

WHAT A MERRY MONTH OF MAY WE HAD.

PRESIDENT M'KINLEY'S VISIT TO SAN FRANCISCO

SAN FRANCISCO, May 22.—Four miles of children in quadruple row is what the President saw yesterday morning, and when he said it was the finest thing he had seen since leaving his home in Washington, he undoubtedly felt that for once, at least, he could express his opinion without mental reservation or secret evasion.

It was a living flower garden, an animated bouquet, that waved and seemed to fold and unfold as if with the passing breeze. It was also a bouquet with a voice, and the voice was as much in evidence as the color tones. It was a living wall of blossom and bud composed of 45,000 bits of humanity, each eager to see the President, but not only to see the President, but to have the President see it. Many of the little tots were scarcely old enough and big enough to realize that the President of the United States was passing, or what his passing meant, but there were thousands upon thousands who fully understood and appreciated the opportunity given them to have a personal view of the man whom they all admire and honor.

All the information given out from the temporary residence of President McKinley yesterday was of a most favorable nature. Mrs. McKinley's condition was such that her physicians felt that all probability of a relapse was past, and further bulletins regarding the progress of her convalescence were deemed unnecessary. It was announced at noon that Mrs. McKinley was taking interest in matters going on about the city, and asked the President many questions regarding his movements and what he had seen. She was especially interested in the review of the children. The improvement was so great that the President felt that he could take much more time from the house than heretofore, consequently he went for a long drive through the park immediately after returning from the review of the children.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 23.—At noon yesterday the commanderies of Knights Templar of San Francisco, Oakland and Sacramento were called from labor to refreshment, for the purpose of tendering a reception to Sir Knight William McKinley of Canton Commandery, Ohio. Masons of all degrees made it a gala day, and were joined in homage to their distinguished frater by an enormous gathering of citizens. With the order and beauty that characterize Masonic ceremonials the procession of knights, mounted and unmounted, and the reception at the Mechanics' Pavilion made a memorable scene.

It seemed like a return to mediaeval days, and the plain dignity of the President of the United States seemed lost amid the pomp and circumstance of the Order of the Temple. But it took only a few words to show that there was nothing of regal pomp in his conception of the Government which was honored through his head yesterday. The Americanism of his speech was strong and timely.

Mrs. McKinley's steady improvement has made it possible for the ladies of the Presidential party to accept some social attentions, and one of the pleasantest took place yesterday afternoon, when the Century Club entertained in their honor. The affair was happy in every particular. The cheerful green assembly hall and the club house proper had a decoration of spring flowers, and during the hours of the reception from 4 to 6 o'clock delicious light refreshments were served.

"Thank God, in the United States there are no classes, and the poor boy, no matter what his environment, may rise to the most exalted station."

President McKinley closed his address delivered before the members of the First Regiment, League of the Cross Cadets, and 5,000 of their friends at Mechanics' Pavilion last night with this earnest expression. It was an occasion calculated to bring from his lips words of strong commendation, for he remembered that this same regiment was the first to offer its services to the Governor of California when the news came that unavoidable war was on with Spain.

BECKLEY IS BACK WITH A LETTER FROM THE PRESIDENT

AMONG the casuals on the United States transport Lawton, bound for this port, was Representative Beckley, who was sent by the Home Rule faction of the Legislature to interview President McKinley during the stay of the latter in San Francisco. Immediately upon his arrival in Honolulu the Home Rule delegate went to the residence of his mother, Mrs. Nakulua, in Palama, and remained there the entire day.

During the whole of yesterday his political associates were busy going and coming. What the fruits of Beckley's visit are, no one knows, not even his closest friends, for the statesman from Maui is as dumb as the traditional clam. When asked regarding his trip, Representative Beckley said:

"Personally, I can say that I had a most enjoyable time. The occasion was one long to be remembered. The people of the Golden Gate gave the President a royal welcome. The illness of Mrs. McKinley, while an unfortunate incident, only served to show how strong a hold the Chief Executive had upon the hearts of the people.

"As to the political results of my visit, I prefer not to speak at this time. I will say this, however. The President gave me a letter which I am to read to the members of the Legislature. This letter will doubtless be read on Monday morning.

"The President sends a hearty Aloha to the people of Hawaii, and will, he says, visit them before the expiration of his present term. My coming back on the Lawton has created some surprise. It was McKinley's wish, however, that I return to Hawaii at the earliest possible moment, and it was as his guest that I took transportation on the Government vessel."

W. R. M'LAREN FINDS LOST DAUGHTER

Was Carried Away From Honolulu
Twenty-Two Years Ago.

EUREKA, May 24.—A search covering a period of twenty-two years was brought to a close in this county today by the discovery at Elk River, eight miles distant from this city, of the long-missing daughter of William R. McLaren, a prominent manufacturer of Honolulu. When 2 years of age the child was abducted at Honolulu by John D. Coates, alias John Duncan McDougal, who posed as a Pinkerton detective. Shortly after the abduction McDougal, claiming to have been called to Seattle, left the Islands, taking the infant, and was to correspond with the father. He failed to do so, and a search was instituted.

Eleven years ago McDougal came to this county, the child, then 15 years of age, accompanying him. Two months ago, having reason to believe that McDougal was not her father, and learning that her relatives resided in Honolulu, she made inquiries through the Chief of Police of Honolulu. McLaren communicated with his other daughter, Mrs. Marion Hill of San Jose, and Mrs. Hill, becoming satisfied on inquiry that this was her long-lost sister, came up on the steamer.

Mrs. Hill immediately sought and recognized her sister. Since coming to this county McDougal has been known by the name of John D. Coates, and his adopted daughter is married. Her husband is Frank Shaw, a prominent farmer of the Elk River section.

William R. McLaren, the father of Mrs. Shaw, was seen at Punahou by an Advertiser reporter yesterday. Mr. McLaren hopes in the near future to be able to go to Falk, California, where his daughter is now residing, only a quarter of a mile away from McDougal and his wife, who have confessed everything concerning the identity of the stolen girl to Mrs. Hill of San Jose, formerly Marian McLaren.

McDougal, when brought face to face with the facts which were in the possession of the long-lost daughter and Mrs. Hill, said that he had been unable to restore Mrs. Shaw to her father, as he had long ago learned that Mr. McLaren was dead. He said he had written to Honolulu to learn something of her father, but he had received only the news of his death. As to why he chose to keep the secret of the child's birth away from the wronged woman, neither he nor his wife will tell.

"It is just twenty-three years ago this coming July," said Mr. McLaren yesterday, "when this man McDougal came to Honolulu—in the year 1879. I had come here the year before. My wife died in San Francisco and my three little girls, Rachel being the youngest and then only a little more than two years of age, were sent down to me. I had the two older girls put in school, but what to do with the baby was what troubled me. I was then at Mr. Lindsay's house, and it was there that I became acquainted with McDougal, who claimed to be a secret service man in the employ of the United States Government. He was a fine, big, strapping man, about 6 feet 2 inches in height. I think. His wife was with him, and both professed to take a big interest in Rachel.

"It was while I was pondering what to do with the little one that McDougal made the proposition to me to allow him to adopt her. He pressed me and pressed me, and finally I gave in. Legal papers of adoption were drawn up and signed and the little child was put into their care. Shortly afterwards McDougal came to me and said he had been called back to Seattle and would leave the next day. He promised me he would write often, apprising me of my daughter, and so it was the child left the Islands. I did hear once or twice from McDougal, and then came a letter from him stating that as he was a secret service man, and often on important missions, he would have to stop writing to me, as it would reveal his whereabouts, and from that time on I never heard from him, or of them. Not until six weeks ago did I know what had become of my daughter, although I was constantly searching for her. Friends of mine wrote to prominent people on the Coast, from Seattle to Los Angeles, but without avail.

"From the letters I have received from my daughter, she says that for years she knew of relatives of hers, said to be in far-away lands, and McDougal showed her a picture of himself and wife, with herself sitting on his knee, and her two sisters beside her. This was taken in Honolulu. When she became old enough to understand, she began to ask questions which were never answered except that they said one of the pictures was of her 'Uncle Philip.' They kept the photographs from her and for the last fourteen or fifteen years she has been in the dark as to who her relatives were. McDougal, she says, was an Ananias, and that he is not and never was a secret service man. She has made the statement that he is not in his right mind, and has been confined in several asylums. Her earliest remembrances were of a rude cabin in which the McDougal's lived, the windows of which were barred.

"The fact is that McDougal is crazy," said Mr. McLaren, "and probably was when he was in Honolulu. However, he deceived us all as to his identity. He has been going under the name of Coates. He changed my daughter's name from Rachel to Agnes, and there is everything to point to his having endeavored to prevent my daughter from ever learning who her father was. She was married when 16 years old. She heard that there were McLaren's in Honolulu and wrote to the Chief of Police, as she calls him—High Sheriff Brown. Mr. Batchelor, a clerk in the High Sheriff's office, did not know of any 'Philip McLaren' in Honolulu, and happened to be talking about the matter to one of my friends one day, who told Mr. Batchelor that I was looking for a lost daughter. We had a conference with the result that I have at last been united to my daughter, and one of her sisters has already been to greet her. She is now—let's see—24 years old; that is, on July 9. She was 2 years and 4 months old when McDougal took her away. She was not exactly abducted, as the dispatch states, but adopted; but it amounts to abduction just the same."

Mr. McLaren is a happy man and looks forward with the utmost pleasure to a visit to his long-lost daughter. They are now corresponding and each steamer now brings a letter from the daughter. In them she has unraveled the strange story of her life and completed the chain of identification. Mr. McLaren's son-in-law, George T. Dennison, superintendent of the Oahu Railway Company, who is now on the Coast, will visit Mrs. Shaw and may probably arrange for an early meeting between father and daughter.

A Stirring Sermon Preached by Mr. Giel.

Central Union Church was crowded from wall to wall last evening with listeners who had come to hear the farewell address of William Edgar Giel, whose revival services during the past week have been attracting so much attention.

Although it was his eighth meeting for the day, Mr. Giel spoke with his usual force and directness. The text of the evening was taken from Luke, 17th chapter, 14th verse, where Jesus comes across the ten lepers by the roadside. "And Jesus said, 'Go show yourselves to the priests.' And as they went they were cleansed."

The speaker prefaced his remarks by striking a match in full view of the congregation and allowing it to flare up, burn, die away into a spark, and then cease to glow altogether.

"We know that in this flame, as we see it," said the speaker, "as the match was burning its brightest, 'there are three flames. It emits light and heat. This knowledge we obtain through two sources. The one is circuitous, theoretical. We derive this information through the sense of sight. The other is direct, practical. We derive this information through the sense of touch. Friends, we might argue about God all our lives, and go to our graves theorizing, but if we have the religion of Jesus Christ in our hearts, we know more about God in five minutes than all the theorizing will teach us in a life-time. "Our text tonight deals with the ten lepers. Jesus found them sitting by the roadside. No two lepers were, it is safe to say, in the same stage of the disease. Jesus looked them over. He made no discrimination, but in the words of the text said, 'Go show yourselves to the priests.' Am I to understand that they were to obey Jesus after they were made whole? Not at all. The words of the text plainly indicate that they were to begin obeying Jesus, then and there, in all their hideous physical imperfection. Sinner, unless you begin to do the will of God publicly, there is no cleansing for you. Whatsoever your sin is, however imperfect your record, you must begin to do the will of God in all your infirmities. You must begin to do right while you are in a state of sin. Right is always right and wrong is always wrong, and it is a man's business to do the right, whether he wants to or not. "Some people say they are waiting for conviction. You know you are doing wrong, don't you? You know that you are a sinner. What more do you ask for in the way of conviction? "Friends, don't wait until your feelings prompt you. I have noticed this, people who are prompted to be religious through their feelings, have a very poor quality of religion two months after they have been so prompted. "Why should we be afraid to let people know that we are as good as we really are? This town is full of people who are reading the Bible secretly, but when they hear an approaching footfall, the grand old Book goes into hiding immediately. When you are at your best, every one of you takes sides with the Son of God. How much better for you, if you would but be brave enough to take this stand openly. "Give religion a fair and impartial trial. Then if you find it to be all right accept it. I used to be an infidel, but when I found the religion of Jesus Christ was all that it claimed to be, I accepted it. "Right is right, right or wrong, hot or cold, clear or cloudy, old or young, saint or sinner, right is right. "The trouble is that too many people don't want to do right because it is too hard work. It requires too constant attention. The thing for you to do is to do that which is right, no matter what your feelings may be. Roll up your sleeves, grit your teeth and resolve no matter what may come you will be a manly man and do the right. "Too many of us are lacking in human sympathy. Jesus was full of it. You all remember the familiar lines, 'Jesus seeing the multitude, had compassion on them.' The funeral of Muller, the Bristol philanthropist, of whom I spoke the other day, was a typical example of how one man can enlist the sympathy of thousands. Twelve hundred children stood about his grave on the day he was buried, and every eye was wet with tears. You show sympathy and sympathy will be shown to you."

At the conclusion of the sermon, an after-meeting was held in the parlors of the church. Some 500 people were present and a large number raised their hands for special prayers.

ORDER--SUICIDE-- A BODY BOILED

The Tale of the Sea Told by the Booner Campbell's Master.

galley and the second mate noticed that the captain and his wife and several of the men were directly in the line of his fire, being on deck aft. He therefore refrained from using his weapon and the cook escaped. It would probably have been instant death for any man to attempt to get the cook out of his hiding place. To reach the galley door necessitated going down a narrow hole in the deck load of lumber. Only one man at a time could have done this. Captain Smith did not feel justified in ordering any of his men to take the risk.

It was then planned to steam the cook out of the galley. A fire was started under the donkey engine and a hose was made ready to let into the galley from above. This was shortly before 4 o'clock in the morning. Just as the second mate had gotten up steam in the donkey and was prepared to let it into the galley a shot was heard in the cook's quarters. The supposition was that the man had committed suicide although it was conceded by all that the shot might simply have been a trick on his part to lure some one to open the door of the galley.

It was thought best to be on the safe side, so the second mate went ahead with his preparations and the steam hose was let into the top of the galley. Shortly afterwards the door was opened and the body of the cook was found in a sitting position in the bunk next to the galley, the galley and the cook's room being separated by a door. In the right hand a revolver was elated. One cartridge only had been exploded. This indicated to the captain that the cook had reloaded his revolver after shooting the mate, as two shots were fired at the mate and the cook had used his revolver without any effect, while hastening back to his retreat after coming out of the galley at 3 o'clock. The Chinaman's flesh was boiled by steam.

Second Mate Manning says that he saw the whole affair. He states that the mate, shortly before the shooting, had said something about "doing up" the cook. The mate went towards the galley. The second mate, thinking there was likely to be some trouble, followed to see what took place.

The mate went down to the door of the galley and had some conversation with the cook. Loud and angry words were used. Then the mate, seeming to be frightened at something he had seen, made haste to get out of the hole in the deck load of lumber and regain the deck, the deck formed by the deck load. Just as the mate was about to reach the top of the lumber pile the cook fired. The mate put up his left arm as if to defend his body and then backed away, going over to the starboard side of the vessel. The entrance to the galley is on the port side of the schooner. Scarcely had the mate passed the mainmast than the cook's head appeared over the top of the lumber, and the second mate, who had meanwhile run over to the starboard side of the ship, going forward out of range of the cook's weapon, saw a flash of fire and saw the mate drop to the deck after backing a step or two. Immediately the second mate ran to the assistance of the mate. The mate, who was bleeding freely at the mouth, said, "The Mongolian has killed me." These were the last words spoken by the mate. He died a minute or so after he was removed to the cabin.

The second mate states that when the quarters of the cook were examined a large number of cartridges were found together with a quantity of fine wine and cordials. The coal oil and oakum were also found in the galley. The revolver which was used was of the self-acting kind and of a recent pattern.

At 10 o'clock in the morning of the 10th of May the bodies of the cook and the mate were buried at sea in latitude 42 degrees, 16 minutes north and longitude 129 degrees, 53 minutes west. An interval of a half-hour took place between the burial of the bodies, that of the mate being given over to the deep first. The captain's wife read the funeral services.

While the cook was defying the ship's company in his retreat in the galley, the captain's wife suggested that she be allowed to interview the cook and secure his surrender. This, very naturally, the captain firmly refused. Mrs. Smith showed herself a woman of great pluck throughout the whole affair. She did all in her power for the dying mate, letting no nervousness or fear overcome her, and was ready at any time to do as much or more than were the members of the crew. Captain Smith maintained order and discipline, at the same time showing the best of examples by his own perfect coolness. He speaks well of all the members of the crew and says that they behaved splendidly. It is no pleasant thing to have a murderer, hungry for other victims, hidden in the galley aboard a vessel, liable to set fire to the ship.

The tragedy is officially reported in the captain's log book and this report, together with the effects of the mate and the cook, including the revolver, will be turned over to the shipping commissioner at this port by Captain Smith today.

THE PANIC IN OCEANIC

Was Due to Various Bills That Were Withheld.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 22.—John D. Spreckels, president of the Oceanic Steamship Company, has at last made a statement in reference to that corporation and the panic which sent its stock down in a few days from $102 to $35 a share, and caused even a shrinkage in the market price of its bonds.

The immediate cause of Mr. Spreckels' statement was the report, just filed, of an expert in the service of the Stock and Bond Exchange on the standing of the company. The moving spirit in this investigation was Edward Pollitz, the chairman of the committee appointed to discover why the company's annual statement, issued January 21, 1901, contained no mention of its heavy indebtedness, why a dividend of fifty cents a share was declared on February 1st, and an assessment of $10 a share levied nineteen days later.

Mr. Pollitz said: "This investigation I consider was due the stockholders. They insisted that the company's books be examined. The report is open to the stockholders, and in a general way I can give its substance."

"The investigation found that the Spreckels Brothers Company had contracted for three new steamers, the Sonoma, Sierra and Ventura, and the improvement of the old steamers Mariposa and Alameda, at a total cost of $3,650,000. This was all to be provided for out of a bond issued of $2,405,000. This is really the puzzling part in regard to the entire business. The original contracts for the new steamers amounted to $2,250,000, and for the repairs to the old ones $235,000. To this was added $100,000 for bringing the new vessels round the Horn, and $30,000 interest on bonds which had to be paid before the vessels arrived."

Thus the outlay was about $375,000 more than the sum provided for by the issue of bonds. Then, in addition, the vessels cost about $225,000 more than it was thought they would, because the furnishings had to be provided.

"The public was kept in ignorance of these facts. The annual statement showed that the company was not in debt; in fact, that its only liabilities were for the bond issue. The debts were recorded in the books; but not in the statement. This shook public confidence very much, and the cause of the panic was the $10 assessment after the 50-cent dividend, which in turn was declared after the annual meeting."

"Now the explanation is by no means easy. Apparently, there was no motive for misrepresentation or concealment, for the Spreckels brothers did not trade in the stock. They did not sell a share, and, seeming, had not the slightest expectation of the new order, for A. B. Spreckels added to his holdings just before the drop, and has not sold a share since."

"Had all the facts which have since become public been made known in the annual statement, there would have been a decline, but not a panic."

"The only encouraging feature now is the fact that the company is earning well. Last month the earnings amounted to about $28,000 net, interest on bonds paid. I understand, too, that the company will manage to steer clear of the threatened second $10 assessment. The stock is just about as low as ever—that is to say, it carried the $10 assessment, and is today $45.50 bid."

John D. Spreckels was seen at his office in the steamship company's building, and was asked a number of questions in regard to Mr. Pollitz' statement. In answer he said:

"The public does not realize that the amount of bonded indebtedness cannot exceed the amount of the capital, and hence that, having reached the limit of bonded indebtedness—$2,500,000—it was necessary to secure the remaining funds in some other way. Money was needed for extra machine parts, for furnishing, linen, tableware, crockery, etc. When we prepared the annual statement there was no bills from Cramp for these extras. I now have bills amounting to $237,000, which I am holding out because there must be an adjustment of affairs before I pay them. A representative of the Cramps is here now for that purpose. We are entitled to recover from the Cramps the interest on our bonds for the time the vessels were delayed in delivery beyond the contract dates."

"As a matter of fact, we did not pay dividends in excess of our earnings; but some of our earnings had not been paid. The United States Government pay quarterly, and the money from that source had been earned but not paid. The New Zealand Government also owed us money which it declined to pay to our agents. When I went to New Zealand I executed a power of attorney, and the money was paid."

"Neither my brother nor I sold a share of stock, and we hold about half the stock of the company in the original certificates. A. B. Spreckels bought stock when the price was still high, and has not sold nor bought since the drop. The fact is that the brokers and dealers put the stock up to the price of $102, which was above its worth. It cost the shareholders $72 before the $10 assessment was levied, and has cost $32 to date. Large dividends have been

KANSAS CITY, Mo., May 22.—"If Mrs. Hazen had become Mrs. Charles A. Boutelle instead of Mrs. George Dewey, Maine's brilliant Congressman would not have died in an insane asylum."

This statement was made by a white-haired, white-mustached man of distinguished bearing in the lobby of the Blossom House today. He was Nathaniel McKay, former shipbuilder of Boston, politician of New York, landlord of Guthrie, Okla., and owner of Washington's new hotel, "The Dewey." He became known nationally during the campaign of 1888 by the "picture" fight he made against free trade, having thousands of illustrations of labor life in England prepared and sending them broadcast throughout the country at his own expense.

"Boutelle was very much in love with Mrs. Hazen," said Mr. McKay. "This fact was known throughout Washington society. At one time it was thought that he would prove successful in his suit. But that he didn't, and that instead Mrs. Hazen became the wife of Admiral Dewey, is a matter of recent history. I know that her marriage was a terrible blow to Boutelle, and I know that his mental trouble started at about that time. Knowing Boutelle as well as I did, I believe firmly that the fact of Mrs. Hazen jilting him was the one thing responsible for his insanity."

Javanese Volcano Spouts.

BATAVIA, Java, May 23.—The volcano of Kelot is in eruption. The lava is threatening the Bilatar coffee plantations, and has endangered Kediri. The district is in total darkness. Many natives have been overwhelmed with lava, and the population of Bilatar is fleeing. A heavy rain of cinders continued falling today, covering six districts, aggregating one-third of the island.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 24.—From thousands of throats yesterday morning came the lusty cheers of the men lately returned from the Philippines hurrahing for the man who sent them. President William McKinley, commander in chief of the Army and Navy of the United States, stood with bared head while two regiments of new-made veterans passed in review before him on the volunteers' parade ground at the Presidio. All around the immense square were grouped thousands of other soldiers, who looked on, filled with pride for their calling.

Off to the north the windows of the long, cool-looking hospital building were filled with white faces of those who also went to the swamps and jungles of Luzon and who also returned, but did not return with the health and strength they bore away with them.

It was a most memorable review. Other Presidents have reviewed other troops after they have fought for the flag of the country, but never before has there been a President to greet returning troops from distant shores after hard campaigns in far-off lands. History was made yesterday.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 25.—President McKinley will bid farewell to San Francisco this morning and, accompanied by his wife and the members of his Cabinet, will start on the return journey to the national capital. The physicians who have attended Mrs. McKinley saw their patient at noon yesterday, and at 1 p. m. Secretary Cortelyou issued a bulletin to the effect that Mrs. McKinley would be able to endure railroad travel and that the journey home would begin this morning.

The railroad companies and Chief of Police Sullivan were notified at the same time as to the hour of leaving and all arrangements were made for the President's departure.

Mrs. McKinley was able to be up for many hours yesterday and the physicians, who called on her at noon, decided that it would be perfectly safe for her to start for the East today. It was learned in the morning that Mrs. McKinley had enjoyed a perfect night's rest and she partook of nourishing food during the day.

At noon the foreign Consuls stationed in this city called in a body on the President. The majority of the gentlemen were dressed in uniform, while a few were garbed in civilian clothes. The glitter of gold and silver lace attracted considerable attention from the crowds in the park as the Consuls entered the house.

The Vice Consuls and attaches attended their chiefs and the dean of the consular corps, Herr Adolph Rosenthal of the German empire, introduced his colleagues.

nolulu last Sunday evening, Rev. C. W.

Mrs. C. C. Kennedy has written a very interesting account of the welcome given in San Francisco to President McKinley. She wrote on the 15th
that Mrs. McKinley's death was momentarily expected. But a letter of the 20th reports her as being much better.
Her life is believed to have been saved
by an injection into the blood of a solution of salt and water, that recently discovered and most simple means
for accelerating the action of the heart.

The marriage of Dr. J. G. Holland to Miss Oma Little will take place at the home of Judge and Mrs. Little, the D.
H. Hitchcock residence, next Tuesday evening at 7 o'clock. The bride and groom will go at once to Dr. Holland's

headless drivers.

Gospel League.

A meeting of the executive council of the Gospel Temperance League was held at Francis Murphy Hall on Saturday afternoon at 2 p. m., for the purpose of considering the president's report upon the work accomplished thus far, and recommendations for the future.

After acceptance of the president's report, the financial report was taken up, read and laid on the table until an auditing committee should be appointed.
The meeting adjourned to meet at 1 p. m. on Monday to consider the recommendations of the president.

A New Musician.

Professor J. H. Amme delighted his hearers at the Central Union Church
yesterday morning with a well-chosen,
beautifully-rendered violin solo as prelude, also with an obligato for the orfatory solo by Mrs. A. H. Otis. Professor Amme was for years concertmaster of the Cleveland, Ohio, Philharmonic Orchestra. He has played often, and met with much appreciation, both in the States and abroad. It is hoped that Mr. Amme may be heard in some of his fine concert numbers in the near future.

No Blood Writing.

NEW YORK, May 24.—A cable to the Sun from Rome says: Stories concerning the death of Bresci, the anarchist who assassinated King Humbert, are published one day, and denied the next.
It is denied that there was any writing in blood on the walls of his cell.
It is now said that a paper was found in the cell on which the prisoner had written: "Death to monarchy and all the canaille who are its instruments. I prefer death because I love liberty."

HER REVENGE.

Indian Squaw Married Brave Whom
She Wanted to Murder.

Alice Whistling Bear sits in her cell
in the little town of Pawhuska, Okla.,
and hums the battlesong of her tribe,
the Osages, says the New York World.
Other squaws pass by the jail and bow their heads reverentially. When they go home to wait on their husbands they are cursed because they have not the courage of the squaw in the little jail. For, although a prisoner, Alice Whistling Bear is a heroine.
She has carried out the role of a brave woman to a dot. She murdered her husband after having entrapped him into marriage. Indeed, she says she gave him for the sole purpose of taking his life, and there are no redskins who will deny this.

Alice Whistling Bear is a pretty half-breed girl. Tall Feathers was a handsome fullblood Osage buck, but he met his equal when he married Miss Whistling Bear. He is, or was, the leader of a gang of redskins who made it their sole business to kill off halfbreeds of the Whistling faction.

Miss Whistling Bear belonged to this faction, but when Tall Feathers met her he had no desire to murder in his heart. If he did he put it aside when he saw her pretty face. Indeed, he asked her to marry him the first chance that offered itself.

She accepted and they were married
last March in great state at Pawhuska.

Two weeks ago the town was startled by the announcement that Tall Feathers had been poisoned, and his squaw was arrested for the crime. The woman admitted her guilt, and this is the substance of an interview which
she gave out as her reasons:

"I married that man because I hated
him. I swore to take his life when we first commenced to live together. I thought about killing him when we first met. He is of the fullblood faction, and he killed my father several years ago.

"I was not aware of this when I first married him, but after awhile I got enough out of him to learn that it was true. I decided to kill him in the worst way I could. I put carbolic acid in his firewater and when he was getting drunk so that he could beat me

he drank to his death. I am glad. I will be glad to stay here the rest of my life. I have got even with him and his people."

Under the laws of the Osage Nation
Alice cannot be hanged.

14-YEAR-OLD GIRL'S DARING ACT.

Galloped in Front of a Locomotive to Save Her Father's Horses.

Elsie Weidenmann, the pretty fourteen-year-old daughter of Robert Wei-denmann, performed an act of daring
and bravery at Nanuet a short time ago which has made her a heroine
in that neighborhood. Elsie's father was one of the leading gold Democrats
in the campaign last year and figured prominently in the convention that nominated the gold Democratic ticket
in 1896. He has a fine home in Nanuet
and keeps several valuable saddle
horses.

Two of Mr. Weidenmann's horses
strayed on the railroad track as the afternoon train came along at a good speed. The horses galloped wildly ahead of the locomotive and many persons watched the race. Presently the engineer and fireman were astonished
to see coming down to the track a little girl in bright red cap and jacket and riding a spirited horse. This was Elsie Weidenmann. The bold little rider galloped along in man fashion
some little distance ahead of the big iron horse that was approaching her.

At the point where this happened a path runs for some distance alongside the tracks. The little rider was bent on saving her father's two horses. She galloped on, overtaking the horses that were racing just ahead of her. Calling them by their names in the voice the animals well knew the girl got them off the tracks in the nick of time, and
as a thrilling finale to her performance she dashed across the tracks with the locomotive but a second behind her. And then, with a smile and a wave of her handkerchief, she bounded up an embankment at the side of the track to a place of safety. The train crew and passengers who had seen little Miss Weidenmann's daring act waved handkerchiefs and hands in response and threw her smiling glances
of admiration.

HER BROTHER SAID IT.

He—"Most people take me for a very serious person, Miss Mallyprop. Now I presume you would never guess that I am full of humorous conceits."

Miss Mallyprop—"I would not, myself;
but my brother has told me how very conceited you are."

Figures may not lie, but some bank
officials succeed in making them do
the most remarkable stunts. — Washington Post.

A presumably dead man was found in the streets of a West Virginia town
and taken to the morgue, where the doctors said he had died of heart failure. When the man had been laid out at the undertaking room he arose and sang "Praise God From Whom All Blessings Flow." The coroner, who was also mayor, fined him $5 for disturbance of the peace.

FIRE CHIEF HUNT DEAD

Succumbs to Long Illness at the Hospital.

James H. Hunt, chief of the Honolulu Fire Department, died last night at the Queen's Hospital. He was taken to the hospital on April 28, and gradually failed. After a long and honorable career as a fighter of fires, and the organizer of one of the finest fire departments to be met with in any American city, Chief Hunt has responded to the last alarm, and gone upon his last long run. For the past year the fire chief has been ailing, and at times
was unable to perform his duties as chief.

James H. Hunt was born in Wal-

THE LATE CHIEF HUNT.

tham, Mass., where his mother and a sister are yet living. He was forty-eight years of age. He came to Honolulu about twenty years ago, and worked with the late James H. Dodd.
Later he was connected with one of two business ventures of James Dodd and of the Macfarlanes. During this time he was a member of the volunteer fire department, with headquarters at the old bell tower on Union street.
After the organization of the fire department under Chief Hustace, Hunt
entered the department under the pay arrangement, and in 1894 he succeeded Hustace as fire chief, holding that position up to the time of his death. He made an excellent record, both in the volunteer and regular departments,
and during his career assisted in fighting some of the worst fires that have ever occurred in Honolulu. At 4 o'clock in the afternoon of April 13, 1886, a fire broke out in the Chinese
quarter of the city, resulting in a loss of $1,500,000, several blocks being swept away, and on this occasion Hunt
was a prominent figure in the department.

His skill as a fire fighter, however,
was displayed to the utmost during the plague fires in December of 1899, and in the first four months of last year.
These were not fires which called out
the department unannounced to quench flames at all hazards, or to save the property within them, but they were prearranged. Chief Hunt's most active work was in the stationing of his engines and the laying of the hose about the buildings to which the torch was to be applied by the Board of Health
as a sanitary measure against the plague. In order to keep the fire within certain stated limits, and in most cases the line of demarcation was as skillfully drawn by the firemen under his direction as if axes had been used.
Only the sudden shifting of a heavy wind from the Nuuanu Valley on the fateful 20th day of January, 1900,
caused a conflagration to spread over
what was termed Chinatown and sweep ten blocks of every vestige of buildings. On that day Chief Hunt worked like a giant, placing himself in the most exposed positions in order to direct the firemen, and no matter what risks were necessary the hardy chief took his share of them. During one of these fires the chief was severely injured by the falling of a heavy beam
from a burning house, which temporarily laid him up, but even then he directed operations from his buggy.

During his regime the handsome
stone central fire station, at the corner of Fort and Beretania streets, was erected, in which modern apparatus is installed. When he assumed charge
there were two steamers, one chemical and a hose reel. There are now three steamers, one chemical, several hose
wagons, each with its span of horses.
Two new stations have been added, the one at Makiki, which has been occupied for the past year, and the new one at Palama, which is in course of construction. Chief Hunt maintained splendid discipline among his firemen,
and has had them drilled in the use of fire apparatus until they have become
as proficient in answering fire alarms
as the lack of automatic alarms and the lack of necessary water hydrants will allow.

The funeral will take place this afternoon from the Masonic Temple, the deceased having been a member of the Masonic order. It is not known yet
as to whether the fire department will turn out to do homage to their dead
chief, but the presumption is that this will be done. Fire Commissioners J. H.
Fisher, Andrew Brown and Crozier will hold a meeting this morning to decide
as to what part the firemen shall take in the funeral.

Assistant Chief C. H. Thurston, who has often performed the duties of the chief, is now acting chief of the department.

Visited the Oregon.

Several hundred people visited the United States battleship Oregon lying outside the harbor yesterday afternoon.
 From noon till after nightfall the speedy launches of the Young Brothers carried
 the sightseers out to the great "bulldog
 of the sea." The launches towed large whaleboats, so that many people could be taken on a trip. The wonders of the Oregon were exhibited by the gallant officers and men of the battleship and those who went out voted the afternoon
 spent in a most delightful way. The trip was most enjoyable and safely conducted. The men of the Oregon had shore liberty yesterday and made good use of their time by taking in as many of Honolulu's delights as possible. The Oregon sails for San Francisco on Wednesday.

W. H. Rooney, a hack driver, was arrested last night and booked at the police station on three charges, as follows: For driving without a light, fast driving, and assault and battery on Officer Ah On, who pursued the hackman to arrest him.

The Hawaiian Band will play aboard
 the battleship Oregon tonight, instead of at Emma Square.

MIKAHALA SAVES THE DORA BLUHM

Early yesterday morning the steamer
 Mikahala, Captain Gregory, arrived from Nawiliwili, Kauai.

Captain Gregory has a big claim for salvage and, as it appears at present, he stands a good chance of getting it. He saved a vessel from destruction on the reef at Waihalua, Kauai, on Saturday.

The Mikahala was on her way to Honolulu from Kauai when the American schooner Dora Blum, Captain Seymour, was sighted dangerously near the reef at Waihalua. It seems that the Blum was on the way to Hanalei and by some mischance, had gotten into a bad position off Waihalua.

The Mikahala approached and the captain offered the captain of the schooner
 a line. The schooner's master, however, refused assistance. It was only a very little while after this, while the Mikahala was standing by to see if she could be of any assistance, that the Blum struck on the reef. She bumped with considerable force and it seemed that she was getting farther and farther onto the reef. Still the captain of the sailing craft refused any help at the hands of the captain of the steamer.

Seeing, however, that the schooner was doomed to destruction if she was left in that position, Captain Gregory put a line aboard the vessel and, after a long pull and a strong pull, succeeded in getting her out of danger and free to resume her voyage to Hanalei.

Captain Gregory, in the first place, offered to pull the Blum off the reef for $150, the offer being refused. Now the probabilities are that the captain will get a great deal more than that sum for his pains.

The Mikahala brought about 5,000 bags
 of sugar from Kauai and the following passengers: Mrs. C. M. Cook, A. V.
 Richardson, G. H. Koch, wife and two children, Captain Robinson, Major Wood, Hans Isenberg, A. W. Spitz, J. M. Lud-
 gate, L. M. McKeague and wife, A.
 Hughes, J. Goldstein, J. S. McCandless, E. Powell, Y. Shido and wife, Mon Soy,
 Ing Han, Young Chong, Hoo Kee, Rev.
 S. Kaiti, Ing Leong, Chong Hing, K.
 Shimada, Rev. K. Ishida, Mrs. J. D.
 Avery, L. Chow Fow and 57 deck passengers.

COURT NOTES.

Saturday's Proceedings of Bench and Bar Briefly Told.

The First Judge will take up probate
 matters at 10 o'clock this morning. Following is the list of matters: Estate of Fred B. Oat, accounts and discharge; estate of Keoloha Rees, proof of will;
 estate of Lolekua, administration;
 guardianship of M. Moore, appointment; Hulla Makai, adoption; guardianship, W. W. Hart, final account.

The will of W. S. Luce, deceased, has been admitted to probate with Alice Maud Gaskell Luce as administrator
 with the will attached.

The term of the First Circuit Court
 has been extended for twelve days.

The motion for a new trial in the case of Henry Smith vs. Hanakua Mill Company has been by consent of counsel, denied proforma. Exception to the ruling was taken and allowed, and a bill of exceptions has been filed.

Good News.

The ladies of Honolulu need have no further trouble as to the dressing of their children. Hitherto, if anything nice or fine was wanted, one had to send away for it; now that is all changed. M. Brasch & Co., of the Lace House, on Hotel street, are now in a position to manufacture all kinds of white dresses for the little ones. An experienced lady from the States has been engaged by them and ladies can have dresses made to order for their children in any style they wish. Although this is the first announcement,
 quite a number of orders have been taken already. M. Brasch & Co. are in a position to make fine hand-sewn dresses
 also.

Miss Nolan Engaged.

The marriage of Miss Isabel Genevieve Nolan and Ivan Goodwin Tread-
 well will take place in the first week of June in San Francisco. For a long time past the engagement of Miss Nolan and Mr. Treadwell has been known to their friends, but it is only within the last few days that the wedding
 announcement has been made by the young couple.

The young lady is the daughter of
 P. F. Nolan, the shoe merchant. Mr.
 Treadwell is a son of the late David P.
 Treadwell, the lawyer, who made a big fortune in the celebrated Treadwell mine in Alaska. An estate valued at $3,000,000 or more, was left by the father

THE TRANS-SIBERIAN

The Line Reaching

Traffic.RUSSIAN AGENT
IN AMERICAUnion Pacific and Northern Pacific Facilities Are Now Being Looked Into.

NEW YORK, May 25.—A. Bostelman, general superintendent of the Trans-Siberian Railroad's Asiatic division and the nineteen steamships connected with the railroad service in and around Port Arthur, has had an important conference with E. H. Harriman. Mr. Bostelman represents the Russian Government in a semi-official capacity, and his mission in New York is understood to be to promote amicable traffic arrangements with the Union Pacific lines and the steamship interests controlled by the Union Pacific. Mr. Bostelman said last night that in his opinion there was little hope for a speedy development of American commerce between San Francisco and Chinese ports until the freight rate of $11 a ton is lowered. It is understood that he and Mr. Harriman went over the subject fully, and that Mr. Bostelman told Mr. Harriman that the Russian Government desired the most cordial relation to exist between its railroad and steamship lines and the lines leading to the Pacific seaboard. Mr. Bostelman also saw men identified with the Northern Pacific interests, and made particular inquiry about the great freight ships being built for that company at New London. Mr. Bostelman said:

"I will have to ask to be excused from discussing official affairs. We are doing nicely with the railroad across Siberia and Manchuria, and hope to have an all-rail route within the next fifteen months."

PARDONED FOR
CONTEMPTAn Oakland, Calif., Case
Where President McKinley
Intervened.

WASHINGTON, May 25.—The President has pardoned Alexander McKenzie, now confined at the jail in Oakland, Cal., for contempt of the Circuit Court of Appeals for the Ninth Circuit. Yesterday the Attorney General made the following report to the President by wire:

"Have delayed report in the McKenzie case to make personal investigation as to wherein he still is in default and in order that the effects of your act of clemency, should you be so disposed, might not be defeated by contentions as to the fact of compliance by McKenzie with the Court's orders. The Court advises me two specific things are yet to be done. I therefore now report in lieu of previous ones, prepared by me under mistaken information as to fact of compliance that in view of McKenzie's ill-health and the recommendation by the Court, whose writs of supersedeas issued by the United States Circuit Court of Appeals of the Ninth Circuit. If you will telegraph me your decision, I will direct release when Court advises me of compliance."

Last night the following telegram was received from Judge Morrow: "McKenzie has this day fully complied with the order of the Circuit Court of Appeals by turning over to the defendants the remaining property which came into his hands as receiver in the cases in which he stands committed for contempt."

The Attorney General thereupon sent an additional telegram to President McKinley advising the immediate and unconditional pardon of McKenzie. Upon receipt of the President's telegram notifying him that the pardon had been granted, the Attorney General has promised to the Attorney General, by wire, instructed the jailer at Oakland to immediately release the prisoner.

Not Guilty of Cowardice.

WASHINGTON, May 24.—The record of the court-martial in the case of Captain Newt H. Hall, United States Marine Corps, who was charged by Minister Conger with cowardice in connection with the defense of the legations at Peking, has just reached Washington. Admiral Remey has promulgated the finding in a special order which completely exonerates Captain Hall from the charge and finds that the only matter of substance sustained in the charges is an error of judgment in connection with the withdrawal of his troops at a critical moment from the Tartar wall.

From Prince to Count.

BERLIN, May 25.—Bernhardt of Saxe-Weimar, who, under the dynasty law has been compelled with his wife to leave Germany for the United States, has voluntarily relinquished the princely title and the right of succession. In consideration of this act, the Grand Duke of Saxe-Weimar has granted to him and his wife the titles of Count and Countess of Crayenberg.

DEDICATION OF NEW GERMAN
LUTHERAN CHURCH YESTERDAY

NEW GERMAN LUTHERAN CHURCH.

VERY impressive and interesting were the dedicatory services of the First German Lutheran Church, held yesterday morning. The beautiful new house of worship had been completed in every particular, and the doors locked, awaiting the formal opening of the place, which took place, according to program, promptly at 9 o'clock a. m.

A few minutes before the hour the trustees and pastors of the church, their guests, and the congregation, to the number of about five hundred, gathered on the grounds at the back of the church and marched in procession with Rev. Hans Isenberg, of Kauai, who came to Honolulu to conduct the dedicatory services, and Rev. W. Felmy, the new Lutheran pastor who recently came from Berlin, at the head of the column.

The procession marched out into Beretania street and around to the front door of the church, Rev. Hans Isenberg carrying the silver service of the sacrament and the keys to the church upon a salver, and both ministers wearing their black ministerial gowns.

At the church door the procession halted, and Rev. Mr. Isenberg, turning to Rev. Mr. Felmy, made an appropriate address in German, presenting him with the keys of the church and welcoming him and the congregation to the beautiful new building which is the splendid gift of Mr. J. F. Hackfeld and Mr. Paul Isenberg, made last October on the occasion of the fiftieth anniversary of the establishment in Hawaii of the firm of Hackfeld & Co. Rev. Mr. Felmy received the keys and unlocked the door, inviting the congregation to enter. The church quickly filled to its utmost capacity, and Professor Berger, of the Territorial Band, played the opening hymn, No. 11, from the German Lutheran Hymnal, the congregation singing the words in German.

The hour of the service had been so arranged that the ministers of the other churches might be present, and among those who responded to the invitations were Rev. W. M. Kincaid, of Central Union Church; Rev. A. E. Cory, of the Christian Church; Rev. Mr. Parker, of Kawaiahae Church; Rev. Mr. Kiteat, of the Anglican Second Congregational Church, and Mr. S. M. Damon. The guests were seated in the front pews, and Rev. Mr. Isenberg and Rev. Mr. Felmy occupied the platform, the choir singing from the balcony at the front of the church.

After another hymn the dedicatory address and prayer, delivered by Rev. Mr. Isenberg, followed, the same being in German. In closing his address, Mr. Isenberg, through courtesy to the visitors, made a few pleasing and appropriate remarks in English. He said he desired to thank, most heartily, the ministers and other friends present, as well as those who were absent, for the kindness shown to himself as pastor of the new German church, and to the German friends; from the beginning they had met with many courtesies and kindnesses from all sides, and particularly he wished to thank

Mr. Damon, Rev. Mr. Beckworth and Rev. Mr. McIntosh, who had been especially kind and encouraging.

He said that it was very pleasing and very Christian-like for Christians of different denominations thus to work together in friendliness and harmony, and recalled the situation of not many years ago, when all denominations were striving against each other in misunderstanding and rivalry; this was, fortunately, all a thing of the past, and God's people, whatever their differences of creed, had become broad-minded enough to see that Christian work is a great task, where there is work for all, and that in harmony and union greatest progress can be made. In closing he said: "Thank God for the growth of the Spirit of Christ here in the past twenty years. It has been wonderful and good to look out on the world, and to see that the progress of mankind growing brighter, and that nations working harmoniously with each other, away from strife, in a great broad understanding of that which is to be done in Christ's vineyard. May this day of dedication help to increase this blessing of us all in harmony and unity."

Rev. W. M. Kincaid, pastor of Central Union Church, stepped to the platform and extended his hand to Rev. Mr. Isenberg for a grasp of greeting. "I wish to express my thanks," said he, "for the very courteous invitation I received to attend the services here today, and I gladly came to bring the greeting of Central Union Church to the new Lutheran church and its pastor. It ought to be a source of great thankfulness to us all that it is possible for ministers and people of different churches and creeds to meet together in such services today. A hundred years ago it would have been impossible. Things were very different then. I think there is a great point in the story of the old lady who said that all churches ought to be united in one great Christian church, without differing over matters of creed, and that they should all regard themselves as members of the one church. Upon being asked what church the one being asked was supposed to have come out of, she answered, 'Baptist, of course.' That is it—everybody was willing that there should be but one church, but they wanted that church to be their own. There may be a great deal of that spirit left, but I think we are fast losing it and we are growing broader in the spirit of true Christian unity and harmony."

"According to the present theory of the universe, we all know that all the planets are supposed to have come out of the sun. The great revolving ball of fire threw off rings after ring into space, and these rings swung by themselves, worlds in themselves—a great family of planets, sweeping in vast orbits through unmeasured space, without collision, about their great common center and parent, the sun. So it is with the churches. We ought all to be able, whatever our differing creeds, to circle and sweep, without collision, about Him who loves us all and is our redeemer, Jesus Christ."

"You have all, probably, heard the story of the wrecking of a great ocean liner off the coast of Nova Scotia, where six hundred souls were flung into the sea without succor or aid, and the great ship was beaten to pieces on the merciless rocks. There came a rescuing party in the rusty lifeboat, bearing lives from the raging sea to the firm, safe land, working with might and main, risking their own lives that they might save perishing souls, battling back and forth through the waves with their precious burdens—heroes whose brave deeds would be chronicled the world over; that little crew, my friends, consisted of a minister of the gospel and four oarsmen, who, it was discovered afterward, each belonged to a different church than the other—yet they worked together in a common understanding on that day of rescue, throwing out the life line, and now they are bound together by a tie so strong and tender that it can never be broken.

"It doesn't matter which church sends out the life line; it doesn't matter what church one belongs to if there is the true spirit of Christianity prompting him in his work; all churches are one in the throwing out of the life line. Thank God for the unity of purpose. The church that is most successful in the saving of souls will be the one that the Master will crown with the brightest, most radiant crown."

"My dear Brother Felmy, new pastor of this beautiful church, for myself and on behalf of Central Union Church and its congregation, I come to you to extend the hand of Christian fellowship and greeting, and to bid you God-speed in your work of bringing men to righteousness, and of bringing men to God. God bless you and your church, and its people."

Another hymn followed Mr. Kincaid's graceful address, and Rev. Mr. Felmy, the new pastor, was then installed by Rev. Mr. Isenberg, according to the rites of the Lutheran church, in his office at the head of the congregation.

After his installation, Rev. Mr. Felmy spoke to his congregation, greeting them and dwelling upon the future of the new church. He spoke in German and at some length. He reviewed the difficulties the German congregation had met with hitherto in its services, having no regular place of worship, and being unable to build a church. Now, he said, through the generosity of the church's benefactors, the people would be enabled to meet together in their own church, under a beautiful roof, where they could worship and establish Sunday schools for the little ones. The Sunday school, he said, he hoped would be a great success, and it would offer a great advantage to the poor, as their children could come there and learn the German language, and keep it fresh in their minds, to their great comfort and advantage in future years.

Hymn No. 198 followed Rev. Mr. Felmy's address, and Rev. Mr. Isenberg offered the closing prayer and benediction, hymn No. 443 closing the services, as the congregation marched out. The new church is a very artistic building, its windows being especially beautiful. A church pipe-organ has been ordered from Berlin, but has not yet arrived, and a harmonium is being used, pending its arrival.

The services yesterday morning occupied nearly two hours. The interior of the church was beautifully decorated, wreaths of green leaves being hung about the pillars and pulpit, and great clusters of St. Joseph and arum lilies with their broad green leaves decorating the altar.

A beautiful painting of the crucifixion is another of the handsome features of the new church. Services will be conducted regularly henceforth. Many of the pew pastor's congregation paused after the services yesterday morning to greet him and bid him welcome to the pastorate.

THE FUTURE STATE
OF DEAD INFANTSSouthern Presbyterian General
Assembly is Heard
From.

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., May 25.—The Southern Presbyterian General Assembly has passed upon majority and minority reports from the special committee on the "Elect Infant" clause. The majority report, which was adopted, rescinds the order of the last general Assembly to print in every edition of the Confession of Faith thereafter an explanatory footnote regarding infants dying in infancy, but the report states that this section is in no way to be taken as to modifying the answer made to the overtures in the last assembly. The report as adopted recommends that no action be taken on the "elect infants" clause for the following reasons:

1. Because it is unwise to initiate at this time the agitation of this question among the people.

2. Because no modification that does not eliminate Scriptural Calvinism from this section of the confession will obviate the objection which comes from Arminian sources.

3. Because the Westminster confession of faith is the first great creed which taught the salvation of infants dying in infancy on truly Scriptural grounds.

4. Because the confession of faith in this section does not teach the damnation of any infant dying in infancy, for the reason that the contrast made in it is not between elect and non-elect infants dying in infancy, but between elect persons who die in infancy and elect persons who do not die in infancy.

5. Because while we have a well-grounded hope founded in Scripture that all infants dying in infancy are saved, yet the confession of faith goes as far as the Scriptures justify a positive credal statement upon the subject.

The minority report recommended that the following be sent down to the Presbyteries for their concurrence:

"That section 3, chapter 10, of the confession of faith be amended by adding the words, 'Nothing in this section shall be understood as holding or teaching the possibility of the damnation of an infant dying in infancy. Our church does not hold nor never has held such doctrines.'"

Rev. Dr. George Cochran, of Los Angeles, pioneer in the Japanese mission field, is dead.

MAUI. May 30.—Last week another band of darkies from Alabama came to Spreckelsville to labor on the plantation. The number included in the company was small but the intelligence and education represented by the thirteen negroes (men and women) is large. Among them are a doctor, a dentist, a lawyer and a trained nurse—four professional people, all of whom left lucrative positions in the South to come to the Hawaiian Islands. Not for profit did they leave their homes, for the pay received by them in Alabama was larger than they expect to gain in Hawaii; not for health, for they are all still young and vigorous; but for freedom, or, as they themselves express it, they wished to come to a "free country"—to live in a land where no distinction is made as to race or color.

At the present time in the South the civil rights of the black people are being more and more abridged, until the better educated among them are beginning to think that it is high time for the Southern blacks to seek new homes in places where the color line is less closely drawn. That they should choose the new Territory of Hawai'i for the promised land of freedom is but natural when it is taken into consideration that native Hawaiians control the political affairs here and the majority of white people support the doctrines, past and present, of the Republican party.

But from the standpoint of the sugar planter this influx of educated laborers is undesirable, for field-hands, not professional people, is their great need at present moment.

In Maui polo circles there is much talk about the coming match with the Oahu club to be held, so it is now stated, on the 4th of July. A meeting of the Makawao club was soon to be held to decide concerning the reception to be given to the Honolulu boys. The Maui players who recently visited Moanalua cannot compliment too highly the treatment accorded them by the Oahu club and Honolulu people generally, and hence wish to use all in their power to make the stay of the Honolulu players on Maui the most pleasant one.

It is probable that Makawao residents will celebrate the glorious Fourth at Sunnyside, Paia, in much the same fashion as last year, with literary and musical exercises, with games, and an elaborate spread. But with an inter-island and polo match as the great attraction a much larger number of guests from all parts of Maui is anticipated. There is also mention made of a smoking concert.

GENERAL NOTES.

On Sunday, the 26th, the Feast of the Holy Ghost was celebrated at the Catholic Church in Waiakoa, Kula. A large number of people from all parts of Makawao district was present.

Saturday evening, the 26th, a pleasant dancing party was given at the Waihee home of Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Ogg. The Waihee Quinette Club furnished delightful music. This party was given as a farewell compliment to Mr. and Mrs. Ogg, who are soon to remove to Wailuku and occupy the residence of Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Wells. Mr. Ogg will manage the Wailuku plantation during Mr. Wells' long absence abroad.

The date of the dancing party to be given by the young men of Spreckelsville has been changed from the evening of the 31st to that of June 1st. The dance will take place on the commodious lanai of Manager W. J. Lowrie.

There is talk of establishing a pineapple cannery at Haiku by D. B. Baldwin some time within a year, provided that it is demonstrated that a sufficient number of pineapples can be raised to warrant the enterprise. Mr. Baldwin has been very successful with his pineapple plantation, raising in large quantities many varieties of most delicious fruit.

The cultivation of pineapples for local markets and for "canning" purposes, as well as the cultivation of guavas for the making of jelly are two enterprises which, as all Maui wisecracks agree, will yield sure and most lucrative returns if instituted in Makawao or Hana districts.

This week Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Nicoll of Hamakuaopoko departed for a visit to Scotland, and Mrs. J. W. Fleming of Orono, and Mrs. Paia, depart for a two months' outing in Oregon.

O. Hogg of Alexander & Baldwin of Honolulu is at Hamakuaopoko and will keep the plantation's books during the absence of Mr. Nicoll in Scotland. Hundreds of little linnets have left the mountain forests on account of the severe storms and are now making their homes in the trees of Makawao, coming down the slope even so far as Paia. They are tiny fellows but are delightful songsters and their music is a charming contrast to the chatter of the ubiquitous mynah bird.

Tomorrow, the 31st, at the home of Mr. Father, Mr. James Kirkland of Kahului, Miss Jessie Kirkland will be married to Mr. "Bickie" Davis, the popular fire-chief of the steamer Claudine. The wedding will be a quiet one, owing to the death of a sister, Miss Susie Kirkland, during the early part of last January.

Apologies of the Ogg dance, the Spreckelsville young men were spilled out of their carriage at the trestle-work bridge on the outskirts of the Hawaiian Commercial Co.'s plantation while turning from the party. The accident was not a serious one to the young men except that they were obliged to walk the remaining distance to their homes. The driver of the express was fully punished for his carelessness inasmuch as his vehicle was smashed.

On the morning of June 5th, the gang

NEWS OF THE WATERFRONT.

Big Fleet Enters This Busy Port.

Transport Lawton and Seven Sailing Vessels Arrive.

EIGHT vessels arrived in this port yesterday. It is a long time since Honolulu harbor has experienced such a busy day. The tug Fearless was kept on the move from sunrise. Those who were in a position to view the harbor and the sea from the hills yesterday witnessed a scene that was as entertaining as it was significant. Nine vessels were in sight at once, including the great battleship Oregon, lying at anchor off port. Eight of the vessels came into the harbor.

The first to enter was the United States transport Lawton from San Francisco. She came in at an early hour, being reported the first thing. Then followed, one by one, as fast as the Fearless could tow them, the seven sailing vessels, from Newcastle and the coast. They were the American ship Governor Robie, Captain Harrington, forty-nine days from Newcastle; the American schooner J. A. Campbell, Captain Smith, thirty days from Port Blakeley; the American ship Balacutha, Captain Peterson, forty-nine days from Newcastle; the American ship C. F. Sargent, Captain Melville, thirty days from Tacoma; the American bark Charles B. Kenney, Captain Anderson, fifty days from Newcastle; the American schooner Defiance, Captain Blum, twenty-six days from Tacoma, and the American schooner W. F. Witzmann, Captain De Witz, twenty-five days from Gray's Harbor.

Narrow Escape From Creditors.

The Occidental and Oriental Steamship Company's Coptic sailed for the Orient yesterday, says the San Francisco Call of May 23d. There was a big crowd of Chinese down to see the vessel away, and some of them would have liked very much to have detained one of the passengers, who was poking fun at them.

Yung Lun was, up to Saturday night last, a female impersonator in the Chinese theater on Jackson street. He was paid a high salary, but fan tan and lottery keeps him always in debt. Lun finally came to the conclusion that he would never be able to pay what he owed, so he quietly packed his trunk and purchased a ticket for China on the Coptic. When he attempted to board the steamship yesterday his creditors grabbed him and a free fight followed, in which Lun lost part of his queue. The customs officers interfered, and as there was no warrant for the arrest of the debtor, they insisted on his being allowed to board the ship. It was then Lung Lun showed his meanness, as he secured a prominent position aft and laughed and jeered at his angry creditors as the Coptic moved away from the wharf.

Ship Iroquois for New York.

Since the advent of the American-Hawaiian steamship line between San Francisco, Honolulu and New York the sailing vessels have been forced to look for charters in other directions. Since January last and up to May 23d, not a wind jammer had sailed from San Francisco for the East with a general cargo, but on the date named the ship Iroquois broke the monotony. She is now on her way to New York with a cargo valued at tens of thousands. Among it is 4,499 barrels of California wine, canned goods, cedar logs, scrap iron, wire rope and 478 bales of rags. The latter consignment when sold to the paper mills will realize quite a neat sum, while the wire rope and scrap iron will be sold as junk.

The wine was shipped for the sake of the voyage. The trip around the Horn will give it a racking that will add several years to the age of the cargo, and that is what the owners are after.

Bengal's Captain Sick.

The bark Star of Bengal, from Chemainus, B. C., for Adelaide, Australia, with a load of lumber, hove to off San Francisco on May 23d. A flag was set for a pilot, and when the America sent a boat alongside the mate reported that the captain was seriously ill with tonsillitis, and wanted to be taken ashore. The sick man was accordingly transferred to the pilot-boat and taken in. He was at once sent to St. Luke's Hospital.

The Star of Bengal left Chemainus on the 13th of May, and ran into some heavy weather off Flatery. Captain Henderson was suffering from a sore throat when the vessel left the Sound, but thought the sea air would cure him. The storm off the coast made him worse, however, and he decided to run for San Francisco. On the pilot-boat Captain Henderson could only speak in a whisper, and he seemed to offer a great deal. It will be sometime before he can leave the hospital.

As soon as the owners of the Star of Bengal were notified of Captain Henderson's illness they at once secured the services of Captain Uhlberg, who went out to the bark and took command. The vessel was at once put on her course, and before sundown was well on her way to Australia. Captain Uhlberg, who took command of the Star of Bengal, was formerly in the Abby Palmer, and is well known on the coast. Should Captain Henderson recover in time he may sail on the Mariposa for Australia to resume command of his vessel.

New Docks for San Francisco.

San Francisco is to have three new floating docks. The business of the port has grown to such an extent that the present structures cannot accommodate all the vessels, and they have to take their turns, and frequently wait weeks for a chance. The San Francisco Drydock Company has applied to the harbor commissioners for wharf room, and the board has practically decided to build the necessary piers.

When the drydock company announced its intention of building the three floating docks if the commission would supply the necessary wharf room, the matter was taken under consideration. The bulk of the board's income is pledged for some time to come, so it was decided that if the contractor who got the job would take part payment in cash, and the balance in warrants extending over one, two, three and four years, the commissioners would go on with the work. At a recent meeting of the board the drydock company announced that contractors would bid on the board's terms. Commissioner Herold then moved that the chief engineer prepare plans and estimates for the necessary wharves, which will be built near the Arctic Oil Works. The motion was carried, and the work will proceed as soon as the preliminaries are completed.

Railroad Ties for Ecuador.

The British tramp steamship Adato sailed from San Francisco on the 24th of May for Guayaquil, Ecuador, with the first consignment of lumber and railroad ties to be used in the completion of the road between that seaport and Quito. The contract calls for 13,000,000 ties in all, and it will take the Adato eight trips to land that number at Guayaquil. There was some spirited bidding for the order, and at one time the Puget Sound lumber dealers thought they had secured the plum. They made a miscalculation, however, and San Francisco secured the contract.

The Adato took away 1,889,353 feet of lumber, 60,629 railroad ties and a small quantity of merchandise.

Schooner Robert Searles.

They are not a happy family in the cabin of the schooner Robert Searles, now on her way from Honolulu for Puget Sound, says the San Francisco Call of May 23d. The vessel left here last year, and Captain Piltz took his wife along with him. The lady's brother wanted to go to sea, so the captain shipped him as cabin boy. All went well for a month or so, and then the lad decided that his brother-in-law should treat him as one of the family, and not as one of the crew. Mrs. Piltz sided with her brother, but the captain could not see it in that light. In consequence, the gallant skipper had to take many a curtain lecture. Things reached a climax at Honolulu. There Captain Piltz discharged his brother-in-law and shipped another cabin boy. On May 10th he sailed for Port Townsend, but hove to on Diamond Head. The American Maru did not bring the end of the story, but the supposition is that Mrs. Piltz won the day, and that the captain sent ashore for his brother-in-law, and is bringing him home as a passenger.

Movements of Steamers.

WASHINGTON, May 21.—A cablegram from Manila announces that the Hancock, Buford and Aztec sailed on Saturday with volunteers. The Logan, Kilpatrick and Ohio will sail not later than the 30th, and the Grant and Thomas will return as soon as they arrive in Manila and can be loaded. The cable announcing the departure of the troops is as follows: "Transport Hancock, 31 officers, 1,042 enlisted men, Thirty-first Volunteer Infantry; transport Aztec, 2 officers, 62 enlisted men, Company H, Forty-second Volunteer Infantry; transport Buford, 21 officers, 910 enlisted men, Forty-first Volunteer Infantry; 225 remains, sailed May 18th via Nagasaki."

Shipping Notes.

Captain Charles Baring has taken command of the steamer Conemaugh; Captain Fred Warner, late chief officer of the St. Paul, of the Newsboy; Captain Apslund, of the bark Hayden Brown, and Captain Cook, of the gasoline schooner Barbara Hernster.

John Desmond, a longshoreman, fell down the hold of the steamship Kambyes in San Francisco recently, and sustained some severe scalp wounds and a possible fracture of the skull. The steamship Loa of the Compania Sud Americana de Vapores line is not going to San Francisco, her place having been taken by the Colombia, which will arrive there June 5th.

The battleship Wisconsin will sail from the coast for the China station this week. She takes the place of the Oregon, which is now here. The "bulldog of the navy" will receive an enthusiastic welcome when she reaches San Francisco.

The Mariposa went on Hunters Point drydock in San Francisco on the 22d of May to be cleaned and painted. She sailed for Honolulu, Pago Pago, Auckland and Sydney on the 30th.

All work on the transport Sherman and the Oceanic Steamship Company's Alameda has stopped, owing to the strike of the machinists on the coast. The five-masted schooner W. H. Marston, which was moved from Mission street wharf in San Francisco on May 24th to make room for the four-masted barkentine Lahaina, did considerable damage to the pier. Some of the piles were smashed and planking torn up while she was being moved. Both the Marston and Lahaina are being rigged.

On her next trip from the Sound the big tramp steamship Algoa will go to Oakland with coal for the Southern Pacific. After that she may be returned to the Mail Company, and will carry merchandise to the Orient.

The collier Horda, which struck on an uncharted rock in Oyster Harbor, has gone on the Union Iron Works' drydock in San Francisco for an inspection. It is not thought that she is damaged to any great extent.

Various Naval Items.

Various changes in the arrangements of his office have been made by the new Chief of the Bureau of Construction and Repair, Admiral Bowles, including the transfer to the shipyards having con-

THE SCENE aboard the United States battleship Oregon while she was on the rocks in the Straits of Pechili was a busy one. All the pumps were hard at work throwing out the water as fast as it came in through the great hole in the ship's bottom. The above illustration shows the pumps at work. The picture was furnished the Advertiser by Engineer's Yeoman J. S. Pollock of the Oregon.

tracts for government work of ten of his most experienced draughtsmen for duty in the office of the Supervising Constructor.

The docking of the double-turreted monitor Amphitrite at Port Royal is probably the last duty that unfortunate piece of Government extravagant economy will be called upon to perform. It is hoped the vessel will succeed in getting free from the dock before it breaks down, as it threatened to do while the Indiana was in the dock.

The U. S. S. Concord has gone to Amoy, in the south of China, and will probably remain at that important point for some considerable time. Amoy has suddenly become of prime interest to this country by reason of the fact that the Island of Kulangsu is now the official foreign residence district, including, of course, the U. S. Consulate.

The U. S. S. Essex is now in Havana, Cuba, and will remain at that port for some little time to come. This vessel, which is in command of Comdr. Richard G. Davenport, U. S. N., will return to United States waters late on the present month, and late in July the Essex will be stationed at Newport, R. I. At last accounts the health of the ship continued excellent.

The U. S. naval collier Alexander has been reported as having arrived safely at Santa Lucia, en route for the Pacific Coast. The next point from which this vessel will be reported is Montevideo, Uruguay. It may be remembered that the Alexander sailed, a short time since, from the United States with a cargo of some 5,000 tons of bituminous coal for the new coaling station recently established at Pichilique, Lower California. It is not probable that the ship will reach her destination before some date in June.

Decoration Day in Baltimore received an added interest this year from the fact that the three torpedo boat destroyers, the Truxton, Whipple and Worden, now nearing completion at the works of the Maryland Steel Company, Sparrow Point, were to be launched on that day. These little vessels are each of 433 tons displacement, are intended for a speed of thirty knots an hour and will be among the most powerful craft afloat, of their type. Their horsepower is guaranteed to be 3,000 and they are provided with twin screws.

The work of removing the 13-inch gun in the forward turret of the U. S. S. Kearsarge, at the Navy Yard, New York, is progressing favorably under the direction of Naval Constructor Capps. On May 2 and 3 two plates from the turret, weighing 35 and 25 tons, had been removed, exposing the carriages upon which the big guns rest. It will be necessary to remove the gun, which weighs 70 tons, from the carriage, slide it through an opening made in the front part of the turret by the removal of the plates, and then lift it from the deck to the wharf by a 100-ton crane, chartered for the purpose.

Rear Admiral Remy has been authorized to conduct naval maneuvers this summer in the Gulf of Pechili, off the coast of China. The Department appreciates the importance of holding maneuvers in that strategic body of water and the Admiral has been given full authority to conduct them as he may see fit. In his report on the subject it is understood that he said he intended to make an attack upon the coast in the vicinity of Peking to effect a landing at Taku. How many vessels he will take is not known to the Department. During his absence Rear Admiral Rodgers will be in charge of the Manila station. Before returning to Manila from his present trip Admiral Zealand has been directed to visit New Zealand with the Brooklyn.

The U. S. naval transport Glacier has reached Sydney, N. S. W., for a cargo of fresh beef and vegetables destined for the naval forces operating in the Philippines. This fine transport has been of inestimable service to the forces under Admiral Remy, and it is probable that her services will be retained until the occupancy of the Archipelago is brought to a conclusion.

According to late cablegrams from Rear Admiral Kempff the fleet operating in Philippine waters has been kept on the move for some time past, and the rapid suppression of the insurrection tends to confirm the statement made by us some weeks ago that the force on that station will soon be redistributed. China and Japan coming in for several of the more important craft. It is not improbable that some vessels will be detailed for an extended trip into Russian waters during the coming summer. The movements of the Russian fleet have become quite interesting of late, and it is the wish of the Navy Department in Washington that a correct idea of the force and disposition of that fleet shall be reported upon as soon as possible.

Orders have been sent to Manila for the return of the U. S. S. Petrel to the Mare Island Navy Yard for the purpose of a thorough overhauling and repair, of which this little craft stands in great need. The Petrel has been one of the most efficient of the smaller vessels on the Asiatic Station, and it is due to her that her repairs should be as extensive as her services have been continuous. The smaller vessels of the Navy serving in the Philippine Archipelago have been of the utmost value during the last two years, and the wisdom of the Department in adding to this secondary force becomes more apparent with each day's experience on that distant field of operations.

The training ship Buffalo, en route from Manila for New York, has been reported at Port Said, and may be expected at her destination by the last of the

SIX GALLOPERS FROM HILO TOWN
The Mighty Socialist is Here—John D. and Octoroon May Be Matched.

Six runners arrived from Hilo on the Kinau last Saturday. They were Socialist, Waterfall, Dixie Land, Billy McCluskey, Mollie Connors and General Cronje. The lot came in charge of Bob Burns and all shipped well.

Socialist is a bay horse by St. Carol-Anarchist. That he is a race horse was amply demonstrated when he ran a mile in 1:30 at the Coast this season.

Dixie Land, a black gelding owned by J. T. Moir, won many jumping races in Canada. Last January in Hilo he defeated Virgie A at six furlongs by a neck after an exciting race. He is by Silk Gown-Kate.

Waterfall, formerly Merrill's Faust, is by Imp. Watercress-Genevise. He is a bay gelding and ran here last fall. He galloped impressively then but was out of condition. Since leaving Honolulu he has been turned out and has finished into a good-looking animal.

Billy McCluskey, the game old hero of many a hard-fought battle, is looking as well as in the days of his youth. His performances in the Islands are too well known to need recapitulation. He is by Joe Hooker out of Jessie R.

General Cronje, by Martenhurst-Songstress, and half-brother to the famous Kinley Mack, is looking fit and well and may show the speed and staying qualities with which he has been credited.

Mollie Connors is a new-comer from San Francisco. She is a maiden 3-year-old, by Friar Tuck-Clara L. Clara L is the dam of Obsidian, the Per and Artilleryman. The Per sold for $5,000, Obsidian for $2,500 and Tom Boyle refused $1,500 for Artilleryman. Mollie Connors has started three times at the Coast but unsuccessfully. In color she is a sorrel.

The above horses, with the exception of Dixie Land, are the property of G. S. McKenzie and will be sold at public auction in Honolulu on the morning of June 15th.

G. S. McKenzie will arrive next Saturday.

Bob Burns, the popular trainer, says that he is glad to be back in Honolulu again. He has had a busy and successful season with his horses at the Coast and has yearned incessantly for the peace and quietness of the Paradise. Burns came attended by his usual menagerie of live stock other than horses. Including in the collection are the original whistling spaniel and the champion game cock of Mexico. The bird is open to fight all comers and the dog will succeed the Ellefords at the Orpheum.

Buck Burns, the jockey, bore his namesake company on the trip from Hilo. Buck's riding record is an enviable one and he should have no difficulty in obtaining mounts down here.

There will be no dearth of jockeys, as was feared at one time. Among those who can ride a horse more or less intelligently are Thomas Burns, Fears, Ross, McAuliffe, Oploplo, Kaena, Piggett, Ferreira, Donohue and Loper.

Jockey Logue sent word to a friend that he might come to Honolulu on the next boat if he did not go East with Atkins and Lottridge.

A recent arrival at Hilo is Defender, a black gelding by Captain Al-Lady Oberton. The horse was sent to Parker's ranch and will be raced for a killing in July. He has performed creditably at the Coast.

The Hilo track is to be given a longer stretch.

Albert Horner of Kukaula plantation is expected to play a strong hand at the Hilo meeting. His stable is said to be unusually strong this year.

The following excellent sentiment was recently expressed by George S. McKenzie of Hilo in an interview:

"I have some good horses, but I will not race any of them except in match races, for the reason that as manager of the track I do not feel that it is just to the owners of other horses for me to compete with them in races for purses. I want to see good sport, the best Hilo has had, and I believe it is only fair to men not connected with the enterprise that they should be given every opportunity to win the purses. There can be no remarks made then, that I have fixed up or had arranged a program in which my horses would have a little the best show to go under the wire first."

On Saturday W. Wolter's Lord Brock fully worked a nice half in :56 1/2 and Gaiety Girl a mile in 1:52. As far as looks go both horses reflect much credit upon Kaena, their trainer.

Weller went a mile on Saturday in 1:49, last three-quarters 1:20 1/2. Watossa worked the last six furlongs with him.

Artie W and Albert M each put in a couple of heats on Saturday between 2:30 and 2:35.

Yesterday was anything but a day of rest to the horsemen at Kaploloani Park. A number of horses were worked in the presence of a fair-sized crowd of enthusiasts.

Quinn drove Wayboy an impressive heat in 2:23 1/2 with hoppers. The time of the last quarter was :36 1/2.

Prince David had W. W. Wood and Walter P. his candidates for the gentlemen's driving race, on the track. The Prince drove the latter and Judd was up behind W. W. Wood, who appeared to be miles away from a race. Heats were put in in 2:34 1/2 and 2:35 1/2. The old horse went to the half in his first essay in 1:12 1/2.

Charley Wilder drove Lady Indigo a mile in 2:39 and then with Aleck Harris driving she turned another mile in 2:40.

Leahli travelled several heats around 2:45. He has perfect legs and is one of the kind that never tires. With speed he would make a notable race horse.

John D worked a heat but went very crappily and could hardly have beaten 2:40 yesterday.

King Dade wants to match Octoroon against Cunningham's John D, best three heats out of five, for $200 a side. The race to occur next week. Here appears an excellent chance for the "seven heats under 2:30 any day of the week—on paper" horse to recompense his sporting owner for the recent disappointments he has experienced with his blooded stock.

It is to be hoped that the Jockey Club will see to it that the hurdles in the jumping race have the regulation slope and are not entirely perpendicular, as was the case at Hilo in July and January last.

DANDRUFF WON'T WASH OUT.
The Germ that Causes It Has to be Destroyed to Cure Dandruff.

Many a woman spends an hour twice a week scouring her scalp, thinking scrubbing off the scurf will cure the dandruff. Two hours a week, at the age of 40 years, she has spent 260 days of 12 hours each or two-thirds of a year of her life, in that vain hope; vain, because you can't cure dandruff without killing the dandruff germ, and the only hair preparation on earth that will do that is Newbro's "Herpicide"—also a delightful hair dressing, and thoroughly antiseptic against all contagion from use of others' hair brushes. It is also a delightful hair dressing.

Shamrock II Badly Wrecked—Tommy Cox Lost on a Foul.

The Olympian games of 1904 will be held in Chicago.

Billy De Coursey was given a decision over Tommy Cox on a foul. The fight was anybody's until Cox hit in a clinch in the fifteenth round. The featherweight championship of the Coast went with the decision.

In her first try-out the cup defender Constitution acquitted herself most satisfactorily.

Jack Moffatt, the Chicago middleweight, has been matched to box twenty rounds with George Gardner, of Boston, at San Francisco, on July 4th.

The Latonia Oaks, worth $3,430, was won easily by Lady Schorr.

Louis Striker, of Erie, Pa., purchased Eula Mae, a California mare that was unbeaten as a two or three-year-old, for $2,700.

The New York Yacht Club has finally decided to allow Lawson's Independence to participate in the trial races on June 15th and 17th, at Newport.

A sudden squall on the Solent completely wrecked Shamrock II, and endangered the lives of King Edward and several distinguished persons, including Sir Thomas Lipton.

Shamrock I and Shamrock II were dismantled, and the latter boat was so badly damaged that the cup races must be put off at least a month.

Commando, the son of Domino, won the classic Belmont stake at Morris Park.

The fight between Terry McGovern and Amelio Herrera was scheduled to come off on May 29th. The betting, according to the last reports, was 3-1 on the champion.

For Freedom, the great American greyhound, which has been in the stud for two years, is to be raced again.

Marvin Hart, the plumber pugilist, of Louisville, knocked out Dan Creedon, of Australia, in the sixth round.

Yellowtail ran a mile at Oakland, packing 120 pounds, in 1:40 1/4, easily.

San Francisco will have 150 days of racing next season.

J. J. Dukelow and H. M. Fincke will furnish the preliminary to the McGovern-Herrera fight. On the same night McGovern and Dougherty will battle for the bantam-weight championship.

McGovern and Heggarty will fight in San Francisco this month.

Banastar, winner of the Brooklyn handicap last year, started favorite for the same event this year.

Detectives O'Keefe and McMahon arrested at Hamilton, Ont., Dan McLeod, the wrestler, and Manager Perry, on charges of conspiracy and fraud in the alleged swindling of a man named Thompson out of $2,600 in the recent wrestling match here between MacLeod and Perry, the French champion.

Thompson alleges that he gave the money to Perry to bet on Pons, who lost. Thompson claims to have the evidence that Perry did not bet a cent, and also that he fixed the match to make it appear that Pons had really lost.

ODDS AND ENDS OF LOCAL SPORT

Hilo Wants a Honolulu Ball Nine—Boxer Burns Still in the Ring.

The representatives of the league baseball clubs meet tonight at the headquarters of the Honolulu Athletic Club.

Tomorrow night the semi-annual meeting of the Scottish Amateur Athletic Association will be held in the Thistle Club rooms.

There was no cricket on Saturday.

Hilo offers $100 to a Honolulu ball nine to visit Hilo for the fourth of July.

A generous program of athletic sports will be contested at Hilo next month. The committee on athletics consists of J. T. Moir, chairman; W. C. Cook, C. E. Hapal, B. L. Jones and J. D. Phillips.

Honolulu athletes, outside of the student element, have had no opportunity for a long time to compete in field and track events and several local pedestrians will likely visit the Rainy City in quest of mugs and a good time.

Jockey Ross is looking for a boxing bout with some good 100-pound man.

Bob Burns, who fought Aleck Hansen in Hilo last July, is prepared to receive challenges from 150-pound men. On each occasion when he boxed Hansen, he was very nearly a sick man. Now he has completely recovered his health and looks to be in fine condition and as hard as nails. He says that he never felt better and that he is as strong and fast as ever before in his life.

Camp McKinley's jockeys, "Texas Jack" Wilks and "Broncho Bill" Westwood, as they are lovingly called by their comrades at camp, have lately acquired the art of playing polo and will make their initial bow to the public in the near future. Wilks is an experienced horseman and will no doubt surprise some of the local cracks. Westwood was the late trainer of Virgie A, the black wonder, when she was owned by Lieutenant Hancock. The boys expect to give a good account of themselves.

BIG SCORES IN THE ORDER

Kamehameha Lost Their First Game.

MERRY MIX-UP ON THE CAMPUS

Police Clubbed the Christians to a Standstill and Won Their First Victory.

Oahu College and Kamehameha School played the third game of the championship baseball series on Saturday on the campus of the latter.

Punahou had gone under in the first two games and it was a case of name your own price about them on Saturday.

The pipe leaked, however, and things happened—things at once weird, unusual and unseemly.

Jones, the ne plus ultra pitcher of the Kamites, was hung, drawn and quartered. Castle, the flaxen-haired catapult of the collegians, was, on the other hand, anything but facile, and his contortions with the ball caused his opponents' phizogs to wear a worried look.

In the eighth there were large doings. One of the Kams rubbed up against a Punahou player somewhat ungently. The afflicted one took umbrage and showed grievous lack of ethnological knowledge by calling his dusky brother a nigger. Then the pot boiled over.

Thanks to the peacemakers, fatalities were averted and the game went on.

At the end of the eighth it was 20-20. In the ninth there was nothing doing and a tenth was ordered.

With three Oahuans on bases in the final spasm, Meyers knocked a liner just inside first base. The umpire called the ball fair, but the Kamites dissented and raised a mighty howl. Meanwhile the three Oahuans had all come home to roost and the score stood 24-20 in favor of the collegians.

This tickled the haules almost to death and as the Kamites appeared to be strangely insensible to the humor of the situation, Al. Castle, doubtless carried away by the enthusiasm of the moment, proceeded, by means of a buff and blue be-ribboned cane, to point out just where the joke came in. Then the pot boiled over again.

Like the meeting of turbulent waters was the clash of the factions. Fists found noses with entertaining frequency and the star of the youth with the caloused knuckles and the adamantine cranium was in the ascendency.

When the lust of fight had departed from the intellectual exponents of the national game, the crowd went home, and the timid moon peeped over the mountains and gazed long and sorrowfully upon the scene of the conflict.

Details of the tragedy:

1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10
Oahu College 3 1 2 1 7 0 3 3 0 4-24
Kamehameha School 2 4 0 1 2 1 8 0 -20

The Police clubbed the Christians to a holy stannstill on Saturday, but they had to fight to high tension throughout the game to do it.

The game which was played at Makiki was a good one and was won by Chillingworth in the last inning.

A Mr. Taylor was selected to bombard the police station, but his work did not exactly earn golden opinions for him and he was excused at the urgent request of the custodians of the law, who are at all times averse to an easy life. Nowell, who reigned in his stead, was a decided improvement, but the pardon came too late for the side's salvation.

Joy pitched well until the fifth, when his arm slumbered and it was "joyful times" for the Christians for a spell.

Parker relieved him and his importation was anything but a relief to the Initials, who simply could not make the telephone work with Robert, Jr., at the other end of the wire.

The Police possess heavy batting qualifications, but are still lamentably shy of team work. Their showing was, however, a decided improvement over that of the previous week.

The minutes of the meeting:

Y. M. C. A. 1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9
Police 3 0 0 0 4 7 2 2 0-18

Police 8 2 1 0 0 6 1 2-20

DAMON'S SWEET POTATOES.

They May Help to Relieve Distress in Guam.

WASHINGTON, May 24.—Commander Seaton Schroeder, Governor of Guam, has been enjoying a novel experience on bullback. He made a trip around the remote island over which he rules, using one of the native bulls for a steed. In a letter received by Acting Secretary of the Navy Hackett, dated March 27, Governor Schroeder refers to his bullback-riding. The report follows:

"The condition of the island as affected by the hurricane is improving a good deal. The issue of rations has considerably diminished, and it is hoped soon to be stopped. S. M. Damon of Honolulu sent a generous gift of thirty sacks of sweet potatoes, which have been distributed and planted."

The Governor reports having made another journey on bullback about the island to examine the roads. The town of Pago was entirely destroyed by a hurricane, and no attempt has been made to rebuild it. A few planters have cottages on neighboring heights, but the majority have come to Agaña to settle. Ynarajan has progressed considerably during the past two months, but will not be restored to its usual condition for some months yet. The church will not probably be rebuilt. Spring rains have begun, and the Governor's journey on bullback was attended with great inconvenience and discomfort, but the object was attained of seeing the roads under unfavorable circumstances.

"PAT IT WITH B."

Taking the "Dictionary of National Biography" standard, it is clear that there is something in a name. No man in the British Isles has become famous for ten centuries whose name began with X. Z is better—there are twenty-one names under it—and Q is better still, with thirty-one. Somebody in the 2s becomes famous on an average every fifty years, and Q has been the initial on one in every thousand of England's famous men. A is much better than either—there is a famous man among the As for nearly every year since William the Conqueror—and those whose names begin with C, H, M or S should be quite hopeful; their chance is very good indeed. But the chance of the man whose name begins with B is the best of all. There are over 3,000 famous names in our history beginning with B, and the seekers after fame in this class should keep up heart.—St. James' Gazette.

All Run Down

No Appetite. Weak. Discouraged.

Warm climates always debilitate the nervous system. The digestion is slow, and the liver becomes sluggish. Impurities in the blood accumulate, and you go about downhearted and depressed. All this may be quickly changed with proper treatment.

Mrs. C. Kennedy, of 26 Erskine St., North Melbourne, Victoria, sends us her photograph and this letter:

"I had lost my appetite, was very weak, and all run down. Nothing did me good, and I was discouraged. I then tried and it brought me right up to my usual health and strength. And I want to add a word here about Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. It has cured me of such hard coughs and colds that I feel I could not do without it. For family remedies I rely on that word, 'Ayer's.'"

AYER'S Sarsaparilla

GLAZE IN FOR LIFE.

The Slayer of Trehwella Gets the Full Limit.

Judge Dunne yesterday denied the motion of Robert E. Glaze for a new trial, and sentenced him to life imprisonment in San Quentin Prison for the murder of his partner, William Trehwella, in the Windsor Hotel last January.

After denying the motion for a new trial Judge Dunne ordered Glaze to stand up, and asked him if there was any legal reason why sentence should not be passed upon him.

"Nothing, your honor," answered Glaze, "except that I am sure I am not guilty of this charge against me."

"It is the sentence of the court," said Judge Dunne, "that you be confined in the State Prison at San Quentin for the term of your natural life."

Glaze again took his seat beside his wife and stepchildren without giving any evidence of emotion. His attorneys then moved for a stay of execution for twenty days, which was granted.

Glaze and Trehwella were partners in the Windsor Hotel. They quarreled over money matters. Glaze finally laid in wait for his partner in the kitchen of the hotel and shot him down in cold blood. He pleaded self-defense, but the evidence adduced at the trial disproved his plea, and demonstrated beyond a doubt that his crime was without cause or justification.

Hawaiian Confined Ten Months in Jail Without Trial.

VANCOUVER, B. C., May 24. — Charles M. Allan, son of a former Hawaiian Minister of Queen Liliuokalani's Cabinet, was released from prison yesterday, after an incarceration of ten months without a trial. He was confined at Westminster jail without hard labor, and, according to Canadian law, his detention was quite lawful, but without precedent. He was first arrested here last July on a charge of obtaining money under false pretences. He admitted the fact that he had given checks which were worthless, but he expected to have plenty of money by the first steamer from Honolulu to meet his obligations.

Instead of that, however, no funds came, his friends refused to put up the $500, and more necessary to set him free, and so he stayed in jail. The crown prosecutor had the case stood over from time to time, in order to obtain a necessary witness from the States, but this witness never turned up. Yesterday Allan's lawyers applied under habeas corpus proceedings for his release, showing that no effort was being made to find the missing witness. The case was dismissed and the prisoner discharged.

TROUBLE ON FIGARO.

New Editor Ejects the Old One and Gets New Staff.

PARIS, May 25.—M. Antonio Periver, heretofore, with M. Fernand de Rodays, joint editor in chief of the Figaro, announces in this morning's issue of the paper that he has assumed the sole editorship as the outcome of the recent managerial disagreement. He says the journal will return to his ancient program—to please, instruct and amuse—and will remain "patriotic without being politically partisan."

It appears, according to the Gaulois and other morning papers, that the change in the editorship of the Figaro was a veritable coup. A meeting of the shareholders yesterday afternoon sustained the managing committee, and at 10 o'clock last night M. Periver appeared at the office and insisted upon M. de Rodays leaving. The latter drew a revolver. The Commissary of Police was summoned, but he refused to interfere. Finally M. de Rodays was induced to depart.

A majority of the staff refused to obey M. Periver, who summarily discharged them and appointed new editors. The paper appeared at the usual hour. It is probable that a lawsuit will ensue.

A NATURAL LAW.

"The big advance in Kentucky whiskey seems to beautifully illustrate a natural law."

"How so?"

"The more it goes up the less it goes down."

Hubbubs—"Why are you moving from your suburban home?"

Subbubs—"I am all run down."

Hubbubs—"Malaria?"

Subbubs—"No; gossiping neighbors."

COLLEGE HILLS.

The three most important things about a home are:

1st. Healthfulness.

2nd. Attractiveness.

3rd. Neighborhood.

As to the First:

College Hills has an elevation of from 150 to 250 feet; invigorating, cool air, directly off the mountain tops; large lots with plenty of breathing space. LESS HUMIDITY in the air than is found down town.

Perfect Sanitation.

As to the Second:

College Hills affords superb views of Diamond Head, Waikiki and the Ocean.

It also has the magnificent vista of Manoa Valley, "The Hawaiian Bit of Switzerland."

The great variety of contour in the ground, the winding streets and good quality of houses to be built, will make it unquestionably the Most Beautiful Residence Section of the city.

As to the Third:

College Hills Deeds protect buyers from all dangers of Chinese Shacks and Japanese Shops, and limits the suburb to strictly residence purposes. All houses cost a minimum of $2,000.

The substantial class of people who have already bought insures you good neighbors. Property in this neighborhood always advances in price rapidly.

The Days of Tight Belts Are Over Cling-Surface

"CLING-SURFACE" IS A BELT filler, which produces a clean, clinging surface on the belt after it has penetrated the belt, and it is a belt preservative, making and keeping the leather, cotton or rope flexible and elastic, vastly increasing its life. It also acts perfectly on rubber belts.

One-third more power is transmitted by its use, or in other words, a belt two-thirds as large will transmit the power if "Cling-Surface" is used.

VENICE IN AMERICAN MIDWAY, PAN-AMERICAN EXPOSITION

AGUINALDO IS COMING LATER

Wants to Visit United States and Study American Institutions.

NEW YORK, May 25.—A special to the Tribune from Washington says: Aguinaldo is likely to come to the United States next fall and spend the winter in Washington. This information has reached the War Department in the mail from Manila. He has informed General MacArthur of his desire to visit the United States for the purpose of studying American institutions and meeting American statesmen with a view of being more useful to his own people in the future. No objection to granting this wish at the proper time has occurred to the authorities at Manila, who regard the proposition with marked favor. For the present, however, and until after the civil administration of the island is firmly established, it is not contemplated that Aguinaldo should be relieved from the restraint that is now regarded as a guarantee of his own safety.

It appears that Aguinaldo has been influenced to visit Washington by Judge Arellano, whose loyalty to the United States is unquestioned.

Another Army Scandal.

MANILA, May 25.—Captain Michael Spellman, Lieutenant Delbert R. Jones and Surgeon Dudley W. Welch, of Company G, Forty-third Infantry, stationed at Maasin, South Leyte, have been arrested on charges of trading in permits to ship hemp from the closed ports, and will be tried by court-martial. It has not been determined whether Manila hemp buyers are directly implicated.

Senator Hanna has been mustered into a G. A. R. post.

Earthquake in Italy.

TURIN, May 25.—A violent earth shock was experienced here, at Coni and elsewhere, at 6 o'clock this morning. Little damage was done, but the people were panic stricken.

MADRID, May 25.—An earthquake has occurred in Malaga. A number of houses were damaged and a panic was created among the inhabitants. Storms and floods at Puebla de Alcocor, province of Badajoz, have resulted in the loss of lives and injury to several persons. At Motril, province of Granada, several houses were destroyed, and the inhabitants are panic stricken.

National Bank Robbed.

MADISON, Wis., May 25.—The First National Bank at Mineral Point was robbed of $25,000 last night, the safe being blown open. There is no clew.

Botha and DeWet.

LONDON, May 25.—General Botha has asked General De Wet to meet him, says the Pretoria correspondent of the Daily Mail, to discuss the situation.
