NEW GOVERNOR'S POLICY.

Carter's Inauguration and Retiring Word From Dole.

Honolulu, Nov. 5.—When the commissions of Governor George R. Carter and Federal Judge Sanford B. Dole arrive, and they are expected on Friday, the 13th instant, there will be immediate preparations for big doings in the Capital.

Dole ceases to be Governor as he takes the oath as Judge and Carter becomes Governor as soon as the present incumbent retires.

Chief Justice Frear of the Territorial Supreme Court will probably administer the oath of office to the new Governor and there will be appropriate ceremonies and manifestations.

The military will turn out in the grounds of the Capitol, the Territorial band under Captain Berger will be on duty, crowds will assemble in the Capitol park, other business in the departments of the executive will stand still and the change of administration will be marked by demonstrations of courtesy to the retiring Governor and his successor.

From the balcony of the Capitol it is expected that retiring Governor Dole will deliver an address to the assembled crowd, touching on his completed incumbency and the new field appointed for his labors by the President.

Governor Carter will deliver an inaugural address, briefly outlining and prophecying the policy of the new administration, referring to the lessons of the past and looking to the work of the future. In the evening a ball may be held, but, of course, nothing definite has been arranged in this regard, nor will there be until the commissions arrive and the day of the inauguration is known.

Mr. Carter was asked this morning as to the policy of the new administration and the probable procedure immediately upon the receipt of the commissions.

The present Secretary of the Territory replied that he had been so busy with the county elections and, indeed, was still so absorbed in this matter, that it had been impossible for him to give much thought to details concerning coming events.

In reference to policy he stated that the old saw about not crossing bridges until they were reached held good in the present case.

"Yes," he said, "it will be my duty to deliver an address when I take office as Governor. Then I shall try, briefly, to outline the policy of the administration. It is only right that the public should know something of the intentions of a new officer. They have a right to know what to expect as nearly as a newly appointed Governor can map out.

"I am not much of a prophet and I can't foretell events. I can only say now that I believe in the will of the people and in a good, honest conduct of public affairs; and straightforward American principles.

"No, I will not consider appointments until I am Governor."

Mission of Peace.

Washington, Nov. 10.—The Government will facilitate General Reyes' peace mission.

Colon, Nov. 10.—The Government intends to adopt a gold currency.

The French, British and German consuls have addressed a letter of gratitude to the commander of the U. S. S. gunboat Nashville for his protection of their countrymen during the recent troubles.

San Domingo, Nov. 10.—A gunboat is bombarding Mucoris, which is occupied by revolutionists.

PANAMA REVOLUTION.

The Independence of the Isthmus is Probable.

Panama, Nov. 9.—It is reported that General Raphael Reyes has been appointed Colombian peace commissioner. This is believed to be an assurance that Colombia is willing to grant independence to Panama. There is great enthusiasm at the prospect of early peace. General Raphael Reyes, the Colombian peace commissioner, has been mentioned for some time as the probable successor of President Matroquin and in later dispatches he has also been spoken of as "an able leader who is preparing to head a revolution against the Marroquin government." General Reyes has generally been considered as strongly in favor of the Hay-Herran Canal treaty which the Colombian Congress recently refused to ratify.

Secretary Carter's Statement.

Honolulu, Nov. 10.—"There are all kinds of rumors of what occurred in the Executive Council meeting today," said Mr. Carter yesterday afternoon. "I desire to state for the benefit of the public, that what I am endeavoring to get at is the actual financial condition of the Territory as it stands today. Governor Dole feels that he has sufficient data to guide his actions, but I do not share this feeling yet. Here is an illustration. I asked the Superintendent of Public Works to give me a statement of those contracts and other matters which he had entered into and which affected the moneys to be received from the sale of the Territorial bonds. I did not receive the information asked for, and reminded Mr. Cooper about it, and asked him if he would not be kind enough to let me know before anything else was done. I thought it only fair to the new administration to not go ahead on such matters without my knowledge."

Balfour Gives Views.

London, Nov. 10.—At the great banquet given in honor of the King's birthday, Prime Minister Balfour expressed himself as sanguine that there would be war in the Far East.

The Premier regretted the Alaskan decision but most loyally accepted a settlement of so vexed a question by a tribunal as an inestimable boon.

Panama, Nov. 9.—Senor Varilla has opened negotiations on behalf of the Republic of Panama for a new canal agreement. He assures Secretary Hay that the isthmian government is anxious for a speedy canal treaty, simpler in text than the Colombian treaty and more positive as to the extent of American control.

Berlin, Nov. 8.—The report that Emperor William and Czar Nicholas have concluded an offensive and defensive alliance, effective in the event of England supporting Japan in the Manchurian trouble is denied. The Czar has been here and on the most friendly terms with the Kaiser, but the reported alliance is emphatically denied.

Washington, November 9.—The Colombian minister, has presented to the State Department a strong protest on the part of his government against the action of the United States in Panama. Objection is made to the landing of marines on the isthmus and a still more vigorous protest against the recognition of the revolutionists and their government. A further objection is to the sending of the American fleet to patrol the isthmus, thus preventing a landing by the Colombians. Secretary Hay has not sent his reply.

SHORT CABLEGRAMS.

Havana, Nov. 10.—A train crashed into an omnibus here. Five persons were killed and seven injured.

Vienna, Nov. 10.—Several officers have been arrested in Bulgaria for threatening the life of Prince Ferdinand.

Colon, Nov. 9.—Rumors that Americans and foreigners are being massacred by the Colombians are not believed here.

Pekin, Nov. 9.—The reoccupation of Mukden by the Russians is explained as being due to Japan menacing Shinkiu.

Berlin, Nov. 9.—Dr. Polyprus, the famous German physician, has removed Emperor William's larynx. The operation was successful. The disease was not a malignant one.

Washington, Nov. 9.—Congress will meet today. President Roosevelt will not send his preliminary message to Congress until Tuesday. The leaders in the House have caucused and agreed to expedite the Cuban business as much as possible.

Washington, Nov. 9.—F. P. Sargent, Commissioner of Immigration, has suffered a severe stroke of paralysis. He is improving. Sargent visited Honolulu a few months ago and arranged for the building of the new immigration station there.

Washington, Nov. 9.—The Mayflower has sailed for Panama with Admiral Coghlan and Admiral Walker aboard. Admiral Walker is to visit the isthmus as commissioner for President Roosevelt and will report to the President on the situation there.

Denver, Co., Nov. 10.—Ten thousand coal miners of Colorado are on a strike for eight hours and an increase of pay. Many of the strikers are leaving for other fields and those who are compelled to stay are threatened with famine. Many industries are threatened.

Colon, Nov. 7.—The withdrawal of the Colombian troops from this city was caused by a desire to avoid bloodshed with the American forces. It was especially due to the hostile attitude of the commander of the gunboat Nashville. That vessel has since sailed to prevent the Colombian army from landing at Porto Bello.

Washington, Nov. 7.—Secretary Hay has issued a long justification of the American course at Panama. He states that the action of the United States forces is based on the treaty of New Granada and refers to the rejection of the canal treaty as the cause of the revolution. Secretary Hay says the new republic was inaugurated without opposition. Senator Morgan of Alabama declares that the American policy is unjustified and may lead to war with Colombia.

SECRETARY CARTER

Says Republican Victory was not Great Enough.

Honolulu, Nov. 4.—Secretary Carter, speaking of the elections, said this afternoon that the various innovations used yesterday would enable voter to decide as to their merits and the advisability of improvements in coming elections and changes in the election laws. The rubber stamps, kits and other devices placed before the voters could now be judged having been tested, as to their merits and the advisability of their future use or the adoption of other devices determined on.

The voting machine is greatly favored by Mr. Carter, who believes that it is only by the machine method that an absolutely fair election can be held. The Secretary mentioned in this connection that it cost the city of San Francisco $165,000 to insure fairness in an election. The machine would reduce this about seventy-five per cent, once installed.

Up all last night, visiting the various polling places where the counting of the votes dragged along, Mr. Carter has as yet had little or no opportunity to form an opinion on the manner in which the election was conducted, as to its success from a systematic standpoint, its mistakes, imperfections and possible causes of complaint. It is the Secretary's impression, as far as he has been able to gather, that the election was as fair as careful precaution was able to make it.

When all results are carefully considered and rejected ballots and the causes of their rejection are studied, much will doubtless be learned to benefit future elections.

This morning Secretary Carter received numerous cablegrams from personal friends in New York and other eastern sections, congratulating him on his appointment to the Governorship.

Mr. Carter regretted that the returns seemed to indicate that many voters had deserted the Republican party. Although, in Oahu, a Republican victory has been scored, the triumph is not what it should have been and majorities are small.

Peekskill, N. Y., Nov. 4.—An explosion in the Government arsenal at Iona Island occurred today. Sixteen men were killed.

San Francisco, Cal., Nov. 4.—The final returns of the San Francisco city election show Schmitz to have been elected by 6,395 plurality.

Constantinople, Turkey, Nov. 4.—Great Britain, Germany, France and Italy join in supporting the Austro-Russian reform plans for Macedonia.

New York, Nov. 4.—A decision was rendered today by the Arbitration Board dealing with the San Francisco street car employees' contest. The employees are granted their demand for increased wages with the same hours as at present.

Washington, November 4.—The United States Consul cables from Panama that the Colombian warships are shelling the city, which is in the hands of the revolutionists. The Consul has been instructed to protest against this action. The revolutionists request recognition from the United States without action with the Colon Government. The Colombian Government troops refuse to recognize the new government and a conflict is imminent.

Eve's Apple Tree.

A fruit supposed to bear the mark of Eve's teeth is one of the many botanical curiosities of Ceylon. The tree on which it grows is known by the significant name of "the forbidden fruit," or "Eve's apple tree." The blossom has a pleasant scent, but the really remarkable feature of the tree, the one to which it owes its name, is the fruit. It is beautiful and hangs from the tree in a peculiar manner. Orange on the outside and deep crimson within, each fruit has the appearance of having had a piece bitten out of it. This fact, together with its poisonous quality, led the Mohammedans to represent it as the forbidden fruit of the garden of Eden and to warn men against its noxious properties.—Philadelphia Record.

OUR DELEGATE BEGINS.

Presents Petition to Congress for Hawaii's Improvement.

The following petition will be among the first things to be brought to the attention of Congress:

To the Honorable Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America, in the 58th Congress assembled:

We petition your honorable body for the following appropriations:

For the dredging of Honolulu harbor and entrance channel, Territory of Hawaii, the sum of one hundred thousand dollars.

The harbor should be dredged according to the usual harbor dredging regulations of the United States, to the depth of Thirty-two feet. The harbor is small and the great size of the steamships now calling and those under construction for trans-Pacific commerce via Honolulu require this depth.

The channel should be dredged to thirty-two feet, and to thirty-five feet where affected by the ocean swell.

For the improvement of the lighthouses of the Territory of Hawaii, such a sum as the Lighthouse Board may recommend.

The lighthouses and Honolulu harbor entrance channel lights are not of a standard, requisite for the importance of trans-Pacific commerce.

For a breakwater at Hilo, Hawaii, harbor, Territory of Hawaii, an appropriation of eight hundred thousand dollars.

The Island of Hawaii has greater possibilities of development than the remainder of the group. It has but one practicable harbor, that of Hilo. Much of the time vessels cannot lie at wharves. A breakwater is imperative for the safety, convenience and development of that port, and a beginning should be made.

For a Federal building at Honolulu, Territory of Hawaii, an appropriation of one million dollars.

The accommodations for Federal business should be concentrated in one first-class building, sufficiently large for all future increase of business. The present accommodations are entirely inadequate, poor, and require prompt improvement. As the cost of material and skilled labor exceeds that of the mainland, the appropriations should not be less than one million dollars.

For a Federal building at Hilo, Hawaii, Territory of Hawaii, an appropriation of one hundred thousand dollars.

Such a building is required for Federal business.

Will Mine Radium.

Salt Lake, Oct. 6.—Advises received here state that a company has just been formed in Buffalo, to extract radium from the uranium ores in Grand County, Utah. The new company is said to own its deposits which it proposes to work, and while the exact location of the property is not disclosed, it is presumed to be the ground located by Ogden men a year or two ago.

At the head of the new company is Stephen T. Lockwood of Buffalo, who is reported to have met the prospectors while in Utah a year ago, and who on his advice sent their ore to be tested. At the time the prospectors thought the rock was gold-bearing, but the assay returns failed to show a trace of that metal. There was a heavy percentage of uranium in the ore, however, and Mr. Lockwood urged the importance of the discovery upon the prospectors and joined them, in the location of the deposits.

Tuberculosis in Fish.

That fishes and frogs may have tuberculosis has been demonstrated in the Pasteur Institute in Paris. There is no cause for alarm however, for they are found only in the intestinal organs, would be killed in cooking anyway, and bacilli reared in a cold-blooded animal can not thrive if transferred to man.

Wants Ambitious Men.

The Erie Railroad Company has issued an order discharging all employees over 35 years of age who have not been promoted since past that age for clerical work.—Pittsburg Dispatch.

COUNTY ACT CASE.

Ready for Trial on Appeal in Supreme Court.

Honolulu, Nov. 4.—When the Territorial Supreme Court sat this morning, with Justices Frear, Galbraith and Perry on the bench, the calendar was called and the case of Dole et al. vs. Cooper et al. involving the constitutionality of a portion of the County Act, was answered as ready and will probably come up this week. The matter contested concerns the Territorial Board of Public Institutions and originated in the Governor, Secretary, Treasurer, Auditor, Superintendent of Public Institutions, and the Attorney General, as the Board of Public Institutions, demanding that Superintendent of Public Works H. E. Cooper turn over to the Board the possession of certain institutions coming under the Public Works Department.

Cooper refused to recognize the so-called Board of Public Institutions and won the case in Judge Gear's court, those comprising the Board appealing the matter to the Supreme Court.

It is generally understood that the unconstitutionality of the chapter of the County Act, relative to this Board, if it is finally determined to be unconstitutional, inasmuch as this chapter in no way affects the rest of the Act, will not affect the constitutionality of the law as a whole.

The County Act provided that immediately after the passage of the Act the Territorial Board of Public Institutions should organize and that it then should take control of "all matters relative to harbors, wharves, pilots and towage and of all property used in connection therewith. It shall be the duty of the Superintendent of Public Works to deliver the possession of such property to the Territorial Board of Public Institutions."

High Railway Speeds.

In records of various fast railway runs throughout the country it has been commonly stated that a speed of one hundred miles an hour has been reached, or even exceeded. A test on the Pennsylvania road not long ago, as reported in The Railway and Engineering Review (Chicago, September 5), indicates that such speed is difficult to attain with a commercial locomotive. Says that paper:

"One of the fastest engines of that company, under the most favorable circumstances, was not able to reach that rate even when running light. The trial was made on a twenty-five mile stretch of track in very fine condition, with a slightly descending grade, at the foot of which was a mile of absolutely level track equipped with electric circuit-breakers connected with a recording apparatus spaced by steel-tape measurements. The chronograph used was one of great accuracy, but under such conditions the best that could be done over that mile was at the rate of 95.1 miles per hour. The trial started with eight coaches and with each succeeding failure to obtain the desired record they were dropped one by one until finally the engine alone was used, and the above rate was the best reached with several trials. It may well be doubted, therefore, whether the hundred-mile-an-hour rate has ever been attained except in extremely rare instances, if at all. The liability of inaccuracy in estimating speeds with stop-watches, observation of mile-posts, etc., is well understood.

To Protect Men.

In 1779 the English Parliament—it always protects its men—considered this bill: "All women, without distinction as to age or rank, maidens as well as widows, who should deceive the male subjects of His Majesty and lead them into marriage by means of paint, false hair, Spanish wool, corsets or padded hips, should be punished under the provisions of the law against sorcery, and the marriage shall be declared null."

The bill did not pass.—New York Press.

CANADIAN INDEPENDENCE.

Halifax Liberal Journal Urges Independence for Dominion.

Halifax (N. S.), Oct. 28.—The declaration that present relations between Canada and Great Britain cannot exist much longer was made today by the Halifax Chronicle, the leading newspaper supporter in the maritime provinces of the Liberal party. In an unusually outspoken editorial on the Alaskan boundary award the Chronicle expresses what it claims to be the unanimous dissatisfaction of Canadians at the action of the British Government in the matter.

The paper says: "This Alaska episode has made it clear that our existing relations to the empire cannot be continued much longer. We are even now at the parting of the ways. Our subordinate position has been so clearly and so humiliatingly revealed that it must speedily become unbearable."

The Chronicle adds that there are now only two courses open for Canada—complete legislative independence within the empire, acknowledging the sovereignty of the King of England alone, or the status of an independent nation. The paper says there is much to commend the latter step in particular, because it would free Canada from the danger of being ever embroiled with the United States on account of its European connection, and at the same time would secure for the dominion the benefit of the protection of the Monroe doctrine.

Sugar in France.

United States Consul Haynes of Rouen, France, reports under date of September 1:

Beginning to-day in France, sugar which has heretofore sold for 1.10 francs (21.23 cents) per kilogram (2.2046 pounds) will be sold for 79 to 75 centimes (13.51 to 14.475 cents). This reduction is due to a lowering of the internal revenue tax from 64 francs to 25 francs ($12.352 to $4.825) per 100 kilograms (220.46 pounds), a result of the Brussels conference, wherein the agreement was made by France, Germany, Austria, Hungary, Belgium, Spain, England, Italy, the Netherlands and Sweden to suppress all direct and indirect premiums accorded sugar exporters, thus reducing by nearly $10,000,000 the annual income of the French sugar industry.

Spain and Italy have built sugar factories which will probably supply their people in the near future. What then will be done with the surplus production of France, Germany and Austria? The output of France is nearly double that of its consumption, and the Government has been busy since the object of the Brussels sugar conference threatened to become a reality to devise some way of disposing of this excess. The simplest way seemed the best—to lower the internal revenue tax that the people might buy sugar cheaper and thus buy more, on the same basis that a reduction of postage increases the buying of stamps, England furnishes an example of this. In 1848 in that country the internal tax amounted to $5.95 per 100 pounds, at which time the consumption per inhabitant was 25 lbs. Because of successive reductions of this tax, until 1874, when all the tax was removed, the consumption of sugar doubled. To-day it has quadrupled, being 100 pounds per head. France does not hope for such results as this, as an Englishman drinks sweetened tea much after the manner that a Frenchman drinks wine; but it is certain that home consumption will considerably increase. In Gers, a part of southwestern France, purely agricultural, and wherein there are no fiscal taxes, the individual consumption is exactly the same as in Switzerland—55 pounds per inhabitant.

At present in France each inhabitant consumes not quite 36.75 pounds. To consume the total production of the country this amount must be increased to 66 pounds, an increase which, if not impossible, will at least take many years to attain; during which time the sugar factories, beet root culture, the labor employed in this industry, and the receipts from exports must all suffer their part of the burden.

L. W. HAWORTH - Editor.

THEY LIKE HAWAII.

Col. Alex. McKenzie, head of the Army Board, here to locate a military post on Oahu, said Wednesday at Demosthenes' Cafe that the Island of Hawaii had astonished himself and associates. The Board was instructed to visit Oahu only and the trip to the volcano is merely a pleasure trip for the party. Incidentally, however, they are keeping their eyes open. They already know the roads of this Island and their adaptability for military use. Col. McKenzie and the others are thoroughly impressed with the superiority of the climate on this Island and recognize the healthfulness in the air. Judging from the enthusiasm of the old soldiers on this point, it may be guessed that they will reluctantly locate soldiers' barracks elsewhere than here. The importance of the extensive back country on this Island from a military standpoint was apparent to the members of the Board, and while they were not ordered to investigate this Island, it will probably receive prominent notice in their report. Col. McKenzie urges the citizens of Hilo to keep at hand definite facts about the need and cost of a breakwater for Hilo bay and fire several volleys at every United States official that comes along.

At the Peacock parlors Wednesday evening a number of Hilo's prominent citizens called on the distinguished visitors.

TIT FOR TAT.

Hilo people talk of holding back their taxes for the new county government. What an uproar it would create if the Territory attempted such a policy and decided to withhold money for East Hawaii improvements until after the first of the year. There would be just as much justice in the one proposition as in the other.—Advertiser.

WHO JOLTED?

The Hilo public was apathetic and has received just the kind of a jolt it ought to receive.—Hawaiian Star.

It has been the prevailing opinion in Hilo that the public gave the jolt to somebody else.

Col. McKenzie, in common with leading senators and representatives who have expressed themselves, does not believe the present session of Congress will make many new appropriations. The acknowledged needs of Hawaii may cause an exception to be made. If persistent work is done by all organizations and various representatives in Hawaii, results may be obtained in spite of the general policy tacitly adopted in advance.

That differences should arise between the new and old administrations is natural. That these differences should be mainly about lands is also natural. There should be something in the experience to induce Governor Carter to recommend that the United States land laws be extended to Hawaii.

The Paradise of the Pacific refers to the Honolulu lodge of Elks as the only lodge outside of the mainland of the United States. The pictorial editor of our pictorial magazine should come to the Hilo district from which he draws his choicest pictures, and see Hilo Herd No. 759.

In reply to a newspaper reporter's queries Superintendent Cooper stated Tuesday that he proposes to administer the Department of Public Works until his retirement and would not recognize Mr. Carter as other than Secretary of the Territory until he becomes in fact the Governor.

No need to begin worrying about Xmas presents. Save your time, temper and money and come to Hakalau Store. Better than ever, particulars later.

PLAIN TO OTHERS.

East Hawaii was swept by the Home Rulers. Every indication points to the East Hawaii result being a protest against Sheriff Andrews, who was placed at the head of the Republican ticket by a convention made historical in consequence of the bitterness aroused. With Andrews at the head, East Hawaii Republicans had little or no hope of winning, though they gave him the earnest support which party unity demanded.—Evening Bulletin.

German Oil Fields Exhausted.

The Roumanian petroleum field is almost exhausted and that of Galicia falling off. This leaves Germany open to American and Russian companies. It is stated to be in the interest of Germany to see that there can be no coalition between these two, which can only be prevented by increasing the demand of the Russian product. The German buyer, however, is said to look upon the Russian oil with disfavor.—Pittsburg Dispatch.

GOOD TENNIS.

Finals in Doubles Won by Prouty and Balding.

Good tennis has been played on the Hilo courts this week. The semi finals in doubles were hotly contested. The match between Prouty and Ralph Balding and Madeira and Hapai was the fastest match of the tournament. The first named won in a score of 6-3, 6-4.

The match between Mellor and Baldwin and W. T. Balding and Dr. Eliot was a wavering game for a while, but ended with the former winners in a score of 7-5, 6-2.

The final in doubles was played Wednesday. Prouty and Balding were in fine form and Prouty especially did magnificent work. Mellor and Baldwin, who played on the losing side sagged from the start of the game, which they lost in three straight sets; score 6-3, 6-1, 6-3.

The first match in the ladies' singles was won by Mrs. Eliot against Miss Emma Rose; score 9-7, 6-1.

In the other match for ladies Mrs. Lindsay defaulted to Mrs. Vicars.

The finals will be played this week by Mrs. Vicars and Mrs. Eliot.

Last Monday an interesting set of mixed doubles was played. Mrs. Vicars and Mr. Madeira lost to Mr. and Mrs. Baldwin; score 4-6, 6-1, 7-5.

The tennis players give great credit to Mr. F. W. Thrum, who is umpiring. Mr. Thrum belongs to the Pacific Tennis Club at Honolulu and is an expert on matters on the courts.

Took Returns to Capitol.

T. M. Rowland returned from Honolulu by the Kinau, having carried the official returns of the county election to Registrar Buckland. Three precincts were not represented in the returns which went forward by the special messenger last week. These are Hilo, Olau and Paaulo. The men elected to office cannot receive certificates of election until the official count of all precincts are in. These three will doubtless go forward this week. While at the Capitol building Mr. Rowland was near enough to the center of the storm in the Executive Council to feel the heat. He said the new Governor was wielding a battle axe which would make Hilo hammers look like toys.

Drove From Kawaihae.

United States Marshal E. R. Hendry arrived in the city Wednesday evening. He is on this Island serving summons on the members of the House in the last Legislature to appear as witnesses in the Federal Court in re the investigation concerning the alleged burning of vouchers. Mr. Hendry landed from the Kinau at Kawaihae and drove with two U. S. Army officers into Hilo in a little over seven hours. The army officers were inspecting the Hamakua highway as a military road. From expressions dropped they were not displeased with the road, but freely admitted it could stand extensive repairs in spots.

WILL CONGRESS DO ANYTHING?

Republican Policy Will be to Restrict Work on All Lines.

As the time draws near for the special session of Congress, which is said to be scheduled for November 9, some of the papers are expressing the opinion that that body will not do anything. The enthusiasm for reciprocity with Cuba is not as strong as it was last year and the year before, and if much opposition to the treaty should develop, it may not get through Congress. In regard to financial legislation, it seems to be well understood in Washington that nothing will be done. "A general understanding," says the New York Journal of Commerce, "seems to have been reached among the leaders of the majority that no financial legislation will be attempted either then or at the regular session, and the President seems to have been brought around to this view." So, too, observes the Boston Herald, which says:

"It becomes more and more plain that practically nothing will be done in the way of financial legislation, either in the extraordinary session or in the regular one which will follow it. This is a vast change from the program originally laid out immediately after the close of the last session. Then we were told that the Republican members of the Senate finance committee were to consider the matter during the summer and draw up a plan which was to be the party policy and assuch rushed through Congress at an early date. The Republican Senators met at two different times, but, judging from the reports of their conferences, they found it extremely difficult, is not impossible, to agree on any common basis, altho they made it plain that a proposal for asset currency would be out of the question. Secretary Shaw has made of late several speeches, but he has not outlined any definite policy of a change in existing laws except the suggestion for an emergency currency subject to so high a tax that it would only be of value in times of great money stringency. But his proposal seems to have fallen rather flat in banking circles. From a sweeping program the currency tinkers have now dropped to an extremely limited one, and the chance of carrying even a limited program through Congress appears to be slim, unless a very radical change takes place in the money market in the few weeks before the assembling of Congress."

The prosperous condition of Cuba, as shown in the report of Consul-General Steinbart, has been set forth; and this prosperity is being used by a number of papers as an argument against reciprocity. Thus the San Francisco Chronicle says:

"With the magnificent resources of the richest island in the world at their disposal, the Cuban people would be incompetents indeed if they could not make a living without help. They are making a living and more and are escaping the shame of becoming dependents upon the bounty of American producers, whose resources are relatively far less abundant than their own. The livestock interests and the American producers of sugar, tobacco and fruits need not be immolated for 'Cuba's' sake, and they shall not be sacrificed upon the altar of the sugar trust. Cuba is doing well. She is developing the elements of a sturdy nationality such as she never would achieve as a commercial dependency of the United States. The situation of Cuba is the most enviable in the American hemisphere. Not strong enough to arouse national antagonism, with internal tranquillity guaranteed as well as protection from foreign oppression, with natural resources unequalled in the world, she is free to develop her own industries and create her own markets. It would be a national crime to impair the commercial independence which she now enjoys, which is the only sure basis for happiness of men and nations."

The work on the abutments for both the Waikulu and Waiakea bridges is progressing and soon will be ready for the bridge timbers.

Saturday evening, October 31, at the Central Union Church, at Honolulu, Mr. C. P. Benton of this city and Miss Komea Ariole of Honolulu were married, Rev. Wm. M. Kincaid officiating. The ceremony was performed in the presence of a few friends and the members of the bride's family. Mr. Arthur Berg was best man, and Miss Mary Ariole, sister of the bride, was bridesmaid. Among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Damon. Mr. and Mrs. Benton arrived in Hilo this week and are living temporarily at the Peacock. In a few days they will move into their new home on Church street.

The sale of fancy work to be held by the St. James' Guild will take place in the Hilo Hotel parlor the 20th and 21st of this month. The Hilo band will be present on the evening of the 20th.

Geo. H. Williams states that the Tax Office will be open for business extra hours for some time, for the benefit of taxpayers. The office will be open from 8 to 5 and from 6 to 7 in the evening.

J. D. Kennedy's store on Front street is headquarters the year round for elegant things in gold, silver or cut glass. This year his stock of jewelry, silver ware watches and cut glass will be superior to former years.

H. L. Ross will speak Sunday evening at the Waiakea Mission. Rev. S. L. Desha will interpret his remarks. A quartet will furnish good music. Miss Wight, in charge of the mission, extends an invitation to all to be present.

A social will be given in the parlors of the First Foreign Church Friday evening, November 20, in honor of Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Nash. Those who will take part in the program are Miss Potter, Mrs. Ross, Mrs. Black, Mrs. Lewis, Mrs. Bartels, Mr. Howland and Mr. Prouty.

A LAME SHOULDER is usually caused by rheumatism of the muscles, and may be cured by the use of Chamberlain's Pain Balm. This liniment is unequalled as a soothing lotion. One application gives relief. Try it. The Hilo Drug Store sells it.

E. W. Barnard's store at Laupahoehoe was entered by burglars last Monday night, who succeeded in getting away with a lot of watches and jewelry, valued at about $100. The thief entered by a rear window which had been left open. Two arrests have been made on suspicion.

The jury commissioners, Messrs. Cook and Lee, will select the list of persons to serve as jurors during the year 1904; and under the law Judge Little will also appoint before December 1st of this year the jury commissioners for the year 1904 and it will be the duty of these commissioners to select the jury for 1905. Such selection must be made before December 15th of 1904 under section 7 of the Jury Act of 1903.

A SAD STORY.

Fate of White Mule Once Owned by Kentucky Jones.

The saddest story ever told, sadder than ever pronounced by the sad voice of Kentucky Jones before he left the Paradise of the Pacific for the Paradise of Moonshine whiskey, is the sad sad story of the sad ending of the sad career of one white mule he sold to a Punait—the saddest bargain ever made by the Punait and maybe, yet, not a humorous transaction for Kentucky Jones.

The mule was reckoned to be as good a mule as Kentucky Jones had ever laid his eyes on; was thought to be one that would just suit the Punait. The showing made was irresistible and money was passed over and the mule was somehow transferred to Puna.
One day in answer to a hurry up call the mule was saddled and started across the lava district on a mission of mercy. All went well for a mile. An idea struck the mule. He paused then stopped. He was thinking. He was ruminating. His astral body was projected across seas and he was communing with his former owner in the Blue grass region of Kentucky. Jones was stroking his ears and telling the race track story and other legends of Hawaii. The white mule was rapt; the bliss of the communion caused him to forget his obligation to his master.

The rider was alarmed at the symptoms, chief of which was a disposition not to move. To all appearances the mule had balked. Spar, cudgel, sweet persuasion and every art available failed to make Jones' white mule of any use as a means of transportation. He would commune to beat the band. He moved along the high way, according to a stop-watch record—one rod per hour.

At night fall, the situation was serious. The mule was still in a trance. The doughty rider dismounted and took a seat by the road side and gazed long and fervently into the face of the oblivious mule. "Who can tell what this mule thinks." Then addressing the mule, he said: "If I sell you, I will be branded through life as a deliberate swindler; if I give you away, I impose on the receiver of the gift and subject you, perhaps to a life of abuse and misery; if I turn you loose in Puna you will starve to death or break your legs in lava cracks; if I kill you, you will be happy; and I trust your indomitable spirit, upon its release, may go to Kentucky and haunt the sleep of my old friend Jones."

A pistol shot rang out and in a lonesome road in Puna, by the side of a dead white mule stood a lonesome man, a long way from home. The shades of night were falling fast when foot sore but serene he came to his home and sent a Japanese far into the country to bring home the saddle, bridle and halter.

Irwin Not Opposed.

P. Peck's trip to Honolulu was not especially on account of railroad business, but incidentally he did a thing or two to further the project. Mr. Peck had a talk with William G. Irwin, and that gentleman put at rest all doubts as to his feeling toward the Kohala-Hilo railroad. He stated positively to Mr. Peck that he is not opposed to the railroad, and said to go ahead with locating the lines and find out where they will run on Wainaku. Asked as to the general prospects of the road, Mr. Peck said: "I have quit talking. The next thing the public wants is work on the road and that is what I expect to give."

Aloha Surveyed.

The Aloha, Captain Fry, which sustained damage at the new wharf last week during the heavy swells, has been surveyed. The board of survey was composed of Harbor Master Fitzgerald, Alex. Johnson and Captain Engalls of the Roderick Dhu. It was the judgement of these men that the Aloha was not rendered unseaworthy but will be capable of making her home port without risk. Seven planks in her side will have to be replaced with new ones.

Army Officers Call.

A party of United States Army officers headed by Col. A. McKenzie, Assistant Chief Engineer for the war department came up by the Kinau this week from Honolulu to visit the volcano. The party includes Major Wm. E. Birkheimer and wife, Major W. B. Davis, Major Henry Moon, Captain W. Read. These officers are visiting the Islands to investigate and report upon fortifications.

Doll Show.

The sale of fancy work by the ladies of the St. James Guild at the Hotel parlors Friday and Saturday, November 20 and 21, will be a pleasant affair to all who attend. A feature of entertainment will be a doll show under the management of Mrs. Hayes. One of the dramatic climaxes of this show is the Mother Goose bridal party.

TRADITIONS SMASHED.

Cupid, Chang and Aona Laugh at Old Confucius.

Chang Pan, age 21, has accidentalized himself. He has married Aona Alama, age 13. The marriage was solemnized by an American magistrate, not by a mandarin and according to the custom of Confucius. The bride was not purchased or obtained after tedious and ceremonious negotiation between parents. She was taken as any Anglo Saxon Lochinvar would take his sweetheart, in spite of the moth ridden canons of custom and mercenary mamas—but in this case it happened to be papa—Mr. C. Alama, oriental merchant on Front street.

"Chang" is chief steward for the B. P. O. E. Club and is a favorite with all the members. He is a gentle lad of quiet mien, but in love, superb. He loved Aona Alama, the fairest blossom in the Chinese garden of Hilo. Aona reciprocated. Chang mentioned the matter to Alama, pere. The old gentleman said he would like Chang for son-in-law but that he must take "Aone" to the Flowery Kingdom and there be wedded according to the ancient rites as set forth in the Ragh Vedhas. Chang modestly but firmly said that his queue had been consigned to limbo and that he belonged to an American institution and would marry, but marry only ala Americaine. Then Old Alama said he would have the Bow Wongs garrotte "Aone" before she should enter into this unsanctified connubiality.

Chang cut the Gordian knot. He took Aona from her home on Front street and proceeded to the home of Judge Thos. C. Ridgway, securing a marriage license on the way. The Judge made the twin one according to good English and American law and custom. Then Chang and his bride disappeared. They are in hiding from the enraged Alama, who with other Chinese threaten to shoot Chang at sight. It was said by Chinese that Chang's life is not worth a pin, for he has outraged one of the most cherished Chinese customs. They whisper that a highbinder from Honolulu or elsewhere will drop down on Chang some day and end his stubborn career.

The See Yups, an organization to which Chang belongs, held an indignation meeting and tried to have Chang thrown out, but his friends rallied and the Elks' steward is still a See Yup. His enemies caused to be posted various libelous notices heaping obloquy and scorn upon the two modernized Chinese, who were enjoying their honeymoon under American law in some sylvan glade in the suburbs of Hilo.

The elder Alama is still roaring. He talks pistol and club all the time. Meanwhile, Chang and Aona are securely hidden with their ears to the ground, patiently waiting until the earthquake is over before coming forth to receive congratulations.

At the Elks meeting Monday night the episode of Chang's wedding was the sensation of the evening. A hat was passed and a nice little stake was raised to show the good steward where the heart of the Elk may be found.

CINCH CLUB BALL.

The Ladies Quit Cards and Give a Dance.

The Cinch Club, one of Hilo's most popular organizations, composed wholly of ladies and devoted to the mysteries of the game of High Five has suspended for the year. Beginning with the new year the club will resume its career of pleasure giving.

The close of this year was marked by a ball at Sei'ao's hall last Friday evening, at which the gentlemen friends and husbands of the members of the Cinch Club were invited. The dance was one of the most enjoyable of the year.

The decorations were especially striking. They were of bamboo and other foliage. On the branches of the bamboo were hung the several thousand cards used by the club during the past year. The nodding bamboo branches decorated with the cards were significant of the good intentions of the ladies to quit cards for a season.

The refreshments were prepared under the direction of the ladies and the fruit punch was a strictly temperance concoction.

The music was by Carvalho's orchestra. The acoustic properties of Serrao's hall are good and all who attended were more than pleased with it as a place for pleasant dancing.

The entire work of preparing for the dance was done by the ladies and the members of the different committees acquitted themselves most creditably.

The committees in charge of the affair were:

Decorations—Mrs. Bartels, Mrs. H. L. Ross and Miss Emily Peck.

Music—Mrs. J. T. Lewis.

Hall—Mrs. W. J. Stone and Miss Emily Peck.

Refreshments—Mrs. E. D. Baldwin and Mrs. Stacker.

Tennis at Paauilo.

A most interesting tennis match was played at Paauilo on November 1, on the court of the Hamakua Tennis Club by two of Hawaii's best players, Mr. Harry Gray of Hakalau, and Eugene Horner of Paauilo. Time was called at 10:30 a. m. Mr. Horner winning the toss. The games were well contested, the score standing at deuce in a great many of them. Mr. Horner's skillful placing and well judged drives soon showed him to be the superior player, but Gray's steady game and sure return made it not altogether an unequal contest. After three sets the score stood 6-2, 6-2, 6-2 in Horner's favor.

Mr. E. P. Patten of Paauilo was a most satisfactory umpire. His perfect knowledge of the game, his ready and fair decisions won for him the esteem of all.

Among those present from Hakalau, were Dr. A. Irwin, H. V. Patten and Mr. Beveridge.

"I Roughed It"

Many of us have to work hard all day long. We cannot care for ourselves as we would. No wonder our blood gets out of order, becomes thin and impure. This produces boils, eruptions, nervousness, indigestion, and great weakness.

We have this photograph and letter from Mr. John Harter, of Wagon Wagon, New South Wales. Read carefully what he says: "I have run out a great deal, making, working in stores, exposed to the heat, and have often had poor food. My blood, in consequence, became impure and I had eruptions, boils, and became generally run down. In Ayer's Sarsaparilla, I have found a great deal of relief, and my blood is now pure and healthy."

AYER'S Sarsaparilla

There are many imitations "Sarsaparillas." Be sure you get Ayer's.

PORTO RICO COFFEE GROWERS

Organize and Ask for Remission of Taxes.

The coffee growers of Porto Rico are making a determined effort to secure a share of the United States market. They are aggressive in every movement to help the Island growers and have recently asked the government of Porto Rico for aid.

A mass meeting of the coffee growers and coffee merchants of the whole island took place on the 20th and 21st days of September last in the rooms of the Banco Territorial Agrícola for the purpose of organizing an Association to work for the development and the welfare of the coffee interests and to solicit the Government's protection in cases where this might be necessary and to better the conditions of cultivation of coffee and its markets.

Said assembly appointed a Central Board of Organizations which remained in charge of compiling the rules and by-laws of the association and to report upon the different propositions which may be presented and to take such urgent steps as may be deemed necessary.

Among this latter, figures a petition made by a great number of the members of the association and unanimously approved to solicit at once from the authorities of the island that the attachment made this present time on many coffee estates for the payment of taxes due be suspended with the view that these payments be made with the proceeds of the present crop which is about to commence, thus avoiding the sale of said properties at public auction and the ruin of a great number of tax payers who, penniless and without credit cannot at present pay said taxes.

The Central Board of Organization has studied the point with the utmost attention, taking on one side, into account the requirements of the Government, especially those of the municipalities of the Island and, on the other the great conflict brought about by the enforced liquidation at this time of the taxes owed by the estates.

The study of this question convinces us that it is most reasonable to ask the Government to order the suspension of said attachments and executions of unpaid taxes on coffee estates in the following manner:

That the payment of taxes matured corresponding to the last six months of the present fiscal year be not enforced by judicial process until the end of December of this year, and that those pending from the two previous fiscal years be neither collected by judicial process until the end of February next.

For the purpose of presenting this petition and to further same personally before the Honorable Governor and the Honorable Treasurer of Porto Rico, the four members of this Central Board of Organization who sign this petition, have been commissioned to perform the duty with all the interests involved in this important matter, we refer, firstly, to the kind offers made to us by this Government in the Honorable Acting Governor's letter addressed to the Coffee Growers and Merchants Association, the association being its work.

It is but fair to recognize that the coffee wealth of this island has suffered a great deal and this due more than the effects of the disastrous hurricane of August 1899, to the lack of consuming markets on account of the change of nationality of the island and also to the fall of coffee prices and reduction of credit and it is therefore entitled to an official protection which might, as much as possible, remedy such evils.

The only argument against our petition might be the necessity of revenue for the municipalities and although we recognize the justice of that necessity, it is also true that within a few months and without much effort, coffee will be able to pay its taxes and that the judicial compulsion of payment would not in many cases give to the municipal treasurer the money they need but only the burden of estates, the value of which would be considerably lessened to the great prejudice of those same municipalities.

COLOR BLINDNESS.

Said to be Caused by the Use of Whisky and Tobacco.

The crusade which the railroads of the country are carrying on against the use of intoxicating liquors and tobacco by employees engaged in operating trains is partly due to the fact, not generally known, that the poisons contained in the proscribed articles produce color blindness, which is a fatal defect in engineers, firemen and trainmen. For more than twenty years the diseases of tobacco endiopia and alcohol endiopia, as they are called, have been recognized by the oculists as the most insidious and difficult with which they have to deal. Through the employment of official oculists the existence, growing prevalence and terrible results of these diseases have become familiar to the managements of many large railway systems.

According to one of the railroad specialists endiopia was rarely found in this country fifteen years ago, but was quite prevalent in European and Southern countries prior to that. Now oculists of good practice in this country have to deal with quite a large number of cases yearly, the increase being due to the increase in nicotine and alcohol infection. Endiopia in its first stages produces slightly failing vision, often a smarting of the eyes, but is not marked in effect. The disease does not progress far, however, before scotoma, or color blindness, makes its appearance. Certain portions of the eye are unable to recognize the colors green and red, which are used in railroading as danger and cautionary signals. To certain portions of the eye these colors will appear drab, yellow, black or some other color. As the victim cannot recognize this defect himself an engineer or fireman might possess it for months and not know that he was misinterpreting signals unless an accident occurred.

Unless taken in time endiopia produces total blindness by killing the optic nerve. If a cure is effected and the patient continues the use of tobacco or liquor, as the case may be, the disease is very likely to recur, when it is still more difficult of cure.—Chicago Record-Herald.

Pekin, Nov. 9.—The old Empress Dowager is making preparations for a hasty flight. She fears trouble in the present difficulties between Japan and Russia.

CHAMBERLAIN'S COUGH REMEDY is intended especially for coughs, colds, croup, whooping cough and influenza. It has become famous for its cures of these diseases over a large part of the civilized world. The most flattering testimonials have been received, giving accounts of its good works; of the aggravating and persistent coughs it has cured; of severe colds that have yielded promptly to its soothing effects, and of the dangerous attacks of croup it has cured, often saving the life of the child. The extensive use of it for whooping cough has shown that it robs that disease of all dangerous results. It is especially prized by mothers because it contains nothing injurious and there is not the least danger in giving it, even to babies. It always cures and cures quickly. The Hilo Drug Store Sells it.

Children's Fears.There are many children, for some reason or other, who are afraid and nervous in the dark. If a mother discovers any of her children afflicted with this nervousness let her not seek to rectify the evil either by "firm treatment" or ridicule.
Some children are nervous in the presence of horses. Don't make such to touch one, but whenever occasion offers in the presence of such child, pet and pat a horse without seeming to notice the fact that the child is afraid and nervous. By degrees your example, provided the child has perfect faith in his or her parent, will have such an effect upon him that he himself, almost without knowing it, will do the same thing unless the fear be one of those in explicable rooted aversions which nothing can erase.The same system can be practised with those children who are nervous when in the dark. Try sitting with the child through twilight into dark, talking to him pleasantly the while.
Perhaps after a few times of such treatment you can say, "Wait here a few minutes; I am going to get a lamp. Perhaps he will stay; but if he does not feel inclined to do so don't force him. Wait a few days longer and try again."Paralyzed by Radium.Mr. Hammer, who was formerly a coadjutor of Edison, has produced with radium a partial paralysis of the fish known as the electric ray so that it could give no further shocks. He has, with the radium, paralyzed small fish so that they have been drowned, or at least died. In talking of this Mr. Hammer called attention to the experiments of Professor Curie and others recently in Paris in which guinea pigs, mice and rabbits were paral-yzed and later killed by placing radium near the spinal column. "It is perfectly reasonable to suppose," said Mr. Hammer, "that people's brains might be paralyzed by putting powerful radium near their heads, say on a pillow at night or near the spinal cord, and thus produce paralysis, as in the case of the animals."A "Kangaroo's Money."Andrew Carnegie brings each the complaints of an old friend of his, a peddler. The peddler said the times were always hard in Scotland; the people had no money there; it was a poor place to get along in."What you say is true," the farmer agreed. "Why don't you emigrate to Australia, Tavish?

Australia's a grand place, by all accounts.""It used to be," the other returned, "but it is so no longer.
Australia is as overcrowded now as any other land.""The coast may be," the farmer admitted, "but the interior, I'm sure, is not. Go to Australia, Tavish, and push into the interior.""D—n the interior!" said the peddler. "There's nothing there but kangaroos."The farmer thought the kangaroos were some foreign race of people. "Well, Tavish," he said, reproachfully, "isn't a kangaroo's money as good as any other man's?"

SCORE ALASKA.

Canadians Claim Their Interests Were Sacrificed.

Ottawa, (Ont.), 22.—In the Senate today Sir Mackenzie Bowell, leader of the opposition, asked for information concerning the Alaska boundary award.

Mr. Scott for the Government, replied that the most important reason why the Canadian Commissioners did not approve of the award was that it was not a judicial decision. Lord Alverstone had in the first instance agreed that the center of the Portland canal should form the boundary line. The four islands should have gone to either the one country or the other, depending upon the position of the line through the Portland channel. Subsequently Lord Alverstone deflected the line so as to throw two of the islands into the United States and two into Canada, that is Wales and Pearse islands went to Canada and the two smaller to the United States.

Sir Mackenzie Bowell said that it was unfortunate that in every case when negotiations have taken place between the United States and England, where Canada was affected, the United States' diplomats had succeeded in securing islands which command most important points of the Dominion. There was the island right opposite the harbor of Port Arthur. In case of difficulty, he said, that island would have to be secured by the British people, for if fortified it would command the entrance of that harbor. Unless that was done the United States could secure it, and with the guns they have at present, would be able to destroy the whole connection between the east and the west. It was the same with the island of San Juan, another secured by treaty negotiation.

"Now," said Sir Mackenzie, "the United States will command Fort Simpson. In every case Canadian interests were sacrificed."

Senator McMullen said that the decision would create as much dissatisfaction in Canada as there was in the Transvaal and in Ireland.

The Alaskan boundary correspondence was laid before the House today. It consists of messages between the Colonial Office, Washington and Ottawa. The correspondence shows that Canada agreed to submit the question to jurists of repute, and protested strongly when Root, Lodge and Turner were appointed by the United States.

The Colonial Office expressed its regrets and urged the acceptance of these gentlemen rather than the breaking off of negotiations. Chamberlain asked Canada's consent to this, but apparently without waiting for that consent to be given, Sir Michael Herbert for Great Britain, and Mr. Hay for the United States signed the treaty. There was nothing for Canada to do then but protest and agree.

St. Johns (New Brunswick), October 22.—The Conservative newspapers in Eastern Canada say that the Alaskan boundary award will become a live issue in the general elections throughout the country. Some of the papers declare that Canadians are to blame for the decision unfavorable to Canada, and they place the responsibility upon the Government at Ottawa for permitting the boundary question to be arbitrated, in view of what is termed the anti-Canadian make-up of the commission. Little fault is found with the United States for that country's share in the negotiations, several of the Halifax and St. John newspapers holding that the United States is in no way responsible for the present situation.

While most Liberal journals also criticize the British Government, the opposition press is assailing the Government for accepting the commission as arbiter. The Conservative organ in this city, the Sun, attacks Sir Wilfrid Laurier. The talk of Canada becoming an independent country as the result of the award is not regarded seriously in St. Johns.

Halifax, (N. S.), Oct. 22.—The press of this city comments on the Alaskan boundary award as follows: The Chronicle says: "The Americans once more have routed us diplomatically, horse, foot and artillery. They have played successfully their old game of bluff. We have nothing henceforth to fear from the United States worse than another 'arbitration', and we have already suffered all that we can from arbitrations."

The Recorder says: "Canadian interests have been sacrificed, and this after Canada has sacrificed blood and treasure in defense of the motherland. This marks a most serious epoch in the relations of Canada and the mother country."

The Herald charges the Canadian Government with neglect and fault because the treaty of reference was not submitted to the Canadian Parliament for ratification.

London, Oct. 22.—Upon leaving Liverpool today, A. B. Aylesworth, one of the Canadian Commissioners to the Alaskan boundary tribunal, said in justification of his refusal to sign the award: "It was more of a compromise than a judicial decision. Its effect will be that Dominion goods traversing the disputed territory must pay high tariff duties to the United States. The Canadians feel so keenly on the subject that, although there will be no cry of separation, they probably will demand a large power of self-government in order to prevent a repetition of such decisions."

Brains Behind the Guns.

Admiral Dewey says: "The greatest source of strength in the American navy is found in the intelligence of the men. The brains are not confined to the officer. Aside from the fact that our men are the greatest fighters in the world, they outrank in capability of understanding and doing. This means that whenever our ships are put to the test they will win unless the odds against them are overwhelming, for intelligence in the crews never counted for as much as it does today."

"The modern battle ship is a great machine shop. To operate it successfully the men who do the work must have brains. They cannot be dull and win battles. I know our men, and I know what they can do. I am free to say that if every officer on a United States war ship should be killed in battle the enlisted men could and would take the ship and fight her to victory."

"Because of the great increase of enlisted men, due to the rapidity with which our navy has grown, our target practice fell off a bit on the whole, but it is improving now. The improvement will continue until a satisfactory degree of efficiency is attained, and that efficiency will be maintained. Our men are naturally the best marksmen in the world. The navy is filling up with young men from the west. They are keen, quick to learn and intensely patriotic and are the best raw material we ever had."

Relics of Robert Burns.

Among the books contained in the library of the late Adolphus Frederick Nichols, of Barnsbury, England, which is to be sold at Sotheby's next month, are several interesting relics of the poet Burns. Among these, which have been buried at Barnsbury for a period of thirty-three years, are a set of the first four volumes of the "Musical Museum," by James Johnson, 1787-90, interleaved throughout, and containing upwards of 140 manuscript notes in the autograph of Burns, one signed in full and others with the initials only. They contain also some notes by the poet's friend, Robert Riddel of Glenriddel, to whom the volumes belonged, and whose autograph they bear. In the collection there is also a copy of Burns's "Poems, chiefly in the Scottish Dialect," Edinburgh, 1783, but without the portrait. On the flyleaf is written "Robert Riddel, Esq., of Glenriddel," in the handwriting of Burns.

A Cosmopolitan Colony.

TROTS IN 1:58 1/2

Lou Dillon Further Reduces World Trotting Record.

Memphis, Tenn., Oct. 24.—Lou Dillon, the peerless trotter, owned by C. K. G. Billings, of Chicago, and driven by Millard Sanders, this afternoon proved her right to the proud title of "queen of the turf" by trotting a mile under adverse conditions in the remarkable time of 1:58 1/2. The daughter of Sidney Dillon was paced by a runner driven by Scott McCoy, and another runner followed closely to urge the mare to a supreme effort.

The track of the Memphis Driving Club never showed to better advantage. Sprinklers were employed throughout the day putting on finishing touches, and when the time for Lou Dillon's trial arrived, the course was perfect. A strong wind from the north swept down the long back stretch, however, and Judge Newton announced to the spectators that too much should not be expected of the game little trotter.

Lou Dillon appeared on the track at 5:10 p. m., and after a preliminary canter, Sanders announced he was ready for the start. The two runners were aligned in position, and it was noticed that a strip of board about one yard wide was fastened to the pacemaker's sulky, directly under the seat. This, it was announced, was used to keep the dust out of the mare's face.

At the first start, Sanders nodded for the word, and the flag dropped. After going an eighth of a mile, Sanders yelled to McCoy to drive faster, and it looked as if the mare would catch the runner. Making the first turn, the remarkable work of Lou Dillon could be better seen by the thousands present, and like a piece of perfect machinery she reached the quarter pole in 30 seconds. The turn for the back stretch was now reached, and many expected to see the champion falter because of the wind. To the surprise of every one, Lou Dillon seemed to travel faster, and when the half mile was reached the timers' slate clicked out 59 1/2. A great cheer arose, and many horsemen predicted a new record was making. On the far turn, McCoy was forced to whip the runner to keep clear of the trotting marvel, which was pushing him closely. The three-quarter pole was passed in 1:28 1/2, and the mare had turned for home.

The wind now was an advantage rather than a detriment, and with a superb burst of speed, Lou Dillon urged on by the shouts of the drivers of the runners, dashed under the wire in 1:58 1/2.

When the time was flashed to the spectators, hats were thrown high into the air and cheer followed cheer. Sanders was literally lifted from his sulky by an admiring throng, while Mr. Billings was showered with congratulations.

It was a noticeable fact that watches of the three official timers agreed to the fraction, and many horsemen standing in the infield caught the time as officially announced to a fraction. The timers were Bud Doyle, Fred Hartwell, of Chicago and John Dickerson, of New York.
