TO THE SOUTH SEAS

PAIR OF ENGLISHMEN LOOKING FOR THINGS NOT ORDINARY.

Propose to Outfit a Schooner Here—Tahiti a Point—Came Direct to Hawaii—Making an Extended Tour.

Two wealthy Englishmen came to Honolulu on the Warrimoo last Saturday and since then have been making the Arlington their headquarters. They are Mr. William E. Cochrane, a nephew of Admiral Cochrane, of the British navy, and Mr. A. E. Cross.

Both gentlemen came from Calgary, England, where they have been quite extensively engaged in the cattle business. A few weeks ago they decided to sell out their business, which they did at a handsome figure. They were both of the same disposition and their inclinations ran along the same lines. Both wanted to go to the South Seas in search of the original aboriginals and strange sights.

Messrs. Cochrane and Cross are now in Hawaii on that mission. They came direct from England by way of Canada. Their plan is to outfit a schooner here, if possible, and to journey on to Samoa, Fiji, Tahiti and the other islands in the South seas in quest of adventure.

It is stated they will endeavor to lease or purchase the schooner Norma, belonging to W. E. Rowell, Superintendent of Public Works. If unsuccessful in securing the proper equipment in Honolulu, the Britishers will go to New Zealand on the Oceanic line. Here they will use one of the steamers belonging to the Union steamer line and will head for Tahiti the first thing.

Messrs. Cochrane and Cross are very interesting gentlemen. They are fond of adventures and have had a longing for the present trip for a number of years. After spending ten months or a year in the South seas they will return to England to again embark in business.

They left last evening on the W. G. Hall on a two weeks' visit to Kauai and other islands in the group. They are exceedingly well pleased with Honolulu and Oahu.

FOR CHRISTMAS.

The Central Meat Market has on hand for Christmas fresh venison, fat turkeys, geese, ducks and chickens, small roasting pigs. Telephone 104.

HALF AND HALF.

The Royal, Pacific and Cosmopolitan saloons are now serving half and half for their customers. Two glasses are sold for a quarter. They still supply Pabst and Buffalo beers at the same price.

A Modern Typewriter.

Now-a-days we demand modern things. Our great-grandfathers used quill pens. They were the best writing implements then. Few writers use them now. They are out-of-date.

To-day a Typewriter is the most important adjunct in an office equipment. There is no question about it. They save time, do the work of several people.

The Peerless Typewriter stands out prominently as a modern, up-to-date machine. It combines all the good points of any machine on the market, while it has none of the defects found in other makes.

IS RUN DOWN AT LAST THAT CENSUS CASE UP IN A HANGING GARDEN MR. PLIMSOLL WILL WIN

A MOONSHINER WHO HAS BEEN OPERATING QUIETLY.

In the Shades of Palolo—Descent Made by the Marshal—Sentenced—The Wholesale Burglars Appear.

For some time past the police authorities have been on the lookout for a moonshiner who was engaged extensively in the manufacture of okolehao. This individual has disregarded all liquor trusts and combinations and has gone on distilling the roots of the ti plant in his own quiet way.

Detective Kaapa and his men have instituted a careful watch for the violator of the law but without avail. Late yesterday afternoon news reached the police station of the whereabouts of the man and last evening Marshal Brown, accompanied by two officers, rode to the place and captured the moonshiner with very little difficulty.

In the Police Court this morning the man gave his name as Pipilani. His distillery is located in Palolo, near where Sam Nowlein and his followers resisted the Republic in 1895. Pipilani's entire outfit was displayed in court this morning. Judge Wilcox sentenced the man to three months' imprisonment on the reef and to pay a fine of $100.

Kane, the notorious burglar, who, with Kaili, has entered many residences and down town stores since his release from the penitentiary, started in to defend his reputation in the Police Court this morning. But when Judge Wilcox informed him that he knew him quite well during his residence on Kauai, Kane broke down and gave in. Kaulukou was his attorney. Judge Wilcox sentenced the prisoner to a six months' term for the theft of some money and three months' imprisonment for the larceny of a razor from a Chinese barber.

Kaili, his partner, was released, he having turned state's evidence. He was immediately rearrested on a warrant sworn out by a Japanese who insists that Kaili wears a suit of clothes belonging to him.

ONE CLAIM.

The Bishop of Honolulu's Valuation of Land for Street Use.

Claims for damages for the widening of Fort street from Hotel to Beretania are being filed today with District Magistrate W. L. Wilcox, and by him will be transmitted to the Minister of Interior tomorrow. The only one thus far opened is from Bishop Gulstan, in behalf of the Catholic church. It names $7.00 as the damage to buildings by the proposed street improvements, and $4,843.75 as the damage to the church lot. The land figures are on the basis of $1.25 per square foot. It is understood that figures on property farther down will be far in excess of these.

MOVING LUMBER.

Allen & Robinson have secured from the Government the vacant lots next to T. H. Davies & Co.'s warehouse on Kekuanaoa street, and are removing their lumber pile from Fort and Allen to it.

RIDING SCHOOL.

Walker's bicycle riding school at Independence Park has been opened again. F. W. Davis, an experienced rider, is in charge. Mr. Walker states that unless the school is sufficiently patronized he will be compelled to shut it down.

INCORPORATION.

Manager B. F. Dillingham of the Oahu railroad states that the preliminary work necessary for the incorporation of the new Oahu Sugar Company is being pushed as rapidly as possible. "We hope to have the company incorporated before the first of the year," said Mr. Dillingham this morning.

CHRISTMAS EXERCISES.

The Christmas exercises of the Chinese Sabbath schools will be held at the Chinese church on Fort street on Christmas Eve, beginning at 6:30 o'clock. An interesting program of carols and recitations has been arranged for the occasion. All friends are cordially invited to be present.

JOHN D. PARIS' ATTORNEYS MAKE STRONG ARGUMENT.

Attorney General Smith for the Republic—Claims Put Forth—Propriety of the Questions Asked.

Rather exhaustive arguments were made by the attorneys in the case of the Republic against J. D. Paris of South Kona, before the Supreme Court this morning. Mr. Paris was arrested this year at the instance of the Government authorities, charged with violating the census laws. He was brought before the District Court of South Kona for trial and fined $25 and costs. Mr. Paris appealed his case to the highest tribunal in the land.

Attorney General Smith represented the Government this morning. He contended that the questions contained in the census blank and which Mr. Paris refused to answer were reasonable and proper.

Thurston & Stanley appeared for Mr. Paris. The most important contention of the defense was that under Chapter 79 of the Penal Code and section 7 of chapter 17 of the laws of 1878, all there is called for is a census of the inhabitants of the kingdom as specifically calling forth the number of inhabitants, number of each sex, and such other particulars as the Board of Education may direct and the showing of the increase or the decrease of the population.

Paris is charged with violating this statute, so the attorneys claimed, in refusing to answer certain questions contained in the census blank which related to his property. The defense insisted that he had a perfect right to do so as any man had a perfect right to withhold that information. Another contention was that when it says such other particulars as the Board of Education may direct it means particularly as to nationality or religion, or whether a man is able to read or write. There is nothing in the statutes which authorizes for the calling forth of the information as to man's property, the number of horses, cattle, sheep or swine that he may have. The attorneys insisted that this was invading the province of the tax assessor.

The defense argued that there had been no showing made that the Board of Education had asked that such particulars be obtained; that it appeared that the census superintendent had taken it upon himself to seek this information. It was also asserted that the census agent who brought around the paper containing the blank was not the proper agent, he having failed to take the oath of allegiance to the present Republic.

The case was taken under advisement by the Court.

The case of V. V. Ashford against H. F. Poor is now being argued. A. S. Hartwell for the plaintiff; E. P. Dol for the Government; A. Rosa for Poor. Attorney Ballou is serving as substitute judge in place of Justice Whitin, disqualified.

CONCERT TONIGHT.

The last open air concert before Christmas will be given this evening at W. W. Dimond's store on King street. The Quintette Club will play from the balcony. Several new selections will be introduced. Mr. Dimond will offer special bargains on his goods this evening.

NOW IN THE NAVY.

"Billy" Keough, late of the Government band and U. M. C. A. orchestra here, has enlisted in the United States navy. He will pass through Honolulu at an early date aboard a Pacific Mail liner. Keough has been assigned to the flagship band on the Asiatic station.

LATEST BRITISH GUNS.

Some of Great Britain's latest guns will be employed for the first time during the autumn campaign in the Sudan. They carry a highly explosive shell ten miles, and each shell is capable of disabling 200 of the enemy. These guns have such a rapid-fire capacity that before the first shell bursts three others are on their way in the same direction.

Camarinos' has Refrigerated Turkeys and Chickens, California Ducks and Quails, Japanese Pheasants and Woodcocks, Eastern and California Oysters in this and Eastern Shell Oysters, Fresh Salmon, Flounders, Crabs, Mandarins, Eastern and California Apples, Mandarin Oranges, Best Australian and California roll and tub Butter for Xmas. California Fruit Market, Cor. King and Alakea streets.

THE CHRISTIAN CHURCH SABBATH SCHOOL CELEBRATION.

A Novel Substitute for a Tree—Presenters Selected and Placed—Tonight—An Elaborate Program.

Tonight the Sunday school children of the Christian church will have their Christmas festivities. The church has been beautifully trimmed with flowers and green for the occasion and an excellent program has been arranged. There will be no Santa Claus or Christmas tree. These established features of the celebration will be substituted in a most unique way. Santa Claus will be all but present. The reception will go on just as though he had arrived. Instead of the tree will be a hanging garden.

This garden is situated over the altar, extending the entire width and length of the rostrum. There is a canopy of cocoanut leaves from which hang numerous branches of the Pine tree. On these branches are appended the presents and candles for the children.

The committee chosen to buy the Christmas gifts did excellent work. They selected dolls for the little girls, knives and games for the boys, books for the older scholars as well as useful articles for wear.

Mr. W. C. Weedon, the superintendent of the Sunday school will preside over the exercises this evening. The entertainment will begin at 7 o'clock promptly.

THE AMERICAN MINISTER.

Minister Willis is in a precarious condition this afternoon. He is weaker than yesterday. His physicians are with him constantly, and while they regard his condition as most serious, they hope he may yet rally.

USED NO MOLASSES.

(New York Sun.)
Sir Joseph Lister's idea that the harmonious feeling now existing between Great Britain and the United States is "largely due to Mr. Bayard's beneficent efforts" was a very pretty sentiment for a royal society dinner, but it does an injustice to Mr. Olney, who uses no molasses in bringing about that harmonious feeling.

A FIGHT AFFAIR.

T. A. Lloyd, Jr., collector for the Hawaiian Electric Co., has sworn to a warrant charging Prince Cupid Kahu with assault and battery. Complainant says he called upon accused this morning at Honouliuli and presented a bill for lighting the Maternity Home, for which the latter is acting agent. Without warning the Prince is accused of dealing the collector a blow in the back and several in the face. The case will come on in the District Court tomorrow.

A PARTY.

A very pleasant dancing party was given at the home of Mrs. S. G. Wheeler last evening in honor of Mrs. Noonan and Mr. Charles J. Falk. About twenty-five couples were present.

SPECIALS IN HANDKERCHIEFS.

Children's fancy handkerchiefs at 20 cents a dozen; ladies' white hemmed stitch handkerchiefs for 25 cts a dozen; ladies' white embroidered handkerchiefs, scalloped borders for $1.25 a dozen at N. S. Fuchs.

ONE WHO KNOWS HIM WRITES OF THE FAMOUS CRUSADER.

How He Once Met and Vanquished Opposition—Assisted by His Wife—New Task a Great One.

Star Newspaper: I have to take exceptions to some of the conclusions presented in your editorial of yesterday headed "Another Crusade," about Mr. Plimsoll and his new work. You say: "There are many men able and more experienced in this line of fighting than Mr. Plimsoll, who know they are facing a game they cannot hope to overcome." I am willing to admit that Mr. Plimsoll has set himself a very hard task, but that he will not win I cannot believe. When, twenty years ago, he undertook that great work which has made his name famous the world over among sea-faring men, it was said he would have but his labor for his pains. He met with opposition not only from the men against whom he was directing his crusade, but was caricatured in comic journals, ridiculed by influential newspapers, and in song. Still, he never wavered. In fact, when opposition was greatest, he fought the harder. In his work he was aided by Mrs. Plimsoll, and both spent their own money freely in the cause they heartily championed. How the cause was won at last is now history never to be forgotten, and to this day the mention of his name will send a thrill of joy through the veins of every British sailor. And it must be remembered that Mr. Plimsoll undertook his work, not because he was ambitious for fame, but because he felt it a duty he owed to mankind—not for the glory that was in it for him, but for the great good to be accomplished.

That Mr. Plimsoll will win in this, his new crusade, I feel as positive as I am pleased to write in his defense. I know the man, for I heard him speak; I well remember the opposition he encountered in his fight for the sailors. I know of his energy, his courage and his earnestness. No better man could be found in Great Britain than he to lead a fight against the trusts and that he will win is the prediction of yours obediently.

BEAUTIFUL PICTURE.

Rev. D. P. Birnie received a very neat Christmas memento made by J. J. Williams. It is an eight-by-twelve double photograph by a new process, giving a bird's-eye view of Central Union church and the vicinity, with beautiful cloud effect out of which appears the face of Mr. Birnie's little child in three positions. It is a night scene with a moon in one corner shedding its light upon the clouds and the city below.

CALIFORNIA FIG SYRUP CO.

Having met with the highest success in the manufacture and sale of the excellent liquid laxative remedy, Syrup of Figs, it has become important to all to have knowledge of the Company and its products. The great value of the remedy as a medicinal agent, and of the Company's efforts, is attested by the sale of millions of bottles annually and by the high approval of most eminent physicians.

The California Fig Syrup Co. was organized more than twelve years ago, for the special purpose of manufacturing and selling a laxative remedy, which would be more pleasant to the taste and more beneficial in its effects than any other known. In the process of manufacturing, figs are used, as they are pleasant to the taste, and healthful in their tendencies, but the medicinal properties of the remedy are obtained from an excellent combination of plants known to be medicinal laxative, and to act most beneficially.

If in the enjoyment of good health, and the system is regular, then laxative or other remedies are not needed. If afflicted with any actual disease one may be commended to the most skillful physicians, but if in need of a laxative, then one should have the best and with the well-informed everywhere, Syrup of Figs stands highest and is most largely used and gives most general satisfaction.

FIRST CARGO NEW YORK SUGAR TO GO HENCE TOMORROW.

Ceylon on the Railway—Getting the Mauna Loa Ready for Service—Discharging Coal—Trip of Likelike.

The Lohua will get away tomorrow afternoon for Hawaii.

The bark Ceylon went on the Marine railway yesterday noon for a cleaning.

When the Likelike returns from Hawaii ports she will likely be laid up for a week.

The W. G. Irwin has finished discharging. After being brushed out she will begin taking sugar.

Capt. Nye, late of the Likelike, is still quite a sick man. He is suffering from recent paralytic strokes.

The bark Snowdon came in from the stream yesterday afternoon and is loading round-the-horn sugar at the Oceanic wharf.

The W. G. Hall and Claudine got away on their respective routes Tuesday afternoon, both with every foot of space occupied.

The Oakbank has finished loading and will leave tomorrow for New York. She has a total of 2,617 tons, numbers two and three, for New York.

The Likelike will sail this afternoon for Olowalu, Panahau and Kukaiau. She will call at Lanipohohoe for a passenger and will bring back fifty head of cattle.

The Norwegian bark Ardgowan moved in to New wharf yesterday afternoon and began discharging her coal this morning. She, as well as the British bark Woolthra, will proceed from here to the Sound for orders.

The Mauna Loa moved along the L. I. S. N. wharf today. Carpenters have been at work upon her ever since she arrived, making slight alterations here and there. Special strength has been given the deck around the hatches.

PRESENTS FOR WOMEN.

Japanese blue and white salt cellars, pepper holders and trays. Four Japanese blue and white afternoon teacups and saucers. Parchment whisk-broom holders, decorated in brownie figures.

Three Japanese blue and white oatmeal bowls with saucers to match.

Cut-glass olive tray, rose bowl, small chrysanthemum vase or flower holder. Tray, candlestick, ring-holder, glove box or powder box of polished red cedar.

THE MODERN MOTHER Has found that her little ones are improved more by the pleasant laxative, Syrup of Figs, when in need of the laxative effect of a gentle remedy than by any other, and that it is more acceptable to them. Children enjoy it and it benefits them. The true remedy, Syrup of Figs, is manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co. only.

Accommodating to Patrons

You can get Buffalo or Pabst beer at the Cosmopolitan, Pacific or Royal saloons. Exchangeable checks good at all the above-mentioned resorts are given in change if you only want one drink. "Best beer ever in Honolulu," is the verdict of many of our prominent citizens.

PREFERRED THE REEF.

The man Hickey of the bark Oakbank who was given three months' yesterday for stealing a bicycle belonging to W. W. Chamberlain, is said to have committed the crime to get to stay in the country, not wishing to make the long voyage to New York. He will be in the jug nearly as long as he would have been rounding the Horn.

After hearing some friends continually praising Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, Curtis Fleck, of Anaheim, California, purchased a bottle of it for his own use and is now as enthusiastic over its wonderful work as anyone can be. For sale by all druggists and dealers. Benson, Smith & Co., wholesale agents for H. I.

AN AMERICAN VIEW HERE

A BOLD GRASPING OF THE AN-NEXATION PROPOSITION.

"Traditional Policy of the United States"—A Chance to Vindicate It—Discussion of Presidents.

(Seattle Post-Intelligencer.)

Some of the opponents of annexation of the Hawaiian Islands are putting forth arguments designed to defeat the consummation of the project.
A sample of these arguments is found in the following extract from an editorial
in the Omaha Bee on the subject:

"Annexation of the islands would be a departure from the traditional policy of this country that no conservative citizen, respecting the policy of the past, can contemplate without apprehension. Hawaii is remote territory. It is more than 2000 miles distant from our western boundary. Its possession would require a large annual outlay for military and naval protection, most, if not all of which would come out of the pockets of American taxpayers. But the great objection to the proposition of annexation is that it would inaugurate a policy of territorial acquisition, which might become a source of serious trouble, for once having embarked on such a course, it is impossible to say where it would halt. Domination of the continent for territorial extension
would be a dangerous thing."

How familiar these arguments sound to a student of political history. Precisely the same arguments, in almost identical the same language, were put forward against the Louisiana purchase, the annexation of Texas, the conquest of California, the acquisition of Oregon and the purchase of Alaska.

In reading over the speeches on the "Oregon question" there is met the very able and learned argument of a distinguished senator from one of the Southern states, who, after putting forth various arguments as to the usefulness of the territory, the impossibility of defending it, and its distance from all settled parts of the United States, went on to demonstrate mathematically that if the territory should ever become a state it would take an active, able-bodied senator precisely one-half of the year to make his way from home to the seat of government and the other half of the year to return home. This was considered a final argument against recognizing Oregon as a portion of the territory of the United States. Fortunately,
"the traditional policy of the United States" was sufficiently observed to save the territory to this country.

Had the class of arguments now used against the annexation of Hawaii prevailed with the founders of this government and their immediate successors, the United States would have consisted today, if in existence
at all, of thirteen states on the Atlantic seaboard, with the best and potentially the richest portion of the American continent in the possession of Great Britain, France and Spain.
The Gulf of Mexico would have been a foreign waterway; the Pacific states
foreign colonies; and the interior
states parcelled out among different European nations, and the scene of incessant hostilities whenever a European war was in progress.

As to the question of distance; distances are merely relative. In time, Hawaii is closer to San Francisco than Tennessee was to Washington at the time Andrew Jackson left that state on his way to the national capital to be inaugurated. As to being islands, the United States already owns islands further distant from the cities of the seaboard than are those of the Hawaii group, and the United States has spent more money in protecting one corporation in its monopoly of the sea usnery on those islands than would suffice to fortify and garrison
the Hawaiian islands and secure them against foreign attack; and has incurred as many foreign complications
in connection with those seal islands as would be likely to follow upon the accession of Hawaii. The seal islands are barren rocks, with a population consisting of a handful of Aleuts. The Hawaiian Islands cover territory as great as the state of Connecticut, with a varied wealth of products, and a trade with this country amounting to $20,000,000 annually. The bulk of the white population are American citizens, who have carried their attachment to our institutions with them to their present home.

Hawaii is infinitely nearer than was Oregon when it was considered a point of such great national importance that the United States should acquire that territory that this country was prepared to enter upon a war with Great Britain before our rights to Oregon should be relinquished. Hawaii has more American citizens resident among its population than had the whole scope of American territory acquired since the Revolution at the time
of its acquisition.

It may be that the United States will decide not to annex Hawaii, but that resolution ought to be based on

on arguments more substantial than those which have done duty for three successive generations, only to be refuted by the logic of subsequent events.

bind himself to accept the lowest or any bid.

WILLIAM O. SMITH,
Minister of Foreign Affairs ad interim,
Foreign Office, December 22nd, 1896.

Department of Finance,

Honolulu, H. I., December 15th, 1896.

Under Article 35, Section I of the Constitution, it is required that each member of the Cabinet shall make an annual report of transactions within his department, during the year ending December 31st.

The Minister of Finance takes this occasion to request all those having claims against the Government of a monetary nature, to present them to this office, through the proper Departments, not later than 12 o'clock noon on Thursday, January 14th, 1897, after which date the books of this Department will be closed.

All persons having moneys on account of the Government are requested to make their returns promptly, in order that there may be no delay in closing the accounts for the year ending December 31st, 1896.

WEDNESDAY, DECEMBER 23, 1906.

The Annexation Club rolls will not be closed for the holidays.

The Central Union Sunday school managers might patent the electric lighted Christmas tree.

Palama chapel was little less than an inspiration. A grand work is being done in that little building.

It is reasonable to expect that Minister Coope's personal report will send Annexation hopes up to the limit of the thermometer.

The size of the Cuban '96-7 sugar crop now in prospect, would about serve as a sample for the Hawaiian campaign output certainly.

Any number of the conservative business men of the community are willing to go on record as predicting that '97 will be a better business year here than has been prosperous '96.

Plimsoll, as The Star remarked, has admiring friends all over the world. Even in isolated Hawaii is found one who ardently expresses limitless faith in the celebrated humanitarian.

Tesla, the great electrical expert feels bound to tell promptly even the crudest truth. He declares there is not the remotest probability of the X ray restoring sight to the blind.

It would require a new wharf and several hundred miles of roads and many other public improvements to fill Hilo's Christmas stocking. The proper Santa Claus will do the best he can.

IN GOOD FAITH.

The Annexation host of Hawaii finds itself in excellent trim after four years of existence, including exciting struggles, discouraging happenings, gravest threats and uphill fighting all the way. There is good faith in a cause that is able to make this showing. There is good faith in the breasts of the men committed to and supporting the grand political idea conceived here many years ago and in the first month of 1893 launched as a possible, practicable plan. The cohesion indicates the utmost earnestness, the fullest confidence and the tenacity and determination that are brought to worthy contests only. Never for a single moment since the Provisional Government was set up as a stepping stone, has the needle, subject to the best thought and best intent here, pointed other than exactly true. There has been no faltering even in the very darkest days of intrigue and the peril of the trying hours when great and irresistible force was all but used. For many, many months—indeed to but a comparatively short period since—there were floating innuendoes that a powerful cabal lived and flourished that was not true to the proclaimed principle of annexation. That charge has now been dissipated, lived down, shelved with other falsity and slander. From the initiative there has not been lost to the cause of the salvation of the land the adherence of an individual who at any time had the confidence of the faithful band. No other political movement, of even a more trying character, can parallel this record. The cherished ideas become more firmly imbedded and the support more and more staunch and settled. These facts and others portending a final grand success for the cause of Annexation disarm and puzzle and confuse the opposition. The latest cry they have raised and the only one they have raised lately is for a commission to come to Hawaii from Washington to "investigate." This is a matter which the Republic and the party behind it is entirely willing to leave, with other affairs, in the hands of Congress.

GREATER THAN A MONARCH.

A recent dispatch from Cairo says that Lord Cromer, British agent there, has informed the Egyptian Government that he is authorized to state that in the event of that Government deciding to repay to the cause of the Egyptian debt $2,500,000, advanced to meet the expenses of the Anglo-Egyptian expedition to Dongola, Great Britain is prepared to advance such sum as the Egyptian treasury is unable to provide for that purpose.

The keenest, best balanced and most observant travelers returned from Egypt in speaking of any feature of that very interesting land invariably drop into mention of one comment upon Lord Cromer. He is a marvelous figure indeed—a masterful man. The truth is that Cromer, for the British, governs Egypt. And he rules it in a cool, calculating, merciless and drastic manner. It is scarcely too much to assert that in the history of the land of the Nile he will occupy a niche close to the Paroahs, Napoleon and the naval heroes. He wills to keep himself rather in the background, but once his atmosphere is reached, his power and genius are appreciated to the fullest extent. Cromer is a man well advanced in years, but the balmy climate has made slight inroad upon his stock of mental and physical vigor. He is a hard worker and with so quick a grasp that nothing escapes him. How he loves to use the iron hand, and with what beautiful and certain effectiveness does he apply that assured weapon of success—well directed force. Cromer is gospel at home—so he is law at his work. The French he plays with and jumbles and turns aside as he likes. And what children in his hands are the Khedives and Pashas and patriarchs and prophets and chiefs. When one of these chaps offends, even by the slightest token, he is forced to account on his knees to Cromer. Every wall catches whispers and carries them to Cromer. In his person Great Britain is in Egypt to stay and to acquire. She has already conquered.

GERMANY'S NAVY.

Emperor William, speaking recently of Admiral Von Hollman, secretary of the navy, is reported to have said:

"The question of bringing the German navy to the point of being really formidable, not only for defense, but for aggression, is one of life or death of the nation, inasmuch as it involves the standing of Germany as much as the state army does, and whoever loves the fatherland will help me to bring this about, as the German navy is at present wholly inadequate for its mission in the future."

This is an appeal which the patriotism of Germany can scarcely resist. Certainly no other electorate of a nation could withstand such a representation from a ruler of the same relative position. The Emperor has the handicap of seemingly when he is not asking for more army it is for greater navy. His land force policy all but met a Waterloo. Now he has better and stronger argument. Germany's commensurate is going ahead by leaps and bounds and cruisers armored and armed must be the companions or guardians of merchantmen. The legislative system over there is that when a measure from the throne is voted down the Emperor may dissolve the Reichstag and go to the voters for endorsement. He threatens to do this if his ideas on navy fail of support. One marked feature of the discussion has been the savage frankness of several leading critics of the navy. They have ridiculed that arm and stamped it under feet much as Wolseley has had his flings at the British navy. However, with Germany there have been sturdy defenders of both the ruler and the navy. Much of the time to the landsman or layman, squadrons—groups of floating fortresses—appear rather luxurious and ornamental. However, there can be no dissent from Capt. Mahan's view that no country can expand or become really reachful and great without an ample navy. The German Emperor is a determined man, and, as in this instance, he has the merit on his side of the contention, he should prevail with his opinions without a protracted or disturbing struggle.

Don't be persuaded into buying liniments without reputation or merit—Chamberlain's Pain Balm costs no more, and its merits have been proven by a test of many years. Such letters as the following, from L. G. Bagley, Hueneue, Cal., are constantly being received: "The best remedy for pain I have ever used is Chamberlain's Pain Balm, and I say so after having used it in my family for several years." It cures rheumatism, lame back, sprains and swellings. For sale by all druggists and dealers. Benson, Smith & Co., wholesale agents for H. I.

Timely Topics.

DECEMBER 23, 1906.

ENLIGHTENMENT ON LIGHT TOPICS.

Since we have used the daily papers of Honolulu as a medium for talking up our goods we have used the phrase "Timely Topics." But to-day it is doubled and deals with "Light Topics" as well. Day before yesterday was the shortest day of the year, and it will be a month or more before there will be any perceptible change; consequently, we are not overdoing the matter in speaking of light—artificial light. The B & H Lamps (Bradley & Hubbard Manufacturing Co.) have no equal—are the best lamps in every respect. The perfect construction and superior finish of these goods commend them to a purchaser. Buy only the goods that have a world wide reputation—goods that you can rely upon.

By the brig W. G. Irwin we received and are placing in our salesrooms the B & H Lamps in Banquet, Boudoir, Piano, Hanging, and Hall patterns; besides the ever handy Night Lamp. Some of these are designed in wrought iron and others in brass filigree work.

The R. E. Dietz Company received highest awards at the Cincinnati Exposition, World's Fair New Orleans, American Institute Fair, and the New Jersey State Fair; consequently their make of Tubular Driving Lamps and Street Lamps, which burn four hours at a cost of one cent for kerosene oil, and the Handlight, or Garden Lamp with R-flector, must be the best.

We have a great many other things in our salesrooms that are equally as useful and of good quality.

Figs and Candied Fruits.

Smyrna figs this year are of finer flavor than we have yet had them. Our stock is larger, in order that holiday customers may be supplied. Sicily dates are also exceptionally good and palatable.

If you have never succeeded in getting candied peel to suit your taste you may break the monotony by sending us a trial order. The present stock is worth recommending. And another thing! Ripe California olives in pickle. These are very uncommon but with a delicious flavor. We sell there in any quantity desired. They have a different flavor from the ordinary Queen olive because they are pickled when they are ripe and then put in pickle.

W.W. DIMOND'S

Delays are not always dangerous, old sayings to the contrary notwithstanding. If the Alameda had not been delayed in San Francisco the last trip, we would have been without our enlarged stock of Sterling silver ware and our customers would have had to limit their purchases.

But now we have the goods, and they are ready for your inspection, ready to be sent home to you. This last invoice is from the celebrated Whiting Silver Company, and the prices are so low that it is cheaper in the long run than pewter. The assortment comprises everything from an ordinary butter pick to a food pusher. We mention the latter as though it was a common every day affair, but it's not—it's rare.

If you are interested read this partial list and remember that the material of which the cases are made is the finest.

Sardine Servers, silk case, $4.05; Child's Set, knife, fork and spoon in handsome case, $6.60; Pie Knives in case, $10.20; Cake Knives in silk case, $11.00; Butter Knives in kid case, $4.75; Pickle Forks, silk case, $3.75; Sugar spoon, silk case, $3.50; Sugar Tongs, silk case, $6.40; Bon Bon Tongs, kid case $4.20; Napkin Rings, from $1.15 to $4.20; Brandy Flasks, Fruit Knives, Tea, Dessert, Table and Soup Spoon; Dessert, Table and Fish Forks; Butter Dishes—without covers; Silver Bread and Butter Plates; Knife Rests, Butter Picks and Spreaders, Oyster Forks, Fish and Dessert Knives, Coffee, Salt and Mustard Spoons.

Christmas.

When we advertised groceries suitable for Thanksgiving gorging, we had no idea that half of Honolulu was coming in to buy them. But that's what happened. The people wanted high class groceries at low class prices, and they have learned that our advertisements mean that.

Our stock for the Christmas dinner contains many essentials that were not here for Thanksgiving. We are prepared to furnish everything at low prices and the best quality of goods.

What we offer are things hard to get along without—things needed for the big dinner you will have on that day. Apples, raisins and plum pudding—how are you going to get along without plum pudding? Mince meat, nuts, pie fruit, table fruit, Christmas candles and holders. These are things you need and cannot do without.

Disposing of Several Tracts on Maui
and Hawaii.

Agent of Public Lands Brown sold
at noon today in front of the Judiciary building leases on Government land on Hawaii and Maui. The Government tract in Kaunoe and Wailea, Hilo, Hawaii, lying between the main road and the forest line, was sold to the Haka-lan plantation company for $1,000. This land consists of about thirty-five acres.

That portion of Government land of Kahala, consisting of about 455 acres, was sold to R. R. Hind for $925.

The same gentleman also purchased the lease on the eighty-six acres of land lying between the Government road to Honoipou and the sea for $100.
J. S. Kaleo paid $90.50 for the lease on the small shrimp ponds and water holes in the vicinity of Kawaipapa and Hana on Maui. The lease on the Government tract in Hamakua on Hawaii
was withdrawn.

TENNIS RECEPTION.

A reception is being held at the Pacific Tennis Club courts this afternoon in honor of Mr. and Mrs. S. G.
Wilder, who have just recently returned from a wedding tour to America and Europe.

SUGAR FLEET.

The bark Samoa has been chartered to load sugar for New York. She with the Oakbank and Snowdon, makes the three of the fleet now loading. The big ships will not begin to arrive here
until March.

THE LITTLE FRENCH GIRL.

She is a Miniature Woman and is Taught
All Feminine Arts.

However innocent she may be, a little French girl is much more of a little woman than a child of any other nationality. She does not romp; she is demure and quiet in her games, which are often imitations of a grown person's life. She is trying to learn how to be the mistress of her house by means of her dolls, furniture, kitchen and dishes.
Feminine arts are still a part of every well arranged French education. Men really care more for these accomplishments than for others, as they make stay at home wives who look after their households, and as a Frenchwoman's
principal aim is to please her future husband every mother prepares her daughter for this end. This is why she does not permit too close an intimacy with little boy cousins, because ten years later a jealous husband would take a dislike to these friendly cousins,
nor would he like his wife's bosom friends, in whom she confides and who never leave her, any better.

Mothers, therefore, permit few if any intimacies, and these are all winnowed and selected with the greatest care. One advantage of this system is that the name of friend is not carelessly bestowed right and left. It takes time and good reasons for simple acquaintances to rise to that rank. The mother not only wards off little boy cousins and intimate girl friends, but she discourages
the little girl in showing off her knowledge out of the classroom, for she is fully aware that nothing could be less attractive in the eyes of the expected
lord and master than a bluestocking.

A bright little girl I could name had
by chance picked up some astronomical scraps, together with other scientific facts, which allowed her to shine now and then. One evening, while playing in the garden, she heard a friend of her father's exclaim, "What a dazzling star!" "That is not a star, sir," she said; "it is a planet." Her mother was in despair, for she would rather a hundred times have found her ignorant than have seen her "show off," or capable of committing the enormity of contradicting an older person. "I hope,"
she said jestingly, as a sort of excuse,
"that when she is 18 the poor little thing will have forgotten a great part of what she knows today!"—Th. Benson in Century.

Don't you want to sell lots
of such tea, and moneyback it if your customers don't like it.

YAWNING.

A Thorough Demonstration of the Contagion of the Same.

(Bangor News.)

Two young men boarded an Old town trolley car one afternoon this week to settle a very peculiar wager.
The one having bet the other a $5 silver certificate that he would make six people out of ten yawn anywhere without saying a word. A well-filled car was selected for the purpose. The young man who had proposed the wager had not taken his seat many minutes when he opened his mouth and gave a fearful yawn. He speedily followed it by another, and then awaited results. A moment later a middle-aged lady promptly put her hand up to her mouth to smother a cavernous yawn. Almost everybody in the car after that seemed in a desperate hurry to follow the lady's lead.
Out of the nineteen people in the car
there were fourteen who were seized
by the affliction.

Merit Talks

"Merit talks" the intrinsic value of Hood's Sarsaparilla.
Merit in medicine means the power to cure. Hood's Sarsaparilla possesses actual and unequalled curative power and therefore it has true merit. When you buy Hood's Sarsaparilla, and take it according to directions, to purify your blood, or cure any of the many blood diseases, you are morally certain to receive benefit.
The power to cure is there. You are not trying an experiment. It will make your blood pure, rich and nourishing, and thus drive out the germs of disease, strengthen the nerves and build up the whole system.

Severe Case of Dyspepsia

"I suffered from dyspepsia 20 years. I had a feeling as though there was a lump in my stomach. I did not dare to eat meat or warm bread, very few vegetables, for fear of the great distress food caused
me. I experienced relief right after commencing to take Hood's Sarsaparilla. My appetite increased, I gained in general health and strength. I can eat almost anything now without discomfort. Although I had been an invalid for twenty years, I can truthfully say that I am better than for a long time. I never weighed so much in my life." Mrs. EMILY F. BUMP, 45

Hawaiian Electric Company.

The cleanest, brightest and really
in this long run, the cheapest and best light for use in the family residence, is the incandescent electric light. Safe; nothing could be safer. A few days ago a prominent gentleman of Honolulu came rushing down to the office of the Electric Company and said:
"Give me figures for wiring my house, and I want it done at once; no more lamps for me.
Last night a lamp tipped over and it came so near setting fire to the house and burning
my children and I take no more risks."

This is the sentiment of quite a number in the past few weeks, who have ordered their houses fitted with the perfect light.
Just think it over and make up your mind that you want the best and safest light; send for the Hawaiian Electric Company and tell

USED A TANTALUS TREE

ILLUMINATED WITH SCORES OF COLORED ELECTRIC LIGHTS.

Hundreds of Children Entertained—

Presents and Refreshments for All—Musical Numbers and Addresses.

While it was a disappointment to many children gathered about the big Christmas tree at Central Union Sabbath school last evening to learn through a cablegram received by Col. De la Vergne that Santa Claus was snow-bound over in the States, still everyone was highly pleased with the entertainment that the old fellow had provided for the evening.

The double doors leading into the Sunday school room were thrown open and for fully a half hour later, when the entertainment opened, there was a continual pouring in of people. The galleries were filled and every inch of available space down stairs was occupied. There were between 700 and 800 people present.

In the center of the big room, makai of the church, stood a tall and well shaped tree taken from Mount Tantalus. When the program was begun, the tree was brilliantly illuminated with red, white, blue and yellow incandescent light.

The tall and beautiful tree was largely hidden from view with the many presents placed there for the children. Besides the lights, the tree was decorated with strings of popcorn, imitation snow flakes, shining silvery cords and other ornaments. Dolls, knives, books, calendars, vases, bags of candy and other presents were hanging from the branches.

The program was composed of singing by the classes and music by Professor Berger's orchestra. Mrs. A. F. Judd played the piano accompaniments for the classes. Rev. D. P. Birnie offered prayer.

Refreshments, consisting of ice cream and cake, were served during the evening.

HOW TO PREVENT PNEUMONIA.

At this time of the year a cold is very easily contracted, and if left to run its course without the aid of some reliable cough medicine is liable to result in that dread disease, pneumonia. We know of no better remedy to cure a cough or cold than Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. We have used it quite extensively and it has always given satisfaction.—Olague, Ind. Ter. Chief.

This is the only remedy that is known to be a certain preventive of pneumonia. Among the many thousands who have used it for cold and la grippe, we have never yet learned of a single case having resulted in pneumonia. Persons who have weak lungs or who have reason to fear an attack of pneumonia, should keep the remedy at hand. For sale by all druggists and dealers. Benson, Smith & Co., wholesale agents for H. I.

LADYBUGS.

The Marsden's Pests Are Endorsed by a Californian.

To the Editor of the San Francisco Call—Sir:—On Saturday Horticultural Commissioner Hamilton of Orange received a strong colony of vedalia cardinals from Commissioner Scott of Los Angeles. Mr. Hamilton placed them in the old Travis orchard, where some white scale had been discovered. This is the third time within the last few years that this orchard has been treated with parasites, and each time they have apparently eradicated the white scale. That the scale should again appear proves two facts that horticulturalists cannot afford to overlook. The first is that the greatest care and watchfulness is necessary at all times, not only to restrain diseases or pests which are known to exist, but to prevent the recurrence of those which have apparently been eradicated, and by all means to stop the importation of new ones. The second fact proved is that the white scale is held in perfect subjection by the vedalia cardinals. The use of one insect to destroy another is a complete success, and every effort should be made to further apply the same principle.

JOHN EASTWOOD.
Orange, California.

GENTLEMEN:--In reply to your inquiry as to how the Ideal Roof Paint you sold me lasted; I would say that I painted the roof of my house 12 months ago with your Red Ideal Roof Paint, and I find it is as fresh and bright in appearance today as when first applied; looking as well as others lately painted with other paints. I am more than satisfied.

J. G. ROTHWELL.

Have you a leaky gutter? If you have, make it perfectly clean and dry, apply a good coat of No. 3 P. and B. Paint over the leaky spots; then take a piece of stout Manila paper, or a piece of common cotton cloth, paint it well on both sides; lay it over the first coat, giving the whole a final coat, and there will be no more leak there. Or if the whole gutter is bad, make it clean and dry, and apply a paste of P. & B. Paint and Portland Cement.

B. F. DILLINGHAM,

Oahu Railway and Land Company, Honolulu, December 15, 1896.

Santa Claus is extremely fond of receiving letters from the little ones. He generally offers a valuable prize of some kind to well behaved children and this year he has notified Wall, Nichols & Co., who are to act as his agents here, to offer in his name a beautiful French doll to the Honolulu girl or boy who writes him the most original letter. Any little one under ten years of age may compete for the doll, which is sure to be highly prized by the lucky recipient. Now, girls, this is your opportunity. Brush the cobwebs and dust of puzzling questions out of your minds and write the old gentleman a nice letter, something different from anything you have ever written before. You may ask your papas and mamas how to spell the words but the thoughts and good wishes should be all your own. On honor, now.

Letters may be mailed in the letter box at Wall, Nichols & Co's. store between 9 O'CLOCK NEXT SATURDAY MORNING, NOVEMBER 28TH, AND 12 O'CLOCK NOON OF DECEMBER 24TH, the day before Christmas.

The doll will be on exhibition in one of their large show windows during the above period. The judges of the merits of the letters received will be decided upon by representatives of the press of Honolulu.
