RHEUMATISM

AND PILES CURED BY

AYER'S SARSAPARILLA.

Mr. W. JENNINGS, Adelaide, S. A., formerly of Hawthorn, near Melbourne, Vic., writes:

"For the past 3 or 4 years, I have been a great sufferer from rheumatism and piles. I tried all sorts of medicines, but derived no good from them. I decided to read one of your books and thought I would give your Sarsaparilla a trial. I did so, and after taking one bottle I felt better, and after taking 4 bottles I was a new man. I was sorry I never took it before, for it would have saved me very much pain."

IN THE HIGHER COURTS.

INTERESTING DECISIONS BY THE CIRCUIT JUDGES.

Wilhelm vs. Robinson—Brief in Lopez vs. McChesney—Judgment Record in Achi vs. Kila.

Judge Cooper of the First Circuit Court has rendered a decision in Aswan vs. Pang Lum, Pang Yok and others. It is an action for the recovery of a balance due upon two promissory notes for $1000 each. The transaction was connected with the purchase of a rice plantation at Laie from plaintiff. Only $600 have been paid on the notes, and the Court renders judgment for the plaintiff in the amount of the balance together with interest and costs. Magoon for plaintiff; Neumann for defendants.

Judge Whiting of the First Circuit Court has rendered a decision on the bill for cancellation of a deed sued out by Fritz J. Wilhelm against John Robinson and Elizabeth and John J. Robinson, his minor children. John Robinson executed a mortgage for $450 to Wilhelm on April 30, 1892, to raise another mortgage given to H. Dimond, and pay expenses of the transaction. The mortgage was later increased by $202.50. At this time a deed of the mortgaged property, made by Robinson to his children on July 7, 1897, was on record. Wilhelm made no search of the records before making the advances in question to Robinson.

The Court decides that the money advanced by Wilhelm to take up the Dimond mortgage was for the benefit of the children, that therefore Wilhelm ought to be subrogated and substituted for Dimond, and that a lien for $450 and interest at 10 per cent per annum attaches to the premises in favor of Wilhelm. In the case of the second loan the Court cannot sustain the argument that it was for the benefit of the minor children, and that there is for the amount in question, $202.50, no charge upon the land in law or in equity owing to the benefit of the plaintiff.

The Court cannot find that the deed in question was fraudulent, and, having been made five years before the debt to Wilhelm was incurred, could not have been intended to defraud Wilhelm. A conveyance is not to be set aside because it is voluntary but only on the ground of fraud in case of this nature. Wilhelm loaned the money on the land as security, and he ought to have investigated the title. Plaintiff may have leave to amend his bill if, upon examination of the pleadings, it should be so deemed advisable to perfect the relief allowed by this decision.

The decision concludes thus: "As to the liability of John Robinson, I adjudge and order that he is indebted to the plaintiff in the sum of $652.50 and interest from May 1, 1893, at 10 per cent per annum, for which execution may issue upon the filing of the decree herein."

Castle for plaintiff; Carter for minors; Kane for John Robinson. In W. C. Achi, trustee, vs. S. K. Kila and Maeha, judgment record has been entered against defendants for $95.75 and costs of execution, a total of $100.75.

A. S. Hartwell, attorney for defendant in A. J. Lopez vs. F. W. McChesney, assignee, has filed a brief of thirteen typewritten pages. The plaintiff asks for relief in equity to enable him to set aside the judgment of $1900 and costs, obtained against him June 12 last at the Circuit Court term by the defendant, by deducting an equivalent amount from a claim of $7083 against the assignee which was allowed June 19 last by the Court in bankruptcy.

New Consul-General.

Japan is to have a new Charge d' Affaires and Consul-General for Hawaii. He was expected by the China but did not come. Mr. Shimamura is the appointee, and he has served as Consul-General in New York and in Mexico. He will have the same rank here as had Consul-General Fujii, possessing diplomatic functions. Mr. Shimizu, the present Consul-General, will remain in Honolulu.

The Fishmarket.

All the stalls in the fishmarket have been moved to the concrete floor on the makai end of the building. Brick drains are now being laid on the makai end of the market preparatory to covering that with concrete also. Stone curbing is being laid to mark the line of the streets around it and everything in the neighborhood is beginning to assume a business-like aspect.

Amateur Athletic Club.

This association met last evening at Y. M. C. A. hall and decided to form a lacrosse team at once, and the necessary sticks were ordered to be purchased. The club also decided to ask the Oahu college boys what they proposed to do about football this year. If the college will put a team in practice the Athletic club will do likewise. It was also decided to have a road race on Saturday, the 26th inst.

Yokohama Passengers Ashore.

Four saloon passengers by the steamer China, two of whom at least were from Yokohama, were allowed to come into town. Themselves and their baggage were first fumigated in quarantine. The ship came here clean, having had no infectious or contagious sickness during the passage, therefore the usual rule of allowing cabin passengers to land without being subjected to a season of quarantine was observed.

Bicycle Accident.

Henry Olds, son of James Olds, while passing the residence of the British Minister on King street at 11 o'clock this morning, upon his bicycle, was thrown from his wheel and fell under the heels of the mules of a passing tramcar. He was struck on the head and quite severely wounded. Luckily he fell between the rails, and although the car passed over him, he was otherwise uninjured. Dr. Murray attended him and pronounced him out of danger. The accident was due to the chain connection slipping off the sprocket of the machine.

The following civil judgments have been rendered in Judge Perry's court: In favor of S. Nishimura and against N. Braham by default for $82.19, and in favor of Mrs. Bennie Hilarion against Peter Martin for $25.55. The latter case was for the wrongful conversion of a sewing machine, which the defendant took in lieu of $5 back rent owing to him by plaintiff's father.

FITS CURED

(From U. S. Journal of Medicine.)

Prof. W. H. Peck, who makes a specialty of Epilepsy, has without doubt treated and cured more cases than any living Physician; his success is astonishing. We have heard of cases of 50 years' standing cured by him. He publishes a valuable work on this disease which he sends with a large bottle of his absolute cure, free to any sufferer who may send their P.O. and Express address. We advise anyone wishing a cure to address, Prof. W. H. PECK, P. O. Box 4, Cedar St., New York.

IT WAS VERY GOOD WINE.

FOR FIFTY CENTS A BOTTLE OR TEN CENTS A DRINK.

Mrs. Francesca Fined One Hundred Dollars and Costs For Selling Liquor Without a License.

The first individuals to answer to the roll call had by Judge Perry in the District Court this morning was a gentleman by the name of Boggs and a native who rejoices in the cognomen of Keawemahi, both of whom took advantage of the saloons being open last night to get gloriously and disgracefully drunk, and they were glad enough to get off with the usual $2 fine and $1 costs for the trouble they gave the police department.

Joe Rachel, whose name as copied from the police register makes it somewhat difficult to determine whether he or she is a lady or gentleman, forfeited his or her bail of $8 rather than face the majesty of the law this morning, and his or her sex will consequently remain a mystery for the present.

Jack Duane was also up for drunkenness, but whether it was the same old drunk or an entirely new and fumigated edition thereof the record does not show, anyhow it cost him $3.

The charge of violating the rules and regulations of the Board of Health preferred against Senora Crispulo de Assis was dismissed on motion of the prosecuting attorney.

The cases against eleven Chinese domino fiends was continued to await the pleasure of the prosecution.

A large proportion of the Portuguese population of the city was present at the interesting exercises which obtained during the trial of a Portuguese lady for selling liquor without a license. The lady's name was Francesca, but whether she is any relation to Bulwer's heroine does not appear. She lives in a house located on McKibbin's lane. On the 8th of last September Mr. Julius Lundenberg made her a friendly visit and was accorded a private interview in the lady's bed chamber, which resulted in the production of a demijohn of wine. Mr. Lundenberg paid ten cents to Senora Francesca for the privilege of imbibing thereof one time, after which he called in Charles Ott who did likewise. Further negotiations resulted in the purchase of a whole bottle for fifty cents more, but the testimony shows there was not enough wine left in the demijohn to fill the bottle and Francesca went into another room to procure another.

The record does not show whether the empty state of the demijohn was caused by the size of the drinks taken by the informers or not, neither did it appear to affect Francesca in the least, for she had more wine and filled up a second demijohn. By doing this, however, she emptied a barrel, which Officer Cordes testified later on had once contained wine. Cordes is an expert on wine and according to his own testimony can swear to it by the smell, and so can a good many other people for that matter. The informers paid the lady with a Kalakaua piece of silver which they were unkind enough to have previously marked for the purpose, and taking thirty cents in change left the house and reported to Cordes who was waiting near by. Owing to its being Sunday no warrant was sworn out, and to make out a sure case the informers paid Francesca a second visit on the following day. Probably owing to the size of the drinks taken the preceding day wine had advanced 50 per cent in price at the establishment, and Julius Lundenberg had to pay 15 cents for a drink which was measured out to him in a glass. He took Robert Jennings with him this time, but Jennings didn't even get a smell of the demijohn, being, as the lady said, already half drunk. In case of refusal to supply them with wine on this occasion, it was agreed between these two worthy gentlemen beforehand that Lundenberg should be seized with a violent fit of shaking which would work on Francesca's womanly feelings to such an extent that she would produce some liquor at once.

After the second visit Cordes arrested the woman and searched the house, finding a bottle of gin and other liquor, which was confiscated. The defendant's attorney introduced no testimony in her behalf and will probably try to prove a conspiracy against the informers when the case gets into the upper court.

Judge Perry found the defendant guilty and fined her $100 and costs, from which judgment the defendant has appealed.

HIRED VANDALISM.

Destruction and Damage to Shade Trees by Workmen.

The gang of laborers who are engaged in trimming the shade trees on King, Alakea and other streets, are performing the work in such manner as to destroy the beauty of the trees, if not kill them. One man climbs up into a big algeroba or monkeypod, and, armed with a small saw or an ax, cuts into a huge limb, as large as one's leg, perhaps an inch. Then he will swing out on the branches and tear the limb from the body of the tree by his weight. The limb is wrenched and twisted loose, scarifying the trunk, stripping off bark and inner covering.

The tougher, harder varieties may stand this treatment, but their appearance is ruined, while more delicate specimens are almost certain to die. The shade trees are the greatest beauty of our streets and avenues, and it is a shame to have them destroyed by a lot of ignorant wood butchers.

There are 339 contract laborers among the Chinese immigrants by the Belgic.

The trial of A. B. Proita for malicious injury was commenced in the Police Court at 1:30 p. m.

Professor A. N. Krosnov, Yokohama, is registered at the Hawaiian Hotel, having arrived by the China.

Dr. Rodgers, secretary of the Labor Commission, does not appear to know where he is at, or whether there is any Labor Commission or not, or even whether there will be one.

Mrs. Freimann is going to open a first-class boarding and lodging house in the Dickson premises on Beretania street. W. S. Bartlett, formerly manager of the Hawaiian Hotel, will be the steward of the house.

The road jury which visited the old Waikiki road and vicinity last Saturday has recommended the widening of the John Eua road to 60 feet. The bridge over the Pinaia stream is being replanked, but it is recommended that a stone bridge be erected in its place, which recommendation will probably be carried out in the sweet mahope.

CLASSES TO BE RESUMED.

AT THE YOUNG MEN'S CHRISTIAN ASSOCIATION.

Typewriting, Bookkeeping, Stenography, Drawing and Singing. Classes to be Continued Next Week.

On Monday evening next at the rooms of the Young Men's Christian Association, the enrollment of pupils for the various evening educational classes in connection with the institution will take place, and intending pupils should present themselves for classification.

The class in typewriting will be held every Monday evening at 7 o'clock with D. W. Corbett as instructor, and he has the assurance of a large number of pupils.

Bookkeeping will be taught on Tuesday evenings at the same hour under the supervision of W. W. Harris, the well-known bookkeeper of Lewers & Cooke.

T. E. Petrie, the stenographer for Castle & Cooke, takes the class in shorthand every Wednesday evening at 7:30.

Mechanical drawing will be taught on the same evening at the same hour by Professor Colsten of Oahu College.

On Friday evenings at 7:30, Professor E. Cooke, a recent arrival from Portland, Oregon, where he was prominent in Y. M. C. A. work, will instruct a class in singing.

To supply the demand for further instruction of young men who have lately left school and desire to continue their studies in the evening a class in reading, writing, arithmetic and grammar is also to be formed, which will meet on Monday and Thursday evenings at 7 o'clock.

All of the above studies will be conducted in the new class rooms over the gymnasium which have recently been described in these pages.

These classes, together with those in the gymnasium to be inaugurated next week, are open to all, irrespective of membership in the Association, and will not be connected in any way with religious exercises conducted under the auspices of the Association. Applicants must be of good moral character and conform themselves to the proper rules and regulations.

Now that every department of the institution is in a completed state, Secretary Corbett intends to make the work done worthy of its elegant quarters, and with those associated with him will spare no efforts to accomplish the ends for which the Association was organized.

There is still no little business in the Board of Health office in connection with quarantine.

A Chinaman was compelled to substitute corrugated iron for redwood boarding in a new building within the fire limits on Alakea street. Though not pretty the shanty is reasonably safe against fire.

The Rev. Mr. Catlin has discovered a passage in the Bible that pronounces "due to the woman who sews pillows to all arris-holes," but the reverend gentleman's discovery will not affect Honolulu fashions.

RATHER SMALL POTATOES.

How Japan is Using Her Power in Korea.

Japan is attempting to stimulate trade with Korea in a rather curious fashion. It is stated in a British Foreign Office report on the trade of Korea that silk piece goods from China have fallen off materially. This is due, no doubt, to the war, but it may be mentioned, as one of the petty reforms that have lately been introduced into this country, that the wearing of Chinese silk has been prohibited by law, and all officials are called upon to dress themselves in silk of native manufacture. This rule, which was never approved of by its promulgator, was manifestly intended to stifle the Chinese silk piece goods trade in this country, but it has been quietly ignored, the few Koreans who had adopted the prescribed fabrics and colors quietly dropping them and reverting to the old style of garment and material. Another reform, which if strictly carried out would have benefited the Japanese tobacco trade, was the sudden prohibition of the use of long pipes in the street. The Korean pipe is 3 feet long, and is hardly ever out of its owner's mouth, and it was a novel experience for the first few days after the prohibition was announced to see the natives in the city without their never-failing companion in their hands. Cigarettes of Japanese manufacture were largely smoked in place of the pipes, but after a short time the pipes reappeared with a couple of feet cut off the stem. As these were passed by the police the stems are now gradually getting longer, and will probably assume before long their normal dimensions. The history of the pipe movement is typical of the fate of all reforms hitherto adopted in this country. The import of cigarettes, mostly Japanese, amounted to 32,680 mille at Chemulpo, against 7913 mille in 1893. At the other ports there was practically no import.

A Secret of German Success.

Over Germany are societies or unions organized to encourage colonization and to help to extend the foreign markets, projecting all kinds of schemes for bringing German products to the notice of foreigners. In connection with these unions are the commercial schools, the strongest of which is that of the Hamburg Union, for commercial clerks. This numbers upwards of 42,000 members, and with a capital of £5800. In the 40 years of its existence it has found places for 40,000 young men. Kept in constant contact with home by correspondence, emigrating clerks or merchants make themselves for the Fatherland, and, ever close to each other by the bonds of such unions, unconsciously it may seem sometimes, but nevertheless with certainty, they find foreign markets for home products and situations for German clerks.

G. R. Harrison, practical piano and organ maker and tuner, can furnish best factory references. Orders left at Hawaiian News Co. will receive prompt attention. All work guaranteed to be the same as done in factory.

OUR aim since the organization of the firm has been to supply the people of Honolulu with first class furniture at a medium price. The growth of the business is the best evidence we can offer as a verification that we have never diverged from our motto.

In this advertisement we call your attention in a general way to the various articles of furniture we carry by submitting a few designs of pieces that should be in every home.

CHINA CLOSETS are as much in demand as bedsteads, they are no longer in the list of luxuries; the craze for collecting odd bits of China or bric a brac, and the desire to keep them in a convenient place for showing to one's friends, has made the China closet indispensable. We have them in various styles, single or double, for wall or corner. Those in antique oak are fashionable because they are serviceable, the durability of the finish on oak has the effect of making them always appear new.

THE utter impossibility of an attempt to have a dining room well furnished without a sideboard has been demonstrated in half the homes in Honolulu. There is no necessity for anyone going without one when they have a stock like ours to draw from. The one shown is of quartered Oak with a polish finish and has French bevel plate glass. In the higher priced sideboards ample space is allowed for silverware. Our stock of plain oak sideboards has never been equalled in Honolulu.

ROBINSON BLOCK

ONE bureau is scarcely adequate to hold all the shirts, underwear, etc., of a gentleman and wife; two bureaus in a room make it top-sided particularly when they are not the same pattern. A CHIFFONIER, no matter what the design or color, adds finish to the room just as a piano does to a parlor.

It may sound egotistical, but we believe we have the largest stock of these articles to select from outside San Francisco.

Oak is the style oftenest selected for the same reason as given regarding China closets, but with our stock there is no limit as to style of wood. Oak, Birch or Ash, it is all the same, we can supply them in twenty odd styles. We have them with or without toilets; plain top and with either German or French bevel mirrors, and polished or varnished surface.

The half dozen drawers in a Chiffonier make it possible to separate the clothes and keep them always in place. If you have ever had one you know the value; if you have not get one while the price is below bed-rock.

OUR hair mattresses are made up in the best quality of tickings, bound with the best bed lace, have borders 4 inches deep, stitched twice around.

Mattresses made of moss have the same care on our part as those of hair. The difference in price is accounted for by the difference between moss and hair. This work has the attention of experienced upholsterers, and no better mattresses can be bought anywhere than we make. The prices are governed by the size of the beds and number of pounds of hair used.

MAY BURN CORN FOR FUEL.

This Year's Crop the Largest Known in the History of the Trade.

With a 2,500,000-bushel crop the West will have corn to burn, says a Chicago dispatch of September 13. According to a Kansas City dispatch, a packing-house company has already issued orders to its Wichita house to begin the use of corn for fuel as soon as it can be bought for 12 cents a bushel. On the basis of May price, with due allowance for freight and for the discount from the contract price for off grades, corn on the Western farms is not much over 10 cents a bushel.

The '95 crop of corn is practically made, and without doubt it will be a record-breaker. It is figured that the total yield of corn this year will be 2,325,000,000 bushels. It will not be far from double the quantity of corn produced in any of the star crops in the history of the trade.

The prices have become demoralized simply on anticipation. December corn touched 27½ cents last week. On the basis of the present prices corn will be cheaper than coal for fuel during this fall and winter in the States west of the Mississippi river. It is said that the experiments have shown that a ton of dry corn will go further in producing steam than a ton of coal.

Anthracite coal laid down in Kansas City even at reduced freight rates costs $6 a ton in cart lots. At points in the interior of Kansas, Nebraska and Western Iowa it costs all the way from $7 to $9 a ton. At these same points corn is worth only from $2.50 to $4 a ton on the cob. Iowa soft coal can be delivered in Central Nebraska at about $3.50 a ton, and Illinois coal at $4. In Iowa native bituminous coal costs over $2 a ton.

A prominent operator on the Board of Trade to-day offered to forfeit $10,000 if he could not furnish the "Alley L" with corn for fuel at a less cost than that of coal.

Socialism in New Zealand.

The Hon. W. P. Reeves, Minister for Labor in the New Zealand Government, writing recently to the secretary of the Fabian Society, says:—"The latest experiment I am trying is that of a State Registry Office for female domestic servants. We are just opening it, and of course time will show whether the employers will make use of it. If they do not it must fail. We are also beginning a new method of dealing with the unemployed, combining employment on public works with tilling the soil."

DESCRIPTION AND TERMS:

CREOLE is the gamest, fastest and best bred stallion that has ever been imported into the Hawaiian Islands. He reduced his record of 2:20 to 2:15 in Petaluma, Cal., August 24, 1894, distancing his whole field in the first heat, then again to 2:15 in Stockton, Cal., September 23, 1894, winning the first heat in 2:15, fourth heat in 2:15, and fifth heat in 2:19, proving that he is a remarkably game as well as a speedy race horse. ("Creole" by Prompter out of Grace by Brooker shows that he is capable of getting a mark of 2:10 and is one of the gamest stallions seen this year, and besides being game, is one of the best formed, and remarkably intelligent."—Breeder and Sportsman, Sept. 25, 1894.) He is 15½ hands high and of powerful build throughout. His color is glossy black with one white hind foot. His disposition is all that could be desired, and his action superb. He is a sure foot getter.

Terms $50, with usual return privilege. Will make the season at the

NUUANU STREAM.

Since it has been determined as a sanitary necessity that Nuuanu stream should be walled in, the work should be pushed forward to completion and not allowed to drag along for a year. No mistakes should be committed in the engineering of the work. The walls must not, for instance, be constructed so as to dam back surface waters that ought to be drained off by the stream. A non-professional idea is that the deepening of the mid-channel for the whole course of the stream through town, with the construction of sloping embankments of rubble masonry not higher than necessary to confine the normal flow, would fulfil all the ends desired. All the low lands that are not going to be filled up for either building or public park purposes could be cheaply drained into the stream. The Board of Health should adopt a regulation declaring stagnant waters and dank bogs in the town limits to be common nuisances, and property owners having such holdings would probably then see that they were drained.

REMAINING WORK.

Some time should be set, from the last case of cholera reported, at which Honolulu may be declared clean and claim all the rights and privileges of a clean port, with regard to both foreign and internal commerce. Whatever may remain to be done, however, for securing the absolute purification of the officially-called infected districts ought to be done with the greatest possible expedition. Suspected waters should be drained away to the sea at any cost, and fouled water courses be thoroughly disinfected. Sanitary inspection must be strictly maintained, not merely for a few months after the disease has disappeared, but for all time. Ships from infected countries will have to be admitted only with the greatest caution, and persons and goods coming thereby be subjected to thorough quarantine. There are people here who still persist in saying that the recent plague was not imported, and who predict that it will make its appearance again next summer. Even if conditions can be proved existent which would justify this opinion, we believe that it is in the power of the authorities to prevent its justification by events. The same measures that have been availing to prevent the spread and long prevalence of the disease will, if there is anything in the law of cause and effect, prevent the recurrence of the visitation or at least check its progress beyond a few isolated cases. What is required of the authorities in particular and the community in general is to do the duty that is in sight today and leave tomorrow to eventualities. Should the recent visitation be but the precursor of others, the authorities and the citizens and the physicians have the benefit of experience in battling against it. This fact should tell upon any similar situation that may arise in years of the near future, and give to the community in the meantime immunity from distressing fears that might otherwise be harbored.

OBSERVATIONS.

It may well be said that corporations have no souls when steamship companies will carry Chinese immigrants in the last stages of consumption and risk the chances of their dying on the voyage.

An interesting item appears in this issue about German commercial unions. It may in part explain the fact that, as a class, the large number of young Germans who have come to this country are exceptionally intelligent and otherwise desirable as residents.

Members of Congress will find an electric button on each of their desks at the coming session, giving them connection with an annunciator in each cloak room. The messengers are not to be envied until the novelty of pressing the button has worn off.

According to a report printed elsewhere, Japan is adopting a policy of petty proscription against goods not of Japanese manufacture in Korea. This is hardly compatible with the dignity Japan has acquired in waging a successful war against China with the ostensible object of forcing political reforms upon Korea.

Upon the decision of the German Government to expel all foreign socialists, a journal of that country predicts the advent of a military dictatorship.

There was no quarrel between the Board of Education and St. Louis College in regard to reopening. All the roaring was done by space-fillers on an evening paper who wanted to get a dig at the Board.

An exchange says that labor seems to be a drug in the Australian market; farm laborers are paid $2.25 to $2.50 a week, boys from 37 to 75 cents a week, bakers $3.75 and woodchoppers $1.25 a week. At these rates it might pay our sugar planters to look into the matter.

On the cholera question the San Francisco Chronicle says: "In the matter of a disease like cholera there is one golden rule to be observed, which is that cleanliness is health. However much scientists may differ as to questions of cause and effect in zymotic diseases, they agree that the best preventive against the spread of such diseases is cleanliness. Cholera, yellow fever and all such diseases seek dirt and filth as unerringly as a hyena finds carrion, and once established, the disease is next to impossible of dislodgment."

Mrs. Yeomans, a sister of President Cleveland, is quoted as being quite positive that he would not be a candidate for re-election. Her principal reasons for believing so are the President's desire to retire from public life and his opposition to a third term. His desire would likely give way before an enthusiastic nomination of his party, and, according to Senator Gray, his election would only give him a second term in consecutive order, which is not violative of the widely accepted tradition against a third term.

The sudden closing of one of the largest schools in San Francisco under peremptory orders of the Board of Health, leads the Chronicle to remark:

The closing of the Richmond school by Superintendent Moulder, under direction of the Board of Health, is an act deserving of commendation. It is true that it will deprive some four hundred scholars, for the time being, of the opportunity of prosecuting their studies, but what shall it avail a pupil if he learn the rule of three and lose his health? An education may be attained under the most adverse circumstances, but to regain bodily health, when once it is lost, surpasses the skill of all the pedagogues in the world.

Mrs. Mary E. Lease, the Populist orator, has come out in an interview charging ex-Senator John J. Ingalls with habitual plagiarism. She says he has built up his splendid reputation as an orator by using quotations stolen from French and Spanish writers. His speeches are beautiful mosaic work, but not his own, says Mrs. Lease, and "he is the most erratic, inconsistent, contradictory, pitiful and contemptible figure in Kansas history." This coming from a brilliant woman is pretty hard on Mr. Ingalls, but his speeches have as a rule been characterized more by sound than by sense anyway.

In an article on "A Hawaiian Cable," the San Francisco Chronicle, referring to Colonel Spalding's scheme, says:—

It would be much better for the Government to take the matter in hand directly, and lay and control its own cable to Hawaii. American interests there are sufficiently important to warrant us in laying the cable as a war measure, if for no other reason, and the Government can collect tolls and earn interest on the investment just as a private corporation. We think the cable should be either purely public or purely private, and not a private institution aided and supported by a Government subsidy. A cable line is wholly unlike a small steamship line. The first cost is practically all there is to it, the expense of maintenance and repairs being very slight.

In view of the periodical reports of famine in different countries, it is strange that corn is so abundant in the United States as to be cheaper than coal for fuel. Is it on account of the exactions of the railway companies that the corn cannot be carried to the seaports and shipped at some profit to lands of less plenty beyond the seas? Should such be the case the American people have only to realize the fact, and the Populist party would rise speedily and overshadow either of the two old parties.

The Sharpshooters.

There is very little excitement among the members of the Sharpshooter's Company over the coming election of officers which is to take place on Monday evening, and the regular ticket will in all probability go through without opposition. This means the promotion of F. L. Dodge to the captaincy, and the election of Walter Wall and J. L. McLean as first and second lieutenants.

Timely Topics

Judge Ogden of Oakland recently gave a young married woman some good advice when he refused to grant her a divorce. The couple had been married three years and were quite young, but they evidently got along about as well as most married people do. However, the young woman thought she ought to have a divorce and filed a complaint against her husband alleging cruelty. The specific facts set forth were that her husband frequently slapped her, whether playfully or not the complaint does not state, and that once he spoke crossly to her. This, however, was while the husband was putting up a stove, and therefore cannot be wondered at. On another occasion the young wife says her husband threatened her, but in answer to the Judge she explained he had only told her the proper thing to bring her under subjection would be to raise a family. But this poor husband's greatest offense lay in his feet. He had big ones according to his wife, and on one occasion he had the audacity to place them in her lap, and she said, "he had his boots off."

In refusing to grant a divorce on such trivial testimony Judge Ogden gave the wife a little fatherly lecture. "You can hardly expect the court to grant you a divorce upon such testimony. If we were to grant you a divorce upon that showing there would not be a couple in Oakland that would not be entitled to a divorce. It is impossible to find human nature that is ideally perfect. There are many little imperfections that education and association will smooth off, and married people must exercise forbearance and patience. Instead of widening the breach close it up. A young couple such as you are will find married life a very happy existence if you will return to your home and not do just what you have been doing heretofore."

That Oakland Judge had some sense, indeed it is apparent that his wisdom arose from experience. It is a pity there are not more like him. If there were there would be fewer divorces and more happy homes. What is home without a mother-in-law and the privilege of putting your feet on your wife's lap without putting your boots on first.

The regular monthly meeting of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union is being held this afternoon in the parlors of the Central Union church.

Notice is given that, unless another outbreak of cholera should occur, the Hawaiian Relief Society will cease supplying nations after Saturday next.

Miss Grace Richards has rented one of the large rooms over the Y. M. C. A. gymnasium as a music studio. She is fortunate in securing such elegant quarters.

Now that the cholera season is over the next epidemic will probably be one of football. The latter would furnish good practice for the doctors in more ways than one.

A prominent royalist remarked this morning that the only danger to be apprehended from filibusters was from the assortment of the article now walking our streets.

Attendance at all the schools yesterday showed a material falling off from the average of former years. Another week or two without cholera will remedy this state of affairs.

Miss Helen Wilder had an unpleasant experience with a balky horse in front of Castle & Cooke's store this morning. The animal was one of those recently imported from the Coast.

Emma square presented an old-time appearance last night, the occasion being the first evening band concert since the epidemic. The square was crowded and the music was much enjoyed.

The Hawaiian Electric Company had men at work this morning unpacking an elegant line of electrical chandeliers and fittings generally, which must be seen to be properly appreciated.

President Dole was making a personal inspection of the new fishmarket and its surroundings this morning. It is hoped he will hurry up the construction of the new wharf and slip makai of the market.

J. D. Anderson, cashier of the First National Bank at Brownsville, Texas, writes to the manufacturers of the comptometer, "The Comptometer purchased of you has taken the place of one clerk in this office."

The Hawaiian Relief Society will not supply rations after Saturday next, unless a fresh outbreak of cholera occurs. See notice in another column about presentation of bills.

It is suggested that when the new market is completed all the vegetable hucksters who blockade Maunakea and other streets shall be required to occupy stands there. There will be plenty of room for them, and a proper disposition of decayed vegetables and fruits would be assured, instead of its being thrown into the streets as is the rule at present.

Drunkenness and Drinking.

According to the table of articles of consumption of the various European countries submitted by General Annenkoff to the Geographical Congress, most alcohol is consumed per head of population by France and least by Russia, the respective figures being 3.5 and 0.6. Next to France comes Sweden with 2.3, then Germany with 2.2, Norway with 2.0, Great Britain with 1.9, and Holland with 1.8. Accepting the General's statistics as fairly accurate (says the Newcastle Chronicle), they furnish striking proof of the contention that the quantity of alcohol consumed in a country—its drink bill, as the teetotalers say—has no reference whatever to its drunkenness. Germany is notoriously a sober country; yet it stands high in the list, above even Great Britain. Russia, on the other hand, is lowest, yet Russia is famous for its drunkenness as Germany is for its sobriety. Drinking, in fact, is one thing and drunkenness another. —Gloucester Mail.

The Blood in Malaria.

A telegram to the London Times from H. Schöndel (Dacca) states: Dr. Lowie reports as the result of an inquiry, in which he was assisted by Dr. Martin Jordan, that there is no parasite in the blood in malaria. Through a readily demonstrable staining error the nuclei of the white cells in the blood have been mistaken by the Italians and other investigators for parasites connected with the red blood corpuscles. In the all-absorbing search for micro-organisms to satisfy the new pathology the ever-varying contents of the white blood cells, which would now appear destined to afford the solution of many important physiological and pathological problems, have practically been neglected or overlooked.

Kicking the Bride.

In Bulgaria the custom still exists of kicking the bride as a part of the married ceremony. Once it might be supposed the kicking was done in earnest, but ages ago the bride ceased to be subjected to this indignity, save in name, and now when a bride is kicked the kicking is done in form only, the bridegroom kicking at her without touching any part of her person. In several parts of Italy the bride is beaten with her own shoe, that is to say, her shoe is taken off and handed to the groom, who with its heel gives her a light tap on the shoulder, and in some country districts in France the tapping has disappeared and only the taking out of the shoe and handing of it to the bridegroom, in token of the bride's subjection, remains to tell of a singular custom.

Masher and Mirror.

The Continental masher has added a little item to his fascinations, which just now, when he is rampant where holiday makers assemble, may be observed by all and sundry. At short intervals he draws forth from one of his pockets a small and very elegant leather case, and from it he takes an oval looking-glass. This he holds in the hollow of his hand, gazing in the depths of the mirror upon his own face, with the most eager and concentrated interest and absorption. It makes him blush to see others go about unfashionably mirrorless, and the more attention he attracts the more often the modern Narcissus brings out, and clings to, his latest acquirement, showing as plainly as can be that a masher and his mirror are not easily parted.

WELLS, RICHARDSON & Co.,

Gentlemen:—I was very much run down, had no appetite at all, was very nervous, had no sleep night or day; to sum it all up, I WAS PERFECTLY WRETCHED. But thanks to Paine's Celery Compound I can now eat and sleep and work just as well as I could before I was taken sick. When I commenced taking the Compound I weighed 136 pounds; I now weigh 158 pounds and do all the work for my family of five. I have recommended the Compound to three families already and they are very much pleased with it. I am now taking my fifth bottle, and would RECOMMEND IT TO ALL WHO ARE SUFFERING WITH STOMACH TROUBLE OR NERVOUS TROUBLE.

TERRIBLE ACCIDENT.

Crowd Celebrating an Election Bathed in Fire.

The following extraordinary story has appeared in the columns of the Roscommon [Ireland] Herald:—The North Roscommon election has come and gone, but its close was marked by an occurrence that has brought gloom and sorrow over the normally quiet little town of Elphin. No sooner had the news of Mr. James J. O'Kelly's return been made known in that place than the people turned out to celebrate his victory. Just as darkness was setting in the people formed a procession in Castle street, and, headed by the fife and drum band of the town, they proceeded, almost 300 strong, up the main street and on by Chapel street. A larger number of them carried torches, upon which they had stuck sods of turf saturated with paraffine oil and blazing. They cheered enthusiastically, and were in the height of enjoyment until they arrived at the house of Michael Beirne. Here some of the lights began to fail, and the people proceeded to revive them by means of candle and oil. Martin Early carried the oil, and a man named Tymon brought the candle. Early was about to pour some oil on the almost extinguished turf, the people closing around him, when a spark fell into the can. Then followed a shocking scene. In the twinkling of an eye the oil was ablaze, the can flew into the air to a distance of 40 feet and came spinning back in bits, scattered in all directions, igniting the clothes of 15 of the celebrants and the hair of a great many others. The greatest consternation prevailed, and the shrieks of the children who asked to be saved rent the air. It was heart-rending. Neighbors rushed to the scene to assist in the extinguishing of the flames by means of water; but of course that only gave them additional strength, and the poor sufferers, recognizing this, became frantic. Sergeant M'Manus rushed to the place and besought the people to come to the assistance of the burning children. He shouted for bags, coats, and blankets to wrap around them. These having been procured, the work of saving the sufferers was speedily undertaken. In the absence of a greater number of clothes, Sergeant M'Manus knocked a boy named Pat M'Grath to the ground, and rolled him in the dust until free from the flames. G. Sheridan showed considerable pluck by going into the midst of the fire and rolling his coat around persons who were in flames. After a scene of great confusion, the fire was extinguished. It was then found that a great many persons were injured, some, indeed, to such an extent that their lives are despaired of. Several of them reached their homes on the arms of their friends, but one young man, Patrick Sheils, had to be conveyed on a stretcher. His frightful agony was ended by death on the following Sunday morning. He was only 15 years old.

THE BEST TREATMENT FOR CHOLERA—When promptly and properly treated a recovery is almost certain. This was fully demonstrated during the prevalence of Cholera in New York in 1866. Go to bed as soon as the first symptoms appear, remain as quiet as possible, and take Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy in double doses until the pain ceases, and then after each operation of the bowels more than natural. Send for a physician, but take this remedy in this way until he arrives. The remedy should be kept at hand ready for instant use. It should be taken within five minutes after the first symptoms appear. Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy is the most successful medicine that has yet been produced, not only for the milder forms of bowel complaint, but for the most virulent forms of Asiatic Cholera.
