Special native police officers are now being numerous employed in order, no doubt, to boost the candidacy of High Sheriff Brown for county sheriff. They are to be paid out of no specific salary appropriation, and this may account for the large police incidentals appropriated by the last Legislature without any forethought of how the same was to be expended. And here is one plain solution of the problem.

It is small wonder that Candidate Brown for county sheriff is not doing any better than what he is at present doing with all the liquor and beer saloon men in his favor and with the $10 assessment per head on each policeman, as well as all the other assistance rendered him by the Government. Yet he thinks he is IT with all these assistance he is having. He'll have to wake up early in the morning if he wants to win, as they will not avail him any effort to be effective.

If the trustees of the Bishop Estate again white-wash Curator Brigham they will do so at the expense of the Bishop Museum. A large section of this community, irrespective and independent of religion, condemns in a most pronounced manner the course of the curator in respect to the late Father Damien. The simple presence of the crank in the institution will have the effect hereafter of dulling interest in it and would cause many of its friends to draw completely away from it.

For some time local musicians have contended that music will kill mosquitoes. They say that mosquitoes will hover upon the walls of a room in which there is music as if charmed by its influence; but that there is a high note, which, when reached, paralyzes the nerves of the little brute and kills her instantly. Prof. Joe Rosen, the Honolulu violinist, has for a long time contended this to be a fact, and still maintains that he has demonstrated and can at any time demonstrate it. In view of the circumstances it might be cheaper and more effective for the Board of Health to employ the musicians of the city to make a house-to-house canvass of Honolulu and play the mosquitoes to death.

A Mother's Responsibility

A great responsibility rests upon mothers at the time their daughters are budding into womanhood. If your daughter is pale, complains of weakness, is "tired out" upon slight exertions; if she is troubled with headache or backache, pain in the side; if her temper is fitful and her appetite poor, she is in a condition of extreme peril, a fit subject for that most dreaded of all diseases—consumption. If you notice any of these symptoms lose no time in procuring!

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People

They will assist your daughter to develop properly and regularly; they will enrich the blood, strengthen the nerves, and all danger of consumption and premature death will be averted.

Mrs. John Tansey, of 130 Baker Street, Detroit, Mich., says: "We had a serious time with my daughter. She did not have any serious illness but seemed to gradually waste away. Our doctor called the disease by an odd name which as I afterward learned, meant lack of blood. "We finally found a medicine that helped her. After three months' treatment her health was so greatly improved you would not have recognized her. She gained in flesh rapidly and soon was in perfect health. The medicine used was Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People. I have always kept these pills in the house since and have told many mothers about them. They have effected some wonderful cures."

—From the Evening News, Detroit, Mich.

All the elements necessary to give new life and richness to the blood and restore shattered nerves are contained, in a condensed form, in Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People. They are a specific for troubles peculiar to females, such as suppressions, irregularities and all forms of weakness. They build up the blood, and restore the glow of health to pale and fallow cheeks. In men they effect a radical cure in all cases arising from mental worry, overwork or excesses of whatever nature.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People are sold in boxes (never in loose bulk) at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50, and may be had of druggists, or direct by mail from Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Schenectady, N. Y.

play ostrich ever after this. As a Hawaiian, I can vouch for his sincerity to a certain degree, and none can say aught as to that. But as to the other, it is buried in oblivion and only awaits the sound of Gabriel's trumpet.

And where does Markie Robinson come off? His deeds are better left unsaid than sung by those of the dead past and of the occult fanatics of the present. All his Christian teaching has been blown to the four corners for Theosophy, in which he sees through a glass darkly. I understand he spoke to Hawaiians in his mother's language the other night when he gave that luau of "uncooked" pig, and that night he made his mark, sure kela. But to Hawaiians, the sight of uncooked flesh means unstable, undigestible and unpalatable. This uncooked pig is a sign of insecurity and uncertainty of success. In ancient days, when preparing for a journey of several days duration, if the food and pig turned out uncooked, the journey was immediately given up, because uncooked food will not sustain life. I think he is like a dead horse, since giving that luau which portends ill-luck to him and his cause. Never mind; better luck next time. But I am more than amazed that he should open his house to natives and what for? Because he was only fishing for votes. After election, it will be closed as formerly was the case. His good looks is a go with the gentler sex, and it's too bad that they can't vote, for they will no doubt vote for him to get some of his money. Hooray for Woman Suffrage, boys!
