Everybody Is Happy At Seattle

Seattle, Wash., July 8, 1920.
C. G. Bockus, Business Manager Evening Bulletin, Honolulu, T. H.
Dear Sir:—You will, no doubt, be glad to know that we arrived here safely. We have had a lovely time so far, and indications are that we will continue the pleasure of our visit to the end.
The Fair is quite a success. Everything is one grand display. Our dear old Hawaii's exhibit is attracting a large crowd every day, and we constantly hear very favorable remarks passed on the exhibit, especially the splendid showing of the school work. The different grade work of the Hawaiian exhibit exceeds a great many of the other places.
Many people have very queer ideas of how the Hawaiians dress and live, etc. Some expected to see the girls in "hula" skirts, and a great many were surprised to hear them talking English.
There is a great demand for the Hawaiian pineapple. They serve them every day and all day except Sunday. We are very proud of our Hawaii's exhibit. All in charge of the Hawaiian exhibit have been very kind to us, especially L. Childs, Mr. Childs and Mr. Cooper are kind and genial to all, and thereby greatly aid the success of Hawaii's part in the Fair.
We have been tramping steadily from place to place, and yet we have many more places to see.
We have had nice weather and both enjoy good health.
Kindly thank all our friends who helped to give us this pleasant trip and accept our Aloha nui loa. We remain Yours respectfully,
SOPHIA DE LA NUX,
MRS. L. A. DE LA NUX.

Government To Inspect Phones

Mutual Telephone Company Agrees To Government Supervision—Treasurer Says All Public Utilities Should Be Subject To Government Inspection

At a conference between the Territorial Government officials and Mutual Telephone directors this afternoon an amicable agreement was reached by which the Territory can compel the Telephone Company to go into court at any time it sees right and proper, which the present charter does not grant. The Mutual Telephone Company also agrees to build a telephone for any citizen to every 480 feet of line. Mr. Carter said after the conference: "Everything has been settled satisfactorily."

Unless the Territorial Government sees fit to withdraw or modify its proposition to establish and maintain a strict system of surveillance and inspection over the affairs of the Mutual Telephone Company, George R. Carter stated this morning they would be obliged to revert to operating the Wireless Telegraph and the Mutual Telephone Companies under the present charter. Until some amicable agreement can be reached between the government officials and the companies, there is little chance that the conditions stipulated on either side will be accepted.

The original petition of the Mutual Telephone Company requested that its charter be amended to increase the capital stock from $100,000 to $250,000, under the conditions of which the Wireless Company could be included, and to extend the present charter from twenty-seven to fifty years.

The matter was placed before Attorney General Hemenway and finally to Territorial Treasurer Conkling for settlement. Finally the government approved the requests except the extension of the time of the charter. Under the law the Territory has no alternative, and cannot grant an extension of a charter that is unexpired, and the Mutual Tele-

Channel Flight Fails

CALAIS, France, July 19.—Herbert Latham French attempted to cross the English Channel today in an aeroplane. He had proceeded twelve miles on his way when his motor failed and he fell with his machine into the water. He was rescued by the tugs and boats that followed the flight to guard against such an emergency.

Corporation Tax To Pass

WASHINGTON, July 19.—The Conference Committee on the tariff bill has accepted the corporation tax as revised by the Attorney General.

This revision presumably places the tax at one per cent instead of two per cent as passed by the Senate.

Fail To Arrive At A Verdict

Riot Jury, In Deliberation Since Saturday Night, Are Hopelessly Split, Standing Six To Six At Last Ballot And Are Discharged

"It is absolutely impossible for this jury to come to a decision on this case and we feel that the result would be the same if your Honor held us for a week or a month longer. We are in the same position now that we were Saturday night."

These words, the formal announcement of the jury's attitude by Foreman Goudie, put an end for the present to eighteen days of tortuous proceedings in the case of the Territory against the ten alleged Japanese rioters and necessitated a new trial.

At five minutes to ten this morning the jury filed into the court room for the last time, expressed the hopelessness of further deliberations and were discharged reluctantly by Judge Robinson after thanking them for their services.

Previous to this they were called into court at 9 o'clock and Foreman Goudie announced then that it was impossible for the jury to come to a decision in the case. As when they were called in last Saturday night and said the same, Judge Robinson called their attention to the long period required to try the case and exhorted them to reconsider. His address to them was, in full, as follows:

Gentlemen: I charge you that it is your duty to agree upon a verdict if you can conscientiously do so.
In order to agree and arrive at a verdict it is the duty of each juror to lay aside all pride of judgment and carefully review the ground of his opinion.

No juror from mere pride of opinion, hastily expressed should refuse to agree, nor, on the other hand, should he surrender any conscientious views, founded on the evidence, and it is the duty of each juror to reason with his fellow jurors concerning the facts involved in the case with an honest desire to arrive at the truth, with a view of arriving at a verdict.

Each juror should examine the question or questions of fact submitted with candor and with a proper regard and deference to the opinions of the other jurors, and in this regard each juror should listen to the arguments of each of the other jurors with a disposition to be convinced and, if much the larger number are for conviction, a dissenting juror should consider whether the doubt entertained by him is a reasonable one in view of the fact that such doubt is not entertained by so many of his fellow jurors, equally honest and equally intelligent with himself. If, upon the other hand, the majority is for acquittal, the minority ought to ask themselves whether they might not doubt the correctness of a judgment which is not concurred in by the majority. Undoubtedly, the verdict of the jury should represent the opinions

Robt. Boyd Writes To Mr. Kinney

Honolulu, July 19, 1920.
W. A. Kinney, Esq., City.

Dear Sir:—
In reading the morning Advertiser of July 18, 1920, I was very much surprised to see my name mentioned as having connection with the riot case now on trial. The information you received is a pure fabrication on the part of your informer, and while I cannot blame you, from the information you received, for bringing the matter to the attention of the Court, nevertheless the truth is that I never was employed by Mr. Lightfoot, have never spoken to any of the jurors in the riot case about the case and have not in fact spoken to any member of that jury at all on any subject except a joking remark (having no reference to the case) to Mr. Azevedo, who is an old friend of mine, and I am ready at any time to confront anyone who questions in any way the truth of the foregoing statement.
The jurymen Harbottle, it is true, is a distant relative of mine, but I do not remember talking to him in my life.
I hope with these explanations you will not only be satisfied yourself, but also publish this letter yourself as evidence of the same.
Yours very truly,
R. N. BOYD.

HAWAII AT PASADENA

The Los Angeles Express makes the following mention of the visit of Hawaii's Christian Endeavor Delegates at the California State Convention at Pasadena:

One of the most unique features of the session was the appearance on the platform of four Christian Endeavor delegates from Hawaii, who stopped in Pasadena on their way to the international convention in St. Paul, July 7 to 12.

One of the delegates delivered a short address, which was a gem of humor and earnestness. He extended greetings from the 123 Christian Endeavor societies of Hawaii. The four visitors then rendered two songs in their own limpid language.

On Saturday evening the marriage of Emily, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Silva, to Joe Monte took place at the residence of the bride, at Punchbowl. The ceremony, which was performed by Father Stephen of the Roman Catholic Church, took place at 6:30. Thereafter a reception was given by Mr. and Mrs. Silva. Dancing was kept up till a late hour.

ANOTHER TRIAL BEGINS

Just two minutes after the jury had been discharged in the riot trial, the conspiracy trial commenced in Judge De Bolt's courtroom, with Kinney appearing for the prosecution and Lightfoot for the defendants, Makino, Negro, Sogo, Kawamura, and Tasaki.
After the jury roll call, and the indictment had been read, Kinney at once began his preliminary address to the jury and was followed after the morning recess by Lightfoot, who closed his arguments shortly before noon. The case will be resumed at 8:30 Wednesday morning.

In his address to the jury Kinney showed plainly the principal points that he will bring against the defendants. He went carefully over the ground of the history of the events that led up to the indictment for conspiracy and showed the things which the prosecution

Business on the Stock Exchange took a new tack this morning that is significant of the expectations. Oahu is holding steady, selling at 29.25 on the Board. There is a general drift, however, to change Oahu holdings for Ewa and Waiolu on this island and Hawaiian Commercial on Maui. This is due to the extra good showing of these plantations as the season continues as favorably as it has run thus far. This will mean extra dividends. Oahu is paying its full limit now and before the end of the year may reduce to one or one and a half per cent, according to the tendency of the price of sugar.

Ewa, Waiolu and possibly Hawaiian Commercial are thought to be almost certain to pay some extras, and the trend of the market in the next few weeks will demonstrate how far the public will go in discounting these additional payments.

DON CARLOS DEAD

ROME, July 18.—Don Carlos, Pretender to the Spanish throne, died here today of apoplexy.

Don Carlos, Duke of Madrid, was the grandnephew of Ferdinand VII of Spain. He based his claim to the throne of Spain on the ground that the Salic law barred Isabella, the daughter of Ferdinand VII, from legally wearing the crown. Don Carlos took up arms in 1873 and actually reigned over the greater part of Northern Spain until 1876, taking the title of Charles VII.

Shortly after Alfonso XII was proclaimed King at Madrid, Carlos was surrounded by the armies of the new sovereign and forced to retire to France.

Don Carlos would have had a strong claim on the throne of France had the royalists come into power in his day, as he was the undisputed senior male heir of the house of Bourbon. French royalists frequently invited him to put forward his claims, but he always abstained from so doing.

Through the death of Don Carlos, Don Jaime, an officer of the Russian army, born in 1870, becomes the head of the Carlist line.

What Army and Navy Folk Are Doing

At the U. S. Engineer's Camp, an excellent library has been established in one of the cottages for the use of the men, and considerable time is spent there in reading books, papers and magazines. It is one of the most attractive features of their camp life, and is in charge of Engineer Williams, an old newspaper man.

5th Cavalry.

Leave for three months is granted 1st Lieut. Selwyn D. Smith, 5th Cav., to take effect upon the completion of his duties at the Mounted Service School, Fort Riley.

Corps of Engineers.

First Lieut. Henry H. Robert, C. E., from the Division Hospital, Manila, to the General Hospital, Presidio of San Francisco, for observation and treatment.

Leave for one month on account of sickness is granted Capt. Edward M. Adams, C. E.

The retirement of Col. Ernest H. Ruffner, C. E., from active service on June 24, 1909, under the requirements of the Act of Congress approved June 30, 1882, is announced.

The leave granted Major Robert R. Raymond, C. E., is further extended ten days.

First Lieut. William A. Mitchell, C. E., will proceed to Fort Niagara, N. Y., in time to report not later than July 17, 1909, for duty as a competitor in the Atlantic Rifle Competition.

Three Killed.

Manila press despatches of June 30 state that three more of the Davao mutineers have been killed in a running fight with troops. Of the company of native constabulary that mutilated on the island of Mindanao several weeks ago only thirteen are still at large. One company of the 23d Infantry and three companies of constabulary are in pursuit.

Edgerly Relieved.

Brig. Gen. Winfield S. Edgerly is relieved from command of the post of Fort Riley, to take effect July 11, but will continue to perform the duty of commandant of the Mounted Service School. Leave of two months is granted Capt. James C. Rhea, to take effect Sept. 15. The leave granted Col. John R. Williams April 22 is further extended one month.

The newspaper report that white troops are to be sent to Fort Brown at Brownsville has no official foundation. It is not likely that the War Department will ever again make use of Fort Brown as a military post. It has been turned over to the Department of Agriculture for special scientific purposes, which seems not unlikely to conduce to the peacefulness of the people of Brownsville, and well enough will be permanently let alone.

Midshipman V. E. Clark, who graduated with the third section of class of 1907, in June, 1909, made application for transfer to the Coast Artillery, under the rule that applications for transfer will only be considered after six years' course has been completed.

The Cuban government has tried to purchase certain rifles and other ordnance articles and various quartermaster's supplies. The War Department is quite willing to sell the articles wanted, but it is held by the War Department that without legislation by Congress, in whom the ownership of all the government property lies, no sale can be made.

NATIONAL GUARD SHOOT AT FORT SHAFTER

On Saturday and Sunday the N. G. H. had some rifle practice at the Fort Shafter butts and, although on the first day some good records were put up, the shooting on Sunday was indifferent.

The rain and gusty weather interfered a lot with accurate firing, and many times when a man had got his proper windage the breeze would either drop altogether or change around and blow from the other quarter.

The team to go to the coast will be selected within a day or two and the members will leave for the mainland on August 2. The local team, on present form, should make a good showing in the National shoot and Hawaii should stand much higher in the list than on their previous visits.

The following are the scores at the 200 yards (slow fire): 200 yards (rapid fire): 600 yards and skirmish, in that order:

Perriera, 39, 31, 35 and 83; Stone, 42, 30, 40 and 88; Silva, 40, 41, 38 and 84; Gouveia, 39, 38, 31 and 87; Hopkins, 40, 31, 40 and 87; Coster, 39, 30, 27 and 78; May, 36, 34, 43 and 84; Williams, 37, 28, 24 and 82; Barry, 41, 28, 30 (did not shoot); Lemon, 14, 38, 39 and 88; Stillman, 24, 28, 34 and 85; Cummins.

HARRIMAN TO DRINK BEER TO GET HIS "STEAM" BACK

Railroad Wizard to Sup "Suds" At Austrian Resort

SEMMERING, Austria, June 29. —Professor Struppell, the noted neurologist has declared that E. H. Harriman, the great American railroad wizard, is undernourished and has prescribed for him a course of treatment designed to put fat on the Harriman ribs.

"Drink large quantities of milk," he told Mr. Harriman; "eat plenty of meat and cereals and drink unlimited quantities of malt beer."

"Three cheers for bread and beef," the railroad king is said to have shouted at this juncture.

Mr. Harriman began this morning the course prescribed for him by Professor Struppell. He will remain here till July 15, when he will leave for Bendorle to take radium baths.

"What you need," said the doctor, in Harriman's ear, "Is Beer! Beer! Beer!"

"Take a stein in the morning; swei, drei, maybe fier, Of Beer! Beer! Beer!"

"A wizard Whose gizzard Is feeling so queer Needs Beer! Beer! Beer!"

"It'll build up your muscles put flesh on your slats, And drive from your belfry the cobwebs and bats. It's got medicine skinned every day in the year, Has Beer! Beer! Beer!"

"I like your prescription," says E. H., "here goes. Let me stay in the land where the Wurzburgers flows."

If Harriman were in Honolulu the doctor would recommend PRIMO, because its the

OTTO WINKLER DIES AT EARLY AGE OF 44

A well known resident of Honolulu, Otto Winkler, passed away on Saturday afternoon after an illness of but three days. On Wednesday afternoon he complained of pains in the abdomen, and retired to his home, where on Saturday afternoon he succumbed to an internal disarrangement of the stomach.

Mr. Winkler came here about 12 years ago as a soldier in the United States army, and after receiving honorable discharge, served one term of enlistment in the National Guard Hawaiian Army. On the disbanding of the latter, he was appointed assistant at the Insane Asylum and left that position to enter employment with Messrs. Peacock & Co., with whom he has been for the last six or seven years as manager of the Pacific salmon.

The funeral took place yesterday afternoon from the parlors of H. H. Williams and was very largely attended. It was held under the auspices of the Eagles, he having been a member of that organization for a number of years.

At the time of his decease, Mr. Winkler was only 44 years of age and leaves a widow and child to mourn their loss. He was born at Baden, Germany.

The pall-bearers at the funeral were: D. H. Lewis, Charles Lambert, Geo. J. O'Neill, Geo. Campbell, R. J. Buchly, Geo. Reed, Joseph Silva and W. Frazer.

ROBERT BACON

Robert Bacon, who is to succeed Henry White as ambassador to France, was born in Massachusetts forty-nine years ago and was graduated from Harvard in the same class with Theodore Roosevelt. He joined the banking firm of J. P. Morgan & Co. and at one time was the firm's European representative. In 1905 he accepted the post of assistant secretary of state and was the close companion and friend of President Roosevelt until the end of the administration. Mr. Bacon became secretary of state upon the retirement of Elihu Root and occupied the place in the cabinet until the appointment of Philander C. Knox.

SPICY SALOME DANCE SPOOKS STERN JUDGE.

NEW YORK, July 7.—Three justices of special sessions court today decided that the Salome dance as given by Mille de Leon, the "Giri in Blue," is indecent and infamous and "a downright shame."

They convicted her of being a public nuisance and suspended sentence, warning her that a repetition of her offense would mean a cell.

Mille de Leon was arrested in Hurrig & Seamon's theater.

PARK THEATER.

Manager Congdon will present an entirely new picture at the popular Park this evening and call it "The Mohammedan at Home." It is a stirring picture of Turkish life and shows much of the Oriental splendor that a tourist to the old world finds in his travels. Poverty is not lost sight of in the series of views, and the audience will have an opportunity to see both sides of the life with a smattering of the tribes in the desert. The Melnotte sisters will sing "Always Me," and George Milne will sing, with slide accompaniment, "Blue Eyes." The Park has secured the services of J. B. Hughes, a baritone of more than ordinary ability, as a singer, and he will make his first appearance tonight.

ASAMI VAUDEVILLE.

There is such a monotony in the amusement line in Honolulu that any diversion is gladly welcomed. The Asahi Theater was crowded from pit to dome Saturday night and the various turns were heartily applauded. The specialties introduced are as clever as any put on at the vaudeville circuits in big cities. Chico, the South American wire walker, is great; the Elld Trio, cyclists, have some hair-raising feats, and the Chilean wonders, the Faneca trio, are the best acrobats that have ever appeared in Honolulu. Tonight is the last performance as the company goes to Hilo and then leaves for the Orient, where a circuit of twenty theatres is awaiting them.

Note that the Japanese leaders have become so arrogant that they demand the Japanese Consul General should first consult the High Wage Association. How long does this community intend to allow its affairs to be run by lawless aliens?

Nothing can help the labor situation more than to strip the acts of the Japanese associated with the strike of all plausible explanations, and bring enough officers of the law into the field to compel the respect so scantily accorded by the strike leaders.

"The newspaper is the Bible in

After a delay of more than six years, the teachers of Brooklyn have won their suit for $295,283.69 for back salary, with interest, for the first six months of 1899. During those six months the teachers were paid under a lower schedule of salaries than the schedule which was actually in force, and the suit was brought for the difference.—News Item.

This may furnish a suggestion to the teachers of Hawaii who had to sacrifice their salaries some years ago.

VIGOROUS POLICY NEEDED.

Supporters and promoters of the strike on the plantations take great pleasure in stating that the official representative of the Japanese government was subjected to threats and indignities when he addressed a party of workmen, urging them to return to their work.

Here again we have evidence of the absolute lack of respect for law or true pride of nationality on the part of the men who are manipulating this strike game.

They not only flaunt flagrant violations of the law in the face of the officers of the government of this Territory. They show an equally vicious attitude toward the Japanese government.

It would seem that this should be sufficient to solidify the forces of law and order in the Territory beyond peradventure of double dealing—smooth speaking and secret support of the strikers.

What the men who left Oahu and Honolulu plantations may be planning to do is of comparatively little moment at the present time. It has been established beyond the alightest doubt that the Territory is harboring and has been harboring a Japanese element that is dangerous to the integrity of the very government.

Criminal organizations have been exposed that live and breed on disrespect for the law, and more especially the law of the Territory of Hawaii as a part of the United States.

That equal contempt is shown the representative of their own government does not change the situation so far as our own people are concerned, except that they are bound to protect the officers of a friendly nation, as well as the law-abiding residents of that nation.

What the officials of Hawaii and the city and county of Honolulu should do is, pursue the lawless element connected with the strike with unrelenting vigor.

It would be none too radical a step to place a force of special police in charge of the strikers' camps and the sections of the city where they congregate.

The freedom of the strikers to return to work will not be established until the civil authorities line the highways leading to the plantations with as many officers of the law as there may be strike pickets now on watch to attack any Japanese leaving the city without a "pass" from this independent Japanese government in full swing for the control of the movements of men and women regardless of the edicts of the court.

It is full time that the whole situation was handled with due regard for what it is, not with soft respect for the comment of a few individuals who either tell us that it will be all right tomorrow or the ignorant outfit that claim the conditions are being exaggerated.

Courts of law are notably slow.
There is a lot of work that might be done by which the courts would be materially assisted.

RIOT TRIAL

selves. Each juror should listen with attention and deference to the arguments of his fellows, and with distrust of his own judgment if he finds a large majority of the jury taking a different view of the case from what he does himself. No juror should go to the jury-room with a blind determination that the verdict shall represent the opinion of the case entertained by him at the moment he enters the jury-room.
He should not close his ears to, nor exclude from his consideration the arguments of men who are equally honest and intelligent as himself.

Absolute certainty can not be expected in a large proportion of cases because of the transitory character of human recollection of past events and a difficult and imperfect, and often inaccurate, expression of the various mental processes by means of words and phrases. The degree of certainty required in a criminal case as to the truth of the charge set forth in a complaint or indictment is not which transcends or even equals absolute certainty or positive conviction to such an extent as to exclude every possible doubt, but only that degree of certainty that will exclude every reasonable hypothesis but that of guilt—a moral certainty such as will satisfy and direct the understanding and judgment of those who are found to act conscientiously upon it not such as might be necessary to induce a person of the greatest prudence and caution to act, but such as a person of ordinary prudence and caution and of ordinary intelligence and understanding would bewilling to act upon in the gravest and more important affairs of his own life.

The jury went out once more and was locked up. Less than an hour later they were back in court, still hopelessly at odds. Judge Robinson would probably have held them longer and was plainly adverse to discharging them at this time. Lightfoot arose and moved that they be dismissed, making a long speech over the matter. Ballou was representing the prosecution and Kinney did not arrive until later, mopping his brow and asking for information. Judge Robinson informed him of the status of the case and after a moment's consideration, curtly, and with a wave of his arm, offered no objection to their dismissal.

After they had left the room, Goudie was asked as to the standing of the jurors in the matter. He curtly refused to give any information on the subject, saying that they had made an agreement among themselves not to divulge this point.
In his report to the Judge, Goudie stated on behalf of the jury that they had done all they could as citizens to arrive at a fair and unanimous verdict.
He stated that he might safely say that they had taken at least thirty to forty ballots in all during the time they were locked out.

When they were sent to bed at the Young Hotel, Saturday night at 10 o'clock, they continued to discuss the case and strove to arrive at an agreement until 1:30 Sunday morning. They again resumed deliberation immediately after Sunday breakfast, and at 4 o'clock p. m. were called into court, where they announced that they were no nearer a verdict than before. Judge Robinson repeated his admonition and until 9 o'clock this morning they did not report again.
The ballots as first taken were as

He showed how the intense enmity between Sheba and the management of the Jiji resulted from a mutual misunderstanding and a mutual misunderstanding of the Jiji. He outlined the intervention of the Higher Wage idea, when Tanaka went to Maui on business connected with the voting contest and how Sheba first split with the other editors after counselling moderation.

He went carefully over the ground during that time when Sheba was advocating a campaign of education among the planters as the best means to obtain higher wages for the laborers, and the Nippon Jiji was demanding immediate action on the part of the men.

The first of the newspaper conferences was depicted where the editors attempted to come to an understanding and where Makino and Negoro finally worked in and obtained control, although ostensibly they were not connected with the newspapers.

was mentioned to him:

"I do not see on what grounds they have a complaint to make, for I am sure every public utility should contribute something to the Territory in return for the privileges given it. The matter has been referred to the Attorney General and myself, and we only want to be fair and get what is coming to the Territory."

At this morning's meeting of the Mutual Telephone Company, the amended charter and propositions affecting it, were discussed, but nothing definite was settled. It is understood that there will be a conference of Governor Frear, Attorney General Hemenway and Treasurer Conkling with the Telephone officials, at which time some agreement will probably be reached.

fy to happenings in 1900 his evidence was objected to and the objection sustained.

John Aise was next called, and he testified that he was Superintendent of the Kalihui Receiving Station.
The Doctor visited there four or five times a week, and that he was treating patients for leprosy upon whom there had been considerable outward improvement.

His next witness was Mrs. Way-son, but she was not there and the prosecution stated that they were quite willing to admit anything that the Doctor might seek to prove by her evidence. The Doctor stated that he wished to prove that neither Mrs.
Wayson nor the children were in any danger on the nights that he fired the shots at Dr. Wayson's house last October. This County Attorney Cathcart said they were prepared to admit, but Dr. Atcherley insisted that she be brought into court.

Judge Andrade ordered that she be sent for and ordered the Doctor to proceed with his next witness.

With his next witness the Doctor was very personal; his first question being:

Q. Are you a qualified physician?

A. Yes.

Q. Where did you qualify?

A. At the University of California.

Q. Where is that? In San Francisco?

A. No, at Berkeley.

Q. Have you ever followed any business other than the practice of medicine?

This question was objected to by Mr. Cathcart and the objection sustained.

Q. When did you qualify?

A. In 1891.

Q. What did you do when you came to Honolulu first?

A. I was at the Receiving Station at Kalihui.

Q. Did you ever keep a drug store on King street?

A. No.

The Doctor then proceeded to examine him on the occasion of his arrest last October for shooting at the witness' house, but gained no material point in this. He next tried to prove that the witness never had any business on Emma street, where defendant's office was, and that witness went there simply to annoy defendant. In this he failed to gain any material point, and Dr. Wayson was excused from the stand.

Charles Charlock next took the stand, and Dr. Atcherley then brought himself to the sewer question, but Mr. Charlock disclaimed all knowledge of the sewerage system of the city so far as speaking authoritatively, as he stated it was not in his department. Witness was then called upon to testify that defendant had made two applications to the Board of Health for leave to treat certain lepers and that this application had been refused on the motion of Dr. Wayson.

This was all the evidence of Mr.
Charlock, and the Doctor then called Frank Carr, who is a leper at the Kalihui Receiving Station. Upon his being told that no service of the subpoena had been made, the Doctor made a strenuous protest against the injustice of the court. He said: "This is the second witness whom I have called to have here, who is not here, and that because no service demanding their attendance has been made."

Judge Andrade said: "Mrs. Way-son has been sent for, and Frank Carr I will not have here. The matter of curing leprosy does not enter into the question of whether you were sane or insane on the fifteenth day of July, and if his evidence is necessary to you it must be taken by affidavit or some other means. I will not order him to be subpoenaed."

Jack Atcherley was called to testify that he had seen Dr. Wayson on Emma street and that he would know the Doctor if he saw him again.

Mrs. Atcherley then took the stand and testified that she had heard strange noises around the house. On the first occasion she was aroused out of her sleep by the screams of her daughter and a young Portuguese girl who stayed with them.
They said that some man tried to open the window.

She said: "I at once aroused the Doctor and asked him to come with me outside to see if there was anyone there. He did so, and just as we got outside the house we saw a dark figure disappear through the shrub into the road. 'My,' I said to the Doctor, 'I'm sure that is Chester Doyle.' I said this because the figure was just like Chester Doyle's, with hard hat and dark clothes, just like he wears." She went on to testify to hearing various noises in the grounds around the house and how they disturbed the children, but her statement contained no definite reason for the way in which the noise occurred except that on another occasion someone again attempted to open the window.

The Doctor then took the stand and attacked the warrant. He said that the warrant was sworn to by Sheriff Jarrett. "That Sheriff Jarrett had not seen him that day and could not swear that he was insane on the day alleged. The Doctor then proceeded to make a very rambling speech in which he jumped from one point to another. In the main he sought to show that from an early date certain persons had been playing tricks on him. That the occurrences on Punchbowl were exactly similar to those occurring at his residence. That certain persons were jealous of his knowledge of a cure for leprosy and were making constant attempts to obtain knowledge of his secret, and finally that the article in the newspaper was not true as printed, and that he possibly made some incorrect statements there, but if the Judge would pronounce a man insane because he gave a fiction to the newspaper then there were a great many others who ought to be in the insane asylum.

Mr. Cathcart in cross-examination brought out that the Doctor still retained all his beliefs with regard to the gang working in the sewer and that they had been practicing on Punchbowl. With regard to the composition of the gang, he was quite sure that Dr. Wayson and Chester Doyle were in it, but he was not so sure of Messrs. Cathcart and Dr. Irinckerhoff.

This concluded the evidence of the morning and the case was continued till 2 o'clock this afternoon.

After the noon recess, the government wished to put Mr. Smith of the Advertiser on the stand and examine him as to the interview in the office of that paper. Atcherley objected to this, but was willing to admit it if Frank Carr was called. This was not allowed as Carr is a leper.

Atcherley refused to go on the stand for cross-examination until it was so ordered by the court, Judge Andrade stating that he did not wish his court room turned into a circus.

Atcherley, in cross-examination, denied most of the interview published in the Advertiser. Mrs. Wayson was also examined this afternoon but only on trivial questions.

SHOES GIVE BAKER AWAY

Young Frenzied Financier Caught In Roll Of
Sheriff's Son

Baker alias Bright, alias Kaulali, is now safely lodged in jail, having been captured at Palama hospital by Chief Detective Leal yesterday noon. The escapades of this young man are already well known. Of how he registered at the Young Hotel as John K. Baker, Jr., and passed himself off as the son of ex-Governor John K. Baker.
Of how he flim-flammed all the automobile drivers in town, gave a $50 dinner at the Young Hotel and last but not least ordered goods amounting to hundreds of dollars from various Chinese and Japanese merchants in the city.

Baker was discovered at Palama Hospital, where he has been ever since his mysterious disappearance about two weeks ago. He telephoned the hospital and said his name was Williams, that he was sending down a young man who was the son of Sheriff Saffrey of Maui for treatment. Then the bold young man himself strolled down to the hospital and presented himself as the said son, and was given a room and treated for rheumatism, from which he was suffering. His desire to talk soon got him into trouble and the suspicions of the nurse were aroused when he made the statement that he had been staying at the house of Sheriff Jarrett.

Mr. Williams was communicated with and he came to the hospital. He was told that the young man whom he had sent down was still there and on his being presented to the young man denied ever having seen him before.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral

For over 50 years I have always kept Ayer's Cherry Pectoral in the house. My father often told me that it saved my life when I was very young.

In thousands of homes Ayer's Cherry Pectoral is a household word. It has been used first by the parents, then by the children, and now by the children. For colds and coughs, croup, bronchitis, is grippe, inflammation in the throat or in the bronchial tubes.

SPORTS

Waianae Boys Win Again

The Oahu Plantation Baseball League, which have three more games to be played, same being delayed for more than a month on account of the strike situation, have once more resumed playing.

The Alea team which was twice defeated by the Waianae team, scores 1 to 0 and 7 to 6, journeyed to Waianae on the 18th instant to bring home victory, which so long appeared certain. Although the visitors played good ball, they could not stop the onslaught of the home batters, and in the seventh inning it seemed as if the Chinese New Year were again being celebrated. The required number of innings were not played, as the visitors preferred going about sight-seeing in place of chasing the ball all over the field, after the score already stood 15 to 2 in favor of the Waianae.

Championship now lies between the Ewa team and the Waianae team, and this game will be played in town to give the town people a chance to see what class of ball the cane raisers can produce.

Honolulu Golf Club Tournament

H. H. White won the first prize in the Honolulu Golf Club tournament at Manalua yesterday. A. F. Ewart was the runner up, getting within 9 of the winner.
There was a big turn-out of golfers and the play was watched with great interest. The links were in excellent condition, and the rain held off sufficiently for the tournament to be brought to a conclusion.
The scores turned in were as follows: H. A. White, 94 less 15, 79; A. F. Ewart, 100 less 12, 88; Munro, 104, less 12, 92; D. W. Anderson, scratch, 98; R. A. Jordan, 124 less 18, 106; J. D. Dougherty, 130 less 18, 112.

Up To Wright Bros. To Beat Record

DOUS, France, July 18. — Paul Hem broke the aeroplane record as far as altitude is concerned, when he drove his machine to a height of 450 feet today. The best previous record was 360 feet, made by the Wright brothers.
It is not to be supposed that the Wright brothers will be content with taking second place to the Frenchman, who, as cabled, rose to a height of 450 feet in his aeroplane. The Wrights are the pioneers in the aeroplane business, and for long distance flights are easily first. They have not, so far, gone in for altitude tests very much, but now that France has beaten the record the Americans can be depended on to go still higher.
Paul Hem, the French record breaker, must be a new man at the game, as nothing is known of his previous attempts at winging through space.

Might Have Been A Local Tragedy

BERLIN, July 18.—Eight were killed, a score seriously injured, and many more received minor hurts through the explosion of a motorcycle at today's races. The cycle became unmanageable and, wrapped in flames, plunged through the crowds.
When the people who attended the motorcycle races at Kapiolani Park on June 11 last, read the above cable, they will thank their lucky stars that Berger's machine did not explode when it caught on fire on that memorable day.
Most of the crowd did not seem aware of the danger of an explosion, and kept crowding around the blazing machine. If the fire had not been quenched a horrible accident might have occurred, and the list of dead and injured would have been as long as that in Berlin.
In future it is to be hoped that the spectators will give the machine a wide berth.

KIMURA OBJECTS TO WAITING.

Lightfoot, the strike attorney, appeared before Judge Andrade last Saturday on behalf of nine Japanese arrested at and brought from Waiolua on the charge of having interfered with Sheriff Jarrett while in the performance of his duties.

Lightfoot, in speaking for the nine defendants, asked that bail be fixed at not to exceed $500 per head. The prosecution wanted bail fixed at $100. The Judge made the figure $750.

After the Court adjourned, Kimura, one of the defendants, learning what disposition had been made of his case, objected to waiting too long. He said that if he was guilty at all, he wanted to serve his sentence right away, in order to get through with it as soon as possible.

Kirkwood waited in patient attention till she chose to continue. When she did, "Now for my side of the case," cried Mrs. Italian, and, rising began to pace the room, her slender and rounded figure swaying gracefully the while she talked.

"George Calendar is a scoundrel," she said, "a swindler, gambler—what I believe you Americans call a confidence man. He is also my late husband's first cousin. Some years since he found it convenient to leave England, likewise his wife and daughter, Mrs. Calendar—a countrywoman of yours, by the way—died shortly afterward. Dorothy, by the most accident, obtained a situation as private secretary in the household of the late Colonel Burgoyne of the Chiffre, Cornwall. You follow me?"

"Yes, perfectly."

"Colonel Burgoyne died, leaving his estates to my son, some time ago. Shortly afterward Dorothy Calendar disappeared. We know now that her father took her away, but then the disappearance seemed inexplicable, especially since with her vanished a great deal of valuable information. She alone knew of the location of certain of the old colonel's personal effects."

"He was an eccentric. One of his peculiarities involved the secreting of valuables in odd places. He had no faith in banks. Among these valuables were the Burgoyne family jewels—quite a treasure, believe me, Mr. Kirkwood. We found no note of them among the colonel's papers and without Dorothy were powerless to pursue a search for them. We advertised and employed detectives, with no result. It seems that father and daughter were at Monte Carlo at the time."

"Beautifully circumstantial, my dear lady," commented Kirkwood to his inner consciousness. Outwardly he maintained consistently a pose of impassive guilelessness.

"This afternoon for the first time we received news of the Calendar. Calendar himself called upon me to beg a loan. I explained our difficulty, and "Scotland Yard," he told her bluntly.

he promised that Dorothy should send us the information by the morning's post. When I insisted he agreed to bring it himself after dinner this evening. I make it quite clear," she interrupted, a little anxious.

"Quite clear, I assure you," he assented encouragingly.

"Strangely enough, he had not been gone ten minutes when my son came in from a conference with our solicitors, informing me that at last a memorandum had turned up, indicating that the bedrooms would be found in a safe secreted behind a dresser in Colonel Burgoyne's bedroom."

"At No. 9 Frogmole street."

"Yes, I proposed going there at once, but it was late, and we were dining at the Pless with an acquaintance, a Mr. Mulready, whom I now recall as a former intimate of George Calendar. To our surprise, we saw Calendar and his daughter at a table not far from ours. Mr. Mulready betrayed some agitation at the sight of Calendar and told me that Scotland Yard had a man out with a warrant for Calendar's arrest on old charges. For old sake's sake Mr. Mulready begged me to give Calendar a word of warning. I did so—foolishly, it seems, Calendar was at that moment planning to rob us, Mulready aiding and abetting him."

"The woman paused before Kirkwood, looking down upon him. "And so," she concluded, "we have been tricked and swindled. I can scarcely believe it of Dorothy Calendar."

"I, for one, don't believe it," Kirkwood spoke quickly, rising. "Whatever the culpability of Calendar and Mulready, Dorothy was only their hoodwinked tool."

HUGE SUCCESS OF ATHLETIC PARK

BIG CROWD ATTEND OPENING OF PARK—TWO GAMES OF BASEBALL FOLLOW PARADE—MARINES SHOW FIRST-CLASS FORM AND DEFEAT KALIHIS.

If anyone had the slightest doubt as to the popularity of baseball in this city, a trip to the Ewa end of the town would quickly have dispelled such erroneous ideas yesterday.

Why, there was ball even in the air, and one could not escape the thought that here, right in our midst, was a leavening process going on which is blending the different races together and all through the agency of the great American game.

Aala Park had its share of the ball fans, but it was at the new Athletic Park that the big crowd congregated. Fully three thousand persons entered by the two gates to the park, and the grandstand and bleachers were simply a mass of crowded humanity. There was not even standing room anywhere on the buildings, and the space under the grandstand was a seething sea of craning necks.

The scene was a very animated one, and, excepting for a few slight showers that fell during the afternoon, all was to the lovely for sure. Flags decorated the grandstand, and the flag of Nippon, the Flowery Kingdom, Hawaii and "The Grand Old Rag" flew bravely to the breeze side by side.

The "skin" diamond was a thing of joy for the players, but an abomination to the spectators who were seated under the stand, for the top dressing of sawdust that adorns the diamond was wafted into the eyes of the press bunch and the rest of the fans. The wind seems to be always blowing down the valley, and consequently the optics of those seated beneath the grandstand had to suffer.

However, everybody was out to enjoy themselves, and they surely did have a good time of it. Before 2 o'clock Manager Douthitt had to consider stopping the sale of tickets for the grandstand, as there was no more room there for spectators.

When the Marines stepped on to the diamond to do battle with the Kalihis a great roar went up from the crowd, and everybody sat tight in anticipation of seeing the game of their lives.

The Marines scored in their first through the agency of Hayes, and after that there was nothing doing up to the second half of the seventh, when Davis and Gibson got home safe amidst the frantic cheers of the Marine supporters.

With the score standing at three to nil in favor of the Marines, and seven innings gone, it certainly looked as if the whitewash act was coming off, but in the eighth the Kalihis managed to make one run with the aid of Kalpo, who was brought in by Clark.

In the second half of the eighth the Marines added one more run to their total, and it was Coll who did the trick. The Kalihis were unable to increase their score in the ninth, and there was no necessity for the Marines to go to the bat again.

The Marines were too strong for the other combination, and that is all there was too it. Clark, for the losers, pitched good ball, striking out no less than eight men. The man from Ewa is a twister from the word go, and if properly backed up would have made things very interesting for the half-wets. Thomas, who did the receiving for the Kalihis, was O. K., and some of his work was really good. Sheppard, on first, was good, as usual, and he certainly kept up the reputation of the Fifth Cavalry as ball tossers.

For the Marines, Gibson and Williams formed the battery, and old reliable "Andy" held down first. The last named attended to the obligations of no less than eleven men who failed to make first safely. Hayes was brilliant all the time, and his catching was a treat to watch.

The Marines are getting together in great style and their game is improving all the time; it will take a strong team to beat them in the present series.

The second game, between the C. A. Cs and the J. A. Cs, was a peculiar one, as at the start the Chinese team led off with three runs and looked winners all over. However, the J. A. Cs made one also in their first and piled up three beauties in their second, putting them one run ahead. The C. A. Cs failed to score in their second, and then there was nothing doing for a couple of innings.

In the fifth the C. A. Cs made one run and tied the score. The rooting of the fans was something to be marveled at then. However, the Chinese had about shot their bolt, and the J. A. Cs making two in the eighth and again a couple in the ninth, won easily by a score of 9 to 4.

John Lo, who pitched up till the ninth, got huffy with the catcher and said that that individual was not giving him signals. John walked off the field and Ah Pui finished the game.

There were a number of errors in the game, and the class of ball was not very good. Still the excitement ran high and the game was enjoyed by the fans. The Japanese section of the crowd put in some fine hits in the rooting line, and their joy was absolute when the "Japanese" team won. The J. A. C. team is a mixed one, and there are only two sons of Nippon on it. Yamashiro and Wakita, the twin of Japanese, both made a run and upheld the honor of the land of the chrysanthemum.

The parade prior to the ball games was a big affair, and the line of march was crowded with spectators. Chief-Isa, headed the pageant and was followed by eight policemen, the Mayor, Major Long and the whole of the Oahu League teams. The Hawaiian Band was on deck, too, and Captain Berger gave some fine selections during the march.

Upon arrival at the grounds, A. K. Vierra introduced Mayor Fern to the crowd, and then Mayor Long took hold of a bat, and getting his eye onto a spit ball that the Mayor threw in, swatted a foul. On a second attempt, the Mayor fanned, but hit the next delivery way down the field and was cheered for the performance.

The opening day of the new grounds, and at the same time of the Oahu League turned out to be a great success, and it proves that people will pay moderate prices to see baseball in comfort. The venture seems to have made good, and if a little kick be allowed the press a few words will be in order.

The press box is comfortable enough, but is not placed in the proper position. The game cannot be seen properly at present, as any work done in the field near first base is on the blind side of the reporter's bench. If the press table were directly behind the catcher everything could be seen and the pleasure of the scribes intensified.

The official scores of the two games follow:

Riverside League Games At Aala

Although the Athletic Park drew the major part of the Sunday baseball fans, a respectable sized crowd attended the games at Aala Park. Company "G" Wins Championship

There was a fine game of ball at Leilehua on Saturday afternoon, when Company G of Fort Shafter went to the home of the Fifth Cavalry and handed them theirs to the tune of 4 to 2.

This latest victory of the Shafter boys gives them the proud title of champion of all the company teams of Hawaii. Saturday's game was the deciding one in the series, and the G boys are very elated over their victory.

McCall, than whom there is not a harder worker on the baseball diamond, did excellent work for his side, and on third is as good as any local player.

Bolun and Ramsey did the pitching for the winners, and Bateman the catching. For the losers Miles and Bell formed the battery, and they did good work, too. When the Military League starts up again the public will be surprised to see how much the Shatters have improved, and they should do much better in the next series than they did in the first.
