MARK AND READ.

A Chatty Monologue on Advertisements.

The Signs of the Times—The Educators of Our Children Apart From Their Commercial Influence.

Somewhere we have read that if one wished to acquaint one's self with the real prosperity and interests, with the true life of a city or even of a nation, one must ponder the advertisements, and see how much of strength and power and wealth, and activity, and true progress they intimated or indicated. Mark, as one may say, the index finger of colossal campaigns and firms. To what do they truly and unflinchingly point? Tell me that. They are the signs of the times that no one questions.

They are written for and by intelligent men, the capital and often the brain of a country; and it is intended that they should be read and even studied, and shall prove helps and blessings—guide posts for a community.

We need not pass lightly over our little products, many of them scholarly and got up in most perfect form, namely:

"ONLY AN ADVERTISEMENT!"

The time is ripe when more attention should be paid for that which, while freely given, costs untold sums. And before going further we would speak generally of the advertisements appearing in the newspapers of the Hawaiian Islands. Honolulu needs not to be ashamed of its advertising, for prettier or more artistic cannot be seen even in Boston.

Now, understand, my dear reader, that we are unselfish in what we say and have no personal interest in advertising any journal. But to teach, and to preach, seems somehow to have tumbled into our lot and we often have no volition in the premises. So, if you "can't bear" our lines pray don't read them. Someone else will and give you the gist. The writer was told that certain articles were once passed from house to house; but they

"DO NOT SEE THAT PAPER!"

Hapaha!

Very likely many of the classes who use Readers to-day which they have thumbed and turned for a year or longer could well profit by studying the advertising columns of the newspapers for at least one solid month. How many pupils of the higher grades, say, can tell me where the forms of bordering, the scrolls, ornamentation, etc., used by them from week to week, originated? Are they Egyptian, Gothic, Greek? What are they? How many can explain, clearly, anything at all about the types used therein? What is pica, my dear? ruby? What is a kern, now? Ah! Take up any "display" advertisement, say, that of a firm with "Ltd" after its name. What kind of type is used in that one? And that boy standing there, ten years of age, can't tell what "Ltd" means! Humph!

Oh-h! those editors can teach you a few things "my precious one, ma nonpareil, ma Amy." Now, look again. From what celebrated canvas in the R. A. was the copy made seen in that picture, or what plants do you discover in that other?

IN SOME OLD READER

you will find that instructive lesson: "Eyes and no Eyes." See? One may say off-hand and without reflection: "Oh, advertisements are too dry for children and they would not understand them." You mistake. Chinese children six years old will spread down a newspaper and point out the letters, calling my attention to a picture only an inch long! Any child will coax for a paper and entertain itself for half an hour hunting it! Little children should be taught to copy from them and to cut out the pictures. Also, to do some chalk work from them. Higher grades should read from them at least once a week. How painful it is to a cultivated ear often, to hear some one attempt to blunder and stumble in a hard, strained tone through, well, "an accident" we will say; and may we be spared from trying to listen to like reading, patiently! There is no royal road to reading well, aloud. It means much practise and good tuition from such as have made the art a serious part of their curriculum.

A child will catch slang for instance, we all know, much more easily than it will good English. And the same applies to the voice and to reading in general, to pronunciation, modulation, etc.

A STUPID MAN OR WOMAN.

A lolo, yawningly throws down the great Tribune and says: "I've read it all, everything in it but the advertisements; the very thing they needed to read, and there's really nothing in it but the last victory of golf, or how Mary Green's supper table was decked—'Oh, yes, that was sweetly lovely!'"

A great banking house, we will quote, orders an expert to make cut its advertisement, for the quarter. So carefully and accurately is that "copy" prepared for the printer, so elegantly turned, so perfect in its English composition that the type would not presume, would not dare to alter, or blunder. Look at the ads. of nearly all the mammoth insurance companies, of the princely mercantile houses, and shipping firms, and you will find them to be a sort of

EDUCATION IN EPITOME.

Again; Notice the last—and often first pages of periodicals and of weeklies. Almost every advertisement is beautifully illustrated—churches, schools, seaside resorts, country views, etc., that are worth a glance, indeed. Now for my resume: These advertisements costing a city hundreds of thousands, many of them perfect gems of English, perfect in their style, their ornamentations, lettering, figuring, heading, are written for our profit. "Eyes and no Eyes!"

ANNE M. PRESCOTT.

Last but not least let me add: All this perusing of advertisements by school-children will not only be for their benefit, but the circle widens and widens immensely. For, when it is known that the journals of a State or of a County are placed before myriads of sharp, keen eyes the tone of the daily press will be raised and it will be indeed, in all of its columns, the faithful, careful tutor of the rising generation. God hasten that day.

TOPICS OF THE DAY.

The China did not bring any news which indicates that the Hawaiian business will reach a final decision during the present term of Congress. No gubernatorial appointment has been predicted and Sewall and Dole can yet continue their useless squabbling in their respectively authorized organs. Admiral Miller has declined the coveted position which eventually will be given to the firm of Alexander, Baldwin & Co., which to all appearances are grabbing everything in sight. They might as well act as Governor Ltd., as sugar factors, merchants, steamship agents and "missionaries."

A very romantic yarn was spun in the Advertiser this morning in regard to the Roman mansion at Manoa of ex-Minister Cooper. We have no doubt, that the prosperous owner of the mansion finds skeletons around his premises, but the conjuring of a sugar planter of the name of Wilkinson in the "twenties" sounds rather like a ghost story. That cane was grown in Manoa many years ago is a well-known fact. A Chinese mill, composed of a stone cylinder pulled by jackasses was doing the crushing. The jackasses did their work better than their compatriot writing history for the Advertiser. Mr. Cooper had a cheap bargain of his Manoa possessions. He has used his official position to good advantage. Water has been laid and roads have been built into a district not necessarily entitled to these benefits. Other places densely populated have suffered in the line of roads and water simply because Mr. Cooper, the Prince of Manoa, read the proclamation of the overturn of the monarchy under the protecting guns of Uncle Sam's navy, and then had matters "fixed" with some of the men who in the name of honor should have locked the Cooper combination up, but who betrayed their ruler and their people. We don't blame Cooper for having made a sack, and he is right in retaining the ancient name of Puupueo for his Manoa property. The owl is the emblem of wisdom, and Cooper has been wise if not honorable according to the old-fashioned principals of men. The people who allowed him to get at Puupueo in the manner he did should drop the owl and select the Mocking Bird as a main figure on their political escutcheon.

Two white sailors who shipped on the Hawaiian vessel Fort George at Newcastle, N. S. W., were arranged in the District Court charged with desertion. It was one of the sad cases which are heard all over the world, and which shows the local defects in the mode of procedure in our courts. On one side the captain of the vessel appears, assisted by a trained and brilliant lawyer, vested with the authority of chief of police. On the other hand two ignorant sailors, complaining of ill treatment by the officers of the ship, and dragged out from a dungeon in the Hawaiian jail try to explain their story, and make a statement that they did not desert but that they simply walked into town looking for "justice." Poor fools, to think that Lady Justice could find a room in Honolulu—the hotels are too full to spare a suite for her. Of course the captain stated that he was a perfect angel, and didn't know a "cuss word," and of course the mate swore that he never heard a rough word or saw a rough action, on the part of any officer on board the vessel. We understand that the Fort George flies the Hawaiian flag, and that the men who have shipped on her can only find redress in our local Courts. They have no Consul to appeal to or to help them. Discipline is necessary on every vessel, and we have no doubt that it is strictly in accordance with law that the men were ordered to return to their ship. We agree with the Marshal when he admitted that men were not treated well on ships, and that the work was very hard and sometimes cruel, but we would have applauded him if he had appointed a lawyer for the poor fellows, and thereby given the proceedings at least a semblance of justice.

CORRESPONDENCE.

The Latest.

ED. THE INDEPENDENT:—

Private advice have been received here, that Congress, by a large majority, has used its influence with President McKinley as an act of pure justice to Her Majesty and to her people, to appoint Liliuokalani as Governor of Hawaii. The President has consented to perform the glorious act, as an atonement to the terrible wrong committed against the Hawaiian nation by the puritans of Honolulu in company with Americans mariners. Amen.

HAIL COLUMBIA.

An Interesting Sale.

Shortly after the whistle announced to-day that it was 12 o'clock, Auctioneer Morgan appeared on the steps leading to the Police Station and addressed a large assembly of seafaring men, "dope" men, and other men interested in the sale of the Labrador, a British schooner confiscated by order of Judge Stanley, in a case of smuggling.

Morgan, who wore spectacles and a sympathetic smile for the owners of the schooner, stated that he appeared on behalf of the Marshal, whose graceful form made a fine background to the scene.

The sale began, and $500 was bid by a Hawaiian. Seaborn Luce, who evidently represented somebody, raised the bid and after considerable sparring gained the schooner at the price of $1025 which was promptly paid by Jules Dudoit.

The price is considered very reasonable, and the schooner will probably be fitted out for a journey to Manila with such goods as are needed there. Mr. Whaley, formerly of Honolulu, is now a prominent agent for the great Schlitz Brewery in the Philippine ports, might welcome a schooner from his old stamping grounds here. The schooner might also return with freight via Hongkong. Who will get the money, and is the sale legal are the questions asked.

HAY DISAPPROVES PACIFIC CABLE CONCESSIONS.

This Done in Order to Leave Congress a Free Hand to Dispose of the Subject.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 31.—The Secretary of State today formally disapproved the concession made in July by the Hawaiian Government to the Pacific Cable Company for an exclusive right of laying a cable to Hawaii. It is understood that this action was taken in no spirit of hostility to the Pacific Cable Company, but the concession was disapproved, first, on account of the formal protest by the Hawaiian Commission, and second, because it seemed best to leave to Congress a free hand in the disposition of the whole subject.

AMERICA AND ENGLAND ACTING IN CONCERT.

The Two Governments Fully Understand Each Other in the Matter of Affairs in China.

New York, Jan. 6.—The Herald's Washington correspondent telegraphs: Minister Conger has notified the State Department that the Chinese Government has refused to accede to the French demand for an extension of French jurisdiction at Shanghai.

This action on the part of the Chinese Government is the result of the protests registered against compliance with France's demand by the American and British Governments. The authorities here have been quite stirred up over the French demand for the reason that if it had been granted a number of American citizens in business in the concessions at Shanghai would have been transferred to French jurisdiction.

The action of the British Government in registering protests in this matter simultaneously with the United States is regarded as rather significant in some quarters and indicates an "entente cordiale," to quote an official with whom I talked, existing between them, especially in reference to Chinese affairs.

The report published from Shanghai this morning that a secret treaty existed between the two governments is pronounced untrue, but there is no question that the governments fully understand the position of each other with respect to Chinese affairs.

A Large Bankrupt Stock.

L. B. Kerr, Queen street, is now holding a sale of bankrupt stock of the great firm of Nimmo & Co., 16 Regent street, London, and is offering such bargains as will surprise every person who sees them. The stock was so large that it took considerable time to arrange it. A glance upstairs where goods are packed to the ceiling will show how large it was, and comprises a very complete stock of drygoods. Everybody is invited to inspect it.

A Vigorous Battle.

From the New Era, Greensburg, Ind.

The following is a straightforward statement of facts by a veteran of the late war. No comrade will need further proof than their friend's own words, as here given.

Squire John Castor, of Newport, Ind., is the narrator, and an honest, respected citizen he is too. He said: "I have been troubled with rheumatism in all my joints, ever since I went to the war. It was brought on by my exposure there. It came on me gradually, and kept getting worse until I was unable to do any work. I tried several physicians, but they did me no good. They said my trouble was rheumatism resulting in disease of the heart, and that there was no cure for it. Nevertheless I had lived and fought the disease for thirty years, and did not intend to die, simply because they said

I Want to Swear to That.

I must, so I hunted up some remedies for myself, and finally happened on Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People. I asked some of my neighbors about the medicine, for it had been used by several persons in the community, and they recommended it very highly. I procured a box. The pills helped me right away, and I continued taking them. I commenced taking them last fall, and finished taking the sixth box a few months ago. I am not bothered with the rheumatism now,—the medicine has cured me. I can most certainly recommend Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People."

These pills are not only good for rheumatism, but are valuable for any disease that arises from impoverished, or bad blood. They do not act on the bowels.
