CORRESPONDENCE.

A Reason for Waiting.

ED. THE INDEPENDENT:—

On commence par etre dupe; on finit par etre fripon.

Having made fools of themselves over the wording of a diplomatic communication, the Advertiser clique, voicing the sentiments of the government and the few annexation enthusiasts, now resort to the practice of kuavery for the purpose of creating the impression on the minds of its foreign and political readers, that the Hawaiian nation is ready for annexation to the United States of America.

Will the Advertiser state; when, the Hawaiian nation made known its "readiness to place itself under the American flag? also, when, the Hawaiian nation announced the statement, that, it will accept the form of annexation offered by the United States?"

The Advertiser cannot make an affirmative reply; its writers know full well, that the Hawaiian nation is not ready for, nor will it accept any proposals of annexation.

Those writers will have to admit and acknowledge the accusation, that they have deliberately and willfully made false statements.

It may be said, and perhaps rightly, by foreign readers and others interested in Hawaiian affairs, why do not the Hawaiian people make an expression of their views and show to the world that they do not support the oligarchy at present existing in the Hawaiian Islands, also, that they do not wish for annexation to the United States.

That question is readily answered. They would not—in the opinion of the writer—be permitted to do so. On the 31st of January, 1893, fourteen days after their assumption of power, the revolutionary government published a law, making it a seditious offence to speak, write or print anything which might bring hatred or contempt against the government. So, were, the Hawaiian people to meet together for the purpose of declaring themselves against annexation and as not being in accord with the present government ruling in their land, they would, in all probability be arrested as conspirators and revolutionists.

But, the Hawaiian people—with few exceptions—have however in a constitutional manner, shown their non-affiliation with, and their disapprobation of the present existing government, in not recognizing its existence by the method set forth in Article 101 of its Constitution, which reads as follows: "No person shall be eligible to be an Officer, Senator or Representative under the Republic, or an elector of Senators or Representatives, or a Juror, until he shall have taken and subscribed the following oath or affirmation, viz: 'I do solemnly swear, (or affirm) in the presence of Almighty God, that I will support the Constitution, Laws and Government of the Republic of Hawaii; and will not, either directly or indirectly, encourage or assist in the restoration or establishment of a Monarchical form of Government in the Hawaiian Islands.'"

Article 33 of that Constitution, expressly authorizes and empowers the Government to make a Treaty of Political or Commercial Union with the United States of America. Political Union with the United States, does not receive the support or approbation of the Hawaiian people.

The following extract from an editorial in last Saturday's Advertiser is rather encouraging than otherwise, to the opposition: "Having full confidence in the ultimate results, the people of this country have no right to feel slighted or down hearted because their cause has not received President McKinley's immediate and undivided attention. We may depend upon it that he will draw his own conclusions and act with conservative deliberation. A patient waiter is no loser."

There is still a possibility, that to the Hawaiian people will be referred the question of annexation, also the choice of the form of government they desire. They have, perhaps, not patiently waited in vain, nor will they be the losers by such a course of action. NON-ANNEXATIONIST.

An Old Verse Resurrected.

At the opening of Beerbohm Tree's new theatre in London, Her Majesty's, the following verse was added to the national anthem. It was found among Longfellow's unpublished poems, and intended by him to be annexed to "America." It was thought to be peculiarly applicable in the unsettled condition of the war cloud in Europe:

"Lord, let war's tempests cease,
Fold the whole world in peace
Under Thy wings.
Make all the nations one,
All hearts beneath the sun,
Till Thou shalt reign alone,
Great King of Kings!"

Sharkey Wins

Paddy Ryan the genial host of the Anchor Saloon received a message by a carrier-pigeon this afternoon to the effect that Sharkey knocked out Maher this morning in the great battle between the two giants. Sharkey writes that he was the conqueror because he used stimulants according to Anchor prescriptions. Peter trained on Bowery swipes and was naturally a goner. A word to the wise is a sufficient Anchor.

Private corporations, if influential enough, appear to consider that they have the right to commit any damage they please on public property without let or hindrance. We feel convinced that the Minister of the Interior never granted permission to the Electric Light people to mar and almost ruin the historical and handsome Tamarind tree in the Judiciary Building grounds. It is but a sorry satisfaction now that the damage has been so ruthlessly and barbarously done to punish this corporation, but unless some action is taken THE INDEPENDENT believes that the people will think the Government is afraid of the power of that corporation. Had a poor person done this wrong, he would very promptly have been made to feel the consequences of a violation of the law, but our Government is cowardly in vindicating the people's rights.

P. C. JONES, THE AMERICAN

In reporting the meeting held last Saturday by alleged Americans under the auspices of Minister Sewall, the P. C. Advertiser writes as follows:

"Hon. P. C. Jones was unanimously elected permanent chairman, and J. A. Gilman, secretary. In accepting the office of chairman, Mr. Jones said he was particularly pleased with the honor conferred upon him because 'we've got a representative here now who is a true American. We've been bottled up here for four years, and I'm happy to say that our present representative is a man before whom we can say what we have to say without fear of hurting anyone's feelings.'"

Mr. Peter Cushman Jones had the opportunity that he has been bottled up for at last, at the meeting called to arrange for the celebration of the 4th of July, to get even with the late United States Minister Albert Willis. Our citizens need not to be reminded of the fact that Mr. Willis is dead and that Mr. Jones enjoyed the opportunity to dig up his remains from an honored grave to have a contemptible fling at them.

Mr. Jones is an American or nothing—generally nothing. His patriotism is of that all-consuming kind that leads him to do things to make his countrymen question that of which he boasts the most—his ardent patriotism. For instance he could forswear his country and become a Hawaiian to hold vessels under that flag, not the American, for duce; then he could take an oath to support the Hawaiian sovereign and constitution for the sake of office and its emoluments. The hateful monarchy was good enough for him until the two cents bounty on American grown sugar lured him to the betrayal of Hawaii for annexation.

What a grand opportunity the new American Minister lost for the exhibition of his esprit de corps, in failing to remind Mr. Jones that Mr. Willis was dead; but, then, the reminder would have required explanation to such a man as Mr. Jones is.

Rumorologists at Work.

The battalion from the Philadelphia and Marion was landed this morning and marched to the Kamehameha School grounds for a drill. Shortly after the appearance of the men at the Campus an Orderly came along post haste with an order to return immediately, and the battalion marched back to the wharf and was embarked before 11 o'clock. It was understood that some of the men or officers were wanted as witnesses at a court-martial. The rumorologists of Honolulu were also responsible for the statement that Japs were to land from the Naniwa, and, in case of such an event it would safer for the American blue-jackets to be on board. It was finally stated that there was a "row" on board the flagship and that the men consequently were ordered back.

THE INDEPENDENT is inclined to believe that a mistake happened owing to the punch at the horse races and that the regular Tuesday drill took place on a Monday and, that the error was found out and corrected and the men called back.

To-morrow is Tuesday and to-day is Monday as far as THE INDEPENDENT'S calendar goes.

The Japs haven't landed and the Ams have gone a board their respective vessels, and the wind blows through Duke's whiskers.

The Jubilee Sports.

In another column will be seen the program of sports for the Queen's Diamond Jubilee celebration. Commissioner Hawes race, No. 20, is bound to attract a number of entries. They will be very welcome.

Only Enterprise.

The first question put to Jim Dodd by the pilot yesterday, on board of the Australia was "did you bring a cable?" The next question was, "Jim, did you go to Washington?" Then came, "how about annexation?" Jim looked mysterious. He winked a wunk and then he said: "Come up boys to the Pantheon, and I will tell you all about my Enterprise" and the boys are coming.

The Animatoscope.

The Animatoscope in Love's Block, Fort street, is well worthy of a visit. See advertisement elsewhere.

ED. THE INDEPENDENT—

Having for many years been interested in the internal conflicts of Christian creeds, and the eternal controversies between members of the same churches, on matters of more personal moment to their present conditions, than the salvation of the souls of themselves and of the balance of the human race, I attended the meeting of the Second Congregation of St. Andrew's Cathedral on the 1st inst.

I was drawn thitherward,—to the schoolroom, once used, I believe, as a pro-cathedral, and consequently retaining around it a lingering odor of the reverential sanctity of Christ's labor and love, and his doctrine of Charity and the beatitudes,—by the announcement that the meeting was to consider a proposal for the union of the congregations, which for some mysterious inner-circle reasons had held amicably contradictory relations the one with the other under the same episcopal head for some years past.

The mere fact of a meeting having been called to consider such a proposition induced me to believe ex natura rerum that it would be a clear case of

*Felices ter et amplius,
Quos irrupta tenet copula, nec malis
Divulsus querimonibus
Suprema citius solvet amor die.*

Or, as I may be permitted to freely English, "Happy and thrice happy are those who enjoy an uninterrupted union, and whose love, unbroken by any evil dissensions, shall not dissolve until the last day of their existence."

I expected the waving of an olive branch, but instead was the "noli me tangere" of a thistle. I anticipated being charmed with words of that rarity Christian charity, but my ears were pained and offended by indecent and profane (from a rubrical standpoint) criticisms of their spiritual head, the anointed of the Lord, by churchwardens and church officials, and, more regretfully indiscreet and inappropriate, of the pastor of the flock, whose self admitted constitutional irascibility, and self selected crown of temporal martyrdom pressed the thorns rather too heavily upon his aching brow, until these two unfortunate nurses of anger led to passionate words enunciated with a sting of pathos and sarcasm not condoned by the arts of modulated tones in which they were delivered. Happy indeed did these gentlemen apparently consider themselves in having skillfully succeeded in tracing effects—the divergence of the congregations—to causes, and these causes (united and consolidated) were vigorously sifted and shaken and analyzed—the Bishop.

His Lordship was the root of all offending; the prime mover of all evil; the conceiver of designs of the deepest die and most humiliating conditions; the fomenter of disturbances; the unworthy pastor of his flock; a man of brains, ability, learning and energy, as a matter of course, but with talents of too distinguished an order to be permitted to run fallow in the doctrinal harvest field of Hawaii; an archangel on the opponents' side, and one whose removal to brighter and more congenial realms, even the heavenly one in whose guidance he might also wish to interfere, would be beneficial and the only panacea, the only cure all for each and every dissension. His perpetual absence would create the long anticipated millennium in the churches.

He was alleged to have been a mischief-maker from the first day he took charge of the Episcopate, and he would remain a thorn in their flesh until Providence extracted him.

It was painfully amusing to listen to these trained elocutionists uttering in mincing words and mealy-mouthed voices from which one expected the honey drops to fall—"Mellitum venenum, blanda oratio"—the poison of condemnation and sacerdotal scandal. Happy, thrice happy, are they that they live not in those mediæval days whose influences they regard as being paramount with the Lord Bishop. A little penance on a raw hide and parched peas diet would have preceded a cold chop or a hot stake for their souls' sake.

In extremely good taste also, and with true gentlemanlike instinct (from their standpoint of the code) was it to refer to the influence and endeavors of "strangers" in church matters, bearing in mind the influence that was present and actively engaged in formulating an opposition to the advancement of church interests in favor of personal matters and personal advancement.

Very modestly and unassumingly were the merits of the one clerical and the demerits of another, glibly stated by one alleged by common report to be deeply interested in results, and most disastrously encouraging to hopeful attainment of one's learning the road to heaven, through Christ's love and charity, from the lips of those who have apparently forgotten the location of the first signal post and mile-stone on the road and have exchanged the good old fashioned stand-by of the Bible for the politician's horn-book.

Eventually I came to the conclusion that I was unwittingly joining in another political convention to frame another new constitution in which all the offices and all the power should be given to another family compact, and that the masses should be given nothing except the privilege of learning how to reach heaven and harmony by the unorthodox fashion of thinking for themselves, and the orthodox rule of contributing to the purchase of something they do not require. The thought flashed through me that if the soul builds the body as the snail builds his shell, then how very ugly and hideously homely some of those bodies will be by and by when the builder has builded his edifice.

It is difficult for any reasonable churchman, of any one of the numerous Christ's creeds, to believe that a dispassionate reflection on the part of the majority of those who "worship" with the Second Congregation can endorse the remarks uttered by the parson and the churchwarden, and the "ultimatum" nature of the resolutions that were half heartedly railroaded through by a noisy minority, for a threat is not a happy medium to convey an acceptance of proffered peace even among our heterogeneous "Christians" of Hawaii. I don't think that even our Palama patriot would donate a cool million to erect more chapels or schoolhouses, on the condition that if he did not he should have an unimpeachable passport to the most heated regions of immortal recreation.

The conduct of the meeting and its outcome will be more deeply regretted by the participant in future years than it is in present day. It is an open secret that there are more serious dissensions in the "Second Congregation" than have for the present been brought to the surface. In charity they are not now specifically referred to.

The times change, and even clergymen must occasionally say with the poet:

"Non eadem est ætas, non mens."

Doctrinal differences must yield to principles, and the first principle is charity, combining love and harmony. Possibly wiser counsels in the true spirit of Christianity may prevail, but it must be remembered that in protracted disputes (for this proposition has been forced from a proposal into a dispute) men often forget themselves and their subject. The present outlook for Union is unpromising, but that for important secessions from the "Second Congregation" is threatening and regrettable, and the blame for the "schism" must be borne by those who have earned it. If they cannot be true churchmen let them join the ranks of the Dissenters, the Congregationalists, Christians, Methodists, Baptists, Adventists, Latter-day Saints, Salvationists or other of the innumerable offshoots of Christianity and leave churchmen alone to worship in their own Cathedral without ultra fashionable wrangling and bickering. FROM POST TO FINISH.

Saturday's Conclusion of the Kamehameha Day Races.

The races on Saturday were enjoyed by a big crowd and a number of the youngsters lost their moneys.

The races were as orderly as on Friday and Police Captain Parker deserves credit for the excellent manner in which he keeps his men on duty and preserves order on an occasion where several hundreds of people are gathered.

The bicycle races were the first event with the following result:

1st—BICYCLE RACE.

1/4 Mile Dash. Prize: Trophy, valued at $20.

Entries—Sam Johnson, T. V. King, J. F. Murray, J. Sylva.

Sylva won in 1:07 1/2.

2d—BICYCLE RACE.

1 Mile Handicap Prize: Trophy valued at $30.

Entries—D. G. Sylvester, Sam Johnson, J. Sylva, T. V. King, J. F. Murray.

Sylva won again. Time, 2:20 1/2.

3d—HAWAIIAN JOCKEY CLUB PURSE.

1/2 Mile Dash; for Hawaiian bred; Purses, $150.

Entries—Amethyst (Kealia Stables), Antidote (Geo. Rodiek), Confederate (Shenandoah Stables), Billy C. (W. H. Cornwell).

Antidote won easily and again proved to be the best race horse of the season. Time, 1:05 1/5.

4th—ENTERPRISE BREWERY COMPANY'S PURSE.

Pacing and trotting; free for all; best 3 in 5. Purses, $150, with $50 added.

Entries—Ralph (Wm. Norton), Billy Button (J. F. Humburg), Gladys (Wm. Cunningham).

Ralph said "Nit" to Gladys and Billy Button and the slate showed the following figures: 2:25 1/2, 2:27 1/2, 2:20 1/2.

5th—ROSITA CHALLENGE CUP, $200 ADDED.

Running race; 1 Mile Dash.

Entries—Amaranth (Kealia Stables), Sympathetic's Last (Gus Schumann), Magnet (Shenandoah Stables), Lord Brock (W. H. Cornwell).

Sympathetic's Last beat Magnet to the great surprise of the backers of that Wai'alua horse. Amaranth wasn't in it either. The S. L. did the mile in 1:47 1/2. Some one was "in it."

6th—MAIDEN RACE.

1/2 Mile Dash. For horses that have not previously started. Purses, $100.

Entries—Mikado (Shenandoah Stables), Mikimiki (W. H. Cornwell). Mikado was an easy winner. Japan always is in Hawaii.

7th—SPECIAL RACE.

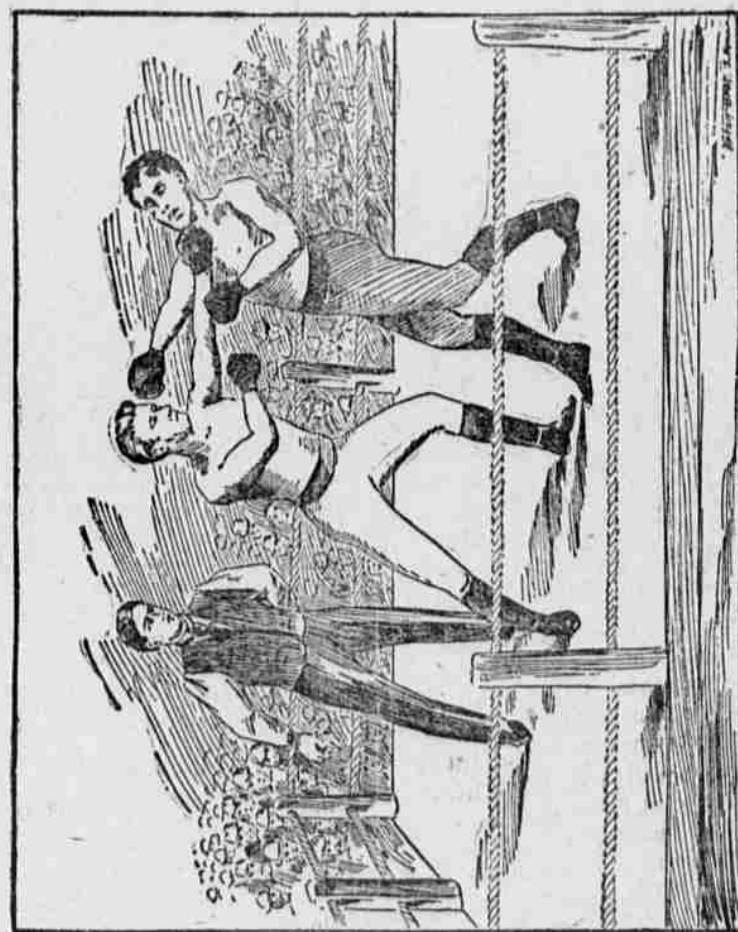

Pacing and trotting; handicap; free for all beaten horses. Purses $150.

Entries—Directress (Wm. Norton) and Watermelon Joe (Dr. Shaw).

Directress won the race. Time, 2:31 1/2 and 2:34. Watermelon Joe says he has sent in application to change his name to Water Mel(ts) on Joe.

The Native Boys Retain Their Victories in Hauling.

Bristol's pavilion had the largest gathering of the season on Saturday evening and the sport was intensely interesting. Many local notables of sporting proclivities were present and considerable money, it is alleged, changed hands.

The results were the Waikiki boys beat the Makani Hooe in 27 minutes. The Pakakas then defeated the Marion's boys in 32 minutes. This was followed by a most heroic struggle between the Philadelphia's team and the native boys of the Honolulu Iron Works, and it required a continuous strain of inch by inch work for 55 minutes before the gallant Philadelphia's were vanquished.

To-morrow night the contestants will be the Waikiki and the Pakaka, Honolulu Iron Works against the Makani Hooe, and the Marion against the Philadelphia, the latter should prove a most exciting and interesting contest. The teams now have the following record:

TEAMS.	TUGS.	WON.	PERCENT.
Iron Works.....	3	3	100
U. S. S. Marion.....	2	0	0
Pakaka.....	3	2	66
Waikiki.....	3	2	66

The American Fourth.

On Saturday evening the United States Minister presided over the preliminary meeting of American citizens called together to make arrangements for the celebration of the glorious Fourth. After a few kindly and appropriate remarks from Minister Sewall who extended a cordial invitation to all Americans to call upon him at the Legation on that day, Mr. P. C. Jones was elected permanent Chairman, and J. A. Gilman, Secretary. The following Committees were then appointed:

Finance—J. A. McCandless, Andrew Brown, P. C. Jones, J. B. Atherton and F. J. Lowrey.

Ball—W. P. Boyd, J. N. Wright, F. C. Smith, F. B. McStocker and T. B. Murray.

One ounce of prevention is better than ten ounces of cure. The Empire boasts of infallible remedies against the varioloid. Wieland beer on draft beats vaccination, and Doctor Charlie Andrew presides over the finest stock of "remedies" that can be found in town. All for medicinal purposes—and cash.

Buffalo Beer has proved its immense popularity at the Royal, Pacific and Cosmopolitan Saloons. The celebrated Pabst is also retained there in draft or in bottle. The interchangeable check system that has proved such a convenience to the patrons of these popular resorts is also in vogue.

Jurors as a rule get out now-a-days very late in the evening. In the morning the wise men who have been drinking the ice water of the Supreme Court and eating dry sandwiches need something to clear their throats. That is the reason why the Pacific Saloon serves Rock and Rye every morning to the "rocky" who walk through the Rye.

The Mauna Loa's load of 10,326 bags sugar Hutchinson Mills and H. A. Co. is being piled on the Oceanic dock for the ship A. J. Fuller to load for New York.

Hagay Social Club.

There was quite a large attendance at the special meeting of the Hagay Social Club on Saturday evening, and more than usual interest evinced in the proceedings; quite a number of close votes being taken. All outstanding accounts were ordered paid, and the Executive committee was directed to procure for the library nearly 40 magazines periodicals and newspapers. These represent all phases of literary work and all conditions of men and trades and will come from America, Asia, Africa, Australasia, Canada, Great Britain and elsewhere. The Entertainment committee was authorized to arrange for a social evening, and for a tournament of games for the members. Strangers are cordially invited to visit the comfortable convenient and pretty rooms, and total abstainers to become members through the introduction of an active, honorary or life member. The telephone number is 706.

The bark Mohican, Captain Saunders, will be ready to "go" sugar on Tuesday morning next. Mate Murray is handling the hook at the main hatch of the Mohican to-day and the in freight is coming out lively.

Admiral Beardslee had a very large number of Hawaiian visitors on board the Philadelphia on Saturday, and they were highly delighted with the many kindly courtesies extended to them. They were fully appreciated and will be pleasantly remembered.

CORRESPONDENCE.

A Reason for Waiting.

ED. THE INDEPENDENT:—

On commence par etre dupe; on finit par etre fripon.

Having made fools of themselves over the wording of a diplomatic communication, the Advertiser clique, voicing the sentiments of the government and the few annexation enthusiasts, now resort to the practice of kuavery for the purpose of creating the impression on the minds of its foreign and political readers, that the Hawaiian nation is ready for annexation to the United States of America.

Will the Advertiser state; when, the Hawaiian nation made known its "readiness to place itself under the American flag? also, when, the Hawaiian nation announced the statement, that, 'it will accept the form of annexation offered by the United States?'"

The Advertiser cannot make an affirmative reply; its writers know full well, that the Hawaiian nation is not ready for, nor will it accept any proposals of annexation.

Those writers will have to admit and acknowledge the accusation, that they have deliberately and willfully made false statements.

It may be said, and perhaps rightly, by foreign readers and others interested in Hawaiian affairs, why do not the Hawaiian people make an expression of their views and show to the world that they do not support the oligarchy at present existing in the Hawaiian Islands, also, that they do not wish for annexation to the United States.

That question is readily answered. They would not—in the opinion of the writer—be permitted to do so. On the 31st of January, 1893, fourteen days after their assumption of power, the revolutionary government published a law, making it a seditious offence to speak, write or print anything which might bring hatred or contempt against the government. So, were, the Hawaiian people to meet together for the purpose of declaring themselves against annexation and as not being in accord with the present government ruling in their land, they would, in all probability be arrested as conspirators and revolutionists.

But, the Hawaiian people—with few exceptions—have however in a constitutional manner, shown their non-affiliation with, and their disapprobation of the present existing government, in not recognizing its existence by the method set forth in Article 101 of its Constitution, which reads as follows: "No person shall be eligible to be an Officer, Senator or Representative under the Republic, or an elector of Senators or Representatives, or a Juror, until he shall have taken and subscribed the following oath or affirmation, viz: 'I do solemnly swear, (or affirm) in the presence of Almighty God, that I will support the Constitution, Laws and Government of the Republic of Hawaii; and will not, either directly or indirectly, encourage or assist in the restoration or establishment of a Monarchical form of Government in the Hawaiian Islands.'"

Article 33 of that Constitution, expressly authorizes and empowers the Government to make a Treaty of Political or Commercial Union with the United States of America Political Union with the United States, does not receive the support or approbation of the Hawaiian people.

The following extract from an editorial in last Saturday's Advertiser is rather encouraging than otherwise, to the opposition: "Having full confidence in the ultimate results, the people of this country have no right to feel slighted or down hearted because their cause has not received President McKinley's immediate and undivided attention. We may depend upon it that he will draw his own conclusions and act with conservative deliberation. A patient waiter is no loser."

There is still a possibility, that to the Hawaiian people will be referred the question of annexation, also the choice of the form of government they desire. They have, perhaps, not patiently waited in vain, nor will they be the losers by such a course of action. NON-ANNEXATIONIST.

An Old Verse Resurrected.

At the opening of Beerbohm Tree's new theatre in London, Her Majesty's, the following verse was added to the national anthem. It was found among Longfellow's unpublished poems, and intended by him to be annexed to "America." It was thought to be peculiarly applicable in the unsettled condition of the war cloud in Europe:

"Lord, let war's tempests cease,
Fold the whole world in peace
Under Thy wings.
Make all the nations one,
All hearts beneath the sun,
Till Thou shalt reign alone,
Great King of Kings!"

Sharkey Wins

Paddy Ryan the genial host of the Anchor Saloon received a message by a carrier-pigeon this afternoon to the effect that Sharkey knocked out Maher this morning in the great battle between the two giants. Sharkey writes that he was the conqueror because he used stimulants according to Anchor prescriptions. Peter trained on Bowery swipes and was naturally a goner. A word to the wise is a sufficient Anchor.

Charles Brown came out first in yesterday's Clay Pigeon shoot at Kewalo with a record of 7 out of 10 with Harry Whitney second with 6 out of 10. Another match next Sunday.

Read Timely Topics today and then invest in a suit of Sherwoods's Novelty Steel Harness. It is the grandest and simplest innovation of the age for all kinds of farm and plantation teamsters.

The Naval Brigade landed this morning and marched to Kamehameha Schools. They presented a splendid and martial appearance as they marched through the town, and there was no taint of the races about them.

Captain Macy made a seizure of boxes this morning upon information received that a certain Chinese had opium in possession. The boxes were brought to the Station House but no opium was found—and our Pinkertons got "nit."

The Jubilee Sports.

In another column will be seen the program of sports for the Queen's Diamond Jubilee celebration. Commissioner Hawes race, No. 20, is bound to attract a number of entries. As there is only another week to elapse before the sports it is about time that intending subscribers to the sports fund should rattle their spare coins into the hands of the treasurer. They will be very welcome.

Only Enterprise.

The first question put to Jim Dodd by the pilot yesterday, on board of the Australia was "did you bring a cable?" The next question was, "Jim, did you go to Washington?" Then came, "how about annexation?" Jim looked mysterious. He winked a wink and then he said: "Come up boys to the Pantheon, and I will tell you all about my Enterprise" and the boys are coming.

The Animatoscope.

The Animatoscope in Love's Block, Fort street, is well worthy of a visit. It will surprise the old as well as amuse the young to see apparently the moving performances of the living, and yet they are in reality merely their own portraits set in motion by scientific attainments. See advertisement elsewhere.

Card of Thanks.

Mr. Wm. Mutch wishes to thank, on behalf of the family of the late R. W. Meyers, the many friends and others who were so kind in sending floral offerings; and also, for their kind attention during Mr. Meyers' brief illness and at the funeral.

ED. THE INDEPENDENT—

Having for many years been interested in the internal conflicts of Christian creeds, and the eternal controversies between members of the same churches, on matters of more personal moment to their present conditions, than the salvation of the souls of themselves and of the balance of the human race, I attended the meeting of the Second Congregation of St. Andrew's Cathedral on the 1st inst.

I was drawn thitherward,—to the schoolroom, once used, I believe, as a pro-cathedral, and consequently retaining around it a lingering odor of the reverential sanctity of Christ's labor and love, and his doctrine of Charity and the beatitudes,—by the announcement that the meeting was to consider a proposal for the union of the congregations, which for some mysterious inner-circle reasons had held amicably contradictory relations the one with the other under the same episcopal head for some years past.

The mere fact of a meeting having been called to consider such a proposition induced me to believe ex natura rerum that it would be a clear case of

*Felices ter et amplius,
Quos irrupta tenet copula, nec malis
Divulsus querimonis
Suprema citius solvet amor die.*

Or, as I may be permitted to freely English, "Happy and thrice happy are those who enjoy an uninterrupted union, and whose love, unbroken by any evil dissensions, shall not dissolve until the last day of their existence."

I expected the waving of an olive branch, but instead was the "noli me tangere of a thistle. I anticipated being charmed with words of that rarity Christian charity, but my ears were pained and offended by indecent and profane (from a rubrical standpoint) criticisms of their spiritual head, the anointed of the Lord, by churchwardens and church officials, and, more regretfully indiscreet and inappropriate, of the pastor of the flock, whose self admitted constitutional irascibility, and self selected crown of temporal martyrdom pressed the thorns rather too heavily upon his aching brow, until these two unfortunate nurses of anger led to passionate words enunciated with a sting of pathos and sarcasm not condoned by the arts of modulated tones in which they were delivered. Happy indeed did these gentlemen apparently consider themselves in having skillfully succeeded in tracing effects—the divergence of the congregations—to causes, and these causes (united and consolidated) were vigorously sifted and shaken and analyzed—the Bishop.

His Lordship was the root of all offending; the prime mover of all evil; the conceiver of designs of the deepest die and most humiliating conditions; the fomenter of disturbances; the unworthy pastor of his flock; a man of brains, ability, learning and energy, as a matter of course, but with talents of too distinguished an order to be permitted to run fallow in the doctrinal harvest field of Hawaii; an archangel on the opponents' side, and one whose removal to brighter and more congenial realms, even the heavenly one in whose guidance he might also wish to interfere, would be beneficial and the only panacea, the only cure all for each and every dissension. His perpetual absence would create the long anticipated millenium in the churches.

He was alleged to have been a mischief-maker from the first day he took charge of the Episcopate, and he would remain a thorn in their flesh until Providence extracted him.

It was painfully amusing to listen to these trained elocutionists uttering in mincing words and mealy-mouthed voices from which one expected the honey drops to fall—"Mellitum venenum, blanda oratio"—the poison of condemnation and sacerdotal scandal. Happy, thrice happy, are they that they live not in those medieval days whose influences they regard as being paramount with the Lord Bishop. A little penance on a raw hide and parched peas diet would have preceded a cold chop or a hot stake for their souls' sake.

In extremely good taste also, and with true gentlemanlike instinct (from their standpoint of the code) was it to refer to the influence and endeavors of "strangers" in church matters, bearing in mind the influence that was present and actively engaged in formulating an opposition to the advancement of church interests in favor of personal matters and personal advancement.

Very modestly and unassumingly were the merits of the one clerical and the demerits of another, glibly stated by one alleged by common report to be deeply interested in results, and most disastrously encouraging to hopeful attainment of one's learning the road to heaven, through Christ's love and charity, from the lips of those who have apparently forgotten the location of the first signal post and mile-stone on the road and have exchanged the good old fashioned stand-by of the Bible for the politician's horn-book.

Eventually I came to the conclusion that I was unwittingly joining in another political convention to frame another new constitution in which all the offices and all the power should be given to another family compact, and that the masses should be given nothing except the privilege of learning how to reach heaven and harmony by the unorthodox fashion of thinking for themselves, and the orthodox rule of contributing to the purchase of something they do not require. The thought flashed through me that if the soul builds the body as the snail builds his shell, then how very ugly and hideously homely some of those bodies will be by and by when the builder has builded his edifice.

It is difficult for any reasonable churchman, of any one of the numerous Christ's creeds, to believe that a dispassionate reflection on the part of the majority of those who "worship" with the Second Congregation can endorse the remarks uttered by the parson and the churchwarden, and the "ultimatum" nature of the resolutions that were half-heartedly railroaded through by a noisy minority, for a threat is not a happy medium to convey an acceptance of proffered peace even among our heterogeneous "Christians" of Hawaii. I don't think that even our Palama patriot would donate a cool million to erect more chapels or schoolhouses, on the condition that if he did not he should have an unimpeachable passport to the most heated regions of immortal recreation.

The conduct of the meeting and its outcome will be more deeply regretted by the participant in future years than it is in present day. It is an open secret that there are more serious dissensions in the "Second Congregation" than have for the present been brought to the surface. In charity they are not now specifically referred to.

The times change, and even clergymen must occasionally say with the poet:

"Non eadem est aetas, non mens."

Doctrinal differences must yield to principles, and the first principle is charity, combining love and harmony. Possibly wiser counsels in the true spirit of Christianity may prevail, but it must be remembered that in protracted disputes (for this proposition has been forced from a proposal into a dispute) men often forget themselves and their subject. The present outlook for Union is unpropitious, but that for important secessions from the "Second Congregation" is threatening and regrettable, and the blame for the "schism" must be borne by those who have earned it. If they cannot be true churchmen let them join the ranks of the Dissenters, the Congregationalists, Christians, Methodists, Baptists, Adventists, Latter-day Saints, Salvationists or other of the innumerable offshoots of Christianity and leave churchmen alone to worship in their own Cathedral without ultra fashionable wrangling and bickering. FROM POST TO FINISH.

Saturday's Conclusion of the Kamehameha Pay Races.

The races on Saturday were enjoyed by a big crowd and a number of the youngsters lost their moneys.

The races were as orderly as on Friday and Police Captain Parker deserves credit for the excellent manner in which he keeps his men on duty and preserves order on an occasion where several hundreds of people are gathered.

The bicycle races were the first event with the following result:

1st—BICYCLE RACE.

1/4 Mile Dash. Prize: Trophy, valued at $20.

Entries—Sam Johnson, T. V. King, J. F. Murray, J. Sylva.
Sylva won in 1:07 1/2.

2d—BICYCLE RACE.

1 Mile Handicap. Prize: Trophy valued at $30.

Entries—D. G. Sylvester, Sam Johnson, J. Sylva, T. V. King, J. F. Murray.

Sylva won again. Time, 2:29 1/2.

3d—HAWAIIAN JOCKEY CLUB PURSE.

1/2 Mile Dash; for Hawaiian bred. Purses, $150.

Entries—Amethyst (Kealia Stables), Antidote (Geo. Rodiek), Confederate (Shenandoah Stables), Billy C. (W. H. Cornwell).

Antidote won easily and again proved to be the best race horse of the season. Time, 1:05 1/5.

4th—ENTERPRISE BREWING COMPANY'S PURSE.

Pacing and trotting; free for all; best 3 in 5. Purses, $150, with $50 added.

Entries—Ralph (Wm. Norton), Billy Button (J. F. Humburg), Gladys (Wm. Cunningham).

Ralph said "Nit" to Gladys and Billy Button and the slate showed the following figures: 2:25 1/2, 2:27 1/2, 2:29 1/2.

5th—ROSITA CHALLENGE CUP, $200 ADDED.

Running race; 1 Mile Dash.

Entries—Amaranth (Kealia Stables), Sympathetic's Last (Gus Schumann), Magnet (Shenandoah Stables), Lord Brock (W. H. Cornwell).

Sympathetic's Last beat Magnet to the great surprise of the backers of that Waiatua horse. Amaranth wasn't in it either. The S. L. did the mile in 1:47 1/2. Some one was "in it."

6th—MAIDEN RACE.

1/2 Mile Dash. For horses that have not previously started. Purses, $100.

Entries—Mikado (Shenandoah Stables), Mikimiki (W. H. Cornwell). Mikado was an easy winner. Japan always is in Hawaii.

7th—SPECIAL RACE.

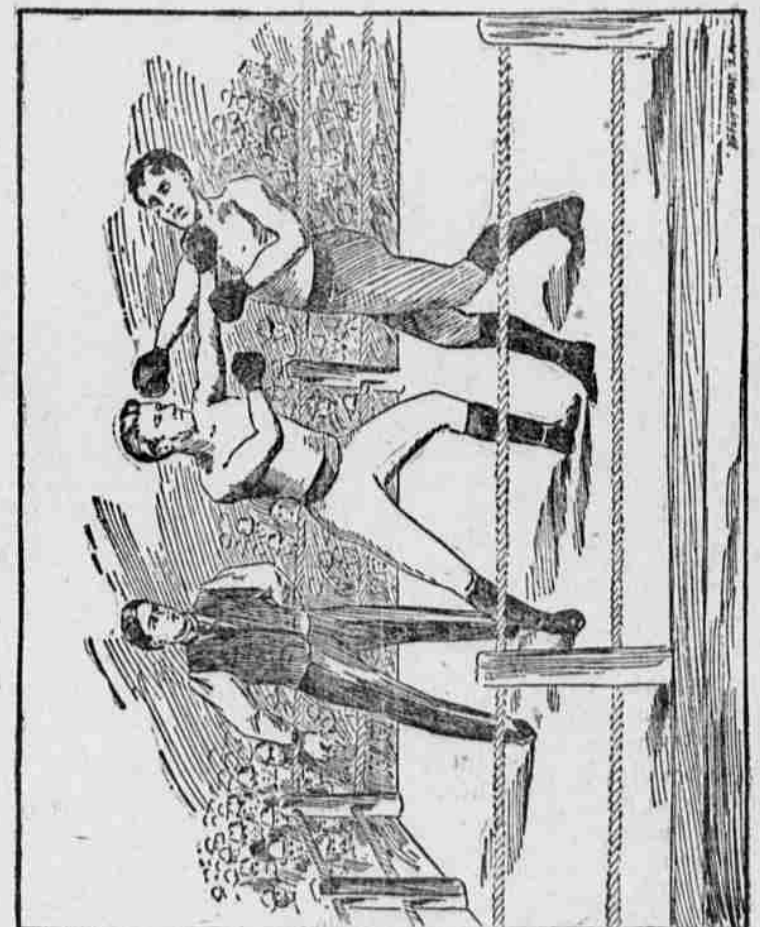

Pacing and trotting; handicap; free for all beaten horses. Purses $150.

Entries—Directress (Wm. Norton) and Watermelon Joe (Dr. Shaw).

Directress won the race. Time, 2:31 1/2 and 2:3 1/2. Watermelon Joe says he has sent in application to change his name to Water Mel(t)son Joe.

The Native Boys Retain Their Victories in Hauling.

Bristol's pavilion had the largest gathering of the season on Saturday evening and the sport was intensely interesting. Many local notables of sporting proclivities were present and considerable money, it is alleged, changed hands.

The results were the Waikiki boys beat the Makani Hooe in 27 minutes. The Pakakas then defeated the Marion's boys in 32 minutes. This was followed by a most heroic struggle between the Philadelphia's team and the native boys of the Honolulu Iron Works, and it required a continuous strain of inch by inch work for 55 minutes before the gallant Philadelphians were vanquished.

To-morrow night the contestants will be the Waikiki and the Pakaka, Honolulu Iron Works against the Makani Hooe, and the Marion against the Philadelphia, the latter should prove a most exciting and interesting contest. The teams now have the following record:

TEAMS.	TUGS.	WON.	PERCENT.
Iron Works.....	3	3	100
U S S Marion.....	2	0	0
Pakaka.....	3	2	66
Waikiki.....	3	2	66

The American Fourth.

On Saturday evening the United States Minister presided over the preliminary meeting of American citizens called together to make arrangements for the celebration of the glorious Fourth. After a few kindly and appropriate remarks from Minister Sewall who extended a cordial invitation to all Americans to call upon him at the Legation on that day, Mr. P. C. Jones was elected permanent Chairman, and J. A. Gilman, Secretary. The following Committees were then appointed:

Finance—J. A. McCandless, Andrew Brown, P. C. Jones, J. B. Atherton and F. J. Lowrey.
Ball—W. P. Boyd, J. N. Wright, F. C. Smith, F. B. McStocker and T. B. Murray.

One ounce of prevention is better than ten ounces of cure. The Empire boasts of infallible remedies against the varioloid. Wieland beer on draft beats vaccination, and Doctor Charlie Andrew presides over the finest stock of "remedies" that can be found in town. All for medicinal purposes—and cash.

Buffalo Beer has proved its immense popularity at the Royal, Pacific and Cosmopolitan Saloons. The celebrated Pabst is also retained there in draft or in bottle. The interchangeable check system that has proved such a convenience to the patrons of these popular resorts is also in vogue.

Jurors as a rule get out now-a-days very late in the evening. In the morning the wise men who have been drinking the ice water of the Supreme Court and eating dry sandwiches need something to clear their throats. That is the reason why the Pacific Saloon serves Rock and Rye every morning to the "rocky" who walk through the Rye.

The Mauna Loa's load of 10,326 bags sugar Hutchinson Mills and H. A. Co. is being piled on the Oceanic dock for the ship A. J. Fuller to load for New York.

Hagey Social Club.

There was quite a large attendance at the special meeting of the Hagey Social Club on Saturday evening, and more than usual interest evinced in the proceedings; quite a number of close votes being taken. All outstanding accounts were ordered paid, and the Executive committee was directed to procure for the library nearly 40 magazines periodicals and newspapers. These represent all phases of literary work and all conditions of men and trades and will come from America, Asia, Africa, Australasia, Canada, Great Britain and elsewhere. The Entertainment committee was authorized to arrange for a social evening, and for a tournament of games for the members. Strangers are cordially invited to visit the comfortable convenient and pretty rooms, and total abstainers to become members through the introduction of an active, honorary or life member. The telephone number is 706.

JUST BEFORE BEDTIME

Nervous folks and those who suffer with sleeplessness will find a glass or two of Rainer Beer invaluable. It quiets the nerves and insures refreshing sleep. On tap or in bottles at the Criterion.

Joseph Tinker is unrivaled in the excellency of his Cambridge Club breakfast and Frankfurter lunch sausages. They are immense.

The bark Mohican, Captain Saunders, will be ready to "go" sugar on Tuesday morning next. Mate Murray is handling the hook at the main hatch of the Mohican to-day and the in freight is coming out lively.

Admiral Beardslee had a very large number of Hawaiian visitors on board the Philadelphia on Saturday, and they were highly delighted with the many kindly courtesies extended to them. They were fully appreciated and will be pleasantly remembered.
