KAWAIAHAO PATRON SAINTS.

Opening Night of the Fair at the Old Armory.

DECORATIONS BY HYACINTH MEN.

Flags, Bunting and Flowers—Good Attendance for First Night—The Booths and What They Contain—Attractions of Last Day and Evening—The Band.

The old armory on Beretania street has undergone a most wonderful transformation during the past week.

No more beautiful scene has greeted those who have attended the many pleasant gatherings at the armory than was presented last evening to the crowds that responded to the Kawaiahao fair last evening.

Bright lights, the profusion of bunting, flags, palms, ferns and flowers, together with the strains of music from the orchestra of the Hawaiian band, all combined to attract friends and dollars to the benefit of the society which is laboring with such bearty goodwill to maintain the structure which will ever remain a cherished landmark in the heart of every loyal Hawaiian.

Coming from the storm without, the armory seemed a veritable fairy land.
Flags of every nation, in which the stripes and bars of the Hawaiian emblem stood out with appropriate prominence, hid the bare rafters and walls most effectively. Booths are arranged along the mauka side and the end of the hall.

The first to attract attention was the lemonade stand, where Miss Wilder dealt out refreshment to the thirsty souls. The design of this stand is the most unique in the hall, and is the result of the inventive brain and artistic handwork of Mr. Frank Damon.

Miss Wilder and seekers for useful house furnishings. The Seminary table very appropriately comes next in the line. Here Mrs. P. C. Jones and Mrs. Mahelona, assisted by young ladies from the Seminary, are busy disposing of the articles prepared by the young ladies of the Seminary.

Hawaiian curios of every kind and description are to be found at the Hawaiian table. Fans, mats, and beautiful kahilis were disposed of with wonderful rapidity by Mrs. Cunha, Mrs. Ellen Graham, and their assistants.

A very downy and comfortable place is the cushion booth, presided over by Mrs. Beckley. There are elaborate, costly, and others not so costly, cushions, results of the tasty handwork of the friends of Kawaiahao.

The fancy table is one of the largest and most elaborate of the whole fair.
Here Mrs. Haalele, Mrs. Widdfield,
Mrs. S. M. Damon and Mrs. George P.
Castle were busy workers. Along the front of the booth are arranged all the tasty mats, tidies and innumerable articles that delight the ladies and please the men, even though they don't always understand what the things are made for. From the canopy of bunting and flags are suspended elaborate center and piano lamp shades.

In the center of the hall is the immense fish pond, so full of mystery and amusement. This pond is a grand affair in general architecture, and speaks well for the efforts of the good carpenter of the Hyacinth. Mrs.
Lewis is the presiding lady at this popular mart. Adjoining it is the large potted-fern booth where Mrs.
Smithies has a lot of beautiful potted palms and ferns for house decorations.

The flower table at the upper end of the hall is a symphony in red. Cut flowers and leis of every variety went with remarkable rapidity, with Miss Nolte and her assistants as active vendors.

Tea grab box, over which Miss Cummins presides, occupies a very pretty corner between the flower and candy tables.

The sweetmeats, dainty French candies in pretty tissue boxes, is a very popular place. Mrs. Dr. Day and her assistants are doing much towards strengthening the time-worn beams of Kawaiahao church.

When it comes to the necessities of life Mrs. Robert Lewers, of the Home Rule table is to be interviewed.
Cakes, pies and any amount of good substantial material that "holds the key to maculine hearts" are to be found at the home department.

No fair would be complete without refreshments, and Kawaiahao is amply provided. On the mauka side of the hall is a commodious annex constructed by Lewers & Cooke, where Mrs. Judd, Miss Judd and Mrs. J. T.
Waterhouse, with sixteen young lady assistants, dispensed gallons of ice cream. Close by this is the coffee
table with Mrs. Nolte, Mrs. Brenig and Mrs. S. T. Douglass as the presiding saints.

Amid all this splendor and beauty a representative gathering of Honolulu people wandered, buying leis and buttonieres of the flower girls and patronized the booths most liberally.

The first evening of the Kawaiahao church fair augurs well for munificent returns for the activities of those who have labored so heartily in making the fair attractive and a financial success.

STRAY PENCILINGS.

President and Mrs. Dole were interested spectators and liberal buyers at the fair last evening.

The merry tunes of the phonograph in charge of J. A. Victor brought in many a stray dollar.

Great credit is due Captain Day and Commander Heyward and their men from the Hyacinth, for the beautiful decorations of the Armory. They have labored long and well.

The fair was as nothing if without the music of the Hawaiian Band orchestra. Leader Berger and his boys gave their services gratuitously. An invitation was tendered the National band to assist in the musical programme, but as a return of $50 was one of the necessary accompaniments to their work, the more liberal organization was given the preference.

The matrimonial booth is a very cozy and unassuming affair, close by the orchestra platform. There are no pins in the seat and it is open to all comers. The bachelors who have the good fortune to take advantage of the comforts of the place, simply pay two bits and are booked to become benedicts before the expiration of the coming new year.

The fair will be opened at 2 o'clock this afternoon, closing at 5. It will be opened again at 7:30 and continue through the evening. A leading attraction today will be the live French doll show, conducted by Mrs. W. W.
Hall.

THE STAR ARRIVES AT RUK.

Spanish Government Still Obdurate About Ponape Mission.

The Missionary Steamer With Rev. Mr.
Price and Family Reaches Her Destination—All Well.

Letters have been received from Ruk of date, September 11, sent by a Japense trading schooner to Tokio, and thence via San Francisco to Honolulu.
Rev. Mr. Snelling has not been able to do much work. His wife, too, has been seriously ill, but had recovered health. The Girls' School had kept it numbers full, having day scholars as well as boarding pupils. There had been a cessation of fighting around the Mission Station, but fighting was still kept up on other islands in the lagoon. A Japanese trader arrived July 16th bringing letters from Honolulu and news of the coming reinforcement. The Star reached Ruk August 29, and the arrival of Rev. Mr. Price and his family was like an outburst of sunshine after the gloom and depression that for months had settled down over the enfeebled workers and the hindered work. A letter from Henry Nanapei received the first week in September, reports all quiet on that island, school work and church work progressing slowly. The Spanish government will not consent to the re-establishment of the mission on Ponape.
Mr. Price, in a letter to the Missionary Herald, speaks in this way of the King of Butaritari:

"This king is really a remarkable man for a Gilbert Islander. He is a devoted and consistent Christian and is doing what he can to give his people just and humane laws and to elevate them to a higher plane of life.
One of his laws prohibits fishing on Sunday or otherwise violating the sacred day; another is against drinking the 'toddy' after it is fermented or has an odor strong enough to be detected on the breath, so that an islander may be arrested if his breath smells of liquor. Another law forbids drinking foreign liquors. Mr. Walk-up says the king is now framing a law against divorce. He has put away all his concubines and is living with his wife and trying to establish Christian homes. The home life here is greatly affected by the warm climate. It is hard to cultivate the love of home where it is too warm for people to come close together. The home and patriotism are fostered in the snow.

At Ruk we have the darkest features in the record of the year, says the same journal. Turbulence and warfare among the people, a consequent diminution of the pupils in the schools, the want of competent and trustworthy native preachers and teachers, suggest the discouragements under which our missionary labors have been prosecuted. Happily at the last accounts a slight improvement in matters in these respects is recorded. The loss of the missionary ship R. W. Logan has interfered with the full insurance on this vessel enables the Board to make arrangements at once for the replacement of the ship and the resumption of thorough supervision.

THE HEALTH OF ## HONOLULU TEACHERS MEET.

New Association Formally Organized Yesterday.

ITS AIMS AND OBJECTS STATED.

Constitution and By-Laws Accepted and Officers Elected—Interesting Three-Minute Addresses—Lines of Work To Be Followed—Getting Acquainted.

At a meeting held in the Y. M. C. A. hall, on the 6th inst., a committee was appointed to draft the constitution and by-laws of a proposed teachers' association. This committee was empowered to call a general meeting of the committee lost no time in getting to work, and having agreed upon a plan of action, called a meeting for the 14th inst.

In response to this call nearly a hundred teachers and persons interested in teaching assembled in the Y. M. C. A. hall, which had been beautifully decorated with ferns and flowers for the occasion. Among the large number of distinguished visitors were noticed Hon. W. R. Castle, president Board of Education; Prof. M. M. Scott and Mrs. Dillingham, members Board of Education; Mr. J. F. Scott, secretary Board of Education; Rev. Alex. Mackintosh, Dr. Lyons, Prof. Hosmer, Prof. Richards and Mr. F. Damon.

Dr. Lyons, on behalf of the committee, read the proposed constitution and by-laws, which met with unqualified approval. Article II of the constitution reads: "The objects of this association are, to unite the educational workers of Honolulu; to enable them, by interchange of ideas and views, to increase their individual capacity for efficient work, and to give opportunity to such as desire it for systematic study of the modern science and art of pedagogy."

The by-laws require an annual fee of one dollar from the members of the association, and provide for regular monthly and annual meetings, the former to take place on the evening of the second Tuesday in each month of the school year, and the latter on the second Tuesday in June of each year. The by-laws provide for "working sections," which the members of the association may join.

Principal Richards, of the Kamehameha School, on behalf of the committee, submitted the following recommendations to provide a working plan:

First. That the discussion in each of the five remaining meetings as provided by the constitution, be based on one of the following subjects in the order given: 1. Aims in Education; 2. Science in the School Curriculum; 3. English in the Schools of Hawaii; 4. Manual Training; 5. Number Work.

Second. That the association divide itself into sections, in accordance with the desire of individual members to take up the study of one or more of the following questions: The History of Education, Psychology in Its Bearings on Education, Practical Methods in Instruction, Nature and Science Study, Child Study, Manual Training.

The report was accepted with but slight alteration, and a committee was formed for the purpose of suggesting suitable persons to fill the various offices. This committee consisted of Mr. Thompson (Kamehameha), Miss Sorenson (Punahou Preparatory), Mr. Lightfoot (Fort Street), Miss Mossman (Royal), Brother Frank (St. Louis), Mr. Bush (Iolani College), and Mr. J. F. Scott, Secretary Board of Education.

A meeting of this committee was held on the spot and the following names submitted for the various positions: President, Prof. Hosmer (Oahu College); Vice-President, Miss Duncan (Pohukaina); Secretary, Mr. J. Lightfoot (Fort Street); Treasurer, Mr. Dumas (Kamehameha). These recommendations were carried unanimously.

Then followed a few three-minute addresses. Dr. Lyons, speaking on "Science Training," managed to crowd a great deal of information into a very few words. He pointed out the fact that even in his time the study of scientific matters had undergone a great change. That as men began to recognize the importance of the sciences, and their practical bearing upon the ordinary affairs of life, they had commenced to demand a better system of education in the sciences. By co-operation, interchange of ideas, and natural assistance, the lack of proper training in school or university could be to a great measure overcome. The object of all scientific teaching should be to train men's faculties, and this could best be done, not by the elaborate syllogisms of the school men, but by close attention to things practical. The doctor assured his hearers that the study of the sciences was extremely interesting and practical.

Mr. Thompson, of Kamehameha, followed with a short address on manual training. He contended that during the early years of a child's life, the hand might be trained as well as the mind, and that this training should be allowed and encouraged, for the following reasons: First, because manual training, in providing pleasant occupations for children, takes them from occupations which may be useless or harmful; second, manual training, commenced in childhood, insures better work in the man; third, manual training, by providing intelligent occupation, insures a better mental and moral standing; and lastly, it supplies greater ability to plan. Mr. Thompson emphasized the fact that, to obtain the best results, there must be that complete sympathy between hand and mind that manual training engenders.

Mr. Dumas, of Kamehameha, spoke briefly on psychology. He begged his hearers not to be frightened by the long word, and assured them that the study of psychology was not as difficult as the name seemed to imply. He pointed out that children have minds capable of development, and that, although the child mind frequently branches out for itself, yet it can be drawn out and strengthened by judicious training. "Is the mind trained equally well by all branches of instruction?" he asked. If not, then surely the teacher should employ the best methods of training known. Mr. Dumas attached great importance to psychology as assisting true scientific growth.

Professor M. M. Scott, of Fort street, spoke briefly on "The History of Education." "I have noticed," he said, "that our teachers are often insufficiently cultured." Culture is mental refinement, and this refinement can best be obtained by the scientific study of history. History should be studied as a guidance for the future. He claimed that a middle path should be constructed between Buckle, who contended that the individual had but little to do with history, and scarcely affected the grand marches of the race; and Carlyle, who credited the individual with everything, and claimed that the progress of the race was only the progress of the individual. Prof. Scott recommended his hearers to read Rosecrans' "Rise and Progress of Universities in Europe," "The History of Race and Education," by the same author; Crabbe's "Child Life," Sir John Lubbock's "History of Civilization," and Oscar Browning's "History of Education."

This concluded the business part of the meeting and the teachers and friends now began to refresh the inner man with ice cream and cake, which was supplied in liberal quantities.

Great praise is due to Mrs. F. W. Damon, Miss Brown, Miss Kinney and Mr. Wells, for the beautiful decorations of the hall and for the preparation of the feast.

At the conclusion of the meeting a large number of teachers handed in their names for enrollment as members of the association. The secretary is authorized to receive the names of teachers desiring to join the association.

"Whether woman suffrage be in itself right or wrong," says the Presbyterian Journal, "the women would make short work of the liquor traffic. They suffer all its woes without the sensual pleasure of the corrupted taste which sways the men who have come under its influence and make them helpless." And what of men who have never come under its enslaving influence, the men who deceive themselves with the belief that if they let liquor alone liquor will let them alone? Are we to believe that because the liquor traffic exists a majority of the men of the United States are swayed by the drink appetite? No, it is not a corrupted taste, not the influence of sensual pleasure which makes the majority of men helpless before this great iniquity. It is rather the influence of party politics which makes them blind. Could they—nay, would they—but shake off the fetters of liquor parties, woman's ballot would not be needed in order to make short work of the drink traffic.

TOBACCO'S DANGERS.

"The French Government, recognizing the deteriorating influence of tobacco upon the young, has prohibited its use by students in the public schools. The Swiss Government will not tolerate that tobacco be sold to juniors. Boys found smoking in the streets are now promptly arrested and punished. Punishment is also meted out to those who sell them tobacco. Dr. Bremer, of St. Vincent's Institute for the Insane, at St. Louis, has called attention to the fact that tobacco smoking by the young produces mental and moral deterioration, while in older persons it produces brain disease and insanity."—Christian Statesman.

When a man goes wrong, "there is always a woman at the bottom of it." When a man goes right, we never here that there is a woman at the top of it, but there is.—Galveston News.

At a temperance meeting an honest German was asked to speak, and after some hesitation did so in the following exhaustive manner: "I shall tell you how it was. I put mine hand on mine head; there was one big pain. Then I put mine hand in mine pocket, and there was nothing. Now there is no more pain in mine head. I put mine hands in mine pockets, and there is twenty pounds. So I shall stay with the temperance."

WILL GREET THE NEW YEAR

Moonlight Hop of Lei Ilima Club at Independence Park.

One of the leading social events of New Year's eve will be the moonlight hop of Lei Ilima social club at Independence Park.

This club, recently reorganized, will make a strenuous effort to have this monthly social one long to be remembered in the annals of the association. The hall will be elaborately decorated, and arrangements put in keeping with giving the old year a glorious send-off and the new year a grand reception.

Committees have been elected and will be busy the coming weeks to perfect the programme. Music for the dancing will be furnished by the Quintette Club.

A large number of invitations will be sent out, and there is every prospect that an equally large number of friends will respond to the request to enjoy the hospitality of the club. Dancing will begin at 8 p. m.

MASONS WILL DANCE.

Officers to "Put Up" an Event Out of Usual Routine.

The Masons are planning for a grand ball to be held sometime next month. This event will be held in Independence Hall and will be one of the great social events of the season.

It is the usual scheme for the newly elected officers of the lodge to tender their brethren a sumptuous banquet in honor of their being raised to positions of honor.

The officers this year had a longing to change the stereotyped form and launch out into some new feature that should include more people and afford a change from the regular routine.

As a result the Masonic ball is on foot. The gentlemen who will have charge of the affair know how to get up a swell time and a good time. The committees will be announced in a short time.

RUBBER STAMP INDUSTRY.

Stamps to be Manufactured by the Hawaiian Gazette Company.

Still another convenience of modern civilization has been added to the well organized departments of the Gazette Company. It is the manufacture of rubber stamps. The Gazette Company will from henceforth manufacture these stamps at the home office. This does away with the long delay of sending to the Coast. Orders will be filled promptly giving customers the best of work in the shortest possible time. This department is in the hands of first-class workmen, and work equal to that of the best manufacturing houses in the world is assured. This is a splendid opportunity to patronize home industry and receive satisfactory benefit in return.

AN APPEAL.

THE old Kawaiahaeo Church makes a final appeal today. If it had a voice, it would say:

"I ask you for aid today, but I am no beggar, in my extremity. On the ledgers, which hold my accounts with the Hawaiian nation, a balance is due me, and I ask for it. Charge me with the cost of stone from the sea bed, of timber from the mountains and the labor of building. Then credit me with that which has been done within my walls; that for the good of man, and the glory of God; I stand alone, visible, real, and enduring. The generations rise and fall, beside me. The feeble thoughts of men, light up, and die out, within my walls like farthing candles, in the dark. I shall be the study of the historian. In coming years, the children will pause before my venerable walls, with reverence and love. I am the monument of Hawaii, and I now ask only that which is due to me."

A SAD NEGLECT.

The severe comments of the Holomua on the neglect of the trustees of the Oahu College, in not placing a copy of that paper in the corner stone of Pauahi Hall, is very just. It was a gross oversight, in not providing future ages with the means of studying the peculiar civilization represented by that paper.

There should have been another, and a second corner stone, in another part of the building, in which should have been placed the most significant emblems of national progress; a copy of the Holomua, containing its truthful and vivid account of the downfall of the native race through "poi and gin;" a copy of Ka Leo, containing samples of "English as she is spoke;" a picture of the Hale Naha, as the finest flower of monarchical ideas; a copy of the lottery bill, which would put the people in the hands of a Lottery Ring; a copy of the Constitution which the "Deposed" intended to establish in 1893; a copy of the Act, allowing liquor to be sold to natives; a photograph of Bishop Willis, in the attitude of refusing to pray for President Dole; the sticks of a kahuna, used in praying the revolutionists to death; an idol from the museum, holding in his hands a copy of the Holomua; the pipe into which the natives put their great opportunity for self-rule, and smoked it up; an account of the coronation of Kalakaua, with copies of the choice mele composed for the occasion.

Indeed, it is not too late to have another ceremony, and request the "Deposed" to graciously lay another corner stone.

BRING THE IMMIGRANTS.

The remarkable stagnation of business, and the extremely low price of farm products, in the States, makes the farmers restless, and anxious to better their condition, by emigration. Mr. Henry, recently from the Willamette valley, says, that probably five hundred farmers, with means, would move to these islands, within a year, if they could really better their conditions.

The United States, offer, in many ways, the best home for the immigrants, in the world. It is a country to emigrate to, and not to leave. Its resources have hardly been touched. A score of States, are now crying for more population. When, however, there is great commercial and agricultural depression, many men become restless, and move. There will be a return of prosperity, in the States, as a matter of course, within a short time. The men who are now willing to move from their farms to these islands will refuse to come. The period of prosperity may last for ten years, or more.

Here, then, is the grand and rare opportunity, of the Republic, to reinforce its American, or white element. Such an opportunity may not occur, again, for some time. These farmers should be brought here, and settled, at all hazards. Only a bold, quick, and thoroughly earnest movement, on the part of the Government, will get them. Individual enterprise will do much, but the Government can insure the success of it, by, at once, giving sufficient guarantees that the needed land will be furnished, by guaranteeing roads, by, in short, simply taking care that the immigration is secured, provided, always, it is of the kind it is represented to be. If Colonel Spreckels, or a man with his organizing power, owned the islands, he would regard it as an excellent business affair, and see that it was done promptly, and thoroughly.

It is easy and delightful, for us to talk over our needs, and gossip about the inroads of the Asiatics, but when we are confronted with hard, solid, work, for the common good, we shrink it. All communities do the same thing. But we are in a good deal of peril, as everybody knows, and we must do some effective work or suffer the consequences.

In some respects, the securing, and settling of immigrants here, from the European and American States, is more important, just now, than any interest of the Republic, aside from annexation. We shall always find it difficult to secure a good class of immigrant farmers, from the Anglo-Saxon countries. The great depression in the American States gives us the chance of a lifetime. What shall be done about it?

THE opening of the Fair last night, on behalf of the Kawaiahaeo Church, was successful and brilliant. There was uncommon enthusiasm manifested by the visitors. The candy department arranged several large and important deals in boxes of sugar material. Sales at all the booths indicated that the friends of the great Hawaiian monument were rallying to its support.

December 8, 1894.

One of the plantation managers who had his eye on an Avery Stubble Digger last week still has his eye on it, but he has moved it to his plantation, where, under his vine and fig tree, he can sit and watch the wonderful work it is doing.

The difficulty which island steamers have experienced during the past two weeks in making landings on Maui and Hawaii is a great big point in the argument favoring the building of an island cable by the government. Even though it would not pay expenses during the first two years, the advantage it would be to every one on the islands would be so fully recognized at the end of that period that after that time it would be self supporting, and possibly profitable. Let the agitators agitate and the enthusiasts enthuse.

Solid silverware that goes to you at 25 per cent. less than you have ever paid for the same quality should be inducement enough for every one to use solid ware instead of plated. Our assortment contains some beautiful single pieces and sets, so pretty in fact that they will not remain long with us. You cannot all get the best; the early bird gets the rose bug. If you do not feel that you can afford solid goods, we can accommodate you in the plated line and serve you just as satisfactorily. We have been careful in our selections buying only what is really useful and of good value to our customers.

If you have never used a Dietz's oil stove with an oven and real cooking utensils, you probably do not know its value; you're probably "agin" oil stoves, because the small one you have had smoked and blackened your saucepan. Do not estimate the convenience and worth of a Dietz by comparison with one of the small sort. The plan upon which the large ones are built precludes the possibility of smut, smell or explosion. It will cook a meal for two cents and give you as much satisfaction as an iron stove. You may use it in any part of the house without the labor and trouble of removing the stove pipe; the Dietz is its own smoke consumer and needs no pipe to carry it off. We sell them complete at a price that will surprise you.

Among our silverware, (an additional lot by the Australia) we find some very elegant flasks, men's size, which will be appreciated by those who need a little "drop o' suthin'" to keep their spirits up. We have smaller sizes, both plain and engraved.

The new refrigerators, the "Alaska," is the best we have ever seen. The air channels are constructed so that the air strikes the ice directly on top and must go entirely around it and become thoroughly cooled before it descends to the compartment for meats, etc. The Alaska is by far the best made refrigerator we have ever handled. It is economic of ice and is a "good looker."

If you need any serviceable article for the holidays it will be to your interest to examine our stock.

Draw up the chair about the logs
That sparkle bright and gay;
That in quaint flowers on the wall
In madcap frolic play.
Oh, toss all sorrow to the winds,
For this is Christmas day.

What if the chilly winds without
About the chimney blow
And high against the frosted panes
Make minarets of snow
When Christmas cheer this cozy nest
With comfort sets aglow!

The happy child upon the floor,
With feelings luscious ripe,
Plays with the red toy animal
Of curious spot or stripe
While deep within his little heart
The birds of springtime pipe.
He roams beneath his loaded tree
Beside the inglenook,
Alive with candles, blocks and drums

And many a picture book
From dear old Santa Claus, who came Last night—but hush—oh, look!

Here comes the plump and luscious goose
So savory and brown,
A golden promise on a dish,
Our cares and fears to drown.
And place on our triumphant brows
A rich though fleeting crown.

Come, let us carve him while he's hot
And breathing fumes of spice,
And pile the pungent stuffing high
Upon each juicy slice,
And in dream shallops lightly drift
Through flowery paradise.

And afterward we'll light our pipes
While twilight shades appear,
And when we break the wishbone frail,
Amid the blazing cheer,
Let him who wins wish for us all
A happy, glad New Year.

A Bit of Pathos at Christmastide.

There is a little girl of 6 who has proved herself one of the ministering children not in name only. A few weeks ago the baby of the family died. The children as well as the mother had looked forward to hanging up the baby's stocking at Christmas with a great deal of pleasure. But the loss of the baby brought such anguish to the mother that she decided to have no Christmas celebration of any kind. Last Sunday evening, as the family sat in partial darkness, recounting their loss with all its sad circumstances, a tender little voice
pierced the gloom:

"Mamma, isn't there any Christmas in heaven?"

"Yes, darling," answered the weeping mother. "It is always Christmas there."

"Then why don't you keep it here?"
persisted the little girl. "Jus' make b'lieve baby isn't dead, an hang up her little stocking, mamma, an let's all have Christmas jus' the same an be happy, like she is."

The child's wisdom prevailed against the unreasoning sorrow of the mother, and the little ones are happy and busy filling the stocking of the baby who will keep Christmas in heaven.

Christmas Dessert.

A HALF DOZEN SPOONS.

Christmas Carols.

The first Christmas carol, as Milton and Jeremy Taylor have said, was sung by the angels on the plains of Bethlehem. This custom has prevailed in most Christian countries and is perpetuated in England and on the continent. Calabrian minstrels still leave their mountains during the last days preceding Christmas for Naples or Rome, saluting with their wild music the shrines of the Virgin Mother, to cheer her until the birth hour of the infant Jesus, now near at hand. The first Christmas carols were hymns in honor of the nativity. They afterward assumed a more secular character, many of them being songs of reverly accompanying the festivities of the season.

Ladies' Column.

Commencing Saturday we will KEEP OPEN EVENINGS till the Holiday trade is over. We have put electric lights into the store, and are ready for the rush. From day to day our business increases. We are kept moving from morning till night; not only ourselves but the goods are; what is the reason of it? It's simply this:
We have been whispering words of economy; we have talked about judicious buying, until at last you realize that you can really obtain first-class goods of us at prices you would pay for shoddy goods elsewhere. We call them Quick Sales and Small Profit Prices, which means in plain English that there is no such thing as just the same goods for less money. You realize it; everybody realizes it; hence our increased business. Judicious buyers, shrewd buyers, those that appreciate the best goods for the least money, are the ones you see snapping up the new goods as fast as they go on the counters. They are the class of buyers we are looking after.

This week you will find a genuine Bargain counter loaded down with CALICOS, GINGHAMS, ORGAN-DIES, COTTON CHALLIES, SHAWLS, ETC., ETC.; come and look at them, and if you don't think they are the best goods for the money, don't buy them.

Have you counted up the Sales Checks you have received from us yet?

REMEMBER, we keep open nights from Saturday Dec. 15th, till the Holidays are over.

SUPREME COURT ON MONDAY.

Circuit Court Judges Will Take Turns Filling Vacancies.

Judge Frear Unable to Attend—Hawaii Assault Case to Come Up.

The Supreme Court comes in on Monday with twenty-five cases on the docket. In the absence of Judge Frear, the Circuit Judges will alternate in filling his position on the bench. The alternation is so arranged that none of the Circuit Judges will pass judgment on cases appealed from their decisions. One of the most important cases of the session will be the judgment passed upon exceptions in the assault case of Oisha and others.

This case is the outcome of an attempt to arrest a party of Japanese workmen on Hawaii, who were gathering coffee for a Portuguese named Gasper. The crop was claimed by a native, who threatened to have Gasper arrested for trespass.

The latter told his men to resist if any attempt was made to take possession. This they did, with the result that one of their number was killed and the others held for resisting officers.

The point which the defendants make in their bill of exceptions is the illegality of the warrant on which the Japs were arrested.

The magistrate in filling out the complaint specifies each person against whom the complaint is made. In the warrant, either from lack of time or disposition, the magistrate wrote the words "Oisha, et als." Lawyers for the defense believe it to be altogether too ambiguous.

The John Hapa highway robbery will also come before the Supreme Court.

WANT MORE ROOM.

Cramped Condition of the Board of Health Meeting Place.

The present meeting room of the Board of Health is hardly suitable for the purpose, on account of its limited size. This fact was brought up yesterday afternoon previous to the meeting and discussed, but no result was arrived at. President Smith is in favor of adding an "L" to the building, the room to be about 15 x 20, and giving the present room to the leprosy commission for a library and store-room. There was some talk of moving the entire Health office over to the Judiciary Building, but all the suitable offices are engaged, with the exception of the room in the rear of the Legislative hall, formerly used by the electoral registrar and auditor. It was thought it would not do on account of the noise attendant on a meeting of the law makers.

As stated previously, nothing was agreed upon, but the matter will be brought up again.

WHERE THEY WILL MEET.

One Body in the Executive Building, the Other Across the Way.

The time for the convening of the Legislature in extra session is drawing near and perhaps before this time next month both houses of Congress will be hard at work on some matters that require immediate attention. It has not been settled where the bodies will meet, but it is more than probable that the Senate will hold its sessions in the old throne room in the Executive building, lately used by the Executive and Advisory Councils under the Provisional Government. The Representatives will probably meet in the old Legislative hall, the scene of many a worthy battle between Hawaiian lawmakers and their "haole" brothers. The last time this hall was occupied was when the members of the convention framed the present Constitution of Hawaii.

Busy at Tax Office.

These are busy days at the Tax Collector's office. There was a constant stream of taxpayers yesterday who wished to escape the ten per cent. additional for non-payment. Today is the last day of grace. After the 15th, a charge of ten per cent. interest will be made on all taxes remaining unpaid.

The itching and burning sensation made me suffer indescribable agonies. I spent a great deal of money for different remedies but did not get relief. About a year ago, leading physicians advised me to take Hood's Sarsaparilla. I did so and have taken five bottles.

To Plantation Managers.

The following letters received from Mr. Jno. A. Scott, Manager Hilo Sugar Company, refer to the AVERY FERTILIZER DISTRIBUTORS and STUBBLE DIGGERS, for which the Hawaiian Hardware Company are sole agents. Mr. Scott first saw these implements at the Columbia Exhibition to Chicago, and was so favorably impressed with their appearance that he immediately ordered samples shipped in the Hilo Sugar Company. Mr. H. Deacon, Manager for Pepeekeo Sugar Company, secured one each of these implements from Mr. Scott and expressed his satisfaction with them in the letter published herewith:

PEPEKEO, Aug. 8, 1894.

J. A. Scott,
Dear Sir:—In reply to yours in relation to the "Avery" Stubble Diggers and Fertilizer Distributors.

I would say that I have been using the Diggers almost constantly since I received them, and am highly pleased with them. As the name signifies, I find them specially adapted to the work of loosening the soil about ratoon stools, and they may be used to great advantage either before or after the Fertilizer Distributors, thereby putting the ratoon fields in the very best condition for a rapid growth. They are a light draft machine, and I would recommend them to any plantation owner.

The Fertilizer Distributor is a great labor saving machine, and I find that I shall need one more to fill our requirements here.

I remain, yours respectfully,
(Signed) H. DEACON,
Manager for Pepeekeo Sugar Co.

WAINAKU, Hilo, Aug. 9, 1894.

Mr. E. R. Hendry, Honolulu.
Dear Sir:—In reply to your inquiries regarding the working of the

"Avery" Stubble Diggers and Fertilizer Distributors. I would say that I have been using the Diggers for some months and have dug some eight hundred acres of stools with them, thoroughly loosening the soil in and about the roots, thus giving them an excellent opportunity for many more shoots to come forth than usually do. And I find that there is a thicker stand of cane where it has been stubble dug. The machine works in fertilizers on ratoon stools without any further hand labor, mixing them thoroughly with the soil and allowing them to get to the roots of the plant.

The Fertilizer Distributors I have had at work for some time and I have fertilized about four hundred acres with them thus far and they are doing all the makers claim for them, distributing the fertilizers in an even manner on each side of the cane and in whatever quantity desired. They are a good labor saving machine and are doing the work of several men. These machines are of light draft and strongly made and there is nothing liable to get out of order. I can fully recommend these to plantation owners.

I remain, yours truly,
(Signed) JOHN A. SCOTT,
Manager Hilo Sugar Co.

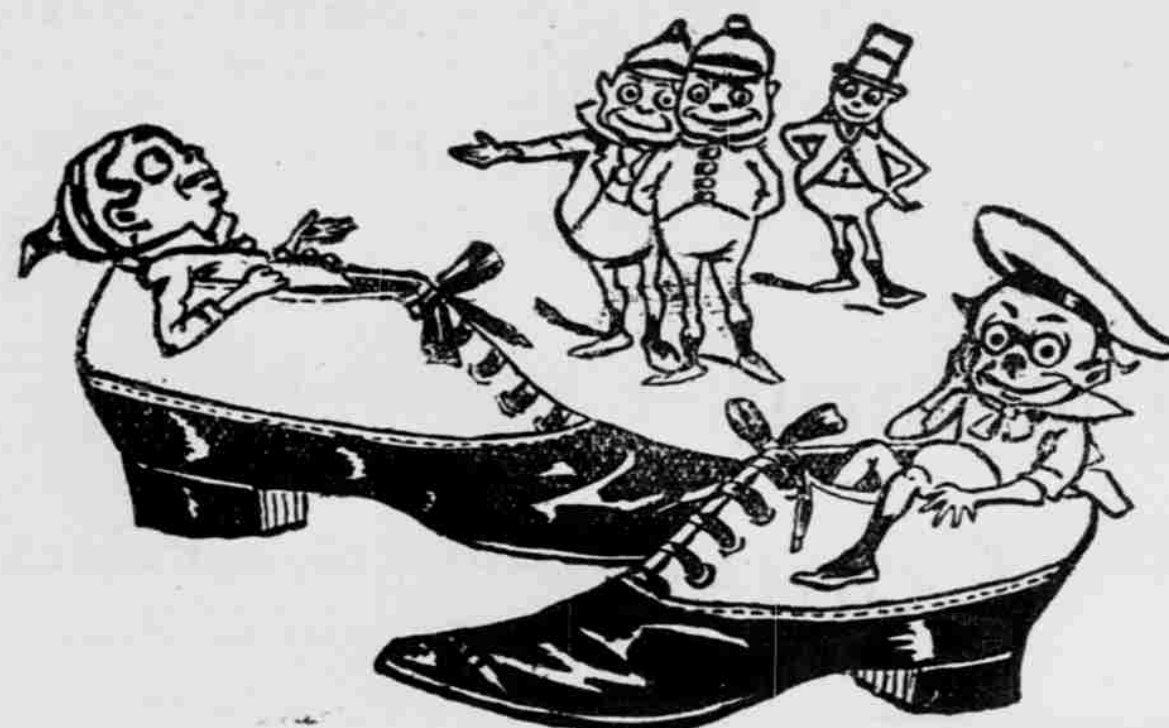

We received by the Alameda a carload of Avery & Son's Implements which include Fertilizer Distributors, Stubble Diggers and Improved Sugar Land Cultivators. The latter has solid discs and shovel attachments. They are admirably adapted for use in the soil here and will be found necessary on every plantation.

The Fertilizer Distributor is arranged to work on land where the furrows are irregular with the same facility as where they run even.

Any information regarding these machines will be furnished on application to

THAT CHRISTMAS FUND.

It Will be Disposed of this Morning by the Committee.

C. B. Reynolds, the executive officer of the Board of Health, will assist the committee appointed to dispose of the Taylor concert funds. It will be a hard matter to decide just how the money can be spent for the greatest good, as the sum when divided will allow something like twenty-five cents for each leper. It has been suggested that instead of buying toys the money should be used for the nucleus of a library. This plan would be a lasting benefit.

A number of Christmas boxes were sent on the Lehua for Father Wendell at the Settlement. They arrived by the last Australia, and were gifts from some charitable ladies in San Francisco. The customs officials at the city mentioned examined the boxes but did not find anything contraband. The cause of their alertness will be understood when it is stated that about one year ago a box marked "clothes for the lepers" was opened and found to contain opium.

DIAMOND HEAD, Dec. 14.—10 P.M.
—Weather, clear; wind, fresh, N. E.

The steamer Iwalei arrived from Kilauea yesterday with a cargo of sugar.

Captain Dow, master of the barkentine Planter, who has been ill in San Francisco, has entirely recovered.

The Hall's departure was delayed yesterday for half an hour on account of several heavy shipments of freight.

An English torpedo boat named the Ardent, recently made 30.151 knots on her trial trip. She steamed over twenty-nine knots against the stream.

The news of the sudden end of Captain Perkins was a big surprise to his many friends in this city. The deceased was formerly mate under Captain Hubbard.

Purser Bendall, formerly on the Monowai, is now on the Arawa, as a representative of the Union Steamship Company. He looks after the freight, while Purser Roe has charge of the passengers.

The bark Sonoma arrived from Newcastle yesterday with a cargo of coal. She was sixty-seven days out. The schooner Robert Searies arrived from the same place. She made the run in three days less time.

The bark S C Allen is docked at Brewer's wharf to discharge. She brought a pair of gray horses for the Honolulu Fire Department. While an effort was being made yesterday to get the animals ashore one fell overboard but was finally landed without being injured.

The Arawa did not leave the Oceanic dock until 10:30 o'clock yesterday morning, and owing to her extreme length it took another half hour to turn her around. A number of people were on hand to see her off. The Hawaiian band furnished the usual party serenade.

MORE TROUBLE ON THE HESPER.

Six of the Crew Arrested for Refusing Duty.

The Men Wanted Shore Leave But Were Refused by the Captain—Were Out Sixty-two Days.

Captain Sodergren, of the bark Hesper, six of his crew arrested yesterday afternoon for refusing duty. The trouble commenced on Thursday, shortly after the arrival of the bark from Newcastle. The men claim that they finished their day's work by furling sails and stowing everything away. The vessel was out for sixty-two days and for that reason they thought they were entitled to shore leave on Thursday night. According to their statement, the captain did not agree with them, and refused to allow them to leave the vessel. When they were called yesterday morning they refused to turn to, and late in the day were arrested for not obeying the captain. The men claim that the captain had no right to refuse them shore liberty after they had been out for so many days. The following are the names of the arrested men: John Jacobsen, John Gray, F. Mitchell, A. Rolcha, C. Jensen and F. Fredrickson. The captain's side of the story could not be obtained last night.

National Cane Shredder

(PATENTED UNDER THE LAWS OF THE HAWAIIAN ISLANDS.)

Mr. John A. Scott, Manager of the Hilo Sugar Company gives the following wonderful record of the working of the NATIONAL CANE SHREDDER, which was erected by their works at the commencement of the crop just harvested:

"During the past week the Hilo Sugar Company's mill exceeded any of its former records by closing the 125 hours grinding with an output of 300 1/2 tons. This is fully 10 per cent. more than the best work of former years.

"The three roller mill being 26 in. by 54 in. and the two roller mill 30 in. by 60 in. The first mill doing this amount of work in an efficient manner and with great ease, compared with work on whole cane, owing to thorough preparation of the cane by the National Cane Shredder, recently erected by the Company. And by its use the extraction has been increased from 3 per cent. to 5 per cent. on all kinds of cane, and in some cases 80 per cent. has been reached; the average being 75 to 78 per cent., according to quality.

"I continue to find the megass from shredded cane better fuel than from whole cane.

"The shredder has been working day and night for seven months and has given me entire satisfaction, having shredded during that time about seventy thousand tons of cane, and a large part of it being hard ratoons.

"The shredder and engine require very little care or attention."

Plans and specifications of these shredders may be seen at the office of Agent for the Hawaiian Islands of the Richard's Lock Nut, which is an ordinary hexagon nut constructed so that it is impossible for the nut to become loose or slack, and fall off the bolt. It costs no more than the ordinary cold pressed iron nut and dispenses with the use of the lock washers, keys and split pins. This nut is now exclusively used on all the principal railroads and street cars lines in the United States. Samples and pamphlets furnished on application to the undersigned.

Agent for the Siphon Water Elevator, which is automatic, for irrigation, city supply, farms, etc. This invention as its name indicates is based upon the principle of the siphon known to the Ancients but it is devised in such a manner as to greatly enlarge the field of application. Used until today only for the drawing off of liquids to a lower level, the siphon now becomes an Automatic Water Elevator, which under favorable conditions is endowed with great powers. In many instances, land situated higher than the irrigation ditch can be irrigated at a nominal expense. The Siphon Elevator is especially adapted for such conditions, as it can elevate the water from the main irrigation ditch to a higher one, while the waste is available for irrigating the lower levels. The siphon elevators are made of brass and iron in sizes ranging in capacity of from two hundred to three million gallons per day.

Estimates and plans furnished for new machinery and repairs.
