SURPRISE FOR
W. C. T. U.Soldier Upbraids
the Honolulu
Ladies.ENLISTED MEN
NOT IN SOCIETY

The Man in Blue Says the Canteens Should Not Have Been Closed.

HAVE the ladies of Honolulu turned a cold shoulder upon Uncle Sam's soldiers who are stationed at Camp McKinley?

A non-commissioned officer, hailing from the local army post, appeared before the meeting of the W. C. T. U., yesterday afternoon, in the parlors of the Central Union church, and bitterly upbraided the women of this city for denying the soldiers social privileges and for treating them with contempt. He also denounced the course of the W. C. T. U. in closing the army canteens, saying that the act had produced more drunkenness in the army than before, and had driven the boys in blue at Camp McKinley to the swipes joints surrounding the garrison.

When the members of the union had recovered from their surprise they assured the artilleryman that they had never before known that the soldiers entertained such an opinion of them. When the soldier had taken his departure, a vote was taken as to the first named charge, with the result that the union went on record as being utterly surprised that such a sentiment could have been entertained.

The artilleryman said he felt hard toward the ladies for the manner in which doors had been closed to enlisted men. He stated that oftentimes in cars he had noticed when soldiers came in ladies whisked their skirts out of the way, as if afraid of being contaminated. Formerly social privileges in the city's homes had been enjoyed by the boys, but of late he found that people were not so fond of them. Even where the churches were concerned, he felt that the church-goss did not care whether they came into the churches or not. Mrs. Whitney, president of the W. C. T. U., asked the young man if the most of what he said was not an imaginary sentiment which had been talked over and from small or even fancied slights, had been made to appear much more serious than they really were. He answered in the negative and stuck to his original statement.

As to the closing of the army canteen, he said the soldiers would have liquor anyhow. The loss of the canteen had resulted in the soldiers frequenting the swipes joints in the vicinity of the camp and getting drunk in them. Mrs. Whitney asked him whether or not, under all circumstances, the soldiers would not have gone to them even if the canteen had remained. To this he replied that he did not believe the soldiers would desert the canteen. Furthermore, the abolishing of the canteen had deprived the company messes of additional funds with which to buy extra food and this worked a hardship. Yesterday's meeting was called for the purpose of discussing the work of the flower mission, an adjunct of the W. C. T. U., which prepares bouquets every week for distribution amongst the sick in the hospitals.

It was announced at the close of the exercises that the next meeting would be devoted to the anti-cigarette discussion, it having been reported that scores of boys of tender years, and even girls, are using tobacco, and the W. C. T. U. will make an effort to curb the abuse. At the meeting following this school savings banks will be taken up.

England Hopes for Peace.

NEW YORK, April 7.—A cable to the Tribune from London says: Balfour's guarded reply in the House of Commons this evening to Morley's demand for information on the subject of South African peace negotiations, raised the hopes of a good many people. The Stock Exchange, which for the last week has been dull and depressed owing to the lack of definite news, became quite cheerful. Rumor mongers immediately began to improve the situation, and it was soon noised abroad that Steyn was giving way on the independence question, and that the Cabinet would meet tomorrow afternoon to consider an important message from Kitchener relating to negotiations. The acquittal of Kitchener is a hopeful sign. If he has been condemned to share the fate of De la Rivecourt or Schoepers, the prospects of any peace would not have been as bright as they generally are admitted to be today.

GOVERNOR DOLE
MISSED HIS TRAIN

He Had to Spend an Extra Day in Los Angeles.

LOS ANGELES, April 5.—Gov. Dole missed his train at this city. Arriving from Redlands yesterday afternoon, he was informed that the Southern Pacific eastbound limited would not leave until 3 o'clock, and set out for a walk to see something of Los Angeles. The Governor had gone but a few blocks when he heard a locomotive whistle at the station announce to go ahead, the bell ringing, and he beheld his train pulling out.

When the Governor of Hawaii rushed breathlessly into the station the train was already well out into the yards. Mopping his perspiring brow with one hand and combing the luxuriant, almost snow white, beard with the other, Governor Dole looked the picture of despair when he realized that his wish to see Los Angeles had cost him twenty-four hours' delay in reaching the White House.

"Really, I don't know why the President has called me to Washington," answered the Governor, when asked the object of his hurried trip. "I suppose that he did call me at the instance of Senator Carter, but that does not signify anything to me. Senator Carter and I have always been friends. I have not heard that there will be any change in the Governorship. Of course, I have read in the newspapers that there will be, but I believe that the publications were inspired by those who are attempting to bring about a change. I have not resigned, have not been asked to resign, and have no intention of resigning the Governorship."

"I don't know who will succeed to the Governorship if there should be a change. That would depend entirely upon the President. There is not any political fight on in the Islands, any more than that those who oppose the present government would like to have one of their own, which is quite natural. The opposition is principally from the old Royalist party, composed largely of natives, that now style themselves the Home Rule party. There are three political parties, Republican, Democrat and Home Rule. In the last election the Home Rule element won by a small margin; if the Republicans and Democrats should unite they could easily control. There will be a legislature elected this fall."

"I would not care to discuss the judiciary of the island, but some of our political judges—well, they are political judges."

The labor situation in the Islands, said Governor Dole, is giving the planters much worry. The Chinese have proved the best laborers, and naturally the planters are opposed to the exclusion acts.

LOS ANGELES, April 5.—Sanford B. Dole, Governor of Hawaii, left Los Angeles this afternoon over the Southern Pacific for Washington.

CONGRESS NEED NOT VOTE
ON KOHALA DITCH MEASURE

The Interior Department Decides That the Governor Has Full Authority to Act In the Premises.

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 5, 1902.

The Pacific Commercial Advertiser, Honolulu, Hawaii, (Per S. S. Gaelic) from San Francisco.

The Interior Department decides that the Governor has full authority upon questions of ditch leases and charters. This reverses the former decision and makes legislation on Parker's bill unnecessary. Judge Little is here keeping under cover. He called at the White House Friday.

ERNEST G. WALKER.

PARTICULARS OF
THE DITCH FIGHT

(Special to The Advertiser.)

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 3.—The fight over the Hawaiian Ditch bill, before the Senate, has grown very warm. Senator Foraker, the chairman of the Senate Committee on Pacific Islands and Porto Rico, has been in New York for over a week and nothing has been done before his committee during that time. He has just now returned and those interested are expecting a hearing on the bill some time next week.

Mr. J. T. McCrosson and Mr. Cayless are working diligently to get the bill through the Senate, and by no means despair because of the opposition they are encountering. However, the opposition is working along two or three different lines. One of these is in the Department of the Interior, where they are seeking for a new interpretation of the Territorial law. Some months ago the Secretary of the Interior promulgated a decision that the Governor did not have authority to grant the leases necessary for the construction of such ditches. Mr. Arthur C. Gehr, one of the party of engineers and others from Chicago, who spent several weeks in the Hawaiian swamps, surveying for ditches and looking over the ground, came here early in the fall with letters of introduction from prominent people, but he got an audience of hardly ten minutes with Secretary Hitchcock, who gave him no satisfaction whatever for a review of the decision.

Mr. Gehr has been here for some weeks and has not relinquished his efforts to have the Secretary again look into the law and determine whether the Governor does not in fact have authority to grant such leases. A little time ago he finally persuaded the Secretary to turn the entire matter over to the Assistant Attorney General, Judge Willis Van Deventer. Judge Van Deventer listened to arguments, made by Mr. Gehr and ex-Senator Thurston, and lawyers were also heard for the Department. The case was then submitted to Judge Van Deventer, who may render his decision any day. It is quite certain he will do so before the Senate Committee takes any final action on the pending bill, which has already passed the House. While they have nothing definite on which to base their opinion, some members of the Senate Committee state that they would not be surprised if the Department reversed its former decision and arrived at the opinion that Governor Dole already has ample authority. If that happens legislation by Congress would, of course, be entirely unnecessary.

The Senate Committee seems to view with some disfavor special legislation on such matters and would prefer some general legislation, that would vest authority to grant the desired leases for such irrigation ditches to the Territorial authorities. It is recognized that the question is a very important one for the Islands, and that large interests are at stake; also that if Congress must deal with such matters those who

WILL INVESTIGATE
KONA'S CONDITION

Stockholders' and Bankers' Representatives Leave for Visit to Estate.

Kona will be again thoroughly investigated, this time by President Cecil Brown of the First National Bank, and by J. M. McChesney, of the former agents of the company, who departed yesterday in the Mauna Loa. In company with them was the Japanese consul, Miki Salto, whose efforts last week resulted in the settlement of the labor difficulties which for a time seemed to threaten the harvesting of the sugar crop.

The latest mails from Kona report that the mill of the plantation is now grinding, and that the cane so far taken off the fields of the Japanese planters will be above expectations in polarization and crop. The visits of the men named, it is believed, will result in the financing of all the efforts of the receiver to carry on the work on a basis which will insure the success of the estate.

While there is no danger from the laborers in sight the consul is said to have reached the conclusion that it would be best for him to visit the plantation once more, and insure the perfect confidence and security of the Japanese.

HONOLULU FIRMS
WIN A VICTORY

(Special to the Advertiser.)

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 2.—It was announced at the Treasury Department today and subsequently further confirmed in details by Mr. William Haywood, that the government had relinquished its claim of $12,000 against several firms in Honolulu because of undervaluation of bags. The firms interested are Hackfeld & Co., William G. Irwin & Co., Alexander & Baldwin, William Grinbaum & Co., and the Hawaiian Fruit Company.

The case has been vigorously contested and during its consideration many of the prominent men of Honolulu in the firms mentioned have been here and in New York to consult about the prospects or to appear before government officials. Two adverse decisions were rendered by the Treasury appraisers. One of these was by a subcommittee and another by the full board of appraisers, as stated in one of my former letters. The case was then appealed to the Secretary of the Treasury, who has consented to remit the penalty to the amount of $12,000, as stated. The difficulty arose because the bags were entered at the cost price, instead of the current price. In the interval the price of bags had increased considerably. The failure on the part of these firms to comply with the law was because of a misunderstanding of its provisions. The decision is regarded as of no little importance to the firms mentioned.

His Remarkable Bill to Grant a Franchise.

(Special to The Advertiser.)

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 3.—The only gubernatorial news that has reached here of late regarding the Hawaiian Islands, was in a little notice furnished by Delegate Wilcox a day or two recently. He received an interesting letter in the mail, or rather a copy of a letter which Mr. Franklin Austin, a native Hawaiian, sent to President Roosevelt on the administration of Gov. Dole. It was heralded here also that Judge Humphreys and Judge Little were coming with Gov. Dole, but Mr. Wilcox said today he had received a letter stating that neither of these gentlemen would journey to Washington. Accordingly the prospects of a lively scrap right on the President's doorstep have somewhat faded. Mr. George R. Carter left several days ago for the Pacific Coast to meet Mrs. Carter.

Mr. Austin's letter to the President is very long and sets forth in detail his view of the current political situation in the Islands.

The Washington Times devotes nearly five columns to the effusion, giving it a reading head as follows:

Governor Dole of Hawaii is due to arrive in San Francisco today. When he reaches Washington he will be met with a vigorous protest against his official conduct, contained in a letter addressed to the President by Mr. Franklin Austin, a native Hawaiian.

It is to try to combat opposition that brings Governor Dole to Washington. He is accompanied by First Circuit Judge A. S. Humphreys and Second Judge G. F. Little. Governor Dole is said by the writer to be out of harmony with the people of the island.

Austin, the author of the attack, whose appearance in the case has evoked a roar of laughter from Gov. Dole's friends in this city, is described in the Times as "one of the Territory's most prominent citizens, identified with politics for many years and with large business interests." The concluding paragraph of his letter to the President is as follows:

"We, the people, unless our appeal shall have touched your heart, must then arise in the might of that sovereignty which Congress has so recently conferred upon us, that we may conserve our self-respect and hold the esteem of the people of the world, which our race, in co-operation with our white brethren, never forfeited during a century of independence as a nation."

"Reposing confidence in the strenuous life and fearless sense of justice animating all of your official acts, I beg, sir, to submit herewith this petition of the people of Hawaii, together with the reasons therefor, and interpreting to you their mute appeal as impressed upon my mind by the vibrations of their heartbeats."

"Oh! grant the people the opportunity prayed for to lay the foundation stone and build thereupon a commonwealth which thus may ere long become the brightest diadem in the constellation that flitters upon the azure shield of Old Glory, that they may inscribe upon the rainbow—Hawaii's time-honored emblem of hope—a motto in these words: 'Liberty, equality, justice, and charity, unified in soul-power, shall evermore be the glory of Hawaii Nei.'"

WILCOX AT THE CAPITOL.

Delegate Wilcox was first able to come to the Capitol one week ago, and since then he has climbed the hill to the hall of the House every fair day. He is gaining in strength and is now beginning to feel quite recovered. As he and Mr. Cayless stood in the Democratic lobby of the House the other day, they talked extensively of matters Hawaiian. Mr. Wilcox said he was holding aloof from the gubernatorial fight and was endorsing none of the candidates. "They tried to involve me in the Parker candidacy," exclaimed the Delegate, "but my people would not stand for that. I am going to keep my hands off. I sincerely wish it were possible for us to have some good man like Gov. Taft to come among us and

HAWAIIAN FARMING

Jared Smith's First Agricultural Report.

The annual report of Director Jared Smith of the Agricultural Experiment Station, copies of which have been received from Washington, closes as follows:

The economic conditions of Hawaii are such that new industries can be established only with the greatest difficulty. In common with all other old insular regions there has been a multitude of serious insect and animal pests introduced, not through intent but as a concomitant of commerce. In this regard the history of Hawaiian agriculture is parallel with that of many other tropical islands, such as the Fiji Islands and the British West Indies. Plants may be introduced without their insect enemies, or insects which in their native country are kept in check by natural enemies, and parasites may here breed in enormous numbers and adapt themselves to new host plants, to the detriment of the farmer. Hawaii is full of ornamental exotics which have become weeds and of Chinese, Japanese, Australian, American and Old World insects which, free from all natural check, ravage alike the native vegetation and the cultivated crops. The lot of the farmer is thus in a way more difficult than in continental regions. The battle is a continuous one. The practical entomologist thus finds here a wider field for work, and although much has been done, a vast amount of work is yet to be accomplished. Some crops are abnormally free from blights and diseases. Others fall a ready prey to hosts of enemies whose attacks the plants themselves are not prepared to resist nor do the farmers know how to combat. What is true of insect pests is also true of fungi and bacterial diseases. The field of investigation is a new one, hardly yet touched upon.

Lower world's prices for sugar means a narrowing of the margin of profit. With such a fall in prices and profits must come the substitution of more careful handling, better cultivation, conservation of the irrigation water (where used), and a more skillful fertilization of the soil. The Hawaiian sugar planters are prone to ignore these factors and to ascribe all of their benefits to cheap labor. If planters in other parts of the tropics can grow sugar at a profit in the open competition of the world's markets and in spite of the American duty on this product, there is still hope for greater reward in store for the Hawaiian grower. Investigations as to cultivation and the most efficient use of water would well repay. In this connection and as an aid to the future development of this island group a comprehensive soil survey of all the agricultural lands would save to the men who are to develop the resources of the land millions of dollars. Much experimental work has been done in trying to grow this or that crop. A soil map of the islands would, in case some one crop were found which grew better here than anywhere else, indicate exactly in what regions this crop would be most likely to succeed. There is hardly a crop cultivated in all the subtropical regions of the globe but which has been grown here at some period during the past eighty years. Fruits, nuts, dyes, tannins, precious woods, spices, vegetables, drugs, fibers, and forage plants have been grown in endless variety. The castor-oil bean is grown in Kona and finds ready sale at $60 per ton. Tea is almost a weed in Oahu and Hamakua. Vanilla thrives in Kauai, and the cocoanut in Puna. There are large trees of cocoa, the source of chocolate, in the city of Hilo, and the African oil palm lines the streets of Honolulu. Robert of Oahu and Hawaii has been grown on all the islands. The opportunities for work in lines where practical agricultural benefit will result are so many that it is difficult to choose what first to undertake.

Investigations as to forestry are much to be desired, but these can not be undertaken by the station without considerable increase in its resources; and in any case, whatever investigations the station might undertake in this direction should be done in co-operation with the Bureau of Forestry.

Many of the native woods of this group are extremely valuable from a commercial standpoint, and a considerable trade in these woods, notably Koa and sandal, at one time flourished. It would be well if the entire backbone of each main mountain chain of each of the islands be set apart in forest reserves under the Federal government in order that the native forests may be protected and preserved and that a modern and legal system of forest conservation may be carried out. The sugar plantations all depend directly or indirectly on the wooded mountain slopes for their water supply, and it is due to their owners that something be done to check the further destruction of the native forests, and also to replant large areas with trees (native and foreign) which shall in the future become commercially valuable.

The station has already attained a sure footing in Hawaii. Many inquiries in regard to local problems in agriculture have been received and answered, and the interest in the station is constantly growing. If sufficient money can be appropriated to provide a suitable permanent equipment, results will be the sooner obtained.

govern us. I like Taft. But of course we must have a man from the Islands for our Governor."

CAYPLESS WANTS DAMON.

Mr. Wilcox said he had no idea in the world as to whom the President would select for Governor. He and Mr. Cayple discussed the availability of Sam Damon for the office, and both agreed that he would come as near as anybody out there to being a satisfactory man. Mr. Cayple was especially insistent on that.

"I tell you," said Mr. Cayple, "Damon will be the man. Mark what I tell you. He is a good compromise for all sides."

WILCOX'S PENDING BILLS.

A few days ago Delegate Wilcox was before the House Committee on Territories for a half hour, during which he discussed in rather informal fashion several bills there affecting Hawaii. The members of the committee asked him some questions about the land bill. A recommendation on that bill has been forwarded by the Commissioner of the Land Office, Mr. Binger Hermann, to the Secretary of the Interior. Its provisions have not yet been made public, but it is understood that Mr. Hermann urges against any changes in the land laws until after a commission has been sent to the Islands. Mr. Wilcox stated to me that he did not favor any land legislation for the present, except that it be the sending of a commission to the Islands. "The land bill which I introduced," said he, "and which is now before the House Committee on Territories, was drawn by the American Land Association of Hilo. We need an expert to go out there and look over our lands. There should be new and expert valuations."

The House Committee asked Mr. Wilcox in rather informal way about his school bill, and "jollied" him considerably about the cartoon in the Advertiser, wherein he appeared sitting upon a hot stove, with a warm brick in his pocket, drafting the measure.

"Somebody here in this city drew that bill for me," explained Delegate Wilcox. "He followed the law of Illinois pretty closely. That law provides for the purchase of fuel and he put it into our bill. And that was well enough," declared the Delegate. "There are some cold sections in Hawaii, where it is necessary to have schools. In some of the highest altitudes of the Islands you should remember, we sometimes have snow." Mr. Cayple suggested also that fuel for the schools was necessary in Hawaii. It is safe to conjecture, as I have before written, that none of these bills will pass Congress.

Delegate Wilcox has recently introduced several bills, some of which will certainly be interesting in Honolulu. One of these is a bill to provide for the settlement of fire claims during the bubonic plague. The bill is very brief, having been introduced March 27, as follows:

"Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the sum of three million dollars is hereby appropriated out of any money not otherwise appropriated, for the settlement of the fire claims for the destruction of properties in the city of Honolulu during the bubonic plague in the year nineteen hundred."

"Sec. 2. That the Secretary of the Treasury is hereby empowered to pay out of the Treasury the above sum to the commissioners of the fire claims of the Territory of Hawaii, who have the adjusting of the said fire claims under the authority of an act of nineteen hundred and thirteen."

Another bill introduced by Delegate Wilcox the same day provides for the appointment of Senators according to the plan agreed upon by Representatives Powers of Maine and Robinson of Indiana, composing a subcommittee, as told in my last letter. The plan has not yet been reported to the full committee and remains in statu quo. The text of the Wilcox bill on this subject reads:

"Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the several Senators elected in the First, Second, Third, and Fourth Senatorial districts at the first general election held in the Territory of Hawaii shall, except as hereinafter provided, each hold office for the term of four years from the date of such election."

"Sec. 2. That for the First Senatorial district N. Russell and J. D. Paris shall each hold office as a Senator for such district for the term of two years."

"That for the Second Senatorial district William White shall hold office as a Senator for such district for the term of two years."

"That for the Third Senatorial district D. Kanuha, George R. Carter, and William C. Achi shall each hold office as a Senator for such district for the term of two years."

"That for the Fourth Senatorial district I. H. Kahilina shall hold office as a Senator for such district for the term of two years."

THE HAWAII RAILROAD JOB.

Recently there has been about the Capitol a big plump, jolly fellow, known in Oklahoma, his native heath, as "Gristmill" Jones. He is a Territorial Senator, a railroad promoter, and a friend of Capt. Hammer, an Oklahoman who sojourns in Washington much of the time. Captain Hammer is a friend of Delegate Wilcox. "Gristmill" Jones, who has aspirations to succeed Delegate Flynn in Congress from Oklahoma, has his eyes upon Hawaii as a favorite field for exploiting new railroads and to accommodate him Delegate Wilcox introduced a bill "to grant the right of way through the Islands of the Territory of Hawaii to the Hawaii Railway Company, and for other purposes."

The bill seems to give pretty general authority for the construction of a railroad in the Islands. The authority is conferred upon "the Hawaii Railway Company, a corporation created under and by virtue of the laws of the Territory of Oklahoma." No especial route is mentioned, but the bill in detail describes how right of way may be obtained. As to its failure to name a specific route the bill is certainly unique.

JOHN ENA IS STILL PRESIDENT

Only Slight Changes Made in the Inter-Island Directorate.

John Ena was re-elected president of the Inter-Island Steam Navigation Company, Limited, at the adjourned annual meeting held yesterday morning at 10 o'clock in the offices of the company on Queen street. All the old officers were re-elected with the exception of the auditor. It was expected that when the stockholders met there would be a fight for the control of the company, but the meeting produced little change.

The list of officers re-elected yesterday were: President, John Ena; vice president, J. L. McClain; treasurer, N. E. Gedge; secretary, C. H. Clapp; auditor, A. W. Bottomley.

The following directors will serve for the ensuing year: John Ena, A. Dreier, C. M. Cooke, W. O. Smith, G. N. Wilcox, H. A. Isenberg, J. M. Dowsett.

The consideration of changes in the by-laws was deferred until such time as the board of directors sees fit to bring the matter up for discussion. The officers were re-elected under the provisions named in the old by-laws. C. M. Cooke and H. A. Isenberg were elected members of the board of directors in place of A. S. Wilcox and H. M. von Holt, both of whom resigned. Mr. Ena stated after the meeting that nothing was done regarding a change in the service of the steamers or the management. It has been rumored for some time that a policy of retrenchment is likely to occur, and that many parts of the service would be affected. Representations at the meeting suggesting reforms of this nature, and were only casually taken up for consideration.

Mr. Ena made a statement that he intended going away in a few months and that when he did, he would probably resign the presidency. There are several men in consideration for the place and the chances are that when the special meeting is called for the purpose of electing his successor, there will be more than one candidate.

THE WILL OF A CAESAR

Cecil Rhodes' Gifts
Create Much
Talk.

LONDON, April 5.—The war in South Africa, politics and every topic usually of interest, were forgotten today in the absorbing discussion of Cecil Rhodes' will. Regarding the extraordinary document, the Associated Press has ascertained some new facts. The total of Mr. Rhodes' fortune is likely to prove to be £5,000,000, or slightly under that amount. The executors are Lord Rosebery, Earl Grey, Lord Milner, Alfred Beit, Dr. Jameson, L. L. Micell and R. A. Hawksley, to whom he bequeathed the residue of his estate. They will divide £1,000,000 or £1,500,000 among them.

According to the terms of this legacy, the amount is not to be divided during their lifetime, but as each legatee dies his share goes to the common fund until the surviving legatee becomes the sole owner.

Hence, one of the executors, the majority of whom are already enormously wealthy, will one day inherit what will then have probably accumulated into nearly £2,000,000. The executors, the Associated Press learns, have unusually full powers, and can construe and add to the will as seems fit. Hence, the omission of British Columbia, Nova Scotia and other Canadian provinces from the list of scholarships is quite likely to be corrected and each province of Canada may be put on the same footing as the American States.

One of Mr. Rhodes' most intimate associates said to a representative of the Associated Press:

"He drew up his will in the same spirit in which he approached all great undertakings. In his most important tasks he merely sketched the outlines and left us to fill in the details. His trustees are given plenary powers. In the matter of the scholarships, Mr. Rhodes saw the scheme was so vast that any attempt to too rigidly lay down the lines might result in harm; so, beyond endeavoring to meet the legal requirements, he tried to leave the fulfillment of his plans to those with whom, during his lifetime, he had frequently discussed them."

Regarding the American bequest, the same authority said:

"In offering Americans and Germans inducements to go to Oxford, Mr. Rhodes had a dual aim. First, putting the youth of England in intimate touch with what he termed the two most progressive nations of the world, so that they might be broadened and spurred to more strenuous efforts; second, bringing the best specimens of Americans and Germans on such terms with the English people and customs that they might become missionaries of a better national understanding."

When the trustees can meet and all the preliminary details are settled, a request will be made to several prominent Americans to form a committee to act in conjunction with the English body and assume certain responsibilities, for which the executors are palpably unfitted, both by absence from the United States and ignorance of its customs.

The afternoon papers all devote lengthy editorials to the "Caesar will," as it is termed. The Globe, referring to Mr. Rhodes' hope of friendship between Great Britain, the United States and Germany, says:

"We only hope that these noble aspirations may be realized in their entirety. England has done her part and there only remains the hope that future German educators may be among Mr. Rhodes' Oxford students, and so gain a knowledge of England, now so lacking."

KNIGHTS GO ON A PILGRIMAGE

Member of Oahu and Mystic Lodges Depart on Claudine for Wailuku.

The steamer Claudine sailed for Maui ports yesterday with an unusually large number of cabin passengers aboard, including a delegation of local Knights of Pythias, who are going to assist at the opening of the new Pythian Castle Hall at Wailuku next Thursday.

About twenty-five Knights took passage on the Claudine, representing Oahu Lodge No. 1, and Mystic Lodge No. 2. The castle to be dedicated at Wailuku is that of Aloha Lodge No. 3. When the Claudine pulled out the K. of P. flag was flying from her masthead.

Some of the members of the pilgrimage were present at the installation of Aloha Lodge in 1888, among them being Z. K. Meyers. The same sword will be used next Thursday that figured in the ceremony of 1888. It was recently presented to the Order by Brother Hassinger, and was taken on the boat. The Territorial band will meet the delegation at Lahaina and will play during the opening of the new castle.

The following is the Claudine's passenger list:

Miss Mary Alexander, Wm. Barnhart, E. C. Moore, Dr. A. N. Sinclair, John Walker, H. A. Giles, R. B. Booth, Miss Bella Borba, Miss M. McElroy, F. Wilburton, G. B. Schrader, W. W. Wright, Robert Shea, Jas. McCrady, J. D. Holt, E. C. Aldrich, R. W. Condon, J. R. Meyers, J. M. Borba, P. F. Schneider, E. P. Jones, John Chancey, Nelson Kaloa, James McKay, Thomas O'Brien, Wm. H. Smith, Chas. H. Bellina, Ed. Towse, A. V. Gear, Duke McNichol, J. K. Meyers, Thomas Lawson, C. M. V. Forster, A. Dunn, John Dickcy, S. Brown, A. Larnach and wife, Matt Heffern, E. C. Smith, Sing You.

JACK WEEDAY IS AFTER LON AGNEW

The "Man With the Iron Jaw," Anxious for Middleweight Championship.

Jack Weeday, the well known middleweight boxer, called at the Advertiser office last night and declared his intention of issuing a challenge to any middleweight boxer in the Islands, Lon Agnew preferred.

"Agnew is well known as a good man," said he, "and what I want is to get on a match with a good man. I have been up against the championship timber in my class as has Agnew in his, and I hope Lon will see fit to make a match with me."

Weeday's only conditions are that the class limit of weight be observed and that the exhibition be limited to ten rounds. He is willing to go for the proceeds of the "house" and any reasonable side bet.

Weeday stated last night that Agnew claims the middleweight championship of Hawaii, and he is anxious for an opportunity to dispute the claim to the title with him.

Weeday means business and will be glad to hear from other boxers in the community, meaning the same at their earliest convenience.

ELKS TO GO TO SALT LAKE

The Plans Not Laid as to Who Will Represent Honolulu.

A small herd of Elks will probably go from the Honolulu browsing grounds to the big gathering of antlered folk to be held this summer in Salt Lake City, Utah. It is not decided yet who will go, but it is said that at least a dozen have signified their intention of being present at the gathering of the Best People on Earth at the Mormon capital. If Past Exalted Ruler C. B. Cooper does not accept the delegation, Exalted Ruler Francis M. Brooks will carry documentary proof that he is the big Elk of the herd and he will impress the Zionites accordingly. Dr. Cooper represented the Honolulu lodge at the convention held last year at Minneapolis, but he has stated he does not desire to make another trip this year. The local herd is enthusiastic over the prospects of mingling with the herds on the mainland, and as about 30,000 Elks are expected to be present at the convention, there will be no lack of opportunity to get acquainted.

COLLEGE HILLS

LOTS FOR SALE.

The Trustees of the Oahu College offer for sale at very low prices, and on

VERY FAVORABLE TERMS

(One-third cash; one-third one year; one-third two years' time, with interest at 6 per cent per annum) some very choice lots at College Hills. The

RAPID TRANSIT

Company performs a twenty minute service through the property; the College has provided a splendid and abundant supply of artesian water reaching over the entire tract, and the charges are reasonable.

This is

A MOST HEALTHY LOCATION

and is entirely free from objectionable surroundings. No saloons, wash houses, ivery stables, poi shops and other nuisances of like character are allowed, and by all means is the most attractive suburban district near Honolulu.

Persons desiring lots in this locality will be able to secure full particulars in regard to these lots by applying to Mr. P. C. JONES or Mr. NATHAN SHAW at the office of the Trustees, No. 404 Judd Building.

P. C. JONES, Treasurer.

The Kohala Ditch bill will be settled by Governor Dole and settled right.

If heavy blasting must be done on the waterfront why not do it when people are awake, not when the town is trying to sleep.

There is no objection that we have heard of letting the Tramways Company have an electric service if it wants one, but there is a marked objection to giving it the right to use any power it chooses on Honolulu streets and to run cars at any rate of speed. However, there is no danger that the Tramways bill will pass. It belongs in the category of things that Wilcox wants of Congress but cannot hope to get.

The cancelling of freight contracts, now that the railroads find that the Inter-State Commerce Commission contemplates enforcing the law, compels the observation that this act is a virtual admission of the fact that the past acts have not been legal. There never has been a doubt of this. It has been common gossip that the railroads have got around the law for many years, and now they will simply try and make it obnoxious through enforcement, so that the people will clamor for the old days.

WAITING FOR PROPOSALS.

The Fourth District Republicans have a platform framed for them by a few campaign workers without submission to the party—but it is not a harmony platform. If there is to be concord in the Republican organization there should be drawn up a new code of principles embodying all the essential ideas of party discipline and belief upon which the two sides may agree. The Advertiser has expressed its desires in this matter and has found them acceptable to a large number of representative Republicans; but as yet no press response, beyond a mere reaffirmation of the Fourth District platform, has come from the other side. Indeed the Advertiser's platform has been flouted by the Bulletin, representing the chairman of the Fourth District Committee, although it does not contain a plank which can be criticised as either un-Republican or un-American.

Is it harmony, then, that the anti-Dole element wants? Or is it absolute power in party management? We should like to know. If it is harmony, then it is in order for the anti-Dole people to get in with the basis they prefer and the Dole people will look it over and see what they can do. Nor is it too early to act. A man we all respect said the other day that politics ought to have a rest for a couple of months. Such a rest would be agreeable, but if, before proposing harmony, the party waits until a fight is on, as there promises to be two months hence, there will be no harmony at all. If there is to be a common platform for the primary contest—harmonious as to methods of procedure—we must begin to build it now. Furthermore, any well-wisher of Hawaii should be able to see that the sooner harmony is achieved the better. It is only acrimonious politics which need to be feared, not the politics of good will and forbearance.

BOERS AND ENGLISH.

The Boers are going to lose, not their freedom, but their separate identity as a nation. It will be with them as it was with the Dutch immigrants who settled on the Hudson and Mohawk rivers in New York. Eventually they will become an English-speaking and English-thinking people, just as the Stuyvesants, Roosevelts, Van Rensselaers, Joralemons and Beekmans did in New Amsterdam; and in the long run they will be as staunch Englishmen as the Roosevelts and Schuylers of today are staunch Americans.

Such people as the Boers have proved themselves to be are probably the most valuable of all recruits to the Anglo-Saxon race. They strengthen its virtues and reduce its vices; they add in the final analysis to the defensive safeguards of the common people; they are brave and true and high-principled, and Anglo-Saxondom will be proud to absorb them.

The mingled strains of Dutch and English have it in them to make whatever they will of South Africa. They may even hope to occupy and illumine the whole of the Dark Continent. United nothing could resist them. Together they would march into the wilderness and win it to civilization.

Taking the broader view excludes the politics of contemporaneous sympathy. The Dutch of New Amsterdam had their trials and misfortunes but these, as the years passed, were overruled to subserve the ends of beneficence. It will be the same way with the Dutch of the Transvaal and the Orange Free State, whose English-speaking descendants, two generations from now, will be glad that their gallant fight for the isolation of a free but unprogressive pastoral life ended as it did.

want to construct plants of that character must be put to the expense of coming to Washington to press their projects before Congress and also that Congress must from time to time devote its time to such local measures. With a view of obviating such a condition there has been some discussion about amending sections 18 to 21 inclusive of the act of March 3, 1891, applying to the Registers of the General Land Office, so that it will apply to the Commissioner of Lands in Hawaii.

Mr. Gehl is very emphatic in saying that the Hawaiian Ditch bill cannot pass the Senate. "I know there are some Senators of influence, who will fight it vigorously," said he today. "But if it should pass the Senate, I am assured by a Senator who is very close to the President that it will never be signed."

"I am not here," continued Mr. Gehl, "to fight everybody else from the islands. We can all work together very well. I only want general legislation that will place authority for granting the necessary land leases, with the proper authorities in the Territories. In fact I paid little attention to the measure when it was before the House. Finally I saw Chairman Knox and talked with him about the bill. He told me he would never consent to its passing the House, but the first thing I knew he had reported it favorably from his committee."

Land Commissioner Boyd is still at the Willard hotel, and is anxiously awaiting the arrival of Governor Dole. "I have asked the Secretary of the Interior," said he today, "for the sending of a hydrographer to the islands. I believe he will grant the request. It has not been formally made yet, for I am not sure that I have the authority to do it. I think the request should be made by Gov. Dole, who will undoubtedly do that when he reaches here."

Mr. Boyd received letters from Gov. Dole on the last mail. He expects the Governor will remain in Washington a week or two.

A paragraph of interest to Hawaii is carried in the Sundry Civil Appropriation bill, which has already passed the House, and is now before the Senate Committee on Appropriations. It provides an appropriation of $107,500 for surveys and necessary surveys on the Pacific Coast and on the Hawaiian Islands, under the direction of the Coast and Geodetic Survey.

ERNEST G. WALKER.

Cuban Reciprocity.

WASHINGTON, April 6.—The great battle over Cuban reciprocity, which created such a protracted struggle among the Republicans, both in caucus and in the Committee on Ways and Means, will be fought on the floor of the House this week. The ultimate passage of the Payne bill, providing for a 20 per cent reduction on the products of Cuba after the negotiation of a reciprocity treaty and the enactment of our immigration laws by the Republic of Cuba, is regarded as a foregone conclusion, but the situation is a complicated one, owing to the division among the Democrats as well as the Republicans. How far the Republican opponents of the proposed legislation will carry their objection is not determined. The strength of this opposition has dwindled until it probably numbers less than thirty.

AT THE ORPHEUM.

Another Success by the Ellefords at in the Octoroon.

A good house greeted the Ellefords last night when they presented for the second time "The Octoroon." Every situation and climax received much applause. Tonight the company will be seen in Bronson Howard's society drama entitled "The Banker's Daughter." This is the play that the late Charles R. Thorne made his greatest success in at the Union Square Theater in New York.

The plot, which is a very strong one, is interspersed with lively comedy and holds the interest of the audience to the final curtain. The ladies of the company will all be seen to advantage and will also wear some new and elegant gowns. Several theater parties have been formed to witness the production this evening. At the matinee Saturday afternoon next in order to let the little ones see Baby Lillian and Little Evelyn as the Pickaninny Twins, "The Octoroon" will be given. Plenty of specialties will also be served. The following is the cast of "The Banker's Daughter":

An Ancient Foe

To health and happiness is Scrofula—as ugly as ever since time immemorial.

It causes bunches in the neck, disfigures the skin, inflames the mucous membrane, wastes the muscles, weakens the bones, reduces the power of resistance to disease and the capacity for recovery, and develops into consumption.

"A lurch appeared on the left side of my neck. It caused great pain, was lanced, and became a running sore. I went into a general decline. I was persuaded to try Hood's Sarsaparilla, and when I had taken six bottles my neck was healed and I have never had any trouble of the kind since." Mrs. K. T. SNYDER, Troy, Ohio.

A HOPELESS OUTLOOK

Captain Platt on the Philippine Islands.

Among the passengers for San Francisco on the S. S. Doric were Captain Ralph Platt, wife and servant, who are returning home after more than two years' sojourn in the Philippines and China.

Captain Platt passed through here in November, 1899, on the transport Grant, en route for Manila. He was then an officer on General Hugh's staff.
He is now attached to the Secret Service Bureau at Washington, and is hurrying back in response to a summons from the Senatorial Committee which is investigating the conditions in the Philippines. For the past few months he has been on special duty, the exact nature of which he did not feel at liberty to disclose.

Speaking of conditions in the newly-acquired possessions, Captain Platt said to an Advertiser reporter just prior to the Doric's sailing:

"The Philippines are not fit for a white man yet, and it will be a long time before an American can do any good for himself out there. The whole thing is a question of legislation. If Americans and Europeans are given a fair show they will bring prosperity to the country. Under a civil government it will be years before the existing condition of things is materially bettered. Civil government has proved itself a dismal failure.

"What is needed is the iron hand of military government, which should have swayed until the present generation of Filipinos has passed away entirely.
There is absolutely no hope for the present generation of natives. As long as there is any coin in sight they will flee from tractability, but the moment that financial inducements to be good ceases, they will stab you in the back.

"The United States bit off more than they can chew when they took the Philippines and they are rapidly finding it out. Admiral Dewey made a big mistake when he recognized Aguinaldo, and from that moment it was all up with life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness in the 'Pines. Governor Taft saw this as well as anyone and was only too glad to get clear of the whole thing. He's had enough of the gentle Filipino, and in my opinion will never return. Aguinaldo, who is a cowardly, insignificant ruffian, is scared to come out before the people after swearing allegiance to the United States. He once took the oath to die the death before the Katipunians, a powerful secret organization known in the Philippines as the K. K. K. For breaking this oath he will surely be killed; he is a marked man, and he knows it, and is guarded day and night at his own request. He has not the nerve of a common nigger.

"How about the interior?" asked the reporter, "is it safe to venture inland yet?"

"Yes," replied Captain Platt, "it is safe to go about two miles from Manila.
Two weeks before I left, Presidente Alberio, the head of a village, fifteen miles from Manila, was kidnapped and carried off to the mountains by a company of insurgents, who razed the village to the ground and slaughtered several traitors to their cause."

PRESSMEN ON HORSEBACK

R. Beverly Kidd, the all-round athlete and champion diver and swimmer of the Healan Boat Club, accompanied by Fred Holzheiser, the Advertiser's librarian, will start next Saturday on a tour of exploration of the Island of Oahu, using horses as their motive power. It is their intention to make a complete tour of the island, commencing at the Pali, where they will make a close examination for relics of the battle fought there by Kamehameha when he conquered the Oahuans. A leisurely ride will be taken down the road on the Koolau side of the range and an inspection made of the sugar plantations lining the route. They will carry camp equipment, consisting of pup-tents, for shelter from the night air and mosquitos, frying pans, fishing tackle, salt cellar and a bottle or relish. It is expected that some new fish species will be landed by Mr. Kidd, who is an expert angler. Continuing their ride in the early hours of Sunday morning, the travelers will visit Laie and make a casual examination of the sociological conditions of the Mormon settlement.
They may register at the Waiakua hotel if the charges are not too high,
and they will then give an exhibition of horsemanship across the plains to Honolulu. They expect to lower the horseback record and arrive in the city about 4 o'clock Sunday afternoon.

Should Know His Men.

Speaking of judicial efforts to get the ear of the President about Hawaii the Hartford Courant, Senator Hawley's paper, says: Theodore Roosevelt should set a watch upon his ear. He used to be able to distinguish between the gentleman and the adventurer by instinct. The more attentively he listens to what Gov. Dole has to tell him, the better it will be for the future of the Territory of Hawaii.

Reception to Bishop Nichols.

The ladies who have been asked to assist in the Hawaiian reception to Bishop Nichols on Tuesday evening next are requested to meet in the school room of St. Andrew's cathedral this afternoon at 4 o'clock to arrange for sub-committees, etc. There will also be a meeting of men, except such as may be in the choir, at the same place at 8:30, or as soon as service is over.

BY AUTHORITY.

John M. Ezera, Esq., has this day been appointed a member of the District Road Board for the District of Ewa and Waiānae, Island of Oahu,

AN ANSWER TO MAGOON

Chinese Say Lease
Was Carried Out.

MANY NEW SUITS
FILED YESTERDAY

Last Day for Service Brings Out Litigants—Silva Sued for Divorce.

Chin Kee Gnau and Ang Ton filed an answer yesterday to the complaint of J. Alfred Magoon, who alleges that the two Chinese are getting the best of him in a real estate deal. Magoon in his bill complained that through inadvertence the lease drawn by him was made to read "$100 per year," instead of $100 per month, and that the defendants refused to pay the amount as the lease intended they should pay for the property.

The defendants in their answer deny the lease set out by Magoon, that they were to pay the rent he names, and allege that they agreed to pay him "$100 for the first two years, and the sum of $150 for the next succeeding four years, and the sum of $250 per month for the remainder of the term, i.e., twenty-four years." The lease containing these provisions was drawn up by Mr. Magoon and by him read to the defendants.

The defendants say they have erected upon the land buildings valued at $6000, and deny the statement that they failed to insure the property, but allege they have insured it for $7000, which was all that could be obtained thereon. It is further set out that the rent was made $100 a year because of the improvements to be made upon the land, and deny that there was an error, clerical or otherwise, in the lease drawn up by Mr. Magoon.

An appeal in this same case from a judgment for defendant by Judge Dickey was also filed yesterday.

NEW SUITS.

The Kapiolani Estate has brought suit against Manuel Gomes to recover possession of property in this city, alleging that the lease expired on March 23rd. Damages in the sum of $1000 are also asked by reason of the defendant's acts in removing the buildings from the property.

S. Kimura sues K. Hoshina, defendant, and the Yokohama Specie Bank, garnishee, to recover $1982, alleged to be due on a note for $1000 made in 1898.

F. Wundenberg, as trustee, brought suit yesterday against George Markham and J. H. Cummings, to recover property in Kailua, alleged to be wrongfully in their possession. Damages in the amount of $1000 are also asked.

The Kapiolani Estate brings suit against the Territory of Hawaii to establish fishing rights at Kaneohe, on the Island of Oahu. The fishery is designated as Mikiola.

Carolina Silva has sued Manuel G. Silva for divorce, alleging cruel treatment. She claims that defendant threatened her life with a revolver, and on several occasions forced her to stand with her face to the wall for eight hours at a time. Divorce and custody of two minor children is asked, and alimony in the amount the court sees fit. It is alleged that Silva has a large income as a real estate broker. Judge Robinson has issued an order restraining him from disposing of his property until the case is determined.

APPEALS FROM DICKEY.

Appeals were noted from decisions by Judge Dickey in the following cases: W. W. Dimond & Co. vs. Orpheum Co. Judgment for plaintiff for $177.15 on account, $20.05 interest, and $17.98 costs and commissions.

M. W. McChesney & Sons vs. Wing Wo Lung Co. Judgment for plaintiff for $66.88 for a box of soap sold to defendant.

W. W. Wright vs. Morris K. Keohokahole. Judgment for $32.96 for plaintiff for repairs.

A. Gordon Hodgins vs. Jacintho Miguel. Suit for $165 damages for injury to plaintiff's carriage through the runaway of defendant's horse. Judge Dickey gave judgment for defendant.

Lovejoy & Co. vs. B. H. Kane. Judgment for plaintiff for $200 on note and $16.81 court costs.

ORDER FOR PARTITION.

An order for partition was made yesterday by Judge Humphreys in the case of Mary Reyes and Raymond Reyes vs. David Callahan, a minor, and Harry Machado. E. M. Watson is allowed an attorney's fee of $75, and W. A. Wall gets a commissioner's fee of $197. The property in question is located near the Insane asylum.

At the Cathedral Today.

On this day, at Cincinnati, the House of Bishops will elect a Bishop for the District of Honolulu. Special services will therefore be held in the cathedral today in observance of the day, as follows:

7:00 a. m., morning prayer.
10:00 a. m., holy communion.
12:15 p. m., short service for business men.
7:30 p. m., lecture on the American prayer book by Bishop Nichols.

JAPS AND THE TELEPHONES

The Hawaii Shippo contains the following of local interest:

Complaints against the telephone central are thick and fast. Ever since the company started to employ women operators about its switchboard, the system of the general communication through the phone has been condemned by all. It is so at least to the Japanese subscribers.

Whenever there are too many calls or possibly when the lady operator is ill-humored, she invariably answers to the unfortunate Japanese callers with "the line is engaged," and turns a deaf ear to any further application from their quarters. The writer had an occasion to test the sincerity of perpetual "line is engaged" by making appointment with his wife, who was to ring up his down-town office at a pre-agreed time. On this occasion, his wife received the usual amount of "line is engaged," while the husband in his down-town office had no telephone call within two hours either way of the appointed time.

Another victim of the fair operator told us that one of the operator's on duty became angered at his persistent application to obtain certain number and swore at him through the machine, addressing him with such phrases as "You pupule," "You bakatara," "Shut up, you Jap."

There are no extraordinary occurrences. Nay, it is an every day and every hour occurrence. We could fill the volume with similar complaints. Remembrance of the good old days of the system when the city had the Bell Company along with the present Mutt teaches us the truth of the saying, "Competition is the life of the trade."

BALL OF THE EASTERN STAR

The first anniversary ball of Leahi Chapter No. 2, Order of the Eastern Star, was given in Progress Hall last evening for the Masonic fraternity and their families, and was enjoyed by a large number of people. The hall was handsomely decorated with national flags and small banners, large gold and silver stars adorning the walls beneath the folds of bunting. A large five-pointed star in colors, the symbol of the Order, was suspended from the arch above the musicians' platform. The arch was also bordered with tarratan and studded with stars. Pretty gowns amid the mass of brilliant flags made an attractive scene. The music was excellent, and a huge bowl of something nice in a side room proved a center of attraction between dances. About 11 o'clock the doors of an ante-room were thrown open and the dancers were bidden to a collation consisting of sandwiches, cake and ice cream. Those in charge of the ball were:

Reception Committee—Mrs. C. L. Crabbe, Justice C. A. Galbraith, Mrs. C. A. Galbraith, Mrs. Theo. Hoffman, Mrs. H. H. Williams, Mrs. Chas. F. Herrick, Mr. F. J. Amweg, Mr. Norman E. Gedge, Mr. J. D. Tucker, Mr. Chas. Ramsay, Mrs. Harry Webster.

Refreshment Committee—Mrs. J. H. Craig, Mrs. J. M. Oat, Mrs. W. O. Atwater.

Floor Manager—Mr. Edw. C. Brown.

Floor Committee—Mr. C. L. Crabbe, Mr. H. H. Williams, Mr. H. C. Austin.

The decorations were the handiwork of Mrs. C. L. Crabbe.

Hadn't Her Switch On.

A friend of Mrs. William G. Irwin telephoned to the home of that lady the other morning and was answered by the butler, says Town Talk.

"I should like to talk to Mrs. Irwin," said the friend.

"You can't talk to her for a little while," said the butler.

"Isn't she up yet?" asked the friend.

"Yes," replied the butler; "but she hasn't got her switch on yet."

The astonished lady didn't learn until Mrs. Irwin talked over the wire that the butler meant the telephone switch.

Leahi Chapter No. 2, Order of the Eastern Star, gave its first annual ball at Progress Hall last evening.

Governor Cooper returned yesterday from Wailanae, where he went to look over the government lands in that vicinity.

At Kamehameha Preparatory School last evening the engagement of Miss Jeanne T. Bates to Mr. Charles E. King was announced to Kamehameha friends.

Dr. Winslow, who jumped his ball bond here while feigning sickness at the Queen's hospital, is reported to be in Manila, holding a responsible government position.

A ping pong association is to be formed in Honolulu. Quite a number of local people are interested in the new fad and several games are being arranged among the enthusiasts.

Cecil Brown and J. M. McChesney were passengers yesterday for Kona. Japanese Consul Saito also went over and all three will probably look into the affairs of the Kona Sugar Company.

The government band will not play next Sunday in this city. The trip to Maui will end Saturday, but the band boys are anxious for a rest, which Kappelmeister Berger thinks they deserve.

Dr. and Mrs. Walters are again at Allan Herbert's Kaili place. Dr. Walters has, to all appearances, fully recovered from his horseback accident, but may go to the coast before resuming practice.

Director Jared G. Smith departed for Hilo on the Kilauea yesterday. He will organize a farmers' institute during his visit, and will also go to Kona to begin some experiments in coffee and tobacco culture.

The Board of Health will meet in regular weekly session this afternoon. The report of the Molokai investigating committee will be considered at that time. Food Commissioner Shorkey's report is also due.

Mrs. U. Thompson will give a talk at 5 o'clock tomorrow afternoon at the Y. W. C. A. on "The Care of One's Health." This talk continues the 5 o'clock series to which all ladies are invited. There is no charge for these addresses.

The Young Men's Christian Association yesterday sent out invitations to the thirty-third anniversary exercises, to be held next Monday evening in the Association hall. There will be music, brief addresses and reports, to be followed by a basket ball game in the gymnasium.

The Board of Agriculture in London has recently issued an order respecting the sanitary restrictions on the importation of dogs into Great Britain. A copy of this order may be seen at the British consulate, 1120 King street, Honolulu, by those desirous of obtaining information on the subject.

Sally Sharp, who writes society notes in the Bulletin, says: We are all anxious to see the future bride that Archie Young is so busily wooing in the islands for news comes from Honolulu that this Prince Charming is getting ready to marry Miss Gillette, an Eastern girl. Archie's loads of friends, both in Oakland and San Francisco, are hoping he will bring his bride here on a wedding trip.

SPLIT, BRITTLE, DULL HAIR.

All Come from Dandruff, which is caused by a Germ.

Split hair, harsh hair, lusterless hair, brittle hair, falling hair, all owe their origin to dandruff, which is caused by a measly little microbe that burrows into the scalp, throwing up the cuticle into dandruff scales and sapping the vitality of the hair at the root, causing the several diseased conditions of the hair till it finally falls out. Modern science has discovered a remedy to destroy the dandruff microbe, which is combined in Newbro's Herpicide and may be had of any druggist. Always itching instantly and makes hair soft as silk. Take no substitute; nothing "just as good."

Co. F Election.

At the annual election of Co. F, N. G. H., held last night, the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: Captain, Sam Johnson; First Lieutenant, J. W. Short; Second Lieutenant, W. M. Carlyle. This is the fourth successive time that Captain Johnson has been elected. After the election and drill, a pleasant evening was spent in mirth and song.
