WHAT LOVE IS.

Miss Sophie Loury employs an exceedingly communicative old colored man to attend to odd jobs about her studio now and then, and his sayings have become proverbial among Miss Loury's familiars. He came to work one day not long ago, very full of the goings on of a young man he knew, who was in love.

"But what is love, uncle?" asked Miss Loury.

Uncle wagged his head wisely. "Love is dizziness, unreasoning and inattention to business."

And really I don't know of any definition more concise, complete, and altogether adequate than that.—Washington Post.

KNEW ITS VALUE.

"I wish," said Colonel Stilwell, of Kentucky, very gravely, "that you would contradict all this nonsense about my having a settled and unreasoning aversion to water. Water is a great institution, sir."

"Of course, the remarks you allude to are intended merely as good-natured exaggeration."

"Of course. But I don't want water mentioned disrespectfully in my presence. I understand that the fire engines recently checked the flames in a distillery where thousands of barrels of liquor were in danger of being consumed."—Washington Star.

A SERPENT TEMPLE.

The small town of Werda, in the kingdom of Dahomey, is celebrated for a loathsome den called the Temple of Serpents. It is a long building dedicated to the priests and mystery men of the kingdom, and in it they keep hundreds of snakes of all kinds and sizes. These creatures literally own the village, as well as the temple which has been erected for their special accommodation, and practically have the run of every house in town. In Werda to kill a serpent is a crime punishable by death. The serpents in the sacred temple are fed by a regular corps of hunters, who are paid for their services out of the public exchequer.

TRANSFERRED AFFECTION.

"Thank goodness, the Joneses have quit borrowing from us."
"How does that happen?"
"Some more stylish people have moved in on the other side, and they borrow from them."

WHAT DIT IT.

"I have been subject to neuralgia for a number of years. It affected not only my head and face, but my stomach and back. After taking Hood's Sarsaparilla a short time I was relieved. I have now taken six or eight bottles, and seldom feel any symptom of neuralgia." M. H. MINCHER, Elsinore, California.

HOOD'S PILLS are the pills to take with Hood's Sarsaparilla. 25c.

SATURDAY, MAY 27, 1899.

The past week has had incidents enough. We have had a wreck, the burning of a steamer, the finding of a body of a child and a sensational suicide. These have been mingled in with notable social events, and considerable activity in theatrical lines. But the suicide and suspected murder, have nothing to do with the giddy whirl of social events, and the moralist cannot draw lugubrious lessons from the former and point his tale with the latter.

Russia is supposed to be very far behind in education, but she is now doing a great deal in mechanical and agricultural work in the schools. The Russian Government has realized the importance of teaching the hands as well as the head; and reports from there show that good work is done. It would be a great thing if the same idea would take firm hold of our educators here. There is no doubt that not half enough is done in this direction. A child, no matter of what class in society he may be, will be surely benefited by some manual training. Our education is altogether too one-sided, and decidedly needs some renovation and progressive idea upon the science of "doing."

The Apia papers do not seem very well informed as to the movements of the commissioners. Everything is vague in the account published. It reads "as far as we can ascertain," "we have been informed," "we have not the slightest doubt," "we have heard" and so forth. Why the commissioners have not been interviewed is not clear. Of course there is much that they will not say, but there is much that could be removed from the limbo of uncertainty. As far as can be gathered from these papers and from the Alameda passengers and officers, the commissioners are at work interviewing the various officials and will soon have an interview with Mataafa. It will take some little time before any adjustment is reached.

Merchant street in the vicinity of the post office is always more or less littered with papers, advertising circulars, the backs of envelopes, etc. In spite of the fact that we have a set of street sweepers, it is impossible to have this part of the city decently tidy. There should be a box or a couple of boxes placed there for the purpose of receiving the litter which people now cast into the street. In Chicago such boxes are frequent in the principal streets, and bear the legend "Please help to keep the city clean." People here would soon get into the habit of throwing the paper torn off letters, newspapers and advertising parcels, into the proper receptacles, and an untidy look to one of our principal business streets would be done away with.

The New England temperance advocates have fallen foul of the soda fountain. In a recent address at New Bedford, the speaker found the beginnings of intemperance in so-called temperance drinks. He said, apropos of the soda fountain, "we like the sting in the drinks. We begin with vanilla as a flavor, then take strawberry and others stronger, until water is unpalatable." This gentleman went on to say that from his own personal observations and according to his best judgment, he pronounced the so-called temperance drinks a curse. It is really terrible to think to what depths of degradation a person may sink who starts "with vanilla" and tops off with the insidious strawberry. Verily, there is little hope for him. But seriously what good can a crank like this expect to do, except injure his own very worthy cause.

A MATTER FOR THOUGHT.

There is a serious question which never seems to enter the minds of our thinkers, and that is, what to do with the girls of school age who have gone astray. We have no home for such girls, where they can be sent and isolated from their evil surroundings. They have practically no chance but to sink lower and lower till debauchery and drunkenness carries them off. It is no use hiding the facts from our eyes and then saying that they do not exist. They do exist and no effort is systematically made to better present conditions.

Of course it is an unsavory subject, but there are many things as unsavory which we have to handle, and a newspaper is not doing its duty if it does not point out things which should be righted. Ignoring them will not make them right. That girls do take the down ward path even during the period that they are at school, will be corroborated by any sensible teacher, who has had the responsibility of children, over twelve years of age. It is very dreadful, but it is a fact.

Now, what should be done in such cases. To retain the girls in school is practically to keep a moral infection constantly present, which may spread and cause moral disease. We send away children from our schools if they are suffering from some infectious disease as scarlet fever, measles and so forth. If even their homes are infected the orders are that the children should not come to school, and bring the infection to others. Is not the moral infection far more serious than the merely physical one. A girl who has started on the down ward path is plague infected and dangerous. She can infect others with her evil knowledge. Certainly, though the laws says that all children up to the age of fifteen should attend school, the law never contemplated the retention of such girls in the school.

Of course there is one solution. Such girls should not be permitted to attend the schools. But when you have done this, have you done your duty? You have turned the outcast from among those who are still pure. Have you no duty to the outcast? Must the young girl who has been tempted and has erred, be allowed to follow the down ward path? Is there no means of holding out a helping hand?

As things are now, except for isolated private effect, there is no means by which any saving work can be done, and the down ward course is naturally followed to its bitter end. And as the country progresses, it will be harder and harder for those who fail to retrieve themselves.

It is evident to every right thinking person that there should be some provision made for the protection and the saving of such girls. The territory ought to provide a proper home and proper care and training for them. The success may not be great. Many of those who have gone wrong once, may go wrong again, but there will be a considerable percentage saved, and as we are told "that there is more joy in heaven over one sinner that repenteth, there there is over ninety and nine who need no repentance," so there will be satisfaction upon earth if by an institution of the kind indicated, there is even a small percentage saved.

This is a matter that the Board of Education and the philanthropic societies of the city may well consider. As has been said, any intelligent, practical and experienced teacher can give information upon the difficulties that meet them in these cases. It is no theoretical idea of possibility that is here pointed out, but it is hard, stern fact. It might be put in much stronger colors than has here been done, and cases might be quoted, but The Star has no desire to make any sensation. But it does want to put forward a very serious fact, and it wants to have those in power take cognizance of the fact and devote careful thought to solving the problem, by initiating a remedial form of action.

A GRAVE ERROR.

Though many things are carried on well here, there are many others which will bear a great deal of reform. The matter of calling coroner's juries together is one of them. However, upon this so much has been said lately, that it seems tedious to speak of it, but this may be said still, that the responsibility for not sending for a doctor to attend Kaili, over whom a boiler rolled, from the effects of which he died, will never be known because no coroner's jury was called.

Deputy Marshal Chillingworth is a good officer, and is desirous of doing his duty, but he certainly made a grave error of judgment in this case. The inquiry at the iron works was not all that was necessary. The man was injured on Thursday, and was neglected till Monday, when he was taken to the hospital to die. Was it right that after such an accident as that, the man should be neglected for three full days? Perhaps medical skill would not have saved him, but while there is life there is always a chance, and Kaili evidently did not have that chance.

Had a coroner's jury been summoned all the doubt in this direction might have been cleared up. A coroner's jury need not necessarily find any one guilty but they can, under proper circumstances, censure a person for neglect of duty, and such censure being published in the newspapers, would have a very salutary effect towards making others careful under similar circumstances.

It may take more years yet to make officials and others here fully understand the sanctity of human life and to realize that the death of every individual however humble, or however wealthy, should be properly accounted for, and that when it occurs from accident or suddenly, it must be looked into. Had Kaili been killed on the spot, undoubtedly an inquest would have been held. Because he lingered a few days, no inquest was held. It mattered not if he had lingered six months, the inquest should then have been held upon his decease.

DEAR SIR.—We request you, by order of Board of Directors, to close out the entire stock of Umbrellas, regardless of cost. Make a clean sweep.

G. ABRAHAMSON,
SECRETARY.

Genuine Clearing Sale in Umbrellas!

Of all Descriptions in Silk, English Sateen, Gloria Alapaca, Etc., for Ladies, Gentlemen, Misses and Children.

ITS MISSION—Strange as it may seem—is to lose money!

It seems the only way in which a great mass of any kind of merchandise can be disposed of at an arbitrarily fixed time. But we won't flinch. An unfaltering business policy demands that our entire stock of Umbrellas must be sold before July 1, 1899. And sold they will be.

Sale Commences Wednesday, May 10th.

If you will examine the prices made on this stock you will find some of the greatest bargains ever offered in Honolulu. No doubt about it. So we do not feel that we must urge you to come, if prices like we put on this stock of Umbrellas won't fill the store with trade to its full capacity—but what is the use talking? They will, and if you come, you will see some of the liveliest selling you ever saw anywhere, or at any time.

This is a tropical climate, with tropical showers almost daily. An Umbrella is very useful here. We have lots to sell. Thousands of them. By the way, call early, as the best Umbrellas, no doubt, will be picked up the first few hours of the sale.

Cost Price Will Not Be Considered.

IMPOSING WEDDING TODAY

GEORGE ORDWAY AND MISS V. M'ARAN.

Married at the Catholic Cathedral at High Noon—Popular Citizen and a Belle of San Jose.

George A. Ordway, of this city, and Miss Virginia McArar, only daughter of Mrs. C. D. Wright, of San Jose, were married at the Catholic cathedral at high noon today. The Bishop of Honolulu, Father Gustav Kuiper, performed the service. Mrs. Wright gave her charming daughter away. The church for the occasion was appropriately decorated and was well filled with friends of the contracting parties.

The bride's dress was heavily white crepe silk, the waist finished with yoke of pointed lace, picture hat with costume. The bride wore diamonds. In her hand she carried a shower bouquet of white carnations.

Mr. and Mrs. Ordway go to Waikiki this afternoon to spend their honeymoon.

A recent dispatch from the home of the bride contains these remarks of interest:

SAN JOSE, May 15.—The Garden City is to lose one of its prettiest and most popular young ladies during the coming week. Miss Virginia McArar, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Wright, will leave for Honolulu, accompanied by her mother, next Wednesday on the steamer Moana. On their arrival at the Islands Miss McArar will become the bride of George A. Ordway, a furniture dealer and capitalist.

The approaching wedding is causing a stir in society. Mr. Ordway is a brother of U. J. Ordway, the talented banjoist, who made his home here for several seasons. It was while on visits to his brother Mr. Ordway met his fiancée. The engagement has been short however, dating back but three months. No time has been set for the nuptials because of the uncertainty of the steamer's arrival, but it will be within a day or two after they reach their destination. The marriage will be a church affair, the Catholic bishop of the diocese to be the officiating clergyman. An elaborate wedding breakfast will follow. The honeymoon will be spent in a tour of the Islands and a visit to the Volcano.

Miss McArar is a favorite in this city and her friends will greatly miss her. With her mother, Mrs. C. D. Wright, she has been continuously at the front in church and society affairs. Mr. Ordway is a native of San Francisco and has been in the Island capital for eighteen years. Mrs. Wright will make a stay of a couple of months with her daughter.

SANTIAGO, PROSPEROUS.

SANTIAGO DE CUBA, May 16.—Major-General Wood, military governor of the Santiago Department, arrived here yesterday after his first trip into the interior of the province. The country traversed he found in a generally prosperous condition. The planters are planting cane and expect a full crop next year. Stories regarding the bandits seem for the most part to have been promoted by professional politicians. Everywhere General Wood found the people anxious for greater security, and the annexation idea is undoubtedly growing in spite of all efforts on the part of the agitators to the contrary.

EDWARD EVERETT HALE.

BOSTON, May 16.—Rev. Dr. Edward Everett Hale has resigned the pastorate of the South Congregational Church, after a service of forty-three years.

Notice!

Notice is hereby given that the subscription list of the McBryde Sugar Company, Limited, will be open at the office of F. W. Macfarlane, Esq., No. 402 Judd building, fourth floor, on Friday and Saturday, May 26th and 27th next, between the hours of 9 a. m. and 5 p. m. of each day.

A deposit of ten per cent. of the par value of the stock subscribed for will be required, in cash or certified check, at the time the subscription is made.

If the subscriptions are in excess of the amount of available stock, such stock will be assigned pro rata to the subscribers, and the balance of cash on deposit, after applying the first assessment of ten per cent. on the shares allotted, will be returned when the certificates are issued, less the amount required for revenue stamps. Stomach Was Too Weak to Retain Food

A Complete Cure Effected by Hood's Sarsaparilla

Now Enjoying the Best of Health, With Digestion Perfect.

"My mother was subject to sick headaches and indigestion for over a year. She was unable to stand for any length of time, and was obliged to stay in a dark room as she could not bear the light. She had no appetite whatever and her stomach was so weak she could not retain what food she did eat. She also had severe pains in her head. She suffered so much that she became but the shadow of herself. One day I happened to read a testimonial about Hood's Sarsaparilla. It

Sounded So Truthful

I persuaded her to try this medicine. Before finishing the first bottle there was an improvement in her condition. She no longer threw up her food and her headache was not as severe. She took in all four bottles of Hood's Sarsaparilla and several boxes of Hood's Pills and regained her weight. She is now enjoying the best of health. Her digestion is good and she can eat almost anything she wishes. She is 42 years old and says she feels as well as when she was 16. Hood's Sarsaparilla made a complete cure in her case."

The cleanest, brightest, safest and really a long run, the cheapest and best light for use in the family residence, is the incanbe safer. A few days ago a prominent gentleman of Honolulu came rushing down to the office of the Electric Company and said:

"Give me figures for wiring my house, and I want it done at once; no more lamps for me.
Last night a lamp tipped over and it came so near setting fire to the house and burning my children and I take no more risks."
This is the sentiment of quite a number in the past few weeks, who have ordered their houses fitted with the perfect light.
Just think it over and make up your mind that you want the best and safest light; send for the Hawaiian Electric Company and tell need of a tonic. As a remedy for loss of appetite, weakness and debility, and to tone up the system to withstand the

THE BREW OF OLYMPUS

THE "HOFFMAN," corner of Hotel

"Banner" resort for gentlemen and holds the flag. L. H. Dee, the proprietor, has attained success in his line, by speciality and personally supervising everything connected with his establishment. He now introduces to his patrons "Olympia Beer." This brew is from the "Capital Brewing Co."
of Olympia, the capital of the State of Washington, and was received by the "Garonne." Mr. Schmidt, the leading spirit of this corporation, is a practical Chemist and Brewer, and after years of search and investigation located his plant at Olympia, on account of the peculiar virtues of the water of the Tum Falls, a stream that is noted for its distinctive qualities of clearness, coldness and lack of mineral and decaying vegetable impurities.
Pure beer can only be made with pure water, and Tum water is traditional in Washington with the Indians and original white settlers. The "Olympia and agency of Mr. Dee and he invites his patrons and friends to a personal test and is willing to abide by their judgment on the merits of his latest venture.

GOO KIM,
210 NUUANU STREET

THE KANSAS POPULISTS

SENATOR AND POLITICIANS OUT OF A JOB.

The Present Condition of Men and Woman Who Were Politically Prominent a Few Years Ago.

William A. Peffer, whose wonderful whippers gave him national fame, who was lifted into the Senate by the tidal waves of reform, who pointed out to the country so often the only path to prosperity and contentment, and whose panacea for all ills and evils were offered as freely as salvation, is now receiving a salary of $10 a week to write editorials for the Star and Kansan, a weekly Populist organ at Independence.
He started a paper of his own when he returned from the Senate, but the people were tired of him. He proved a false prophet, and being driven out by his old political associates, he accepted a nomination for governor on the prohibition ticket and got 7000 votes.

Mary E. Lease, being what they call an "almighty smart woman," repudiated her party before it got a chance to repudiate her. She is no longer a resident of Kansas, although Charles, her husband, still remains as a clerk in that drug store at Wichita. Mary has not returned since she went to New York as a Bryan spellbinder during the campaign of 1896. She is now supposed to be lecturing on Joan of Arc somewhere in the East—a character she was never to emulate. Her daughter, who had a good deal of dramatic power and used to recite poems at Populist conventions and was expecting to make fame and fortune on the stage in the great Populist play, "The Curse of Gold," is now the only comfort of her deserted father.
The son is in the East with the mother, acting as her business agent.

Jerry Simpson has gone out of the whirl with profit, and is said to have saved enough from his Congressional salary to keep him in reasonable comfort the rest of his life. He has a good ranch down at Medicine Lodge, which he "took" as Government land in early times, a bunch of 400 or 500 cattle and various investments that cause him to be rated at $30,000 by the commercial agencies. For eight years he received a salary and allowances amounting to over $6000, or a total of $50,000 in payment for his services as a statesman.
He has lived in a frugal way upon his mileage, his postage and a private secretary account and has had a little income from the ranch. So, having been too sensible to fool away his money, he is now well fixed and can enjoy the sunshine.

John Otis, who stepped from a Topeka milk wagon into the House of Representatives at Washington, is dead, but his wife still carries on the milk business at the old stand and is doing well.
He sprang suddenly into prominence as the organizer of the Farmers' Alliance in this part of the state, with the purpose of doing what he could to relieve the toiling masses. They sent him to Congress once, but refused him a second term, and he became dissatisfied with them and with fate. After the excitement of life at Washington he found it impossible to settle down again to curds and whey and wandered out West in the mining regions in a vain search for the wealth he had despised and berated.

And so the most of them have been punished because they taught false doctrines and tried to induce the people to worship false gods. There is no section of the country, where a new idea will germinate quicker or grow faster in the brains of a credulous people than Texas but they soon discover when they have been fooled and resent it with vigor.

ANCIENT WAYS.

The tenacity with which Europeans cling to ancient ways is seen in a curious custom which prevails at the present day in Basel, Switzerland, a city of nearly 100,000 inhabitants. Horses being very expensive in this country, the middle classes cannot afford the luxury, and when a young man becomes engaged to be married, he leaves on one of his rich neighbors for a span. Though he may not know the rich man even by sight, he notifies him that he wishes his carriage and footman to call at his home at a specified time. He then uses the conveyance to call with his fiancée upon everybody of their acquaintance.
At the marriage the same thing takes place again. It is expected that the groom will give his bride from $2 to $4 to each coachman so employed.

The people who applaud brevity are often those who want a chance to say a good deal themselves.

HOW TO RIDE A BICYCLE AND RULES OF THE ROAD.

Age is not a necessary requisite to be enabled to ride; children of tender years as well as men of three-score and ten may become capable riders. Wealth or station are not requisite, neither is race, religion, nor previous condition of servitude.

To thoroughly manage the wheel all the faculties are brought into play and the rider of a Sterling soon loses nervousness, slowness of thought, indecision and kindred faults, obtaining instead, steady nerves, quick perception, and decision; besides added health, strength and consequent increased vital energy.

It is proper to say that we advocate simply the merits of the Sterling wheel, which is sold for $60 by the Pacific Cycle & Manufacturing Company. In the Ehlers block on Fort street, and further say that to ably ride and manage a Sterling bicycle, does not alone constitute all that is necessary for a wheelman to know. In addition to ability to wheel, it is most necessary to the written and unwritten

RULES OF THE ROAD.

- 1—Keep to right of center of road.
- 2—Pass to right of approaching vehicle, pedestrian or wheelman.
- 3—Pass to left of pedestrian, vehicle or wheelman going your way.
- 4—Pass behind a pedestrian crossing a street.
- 5—Two or more riders should follow the same rule in passing vehicles, pedestrians or other wheelman.
- 6—Always have wheel under full control at the intersection of streets.
- 7—Do not scorch on crowded thoroughfares.
- 8—Get a copy of these Rules of the Road from the Pacific Cycle & Manufacturing Company, and thus fit yourself with next to a Sterling bicycle, the most necessary requisite to ride a wheel pleasantly, safely and ably.

It Must Be remembered that our stock represents the finest ready-to-wear clothing made in the United States—stylish, serviceable, becoming clothes that have nothing in common with ordinary "ready-made" garments, nor with the kind of goods turned out by the average custom tailor.

We have recently added to our stock the lines made by Hart, Schaffner & Marx of Chicago, in addition to our Stein-Bloch goods.

Do not pay out money for awkward, old-fashioned ready-made clothing when you can have the H. S. & M. goods for the same cost. Do not pay the tailor's price when you can get as good, and probably better, satisfaction, for less than half the money.

VAILIMA SAFE.

T. H. Wade-Wallpole, a passenger by the Alameda spent a week in Apia. He says Vailima, Robert Louis Stevenson's old home has not been destroyed. A shell went through it leaving a nice round hole where it entered and where it went out. Another shell exploded some yards away breaking the glass in some of the windows and tearing away one corner of the roof. But the damage done so far is comparatively slight.

A NEW RECORD.

The Harvard record of minutes 28 seconds for the course from Longwood bridge to the Union Boat Club house a distance of one and seven-eighths miles was broken in the Freshman races held on April 28th of this year. Three out of the four freshmen eights in the race broke the record, and a new record of 9 minutes 21 seconds was established by the winning boat, the first Weld.

"Time is Money"

Is well illustrated by the hurried business man in his fruitless search among the accumulation of papers in his desk for an important document which he has just five minutes to produce. "A place for everything," is an excellent motto. This is what our new desks, with their latest, up-to-date, time-saving devices, represent in reality. HAS MADE A CHANGE.

C. H. MCGURRIN has Adopted a New Typewriter.

The Fact That He Holds the World's Championship Record Makes the Event One of Considerable Interest to Thousands of Operators All Over the Country.

C. H. McGurkin, circuit court stenographer, has adopted the Remington-Sholes typewriter, and now has three of that company's late model machines for use in his official work.

The fact that Mr. McGurkin is the present holder of the world's championship record in typewriting, and adopting a new machine makes the event of unusual interest to the thousands of operators throughout the country. Being interviewed on the subject, Mr. McGurkin said unhesitatingly, that the Remington-Sholes possesses points of advantage over the Remington Standard, which every expert operator will readily admit, among which are the matter of ease and light running qualities, the securely fastened light carriage, perfect alignment, with steady, noiseless operation, so important, especially in dictation work.
