ATTORNEY GENERAL KNOX TO LAWYER GEO. A. DAVIS

What the Department of Justice Thinks Is the Local Attorney's Due—Nervous Temperament and Eccentric Manners Commented on.

(Mail Special to the Advertiser.)

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 4.—By this mail Mr. George A. Davis will receive a letter from Attorney General Knox regarding his disbarment by the Territorial court of Hawaii and his suspension from practice for three months by the United States District Court. The fact that the Attorney General in his decision—for the letter is a decision—follows the lines of Judge Dole's decision last March but that the President can not interfere to relieve Mr. Davis of the disbarment because he has no constitutional power to do so has been told in a cablegram already sent by me.

The papers in the case have been long and carefully considered in the Department of Justice. The examination of authorities was made by Assistant Attorney John W. Trainer. The Attorney General signed the letter last evening (Friday) and the letter will go on the mail which leaves here Monday, June 6. Assistant Attorney General Russell, who had the papers in charge originally, was unable to give the case attention, as was expected because as soon as he returned here from Paris, where he went to attend to legal matters pertaining to the transfer of the Isthmian Canal property to the United States, he was directed to proceed to Panama to attend to further business there in the same connection. The recent consideration of the case was on direction of President Roosevelt, following a request made to him by Mr. Davis when the latter was visiting here.

The Attorney General's letter is couched in a judicial tone. The copy has not been made public here but the contents are known. It begins with a brief history of the case, stating how Mr. Davis was disbarred by the Territorial Supreme Court and how, on his own request, the same matter was presented in the United States District Court, over which Judge Sanford B. Dole presides.

Then follows a review of the President's power to pardon, showing that he has no constitutional authority to set aside verdicts of judges in contempt cases, except where contempt is punished by fine and imprisonment and thus becomes a criminal case. Decisions of the Supreme Court are cited in that connection, all showing that the President is without authority to interfere in the case before the Territorial court. The Attorney General's decision makes no direct reflection upon the action of the Territorial judges but at the same time demonstrates his approval of the decision by Judge Dole. The letter to Mr. Davis is the only one that will be written in the case.

It is learned on good authority that lawyers, who have had opportunity to examine into the case, are inclined to the opinion that the Territorial judges were, possibly, a little harsh in their disbarment of Davis. That, however, will hardly be of any material benefit to him now. His nervous temperament and eccentric manners are recognized here as having been something of a factor in the case but the lawyers feel that it might have been better had the judges been a little charitable with him on that account. There is nothing of this in the Attorney General's letter but he does express regret that there is no means of relief open to him on the part of the government.

REPUBLICAN PRECINCT CLUB NOMINATIONS

Meetings of Republican clubs were held in most of the precincts of the fourth district last night, those of the fifth district having generally been held the previous week. Below are reports of meetings in the 1st, 2nd, 3rd, 4th and 6th precinct clubs. A good tone prevailed in all of the meetings, and wherever they were not large the strongest workers were nevertheless to the front.

FIRST OF THE FOURTH.

There was a fair-sized meeting of the Republican Club of the First Precinct of the Fourth District, at the residence of Thos. P. Cummins, Pawa, last night.

Chas. L. Hopkins, the retiring president, on calling the meeting to order announced that he would decline re-nomination to the office. Sam. K. Kamaiopili, retiring assistant secretary, acted as secretary. Nominations for the election a week later were made as follows:

For president—W. W. Harris and S. F. Chillingworth, both of them members of the House of Representatives.

For 1st vice-president—S. M. Kanakani, Jos. Luahiwa and Jas. Nott Jr.

For 2nd vice-president—Sol. Kauai.

For secretary—Sam. K. Kamaiopili.

For assistant secretary—E. Buffandeau.

For treasurer—W. W. Chamberlain.

For judges of election (3)—S. K. Kamaiopili, E. Buffandeau and Geo. Macy.

For executive committee (5)—Thos. P. Cummins, W. C. Roe, E. G. Keen, W. H. Charlock, Chas. Lewis, E. Towse and M. S. Kauai.

W. C. Roe, after business, was called on for a speech and responded with a eulogy of Governor Carter and the Supreme Court appointments, the speaker crediting him with pulling through. It was at a political meeting a year or so ago.

SPOONER FACTION SEATS ITS BOLTING DELEGATES

CHICAGO June 18.—The Republican National Committee has voted to seat the Wisconsin delegation headed by Senators Spooner and Quarles. The La Follette faction is defeated.

Two Republican conventions were held in Wisconsin, two State tickets were nominated, and two delegations were sent to the National Convention. One was controlled by Governor La Follette, who aims at a third term in the Governor's chair; the other, whose chief aim seems to be to defeat La Follette, contains Senators Spooner and Quarles, ex-Governors Scofield and Upham, Representative Babcock, and many other State leaders. The La Follette party was in the majority in the convention and the Spooner faction were bolters, the latter faction now being seated at Chicago.

A CIVIL WAR HERO DIES AT WASHINGTON

WASHINGTON, June 18.—Rear Admiral Greer, retired, is dead.

Rear Admiral James A. Greer retired from the navy in 1895. He was born in 1833 and entered the navy as a midshipman in 1848. He was one of the moving spirits in a Civil War incident which caused considerable friction between the Union authorities and Great Britain. As a Lieut.-Commander he assisted in the removal of Mason and Sidell, the Confederate representatives, from the British steamer "Trent." These men were afterwards given up on the demand of the British government. Greer commanded the iron-clad "Benton" and a division of Admiral Porter's squadron at the passage of the Vicksburg batteries and in succeeding engagements. He was afterwards promoted through various grades to rear-admiral. He has lived in Washington during the last few years.

DR. COOPER AT CAPITAL

Makes Good Showing
There and Sees President.

(Mail Special to the Advertiser.)

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 4.—Dr. Charles B. Cooper, health commissioner for the territory, is here and attended the second annual conference of state and territorial health officers of the United States with the United States Public Health and Marine Hospital Service, which met yesterday at the New Willard Hotel. He was president of the committee on leprosy in that conference and by far the most interesting speaker present at its short session. Monday Dr. Cooper goes to Atlantic city to attend the sessions of a Medical Congress there. While here he had a conference with Dr. Walter Wyman, Surgeon General of the Marine Hospital Service, in which he urged upon Dr. Wyman the importance of establishing an experiment station at Molokai for the medical study and observation of leprosy. Dr. Cooper believes if the Marine Hospital Service would send an expert there to undertake the study of leprosy on a scientific basis much good would result.

He exhibited at the conference a large number of photographs of the lepers and their colony at Molokai. Some of these were in large albums and some detached photographs, but the entire collection aroused a very lively interest among the physicians present. They showed the disease in its various forms and in its different stages. The physicians and health officers made many demands upon Dr. Cooper for copies of certain of those photographs. He will leave some of the photographs with Dr. Wyman and some also with Mr. William Haywood who can make use of them in answering numerous inquiries here about the leper colony. The information is sometimes asked for in connection with matters of legislation before Congress.

The reports of various health officers about the conditions in the states and territories did not bring out much information, as there have been no recent epidemics. Very little was said about the plague, although a formal statement, containing no news, was made from California. Most of the health officers present will leave with Dr. Wyman extended reports on various topics, which subsequently will be printed.

Dr. Cooper had with him a printed pamphlet of a few pages and in neat form, entitled "Leprosy in the Hawaiian Islands." It gives some interesting statistics, especially regarding the financial burden of leprosy in the islands. Among other things, Dr. Cooper's pamphlet shows what it has cost the territory, as disclosed by reports of the board of health to care for lepers during the six years preceding Dec. 31, 1903. The pamphlet also has a table showing the financial relations of the United States with the territory of Hawaii. A large number of those copies were distributed here where they were calculated to do the most good in enlightening officials about conditions.

Before leaving Washington Dr. Cooper left with Dr. Wyman an exhaustive statement of 38 typewritten pages entitled "Some facts regarding leprosy as it exists in the territory of Hawaii." This will probably be printed in time. It does not treat of the etiology, pathology and treatment of leprosy but rather of the history and facts presented by the disease in Hawaii. Dr. Cooper first writes of the geography, topography and climatology of the islands. Then he describes what is known about the discovery of leprosy in the islands, tells of the establishment of the first leper station at Palolo Valley, of the station afterwards established at Kalahehi, and of events that led up to the establishment of the present station at Molokai. That station is described in much interesting detail. He tells of the epidemics of "swollen head fever" and mentions in detail the symptoms and treatment. The apprehension and examination of lepers are also depicted at length occupying several pages of the report. Then there follows a table about the number of lepers admitted to the settlement. Space is also devoted to children born in the settlement.

Dr. Cooper dwells at some length upon the "Contagiousness of Leprosy" and "Hereditary Leprosy." He quotes in these topics as well as on other topics in his reports many authorities who have been at the Leper Settlement and mentioned the various theories regarding the propagation of the disease.

The report closes with a statement about the financial burdens upon the territory of caring for the lepers. He points out that the climate is peculiarly favorable for the treatment of the disease and that the United States should "promptly establish at the settlement a station for the thorough scientific investigation and research of this dread disease, under charge of the best qualified specialists."

The report adds:

"That having established such a station, the Federal Government should consider its duty towards at least aiding the territory in caring for these unfortunate."

"These two objects would require but a small share of the net profits accruing to the federal treasury from the Territory of Hawaii."

"Should the Federal Government eventually decide to take entire charge and control of the leper settlement on Molokai, the citizens of the territory would object, and vigorously protest, against its being made a national leprosarium."

Dr. Cooper had a very satisfactory interview with Dr. Walter Wyman, surgeon general of the Marine Hospital Service, and with Assistant Surgeon General H. D. Geddings, about the establishment of an experiment station at Molokai to study leprosy in a scientific manner. They promised to look into the matter and do everything in their power to bring about such a series of experiments as Dr. Cooper recommends. Later Dr. Cooper had a very pleasant chat with President Roosevelt during a call at the White House. The President asked him many questions about conditions in the islands, in fact kept up a running fire of questions which Dr. Cooper was kept busy answering as long as the interview lasted.

ROSS OF HILO REPUDIATES LITTLE.

Stopping at the New Willard Hotel is Mr. H. L. Ross, of Hilo, who has come to look after his interests as an applicant to succeed Judge Little. He expects to have an interview within a day or two with Assistant Attorney General Day. Mr. Ross is telling his friends here that he regrets, under all the circumstances, that Judge Little has seen fit to endorse him for the judgeship and that it was entirely without Mr. Ross's solicitation. Mr. Ross feels that Judge Little's support is likely to prejudice his chances for the nomination.

GERRIT WILDER'S STUDIES.

Mr. Gerrit P. Wilder, of Honolulu, has been here this week and departed yesterday for San Francisco. It is probable that he will be a passenger on the same steamer for Honolulu as carries this letter. He is returning from a long trip to Europe, in the interests of the flora of Hawaii. He is well satisfied with the results of this European visit.

"I have been taking lessons in grafting—not in the political sense, however—budding and in arching," said he, "under the tutelage of Mr. George W. Oliver, the expert in that line in the Bureau of Plant Industry in Washington. My lessons extended over two days and were concluded to-day."

From the bureau Mr. Wilder will carry in a basket of the marketing variety rare specimens indigenous to the tropics, and which have been grown and experimented with in the department. Among these will be mangoes, from India, brought to America some time ago, and mangosteens, a rare fruit, selling in New York for $1.50, when obtainable.

Mr. Wilder is confident this fruit will grow well in Hawaii, and will water, cover, and uncover, as the atmospheric conditions demand, the tiny plants which he hopes some day to see grow into trees in the island where he has lived many years.

Mr. Wilder bears a commission from the board of agriculture of Hawaii to make his investigations among the greenhouses and floral establishments in Europe and America. When he visited Washington last September on his way to Europe, Secretary Wilson gave him credentials to European countries, and with these he was enabled to make close observations as to the methods of forestry and plant propagation.

TRINIDAD SUGAR. Vice Consul W. M. Handley, of Trinidad, West Indies, has forwarded a long report here regarding the commerce and industries of Trinidad. He has this to say about sugar as one of the principal exports:

"Sugar is prepared exclusively from sugar cane in the large 'Central' factories in the colony. In these factories cane sugar is produced, polarizing 98 to 99 per cent, of pure sugar. During the last eight years there has been a most striking change in the relative position of sugar and cocoa. In 1895 the market price of sugar had fallen to $40.80 and the sugar industry was in danger of extinction. Prices were then believed to have reached the lowest mark, but in 1902 they fell below $28. Since then many of the factories have closed down. However, the larger plants are still operating, one producing 15,000 tons per year, but the present prices of sugar are so much below the cost of production that this industry is in a very precarious condition."

"Large quantities of molasses are produced in connection with the manufacture of sugar. Some is used as cattle food and some converted into rum; but there is usually a surplus, which is sometimes unsalable at a profit. A suitable outlet for this surplus stock is very much required."

"Rum is made locally from molasses, and 300,000 gallons are consumed annually in the island. Of the total exported last year England received 145,000 gallons, Venezuela 57,000 gallons, and the United States 8,000 gallons. The well-known Angostura bitters is made in Trinidad from rum of the finest quality produced in the island. The other ingredients are a trade secret. During the year ended March 31, 1903, Angostura bitters was exported as follows: To Germany, 13,000 gallons; to England, 11,000 gallons; and to the United States, 10,000 gallons."

THE SAKI CASES. The Board of Appraisers of the Treasury Department have upheld the protests of Gonsalves & Co. and S. Kimura & Co. (Limited) against the assessment of duty on saki, which has leaked from casks in transit. The collector at Honolulu assessed the duty on an importation of the Japanese wine, or sake from Kobe, Japan, at the rate provided for still wine. The record shows that certain of the tubs in which the sake was imported were found to be empty at the time of landing. It was claimed by the importers that an allowance should be made for the sake which appears to have leaked out or disappeared from the empty tubs. The board of appraisers upheld the protests and reverse the collector's decision in each case.

MR. HATCH TAKES TIME FOR THOUGHT

Hon. Francis M. Hatch, who first learned of his appointment to the Supreme Court bench on arriving home in the steamer Siberia yesterday, was requested by telephone to meet Chief Justice Frear (re-elect) and Associate Justice Hartwell (elect) at the judicial building. He arrived at 3 o'clock and there was a brief conference in the office of the Chief Justice.

It was generally expected in the courthouse precincts that the Justices would then be sworn into office. To everybody's surprise, Mr. Hatch wished to think over the matter of accepting the office, at least over night.

Mr. Hatch being fatigued from travel retired early last night, so that the Advertiser was unable to ascertain whether or not he had already reached a decision.

PARKER THE COMING MAN

Hearst Now Preparing to Retire Into Background.

(Mail Special to the Advertiser.)

WASHINGTON, June 6.—Grover Cleveland's frank, straightforward endorsement of Judge Parker, has done much to clear the Democratic atmosphere, and encourage those members of the party who are sincerely interested in securing harmonious action at St. Louis, and in the campaign to follow the convention.

The formal announcement of Mr. Hearst that he intends to abide by the decision of the convention, followed by the statement from St. Louis that he has relinquished his claim to three floors of apartments in the Planter's Hotel, during the convention period, is also an indication that Mr. Hearst is preparing to take an humble seat on the Parker band wagon.

Senator Gorman's declaration at the Maryland state convention, last week, to the effect that he is entirely satisfied with the honors already conferred upon him by the Democratic party, is generally regarded by his friends that he does not intend to make an issue with Judge Parker.

These three incidents of Democratic interest, coming so closely together, have had a stimulating effect upon the Democrats who favor the nomination of Judge Parker. The New York Herald has interviewed several hundred prominent business men, of all shades of political opinion, as to what effect Judge Parker's nomination would have on the business interests of the country. The replies invariably were that the nomination of Judge Parker will not affect business prosperity any more than will the nomination of Roosevelt.

All these indications of Democratic harmony are not gratifying to the Republicans, who have been banking heavily upon the general idea that it is an impossibility for the Democrats to get together during the present campaign. Senator Bailey, who is one of the most level-headed and progressive members of the Democratic party, in discussing the stimulus given the Parker movement, said he was prepared to withhold his personal preferences, as to a candidate, in the interest of party harmony.

"It is well known," said Senator Bailey, "that I personally prefer the nomination of Senator Gorman, because I honestly consider him the strongest man we can nominate. There appear to be many persons who are as much interested in the success of the Democratic party as I am, who regard Judge Parker as the most available man to concentrate our efforts upon. Under the circumstances it seems to me that it is the duty of every loyal member of the Democratic party to put aside his personal feelings in this matter and join in a united effort to nominate the man who will command the largest vote. In my judgment, we can better determine the vote-getting strength of Judge Parker when the representatives of the party assemble at St. Louis. In Texas we want to be with the winner and therefore I anticipate that our delegation will go to the convention without instructions."

Senator Bailey made it perfectly plain, and so did his colleague, Senator Culberson, that Texas is friendly to Judge Parker and instructions will not be necessary in view of the drift of general sentiment in the direction of Judge Parker.

Mr. Cleveland's candid endorsement of

KING STREET, NEAR FORT

Judge Parker suggests a heretofore unpublished incident in connection with the selection of Mr. Cleveland as the Democratic candidate, the first time he ran for President.

A number of Democratic leaders met at the home of Samuel I. Tilden (Graystone), to select a candidate to run against Blaine, in 1884. Among those attending the conference were Daniel Manning, William C. Whitney, Senator Gorman, Ransom, of North Carolina; B. B. Smalley, and Mr. Barnum of Connecticut, then chairman of the Democratic National Committee.

Various names were considered but no agreement was reached. Finally when the conference was about to end, Mr. Tilden, who had followed closely what had been said in behalf of the men suggested, said he would like to propose the name of a man, who he thought could be elected. In his feeble voice he added:

"We have a mayor down in Buffalo, Grover Cleveland, who is the best vote-getter I ever knew. I am confident that if we nominate him we can elect him, but I want to say right here that I will not vouch for what we can do with him, if elected, for he has a will of his own."

A JAPANESE PROGRAM

Kinetoscope Exhibition at Progress Hall Interesting.

Progress Hall was filled last evening, principally with Japanese, of the merchant class apparently, to witness "a kinetoscopic exhibition of Russian Japanese war scenes" and the dancing of geisha girls.

The affair was a success. All the pictures were not kinetoscopic, many of them being portraits reproduced from half tone engravings, but all were welcome and the audience applauded everything impartially whether it was a representation of a Russian general or a Japanese admiral. Their admiration knew no bounds when Alexieff's presentation was thrown on the screen upside down, but that the applause was not inspired by pure patriotism was revealed when the shadow of a moth flickering over the august and honorable face of Her Imperial Majesty the Empress, provoked hearty laughter.

It was the same way with the moving pictures. Two series were very well carried out. The first showed an outpost of Cossacks in long coats and beards. They mount, men grabbing the pommel with one hand and the cante with another, the fiery Cossack ponies standing still the while. A small tent boasts the Russian flag fluttering in a real wind. Next comes a detachment of Japanese infantry who prepare an ambush of thirty men for the little group of seven videttes who ride into the trap but prepare to sell their lives dearly. Smoke comes from the guns, real smoke so that you cannot see the men. Four of the Cossacks have dismounted and with their officer get killed off while their comrades hold their horses and finally ride away as the Japs rush on and secure important dispatches which they wave triumphantly. Back goes the scene to the camp with the arrival of the survivors on a gallop. Suddenly the Japanese appear in close formation about a hundred yards away and advance with ten yard rushes firing meanwhile and killing a Russian at each volley. The tag end of the film shows the Russian officer led off between two men who hold revolvers to his head in triumph but who do not look unusually Japanese.

No Japanese were killed and the applause seemed patriotically correct. But later a Japanese Nordenfeldt is captured by Russians after a desperate struggle in which all the gun crew is killed. As each Japanese bit the dust and rolled about in his death throes, there were no groans, only delight at the sporty way the film was working out. Up went the Russian flag in place of the Japanese but there was no resentment from the Japanese audience. A shell flies and sends the Russian flag into the trees and up comes on the run a gallant company who recapture the gun and knock the stuffing out of the Russians.

There were other moving films which may or may not have been taken from life. One was undoubtedly, a scene at Kanagawa station when the train comes in and the sight of the familiar actions and costumes hugely pleased the Japanese sitting there in the consciousness of correct American costume. A photograph rendered selections of various kinds and twice a trio of young geisha girls came out to posture with fans and artificial flowers weaving graceful paces. One dance showed the girls in patriotic attire the winged sleeves of the youngest dancer being made of Japanese flags while the others emulated her with American and Hawaiian ensigns.

The stagework was somewhat unconventional but did not interfere with the delight of the audience. When the pictures were over a polite Japanese gentleman informed the audience that there was "an extra music, a fine German band" and the phonograph phoned while the picture curtain was rolled up by two assistants on ladders of two different lengths disclosing two Chinamen standing in utter disregard of the audience or the ironical applause bestowed upon them.

"Tang!" went a samisen, "plunk!" went a kioto and "whang!" went a gong. One of the Chinese walked across the stage to renewed applause and "whang!" went the gong once more. Then a wailing voice which might have been a woman's but was probably a man's in falsetto intoned a geisha melody until the three dancers in gay kimonos and obis came out.

After the dancing was over the folks seemed disinclined to believe the program over so an "extra picture of the Port Arthur bombardment" was announced and then the lights were flashed on and off until the audience took the hint—but it was a good show and well worth the money.

MRS. RIGGS DETAINED

The Federal Authorities
at the Coast Active.

The Call of June 9 says:

Mrs. Carrie Riggs, a young and talented member of the Afong family, was detained for three hours on board the steamship Coptic yesterday forenoon by the exigencies of the Chinese exclusion act.

The lady arrived with Toney C. Afong and Chun Wing Sen Afong, her brother and nephew, who came from Shanghai by the steamship Siberia and stopped over at Honolulu to accompany their sister hither. Dr. John Endicott Gardner, a Chinese inspector, was at the gangplank and stopped the party. The brother and nephew exhibited papers signed by the proper officials at Honolulu, certifying that they were American citizens under the act annexing Hawaii to the United States. Immediately upon the production of the papers they were allowed to land. Mrs. Carrie Riggs, however, had no papers and Dr. Gardner, who is one of the most courteous officials in the Federal service, informed her that under the law and his instructions he had no discretion, but would have to report her arrival to his superior officer.

Mrs. Riggs was inclined to be indignant, but after the situation had been explained, she acknowledged that, unpleasant as the episode had proved to her, the inspector was simply doing his duty and in the least offensive way possible. Dr. Gardner at once communicated with Charles Mehan, inspector in charge of the Chinese bureau, and Mr. Mehan directed that the usual statement should be taken from her as to her identity, age, birthplace, etc. This was done and when Immigration Commissioner North arrived at his office shortly after 9 a. m. Mr. Mehan laid the facts before him, whereupon the Commissioner ordered that she be landed without further ceremony. An inspector was sent to the steamer with the order and the lady was released at once. The steamer arrived at the wharf at 7:45 a. m. and Mrs. Riggs went ashore at 10:45 a. m.

Dr. Gardner made the following statement regarding the affair:

"I was on duty at the gangplank when Mrs. Riggs came down with her brother and her nephew. Both the men had the proper papers, signed by Honolulu officials, which entitled them to land, but the lady had no papers such as are required by law, or any papers at all. In such matters the law leaves the official without any discretion, and it does not exempt any persons of the Chinese race from its requirements, no matter whether they are married to Americans or not. The moment that the steamship company notifies us that Chinese or descendants of Chinese are on board it is our duty to stop them until they prove that they are entitled to land. If we did not do it we would be liable to prosecution. Every courtesy was shown the lady and her statement was taken, as required by the law. I found her to be a lady of refinement and culture."

Commissioner North said that Dr. Gardner had acted within the line of his duty, but he appeared to be very much nettled because the story had become public.

Mrs. Carrie Riggs is well known here and has come to visit her sister, the wife of Admiral Whiting, commandant of the Yerba Buena naval training station. Toney C. Afong, a brother of Mrs. Riggs, and son of Chun Afong, the venerable head of the numerous and well known Honolulu family, has not been in America since he was a little boy.

Toney Afong was taken from Honolulu to China by his father fifteen years ago and has since made his home in Hongkong, where he is interested in the Douglas Steamship Company. He left Hongkong on the Siberia and stopped over at Honolulu to visit his mother and renew his acquaintance with his boyhood home. He has with him his son, Chun Wing Sen Afong, whom he is taking East to have prepared to enter Harvard University. This youngest Afong was born in China and although he speaks faultless English is, according to his father, a thorough Chinaman. Young Afong has been carefully educated by private tutors and his father expects that about four years in an Eastern school will equip the youngster with enough education to qualify him for admission to Harvard, which is Mr. Afong's alma mater.

Chun Afong, the founder of the family and fortune of the Honolulu Afongs, lives at Macao. He is now 88 years old and, according to his son, is enjoying the evening of his life tottering around among the friends of his youth. Toney and his son will visit the St. Louis Exposition and other points of interest in the Eastern States before the son settles down to school and the father returns to his business in Hongkong.

A DANGEROUS DISEASE.—Every one knows that cholera morbus is one of the most painful and dangerous diseases known to humanity. The fact that it is so swift and so often fatal in its results makes it more to be feared than almost any other malady. It often terminates in death before a physician can be summoned or medicine procured. Attacks of cholera morbus come unexpectedly and every family should be prepared. Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy is a reliable and effective medicine, and if given in time will prevent serious consequences. This remedy never fails and is pleasant to take. Every household should have a bottle at hand. Get it today. It may save a life. For sale by all Dealers. Benson, Smith & Co., Ltd., Agents for Hawaii.

NEW WEATHER BUREAU MAN
ARRIVES FROM MAINLAND

Alexander Ashley, the new head of the U. S. Weather Bureau for Hawaii, arrived yesterday on the Siberia, to relieve R. C. Lydecker, the present Territorial Meteorologist. The San Francisco Chronicle of June 9, says:

Alexander Ashley, who is being sent by the Government at Washington to establish a weather bureau at Honolulu, arrived here yesterday on his way to the islands. He has had charge of the weather station at Syracuse, N. Y., for some years and will now take entire charge of the work at the islands, with his main station at Honolulu, succeeding Robert C. Lydecker, the Territorial meteorologist.

He will take with him a complete equipment of instruments and the station there will be able to give as efficient and reliable data as that of any other weather bureau in the states. Two cables will be sent daily, giving the weather conditions of the islands, to the bureau in San Francisco and these temperatures will be posted with those of a number of places in California in all the big cities of the country. A weekly crop bulletin will also be published, especial attention being paid to the coffee and sugar industries.

It is expected that the daily reports of the weather conditions at the islands will be of great service in a number of ways, and both McAdie and Ashley are enthusiastic over the possibilities of this new departure of the Government at Washington.

This is Mr. Ashley's first visit to California, and like all Easterners he is enraptured with the wealth, beauty and profusion of the flowers. In company with Mrs. Ashley he leaves Saturday on the Siberia for his future home in Honolulu.

A FACTOR IN SUGAR.

The new Federal Sugar Refinery of New York will open for business before the close of the present month. A letter received in Honolulu yesterday, from Mr. C. A. Spreckels, enclosed pictures of the refinery at Yonkers as completed, showing that raw sugar is already being received there. The entire structure is built of steel and brick with concrete floors and, as Mr. Spreckels writes "stands the finest constructed plant in the world today."

Gus Spreckels, who is at the head of this new refinery, spent more than five years on the continent of Europe experimenting with sugar processes and machinery. He claims to have methods whereby the cost of refining will be reduced so that he can place refined sugar upon the market at a lower figure than any competitor and still make a fair profit at the business. His new methods are well protected and the Federal Refinery may become an important factor in the price paid for raw sugar, as well as in that paid by the consumer for the refined product.

It is the intention of Mr. C. A. Spreckels and the gentlemen associated with him, who represent several hundred million dollars, to establish a chain of refineries covering the United States and Canada. General Van Horne, of the Canadian Pacific, is one of these and the next move may be to equip the refinery at Montreal with the new methods. Some point on the Pacific coast will also be selected for a refinery, just where has not been determined.

This new factor in the sugar world has developed as a result of the dissensions in the Spreckels family since the sale of their Philadelphia refinery which was managed by C. A. Spreckels, who then began to devote himself to a more thorough study of the industry. His work was so successful that he was able without difficulty to gain the financial support of other millionaires in New York, who promptly expressed their willingness to join in the gigantic enterprise.

THE SUNDAY PAPER.

The Sunday Advertiser will have, as usual, all the news of the day, local and cable and a number of attractive special features apart from the customary commercial, social, and sporting columns.

"Southern France" is the sub-title of Col. Thomas Fitch's fine serial narrative, "A Californian Abroad."

"The Turner Monument" is a good story about the culminating phase of the borrowing habit.

"A Confederate's Story of General Grant" is well-worth reading. There will be a local satire on the telephone, some original poetry and the usual Bystander comment.

The steamer Mauna Loa should be renamed The Yellow Journalist. It is from the Mauna Loa that all those amazing marine stories came along back and now she is freighted with sensations from the land. It appears that a mysterious cattle thief is at work in Kona and fairly decimating the herds, hence the organization of a vigilance committee. By the next trip of the Mauna Loa, unless the ship is meanwhile scratched to pieces by another whale, we shall probably hear of the hanging of the thief and a ghost dance of the committee about the remains.

The other day this paper suggested that the Japanese, to protect themselves from Skrydloff's squadron, might have to send a fourth army against Vladivostok. Evidently the Russians have wind of such an undertaking for they have ordered all civilians in the city to send their families to the interior. For the purposes of a siege or assault Japan can easily spare 60,000 men, commanded if need be by veterans of the China war.

The Finlander bullet that killed one Russian Governor paralyzed another. Probably the Czar does not feel any too well since the event, owing to the discovery of infernal machines in his own dining room. Anybody may get hit these days.

The return of Col. Fitch, with the intention of staying here, is a gratification to a circle of admirers which has been widely extended by his articles of reminiscence and travel in the Sunday Advertiser.

MACFARLANE GIVES UP THE EXHIBIT

F. W. Macfarlane, who returned yesterday from a trip to California, has abandoned the idea of an exhibit to the St. Louis Exposition from a Hawaiian standpoint. "It is too bad," said Mr. Macfarlane yesterday afternoon; "but it is too late now and cannot be helped. I still think we should have made a showing and believe that a house planned with wide verandas as we first arranged would have proved a very popular resort at the exposition and a means of advertising Hawaii."

"As you know, I was unable to visit the exposition though the authorities were very kind with their offers of privilege and seemed to want me to come and talk over getting Hawaii to come in after all, but I was unable to go and of course, while there is yet time for Hawaii to exhibit, there is no chance of anything being arranged. The fair will not be completed for two months."

"Judging from talks in California and the general outlook, things seem brighter for Hawaii and I think we have got over the worst of our never very serious troubles. Mr. Dillingham is very much better and well on his way to permanent recovery. Mentally he is perfectly sound and his physician is going to take him into the country to complete his physical recovery."

GREAT NAVAL BASE AT PEARL HARBOR

Pearl Harbor has a staunch champion in Secretary Moody of the Navy Department as the site for the future great naval station for the islands. Admiral Terry, commandant of the Honolulu Station, received a letter in the Siberia mail yesterday from Secretary Moody, in which the writer intimated that work on the Pearl Harbor Naval Station would be one of the important matters to be taken up by the Department.

A portion of Secretary Moody's letter contained the following significant statement: "It is the intention of the department to establish a considerable naval station at Pearl Harbor. Plans for the survey work of clearing the approaches are now under consideration."

Furthermore, the Secretary intimated that in the event of the Pearl Harbor station being completed and occupied the Honolulu Naval Station would be abandoned.

Admiral Terry, commenting yesterday on the Secretary's letter, said that in his opinion a great station was contemplated for Pearl Harbor. As only the preliminary details have been reached, it would probably be many years before the new station can be established.

TO BENEFIT YOUNG SINGER

This evening at the Opera House some fifty local amateurs under the general direction of Mrs. Annis Montague Turner will tender a benefit to Lot Sebastian Kaulukou, the young Hawaiian baritone who made such a favorable impression in the role of Escamillo some months since, and who now, after careful training and encouragement from Mrs. Annis Montague Turner, has decided to adopt the operatic stage as the scene of his life's career.

A very interesting program has been arranged for the occasion and seats have been liberally bought. Scenes from Il Trovatore and Carmen with full costuming and stage effects take up the first and last portions of the evening with a concert interlude by well known artists to separate the operatic selections.

Annis Montague will appear as Carmen and again as Leonora in Il Trovatore when she will render the famous duo with Mr. Paul Isenberg and give scenes with Kaulukou as De Luna.

The entire original cast of the late Carmen production will take part tonight including Alice Campbell as Michaela, a treat to which many are looking forward. The original chorus will be largely augmented and the orchestral work handled by Kappelmeister Berger and his musicians.

The curtain will rise at the usual hour and a most enjoyable evening's entertainment, given for a worthy cause, is announced by all those who have been present at the rehearsals. The young beneficiary is said to have greatly improved under his tuition by Mrs. Annis Montague Turner, who has great hopes for her protegee and has spared no pains to make him ready for a good start in his chosen profession.

Time Differences With Far East.

Prof. George Davison supplies the Chronicle with the following:

To obtain the San Francisco Pacific standard time of stated epochs at the following places, subtract the hours and minutes opposite the name of each place:

	Hrs. Min.
London	8:00
Paris	8:10
Rome	8:50
Vienna	9:05
St. Petersburg	10:01
Tokio	17:19
Chefoo	16:06
Shanghai	15:15
Peking	15:50
Port Arthur	16:05
Vladivostok	16:48
Seoul	16:28
Moukden	16:14
Harbin	16:27

For example: If the report of a battle should come from Tokio dated June 30th, 7 hours 30 minutes a. m., the San Francisco time corresponding thereto would be June 29th, 2 hours 11 minutes p. m.

REPUBLICAN PRECINCT CLUB NOMINATIONS

two ago that Governor Carter told him, if he was going to call on him for remarks, to introduce him as "the bald-headed boy of Punahou," which he did with the result that Mr. Carter made a speech that greatly pleased him. In praising Messrs. Hartwell and Hatch he spoke of professional services each had rendered him in times past and caused roars of laughter with the story of his consulting Mr. Hartwell many years ago. Mr. Hartwell turned him over to W. A. Whiting, "who was then his apprentice," and he was advised to "run over to the station and everything would be all right. I took the advice," Mr. Roe concluded, "and when I got back everything was settled. I had lost the case."

The meeting on Mr. Roe's proposal gave six cheers for Governor Carter, and before dismissing the members Mr. Hopkins gave some instructions in Hawaiian.

SECOND OF THE FOURTH.
There was a goodly assemblage of the Republican Club of the Second Precinct of the Fourth District at their own meeting place, corner of Wilder avenue and Keeaumoku street. The club has taken a lease of the "Makiki Store" building for ten years and fitted it up with furniture and electric lights. This meeting was the inauguration of the clubhouse.

J. H. Soper, president, had the chair and Geo. B. McClellan the secretary's desk. Nominations for officers were made as follows:
For president—J. H. Soper, W. T. Rawlins and John A. Hughes.
For vice-president—M. A. Gonsalves and H. Kolomoku.
For secretary—H. E. Murray.
For treasurer—J. A. Gilman.
For executive committee (5)—Wm. Aylett, G. B. McClellan, F. L. Hoogs, John Hughes, Jos. Little, Manuel Cook, Frank Kruger, J. W. Jones, C. S. Crane, W. T. Monarrat, O. C. Swain, Frank Monoha and W. T. Rawlins.
For judges of election (3)—Manuel Cook, Capt. Dabel, W. E. Wall, Henry Kaal, E. Kopke, C. M. White and Wm. White.

THIRD OF THE FOURTH.
A rousing meeting of the Republican Club of the Third Precinct, Fourth District, was held at Concordia hall. Besides being big it was absolutely harmonious, a unanimous election of all officers being effected on the nomination. The meeting proves that the precinct is Republican to the core. By unopposed nomination the following are the officers of the club for the ensuing two years:

President—E. Faxon Bishop.
First vice-president—J. E. Bush.
Second vice-president—J. Mana.
Secretary—Chas. N. Marques.
Treasurer—Jos. G. Pratt.
Executive committee—Messrs. Kenul, McCabe, Dias, Napoleona and Geo. Kluegel.

Judges of election—Frank Foster, Dick Kekona and Sam Manu.

FOURTH OF THE FOURTH.
The members of the Republican Club of the Fourth Precinct of the Fourth District nominated the following officers at a meeting last night:

President—E. W. Quinn.
First vice-president—M. C. Pacheco.
Second vice-president—Sam Kamakau.
Secretary—W. W. Carlyle.
Assistant secretary—Vincent Fernandez.
Treasurer—J. F. Morgan.
Judges of election—A. L. Moore, A. D. Castro, Henry Peters.
Executive committee—D. Kalauokalani Jr., J. F. Durao, Sam Kamakau, J. S. Fox, L. J. Aylett, A. L. Moore, A. V. Gear, A. H. R. Vierra, A. V. Peters (five to be elected).

SIXTH OF THE FOURTH.
At a meeting of the Sixth Precinct of the Fourth District Republican Club, Lorrin Andrews presiding, held at headquarters last night, the following nominations were made, leaving no contest:

President—Lorrin Andrews.
First vice-president—Capt. I. Bray.
Second vice-president—W. J. Stansbury.
Secretary—J. J. Hughes.
Assistant secretary—C. K. Quinn.
Treasurer—L. H. Wolf.
Executive committee—E. M. Boyd, C. K. Quinn, W. S. Fleming, J. Duggan, and C. A. Yarik.
Judges of election—E. Correria, H. Simpson and J. J. Hughes.

PAYMENT OF WATER RATES.

As provided for in Section 1, Chapter XXVI. of the Session Laws of 1886:

All persons holding water privileges or those paying water rates, are hereby notified that the water rates for the six months ending December 31st, 1904, will be due and payable at the office of the Honolulu Water Works, on the first day of July, 1904.

To all such rates remaining unpaid on July 15th, 1904, or 15 days after the same are due, an additional charge of 10 per cent. will be made and become due by the person holding the privilege.

All privileges upon which rates remain unpaid August 15, 1904 (30 days after becoming delinquent), are subject to immediate shut off, without further notice.

Rates are payable at the office of the Honolulu Water Works in the Capitol Building, which has been moved up into the office of the Chief Clerk, Department of Public Works.

J. H. HOWLAND,
Superintendent of Honolulu Water Works.
Honolulu, T. H., June 13, 1904. 6817

SIBERIA CARRIES MILITARY RAILWAY

Filled with passengers and loaded down with freight in her holds the big Pacific Mail steamship Siberia arrived in port yesterday forenoon and moored alongside Naval Dock No. 1. The vessel left San Francisco on the afternoon of June 11 and the trip down was pleasant. On Wednesday night the passengers enjoyed a dance on the decks which were as even as if the vessel rode a mill-pond. A week's later mail and newspaper files were brought to Honolulu.

A large number of passengers were landed at this port. Associate Justice F. M. Hatch and daughter arrived from the East, the latter being home for her summer school vacation. Mr. Hatch was first apprised that he was now a Supreme Court Justice when the vessel was lying outside. Col. Thomas Fitch returned from a long absence spent mostly in Southern California. Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Damon returned from San Francisco where the former had gone to look after Oahu plantation interests. J. M. Dowsett is back from a two-months' absence on the mainland.

Col. and Mrs. Z. S. Spalding and R. S. Spalding came from Europe. This is Mrs. Spalding's first visit to Hawaii in sixteen years. She was one of the Ma-kee girls and was met on the steamer by Mr. and Mrs. Tenney, Dr. and Mrs. Herbert, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Macfarlane and Mrs. Helen Noonan. Mrs. Spalding is an invalid and was carried from the steamer in her invalid's chair.

Mrs. F. J. Lowrey and children were welcomed back from a year's absence in Europe, spent largely in Belgium and Holland. Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Macfarlane and their two daughters returned from California, where the young ladies have been attending school. Mr. Macfarlane did not go east to the St. Louis Exposition. L. A. Thurston returned from a business trip to San Francisco. Arthur K. Jones and bride also returned from the Coast. Mrs. C. A. Hutchins and daughter, who were with Mrs. Dr. McDonald when the latter died, came to Honolulu to remain some time.

J. S. McCandless returned from a trip to the Exposition. E. Hedemann, son of Mr. Hedemann of the Honolulu Iron Works, is home from school. J. A. M. Johnson is back again. W. H. Heen came back from a business trip to the Coast.

Among the passengers joining here were Godfrey Brown, who will make the round trip voyage on the Siberia. Prof. and Mrs. Cook, the musicians, departed for China to take up a permanent residence. Mr. and Mrs. Heinrich Renjes, who have been visiting with relatives in Honolulu for the past two months, resumed their tour of the world.

A large amount of the through cargo is for the Japanese government comprising 8,000 steel rails, for Kobe, eleven flat cars for Yokohama. The railway equipment is said to be intended for the new military railroad in northern Korea. There was also $12,153.90 in treasure for Japan and China. The Siberia started from San Francisco with 1200 sacks of mail, 312 of which were for Honolulu.

Among the through passengers is H. G. Ponting, who goes to the seat of war for the Harpers and the H. C. White Company, publishers of North Bennington, Vt. After the war is over Mr. Ponting is to travel over Japan, writing and illustrating for these two concerns. Mr. Ponting, who formerly acted as correspondent for Collier's Weekly, is one of the most expert photographers in the country. The beautiful pictures of many places in Manchuria, Korea and Japan, which are in the collection of Underwood & Underwood of New York, were taken by Mr. Ponting several years ago.

The Siberia sailed for Yokohama at 11 o'clock last night.

TOYO KISEN LINE STILL UNCERTAIN

The Call of June 9 says: M. Shirahshi, general manager of the Toyo Kisen Kaisha, arrived here yesterday from Tokyo, by way of Vancouver, and is a guest at the St. Francis. Mr. Shirahshi said last evening that the purpose of his visit to America was to look over the local agency of the company and take a survey of conditions with a view to what prospect existed for resuming the operation of steamers between here and the Orient in advance of the close of the war.

"I am not in a position at this time," he said, "to say what our company can do or desires to do in the way of resuming service to this port. War rates of insurance make it impracticable to operate Japanese steamers, as was demonstrated by the last trip of the America Maru and we have not been able thus far to find any suitable ships sailing under the flag of a neutral nation to charter for the Pacific trade. The Japanese Government has two of our ships and will probably continue to use them while hostilities last. I shall remain in this country some little time looking over conditions and will then return to Tokyo to confer with our directors regarding our future plans."

A.-H. STEAMERS ALL HEADING THIS WAY

There is a general movement of American-Hawaiian steamships heading toward Honolulu, all believed to have big cargoes aboard for island ports. At least four freighters of this line are preparing to sail this month from San Francisco and Puget Sound for Honolulu. Such a hegebra of steam vessels is certain to have a bad influence on wind-jammers.

The steamer Arizona sailed from Puget Sound for Honolulu on June 14. The steamer American is being advertised to sail from Puget Sound for this port on or about July 1.

The steamer Nebraskan arrived at San Francisco from New York on June 10 after a fine voyage of fifty-four days, via the Horn, in which about 9,500 barrels of oil were consumed. The vessel carries 10,500 barrels of oil for use, so had plenty to spare on arrival. The trip of the Nebraskan is regarded as an example of the development of oil-burners on steamers, as the machinery is said not to have been out of order the entire trip. The officers were exceptionally well pleased with the Nebraskan's performance.

After discharging at San Francisco, the Nebraskan will proceed to Portland and there load for Honolulu, sailing for this port on June 24.

The steamer Nevada will sail from San Francisco for Honolulu on June 23.

SURVEY STEAMER ON WAY HERE

The survey steamer C. P. Patterson, Captain Patterson, sailed from San Francisco for Honolulu on June 10. Some weeks ago the Patterson, while bound from Puget Sound for Honolulu, was damaged at sea and put into San Francisco for repairs.

MAALAEA WHARF IN BAD CONDITION

The report of Purser Conkling of the steamer Mauna Loa's trip is as follows:

On the outward trip we experienced fine weather at Kona and Kau. Met the steamer Kauai at Punaluu, where we took sugar. Fair weather at Kau during our stay.

On the inward trip we had fine weather. Met the steamer Kauai at Kailua. She was to have left for home at 5 p. m. yesterday with 3288 bags of sugar. The steamer Niihau leaves Honolulu today for home.

No rain in Hamakua. Daily showers in Kona. Dry in Kau. Kona mill is grinding and will have 150 tons of sugar ready for shipment by June 27. Pahala mill starts grinding June 20 and expects to give us 3500 bags on our return trip.

We passed the steamer Likelike in the Hawaii channel.

The wharf at Maalaea is in a very bad condition and dangerous to the traffic.

Damage to Algoa.

More damage was done to the big steamer Algoa as the result of her going ashore near Point Bonita last Tuesday morning than was at first believed. Since the huge freighter has been at Greenwich-street wharf, where 2500 tons of freight have been discharged, it has been ascertained that quantities of jute, rice, oil and firecrackers in various parts of the hold were damaged by water, that leaked in from holes made by the Point Bonita rocks. The firecrackers were in the forepeak, and the jute and rice were stowed in hatches No. 1 and No. 4. This freight has been taken out in bad shape. The oil was stowed in the tanks aft of the hatches.

Investigation by a diver has shown that the Algoa has a cracked plate and small hole on the port bow near the keel, and a broken plate or plates on the port side near the stern. Big pumps have been working on the Algoa since she was docked, taking out water at the rate of about 100 tons an hour, and the inpour of water is easily controlled. As soon as possible the Algoa will be taken to Oakland to discharge the remainder of her cargo of 10,000 tons.—Chronicle.

Overcrowding Steamers.

Collector of Customs Stackable has been notified by Secretary Cortalou to guard against possible loss of life on excursion steamers during the summer vacation season. The Secretary has notified all Collectors of Customs that during the summer season when large numbers of passengers are carried on the regular and excursion steamers, and owing to complaints that often steamers carry passengers largely in excess of the number allowed by their certificates of inspection, or by their excursion permits, it is demanded that the Government officers concerned shall take special precautions to prevent the overcrowding of steamers. The Collectors are therefore notified to instruct their subordinates to make careful examination of steamers, especially on Sundays, and particularly on July Fourth and other important National or Territorial holidays.

YACHT AGGIE TO VISIT HONOLULU

The yacht Aggie of the Corinthian fleet at San Francisco is said to be heading for Hawaii for a summer's cruise. James Coleman, owner of the yacht and a society man of San Francisco, departed with the Aggie early in June for Santa Cruz, it being his intention also to go further south along the coast and then to cut across the Pacific to Hawaii.

San Diego's Harbor Praised.

SAN DIEGO, June 8.—The steamer American of the Hawaiian line arrived today, direct from New York with a cargo of about 7000 tons, of which 1-800 tons is for Southern California points. With the Government cuts made during the past ten months she was able not only to cross the bar but come through the new channel in the middle ground without let or hindrance.

Captain Colcord is loud in his praise of the value of the recent Government work to the harbor and says that the big Texan, which will be the next of the line to arrive here, will come through as easily as did his own vessel. Captain Colcord reports that he caught no sight of the missing steamer Conemaugh.

Promotion for Officers.

By the resignation of Frank E. Bead-nail, Ralph Lobez becomes chief officer of the Occidental and Oriental liner Coptic, now in port. Lobez has been first officer for a long time, and has a wide circle of friends on both sides of the Pacific. His promotion makes William Sullivan first officer, William Thomas second officer, and Chas. Bates third officer. A new fourth officer will come from England to join the steamer here.

Dr. Hauxhurst, son of Superintendent Hauxhurst of the Pacific Mail Co. is to succeed Dr. R. B. Irones as surgeon of the Coptic.—Chronicle.

Manchuria Ready to Sail.

The Chronicle of June 9 says that the Manchuria, sister ship of the Mongolia, left her slip at New York the day before and went to an anchorage off Tomkinsville, preparatory to sailing for San Francisco. Captain Saunders, later of the S. S. Newport, is in command. The vessel is expected at San Francisco early in August.

Sugar Boats Arrive.

Two more vessels of the sugar fleet arrived yesterday from Hawaiian ports and both report having encountered exceptionally fine weather. The bark Amy Turner was twenty-five days coming from Hilo. The barkentine S. N. Castle, from Honolulu, was favored with better breezes and made the run in twenty days.—Call, June 9.

Shipping Notes.

The Inter-Island Company's steamer Hanalei will sail for San Francisco today.

The following sugar on Hawaii is reported ready for shipment: Honokaa, 5400 bags; Honuapo, 540 bags; Kukuhae, 2000 bags.

The Oceanic steamship Sierra will arrive here on Monday afternoon en route to San Francisco, cutting out Fanning Island on this trip.

The French bark Suzanne bound from Havre to Honolulu was spoken on May 20 by the S. S. Nebraskan off the southern coast of South America.

Purser McNamara of the steamer Ke Au Hou which arrived yesterday morning from Kauai, reports: The Edward May was at Makaweli loading sugar. The Whitney was at Makaweli discharging coal. The Benicia was at Eleele discharging coal.

The ship Star of Bengal arrived on Thursday at Delaware Breakwater from Makaweli, Kauai, being the first arrival there to have loaded at the Kauai port. The vessel carried 3800 tons of sugar from Alexander & Baldwin, which was valued at $77.25 per ton on arrival, making it worth $293,350. The ship was 106 days on the voyage.

ALL SORTS OF FIGHTS To Prevent Trials of Criminal Cases.

Another Move to Upset Array of Jurymen Set Aside.

Isaac Noar Seeks Equity—Hilo Land Case—Estate of G. E. Boardman.

To place jurisdiction of misdemeanors on appeal from the District Court squarely in the Circuit Court, the Attorney General's department has adopted the plan of procuring indictments against the defendants and then moving the appeals on the calendar only to enter nolle prosequis in the appeal cases. Thus a clear scope for prosecuting on the indictments, avoiding the constitutional objection to imprisoning subjects without that formality, is obtained.

Charles Creighton and Henry Hogan, attorneys for P. O'Sullivan, and J. J. Dunne, attorney for A. F. Franca, defendants to breaches of the liquor laws, raised strenuous objections to the new tactics of the prosecution yesterday morning. Messrs. Creighton and Hogan did the chief talking, at times in duet. They claimed that the defendant, O'Sullivan, had appealed to the next term of court and their appeals could not legally be shunted in the manner attempted.

Judge De Bolt allowed both defendants to reserve their pleas until 9 a. m. Tuesday, when the motion in each case of Assistant Attorney General Fleming to place the appeal on the calendar of this term, for the purpose of having it nolle prosequed, will be argued.

Alex. Lazarus, indicted also for violating the liquor laws, had no attorney to make a fight for him. His appeal from the District Court was accordingly moved on the calendar and a nolle prosequi entered thereon. Defendant then being arraigned on indictment pleaded not guilty.

OTHER INDICTMENTS.
Chew It, arraigned for having che fa lottery tickets in possession, was represented by Frank Andrade and had his plea reserved until this morning. His appeal case from the District Court was nolle prosequed.

Territory vs. Becky Houghtailing, Henry Delamux (as the indictment gives his name) and Henry Ramos, malicious injury, had their plea set for 10 o'clock this morning. A. H. Crook is their attorney. This case raises a peculiar point. Defendants were discharged after trial in the District Court. The complaining witness was not satisfied and laid information against the trio before the grand jury, which returned a true bill against all of them. They are charged with chasing a trespassing mare about the yard of the first-named defendant, while no gate was open to permit the animal to escape. Under stress of pursuit the mare impaled itself upon a pointed iron post, Frank Robello is the prosecuting witness.

ANOTHER LITTLE TANGLE.
"Anything to please Mr. Douthitt," Judge De Bolt blandly ruled. The remark closed a short passage between the attorney for Mrs. Luceweiko and Mr. Fleming for the Territory, the case being one of illicit liquor selling. It set an early day for the hearing of a motion to place the appeal of defendant on the calendar.

Mr. Douthitt had first moved for an order to restore to Mrs. Luceweiko sundry bottles of beer, wine, etc. This was persisted in after the court stated that it was 10 o'clock and therefore paid the allotted time for motions in any case but the one on for jury trial. The ground of this motion was that a nolle prosequi had been entered in the appeal case. When Mr. Douthitt was given to understand that the effect of the motion, if pressed, would be to put it in the power of the prosecution to place his client in custody, he dropped it like a hot potato.

JURY AGAIN TRAVERSED.
At the resumption of proceedings in the trial of Enoch Johnson and Jonah Kumalae before Judge De Bolt at 10 o'clock, C. W. Ashford for the defendants presented a motion to set aside the special venire of jurors returned that morning. The ground was that the names had been illegally placed in the trial jury box, because the list included the names of several jurors who had served on grand and trial jury panels for the October 1903 and the January 1904 terms, and having so served had been excused, and being excused their names should have been placed in a sealed envelope not to be taken therefrom again until the end of the jury year.

On correction by Attorney General Andrews and the court, showing that the October term jury was not from the jury commissioners' list of 250 names for 1904, Mr. Ashford cut that reference out of his motion, saying there were names left of jurors who had been excused this year. He called up several jurors summoned on the special venire, who in answer to questioning verified his claim of fact.

Judge De Bolt overruled the challenge and the empaneling of a jury went on. This process soon exhausted the list of jurors returned, numbering but 15 of the 26 named in the venire. Another special venire of 26 names was issued, returnable at 10 o'clock on Monday morning. There are 11 men passed for cause in the box, leaving one to pass and peremptory challenges of both sides to come.

In the examination of jurors called yesterday, "Paddy" Ryan was excused on declaring that his mind had undergone no change since he was let out on the former trial of the same cause for a fixed opinion. This opinion related to any case in which the doings of the Legislature were involved.

Sam. E. Pierce blurted out, "I believe the defendants are guilty," making even Kumalae laugh and eliciting from the Judge the request to jurors having opinions not to reveal which way their minds were set.

R. Wyllie Davies, excused for an opinion on the first trial, thought with some hesitation now that he could render a verdict upon the evidence and the court's statement of the law. He passed for cause.

L. C. Ables, excused from a civil jury in Judge Gear's court the previous day because he said he would strike a balance for himself on the law as between the expositions of counsel without guidance of the court, narrated that incident but counsel on both sides were satisfied with him notwithstanding.

THE HILO CASE.

A. B. Loebenstein's examination in the Hilo waterfront ejectment case of C. A. Brown vs. J. D. Spreckels and others, before Judge Gear, was concluded early in the afternoon. Mary Ailau was next called and remained on the witness stand the rest of the day.

Once, when J. A. Magoon withdrew a question under objection by W. A. Kinney while Mr. Loebenstein was on the stand, Mr. Kinney caused a laugh by moving "that it appear on the record that Mr. Magoon had backed down for once in his life."

Affidavits filed at Hilo to procure a change of venire of this cause to Honolulu are by W. M. Giffard, a business associate of the Spreckels, and C. C. Kennedy and J. W. Mason, prominent business men of Hilo. Mr. Kennedy's allegations are to the effect that there is such a strong and general prejudice on the part of the people of Hilo against the Spreckels brothers, on account of their lack of sympathy with the town and of public spirit in developing it, that they could not get a fair trial there.

ISAAC NOAR'S FIGHT.

Isaac Noar has brought a cross complaint in equity against Lee Chu and C. K. Ai, upon his alleged rights and interest in the Star Block premises, Fort and Kukui streets. His attorney is C. W. Ashford. After describing the premises, stating that the rents therefrom amount to $225 a month, claiming that he owns a seven-sixteenths interest in the property and relating the suit brought against himself and his daughter, Julia Noar, by the defendants, the complainant charges:

That after the filing by defendants of their original bill they, "wrongfully and wickedly contriving to cheat, oppress and defraud your orator in the premises, did combine and confederate and agree together" that they would refuse to pay interest on a certain mortgage and that they would collect and appropriate to their own uses and purposes the rents and revenues of the mortgaged property; to the further purpose that they would prevent the collection of rents by this complainant and the application of the money to the mortgage obligations, and to the still further purpose of forcing a sale of the property under foreclosure of the mortgage.

The complaint goes on to say that the defendants did allow the payments of interest on the mortgage to lapse, until on July 1, 1903, there was $640 overdue and that, on January 23, 1904, the property was sold under foreclosure, the defendants being the purchasers for the price of $700.

Mr. Noar declares that this price was grossly inadequate and that such inadequacy of price was the result of the pendency of litigation between defendants and himself. His prayers ending the complaint are:

That defendants be summoned to appear before the court and answer the allegations in this complaint and be thereafter bound by the proceedings.

That defendants be compelled to come to a just and true account with the plaintiff concerning the rents and revenues collected, with respect to the premises mentioned, for the period between the date of their original bill and the date of the final hearing, or of the final decree, as shall seem most appropriate.

That the defendants may be decreed to hold the premises, so purchased by them, as trustees for themselves and the plaintiff, in the proportion of nine-sixteenths for them and seven-sixteenths for him, he undertaking to pay them seven-sixteenths of the entire price paid or agreed to be paid by them, or whatever sum the court shall find to be equitably payable by him.

That when his share of the price is decreed the defendants be compelled to execute a good and sufficient deed of conveyance of seven-sixteenths of the property to him.

That, pending a final decision in this suit, a receiver be appointed to take possession and control of the premises and to collect all the rents and revenues thereof, holding such subject to the orders of the court, and to preserve and care for the premises and otherwise to act as he shall be ordered by the court from time to time.

That the plaintiff may have such further or other relief in the premises as the circumstances shall warrant and the law provide.

THE BOARDMAN ESTATE.

In the matter of the estate of George E. Boardman, deceased, Cecil Brown, administrator with the will annexed, has rendered his final account with a petition for discharge. The receipts are $21,769.05 and payments $21,556.15, leaving a balance in hand of $209.90. Of the receipts the larger amounts are $10,641.11 life insurance, $5987.08 on fire

FAIR EXCHANGE.

A New Back for an Old One.
How It is Done in Honolulu.

Sometimes the back aches with a dull, indescribable feeling, making you weary and restless; sometimes pain shoots across the region of the kidneys, and again the loins are so lame to stoop is agony. No use plastering or rubbing the back in this condition. You cannot reach the cause. To exchange a bad back for a new and stronger one, follow the example of this Honolulu citizen:

Mr. A. J. Cahill, of Fort street, this city, night watchman in the employ of Messrs. T. H. Davies & Co., Ltd., says: "Whilst a young man I was a sailor and at one time worked for the Inter Island service. I was, however, obliged to give up sea life on account of severe suffering from my back and kidneys. For this I had tried various remedies, but the one which restored me to health was Doan's Backache Kidney Pills—procured at Hollister's Drug Store. They relieved me completely after years of suffering. If any one desires further particulars he may apply to me. I am to be found at Van Dorn's Ship Chandlery, Fort street."

You should get the same medicine which helped Mr. Cahill. See that the full name DOAN'S BACKACHE KIDNEY PILLS is on the wrapper and refuse any imitation.

Doan's Backache Kidney Pills are sold by all chemists and storekeepers at 50 cents per box, six boxes $2.50, or will be mailed on receipt of price by the Hollister Drug Co., Honolulu, wholesale agents for the Hawaiian Islands.

claim award and $1755.82 balance on such award less ten per cent. discount on bonds.

Charles F. Peterson was appointed by Judge Robinson as guardian of the property of Vincent Pedro, a minor, under $25 bond.

LEGAL PROOFREADING.

In the case of Territory of Hawaii vs. John Kuokoa and Kahue Kaiwi, a stipulation is filed in the Supreme Court by M. F. Prosser for the Territory and Smith & Parsons for the defendants, allowing a correction of the bill of exceptions where the word "sustained" was inadvertently written instead of the word "dismissed." The stipulation is made subject to the court's approval.

COURT NOTES.

Return of summons has been made with service on all the defendants certified in the suit of C. S. Holloway, Superintendent of Public Works, vs. Edward Vivian Richardson, D. Kawananakoa, John F. Colburn, Cecil Brown and Henry Waterhouse Trust Co., Ltd., the last named as administrator of the estate of W. H. Cornwell, deceased. The suit is on Richardson's bond in $3000 as clerk of Honolulu water works, to recover the sum of $2832.85 collected for the Territory of Hawaii but never paid to the Treasurer thereof.

In the embezzlement cases against former Land Commissioner E. S. Boyd, J. J. Dunne yesterday moved for a bill of particulars. Judge De Bolt set Monday for hearing the motion.

Victoria Ward has brought suit for foreclosure of mortgage against Alapake Kauwe. The mortgage is on a fish pond and salt basins at Kukuluao, Honolulu, to secure a promissory note dated Oct. 5, 1898, for $400 with interest at 10 per cent. per annum.

Antone L. Perry has brought a libel for divorce against Josephine McCandless Perry, alleging her habitual intemperance for more than two years last past and desertion of him within two weeks prior to the date of complaint.

A SILLY SAYING.

"It is a common but silly opinion prevailing among a certain class of people that the worse a remedy tastes, smells or hurts, the more efficacious it is." So says a well-known English physician. He further adds: "For example, let us consider cod liver oil. As it is extracted from the fish this oil is so offensive to the taste and smell that many cannot use it at all, no matter how badly they need it. Yet cod liver oil is one of the most valuable drugs in the world and it is the greatest pity that we have not thus far been able to free it from those peculiarities which so seriously interfere with its usefulness." This was written years ago; the work of civilizing and redeeming it has since been triumphantly accomplished; and as a leading ingredient in the remedy called WAMPOLE'S PREPARATION the oil retains all its wonderful curative properties with no bad smell or taste whatever. It is palatable as honey and contains all the nutritive and curative properties of Pure Cod Liver Oil, extracted by us from fresh cod livers, combined with the Compound Syrup of Hypophosphites and Extracts of Malt and Wild Cherry; creating a medicine of unequalled power for the diseases most prevalent and fatal among men, women and children. There is no other remedy to compare with it. It increases the digestive power of the stomach and in Blood Impurities, Throat and Lung Troubles, Nervous Dyspepsia and Scrofulous Affections, it gives quick and certain relief and cure. Dr. G. C. Shannon, of Canada, says: "I shall continue its use with, I am sure, great advantage to my patients and satisfaction to myself." Has all the virtues of cod liver oil; none of its faults. You may trust it fully; it cannot disappoint you. At all chemists.

COL. THOMAS FITCH AND HIS FAMOUS SAKE CASES

Veteran Lawyer Returns From the Mainland
After Winning a Big Claim for Honolulu
Clients--History of the Sake Appeal.

Among the passengers who reached Honolulu yesterday was Col. Thomas Fitch, fresh from his success with the sake cases. He comes to stay.

"Concerning the sake cases," said Mr. Fitch, "the matter was first brought to my attention in October, 1901, by Harry J. Johnston, the Custom House broker. He stated that before annexation sake—which has never been mentioned by name in the tariff laws of the United States, was classed as a still wine under the 'similitude' clause, which provides that whenever an imported article is not enumerated in the tariff schedules, it shall pay such duty as is levied upon the article which it most nearly resembles in material, quantity, texture and in the use to which it is applied."

"Prior to 1887 sake had been classed by the United States customs officials as a brandy subject to a duty of two dollars and fifty cents per gallon. A New York importer protested, and demanded a reclassification, claiming that sake resembled a wine more than it did a brandy. The claim of the importer was allowed without a contest, the question as to whether sake was a beer or a wine not being raised. The importations of sake into the United States were then trifling. Under the Hawaiian law sake was described by name and paid a duty of sixty cents per gallon."

"After annexation it was of course imported under the United States customs laws, and the ruling of the New York Board of Appraisers made in 1887, classing it as a wine by similitude was followed and no protest was made by any importer."

"In the early nineties some parties on the mainland desired to engage in the manufacture of sake and applied to the Treasury Department for information as to the course they should pursue. The Commissioner of Internal Revenue replied that sake was a liquor brewed from a grain (rice) and that a brewer's license would be required for its manufacture. The anomaly was thus presented of sake being classed as a beer by the Internal Revenue Department, and as a wine by the Customs Department of our government. As a beer it would have been subjected to a duty of twenty cents per gallon and as a wine it was subjected to a duty of fifty cents per gallon, while as a 'non enumerated manufactured article' not bearing a sufficient resemblance to either beer or wine so as to entitle it to be classed as either, it would have been subjected to an ad valorem duty of twenty per cent, amounting to about nine cents per gallon."

"The ruling of the Commissioner of Internal Revenue that sake is a 'rice beer' was, as I have stated, made in the early nineties, and in order to fortify our case with a later decision I addressed a letter to the commissioner asking information concerning the steps necessary to be pursued in order to engage in the manufacture of sake. The reply of the commissioner affirmed the previous ruling of his department that sake is a beer, and stated that a brewer's license was necessary. Then Mr. Johnston went to work. He obtained from about every importer of sake in Honolulu a contract to the effect that he and I would undertake all the work and cost of protesting and carrying the matter to the court of last resort, and that the importer would pay us a portion of any 'sake' refunds that might be obtained from the government until a final decision should be reached."

"Thus fortified we began to prepare and file protests, and this work has been continued ever since until there are now about one thousand protests on file in New York. Here is where Mr. Johnston's accurate and extensive knowledge of customs law and practice proved very valuable. The United States Government is a great and glorious government, but it is exceedingly technical in dealing with its citizens, especially when its citizens are trying to get back money that they have paid into its treasury. If you omit anything on your papers or fail to properly state anything there, no matter what may be your equities, the United States will slam the door of its Treasury in your face, and calmly kick you down the front steps into the mire of insolvency. Harry Johnston did not—in the language of the ungodly—'overlook any bets.' He claimed, in the protests we filed, that sake was not a wine, that it did not resemble a wine, that it was a beer, that it resembled a beer, that it was a malt extract, that it resembled a malt extract, and further that it was a non enumerated manufactured article that did not resemble anything."

"It was with extreme difficulty that I prevented him from claiming that sake was a cholera specific, an embalming fluid, an illuminating oil, and a motive power for the propulsion of jinnikshaws."

"What is sake in fact? Well that depends upon the point of view. If you take the material from which it is made, and the process of manufacture as your standpoint, it is beyond all question a beer. Wine is made by a process of natural fermentation from a fruit-juice. Beer is made by a process of artificial fermentation from a malted grain. Sake is a brew from rice exactly as beer is a brew from barley. It contains no carbonic acid gas as does beer, because in the process of its manufacture the effervescence is purposely and carefully eliminated by exposure of the liquid in open vats. It contains a higher percentage of alcohol than beer because rice contains more sugar than barley. It contains more alcohol than claret or hock and not so much alcohol as many brands of port and sherry. In deciding to retain its classification as a still wine the N. Y. Board of General Appraisers disregarded the process of its manufacture, and they gave to the decision of the Commissioner of Internal Revenue that sake is a beer the scorn of their silence. They based their ruling that it resembled a wine, solely upon the ground of the quantity of alcohol it contains."

"What liquor does sake resemble in taste? Drink it, if your reportorial Caucasian stomach can endure the ordeal, and maybe you can tell. I tasted a teaspoonful of it once at the solicitation of Mr. Peacock, and for half an hour afterwards I felt as I once did when journeying to Hilo in the Kinau. The lower class of dram shops in London have a sink under the bar into which all the spittings of beer, gin, wine and cider are conveyed. The contents of this sink are called 'swipes' and sold to the worthy poor of the English metropolis. Sake, to my taste, resembles 'swipes,' flavored with an overripe egg. I should think that a pint of it would make the man who drank it hostis humanis generis, and if the Japanese army are accorded full rations of it just before an attack on the Russian forces they will make Prince Sneezyournoseoff look like thirty cents."

"Before presenting the case to the New York Board of Appraisers we gathered considerable evidence on the subject of the manufacture of sake. Mr. Johnston making a journey to Japan for that purpose while I interviewed Chicago and New York brewers. In December, 1902, the case was argued by me in New York before General Somerville, President of the Board of General Appraisers. From certain indications I suspected after submitting the case that the decision of the appraisers might be against us, and I was satisfied that even if we won, the government would appeal the case."

"The law gives an appeal from any decision of the U. S. Board of General Appraisers to the Circuit Court of the United States for the District in which the importation is made. On this appeal new and additional evidence may be introduced by either or both parties to the dispute, the trial is de novo and the decision of the United States Circuit Court on questions of fact is seldom disturbed by the United States Circuit Court of Appeals, which is the last tribunal to which an appeal can be taken except in constitutional and in special and extraordinary cases."

An appeal by either the Government or the importers from the decision of the appraisers in our case would have brought the matter before the U. S. Circuit Court in Honolulu then presided over by the late Hon. Morris M. Estee.

"Of the late Judge Estee I desire to speak with all possible respect, not merely because I am governed by the motto 'de mortuis nil nisi bonum,' but because of his great and many-sided abilities. But he was a politician and not a jurist. He was possessed even to fanaticism with the idea of 'Americanizing' these islands, and he was saturated through and through with the idea that the United States Government as represented by its officials is 'a king that can do no wrong.' He did not mean to be unjust, but in any case that came before him between a private individual and the government, in which Asiatic were litigants or witnesses he was simply incapable of deciding against the Government. My observation of his course in the Pearl Harbor condemnation case, and my experience as counsel in some shipping cases and some customs cases convinced me that it was essential to the success of our clients, that the decision in the sake cases should be made in some other jurisdiction. This was brought about by arranging for our Honolulu clients to avail themselves of a sake importation made into the port of New York. This case was by stipulation placed on the appraisers calendar immediately after the Hackfeld case, and when a decision was rendered by the appraisers against us, as I feared it would be, the New York case was brought up, and a similar decision rendered pro forma in that case, and an appeal taken at once to the Circuit Court of the United States for the Southern District of New York. Then we stipulated with the Government that all the sake cases in which we were counsel should be held in abeyance, and not taken up by the Board of Appraisers until after the decision by the N. Y. United States Circuit Court, and should then be governed by that decision."

"The appeal having been properly lodged we went to work gathering additional evidence. We secured the aid of Messrs. Comstock & Crane who are the leading custom house lawyers in New York City. Mr. Johnston obtained further depositions from Japan showing the process of manufacture of sake. He also visited San Francisco and procured there samples of sake made by a manufacturer of it recently established there. I procured in the east the expert testimony of brewers, maltsters and chemists, and at the trial we had as a witness the most distinguished analyst and expert in the country. It all cost a lot of money of course, but the Government could not shake or answer our testimony, and in court we simply obliterated the contention that sake bears a substantial similitude to any wine ever made."

"Somewhat to our surprise but greatly to our satisfaction the decision of U. S. Circuit Judge Townsend was that sake resembled under the 'similitude' clause neither a wine nor a beer, and that our claim under Section 6 of the Customs Law that sake is a 'non enumerated manufactured article' must be sustained. That this clause has been inserted in every protest, is due to the care and sagacity of Harry Johnston. The result is that Uncle Sam will refund forty-one

A MINER'S TROUBLE

REACHES A CLIMAX AFTER YEARS
OF SLOW DEVELOPMENT.

A Settlement Happily Effected in the Case of Henry Story in Time
to Avert a Serious Misfortune.

If all the troubles of the coal miners could be adjusted as satisfactorily as that which for many months disturbed the happiness of Mr. Henry Story, of 532 Muskingum avenue, Zanesville, Ohio, it would be a most welcome relief for both the men and their families.

The facts in the case were related by Mrs. Story, who is a very happy woman today because her husband has had such a fortunate escape from the calamity that threatened him.

"My husband," says Mrs. Story, "is a very hard working man and has always been very healthy, but some months ago rheumatism got hold of him, and made him suffer terribly. It would soon have been him up if it had not been for Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People, which, we think, are the best medicine in the world."

"He suffered so much in his legs that he could hardly stand; his back hurt, and he had such pain in his left arm that he could not rest night or day. His arm would turn numb and I would have to rub and bathe it in hot water. I tried everything I could think of to give him relief. At last he went to a doctor, who told him that his trouble had come from hard work. The doctor gave him some medicine, but it did not do any good."

"In the meantime I picked up a paper and read about Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People and thought my husband's trouble might be with his nerves. I got two boxes of the pills for him and persuaded him to take them."

"After he had taken the first box he felt much better, and when he had finished the second box he was better still. So I bought six boxes the next time and he took four of them, that is six boxes in all. That is three months ago and he has never had an ache or pain since and can do a hard day's work with any young man. We praise Dr. Williams' Pink Pills to all our friends."

These famous pills effect radical cures of all diseases of the blood such as rheumatism, and of the nerves such as neuralgia and partial paralysis. They repair waste and give fresh vitality. They are sold by all druggists.

YOUNG EASTERNER WILL MARRY IF A JOB OFFERS

Washington Resident Will Change His Abode and Live in Hawaii, Even if He Has to Become a Benedict.

If there is any young woman in Honolulu who wants a husband from the mainland, she can get one from Washington, D. C., if she will only hustle around and get him a job in Honolulu for say $100 a month. He's getting $75 a month now, but the position is not a permanent one. It would also be well for any prospective bride who would like to jump at this chance to send on to the young man his railway and steamer fare.

The Hawaiian Promotion Committee has received an intimation from the Washington young man that he would not be averse to marrying, and all applications should be made to the secretary, although this official does not stand sponsor for the would-be-groom. For a sample of unlimited nerve the young Washingtonian takes the prize. Here are a few extracts from his letter, received in the Siberia's mail yesterday:

"I don't know whether this comes under your jurisdiction, but finding your address in the Strand magazine, I resolved to write and see what chance there would be of my getting a job in Hawaii."

"If I wrote a better hand I'd be a pretty good bookkeeper, and for character and so forth I can make a pretty good showing."

"I am now making about seventy-five dollars a month as solicitor for —, but 'tis not permanent and I want more."

"I am twenty-three and unmarried, but with a permanent position I would try to remedy the latter failing and would stay in Hawaii."

"If matters of this kind don't interest your committee don't bother to write me as I don't care for an answer that doesn't tell anything good."

"P. S. Any work will suit me if there's anything in it."

cents instead of thirty cents per gallon to Honolulu importers on over one million gallons of sake imported during the last two years and three months, and on probably three hundred thousand more that will be imported before the case shall be finally decided. From this decision the government has taken an appeal to the U. S. Circuit Court of Appeals in New York, for it naturally desires the decision of the higher tribunal as a warrant for refunding upwards of six hundred thousand dollars, but for the reasons I have already stated, there is but small chance of the decision of the U. S. Circuit Court of New York being reversed. It is not probable that pending an appeal the importations of sake will be substantially reduced. It is sold to consumers about as fast as it comes in, and a thirsty Jap, however thrifty, will not refrain from drinking his sake today, because it will be cheaper next month or next year."

"What will be done with the money when received? I presume that it will remain in Honolulu. The share coming to the importers will remain here of course. Harry Johnston will probably be busy loaning a large portion of his share in small and large sums to a torchlight procession of glad handed and impecunious friends, and my share—oh, I don't know. I have given up the habit of counting chickens before the process of incubation is completed. I expect to remain here. No place has a greater charm for me than Honolulu. I have no ties calling me elsewhere, for I am now alone in the world. I shall resume the practice of law here, for I cannot bear idleness

DEATH OF A. K. NAWAHI

REACHES A CLIMAX AFTER YEARS
OF SLOW DEVELOPMENT.

A Settlement Happily Effected in the Case of Henry Story in Time
to Avert a Serious Misfortune.

ALBERT K. NAWAHI.

Albert K. Nawahi of Hilo, who came to Honolulu to attend the Democratic Convention, died yesterday morning at 5 o'clock at the Queen's Hospital, from a brain tumor. The remains will be embalmed and shipped to Hilo on the Kinau next Tuesday for interment on Hawaii.

The deceased was a young man, and had been married for about a year, his wife being a granddaughter of the late William Nottley. His mother, Mrs. Nawahi, is prominent in Hawaiian circles and exercises some political influence.

The young man attended the races on Saturday but owing to indisposition returned to the city early in the day. In the early part of the present week he became quite ill and was removed to the hospital.

A Life Saved

Never give up. No matter how ill you are. Ayer's Sarsaparilla has cured some terrible cases, and it will cure you.

Mr. Thos. H. Cashel, Barrel Creek, Dripstone, New South Wales, writes: "I feel it my duty to let suffering people know what a wonderful blood-purifying medicine is Ayer's Sarsaparilla. My illness began with sharp pains in the limbs, while I was handling wet wool. After a day or two I could not walk, and suffered terrible pains. My face turned nearly black, large red blotches came out all over my body, and then I became delirious. I was in two hospitals for some time, and everything was tried, but I grew weaker and weaker, and became convinced that nothing could be done for me. I had heard so much about Ayer's Sarsaparilla that I thought I would give it a trial as the last hope. After taking one bottle I thought I felt a little better. So I procured another bottle, and then another, and still another. I gradually improved, and in due time left my bed for the first time in six months. I am now in good health, and I say to every one that Ayer's Sarsaparilla saved my life."

THE NEW FRENCH REMEDY.
THERAPION This successful remedy, used in the Continental Hospital by Blood, Gordon, Jobert, Velpaue, and others, combines all the desiderata to be sought in a medicine of the kind, and surpasses every other remedy employed. THERAPION No. 1 maintains the blood, purifies and well-merited reputation for damage to the kidneys, pain in the back, and kindred ailments, affording prompt relief where other well-tried remedies have been powerless. THERAPION No. 2 forms purify the blood, and remove every impurity, and swelling of joints, gout, rheumatism, and all diseases for which it has been too much a fashion to employ mercury, Sarsaparilla &c., to the destruction of sufferer's health and ruin of health. This preparation purifies the whole system through the blood, and thoroughly eliminates all poisonous matter from the body. THERAPION No. 3 for exhaustion, sleeplessness, and all distressing consequences of dissipation, worry, overwork, &c. It possesses surprising power in restoring strength and vigor to those suffering from the enervating influences of long residence in hot, unhealthy climates. THERAPION is sold by the principal chemists and druggists throughout the world. Prior to England, in 1891, and in 1892, in ordinary state which of the three numbers is required, and observe that the word "THERAPION" appears on the British Government Stamp (a white letter on a red ground) affixed to every genuine package by order of His Majesty's Royal Commissioners, and without which it is a forgery.

BASEBALL TODAY.

Baseball today will bring out a crowd, both games looking like business. The Elks, who seem to improve every game, meet Punahou, and the issue is doubtful. Punahou's Class Day clashes somewhat with League requirements and all the college players may not be on hand. Sonny Cunha will catch for the Elks with Al Moore to play "star" ball at short and Bushnell left field.

The H. A. C.'s are to change pitchers against the Kams. Bonny Joy will be in the box for five innings to be followed by Williams. It is whispered that Gleason may catch. The Kamehamehas are confident of securing the game. Meetings of the League are growing to be farces in the non-turning up of representatives. Held in the Elks clubroom there are always plenty of representatives for that team present, and Carter and Lemon are usually there, with President Isenberg. And that's all. For two weeks no one from the Mailes or H. A. C.'s has shown up and as changes in the schedule are planned the faithful ones are murmuring against the absentees. The following shows the approximate makeup of the teams:

Punahou—Robinson, c.; Hardee, p.; Woods, 1b.; Steere, 2b.; Soper, 3b.; Lishman, ss.; Tucker, 1f.; Forbes, cf.; Ahrens, rf.
Elks—A. Cunha, c.; Zamloch, p.; C. Cunha, 1b.; Russell, 2b.; Kaal, 3b.; Al Moore, ss.; Bushnell, 1f.; Kia, cf.; Ferreira, rf.
H. A. C.—Kiley or Gleason, c.; Joy-Williams, p.; Gleason-Kiley, 1b.; E. Fernandez, 2b.; En Sue, 3b.; Williams, ss.; J. Fernandez, 1f.; Aylett, cf.; Louis, rf.
Kamehameha—J. Kekuewa, c.; Reuter-Richards, p.; Jones, 1b.; Vannatta, 2b.; Plunkett, 3b.; Sheldon, ss.; Lemon, 1f.; Koki, cf.; Richards, rf.

The following letter, received yesterday, explains itself:

The National League of Professional Baseball Clubs.
New York, June 4.
Mr. Lorrin Andrews, Secretary Honolulu Baseball League.

Dear Sir: Your favor of the 21st ult. reached me today after a roundabout journey. In reply to your inquiry will say that no matter how many strikes or balls have been charged against a batsman when his side is retired while he is at bat, he takes his turn in the next innings with a clear record. In baseball each innings is a closed affair at its conclusion and nothing can be carried out into the next innings.

As our rules have been revised this year, I take pleasure in sending you herewith an official copy of same for your guidance. If at any time I can answer any questions or be of service to you in promoting the welfare of the national game in our distant territory, do not hesitate to call on me.

Wishing the Honolulu Baseball League and yourself, as its secretary, every success, I remain yours truly,
(Signed) HARRY C. PULLIAM,
(President, Secretary, Treasurer.)

Riley's Reply.

There is every reason to believe that a match will be arranged between Joe Riley, ex-amateur champion of New England and Tim Murphy of Australia. Riley answers Murphy's challenge and agrees to come to 180 pounds by four o'clock on the day of contest and a side bet for any reasonable amount, soft bandages only to be allowed.

Riley says he can make 180 all right though he does not like the idea of reducing weight too quickly in this climate. Riley seems a clear cut sort of a fellow who is likely to put up a good fight. The match should be arranged without much difficulty as two pounds should not keep the men apart and the contest should prove to be a good one. Riley's answer to Murphy's challenge reads as under:

Honolulu, H. I., June 17.
Editor Advertiser: In answer to challenge from Tim Murphy I wish to state he may have a match upon following conditions: Weight 180 pounds at 4 o'clock on day of contest—soft bandages only to be allowed.

—above conditions are agreeable he will have side bet for any reasonable sum.
Yours sincerely,
JOS. RILEY.
Ex-Amateur Champion of New England.

MAUI RACE MEET.

The corrected program of the Maui races, set for July 4th, at Kahului, arrived in yesterday's mail and shows some splendid inducements in the shape of purses hung up by the Maui Racing Association. The purses for the harness events are the largest ever offered in Hawaiian race track history and local horses are out to capture them.

The free-for-all, trotting and pacing, has a purse of $400 hung up while the 2:15 class shows $350 in sight for the winner. Cyclone, Sambo, Billy Lemp and Dennis Haley are all out for the money and Kahului will see a notable race on their track when these four score for the start. The Maui record is, it is claimed by experts, sure to sustain a break. Bruner and Racine Murphy go from local stables after good purses which eclipse Honolulu offers and are forthcoming, it is said, from the fact that Kahului track is completely fenced and every one who sees the races pays.

The following is the complete program:

1. Running Race—One mile dash; Maui horses only. Purse $100.
2. Trotting and Pacing to Harness, mile heats, best two in three; 2:15 class. Purse $350.
3. Japanese Race—Half mile dash, free for all, Japanese riders only. First money, $25; second money, $12.50. Purse $37.50.
4. Running Race—Three-eighths mile dash; free for all. Purse $150.
5. Mule Race—One mile dash; free for all. Purse $40.
6. Running Race—Three-fourths mile dash; free for all. Purse $150.
7. Trotting and Pacing to Harness—Mile heats, best two in three; free for all. Purse $400.
8. Polo Pony Race—Half-mile dash; polo players to ride; five to enter, five to start. Prize, $75 Cup.
9. Pony Running Race—Half-mile dash; free for all; 14 hands and under. Purse $60.
10. Running Race—One mile dash; free for all. Purse $150.
11. Japanese Race—One mile dash; free for all; Japanese riders only. First money, $25; second money, $12.50. Purse $37.50.
12. Cowboy Relay Race—One and one-half mile dash; horses, saddles and bridles to be changed every half mile. Purse $50.

All entries are to be made with the secretary before 12 o'clock noon on Thursday, June 20th, 1904. Entrance fee to be 10 per cent of the purse unless otherwise specified.

All races are to be run or trotted under the rules of the California Jockey Club and the National Trotting Association.

All riders and drivers to appear in colors.

At least three to enter and two to start.

All horses are expected to start unless withdrawn by 9 o'clock a. m. on Saturday, July 2.

GRIP CONVALESCENCE

There's nothing better than Scott's Emulsion after the grip. When the fever is gone the body is left weak and exhausted; the nervous system is completely run down and vitality is low.

Two things to do: give strength to the whole body and new force to the nerves. Scott's Emulsion will do it; contains just what the worn-out system needs.

Rich blood, healthy flesh, resistive force, more and better nourishment are what Scott's Emulsion supplies to the convalescent.

Scott's Emulsion is the original and has been the standard emulsion of cod liver oil for nearly thirty years. Why buy the new, untried, cheap emulsions or so called wines, cordials and extracts of cod liver oil, when you can buy what is sure to help you?

We'll send you a sample free upon request.
SCOTT & BOWNE, 409 Pearl Street, New York.

General admission, 50 cents.
Grand stand, mauka side, $1.00; makai side, 50 cents.
Quarter stretch badges, $2.50.
Bids for the refreshment stand privilege will be received by the secretary.
Per order of Executive Committee.
D. L. MEYER,
Secretary Maui Racing Association.

Cricket Today.

There will be a cricket match at Makiki this afternoon at two o'clock, which all players are invited to attend. Several players have arranged to be on hand and a spirited encounter between scratch teams is expected.

Tennis.

Roth and Derby will once more meet in competition in the finals of the Beretania Club tournament. The match will be played this afternoon on the Beretania courts at four o'clock. Derby, who has been either improving or getting back to old form ever since he has played here with his well placed Lawford's stands a good show of winning out. Three out of five is too long a match for Roth whose physical condition is not nearly up to the form of his game which is perhaps the best in the territory. Derby will probably tire him out and then win.

Bockus worn out after a close contest in his postponed match with Carter yesterday afternoon, somewhat foolishly perhaps, tackled Roth making two matches in the same afternoon. Roth proved too many for Bockus as Derby did for Hobdy and the finals now rest between Roth and Derby. There was a big crowd in attendance yesterday afternoon and tennis seems to be once more resuming its place in popular favor.

AN EVENING WITH KAAI'S PUPILS

A purely mandolin, guitar, zither and banjo recital is announced by Mr. Ernest Kaal, the gifted artist and teacher. The entertainers comprise Mr. Kaal's pupils and this will be the largest musical of its kind ever offered the music-loving public of Honolulu, in that the students of all ages unite to interpret by the liquid tones of the stringed instruments, the composers' fancies. Mr. Kaal will place before the public for the opening number, his entire school of sixty advanced students all playing in one club. There will also appear mandolin, guitar, banjo, zither and vocal quartets of rare excellence.

The entertainment will be given in the Hawaiian Opera House on Thursday evening, June 23.

Fair by Children.

A fair is to be given at the home of Mrs. Robinson, Beretania street, opposite the Maternity Home, by a few young people from Punahou, the High School and the Sacred Heart Academy, on Tuesday, June 21, at 2 p. m. The

I'll Bet $1,000 I can Cure Any Weak Man!

I have perfected a new Belt, better and stronger than I have ever made, before—a belt which will transform the weakest, puniest specimen of "half man" into a perfect cyclone of strength and I want every man to use it. I want a test case. Therefore I offer $1,000 in gold to any weak man who will use this Belt under my direction for four months and then show by examination of any reputable physician that he is not cured, sound and well.

This is especially directed to men who have doctored for years without benefit. I want men with Rheumatism, Pains in the Back, Weak Kidneys, Sciatica, Lumbago, Varicocele, Prostatic Trouble (I cure by a new method), Locomotor Ataxia, Torpid Liver, Indigestion and Dyspepsia. All of these troubles in chronic form I can cure with this new belt, even after all other treatments have failed. To every weak, debilitated man who wears this new Belt I give my

DR. McLAUGHLIN—Dear Sir: I have now been wearing your Belt about a month, and I wish to report that the Belt has benefited me in every way, so that today I feel like a new man. My back does not trouble any more, my nerves are stronger and my sleep is better than it has been in years. I want to thank you for the benefits I have derived from your method of treatment, and with kindest regards, I remain, yours very truly,

ED. HAYSING, Cucamonga, Cal.
If you can call, come and see me, and I will show you my new Belt and prove to you that it is a wonderful device. You can feel the glowing current of life that flows into the weakened nerves. I will show you letters from your own neighbors telling how I cured them. I have over 50,000 testimonials in the past 21 years.

Write, and I will send a book describing my new method, with letters from many grateful men and women. If you write, send this ad. and I will send the book, sealed, free. Cut the ad. out and act today.

DON'T BLAME YOUR MIRROR
Many ladies compel their mirrors to bear silent witness to needless hair destruction. Day after day they see beauty and attractiveness despoiled by the removal of great combfuls of slightly discolored hair that could be saved. If your mirror could talk it would plead with you to "save your hair—not the combings." It can be done with Newbro's Herpicide which kills the microbe that causes dull, brittle and lusterless hair, also dandruff and falling hair. Destroy the germ and the hair's natural luster and abundance will return. Marvellous results. An exquisite hair dressing.

SENIOR DANCE AT OAHU COLLEGE

Sweet girl graduates and just as sweet undergraduates of Oahu College danced out the collegiate year last night in Pauahi Hall, a gallant crowd of masculine graduates and non-graduates being in attendance. The commencement dance is one of the principal social events of the school year and that given last night demonstrated that the function is as popular as ever. It was given under the auspices of the senior class. The hall was attractively decorated with whole banana stalks, palm branches and other green foliage, the platform being a mass of green decorations.

The young ladies formed as pretty a gathering of young femininity as one can find at any social affair in Honolulu, and all looked fresh, rosy and charming in their summery frocks. Dancing began at 8:30 and continued until midnight, the music being furnished most acceptably by the Ellis Quintet. The senior class, '04, which was responsible for a pleasant wind-up of the year's studies, comprised the following:

Harold K. L. Castle, E. Constance Restarick, Ernest N. Smith, E. Dagmar Sorenson, Allan C. Robinson, Julia M. Damon, Philip Wong, Ferdinand J. H. Schmack, Geo. Clarence Pearson, Yuk Tong Zane, Katherine M. Harnestad, Percy G. H. Deverill, Percival W. White, Jr., Amy P. Hill, Tom Ayoy, Geo. de Souza Canavaro, Benjamin Hale Aust, Eleanor J. Waterhouse.

MOANA THROGGED WITH DANCERS

The Moana Hotel was again a scene of festivity last night, the occasion being a concert given on the lawn by the Hawaiian Government band, followed by an informal dance in the reception parlor of the hotel.

The concert was well attended, all the benches in the park and available space on the lanais being occupied. By 9 o'clock guests began to arrive in greater numbers and when dancing began the lanais and hall-ways were filled with people. To the excellent music of a Hawaiian quintet and amid cool breezes which always sweep through the parlor, the dancers passed an enjoyable evening.

Mrs. Spalding Returns.

Colonel Z. S. Spalding with his wife returned yesterday from the American mainland and European continent, remaining in town a few hours before proceeding on an Inter-Island steamer to Kauai, where they will now take up permanent residence at Kealia.

Mrs. Spalding has not been in the Territory for fifteen years, having lived the past few years at Naples. Her health has been failing of late and she returns in response to an ardently expressed desire to revisit Hawaii. R. P. Spalding accompanies them to Kauai.

Band Notes.

The band will play this afternoon at the Class Day exercises at Punahou College at 3 o'clock. Tomorrow, Sunday, the band will take part in the dedication ceremonies of the Royal Mausoleum. There will be no public concert on Sunday. On Monday evening, as usual, a moonlight concert will be given at Enima Square.

HILLO MAN ADOPTS CURLY HEADED GIRL

From the New York Times: After a 5,000-mile trip over land and sea to get a baby—anybody's baby—Daniel Bidwell, a sugar merchant of Hawaii, will return home in a day or two with a curly-haired two-year-old. He got to New York night before last, and immediately inserted an advertisement in a morning paper offering $100 for the right kind of infant.

Before 6 o'clock last night he had selected one which he said suited him "to a T." At 7 o'clock the Hawaiian was discovered stealthily escaping from the Cosmopolitan Hotel with a hunted look in his eyes. "You are the eighteenth in the last two hours," he said to his questioner. "I had no idea my wishing to get a little thing like a girl baby would attract all this attention. My wife won't like it much. She will tell me I ought not to have published my name and address, and of course she'll be right. It won't be very pleasant to have the entire population waiting for me with the question, 'Did you find a stray baby?'"

Mr. Bidwell refused to tell the name of the child. With great hesitation he said she was something over two years old and was the prettiest little thing he had seen. In fact, he seemed to be charmed at the prospect of going 5,000 miles with her, remarking:

"Oh, I guess I know how to manage the kid, even if I haven't one of my own. You see, it had to be done. We couldn't get along any more without a child in the family. We are both Americans, and we preferred to get our foster-child here. So I came to New York for a choice specimen. I think I've got it."

Between every remark about the child the Hawaiian bemoaned having put his name in the paper with the advertisement. He evidently didn't look forward with pleasure to what his wife would say.

"She won't like it at all," he repeated over and over again. "Next time I go baby hunting I'll know better. Anyway, I'm glad I didn't tell the name of the town I am from. I am praying the New York papers won't get out to my home."

The man from Hawaii dodged swiftly out at the side door and started down the street, casting furtive glances behind him.

CHOLERA INFANTUM.—This has long been regarded as one of the most dangerous and fatal diseases to which infants are subject. It can be cured, however, when properly treated. All that is necessary is to give Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and castor oil as directed, with each bottle, and a cure is certain. Since this remedy has come into such general use, there are very few deaths from cholera infantum, and none whatever when it is given. For sale by all Dealers.
