McBryde Bond Deal Says Kinney Is Now Completed

DECLARES THERE WAS NO HITCH

"There is no hitch in the McBryde bond business. The deal has gone through," said W. A. Kinney this afternoon.

"You may state that the first move contemplated by the deal was the taking up of the first issue of bonds; the deal contemplates as the first move the taking up of the first issue of bonds."

"This has been arranged for and resolutions by the McBryde directors calling for payment at the earliest practicable date, January 1st, 1906, have been passed, and these arrangements are now being carried out."

The exchange of the first mortgage bonds for the second issue can be delayed but it cannot be stopped. Under the arrangement made by Mr. Kinney and the directors of the corporation with the Bank of Hawaii the first mortgage bonds would be taken up on the next interest bearing date in January. Any bondholder would have to surrender the bond when offered cash. It is possible however for the bondholders to exchange their first mortgage bonds for the new issue and thus accomplish the same end without the exchange of any cash.

The statement made by Kinney is the first positive assertion he has made since the first agreement was consummated a few days ago, when the McBryde bond question was to all intents and purposes settled.

The report this morning that there was a hitch in the flotation of the bonds followed a meeting of the directors of the Bank of Hawaii and certain brokers of the city took the opportunity to attempt to bear the market by the circulation of the story of the serious difficulty. The stock however is held firmly and in good hands. Despite the general depression of all stocks at the present time it is anticipated by the largest holders of McBryde that the stock will be quoted at close to par by the beginning of the year, as the plantation will soon be in a position to produce a ton of sugar cheaper than any other property on the islands.

JOHN SPALDING DEAD

Members Shall Keep Says Proposed Rule Secrets Of Board

SUPERVISORS WANT LAW ON ORDINANCES

"The members and officers shall (decide) keep the secrets of the Board."

The above is proposed Rule No. 37 of the Oahu County Board of Supervisors as appearing in the draft of rules and regulations. While it is not expected that the Board is to become a secret society, the rule, if adopted, will be strangely similar to one of the first requirements of all secret societies.

The word "decide," given above in parenthesis, was typewritten in the original draft and then crossed out.

In the consideration of its rules the Board of Supervisors of Oahu County, while having passed some which may be altered before final adoption next Tuesday, defers action on the following regarding ordinances, pending an opinion from the County Attorney as to their legality:

"The Board shall, from time to time, pass such ordinances as may be deemed necessary for the preservation of public order or health, life and property, to abate and remove nuisances and enforce the good government, order and security of the citizens of the County.

"No ordinance shall be passed that is in conflict with the laws of the Territory and the rules and regulations of the Territorial Board of Health."

"All ordinances passed by the Board shall have the force of law and all infractions thereof shall constitute a misdemeanor."

"All ordinances passed by the Board shall bear the title: 'The People of the County of Oahu do ordain as follows:' and shall be numbered consecutively."

Charlie Achi has been a steady ornament of the County Clerk's office for the last few days. A counter, separating the business end of the office from the space for callers will be put in at once. Such a counter has already been put up in the Auditor's office.

Supervisor Control Of Hawaii

(Special to The Bulletin)
Hilo, Hawaii, July 12.—The conflict of authority between the Hawaii County Supervisors and Sheriff Keolanui was brought to a point yesterday when the Supervisors voted that no salaries should be paid to policemen except those working under the resolution of the Board that retains the old employees of the department in office. The result is that Sheriff Keolanui has one set of policemen and the Supervisors another. Hawaii is double policed and needs protection only from its Sheriff.

TAFT'S RECEPTION

ESTIMATES COMMITTEE

WILL COST $750.00

The joint committee on the reception of the Taft party estimates the total cost of the day's entertainment to be $750. The Builders' and Traders' Exchange can contribute but $50 toward this amount. The remainder will be divided between the Merchants' Association and the Chamber of Commerce. The latter organization this morning agreed to pay its share, $350. When the Merchants' Association pays its $350, the costs of the entertainment, including music, transportation in the city and the luncheon, will be covered.

The Board of Trustees of the Chamber of Commerce held its quarterly meeting this morning. Routine matters were taken up.

Secretary J. G. Spencer reported that the letter requesting Governor Carter to reconsider his resignation was filed. He also read a letter from the Chamber of Commerce to Surgeon General Walter Wyman, asking that local architects and contractors be given opportunity to make tenders for the buildings at the new leprosy station.

The treasurer's report showed $4,150 on hand.

A communication was received from the Trans-Mississippi Commercial Congress asking that the body take up the matter of a representative from Honolulu, perhaps appointing a commissioner to look after delegates and speakers. No action was taken.

The report of the Hawaiian Promotion Committee for the quarter ending June 30 was read. It showed cash on hand of $3,970.97 and disbursements of $4590.69. Secretary Boyd's recent trip to the States cost about $600.

Secretary E. M. Boyd's report was read. In this report the secretary deplored the lack of a large steamer in the local passenger trade. He also gave an account of his trip to the States to the railroad officials. The report further stated that special efforts are being made to give Hawaii wide publicity at the Lewis & Clark Fair through the distribution of literature.

Jas. F. Morgan, reporting for the Committee on Legislation and Public Improvements, submitted a communication from the New York Chamber of

ECHOES OF PORT ARTHUR

Coney Tantalus Land May Be Opened For Settlers

HOLLOWAY WORKS ON EXCHANGE PLAN

The prospects for the saving of the lands, on the opening of which Land Commissioner Pratt and the Survey Department are at present working. "If the Coney Tantalus lands are opened for settlement," said Superintendent Holloway, "the Government will be careful to see that the forest growing on them is preserved. This will be effected by imposing on the settlers strict conditions by which they will be required to cut only a certain portion of the trees and to plant certain numbers."

Holloway said that he had looked up the question, which had been brought up, to the effect that the Government would be able to open up the Makiki valley lands for settlement without action on the part of the Legislature. He had been unable to find any law to this effect. With regard to the matter of suits for recovery, which it is reported may be brought by the former owners of Makiki valley lands, who held it up to the time when it was condemned for watershed purposes, Holloway said that he thought that the chances of recovery were probably very slim.

Commerce on reciprocity treaties. The committee requested that the matter be discussed by the trustees of the Chamber. The communication was laid on the table.

President Kinney recommended joyously that the Committee on Legislation "keep tab" on the Board of Supervisors, to see that they passed the right kind of ordinances. The annual meeting of the Chamber of Commerce was set for August 16th at 10:30 a. m.

The Junction Saloon, corner of King and Beretania streets, has been opened by Harry A. Juen.

County Supervisors Full Of Business Hold Lively Session

ADAMS THINKS HE SEES POLITICS

There was no lack of excitement at the meeting of the Oahu County Board of Supervisors last night. Supervisor Moore introduced a resolution that was either a scheme or very much misunderstood and which excited controversy and argument and ended in Moore's withdrawing the resolution, the withdrawal by no means being favored unanimously.

Moore's idea was that the county Supervisors should have the selection of employees of their respective districts. The resolution covered Supervisors Archer, Paele and Cox.

At once there was a roar. E. R. Adams gave a talk against the proposition; he thought it was delegating altogether too much power to the country men; the country men had no more right to name employees in their districts than had the Honolulu men to name all employees in the city; then, if the country members were to have the whole say about appointments in their respective districts and the city members were to dictate as to appointments in Honolulu, where would the Supervisor-at-large come in? He was for harmony and the whole Board working together, for the Board as a united body settling all appointments; he was sorry to see politics enter into the matter of the Board's work, but that was what it seemed to be; to give the country members the power suggested would be to draw the line politically.

Moore Denies Politics.
Moore arose to indignantly protest against this construction of his resolution. He did not see how there could be any political line drawn when Archer and Cox were Republicans and Paele was the only one of the three referred to who was not a Republican. Paele was a fusionist, but the political line could not be drawn with one man.

Moore had made his suggestion, he said, with the idea that the work of the Board would be thus facilitated and that it was but just to the country members to give them the say as to country appointments; they knew the men in their districts, they knew better than the city men what was needed in their districts.

Resolution Withdrawn.
Moore's resolution sought to give the country district supervisors authority to supervise all public works in their respective districts, besides naming all men to be employed in such work.

Chairman Smith suggested that perhaps the resolution would not be objectionable if the words authorizing the country men to act were cut out, leaving the resolution to provide merely that the country men recommend their men for appointment, subject to the approval of the entire Board.

Smith regretted that politics had been mentioned in the matter. Again Moore protested that politics had been altogether foreign to his mind in making the suggestion. Lucas declared that the resolution was a warm one and it might be well for the Board to sleep over it. Moore withdrew his resolution without further discussion, for the sake of harmony, saying he had not anticipated that there would be any suggestion of politics in the idea.

Salary Assignments.
County Attorney Douthitt sent in an opinion, pursuant to the Board's request, in regard to the assignment of salaries by employees of the County to others. He believed that the Treasurer had the right to make rules in reference to the management of his office. Moore thought the opinion was non-committal; the original resolution of the Board in the premises was good, he thought, and the Board had the right to adopt rules in this connection. He thought employees should be protected; their wages should be paid directly to them; the Board's original resolution was correct, but the opinion of Douthitt was vague, was ambiguous. Here Adams expressed the opinion that the County Attorney should be present at all meetings of the Board to explain any matters that might need legal light.

Adams later moved that the Attorney be requested to attend all meetings. It was remarked that the Attorney had a deputy. The motion carried.

Douthitt Is Ambiguous.
Lucas thought that a sure way to do away with the salary assignment evil was to have it understood that any employee who assigned his salary would be dismissed. Moore insisted that Douthitt's opinion was ambiguous and moved that it be referred back to him for a more definite opinion. Carried.

Douthitt gave notice by letter that he had appointed A. H. Crook as his deputy. Confirmation, on motion of Moore, was deferred until the County Attorney could be present.

Douthitt also notified the Board that he had chosen Pat Silva for his clerk. This appointment was confirmed.

Stewart's Effects Bought.
Bills of sale from T. McCants Stewart to the County were read by Clerk Kalauskalani. County Attorney Douthitt, who occupies the office formerly occupied by Stewart, had purchased from Mr. Stewart certain law books for $388 and certain office furniture for $269. Consideration of these bills was deferred, on motion of Adams, until the County Attorney could be present at a meeting.

Animals Not Fed.
Lucas was eloquent on the matter of the pound and hoped the County would run this institution in a proper manner and see that the poor animals kept there were fed. The way the Territory had run the pound was a disgrace. Animals starved to death. Lucas waxed indignant over the way the animals had been treated. He had seen for himself, he said, the manner in which affairs had been conducted at the pound.

Chairman Smith frequently rapped for order while Lucas interrupted others in the pound talk. As a matter of fact, Adams does most of the interrupting, but he is vice-chairman, supervisor-at-large and interrupts in a most gentle and persuasive manner, with many eloquent and expressive swimming motions of the hands over the table, scattering harmony, as it were, from his finger tips, whereas Lucas, who comes to the point in about one-tenth of the time, generally carries the suggestion of being out of order by the mere force and tone of his synthetic remarks.

The office of poundmaster was finally continued for July and Kekuene was continued at the head of the pound. It was remarked that another man would be secured in his place if he failed to discharge his duty properly. Chairman Smith looked up the law and found that the poundmaster was responsible for the feed of the animals out of the pound's returns.

Adams Starts Roar.
Adams introduced a resolution to the effect that the heads of all departments be requested to report to the Board all matters of interest occurring under their jurisdiction. Lucas declared that this was interfering with the duties of the heads of departments. The various heads knew very well how to manage their own affairs. The recent cleaning of the police station by the Board of Health, unknown to the Board of Supervisors at the start, seemed to be the inspiration for the resolution. The resolution was adopted after considerable discussion, Lucas and Paele voting emphatically against it.

Chairman Smith referred to the little affair between the Sheriff and the senior captain of police; the Board knew nothing of it until the newspapers had the story.

Standing Committees.
When the Board reached the consideration of rules the following standing committees were announced:

1. Ways and means;
2. Public expenditures;
3. Roads, bridges, parks and public improvements;
4. Police department;
5. Fire department;
6. Sanitation and health.

Two members are to be named on each committee.

The Chairman of the Board is a member of each committee. All meetings are to be public, unless otherwise designated. When the fire department was turned over to the Supervisors, the Chair stated, the Commissioners had handed over everything in businesslike shape and it would be well to retain the Commissioners in office.

The rules provide that no member interested in a pecuniary way with a matter to be voted on shall vote; ordinances shall be passed by the Board as occasion requires; thirty days shall elapse before ordinances are considered law; Cushing's manual will be authority in all deliberations.

Odds and Ends.
Lucas reported seeing the Public Works in reference to the old building on Queen street, near the Inter-Island wharf, which is in the way of road improvement. It is to be sold soon.

Moore exhibited designs for a County seal, made by Viggo Jacobsen and Wichman. The former is a Diamond Head scene. The Wichman design which had Diamond Head without a surfing canoe, was adopted.

At an expense of $750, Honolulu will give the Taft party a reception, neat but not gaudy. Which will be most appreciated as though it cost $7,500.

Hawaii's County Attorney is rendering opinions in a manner that shows the public how even the dissenting minority can find law to support its case.

Judge Hardy of Kauai said in his charge to the Grand Jury the other day, "He is free who loves the law that governs him." That's all right, but does it apply to slaves and those whom it is sought to enslave by class legislation?

If the country-district resolution is put forward for or promotes politics, it is better laid on the shelf. If it promotes work and wipes out "make-believe" activities as is claimed by its sponsor, the sooner the measure is put through the better.

The Garden Island after noticing that the "Acting Governor inaugurates the new regime in Honolulu with a champagne jubilee" wants to know why he did not deputize some good and trusted servant to perform the same gracious act on Hawaii, Maui, and Kauai, particularly the latter island? Not being the official organ, The Bulletin has a hesitancy in explaining, but would suggest that the Secretary during his tours of the other islands may have gained the impression that the outsiders were prohibition towns and might feel insulted at the suggestion of anything but Civic Fed liquidation.

Hawaii has enjoyed having a visit from Congressman Hepburn and will be honored in having from him a good old fashioned Republican speech, especially as the morning paper made a terrible effort to put him on record as favoring Civic Fed movements for party destruction. It is not likely however that anyone can be more amused than Col. Hepburn himself at the comment of this morning's Advertiser on investigating commissions. The organ of prejudice and deceit whose destinies Truthful James now directs from the vantage point of librarian suggests that when investigating commissions come around respectable people stay at home. A member of the United States Congress doesn't have to be told that if such be the case, the "respectable" people must therefore be the ones most likely to require investigation.

SUGGESTION TO SUPERVISORS.

There were two incidents at the County Supervisors' meeting last night which attracted only passing attention at the time but caused more or less second thought.

The marked deference shown toward the complaint of a section of the Japanese press, and the regulation that all meetings of committees shall be public "unless otherwise designated" aroused more discussion among the people who elected the Supervisors than the resolution by Moore or the pound keeper's problem or the County seal.

A local Japanese paper has remarked that the notices of the Board of Supervisors should be published in the Japanese papers and in the Japanese language, the presumption being of course that this refers to the pay notices of the County. This request, utterly preposterous in the first place, was dignified and semi-officialized by being read before the Board of Supervisors. There is no more reason for the official publication of County notices in the Japanese language as contemplated by this demand than there is for the use of the Japanese language in the public schools in consequence of an attendance of Japanese children.

There is less good reason for semi-official recognition by the Supervisors of the request that they went out of their way to discover. The request was not formally presented to the Board. In any event it is to be presumed that if the Board of Supervisors is to take up its time reading editorials from the newspapers, the Japanese press is not to be given first place. Not unless the Supervisors feel that this Territory is soon to become in fact a Japanese owned as well as a Japanese populated Territory.

The language of this country is the English language and the Japanese newspapersmen of average wit not only know this but they know that the meetings of the Board of Supervisors are open to the public or at least are supposed to be by the citizens of the country. They also know that neither the Territory nor the County is in the business of checking the liberties—within the bounds of common decency—of the foreign residents of the islands.

Until the Japanese formally take possession of the Territory and the County, the citizens will undoubtedly support the idea that the Supervisors confine themselves to the plights of citizens, or if a cosmopolitan plan is desired, set aside a quiet hour of the Board session to reading the requests of whatever alien newspapers there may be in the Territory, whether the utterances of these alien papers are written at so much per by American writers or not.

After the kowtow to the Japanese gentlemen, the Board acted on regulations that are to control the committees. In these regulations is found the interesting item that the meetings are to be public "unless otherwise designated." Here we have the old star chamber proposition the first-rattle out of the Supervisory box.

We would respectfully suggest to these gentlemen that the County program was fought through on the basis of liberalizing conditions. They may not realize it, but it is so, and the people expect and intend to secure liberalization, not a harking back to the old methods that have been ripped out of Territorial life after much straight talk from the public.

Why all the jobs to which the lower life is heir can be put through under the peaceful phrase "unless otherwise designated." Present company is of course excepted, but the present Board of Supervisors is establishing precedents for future years. They know and every one else knows that publicity at all times and in all public matters which may come before the Supervisors of this and other Counties is the only safeguard against creating the opportunity to carry through corrupt programs. Any other contention or attempt at explanation is folly.

It is well that these incidents have arisen early in the Oahu County career in order that the Supervisors of all Counties may be brought to a realization of the fact that they are doing business for American citizens of an American Territory and none of that business is to be done behind closed doors which would shut out the honorable alien or even the thoughtless American who got an idea into his head that this is his country and the elected officers are representatives of the people.

OPINION ON SHERIFFS

Hilo, Hawaii, July 11.—In response to the demand of the Board of Supervisors made upon Sheriff Keolani to recommit all police officers during the month of July, he reported yesterday morning at 10 o'clock before the Board reiterating his refusal, supported by a written opinion of the County Attorney. The substance of the opinion is as follows:

Wm. M. Keolani, Esq., Sheriff of the County of Hawaii:
Dear Sir:—I hereby give you the following opinion in answer to the questions as given by you:

Question 1.—"Who appoints police officers (captains of police and clerks included) in and under the jurisdiction of the Sheriff of the County of Hawaii?"
In order to arrive at a proper conclusion and answer to the questions submitted, it is proper to examine the law and the status of the police prior to the going into effect of the County Law passed by the Legislature of 1905. Under the title of Sheriffs, the law reads as follows: "There shall be a Sheriff for the Island of Hawaii, . . . who shall have the exercise, the care, supervision and control of the police within their respective jurisdictions, subject, however, to the support or control of the High Sheriff and the Attorney General. Sec. 1358, R. L."

"The High Sheriff for and within the Island of Oahu, subject to the approval of the Attorney General, and the several Sheriffs for and within their respective jurisdictions, subject to the approval of the High Sheriff, may appoint such Deputy Sheriffs and other police officers as occasion may require, and may dismiss them in their discretion. . . . Sec. 1564, H. L.

By Act 39 of the Session Laws of 1905, entitled "An Act Creating Counties within the Territory of Hawaii and Providing for the Government Thereof," under Chap. 15, title, Sheriff, it provides: "Subject to the special provisions of this Act, the County Sheriff of each County shall have and exercise all the powers, privileges and authority, and be required to perform all the duties in his own jurisdiction, the same being the County in and for which he shall have been elected, as are now by law provided to be had, exercised and performed by the High Sheriff of the Territory or by the Sheriffs of the various Islands respectively. . . . 1905, Act 39, Section 67."

"All laws or parts of laws, so far as the same may be inconsistent with any provision of this Act, are hereby repealed." 1905, Act 39, Sec. 11.

By the above sections of the County Act, it specially provides that the County Sheriff shall have and exercise all the powers, privileges and authority as are now by law provided to be had, exercised and performed by the High Sheriff of the Territory of Hawaii, or by the Sheriffs of the various Islands respectively; and be required to perform all the duties in his own jurisdiction, the same being the County in and for which he shall have been elected; the only exception being the care, custody or control of any Territorial jail, etc., which still remains with the High Sheriff.

The Supreme Court of the Territory of Hawaii has held as far as officers other than the Attorney-General are concerned, we do not consider that the Act (meaning County Act) unduly encroaches upon their prescribed functions. Castle vs. Atkinson, 16 Haw. 769.

By combining the law as is contained in the foregoing sections, and eliminating the parts inconsistent with the County Act as provided in Section 112 thereof, I am of the opinion that the Sheriff of the County of Hawaii has the power of appointment formerly exercised by the Sheriff of the Island of Hawaii, and also has the power of approval exercised by the High Sheriff of the Territory, and do therefore hold that the Sheriff of the County of Hawaii has the sole and absolute power of appointment of police officers below the grade of Deputy Sheriffs.

In reference to the appointment of clerks, included in the foregoing question, the law is plain and clear under section 119 of the County Act, which is as follows: "A County Officer may, with the approval of the Board of Supervisors, employ such clerks and other assistants as may be necessary to aid him in the performance of the duties of his office, and may, without such approval, remove the same." Therefore to employ clerks it requires the approval of the Board of Supervisors.

Question 2.—"If such appointments are made by the Sheriff of the County of Hawaii does the law require that such appointments be approved by the Board of Supervisors to become valid?"
This question is answered by the answer to question 1, but in order that there will be no misunderstanding, I will say that it is my opinion that the appointment of police officers by the Sheriff of the County does not require the approval of the Board of Supervisors to make their appointments valid; but in the case of clerks the approval of the Board of Supervisors is necessary.

Question 3.—"Who are authorized by law to remove or dismiss police officers?"

DOCTOR ADVOCATED OPERATION—PE-RU-NA MADE KNIFE UNNECESSARY.

Mrs. Eva Bartho, 133 East 12th street, New York City, N. Y., writes:

"I suffered for three years with leucorrhea and ulceration of the womb. The doctor advocated an operation which I dreaded very much, and strongly objected to go under it. Now I am a changed woman. Peruna cured me; it took nine bottles, but I felt so much improved I kept taking it, as I dreaded an operation so much. I am today in perfect health and have not felt so well for fifteen years."—Mrs. Eva Bartho.

It is no longer a question as to whether Peruna can be relied on to cure all such cases. During the many years in which Peruna has been put to test in all forms and stages of acute and chronic catarrh no one year has put this remedy to greater test than the past year.

If all the women who are suffering with any form of female weakness would write to Dr. Hartman, Columbus, Ohio, and give him a complete description of their symptoms and the peculiarities of their troubles, he will immediately reply with complete directions for treatment, free of charge.

Address Dr. Hartman, President of The Hartman Sanitarium, Columbus, Ohio.

For special directions every one should read "The Ills of Life," a copy of which surrounds each bottle. Peruna is for sale by all chemists and druggists at one dollar per bottle, or six bottles for five dollars.

Those wishing direct correspondence with Dr. Hartman and can wait the necessary delay in receiving a reply, should address Dr. S. B. Hartman, Columbus, Ohio, U. S. A.

Benson, Smith & Co. will supply the retail drug trade in Honolulu.

The Statutes give this power and authority to the following:

The Sheriff of the County, by Section 1564 Revised Laws.

Any Judge of a Court of Record, by Section 1567, R. L.
I am unable to find any law or statute giving the power of removing or dismissing police officers to the Board of Supervisors; and had such been the intention of the Legislature, it would have been embodied in the County Act in clear and unmistakable language.

I have the honor to be,

Yours very respectfully,

CHARLES WILLIAMS,

County Attorney.

The Supervisors excused the Sheriff and proceeded to the consideration of his refusal, in connection with the County Attorney's opinion, in executive session. Action on the resolution was deferred until this morning, when the Board reconvenes.

Acting on the above opinion, Sheriff Keolani has issued new commissions to all police officers under his control, which he will submit to the Board of Supervisors for approval.—Tribune

RECORD SHOOTING

BY GUARDSMEN

WILL SOON BEGIN

On next Sunday or the Sunday following the crack shots of the National Guard, who are practicing for the national rifle competition at Seagirt, New Jersey, will have their first shooting competition for records. The team will leave for the mainland next month. As the United States pays all the traveling expenses of the team besides giving them Army pay, the competition among the Guardsmen is certain to become interesting, as the men are naturally eager to be chosen for the team.

The best shots of the National Guard have been practicing at the rifle butts for some time, but the first regular competition shoots are yet to come. There will probably be three of these held on successive Sundays. On the result of these competitions the selection of the members of the team will largely depend.

"We will keep a careful score of the records made by the men in these record competitions," said Colonel Jones in discussing the subject this morning. "We have, however, also been keeping tab of the work done during the practice which has been had so far. It does not necessarily follow that those making the highest scores will be selected for the team. There are many things which have to enter into consideration, as, for instance, the manner in which the shooting is done. Thus the man who makes a few very excellent shots and other low ones will not have as good a chance as the one who in all his shots makes a steady good average and who can be depended on more for a good average shot."

It is expected that these crack shots from the Hilo company of the National Guard will soon arrive to join in the shooting for records.

There will be a meeting of the Merchants' Association in the Young building at 3 p. m. today, when taxation will be discussed.

HILO ELKS NIGHT

Hilo, July 11.—The Hilo Armory was ablaze with light and color on the night of the Fourth of July, when the Elks presented the popular play of "Lend Me Five Shillings," followed by a ball under the joint auspices of the Elks and the Hilo Jockey Club. Every seat in the house was sold and many spectators were obliged to stand.

A mammoth stage had been erected at one end of the hall, with appropriate stage settings, which was set off by a purple and white curtain and the national colors. The performance, which was under the personal direction of Will Carleton Cook, was one of the most artistic productions ever seen by a Hilo audience. The cast of characters was well sustained throughout the play, and there was no hitch to mar the pleasure of the evening, despite the fact that only ten days had been spent in preparation of the comedy. Mrs. A. G. Curtis of Olan, as the dashing "Mrs. Major Phobbs," the widow, and Mr. Cook as "Mr. Gollightly," took the leading roles, which they rendered with a confidence and a finish seldom seen off the professional stage. Norman G. Campton, as the blustering "Captain Phobbs," was a surprise to those who were not before aware of his dramatic ability, and Miss Florence Scott, as his wife, was captivating in that modest role.—Tribune.

E. B. Browning.

"With Fremont The Pathfinder." By John H. Whitson. Illustrated. Cloth. 320 pages. W. A. Wilde Company, Boston. $1.20 net.

An interesting and well written story by the author of "A Courier of Empire," reviewed in these columns some weeks ago. Mr. Whitson who has been a citizen of the Western country he describes, calls his story "The Winning of the Empire of Gold," and it is full of pleasing description and stirring incidents.

The background is historical, of course, and the tale keeps about the central figure of the intrepid Fremont's strictly historical account of whose wonderful career as a forerunner into a country then almost a terra incognita, would make reading for any boy. The author's Indians are the real thing. His woods and hills belong to his tribes who get along well in them, and there is none of the artificiality which we so often find in stories dealing with comparatively unknown peoples.

The author says: "The story given in the following pages is history in the form of fiction. Not every event set down occurred just as stated, but the historical outline has been preserved."

"Nearly every character portrayed or mentioned, with the exception of Bruce Gordon and his blood relatives, had a real existence. The experienced reader will have little trouble in determining at what point history leaves off and fiction begins."

"Bible Study Popularized." By Frank T. Lee. Cloth, 8x5 1/2 in., 315 p.p. Winona Pub. Co., Chicago. $1.25 net.

A very interesting and helpful work. The author says: "One of the marked features of the unusual intellectual activity of recent years has been a fresh investigation of the Bible and of the various critical questions pertaining to it. One of the urgent needs of the time is a larger and more intelligent familiarity with the Bible."

This is true, and yet an "intelligent familiarity" will be acquired sooner, it would seem, by a reading of the book as we read other books rather than by taking it up systematically according to some artificial plan. However, such books as Mr. Lee's will help to give the reader an insight into the evolution of the beautiful writings called the Bible.

There has been so much downright foolishness in regard to the reading of Scripture that anything which suggests sensible perusal is worth considering, even, if to most readers, this book is a little over orthodox.

"The Craftsman." May. Single volumes, 25 cents; $3.00 a year. Gustav Stickley, Craftsman Building, Syracuse, N. Y.

A remarkably good number of a particularly valuable journal. Everything can investigate religion or religious scientifically until he accepts the faith of the creed he is about to look into, and refers to the scientist in his laboratory, as if the true scientist had any preconceptions whatever. A specialist like Mr. Moody and not a non-Christian scientist must be the one to decide upon the scientific value of Christian experience or the scrupulous efficacy of prayer.

So Dr. Johnston assures us. He forgets that if he is to apply the scientific method he advocates, he must apply them in a scientific way by a scientific mind, whether the subject be spiritual evidence, insanity, drunkenness or child-life.

Who would say that in order to get at the facts in each case, the investigators must be professors of religion (no matter how ignorant), the insane, drunkards or infants?

As if the simple minded man (out of the mouth of babes said thou or dained praise) who is rich in faith and experience, were fit to record and explain mere facts to be of any use to an intellectual unbeliever!

There is a chapter on prayer. The B. B. believes in prayer, and he earnestly prays that if any more books like this are published he will not be obliged to read them.

Number 9 of "Romans Cholets" is entitled "La Neuvalme de Colette." It was written by Jeanne Schultz.

These books in French issued by Wm. R. Jenkins, New York, at 60 cents paper, and 85 cents cloth, have already been referred to in our department. They are printed on good paper in clear type with introduction and notes by some competent editor.

"La Neuvalme" is an interesting story which first appeared in the "Revue des Deux Mondes" and gave the author a favorable introduction to the critical French public.

Besides the interest of the narrative there are several pleasing bits of philosophy like the following by Colette as she looks upon her pretty face in the mirror.

"Ceel dit sans faulxte ni outrecuidance, car je n'ai jamais compris la nuance qui permet de crier bien haut: Voila un beau cheval! Voila une rose admirable! et qui interdit severement la meme remarque sur un visage a la confection duquel on n'a pas pourtant pris plus de part, tout simplement parce qu'il est a vous."

"The Christian Register." $3.00 a year. The Christian Register Association, Boston. The issues for April 13 and 27th contain a large amount of excellent reading. "The Infinite Variety," "Resting Places," "A Spring Song" are helpful editorials. "Marti-neau's Religious Philosophy," by A. W. Jackson, "What Education Does For Convicts," by E. I. Farrington, a letter on Hampton Institute by Dr. E. E. Hale, are full of interest and information.

"The Black Cat." May. Short Story Pub. Co., Boston. 50 cents a year. "A Wife for the Pastor" ($150 prize), by Chapin Howard. "The Engineer and the Pilot," "The Closed Door," "I love's Immune" and "The Man Who Went Back" are stories in this number.

Poor little fellow! He coughs so hard he cannot sleep. That makes him weak and sickly all the next day. His brother thinks this coughing is terrible. So do we, for we know that just a few doses of

KILAUEA NEWS NOTES

(Special to The Bulletin)
Kilauea, Kaula, July 8.—L. B. Bor: ko and Crowell were both visitors at Hanalei on Sunday last. They returned that same evening very much pleased with their Hanalei trip. They were also visitors at Hanalei on the 4th of July, when they again have reported having had a beautiful time.

Dr. Moritz arrived here this week much to the comfort of all. He made a professional visit on Sunday to Hanalei.

E. Deverill, the Deputy Tax Assessor and Collector of Hanalei, made a business trip here on Saturday, the 8th. He returned to Hanalei the same day but not until evening.

It is stated that Mr. Boreiko, the bookkeeper is having quite a time with honey bees. It seems that two or three swarms of this sweet insect have taken possession of one of his spare rooms and with all Boreiko's endeavors to drive them out with smoke they still stay with the room in their keeping.

COUNTY SUPERVISORS.

A list of park keepers was received from the Public Works department. Paole presented an application for a man who wants the Aala park job. It was filed.

Treasurer Trent's appointment of M. G. K. Hopkins as clerk was confirmed. The County Attorney had an opinion with the Clerk regarding appropriation money by resolution. Such power was legal. The Board smiled at Dou-thitt's superfluous suggestion that all appropriations should be by a majority of the Board.

The Board accepted an invitation from Lorrin Andrews to attend tonight's address by Col. Hepburn at the Orpheum.

H. C. Adams of the Koolau-poko road boards wrote the Board, telling of requirements. When the Board's committees are named the communication will be referred to the appropriate committee.

L. T. Peck wrote the Board in reference to a strip of the land the S. N. Castle estate had given the Territory in Pahoa, which had not been marked off. The communication was referred to the Public Works Department.

Postmaster Pratt asked the Board to number houses in Puunui, for free delivery. Adams thought each man could put up his own number. Lucas was for system.

An article was read from the Hawaiian Shiplog suggesting that the doings of the Board affecting the Japanese should be printed in Japanese; notices were appearing in English and Hawaiian; the Japanese should not be forgotten. The Board acted by inviting the editor of the Shiplog to attend the meetings and take and print what he wanted.

Band for Taft.
Lucas asked that the band be allowed to figure in the Taft party reception. So ordered.

Lucas also put in a resolution to the effect that the band be lent to the Territory for public functions. The idea was considered most courteously appropriate. Carried.

Adams thought all work contemplated by road boards should be submitted to the Board. Carried. This will take effect next month.

When the Board adjourned it was settled that the next meeting occur on Tuesday, July 18.

CAPT. BRUCE CLEAR D

DISCHARGED FOR LACK OF EVIDENCE

CONNECTION BETWEEN SKIPPER AND JAP AGENTS' ALLEGED MISREPRESENTATION HELD IMPROVED.

The first of the "Stanley Dollar" cases, that of the Territory of Hawaii vs. J. C. Bruce, captain of the steamship, was heard by Police Justice Whitney yesterday afternoon. The case fell rather flat. After a vain attempt had been made by the prosecution to prove the charge of gross cheat against Captain Bruce for misrepresenting the destination of the vessel to a Japanese passenger, counsel for defense moved to discharge the prisoner on the grounds of insufficiency of evidence, and the motion was granted.

The proving of the charge of gross cheat hinged on the evidence of Kubota, a Japanese laborer, and the complaining witness who had taken passage on the vessel, and fearing that he would not be taken to Seattle as he wished, had left the next day. However, the prosecution did not show that the witness had been told by Capt. Bruce that he would be taken to Seattle. Kubota testified that he had asked Captain Bruce if his passage to Seattle would be guaranteed. The captain replied that it would not. The witness had been told by Kikutake that the vessel was going to Seattle.

Judge Whitney held that the evidence was insufficient to convict Captain Bruce of gross cheat, on the grounds that the captain had not personally misrepresented the facts to passengers, that Kikutake's connection with the Stanley Dollar Steamship Company had not been shown to be close enough so that he could be held a duly authorized agent of the company; and that his acts were not necessarily criminally binding on Capt. Bruce as master of the vessel. Therefore the court discharged the prisoner.

Stanley Dollar, in the complaint named as pursuer of the steamship, will have his case heard tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock. The summons for the various libel suits against the vessel by Japanese passengers are returnable on Friday. These suits amount to about $40,000. Even if the legal troubles of the vessel are cleared up, she will still be unable to carry passengers unless in the meantime some way to get a passenger license is found. Mr. Stanley Dollar and Captain Bruce are confident that the matter will be settled at Washington within a few days.

BIG LINER DAKOTA

San Francisco, June 20.—The steamship Dakota, the sister ship of the mammoth Minnesota and second largest vessel in the world, arrived in the harbor today from New York. The strains of passing ships screamed a welcome to the leviathan and as she passed up the bay the ends of the piers were thronged with observers. The big vessel was brought into the harbor by Captain Korts, the pilot, and when she was given pratique, Captain Tonson of the Shipowners and Merchants' Towboat Company went on the bridge.

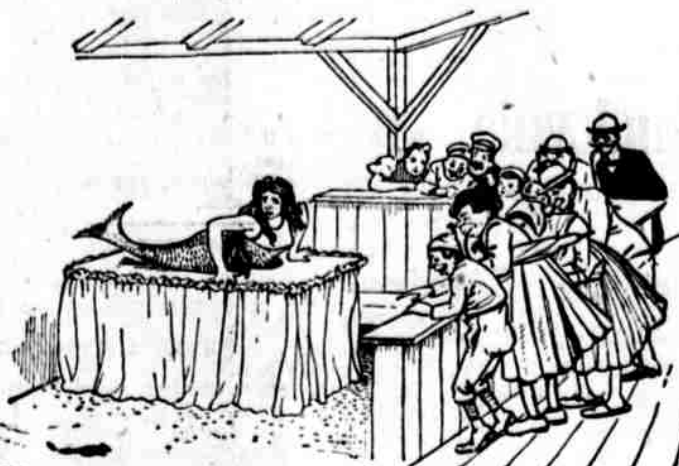

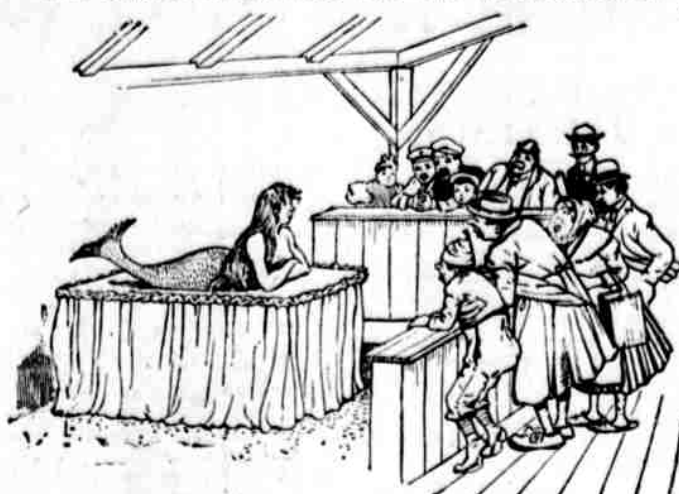

It was the beginning of the ebb and one can hardly imagine the difficulty to place this mammoth vessel alongside the wharf without doing some damage. It was, however, done without any mishap, and the skillful work of the towboat man elicited great comment.

The Dakota brought from New York 5,700 tons of cargo, consisting principally of steel. Of this cargo, 1,700 tons are consigned to this port and it is expected that it will be discharged by Thursday. On Friday afternoon the vessel will be thrown open to invited guests. The Dakota was to have brought 7,000 more tons of freight, but it is said that the pilots of New York would not take the steamer out of New York as they claimed that she drew too much water.

She was fifty-two days from New York, but from Coroner she came in the excellent time of seventeen days. At the Chilean port there was a delay of six days owing to the poor facilities for coaling. Off Cape Horn terrific southwest gales were encountered and they were of such violence that the big ship pitched and rolled considerably. Aside from this, weather on the passage was ordinary.

The Dakota is 21,000 gross tonnage and has a carrying capacity of 19,000 tons dead weight. She is 635 feet in length and 73.3 feet in breadth. She is second in size only to the White Star liner Baltic. Her engines are twin screw and triple expansion with 12,000 indicated horse power. On her trial trip she made 17.7 knots. Captain E. Franke was formerly chief officer of the Atlantic liner St. Louis. He was sixteen years in the service of the Red Star and American lines and his last visit to San Francisco was in 1883, when he came here as third mate of the German ship Helikon. Joseph E. Roberts, formerly of the transport McClellan, is chief officer; R. S. Paul, who was one time on the transport Sheridan, is chief engineer; Dr. W. H. Lopp, well known here when he was on the liner America Maru, is surgeon, and George W. Medley, late of the transport service out of New York, is chief steward. There are others in the engine and deck departments who were one time in the transport service.

GETTING BIG ONES OF THE BEEF TRUST

Chicago, Ill., June 30.—Big fish have been taken in the net of the Federal Grand Jury, which will return indictments tomorrow as a result of its long investigation of the packing industry. It is known that the names of the biggest figures in the packing world are up on true bills which the Grand Jury is expected to vote.

The work of the Grand Jury has been sweeping and the results will come as a national sensation. The highest officials of the largest packing firms in Chicago will be included in the indictments, which charge conspiracy in restraint of trade. It was learned that indictments have been drawn against the following persons: J. Ogden Armour, president; P. A. Valentine, treasurer; Arthur Meeker, general manager, and T. J. Connors, general superintendent of Armour & Co. Louis F. Swift, president; Edward F. Swift, vice-president; Lawrence A. Carton, treasurer; D. E. Hartwell, secretary; Alfred H. Veeder, general counsel, and Arthur F. Evans, special counsel of Swift & Co. Edward Morris, vice-president, and Ira Morris, secretary of Nelson Morris & Co. Ferdinand Sulzberger, president and treasurer, and Joseph Schwarzschild, vice-president of Schwarzschild & Sulzberger.

Of these men J. Ogden Armour is on his way to Europe and is expected to arrive in Chicago this week. Edward F. Swift, A. H. Veeder and Edward Morris are traveling abroad. Violation of the Sherman anti-trust law is punishable under the Federal statutes by a fine not exceeding $5,000 or imprisonment not exceeding one year or both at the discretion of the court. The men mentioned are only the most prominent of those against whom indictments have been drawn. The number named in the true bills is between twenty-five and thirty. The other charges preferred are attempting to secure a monopoly, perjury and subornation of perjury.

Rumors about the Grand Jury room have it that the body has completed its labors and indictments. It adjourned at noon until tomorrow morning at 9 o'clock and arranged to go for a trip on the lake this afternoon. The witnesses were heard in the early part of the morning's session.

WHY STANDARD OIL MONEY IS TAINTED

New York, June 17.—The Rev. Dr. Washington Gladden has written a spirited open letter in reply to the Rev. Robert MacArthur's public criticism of him because of his objection to churches receiving John D. Rockefeller's money.

Dr. Gladden first replies to Dr. MacArthur's charge that he never investigated Standard Oil methods, by showing that his suggestion for a full and free investigation was sidetracked. "I have never believed," Dr. Gladden adds, "that an ex parte investigation would be satisfactory and it seems, I confess, little less than absurd to expect that a few ministers of the gospel, after being coached for a few hours by Mr. Dodd and Mr. Rogers, would be able to express an opinion on the business methods of the Standard Oil Company, which ought to have weight with the public."

"Dr. MacArthur's article illustrates the futility of this method. Relying on the assurance of the authorities of the Standard Oil Company, he proceeds to distort the records of the courts and to set aside the most indubitable facts of history. In this he is misled, of course, but it may indicate that such guidance is untrustworthy."

Dr. Gladden says Dr. MacArthur is wrong in saying that "the charges against Mr. Rockefeller are based on groundless rumor and have all been disproved," and he cites Judge Baxter's famous decision.

Dr. Gladden cites proof that the railroad company not only charged competitors 25 cents a barrel more than they charged the Standard Oil Company for carrying oil, but that they actually gave each 25 cents collected to the Standard Oil Company.

TO FIGHT THEATRICAL TRUST.
New York, June 20.—The new rival of the theatrical trust has now been formed. It is announced that David Belasco, Lee Shubert and Harrison Grey Fiske have completed their plans for an alliance to fight the monopoly of theatrical bookings and attractions headed by Klaw & Erlanger, who include a majority of the New York managers, with practical control of the theaters of the United States.

BASEBALLS NEEDED

Acting Governor Atkinson during his recent visit to the settlement on Molokai found that the inmates take a very lively interest in athletics and have some flourishing athletic clubs, which, however, are hampered considerably by the lack of the necessary equipments. It is especially baseball outfits which are needed, and people who are interested in the welfare of the isolated ones at Kalanapapa would do a good turn towards brightening their lives by sending some balls and bats, etc., to the settlement.

AMERICANS ABROAD.

New York, June 25.—Eighty thousand persons have sailed abroad already this year, and from the present outlook last year's record of 104,000 will be eclipsed by at least 95,000 at the close of 1905.

According to present bookings by the steamship companies, the list will be swelled by 30,000 by the last of July. August and September are expected to be equally busy months, and it is conservatively estimated that the 200,000 mark will be reached.

By next season most of the steamship companies will have put on extra ships to cope with the business. The Cunard and Hamburg-American lines have already engaged additional vessels for the summer rush of 1906. Including second cabin and steerage not less than 600,000 will have left New York by the end of the present year.

SHERMAN TOOK HER MAN

The terrors of marriage proved too great for James P. Curran, late conductor on the Alakea street car-line, and he decided to evade both the law and the anxious relatives of his intended. Accordingly, disguising himself as a sailor, he boarded the transport Sherman. While the vessel was yet within sight of Hawaii, the marriage feast was spread and the bride-to-be stood ready and waiting, but the groom came not. And so there is wrath in one particular section of Punchbowl.

Curran used to be a private at Camp McKinley but for several months has worked for the Rapid Transit Company. Whether the nervous strain of watching uncertain women on crossings or helping babies on and off the car turned him against married life is not known. His fiancée is a young Portuguese girl—her name does not matter here—and Curran decided to get away. The marriage was set for last night. Two days ago Curran met friends among the soldiers on the Sherman and determined to set Hymen at naught. He borrowed a khaki uniform and succeeded in getting aboard the Sherman, preferring to be a military man again rather than marry the Portuguese maiden, who meanwhile had dressed herself in her finest and awaited her lover.

At least, this is the story told by Curran's Rapid Transit brethren. Also, it is certain that Curran has left Honolulu suddenly and without warning.

MAD COOK AT STATION

J. Senhouse, the insane cook who was brought to this port on the ship Carradale yesterday, is now detained in the local police station by order of the British Consul. He will be examined for insanity this afternoon.

Senhouse is now very quiet and orderly, and talks intelligently of his experiences on the vessel. He says he drank a good deal while on shore at Melbourne and Newcastle. After the long voyage here began he grew very tired of the sailing vessel and the life was monotonous. He says he was well treated and had the ordinary ship's fare.

Mr. Clinton J. Hutchins, General Agent Hawaiian Islands for the Pacific Mutual Life Insurance Company, City.

Dear Sir:—I desire to express to you my appreciation of the prompt and businesslike manner in which you have attended to the payment of the claim against the Pacific Mutual Life Insurance Company of California for $5,000 on the life of William Kamana, deceased.

I presented this claim to you on the first day of this month, and have today, sixteen days after the presentation of the claim, received from you a check for the sum of $5,455, being the amount in full of the Policy, $5,000, and $455, increased insurance. This is remarkably quick time for the settlement of the Policy and I desire to thank you and your Company for the way in which you have expedited the payment of this claim.
