Giant Hawaiian Eels.

There are three well known varieties of eel found in Hawaiian waters. The largest is the big gray fellow which so closely resembles his cousin, the conger. He is voracious and fearless, and the natives tackle him with caution, for when cornered he fights viciously and can inflict a nasty wound with his powerful jaws, which bristle with needlelike teeth.

The other species are fat, flabby looking customers, with fantastic markings of black and brown and many shades of gray. On an eel of this sort the skin appears to hang loose from the body, and when disturbed the head swells like puff adder's. These eels seldom attain a greater length than three feet and love to locate in the crevices of a stone breakwater, from which they dart out incessantly and make havoc among any school of small fry which may be innocently sporting themselves with in striking distance. These hooded eels have been known to haunt a particular spot for over a year. They are good eating, despite their unprepossessing appearance.

It is impossible for the material interests of any country to outstrip the educational and intellectual advancement of its governing classes, and that is why it would simply mean ruin to allow the government of the Islands to remain long in the hands of ignorant Hawaiians, hence the absolute necessity for intelligent Hawaiians to unite with intelligent haoles and give the territory a government worthy of its present and future greatness. But the real point lying back of this is that we simply must educate our Hawaiian boys who are to be our future citizens. A high school should have been established at Wailuku years ago for the sake of those boys whose parents have not been able to send them away to obtain educational advantages which are denied them at home. The poor Hawaiian boys in the vicinity of Wailuku should be robbed of their educational rights no longer.

The Size of Great Britain.

Great Britain is only half as big as Sumatra and double the size of Newfoundland. It stands fifth in point of size in the list of the world's islands. England without Wales is almost identical in point of size with Roumania. It is less than one-quarter as big as France or Germany. The whole British Isles only occupy the one sixteenth part of the surface of this globe. Great Britain is widest between Land's End and Kept. The utmost width is 325 miles. It is narrowest between Loch Broom, on the west coast of Scotland, and Borneo firth, on the east coast. The distance between the heads of these two inlets is but twenty-four miles.

President Roosevelt, in a formal conference with Chairman Payne of the Ways and Means Committee of the House, has announced that he will not call a special session of Congress to legislate on the Cuban reciprocity bill, but will await favorable action by the next Congress on a reciprocity treaty between the United States and Cuba. The Cuban sugar industry is now dead, and it is feared that any legislation which revives it will be the death blow to Hawaiian cane sugar, as well as beet sugar on the mainland. Consequently there is a big fight on for the next session of congress. Hawaii will need an eloquent and able champion on the floor of congress, and Heaven pity us if Wilcox is the best we can do.

Who Invented Trousers.

It is just a century since trousers were first adopted. George IV of England is said to be responsible for them, introducing the garment to hide deformities of his knees superinduced by gout. Artists and sartorial authorities say the trouser is the ugliest piece of tailoring ever devised, and it was hoped that the recent meteoric careers of golf and the bicycle might bring knee breeches back into style, but the long pantaloons seem to have entered on their second century with a new lease of life. The loose trouser was known to the ancient Persians, as that was their distinguishing feature in Greek decorations.

There is considerable feeling on Maui with reference to some of the unjust methods of imposing taxes on realty, and on cultivated lands in particular. It may be that the tax assessors are following the intent of the law, but if so, the law should be changed. Where two pieces of land adjoin, one of which is cultivated and one is left idle, the idle land is taxed at a certain figure, and the adjoining piece, green and smiling with abundant promise of a rich reward for its owner's thrift and industry, is taxed at least 50 per cent higher. This method of taxation is too much like the taxation imposed on the fellahs of Egypt or the peasants of a Turkish province to be relished by American citizens.

The example of E. B. Bailey of Makawao is one which may well be followed by every small farmer on the Islands. By simply taking the trouble to write to the leading seed houses in the States he received illustrated catalogues, and by a careful study of these catalogues, he ran across many promising vegetables. For a nominal cost he received packages of choice seeds, and the products of one package of seed, the Delicata Squash, has more than repaid him, during the present season, for all his trouble in securing eastern seeds. Besides, it has been the means of introducing on Maui one of the most toothsome and dainty squashes known. May there be more like him.

The agricultural and merchants' fair in Honolulu on Monday of next week is the beginning of a day good things for the Islands. There is no reasonable doubt of its success, and if it is successful Honolulu should make a point of holding such a fair annually. And what is more, Hawaii and Maui should each follow the lead of Honolulu in the matter of annual fairs, for which purpose the NEWS hereby formally claims July 4, 1903, as the date of the Maui Fair, in connection with our races. Other state legislatures appropriate small amounts to help along such things. Why cannot Hawaii do the same? It would pay.

With the increase in the intelligent population of Wailuku which the last year has witnessed, should come a movement in favor of social and intellectual recreations, especially the latter. While it may be admitted that there is a dearth of young men and women in Wailuku, still the married folks here are as a general rule still young enough to give a bright and happy meaning to social life in Wailuku. Then let us have debating societies, reading clubs, social entertainments, dramatic clubs and all the other indicia of a rising community.

Honolulu is at last stirring itself in the matter of attracting tourist travel to the Islands, and the formation of a committee who will distribute attractive tourist literature in San Francisco and on the railroads, is a long step in the right direction. But that falls short. A live man with an attractive Hawaiian exhibit should be sent to the Coast with carte blanche orders to travel and talk up tourist travel. It would pay big money to do this.

If, as Secretary of Agriculture Wilson suggests, Alaska is yet destined to accomplish better results with agriculture than with its mines, Hawaii should take a rosy view of her future agricultural possibilities. With every thing in favor of our soil and climate, what in the way of diversified industries should the Island not achieve, if icy Alaska presents so encouraging an agricultural outlook?

Troubles with insurance men have discouraged our new barber, and he is to leave us. A steady man who is a good barber can find an excellent opening in Wailuku.

A Japanese employee of the Pioneer Hotel, Lahaina was arrested this week for illicit sale of liquor on Sunday, tried, found guilty and fined $250. The case will be appealed.

NOTICE.—There is still one store to let on the first floor of Pythian Hall building, and any one desiring to secure it should make immediate application to

D. L. MEYER.

An interesting game of polo was witnessed at Sunnyside last Saturday afternoon, with the unusual sight of four brothers, the sons of Hon. H. P. Baldwin, composing one team. The Baldwin boys won.

If you want something specially nice in the line of canned meats for picnic parties, or for pop lunches when hubby unexpectedly brings home a friend to dinner, ring up the Paia Plantation Store, Tel. 55. See new ad.

ANNOUNCEMENT.—Mr. George B. Schrader is now prepared to give lessons on the piano forte either at his residence or at residence of pupils. For terms and particulars, write or call at Wailuku Hotel, Wailuku Maui.

NOTICE.—There will be a special meeting of the Maui Racing Association at the Court House at Wailuku on next Wednesday evening, July 30, at which important business will be transacted, and a full attendance of members is requested.

Last week our typo made us say that Edgar Morton was furnishing meat to the new barber shop, which was no doubt a surprise to Mr. Morton. Of course the new butcher shop is what was meant, and the typo is hereby warned to be extra careful in setting up this local.

The M. A. A. league championship cup has been received by the Association and is on exhibition in Hoffmann & Vetseson's show window. It is a very handsome silver cup mounted on a koa wood pedestal, and stands about 12 inches high. On one side will be the name of the winning team, and on the other the names of the members of the team.

GREAT RACES

ASSURED

At Kahului, August 12.

Every indication points to a grand day, of racing and other sports at Kahului, August 12. Although too soon for entries yet, still it is known that quite a number of Honolulu horses are to be here, some of them the best in Honolulu. Col. McKenzie is making arrangements to bring a string here from Hilo, and Maui has some good ones for that day's races.

The Helene has been chartered for $600, and will bring a large number of Honolulu visitors to attend the races. Prof. Leonard the aeronaut, will be here with his balloon, and will make his wonderful parachute jump. A liberal offer has been made to the Hilo band, and it is quite sure that they will be here.

On last Saturday evening, a meeting of the Maui Racing Association was held at Wailuku. From the report of the secretary it was learned that there are several hundred dollars on hand, and that membership dues are being collected, so that finances will be easy. At the meeting a new race was added for horses to be owned and ridden by Japanese, with a purse of $75.

The executive committee reported that the ground, buildings and track are in good shape, and will be kept so, and the track was never in better condition than at present. The managers of Puunene, Wailuku, Lahaina other leading plantations have been approached on the matter of giving a holiday on Aug. 12. Hon. H. P. Baldwin has agreed to give a holiday to the men on the plantations in which he is interested, including Puunene, Paia, Haiku and Kihei, and L. Barckhausen of Pioneer Plantation has done the same. Manager Wells of the Wailuku Plantation, who will be absent has left orders granting a holiday conditionally.

Secretary D. L. Meyer of the M. R. A. left for Honolulu yesterday to look up matters relating to the races, and a special meeting of the M. R. A. will be held at the Wailuku Court house next Wednesday evening to receive his report and transact other business.

There will beyond doubt be a large number of Maui visitors at the track, and many are expected from Hilo and Honolulu.

Makamua Ranch Exhibits.

On board the Claudine which left for Honolulu last night, was an exhibit of the agricultural products of Maui which will deservedly rank high in the coming fair exhibits at Honolulu.

This exhibit was forwarded by Mr. E. H. Bailey of the Makamua Ranch, Makawao, and were magnificent specimens of what the Makawao District can produce. There were four varieties of squashes, a "Heart o' Gold," weighing 75 lbs., a "Mammoth Chili" weighing 80 lbs., and one each of the "Delicata" and "Fordhook," dainty and delicate table squashes, the rinds of which are almost as thin as paper. These squashes are all from imported seeds. Four water melons were in the exhibit, weighing respectively 55, 53, 52 and 41 pounds, or 201 pounds for the four. There was also a prize winning exhibit of "Early Puritan" potatoes and another of carrots. Three great sunflower heads were also in the collection, each more than a foot in diameter. There were also specimens of dented corn from imported seed and Kula corn on the stalk, the latter being too green to exhibit otherwise. Mr. Bailey also had some magnificent specimens of lemons to exhibit but they were stolen from the trees a few nights since, much to his disappointment, for he had been saving them especially for exhibition at the fair.

The entire exhibit, as a group, is very fine, and if Mr. Bailey does not win a first prize, there will be some very fine exhibits at Honolulu.

Off for Honolulu.

The Maui Athletic Association held a special meeting on Wednesday evening to consider a liberal proposition made by Charley Chillingworth to play a match ball game in Honolulu on next Monday with the H. A. C's. The challenge was accepted and as W. H. Corawell Jr. cannot go, George Cummings was elected captain of the

M. A. A. team which will be sent over. As there was some doubt whether Dr. Boote, the regular manager of the team will be able to go, Mr. Jas. L. Coke was elected substitute manager.

The following is the line up of the Maui team: Geo. Cummings, (Capt) catcher; A. Jackson, pitcher; T. Pickard, 1. b.; Garcia, 2. b.; G. B. Henderson, 3. b.; J. Yates, s. s.; W. Searle, r. f. K. Smith c. f.; A. Garcia, l. f.; L. R. Crook and T. Kruger, subs.

Some Good Ball.

On last Sunday, a match game of baseball was played at Wells Park between the Waikapos and the Lahainas, at which the spectators got the worth of their money.

The Lahaina boys averaged much better fielding than their opponents, but were weak at the bat, while the Waikapos handled the stick like professionals, sending the ball in all unexpected kinds of directions, which explains the score of 14 to 4 in favor of the Waikapos.

The following is the score by innings.

Dance on Board "Villard."

A most delightful moonlight social was given on board the American Ship "Henry Villard," in Kahului Harbor, last Monday evening by Captain A. L. Shaube, and Mr. R. W. Filler of the Kahului R. R. Co. conjointly.

The invited friends assembled on a lighter which was towed out to the ship at 8 o'clock, by the "Leslie Baldwin." The harbor of Kahului was as smooth as the proverbial mill pond, and there was no sign whatever in the weather to show that the pleasant time anticipated would be interfered with. The moon rose in all its glory, and promised those on the Henry Villard a beautiful night. The ball started rolling when Alonzo Jackson, Wailuku's piccolo soloist, raised his baton, and gave the signal for a two-step. There was not over much floor space for dancing, but this was continually filled by disciples of Terpsichore, who had no use for seats when they heard the orchestra playing "Ain't Dat a Shame," "Just as the Sun Went Down," "Lead on the Black and White," etc. Jackson and his musicians deserve especial mention for the admirable music they rendered. At 10 o'clock an excellent supper was served, one and all availing themselves of the opportunity to try some of dat ice cream. After supper, dancing was resumed and kept up until midnight when the guests were taken ashore, after having expressed their appreciation by three rousing cheers for Captain Shaube, repeated for Mr. Filler. Among those present were: Mr. & Mrs. Filler, Mr. & Mrs. Kirkland, Mr. & Mrs. Walsh, Mr. & Mrs. Shaw, Mr. & Mrs. Cottrell, Mr. & Mrs. Correll, Mr. & Mrs. Vasconcellos, Mrs. Wilbur Misses Carsey Culbert, A.
