Arthur Johnstone, Editor and Prop'r.

THURSDAY, APRIL 15, 1886.

The public are hereby notified that the entire subscription and delivery lists of the DAILY HONOLULU PRESS for Honolulu have been placed in the hands of Mr. A. M. McChesney, who is hereby authorized to collect all sums for subscriptions now due this paper, or that may become due after this date. Orders for the PRESS can either be left at this office or be given to Mr. McChesney.

We heartily endorse the suggestion, which, however, comes rather tardily from the Advertiser, that there should be other arrangements made at the Post Office, to secure the despatch at the delivery and receiving department, which, at present occupies only one window.

The first annual report of the United States Bureau of Labor shows two suggestive facts. First, that the general tendency of European immigration into the States is to assimilate with the mechanical industries of the country; second, that investigation shows that the employment of foreign contract labor, or rather labor under contract which differs from the Hawaiian contract system, has been a total failure wherever it has been used to take the place of dissatisfied home labor.

In regard to the widening of Merchant street, all seem to be agreed. Everybody will commend the generous action of Messrs. Spreckles and Cartwright in voluntarily conveying to the Government the land owned by them, which would be necessary for the widening of the street. But the fact that two wealthy men, who can afford to be generous, have sided the enterprise to the amount of some $1,700, is not a sufficient reason for urging men, who own property on the line of Merchant street, and who cannot afford it, to follow the generous example of their wealthy neighbors.

The "Hoodlums" have grown apace in San Francisco until they have become the rival of Nob Hill in social notoriety, which is only distinguishable from the wealthy pattern by the cost of the social gilding. The "Hoodlums" seem to have become a political faction as well as a social condition, if the accounts of the San Francisco newspapers can be relied on. The time has come in San Francisco when the once despised "Hoodlums" are honored with a whole column in a leading newspaper, descriptive of "the 'Hoodlums' grand ball," in which "the tough in all his glory" is set forth in paragraphs, from the gutter to the ball room. Their influence in ward elections is often spoken of in the newspapers, but the social ethics of the "Hoodlums" has not been brought out until lately side by side with the social ethics of Nob Hill. There is still a grave doubt in the minds of sensible people whether the social ethics of the "Hoodlums" of San Francisco are not about as elevated and desirable as those of the Nob Hill people.

AGAIN are the citizens of Honolulu treated to vague hints of the greater destiny in store for Hawaii; again are we told this gilded destiny is certain and that the country can prepare itself for the political bridegroom when he cometh; again we are treated to the promise of a future policy, which will accomplish all these great things, and we are soothed with the questionable assurance that there is at present nothing for the taxpayers to know, and nothing for them to do, but to supinely "await developments." Those who pay the taxes and bear the actual burden of Government in Hawaii, are by no means satisfied with this shadowing forth of some doubtful political policy, which may work the country much woe; they will not be satisfied until they learn the facts concerning the policy—which facts are now withheld. What is this political destiny? What is this policy? The destiny may be one that will disturb the political peace of our people; and the policy may be one that will ruin the future prosperity of the country. There is undoubtedly much lack of confidence between the tax-payers of Hawaii and their rulers, or else the details of this mysterious destiny and still more mysterious policy would be entrusted to the people for their sanction and judgment. There must be something wrong—something that the Government knows the people will not endorse, which is being kept back. If there is not, then the Government should set things clear and right by following the just dictum, that "publicity begets confidence, and confidence is indispensable for the government of free countries."

ANOTHER official head has fallen! The long expected and greatly-to-be-regretted, removal of Mr. H. M. Whitney from the Post Office Department has at last taken place. Undoubtedly the Government has a perfect right to remove any official for good cause, but the people have the right to demand that good and capable men be put in the place of those removed from office. Mr. Whitney was both an honest and capable official, while it is a fact that our tax-payers and merchants, those who are most interested in having the Post Office honestly and capably run, have no confidence whatever in Mr. J. L. Kaulukou. It is very evident that in making this appointment, as in making many others during the last few years, the Government seems to utterly ignore the interests and welfare of the general public, and the immediate rights of those who pay the most for running the big expenses of a little Kingdom. The new Postmaster General takes his office to-day—a fact which the public will more than likely have occasion to remember.

WIT AND HUMOR.

King Theebaw has four queens. Four queens are good.—Atlanta Constitution.

"Beans Regarded as Food" is the head line in an exchange. That is the way beans should be regarded. Any one who would regard beans as a beverage would be away off.—New York Graphic.

Father—"Well, wife, I do not care what you say; I'm always for the under dog in the fight." Little boy (who has been silently listening to the argument)—"Well, father, suppose it was two cats?"—Boston Budget.

It is remarked that the Russian women talk less than the American women. This is owing to the language. One Russian word is calculated to last a quarrelsome woman twelve hours.—Chicago Times.

A poet says: "Oh, 'tis not true, 'tis not true that Death's the saddest of all things here below." Correct. The "poem" from which we have quoted is one of the things that is more sad than death.—Norristown Herald.

A hygienic journal says sweeping is one of the very best kinds of exercise for women. Some young men will regard this as a very sweeping assertion, unless the journal means sweeping the floor with a very long train at balls.—Norristown Herald.

"Don't be a fool, my dear," remonstrated a husband to his wife, who was letting her jaw swing loose in the breeze. "I won't, Mr. Jenkins, I won't," she remarked, "people would not know us apart if I did." He went right down town.—Merchant Traveler.

Are Niagara Falls Receding.

The question of the rate of recession of Niagara Falls has often been discussed. In a recent issue of the Pittsburgh Dispatch Mr. Ballou treats the matter as a popular fallacy, and says there is no perceptible retrogression of the Falls, taking them as a whole. It is true that in one place—the Horseshoe—the recession is visible. This only indicates that the Falls are swinging around Goat Island, and will make that a truly wonderful natural structure some day, with perpendicular walls and a roaring circular canyon around it. In order to reach Buffalo the Falls must displace about twenty-five cubic miles of the hardest limestone rock—a rock that looks as if it had actually been melted and poured into its place. Twenty-five cubic miles of rock would be sufficient to construct all the buildings on earth and then rebuild them several times. The face of the entire Falls is about one mile long and about 400 feet high above and below high water. If we accept the average wear along the entire face of the Fall at one inch per year, we have an annual displacement of 88,000 cubic feet of rock, an amount enormously too large. At this obviously too great annual rate of recession, the Falls have been 1,700,000 years in arriving at their present position, and will require over 3,000,000 years to get to Buffalo.—Buffalo Commercial.

The Russian papers announce the emancipation of the last Russian serfs. It appears that the peasants on the estates of the foreign convents in Transcaucasia were until quite recently the serfs of the dioceses of Jerusalem and Constantinople. This abnormal situation has attracted the attention of the authorities, and since last Summer the enfranchisement of these serfs has been in progress in the Governments of Tiflis and Kutais. The Brotherhood of the Holy Sepulchre possesses more than 6,000 serfs, and the Patriarch of Constantinople, as representing the Convent of Iversky on Mount Athos, has about 500 more.

LOCAL NEWS.

The wind blew great cannons yesterday and last evening.

A bright meteor shot across the western sky last evening.

Services were held in the different churches as usual last evening.

The steamer W. G. Hall will be due from Maui and Hawaii to-morrow afternoon.

Mr. E. F. Hopke, counselor at law, has opened his office over Spreckels & Co.'s bank, room No. 9.

The flag staff of the United States Consulate at the corner of Fort and Merchant streets, was again erected at 3:30 P. M. yesterday.

The Royal Hawaiian Band will play at the Bethel lunch at noon to-day, which will add much to the enjoyment of the affair.

At half-past six o'clock this evening, the Queen's Own corps, under command of Captain O'Connor, will meet at the Armory for drill.

Mr. T. G. Thurm has at his store, Fort street, a small assortment of Easter cards, plain and plush, which will be sold at low prices.

A very pretty sketch of the surf by moonlight, the work of Mr. J. D. Strong, is on exhibition in Messrs. West, Dow & Co.'s show window.

Messrs. E. P. Adams & Co., the popular auctioneers, hold their regular cash sale at ten o'clock this morning, at their salesrooms on Queen street.

Messrs. Meller & Halbe, confectioners, having assigned to Mr. F. H. Oeding, will have their stock and effects sold at auction by E. P. Adams & Co. on the 16th inst.

The annual meeting of the Young Men's Christian Association will be held in their hall at half-past seven o'clock this evening. All members are requested to be present.

Owing to the decease of Mr. Rice, father of Mrs. Whitney, president of the W. C. T. U., its meeting will not occur on Thursday as advertised, but will be postponed one week.

The regular weekly drill of the Honolulu Rifles was held in the Armory last evening. The members, who have lately taken more than usual interest in the company, turned out in good numbers.

The model of an American man of war on exhibition at Oat & Co.'s attracts considerable attention, and is the subject of some criticism. Yet it was made by a sailor and is valued at thirty-five dollars.

A Chinese prisoner working on the mud scow, fell overboard from the scow near the Pacific Mail wharf yesterday morning, but was rescued by some of his fellow prisoners, none the worse for the ducking.

Johnny Oat was seen yesterday in an animated discussion with a native, on the merits of American and British navies. Johnny would not give the native a chance to speak, therefore coming out best in the argument.

The smoke from Williams' factory on King street is wafted daily to Merchant, where it settles. Of late the thing has become a positive nuisance. It can only be abated by raising the smoke stack or lowering the street. Most people prefer lengthening the pipe.

The legal, mercantile, clerical, educational, mechanical, artistic, decorative and theological professions, trades, occupations and pursuits are well represented in the Honolulu base ball clubs. Boiler makers strike out cashiers, stockbrokers put out hack drivers on the fly, and Custom House men make home runs; who shall say that the noble game does not demand a variety of attainments.

Hon. J. L. Kaulukou, Sheriff of Hawaii, has just ascended another round in the ladder of fame. He assumes the Postmaster Generalship made vacant by the removal of Mr. H. M. Whitney. Mr. Kaulukou's career for the past few years has been one of rapid advancement. A lawyer, a legislator, a sheriff and a Postmaster General in turn, and now all at once. Astute!

The writer witnessed a most disgusting scene in one of the numerous Chinese poi factories in town, a few days ago. Three Chinamen were seated on the floor of the shop with large boards in front of them, each pounding the poi with large stones used for that purpose. The perspiration was rolling down from the upper part of their bodies, which were bare, into the poi, and to cap the climax, one of the heathen arose and began stamping the poi with his feet, seemingly much to the amusement of his companions.

The Bethel lunch was again well attended yesterday—a toothsome bill of fare rewarded all who dropped in. The usual attention to all characterized the occasion. These lunches have certainly been the feature of the week, for which the ladies have placed many an individual under lasting obligations for the rare treats provided. In conformity with a custom prevalent in the East—recorded in Scripture—the committee in charge have kept back the best of their feasts till the last—see bill of fare for to-day in another column—and it is fair to presume that the patronage will be equal to the occasion. As usual the row will begin at eleven o'clock.

The death of the venerable L. L. Rice recalls his connection with the celebrated (?) Spaulding's "Manuscript Found." The Mormon Church or more properly the "Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints," was founded by Joseph Smith. Smith, it is claimed, discovered some metallic plates buried at Mount Cumorah, on which were engraved the book of Mormon, purporting to be a history of the lost Ten Tribes of Israel, and tracing their wanderings to America. From this account it appears that the American Indian traces his ancestry to Moses, Abraham and Isaac. The Book of Mormon has nothing whatever to do with the faith or creed of the Mormon Church, which derives its inspiration from a work called "Doctrines and Covenants" and subsequent revelations to Brigham Young and others. The Book of Mormon was merely a "starter." An effort was made to prove that the Book of Mormon was either a copy of Spaulding's "Manuscript Found" or was suggested by it. The "Manuscript Found," by a variety of circumstances, came into the possession of Mr. Rice, who subsequently deposited it with President Fairchild of Oberlin College. A copy was furnished to the Josephites, an offshoot of the church, and by them published in Iowa. The discovery and publication of the manuscript, has demonstrated beyond a doubt that it never inspired or suggested the publication of the Book of Mormon.

They say: That the Bethel lunch yesterday was splendid; that the town is filled with various unofficial rumors; that the new Postmaster General drove to the Post-office yesterday morning to have a peep at his future emolument; that the dust around "Palace Square" is a shifting nuisance; that the Kingdom of Hawaii is already a pacific power, barring her eruptive politics; that it is consoling to have both England and America agreeing to the Hawaiian solution of the Pacific question; that the last vestige of the wreck of the Planter will soon be gone; that Mr. F. L. Clarke will bring back a fine collection of living ferns and plants from Kauai; that the suggestion for lowering the Palace wall is a good one; that the free-port question is again being brought to the front, for political purposes; that the water-supply question certainly has two sides to it; that the man who is to take Mr. Peterson's place in the Post-office has already been named; that there is a chance for some cricket games when the British men-of-war arrive in port; that the Madras case suit is likely to be tried before a foreign jury; that Mr. M. Thompson is doing good work on our Hawaiian laws; that one of the foreign jury has good luck this term in not being called on cases; that the people of Honolulu have been indulging in a great deal of idle political speculation during the last few days; that the foreign jury were dismissed yesterday morning in ample time for an extended lunch at the Bethel; that the dust was a feature of Nuuanu street yesterday; that the young folks had lots of fun at the Bethel Church lunch yesterday noon; that the Post-office boys took all day yesterday to find out who their new "boss" was; that the seats for the opera season are going off well; that the street lamp lighting will terminate in a suit at law; that the next cabinet meeting will accomplish something more than the last; and that the political guillotine has been greased up for future use.

L. L. Rice.

He was born in Otsego Co., N. Y., in 1801. As a young man he went to New York City where he learned the printing business early in this century. While living there he was led to take the total abstinence pledge, and enrolled himself upon that platform, and has done much for the cause of temperance during a long life, the most of which found him identified with the newspapers of Ohio. He went to that State before 1830, and for fifty years was one of her leading citizens. About 1830 he began the publication of an anti-Masonic paper. A few years later he removed to Cleveland where for many years he was the editor and publisher of a paper which was the predecessor of the Cleveland Leader and was dedicated to the agitation of anti-slavery principles.

In 1848 he went to Columbus, the capital of the State, and began the publication of a paper in that city.

For more than twenty-five years he was identified with the public life of Columbus, at first as an editor, then as State printer, and in other positions.

He was well-known and greatly beloved. He had for his friends and associates such men as Garrison, Giddings, Jas. G. Birney, Salmon P. Chase, and men of that stamp.

Father Rice, as he was affectionately called during his residence in Columbus, was a man of strong intellectual power, and was thoroughly consecrated to the highest purposes of life. He was permitted to see the triumph of some of the principles he so vigorously and ardently espoused, and to see the banners of other principles rapidly advancing to victory.

In 1875 he removed to Oberlin, where he resided till 1879, when he came to Honolulu, making his home here with his daughter, Mrs. J. M. Whitney. During the summer of 1884 Rev. Wm. H. Rice of New York, his only son, visited him here, making, as each felt at the time, a final visit. Father Rice kept his intellectual vigor up to the very last. His very presence, during the years of his stay here, has been felt to be a benediction. Yesterday morning he rose as usual and was about the house and grounds until a few moments after ten. He then went to his room and lay down on his bed for a little rest, before dressing to go out to the lunch at Bethel Church, as he was planning to do. At this time Dr. Gray dropped in for a friendly call, and sat chatting with him some minutes. The Doctor remarked that Father Rice carried on his conversation with all of his usual animation.

About 10:30 o'clock he observed that he must get ready to go down town, but at the suggestion of the Doctor, that there was an abundance of time, he remained quiet. Suddenly and without warning he fell back upon the pillow, gave a single, slight clutch at the region of his heart, and lay still in death. Not a word or cry of pain; "he was not, for God took him." We shall miss the noble form and the saintly face; but every life that touched his, is the richer and fuller for it.

Answers to Correspondents.

INQUIRER.—No. P. O. stands for Post Office and not for Peddler of Oranges. There is no real connection between the two. A man may achieve great distinction peddling oranges and still not possess the requisite qualification for Postmaster.

GROWLER.—We note your complaints about the lighting of the city. We have examined several of the lamp posts by day light and find them to be very substantial. They are well adapted for reclining against. As far as the lamps themselves are concerned, we understand they will soon undergo needed repairs.

HORATIO.—You wish to know the qualifications for holding various offices in this Kingdom. Without answering each special question put by you, we may say, that the only qualification necessary is appointment. You will catch on by the following anecdote: "A man who had been elected Road Supervisor by his District, once approached Judge MacFarland in Iowa. 'What do you want?' said the Judge roughly. 'I wish, your honor, to be qualified as Road Supervisor.' 'Well,' replied the Judge, 'hold up your hand and I'll swear you in, but nothing will ever qualify you for it.'"

Police Court Items.

WEDNESDAY, April 14th.

Euaui (w), and Ah Pung, charged with affray; Euaui fined $5 and $1 costs. Ah Pung remanded until to-day.

It is said the "Saddle of his Uncle" was what made Lee Governor of Virginia. If it were not that the remark might stir up an unpleasantness, we'd say that saddle be his administration. —Norristown Herald.

The French association for the propagation of the "volapuk" (the "universal language") is now giving regular and gratuitous courses of instruction in Paris.

To the Public:

We respectfully solicit your subscription for one or more copies of the "DAILY HONO-LULU PRESS."

Our reasons for asking your support are these:

First—The DAILY HONOLULU PRESS
is an independent morning paper, established in the interests of morality and good government, and will be devoted to advancing the prosperity of this Kingdom.

Second—The paper is conducted in a fearless, just and logical manner, aiming to fairly represent public opinion, and to be entirely free from everything objectionable in a family newspaper.

Third—It is our aim to make the DAILY HONOLULU PRESS the leading paper in this Kingdom. With this object in view we have secured the best literary talent, both at home and abroad, at our command, while the subscription price has been established at the low rate of FIFTY CENTS PER MONTH, with free delivery, so as to bring the paper within the reach of all.

Fourth—We desire to introduce our paper into every English-reading family in this Kingdom, feeling assured that it will be permanently retained after its merits, as a live, wide-awake journal, are once known.

Fifth—As an ADVERTISING MEDIUM, the DAILY HONOLULU PRESS possesses unequaled advantages, having retained all the subscribers to the late Saturday Press, in addition to a new subscription list, which is daily increasing, so that the paper is not only enjoying a large circulation in this city and vicinity, but is also mailed by every steamer to subscribers at almost every landing on the other Islands, and also to foreign countries, thus combining the advantages of both daily and weekly editions. The coming month, especially, our paper will have a much larger circulation than all the other daily papers combined, as we intend sending specimen copies to every resident on these Islands who reads English.

We, therefore, ask your co-operation in our enterprise, and trust you will avail yourself of this offer.

Very respectfully yours, etc.,
