GEAR DECIDES THREE CASES

FALK'S STOCK EXCHANGE SEAT ORDERED SOLD FOR THREE CREDITORS.

CARTER MINORS AND MRS. JUDD'S WILL.

Life Interest of Mrs. Carter Lasted Longer Than the Decedent Expected. McCristons Get Land.

Judge Gear filed three written decisions this afternoon in the First Circuit court, deciding the cases of L. C. Ables vs. C. J. Falk, the Hawaiian Trust Company, trustee, the Honolulu Stock and Bond Exchange and J. E. Morgan; J. O. Carter, trustee, vs. Mrs. Sybil A. Carter, and the petition of Tula David Dayton, trustee and executor in the matter of the John McColligan estate.

In the Stock Exchange suit Gear holds that a seat in the Stock Exchange is saleable or assignable property, following two California decisions which construe rules of the San Francisco Stock Exchange. One of the rules provides that each member's seat shall be security for all the other members with whom he does business. Falk's seat is therefore held to be subject to two prior liens of members, for $1,960 and $720, after which the claim of Ables to whom the seat was pledged as security for 20 shares of Wai'alea stock of the value of $1,960 is a good claim.

Judge Gear issues an injunction against the sale of the seat for creditors generally and orders the president of the Stock Exchange to sell the seat, day first, the two creditors who are members of the Exchange and then satisfy Ables' claim for $1,960 if there is enough money left.

The case of J. O. Carter vs. Sybil A. Carter, involved a number of questions as to the management of the Carter estate. Carter is trustee, under the will of Helen Seymour Judd. The present difficulty appears to have arisen because when the deceased made her will she did not anticipate that Mrs. Carter would live as long as she has lived. In September, 1899, Mrs. Carter asked J. O. Carter to take out and copy the property to George R. Carter for $18,000. The will order Carter to distribute when all the minor children were of age but gave Mrs. Carter a life interest, and the court held that this was evidently in the expectation that Mrs. Carter would die before all the children became of age. She is living and well yet, however, and the court holds that there can be no distribution, though all the children are of age, except by common consent. The trust does not terminate as was intended, when the last of minor children becomes of age, while Mrs. Carter lives.

Judge Gear holds that the sale and the resignation may take place by mutual agreement and that Mrs. Mary H. L. Davis, widow of Charles L. Carter, deceased, is interested in the property, and must be a party to the agreement.

In the McColligan estate, David Dayton, trustee, asked for instructions as to sale of property, which the will ordered sold to pay some legacies. Daniel and Hugh McCriston have paid the legacies and want the property left unsold, which the court says may be allowed.

GOSPEL TENT.

There will be a meeting at the Gospel Tent this evening at 7:45 o'clock.

HOME RULERS QUARREL.

Some dissension is threatened in Home Rule ranks as a result of the failure of the party in the special election. The dispute over nominating Beardslee, followed by the defeat of the man chosen in his place, has left the Beardslee element somewhat "sore," and there are likely to be changes in leadership before the next election. The committee will continue to hold meetings, and prepare for the next campaign. The result of Wednesday, however, is an evident disappointment, and there is even to be some good stirring up to arouse the old-time enthusiasm for the party.

KU WAS CONVICTED MURDERER SENTENCED TO FIVE YEARS.

Police Win Victory in Face of Adverse Circumstances—Convicted Man Not Brought to Honolulu Today.

Ku, the Hawaiian who was accused of murdering Wong Kul at Honouliuli, Kau some months ago, was found guilty of manslaughter in the third degree at Kailua, at his trial April 2. Judge Edging sentenced Ku to five years in the territorial prison.

This conviction was a very creditable victory for the police, as they were seriously handicapped in working up the case against the defendant. Chester Doyle and David Kaapa of the local police department went up to Kau and worked up the evidence. Kaimama, one of their most important witnesses, was poisoned. It is alleged, by the friends and relatives of Ku and, so with the loss of this witness, it looked as if the defendant Ku, would escape. The evidence was circumstantial but the case was ably handled by Doyle and Kaapa, with the result that a conviction was secured.

The Chinese went out one night to fish and was never seen alive, his body being found in the water, the following morning. Circumstances indicated that Ku had drowned the man in order to secure his fishing net and lines. Detective Kaapa returned from Hawaii this morning on the Mauna Loa, but did not bring Ku back with him.

The case against a Japanese charged with the murder of a countryman at Kau was to have been called yesterday at Kailua. The authorities think they will get a conviction without doubt. Deputy Attorney General Cathcart and Chester Doyle expect to remain at Kailua until the return trip of the Mauna Loa.

ENTERPRISE AT HILO

THE NEW STEAMSHIP LINE INAUGURATED.

Reaches Port From San Francisco Last Sunday—Quite a Demonstration Over The Arrival of New Vessel.

The steamer Enterprise reached Hilo last Sunday from San Francisco. The appearance of the steamer, which inaugurated the direct local line between San Francisco and Hilo, was the occasion for quite a demonstration at Hilo. Other vessels in the harbor decorated in honor of the arrival of the new boat and hundreds of people went to the water front to see the steamer.

She left San Francisco March 30 for Hilo with a good sized cargo of general merchandise. The advent of the Enterprise was of more than passing interest to Hilo and Hawaii people. She will be the first direct steamer to be run regularly between Hilo and San Francisco. The service will be increased when business demands the addition of at least two more steamers. It is said that sufficient business has been guaranteed to make the new steamer pay. The prospects are that the new steamer will have plenty of various Hawaii products to carry back with her on the return trip. The Enterprise is commanded by Captain Frederick Miller, by whom she was brought around from the Atlantic coast a year or more ago. After arriving at San Francisco the steamer was purchased by the Matson Navigation Company and given an extensive overhauling at an expense of at least $50,000 and fitted with an oil-burning apparatus, cold storage plant and electric lighting facilities. Accommodations for twenty-eight cabin and sixteen second-class passengers were also added. The notable feature of the Enterprise is the fact that she is at present the only oil-burning ocean liner running out of San Francisco, and she carries 412 tons of oil in her tanks, or enough to last for the round trip to Hilo.

The Enterprise brought 2500 tons of general freight to Hilo, and is to take 4000 tons of sugar back to San Francisco. The steamer has a length of 322.5 feet, a breadth of 33.8 and depth of 26.5 feet.

The following passengers arrived on her, Captain William Matson, managing owner and wife, Charles A. Gibson, wife and child, Captain Campbell and Mr. Hodgkins and family of Chicago.

MURDER WAS CONTEMPLATED

SO SAID THE PROSECUTOR WHO ASKED THAT THE CASE BE DISMISSED.

10,000 CHINESE ON THE VERGE OF BLOODSHED.

But the Only Feud That Appeared in Evidence Was That of the Special Prosecutors and the Police.

A Chinese feud that in the hard language of the attorneys specially retained to prosecute the defendants shows many of the features of a San Francisco highlander war was brought out in the police court this morning, in a case where nine Chinese are charged with conspiracy in the third degree. They are said to have gathered at the home of several other Chinese with intent to do murder, and one Chinese has been found who says that he heard them express such an intention, just before the police arrived on the scene and interrupted the proceedings. They were armed with pieces of gas pipe.

Gill and Farley, special prosecutors in the case, claim to have evidence that the Chinese have been holding meetings secretly at night since they were arrested and released on bonds, and discussing means of carrying out their murderous intentions. The beginning of the trouble is not clear, but it is supposed to have something to do with the Bow Wong and Yang Wei Pin controversy.

The men charged with conspiracy are Ah Yuen, Ah Cheun, Ah Yau, Ah K-n Kong, Pak Chee, Ah Tun, Kong Yee, Kong Chun. With them is a woman named Hang Sue.

The conspiracy cases against the Chinese were dismissed by Judge Wilcox for lack of prosecution, no complaint having been filed. The incident of their dismissal caused a little acrimony in the district court.

When the cases were called Judge Wilcox inquired if the attorneys for the prosecution were ready to go ahead. The lawyers replied that they were not. The court then said that they were not to go ahead, and that the cases were to be dropped. The court then called attention to the fact that no complaint had even been filed against the defendants. The complaint was not ready so the court stated that that the crowd should be dismissed.

Mr. Farley declared that the police department had not acted fairly toward himself and his associate. In speaking of the matter he said:

"In asking that this case be dismissed I deem it a duty which we owe to the court to state the reasons which have prompted Mr. Gill and myself to present to the court this request. SON ESTATE.A Petition Asking That He Be Removed as Administrator—Money Said To Be Due.Representative Prendergast is in trouble over another estate of which he is administrator. A petition was filed in the Circuit court yesterday by Louise Pearson, asking that Prendergast be removed as administrator of the estate of Mary Pearson, deceased. There is another similar case before the court, in which Prendergast has been given time in which to square up some accounts of another estate.
The petitioner says that all the debts of the estate, excepting $400 owing to the Bishop estate on a note, have been paid and that the administrator "for two years last past, has had in his hands over $700 belonging to said estate with which he could have materially reduced said mortgage debt, but he has refused and neglected to do so, notwithstanding the order of this court, to the effect that said administrator pay all money in his hands to the said estate of H. P. Bishop on account of the said debt."The petition also contains the following:"That said administrator did not pay the interest on said debt, which was due in January last past, but the same was paid by petitioner, out of his private funds, when it was nineteen days overdue.""That it is for the best interests of said estate that said John K. Prendergast be removed from his office as administrator thereof, and that a suitable person be appointed in his stead."Wherefore petitioner prays: "1. That said administrator be ordered to account for all money of said estate in his hands and to pay the amount thereof into court.""2. That said administrator be removed from his said office and a suitable person appointed in his stead.""3. That petitioner may have such other and further relief as to the court shall seem meet in the premises."Judge Robinson has set the matter for hearing on Monday, April 14.F. L. Hoogs, administrator of the estate of Thomas Krouse, deceased, has asked for an order to sell the furniture and lease the Arlington Annex Hotel the value of which he places at $1200.
He says that the income from the property is at present less than the expenses.John Ena has asked leave to resign as guardian of the estate of Carl Louis Hofme, a minor, and requests that F.
A. Schaefer be appointed in his place.
The annual accounts show receipts of $4,624.94 and expenditures of $4,222.27, leaving a balance of $392.57.Manuahi has asked to be appointed administrator of the estate of Pila Ma-nuahi.A demurrer was filed yesterday in the case of Albert K. Nawahi vs. Ha-court has no jurisdiction; and that the facts stated are not sufficient to constitute a cause of action.

INSPECTION OF TROOPS.

Lieutenant-Colonel Chamberlain yesterday inspected the troops at Camp McKinley. The men were all out in heavy marching order, with blue uniforms and leggings. The inspection included a review on the race track field at Kapiolani park.

DEEP VALLEY OFF MOLOKAI.

During the course of her recent cruise about these islands, the Albatross demonstrated the fact that there was a valley of about 500 fathoms in depth, between the southwest end of Molokai and Lanai. It was also established that there was little good fishing on the lee side of the islands.

MUST RELIEVE CUBA.

Cuba is now the great issue before Congress. The party in power cannot afford to enter the full campaign with a record of hostility to the recommendations of its own president on this question. The democrats will have the next House by a good majority if the Cubans are not given a "chance to live."— Springfield Republican.

THE REAL TRUTH.

"Poems" about the soldier boy so far away, who weeps over the hard-fack and sees visions of the folks at home, are now pouring in from the States.
Can't stand for it. The chances are that that the boys foraged a better dinner, or got it from the commissary, than they would have done at home. Maybe the particular "keeper" in mind had won all the cash in his mess before midnight of Christmas day. The boys in the field probably succeeded in forgetting that it was Christmas. The soldier is all right in his climate. He is resourceful and will get there, without hour embarking in so-called poetry.— Manila American.

THE LONDON TIMES.

Now that the Rothschilds own at least half the stock in the London Times that paper may be considered to be in "safe" hands; but the marriage alliance between the house of Rothschild and Lord Roseberry may render the paper an insecure support of the conservative party if ever the noble earl succeeds in starting a new party or in snapping out all the old principles of the liberals. The Times has lately been suspected of leaning Roseberry's way.
The earl has on his side many powerful influences, aristocratic, plutocratic and even popular, but even so he is unlikely ever to succeed in doing, and that he is to bring to his support the radical or more democratic wing of the old liberal organization. Lord Roseberry stands for that favorite ideal of Tory publicists —an "alternative" party which shall have practically the same principles as the party now in power. It is not im-likely, however, that the leading political organizations in England can be so made up that they shall all have the same principles and the same ideals.—

CHINESE ATHLETICS

The field day of the Royal Bachelors will bring forward quite a number of young athletes, and will at the same time furnish a pleasant afternoon's entertainment to the onlookers, while it ought to net a substantial sum for a very worthy object. An afternoon of athletic sports, if well managed, is of far more interest to the ordinary looker on, and holiday maker than any horse races can afford. There is so much chance of variety, the fields are usually much larger, and among amateurs there is such a true sporting spirit, that to the average man greater pleasure is given by a show of clean athletics, than any other class of contest except boating.

To those who like a short and sharp race, the hundred yards is a matter of intense excitement for the few seconds which it lasts. To those who like endurance, combined with skill in judging distance and competitors, the mile is a pretty race. Then between these there is the quarter and the half. Each has to be run on special principles, which belong to the particular distance to be covered. The quarter is a very pretty distance, but must be run at speed from start to finish. The half requires reserve force, in the sprint at the end, and great judgment in the pace used in the first part of the race.

The most effective races for the onlooker are hurdle races. To see the runners rise into the air and skin across their hurdles is a very pretty sight. In such races you get the grace of the human frame admirably shown. A good hurdle racer is one of the most graceful of athletes, of course there are men who take their hurdles like a lumbering cow, but the hurdle-racer of good form is a beautiful sight. You again can have great variety in hurdle racing, from the hundred yard dash, which is taken over light hurdles, to the half mile over stiff sheep hurdles.

Amateur Athletics are becoming quite popular here and are of benefit to the rising community. There are two things to be considered about them, to which perhaps consideration is not enough given. First, form. The runners of races are not careful about their form, and they ought to have their attention called to their slipshod methods. Second we must be sure that we keep our races truly amateur. Upon the amateur qualification, the following three sections taken from the Irish Amateur Rowing Union rules, are in point.

- (1) No person shall be considered an amateur oarsman, sculler, or coxswain.
- (2) Who has ever taken part in any race for a stake, money or entrance fee.
- (3) Who has ever knowingly competed with or against a professional for any prize.

Though these rules are for amateur boating they are just as true for amateur foot racing and any other form of athletics. The greatest attention is now paid on the mainland to keeping up the amateur standard. We have been very careless in this, as we have been careless about form. Both matters require the careful attention of our rising young men.

FAME.

Thomas Dunn English died on April 1, of this year. To most people he would have remained whatever his local celebrity might have been, but he is a unique instance of fame, coming to him for a place of work which he himself almost wished to be forgotten, and coming from the exquisite and sympathetic work of another. Thomas Dunn English wrote Ben Bolt in 1843 and George Du Maurier gave a fresh vogue to the forgotten song in Telby. Almost fifty years apart were the first and second vogue, and the novelist died before the composer after all.

Thomas Dunn English was born in Philadelphia in 1812. He graduated as an M. D. from the University of Pennsylvania in 1839. Later he studied law and was admitted to the bar in his native city. Between the years of 1844 and 1850 he worked, as a newspaper man in New York. He was a member of the New Jersey Legislature during 1863 and 1864, and then represented that state in Congress for two terms. His death came at the ripe age of 83. He had evidently led a useful life, had been trusted by his fellow citizens, and had been worthy of their confidence, but he would have passed away without much public notice, if it had not been for a fortuitous circumstance totally out of his control. But for Telby Mr. English would have passed to his long rest with some notice in the local papers and not a word outside. Telby gave Mr. English fame.

Fame is a very queer thing, and the Goddess distributes her favors capriciously. Sometimes undying fame rests upon a short poem, upon a few brilliant and apposite words, or upon some sudden and spontaneous action. Thus we have Wolfe's "Burial" of Sir John Moore, the only thing that Wolfe is remembered by. His name lives through that single poem, though what he was and what he did is entirely forgotten. Talleyrand made a great mark as a statesman in his time, but he is better remembered by his brilliant remark, "He committed worse than a crime, he made a mistake." To many men that is all that Talleyrand left to the world. The self sacrifice of Henry IV, a square of Henry V at Agincourt makes his name blaze where all the great names of England are forgotten and unthought of except by the careful historians.

Mr. English's fame will rest upon a song which he composed when he was twenty-two years of age, though he lived to be eighty-three. The fact that his song drew fame to him came not from himself, but from a man with whom he had absolutely no connection with, a man who was born and educated thousands of miles from him, who was brought up in an entirely different environment, but yet who gave the opportunity for the old and forgotten words to run round the whole English speaking portion of the world.

When one thinks of fame in this way it does not seem a commodity very much worth trying for. It is an accident rather than the result of an effort. Take this little song written by Thomas Dunn English, and it is nothing. There have been thousands of songs which are sweeter, contain more true sentiment, and touch the heart more nearly, yet through the pen and mind of Du Maurier it was revived and ran from hand to hand, from theater to theater, and found its place upon the concert stage.

The fact is most men who are honest and painstaking do good work in this world. The idea of duty done is one of the most earnest calls upon a man's life. So many men do good work that when they lay down their labor and pass to the far beyond, no notice is taken of them. After all they have but done their duty, and the world asks no more, but it is a curious thing to find that a man can gain a reputation which has been laid in the grave for years—a new life which will probably outlast the former reputation which was originally acquired.

There are many odd things in our short lives in this world, and there is nothing more odd than the distribution of so called reputation. It seems so often unjust, but the chances are that every one gets his or her just deserts and somewhat more. If one man can help another man, so much the better for the other man. Du Maurier established his own reputation. Thomas Dunn English, during his life time, had every reason for thanking Du Maurier for saving his name from oblivion.

The keys to the fire alarm boxes will soon be distributed, and the whole Gamewell system will be properly inaugurated.

Bishop Nichols does not confine his ministrations to adults, he is looking after the interests of the children. The garden party to be given to the children will suffice to make the Bishop well acquainted with the younger portion of his flock.

The more the results of Wednesday's election are considered in the light of information that in the nature of things is only likely to come out after the result, the clearer it is that the election was won by the votes of the friends and supporters of Governor Dole.

The soldiers at Camp McKinley have been undergoing inspection, and the report will no doubt be favorable, considering the standing of the officers in charge. Colonel Chamberlain will look into many other matters, and unofficially gather an amount of valuable information.

The pictures which Mr. Wores is displaying are well worthy of a visit. He has some phases of South Sea life which are passing away, with the commercial advance which has been going on even in the remotest corners of the Pacific are losing their peculiar individuality. Mr. Wores has been fortunate enough to catch some of the vanishing features.

Few people seem to know that cane sugar is raised in Spain. According to a recent Consular report the annual yield of cane sugar in the vicinity of Malaga is about 20,000 tons. There are seventeen sugar mills in the provinces of Malaga and Grenada and many thousand hands are employed. The crop this year, through bad weather, is only about half what was expected. The cane growers and the beet growers of Spain do not agree with one another at all. The cane growers cannot see the overproduction theory at all since their crop is short. The sugar cane of our Western world originally came from Spain, so we need not be surprised at Spain having a cane sugar crop.

Tobacco as a crop is going to be experimented with by another new hand. The present man says that the trouble does not lie in the growing of the tobacco, but in the fermenting. The Star has often urged the pushing of the tobacco industry, and some years ago published articles upon various tobacco crops raised, notably the Sumatra crop, which is considered an extremely valuable one. Tobacco will grow in almost any part of the islands up to a certain elevation, as to its quality, that is an entirely different proposition. Most of the tobacco grown here is crude and harsh. It is the same story with our tea. The tea shrub flourished in Kona magnificently, it also grew luxuriantly in the uplands above Kukuiahae. But the product at either place was not satisfactory. It is wise and right to experiment but it is unwise to raise hopes from a crop which may never prove success. Until the final result of Jared Smith's Kona experiments are announced, cultivators had better keep clear of tobacco as a paying crop. Of course Mr. Smith may prove that it must be a paying crop, and no one would be better pleased than The Star to welcome a new industry. But Mr. Smith has to prove his position, and it is no use starting in till Mr. Smith has done so. One wishes every success to Mr. Smith's experiment.

DANISH DENIAL.

WASHINGTON, March 31.—Mr. Brun, the Danish Minister here, called on Secretary Hay to-day with reference to the pending investigation by the House of the charges preferred by Mr. Gron in connection with the acquisition of the Danish West Indian islands by the United States. There is reason to believe that there has been received from Denmark a sweeping denial by Christmas of any attempt on his part to corrupt American legislators and newspapers.

A MCKINLEY WISH

ROOSEVELT CARRIES IT OUT AS TO AN APPOINTMENT.

AN OPENING MADE ON THE WAY TO TAKE A UNITED STATES JUDGESHIP ON THE Island of Cebu.

Bryan S. Ambler of Salem, arrived in the Sheridan on his way to the Philippines to assume what will practically be a life-long office as one of the Federal Judges of the islands. Because he had been a personal friend of the late President McKinley for a great many years he was appointed in this position two months after the President died as a fulfillment of one of the martyred President's latest expressed wishes at the capitol.

Judge Ambler, though apparently past 50 years of age, never before held any public office. For the last twenty-seven years he has been a practicing lawyer in the city of Salem. Some years ago, when William McKinley had a notable contest for a seat in Congress and was defeated, this same Ambler acted as the lawyer for the future President of the United States. This association laid the foundation of the friendship that late in life resulted in the desire to reward Ambler with some judicial office within the gift of the Chief Executive.

President McKinley's attachment for the Ambler family is illustrated in the fact that he was very fond of Judge Ambler's little daughter, now a child of 12. When President McKinley left the picture on his desk was a photograph of little Miss Ambler, and when his lifeless body was brought back the sorrowing relatives found the little girl's picture still on the desk of the man whose work was ended for all time.
Miss Ambler and her mother are with Judge Ambler.

Judge Ambler will establish his court at Cebu from initial choice hoping in that way to be compelled to learn more of the native ways and of the Spanish language than he could in Manila, where there are so many Americans.

Judge Ambler is a tall, thin man, college bred, affable, and with a kindly personality.

TENNIS RESULTS.

Preliminaries for Alexander Cup Completed.

Contrary to expectation, there were no defaults in the tennis games scheduled for yesterday afternoon and the opposing players exhibited some very good and interesting tennis, the losers in many cases being out of form but making a valiant defence. The two Waterhouses made an interesting match and Willie Roth had to fight hard for his victory against I. Dillingham who played erratically but brilliantly.

This afternoon at 4 J. P. Cooke will meet D. H. Hitchcock, J. Waterhouse, F. C. Atherton; and at 5 W. F. Dillingham plays against E. R. Adams. The preliminaries are now all completed.
In the results of yesterday's play, J.
Waterhouse won from George Waterhouse, 6-5, 6-2, 6-4. Cooke from Norton 6-0, 6-0. Babbitt from Wilder, 7-5, 6-1; Roth from I. Dillingham, 6-4, 6-4; C. D.
Cooke from Lansdale, 6-2, 6-2. Brock from Coney, 6-4, 7-5.

UNION MEETING.

There will be a union meeting of the Young People's societies of the evangelical churches at Central Union Tuesday evening April 22, at 7:30 o'clock. Rev. W. M. Kincaid will make the address of the evening. The societies uniting in this meeting are, the Epworth League of the Methodist church, the Young People's Society of the Christian church, and the Young People's Society of Christian Endeavor of Central Union, Kawaiahao, Kauna-kapili, Kailahi, Ewa, Puuhou, and the societies of the Chinese Japanese and Portuguese churches.

ARE YOU HAPPY?

You know very well how you feel when your liver don't act. Bile collects in the blood, bowels become constipated and your whole system poisoned. A lazy liver is an invitation for a thousand pains and aches to come and dwell with you. Your liver becomes one long measure of irritability and despondency and bad feeling.

Casara acts directly, and in a peculiarly happy manner on the liver and bowels, cleansing, purifying and toning every portion of the liver, driving all the bile from the blood, as is soon shown by increased appetite, power to digest, and strength to throw off disease.

Casara is made from the well known bark called casara sagrada and endorsed by the medical profession. It is a pleasant prepara-a remedy particularly needed in a trop-

THE SHRINER'S PICNIC

ALOHA TEMPLE TAKES JAUNT TOMORROW.

Will Visit the Quads of Moanulua. There To Pass Many Pleasant Hours—Will Be Large Convoy.

A pilgrimage to some pleasant quads every body has heard of and the Shriners may be set up in the cool shade beside the bubbling geyser spring, where dates and wild honey furnish a palatable repast, eked out with long draughts of camel milk, is as much a desire of the good Shriner as a trip to Mecca. Such indulgence comes all too seldom in the journey across the great desert and are eagerly looked forward to and made the most of when the cool fountains of the palms first appear on the hazy horizon, seeming to beckon the tired caravan towards the promised rest and refreshment.

Nowadays, when a caravan is termined hotel and a demerol may turn out to be a mile car, these oasis attractions are termed in the language of the Gleaner, picnic grounds. Although in Hawaii the members of Aloha Temple have many of the surroundings of the desert, their picnic grounds are not a continent lack. Camels are lacking, but camel milk can be and is supplied, date trees and palms are distinctly in evidence and the grounds at Moanulua, kindly offered by S. M. Damon for the use of the local temple might well be termed an oasis.

Tomorrow morning, about the tenth hour of the fore noon, the caravan or some sixty five Shriners, with their invited guests, sheikhs, houriis and children will wind its way to the polo grounds at Moanulua, there to spend a "happy day." Electric cars for a part of the distance and other conveniences for the rest of the way will furnish the transportation. The luncheon which will be spread may only be imagined by those who have assisted at a Shriner celebration. Fed delicacies will be missing from the menu, the bazaar having been ransacked for the most savory of Kabobs and succulent of sweetmeats. Sherbets and other fluids will assuage the thirst.

During the day the Shriners will frolic in dignified mirth. There will be races for men of ponderous and of slender girth and many amusements of a similar sort. The return will probably be made before the muscadine call at twilight. That the affair will be a success needs merely the assurance that the Shriners are in charge.

PROBATE DAY WORK

VACATION BUSINESS IN CIRCUIT COURTS.

Waikiki Loan Association and Rapid Transit Injunction—Administrators' Appointments Denied by Humphreys.

The Waikiki Land and Loan Association this morning filed a motion to strike from the files the purported amended complaint of the Sun Kwok Mau Company, in its suit for damages and an injunction. The motion is based upon the ground that the purported amended complaint is not an amended complaint, but is in effect a substitution of defendants and constitutes a new cause of action. This is the case in which a temporary injunction was issued by Judge Robinson, preventing the continuance of work on the Rapid Transit road through the McCully tract.

Keawe has brought suit against Ma-kamaka and Naha for $1,000 damages for assault and battery. The plaintiff alleges that the two defendants beat and choked him last March, at Wala-lala, inflicting severe injuries.

Judge Robinson approved the accounts of F. J. Russell, master, in the matter of the estate of G. J. Rocio. Russell reported $122.07 paid out to the three heirs and nothing left in the estate. He waived all fees as master.

In the estate of the late Thomas Krouse Judge Humphreys ruled that the administrator, Frank L. Hoogs, has the right to sell the property of the deceased without an order of court.
The petition for an order was therefore not granted.

Cecil Brown was appointed administrator of the estate of William Meyer, deceased, by Humphreys, under a bond of $2,500. The petitions of the City Furniture Company, a creditor, for the appointment of F. J. Mery as administrator of the estate of Clara Schneider and H. F. Gibbs, deceased, were denied by Judge Humphreys. The petitions did not state whether the City Furniture company was a corporation, a co-partnership or what it was, and it was held that there was no proper party petitioner before the court.

WANTS HER SHARE.

Mrs. Talula L. Hayskelien has petitioned for an order of court to compel David Dayton, trustee under the will of W. M. Gibson to pay her $2,508.95, being three-fifths of the net annual income shown by the first accounts, petitioner claiming that she is entitled to it under the will, while the trustee read, the will otherwise.

Another Japanese paper is under appearance this time among the Hiloites

JAPANESE GRAMMAR SCHOOL.
The Japanese grammar school will be ready to reopen on the twenty-first of completion of the work by that time.

An official announcement to that effect has just been made by its trustees.

PUBLIC BATHS.

The city of Tokyo has 800 public baths, at a cost of about one halfpenny each.

SATISFACTION.

Kitchener "bag" recently was considered another revenue for Majuba. It is pretty near time that British honor was satisfied on account of that ancient affair.—Springfield Republican.

MYSTERY OF TILICUM

MAN REDUCED TO LOST TURN UP SAFE.

HE IS NORTON LUXTON IS SAID TO HAVE BEEN INTERVIEWED IN VICTORIA LAST MONTH.

In view of the reported drowning of Luxton from the Tilicum some months ago, the following story of his return to Victoria will be read with considerable interest:

"VICTORIA (B. C.), March 30.—Norman K. Luxton of St. Paul, who made the voyage across the Pacific ocean in a dugout Indian canoe converted into a three-masted schooner yacht of four tons, has returned to this port by steamer, having abandoned the adventurous cruise around the world at Sydney, Luxton, who suffered in health from the hardships, tells an interesting story of his adventures.

"The Tilicum, the little craft in which Luxton and J. C. Voss voyaged across the ocean, left Victoria on May 21st, and sailed from Village Island on July 6. Off Cape Mendocino a heavy gale was encountered, and the schooner was driven to, but the drugged in the Golden Gate. After the storm passed, southerly winds were experienced until nearing the line. There southern winds were encountered, and although the voyagers tried to cross at the 126th parallel they were blown over to the 150th. For seventeen days they were tossed by seas which rose in great hills. Running short of water, the mariners of the cockle shell headed for the nearest land, Penrhyn Island. This was the first point of call, and the voyagers were needlessly alarmed. They made great preparations to resist possible attack, for they expected to see cannibals there. Hostile blacks appeared. With the bags of sand carried as ballast they built a barricade around the cockpit of their craft. Behind this fort Captain Voss was to stand, rifle in hand, and cover the landing of Luxton, who was to make a dash for water.

"The two voyagers stood behind their barricade as the Tilicum entered the bay and steered toward the village.
Slowly they sailed along the village front, and, rounding a point, they saw a 300-ton schooner, which hoisted the French flag. She was the Tamarac, Captain Dexter, trader of Tahiti, and when they sighted her the barricade was removed and rifles hidden. The Tilicum ran alongside, and Captain Dexter was hospitable.

"From Penrhyn Island the Tilicum worked her way to Humphreys Island, Danger Island and to Samoa, and in all places the natives were found most friendly.

Gales blew them from their course toward the Fiji islands, and the Tilicum was headed toward Nufua, of the Tonga group, from which island the king ordered the Tilicum away.

"The yacht, after touching at one of the Fiji islands, was headed for Suva.
Arriving there, the sailors were welcomed by the white population, which had assembled on the wharves. They were entertained, and in their turn took the ladies of the Government house for a short sail.

"Mr. Luxton went to Sydney to take passage on the mail steamer for Victoria, and Captain Voss, after shipping a sailor, started for England, via Torres straits, India, the Suez and Mediterranean."

This information is rather surprising. Some time ago, the Tilicum was reported to have arrived at one of the Australian ports where it was announced by the dispatches that Captain Voss had lost his companion. According to the statements in the dispatches, the companion of Voss was lost during a very heavy sea, which prevailed near the Fiji islands.

Evidently there is a discrepancy somewhere, and it is very likely to be in the line of course it is difficult to reconcile the reported death of a man with his reported resurrection in a distant quarter of the globe, but in the present instance, it is possible that the Australian people may have jumped at conclusion. The dispatch from Victoria states that Luxton left the boat at Suva and went to Sydney. There is a possibility that Captain Voss may have written to some Australian friends and informed them that he had "lost" his companion at Suva, meaning that Luxton had resigned from the ship. The recipient of the communication may have concluded that "lost" meant "lost" overboard in a storm, and so caused the report of Luxton's death, to be circulated.

If Luxton is really alive he is thought to have passed through here March 12 on the Aorangi from Sydney, although his name did not appear in the passenger list. He appears to have been keeping very quiet in Victoria, for it was not until March 30 that anything appears to have been learned of him.

RUSSIAN BEEF.
It is proposed to establish abattoirs at the Baltic ports in Russia, with a line of refrigerator steamers which will reach London in fifty hours. It is estimated that at an average price of 14 cents a pound for meat an immense trade can be had in England.

THOMAS DUNN ENGLISH.
NEWARK, N. J., April 1.—Dr. Thomas Dunn English died early today.
Dr. English, who was a writer of some note, was widely known as the author of "Ben Bolt." He was born in Philadelphia in 1815, and was graduated from the University of Pennsylvania as a doctor of medicine in 1839. Later he studied law and was admitted to the Philadelphia bar. He engaged in journalism in New York from 1844 to 1859, when he came to Newark to practice medicine. He was a member of the New Jersey Legislature in 1863-64. He served two terms in Congress from New Jersey.

SHINPO IS THANKFUL.
Thank God that we are above political! We do not care whether Mr.
Harris or Mr. Dreier get the vacancy, for we know both to be good honest and conscientious gentlemen. All we want is a good Legislature which will more act and less debate, and which will provide the Executive with a sufficient fund to pay the Fire Claims, and to put the streets in passable state and do a lot of many other necessary things becoming to "the best government in the world."—Hawaii Shippo.

AN OLD SUBJECT.

It is long since any notable writer of romance has dealt with the ill-fated Mary Stuart, and there will be interest in seeing how Maurice Hewitt, with his quaint literary style will succeed with the book he has promised. It is said that he intends to use the same subject later for a stage play.—Springfield Republican.

A SURPLICED CHOIR

INNOVATION AT ST. ANDREW'S CATHEDRAL.

Bishop Nichols and the Rev. Mackintosh at St. Andrew's Next Sunday, Will Make a Parity.

St. Andrew's Cathedral is to have a surplised choir, beginning with next Sunday. It will be an innovation in St.
Andrew's Cathedral in that members of both sexes will be supplised. This surprise has been worn in the past only by the male choir of the bishop's congregation, but it is the intention now to have both sexes attired in surplises.
The garments are now being made and will be ready for next Sunday.

There are about 40 voices in the choir as now organized, since both of the congregations of the past joined to make up the choir, and the music will be very effective. The procession of the choir through the church at the opening and closing of the services will also be adopted next Sunday.

Bishop Nichols and the Rev. Alexander Mackintosh will be at St. Clement's church next Sunday morning, and will conduct the services there. It is expected that at this service the bishop will formally announce his decision as to the status of the church, making St.
Clement's a separate parish, with the Rev. John Osborne rector thereof.

SHERIDAN FOR MANILA.

some time tomorrow afternoon for Guam and Manila. She is still in the stream in quarantine.

WOULD ANNEX CUBA.

Senator Proctor of Vermont still favors annexation of Cuba as the best and only complete solution of the pending problem. He writes to the editor of the Richmond Gazette, "I have always favored that proposition, and my investigation of the condition of that unfortunate people four years ago made me a firm friend of annexation. Instead of favoring duties we should make Cuba a part of our great republic, with restrictive conditions." What those "restrictive conditions" are he does not say. Would he make the island a subject colony like the Philippines, and would he favor annexation without consulting the Cubans as in the case of the Philippines?—Springfield Republican.

GRIGGS AS A JUSTICE.

Ex-Archbishop-General Griggs' popularity as a possible future candidate for the United States Supreme Court seems not to be general. It is not known that a vacancy exists on the bench at present, or that Mr. Griggs is to be chosen to fill one when it does exist; but the pastor of the Methodist church at Opechee, Mich., sends on word to his congressman at Washington that the matter of Griggs for the supreme bench was brought before his congregation which voted unanimously in disapproval of any such appointment. The explanation apparently is that Mr. Griggs has gained a wide reputation as a friend of the trusts.—Springfield Republican.

A GOOD THING.

PARKER RECEPTION RECRUITING LABOR.

ILLUSTRATION SOCIAL FUNCTION OF LAST EVENING.

Brought the Old Times in Retrospect.
Fifteen Hundred Guests Thronged to the Affairs of the Season.

At the reception given by Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Parker at the Parker home last evening in honor of Prince and Princess David Kawanakoa and Miss Alice Campbell, a glimpse of the old days under the monarchy when all hospitality was regal and all entertainments lavish, was revived to the delight of the hundreds of kamaainas present and the hundreds of those who, coming later to the island, have heard much of the magnificence and social enjoyments of the functions under the old regime.

The Parker home, only within the last few days completed with all the elaborate furnishings that modern art can suggest and provide, was thrown open from 9 o'clock yesterday evening, when the first carriages rolled into the brilliantly lighted grounds where the trees looked like the jeweled orchards in an Arabian Nights' Entertainment to well on towards the dawning. Fifteen hundred guests passed through the reception rooms and after being received, mingled with the crowds that thronged the big lanai and extra marque erected in the grounds into a swirl of life and color, laughter and the social amenities of many who for years, since the passing of the old order, have eschewed public functions. Myriads of colored, fairy, incandescent globes illumined the grounds and outlined the house. Carnations and Hawaiian ferns filled the rooms with fragrance and color. Heavy silk Hawaiian flags draped as portieres, gave with their heavy bullion fringe a touch, that, with the jewels and orders of the host and the others of the reception party and the feathered kahilis in the rooms, helped the fantasy that transported the old kamaainas back into the last decade.

Lilikalan the courtly, type of the old regime, acted as chamberlain while half a dozen of Honolulu's younger generation stood as waiters and introducers of the thronging guests. Colonel Parker and Mrs. Parker stood at the head of the receiving party the line including, in order, Prince and Princess Kawanakoa, Miss Campbell, Prince and Princess Kalamianalei and George Beckley. The men of the party wore the ribbons and jewels of the orders received in the days when Hawaii was a kingdom.

On the lawn in front, the territorial band played until the guests had all arrived and the native musicians filled the rooms with melody and attuned the feet of the guests for dancing. The long lanai, especially built for such affairs, was aglow with elaborate gowns, the gold lace of the naval officers and the uniform of the visiting and attached military, emblazoned against the conventional attire of the men. Even with the attractions of the cool tent, where refreshments were dispensed, it was late before the eager dancers could find room to enjoy a measure.

Gradually the crowd thinned from the floor, the chaperones retreating to the cosy nooks and comfortable seats and the older men, many of them, to the terrace upstairs where they smoked cigars and talked of old time happenings and modern politics. Mr. and Mrs. Parker with the two princesses and their princes left the reception rooms as that function suspended, and mingled with the guests.

The charm of the affair was the easy informality that reigned under the wise provisions of a perfect host and hostess. Large as was the assembly, everyone seemed to know each other and there was but little need for introductions. Many who have not met socially for long since saw familiar faces in the crowd and the function assumed in part the air of a reunion. It was not until well on into morning when with assurances of having enjoyed a royal time, the last guest finally departed.

JONES DEFEATED.

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., March 31.—Late returns from the doubtful counties show conclusively that Senator James K. Jones is defeated for re-election by James P. Clark. In addition to carrying the doubtful counties, Clark carried the county which had hitherto been Jones' stronghold. The result of the Democratic primary in Arkansas means the retirement of the famous Democratic party leader, who has represented Arkansas in the Senate since 1885. He succeeded J. D. Walker in that year and was re-elected in 1890 and 1897. His term will expire March 3, 1903. Jones is 62 years of age and a native of Mississippi.

Note Heads, Bill Heads, Letter Heads and all kinds of Job and Commercial printing neatly and promptly executed at the Star Office.

The P.H. Times of March 28 says: It will be interesting to planters and others who are connected to the manner and ways of Polynesian labor to learn that Mr. F. A. Tamm, of this city, intends to shortly dispatch a vessel to Western Polynesia on a trading voyage, and a notification appears elsewhere in these columns inviting applications from those who desire to avail themselves of this opportunity at any additional laborers. It is also notified that as the vessel will shortly leave for the islands application may be made without loss of time.

AT THE ORPHEUM.

Large Audience Sees "The Girl I Left Behind Me."

There was a good sized audience at the Orpheum last night to witness the performance of which the Orpheum Company in "The Girl I Left Behind Me." This play was quite well staged and was enjoyed. The best work was done by Frank H. Panning as Lieut. Edgar Hawkesworth, Albert J. Watson as Dr. Arthur Penwick, Charles M. Blair as "Star Bro." and Miss Alice Wallace as Major Burleigh's little son. Today the company fold and store away their regimentals and don the garb of civilians as they will tonight produce the comedy drama "The World," a play which has amused the theatre loving public of America and England for the past fifteen years. The play is a scenic production and admits the introduction of specialties which will be given by Baby Lillian, Little Lovie and Ada Lucas. A special feature of the play is the great raft scene. A family matinee will be given on Saturday afternoon next when the same bill will be given. The prices for the same being 15 and 25 cents. Seats now on sale.

NEELY FOUND GUILTY.

Imprisonment and Fines for Cuban Post Office Officials.

A dispatch from Havana dated March 29, says: The trials before the audiencia court of the cases arising from the embezzlement of Cuban postal funds has resulted in the following sentences:

C. F. W. Neely, ten years' imprisonment and to pay a fine of $5,701.
W. H. Reeves, ten years' imprisonment and to pay a fine of $3,516.
Estes G. Rathbone, ten years' imprisonment and to pay a fine of $3,324.

The heavy fines imposed doubtless are meant to cover the defalcations. The prosecutor said in summing up February 29 that the Cuban post office had been robbed of at least $125,000. The fines aggregate $12,541.

Charles F. W. Neely was the chief financial agent of the United States postal department in Cuba, appointed by President McKinley soon after the close of the war with Spain. He was arrested for embezzlement in May, 1900 while on a furlough to this country. He was also charged with printing postage stamps for use in Cuba at his printing establishment in Munich, Ind. He fought against extradition, but was sent back to Cuba in January, 1901, to be tried.

Neely, Estes G. Rathbone, former director of posts for Cuba, and W. H. Reeves, former assistant auditor of the accounts of post offices in Cuba, were indicted for embezzlement in Havana last October. Rathbone and Reeves were accused of being co-conspirators.

The trial began January 4 before five judges. One hundred and eighty-two witnesses were heard.

NEW INAUGURATION DAY.

Meeting of State Governors Will Be Held April 7.

Letters announcing the first meeting of the national committee on securing a change in the date of the inauguration of the President of the United States have been sent out by the District Commissioners of Washington, D. C., to the governors of forty states, all of whom have accepted service on the committee.

The meeting will be held Monday April 7. The governors are invited to be present at that time and assist in organizing the committee. In the event of executive duties deterring them from being present in person at this time the commissioners request them to communicate their views and suggestions in regard to the proposed change.

The governors who have accepted appointment on the committee have already informally expressed their sympathy with the movement. It is probable the committee will recommend the last Thursday in April as the most appropriate date, although there are some who adhere to April 30, because of the fact that it is the anniversary of the first inauguration of President Washington.

The last Thursday in April has been named in a joint resolution which has already passed the Senate and is wait-

For Coughs and Cold in Small Children.

"I have not the slightest hesitancy in recommending Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to all who are suffering from coughs or colds," says Charles M. Cramer, Esq., a well known watch maker, of Colorado, Ceylon. "It has been some two years since the City Dispensary first called my attention to this valuable medicine and I have repeatedly used it and it has always been beneficial. It has cured me quickly of all chest colds. It is especially effective for children and seldom takes more than one bottle to cure them of hoarseness. I have persuaded many to try this valuable medicine, and they are all as well pleased as myself over the results." For sale by all dealers, Benson, Smith & Company general agents.

NATIVES VALUABLE

SHOW UNEXPECTED MERIT AS SAILORS.

Hawaiian Sailors on U. S. Ship Iroquois Dive Under Boat Clean Propeller and Scrape Bottom.

When Captain Rodman of the government vessel Iroquois shipped Moses Kallumua, a native youth, as a member of the Iroquois crew, the commander did not realize what a valuable man he had added to the service of the United States navy. Within the last couple of weeks however, Moses has showed that he is an invaluable man and possibly has indirectly paved the way for more Hawaiians to enter the naval service if they desire.

Moses is a fine swimmer and diver, and it is through these talents that he has proved of such value to the Iroquois. Some days ago, Captain Rodman wanted the propeller of his vessel scraped in preparation for a short cruise which is to be made next week. Moses promptly volunteered to go under the boat and do the work. He had no diving apparatus, but Captain Rodman, who has cruised extensively, was well acquainted with the ability of the Hawaiians as divers, so gave his consent.

Good, as are most Hawaiians, Moses seems to be the greatest of all in ability, as a diver. He can remain under the water a remarkably long time. The men on the Iroquois are enthusiastic over the unexpected ability of their fellow shipmate. They declare that he can remain under water for five minutes. Whether it is this long, cannot be stated but in any event, the young man can stay under water longer than the majority, even of his race and he has been at work for some days cleaning and scraping the propeller. In fact, if Captain Rodman desired, Moses would be able to clean the bottom of the vessel, almost as well as might be done by putting the boat on the dry dock. Robert Manuahi the other native sailor, is also a fine diver and he has been helping Moses with the work of scraping the propeller and getting the boat into good condition.

The success which has accompanied the efforts of these two boys will be the means, no doubt, of attracting the attention of the department to the value of having Hawaiians in the Navy. There are frequently times, when the presence of some good diver on board the vessel, like Moses or Robert would save the government considerable expenses, and also enable speedy repairs to be made without costly delay.
