BROWN HAS THE COURT'S COUNT BY MAJORITY OF ONE

Kinney Attacks Validity of Election on Grounds of Fraud and Will Marshal the Evidence Today.

One more vote for Brown than for Laukea was the result yesterday of the inspection by the Supreme Court of all the votes cast on the island of Oahu for County Sheriff on November 6 last. This was the announcement from the bench in the afternoon, with a reservation made by Chief Justice Frear that this result was subject to a tallying of all the figures to be made later.

Immediately, Mr. Kinney of counsel for Mr. Laukea, asked that he be allowed to present evidence that there had been tampering with the inspector's envelopes sent to County Clerk Kalanokalanani from the Eighth Precinct, Fifth District, and the Fourth Precinct, Fourth District. He placed two witnesses on the stand, Inspectors Barker and Stroup of the Eighth Precinct. The envelope upon which Mr. Kinney's contention in the Eighth Precinct is based was introduced as evidence, and both inspectors stated positively that when the envelope was placed in the cloth bag provided by the County Clerk it was properly sealed and signed by all three inspectors.

Mr. Kinney during an argument on some phases of the answers given by the inspectors practically charged fraud in connection with the handling of the bags and envelopes after they were placed in the keeping of County Clerk Kalanokalanani. At this stage of the proceedings Court was adjourned to 10 a. m. today when Mr. Kinney will present further evidence in support of his contention.

There was tense excitement in the Supreme Court room while the audience was waiting for the announcement of the result of the last two precincts, Ewa and Waianae, Fifth District. All during the afternoon the figures had seemed first giving hope to Laukea and then to Brown. The latter was laboring under suppressed excitement for at that time he was either one ahead or it was an even break for both himself and Laukea.

"This is as bad as waiting for the turn of a roulette wheel," said Mr. Brown sotto voce. Finally the result in one of the two precincts was announced, there being no change.

Then came a long wait before the announcement of the last of the 23 precincts. Sheriff Brown said quietly that he wished they would announce it and end it one way or another. It came and with it the statement that according to the way the figures stood then, Brown was one ahead of his opponent.

At this juncture A. V. Gear, who had been keeping close tabulation on all figures, brought his sheet of figures over to Brown and it showed that each had broken even. He said he was certain of that.

There is some uncertainty about the figures even now and Supreme Court Clerk Thompson was given the lists last evening to tally and present the result to the court this morning.

Here are figures of the results of gains and losses and which apparently give Brown the one vote gained over Laukea:

FOURTH DISTRICT.
	Net Gain.	Net Loss.
1st Precinct	1	0
2nd Precinct	2	0
3rd Precinct	0	0
4th Precinct	3	0
5th Precinct	12	1

In the Fourth of the Fifth there were no rejections by the court.

Brown made a gain of six votes in the Eighth Precinct, Fifth District, in which instance Mr. Kinney had previously called attention to the fact that the envelope containing the ballots had been mutilated and a slit made across the reverse side beneath the seal large enough for ballots to be removed and returned.

CHIEF JUSTICE'S STATEMENT.

When all the precincts has been accounted for Judge Frear said: "It looks as if Mr. Brown was one ahead." He stated that this was merely a preliminary step in the proceedings.

Judge Gear counsel for Brown said: "That is the way we have figured it. We rest our case."

Mr. Kinney then arose and stated: "Then we have evidence to present." Judge Frear asked him to present his evidence. Mr. Kinney presented the paper envelope from the Eighth Precinct, Fifth District. "We claim that it appears on the face of it absolutely and conclusively that the bag had been opened. We will introduce the three inspectors and offer evidence that the paper bag put inside the cloth bag was in perfect condition when put in."

Inspector Barker, who was placed in the witness box, said that the bag had three seals on it when it left his hands and was placed in the cloth bag. He went on to explain how the ballots were counted. This was done by Mr. Stroup, who read the names with Barker looking on and Ed. Fountain tallying. Ben Zablan, Isaac Cockett and Jim Kupahea, whom Mr. Kinney designated as Brown's representatives, were leaning over the rail and table and watched the proceedings closely, which were conducted in the glare of an electric drop light. No objection was made by these watchers to the result of the count of the ballots.

When an objection was made by Gear to a certain question, Mr. Kinney said it was his purpose to bring out testimony to prove that the bag had been tampered with. He said he would have similar evidence to offer for the Fifth of the Fourth District. He said that his client had not been properly protected in his rights. He said there was not a single safeguard on behalf of his client.

"We consider it an outrage and ask the privilege of showing the facts," he said. Mr. Gear said that Mr. Kinney was a little late in offering his evidence. He said that his side had shown affirmatively that these ballots had not been touched. He said every one of the bags had been inspected by inspectors and they found everything in the same condition as when they left them. He said there was not a little or jot of testimony that these bags or ballots had been tampered with. He claimed that Mr. Kinney had had his chance before.

GRAFT OF H. C. BIRBE

Works His Police Pull to Get the Drunks From Cell.

To get out of the police cells and avoid the trouble of appearing in court it is necessary to see one H. C. Birbe. He has a pull with the high officials of the department and has the power to get out of custody those arrested for little affairs like drunkenness and others concerning which the public at large takes little notice. Naturally Mr. Birbe does not work his pull unless there is something in it for Mr. Birbe. A police pull which could not be made to yield the necessary gold would be of no use to Birbe. He is not a philanthropist.

In one case, at least, which has happened within the past week, Birbe has extorted money from a prisoner of the police, securing his release from custody and arranging matters so that he was not entered upon the trial calendar. This affair occurred on Thanksgiving day, the particulars of which show the glaring misuse of power exercised at the police station and the graft worked by this man Birbe. How many others there may be in the same game or who else besides the one who makes the extortion shares in the money thus illegally obtained is not known.

On the afternoon of November 29 Alfred Tregaras, a driver employed by Levers & Cooke, was arrested at the fishmarket and lodged in the police station. A charge of drunkenness was registered against him. Regarding the merits of the arrest it is not necessary to say, but at the station a companion of Tregaras was told that no bail would be accepted. This companion, George Domingo, offered to put up $25 to secure the release of Tregaras, but his offer was turned down.

Domingo stood outside the police station for some time, talking over the case with Special Officer Leal, in the course of his conversation again offering to put up $25 bail. At this point of the game Birbe appeared, accompanied by an older companion, whose name is known.

At the mention of money Birbe pricked up his ears and edged near, finally taking Domingo to one side, telling him he had something to say to him. What he had to say was that if there was any money in it, he, Birbe, knew a way to get Tregaras out of jail and shut off any further trouble in his case. Domingo asked him what his price was.

"Well," said Birbe, "to get him out and keep him from coming up for trial in the morning ought to be worth $15 to him."

Now, while Domingo was quite willing to put up a good sum for bail, he was not prepared to put up $15 knowing that there was no possibility of getting any of it back. He wanted to consult Tregaras before he did so, but he was denied admittance to the station house by J. Kanae, the police officer who had made the arrest at the fishmarket. Under the circumstances Birbe came down by his price, offering to take $10 and finally $5. On this basis the deal was made. Birbe was to be paid his graft and the prisoner was to be released and his charge canceled. Birbe's companion then took charge of Domingo, keeping him away from the station while Birbe went inside "to telephone to Henry Vida and fix it up," as he explained.

Within a short time Birbe returned, with him being Tregaras. He had made good regarding what he had told about his power to fix things with the police. Turning his charge over to Domingo, Birbe and his companion made a bee line for Scotty's saloon. From there he drifted up to McTigue's saloon. He had been celebrating the holiday and by this time had become drunk enough to be talkative. An advertiser reporter overheard enough of his talk to learn that there was something doing.

Birbe's remarks were interesting. He dealt with the glorious graft he had and from this wandered on to the recent election and the recount. His graft and the political affairs of the police department were evidently connected, as the drift of his conversation proved.

"The majority shall prevail," said Birbe, striking an attitude, then with an air of drunken archness adding, "but not always. When you can work the machine after the election sometimes the minority will prevail."

MOORE GETS AFTER BAND

Says the County Doesn't Need It and Belittles Berger.

The band furnished the breeze at the Board of Supervisors' meeting last night.

After the estimates for the month had been passed without any reference to Honolulu's music-makers, Moore said "band."

Everybody woke up and the fun started. First of all Moore gave an imitation of a man who didn't know that the band had already recommenced to work for the county, forgetting that he had helped to decide the matter at the last meeting of the board.

The act wasn't a howling success being promptly countered by the chair's reminder of what took place at the last meeting with reference to the band's engagement by the county beginning on December 1.

Then Moore got hostile. The county didn't need any band, anyway, said he. Berger, as a leader, was incompetent and altogether impossible. He had presumed to tell Moore when he intended to go to work and it was up to the board to see that the band didn't run the county.

After urging that the band be cut down numerically and that the Kapellmeister's salary be operated upon, another cat jumped out of the cornet cover.

Moore had a friend, a skilled musician, respectful and not one whit dictatorial. He would gladly lead the band for $100 a month, or $85 less than Berger's present stipend.

Lucas stood up for the music-makers whom, he declared, as an organization, were indispensable to the town. He had the whole of the board behind him, barring Moore. His motion that the salary of the band start from the beginning of the present month, found favor with everyone except Moore, who voted "no."

The estimates for the present month were passed at $36,425, exclusive of the band, whose appropriation will be arranged for at the next meeting.

The police bit was the same old size as of yore, the diligent investigatory committee having uttered another parrot-like squawk for "more time."

THE CONGREGATION.

Present were: Chairman Smith, Supervisors Lucas, Cox, Moore, Dwight; Clerks Kalanokalanani, Buffandeau; Stenographer Aea, C. Hustace, J. Fern, George Lucas, C. D. Pringle, F. S. Dodge, Harry Murray, Sheriff Brown, Capt. Sam Johnson, County Engineer Gere and F. L. Webster.

The committee on the police report again asked for further time, which was granted.

ROAD MATTERS.

Lucas reported on various more or less remote streets and avenues. He complained that there was not enough money to do all the road work desired. Some would have to be sidetracked. Money had to be left on hand for the incoming board.

The report of the County Treasurer for November was read and placed on file.

SINEWS OF WAR.

The following bills were passed: Koolauoko road district, $116.40. County office rent, $120.00. Waianae road district, $198.65. Kapilani Park, $343.50. Ewa road district, $956.25. Ewa road district, $430.29. Garbage department, $669.40. County Engineer, $98.85. Pali road, $1348.62. Koolauoko road district, $33.75. Koolauloa road district No. 1, $100.00. Koolauoko road district, $103.71. County Engineer (inspectors and labor, $84.00. Waiialua road district, $778.00. Waiialua road district, $201.46. County Auditor, $12.95. County Attorney, $44.25. Road department, $1849.82. Waiialua road district, $24.10. Koolauloa road district No. 2, $422.10. Fire department, $958.24. County beach park, $190.00. Road department (bridges), $312.24. Koolauloa road district No. 2, $125.00. Road department (Queen street bridges), $2102.59. Police department, $248.55. Electric light department, $693.00.

ST. ANDREW'S CONGREGATION DISCUSSES BUILDING PLANS

At the meeting of the congregation of St. Andrew's Cathedral held last evening for the purpose of considering the proposed gift of a parish house to the cathedral by the family of the late Theo. H. Davies there was a large and representative gathering. The plans were discussed and a resolution requesting Dean Restarick to express to the donors the thanks of the congregation was unanimously adopted.

The plans of the Parish House in the public prints give an idea of a closer connection with the cathedral building than is really the case. A cloistered architecture prevails which will give a clear view from Emma Square between the cathedral and Parish House. The roof of the Parish House will be tiled giving an effect new and harmonious. Action on the proposed memorial to Alice Macintosh resulted in the passage of a resolution instructing the Dean to appoint two additional members of the committee on the memorial who should not be communicants of the church, it being the wish of the congregation that the community-at-large should be asked to take an interest in the memorial to this well known and beloved woman. The committee were authorized to solicit subscriptions and to secure an estimate of the cost of the proposed memorial tower. It is expected to approximate a cost of about $20,000. It is not thought it will be a hard task to raise this amount as the friends of Mrs. Macintosh number everyone in the islands. The committee will proceed immediately to canvass for subscriptions.

PEACOCK RELEASED

Warrant of Arrest Was Defective and Does Not Hold.

Before the charge against W. C. Peacock, who had been arrested the day before on a warrant from the Treasury Department, could be read in the police court yesterday morning, his attorneys, R. W. Breckons and C. W. Ashford, brought up the question of the validity of the arrest. The warrant of arrest had been sworn out against the corporation of W. C. Peacock & Co., Ltd., of which Mr. Peacock is the president. On this warrant, the attorneys argued, the arrest of Mr. Peacock was illegal and of no force.

The same argument had been used in the case against Che But Hin, the head of a corporation, against which the warrant had been made out, but in this case County Prosecutor Andrade had met the objection by stating that the accused had not yet been charged and the case went over until today. The same thing coming up in the Peacock case, the accused was discharged.

It is understood that new warrants which will meet the objections raised will be sworn out against Mr. Peacock and Che But Hin.

Dates for the trials of the other saloonkeepers, charged with selling adulterated liquors, were set. J. K. Clark will come up again on December 11, the same date being accorded to Sing Loy. R. W. Condon will be called on the 6th and H. A. Juen on the 12th.

The Iwilei contingent were again out in force. J. J. Moreh, accused of procuring, being committed for trial at the Circuit Court, and Leon Renault and L. Leonze being remanded until Friday. The latter pair are charged with assisting in the business of some of the houses in the red-light district. In the afternoon the principals in a shooting match on Punchbowl were given an opportunity of discussing their case before Judge Whitney. In this J. G. Clements, a milkman, was the complaining witness against Joe Roman, a resident of Canavarro lane. Clement was delivering milk on Sunday morning at a house next door to Roman's dwelling and had stepped back into the lane when Roman suddenly opened a door in his face and began shooting at him.

Clements was frightened, but not so much so that he was unable to swear that one of the bullets went within two inches of his left ear. He hurriedly departed from the scene of the shooting after that, beating the second bullet to the corner. In giving his testimony the milkman grew very pathetic at times, calling the attention of the court to the fact that a widow and three sorrowing children would have resulted from his death.

"He wanted to apologize to me after," said the witness, "but suppose I go make in that lane how could he apologize?"

The defendant acknowledged that he had been probably worse scared than the complainant, thinking that a burglar was before him. He was not so badly frightened, however, to remember to point his gun up in the air when he shot.

Judge Whitney discharged the prisoner, advising him at the same time to get rid of his gun as soon as possible.

"A revolver is very little real use in defending oneself from burglars," said His Honor, "and it usually gets a man into more trouble than it ever saves him."

THEY FILED NO EXPENSE ACCOUNT

Five candidates for office in the last election who failed to file their election expenses with the proper authorities will be called upon by Attorney General Peters to explain why they failed to comply with the law. Governor Carter yesterday sent a list of five names to the Attorney General to obtain such information. They are Antonio J. Gomes, Joseph L. Levi and Philip Pali of the Third Representative District, and Henry N. Kanihonui and J. K. Nakookoo of the Fifth District, this island.

BROWN HAS THE RECOUNT

to offer his evidence, but it was too late now. He said he did not accept the chance to offer his evidence. He thought the court would stultify itself to now go into the matter after the court had counted the ballots to take testimony of this sort. The proper time to have offered this testimony was before.

Judge Frear said that he understood that Mr. Kinney had made the reservation when the envelopes were opened and would present such evidence.

"Surely," remarked Mr. Kinney. Judge Hartwell also stated that Mr. Kinney had reiterated the charge perhaps twenty times.

Mr. Barker then went on with his testimony. The envelope certainly was not torn when it was placed in the cloth bag by him.

Mr. Kinney made a reference to the guardians of the Republican secrets, and named Buffandeau, Jim Gorman, Charley Clark and Jimmie Boyd as being a few of them.

Mr. Barker was excused until this morning in order that he might get his spectacles, as he could not read the ballots very well without them.

Mr. Stroup was put on the stand and testified to having seen the envelopes sealed and placed in the cloth bag, O. K. He personally toted the bag to County Clerk Kalaauokalani's office about 2 a. m., November 7, and placed it in the latter's hands for safe keeping. He told of the manner in which the count of votes had been made. He read the names of the ballots to Fountain, who tallied them. Zablan, Kupihea and Cockett, Brown's watchers, were present during the entire count and made no objection to the count or results.

When shown some ballots rejected by the court, and when asked whether certain marks on them had been there when the count on November 6 was going on, Mr. Stroup replied that he was certain they were not. The marks were plain enough to be read by a blind man.

"Is that the way you read them?" asked Judge Hartwell.

Mr. Gear showed some ballots to Mr. Stroup. His attention was called to a mark on one ballot and he was asked whether that had been there before. After examining closely, Mr. Stroup replied that he did not think it was there when he went over the ballot.

Col. Iaukea, whose election as Sheriff is being contested by Mr. Brown, was put on the stand. He spoke of a conversation he had with County Clerk Kalaauokalani shortly after election. He wanted to know whether the contents of the bags were in a safe place where they could not be tampered with. Mr. Kalaauokalani had replied:

"They are in my possession."
"Can anybody else have access to them," he was asked. Mr. Kalaauokalani replied: "I am the only one who can get to them."

In answer to a question by Mr. Kinney as to what led him to make that inquiry of Mr. Kalaauokalani, Mr. Iaukea replied that he had heard from some people that they might be tampered with. Mr. Iaukea said that on his return from Hawaii he again saw Mr. Kalaauokalani. Their former conversation was recalled. Mr. Kalaauokalani again replied that he was the only one who had access to the bags. Frank Harvey was present at this interview.

Mr. Kinney then called Mr. Brown to the stand. At this juncture the court decided to adjourn until this morning at 10 o'clock.

SERMON BY A PAULIST FATHER

Very Rev. Henry H. Wyman preached at the Roman Catholic cathedral last evening. He said in part: "We do not realize what it is to offend God, because we do not see God in this life, but the time will surely come for each one of us, when we will be brought face to face with God, at the dread moment of death. We may imagine that our house is secure and at peace; so it was with Jerusalem, when it had offended God. Its temple was bright and beautiful, but our Lord said that 'stone shall not be left upon stone, that shall not be thrown down.'"

"Ah! the history of the world is a sermon on mortal sin—but to know this is not enough to know the real evil of mortal sin. The enormity of mortal sin can only be measured by Him who is offended by it. It is therefore as great an evil as God is great and good."

"Sin is something which God necessarily hates; we might as well try to persuade God to be less God than He is, as to try to persuade Him to hate sin less than He does. A soul in the state of mortal sin could no more dwell in the presence of God, in eternity, than light and darkness could dwell together in the same place. God did not wish to make hell. Mortal sin forced Him to make it. He could not be God and not cast out forever the soul that is disgraced by it. 'What is the remedy?' cried the forcible Preacher. 'Penance is the remedy and penance must be done.' If the sinner shall depart from his wickedness and shall do judgment and justice, he shall surely live, saith the Lord. 'None of his sins which he hath committed shall be imputed to him, he hath done judgment and justice. He shall surely live.'"

Woman's Board Holds an Interesting Meeting.

The attendance at the Woman's Board meeting in the Sabbath school room of the Central Union church yesterday afternoon was not large but the spiritual atmosphere that prevailed was delightful, as one lady remarked, "filling."

The meeting opened by the members singing the first and third stanzas of hymn 77. The chairwoman, Mrs. Doremus Scudder, then read the eighth Psalm and followed it with a prayer. The secretary read the following report which was filed:

REPORT OF THE SECRETARY.

"Hail to the Brightness of Zion's Glad Morning," was the joyful hymn opening the devotional service of the interesting meeting of November 6. Mrs. Scudder read from Acts 8:26-40—Philip's commission to instruct the Ethiopian eunuch—the first Christian message to the Dark Continent whose history we study this year, whose needs continue, and to whom the sent of the Lord from the same Scriptures still "preach Jesus."

Prayer was offered by Mrs. Withington, a petition that we may realize and live up to the measure of our privilege and responsibility as workers together with Christ.

Minutes of previous meeting were presented and approved. Also the report of the treasurer. The special contribution to the Armenian fund amounted to $132.00.

The president referred to the good news announced at the first session of the American Board, that the $1,000,000 standard of contribution had been reached, bringing the audience to their feet to sing with one voice, "Praise God from Whom all blessings flow."

She told of the reception into our own board of two new annual members. Also the passing to her reward of our faithful Hawaiian Bible reader, Wahine Nui, and the pleasure given her in her last days by the message from the board of appreciation, sympathy and flowers.

Mrs. Thurm reported a very good assortment of curios for Mrs. Ogell of New Platz, N. Y., contributed by many ladies and weighing in all 38 lbs.

A very interesting review of Japanese work was given. Mrs. O. H. Glick reported the work in general, noting the completion of the Waikiki church building and the delight of the congregation in it, the sickness of Mr. Okomura and the successful carrying on of his school by others. She read the report of our Bible reader, Mrs. So, of the Nuuanu street church, who told of her busy forenoon in the Woman's Home and her afternoon calls among the women outside. She accounts the influence of the home an important factor in the advancement of Christianity among the women, and no part more telling than that effecting the little children, which here, as elsewhere are "The hope of the Church."

A little song in the sweetest of voices was sung by three little girls from Mr. Okomura's school, who were accompanied on the baby organ by the Japanese organist. Mrs. Sakuragawa followed with a report of her work. This lady is the very able pastor's assistant of the Makiki church, three-fifths of whose support our board has this year assumed. Her forenoon, except Monday, are wholly given to visits among the women of the parish. Three meetings are held for them through the week, one at Makiki, one at Manoa and the third at varying points, with an average attendance of five or six. A Sabbath afternoon service brings out twenty-three, and a meeting for unbelievers on Saturday evening has an average attendance of fourteen. About twenty persons are now expressing an interest in Christianity. Twenty-three women are members of the Makiki church. They aided their church building by means of a bazaar and sent a contribution to the famine sufferers of their homeland.

Mrs. Sakuragawa spoke fluently in her own tongue and was interpreted in choice English by Mrs. Suehiro. It was inspiring to sit thus in the presence of cultured Christian womanhood in Japanese personality. A song, "Remember Thy Creator," without aid of instrument or leader, was well rendered by a half dozen girls from Kawahao Seminary, also another in their mother tongue.

The study of the Dark Continent was introduced by Mrs. Philip Frear, who supplemented the topic of last month—Slavery—and then introduced Miss Mahony from Liberia to speak of medical missions there. There is no medical science in that land of darkness. Anything is called medicine which can be taken internally, applied externally or hung as a fetish about the person; and the medicine man is a power in the land. The popular war medicine is made from portions of the human body, secured by societies whose members, disguised as leopards and alligators, take their victims unaware. The instruments, "more properly the implements," of surgery are broken hoop bottles and knives of sharpened hoop iron, and operations are confined chiefly to the opening of abscesses. A missionary teaches more by deeds of kindness than by word of mouth, and the medical missionary has readiest access to the people. The fruit of mission labor is sorely needed. All those not converted to the religion of Christ are consecrated to the worship of the devil—the man's or the woman's devil as the case may be—and the distinctive physical marks of that ceremony they carry with them to their graves.

How that peculiar form of tattoo is done and what else goes on in that secret orgy only the initiated know. The revealing of its secrets is punished by death or dumbness. One of Miss Mahony's bright and faithful errand boys was a mute, made speechless for life because of indiscretion along that line.

These African people, men and women, are not ungrateful for labors of love in their behalf. The terrorist of the regions round, feared by all for his influence and his dreaded deeds of daring, captured at last and suffering, rewarded Miss Mahony's dressing of his wounds with an unexpected "thank you," one of his few English words, and later, dying, bequeathed his own children to the mission. In one of the buildings a tablet to the memory of an African boy bears as a fitting inscription the words, "Greater love hath no man than this, that a man lay down his life for his friends."

Miss Lucy Case of Osaka, Japan, named the numerous denominations having missions in that city, noting more fully those of the Congregational church, but giving chief attention to the flourishing girls' school, in whose progress both she and Mrs. J. T. Gulick have been instrumental. The name of the school signifies "plum blossoms," and the sweetness of its bloom is demonstrated to us in its winsome alumna, Mrs. Suehiro. Among numerous incidents of life there Miss Case told of another graduate, a melicore in intellect and indolent, whose conversion a year before her graduation transformed her into a diligent and successful student and Christian worker throughout her senior year, and whose later labors outside the school have won to the faith many among her kinsfolk, men and women, persons of influence in the community—all due to her earnest, devoted loyalty to Christ.

Our President wished that we individually might live such lives of consecration as to win many to our church, our Sabbath school and our board—to our Savior and His work.

Miss Chamberlain was able to be in attendance at this meeting during the greater part of the hour.

Closing hymn, "The Morning Light is Breaking."

Attendance, 75.
MARGARETTA L. SHULEY,
Rec. Sec.
707 Willie street, Honolulu.

Mrs. J. M. Whitney was then asked to tell of her visit East and the impressions she gained by her attendance at the Centennial anniversary of the American Board last summer. She also told of the celebration at Williamstown on the occasion of the unveiling of the "Haystack Monument." She spoke of the persons who addressed the various meetings, at one of which the addresses were so worth while that they were "too filling to be comfortable."

She told how the announcement of the successful raising of the million dollar contribution was received and added that in spite of the fact that $262,000 of the amount had been subscribed by women there was no mention of the fact, there was not a woman on the platform nor was there one named on any of the committees.

Mrs. Theo. Richards spoke on the same subject adding that she and her husband had been in a missionary atmosphere almost all the time they were absent. At the Williamstown meeting she was impressed by a remark made by President Tucker as to the real knowing of missions and their work. The Richards went to Montclair, New Jersey, to the home of John R. Mott, an active missionary who was at the time in Africa. In that house it was her privilege to see books, solely on the subject of missions, stacked from floor to ceiling and this she took as an earnest of the interest Mr. Mott took in the work. She spoke of her visit to the Woman's Board room in Boston and her visit to the conference at Mohonk where Lyman Abbott was an inspiration. It was conceded by the delegates that Hawaii was the best of any of the dependencies. One of the most interesting speakers at the conference was Doctor Griffiths who was limited to five minutes for his talk but who occupied twenty and no one showed a desire to call him down.

Miss Mabel Sunter in charge of the Chinese department of the board, read a report of the work over which she has supervision, after which some of the juniors in the class sang well in English and a half dozen little tots recited in Chinese. Then came a hymn in that language by the older girls.

Mrs. Timoteo, wife of the Hawaiian traveling evangelist reported from the Hawaiian branch and the report was interpreted by Mrs. Nakuina. The report covered the work of Mr. Timoteo and his wife on the island of Hawaii. During a recent visit to Kalapana, six Hawaiians were baptized and four joined the church. At Hilo, which was the next place visited, they found matters in a deplorable state and the strongest effort was made to build up the Hilo church which had so fallen off in membership. They found the spiritual feeling cold and the few people who attended the church showed very little interest in the work. Rev. Mrs. Timoteo succeeded in getting back to the church all of those who had recently withdrawn and added eighteen to the membership. Twenty-three persons were baptized. During her travels Mrs. Timoteo organized societies for the purpose of securing funds for the care of widows of deceased pastors. She secured donations of money amounting to nearly one hundred dollars and it is the intention of the members to collect mats and other articles of value having a distinctly Hawaiian interest and meet in Honolulu at the time of the conference next year. Then they will have a bazaar in aid of the fund.

The next was a reading of a report on the work in East Africa by Miss Carrie Gilman. It was interesting and was to have been supplemented by a paper of a similar nature to be read by Mrs. Damon, but as the hour was late the reading was postponed until next month.

The usual collection was taken up and the exercises closed by the singing of a hymn.

AMATEURS AT CAMERA

The photographic exhibition which opened yesterday in the rooms of the Promotion Committee, is well worth a visit.

The cleverest camera artists in the Territory have sent in their best work which will undoubtedly prove of interest to local people as well as strangers.

The work is exhibited in such way that it shows to the best possible advantage.

The idea of the Promotion Committee in arranging for the exhibition was to create an increased interest in photography throughout the islands and to secure negatives of scenes to be used in promotion work which might not otherwise have been obtained.

The range of subjects covered by the various competitors is a wide one. There are pictures of the various phases of Honolulu's cosmopolitan life, of landscapes and seascapes and of animals.

The gems of the collection are:

Eben P. Low's Mauna Loa series.
Rev. W. D. Westervelt's snapshot of fishspearing on the Hilo coast, and saltmaking.

R. Nakagawa's Japanese girl at the waterfall.

Mrs. S. I. Shaw's old man on horseback with dog.

C. M. Lovsted's snapshot of a steer being disembarked.

James Guild's studies of Oriental life.

Mrs. H. E. Gares' deer hunting on Molokai and playmates.

R. A. Buchanan's two donkeys, mongoose, dead bird and fledglings, and little boy in deshabille.

A. Gartley's tree scenes and portraits.

Over 260 pictures are entered in the various classes.

The judging which has yet to be done, is in the hands of Messrs. A. Gartley, D. Howard Hitchcock and H. P. Wood.

The committee on arrangements consists of Dr. A. N. Sinclair, J. T. Warren and Roscoe Perkins.

Among exhibitors are W. D. Barlow, F. Bechert, Otto Bierbach, L. Lewton-Brain, R. A. Buchanan, Mrs. R. A. Buchanan, E. H. Edwards, Frederic Franz, Mrs. H. E. Gares, A. Gartley, Jr., James Guild, J. Kotinsky, C. M. Lovsted, Eben P. Low, Mrs. Eben P. Low, W. T. Monsarrat, R. Nakagawa, T. O'Brien, W. T. Pope, A. N. Sinclair, Mrs. S. I. Shaw, Rev. W. D. Westervelt, Rev. Mr. Thwing, R. Aiu, Roscoe Perkins.

the ballots you see if he doesn't have twenty more."

Since that time the affair has been carefully looked into and has been found to be as stated. On the police register of arrest for Thanksgiving day appears the name of Alfred Tregaras. The time of his arrest by Officer Kanae is put down at 4:55 p. m. He had been released about 7 o'clock, although the police record does not show this. In the ruled column of the blotter usually used to show the amount of bail put up for released prisoners or to note the disposition of them, appears the word "out" written in lead pencil. This is the only penciled remark on the blotter for several days.

On Thanksgiving day there were three arrests for drunkenness, Tregaras, Thomas Grain and another, who had evidently been too drunk to give his name to the clerk, the name space being blank, although the charge, the amount of money taken from him at the station and the other usual particulars were carefully noted. Of these three only Grain came up for trial the next day.

The Advertiser has before this called attention to the great disparity between the number of men arrested for drunkenness and the number who came up for trial. This causes a wonder as to how long Birbe has been at work on this graft.

Another interesting matter in connection with this, also illustrating some of the ways of the police, is the fact that Birbe himself was locked up for some hours on November 30. And although he spent some hours in the cells, sobering up, there was no charge entered against him and no record exists showing that he was ever an inmate of the lock-up.

Was this because Birbe was talking too much? If he continued from the time the Advertiser reporter last saw him, attempting to make a touch of a drunken sailor in the Progress saloon on that night, until he was locked up the next day, along the lines overheard, he was undoubtedly talking too much for the good of the police department.

It will also be remembered, in connection with the remarks made by Birbe concerning the gains that Brown was to make in the recount, that the Advertiser called attention on the second day following the election to the fact that this same Birbe was closeted for some time in the sheriff's private office with Henry Vida. As was stated at the time it was not known whether Sheriff Brown was in this little conclave or not. That a back had been summoned to take Birbe somewhere from the police station showed that there was something out of the ordinary in the air, for Birbe is not the kind of a man who usually rides in cabs and when he does, does not dodge into them and try to be unobserved as he did and was that night.

GOLD MINING FAKES.

Nevada mining-boomers are playing the same old tricks upon a confiding public, that they were wont to play in the speculative days of the Comstock lode. One of the share-selling companies of Goldfield, Nev., the Union Securities, which gives "any bank in Nevada" as its reference, is advertising stock in the Bullfrog Rush Mining Co., and, after making extravagant claims for it, lists the Governor of Nevada, L. M. Sullivan, President of a Trust Co., and John D. Campbell, consulting engineer.

Now comes these three gentlemen named to sign the following protest:

BULLFROG RUSH MINING CO.

Goldfield, Nev., Nov. 6.

To the Public:

We desire to state that the use of our names in the advertisement of the so-called Union Securities Company of Nevada as directors of the Bullfrog Rush Mining Company, in which it is stated that six million dollars' worth of ore is already blocked out in this property, is unauthorized, and that according to our best information the statement is absolutely and unqualifiedly false.

The property is unquestionably a splendid prospect, and during the course of its early development held out great hopes of becoming a great mine, but at this time the best average assays obtained in the lower workings are from sixty cents to one dollar per ton. There is a large quantity of ore that has been opened up in the Winze and upper tunnels which gives assays of from fifteen to thirty-five dollars per ton, but this, in itself, after deducting the cost of mining and milling, does not establish for this property a valuation of $825,000 which, on a capitalization of 1,500,000 shares, at the par value of one dollar, offered at fifty-five cents per share, would be the case.

We retain our positions on the directorate of the Bullfrog Rush Mining Company for the present, in order to protect important interests, but we warn anybody who intends investing in the stock of the Bullfrog Rush Mining Company that if he does so it is at his own risk, nor do we in any way endorse any other venture of the Union Securities Company of Nevada, of whose responsibility we know nothing.

JOHN SPARKS,

Governor of Nevada: Director of the Bullfrog Rush Mining Company.

L. M. SULLIVAN,

President of the L. M. Sullivan Trust Co.: Treasurer and Director of the Bullfrog Rush Mining Company.

JOHN D. CAMPBELL,

Consulting Engineer: Director of the Bullfrog Mining Company.

This is the sort of thing that is going on all the time and which is bound to end in such a series of explosions as marked the end of the Comstock excitement in the Seventies.

THE JAPANESE ISSUE.

Says the Star: It is no argument to apply the epithet of "hoodlum members," or "members who respond to hoodlum politics," to the members of the Board of Education of San Francisco who have lately made the regulation in regard to Japanese children in the public schools of San Francisco which has attracted so much attention. There has been no judicial decision as yet that such a regulation was not fully within the power of the Board to make, nor has there been any very weighty opinion yet expressed that it was not within the power of the Board. If it were not within the power of the Board it would seem that the very simple way out of the difficulty, for the President, would be to push the proceeding brought to test the matter in the courts, and get an authoritative decision.

Then the opinion of the Department of Justice is not "weighty?" It is the Attorney General who is behind the legal proceedings now under way in the United States court by which it is hoped and expected to establish the fact that a treaty, being part of the supreme law of the land, is not to be overruled by the regulation of a municipal school board.

The attitude of the Board of Medical Examiners in requiring all applicants for a license to practice medicine to take an examination in the English language, is also catalogued as more fuel to the flame, though it is a much more hospitable attitude toward Japanese practitioners than Japan holds toward professional men from other countries seeking to practice their profession in Japan.

The Star should know what it is talking about. In Japan, foreign medical men are permitted to practice after passing an examination in their own language—not in Japanese. It is a like privilege which is denied Japanese medical men here and of which they are justly complaining.

We are told that we must not limit saloon licenses to citizens, as it has been proposed to do, for fear of offending the Japanese. Why is no fear expressed of offending the British, the Germans, the French, the Austrians, who would be equally included with the Japanese in the prohibition of such legislation?

This wholesale attempt to exclude foreigners from livelihoods here is directed against Japanese alone and the Japanese know it and are irritated by it. They have a treaty which distinctly permits them to acquire property and dispose of it as do citizens of the United States. Liquor is property; the treaty is constitutional in its authority.

Finally it might be well for all hands in defenceless Hawaii to consider, in this extract from the Tokyo Mainichi, a national paper, what effect the nagging of Japanese in America has had upon public opinion at home: "It was only fifty years ago that the secluded Japanese opened their doors to the enticing voice of the American commodore, sent by President Fillmore. At that time Americans preached to us of universal brotherhood; but think of it, our fellow countrymen, the Americans, in their diabolical cruelty, have insulted our compatriots and have turned our Japanese boys and girls from their schools. Must our Emperor play the role of President Fillmore and send a Commodore Perry to tell the American barbarians of the inhumanity of exclusions, or rather, shall we not prepare ourselves for giving the Americans a lesson in war?"

The court's recount puts Sheriff Brown one ahead of Col. Iaukea, but it does not settle the matter. Mr. Kinney expects to be heard further on the validity of the election. The proceedings in court today under that head promise to be interesting and may prove of greater importance than the recount, in determining the final result.

There ought to be an amendment to the election law making the Supreme Court custodian of all ballots with authority to deposit them, immediately after they have been sealed by the inspectors, with some safe deposit company, giving bonds.

Wherever the seals of the bags and envelopes were damaged Brown gained in the recount.

THE KOEPENICK AFFAIR.

The Man Who Deceived the Mayor and Got the Town's Cash.

The chief actor in the serio-comic Koepenick case, Wilhelm Voight, who was arrested ten days after he made a prisoner of the Mayor and confiscated the treasury of the town which the adventure has made famous, was born in 1889 and is a shoemaker by trade. He has served twenty-seven years in prison for various crimes, and the pictures of him copied from those on file in the Berlin police department show a face which would have betrayed him had the panic-stricken Mayor studied it. In its description of him the "Berliner Tageblatt" says: "The face is withered, and the skin leads one to believe that it does not often come in contact with water. The head is perfectly bald, except for a fringe of thin hair over and behind the ears. The nose looks as though a piece of it had been cut from the right side.

Voight was at breakfast at the home of his sister in Berlin when he was arrested. "When I came out of prison," he said, "I made up my mind to lead an honest life. I was master of my trade and knew I could make a good living. But the authorities looked upon me as a bad man, and I had to move on. I was pushed from one place to another until I became desperate. I knew what a uniform could do in Germany. You need not laugh at Koepenick. I was never there before in my life. With a uniform and with the military to support me I knew that any place could be fooled—and larger ones than Koepenick." He was asked why he had not chosen a higher rank than that of captain for his disguise, in view of the fact that many people would know that there are no captains of his age in the army.

"As a major," he answered, "I would have been compelled to have an aid in the form of a lieutenant, and I was not quite sure whether I could have procured the services of a lieutenant of the Guards for that purpose."

In answer to the questions of the magistrate before whom he was brought, the "captain"—who, by the way never served a day in the army—said: "Do not blame Dr. Langerhaus, the Mayor. You would have done just as he did: Had he made any effort to argue with me, I would have called upon my soldiers."

Voight bought the uniform in Berlin and went to the target practice grounds at Jungfernhede, where he threw off his old clothes and "became at once a captain." Then, meeting a squad of soldiers who were marching to their barracks, he impressed them into his service. They were awed by his pompous manner and followed willingly when they were informed that they had been selected to help the captain carry out the orders of the Kaiser. A few minutes' journey by train brought the squad to Koepenick.

"It is also untrue," he said, "that I tried to bribe the depot master to allow me to change my clothes at the station. The fact is, I managed to buy some civilian's garments and the open field was my dressing room. The clothes which I took off at the target grounds I had to sacrifice—I left them where I took them off."

A pamphlet entitled "The Captain of Koepenick," by Hans Hyan, profusely illustrated by Paul Haase, in which the German's blind obedience to and awe for the military are held up to ridicule, appeared simultaneously in Berlin and Leipzig before the "captain" was caught. This pamphlet has also been suppressed by Imperial decree. A copy was received here yesterday.—N. Y. Tribune.

RECEPTION TO
REV. DR. SYLVESTER

There was a large and representative gathering at Central Union church last night, the occasion being a reception to the new pastor, Rev. Dr. J. Walter Sylvester, by the congregation. There was a short program, but one that was very much enjoyed by everyone. The congregation was received in the school room by Mesdames W. W. Hall, Doremus Scudder and J. A. McCandless, who were assisted by Rev. E. B. Turner.

The program was necessarily short, owing to the failure of some who were to take part to materialize. The first number, "My Sweetheart," by Lyman, was sung by members of the Kamehameha Girls' School. Miss Paty recited "Old Hickory" and the Kamehameha girls sang that popular old English ballad, "Sally in Our Alley." Then they rendered a Royal Hawaiian mele. All of the numbers were well rendered and well received.

Refreshments were afterward served in the room adjoining the Sunday school room.

The decorations were decidedly tropical and consisted of ferns and palms and vines, extending from floor to the gallery.

PRATT ANSWERS THE
"MANACLES" WRITER

"Replying to the writer who said some things in the Advertiser this morning about the Land Office and 'manacles,'" said Land Commissioner Pratt yesterday, "I wish to say that every acre of land I promised to put up will be put up for sale. A preliminary survey has been made and the boundaries laid out. I want to cut it up into sections. The land will extend along the railroad track from Nani-kuli to Waianae. It will be put up to the small interests."

5 1-2 INCHES RAIN
AT WAIMANALO

"We had five and a half inches of rain last week," said Manager Chambers of Waimanalo plantation yesterday. "We have had a dry season, with practically little or no rain since last March. It has been the driest season in thirteen years. That rain has made things look fine again."

The Japanese Question and the Law.

Harper's Weekly.

It is evidently not going to be easy to allay the irritation felt in Japan at the exclusion of Japanese children from San Francisco schools which are attended by white pupils. Since we discussed the subject last week evidence has accumulated that Secretary Metcalf is likely to find the Education Board of San Francisco intractable, because that body, like the other municipal authorities of that town, have for some years represented organized labor, which is determined to make California an undesirable place of residence not only for the Chinese, but for all other Orientals. Neither will the Secretary find it easy to induce the Legislature to repeal the law under which the Education Board acted, for, although the labor-unions have not yet acquired a majority of the Legislature, they constitute a very strong minority. We seem likely, therefore, to be obliged to face the fundamental question, Does a treaty concluded by our Federal government bind our constituent States? Is such a treaty "the law of the land" in the sense that our Federal Executive or Judiciary can treat as invalid the statute of a State that contravenes it? What foreign powers think of the assertion, more than once made and acted upon by us, that our Constitution does not permit the Federal government to coerce States into compliance with treaty obligations, was so distinctly declared in the famous McLeod case that it may be worth while to recall the peremptory position taken by Great Britain in that affair. In the autumn of 1840 a Canadian named Alexander McLeod was arrested at Lewiston, New York, and committed to the Lockport jail, on the charge that he had confessed to having fired the shot by which an American named Amos Durfee was killed on the night when a vessel named the Caroline was captured in American waters by a party of Canadians. The British government forthwith demanded the release of the prisoner, but Forsyth, who was then Secretary of State, replied that the offense of which McLeod was accused had been committed in the territory and against the laws of the citizens of the State of New York; that it came within the jurisdiction of her tribunals; that the jurisdiction of each State of the Union was, within its proper sphere, perfectly independent of the Federal government; and that any Federal interposition would therefore be improper.

Subsequently, Mr. Fox, the British minister at Washington, was instructed by her Majesty's government—Lord Palmerston was then Secretary for Foreign Affairs—to address a note to Daniel Webster, who had succeeded Forsyth as Secretary of State, in which "the immediate release of Mr. Alexander McLeod" was "demanded." The British government went on to point out that it could not "admit for a moment" the doctrine that the Federal government had no power to interfere and that the decision must rest with the State of New York. The relations of foreign powers were with the Federal government, and when reparation was demanded for a wrong done by a State, it was to the Federal government that the aggrieved foreign power must look for redress. To concede that the Federal government had no control over a State would lead logically to the assumption that the Union did not exist so far as foreign powers were concerned, and to the accrediting of foreign diplomatic agents, not to the Federal government, but to each separate State, and would make their relations of peace and war with each State depend upon the results of their separate intercourse with such State. All the facts in this interesting case will be found set forth in the lately published sixth volume of the History of the United States by Mr. John Bach McMaster, but we may note here that Daniel Webster, in his answer to Mr. Fox, evaded the point just recalled, and, by providing for the prisoner eminent counsel, including the United States District Attorney for the Northern District of New York, secured his acquittal, whereby the incident was closed. We have reproduced a small part of the diplomatic correspondence to show, what might be overlooked, that Japan has a British precedent for declining to recognize any alleged inability of our Federal government to prevent the State of California from discriminating against Japanese children in schools, to the contravention of the treaty which assured to the Japanese the privileges granted to the most favored nation. Suppose that Japan should say that, just as Great Britain, through the mouth of Lord Palmerston, threatened in 1841 to deal directly with the State of New York, the Mikado, on his part, will deal directly with the State of California?

A FAIR EXCHANGE.

Large sums of money are no doubt realized from simple speculation, but the great fortunes are derived from legitimate and honest business—where the goods furnished are worth the price they bring. Certain famous business men have accumulated their millions wholly in this way. Prompt and faithful in every contract or engagement they enjoy the confidence of the public and command a class of trade that is refused to unstable or tricky competitors. In the long run it does not pay to cheat or deceive others. A humbug may be advertised with a noise like the blowing of a thousand trumpets, but it is soon detected and exposed. The manufacturers of WAMPOL'S PREPARATION have always acted on very different principles. Before offering it to the public they first made sure of its merits. Then, and then only, did its name appear in print. People were assured of what it would do, and found the statement truthful. To-day they believe in it as we all believe in the word of a tried and trusted friend. It is palatable as honey and contains all the nutritive and curative properties of Pure Cod Liver Oil, extracted by us from fresh cod livers, combined with the Compound Syrup of Hypophosphites and the Extracts of Malt and Wild Cherry. It aids digestion, drives impurities from the blood, and cures Anemia, Scrofula, Debility, Influenza, Throat and Lung Troubles, and Wasting Complaints. Dr. Louis W. Bishop says: "I take pleasure in saying I have found it a most efficient preparation, embodying all of the medicinal properties of a pure cod liver oil in a most palatable form." It is a scientific remedy and a food with a delicious taste and flavor. One bottle convinces. "You cannot be disappointed in it." Sold by chemists here and everywhere.

This is a difficulty which was foreseen by the framers, champions, and earliest exponents of the Federal Constitution, but at that time they did not dare to deal with it effectually. As it was, the Constitution framed at Philadelphia in 1787 could not have secured ratification had not the State conventions in certain indispensable States practically conditioned their assent on the immediate addition of the first ten amendments, which substantially embody a bill of rights. If the Constitution had explicitly declared that the whole power of the Federal Executive and Judiciary should be used to enforce compliance with treaties on a constituent State, the proposed Federal organic law would not have had a chance of adoption. For the new Union was to inherit the treaties made under the Articles of Confederation, among which was the treaty of peace with Great Britain (1783), which prescribed that debts due to British merchants before the outbreak of the War of Independence should be collectable in American courts, and that loyalists should be undisturbed in life, liberty, or property. It is well known that these treaty obligations were defied in several States, and that to this day the wrong then done to many a creditor or loyalist has never been redressed. But, although the signers of the Constitution of 1787 did not venture to make the Federal Executive and the Federal courts the enforcers of treaty obligations (but confined themselves to saying that the judges in every State "shall" hold themselves bound by treaties), the danger of omitting to do so was not, as we have said, lost sight of.

Thus, for example, Madison, in No. 43 of the Federalist, pointed out that as the Constitutions of the States differ much from each other, it might happen that a treaty or national law of great and equal importance to the States would interfere with some and not with other Constitutions, and would consequently be valid in some at the same time that it would have no effect in others. In fine, the world would see for the first time a system of government founded on an inversion of the fundamental principles of all governments; it would see the authority of the whole society subordinated everywhere to the authority of the parts; it would see, in a word, a monster in which the head was under the direction of the members. So, too, Alexander Hamilton, in No. 80 of the Federalist, recognized that the Union would undoubtedly be answerable to foreign powers for the conduct of its members. He added that the responsibility for an injury ought always to be accompanied with the means of preventing it. He went on to say that, as the denials and perversion of justice by the sentences of courts, as well as in any other manner, is with reason classed among the just causes of war, it would follow that the Federal Judiciary ought to have cognizance of all causes in which the citizens of other countries are concerned. This he pronounced no less essential to the preservation of the public faith than to the security of the public tranquility. It is, nevertheless, a fact that Congress has never yet passed laws giving the Federal Executive or the Federal courts the power to enforce treaty obligations, in case these should be contravened by the Constitution or laws of a particular State. So long as this remains true it is obvious that our Federation lacks one of the essential definitions of a nation. For our Federal government, while assuming treaty obligations to foreign powers, either lacks constitutionally, or from inability has failed to assert, the means of living up to them.

SPORTS

EWA TENNIS REAL THING

Tourney Proceeds as Far as the Semi-Finals.

The tennis tournament played at Ewa on Sunday was the hottest on record. All Ewa turned out to see the play on the courts, and a most enjoyable day was spent by everybody. Fortunately the weather was on its best behavior.

Punctually at 9 a. m. "Doc" McLean and Davidson, the lanky book-keeper, faced the "dead sure" guys Bento and Gouveia and were quickly put to rout, the score being 0-6, 5-7. Rooters were very much in evidence during this match.

Head Luna Fisher and Store Assistant Silver next engaged "Fatty" Schmidt and Jenkins, otherwise known as "The Taffy Boy." The latter pair received their quietus after a smart three sets.

Owing to a bye the "High Cockolorums" Bento and Gouveia again faced the music, this time in the shape of the undaunted Hieland Laddie Mann and Knut Eklund from the Norwegian fords. The onlookers received a rare run for their money but witnessed the shutting out of the last-named pair by the score of 6-4, 7-5.

Next on the board were the popular favorites Archie Guild and "Pop" Swift versus the plantation's serio-comic vocalist and all-around funny man Muller, and Dave Douglas, the doughty politician. This was the game of the day as the latter were held too cheaply by their opponents and they were beaten, the score being 5-7, 10-8, 6-4. Muller's leaps were really great. Terada, the perky little Jap interpreter, with the assistance of Head Water Luna Olding, downed "Dandy" Charlie McEachern and "Commodore" Chaso after a pretty game, Terada's racket work, as usual, eliciting much applause.

The tournament had now reached the semi-final stage and Bento and Gouveia opposed Fisher and Silver. This game was in doubt until nearly the end of the second set, owing to the determined playing of Fisher, ably seconded by his partner. The "certs" eventually ran out winners, however, by the score of 4-6, 8-10.

Guild and Swift then went hot foot after Terada and Olding and notwithstanding Terada's spirited play and Olding's defense, succeeded in winning to the tune of 5-7, 6-4, 6-3. By this time the light was getting too bad to allow of accurate play and Captain Alec McKeever decided to postpone the finals 'till next Sunday when Gouveia and Bento meet Guild and Swift in what promises to be the best game ever seen at Ewa.

Handicapper McKeever's adjustment of the weights gave satisfaction to all concerned.

NEW RUBBER CORPORATION

A Pahang Company Is Being Organized Here.

The constantly increasing demand for articles in rubber and the adoption of that commodity for purposes unknown a quarter of a century ago is rapidly exhausting the world's supply of that article. Old areas adapted to the growth and cultivation of the rubber tree are being extended and new ones explored and planted in order that the supply may be brought up to a quantity necessary for the commerce in that line.

Ceylon has long been known as a productive spot for Para rubber, but it has not been many years that the owners of plantations have devoted the care and attention necessary to the trees to insure the best results, and the treatment of the wild rubber trees by the native gatherers has been detrimental to that industry.

A comparatively new and desirable field is the Malay States. The conditions as to soil and climate are capitally adapted to rubber and during the past ten years a number of plantations have been started throughout the states. A few months ago a rubber planter from that section, Davidson, who is also a heavy grower in Ceylon, said while here that the conditions in Malay are even better than in Ceylon, that the class and quality of laborers available and the means of transportation all tended to benefit the planter in Malay to a great extent. That gentleman had a small holding in Malay, near the lands leased to the Pahang Rubber Co., and he had refused a cable offer of two hundred thousand dollars for his holding in that particular plantation.

In Ceylon and Malay there is a growing tendency to cultivate in the main the Hevea, considered the best for all purposes. This Mr. Davidson is a large holder of shares in several of the big rubber companies in Malay and was one of the early buyers in the Selangor Company at a pound a share and sold recently at four pounds a share. Since he sold, the shares have gone to double that figure. The Sandycroft, which adjoins the Selangor, recently made its first strippings, and the result was nearly a pound of rubber per tree. In the last two years the company has paid twenty-five per cent. dividend on the capital stock of $55,000, and it hopes to pay fifty per cent. next year.

This gives an idea of the profit in cultivating rubber trees. As to labor, Mr. Davidson says there is plenty of it throughout India and the Malay States, for the reason that the British government prefers to keep their coolies at home, and the government keeps a watchful eye on them even after they enter into contract with the rubber companies at a small wage rate.

The Pahang Rubber Co., which was incorporated yesterday, will be operated by local capital. The lands under lease to it are admirably situated and were selected by Dr. E. C. Waterhouse last year during his visit there. He traveled extensively throughout the states with Mr. Harding and visited localities where they obtained information without his intention being known. In the matter of accessibility, Mr. Davidson remarked while here that the locality could not well be surpassed, being on a splendidly-macadamized road over which an automobile and ox service were operated.

According to him the opportunities for large profit in the cultivation of rubber are near at hand, for it is of record that one of the companies in Malay, near the Pahang lands, paid a dividend of 120 per cent. the second year of tapping. The leases owned by the Pahang Co. are from the government and are for a period long enough to warrant the improvements that will be made. There is already 100 acres of land cleared and will be planted in Hevea as soon as the young trees may be moved.

Three acres comprise the nursery and the land is full of young Hevea trees. In preparing the soil for a nursery all of the old roots are taken out and the soil pulverized by hand. Then the holes are dug and the cuttings or seeds planted and nourished until they are old and strong enough to be removed and transplanted.

The capital stock of the Pahang Co. is $150,000 and is assessable only up to its par value of ten dollars a share and the assessments are to be made quarterly in small amounts. The company will be controlled locally and it is believed the stock will all be held here. That it will meet with ready demand is evident from the names of the men who will be at the head of the company. The officers are: E. C. Waterhouse, president; D. P. R. Isenberg, vice president; Fred. T. P. Waterhouse, secretary and treasurer; E. A. Knudsen, A. W. Carter and C. B. Hemenway, directors.

sion to secure preliminary plans for a general scheme of municipal improvement. In the formation of the commission and in the subjects to be considered, we feel that we can profit largely by the experience of other cities, which have undertaken a similar work in connection with improvement and beautifying their public places and public buildings or their park systems.

I am informed that Honolulu has planned and undertaken some work of this kind and write to ask you whether the results thus far have been embodied in printed form of which I could obtain a copy.

I should greatly appreciate the favor of a reply from you. I am,

Very truly yours,

W. B. BELL.

Asst. to President of City Council of Atlantic City.

GERE'S REPORT.

A lengthy report by County Engineer Gere, reviewing the scope of his work for the past month and outlining future activity, was read and laid on the table to be considered with the estimates.

PETITIONS.

A petition was read from 65 voters and taxpayers at Iwilei and Waiala Camp, Kalihi, asking that a public road and highway be laid out and constructed without delay, beginning at the southern corner of the Honolulu gas works, to and connecting with the Waiala road mauka of the Sisters' School of Leper Children. This road would connect with Puuhale district and Iwilei. The matter was referred to the proper authorities.

Another petition was read from voters and taxpayers at Waiala Camp, asking that the streets known as Dr. Day's avenue and McVeigh's avenue at Waiala Camp be filled and macadamized as soon as possible.

The petitioners also asked for a sufficient number of electric lights to be extended from the government stables at Palama to Waiala Camp. At the present time this place at night is perilous, dark and dangerous to passersby and kamaainas.

F. S. Dodge said that the streets mentioned in the petition as needing macadamizing were Bishop Estate property and therefore not within the jurisdiction of the county. The estate would, nevertheless, be willing to help out in the matter of macadam.

PAOLOLO PILIKIA.

F. L. Webster, a Paololo settler, asked for help from the county in fixing about 500 yards of road from the main Paololo road to the homesteads. He described the state of the afore-mentioned thoroughfare as frightful, having been flooded by the recent rains. He said that the settlers had fixed the homestead road themselves and he thought that it was time that the county did something in the matter.

Lucas remarked that the road department had done a good deal of work in the valley. His remarks were emphatic, even for him.

C. D. Pringle endorsed Webster's remarks. According to him the state of the road is horrible. He said that the settlers had outlived in money and labor over $800 on the homestead road. Personally he had worked sixteen Sundays on the job. He earnestly requested that something be done to mend matters out Paololo way.

Road Supervisor Johnson said that the road work asked for would cost about $200.

The matter was taken up with the estimates and was favorably considered.

ESTIMATES.

The estimates as passed for December amounted to $36,425, of which $15,100 goes for road work, $4600 worth of which will be done in the outside districts.

This estimate is exclusive of the pay of the band for the month, which will be appropriated for at the next meeting.

POLICE UNCUT.

It is noticeable that the police department draws down on the old extravagant basis, thanks to the remissness in reporting of the investigation committee, which continues to ask for more time.

A BAND BREEZE.

After the estimates had been disposed of Moore called attention to the fact that the matter of the band had been overlooked.

"It started work on the first of the month," said Lucas.

"Not on your life," replied Moore; "it starts to work when we tell it to."

The chair called Moore's attention to the fact that the board had agreed that the band should continue to work for the county on December 1, at their last meeting.

Moore, however, refused to see it that way, although he was the only one of the board who did not.

WANTS NO BAND.

"We've got to have the band," exclaimed Lucas.

"What for?" demanded Moore.

"It's a poor soul that never rejoices," retorted Jack.

Lucas moved that the salary of the band start from the 1st inst. The motion went through, Moore alone dissenting.

Moore then moved that the monthly pay of the band be cut down from $1650 to $1200.

BERGER'S FRIEND.

"If necessary reduce the number of bandmen and cut the leader's salary," said Moore; "don't let the band run the county or Berger dictate what we shall do."

"We can't well ask the boys to work for less pay than we've been giving them," said Lucas.

The chair on enquiry learned that Berger's salary was $185 per month.

"Better hire a competent man," said Moore. "I know that Naone is willing to act as leader for $100 a month."

"A matter between an individual and Berger has no place in this discussion," exclaimed Lucas.

Moore's motion died without a second.

DWIGHT SURPRISED.

Dwight expressed his surprise at Moore's attitude, which was in marked contrast to the stand he took in the matter at the last meeting of the board.

"Berger has been a faithful leader for thirty years," said Lucas, "and has given good service. It's not right to try and cut down his salary."

BRING ON YOUR BILLS.

On Lucas' motion, the clerk will notify all claimants on the county, in the public press, to present their bills before the end of the year or run the risk of a grievous delay in settlement of their accounts.

MUST CURB LOTS.

It was moved by Lucas and carried, that taxpayers who have not curbed their lots be notified that if they do not rectify their oversight they will be prosecuted according to law.

The meeting adjourned till Saturday, the 15th inst.

Brush Up

We have the article. Our assortment of brushes for the hair and clothes has no equal in this Territory. Howard's military, and hand, are conceded to be the most elegant in point of finish, length of bristles and their quality now made. They have all the points for durability that can be put in a brush. We have the Adams, the style that has had the run for years in both military and hand, and also the Sanitary Prophylactic, a brush that can be boiled without injury to either wood or bristles.

Any of these will be a suitable Christmas gift.

$10,251 FOR DAMAGES

W. C. Peacock Sues Some Officials for His Arrest.

Following the release of W. C. Peacock in the police court yesterday on the charge of selling adulterated liquors, Mr. Peacock brought suit against Territorial Treasurer Campbell, Sheriff A. M. Brown, County Attorney Edward Douthitt and County Attorney's detective H. W. Lake for damages amounting to $10,251 on the ground of false arrest. Mr. Peacock's complaint was filed in the Circuit Court yesterday afternoon by his counsel, C. W. Ashford and R. W. Breckons. His complaint makes good reading matter and is as follows:

The above-named plaintiff, Walter C. Peacock, complains of the above-named defendants, A. J. Campbell, Arthur M. Brown, Edward A. Douthitt, and H. T. Lake, and for cause of complaint, he alleges as follows:

1. That at all times herein mentioned, plaintiff was a citizen of the United States, and of the Territory of Hawaii, and a resident of and actually present in the city of Honolulu, County of Oahu, in said Territory.
2. That at all times herein mentioned, said defendant A. J. Campbell, was such citizen and resident as above alleged in the case of said plaintiff, and was the Treasurer of the Territory of Hawaii, duly and regularly appointed, commissioned and acting.
3. That at all times herein mentioned, said defendant Arthur M. Brown, was such citizen and resident as above alleged in the case of said plaintiff, and was the Sheriff of said County of Oahu, duly elected qualified and acting, and was then and there legally liable and responsible for all and sundry, the official acts of defendant H. T. Lake, hereinafter alleged, and was similarly liable and responsible for all and sundry the official acts of the police officers and receiving station officers employed at, and in charge of the receiving station connected with the Police Office and Station at said Honolulu.
4. That at all times herein mentioned, said defendant H. T. Lake was such citizen and resident as above alleged in the case of said plaintiff, and was a police officer in and for said County of Oahu, duly and regularly commissioned by said defendant Brown, as such Sheriff as aforesaid, and duly in the discharge of his duties under such commission.
5. That at all times herein mentioned, said defendant Edward A. Douthitt was such citizen and resident as above alleged in the case of said plaintiff, and was a police officer in and for said County of Oahu, duly elected, qualified and acting.
6. That on the 3rd day of December, A. D. 1906, at said Honolulu, said H. T. Lake, acting in his capacity as such police officer as aforesaid, so commissioned as aforesaid, and acting under the instructions, and at the instigation and procurement of said defendants A. J. Campbell, Arthur M. Brown and Edward A. Douthitt, did, without authority of law, and against the will of this plaintiff, with force and arms arrest and take this plaintiff into the custody of him, the said H. T. Lake, to wit, at the office of W. C. Peacock & Company, Limited, an Hawaiian corporation, on Merchant street in said Honolulu; and did then and there, and forthwith thereafter, on the date aforesaid, with force and arms, and against the will and the rights of this plaintiff, and without authority of law, convey and conduct this plaintiff from the said place of his said arrest, to the Police Station, to wit, the Receiving Station, located in that certain building known as Kalakaua Hale, on said Merchant street, in said Honolulu, in all of which acts were then and there done by said defendant Lake in the daytime of said day, and in broad daylight, and in the sight and within the observation of numerous of the acquaintances of this plaintiff, and of other persons then and there within said office, and present upon said street, and at and in said Receiving Station, to the great wrong, injury, discomfort, mortification and humiliation of this plaintiff.
7. And that he, said defendant Lake having so conveyed and conducted this plaintiff to said Receiving Station in manner aforesaid, and that at the time aforesaid, did then and there, to wit, at and in said Receiving Station, turn over and transfer the custody of this plaintiff to a certain other person, whose name is to this plaintiff unknown, and who was then and there the officer and official subordinate of said defendant Arthur M. Brown, as such Sheriff as aforesaid, in charge and control of said Receiving Station; and that said officer last above referred to did then and there, at the procurement, instigation and behest of said defendants, take and assume the custody of this plaintiff, and did then and there forcibly, and against the rights and the will of this plaintiff, hold and retain this plaintiff under arrest, and in the custody of him, the officer last above referred to, at and in said Receiving Station, for a long period of time, to wit, for the period of half an hour or thereabouts; and that said plaintiff was obliged to, and because of said obligation, said plaintiff did then and there and thereupon, in order to obtain and as a necessary means of obtaining his said plaintiff's release and discharge from said arrest, and from the custody of said officer last above referred to, procure, execute and deliver to said officer, a certain bond in the sum of one hundred dollars ($100.00), conditioned for the appearance of said plaintiff in and before the District Court of said Honolulu, at 9 o'clock in the forenoon of the 4th day of December, A. D. 1906, and said plaintiff was further by said officer obliged to, and because of said obligation, said plaintiff did then and there pay to said officer a sum of money, to wit, the sum of one dollar ($1.00), for the purchase and placing upon said bond, of a Revenue Stamp of said Territory of Hawaii, of the amount and denomination of One Dollar.

8. And that because of the facts aforesaid, this plaintiff was obliged to, and he did, at 9 o'clock in the forenoon of said 4th day of December, A. D. 1906, go to and appear in and before the District Court of said Honolulu, where he was then and there arraigned before said court, in the public view of a large number of his acquaintances, and other persons then and there being, to the great wrong, shame, indignity, mortification and humiliation of this plaintiff.

9. And that, because of the acts aforesaid, this plaintiff was obliged to, and he did retain and procure the services of counsel, learned in the law, to the end and purpose that he, said plaintiff, should be released and discharged from said arrest and custody, and from the obligation to further appear in and before said District Court or elsewhere in pursuance or in consequence thereof; and that plaintiff thereby incurred the obligation to pay for the services of his said counsel in the premises, a large sum of money, to wit, the sum of two hundred and fifty dollars ($250.00); and that upon his said arraignment in and before said District Court, and upon the motion of his said counsel, to that end and effect, and upon argument thereof, by his said counsel, this plaintiff was then and there, to wit, during the forenoon of said 4th day of December, A. D. 1906, dismissed and discharged of and from said arrest and custody and of and from any further obligation to appear in said court, or elsewhere, in consequence thereof.

10. And this plaintiff alleges and charges that all and singular the said defendants acted in the premises as they are hereinabove charged to have acted, maliciously, and without probable cause, and to the great wrong, injury, and damages of this plaintiff, to wit, to his damages in the sum of two hundred and fifty-one dollars ($251.00), as and for expenses and obligations necessarily incurred by this plaintiff, in manner as aforesaid, and the further sum of ten thousand dollars ($10,000.00), as and for damages resulting and accruing to this plaintiff by reason and because of the malicious, illegal and unwarranted acts of said defendants, as aforesaid, and the wrong, injury, shame, mortification and humiliation caused and resulting to this plaintiff by reason thereof.

Wherefore plaintiff prays the process of this Honorable Court to cite said defendants to appear and answer this complaint in due form of law; and that plaintiff may have judgment against said defendants, in the said sum of ten thousand two hundred and fifty-one dollars, ($10,251.00), together with costs of court.

In the Circuit Court of the First Circuit, Territory of Hawaii. Holding Terms at Honolulu, County of Oahu.

Walter C. Peacock, Plaintiff, vs. A. J. Campbell, Arthur M. Brown, Edward A. Douthitt and H. T. Lake, Defendants. Term Summons.

The Territory of Hawaii:

To the High Sheriff of the Territory of Hawaii, or his Deputy; the Sheriff of the County of Oahu, or his Deputy: You are commanded to summon A. J. Campbell, Arthur M. Brown, Edward A. Douthitt and H. T. Lake, defendants herein, in case they shall file written answer within twenty days after service thereof, to be and appear before the said Circuit Court at the term thereof pending immediately after the expiration of twenty days after service hereof; provided, however, if no term be pending at such time, then to be and appear before the said Circuit Court at the next succeeding term thereof, to wit, the January term thereof, to be held at Honolulu, County of Oahu, on Monday, the 7th day of January, 1907, next, at 10 o'clock a. m., to show cause why the claim of Walter C. Peacock, plaintiff, should not be awarded to him pursuant to the tenor of his annexed complaint.

Witness the Honorable John T. De Rolt, First Judge of the Circuit of the First Circuit, at Honolulu, this 4th day of December, 1906.

(Sgd) L. P. SCOTT, Clerk.

BARR SUIT WITHDRAWN.

Miss Ethel Barr, the trained nurse who brought suit for $5000 against the Honolulu Rapid Transit & Land Company in October, 1905, for alleged injuries, claimed to have been received by a partial fall from a street car, filed a discontinuance of the same yesterday by her attorneys, Thompson & Clemons.

Miss Barr claimed that while riding on the Manoa valley line she was almost thrown from a car as it swept around a curve. She claimed that she was injured as a result and was under medical treatment and had suffered certain severe injuries. She claimed the company's servants were negligent in driving the car.

The incident occurred on October 10 in the forenoon. Miss Barr is now a resident of Los Angeles.

COURT NOTES.

The Bunbichi vs. Rapid Transit case will probably go to the jury today.

Victoria Lua has brought suit for divorce against Kakaleka Lua on the ground of desertion.

Lazaro Salamanea has filed a suit against one N. J. Louis for $5000 damages for alienating the affection of the plaintiff's wife, Isabeila Salamanea. He claims that the alienating began about September 1 and has continued every day since then.

W. H. Cornwell, by his attorney E. M. Watson, filed a petition in the Supreme Court yesterday for a recount of the votes on Maui for supervisor. Mr. Cornwell was defeated at the polls as a Democrat. He was defeated in the official count by five votes. He claims fraud and alleges there were eight ballots cast at the Punene school house and counted for his opponent, which should have been counted for himself. He claims also that certain ballots bore identification marks.

$15 For a Design

We are preparing to move into new and more commodious quarters, and when we move we shall need a new supply of "To Let" and "For Sale" cards for our real estate department. We wish to secure a striking and catchy design for these cards—something new and original. We invite our friends (and enemies) to help us. For the design that best fills the bill, we will pay $7.50 cash; for the second best, $5.00; and for the third, $2.50. We have no "instructions," no "specifications," no "suggestions" to give. What we want is something original—something new. All designs must be submitted on or before Saturday, December 8, at our office.

TRENT & COMPANY,

GREATER THAN EVER
Christmas : 1906

During this great remembrance and gift Season, the greater Diamonds are more fully prepared than ever, in all their well known history, before the buying public, to satisfy all in Holiday Gifts. Why? Because we study carefully and faithfully the wants of the people in all circumstances. And another secret of our success lies in the fact that our Buyers, make special journeys to the different factories and personally select new and complete lines of the very latest novelties in CHINA, BRIC-A-BRAC, "DEN" MATERIALS, etc., with the result that we have new and complete lines within reach of all. Last year, our store was smiling in its Christmas attire, this season it fairly laughs, for we have spent thousands of dollars in extensive and beautiful improvements, which the steady increase of our business has made absolutely necessary, in order to accommodate our new and vast assortment of Goods.

Among the many lines in which we excel this year are the following:

Libbey's Rich Cut Glass.....

Comprising Decanters, Jugs, Vases, Celery Trays, Bowls, Nappies, Baskets and many articles too numerous to mention.

Sterling Silverware.....

Beautiful Designs in Table Services, Fancy Pieces such as Ladles, Fish, Salad and Cold Meat Forks.

Beautiful Hand-Painted China.....

CHRISTMAS GIFTS
FOR OCEAN MAIL

The Postmaster requests that persons desiring to send Christmas mail to the mainland, whether registered or ordinary, deposit same in postoffice at earliest day possible, to insure prompt dispatch. It should be remembered that registered mails close in advance of ordinary mails.

The Nippon Maru will be the first boat to follow the Alameda, and will probably sail for San Francisco, Monday, December 10.

The Sonoma, scheduled to sail December 11, will be the last regular steamer to carry registered mails to reach offices on the mainland before Christmas day. The Aorangi, scheduled to sail December 12, to Victoria, B. C., will probably take ordinary mail for United States offices.
