PROGRESS.

The Life of the Land is Established in Righteousness.

HONOLULU, FEB. 16, 1894.

DISOBEDIENT.

They do not Fall Into Line

At the Council meeting yesterday, the members displayed a surprising degree of independence and fearlessness. In spite of the dictum of the so-called American League and in spite of the machine business performed at the meeting of the annexation club two councillors quietly nominated two candidates for the vacant seat in the council while Mr. Damon like an ordinary jumping jack obeyed the string of his "friends" in the league, and brought forth the name of D. B. Smith. Mr. W. F. Allen who represents the conservative element in the community and the commercial interests nominated Mr. Mark Robinson one of our best known and most esteemed Hawaiian citizens. Emmeluth represents the radical element in the councils, and to a certain extent the working classes nominated Mr. F. Wilhelm a very respectable German carpenter and builder who was one of the original members of the Council from which position he resigned on account of his health. Mr. Damon as we have stated trotted out Mr. D. B. Smith who evidently represents the secret League and Mr. Murray. What other interests he represents, we have been unable to learn. There can be no doubt in the mind of the people at large who of the three candidates is the most popular and most desirable. We have all possible respect for Mr. Wilhelm, but we do not think that even he considers his line of work in this life to be in the legislating business. He is an unpretending, peaceful man; very clever in his business and very successful but neither by education nor by inclination do we think that he would make a good councillor, at the present time. Mr. Mark Robinson will certainly not set the river on fire, but he is a conservative and sensible man who will never join in any action or in any step which will be hurtful or detrimental to the welfare of the country. His personal interests have undoubtedly caused him to join the annexationists and of course the Hawaiians have not viewed his position with approval but, after all, the present election to the councils is not a matter in which the Hawaiians are interested. As a matter of expediency and in our desire to see the country do as well as it can under the present abnormal government we must say that we consider the nomination of Mark Robinson, a wise move and as good a choice as can be made at present. He should certainly be elected. We fully agree with the Advertiser that a man nominated by a secret league and under a secret cast-iron oath of that secret league should not be tolerated as a public officer. We cannot understand how any self-respecting man ever can tie his actions and his opinions up in such a manner as Mr. D. B. Smith has been forced to do, but as he has done it, he ought to suffer the consequences and be ignored by the decent and self-respecting councillors. The nomination, through Mr. Damon, doesn't amount to anything. Mr. Damon votes one way and acts another. He always submits to the majority—when it suits him. He stood up for the royalists in office; and voted in their favor so as to gain their good-will in case of a change in government. He was overruled and he smilingly submitted to the will of his colleagues and dropping the stand taken originally by him, fired all his clerks out of office while his colleagues never made a move in that direction. Mr. Damon will act the same now. He nominates the league man as a sop to the rough element of whom he is in deadly fear. He then sees that arrangements are made to defeat his candidate and he smilingly says to his horny-handed friends "I did what I could, but submit to the majority." And then he drops the League. In the meantime the League states publicly and "saloonly" that if "Smith doesn't go in out goes the government." We now await Act III.

A Convention.

The latest proposition of the Provisional Government is to call a constitutional convention which is to be empowered to frame a new constitution and new government. The idea is of course as much of a fraud as anything which heretofore has been done by the revolutionists for the purpose of bamboozling the Hawaiians. It is the intention to form the convention from the present councils with an addition of ten members to be elected by voters registered on the grand register of the country. This apparently might lead the people to think that a general representation was granted and that the proposed government would be a truly popular one but when we remember that only ten representatives of the people will be allowed while the present government will retain eighteen, it is easily seen that the people will simply not be "in it". If the government and the annexationists really desire to learn the will of the people, they should grant a general vote for members of the convention. If it is true that there are a majority back of Mr. Dole and his crew why do they hesitate in taking a step which will gain them the respect of the world and strengthen them immensely in their foreign and domestic relations? But the American League will never tolerate a convention elected on representative and popular principles. The Star always states that the opposition has no right to be heard and that only the dominant party shall decide the future of our country and of course the councils will never dare to hold a different opinion from the League. The Japanese and perhaps even the Chinese may also want to be heard at such a convention and who is going to refuse them? We consider anyhow that the proposition is premature. It will be well for the Councils to go slow and remain as they are until they learn what actions the United States and the Treaty powers will decide on in Hawaii. A few weeks or perhaps a few days will settle the final affairs of our country and it will be advisable for our wise Councillors to "keep their brains quiet and their shirts on" in the meantime.

Consistency Thou Art a Jewel.

How truly speaks the Heidelberg missionary in the Advertiser of yesterday. Truly he must have had reference to such creatures as Reverend Sereuo, the champion pitchforker of Nuanu, and the whole of the Missionary self-named Christians who have borne false witness against their neighbors and have attempted to Hyde the iniquity of the Stevens-Thurston compact by barefaced prevarication, when he, the talented editor says:

It seems to be true that in politics as in religion and philosophy, there is no vagary too extravagant; no theory too monstrous; no dogma too revolting and cruel, to find its disciples and champions.

Yes and he might have added that it is true that no lie so malicious, no perjury so rank, no object so cringing so despicable that the Christian Missionaries of Hawaii will not descend to, to defend the credulous and to cover up their own iniquities innate rascality.

Again he says:—Here is a paper published presumably by Englishmen, in the full blaze of the 19th century, proposing and advocating an unprovoked and wanton aggression of a strong power upon a weak one, in violation of international law, the usage of civilized people, and the principles of natural justice.

How about the disciples of the One who preached "Peace on Earth—Good Will to Men," pandering to that very thing "the unprovoked and wanton aggression of a strong power upon a weak one," and that aggression too, lead, planned, bolstered and perpetrated by an ex-minister of their so-called Christian religion. Perhaps he takes his principles of Christianity as well as "natural justice" from the Reverend? correspondence of the N. Y. Sun who violating the teachings of his divine Master turns not the other cheek, but invokes upon Cleveland anguish such as he and his insignificant clique have suffered.

Go to thou Hypocrite. In the language of the N. Y. Sun's correspondent. "Is Hell big enough to hold such a hypocrite as thou."

Political Infamy.

We would desire to change our pen for a pair of tongue yet because the subject which we feel called upon to approach is of such a nature that any decent man feels disgusted by being forced to touch it any missionary or literary scavenger of course will gloat in wallowing himself in the indescribable filth. We have had occasion before to give some space and attention to that man Sereuo E. Bishop who calls himself a Christian and a servant of Christ. The wholesale condemnations of the Hawaiian women published by him in the N. Y. Independent has made him in spite of his age entitled to a public flogging. The cowardly and base attacks on men, who differ from him in political opinion to Mr. Blount and now published to the world in Blount's report will cause accounting to be asked which will make the hoary-headed sinner tremble in his boots. But the letter which appeared in the N. Y. Sun in the same issue in which the letter from Mrs. Anna C. Dole is published, breaks the record of infamous policy and political infamy yet noticed in this country. Mark, we cannot say for sure, that the communication in question is written by this very Reverend Sereuo E. Bishop. The coward always stab his enemy in the back and in the dark and consequently the coward who blackens the reputation of our best citizens and their families in the N. Y. Sun does not sign his name to his dastardly deed. The Sun is perhaps the only newspaper in the United States—so be it said for the honor of journalism—which would open its columns to the vile and defamatory article dated Honolulu, H. I. The editor of the Sun is a man of such a corrupt and leprosed nature, which he has proved in all his political transactions, that his moral nostrils have become so dulled in their functions that he is not troubled any more by the stench with which his Honolulu correspondents fill the filthy gutters which are running in the columns of his paper. Whoever wrote the letter, which we refer to, in the Sun should be summarily castigated. We are justified in believing that it emanated from Sereuo E. Bishop because it is in line with all the other defamatory articles emanating from that contemptible old scribbler. In it the moral characters of Judge Widemann, Governor Cleghorn, Dr. Trousseau besides several prominent Hawaiians are assailed. Not alone of the men mentioned but of their families. Imagine anybody attacking a man of the honored standing of Judge Widemann. Imagine he and his family being branded by a Honolulu correspondent in the columns of one of the most circulated New York newspapers and then let any fair man say that the hound who wrote such a vile attack should be shielded from punishment on account of his age. He should be kicked and he would deserve the kicking be he a "reverend" or not, much more than any car who only follows his brutish instincts. We cannot in our columns reprint the vile letter. Let everybody procure a copy of the N. Y. Sun dated January 17th 1894, and, for themselves, see what the Honolulu letter—published we say next to Mrs. Dole's letter—says about the men and women whom this community has learned to honor, revere and love. The missionary tone of the letter is conspicuous. It is evidently wrong in the eyes of the reverend writer to wrong a woman and rectify the wrong by marrying her. Such, step is only taken at the "earnest request of the missionaries," says this hypocritical correspondent. Ye gods, it would evidently be better to follow the examples of our missionaries, and like the Smith, Bailey, Alexander, and many others put the stamp of bastardy on the forehead of any child and then go to church, pray and praise the Lord and—marry some nice American girl. Verily the language is not strong enough to describe the indignation and contempt which we feel against the "reverend" man who publishes the character of the men who gave evidence to Blount. Do the private lives of the present immaculate councillors—or those to be elected stand the "electric" search light of truth? Can any one of them swear to it that there is not a being living who by birth has the right to use the escacheon of some of our supernatural virtuous rulers—who gave evidence to Blount—with the bar sinister in it? We will not imitate the Sun correspondent and be low enough to write up private history be it that of the President or the latest desired addition. But we unhesitatingly advocate and counsel that the men and women insulted by the scoundrel who writes letters from Honolulu for the purpose of defaming the characters and good names of our families should be stamped out without more mercy than that shown towards a centipede or a scorpion.

We notice from Japanese papers that the men who went from here to Guatemala with Capt. Ferguson have been disappointed, and have not found the situation in that country at all coming up to the promises which were made to them. This ought to be a warning to the Japanese here not to take any steps in the future without consulting, and being advised by their able and patriotic representative Mr. S. Fujii. The Japanese papers are inclined though to think that there may be some exaggerations in the piteous appeals sent from the men who left Hawaii for Guatemala. An investigation will be made.

We publish in another column certain correspondence in which Admiral Skerret has been indulging in while in command of the Hawaiian station. The HOLOMUA was terribly abused when we stated at the time of the Admiral's recall that it was caused through his imprudent and partisan actions here. The HOLOMUA then, as usual, was right. We generally know what we are taking and writing about. Why the deuce will people write letters anyhow?

"WHEN thieves fall out, honest men get their due" is a well known maxim. The nominations for the Council has brought about this crisis amongst our P. G. kleptomaniacs and the glorious end restoration is at hand when ever honest principle will be recognized and right and justice will prevail.

"Those whom the gods wish to destroy they first make mad," with each other, might well be adduced portraying the Annexation Club, League, Missionary, P. G. quarrel.

Mr. A. Davis at the Club Stables the proud owner of "Creol" the well known stallion which he stand for the season. "Creol" is probably the fastest and highest bred stallion imported to Hawaii, and all owners of mares trying to improve their stock should take advantage of this opportunity. The pedigree and particulars can be seen in the advertisement which will appear in HOLOMUA to-morrow.

A Proved Record.

In the correspondence between Mr. Willis, United States Representative in Honolulu, Admiral Skerret, and the Department of State in Washington, some of the causes of Admiral Skerret's removal from the command on the Hawaiian station to that on the Asiatic, are indicated. On May 31, 1893, the Admiral wrote:—"As I stated, I am of the opinion that the Provisional Government is solidly and firmly established, and that they are bringing quiet and contentment to the islanders." On June 28, 1893, he wrote:—"I must inform the Department that the stability and solidity of the Provisional Government is not considered to be all that had impressed me so favorably. It would appear that the iron heel of military law is really what serves to keep the Provisional Government in authority. One of the Government officials said to Minister Blount that he considered the condition of affairs here as bad as it have ever had been." A month later the Admiral wrote:—"Surely, the Government they now give the people is the best they have ever had. I believe in their eventual success, and have implicit faith in it." Under the date of Sept. 17, 1893, Secretary Herbert notified Admiral Skerret that he had misconstrued instructions, and directs him to afford to British subjects and property such protection as has always been accorded by vessels of American fleets to the subjects of Her Britannic Majesty, and the property under like circumstances in the absence of British vessels. The next telegram, under date of Oct. 9, marked "confidential," directs Admiral Skerret to transfer his flag to the Boston at San Francisco and proceed there with his personal staff by first mail steamer. "It is the intention," he says, "of the department to transfer you to the command of the Asiatic station." A similar telegram of the next day directs Admiral Irwin to proceed to Honolulu. The instructions to Admiral Irwin do not appear in the budget. The only inference to them is the following paragraph in a letter from Admiral Irwin to the Department, dated Honolulu, Nov. 14:—"I have carefully studied the instructions of the Department; they are perfectly clear to me, and will be carried out to the best of my ability."—Japan Mail.

Manager Plunkett, states positively, that, notwithstanding the demand, the Misses Albu will not give another concert before their departure for the Coast.

The steamer Kaala touched on the reef at Kahuku during her last trip and while the war of the elements was at its height. The captain had taken precautions against heavy weather and had anchored in a lee offered by the conformation of the country. A shift of wind being apparent the anchors were about being hove up when the storm struck and sent the vessel inshore. Capt. Robinson and all hands were immediately at work to save ship and in the face of the driving storm kedges went put out astern and the vessel was held until the squall passed and she was then brought into safer waters. Mr. Joseph Cunningham the only passenger on board is loud in his praise of the conduct and ability displayed by the master of the vessel and his mates.

Not Guilty.

Wm. L. Mossman who has been under trial before the jury here on a charge of embezzling money belonging to the Post Office in Makawao was found "not guilty" this morning. The Provisional Government seems to be extremely unfortunate in its charges against citizens. The incapacity of Mr. W. O. Smith—frightfully learned in the law—and his satellites is being illustrated from day to day. The reason why we feel called on to mention this special case is the outrageous manner in which Mr. Mossman has been treated. This young man who now stands acquitted before the community was arrested on the eve of his wedding to one of Makawao's most estimable young ladies. He was thrown into prison and placed under unusual heavy bonds. He languished for some time in prison while his bride and family were suffering tortures. His case was called in the legal circuit, where he belonged, but a change of venue was asked and granted and finally he was brought before a jury in Honolulu. To-day he was acquitted, and he can return to his home as an honest and a free and happy man. But who is to recompense him and his family for what they have suffered through the spite of one man, the outrageous blunder of P. G. officials? The trouble, annoyance, and expenses connected with a damage suit is all which is now left to Mr. Mossman.

ASIATICS IN COUNCIL

Four Thousand People Present.

The mass-meeting announced to take place at the Chinese Theatre on the 14th inst. and for the purpose of consideration of the license laws which were lately passed by the P. G. government and which were considered by the leading Chinese as unjust to themselves and their people, was what might be called, a grand turnout of the parties most concerned, over 4,000 people being present.

The meeting was presided over by Lau, Chung a Chinese well-known and respected by the business community, both foreign and to the manor born. Messrs. Goo Kim the Chinese Commercial Agent and Wong Quai the Vice-Commissioner were present on the platform.

Mr. Lau Chung called the meeting to order and declared its object.

Mr. Ing Chan of the Tong On Jan Company said that he was in favor of sending a communication to the Council not to pass such a law. If they will not listen communication should be had with the Chinese government.

Mr. Wong Wah Foy of the Wing Wo Tai Co. said that the Chinese had been oppressed long enough. The foreigners claim to be an enlightened people, but he did not believe so from their actions. Union in a peaceful way must be had. Men-of-war might be talked of later on.

Mr. Ching Lim Kin of the Hawaiian Hardware Co. said that the Chinese pay the most of the taxes; if it were not for them the white merchants of Honolulu would be ruined. If the Chinese stuck together they would come out alright.

Mr. Chang Kim a clerk with ex-Attorney-General Ashford said that, even a worm will turn when trod upon. We ask only for justice and should accept nothing less. The Geary act in the U. S. is bad enough, but the proposed P. G. act is more unjust.

Mr. N. Monwar a law student with Hon. Paul Neumann said the Chinese population is great in number, in Hawaii. They only attempt to right their wrongs peacefully. The book-keeping law was revoked by our action. We are threatened again. He believed the Chinese would be protected by the Courts.

Mr. Lee Chu said that, he was of the opinion that if they did not do the best they could to overcome the proposed law then they (the Chinese) had no blood in them.

On motion the following resolution was put and adopted:

Whereas,—There is now pending before the legislative body of the Provisional Government, an Act obliging Chinese residents of these Islands to obtain a special license, not called for in the case of any other nationality, as a pre-requisite to conducting business in this country; and

Whereas,—Such legislation is directed against the Chinese as a class, in violation of Constitutional provisions, and of the principles of equity of civilized governments; and would, if enacted into law, prove an irritating oppression to a numerous and law-abiding class of residents, who pay a large proportion of the taxes collected by the Government, and who are entitled to the protection of the laws, on term of equality with other residents of these Islands, now therefore, be it

Resolved,—That we, the Chinese residents of Honolulu, in mass meeting assembled, on the evening of Wednesday, the 14th day of February, 1894, do solemnly protest against the injustice, degradation and insult threatened to be imposed upon us and our race by the legislation so, as aforesaid, pending and proposed to be enacted into law.

A committee of thirteen composed of the following Chinese was appointed to present the resolutions to the Advisory Council: C. Winam, Wong Wah Foy, Yim Quon, Chn Gem, Chang Kim, Ho Fon, Lau Chock, N. Monwar, Chang Chiek, Ng Chan, Chu Ming, T. Kat Poo, Lau Chong.

The meeting then adjourned.
