JUDICIAL NOTICES

Circuit Court Again Adjourns—Supreme Court Decisions

Judge Cooper opened the February term of the Circuit Court again this morning, only to adjourn it again until next Monday. All cases will then be called and probably continued until next term.

A unanimous decision of the Supreme Court, written by Chief Justice Judd, has been filed in Anna Phelps, plaintiff in error, vs. Joseph O. Carter, defendant in error. It is on a petition for a writ of error to review and correct certain alleged errors of law in the charge of the Circuit Judge to the jury on an appeal from the Probate Court to the jury, the issue being the competency of one Charlotte Adams to make the will in question. The will was admitted to probate on the petition of J. O. Carter, who was the executor therein named. On the probating of the will Mr. Carter renounced his appointment and Charles Lucas was appointed as administrator in his stead. The will was contested and finally carried to a jury and a verdict sustaining the probate was rendered. A motion for a new trial was heard and over-ruled. Later the parties by counsel stipulated that the contestants should have until September 1, 1894, to have the bill of exceptions allowed. This was not done. Meanwhile the administrator had settled the estate, paid the liabilities, filed his accounts, and pursuant to published notice of hearing, on November 9, the accounts were allowed and Mr. Lucas discharged from all further responsibility as administrator and his bond cancelled, having delivered the remaining property to the devise named.

On Nov. 24 the contestant, Anna Phelps, filed her petition for a writ of error, which was served upon J. O. Carter as defendant in error. At the December term of the Court a motion to quash the writ was made upon various grounds, and the motion was sustained. The Supreme Court now denies the writ in error, although over-ruled the first ground of the motion to quash, viz.: "That there are other parties in interest besides the plaintiff in error." The law established by the decision is contained in the following syllabus:

"1. A person named in the will as executor renounced the trust on the will being proved in the Probate Court and an administrator with the will annexed was appointed who wound up the estate and was discharged. The will was contested and the case carried on appeal to a jury, who sustained the probate. After the discharge of the administrator a writ of error was sued out, alleging error in the charge of the Court, and the assignments of error were served upon the executor named in the will, as defendant in error. Held, that the writ should be quashed because served upon the wrong person.

"2. Semble, if the administrator had been made defendant in error, plaintiff in error would be remediless so far as the property of the testator was concerned, it having been delivered to the devise.

"(2). Any person 'aggrieved' may apply for a writ of error."

J. A. Magoon, barrister, sat on the case in place of Justice Frear, absent from illness.

C. W. Ashford for petitioner; W. A. Kinney and C. Brown for respondent.

A unanimous decision of the Supreme Court, written by Justice Bickerton, has been filed in P. M. Pahukula, plaintiff in error, vs. John Maguire, defendant in error. The original action was for trespass and came on for hearing at the October term, 1893, of the Third Circuit Court, holden at Kohala, Hawaii. The jury returned a verdict for defendant in error, with $20 damages, to which verdict exceptions were taken and notice was given of a motion for a new trial, which motion was never presented. On December 30, 1893, the Court taxed and allowed the bill of costs of the defendant in error, the presiding Judge (S. L. Austin), endorsing on the same: "No brief having been filed by defendant's attorney, as promised, I proceed to tax plaintiff's costs as per bill sworn to by plaintiff, John Maguire. The amount allowed is $63.50 as per the bill." The matter came before the Supreme Court on a writ of error, allowed by that Court and addressed to the clerk of the Circuit Court. In brief the assignments of error were: 1. That the suit was filed without any deposit having been made with the clerk, nor had any deposit been paid up to the time of the trial. 2. That the verdict was contrary to the law and the evidence. 3. That the trial Judge erred in his order taxing costs against the petitioner, contrary to the laws and to decisions of the Court. 4. And other errors of law, as appear by the records in the case.

The writ is denied, the plaintiff in error to pay costs. Following is the syllabus:

"The fact that costs are not deposited by plaintiff at the time the suit is filed does not constitute an error. There can be no reversal on error of any finding depending on the credibility of witnesses or weight of evidence.

"The cases of Hang Fook vs. Republic of Hawaii and Vierra vs. Hackfeld, affirmed. 8 Haw. 438.

"An assignment of error, general in its nature and indefinite, is not a proper assignment of error and is not considered by the Court."

The Hang Fook case quoted decided that there shall be no reversal on error of any finding depending on the credibility of the witnesses or the weight of evidence.

Circuit Judge Cooper sat in place of Justice Frear in this case.

V. V. Ashford for plaintiff in error; W. R. Castle for defendant in error.

A satisfaction of judgment, in $165 in full, has been filed in John F. Colburn vs. W. C. Achi.

Wong Wa Foy by his attorney, W. C. Achi, has filed a discontinuance of his bill for partition against Ana Momona.

In Vittoriana Olera vs. J. D. Ackerman, the Supreme Court has filed a decree, setting aside an order of the Circuit Court and overruling the demurrer with costs. Judge Whiting of the Circuit Court signs the decree with Chief Justice Judd and Associate Justice Bickerton.

Judge Cooper has issued the following order in the matter of the estate of John O. Davies, late of Wailua, Oahu, deceased:

"Trustee Arthur P. Peterson having failed to file any accounts since the 17th day of April, A. D. 1890, the date of his appointment, the Court of its own motion hereby appoints J. A. Magoon, Esq., receiver with full power to demand, receive and take charge of all the papers, assets and effects of said estate, and to bring such actions as may be necessary for the recovery of any property of the estate, and also against the sureties upon the bond of said Arthur P. Peterson, to make good any deficiency which may appear in said estate."

It always does the work, and does it well." For sale by Benson, Smith & Co., Agents for the Hawaiian Islands.

HAWAIIAN CABLE.

Bill to Incorporate a Company Introduced in Congress.

A bill to incorporate the International Pacific Cable Company, for a cable from California to the Hawaiian Islands and thence to Japan and other points in the Pacific and the mainlands of Asia and Australia, was introduced into the House to-day by Representative Charles W. Stone of Pennsylvania.

The incorporators are William Alvord, Samuel T. Alexander, Hugh Craig, Wm. H. Dimond, Alfred S. Hartwell, Edward B. Pond, John Irwin, Ray Stone, A. C. Hawes, Herman Oelrichs, Charles R. Bishop, G. W. McNear, Lewis B. Parrott, W. M. Buckner, C. I. Taylor, O. D. Baldwin, Henry F. Allen, W. J. Adams, John D. Spreckels.

The bill proposes to give the company the right to hold the requisite connections in the land offices and stations and exercise such power as may be granted by any other Government, with the provision that nothing in the action shall be construed to commit the United States Government to any financial liability or guarantee of carrying out its contracts.

By a vote of 36 to 25 the Senate on Feb. 9 passed an amendment to the diplomatic and consular appropriation bill, giving $500,000 for beginning work on the cable and authorizing the President to contract for the entire work, estimated to cost $3,000,000.

There will be a hot fight in the House. All the California members will support the cable.

Celso Caesar Moreno is working hard to get an extension of his cable charter of 1876.

Cranston's Claim.

A Washington dispatch says: The State Department will take vigorous measures in the case of J. Cranston, who arrived at Vancouver yesterday on the Warrimoo, an exile from Hawaii. A brief statement has been received from the United States Commercial Agent at Vancouver, alleging that Cranston, an American citizen, guilty of any participation in the rebellion, was forcibly placed aboard the steamer and exiled without any trial and was subjected to severe pecuniary loss.

Minister Willis took his deposition before he was exiled from Hawaii, and is doubtless fully investigating the matter there. Should Cranston's assertions be borne out by inquiry, there can be little question that he has a good claim for indemnity against the Hawaiian Government.

HAWAII AND THE CANAL.

Both Subjects Come Before the Senate on One Day.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 25, 1895. The resolution offered yesterday by Mr. Allen, Pop., of Nebraska, favoring the annexation of the Hawaiian Islands, was laid before the Senate to-day, and Mr. Allen spoke in favor of it.

He admitted that the overthrow of the royal government had been inexcusably unlawful—not only a gross violation of international law, but also of American doctrine of non-intervention. But now he believed it to be the duty of the American government to support the existing government there, entirely regardless of the circumstances and conditions under which it was established.

Mr. Mills, Dem., of Texas, spoke of the great interest manifested in the Senate in Hawaiian matters, and said that most of it came from the extreme east and the extreme west of the country. There had to be, he said, some motive for this—some powerful inspiring cause. It was an old tale. It was a powerful sugar interest in the United States and in the Hawaiian Islands which was constantly demanding that the new Hawaiian government should be protected by the iron power of the United States.

Mr. Mills went on to argue that the Senate had no right to call on the President to know why or how he had executed a law.

Mr. Hoar, Rep., of Massachusetts, suggested that either house had that power and right so as to know whether further legislation was needed.

Mr. Smith denied that either house has that right. The Senate might pass the resolution, but the President had the right to ignore it and pay no attention to it.

Mr. Hoar—I differ with the senator from Texas.

"That settles it," Mr. Gray, Dem., of Delaware, put in with a touch of irony.

Mr. Mills continued his remarks, and later Mr. Aldrich, Rep., of Rhode Island, interrupted him and said:

"Several allusions have been made to the fact that New England corporations are largely interested in sugar plantations in the Hawaiian Islands. I would be glad to have the senator name any of them."

Mr. Mills referred to testimony given before the sugar investigating committee last session by Mr. Reed, that there were 4500 shareholders holding stock in the Sugar Trust, and said that the trust owned sugar plantations in Cuba, Samoa, and Hawaii. He stated that out of the $75,000,000 of stock in the Sugar Trust, $30,000,000 was owned in New England.

"So far as I know," said Mr. Aldrich, "the American Sugar Company does not own an acre of land in Hawaii, and has no interest in the sugar plantations there."

"It is a strange thing, then," said Mr. Mills, "that there should be such a great flutter from New England about Hawaiian matters. There must be something behind it."

"There is behind it," said Mr. Aldrich, "the feeling of patriotism which fills the minds, not only of senators from New England, but of nine-tenths of the American people."

"When did you get your last returns from the American people?" Mr. Mills asked with a sneer.

"We got them," Mr. Aldrich replied, with a triumphant air, "in the last election." (Applause and laughter in the galleries.)

"You did not get them in the election before that," Mr. Mills reported.

Then Mr. Mills referred to a recent communication in the New York paper to the effect that bonds for the support of the Hawaiian Government were being issued and sold largely in New England at the rate of 25 cents on the dollar, and that those bonds would be worth par as soon as the islands were annexed. He suggested that it might be well to have an investigation of the matter by a Senate committee.

The Nicaraguan bill was then taken up, the agreement being to have the vote taken at 5 p. m.

A good deal of angry feeling was developed during the three hours of five-minute debate between friends and enemies of the bill.

At 5 p. m. the debate closed, and the following amendments were then agreed to:

Requiring all material for the canal to be bought in the United States; giving the President power to remove any of the directors appointed by him; declaring that "no more than $1 in stock of the company shall be issued for every dollar, in truth and in fact, expended by the company; requiring contracts to be let to the lowest responsible bidders, after advertisement (offered by Mr. Frye); limiting the entire amount of awards to $70,000,000; requiring the government directors to be citizens of the United States; declaring that no contract shall be made with any company in which any stockholder or director of the maritime canal company is a member or director, or is in any way interested.

Many other amendments were rejected.

Finally the direct vote on the bill itself (with the amendments agreed to) was reached, the bill was passed—yeas, 31; nays, 21; as follows:

Yeas—Messrs. Aldrich, Allison, Burrows, Butler, Cameron, Chandler, Cullom, Faulkner, Frye, Gallinger, Gibson, Gorman, Hale, Hoar, Hutton, Lodge, McMillan, Manderson, Mitchell of Oregon, Morgan, Murphy, Platt, Power, Pritchard, Proctor, Pugh, Ransom, Squire, Walsh, White, Wilson—31.

Nays—Messrs. Allen, Blackburn, Blanchard, Caffery, Call, Cockrell, Daniel, Davis, George, Gray, Hill, Irby, Jones of Arkansas, Kyle, Mills, Palmer, Pepper, Pettigrew, Turple, Vilas, Wolcott—21.

LATE FOREIGN NEWS.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 9.

UNITED STATES.

LARGE PURCHASE OF GOLD.

President Cleveland transmitted a message to Congress yesterday announcing the purchase of $65,000,000 gold by the sale of bonds. The President discusses the critical financial situation, and says that, to provide the failure of timely legislative action, executive authority that could be exercised without additional legislation was employed. He then explained the transaction as follows:

"Therefore, in pursuance to Section 3700 of the Revised Statutes the details of an arrangement this day have been concluded with parties abundantly able to fulfill their undertaking, whereby bonds of the United States are authorized under the act of July 14, 1875, payable in coin thirty years after their date with interest at the rate of 4 percent per annum, to amount to a little less than $62,000,000, to be issued for the purchase of gold coin amounting to a sum slightly in excess of $65,000,000, to be delivered to the Treasury of the United States, which sum, added to the gold now held in our reserve, will so rest in such reserve as to make it amount to something more than $100,000,000. Such premium is to be allowed to the Government upon the bonds so as to fix the rate of interest upon the amount of gold realized at 3 1/2 percent per annum.

"At least one-half of the gold to be obtained is to be supplied from abroad, which is a very important and favorable feature to the transaction. The privilege is especially reserved to the Government to substitute, at par, within ten days from this date, in lieu of 4 percent coin bonds, other bonds in terms payable in gold, and bearing only 3 percent interest if the issue of the same in the meantime be authorized by Congress. Arrangements for this have been completed, which, after careful inquiry, appears in the present circumstances and considering all the objects desired to be the best attainable.

"In the agreement just concluded there will be an annual saving of interest to the Government, if 3 percent gold bonds should be substituted for 4 percent bonds. Under the privilege reserved there would be $539,150, amounting in thirty years, or at the maturity of the coin bonds, to $16,174,770."

A New York dispatch says: The bond transaction consummated today, strictly speaking, is not a sale of bonds for gold, but a purchase of gold to be paid for in bonds. The issue was not made under the authority granted by the resumption act, but under section 3700 of the Revised Statutes, which reads as follows: "The Secretary of the Treasury may purchase coin with any of the bonds or notes of the United States authorized by law, at such rates and upon such terms as he may deem most advantageous to the public interest."

The contract was made with August Belmont & Co. of New York on behalf of N. M. Rothschilds & Sons of London and themselves, and J. P. Morgan & Co. of New York on behalf of J. S. Morgan & Co. of London and themselves, and provides for the delivery to the United States of 3,500,000 ounces of standard gold coin of the United States, to be paid for in United States 4 percent bonds. A large number of other banks and financial institutions are interested in the transactions but their names are not mentioned in the contract itself.

OTHER LANDS.

WAR IS OFF.

The New York World's correspondent at Guatemala was informed at the Foreign Department that Guatemala is perfectly willing to recognize Mexico's right to the territory claimed by her, but that it is not possible to restore that strip until the survey is completed. Mexico, it was said, had no right to the land when she expelled the woodcutters, for although that portion of that line had been surveyed it had not been turned over to Mexico formally, and therefore was in the possession of Guatemala.

News from Guatemala indicates that a peaceful settlement will be reached. The attitude of certain Mexican newspapers continues most hostile to Guatemala. They are anxious for war, but the Government is proceeding with great prudence, showing the greatest forbearance toward Guatemala, with an apparent desire on the part of this Government to give Guatemala no excuse to say that she has been forced or pushed to a settlement.

The Daily Bulletin.

Pledged to neither Sect nor Party,
But Established for the Benefit of All.

MONDAY, FEB. 18 1895.

Lord Randolph Churchill's opinion of Mr. Gladstone elsewhere printed is an interesting contribution to the biography of the "grand old man."

Java appears to be in a hard way with her sugar industry, and the bankers, according to the Hongkong Telegraph, are giving them fatherly counsel but no concessions to brace them up.

With reference to the demand of horsemen for action by the Jockey Club, Secretary W. M. Giffard says the annual meeting will not be due until the latter part of April. He says there is nothing to hinder horsemen from preparing their racers for June 11.

Honolulu is likely to need more wharf accommodation no later than it can be provided. The scheme mentioned elsewhere, of excavating a new dock adjacent to the Pacific Mail wharf, is probably as simple and direct a beginning to achieve the object as could be devised.

Mexico appears to be sad that she is not to have the luxury of war with Guatemala. She ought rather to be ambitious of cultivating the arts of peace, and endeavoring to be a benefit to her neighbors. Since the foregoing was in type news has come of war being again imminent.

Hurrah for the cable. A bill to incorporate a company to lay a cable to Hawaii and transpacific points has been introduced in Congress. The corporators are strong San Francisco capitalists, including some deeply interested in Hawaii—such as C. R. Bishop, S. T. Alexander and John D. Spreckels.

President Cleveland has apparently used the executive power wisely in making a contract to buy gold with bonds. Although it looks like an artificial means of relieving the financial straits of the country, the failure of Congress to provide any sort of relief made some executive action essential. According to the details in the President's message elsewhere printed, the scheme will be profitable as a national investment as well as a present salvation to the country.

An interesting piece of congressional palaver is given in this issue, combining discussions on both the Hawaiian question and the Nicaragua Canal scheme. A report voiced by one Senator, about Hawaiian bonds being sold at a discount in New England, was contradicted in a letter from C. Brewer & Co. of Boston republished in Saturday's BULLETIN. The canal bill has passed the Senate and a year ought not to elapse before there will be active operations on the site.

The Hawaiian Overland.

P. C. Jones is writing an article on the finances of Hawaii for the forthcoming Hawaiian edition of the Overland Monthly. Professor Alexander is writing for the same publication a paper on the inducements for white immigration to Hawaii.

Mr. Selano, agent and business manager of the Monthly, is enjoying the courtesies of the local steamship companies. He has just returned from a pleasant trip to Kauai, "the garden isle." Mr. Selano has the thanks of the BULLETIN for the February number of the magazine. It contains an article on "The Wild Flowers of Hawaii," by Grace C. K. Thompson, with pictures from photographs and by Furneaux of Hilo.

TWENTY-SEVENTH DAY.

Native Rebels on Trial Before the Military Commission

The Commission convened at 9:30 o'clock. Minutes were read and approved. The twenty-one prisoners on trial on Saturday last were present in Court: Counsel S. K. Kane filed the same objections to the jurisdiction of the Commission.

Charles Warren, sworn, states: Was at Kahala on Sunday, Jan. 6; saw Kiliona Poepee, Haba, Nahialau, Kaahue, Henry Euoka, Pihena, Kaholo, John Pio and Kakaio there; they were armed; did not see Kahanui, Maunaloa and George Markham there; I gave the men the guns and belts of cartridges; gave orders to detain everybody that made any attempt to leave the place.

Kawika, sworn, states: Saw Nahialau at Kahala on Sunday, Jan. 6; was sent out there by Kauai and Abernethy; did not see him armed; was sent that evening with Bill Widdifield's squad and exchanged shots with the police; saw Koholo and Wailama at Kahala; Henry Euoka was there also; Kaholo was not armed.

Kalaohi, sworn, states: Am employed by Sam Damon at Moanalua; was at Kahala on Sunday, Jan. 6; saw Haba, Kaahue, H. Euoka, Pihena and Kaholo, there; they were all armed; Nahialau was the man who went and asked Charles Warren and Carl Widemann to let me go, as I had asthma.

Sam Kia was the next witness. He related the same old story of seeing some of the prisoners at Kaalawai. They were armed.

Charles Bartow, sworn, states: Saw W. Pua at Kaalawai. Saw others there. They were armed.

Bill Ihu, sworn, states: He saw Willie Joseph and Kaniela on Monday morning, Jan. 7, at Telegraph hill; they were armed; Kaunaloa was at Kaalawai; also Kamali, Kahanui was not there.

At 12 o'clock the Court adjourned to 1:30 o'clock.

If you want to buy a really good clock or watch at Coast prices inspect the stock of Brown & Kubey, at No. 4, Masonic Temple; there you will find the largest variety in Honolulu at the lowest prices; clocks and watches sold on weekly and monthly payments. Brown & Kubey make a specialty of rubber stamps.

Timely Topics

February 15, 1895.

The newspapers seem to be in error in saying that the men just released from prison are to be deported, or in speaking of them as exiles. They are not being deported in the true sense of the term; they are simply allowed to go away on a vacation which will terminate at the will of the Government that grants them leave. If they were deprived of the privilege of attending to their vocations under the blue Hawaiian skies they accepted the other horn of the dilemma which permits them to live in that haven of political prisoners of almost any nationality—the United States. Properly speaking but three men have been deported—the others are going away, if there is a distinction the men can figure out the difference on the way up.

WHAT OTHERS SAY:

SAN JOSE, Jan. 27, 1895.—Certificate of Blood Spavin.—In justice to the proprietor of "The Celebrated H. H. H. Horse Medicine—D. D. T., 1868," I will say that I have used it to good satisfaction, and can recommend it to those keeping horses as an invaluable medicine, and I believe it to be equal to what it is recommended; and I have not known its equal as an external remedy, for I have also used it to good effect for rheumatism upon myself.

J. C. PHIPPS.

This is to certify that I saw the above case, and it was one of the worst spavins I ever saw. I did not believe that the blood spavin could be cured, but I would acknowledge that I was mistaken, and am willing to recommend "The Celebrated H. H. H. Horse Medicine—D. D. T., 1868," superior to anything I ever had any knowledge of as a horse medicine.

T. ANDREWS.

MR. D. DODGE TOMLINSON—Dear Sir: For the information of the public and in justice to your valuable horse medicine, "The Celebrated H. H. H. Horse Medicine—D. D. T., 1868," I would state that I have used it to full satisfaction on a mare of mine that had an enlargement of the fetlock joint, which was at least one third larger than before it got hurt; and of a hard callous lump, and her leg also much larger. The above medicine removed the enlargement, and otherwise performed a perfect cure.

I also know of its curing blood spavin in different cases among my neighbors' horses, which were very bad and incurable by all who saw them; and I have full confidence in the above preparation, and hear it spoken of by others as equal to what it has been recommended, and can recommend it to others with full confidence of its great worth, and that it performs all cures without injury to the growth of the hair, does not change the color of the hair, and leaves the limb smooth and clean.

Yours respectfully,

JOHN WEATHERS.

CONSUL WILDER BELIED.

He Denies That He Used Insulting Language to W. H. Cornwell.

Saturday's Star republishes the following from a San Francisco paper:

"Consul Wilder: About Cornwell? Yes, I met him on the steamer this morning and he said he was not afraid to return to the islands. I told him he was nothing but a little coward and that he dare not return there, because if he did he would be treated like the rest of the conspirators."

But it does not publish, perhaps not having seen, the following repudiation of the interview, which appears in the Call:

Charles T. Wilder, Consul-General of the Hawaiian republic, said yesterday that he had been incorrectly reported in regard to his remarks about W. H. Cornwell of Honolulu; that he did not say Mr. Cornwell was afraid to go home.

"I did not hear you use any such language or I would have resented it," said Mr. Cornwell.

"I had no occasion and no desire to speak in that manner," replied Mr. Wilder.

"I think the whole story grew out of the fact that I was joking Mr. Cornwell about the situation in the islands," said Captain Houdlette of the Australia. "I told him I wouldn't advise him to go down there for a while, as they might arrest him. Mr. Wilder was present and we all laughed over it. I heard all the conversation, and I am sure that Mr. Wilder did not make use of the language attributed to him."

What Shall We Drink?

When the rays of Old Sol are boiling down at a ninety degree rate, the air like the breath of a furnace and everything hot, dry and dusty, the natural desire of the average human is to drink. But, what to drink? There's the question.

The serious effect of an over-indulgence in ice water is well known. The thousand and one cheap gassy beverages are known to be more or less injurious to the health, while the mineral waters of known purity and healthfulness are a luxury beyond the reach of but few. What shall we drink?

A beverage to meet the requirements, must, first of all, be absolutely pure and non-alcoholic. It should possess a medicinal element to counteract the effects of the heat and keep the blood pure and the stomach healthful. In order to be palatable and refreshing, it should be sparkling and effervescent. Last but not least, it must be economical and within the reach of all. A beverage that fully meets all of the above requirements and one that is entitled to more than passing mention is HIRES' ROOT BEER, manufactured by the CHAS. E. HIRES & Co., of Philadelphia, U. S. A. This preparation has been analyzed by the highest authorities and pronounced by them to be free from any deleterious substance and absolutely non-alcoholic; while all physicians acknowledge its health giving qualities. It has a delicious, appetizing flavor, is full of snap, sparkle and effervescence, and is without a peer as a refreshment.

A package from your storekeeper will make five gallons of this great temperance drink. Truly it answers the question—What shall we drink? There are many substitutes and imitations of HIRES' ROOT BEER offered for sale which should be carefully avoided.

Testimonials:

"We have used your Root Beer for over a year and find it delicious and healthful. We would not like to be without it a single day. We find it is helping all of us.—MRS. F. H. CLARK, 735 Chester St., Oakland, Cal., U. S. A."

"We have used over one hundred bottles of your Root Beer, drinking it winter and summer. My brother and myself are total abstainers, drinking nothing but Hires' Root Beer.—MICHAEL KELLY, 16 Water St., Waltham, Mass., U. S. A."

SOME ENGLISH STATESMEN.

Lord Randolph Churchill's Opinion of Mr. Gladstone

In an article in the New York Tribune, Mr. G. W. Smalley tells of Lord Randolph Churchill's opinion of Mr. Gladstone:

I owe to Lord Randolph himself an account of his one personal interview with Mr. Gladstone on public business. It was while he was Chancellor of the Exchequer. Mr. Gladstone was then at Dollis Hill, the Kilburn villa which Lord Aberdeen put at his disposal as often and as long as he cared to use it—half an hour's drive from Connaught Place, where Lord Randolph then lived. Finance is one of the two or three subjects which have always had a permanent interest for the great Liberal, and he had asked the young Conservative Chancellor of the Exchequer to come out and talk with him on some points then at issue with respect to the public accounts. He went the next afternoon, and was received by Mr. Gladstone under an apple tree in the garden. You may be certain that on neither side was there a thought of political antagonism between them, or of their contests in the House. Such contests in England seldom leave any bitterness behind. They met as two English gentlemen who had something to discuss. They had a long talk. Mr. Gladstone stated his views with that tremendous energy so characteristic of him; putting all his force of intellect into his argument. "For the first time in my life," said Lord Randolph, "I felt myself in the presence of a superior being." That always seemed to me a remarkable confession. It became more so when he went on to draw a kind of contrast between Mr. Gladstone and Lord Salisbury. "I have known Lord Salisbury all my life, intimately. I was his friend and colleague. He was my chief. He is a great man and a great leader, with the mental range and the force of character you know. It never occurred to me to be afraid of him, or to think of myself with reference to him as other than an equal. A better man than I, no doubt, and an older, but still of the same clay. Mr. Gladstone is a being apart. You know how the royalties regard themselves, as if they were of another race, and the meanest royalty far above the highest of other than royal blood. That is the impression Gladstone made on me. He was not merely greater, but dissimilar. I had to discuss finance with him. I did the best I could with the discussion and argument, as I do in the House, where I never hesitated to face him, as you know. In private it is another matter. I could argue, but before the man himself I bent."

Hard things, I see, are said about Lord Randolph's hard hitting in his House of Commons controversies with Mr. Gladstone. He himself admitted, with the generous frankness which was in him, that he had sometimes struck too heavily. You commented the other day on his description of his great opponent in 1886 as an old man in a hurry. It was the one thing which Lord Randolph himself most regretted. "But," I said, "it was a perfectly true and picturesque account of the matter." He would not admit that the truth of it atoned for the severity. "Of course it was true," he admitted. "It summed up the situation. Never would Gladstone have taken the line he did, or dealt with home rule in the way he did, or tyrannized over his party as he did, had he been twenty years younger. But I ought not to have said it."

THIS CUT is a fair and comprehensive example of a cheap and uncentered lens. You think you get the same amount of relief from a cheap glass, because it may have the same amount of refractive power as the more costly. See where the above lens focuses. See the scattering of rays. As much spherical aberration in such glasses as there is aberration of the mind in an insane person; yet this is the general run of glasses you buy cheap. How long will your sensitive eye stand this strain? Why, until they are ruined entirely. Can you afford to wear such glasses, simply because they cost you a little less than the perfect? No, a thousand times, No. You could not if they were given you with a bonus. We will not sell such glasses; would not be guilty of giving them away. But we guarantee to fit every manner of complicated case with the proper and correctly ground glass, and to give perfect satisfaction.

National Cane Shredder

PATENTED UNDER THE LAWS OF THE HAWAIIAN ISLANDS.

Mr. John A. Scott, Manager of the Hilo Sugar Company, gives the following wonderful record of the working of the NATIONAL CANE SHREDDER, which was erected by their works at the commencement of the crop just harvested:

"During the past week the Milo Sugar Company's mill exceeded any of its former records by closing the 125 hours grinding with an output of 3003 tons. This is fully 10 percent more than the best work of former years."

"The three roller mill being 26 in. by 54 in. and the two roller mill 30 in. by 60 in. The first mill doing this amount of work in an efficient manner and with great ease, compared with work on whole cane, owing to thorough preparation of the cane by the National Cane Shredder, recently erected by the Company."

"And by its use the extraction has been increased from 3 percent to 5 percent on all kinds of cane, and in some cases 80 percent has been reached; the average being 75 to 78 percent, according to quality."

"I continue to find the megass from shredded cane better fuel than from whole cane."

"The shredder has been working day and night for seven months and has given me entire satisfaction, having shredded during that time about seventy thousand tons of cane, and a large part of it being hard ratoons."

"The shredder and engine require very little care or attention."

Plans and specifications of these Shredders may be seen at the office of ### Sugar Troubles in Java.

The sugar troubles in Java, caused by overproduction resulting in ruinously low prices, has led the banks interested in many estates there to take precautionary measures. These banks, says the Sourabaya Courant, have issued a circular, directing that, on the said estates, the yield of sugar should be increased as much as possible, while the cost of production should be kept still lower by cutting down salaries and wages to the utmost, and by economy in all directions. But the circular is silent as to any reductions in the interest and commission charged by these banks to the estates.—Hong-kong Telegraph.

Harbor Improvement.

Captain J. A. King, Minister of the Interior, was asked about contemplated harbor improvements. He answered that, next to the dredging now in progress, the Government had under consideration the cutting out of a new slip or dock between the Pacific Mail wharf and the late King's boathouse. The outline is marked on a map in the Interior office. Mr. Rowell, Superintendent of Public Works, has been instructed to make borings in the site to ascertain the nature of the bottom.

Miniature Art.

At Williams' Studio are to be seen Portraits on Watch Dials, which he is making a specialty of. Lantern Slides for lecture by the set or dozen.

The exposure to all sorts and conditions of weather that a lumberman is called upon to endure in the camps often produces severe colds which if not promptly checked, result in congestion or pneumonia. Mr. J. O. Davenport, ex-manager of the Fort Bragg Redwood Co., an immense institution at Fort Bragg, Cal., says they sell large quantities of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy at the company's store and that he has himself used this remedy for a severe cold and obtained immediate relief. This medicine prevents any tendency of a cold toward pneumonia and insures a prompt recovery. For sale by Benson, Smith Co., Agents for the Hawaiian Islands.

Ward McAllister died in New York on January 31, aged about fifty years. About seven years ago he came into prominence by making the declaration that New York city's exclusive society set numbered only an even four hundred. This originated the term "four hundred" to indicate fashionable society anywhere.

INDIGESTION And Liver Complaint CURED BY USING Ayer's Sarsaparilla

Mr. T. J. CLUNE,
of Walkerville, S. Australia, writes:
"Six years ago, I had an attack of indigestion and liver complaint that lasted for weeks; I was unable to do any hard work, had no appetite, food distressed me, and I suffered much from headache. My skin was sallow and sleep did not refresh me. I tried several remedies and consulted a doctor, without obtaining any relief; finally, one of my customers recommended Ayer's Sarsaparilla; it helped me from the first—in fact, after taking six bottles I was completely cured, and could eat anything and sleep like a child."
