FIGHT IN HOUSE IS NOW ON

Bill for Commission to Probe
Hawaii Affairs Up This Afternoon

AMENDMENTS PROPOSED
AND MAY BE ACCEPTED

Possibility of Sitting of Investigating Body Will Be Confined to One Island

(Special Star-Bulletin Wireless.)
HILLO, Hawaii, March 26.—In dignation is freely expressed here at the opposition to the passage of Senate Bill 78 in the House. The talk that the bill should not pass because it would put a burden on Hawaii county is considered a mere pretense to hide opposition to the investigation. Prominent businessmen declare that if the expense is reasonable it is immaterial who pays
it, and that the important thing
is the passage of the bill.

The fight in the house over Senate
Bill 78, providing for the commission to probe Hawaii county's financial tangle, is on this afternoon.

The house session today, with its prospect of lively debate, attracted more general interest than any other session so far, and a number of prominent businessmen went to the capitol
to see the smoke of battle go up.

The house ground away this morning on its routine of business and did not get to Senate Bill 78, which was up for third reading. At noon there was every prospect that the bill would be carried, though not by a large margin. One estimate made by a man closely in touch with the situation was that the measure would carry with nineteen votes against eleven.

It was not expected this morning that Speaker Holstein would have to take the floor to champion the measure, as he stood ready to do in case
the debate needed his influence and assistance.

Amendments Proposed
Amendments proposed yesterday afternoon and talked over briefly this morning seemed likely to be proposed and may possibly carry, as it is not considered they will seriously impair the effectiveness of the bill. One amendment suggested was that the bill provide that the sittings of the commission should be restricted to the island of Hawaii. This would end one argument against the bill,—that if the commission were to bring witnesses and books from Hilo it might be an embarrassment of Hilo business.

Another amendment proposed was that provision be made that the County of Hawaii shall bear the $20-000 expense of the commission only in case that amount is realized from the securities put up by the bondsmen
for county officials who may be found to have forfeited their bonds.
With such an arrangement the county would not bear any burden of expense. If the bonds were not collected upon, the expense of the investigation would fall on the territory.

Word of these amendments was carried to senate members who are strongly in favor of the bill, and there seems no great objection on the part of the senators to the modifications suggested. It was pointed out, however, that to amend the bill will delay action on it, will make necessary its return to the senate, and give many opportunities for disagreement.
This is what all who favor the bill
are trying to avoid and therefore there is an effort made to put the bill through unamended.

Hilo Expresses Itself
Letters and telegrams are still coming from Hilo urging the passage of the bill. Meanwhile the influences opposing the Hilo investigation have been actively at work. John K. Kai, county clerk of Hawaii, and Simeon K. Kahana, well-known politician of the Big Island, are said to be among those whose presence here during the last few days has given rise to the rumor that they are lobbying against the measure.

Governor Frear yesterday afternoon
made a brief statement strongly urging the passage of the bill.

MAGUIRE INDICTED BY HILO GRAND JURY: WILL GIVE THE BONDS

(Special Star-Bulletin Wireless.)
HILLO, Hawaii, March 26.—The grand jury today returned two indictments against the same person and the indictments were placed on the secret file. Bail was fixed at $2500 for each indictment. The jurors were then given a term recess.

(Special Star-Bulletin Wireless.)
HILLO, Hawaii, March 26.—It was learned later today that Auditor Maguire was the man indicted by the jury. The jury was unanimous on the indictment. Maguire will appear in court at 2 o'clock and give bonds.

M'CANDLESS GETS MESSAGE FROM SEC. LANE

In response to a message from Secretary of the Interior Lane, L. L. Mc-Candless, candidate for the appointment of governor of Hawaii, left for Washington today on the Wilhelmina, sailing this morning at 10 o'clock.
The report published in the Star-Bulletin yesterday that pretty direct intimations had come to gubernatorial candidates that they should present themselves at Washington was confirmed by the news Mr. McCandless received, and though the details of the message were not given out, it is said to have come at the suggestion of Secretary Lane. McCandless's backers this morning were jubilant, feeling that he would not be called to Washington unless he had a mighty good chance of being named.

Attorney Harry Irwin of Hilo was another prominent Democrat going out by the Wilhelmina. He will go to Washington and oppose a cut in the sugar tariff, representing the Hilo board of trade. Mr. Irwin said this morning that Carl Cavallini has been retained as attorney for Auditor Maguire, now accused of misappropriating county funds. Irwin was originally retained.

A number of McCandless's friends gathered to bid him good-bye on his departure. Mr. Waller is said to have had about the same message that McCandless got, but as he was in Washington but a few days ago and met Wilson and Lane, it is not considered that there is need for him to present himself
again at this time.

MAJ. PENN IS NAMED BRIGADE ADJUTANT HERE

General Macomb has completed the organization of the First Hawaiian Brigade by filling the staff position left vacant when the order brigading
the three infantry regiments was first published. Major Julius Penn, of the First Infantry, has been appointed brigade adjutant, and will report for duty April 1.

Major Penn came to Honolulu at the time of the last maneuvers, and acted as senior umpire with the Red army during the bloodless campaign of Oahu that occupied the latter part of October, 1912. He then joined his regiment, and has been stationed at Schofield Barracks since that time.

Major Penn graduated from West Point in 1886, and was a first lieutenant in the Second Infantry at the time of the Spanish-American war.

WICKERSHAM TAKES EASILY TO SURFING BUT NOT TO MAKING BANQUET SPEECHES

Former Attorney-general George W.
Wickersham was the guest-of-honor at an informal dinner given at the Moana
Hotel last night by the Bar Association.

Mr. Wickersham declined to make a formal speech or to discuss national issues, but spoke briefly on the pleasures of his visit to Hawaii.
The flashlight photograph above, taken by a Star-Bulletin staff photographer, shows the distinguished guest seated at the right of President Frank

Thompson of the Bar Association. On
Mr. Thompson's left is Federal Judge
Sanford B. Dole.

Reading from left to right, those seated are—Secretary of the Territory
E. A. Mott-Smith, D. L. Wilkinson,
the Hon. George W. Wickersham,
President Frank Thompson of the Bar Association, Federal Judge S. B. Dole,
Judge W. J. Robinson, Judge F. W.
Hatch.

enway, C. W. Ashford, W. T. Eawlin,

MANY ABLE MEN OUT OF PUBLIC LIFE

WASHINGTON, March 10.—The curtain has fallen on the political stardom of more than 100 members of the house. They walked resignedly across the political stage and toward the exits which lead to private life.
When the extra session convenes in April there will be 156 new faces in the lower branch of congress. Among the missing will be men who have been conspicuous on the floor for many years. The transformation in the house will be the most complete,
perhaps, in the history of the country.

There were changes in the senate
today also, but they lacked the human appeal which attached to the passing of the old war horses in the house.

Heading the list of experienced legislators who must give way to novices is "Uncle Joe" Cannon, a veteran of 38 years' service in the lower body.

Passing Political Tragedy.

The passing of Uncle Joe is a tragedy, as tragedies go in politics. Despite his outwardly brave demeanor,
the former speaker feels keenly his defeat. He says he is too old to come back as he did 24 years ago.

Uncle Joe is 77, and he recently told a little gathering of his friends that there was nothing left for him to do except to go "back to Danville and live among the people who have honored me in the past."

John Dalzell of Pennsylvania, a member of the "old guard" and an uncompromising standpatter, is another Republican whose political death knell sounded when the gavel fell in the house. He has been a member of that body for 26 years.

John J. Gardner of New Jersey and Samuel W. McCall of Massachusetts
also said goodbye to Washington life.
Each has served 25 years and was a veteran in old line Republicanism.

Four members, Republicans, who have been in the house for the last 15 years, will be numbered among the missing in the next congress. They are Ebenezer Hill of Connecticut, E. S.
Henry of the same state, George W.
Prince of Illinois and Cyrus Sulloway of New Hampshire. In the 16 years' service class are two retiring Democrats, William G. Brantley of Georgia and John Lamb of Virginia. Mr.
Brantley retires voluntarily.

The conference committees appointed from both houses of the legislature to reach an agreement on the amendment proposed by the representatives to Senator Chillingworth's banana bill, decided yesterday afternoon that they would recommend $40,000 as the amount of the appropriation to be carried with the bill. This is $10,000 more than originally written in the measure, and $20,000 less than the sum named by the representatives.
Senators Judd, Wirtz and Brown and Representatives Coney, Ash and Geo.
Cooke made up the two committees.

M'CANDLESS URGES SENDING OF DEMOCRAT TO OPPOSE TARIFF CUT

Before leaving for Washington this morning L. L. McCandless, candidate for governor, expressed his opinion that the Democratic party of Hawaii ought to send a delegate to Washington to urge the party's views here on the sugar tariff question. McCandless was discussing the work being done by the Sugar Protective Committee.

"The Democratic territorial organization ought to send a delegate to Washington to urge the policy set forth in the platform of the party
here," said McCandless. "I would suggest that Prof. M. M. Scott would be a good man to undertake the mission.
Our platform sets forth a doctrine of great importance to Hawaii, and our local organization ought to help in the fight, especially as the matter is of such vital local importance."

The local Democratic platform on the subject is as follows:

"The sugar industry of Hawaii having been built up under a protective tariff and large amounts of capital having been invested in the said industry and for the further reason that the said industry constitutes the main business of this territory we would not place the commodity on the free list, therefore, we heartily endorse the action taken by the Democratic Territorial Central Committee in adopting and transmitting to congress the following resolution:

"Resolved, By the Democratic Territorial Central Committee of the Territory of Hawaii, that we do not favor
the passage of the bill introduced by Representative Underwood now pending in the congress of the United States seeking to remove the tariff on sugar."

"We therefore pledge our delegates to the National convention to use every means in their power to prevent the said convention from incorporating in the National platform a clause providing for the abolition of the tariff on sugar and we pledge our candidate for Delegate to Congress, if elected, to use his utmost endeavor to prevent the passage of any bill attempting to abolish such tariff."

SHOTS TO FIRE

The effect of this law, if enacted, will be to stop the process of Americanization and to force
a considerable part of the white population now in Hawaii to leave the islands. It will result in having whatever is left of our agricultural industries turned over almost exclusively to oriental laborers, they being the only form of labor that can compete in free sugar production, even on our best plantations.—Delegate Kalaniana'ole.

The measure appropriating $20,000
for the entertainment of notable guests, which was checked yesterday morning when it was deferred until afternoon, received another antagonistic move yesterday afternoon, when Senator Rice had it put over for two weeks, pending an investigation to determine the manner in which the former appropriation was spent.

NEW JAPANESE BANK PROJECT WELL STARTED

Institution Will Begin with Capital Stock of $200,000,
Much of It Local

Arrangements are far advanced for the starting of a new Japanese bank
in Honolulu, with a capital of $200-000, for the purpose, principally,
of financing the new Japanese industries springing up in Hawaii, such as the manufacture of soy, the brewing of sake, the pineapple industry on Oahu
and the coffee industry in Kona, Hawaii. It is proposed that the bank shall make loans on real estate to help those Japanese who are building up their homes in these islands.

Of the capital mentioned, $100,000 will be put up by local merchants, the other half by financiers in Japan, men interested in Hawaiian trade especially. One of the chief promoters of the projected new bank, for which a territorial charter is being asked, is K. J. Iwanishi, formerly manager of the Honolulu branch of the Yokohama Specie Bank.

Mr. Iwanishi was transferred from here to the New York branch of the same bank several years ago, but recently he severed his connection with the institution and returned to Japan.
In Tokyo he made arrangements with Mr. Motoshige, one of the prominent Japanese merchants of Honolulu, to set the movement for the new bank on foot. When Mr. Yonekura, the proprietor of the Bayview Shoten, Nu-anu street, was on a visit home to Japan, the matter took definite shape and on his return he consulted with Messrs. Sumida, Kawahara, Odo, Te-kakuwa and other leading Japanese businessmen, and the decision was made to proceed with the organization of the banking company under the laws of Hawaii.

It is not yet known where the bank
will be quartered, or who will consti-

DAYTON IN GRIP OF FIRE

Flames Rushing Unchecked
Over City Add to Horror
of Flooded Homes

(Associated Press Cable)

DAYTON, O., March 25.—With water up to the third stories of big buildings, thousands of people in this city are marooned on the upper floors
and housetops, many also having taken refuge on the roofs of smaller buildings. To avoid the rising waters, the people are fleeing desperately
from housetop to housetop.

To add to the horror of the situation, fire is sweeping much of the city that is not under water, and because there is no way of checking the flames, is rushing through the city,
even where parts of buildings are submerged.

Several large structures have already been consumed in the fire and the hope of checking the flames is small.

Governor Cox has appealed to the mayors of all the surrounding cities and towns to send all the boats possible to the rescue of the imperiled people.

The troops have been called out to assist in the relief work.

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 25.— President Wilson has appealed to the nation to aid the stricken states in their hour of disaster.

CHICAGO, Ill., March 25.—Although the smoke cleared away the ground was in confusion and lack of details, the approximate number of dead and injured is said to be 200, Dayton dead, Piqua from 500 to 940, Delaware 20 to 300, Middletown 50 to 100, Sidney 20
to 50, Hamilton 12, Tippesaw 3, Pre-mont 11, scattering 50 to 800.
Indiana is in almost as bad a plight.

KALAKIELA WILL GET OFF WITH A CENSURE

Representative "Jack" Kalakiela will be let off with a censure for his part in the working up of "banana claims," according to well-defined report in the lower house today.
The Judiciary committee of the house, which has been taking the evidence in the noted case where in Kalakielia was accused of graft
and divers things, has not yet completed its work and no report
is expected before Saturday.
However, it comes on good authority that the committee has found no evidence of grafting
and that its report will recommend the censuring of Kalakielia for violating public policy and the faith given him by vote of the people.

Former Attorney-general Wickersham will address the territorial house of representatives in regular session at 11 o'clock next Saturday morning. This innovation, injected into the monotony of legislative business, is to be distinctly a public affair, and it is likely that the senate,
taking recess or adjourning early,
will attend in a body. The general public also is invited to be present.
This announcement was made this morning by Speaker Holstein of the house, whose invitation to the "trust-buster" and head of the government's prosecuting department has been accepted. The nature of Mr. Wickersham's talk is not known definitely,
but it doubtless will deal largely with affairs of legislative interest.

territory undertake the homesteading
of private lands, and that being the case each instance should receive special consideration.

This, however, did not meet with the approval of Senator Judd, who urged in his argument that the bill
was greatly needed by the territory,
and that the government should encourage the homestead scheme, as its operation was much more desirable than the private homesteads which are easily alienated. As a result of his opposition to the report of the committee, the bill was not tabled, but was deferred until this afternoon.

CARGO AND CABIN

HURRICANE DOES DAMAGE TO FIJI

A hurricane of unusual violence visited the Fiji on March 14, continuing for but three hours, wrought damage to the extent of thousands of pounds, causing the loss to banana and coconut growers that will require months to repair.

The Union steamship Tofu, at Suva, at the time of the blow, was permitted to take to the open sea and was therefore spared from disaster.

The Canadian-Australian liner, Marana, an arrival at Honolulu this morning, broasted the worst of the storm. Luckily the vessel suffered no material damage, though her passengers were somewhat frightened at the monster seas and shrieking gales encountered the day before the arrival at Suva.

The storm served to delay the Marana twelve hours. After leaving the Fiji the British steamer was favored with much better weather, though was unable to make up any of the time lost on the southern leg of the voyage.

The Marana brought 24 cabin, 8 second-class and 3 third-class passengers for Honolulu.

Several new officers greeted federal quarantine, customs and immigration men on boarding the liner this morning.

Purser Dodd is ashore on vacation, but is expected to join the vessel upon the return to Sydney. It is hinted that the ever inspiring "Tommy" has lost his heart to a pretty and petite Australian young lady who was a passenger in the Marana on a previous trip to the Antipodes. A prediction was ventured this morning that wedding bells might be induced to jingle at Sydney following the interesting romance in which the erstwhile steamship man is alleged to have figured.

L. G. H. Ward is now looking after the duties of purser in the Marana, his transfer from the New Zealand line having been effected just before the departure of the Marana.

A. H. Winslow is now chief officer, taking the place of G. Ferguson, who returns to the coastal service.

There is a small cargo for Honolulu in the Marana. The vessel will therefore get away for British Columbia ports at 1 o'clock this afternoon.

Sixteen hundred tons refrigerated cargo are in transit from Australian ports to Vancouver and Victoria. No freight was taken on at Suva owing to the hurricane, the vessel being compelled to lay well outside pending the landing of passengers and mails.

The Marana sailed from Sydney on March 10. T. H. Davies & Co., local agents for the Marana, furnished transportation to a large company of passengers destined for the northwest.

Gaiety Attended Wilhelmnia Departure.

Music and gaiety attended the departure of the Matson Navigation steamer Wilhelmnia for the coast at ten o'clock this morning. The usual large crowd visited Hackfeld wharf, where leis and laughter mingled in pleasing profusion.

One hundred and eight cabin and 74 steerage passengers were accommodated in the liner. Of the latter, many were Spanish and Portuguese who have enjoyed but a temporary residence in these islands.

The Wilhelmnia was dispatched promptly at ten o'clock, taking a collection of mail.

The vessel was supplied with a full cargo of sugar and products of the islands, including coffee, rice, bananas and pineapples.

Japanese Operate Two Million in Tonnage.

According to the investigation of the department of communications, the number of steamers flying the Japanese flag was 1,980 at the end of January, 1913, their total tonnage being 1,432,230 tons. Of these, 389 steamers have a tonnage of over 1,000 each, their total tonnage being 1,176,612.

The number of sailing vessels is 6,474, their tonnage being 443,275 in all. There are besides 1,661 ships the cargo capacity of which is calculated by "koku", comprising 551,119 "koku" in all.

HORNLEN HARD HIT BY GALES

Hard hit by gales that assumed the proportion of a hurricane, the British tramp steamer Hornlen, following the completion of discharge of six thousand tons Australian coal at Honolulu, narrowly escaped serious damage in the passage just completed to Puget Sound ports.

The eleven-day trip from the islands to Everett, Washington, was eventful in the extreme, according to the story related by Captain Nilson, who is well known here. The steamer sailed without cargo, carrying but a minimum amount of ballast and set high out of the water. The Hornlen is said to have run into a severe gale. For two days she fought her way through smashing seas, but without serious damage.

During the hurricane the Hornlen was blown off her course and averaged but six knots an hour. Riding high, the vessel, however, missed shipping most of the big seas.

The Hornlen, with a cargo of coal, will be remembered as having made the voyage from Newcastle, Australia, to Honolulu in twenty-four days. While at Sydney a stowaway cat was found aboard the vessel. Ten days later she was found with two dead kittens. After that she refused food and milk, wasting away to a skeleton, and when she fell overboard and drowned, the crew was positive that she had committed suicide because of the death of her young.

Great Grafting on Ocean Liner.

Over a million dollars and six months' time for the foremost British marine engineering experts are being expended by the White Star line in additional safeguards for the mammoth steamer Olympic, which is now almost ready to leave Southampton for New York, from which port her first sailing will be made on Saturday, April 12, for Plymouth, Cherbourg and Southampton.

The present construction work on this great modern vessel is one of the wonders of modern times. While no stronger hull was ever constructed and no structural changes have been found necessary in the Olympic, a fact which in itself is strong testimony to the comprehensive grasp of detail in the evolution of this great liner, the new work consists in the extension of the original double bottom of the Olympic upward to a point well above the waterline, thus furnishing an interior skin of solid steel and forming a hull within a hull, which a keen observer has termed—and what makes the Olympic to all intents and purposes—"two ships in one."

This gigantic and unique engineering feat in itself will win the approbation of every ocean voyager, but the White Star line has gone still further in precautionary arrangements by installing additional watertight bulkheads throughout the hull, several of them being carried up to the floor of the "B" deck, forty feet above the waterline. The effect of these vast additions will be to increase to the utmost the "rotation" capacity of the Olympic hull, and, at the same time, enhance the margin of safety far beyond all previously recognized standards. In fact, the new Olympic will embody every structural safeguard that modern marine engineering has devised. Of course, when the new Britannic is ready all these precautions will be included.

In a few past instances shipbuilders have severed a steamer amidships into two sections and have inserted another portion, making the reconstructed ship of greater length, but compared to the present unique "operation" on the Olympic in constructing and additional "skin" within the hull, all past efforts have been child's play. As the Olympic always has been considered the last word in marine structural strength, her immense 832½ foot hull of stanch steel plates being held firmly together by more than three million steel rivets, weighing 1,200 tons, and her double bottom being reinforced throughout by more than half a million of these rivets, these additional provisions for safety make her practically unique among the ships of the world.

The Green Ghost Arrives at the Coast.

The "Green Ghost" has reached the Coast. The Andy Mahony, a lumber schooner, which was discharged of a shipment of lumber from the Sound and sailed from Honolulu on March 1st is reported to have arrived at Grays Harbor yesterday according to a cable received at the local branch of the Merchants' Exchange.

Marion Chilcott May Sail Tomorrow.

The American ship Marion Chilcott may not get away for the Coast before tomorrow afternoon. This vessel brought down a shipment of fuel oil and drums of distillate. The Marion Chilcott has discharged a portion of her cargo into the Matson Navigation liner Wilhelmnia that sailed for the Coast this morning.

The case of Kaitsu, charged with having eloped with the wife of Tokomatsu Matsumoto, has been held over for the grand jury.

Good luck and bad habits are seldom on speaking terms.

SLOOP OF WAR NOW A BARGE

Surviving one of the most disastrous hurricanes ever encountered in the South seas, afterward refitted at Honolulu, the veteran American war vessel Nipsic is declared will be relegated to the status of a plebeian canner barge, and will find station in Alaskan waters.

The famous old prison ship Nipsic, which has been stationed at the navy yard, Puget Sound, will probably end her days as a barge in the fishing trade. Bids for the vessel opened recently showed that George J. Willey, a cannery man of Seattle, had made the highest offer for the frigate, and she will probably be sold to him at his bid of $7375.

Mr. Willey said that if he obtained the Nipsic he would use her in the salmon trade, possibly as a cold storage plant, although he had not completed his plans for placing the vessel in service.

Old-timers in Honolulu will remember the Nipsic which became famous as the only American vessel that survived the hurricane which swept the harbor of Apia, Samoa, on March 15, 1889. The first news of this disaster was brought to Honolulu with the arrival of a liner from the Antipodes. All but two war vessels belonging to the international fleet were destroyed.

A revolt had broken out among the natives on shore, and an attempt to overthrow the reigning king and seat a pretender on the throne was being made. The powers represented by the American warships Trenton, Vandalla and Nipsic, in command of Rear Admiral Kimberley, the German warships Eber and Olga, and the British warship Calliope, were playing a neutral part, that of looking after the safety of the citizens of their respective countries and protecting their property.

During the hurricane the Trenton, the Vandalla, the Eber and Olga were dashed to pieces on the rocks, and the Nipsic was driven ashore. The Calliope was the only vessel to escape damage or destruction. More than fifty American sailors lost their lives. The Nipsic, surrounded on the sandy beach and was floated with little difficulty. She was sent to Honolulu for repairs, and came from that port to Bremerton, where she became a receiving ship in 1892.

The Nipsic has long been worthless as a naval vessel, but her staunch hull is still valuable. She is 185 feet long and of 1100 tons displacement.

GUNS BOOM FOR GENERAL MACOMB

The salute of eleven guns, which boomed from the battery at the naval station this morning was fired in honor of Brig.-gen. M. M. Macomb, who paid an official call on Rear-admiral Moore, the new commandant.

Gen. Macomb called shortly before 11 o'clock, accompanied by Major Conklin, chief of staff; Lieut.-col. Campbell, adjutant, and Lieuts. Andrews and Peyton, aides de camp. He was received by Admiral Moore, attended by the heads of departments, including Medical Inspector Smith, Major Neville, Paymaster Izard, Civil Engineer Gayler, and Lieut. Stevens.

The marine guard and band was turned out to accord to Gen. Macomb the honors to which his rank entitles him. He received two ruffles and a march on arrival and the same on departure, in addition to the thirteen-gun salute.

Admiral Moore will return the call tomorrow morning.

MEXICAN REFUGEE WILL TALK ON CONDITIONS IN MEXICO

Dr. Juan Bautista Ruffo de Magdalen, Sonora county, Mexico, formerly chief surgeon of the Mexican army, and one of the closest advisers of the late President Madero, who arrived in Honolulu on the Korea after having been forced to leave the Latin republic, will speak before the members of the Young Men's Christian Association in Cooke Hall next Friday evening at 7:30 o'clock, taking as his topic "The Present Situation in Mexico."

During his stay in the southern republic, Dr. Ruffo became an active member of the association in Mexico City.

The address Friday evening will be for the members of the association only, and admission will be by tickets, which the members may secure upon asking for them at the office.

Having gone to Mexico in the role of a soldier of fortune, Dr. Ruffo, who is a native of Messina, Italy, a graduate of one of the leading schools of medicine in Paris, and master of 11 languages, joined the Madero forces and soon became an intimate friend of President Madero, whom he helped to plan several of the decisive engagements of the revolution which is yet simmering. Dr. Ruffo, who is a skilled surgeon, soon became head of the Red Cross work of the Maderist forces, and has three wounds received on the field of battle. He is also known as Dr. John the Baptist.

"How does it feel to be shot?" he asked in answer to a query from a Star-Bulletin reporter this morning. "Well, there was no feel to it." He pulled up his sleeve and displayed a vivid scar on his right forearm and then continued, "When I received this wound, I was down on my knees bandaging the leg of a wounded federalist, when I heard the ping of a bullet and felt a slight itching, where you see this scar. I looked at my arm and there were only a few drops of blood visible, and as it did not hurt me in the least I thought nothing of it. Of course it caused me some pain later, and the bullet is still embedded in the bone. But I have two other wounds made by bullets of a larger caliber, and they caused me some trouble but soon healed."

When asked concerning the death of President Madero, Doctor Ruffo said that his death was purely accidental, according to the story told by the guards who were with Madero at the time of the shooting.

HEALTH BOARD SPENDS MUCH ON HAWAII ISLAND

The territorial board of health spent $56,387.06 on the island of Hawaii in the last two years, according to the figures submitted to the house in compliance with resolution No. 44, introduced by Representative Evan da Silva.

This is in marked contrast to the expenditures of the Big Island plantations, which Chief Sanitary Inspector D. S. Bowman told the solons a week ago, had used something like $500,000 in sanitation improvement work during the same period.

The health board's report shows the largest item of the biennium on Hawaii was the rat campaign, on which the territory spent $7,049.63, the traps getting $3,041, traps, bait, etc., costing $2,024.64, horses and wagons, $1,821.85, and the remainder going for railway fares and incidentals.

Other itemized totals for the two years' work are as follows: Chief sanitary inspector, $4,545.00; District sanitary inspector, East Hawaii, $1,620.00; District sanitary inspector, West Hawaii, $1,544.45; Sanitary inspector, Hilo, $1,830.00; Sanitation expenses, auto, horse and wagon, etc., $3,818.88; Pay of government physicians, $16,515.00.

Quarantine and suppression of contagious diseases (this appropriation was exhausted Jan. 1, 1912), $3,947.65.

Quarantine and suppression of contagious diseases (drawn under contingent fund, Jan. 1, 1912, to Jan. 1, 1913), $1,534.45.

Quarantine and suppression of contagious diseases (drawn under shippers' wharf fund, May to December, 1912), $3,264.60.

Prevention and cure of tuberculosis, $3,801.45.

Rat campaign, $7,049.63.

Hospital campaign, $248.00.

Repairs to quarantine station, Hilo, $2,264.73.

Segregation, hospitals, maintenance and improvements, $2,263.72.

HAUSEMAN GETS BAIL REDUCED

Upon the testimony of Doctor Donald MacLennan that the health of Samuel D. Hauseman, the aged Seattle banker apprehended about two months ago for alleged smuggling of opium, is failing because of his long confinement, Judge Clemons in the U. S. district court this morning reduced Hauseman's bond to the sum of $250. In making the decision, Judge Clemons was also influenced by the advanced years of the defendant.

It is probable that the case will be about a month longer in coming to trial.

CURTISS LECTURE WELL ATTENDED

Dr. and Mrs. F. Homer Curtiss of Los Angeles spoke before an enthusiastic audience composed of some of the social and intellectual elite of the city yesterday morning at the Kilo-hana Art League. The lecture was given under the auspices of the Tuesday morning class and the rooms were crowded, many being unable to find seats. The topic was "The Mind and How to Use It." The speaker maintained that the frequent statement of many modern schools of teaching that "Mind is God" and that "God is universal mind" are only half truths. Universal Mind is but one manifestation of God, is the third logos, and that back of and beyond universal mind is cosmic consciousness which manifests through universal mind, and back of that is the Divine Spirit, the Thinker.

The universal mind was said to be reflected in man in a threefold manner—in the superconscious mind or the mind of the Father-in-Heaven of each individual soul; in the human or rational mind, the mind of the human ego, and in the sub-conscious mind.

Last evening Dr. Curtiss spoke to another large audience on "Life and Its Mysteries." The next lecture will be given at 3 p. m. today, subject "The Origin and Meaning of Numbers."

In one report of the lecture of Dr. and Mrs. F. Homer Curtiss on Sunday last the impression was given that their teachings were not in sympathy with the Bible, but this is far from true. What Dr. Curtiss stated was that humanity had advanced to a point where it would no longer accept unquestioningly the literal, historic and materialistic interpretation of the scriptures, for to do so requires the stifling of reason and common sense and a denial of the results of historic research and scientific investigation. But with this decline of interest in the literal there is a great revival of interest in the allegorical, symbolic, esoteric and spiritual interpretation of the Bible, for such interpretation makes the lessons applicable to the life of such soul here and now.

Agricultural education will form an important section of the International Congress of Agriculture at Ghent, Belgium, in June.

ON TO WASHINGTON

The question of Hawaii's next governor is still an open one. And the prophecies that it would not be settled out of hand by the Wilson administration are borne out by the messages to local candidates that it might be well for them to present themselves in Washington. Following which L. L. McCandless, this morning left on the Wilhelmina. There has never been any doubt that Mr. McCandless is entitled to consideration for the energetic and long-continued work he has done for Democracy here, even though most of the work was to advance his own political fortunes. If a change in governors is decided upon for early action, the Star-Bulletin hopes that such action will come only after every candidate has been given full consideration.

We have always been confident that, putting aside political exigencies, political debts and political maneuvers, none of the Democratic candidates could measure up to the tremendous responsibilities of the gubernatorial office as Governor Frear has done and is doing. Indeed, it is a pity that partisan feelings should enter into the selection of the next governor for Hawaii. In the last few months Mr. Frear has come closer to reaching the sympathies and understanding of all the people than ever before. His executive grasp has not been denied. Hawaii would benefit were Mr. Wilson and Mr. Lane to view the situation here with minds disassociated from the thought that Democracy has a necessary claim to first consideration.

CHECKING THE RECKLESS AUTOIST

House Bill 213, regulating the use and operation of automobiles and other vehicles on the public highways, made its appearance yesterday, and contains some much-needed legislation. After due considerations of publicity and public discussion and the opportunity for such amendments as this discussion may suggest as wise, the bills should be enacted into law.

Not long ago a correspondent pointed out in a communication to this paper that there is already an ordinance regulating traffic and moving vehicles, which, if enforced properly, would make the further legislation needless. There is, it is quite true, such an ordinance, but it fails to cover explicitly and adequately cases of autos passing street-cars or other vehicles, and as there are daily and flagrant cases of needlessly reckless driving under such circumstances, the clause in the new house bill on this point is well worth considering.

Under this clause all vehicles in passing street-cars taking on or discharging passengers must be kept four feet from the running-board, or, if this is not possible, owing to narrowness of the street or other reason, the vehicle must stop until the car has been discharged or taken on its passengers. Another provision is aimed to prevent autos from driving past cars at a high rate of speed.

It should not be necessary for such stringent laws to be enacted, but apparently in Honolulu it is necessary. The speed regulations are constantly violated here, and often by men who are shrewd and careful businessmen. The disregard of the present ordinance is peculiarly inexcusable in such cases.

Speaker Holstein, who has planned and is now urging House Bill 213, is to be commended for bringing the subject to the attention of the legislators. Though the provisions may seem a bit stiff, Honolulu needs corrective legislation badly, as well as local officials who will enforce the law fully.

SAVING THE FORESTS

Energy, common-sense, public spirit and scientific work will aid in conserving Hawaii's forests and streams just as in other countries these same forces are conserving the priceless natural resources.

A recent bulletin from the federal department of agriculture shows what immense advances have been made in fighting forest fires and what still greater advances have been made in preventing these disastrous conflagrations.

The department of agriculture has been figuring up the losses by fires on the national forests for the calendar year 1912, and finds that they were the lowest of recent years. Less than one acre to every thousand of timbered lands was burned over, and the total damage is estimated at $75,290, or less than one dollar to every 2,000 acres of area.

The good record is attributed to, first, favorable weather conditions in most localities, and second, the increased efficiency of the fire-fighting organization. As Congress makes available the means for extending the system of communications on the national forests, the equipment of trails, roads, telephones, and lookout stations is yearly enlarged and the fires, it is said, are discovered more quickly and fought more rapidly.

An especially good showing was made by the forest officers last year in extinguishing fires outside the national forests before they reached the forest boundaries. Such fires constituted more than one-sixth of all fought by the forest rangers and guards. About nine-tenths were extinguished before they touched the forests. Of the fires within the forest boundaries more than eighteen per cent were on lands in private ownership. Nearly one-fourth of the extra expenditures due to fighting fires—that is, expenditures outside the time of the regular forest force—was incurred in fighting these fires.

Lightning caused more fires than any other agency, followed by railroads, campers and incendiaries, in the order given. The greatest losses occurred in Arizona, Arkansas and California, in which states there was also the largest proportion of fires caused by lightning and by incendiaries. About 27 per cent of all the fires were started by lightning, and about 38 per cent were due to carelessness. The proportion in each case was practically the same as in the previous year.

The total number of fires was 2,472, as compared with 3,369 in 1911. They burned over, in the aggregate, 230,000 acres as against 780,000 in 1911. California led all states in total number of fires, and in the number caused by lightning. Arizona stood second in both of these classifications. Arkansas stood fourth in total number of fires, and first in those of incendiary origin, with California second. The one national forest in Kansas had only one fire, which burned over less than ten acres and cost $1.11 to extinguish. North Dakota had no fires on its one small forest.

Of the 2,472 fires, over 75 per cent were put out before ten acres were burned over, and nearly 50 per cent before one-quarter of an acre was covered. Only twelve fires caused damage of more than $1,000 each.

NATIONAL DISASTER

It is a familiar truism in newspaper offices that small disasters are exaggerated, large disasters minimized, in the first reports. Every newspaper has had the experience of getting telegraphic dispatches of a train-wreck or a small fire in which estimates of the number of victims were sometimes absurdly exaggerated, and every newspaper has also had the experience of receiving hastily-secured death-lists that represented but a small fraction of the total death-loss. A good example of this latter condition was the Galveston flood, where the awful death-lists rolled up hour by hour until they shocked the world.

Already the fatalities in the terrific tornadoes and floods of the middle west and south have exceeded the number of victims of the Galveston disaster—six thousand. It is estimated that eight thousand lives have been lost in Ohio alone, and though the figure is staggering, it is not incredible.

Furthermore, it is reasonable to suppose that the final figures will be much higher. In three states—Ohio, Indiana and Illinois—hundreds of square miles of country are inundated, making relief work slow and precarious. Telegraph and telephone lines are down, railroad tracks swept away, the lowlands under many feet of water, and thousands of people refuting on the hills and highlands. Relief trains in many sections are impossible and communication by boat is hazardous and inadequate. Under such conditions, the suffering on the part of those who have escaped death by tornado and flood is very likely to be serious and will probably result in many additional fatalities.

Helpless, almost powerless to carry relief, the world can only offer what assistance is in its ability and pray that the terror of the waters will be abated by an almighty providence. In such a time of national disaster, ordinary words are futile.

Possibly Mr. Wickersham could give some good advice on Rapid Transit franchises.

INSUFFICIENT POSTAL SERVICE

Manoa, March 26, 1913.
Editor Honolulu Star-Bulletin.
Sir:—In your issue of the 25th instant, the excuse given by "the local postal authorities" for the non-delivery of mail in Manoa seems so palpably foolish that I am prompted to say that Honolulu's postoffice system is not keeping pace with a thoroughly progressive city. If the delivery of mail depended on the illumination and conspicuous display of the number on each house in Honolulu streets, as far as I have been able to observe in a residence of eight months in the "Paradise of the Pacific", the letter-carrier would have to wait until daylight to place his mail. I have not passed through one street where the house numbers are so illuminated as to attract attention.

Since last June I have been expecting a cessation of the annoyance incident to trips between Manoa and the postoffice on the arrival of steamers from the mainland.

As it was impossible to secure a postoffice box, we are obliged to stand in line at the general delivery window, inhaling the fumes of a poor cigar, or leaning against a window sill that has just been vacated by, to all appearances, an insatiable inquirer. If, after complying with all needful requisitions of the postoffice department of Honolulu, it can find no better excuse for non-delivery of mail in this section, I ask if my protest be not justifiable.

With the inefficient postal system, and the lack (?) of water, it seems to me that Honolulu has not the attractions of a permanent residence.

PERSONALITIES

B. S. HUBBARD is a visitor to Hawaii. He is president of the Union Lithograph Company in San Francisco and is also a booster for the big exposition of 1915.

JUDGE N. KERRIGAN of the appellate court of California, an old friend of David L. Conkling, territorial treasurer, arrived here from Manila on the Manchuria Monday.

J. H. KUNAWA, tax assessor of Maui, who has been in Honolulu for the past ten days to attend the meetings of the board of equalization left this morning for his home at Wailuku.

A. R. GURREY, SR., secretary of the board of fire underwriters, will leave today on the S. S. Mauna Kea for Oahu, where he will look into the adjusting of the fire losses at the plantation store. There is $55,000 insurance on the structures destroyed.

J. P. HALE, ex-representative, has been appointed by Sheriff Pua to be deputy jailer at the Hilo jail. He takes the place which will be vacated by Deputy Kauli when he takes the place as jailer, which will be vacated by Maby at the end of the month.

THOMAS A. COSGRIFF, of Cheyenne, and his bride, are Honolulu visitors, guests at the Young. Mr. Cosgriff is president of the First National Bank of Cheyenne and the Hamilton National Bank of Denver, and is interested in the management of some twenty other banks in the different states of that section of the country.

A. G. FANEUF of Honolulu was married in San Francisco on March 15 to Miss Florence N. Jagard of Philadelphia. Mr. Faneuf is employed by the government, and is chief boarding officer in the customs service in this city. Following a tour of the coast, the couple will return to Honolulu where they will reside permanently.

ROBERT MCGREER, treasurer and general manager of the Consolidated Amusement Company operating three moving picture theaters in this city, accompanied by Mrs. McGreer, were departing passengers for the coast in the Pacific Mail liner Manchuria. Mr. McGreer announced that he would be absent for about five weeks. He expects to get a line on several good attractions for the string of play-houses that he represents.

MANICE TELLS OF ISLAND JOYS

Life in Paradise among the angels and saints is again the lot of John Manice, the veteran San Diegoan who, in aligning himself to the membership of the local "Come-Back Club," takes facile pen in hand and writes glowingly of his impressions of Hawaii and Honolulu in particular, for the delectation of readers of the Daily Economist (Calif.) Advocate.

Manice would place himself in the same class with the Queen of Sheba in attempting to describe the glories of the Hawaiian Islands by prefacing his remarks with the declaration that the half has never yet been told.

Manice is a general favorite in Honolulu shipping circles. For the past two years he has made this city his home. He is a regular frequenter of the waterfront and should he fall to make an appearance upon the arrival or departure of a steamer, customs, immigration and newspapermen begin to make an immediate and diligent inquiry as to the health of the venerable and cheery Californian, who

LITTLE INTERVIEWS

CHARLEY HOPKINS — Up Nuananu valley and down the Pali to Kaneohe in a motor-car and into a motor-boat hunting turtles with rifle; then back to the city the same way ought to constitute as fine a day's pastime as any tourist should desire.

JOHN WALKER—For the $60,000 proposed to be spent in finding out how the water supply can be increased, two concrete reservoirs could be built, with a capacity of 750,000 gallons each, and there is enough water running to waste, out King street, both from artesian wells and from living springs, to fill six hundred tanks of that size.

MAJOR PENN IS NAMED ADJUTANT

He was commissioned captain and assistant quartermaster of volunteers, and later became major of the thirty-fourth U. S. Volunteer Infantry, seeing service in the Philippine campaign. He reached his present rank in the regular establishment in 1909. Major Penn is not only an experienced line officer, but has also been signaled out for high staff honors. He was a member of the general staff from September, 1906, to August, 1909. He graduated from the infantry and Cavalry School in 1891, and from the Army War College in 1907.

Headquarters of the First Hawaiian Brigade are located in Honolulu, so Major Penn will become one of the regulars on "army row," in the Young Hotel. However, as much of General Macomb's time will be spent in the field, and in actual inspections of his brigade, his new adjutant will see more of the saddle than in a swivel chair.

Engineers Move Soon.

The order making Fort De Russy a sub-post of Fort Ruger, will not affect the status of the engineer company now at the former post, for there is no connection between the coast artillery and engineer commands that would justify the administration of the latter from coast defense headquarters. Major Wooten, as ranking officer at De Russy, continues as post commander, but it is likely that by May 1 next the engineers will have been moved to make room for the new coast artillery company that is to complete the garrison of De Russy. It is not known whether the engineers are to go to Schofield or Shafter, but the latter post being recommended by the Macomb board, the chances are that they will go there. Major Wooten, however, as chief engineer officer of the department, and not on duty with troops, will take up his residence in Honolulu after vacating his quarters at the Waikiki post.

Captain Alce Leaves.
Captain Alfred Alce, First Infantry, recently detailed to the quartermaster corps, has received orders to proceed to Galveston, Texas, for duty as assistant to the depot quartermaster there. Captain and Mrs. Alce and their young son will probably leave on the next transport for the coast.

Always has a pleasant greeting for all. He warns San Diegans that they would sidestep from their wicked ways were they permitted to take a fleeting peep into the interior of our captive volcano.

Manice easily writes himself down as eligible to the ranks of the boosters and promotionists.

"If San Diego people do not flock to Hawaii after reading my series of letters, it will be because they are saving their nickels to break into the coming exposition to be held at that city in 1915," he added this morning.

For Sale

We have for sale choice building lots in the best residence sections of the city. We have also for sale a number of residences including some modern bungalows. These are located at Kaimuki, Ocean View, Pawa, Manoa, Makiki and other parts of the city. Detailed information will be given any one calling at our office.

We have for rent two cottages on the makai side of King street, near Punahou. These cottages are brand new and have never been occupied.

JULIA TUTWILER, 71, IS FIRST CITIZEN OF STATE OF ALABAMA

Probably every state in the Union claims as its "first citizen" some man who has been prominent in the political affairs of the state. Alabama, however, claims as its first citizen Julia Tutwiler, who, at the age of seventy-one, is still as active in bringing about great reforms as any man or woman of a younger generation. She was called Alabama's first citizen by Dr. Lyman Abbott and those who heard the address in which he made this statement were so pleased that they have since referred to Miss Tutwiler as their first citizen.

It was through her untiring efforts that the University of Alabama opened its doors to women. She also worked for the industrial schools for boys and girls; through her efforts came the first organized prohibition movement and Alabama's first normal college grew under her. She worked for twenty-five years for prison reform, for prison chaplains and for prison inspection. She also helped to establish the juvenile courts. Having accomplished all of these things, she is still working for more.

While Miss Tutwiler is working for the advancement of the conditions of women and children she does not carry a suffragist banner and cry "votes for women." Two years ago she was one of the most prominent lobbyists in the state legislature working for child labor bills, and visitors marvelled that the men at the head of the state list placed her near the little, shabbily-dressed, grey-haired woman. They did listen, however, and while they were unable to give her all that she wanted, they did not scoff at her.

Miss Julia, as she is known all over Alabama, has had many honors conferred upon her. She has been invited to attend three world congresses; she is a member of the Congress of the Representative Women of the World and Chicago; she was one of the judges of liberal arts at the world's fair and has also received many other honors, the greatest of which was when the governor of the state named her as the citizen of Alabama most worthy to represent the state at the casting of the new Liberty Bell.

One of her greatest hobbies is prison work, and though she has accomplished much in the way of prison reform, she, as well as others who know the prison conditions in Alabama, know that there is still a great deal to be desired. She has given her whole life to her state and in the song which has been sung by the school children and citizens of the state for a good many years she says: "Little, little can I give thee, Alabama, mother mine, But that little—hand, brain, spirit, All I have and am are thine. Take, oh, take the gift and giver, Take and serve thyself with me; Alabama, Alabama, I will ever be true to thee."

Her place near the Meadowbrook Hunt Club for the tournament, and his friends will be his guests or the guests of hospitable Americans all around here.

Naturally, the Hurlingham team and the American team will practice hard until the tournament begins, on June 10. All the fashionable women, the matrons and the girls of the younger set, of which Miss Roosevelt is now the central figure, will watch the practice and discuss the teams' chances with the engaging young Britishers who accompany the duke.

The rest of the days and most of the nights will be given up to breakfasts, luncheons, dinners, dances—to no end of entertainments, some of which are being already arranged. Miss Roosevelt, who rides, drives and dances equally well, will be the belle of these affairs.

The six weeks before and after the wedding will be the gayest, liveliest ever known even by the Long Island "hunting set," of which Miss Roosevelt and Dr. Derby are distinguished members.

WICKERSHAMS GO TO BIG ISLAND

Following a banquet given last night in his honor by the local bar association, George Woodward Wickersham, former attorney general, left this morning for Hilo and the volcano on the Mauna Kea. The party, which is in the personal charge of Secretary E. A. Mott-Smith, includes Miss Frances Noyes, Miss Martha Bowers and Fred, Erick P. Moore. They plan to return to Honolulu early Saturday morning.

The banquet last night, which was preceded by a beach party, was of the most informal character. After a short address of welcome by D. L. Withington, Mr. Wickersham was given opportunity to make some remarks. He expressed himself from making any serious commentaries upon the political or financial situation on the mainland, but waxed eloquent in his praises of the beauty and charm of Honolulu.

Next Monday will be a busy day for the former attorney general, for he plans both to visit the legislature and to review the troops at Schofield Barracks. On the following Friday the Wickersham party will leave for the Orient on the Siberia.

WILSON ADMINISTRATION WILL BE A 'DRY' ONE

WASHINGTON, March 12.—The Wilson administration will be "dry." This expression is used entirely in a sense that appeals to the inner man of the nation and not necessarily to those who look for stereotyped methods of government. It became known that President Wilson and his family, all of them are averse to the use of liquor or wine in any form. Intoxicating liquors will have no place in the White House during the next four years unless the president's views undergo sharp change.

The premier in the president's cabinet, Secretary of State Bryan, as is well known, has been a prohibition advocate for many years. On one occasion Mr. Bryan would have made it a national issue and it was due to his efforts that the prohibition legislation in Nebraska was put into effect. It was well known that Speaker Clark is a teetotaler and has been for many years. The fact that a large portion of the Democratic majority in the senate and house is from the south, where prohibition is general, makes certain the fact that there will be little wine and less wassail than has been known in Washington for many years.

There never has been so dry a prospect in the White House since the day of Hayes, when wines and liquors were excluded from the executive mansion. The sideboard, on which the wine glasses and decanters of that administration once were displayed, now graces a local barroom.

OAHU STUDENTS PLANNING BIG PRODUCTION

As the result of a rehearsal of the "Chimes of Normandy," the opera to be given by the students of Punahou, it was found that the stage in the Charles R. Bishop Hall, Punahou, would be much too small for the presentation of the opera on the scale planned and consequently at a meeting held a short time ago plans were formulated which set forth the project of enlarging the stage to suit the requirements.

The plans state that the stage will be seventeen feet longer than at present. This means that the dressing rooms on each side will have to be demolished. New dressing rooms will be provided back of the stage, however, which will be larger and better than the present ones. A new drop curtain is to be substituted for the present curtain and some new scenery provided. Large pillars will flank each side of the stage and its general appearance will be altered entirely.

The improvements will cost one hundred and fifty dollars. The trustees of Oahu College are to provide fifty dollars, the Oahu College Glee Club will provide another fifty dollars and the Oahu College Dramatic Club will provide the remaining fifty dollars. Thus the expense is to be shared equally among the student enterprises of Punahou who will benefit the most from the improvements.

The "Chimes of Normandy" is really a large production and the students are tackling something big when they take it up. However, Punahou is always trying difficult things and making a success of them and this is not apt to be an exception.

The suggestion of saving the hundred and fifty dollars and giving the opera at the opera house was at first discussed but was overruled. The main argument against it was that it would cost fully as much to rent the opera house as to make the necessary improvements at Punahou. If the money was used at Punahou the students would have the lasting benefit of it while if used for the opera house the benefit would be but temporary. This argument clinched the case and the opera house was given up.

Work is to start at once on the new stage so as to give time for rehearsals. The opera is not to be given until the month of May but there is a great deal to be done and so there is a need of having everything in readiness.

SHAKESPEAREAN FESTIVAL ANNOUNCEMENT MADE

The annual Shakespeare festival at Stratford-upon-Avon will, this year, extend for over three weeks and will once more be under the direction of Mr. F. R. Benson. The Festival will be opened on Monday afternoon, April 21, by Mr. Arthur Bourchier, who will deliver a lecture on drama and Shakespeare. Mr. F. R. Benson and company will appear that evening in Richard the Second, and among other eminent artists who will take part in the festival will be:

Mrs. F. R. Benson, who will play Doll Tearsheet in Henry the Fourth (Part 2), Lady Anne in Richard the Third and Katherine in The Taming of the Shrew.

Mrs. Gordon Woodhouse, Concert of English music.

Miss Violet Vanbrugh as Beatrice in Much Ado About Nothing.

Mrs. C. C. Stokes, lecture: The Burghes, Founders of the English Stage.

The Birmingham Repertory Company.

Miss Nancy Price will play Chorus in a performance of Henry the Fifth to be given by the boys of Shakespeare's school.

Miss Jean Stirling MacKinnon. Recital of old songs and ballads.

The Elizabethan Stage Society under the direction of William Poel in Troilus and Cressida.

The Oxford University Dramatic Society.

The full program will include the following plays of Shakespeare: Richard the Second; Henry the Fourth (Part 2); Henry the Fifth; Richard the Third; Hamlet; Much Ado About Nothing; The Merry Wives of Windsor; The Taming of the Shrew; As You Like It; Troilus & Cressida.

Old English comedy will be represented by The Rivals (Sheridan).

The modern plays to be included are: The Tragedy of Pompey the Great (John Massfield); The Devil's Disciple (G. Bernard Shaw); The Silver Box (John Galsworthy). The last named will be performed by the players of the Birmingham Repertory Company.

The Shoemaker's Holiday (Thomas Dekker) will be played by the Oxford University Dramatic Society.

At an official launching party yesterday, the Opae III, a craft constructed from bow to rudder by Judge Whitney of the circuit court, was successfully christened and launched. As the Opae III breasted the waves, the white spray from a rolling comber broke across her bow and her flag lengthened out before the breeze. It was indeed a proud and happy moment for the judge and his retainers of the court. At the wheel, Judge Whitney himself steered the little craft. Clerk Marcellino kept a sharp lookout at the prow, while Clerk Aona roved his eagle eye over the wide expanse of dancing billows.

The graceful, curving lines of the Opae III brought raptures of admiration from the admiring crowd that thronged the shore, and there was no end to the expressions of approval and wonder at the superior way in which the vessel rode the waves. The trial cruise yesterday was a short but spectacular one. The various members of the circuit court are now signing up for future cruises and the prospects are that Judge Whitney will have to don his yachting costume many times during the next month.

OUR STAGE OF DEVELOPMENT.

We have reached the stage of our development where we have time to think about the best way of doing things. This question now arises. What is the best way to stop the fire loss that is liable to come to us personally or collectively without an instant's warning, and the Denio Co. say, install our SYSTEM of fire protection and you will receive a feeling of security that passes all understanding.—advertisement.

FRANCHISE BILLS WILL BE TOPIC

In the representatives' chamber at the capitol Friday evening, the debate on the two bills before the senate for the extension of the Rapid Transit & Land Company's franchise will take place.

Because of the interest which has been shown by the public in the two measures, Chairman Brown, of the select Oahu committee of the senate, decided to have the meeting called in the larger quarters.

It is at this meeting that Governor Frear will appear, and will perhaps defend the second franchise measure which he drafted and had introduced in the senate through Senator Judd. Also President L. Tenney Peck has stated that he will be present. Those who have been following the course of the bills, and the attending warm statements which have been made on both sides, expect to see the head of the railroad and the head of the territory engaged in a debate before the meeting is over.

The meeting was originally called for March 14, but was postponed by Senator Brown, for the reason, he stated, that many wished more time to study the measures before passing on their merits at a public assembly.

PLANTERS MAY OPPOSE TAXATION

Without having materially lowered the tax assessments from the figures originally fixed, the territorial board of equalization, after a ten days' session, adjourned yesterday. As stated in the Star-Bulletin several days ago, representatives from the plantations appeared before the board and complained that the tax assessment this year is altogether too high. Richard Ivers, of Brewer & Co., Ltd., struck the keynote of their objections when he declared that, owing to the low market price of sugar and the drought, assessments should be lower this year than ever. The plantations are assessed at far more than their capitalized value, declare the plantation owners, and submit the following figures in proof of their contention:

County	Capitalization	Assessed
Oahu	$21,332,000	$21,800,000
Maui	23,110,000	30,586,000
Hawaii	23,379,000	27,179,000
Kauai	13,934,000	17,023,000

The finger-print records of 130,000 men are now on record at the navy department. That system of identification was adopted in 1907. Since that time about 1700 "repeaters" have been caught. It is now next to impossible for a man who deserts or receives a dishonorable discharge from the navy to re-enter the service without being caught.

That fact was not so well understood at first, and it was a common occurrence for a master-at-arms to arrest a recruit at the gangway of the receiving ship when reporting after enlistment at some inland station.

The Worker Must Be Well

In these days of sharp competition everyone who works should be keyed up to the highest pitch of efficiency. The rewards of business life go to the clearest thinkers, to the men and women who know and do things better than other people.

But who can do his best work when the health is impaired, when the appetite fails to demand the food necessary to sustain the body, when strength is lacking and ambition gone? Surely the part of wisdom is to begin at once to build up the body to its normal condition and this may be done more certainly by the use of

than any other medicine. It checks hacking coughs, sharpens the appetite, aids digestion, enriches the blood, restores flesh to the emaciated, and renews health and vigor. It is so agreeable to the taste that its regular use is a pleasure. Get it at your druggist's and be sure you get STEARNS'—the genuine.

Elimination of the trip to Molokai during the legislative session two years hence is discussed by some of the influential members who have hope of being returned to the law-making body again. While last Sunday's visit to the station was a success from the entertainment standpoint, and possibly from the viewpoint of information required, yet it is argued that the expense of arranging a junket in which only about one-third of the members participate is largely waste. Only about fifteen bona fide solons made the trip last Sunday. The majority of the party consisted of others, a number of whom are said to have been sightseers, pure and simple. Not even the entire membership of the health committees of both houses, for whose special benefit the visit of inspection was planned, was present. It is thought that the next session will arrange for an inspection of Molokai by the joint health committees alone.

CHILD DROWNS IN CESSPOOL

Falling into an open cesspool near the corner of Wai'alae and Kapahulu roads this morning, John Iakau Kekaha, a two-year-old child died shortly after its removal to Queen's Hospital.

The cesspool located in the rear of a tenement had been opened by the Chinese storekeeper for the purpose of effecting some repairs. Leaving the vent for a moment to pour some water through a clogged pipe, the little child is said to have fallen without uttering any outcry.

The mother was attending to household duties not a great distance away and missing the child, instituted a search.

In the mean time the cover to the cesspool had been replaced by the Chinese, who failed to discover the presence of the little fellow.

Later the frantic mother again uncovered the opening and soon found her offspring, still showing some signs of life. The police were summoned and the infant taken to the hospital where despite treatment, it died. Deputy Sheriff Rose is conducting an investigation today.

SOLDIERS AND CHINESE CLASH

Furious Chinese to the number of a score or more, armed with clubs and guns, engaged in a lively but desperate assault upon a party of four soldiers, was the tale poured into the listening ear of Chief of Detectives McDuffie by telephone last night.

"It was a hold-up of the worst kind, and they proved too many for us," was the parting rejoinder.

The officers sallied forth and wound up near Moanalua fish ponds. Here they were confronted by a delegation of excited Chinese who indignantly denied any participation in an unwarranted hold-up. The Chinese did display one large string of mullet, declared to have been left behind by a fleeing soldier. At a neighboring fish pond, 25 pounds of fish, contained in a sack, had been dropped by a man said to have worn the uniform of Uncle Sam.

The Chinese fishermen and owners of fishing rights, insist that a series of disastrous raids have of late been made upon their ponds. Under the cover of darkness, they charge, enlisted men from Fort Shafter visit the ponds with painful regularity and near the sluiceway secure quantities of the succulent and valuable mullet, the stock in trade of the Chinese peddler. Last night, the Chinese collected together for the purpose of defense. They came upon a quartette of soldiers in the act of lugging away their booty. A fight followed with the result that the delegation of defenders of a great nation were put to rout, and stood not upon the order of their going.

No arrests have been made, but the officers believe that from the descriptions in their possession they will soon be on the trail of the right men.

CHUCK HOLE IS BEING FILLED

Workmen started this morning to fill up the hole at Alakea and Hotel streets, which for more than two years has been dangerous to vehi-

lar traffic at all times and a mire sump in wet weather. When the paving of Hotel street, in connection with its widening, from Alakea street to Richards street, with oiled macadam, had been only a few days completed, it was torn up at the corner mentioned by the Rapid Transit and the water works people together. It was the duty of the superintendent of public works to see that the street was restored to the condition in which it was found, but evidently he neglected the matter. It was stated by the Rapid Transit engineer at the time that the street would be properly repaired as soon as the double-tracking on Alakea street was finished, but evidently also the matter passed from his memory.

On Saturday last the neglected work was casually brought to the attention of L. A. Thurston, a Rapid Transit director, on the occasion of a discussion of the public utilities commission bill by a group at Nolte's, in which he took part, and today the long-delayed compliance with the law is being effected.

Save Your Hair! Beautify It! Invigorate Your Scalp!
Danderine Grows Hair and We Can Prove It

Try as you will, after an application of Danderine, you cannot find a single trace of dandruff or a loose or falling hair and your scalp will not itch, but what will please you most, will be after a few weeks' use, when you will actually see new hair, fine and downy at first—yes—but really new hair—growing all over the scalp.

A little Danderine now will immediately double the beauty of your hair. No difference how dull, faded, brittle and scraggy, just moisten a cloth with Danderine and carefully draw it through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. The effect is immediate and amazing—your hair will be light, fluffy and wavy and have an appearance of abundance; an incomparable lustre, softness and luxuriance, the beauty and shimmer of true hair health.

Get a 25 cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any drug store or toilet counter, and prove to yourself tonight—now—that your hair is as pretty and soft as any—that it has been neglected or injured by careless treatment—that's all.—advertisement.

ALLEGED PAUPERS WANT THEIR WAY PAID ON FOREIGN TOURS

"All persons who have come to us for aid during the past two weeks seem to be intent upon making a trip either to the coast or to a foreign country, and want us to pay the expenses," said Mrs. Alice C. Jordan, manager of the Associated Charities, this morning, speaking of several incidents of this nature which have taken place since the first of the month.

The first incident of this nature to come up before the charities was the case of a German, about 30 years old, who appealed to the association for aid and asked the manager to provide him with the necessary funds in order that he might return to Holland. He was sick, he said, and the doctors had prescribed that he leave the islands at once. "He looked strong and healthy," said Mrs. Jordan, "and as he said that he had traveled a good deal through the States before he came to Honolulu, I thought that he might just as well work his way on a sailing vessel to Holland, and I told him that I would help him in securing a place whereby he could do this."

Another case of pure destitution which came to the attention of the association a few days ago was a man and his wife, without funds or friends, who had been employed, they said, at Pearl Harbor before the disaster which destroyed the drydock. Following the collapse of the structure, they were thrown out of work and unable to obtain employment, were forced to appeal to the Associated Charities. Mr. Jordan referred the man to the Planters' Association, where, it is expected, he will find work on a plantation.

There have also been a number of cases of a minor nature which have been brought to the attention of the association during the past two weeks. One man has been sent to the Fred Baldwin home on Maui, another being provided with food by the association, and a little girl, suffering from throat trouble, has been placed in the hospital for treatment by the manager.

An adjourned meeting of the Associated Charities will be held next Monday for the purpose of considering a revision of one of the by-laws of the association relating to the executive committee and the board of directors.

MATTOS AGAIN IN THE TOILS

Peter Mattos, an American negro, again finds himself in the toils as a result of the efforts of Special License Inspector Fennell, who alleges that Peter has disposed of wine and other fermented joy waters to soldiers stationed near Fort Kamehameha.

Fennell secured a train of witnesses who appeared at District court this morning and related before Judge Monsarrat their purchase of liquor at the establishment conducted by Mattos.

The defendant was fined $125 a few days ago upon a charge of selling liquor without a license. To the decision of the lower court he entered an appeal.

Fennell makes the charge that Mattos was instrumental in the closing down of a Japanese blind pigger some months ago. He has been working up evidence against Mattos, who is alleged to have done rather a thriving business with the enlisted men.

At the conclusion of the hearing this morning, an additional $125 fine was assessed by Judge Monsarrat.

Considering the kind of man she marries, it is no wonder the average bride blushes.

GAMBLERS TRY CLEVER TRICK

Seeking protection through the employment of a telephone and a "look-out" stationed some distance away, a party of twenty-three Chinese, were finally discovered engaged in tickling the tiger, in a well known Smith street resort early this morning.

Believing that Chief of Detectives McDuffie and his sleuths had retired for the night, the rendezvous for Oriental gamblers was opened to a select gathering who began arriving there after eleven o'clock.

McDuffie, while not addicted to insomnia, by any means, decided that it was a crime to seek early repose on such a beautiful moon-lit even, and therefore marshalled a few officers for a raid.

Stationed behind the friendly shelter afforded by a pile of lumber the officers soon effected an entrance to the premises. While there and engaged in rounding up the Chinese as well as the accumulation of chips and money, a telephone call was heard. An officer answered the phone, the message coming from a Chinese lookout posted at a neighboring hackstand, who desired to inform the party that "officers were watching the place."

The warning, however, came a few minutes too late. Participants or spectators at the soiree will be arraigned before Judge Monsarrat at district court tomorrow morning.

In one or two instances, the police say that the Chinese admit that they received chips, with a stated value or equivalent in cash.

KOOLAU TUNNEL IS UNDER WAY

Under the direction of H. K. Bishop, the engineer in charge, work on the Koolau water tunnel is making such progress that it is now hoped that the undertaking will be completed in two years instead of the three years originally calculated. Account is at the same time taken of the possibility of encountering difficulties as yet hidden in the bowels of the mountain, such as hard rock formations, springs of water, quicksands, or any of these and other things with which subterranean engineering is familiar.

Four hundred men are at work, and the tunnel has been driven a distance of 40 feet from the south entrance. This section of the tunnel will be two miles long to the shaft. Operations on the Waialeale end of the tunnel began on Friday last and is making satisfactory progress.

A railroad over the right of way obtained from L. L. McCandless is being built to facilitate the operations, and at the completion of the tunnel will become the property of Mr. McCandless.

GOVERNOR THANKS HOUSE FOR TOKEN OF ESTEEM

Although Governor Frear was "flabbergasted" by the unexpected surprise when the house's resolution of thanks was formally presented him yesterday morning, he quickly recovered and "came back" with a written acknowledgment which was received and read in the house early in the afternoon. His letter reads as follows:

EXECUTIVE CHAMBER

Honolulu, Hawaii, Mar. 25, 1913.

To the Honorable, The House of Representatives, Honolulu, T. H.

I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt, this day, through your honorable speaker and a committee of the house, of the very beautiful engrossed resolution adopted by the house on the fourth instant extending, in contemplation of my early retirement as governor, its thanks to me for my efforts in that capacity towards the promotion of the public interests.

While I have not been able to accomplish all that either I or others have desired, I have endeavored to serve only the public interests, and whatever I have been able to accomplish in this endeavor has been the result not of my own efforts alone, but also of the co-operation and valuable aid of those who have been associated with me and of the legislature and the public generally. I wish to express my deep appreciation of the action of the house in thus recognizing my efforts, and to reciprocate by expressing my own sense of appreciation and, I am sure, that also of the people of the territory of the splendid work which has been accomplished in many directions by the several legislatures during my administration, whether in co-operation with myself or others or on their own initiative.

Very respectfully,
WALTER F. FREAR,
Governor of Hawaii.

DEMOCRATIC MEMBERS JOIN IN CAMPAIGN

It has been frequently suggested, since the sugar protection campaign opened, that in view of there being a Democratic administration and Congress in control, action on the part of the local Democratic party would be desirable. Last night a conference of Democratic members of both houses of the legislature was held, at which the following petition to Congress was adopted:

"Whereas, the commercial life of the territory of Hawaii, and almost its entire population, is dependent on the sugar industry, in said territory, in which industry there is at present invested more than one hundred and fifty millions of dollars, or more than two-thirds of the total property value of the territory; and

"Whereas, a material reduction of the tariff duty on sugar will work incalculable harm to that industry, and the abolition of the said duty will actually destroy the same and impoverish the thousands whose savings are invested therein, or whose business or employment is dependent thereon;

"Now, therefore, we, the Democratic members of the legislature of the territory of Hawaii, in caucus assembled, respectfully petition the Congress of the United States, not to abolish or materially reduce said tariff duty on sugar.

DELEGATE WRITES OF BUILDING FUNDS

Delegate Kalaniana'ole, writing from Washington, has this to say about the appropriation for the federal building to be constructed on the Mahuka site:

"Congress has passed and the President has signed a public buildings bill carrying $450,000 for Honolulu. I had thought, and the general impression was, that there would be no public buildings bill this session.

"The senate and house conferees could not agree and both houses insisted to disagree with one another. It was settled, though, at the last minute, by the house agreeing to allow certain appropriations for the state of Washington.

"The bill carries $450,000, and with a balance of $45,000 of the former site appropriation and $90,000 of the balance of the $350,000 for enlarging the site, will give us a total of $585,000. "Taking out for all judgments allowed on enlarging the site, this will give us a total building fund of something like $885,000.

"I wanted to get a million-dollar building, but it could not be done."

NON-BOARD COMPANIES IN THE LOCAL FIELD

Resigning from the board of fire underwriters and taking over the agency of three non-board insurance companies, with assets aggregating over $9,000,000, Ables & Armitage have come out as the first direct competitor of the local board companies.

The companies represented by them are the Security Fire Insurance Co. and the New Haven Underwriters Insurance Co., both of New Haven, Conn., and the Girard Fire and Marine Insurance Co. of Philadelphia. These companies have passed through the three big conflagrations in Boston, Chicago and San Francisco and are among the few companies rated as A1. Ables & Armitage will be pleased to furnish further particulars and show you how you can save a big percentage of your premium.

LOSS PROMPTLY PAID BY HOME INSURANCE CO.

The following letter from one of the victims of the Sunday morning conflagration speaks for itself:

Honolulu, T. H., March 25, 1913.
Home Insurance Co., of Hawaii, Ltd., Honolulu.

Gentlemen:—I beg to acknowledge receipt of your check for $300.00, being payment in full for loss sustained under your policy No. 952, covering on my stock damaged by fire on the morning of March 23, 1913.

I desire to express my thanks for the honorable manner in which my loss was adjusted, and the prompt payment of same.

It will afford me much pleasure to recommend your company to any of my friends or others interested in insurance.

Again thanking you, I beg to remain, Yours very truly,

(Signed) BARNARD LIEBMAN.

HIT OR MISS IN THE WORLD OF SPORT

THE attention of all American league umpires who have grown a grout under the tirades of players and fans is called to the invention of A. H. Haas, of Medford, Mass., who is now trying to interest President Ban Johnson in an instrument that he claims will accurately decide on balls and strikes. Mr. Haas says that any umpire can become a good umpire by using his machine, which is constructed along the lines of a telescope.

According to ball players, past and present, there never has been any doubt but that something was needed for the eyesight of umpires, but they declare just as unanimously that not even an invention could make a good umpire. To a ball player all umpires are bad, the only classification being that some are worse than others.

Mr. Haas told Ban Johnson, however, that his mechanical device was so constructed that no umpire could go wrong if he used it and that the arbiters need no grandstand, but can associate with the players with their heads up if they adopt his invention. Baseball has been invaded by a number of mechanical devices, including many ball players. Then there is the pitching machine, which, however, has yet to win a pennant or a world's series. There have also been mechanical catchers, and if the invasion of mechanics into the realm of baseball continues it will soon only be necessary to drive a few stakes at the various positions and have some one push a button. John McGraw and Frank Chance and others declare that there is automation enough in the game now, but neither has yet registered an objection to the invention of Mr. Haas, as they are of the opinion that most anything would be an improvement on the kind of umpiring they frequently get in the pennant season.

Since Mr. Haas did not explain his device in detail President Johnson has not yet had a chance to make any decision upon its adoption, but he has promised to give the machine consideration.

THERE seems to be a demand all over the country just now to have a sane boxing law passed so that sparring contests may be held without having a lot of people howl their heads off about violations of law, etc., and calling for reforms. They break other laws every day, but that does not matter. The old antagonism against boxing, or prize fighting, as the reformers have been wont to call it, has been gradually disappearing as these people become more enlightened as to what boxing is, and the time is fast approaching when regular tournaments will be held in all the Y. M. C. A. and even church gymnasiums.

There are some young ministers who even now believe in having boxing bouts for their young men, knowing that it keeps them around their own neighborhood instead of having them seek the same amusement away from home. There are many states in the West and Middle West where bills are pending in the legislatures to legalize boxing, practically all the bills being patterned after the Frayley law of New York state. Wisconsin, Illinois, Minnesota, Michigan, Ohio, Nebraska, and several Eastern states have all joined the list with bills to legalize the sport.

GOAT DRIVE ON HAWAII.

R. B. Booth, of the Fred L. Waldron Company, who returned yesterday from Hawaii, where he has been visiting at the Hind ranch, brings with him a story of one of the greatest goat drives ever held on that island. Following the destruction of valuable cattle fodder by a band of goats occupying the higher levels in the lava region, the cowboys of the Hind ranch, under the leadership of Robert Hind, organized a drive last week which resulted in more than 2400 of the animals being slaughtered on a peninsula near the Puako plantation. The men teamed in a line of the higher level, driving the goats down toward the peninsula where the killing took place. The country was well rid of the four-footed pests, less than a hundred escaping through the lines and back into the higher levels. A large number of the animals were cut up, and the meat dried. The goats are absolutely useless and several attempts have been made in the past to get rid of them.

SOME COMMENTS ON SOLDIER BASEBALL

(Special Star-Bulletin Correspondence)

SCHOFIELD BARRACKS, March 26.—Sunday's game between the Portuguese and Twenty-fifth Infantry teams was the most interesting ball game that has been played in the post in some months and, by long odds, the best exhibition of the game that the Twenty-fifth has shown since its arrival here.

Besides being a game full of good hitting and fielding, ending in an exciting finish, it was remarkable in that a new soldier pitcher, Lawson, the long southpaw of the All-Artillery team, was introduced to fans here, that big "Jasper," for some years the pitching mainstay of the Twenty-fifth team, has begun to show something of his old-time form, and that, finally, the Twenty-fifth team did something to sustain its reputation of years past. Jasper has been the slowest of the Twenty-fifth pitchers to get in form this year. In the first game with the Portuguese a month ago he had such lack of control that he lasted only two innings; so Sunday's game belonged to him in which to make good, and he made good. Ten strikeouts in eight innings is going some for any pitcher against some of the batters the P. A. C.'s offered Sunday. Although he struck out two men—including La Mere—in the eighth, the two hits made in that inning, which resulted in a tied score, showed he was weakening a little, and it was good judgment to take him out before he beat himself. With a start like Sunday's and the class he will show with more development he will soon make Honolulu fans wake up to the fact that here is a real pitcher.

Lawson, who substitutes for Madeiros in the fifth, held the Twenty-fifth helpless until the ninth—not a man seeing first for four innings with five strikeouts to his credit. He and La Mere will make a formidable battery for the Artillery team. Lawson made a most favorable impression here. He uses a tremendous drop effectively and a break towards the inside of the plate that was a puzzle to all the right-handed hitters. "With Gollens, the only left-handed hitter in the Twenty-fifth yesterday, he was not so successful for Lawson could not seem to make the break to the outside of the plate, which leaves the impression that left-handed batters should find him easy.

The Twenty-fifth line-up is gradually working its way back to the infield of several years ago, and Parker who has played the game at short was in his old position, Cullens going to second, his last year's place. Willis, who is nursing a lame knee, was replaced at first. Swinton and Hollingsworth, just out of the hospital, came into the game to play right and, incidentally, to hit for three bags in the second and fourth. Cullens got three hits, repeating his performance of the first Chinese game by beating out a fast infield hit. Scott caught the crowd by a great one-hand catch in the third.

The P. A. C.'s played an errorless game with the exception of Freitas' at second base who raised up one put-out and three pretty assists with four errors. There is something to be said for Freitas, however, and that is that he was playing over the worst bit of territory in a mighty poor diamond.

MOTOR CAR BILL COMPREHENSIVE

Introduced by George P. Cooke, Speaker Holstein's motor car measure appeared in the house yesterday afternoon. It is thorough, exhaustive, covers fourteen closely-written pages, and provides stringent regulations similar to those in vogue throughout the mainland cities.

The clause relating to the passing of streets, to turning corners and crossing intersecting thoroughfares is directly in line with the legal provisions which have been advocated constantly by the Star-Bulletin. It provides that autos passing streets, which are a full stop, discharging or receiving passengers, shall keep at least four feet distant from the street's running board, and if by reason of other traffic or obstacles it is impossible to keep this distance the auto driver shall come to a full stop until the streetcar is again in motion.

Licensing of chauffeurs, lighting regulations, the prohibition of sirens, registration of both cars and drivers and penalties for non-compliance with any of its provisions is fully provided for.

In short, the bill is one of the most comprehensive covering any subject that has been brought to the attention of the present legislature.

Some people are so constituted that they would much rather find fault than find favor.

Don't put yourself under a cloud with the sole idea of testing the silver lining theory.

The man who is too proud to beg and too honest to steal shouldn't aspire to a political job.

Bombardier Wells Trying To Figure 'Ow It All 'Appened

NEW YORK, March 15.—Bombardier Wells spent the greater part of today figuring out how he came to grief in the big bout at Madison Square Garden. He received $4,364.10 as his share (80 per cent) of the gross receipts of $14,441.

Gunboat Smith drew down $3,636.75, being 25 per cent.

"What happened to me?" were the first words uttered by Bombardier Wells after he got up off the wooden table in his dressing room.

"You were knocked out, Billy," replied his brother, Sydney, "but the way you held on to the fight—best you."

"What blow floored me?" Bombardier next asked.

"It was a wild right swing with which he caught you in the second round," answered his brother.

"How many times was I knocked down, Sydney?" continued Wells.

"Three," explained Sydney. "The last time you were floored you were counted out."

"What do you think of Gunboat Smith?" the writer asked.

Luther McCarthy after the fight.

"He is a tough, strong fellow and can certainly hit. I will fight him if the clubs give me the money I think I am worth."

ANOTHER BRITON AFTER YACHT TROPHY

NEW YORK, March 15.—In connection with reports that some other British yachtsman than Sir Thomas Lipton is a prospective challenger for the America's cup, it developed that at least one such Englishman with eyes on the cup is Charles C. Allom, owner of the first fifteen-meter cutter Istra, which has made phenomenal speed in European waters. Like Sir Thomas, however, it appears that Allom desires a race with a smaller boat than the ninety-foot maximum length which is allowed under the deed of gift of the cup.

"I have had the project of a challenge in mind," Allom, who is in this city, is quoted today as saying, "but with a twenty-three-meter boat under international rules, the boat to be built by a syndicate consisting of several of my friends."

He had made informal inquiries of the New York Yacht Club, he said, long before the publication of the Lipton challenge. He was in no wise in competition with Sir Thomas in his challenging, and he hoped that Sir Thomas would see fit to amend his conditions so that a race for the America's cup might be had.

"The greatest good that could possibly accrue to the sport would result from the loss of the cup to America," he said, "for then there would be an effort to bring it back, and each effort would cause some new advance in the science of yachting."

He pointed out that conditions had changed since the deed of gift of the America's cup had been drawn, so that a proportionate development of a ninety-foot yacht would place it in the schooner class.

The Myrtles are again in first place in the bowling league, and they didn't take a step or roll a ball to get there. The Healanis did all the work for them by taking two out of three from the Brunswick-Balkes last night.

Most of the games totaled very respectable figures, and it is evident that the class of bowling is very much better than at the beginning of the present season.

SPLITS.

The Brunswicks and Myrtles again change places.

The "glooms" hung around the Brunswick camp last night.

The Healanis couldn't accommodate all the "joys," some of them having to go over to the Myrtles' boat house; the Laeti Club also had some.

"Let's wait a frame and let them catch up,"—Longley.

"And the rich part of it is, we only had two bowlers to start with, all the others were novices; now look!"—Franz.

"We can get along very nicely without your help, Red, thanking you just the same."—Franklin.

Clymer had high score, 208, while McTighe had high average, 179, for the Healanis.

Milton had high score, 208; Roberts, with an average of 181, was high man for the Brunswicks.

JUNIOR STAFF FOR 'OAHUAN' IS ANNOUNCED

"The Oahuan," the official publication of the students of Punahou, has, as time progressed, gained more and more favor in the eyes of the students. The school paper has given the students an opportunity of presenting the different school problems and activities before all the students in the same light and has given them the means of recording school events in an interesting and attractive manner. The students are learning more quickly the value of student co-operation and the part a school paper plays in bringing this about.

The editing of the "Oahuan" is left every year in the hands of the senior class who carry through the work until the end of their reign. It is then entrusted in the hands of the juniors who will next year be seniors, and so it goes on from year to year. However, before the juniors are entrusted with the paper they must prove their ability and so every year the juniors are given entire charge of one issue and if the staff proves capable it is given charge of the next year's "Oahuan." The custom was carried out this year and as a result of the election the following members of the Junior Class were appointed to edit the April, or Junior Number, of the "Oahuan":

Editor..... Genevieve Taggard
Associate Editors.....
..... Ruth Soper, Thelma Murphy
Business Manager..... Elbert Tuttle
Assistant Business Managers.....
..... Marston Campbell, Goodale Moir

Boys' Athletics..... John O'Dowda
Girls' Athletics..... Margaret Jones
School Notes.....
..... Margaret Thurston, Ruth Johnson
Alumni Notes.....
..... Mildred Dias, Louise Churchill

Odds and Ends.....
..... Catherine Ashley, Malcolm Tuttle
Literary Editor..... Dorothy Peterson
Exchange..... Ellen Williams
Artists..... Eloise Wichman, Janet Sharp, Joseph Yap.

This staff will have complete control of the next issue of the "Oahuan" and if they make good will edit the "Oahuan" for next year.

Seven Nations Are After England's Tennis Title

The announcement of the Davis cup draw for 1913 has revived the interest of tennis enthusiasts in that event, and the present year ought to make a real international tournament out of the competition.

During the past six years, in which Australasia has held the trophy, only America, England and France have made any attempt to capture it. America has sent four teams and England one to the Antipodes.

In 1912 eight different nations will be interested. England is now the champion nation and will defend in the challenge match.

America, France, Germany, Australasia, South Africa, Canada and Belgium have all challenged, and these seven nations will be obliged to compete in an elimination tournament, along which lines our local tournaments are conducted.

In the preliminary round America plays Australasia, Canada plays South Africa, France plays Germany and Belgium has the bye. The nation which wins the preliminary tournament will then figure in the challenge contest against England.

The preliminary rounds will be completed during June, and the final and challenge matches, by the middle of July.

Englishmen Start Early.

Since 1906 the Davis cup competitions have been held late in the year, after the big events of the American and English tournament schedules have been completed, and the change in dates, which is necessary, on account of the shortness of the English tennis season, will cause some trouble among the American players. In England the grass season play begins with the Wimbledon tournament, about May 13; Surbiton and Beckenham follow on May 20 and June 10, and the English national championships are decided during the last week of June.

In America none of the really important tournaments of the year are held until June, when the "Longwood" is usually held at Boston about June 15, after which time a succession of turf court tournaments follow until the national tournament takes place at Newport on August 15.

The English players have the advantage in being able to commence turf court play earlier in the year than their competitors, and also in having more covered courts on which they can practice, until they can use the turf courts similar to the ones which must be used for the Davis cup contests.

PISZCZEK-JOHNSON FIGHT THE CAUSE OF MANY GUESSES

While the main event of Saturday night's card, a 15-round argument between Willis and Selman, is attracting its share of attention, the fans are looking forward with considerable interest to the semi-windup, in which Piszczek of the First Infantry will go up against Young Jack Johnson over the 10-round route.

The mill is remarkable for the diversity of opinions held by the ring critics. Hardly anyone is willing to concede the probability of a close

match, Johnson's friends contending that he will get through the soldier's guard with one of his wild swings that start at the rafters, and will win by the K. O. route. Piszczek's supporters, on the other hand, laugh at the match as a cinch for the infantryman. They point to the wild style of mugging used by Johnson against Plondy Ross, and the "black hope" of the Twenty-fifth Infantry, as proof positive that in the ring with anyone who knows the rudiments of boxing Johnson would have no show at all. No

The names of the players who will represent the different nations will not be declared until twenty days before the preliminaries are contested; but this country will undoubtedly offer the honor of representing America to two Californians—Maurice McLoughlin of San Francisco and Thomas C. Bundy of Los Angeles.

Local Champs Lack Rivals.

These men hold both the doubles and singles championships of the United States, and the California climate enables them to secure practice throughout the year. The problem here is for the champions to secure topnotch opponents. In the East there are a couple of dozen first-class men who can extend them, but out here only two or three, and these are located far apart.

For Australasia—Crookes and Wilding have been asked to represent that nation, and Sydney papers dated February 12, declare that they will comply. But recent cable advice states that Crookes will be unable to take part. Any team with Wilding included is bound to give a good account of itself, but it is to be hoped that Crookes will appear, as the Australasian meet America in the preliminary round, and it would give McLoughlin his third chance at Norman Brookes, who has a right to be considered the premier tennis player of the world, in spite of his defeat by Parkes, the Irish champion, in November last.

Since that time Parkes and Brookes have met twice in tournament play, and Brookes has won in straight sets on each occasion.

The German team undoubtedly will be Froitzheim and Rahe, who are considered equal to the best English players. A good deal of suspicion is being indulged in as to the makeup of the English team.

It would seem hard luck for Parkes if he should not be placed on it, as he practically won the trophy for his country by winning two Davis cup singles matches, and he has shown throughout the entire play of the English team in a number of tennis events in Australia, better form than any of his team mates, even including Dixon, the champion, who forced Larned to a hard match at New York in 1911.

But Parkes has never been able to show the same form in Great Britain, and his countrymen will probably require him to make good during coming season before they give him a chance to defend the title.

TWENTY-FIFTH MAY JOIN T OAHU LE

The J. A. C.'s have with the Oahu Senior League, as east should the annual meeting was called last night, at the office of the Dr. River route Charles Chillingworth, only.

Chillingworth, only. These are the Stars, Followed by Asahi and Hawaii, and the local league management is now casting around for a fifth team, the plan of having five clubs, and thereby giving each team a Sunday off every few weeks, having worked so well last year that the players wish to frame a like schedule for 1913.

The Twenty-fifth Infantry team is a possibility for the vacant fifth opening, and within the next few days something definite will be known as to the chances of including the soldiers from Lelienau. The only objection to a team from the mobile army is that during maneuvers or practice marches the men could not come to the city to play, and postponed games, with consequent complications, would result.

A good suggestion seems to be that the All-Artillery team, made up of men from the coast artillery posts adjacent to Honolulu, be asked to join the league. These players could be counted on for any Sunday game.

Charles Chillingworth was re-elected president last night, the other officers chose being as follows: Vice-president, A. Q. Marcellino; treasurer, M. Paresa; secretary, W. Raposo; auditor, J. K. Nolley; board of arbitration: John Wise, A. L. Castle, and C. B. Cottrell.

The season will start Sunday, May 4, and a committee will start on the schedule as soon as the fifth team is selected.

one accuses Johnson of having any knowledge of boxing, while Piszczek can handle his hands and feet fairly well inside the ropes. But Johnson is a rusher from gong to gong, and there should be doing while the fight lasts. Promoter Jackson has a good card in sight, and indications point to a big fight time at the Popular Theater Saturday night. A couple of good prelims are programmed, besides the main event and the Johnson-Piszczek affair.

We have often wondered if some men don't get married for the purpose of having someone to drive them to drink.—Chicago News.

'THIRD HOUSE' IS ORGANIZED

It is rare for a legislature to boast of three houses. Some appear to have a difficult time managing two. It is these facts which made the solons expand with pride when it was officially announced that a third house had come into existence, and that John Wise, clerk of the senate, was president.

The first regular meeting of the third house was held Monday, and after resolutions were passed in which it was set forth that the body was devoted to the serious things of life, to wit: the frivolous, an election was held which made Wise, president; Eugene K. Aiu, secretary; A. K. Vierra, treasurer; H. L. Kinsela, auditor and W. J. Coelho, musical director. W. H. Crawford, J. W. Brining, Claus L. Roberts, S. W. A. Kaleihoua, John A. Noble and M. S. Deponate are vice-presidents.

A plan is under way which may result in a musical program being given in benefit of the Molokai patients, the proceeds to be used in leasing motion picture films for the use of the afflicted. Coelho is engaged in working on this plan. He states that if he can be assured of outside support he will see that the scheme is carried out.

CERTAINLY ENDS STOMACH MISERY

"Pape's Diapepsin" Relieves Your Indigestion in Five Minutes

Sour, gassy, upset stomach, indigestion, heartburn, dyspepsia; when the food you eat ferments into gases and stubborn lumps; your head aches and you feel sick and miserable, that's when you realize the magic in Pape's Diapepsin. It makes such misery vanish in five minutes.

If your stomach is in a continuous revolt—if you can't get it regulated, please, for your sake, try Diapepsin. It's so needless to have a bad stomach—make your next meal a favorite food meal, then take a little Diapepsin. There will not be any distress—eat without fear. It's because Pape's Diapepsin "really does" regulate weak, out-of-order stomachs that gives it its millions of sales annually.

Get a large fifty-cent case of Pape's Diapepsin from any drug store. It is the quickest, surest stomach relief and cure known. It acts almost like magic—it is a scientific, harmless and pleasant preparation which truly belongs in every home—advertisement.

BUSINESS ITEMS

There was a good demand for the leading stocks in the early trading on Wall street yesterday. Changes were small but most of the speculative favorites moved upward.

Directors of the Rapid Transit & Land Co., Ltd., for the ensuing year are L. Tenney Peck, L. A. Thurston, G. P. Castle, C. H. Atherton, A. L. Castle, C. G. Ballentyne, W. R. Castle, Richard Ivers and G. N. Wilcox, who are yet to elect officers.

L. S. Conness, late editor of the Hawaii Herald, was interviewed by the Call in San Francisco, when passing through on his way to attend law college in Washington, and spoke of the serious results the removal of the sugar duty would have on the territory.

Hawaiian stocks in San Francisco closed yesterday as follows: Hawaiian Commercial, 33.50 bid; Hawaiian Sugar, 33.50 bid, 34.50 asked; Hono-kaa, 7.50 asked; Hutchinson, 16.50 asked; Kilauea, 12 bid; Onomea, 20.50 bid; Paauhau, 16.25 asked; Union, 28 asked.

Agree on Banana Claims The first sign of a squabble between the house and senate was averted yesterday when the committees from both houses, appointed to confer on the amendment made by the representatives to Senator Chillingworth's banana bill, reached an agreement. The bills will now be presented carrying an appropriation of $40,000 in place of $60,000, the sum the representatives raised the appropriation to. The measure originally called for $30,000. Senators Judd, Brown and Rice and Representatives Coney, Asch and George Cooke made up the two committees.

Cause for Alarm

Loss of appetite or distress after eating—a symptom that should not be disregarded.

It is not what you eat but what you digest and assimilate that does you good. Some of the strongest, healthiest persons are moderate eaters. Nothing will cause more trouble than a disordered stomach, and many people contract serious maladies through disregard or abuse of the stomach.

We urge all who suffer from indigestion, or dyspepsia, to try Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets, with the understanding that we will refund the money paid us without question or formality, if after two you are not perfectly satisfied with results.

We recommend Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets to customers every day, and have yet to hear of one who has not been benefited. We believe them to be without equal. They give prompt relief, aiding to neutralize acidity, stimulate flow of gastric juice, strengthen the digestive organs, and thus promote perfect nutrition and correct unhealthy symptoms. Three sizes, 25 cents, 50 cents, and $1.

You can buy Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets in this community only at our store:

OVER-NIGHT FEDERAL WIRELESS To the Advertiser

With only one-fifth of the homes wrecked in Omaha by Sunday's cyclone examined, a careful check of city morgues today disclosed 110 dead in Omaha alone.

The relief committee, headed by Governor Moorehead and Mayor Dahlman, declare that 1663 homes, exclusive of churches, schools and mercantile institutions, were either wrecked or partially destroyed, and it is feared that today's explorations will bring the list of fatalities in Omaha up close to 200. Shelter stations today cared for 2173 homeless people.

Millions in Damage. Yesterday's estimate of $10,000,000 damage in Omaha still stood today. City officials fixed the loss to homes alone at $5,000,000, mercantile institutions, churches, schools and club buildings, dividing the remaining loss, Many Funerals Planned.

Fourteen of the bodies choking the various morgues are still unidentified. A score of funerals were planned today, but most of the victims will be buried tomorrow and Thursday.

Fourteen hours after the storm and while the soldiers were digging in the ruins of the Diamond picture theatre, believing all there were dead, a negro suddenly arose from the debris. His face was nearly white from fright. He gave one yell and ran down the street at top speed. It is now believed that most of the people who were in the moving picture show when the cyclone struck escaped.

Strange Incident. Mrs. W. W. Sherwood was ill in bed. Her baby held her when the storm struck the house. The child disappeared, but the mother escaped unhurt. It is believed the baby was killed.

Fifteen persons met death in a cyclone at Makanda, Illinois, last night according to reports. A fast freight train was blown from the Illinois Central tracks and twenty-five cars dumped into a ditch.

Many Homeless. Ten thousand families are homeless in Indiana today as the result of the worst floods in the history of the state. The property loss runs into millions and all industry, including transportation facilities, is suspended. A thousand homes are submerged at Kokomo and their inhabitants are perched upon the roofs of their dwellings, waiting for aid. Practically all the boats in the city were swept away and the people in flooded districts are marooned and foodless.

Victims of Floods. Fully 8000 people were drowned in the death-dealing floods which swept through Ohio today, bursting reservoirs and swelling rivers turning into rushing lakes.

According to latest reports there were 5000 drowned in Dayton, 1000 in Hamilton, 550 in Figue, 100 in Delaware and hundreds in other cities throughout the state. The four days of steady rain filled every reservoir in the state to overflowing.

No Warnings. People had little warning and hundreds of them were caught in the flood and drowned. The water continued to rise until tonight there were thirty feet of water over the downtown section of Dayton.

Governor M. Cox, of Ohio, with the sanction of the legislature in session in Columbus, tonight issued an appeal to the world for assistance for Ohio flood sufferers.

Dayton Business Paralyzed. The business section of Dayton has suffered greatly, many office buildings have been abandoned and business is paralyzed. The main bridge over the Miami river has been dynamited, as debris floating down the stream formed a dam there. Aid has been rushed to Dayton from surrounding towns.

A new revolutionary disturbance broke out today at Chao-An, in the province of Fu Kien, China. The government forces stationed there are not sufficiently strong to control the situation.

The army transport Sherman sailed from Manila March 15, carrying the following passengers for Honolulu: Brig. Gen. Frederick Funston and Lieut. Lloyd R. Fredendall, Second Infantry.

After a day's desperate fighting before Adrianople, under cover of siege guns, the Bulgarians captured the first line of Turkish defenses, according to a statement from the war office at Sofia today.

The statement confirmed the surrender of Djavid Pasha, the Turkish leader, with 15,000 troops, on the Skumbi River, Albania.

The New York Yacht Club is unwilling to meet Sir Thomas Lipton in a match for the America's cup so long as Sir Thomas Lipton insists on limiting the size of the defending yacht to that of the challenger.

The club's members maintain it would be a violation of the deed of gift under which the New York club holds the America's cup as trustee to permit the limitation of the defender to that of the challenger.

Ninety men are reported today to have been killed or wounded in yesterday's rebel attack on Cannanea, Sonora. The rebels are said to have lost sixty and the defenders half that number. An armistice was declared so that the dead and wounded might be removed from the field.

Croup Can Be Prevented. When given as soon as the croupy cough appears Chamberlain's Cough Remedy will ward off an attack of croup and prevent all danger and cause of anxiety. Thousands of mothers use it successfully. For sale by all dealers. Benson, Smith & Co., Ltd., agents for Hawaii—advertisement.

AMBASSADOR IS VISITOR HERE

En route to Washington to make his report to President Wilson, Hon. Lars Anderson, United States ambassador to Japan, was a through passenger on the arrival of the liner Mr. Anderson and his wife, who is accompanying him on his trip went to the Moana Hotel, where they received the calls of a host of local friends.

Mr. Anderson is one of the very few men who retain the honor of having passed through practically every branch of the diplomatic service. When interviewed at his apartments at the Moana yesterday, he was loath to speak upon any matters of international importance, but he did say, however, that only the most cordial relations now exist between Japan and the United States. He said that the recent talk of war between the two nations was all bosh, and with regard to Japan withdrawing from exhibiting at the Panama-Pacific Exposition in 1915, went on to say that he had heard no such rumor. In speaking of his work in Japan he said that he was by no means a stranger when he first landed there in the capacity of American ambassador, having been there many times during the past twenty years. He has met many men, he went on to say, in the Japanese capital who have resided in Honolulu and almost all of them have a longing to be back here again. "When I left Honolulu fifteen years ago I experienced a longing to go back, but I managed to resist. That was because I had not been here long enough to get inoculated."

Mr. Anderson said that his resignation had been mailed to President Wilson, and that when he gets to Washington he will call upon the president officially, and after making his report, will then resign a second time. He said that he was not in a position to say whether or not his resignation has been accepted. During his period in the diplomatic service, Mr. Anderson has held the positions of secretary of legation and embassy at London, first embassy charge d'affaires at Rome and minister to Belgium.

MAUI EASTER SERVICES HELD

[Special Star-Bulletin Correspondence] WAILUKU, Maui, March 24.—Easter services on Maui were largely attended. The Roman Catholic churches were filled all day at the various services. The Makawao Union Church had hardly a seat left. The music was unusually fine, and the decorations were lovely and daisies. Mrs. H. F. Baldwin and Mrs. F. W. Hardy were the committee in charge.

The church of the Good Shepherd in Wailuku there was a very large audience. The decorations were Easter lilies and asparagus plant. The large choir sang two beautiful anthems. The offering for the debt of the church amounted to about $350. The rector, Rev. Wm. S. Short, preached a most effective sermon.

The Kahului Union Church was filled with worshippers. Rev. Henry P. Judd preached upon "The Easter Hope," and was listened to very closely. Here bamboo was used most effectively in the decorations. The Sunday school had special Easter services.

The Wailuku Union Church was filled with people Sunday evening. Miss Lida Crickard was in charge of the decorations, which were most effective. Calla lilies, Shasta daisies and roses were in abundance and were beautifully arranged. The anthems by the choir were F. C. Maker's "Awake Thou That Sleepest," and Gounod's "Unfold, Ye Portals." The solo by Mrs. Louise Chisholm Jones was from Hayden's "Creation" — "With Verdure Glad." The offering was a large one devoted to the American Board of Missions and to the reduction of the debt on the building of the church.

The Evangelical Association of Maui Churches will be held this week, beginning on Wednesday at the Kaahumanu Church. The program will last through the week, and promises to be one of considerable interest. An elaborate concert is being arranged by the Hawaiian people for Thursday evening, and a Sunday school and Christian Endeavor rally for next Sunday. The attendance at both of these Sunday exercises promises to be very large.

Several delegates from Honolulu and other portions of Maui are planning to be present.

Do You Want Long, Heavy Hair?

Then treat your hair well. See that it is properly fed. Growth of every kind demands proper food. Starved hair splits at the ends, turns prematurely gray, keeps short and dry. Then feed your hair. Feed it with proper food, a regular hair-food. Feed it with Ayer's Hair Vigor. Thus help nature all you possibly can toward giving you rich, heavy, luxuriant hair. Ask your doctor about your hair and about Ayer's Hair Vigor. Follow his advice.

Ayer's Hair Vigor DOES NOT COLOR THE HAIR

NO 'THIRD DEGREE' ON S. D. HAUSEMAN

Yesterday afternoon in Judge Clements' court the much-mooted question as to whether or not Samuel D. Hauseman, at the time of his arrest in the Young hotel or a charge of smuggling opium, was forced to a confession by improper methods, was finally decided. Judge Clements stated that after a close investigation of the facts in the case he was persuaded that any confession Hauseman might have made was voluntary. The testimony declared the judge, shows that neither U. S. District Attorney Breckons nor Collector Stackable made any overtures to Hauseman in an effort to get him to tell where the drug was hidden. The motion for dismissal of the case, entered some time ago by the defendant's attorney, George A. Davis, was denied by the court.
