HILO HAWAII.

HILO, HAWAII, June 7, 1901.

Dear Sirs:—
In my innocence I purchased here in Hilo a jar of your

PIN-MONEY PICKLES

(Put up by Mrs. E. G. Kidd,
Richmond, Va.)

It brought me great trouble, and one of three things must occur:

1. You must stop making them; or,
2. I must get them at less expense; or
3. I'm a ruined man.

Since my first venture I've had many "jars." My family from early morn cry "Pickles;" neighbors ring the door bell and shout "Pickles;" relatives visit me in expectation of "Pickles." Your pickles are my Nemesis. Please, Dear Sirs, quote them by the Keg, Barrel, Hog-head, Ton or Shipload, and "preserve" me. Yours very truly,
CARROLL WHITAKER.

A VALEDICTORY.

The graduates from the Kamehameha Schools have gone into the busy world. We hope to demonstrate, that they can and will earn an honest living and take a proper patriotic interest in their country. They must help us in proving to the people on the Mainland that the Hawaiians can manage their own affairs and that any restriction the present franchise will prove reprehensible, unfair and unjust. We admit that this Legislature has not been a success, but should not certain allowances be made to ignorant men, having the confidence of their little boroughs but knowing naught of running a government? We think Mr. Kauba makes an excellent Senator and that Senator Geo. R. Carter should take him into partnership. They surely are two of the kind. We believe both parties, represented in the Legislature, are to be equally blamed for the fiasco now embarrassing the Territory. Now, let the Kamehameha boys be taught good politics, let them graduate with honors from their classes, but we pray that they will enter into this busy world with sufficient ability to cope with the old "political fossils" and especially with that dangerous person Colonel Mazuma. Hurrah for the next election.

Went Over Board.

The Captain of the J. C. Potter seems to have an inclination to avoid paying expenses connected with supplies of water. The Superintendent takes a different view and demands what money is due to his Department must be paid. Under orders from the chief, Dan Woodward, assistant clerk in the Water Works Department was sent to the "Potter" to collect the money due to the Water Works. The captain refused to pay and slapped the face of the clerk, who promptly showed his prowess in athletics by hitting the skipper in the jaw and knocking him across the rail of the vessel into the sea. After the involuntary bath, the skipper cooled off, and the water rates were paid. Dan is evidently the right man in his place, but it is probably fortunate for the skipper of the "Potter" that his water bill was not collected by the chief clerk or the Superintendent of the Water Works. Had he tried to fool with them as he did with the young boy, he would probably have been like McGinty, at the bottom of the sea.

When you want a hack ring up 191. On that stand you will get a reliable and good driver, a fine hack and no overcharging.

A HONOLULU FABLE.

Being the Sad Account of How a Wise Guy tried to do the Ponce de Leon Act and Got It Where the Chicken had the Rubber Indisposition.

A Wise Guy once drifted to a Group of Small Islands. Among his Effects he brought the idea that he could give Ponce de Leon spades and do him up Browner than a Small Bird. He was Laying Wagers that he could Put it all over Ponce at his own stunt.

He Anticipated that as soon as he Hit the pocket-paradise of the Pacific his Rate with the insurance companies would take a trip skywards. He stood on the Corner and prepared to look Bored when he should be mobbed by the Insurance Agents. He had several New horse-laughs he wanted to Hand them when his health permitted, so that they would take him as a Risk.

One day he went to the Beach. There his eyes beheld Three Damsels dallying with as much sea water as they could wrap around their Ravishing forms. The broad Pacific didn't care; he had Plenty to spare.

The Wise Guy made up his Mind that he, too, would sprinkle a few waves upon his limbs. It was not long before an acquaintance was formed, growing out of the effect of the sad sea waves and the Tropical zephyrs.

The man who had been looking for the Well which old Ponce couldn't locate, thought he had clapped his Optics on it as soon as he saw the Three Damsels. His emotions were similar to those of the only Ace left in a deck from which the others have been Lifted.

The Wise Guy thought of all that had been missed by Poor Ponce who was Dropped in the water a short Way from New Orleans. He began to Realize that the Group of Islands contained the Only people on earth. He looked the Part; he looked it Strong and he felt that he was Game for Anything.

After the Bath had been concluded, the Ponce man proposed a Drink. He thought At First that this was Too Strong, but he Risked It.

The Three Damsels, bless their dear Hearts, agreed to say: "Yes" Just for Once.

The Wise Guy was delighted and he Ordered four of Ponce de Leon's Elixirs in a Hurry.

There was a Sudden fall in temperature reported by the weather bureau and No one else knew how it happened after they had had Four of the Elixirs. When the would-be Ponce recovered his Breath the Three Damsels were telling O.e Another how Different wine tasted in the Tropics.

Up to this time the Wise Guy thought that he was It, but when he heard their Opinion he told himself he was only a White Chip after all and he made a Solemn Vow that he would Quit company on the Trail that Ponce had Left.

Moral:—It is not always a Safe Conclusion, when three little Maids are seen Together, to infer that they are Three Little Maids from School.

Second Warning:—Who knows that Ponce didn't do the Same Thing on the Banks of the Mississippi?

Third and Last Thing:—Man has but Little here below, nor keeps That little Long.

(From Fables in Slang—by L. O. N. Ade)

A Wireless Telegram.

Marconi's Wireless Telegraph Co., Ltd., has brought suit against Frederick J. Cross, manager of the Inter-Island Telegraph Company, in the First Circuit Court, for $5,500 and £500 sterling, which the company claims is due them as the second payment of $11,000 for installing the system of wireless telegraph now in operation between the various Islands of the group from Oahu to Hawaii.

LOCAL AND GENERAL NEWS

Marie Josephine Hall has been granted a divorce from Wm. A. Hall, who has practically some one in preference to Marie Josephine.

The Superintendent of Public Works advertises in this issue an important sale of Government Lots at Nuuanu Valley to take place on July 30.

Hab. Morgan, a well known employee of the Honolulu Iron Works left by the Sonoma as third assistant engineer. He accepted his position so late that it was impossible for him to call on his many friends and bid a temporary goodbye.

Cranky Explorers.

Norway and Italy have joined hands, and the two great record breakers, Nansen and the Duke of Abruzzi, are together to make another effort to gain a point which they have approached nearer than any other men. The stout Stella Polare will carry these two foremost Arctic explorers back into the frozen regions of the North. These two men of action talk little, but undertake much.

They have maintained a strict silence as to their plans, so but little can be said now about their expedition. It is reasonable, however, to suppose that they will start on their race for the Pole from Franz Josef Land, for from here Captain Cagni and the other members of the Duke of Abruzzi's party sledged northward until they reached a point only 241 miles from the Pole.

Regimental Orders.

Colonel Jones, N. G. H., has issued the following orders:

HONOLULU, June 26, 1901.
Regimental orders, No. 29.

First—The First Regiment, National Guard of Hawaii, will assemble at the drill shed under arms at 8 a. m. on Thursday, July 4th, 1901, preparatory to taking part in the Fourth of July parade.

Second—Field and staff will parade dismounted.

Third—Uniform: Fatigue, white trousers, leggings and white gloves. By order Colonel J. W. Jones.

JOHN SCHAEFER,
Captain and Adjutant.

The Pool Selling Cases.

Mrs. Reist, the owner of the place, where it is alleged pool selling took place on the 10th inst. made no appearance in the District Court this morning and the Magistrate declared the bail, amounting to $100, forfeited.

The case of Dickey Davis went over till Monday next.

TEXT OF INCOME TAX

The Outrageous Act Which Soon Will Go Into Effect.

Section 5 Every corporation doing business for profit in the Territory shall make and render to the assessor of its tax division, between the 1st and 31st days of July of each year, beginning with the year 1901, a full return verified by oath or affirmation of its duly authorized officer, in such form as the Treasurer of the Territory may prescribe, of all the following matters for the whole twelve months ending June 30th last preceding the date of such return:

First. The gross receipts of such corporation from sales made at home or abroad, and from all kinds of business of any name or nature.

Second. The expenses of such corporation, exclusive of interest, annuities and dividends.

Third. The amount paid on account of interest, annuities and dividends stated separately.

Fourth. The amount expended on permanent improvements.

Fifth. The amount paid in salaries or compensation of more than $500 to each person employed, and the name and amount paid to each.

Section 6. It shall be the duty of all persons of lawful age having an income of $500 or more for the preceding year from all sources and of all corporations made liable to income tax to make and render a list or return, between the 1st and 31st days of July of each year, in such form as the Treasurer of the Territory may direct, to the assessor of the division in which such persons or corporations reside, locate or do business of the amount of their or its income, gains and profits as aforesaid; and all guardians, trustees, executors, administrators, agents, receivers, and all corporations or persons acting in a fiduciary capacity, shall make or render a list or return as aforesaid to the assessor of the division in which such person or corporation acting in a fiduciary capacity resides or does business of the amount of income, gains and profits of any minor or person for whom they act, and the assessor shall require every list or return to be verified by the oath or affirmation of the person or authorized officer of the corporation making the same.

If any person or corporation refuse or neglect to render such return within the time required as aforesaid, or renders a return which in the opinion of the assessor is false and fraudulent, or contains any understatement, it shall be lawful for the assessor to summon such person, or any of the officers of such corporation or any person having possession, custody or care of books or accounts containing entries relating to the business of such person or corporation, or any other person he may deem proper, wherever residing or found, to appear before him and produce such book at a time and place named in the summons, and to give testimony or answer interrogations under oath respecting any income liable to tax or the returns thereof. False, wilful testimony given before such assessor shall be deemed perjury and punishable as such.

Section 7. It shall be the duty of every person or corporation doing business for profit to keep full, regular and accurate books of accounts upon which all its transactions shall be entered from day to day in regular order, which books shall be open to the inspection of the assessor of the division or any person authorized by him to inspect the same, during business hours.

Section 8. When any person or corporation having a taxable income refuses or neglects to render any return or list required by law or declines to take oath or affirmation thereof the assessor may make such assessments as he may consider just and the same shall be binding and conclusive upon all parties and shall not be subject to appeal. In case of any false or fraudulent return or valuation by any taxpayer the assessor shall add 200 per cent to a just valuation of the income of such taxpayer and the amount of the tax assessed on such increase shall become part of the tax on the said income.

Dear Sirs:—
In my innocence I purchased here in Hilo a jar of your

PIN-MONEY PICKLES

(Put up by Mrs. E. G. Kidd,
Richmond, Va.)

It brought me great trouble, and one of three things must occur:

1. You must stop making them; or,
2. I must get them at less expense; or,
3. I'm a ruined man.

Since my first venture I've had many 'jars.' My family from early morn cry "Pickles;" neighbors ring the door bell and shout "Pickles;" relatives visit me in expectation of "Pickles." Your pickles are my Nemesis. Please, Dear Sirs, quote them by the Keg, Barrel, Hoghead, Ton or Shipload, and "preserve" me. Yours very truly,

A VALEDICTORY.

The graduates from the Kamehameha Schools have gone into the busy world. We hope to demonstrate, that they can and will earn an honest living and take a proper patriotic interest in their country. They must help us in proving to the people on the Mainland that the Hawaiians can manage their own affairs and that any restriction the present franchise will prove reprehensible, unfair and unjust. We admit that this Legislature has not been a success, but should not certain allowances be made to ignorant men, having the confidence of their little boroughs but knowing naught of running a government? We think Mr. Kaouba makes an excellent Senator and that Senator Geo. R. Carter should take him into partnership. They surely are two of the kind. We believe both parties, represented in the Legislature, are to be equally blamed for the fiasco now embarrassing the Territory. Now, let the Kamehameha boys be taught good politics, let them graduate with honors from their classes, but we pray that they will enter into this busy world with sufficient ability to cope with the old "political fossils" and especially with that dangerous person Colonel Mazuma. Hurrah for the next election.

Went Over Board.

The Captain of the J. C. Potter seems to have an inclination to avoid paying expenses connected with supplies of water. The Superintendent takes a different view and demands what money is due to his Department must be paid. Under orders from the chief, Dan Woodward, assistant clerk in the Water Works Department was sent to the "Potter" to collect the money due to the Water Works. The captain refused to pay and slapped the face of the clerk, who promptly showed his prowess in athletics by hitting the skipper in the jaw and knocking him across the rail of the vessel into the sea. After the involuntary bath, the skipper cooled off, and the water rates were paid. Dan is evidently the right man in his place, but it is probably fortunate for the skipper of the "Potter" that his water bill was not collected by the chief clerk or the Superintendent of the Water Works. Had he tried to fool with them as he did with the young boy, he would probably have been, like McGinty, at the bottom of the sea.

When you want a hack ring up 191. On that stand you will get a reliable and good driver, a fine hack and no overcharging.

A HONOLULU FABLE.

Being the Sad Account of How a Wise Guy tried to do the Ponce de Leon Act and Got It Where the Chicken had the Rubber Indisposition.

A Wise Guy once drifted to a Group of Small islands. Among his Effects he brought the idea that he could give Ponce de Leon spades and do him up Browner than a Small Bird. He was Laying Wagers that he could Put it all over Ponce at his own stunt.

He Anticipated that as soon as he Hit the pocket-paradise of the Pacific his Rate with the insurance companies would take a trip skywards. He stood on the Corner and prepared to look Bored when he should be mobbed by the Insurance Agents. He had several New horse-laughs he wanted to Hand them when his health permitted, so that they would take him as a Risk.

One day he went to the Beach. There his eyes beheld Three Damsels dallying with as much sea water as they could wrap around their Ravishing forms. The broad Pacific didn't care; he had Plenty to spare.

The Wise Guy made up his Mind that he, too, would sprinkle a few waves upon his limbs. It was not long before an acquaintance was formed, growing out of the effect of the sad sea waves and the Tropical zephyrs.

The man who had been looking for the Well which old Ponce couldn't locate, thought he had clapped his Optics on it as soon as he saw the Three Damsels. His emotions were similar to those of the only Ace left in a deck from which the others have been Lifted.

The Wise Guy thought of all that had been missed by Poor Ponce who was Dropped in the water a short Way from New Orleans. He began to Realize that the Group of Islands contained the Only people on earth. He looked the Part; he looked it Strong and he felt that he was Game for Anything.

After the Bath had been concluded, the Ponce man proposed a Drink. He thought At First that this was Too Strong, but he Risked It.

The Three Damsels, bless their dear Hearts, agreed to say: "Yes" Just for Once.

The Wise Guy was delighted and he Ordered four of Ponce de Leon's Elixirs in a Hurry.

There was a Sudden fall in temperature reported by the weather bureau and No one else knew how it happened after they had had Four of the Elixirs. When the would-be Ponce recovered his Breath the Three Damsels were telling O. Another how Different wine tasted in the Tropics.

Up to this time the Wise Guy thought that he was It, but when he heard their Opinion he told himself he was only a White Chip after all and he made a Solemn Vow that he would Quit company on the Trail that Ponce had Left.

Moral:—It is not always a Safe Conclusion, when three little Maids are seen Together, to infer that they are Three Little Maids from School.

Second Warning:—Who knows that Ponce didn't do the Same Thing on the Banks of the Mississippi?

Third and Last Thing:—Man has but Little here below, nor keeps That little Long.

(From Fables in Slang——— by L. M. O. N. Ade)

Marconi's Wireless Telegraph Co., Ltd., has brought suit against Frederick J. Cranky Explorers.

Norway and Italy have joined hands, and the two great record breakers, Nansen and the Duke of Abruzzi, are together to make another effort to gain a point which they have approached nearer than any other man. The stout Stella Polare will carry these two foremost Arctic explorers back into the frozen regions of the North. These two men of action talk little, but undertake much.

They have maintained a strict silence as to their plans, so but little can be said now about their expedition. It is reasonable, however to suppose that they will start on their race for the Pole from Franz Josef Land, for from here Captain Cagni and the other members of the Duke of Abruzzi's party sledged northward until they reached a point only 241 miles from the Pole.

Section 6. It shall be the duty of all persons of lawful age having an income of $800 or more for the preceding year from all sources and of all corporations made liable to income tax to make and render a list or return, between the 1st and 31st days of July of each year, in such form as the Treasurer of the Territory may direct, to the assessor of the division in which such persons or corporations reside, locate or do business of the amount of their or its income, gains and profits as aforesaid; and all guardians, trustees, executors, administrators, agents, receivers, and all corporations or persons acting in a fiduciary capacity, shall make or render a list or return as aforesaid to the assessor of the division in which such person or corporation acting in a fiduciary capacity resides or does business of the amount of income, gains and profits of any minor or person for whom they act, and the assessor shall require every list or return to be verified by the oath or affirmation of the person or authorized officer of the corporation making the same.

If any person or corporation refuse or neglect to render such return within the time required as aforesaid, or renders a return which in the opinion of the assessor is false and fraudulent, or contains any understatement, it shall be lawful for the assessor to summon such person, or any of the officers of such corporation or any person having possession, custody or care of books of accounts containing entries relating to the business of such person or corporation, or any other person he may deem proper, wherever residing or found, to appear before him and produce such books at a time and place named in the summons, and to give testimony or answer interrogations under oath respecting any income liable to tax or the returns thereof. Failure, willful testimony given before such assessor shall be deemed perjury and punishable as such.

Section 7. It shall be the duty of every person or corporation doing business for profit to keep full, regular and accurate books of accounts upon which all its transactions shall be entered from day to day in regular order, which books shall be open to the inspection of the assessor of the division or any person authorized by him to inspect the same, during business hours.

Section 8. When any person or corporation having a taxable income refuses or neglects to render any return or list required by law or declines to take oath or affirmation thereto the assessor may make such assessments as he may consider just and the same shall be binding and conclusive upon all parties and shall not be subject to appeal. In case of any false or fraudulent return or valuation by any taxpayer the assessor shall add 200 per cent to a just valuation of the income of such taxpayer and the amount of the tax assessed on such increase shall become part of the tax on the said income.
