U. S. CITIZENS TO BE WARNED OFF SEAS BY GERMANY?

Pretty Girl, Held 3 Days by Police, Freed, Case a Mystery

"DOROTHY ARNOLD" IS RELEASED, SUES GREAT NORTHERN; IDENTITY UNKNOWN

Puzzle Begins on Last Trip of Great Northern—Pretty Slip of Femininity Declared By Detectives to Be Smooth "Moll"—Sought Funds of Y. W. C. A., Telling Conflicting Stories—Famous Disappearance Case of Dorothy Arnold of New York Revived—She Does Not Answer Description

"Dorothy Arnold" from Saturday night to 11:30 this morning was held at the city police station.

The name that six years ago was flashed over the world in the great disappearance mystery of the decade and the pretty, brown-eyed girl who was held in Honolulu for two weeks at least from the basis of a puzzle that had baffled the Y. W. C. A. officials who know part of the story and even the story itself.

The release of the girl this morning followed the arrival of the Great Northern, which brought a detective and a stewardess. They were the first involved in a startling series of incidents moving along just under the surface here for many days past.

The series began on the last trip of the Great Northern, on which the "mystery girl" was a passenger from San Pedro. When the steamer arrived at Hilo she was searched by two stewardesses at the direction of the ship detective.

She was released today because when the Great Northern arrived the stewardess and detective who knew the "ship end" of the complicated and mysterious story, had no more information to offer. Captain of Detectives McDuffie believed they could shed additional light, but they could not.

Attorney George Davis and George S. Curry had already been engaged by the girl. They have been following the series of events and when she was released this morning they were ready to file in the federal court a suit for $50,000 damages, basing the suit on the search of the girl on board the Great Northern.

Briefly, the search was made because the girl was said by a stewardess to have let drop mysterious hints indicating that she was a female crook—one who had just pulled off a big diamond swindle or theft.

The diamonds were not found, the girl was released, came to Honolulu on the Mauna Kea, dropped out of sight for a few days and something more than a week ago applied to the Y. W. C. A. authorities for funds. She was taken in and cared for, but her actions aroused suspicion. Though she posed as a young, wealthy girl, several things they saw made them suspect she was something else, and the in suspicious were conveyed to the detective bureau. Then followed the arrest of the girl, her looking Saturday night and the suit until the Great Northern arrived.

As 12 o'clock she left the police station and the detectives admit that she is a complete mystery.

GIVEN VARIOUS NAMES IN SHORT TIME

The girl's name is now given as Dawn Moore. She is called Dawn Moore in the local papers filed today. But she gave her name to the Y. W. C. A. authorities as Dorothy Arnold.

She told a stewardess, the stewardess says, that she was the missing Dorothy Arnold of New York, in the search for whom hundreds of thousands of dollars have been spent.

She was booked at the police station as Dorothy Arnold. She is said to have received mail from the general delivery window at the postoffice under the name of Dickie Fisher. In her belongings was found a Christmas card signed "Dick" and it is possible this is a friend and she was getting the mail of a friend.

DOES NOT ANSWER DOROTHY ARNOLD'S DESCRIPTION

Dawn Moore—if that is her real name—does not answer the description of Dorothy Arnold. Her appearance is wide of the description under which the daughter of the wealthy New Yorker has been sought in every civilized land by an agonized father and mother.

Dorothy Arnold left her home on December 12, 1910, and was then 26 years old. She had dark-brown hair and grayish-blue eyes, was of stocky build and an athletic young woman. She would be 32 years old now.

The mystery girl here is apparently not more than 23 or 24, if as much, very elegant, with very brown eyes. In many other particulars, some major and some minor, she failed to answer even approximately to the description of Dorothy Arnold.

In the minds of the detectives and the Y. W. C. A. authorities—who several days ago were supplied by the Star-Bulletin with descriptions of Dorothy Arnold—this cannot possibly be the New York girl who in 1910 walked away from her parents' home on East 79th street and vanished so completely that no detective in the world has been able to discover a clue to her whereabouts or her fate.

NOW DENIES SHE CLAIMED TO BE MISS ARNOLD

The ship detective, the stewardess in whom she is alleged to have confided, and the Y. W. C. A. officials all say absolutely that the girl declared more than once that she was Dorothy Arnold. In some cases she did not claim to be "the" Dorothy Arnold. But the stewardess says specifically that the girl told her she was the missing Miss Arnold of New York, whose disappearance caused a country-wide furor.

This morning the Star-Bulletin asked her directly if she is the missing Dorothy Arnold. She said:

"No," and then, apparently changing her mind, added, "You'll have to see my attorney. I shall make no statement." This was in Attorney Curry's office.

She was then told what the stewardess had said and her comment was: "That stewardess has told about ninety-seven lies about me and she is lying about this if she says I ever told her I was the missing 'Dorothy Arnold'."

And then she added entirely voluntarily:

"Dorothy Arnold has gray-blue eyes. You see mine are dark." These are some of the puzzling things which have mystified the police.

DECLARES GRAM INJUSTICE HAS BEEN DONE

Attorney Curry, while admitting that he is puzzled over some of the contradictions in the strange series of events, declares emphatically that one thing is sure—the Great Northern detective and stewardess and the local police have made a great mistake in searching and arresting her, and they have treated her with intolerable injustice.

That the police held her without justification from Saturday night to Tuesday noon in jail; that she was treated as a criminal; that she is perhaps the victim of unfortunate circumstances—these are some of the very strong comments made by her counsel, entirely apart from the filing of the suit.

The case presents a sort of Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde aspect. Is the girl the remarkably clever crook, as the police manifestly believe and do not hesitate to hint? Or is she an unfortunate, down on her luck, pursued by unhappy and damning circumstances, perhaps not realizing all that is happening around her? Why the conflicting stories? The various names? And there are many small evidences on both sides. Backing up their action in holding her, the police have letters written apparently by an experienced crook, referring in the parlance of crookdom to big "jobs" and to a trip to Shanghai to play the races—on the proceeds of these jobs. These letters are held against the girl—either as written by her or as written to her. And her alleged attempt to make a "pal" out of the Great Northern stewardess is declared to be the work of one who must be wily in the ways of getting "easy money."

On the other side—the supposition that she is a victim of circumstances—there is her appearance—slight, almost pitifully drooping, apparently a girl who is going through some horrible happening she scarcely realizes. Her appearance and some of her actions seem inconceivable if she is a crook.

Here in brief is the story of the mystery girl, so far as it is known, for the past 24 days:

She was first noticed by the stewardess when the Great Northern left San Pedro. They got to be friendly, and then the stewardess says, the girl confided that she was the missing Dorothy Arnold of New York, and that she had been in China largely ever since her disappearance.

HOUSE BILL RATIFIES MAHUKA SITE SALE
To confirm and ratify the sale of the Mahuka site, and to settle a question recently raised as to sufficiency of advertising of the sale, a bill (H. R. 19686) was introduced January 5 in the house, according to mail advices received today and made public this afternoon by Acting Collector of Customs Reymier Sharp. SENATE DEBATE ON PEACE BROUGHT TO ABRUPT END
WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 30.—The senate debate on President Wilson's "league of nations" speech and his accompanying peace move was brought to an abrupt end today when Senator Cummins' motion to call up his resolution was defeated. The Cummins resolution was to devote the sessions of the senate to the peace discussions, to the exclusion of all other business. His motion today was tabled on a motion by Senator Williams, Democrat, the vote being 38 to 30. Senator Martine of New Jersey, Democrat, voted with the Republicans.

U. S. TO PUT FLETCHER ON MEXICAN AFFAIRS
WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 30.—Secretary of State Lansing announced today that Henry P. Fletcher, the U. S. emissary to Mexico who will assume ambassadorial powers when full relations are had with the Carranza government, is to organize his embassy staff and send it to Mexico quickly. DR. CARY GRAYSON'S PROMOTION STARTS FIGHT
WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 30.—The senate committee on naval affairs today ordered a favorable report on the nomination of Dr. Cary Grayson as rear admiral. A fight on the floor of the house is indicated.

Dr. Grayson, who is the president's physician and golfing companion, was nominated rear admiral on January 18, the promotion taking him from passed assistant naval surgeon, with the rank of lieutenant, to medical director, with the rear-admiral's rank. The promotion put Dr. Grayson ahead of 114 experienced and active naval officers and also gave him a much larger salary. Washington reports since then have indicated that the appointment has stirred up a hornet's nest.

Guardman Goes To Jail As "Slacker"

"As governor of the territory, I was called on to go over the findings of the regimental summary court, and I have approved the findings, which sentenced the national guardman to a fine or two days at hard labor. I approve the action taken and stand with the national guard authorities. That is all I have to say."

National guardmen who absent themselves from drill without proper excuse will find themselves in trouble with the military authorities of the territory and in extreme cases may be given jail sentences for repeated absences without leave. This morning Governor Pinkham, as commander-in-chief of the National Guard of Hawaii, called upon the high sheriff to carry out a court martial sentence of two days' confinement at hard labor in the case of George Keawe, a member of Company A, 1st Hawaiian Infantry, recently convicted of absence without leave on several occasions.

Under present Federal regulations pay of the entire force of national guardmen is dependent on the average attendance at drills of the organization to which they belong, for the half-year period. It is therefore possible for chronic slackers, as they are now termed by the national guard, and habitual absentees, to pull down the attendance of a company to such an extent that no member could receive pay for his services, even though he might have attended every drill. It is to prevent any such injustice from now on that the governor has taken prompt action.

Both territorial and federal laws provide ample means for enforcing attendance, by providing for courts martial and for the execution of proper (Continued on page two)

FREIGHTER HAS GUN PROTECTION

Escaping the fate which befell another ship of the same line when both were near each other in the Mediterranean last month, the other being sunk by an Austrian submarine, the Blue Funnel freighter Agamemnon, Capt. J. H. E. Hazeland, arrived about noon today and is taking 650 tons of bunkers this afternoon at Pier 17. She is from New York via the canal.

All Blue Funnel steamers are now armed for their protection while in submarine infested waters, according to the steamer's officers. The Agamemnon is taking 10,000 tons of general cargo from New York to Vladivostok. She landed her gun and gun crew at Kingston, Jamaica, and after unloading at Vladivostok will go home via Suez, stopping at a port in Zanzibar to pick up another gun and gun crew to protect her during the voyage through the Mediterranean danger zone back to London. This will complete her voyage around the world.

This afternoon the schooner Stimson arrived from Seattle with lumber for Honolulu and was towed into port by a tug. Her arrival makes six vessels calling here today.

George C. Evans, Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Burns of Great Falls, Montana, and Dr. and Mrs. A. J. Simonsen and Albert Simonsen of Calumet, Michigan, make up a party of six "copper" people who arrived in the Great Northern and will return on the same boat, excepting the Simonsens. They are at the Young Hotel.

Evans is an engineer in the mechanical and electrical department of the Great Falls reduction department; the Anaconda Copper Mining Company; Simonsen is chief of the medical staff of the Calumet & Hecla Mining Company of Calumet and Burns is superintendent of the electrolytic refinery in the Great Falls plant.

NEW LIGHT SHINES ON "LEAK," EARLY TIPS FOR BROKERS

Evidence Before Probers Today Shows Big Firms Had Information; Huge Profit Taken

(Associated Press by Federal Wireless)
NEW YORK, N. Y., Jan. 30.—New light was shed today on the now-famous "leak" on President Wilson's peace-term note of December. Evidence that brokers had information earlier than 12:48 p. m. December 20, that the secretary of state was going to issue a peace statement was adduced today before the house rules committee, which is probing the alleged leak.

The note was published on December 21. The information today was given by E. F. Hutton, a well-known broker. It was in the form of a confidential telegram by private wire from Chicago. The telegram read:

"Hear state department going issue statement on economic situation attempt promote peace. What do you think of this and how are you on stocks?"

To this Hutton's firm replied:

"Our Washington wires have same information as yours. Others have similar. We put it out."

Hutton told the committee that the reference to Washington connections meant F. A. Connelly & Company, one of the partners in this firm being a brother-in-law of President Wilson.

Hutton's firm wired details of the President's coming message to correspondents.

Earlier in the hearing today, Bernard M. Baruch, a prominent broker and heavy speculator, testified that his profits taken during the time of the alleged "leak," between December 10 and December 23, amounted to $475,168. He declared that these large profits were due to foreknowledge in interpreting the speeches of Chancellor von Bethmann-Hollweg of Germany and Premier Lloyd George of Britain, as meaning that peace is coming. Not a single transaction, he declared, was influenced by advanced information that the president was about to despatch a peace note.

He had not received such information, he insisted. As a proof he said he was on the buying side of the market when the news came and he would not have been there had he foreseen the note.

ORGANIZATIONS TO RECEIVE PAY

Announcement was made this morning from headquarters of the 1st Infantry, National Guard of Hawaii, of companies that will receive federal pay for the half-year period ending on December 31.

Seven organizations from the 1st Infantry are included in the list, of whom it is definitely known pay will be forthcoming. Other 1st Infantry companies, so far as is known, have not qualified since they became guardsmen under the new oath, not having the average attendance of 60 per cent at drills.

The companies announced today, with a rough estimate on the pay each will receive are as follows: Machine Gun Company, recognized as of October 31, $3900; Company B, September 13, $1800; Company H, October 12, $900; Company I, September 22, $1100; Company J, July 7, $2200; Company M, July 7, $2200; Medical Department, September 9, $450.

In announcing the approximate payments due it was emphasized that these figures are only estimates. These companies, having been recognized with proper attendance, will be submitted to the war department. Checks will be made out in Washington to individuals and sent here for distribution by company commanders.

PASSENGERS OF G. N. MISS BOAT AT HILO

Six cabin passengers of the Hill liner Great Northern who missed the boat at Hilo last night, failing to return from the volcano before midnight, the scheduled sailing hour of the liner, are believed to be coming on the Inter-Island steamer Helene, which was due to leave Hilo today and arrive here some time tomorrow.

A wireless from L. H. Kittridge, one of the party, was received by the Great Northern in port today requesting that the baggage in staterooms 100, 161 and 153A be held until the occupants arrive. The liner's berthing list shows the three rooms to have been occupied by R. C. Bourne and W. J. Fleming, Miss Clara Reed and Mrs. A. H. Monroe, and Mr. and Mrs. Kittridge.

WASHINGTON EXPECTS CENTRAL POWERS TO SAY AMERICANS ON ENEMY SHIPS TRAVEL AT PERIL

Rumor Germany is Facing Food Shortage in Coming Spring—Director Batocki Indicates in Speech That Further Care Must Be Used—Naval Battle in Adriatic—Land Fighting Has Few Features Today

(Associated Press Service by Federal Wireless)
WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 30.—Another drastic step, perhaps in preparation for extension of the submarine campaign, is hinted at in advice received here from Europe, it is rumored. A warning to Americans not to take passage on armed enemy ships, and that if such passage is taken, it is at the peril of the passengers, is expected soon from the Central Powers.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 30.—It is reported that Great Britain is considering placing heavier armament on her merchant vessels.

(What constitutes a warship under international law is now in controversy between the United States and Germany. Germany holds that any armed vessel, even a merchantman, is a warship and as such can be attacked without warning. The point has never been yielded by the United States, and if the Central Powers send the warning indicated above, it will mean that U. S. citizens are warned off the seas and from vessels in which the United States holds they have a right to travel safe from attack without notification.)

AMSTERDAM, Holland, Jan. 30.—The Berlin Vorwaerts, the radical newspaper, declares that Adolph Batocki, president of the Food Regulation Board, and commonly known as the "food dictator," in a recent speech indicated that the supply of provisions for spring is scanty and will require careful distribution and economical use.

He is quoted as saying that neither potatoes nor turnips must be used as animal fodder, and that there are 2,000,000 tons less wheat and potatoes than last year.

PARIS, France, Jan. 30.—A German attack on Hill 304, in the Verdun sector, was repulsed today with considerable losses for the enemy.

Austrian Destroyer Crippled in Fight

"DOROTHY ARNOLD" CASE 2-WEEK MYSTERY

GIRL, RELEASED FROM JAIL, NOW SUES SHIP FOR $5000 DAMAGES

On the way over, the stewardess says, the girl proposed that they send to her folks for $1000, and she would "split" $500 with the stewardess, and said also she intended going back to Shanghai. She also let fall hints about a big diamond robbery in which apparently she had figured.

The stewardess told the ship detective and after inspection at Hilo the girl was searched. Nothing was found. She left the steamer at Hilo and came to Honolulu on the Mauna Kea.

Drops Out of Sight
Arriving on the Mauna Kea, she was trailed to the Union Grill, in company with a man, who, it is believed, does not figure in the case in any way. Capt. McDuffie first saw her at the Grill and was later told the story of the search.

Then she dropped out of sight of the police. More than a week ago she applied to the Y. W. C. A. for relief, declaring herself penniless and in great need. She was immediately taken care of and placed in the Y. W. C. A. home, and the association is now "out" about $45 for the care it gave her.

Her actions aroused the suspicions of the Y. W. C. A. officials who knew about her, and last Friday it was decided to have a detective get an opportunity to see her without knowledge on her part. The first glimpse convinced a detective that something was wrong, and McDuffie visited the home.

He saw Miss Arnold, as she was known there, and immediately identified her as the girl who had been on the Great Northern under the name of Dora or Don Moore.

Captain McDuffie at once decided to talk with the girl, and did so, at the Homestead. He says she admitted to him she was using another name from that on the passenger list. Places Girl Under Arrest

For a day and a half the detective department endeavored to find out about her, without taking any action, and it appears that she was convinced something would be used against her. For Saturday night she went to McDuffie's office, he related today, and asked him "what the police want of me?" He says he told her then of the strange circumstances, which convinced him that she should be held for further questioning when the Great Northern arrived, and it was then that he placed her under arrest and booked her for investigation, under the name of Dorothy Arnold.

She has been in the jail ever since. Her attorneys, who also say frankly that they cannot account for all the circumstances, did not try to get a release on habeas corpus, believing, they told the Star-Bulletin, that she was not being harmed by staying at the jail, where, it is insisted, she was well cared for.

When the Great Northern arrived today, it was found that the ship detective could shed no more light on the case, and as there was no direct evidence on which to hold her longer, McDuffie released her.

But he retains letters and other data to back up his assertions that her own stories have been so contradictory, and her actions so strange, that he was fully warranted in holding her for investigation.

$5000 Damage Suit is Based On Search of Person Aboard Ship

Miss Moore, or Arnold, has retained Attorney George A. Davis and G. S. Curry as her counsel in the $5750 alleged damage suit filed in federal court today. She alleges that on January 5, when the Great Northern was at the dock at Hilo, two stewardesses "arrested and imprisoned this libellant in a stateroom aboard said steamship where she was then lying, and stripped and caused her to be stripped of all her clothing, and made search of her clothing and baggage without authority of law."

This incident, declares the plaintiff, was in direct violation of the fourth and fifth amendments of the constitution. She asserts that the alleged action of the stewardesses "caused her to suffer great pain of mind and heaped indignity and insult upon her without her consent, and against her will."

She further alleges that the stewardesses, after having arrested her, unlawfully confined her in the stateroom for a long period of time, and that after the incident had become generally known on shipboard, "all other passengers on board shunned this libellant and refused to speak or converse with her."

The plaintiff says she left the ship at Hilo, where, she alleges, she was compelled to remain until January 12, when she took the steamer Mauna Kea to Honolulu. She holds that the officers of the ship violated the marine contract she entered into at the time of the purchase of her ticket, and that they carry and convey this libellant safely and treat her with proper kindness and consideration as such passenger, but caused her to be arrested, assaulted, imprisoned, searched and treated with great hardship and caused her great pain of body and mind.

The plaintiff alleges damage in the sum of $5000, and also $750 for expense and maintenance from the time of the arrival of the Great Northern at Hilo until the termination of the suit.

CLEMMENS SUED; ALLEGED DAMAGE

Dr. H. Clemmens, local dentist, is defendant in a $5201.85 suit for alleged damages filed in circuit court this afternoon by Georgia Sousa. The complaint alleges that Clemmens has in his employ one Archibald D. Perkins, held to be "a careful, competent and efficient dentist."

Plaintiff alleges that in August, 1916, she went to Perkins for an examination of her teeth and that, among other things, he filled a tooth in her upper jaw in, she asserts, a "criminal, careless and unskillful manner." She further asserts that, as a result, she was caused "great pain and suffering for weeks," and for eight days was under the care of a physician, and was forced to seek the services of another dentist.

Doctor's fees, dentist's bill, hospital expenses and automobile hire, plaintiff says, amounted to $201.85, and she asks for the recovery of this sum and also $5000 for alleged damages.

TO COMPLAIN OF PAUHI STREET

Lincoln L. McCandless today was to file with the board of health a complaint regarding the present condition of Pauhi street from Nuanu to River street.

"I think it is high time that something was done not only toward improving Pauhi street but getting it into some sort of sanitary condition," asserts McCandless. "The portion of the street I refer to has not been dry for the last six months and every time it rains the street is full of big puddles of water."

McCandless' complaint, he says, will refer especially to the portion of the street between Smith and Nuanu, although he declares that it is just as bad from Smith to River street.

NORMAN ROSS TO MEET CHAMPIONS

Norman Ross, Olympic Club swimmer, who set a new record for the 220-yard swim recently in San Francisco, arrived in Honolulu this morning on the Matsushima. Ross lives in Portland and first started his natural work in that city.

The "Big Moose," as he is called in Portland and San Francisco, will enter the 220-yard swim and will also meet Ludy Langer in the longer distances. In a recent meet Ross finished ahead of Langer for the 220 and 440 yards and is expected to make a hit when he meets the star swimmers of Hawaii during February.

Ross is a big fellow and has plenty of stamina to go through a grueling race. He said today that he intended to do his best and felt that he would give the other swimmers a good race in every event. Ross arrived here early in order to get in condition for the various events. This means that McGillivray, Langer and the Honolulu mermen are in for strong competition.

CAPT. KOUGHAN SEES ERUPTION

Great activity of Fanua volcano, in the Tonga group, was reported today by Capt. J. J. Koughan, commander of the Oceanic liner Sierra, which docked at 8 o'clock this morning from Sydney and Pago-Pago and will steam at 11 o'clock tonight from Pier 6 for San Francisco.

"I have not seen Fanua so active in five years," said Capt. Koughan. "It is erupting about every 10 minutes, shooting up clouds of black smoke and steam and was a most spectacular sight." The Sierra passed the volcano in the daytime, about 15 miles from it. Passengers photographed the eruption.

The Sierra brought eight passengers to Honolulu. Her through passenger list is light, only 30 first class, 66 second and 26 steerage. Among the passengers are four German war exchange prisoners from the Australian internment camps, all above military age. They will be exchanged for Australian prisoners. The Sierra's through freight is light owing to the embargo and the stopping of the mills for the holidays.

Carl Hoff has been committed to the circuit court to be tried on a charge of stealing an auto. A second charge of using threatening language to the driver of the car was nolle prossed.

WILL STAND HORSES ELSEWHERE

Ben Hollinger said today when asked concerning the complaint of the U. S. immigration station that the Honolulu Construction & Draying Company hitched its horses on the sidewalk, that there is no sidewalk there, but he had given orders to the driver not to hitch where the sidewalk is supposed to be.

BLOUSES ARE GAY

Paris is wearing very gay blouses with wool tailcoats; and still gay blouses with the separate skirts. Bright colored taffeta and taffeta in bold checks and Scotch plaids go into the new blouses which a year ago, during the vogue of dim pastel tints, would have been considered positively loud. But these gay silk blouses, according to this year's opinion, are cheerful and charming. Many models have wide sashes of the silk which are draped twice around the waist and tied at one side in a loose knot. These sashes give the waist line a very trim effect and may be arranged high or low, as the figure is short or long waisted.

SCRAP IRON HEAP IS FOUND IN BELLY OF HEAVIEST HOG

LOCKHAVEN, Pa. — Dory Hummel of Beaver Springs killed a porker which he knew was a big one, but which exceeded the estimates of the most conservative authorities by several pounds. In the hog's stomach were found 69 ten-penny nails and six pieces of scrap iron, four to six inches long by one inch wide.

sentences by the same. According to territorial law it is the duty of the high sheriff to carry out the sentences of courts martial, and under the National Defense Act, the laws of a state or territory, as to processes and sentences by court martial, remain in force.

There have been a number of trials by summary court martial in the last infantry during the past few weeks of men who are reported by their company commanders as chronic absentees. Company commanders have preferred the charges in all these cases and most of the men have been let off with small fines. Flagrant cases, however, are likely to be treated more drastically.

Before the national guard was federalized it was possible under territorial military regulations to get rid of undesirable men by discharge, which was often found to be a more convenient method than trial by military court. Now, however, men can be discharged in only specific cases, in some of these permission of the secretary of war being necessary. It is, therefore, according to the governor, necessary to enforce attendance of men who have no good reason to absent themselves, in order that men who are doing their work fairly and squarely may not be done out of their well-earned pay.

The body of an unidentified man, with a wound in his neck, was found in the gutter of Berrier avenue, East Trenton.

SUPERVISORS TO HAVE BUSY NIGHT

With the Dr. R. G. Ayer hearing, the resolution amending the appropriation bill in regard to the donation to the Promotion Committee and the question raised Monday on an increased appropriation to the electric light department, the board of supervisors at its meeting this evening will have its hands full and undoubtedly the session will be a decidedly lively affair. The Ayer matter will probably be referred to a committee for investigation. When the appropriation bill was passed the Promotion Committee item was made payable on June 30, when it would receive $1500 if the money is available. At a recent meeting Hollinger introduced a resolution killing the above clause. It passed first reading but was not ordered to print and tonight will decide the issue.

Other business scheduled for this evening is the final report of George Collins, county engineer, on Smith street improvement district. If adopted, bids will then be called for. The resolution appropriating $1500 for bird cages will come up for the third time for second reading and the board will be asked to approve the bid for the Seaview improvement bonds.

NO RESULTS YET HAD IN PLAN TO BRING CHINESE

Emissary to Washington is Back But Says He Has Not Anything to Report

What success, if any, will attend the proposed project to secure legislation to permit the entrance of 50,000 alien Chinese into Hawaii for plantation labor has not yet been definitely determined by W. H. Hindle who, with Farm Corn, local Chinese interpreter, returned to Honolulu in the Great Northern from a trip to the national capital.

"There is nothing, absolutely nothing, to say in the matter," Hindle told the Star-Bulletin. "I went to the mainland simply to do a little 'missionary work' as regards the project, but have learned nothing definite and have reached no conclusions."

Contrary to reports here, Hindle says that Farm Corn is not in any way connected with or interested in the project; that he accompanied Hindle merely for pleasure because he had never been in eastern United States.

Hindle, however, went as far as to say that he is almost certain no bill looking toward the proposed legislation will be introduced in the present Congress, "and it is a toss-up," he adds, "whether there will be an extra session." Prior to going to his home, Hindle conferred briefly with N. B. Young of the Mercantile Reference Agency. He told Young practically what he told the Star-Bulletin, that there is nothing definite.

"When there is anything definite about this project," Hindle says, "the local papers will have the first story, and the mainland papers can copy it." Farm Corn declined to discuss the project, saying that he knew nothing about it and was not interested in it.

GREEK LAD SAW BALKAN FIGHTING

Greece makes no prediction as to the winning side in the great world war, nor does she venture any guess as to whether she herself will be drawn into it. One party is urging war, the other party opposing it.

James Sopulos, a Greek lad, who left that country three months ago as a veteran of the Balkan war, and who arrived on the Great Northern this morning, sums up the attitude of the Grecian people in this manner.

Sopulos left Honolulu four years ago. He is a cousin of George Deraimos of the Union Grill of this city, who is also a veteran of the Balkan campaign.

Young Sopulos witnessed some of the hottest fighting of the war with the Bulgarians in 1912 and 1913, but escaped unscathed, save for a few scratches. He was with the mobilized Grecian army that formed when the tide of European war swept too near the border. Also he saw the Zeppelin raid on Saloniki, during which fight one of the big vessels was brought down by anti-aircraft guns.

"In Macedonia," says Sopulos, "the people want war, for there they are under the provisional government, but those under Constantine do not want it, and thus the two factions are split in a decided manner."

The young soldier shrugged his shoulders at a question as to which side the Greeks favor.

"It is one side this and one side that," he said. "The Greeks are trying to remain neutral. Nobody has any idea of when the war will come to a close."

Y. W. CAMPAIGN STARTS WITH RUSH AND OPENS TODAY

At Luncheon Held This Noon Treasurer Announces Gifts of More Than $3000

Mrs. Irwin Shepherd, treasurer of the Y. W. C. A., announced at the luncheon held today at the association that $3037 had already been contributed toward the budget for 1917. Contributions were acknowledged as follows: Charles M. Cooke, $720; C. Brewer & Co., $500; Castle & Cooke, $300; Hawaiian Trust Company, $100, and an individual contribution of $100.

Campaign workers in the Y. W. C. A. program for raising the budget for the year 1917 met at the association today for lunch. They toured the building and after the program was carried out full instructions were given to the workers who will begin the campaign on Wednesday morning.

The various teams organized for the campaign will begin work tomorrow morning and will report at 12:30 on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday. A luncheon will be served at 1 o'clock in the gymnasium to all campaign workers. Reports will be received of individual contributions and funds raised by the various teams.

Forbes, Miss Alice Knapp, Miss Ruth Soper, Miss Nora Sturgeon, Miss Harriet Forbes, Miss Alice Hopper, Mrs. Stanley Livingston, Mrs. Jonathan Shaw and Mrs. R. D. Williams.

Hundreds of Honolulu women will be up at daylight tomorrow morning, ready to begin the campaign to raise $17,000 to carry on the Y. W. C. A. budget for 1917 and to clear the debt that is outstanding on the association building.

Plan Whirlwind Campaign

The whirlwind campaign for funds will last for three days, and more than 1400 people will be canvassed for funds to aid in the work of the year. It is estimated that it will cost nearly $40,000 to run the affairs of the association during the coming year. Much of this money will come back through receipts in various departments, but there are a number of departments which are not self supporting.

Among the features that are expected to be enlarged during the coming year are the departments of travelers' aid and extension work. In addition it is planned to build a beach club at Waikiki which will cost a neat sum.

Work Starts Systematically

The campaign to raise the 1917 budget is in charge of Mrs. C. T. Fitts, chairman of the finance committee, aided by Mrs. Walter F. Frear, president of the association; Mrs. Irwin Shepherd, treasurer; Miss Helen Salisbury, campaign executive, and Miss Annetta Diekmann, publicity executive.

Some time ago Mrs. Frear sent out 1400 letters to subscribers, and to those who it is hoped will become subscribers. The campaign office in the association will be open daily from 12:30 to 1:30. ARMY POET MAY BE RETIRED SOON

Capt. George Steunenberg, 25th Infantry, who is widely known in army and civilian circles of Hawaii, the Philippines and the mainland, as well as in several places outside Uncle Sam's domains, for his ability as a poet, has been ordered before a retiring board at the Presidio in San Francisco.

Capt. Steunenberg left the islands about a year ago on sick leave, and has not been able since to return to duty here. The examining board before whom he is to appear will meet upon a date to be set by its president, Col. Guy L. Edle, Medical Corps.

Friends of Capt. Steunenberg will recall that it was one of his poems, "Me and Gott," which almost caused strained relations between this country and Germany. He is a brother of former Governor Steunenberg of Idaho, assassinated some years ago at the state capital.

TUESDAY, JANUARY 30, 1917.

THE OBJECT-LESSON OF CROCKETT.

To many of the big audience in the Opera House last night the most significant feature of Mr. George M. Rolph's lecture was the emphasis placed, in his talk and in the moving pictures, upon the community welfare work done at Crockett, the home of the great California and Hawaiian Sugar Refining Company.

The handling of huge cargoes of raw sugar from ship to shore and of refined sugar from shore to ship; the washing, boiling, sacking and the innumerable other processes of refining; the great size of the big Crockett plant; the labor-saving devices and efficiency methods—all these were of deep interest, and were ably portrayed. But not less interesting were the features of community life in Crockett, led by the refining company—the fine schools built in the town; the pretty homes of employees, and particularly the facilities for wholesome sport and recreation.

The refinery, working on a eight-hour day basis, promotes not only the efficiency of the employees at their daily tasks, but their pleasures when the day's work is over. Glances of clubhouses, gymnasiums, swimming pools, baseball fields; of children's playgrounds; of festival occasions; of patriotic celebrations—all these show that this great corporation recognizes the value of good community spirit. These recreation features are systematized under a director.

The fine facilities for sport and exercise and simple, wholesome amusement probably go far to explain Mr. Rolph's remark that though the town of Crockett has 32 saloons, rarely is a man seen drunk. The town provides facilities for men to meet in social relaxation other than the saloon, and under such conditions the saloon loses much of its garish attractiveness.

Several Hawaiian plantations could show long strides toward the degree of community welfare work which Crockett has attained. In the islands much has been done, notably on Maui. Much remains to be done, but the success of the experiments so far made are powerful object-lessons. Those managers who have devoted time and effort to giving their employees special facilities for recreation are the managers most emphatic in their statements that the time and effort are well repaid in the satisfaction of labor and the increased efficiency and interest of the working community.

Mr. Rolph's illustrated lecture was highly interesting and it is not at all derogatory to say that a similar portrayal of raw sugar production in Hawaii would be made perhaps even more interesting. For in this could be shown the industry literally "from the ground up"—and there is much that is picturesque, much that is extremely beautiful, in the planting of the cane, the vital of great, swelling green fields stretching from sea-coast to distant hillside; in the harvesting, in the milling, in the handling of the cane to the big freighters at island ports. It would be well worth the efforts of the Sugar Planters' Association to produce such a film and have it shown with a competent lecturer. Such a lecture would dispel many of the grotesquely false ideas on the mainland concerning the production of sugar in Hawaii—ideas that in the past have bred hostile suspicion and may do so again.

THE HAWAII OLYMPIAD BOOMED.

Stockton, California, papers are already booming the Hawaii Olympiad plan proposed for Honolulu in 1918. This plan was suggested when Stockton High School sent 12 boys here recently. On their return, the Stockton Record printed the following:

"The Stockton High School athletes must have made a splendid impression on Honolulu on the occasion of their visit here during the holiday season. The Honolulu newspapers devoted columns to the story of the boys' visit and their activities during their stay in the land of the aloha."

Now comes Raymond C. Brown, secretary of the Honolulu Chamber of Commerce, with a communication to the Stockton Chamber of Commerce suggesting that the trip of the Stockton boys be made an annual affair.

The idea of making the visit an annual affair originated with the Honolulu Star-Bulletin. The Honolulu paper copied extensively from an article published in the Stockton Record in which Principal Noel H. Garrison told why the selections were made and just what would be expected of the boys on their return.

Secretary Brown and an informal committee he has called together are already discussing details of the Olympiad plan. It was received with such instant approval that there is little doubt it will be developed into the leading public event of the islands in 1918.

WYOMING, TOO.

Wyoming is moving toward the "dry" column. The first bill introduced at the opening of the Wyoming state legislature a few days ago provides for the submission of a constitutional amendment for statewide prohibition. The bill provides that the amendment shall be submitted to the voters at the general election in 1918 and shall become effective fourteen months later, or January 1, 1920. The "dry" forces of the state predict that not a vote in the legislature will be cast against this measure.

HAWAII AT CORNELL.

As in Yale, Harvard and other mainland colleges, Hawaii is ably represented at Cornell. The "Red Hot Hawaii," a sectional club for persons coming from the Hawaiian Islands, has an enrollment of 22 members, one of whom is connected with the university faculty. A letter from one of the members of the club to the Star-Bulletin says of "He Hui Hawaii" that "it is eager to further Hawaii's interests as well as its own." That this club is wide awake is seen in the heralding of a visit here by Dr. L. H. Bailey, a distinguished author and agriculturist.

The president of the club is William L. Morgan.

COORDINATING ROAD-BUILDING.

FROM DAILY FINANCIAL AMERICA.

The Illinois Highway Improvement Association, supported by its membership of every good-roads organization in the state and by the Chicago Association of Commerce and other bodies of like nature, is doing a useful work in taking constructive action towards the coordination of efforts for road-making by the state and by the counties. It is pointed out that individual counties build each year a few miles of road with no assurance that their main roads, when finally completed, will connect up with highways considered to be the main roads of adjoining counties and of the state. There has been no definite effort at harmony of action which shall make local road-building an actual part of a general system.

This is a fault by no means peculiar to Illinois. It is likely that it is common to every state in the union, with resulting waste, in each case, of money, material and energy, and failure to obtain the greatest benefits from road-building.

The Highway Association of Illinois has proposed a state bond issue of from $50,000,000 to $60,000,000 for a state-wide system of highways, and a state appropriation which will make available $3,300,000 of federal aid, under the terms of the bill passed by Congress last summer. The idea is to use the proceeds of the bond issue for main state highways, to apply the state appropriation to main county roads, to direct the funds representing federal aid to some highway or highways of national importance, and to place the disposition of all these funds in the hands of the State Highway Commission. By such an arrangement, together with the constant scrutiny of plans and expenditures by the Highway Improvement Association, its constituent members and the commercial organization, it is felt that all details of the work would be conducted with a high degree of coordination. The recommendations of the Highway Association are being placed before the General Assembly of the State.

Whatever action is taken upon the matter by the legislative body, it is significant that the business men of Illinois, working through various organizations along harmonious lines, are insisting upon a scientific handling of the whole matter. Men of opposite political creeds are working shoulder to shoulder with a sole and common desire that road-building, so notoriously a means for unscrupulous action by political rings, shall have but one purpose, and that the good of the general public.

Governor-General Francis Burton Harrison of the Philippine Islands is to resign his post next month, if rumor from Washington is correct, and will return to the United States. It is also rumored that his successor will be W. Morgan Shuster, formerly a federal official at Manila, later treasurer of Persia and once an international figure in the Russo-British dispute over Persian possession. Shuster passed through Honolulu a number of months ago en route to Manila.

If the Congress of the United States gets to "resolving" peace terms for foreign nations, all of which have racials and friends among our people, it will furnish a mix-up of sentiment that would be ridiculous, not to say dangerous.—Boston Post.

Tom Lawson's charges have all been denied, which must remind Tom of the good old days when he was publishing lurid chapters of "Frenzied Finance" and mentioning a lot of our leading financiers in a ways that seemed to irritate them strangely.

Hawaii asks Congress for permission to import 25,000 Chinamen, who are imperatively needed as laborers on the sugar plantations. Will Hawaii get the permission? She will not.—Seattle Post-Intelligencer.

If the public is able to verify the Washington statement that eight per cent of retail prices consists of the cost of delivery there may be sudden recourse to the well-known but generally despised market basket.—Rochester Post-Express.

In view of their success in stealing copper from the piers, the gang of harbor pirates rounded up by the police Saturday night might be profitably employed in investigating the "bulge" in Pier 6.

The new battle-cruisers will probably cost $19,000,000 each, which puts them almost in a class with beefsteak, shoes and street-paving.

Serious threats were heard against the weather man last night as the thermometer began to reach down toward the low sixties.

Somebody seems to be switching Mr. Wilson's pet railroad measure to a sidetrack.

It's a slow day in the news now when nobody tries to pull off a bomb-plot.

"ABSENT"

Honolulu, Jan. 29, 1917.
Editor Honolulu Star-Bulletin.

Sir: I desire to take issue with the sentiment expressed by a "spokesman for the good," expressed in the Advertiser on Sunday under the heading, "Militia Courts Martial Not Needed."

Two of his statements in particular demand an answer. He says, "The men have given everything, time, labor and money. The United States Government has given very little."

All credit to the men who have given much, and incidentally they are in no danger of court martial, but what the government given so little? Vistually the government gives life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness. Is that little?

"We in Hawaii are not yet in a position to expect men to turn out per order so and so," says the spokesman. Every one of these men, Mr. Editor, took a solemn oath to turn out when ordered. In effect this spokesman says we do not expect men to live up to their oaths of office.

There is another feature of this "drill absenteeism" that I would like to call attention to, and that is regarding the men who stay away from drill.

A man who belongs to a national guard organization and who habitually absents himself from drill does a threefold wrong:

1. He is false to his oath.
2. He hampers his organization for he hurts its discipline and sets an example that makes efficiency impossible.
3. He wrongs his comrades individually, for he prevents their getting the pay that the government offers.

COLORADO ANTI-SALOONISTS AND W. C. T. U. SPLIT OVER STATE'S BONE-DRY LAW

DENVER, Colo.—The fight which is being made by certain "dry" leaders in the state to put Colorado in the "bone-dry" column by enacting a law similar to that in West Virginia, prohibiting the importation of liquors, into the state, has resulted in a split between the Anti-Saloon League and members of the W. C. T. U.

A. J. Finch, superintendent of the local branch of the Anti-Saloon League, has come out for an amendment that will absolutely forbid the importation of liquor into the state. Members of the W. C. T. U., on the other hand, declare that they got the people of the state to support the prohibitory amendment upon the representation that their fight was directed against the saloon and that individuals might have liquor for private use. They claim that absolute restriction of importation of liquor would result in swarming Colorado back into the "wet" list when another election is held. For this reason they favor a law limiting the amount of liquor which may be imported to one quart of vinous liquor each month and 12 quarts of beer. In this way, they say, bootlegging would be stopped and the individual would be able to have a certain amount of liquor in his possession for private use.

A number of legislators have interested themselves in the cause of complete restriction and an amendment will be introduced in the legislature to this end.

POINDEXTER HAS ADMIRER HERE

Montana's loss will be Hawaii's gain," said Dan Tracy of Great Falls, Montana, today, speaking in reference to the recent appointment by President Wilson of J. P. Poindexter to the United States district judgeship here in place of Judge Charles F. Clemens, resigned.

Tracy has followed the winding trail of Montana politics through its intricacies for a quarter of a century and personally knows most of the state's residents who have aspired to political office. He is acquainted with Poindexter and speaks briefly but commendatory of him:

"Poindexter is an able lawyer and an agreeable, jovial gentleman. He will be well-liked by the people of Honolulu for he has a peculiar pleasing way about him. I hate to see him leaving the North but if he must go, Hawaii is the place for him. He is about 45 years old, married, full-faced, curly-haired and funny, too. I hope I am here to give him a real 'Hawaiian' aloha when he arrives."

Tracy says Poindexter has been attorney-general of Montana for the last four years and rendered perfect and popular service. He was defeated at the last election by a narrow margin of about 900 votes, cutting down to that figure the usual Republican margin of about 20,000, according to Tracy.

In the last Montana election to Democrats saved the governor and lieutenant-governor, Stewart and McDowell, respectively, but lost the treasuryship and the attorney-general's office.

'ASK NEWTON' AT THE YOUNG

Brimming full of two weeks' information gleaned on Maui, Hawaii and Kauai and with a "just ask me" look in his eyes, Chester Lee Newton, the new information clerk for the Territorial Hotel Company, began duties of dispensing gratis directions from his corner in the Young Hotel to the hordes of guests who arrived in the Katsudis, Sierra and Great Northern.

To show the good will of the Promotion Committee next door and to assist in a similar enterprise Secretary A. P. Taylor sauntered in early this morning with a cabinet, which he said had been seasoning for a year for just such a purpose, full of pamphlets, folders and booklets on the Hawaiian Islands.

Newton was formerly a newspaper man, having reported among other publications for the St. Louis Globe-Democrat, and is alert and chock-full of facts on the islands. He has been here about six months.

On the other islands he found transportation and hotel companies preparing for more tourists than ever, several of whom had taken up attractions direct with the other islands.

Poindexter got his appointment to Hawaii, so Tracy says, through United States Senator Walsh of Montana, who, as Wilson's western manager in the last campaign rendered invaluable service to the president and is now strictly "in" at the White House, commanding considerable attention at the president's ear.

United States Senator Myers of Montana is also a Democrat.

Where shall you put your valuables?

In a janned tin box on the closet shelf, in your easily opened trunk, on the moulding back of a picture, in the dresser or desk drawer?

Where?

There are very few homes that are equipped with really safe places in which to store valuable papers, heirlooms, family silver, or money.

It is virtually true, that no home is safe from the depredations of the burglar.

Then there is also the possibility of fire destroying all your valuables.

But there is one place of safety:

The Safe Deposit Vaults of the Trent Trust Company are of the most modern, fire and burglar proof construction. Every effective safety device, time-clock combinations, etc., are employed to safely guard the valuables of those who use the vaults and deposit boxes.

BOY MEETS DEATH UNDER BIG TRUCK

Abi, a Japanese motor truck driver, is in the city and county jail, arrested for manslaughter. Eleven-year-old Masato Sakamoto is dead, his skull crushed like an egg shell beneath the rear wheel of the truck that Abi was driving and from which the little school boy leapt as it passed his home.

John Fernandez, deputy sheriff at Ewa, on Monday night brought Abi to Honolulu and lodged him in jail. This morning Fernandez told the story of the death of Masato Sakamoto to a Star-Bulletin representative.

Abi was driving for a Waipahu soda water company a large motor truck loaded with boxes of soda water bottles. Masato Sakamoto, according to Fernandez, and another boy came out of school, saw an opportunity to ride home and boarded the passing truck, which was going from Waipahu to Aiea. When they reached the house where the Sakamoto boy lived his companion leapt off the truck and fell to the ground, at the same time calling to Sakamoto not to jump. But the boy's warning was not taken. Sakamoto jumped, evidently from the side of the truck, and fell, the right rear wheel of the heavy truck passing over the child's skull above the eyes and crushing it. Death was instantaneous.

Fernandez adds that he arrested Abi and that later the father of the Sakamoto boy said he would not prosecute. The inquest is to be held Thursday.

Fernandez does not say that the driver intentionally caused the boy to jump or fall, but attaches blame to him for, in the first place, permitting the children to board the truck unless he intended to let them off, and later for not stopping to permit them to alight, though he knew, again according to Fernandez, where the boy lived.

'HONK HONK' AT AD CLUB LUNCH

The Honolulu Automobile Club will take charge of the Ad Club lunch tomorrow at the Alexander Young Hotel. Good roads will be the topic of discussion and members of the Ad Club will have the opportunity of hearing the president of the Automobile Club discuss good and bad roads.

W. F. Carden, deputy city and county attorney, will talk to the members on auto taxation. The Automobile Club has planned a campaign for good roads, and as the Ad Club has been active in this work it is expected that the two organizations will meet on common ground.

John Paton, the Harry Lauder of Honolulu, will sing two of his best songs. He has selected "Same as His Father Did Before Him" and "Just a Wee Deoch and Doris." He will be accompanied by Carlos Caceres.

Tonight's dinner-dance and entertainment will be in honor of the visiting tourists from the S. S. Matsonia and S. S. Great Northern, and will be one of the leading events at Heinie's Tavern, "on the beach at Waikiki," during the season.

As special attractions at this popular beach resort there will be an exhibition of the famous Hawaiian dance, the hula. "Dude" Miller's popular Hawaiian Glee Club will furnish music during the evening for dancing and entertainments.

The management of the Tavern is to be congratulated upon the acquisition of Mr. Fred Surklarkay, an exceptionally good pianist, who arrived today on the Great Northern.

Dinner will be served from 6 to 8, the menu of which appears elsewhere in this paper. Everybody is invited to attend and enjoy a very pleasant evening. —Adv.

CLERK OFFERS TO USE HIS INFLUENCE FOR JUSTICE WHITE AFTER PANHANDLING LIGHT

WASHINGTON, D. C.—An employee of the government printing office walked down the street with an unlighted cigar, stopped a passer-by and asked him for a match. Finding none in his pockets, the accosted man proffered his own cigar.

"Take a light from this," he said courteously.

"Thanks," said the printing office man. "I'm John Smith. Have a fresh cigar. Anything I can do for you, just call on me. I'm in the government."

"Glad to meet you, Mr. Smith," responded the other, offering his hand. "I'm Mr. White, chief justice of the supreme court."

OIL CASE TAKEN RIGHT TO WILSON

Showing some of the reasons that led President Wilson to personally take up the matter of patents for California oil lands as was published in the Star-Bulletin last week comes a despatch that was published in the San Francisco Examiner on January 23, files of which were received this morning. This despatch was headed "Friends of Oil Men Threaten to Retaliate," and was as follows:

WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 23.—President Wilson was told late today by Senators Pittman, Phelan, Meyers and Walsh that unless the Navy Department consents to compromise on the legislation for relief of claimants on oil lands now held in the western naval fuel reserve, the entire administration conservation program will be held up in Congress. The senators said they considered unfair the navy's attitude toward the California oil operators, ousted from their claims in the naval reserves in Nevada and California by the Taft withdrawal order.

The senators told the president that the legislation ought to be put through at this session, including the Phelan amendment to the leasing bill, and that the oil land claimants are entitled, under the placer mining laws and as a matter of equity and justice, to either patents or leases on their claims.

The president said he was investigating the subject and was very anxious that action be taken on the water power and general leasing bills. Secretary Daniels has been steadfast in his opposition to the Phelan proposal.

Promoters of commercialized vice seem to have come to the conclusion that the banner years of their prosperity will never return. It is a known fact that 75 former men owners and their agents have left the city with their women for more open markets.

MATSONIA LANDS BIGGEST CARGO

ALL PASSENGER RECORDS SMASHED BY G. N.; BRINGS 543 FROM COAST

Bringing the biggest cargo any Matson steamer has ever carried to Honolulu and also with the biggest passenger list aboard in more than a year, practically all tourists, the Matson liner Matsonia, Capt. Charles Peterson, docked at Pier 15 at 8:22 this morning from San Francisco.

Capt. Peterson reported "a beautiful voyage" and said the only unpleasant weather was a series of rain squalls yesterday. Purser "Pete" Whitney reported 216 cabin and 23 steerage passengers, the cargo for Honolulu and Kahului being 9637 tons, smashing all previous records for size.

Steaming time for the voyage was 5 days, 20 hours and 14 minutes. The big liner was off port at 7:30, an hour later than usual owing to her heavy cargo, which slowed her down slightly. There are two new officers, Freight Clerk H. B. Haley taking "Art" Crab's place, and a new fourth officer.

George Paston was right on the job as chief steward and his menus made a hit with passengers. It is considered likely that he will go over to the new flagship Maui in March and that George Berrie, chief steward on the Maui, will get the Matsonia. It is also thought that "Big" Fletcher, who was promoted to the Wilhelmina to succeed Paston, will be kept on that steamer.

"They are working on the Maui night and day at the Union Iron Works," said Capt. Peterson, "and the company is sure she will leave on her maiden voyage March 7 on schedule." The Matsonia cleaned up everything on the dock, her officers report.

Among the Honoluluans returning on the Matsonia this morning were Julius Unger, manager of M. A. Gunst & Company's cigar store here; Harry F. Lewis and Mrs. Lewis and several others.

GLASS OF SALTS CLEANS KIDNEYS

If Your Back is Aching or Bladder Bothers, Drink Lots of Water and Eat Less Meat

When your kidneys hurt and your back feels sore, don't get scared and proceed to load your stomach with a lot of drugs that excite the kidneys and irritate the entire urinary tract. Keep your kidneys clean like you keep your bowels clean by flushing them with a mild, harmless salts which removes the body's urinous waste and stimulates them to their normal activity. The functions of the kidneys is to filter the blood. In 24 hours they strain from it 500 grains of acid and waste, so we can readily understand the vital importance of keeping the kidneys active.

Drink lots of water—you can't drink too much; also get from any pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast each morning for a few days and your kidneys will act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to clean and stimulate clogged kidneys; also to neutralize the acids in urine so it no longer is a source of irritation, thus ending bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive; cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which everyone should take now and then to keep their kidneys clean and active. Try this, also keep up the water drinking, and no doubt you will wonder what became of your kidney trouble and backache.—Adv.

The Matsonia, which will steam at 5 o'clock Thursday afternoon for Hilo, will take 300 passengers out if room can be found aboard for all of them. It will be the largest number the liner has ever carried to the Second City. About 85 per cent are Matson line passengers who are making the side trip to see the volcano.

TENDENCIES OF MARKET LOWER

Lower tendencies were again manifested in the stock market today, a few stocks only showing any buoyancy, the rest either standing unchanged or marked down. Oahu was an exception among the listed shares. Of the unlisted stocks Montana Bingham was the exception. There were no sales at a higher figure than Monday but the asking price rose 5 cents to 55 cents.

Sales of listed shares between boards were 863 and at the session 440. Prices were: Olaa 16 and 15 1/2, Pioneer 39 1/2, Pahang 21, Pineapples 42 1/2, Honolulu 37 1/2, Hawaiian Commercial 49 1/2, McBryde 11 1/4 and Waiialua 29 7/8.

Unlisted prices were, Mineral Products $1.05, $1.07 1/2 and $1.02 1/2, Madera 33, 32 and 31 cents; Mountain King, 32 and 31 cents; Engels Copper was $7.50 and quoted at $7.25-$7.75; Honolulu Oil remained at $1.10 although quoted as lower in San Francisco.

Hereafter, commencing next Saturday, the sessions of the exchanges will be held at 10 o'clock on Saturdays because of the shorter business day and crowding of so much into the day before noon as has been the past custom.

WORKMAN LOSES LIFE TO PREVENT WRECK IN KANSAS

OLA, Kan., Jan. 11.—Richard Moore, 50 years old, was killed while preventing the wreck of a Missouri, Kansas & Texas passenger train near Savonburg. Moore was working with an extra gang. As a whistle warned of the approach of the train, Moore remembered that he had left some large timbers across the rails. He ran back to them in time to clear the track, but was struck by the engine and died an hour later.

President Poincare of France has made a collection of photographs of English soldiers who gave from the Victoria Cross.

EVERY day one meets the man who "can do so much better" with his money than put it in life insurance, but the man of sixty is seldom met who can show you the $5000 he has saved by regularly setting aside and investing for twenty to thirty years the amount of an annual life insurance premium.

Hope Almost Abandoned When She Found Remedy

Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin
Relieves Chronic Case of Long Standing

After a long period of suffering with liver and bowel trouble that brought on piles, during which she had tried many remedies without obtaining relief, Mrs. Mary J. Jewell of Berrien Springs, Mich., heard of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin and obtained a bottle from her druggist. This simple, inexpensive laxative compound brought almost immediate relief and Mrs. Jewell wrote to Dr. Caldwell about her case.

In her letter Mrs. Jewell says: "I had tried so many things for the piles, without being helped at all. I had almost given up hope of ever being any better. I knew it was the condition of my bowels that caused them, and after I had taken a bottle of your Syrup Pepsin I knew it was just the medicine I needed. I am very grateful to you for sending me the little book—the advice and instructions it gives would teach anyone how to get well and how to keep well."

Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is a combination of simple laxative herbs with pepsin, free from opiate or narcotic drugs, and is mild and gentle in its action, bringing relief in an easy, natural way, without griping, or other pain or discomfort.

Druggists everywhere sell Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin for fifty cents a bottle. To avoid imitations and ineffective substitutes be sure you get Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. See that a facsimile of Dr. Caldwell's signature and his portrait appear on the yellow carton in which the bottle is packed. A trial bottle, free of charge, can be obtained by writing to Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 455 Washington St., Monticello, Illinois, or by calling at Benson, Smith & Co., wholesale distributors, Honolulu.
