GIRL CHAMPION SWIMMER ASKED TO MAUI MEET

Invitation extended to Ethelda Bleibtry and Answer Expected Today; Seating Capacity Increased.

Ethelda Bleibtry, world's champion woman swimmer, a heroine of the Olympics, recently returned from a triumphal tour of Australia and still more recently a record breaker at the Honolulu championships last week may be at the Puunene tank on the evening of Kamehameha Day and give a swimming exhibition. An invitation has been extended to her and her mother to come to Maui and a wireless reply is expected today. Her steamer is not due to sail from Honolulu until Tuesday afternoon and she would have time for a trip up to the Crater, be able to get Monday night's Mauna Kea and make the ship easily on June 14.

Duke Kahanamoku, "Wild Bill" Harris and Haig Prieste are certain to be here for the big swimming meet, all three of them Olympic stars. Prieste gave some splendid exhibitions at the recent championships in Honolulu and is one of the stellar attractions. Duke and "Wild Bill" are too well known to all followers of the swimming game to require further comment here.

Additional seating capacity has been arranged for by the swimming committee and there will be accommodations for 900 spectators. About half of the seats are reserved which go on public sale at Baldwin Bank on Monday morning. The applications from members of the Fair and Racing Association have been large but there will be good selections for the general public, though an early application is desirable. The management expects a "standing room only" sign will go up on the night of the swim. All preliminaries must be completed by Saturday afternoon and the last of the entries must be in the hands of the committee before Sunday morning when the committee will meet in the Bank of Maui to finally complete the program. The eliminations will be wherever the several local teams are training, as Lahaina at Lahaina.

Interest in the coming meet has developed far beyond the most sanguine hopes of the committee. Chairman Hughes says that when the subject was first broached promises were not large but that in some of the districts five and six times as many probable contestants as were forecast have been training. Thus there is assured a large card and thrilling finishes are on the tapis in most of the events. If Ethelda Bleibtry comes another exhibition or other exhibitions will be put on. In addition to the exhibitions by Duke, Harris, Prieste and Tait the following events will be included: 25, 50 and 100 yard sprints, free style, 220 yards, 50 yards back stroke, 50 yards obstacle race, 50 yards clothes race, 25 yards women and girls sprint, 25 yards boys sprint, 6 men relay race, 6 Boy Scouts relay, spring board diving, high diving, trapeze diving, plunge for distance.

High School Students Present Annual Play

Students of Maui High School presented their annual play and program of entertainment at the Pala Community House last Friday evening to a large and well pleased audience, which included friends, parents and other relatives as well as many who went merely for the entertainment offered. In all ways the affair was a charming success reflecting credit on all participants and those who trained or assisted them in their work of preparation.

First on the program was a one act play "The Flower Shop" and Christ Williams, Beatrice Krauss, Richard Penhallow, Floyd Brown and Alfred de Rego showed real histrionic ability and presented the playlet most attractively.

Other numbers on the program included musical numbers delightfully rendered by the Girls' Glee Club, "Last Night" and "Come Fairies," a reading, "American Independence," by Edward Hair, another reading by Frank Kenolio, "The American Flag Not the Dollar Sign," and closed with the singing of the school song, the words of which are by Cecil Holiday and the music by C. Austin Miles.

GIVES BIRTHDAY PARTY

R. A. Wadsworth was host at the Wailuku Hotel Wednesday evening in honor of the birthday of his son, David Wadsworth, and the dinner was a family gathering with Mrs. Alfred Wadsworth present from Honolulu. The affair was an especially pleasant one, following as it did, the recent serious illness of the host.

Utilities to Hilo—Members of the board of public utilities went to Hilo Wednesday and were to return to Honolulu on Friday's Mauna Kea.

Vast Food Stores Secured For Luau

Preparation Made to Seat 500 At a Time and Sweet Music Will Add to Enjoyment; Good Sport as Well.

Three thousand pounds, a ton and a half, of beef and pork will be used for the Kamehameha Day luau at the Fair Grounds in Kahului, June 11, and that great quantity is in addition to chicken, fish, shell fish etc., to poi, kukui, kuololo and other good things. Preparations are making for the seating of 500 at one time at four chief tables and there will be two chief sittings, one from 12 to 1:30 and one from 5 to 6 while between times the luau will be served to such comers as may desire, in a way it will be continuous during the afternoon. Music will be a pleasing accompaniment and add to the gaiety of the chief sittings.

Will Feed Multitude

Ample provision for feeding between 1500 and 2000 persons at the luau for the benefit of the children's home fund are being provided by the committees of which Mrs. Foster Robinson is executive head and preparations are being so made that service will be expeditious with Boy Scouts doing many a good turn as waiters. And while lei bedecked the eaters are doing the justice to the occasion there will be two orchestras and a quartet to add to the enjoyment with musical numbers furnished by the Mary Hoffman orchestra, Mrs. Freudenberg's orchestra and the Kahului quartet, the musical programs being rendered from noon to half past one and from five to six. Thus those who desire will be able to enjoy two luaus in a single day.

And it is not only the luau committees that are busy for those who have charge of the various entertainment features have their programs well lined up. There is to be a race from the Wailuku Court House to the Fair Grounds which will end in front of the grand stand and out in the open before the stand there will be tumbling and other sports, Japanese fencing and wrestling, an exhibition in scoutcraft by the Boy Scouts and a regularly scheduled Maui league baseball game the admission to the grounds covering the cost of all that big show. Elsewhere there will be hula dancing and perhaps some other attractions. And the day of feasting and fun will not interfere with but is preliminary to the big swimming meet that will be held in Puunene tank in the evening. Kamehameha Day will be a memorable occasion on Maui.

Prices Kept Low

The management of the luau and sports has asked that the prices to be charged shall be made conspicuously public. Admission to the grounds will be 25 cents for adults and adults and 10 cents for children, the price of such an extensive luau seems ridiculously small, only 50 cents. Bleacher seats for the sports will be free and admission to the grandstand is 25 cents for adults and 10 cents for children. Leis for the diners will be sold for 25 cents. The menu for the luau is one never attempted in public affairs at Honolulu for less than $1.50 to $2.00.

For those who wish to secure luau, kuololo and other Hawaiian viands to take home with them there will be a stand in the grounds and during the sports soft drinks and refreshments of such sort will be served in the grounds by some of the Girl Scouts.

Meantime the district finance committees are making a steady and systematic campaign in their various territories. Reports from such committees are not coming in definite figures at this time and are not expected to for a couple of weeks at least but enough is known to say that good progress in the raising of fund for the home is being made.

Rev. W. C. Crider Will Leave Maui Next Fall

Rev. W. C. Crider, minister at the Wailuku Union Church is leaving his pastorate the first of October. He presented his resignation to the congregation at the evening services last Sunday to be effective at the date named. At that time he will have completed two years of service here. His resignation comes as a surprise to the public generally and he will be missed for he has been a faithful and steadfast worker in the community and in the church work.

Mr. Crider says that his plans for the future are not definite and that he is not leaving to accept a call elsewhere. He contemplates a year of study on his return to the mainland. The resignation of Mr. Crider makes the third change in Protestant church circles since last autumn, Mr. White of Kahului and Mr. Bowdish of Makawao having previously left Maui.

FARRINGTON GOVERNOR

Wallace Rider Farrington has been named Governor of Hawaii. President Harding sent his nomination to the senate for confirmation yesterday and the news was sent to Honolulu by the Associated Press. The controversy is ended unless the senate should refuse to confirm which is regarded unlikely.

Mr. Farrington has been a resident of the Islands about 30 years, most of the time in the newspaper profession and is now business manager of the Star-Bulletin. On Maui he is best known through his visits with the Ad Club at Civic Conventions.

Boosters of Things Athletic on Maui Guests at Dinner

For the president, the secretary and the athletic committee of the Maui County Fair and Racing Association J. Garcia, chairman of the athletic committee was host at a delightfully appointed dinner at the Grand Hotel last Saturday evening. President F. F. Baldwin was the especial guest of honor of the evening. Covers were laid for 14, the feelings of the superstitious having been considered for the occasion.

Novel features abounded at the dinner, which was served in the private dining room. Decorations were typical of athletic events and on the walls of the room were hung such athletic and sporting paraphernalia as padded protectors, shin guards, catcher masks and mits, ball bats, volley balls and foot balls and boxing gloves. Deference was shown to ordinary decorative ideas in a beautiful floral center piece but base balls were an addition to the table decorations.

Gift For President

At each place the guest found a place card attached to which was a rhyme which he was later called upon to read before responding to the call for a brief talk on the branch of sport he represented in committee. Other rhymes were handed in sealed envelopes to the guests early in the course of the dinner and each one read the contents. When the guests were seated and before dinner was served the host presented to President Baldwin, with a few well chosen remarks on what Mr. Baldwin has done for the association, a decorative and engraved chart showing the ramifications of the committee, the names of the 12 committeemen and of the sub-committeemen of each of the 12 sub-committees, appreciation of which was expressed by Mr. Baldwin at the close of the speechmaking, his talk having been reserved until the last.

Wit, humor and seriousness mingled in the remarks made by the speakers there were reminiscences of other days and forecasts for the future. Complimenting the chairman of the committee and his fellow workers Mr. Baldwin said that he considered the work being done more important than anything being achieved by any organization in the Islands.

Women's Club Election—The annual meeting and election of officers of Maui Women's Club will be held at the Territory Building in Kahului Monday afternoon.

Underground Wiring System Ordered For County Fair Grounds

Contract for a subway electric wiring system for the Fair Grounds was awarded to the Hawaiian Electric Company Monday afternoon. The work is to be done on a "cost plus" basis and it is estimated that the cost will be between $5000 and $6500. Before the next fair is held in October unsightly poles and wires will have vanished from the fair grounds, the wires will have been placed in underground conduits and the poles will have been replaced by ornamental lighting posts an important step towards the beautification of the grounds. As it is not expected to do any important building work before the fair the directors of Maui County Fair & Racing Association felt the improvement could well be made at this time.

Maui's fair grounds are in process of becoming the most unique and among the most beautiful in the world. One of the most unique features will be the replacing of the old ways to be expected board fence with as high as was the old board fence, a barrier of bougainvillea. Much of the board fence is already down and along the fence bougainvillea vine has been planted and is growing freely. In a short time it will have made a "hedge" which will effectively hide all that is going on within. Work of filling in and of landscape gardening is going forward steadily but much filling in must still be done. Cocoanut palms, other trees and shrubs are being planted also. Restriction of the use of water for irrigation purposes is retarding the work and the growth of grass on lawns as well as the trees and shrubbery at present.

Grand Jury Report Is Expected Today

Grand jurors were in session Wednesday and yesterday and resumed sessions this morning. They have for consideration 16 matters and up to three o'clock yesterday afternoon, it was reported, they had disposed of 11. The present grand jury is composed of J. P. Foster, foreman, W. O. Aiken, H. W. Baldwin, Daniel Balch, Caleb Burns, A. W. Collins, George Edwards, J. T. Fantom, J. E. Garcia, J. S. Kaiaua, William Lougher, F. N. Lufkin, J. M. Medeiros, J. K. Naeoli, Robert Nawahine, J. A. Robinson and Joseph Whitford. H. S. Bush and S. P. Kaai were excused, the former leaving the county.

Hardly any of the talesman have served on the grand jury in the past four years and a large number have never been grand jurors before. In the court room when they assembled Wednesday morning Judge Burr outlined their duties and the scope of their powers generally with considerable detail and it is apparent that they are giving extremely careful attention to the subject matter of the cases before them.

It is expected that a report of their proceedings will be handed to the court this afternoon.

Victory Medals For Discharged Soldiers

Victory medals await all honorably discharged soldiers of Maui who have not yet received them. Several from the Lahaina side of the Island have already made their applications but from other sections of Maui none have yet been received.

To secure a victory medal the ex-soldier should write to C. L. Bowker, of Lahaina, now captain of the national guard company that is being recruited at Lahaina, and ask for an application blank which will be sent him. After having filled in the blank application for the medal, the applicant is to return it to Captain Bowker sending with it his discharge. The latter will be returned to the owner, so he need have no hesitation in sending it. Then, in due time, when the application is approved the discharged soldier will be the possessor of the medal.

Price For Pines is Conceived to Give Grower Fair Profit

Maui pineapple growers received reassuring news this week in the announcement of the price which the canneries will pay for pines. "First" will be bought at $26.60. This price compares with the abnormal figure of $40.06 last year and with $26.20 the previous year which was the highest price ever paid up to that time.

For weeks past there have been guesses ranging all the way from $20 to $30 with few venturing to hope for anything above the latter figure. Not a little anxiety was expressed that the price might fall below $25 and many conservative ones making their guesses around $22 to $25. So the announcement went to relieve the tension.

Representatives of the packing houses and the more representative pine growers and pine land owners say the new price is generally satisfactory and should yield a fair profit to those who have not paid too high for their labor or who have not jumped into the acquisition of pine land leases at too high figures. There are some such speculators who believed wild reports late last year that this year's price would be above that of last season, perhaps as high as $50. Such speculators have been "stung."

Had figures fallen below $25 there was fear that numbers of leases and contracts would be thrown overboard rather than to face a further loss. As it is, it is thought there will be very few such instances and conservative ones consider the reduction as an excellent thing for the future of the industry on Maui.

New Firm is Launched And Opens Store in Foresters' Building

Enters a new firm into the Maui business field and coincidental with the entry of the new firm come changes in automotive concerns. Frank H. Loecey and Harry H. Holt are forming a co-partnership and the first of next week will open their establishment in one of the new store rooms in the Foresters' Building at Kahului. The new firm may be classed as jobber in automotive vehicles, supplies and farm utensils and equipments. In a sense the firm will represent Schumann Carriage Company on Maui but its business need not be confined to lines for which the Honolulu concern has the Islands agencies. H. S. Bush who represented the Schumann house left for Honolulu Wednesday evening to remain permanently. A new manager comes to the Royal Hawaiian Sales Company Maui Branch, he is Charles E. Morris and arrived this morning.

Frank H. Loecey is expected to return from Honolulu tomorrow morning bringing with him some of the stock of tires and accessories which the new firm will carry. He would have had the goods here Tuesday except that the Kilauea did not load freight in Honolulu on the last Monday holiday. S. S. Paxson came over from Honolulu yesterday to complete arrangements for the change of management of the Royal Hawaiian Sales Co., here.

Both Mr. Loecey and Mr. Holt are thoroughly well known on Maui. The former is a real Mauiite and the latter might well be called one. Much of his earlier life was spent here and for the past two years he has been the representative of the Royal Hawaiian Sales Company here.

Mr. Loecey knows the farm and its needs thoroughly and will handle that end of the business largely, including in it farm and plantation livestock. Mr. Holt knows the motor car, motor truck and accessory end of the business thoroughly. From their connection with the Schumann Company they will represent the largest line of farm equipment and utensils in the Islands, especially those of the National Harvester Company.

Maui Foresters Hold Election of Officers

Court Valley Island No. 9239, Foresters met at the new Foresters' building in Kahului last evening and elected officers for the ensuing six months as follows:

M. C. Ross, Chief Ranger; W. F. Crockett, Sub-Chief Ranger; J. T. Correa, Treasurer; Jno. E. Garcia, Financial Secretary; Jno. E. Martins, Recording Secretary; Henry Long, Senior Woodward; Jos. Xavier, Junior Woodward; E. J. Freitas, Senior Beadle; J. S. Souza, Junior Beadle; Jno. M. Medeiros, A. H. Silva, Jno. P. Dolin, Auditors; M. G. Paschoal, Delegate; W. E. Bal, Alternate.

Membership in the lodge is showing a continuous and eminently satisfactory growth as reflected by the fact that at the last meeting about 50 new applicants were admitted.

ELECTION FOR ONE OFFICIAL WILL BE HELD

Efforts to Carry Out a Plan Whereby Expense might be Saved Prove to be Without Avail.

Efforts to avoid the expense of holding a general election to fill one office for which there is no contest since the primary, failed yesterday and in accordance with the proclamation already published the election will be held next Tuesday. One name will appear on the ticket, J. Pia Cockett for Treasurer.

Senator H. A. Baldwin wrote to the Attorney General's office to inquire whether it were possible to save the expense of an election and an opinion was received from Deputy Attorney General Lightfoot. He said that while he believed an election should be held there appeared one way out, to have Walter Engle, the incumbent, resign at the end of his term, June 30, for Cockett to withdraw his candidacy and for the board to appoint Cockett to succeed Engle. On that basis a settlement was proposed and Engle yesterday morning signed a resignation, effective June 30. Chairman Kalamana and County Clerk Kaee went over to Puukoli yesterday and presented the proposal to Cockett, who declined to accept it. He questioned the legality of such an appointment and added that the voters of the county cast their votes for him to take office as elected by them, not by appointment of the board and he felt it would be a slight to the voters if he should withdraw. Senator Baldwin's action was taken on behalf of the Republican County committee.

The deputy attorney general's opinion was that if the course suggested were carried out Cockett would be de facto and de jure county treasurer. That he would be the de facto official there is no doubt but there is some question as to whether he would be an official de jure under an appointment of the board. The law provides that an election shall be held to fill certain offices at a certain time. Another law provides that where a candidate withdraws before election the county committee shall fill the vacancy. The law under which the board can appoint contemplates a vacancy caused by death or disability of a duly elected incumbent.

It is estimated that the cost of the election will be between $2000 and $3000. Later there will be another expense and much trouble for suffragists. It is not likely that a large number will go to the polls next Tuesday and all who do not vote at that time will have their names stricken from the great register, will have to re-register before the next primary and general election. This it was also desired to avoid.

Printing of the ballots had been delayed in the hopes of securing a way out of the pilikia and now the county clerk's office will have to do some hurry up work to get the ballots out to all the precincts, those to Molokai going over by sampan.

While it is regarded as improbable that any one would attack the legality of Cockett holding office after appointment by the board of supervisors it is admitted that such action would be a possibility.

Two Companies of Infantry For Maui; Wailuku, Lahaina

Two companies of infantry will be the Maui contingent of the National Guard of Hawaii, one company at Lahaina and one at Wailuku. C. L. Bowker has been selected as captain of the Lahaina company and William H. Engle of the Wailuku company. The earlier plan to have a machine gun company on this Island was abandoned for that of having two infantry companies.

Work of recruiting has been started at Lahaina by Captain Bowker and a number have passed their physical examinations and have been enrolled. Most of them are former soldiers and an encouraging feature is that 95 per cent of the applicants were able to pass their physical examinations, a fact in part accounted for by the large number of former soldiers.

Captain Engle has not yet started the work of recruiting, he said this morning. His appointment was not made until after the visiting army officers returned to Honolulu from Maui, he says, and he is now in correspondence with the Colonel.

Will Open Bids—Maui board of supervisors begins its regular monthly session Wednesday and at the Thursday session various bids will be opened, some for school cottages, one for pipe for the new Wailuku water main pipe and others as has been advertised.

Two successful projects of this type are recorded, one being the Parker ranch on the slopes of Mauna Kea, 13,649 feet altitude where 8000 acres of corn land and being cultivated and 2000 acres on Oahu developed to pineapples on the Pringle property.

Haleakala Sunset is New Beauty Added to Big Island Scenery

(From the Hilo Tribune.)

"I have seen the sun rise at Haleakala and marveled at the wonderful sight, but, right on this island, I have seen just as beautiful a spectacle," declared a visitor to Hilo the other day.

"Yes," continued the visitor, "from the Kohala slopes I have watched the sun go down behind Haleakala, and I want to state the scene was a most gorgeous one, and one that will linger in my mind for the balance of my life."

"It was the end of a very clear day and the Maui mountains could be seen very distinctly. It was just about sundown and I was standing near the Kohala Club gazing across at the Valley Island, picturing in my mind what the residents of that charming island were doing at that moment. I thought of many friends of mine and in my mind could easily imagine what they were doing at that particular moment. Then my thoughts turned to my first trip to the summit of Haleakala and the early morning visit to the brink of the crater to see the sun rise from the sea. It was a wonderful trip and one that I hope some day to repeat."

"Gazing straight at Maui from Kohala I suddenly realized that the sun would go down behind the bulk of the island opposite me. Then I noticed the streamers of light rays thrown out by the sun and caught by a few snowy clouds that lingered near the crest of the mountain. The clouds changed color rapidly and assumed the most fantastic form. Every color in the rainbow appeared to be represented and the scene was like one from fairyland."

"As the sun sank lower, the outline of Haleakala was shown even more distinctly than before, the colored clouds swung into position, as if to decorate the mountain; the ocean took on a darker hue, and a picture was formed that will always be remembered. Then came the fading away of the light and the setting in of twilight. I had witnessed the setting of the sun behind the Haleakala and was content. There are more things to be seen on this Big Island than most persons, even the old-timers appear to realize."

Hawaii's Manufactures Show Splendid Growth During Past Decade

Preliminary statements of the general results of the census of manufacturers for the territory of Hawaii have been issued by Director W. M. Stewart, of the Bureau of the Census department of commerce under date of May 9. They are in the form of summary comparing the figures for 1909 and 1919, by totals.

Statistics were not included for establishments having products for the census year valued at less than $500, except that reports were taken for establishments idle during a portion of the census year, or which began operation during that year, and whose products for such reason were valued at less than $500.

The word "establishment" as used in the census reports may mean more than one mill or plant, provided they are owned or controlled and operated by a single individual, partnership, corporation, or other owner or operator, and are located in the same town or city.

The reports were taken for the calendar year ending December 31, 1919, or the business year of the establishment most nearly conforming to that calendar year.

Percentages of Increase

The summary shows certain increases at the census of 1919 as compared with that of 1909. The value of products in 1919 shows an increase over that of 1909 of $85,692,000, or 180.8 per cent.

The capital invested, as reported in 1919, shows a gain of $24,966,000, or 104.5 per cent over that in 1909. The average capital per establishment was approximately $98,000 in 1919 and $48,000 in 1909. In this connection it should be stated that the inquiry contained in the census schedule calls for the total amount of capital, both owned and borrowed, invested in the business, but excludes the value of rented property, plant, or equipment which was employed in the conduct of manufacturing enterprises. The final report will show the rental paid for such property.

The cost of materials used in 1919 shows an increase over that for 1909 of $515,000 or 216.6 per cent. The average cost of materials per establishment was approximately $164,000 in 1919, and $51,000 in 1909. In addition to the component materials which enter into the value of products, the cost of materials in this summary includes the cost of fuel, mill supplies, and rent of power and heat.

Value of Products

The value of products in 1919 shows an increase over that in 1909 of $85,692,000, or 180.8 per cent. The average per establishment was $268,000 in 1919, and $95,000 in 1909.

The value of products represents their selling value or price at the plants as actually turned out by the factories during the census year and may have little relation to the amount of the sales for that year. The values under this head also include amounts received for work done on materials furnished by others.

Value Added by Manufacture

The value added by manufacture represents the difference between the cost of materials used and the value of the products manufactured from them. The value added by manufacture in 1919 shows an increase over that of 1909 of $30,177,000, or 138.6 per cent. The value added by manufacture formed 39.0 per cent of the total value of products in 1919 and 45.9 per cent in 1909.

In 1919, as compared with 1909, the number of salaried employees shows an increase of 481, or 81.0 per cent, while the average number of wage earners increased 4,065, or 68.9 per cent.

Forest Protection

Last week, from May 22 to May 28 was "Forest Protection Week" on the mainland under a proclamation issued by President Harding. On the subject of forest protection the proclamation of the president has moved C. S. Judd, executive of the board of agriculture and forestry to write the following:

"President Harding's proclamation bids the American people to look to the protection and care of their remaining forest resources. That there is need for such admonition is fully warranted when one faces squarely the facts of timber depletion.

"Forest destruction has now reached a point in the United States where three-fifths of the primeval forests are gone and 61 percent of the timber that is left is west of the Great Plains.

"The exhaustion of American timber has come about not because the forests have been used so freely but because of the failure to keep down forest fires and to use forest growing lands. In a nut shell, the problem is that the United States is cutting wood out of its forests three or four times as fast as it is being grown. Timber for the future is simply a matter of putting idle land to work and to protect the growing trees from damage by fire.

Hawaii's Forest Reserves

"While the Territory of Hawaii is not a timber producing country, the principles involved in the celebration of Forest Protection Week should be well understood by all of the residents of this territory. The Hawaiian forests give forth a product in the form of water which is much more valuable than the crop of timber which could be produced on the areas from which this continuous supply of water emanates. Water is the agricultural life blood of these islands, because without it, the main agricultural crop could not be produced.

"It behooves every inhabitant of the Territory therefore to use the greatest care with fire, in order to prevent destruction to the forest which conserves the water supply.

Fire Menace Minimized

"Fortunately the fire menace in these islands is not as a rule very serious but there are times when, owing to lack of rain, fire may be easily started which might do incalculable damage to the native forest.

"During the past two calendar years there were reported to the Chief Fire Warden of the Territory fifteen forest and grass fires which covered from less than 1 acre to over 5500 acres of area burned over. All of these fires were preventable and were caused by human carelessness. The territory has, throughout the islands, 55 public spirited citizens who have received commissions from the Board of Agriculture and Forestry as District Fire Wardens. These gentlemen have done excellent work in performing their duties prescribed by law, viz: To prevent, control and extinguish forest fires. They have the authority to employ all able bodied male persons between the ages of 16 and 50 years for assistance in putting out fire.

Law on Destruction

"They report promptly to the Chief Fire Warden in Honolulu all fires in their respective districts and take immediate and active steps toward their extinguishment and assist in apprehending offenders against the forest fire law, which is as follows:

"Sec. 496. Every person who wilfully, maliciously or negligently sets on fire or causes or procures to be set on fire any woods, brush, prairies, grass, grain or stubble on any lands not owned, leased or controlled by him; and every person who wilfully, maliciously or negligently allows a fire to escape from land owned, leased or controlled by him whereby any property of another is injured or destroyed; and every person who accidentally sets or causes to be set any fire on land not owned, leased or controlled by him, or sets or causes to be set any fire on land owned, leased or controlled by him, which spreads to the land of another, and allows said fire to escape from his control without using every effort to extinguish it, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and liable to a fine of not less than twenty-five dollars nor more than five thousand dollars. Setting such fires or causing or procuring them to be set or allowing them to escape shall be prima facie proof of wilfulness, unless, malice or negligence under this Section; provided that nothing herein contained shall apply to a person who, in good faith, sets a back fire to check a fire already burning."

"Well, I rather think that's the way it should be pronounced."—Boston Transcript.

MOLOKAI NOTES

Messrs. Gillies and Deering of Honolulu are "doing" Molokai. They are staying at the hotel.

There was a general luau at Roosevelt given by E. K. Duvau-chelle, on the twenty-first.

Election day was quiet and orderly, voters depositing their votes at Halawa, Roosevelt Court House, and Kaunakakai largely for the "Old Board."

Additional land has been granted by the governor for the Roosevelt Children's Park, making some 12 acres in all. The following are new officers of the Roosevelt Memorial Committee: Hon. H. A. Baldwin, Pala Maui; Senator H. C. Lodge, Nahant, Mass.; Mr. Julian Street, New York; and Mrs. George P. Cooke. Acceptances will be reported as received.

There was a regular meeting of the Civil Improvement Association at Cooke Hall, Kaunakakai on the 28th.

Closing exercises with a fine musical program will be held June 4th at the Kaluaha School.

Mr. Theodore Meyer and his wife arrived last week from their six-month trip to Fiji, Samoa, New Zealand and Australia. They had a most enjoyable trip but are glad to get back to Molokai.

Mrs. Moncrief and Miss Sproul have returned to Honolulu after quite a long stay on Molokai. They took in all the sights while here, including a sampan trip to windward Molokai.

THEATERS

Billie Burke

Billie Burke, Paramount star, will be seen in her new Paramount picture "The Education of Elizabeth." This present Miss Burke in the role of a chorus girl and she does some of the most enjoyable work of her career therein.

Elizabeth Bank, a chorus girl in a New York revue, meets Thomas Fairfax, descendant of an old Colonial family. Fairfax falls madly in love with her and asks her to marry him, but first wants her to visit his family so that his sister, Lucy, may see her. Fairfax is called to Texas and the education of Elizabeth is left in the hands of Lucy and her brother, Harry, a professor of literature. Elizabeth proves a diligent student so that when Thomas returns he finds her quite unlike the gay chorus girl he left. He is disappointed and confesses to her that he loves Lily Kerr, another chorus girl. This is good news to Elizabeth who loves Harry Fairfax and she takes him as a husband instead of Thomas.

Harry Carey

A hewer of homely rhymes is "Sundown Slim," a hobo of the uncommon or poetic variety. Harry Carey doesn't play "Sundown Slim"—he just naturally is "Sundown Slim." He makes us feel that he is the hobo's one and only proxy. The art of going shavell-less, penniless, foodless and friendless is one cultivated exclusively by the tramp for the simple joys of wandering the winding road that leads over the hills, of sleeping under a myriad of cool stars, and of drinking gloriously of clear springs. Such a tramp is an idealistic hero worthy of immortalization.

William Farnum

The great thrills which are inseparable from the motion picture work of William Farnum have been given in abundance in this star's latest photoplay, "Wolves of the Night."

One of the most thrilling points in the story is the great mine scene where Farnum, as the hero, is imprisoned in a mine through an explosion of dynamite intended to destroy him. His eventual escape in a crazed condition is certainly one of the most powerfully graphic scenes ever enacted for the films.

Another hair-raising scene presented is a terrific fight by Farnum and three men who have plotted his ruin and have almost accomplished it. The romantic element is an important factor in the play.

Dorothy Dickson

"Paying the Piper," a new George Fitzmaurice production for Paramount, was acclaimed by a delighted audience as one of the best photo plays seen here this season.

The picture has a solid theme which, coupled with the dramatic treatment of the story, makes it appeal to almost any audience irresistible.

The story deals with the idle rich—the cigarette smoking, cabaret-loving class of New York—and the chief character is Barbara Wyndham, portrayed with artistry and charm by Dorothy Dickson, who makes her screen debut in this picture. Dorothy is married to an idle rich young man, but there is little of love in their union until their wealth is swept away by a crash in Wall street. Then both are regenerated in a series of interesting happenings which thrill as they entertain the spectator.

The picture is a delightful one and the support, especially that rendered by such artists as Alma Tell, Rod La Roque, George Fawcett, Reginald Denney, Robert Schable and Katherine Emmett, is of the finest grade.

A COSTLY MUDDLE

Maui will hold an election next week to name one county official whose election will be uncontested and but one name will appear on the ballot. Efforts to avoid the expense to the county of holding such an election and to avoid a practically complete re-registration prior to the primaries for the next general election have proved unavailing.

Nothing new under the sun? Pshaw, of course there is. Ask any legislator of long experience and he will say there is. Ask any lawyer long in the practice of his profession and he will say so also. Legislators in framing a law seek to have it cover every contingency of which any of them have heard or read, every contingency they can think of or imagine to be possible to arise, and then—like the proverbial bolt out of the equally proverbial blue sky, the unexpected happens, a new contingency appears. And so it is on Maui.

Hawaiian legislators never conceived that it might be found necessary to hold an election with only one candidate in the field or that the only way to avoid the holding of such an election would be the resignation of an incumbent and the withdrawal of a lone candidate. The deputy attorney general gave an opinion that an election could be avoided by such method but there are other attorneys who may not agree with him and candidate J. P. Cockett will take no chances. And so the election will be held, the printing of the ballots have been ordered.

Maui will pay the costs which will be $2000 to $3000 at this time and later will pay the costs of practically a complete re-registration for very few voters will go to the polls Tuesday and the names of all who do not vote will be stricken from the great register.

Strange indeed are the workings of the law, small wonder that citizens rail at technicalities and the methods of procedure that are necessary in the courts for the interpretation or the enforcement of statutes.

At the next session of the legislature changes can be made in the primary election law, a mighty poor one as it stands, but meantime Maui pays the costs.

ICED FISH ORDINANCE

Two excellent purposes are intended to be conserved by the proposed iced fish ordinance relative to which members of the board of supervisors have expressed the wish to hear public expressions next Friday. The proposed county law is intended to prevent the sale of fish that are unfit for human consumption and is also designed to prevent the withholding of freshly caught fish and thereby artificially boosting the price.

From decomposing fish ptomaine poisoning comes perhaps more often than from any other article of food. Fish starts to decompose, is chilled, warms again and decomposition forthwith resumes. Subjected to further changes of temperature decomposition is checked and permitted to proceed alternately and the fish is neither tempting nor wholesome when it reaches the table. If catches had to be sold forthwith the law of supply and demand would have, it is claimed, the effect of lowering prices, at least from time to time.

The language of the law seems to require some attention. It might be construed to prevent the sale of cold storage fish from the mainland which, it is understood, it is not intended to do. In section 3 there is a provision that the law shall not apply where fish are frozen within an hour after having been caught and "kept at a uniform temperature of not more than 32 degrees." This would not be complied with while fish were in transit from a cold storage house to the vessel or from the vessel after arriving here to cold storage again and thence, later to a market stall. Where fish prices are so high as on Maui, it is impracticable for large numbers of persons to secure any other than cold storage. One proposal is that the law shall apply only to fish caught in Hawaiian waters.

The proposed ordinance assumes that dark fleshed fish spoils more rapidly than light fleshed and a criticism of it that has been heard is that it does not set forth or show that fish kept longer than the prescribed period are dangerous to the health of the eater nor that they are safe for food if sold and eaten within the period named.

Need of some such ordinance is apparent, the question is whether the one proposed is what is needed or in the necessary form. On add subjects connected with it the supervisors invite expressions.

COMMUNITY BEAUTIFICATION

In line with the desire to remove the unsightly and to beautify surroundings is the step taken by the Fair and Racing Association in contracting to have a subway electric wiring system at the fair grounds and replacing of poles with decorative pillars and lights. It is not the first act of the kind the association has taken, witness the removal of high board fences, replacing them with wire, setting out bougainvillea and in a short time there will be the impenetrable screen of purple and of red.

Nor is it only at the fair grounds that the work of beautification is going forward. Along the Paia road there have been planted pink shower trees which are now giving an indication of greater beauty that is to come. On the small trees pink clusters have already appeared and it does not require great imagination to picture mentally how that drive will look two or three years hence. On the Lahaina road, especially between Olowalu and Lahaina, coconut palms have been planted and other trees as well, the building of scenic and colorful panoramas of the future.

In such planting it is but natural that some mistakes should be made, that young trees should be placed too close together or too near the roadway. On the makai side of Paia road are examples of the latter. Young trees have been planted between a ditch and the road instead of behind the ditch. In a very few years the trees will branch and spread out so as to sweep the sides of passing cars and their roots will tend to press paying upward. Protests will arise at the suggestion of removing the trees or shearing off projecting branches.

Every encouragement should be given to beautifying the country and the roadsides but a little more careful planning will go to save community friction in the future.

A. L. C. Atkinson of the bureau of forestry has suggested that

The Optimistic Pessimist

"Starting Dress Sale" says an advertisement in the Honolulu papers. If the dresses are any more startling than some of those that have been seen in public masculinity will certainly be interested and the mind feminine is always alert for that which interests mere man.

Four deserters from the army have been captured by the Hilo police and returned to Schofield Barracks after four months absence from post. It's astonishing the lengths to which some folk will go to dodge military service. At that the Big Island appears to have been a good place to hide.

London is to have what is described as "an Adamless Eden" in a small park where working girls may rest and meditate alone and where men are not to be admitted, reports the Associated Press. Surely here is a new light thrown on the situation at London where previous reports had indicated that men were in such a minority, since the war, that it would be they who needed a retreat to escape the pursuit of preponderating femininity.

Action to check the tendency to scantiness of apparel on the stage has been taken in France. Probably, as is usual, fashionable world will follow the stage. This means a swinging of the pendulum the other way but a return to street sweeping, germ collecting skirts need not necessarily follow. There is much of good sense to present day short skirts.

Montana has placed a $3 tax on bachelors, proceeds going into the widows' pension fund. Taking into consideration financial reasons only, it is still much cheaper to be a bachelor than a benedict, even in Montana.

Waiting for business to pick up is much slower work than picking up business. The waiting batter is called out on strikes much more often than he is walked to first.

It's foolhardy to take thought of tomorrow but there's a difference between thought and worry. Weakness and cowardice follow worry, strength and confidence, careful thought.

More than half of the troubles of life come from taking oneself too seriously.

It is a Honolulu judge who advises that young folk should take a course in sex hygiene before contracting matrimony. A judge should be able to give advice if he is a careful observer.

Deep down within one there is a well of never failing wisdom, call it conscience or what you will.

the beautiful oleander bushes should be rooted out and banished from the Islands because the leaves of the shrub are a dangerous poison for human beings and for stock. It would seem too bad to sacrifice so much beauty and better that children in the schools and grown ups out of the schools be taught of the poisonous qualities in the leaves and that such shrubs be planted nowhere near where stock are permitted to graze.

At the Episcopal Convocation in Honolulu the divorce evil has come in for attention and condemnation. There is a slight recognition of the fact that marriage is made too easy in the suggestion that notice of intention to marry shall be given 21 days before a license is issued. There are many persons who do not take the orthodox church view of matrimony as a holy union and regard it merely as a contract. If as much attention to the selection of husband or wife as to the serviceability of a dress or suit of clothes was shown, the divorce evil would be mitigated. More difficult marriage is even more desirable than more difficult divorce.

This from the Honolulu Star-Bulletin has a savor of unkindness:

"Hilo is growing. Indisputable evidence of this fact is given in a recent editorial in the Post-Herald. Listen: 'We are authoritatively told that the cemeteries of Hilo are so crowded that there is hardly room to bury the dead.' We suggest this as a slogan for the thriving Second City: 'Watch Hilo's cemeteries grow!'"

At the Episcopal Convocation in Honolulu the divorce evil has women are not indecent and immoral. If those who tirade against women's styles would spend an equal amount of time in teaching their boys not to see indecency and not to look for it, the time would be much better spent than in railing at modern womanhood and modern girlhood.

Trent Trust Company of Honolulu is refusing to handle the business of clients who demand that the company as their agent raise rents to an undue figure, to "Profligate." The public is with Trent Trust Company and will be with every other trust company torial treasury? Wailuku showed it wanted the road at once when against profiteers.

Criticism of the manner in which the flag was displayed in Wailuku on Memorial Day has been brought to Maui News. The critic says the ethics for the display of the national colors on that occasion call for them to be at half staff until noon and then raised to full staff.

How important and constructive is the work being done by the Athletic Committee few have paused to think or could know unless they watch the work closely. The body is doing work as important as any organization on Maui, probably as any in the Islands.

War taxes raise more sentiment in favor of disarmament than does the propaganda of the pacifist. Many are ready to argue disarmament who would not consider similar proposals on a smaller scale in the conduct of their personal business.

Kamehameha Day looms big for Maui with a sumptuous luau and carnival of sport and fun all the afternoon and the first really big swimming meet to be held on Maui staged for Puunene tank in the evening, the big splash.

Children of Keahua school hope to have an American Flag flying from the school flag staff at the opening of school next year. The principal says she was promised a flag for this year but that it never arrived.

Seats are reported to be in demand more than ten days before the Kamehameha Day swimming meet. Maui is due to fall strong for swimming and boating as well. Boost the game along.

If Admiral Sims is so in love with his British Cousins why in thunder does he not cast off the veil of Americanism and become one of them.

How about the Iao Valley road? Will it be ready by October?

The negro says he was victim of an unprovoked assault by the Japanese and did the stabbing in self defense.

Can Your Car Stop?

ANY automobile is able to stop, but this fact doesn't mean that all automobiles are in a safe condition.

If your brakes are severely worn they will not hold your car for an emergency stop as they should. And emergencies are the only times when your brakes really count.

Because John-Manville Non-Burn Asbestos brake lining is made of carefully selected material it will stop your car properly and maintain its efficiency long after ordinary lining has worn to a dangerous condition.

With Maui's Girl Scouts

Troop Activities

Keahua

The Violet troop started to embroider their crests this week. Some scouts were so late in coming, perhaps because it was a holiday, that there was no time to play basket ball. The eleventh law should be "A Girl Scout is prompt."

Makawao

The Child Welfare Board now has another troop working on its garments. The Sweet Pea troop have started to make underwear this week under the direction of their District Commissioner, Mrs. Smith.

Hamakua

This troop received their crests for the first time on Thursday and made good progress in the brief time set aside for sewing. Next week is Mrs. Bailey's day and instruction in bandaging and other first aid work will be begun.

Crysanthemum Troop

The members of this troop had their first lessons in the use of a triangular bandage on Saturday and completed the final step on a new folk dance.

Kahului

The Roselani troop accomplished wonders in a short time last Friday night—they elected as patrol leaders, Mary Luke and Bessie Kuhns; planned a hike up Iao Valley next week with Mrs. Taylor and Mrs. Deinert; made definite plans for a dance; chose Tuesday night for basket ball with Miss Mary DeKay as coach, etc. They entertained as guests, Mrs. DeKay, Miss Mary DeKay, Miss Lucy Hale and Mrs. Deinert and while all this business was going on, the final underfoot tests were being taken and the Roselani troop will be registered this week if all goes well.

Tuesday night found two well-matched teams playing basket ball with all their might if one could judge from the noise heard outside.

Puukolii

You ought to see the good-looking American Beauty crests all finished last week. This troop will be ready for tenderfoot tests in another week or so.

Lahaina

Here is the letter postponed from last week:

"Lahaina, Maui, May 26, 1921.
Dear Miss Leonard:
We had our social on Friday, May 20, at 7 o'clock, in the Parish Hall and had a fine time.

"The Boy Scouts of Troop 5 were invited and about 35 boys attended and as there were only 25 Girl Scouts, we had to keep busy to see that all the boys had a fine time.

"We played games and then had refreshments (punch and cookies) after that we danced. We expected our party to last until half past nine but we were having such a good time that it was half past ten before we went home. The Boy Scouts cheered before they went and the noise they made showed that they had enjoyed themselves.

"From MAY TURNER,
"Sec. Star of Bethlehem Troop."

Hike to Crater

"Makawao, May 28.
"A company of three girls consisting of Misses E. K. Yap, Rebecca Tam and Mary Aho, found their way to the Haleakala crater safe and sound without a guide. Learning that there are white posts which mark the trail to the summit, they assured themselves of finding their destination. Once they were misled but after wandering a little ways, Miss Tam, a real good scout of the Sweet Pea Troop, sighted the next post and thus they continued their journey with glee. Mist and heavy fog suddenly came over them, but they were very much alive all through, reaching the summit at sunset.

"After a good night's rest and nature's wonderful scenic beauties all taken in, they returned to their respective homes the following day.

Lahaina's Memorial Day

"Lahaina, June 1, 1921

"Dear Miss Leonard:
"Am writing to tell you about the celebration of the Memorial Day in Lahaina. We meet at the school ground about 4:30. The Lahaina boys went first, the Girl Scouts of the two troops, the children next and last of all the Boy Scouts.

"We first went to the Catholic Church. Father Bruno prayed and sprinkled holy water on graves of two soldiers who died in France. The Sacred Heart School sang a song. We then marched on to the Wainane Church. The priest talked in Hawaiian and we sang afterwards.

"We then marched to the armory. The Lahaina boys stood on one side of the hall, the children in the middle and the Girl Scouts on the other side. The Boy Scouts were on the platform with the American flag held by a small Boy Scout. The Lahaina boys sang a song and then the Catholic children sang. A boy from the Lahaina school recited the Gettysburg address and we sang our Memorial Day song.

"The older Girl Scouts were dressed in blouse and skirt with their red and white ties. The smaller girls wore blouses and bloomers with their red and black ties. We sang the "Star Spangled Banner" before we went home.

"Yours truly,
"LIN TAI CHUNG,
"Sec. of the Wild Rose Troop."

Sweet Pea Troop

There are many methods of raising money, one of which has been adopted by the Sweet Pea Troop of Makawao. This week found the members all industriously making underclothing for the Child Welfare Board. For each garment completed, the girls receive twenty-five cents. This certainly demonstrates one way of fulfilling the second part of a Scout promise: "To help others at all times" besides being a means of earning their own money. Hurrah for the Sweet Pea Girls!

Bougainvillea Troop

Hot weather did not cause enthusiasm to wane on Monday when the troop took its first outing in the form of a picnic at Paia beach. The water was enticing and the girls enjoyed practicing rescue work among themselves.

The girls were all glad of an opportunity to ride down in cars and more than willing to ride two deep coming back in preference to walking. Each girl brought her own sandwiches while the captain and lieutenant furnished the chowder and soda water. The only guest, Miss Haylar, surprised them with a huge watermelon.

Bougainvillea Scouts are quite capable of building a fire utilizing one match only.

Coming Events

Twenty-five Girl Scouts will do their good turns on Saturday, June 11, by waiting on table and selling peanuts, etc., at the luau. Will any Scout who knows that she will be present in Kahului on that day please let Mrs. Taylor know as soon as possible?

Watch this column for the date of the Carnation troop's Scout play. It will probably be produced June 14 or 15 in connection with a good movie at the Spreckelsville theatre. Buy your tickets early and avoid the rush!

Rumors

Whispers, rumors are spreading of a Girl Scout Day to be held at the end of summer vacation. Every troop, they say, will have a share in the plans for the day.

We hear murmurings to the effect that the girls have learned to do in many lines. Watch this column for news as to plans that the different troops are forming for the event.

Suggestions

Some of the troops need more members. How can we interest girls in joining and how shall the members work to get new girls? Here is a plan that one of the troops is using successfully. They have divided their girls into two "Automobiles." Each is racing to see which car will cross the country first. Every time a new member is secured the auto jumps one town. The game is played on a map using pins to hold the autos in place and causes much interest watching the progress.

Many clever and interesting ways may be thought of to help bring in new girls. Other troops may have some good suggestions to offer which would be helpful to all. Please let us hear from you.

Make use of the Maui News. Let it be a means of keeping the troops in close touch in a helpful way.

Any girl scout may write of her ideas and we will be glad to publish them.

Puunene Wins and Paia Comes Back

Lahaina Makes Good Fight But Loses; Foster Robinson Has Wacs At Mercy In Second Affair.

CLUBS STANDING
	W.	L.	Pct.
Puunene	2	1	.667
Wacs	2	1	.667
Lahaina	1	2	.333
Paia	1	2	.333

Last Sunday's Results
Puunene 7, Lahaina 4.
Paia 17, Wacs 7.

Next Sunday's Card
Lahaina vs. Wacs, 1:30
Paia vs. Puunene, 3:30.

One ball game and an exhibition of how not to play ball with the Wacs in the stellar role furnished the sport menu dished out to the fans at Wailuku ball park last Sunday. The meeting between Puunene and Lahaina furnished the game that between the Wacs and Paia furnished something else, but it was not the fault of Paia which showed form except in one inning and indicated that the team is liable to be something of a factor in the race despite the showing made in two earlier appearances, for Paia "came back."

Reasonably clean fielding and some good hitting marked the ball game which was anybody's until after the fifth when Puunene took a commanding lead. For Lahaina Maxwell hit safely and stole second but died there in the first. Puunene scored in the same inning when Silva singled and was retired on a fielder's choice. Shim taking first, advancing to second on Nakamura's sacrifice and scoring on Haake's single.

For Lahaina in the second Rego singled, Hoke was hit by pitcher, Ventura flew to left, Chartrand singled, Ledward flew out to center, Maxwell tripped, Kaluakini was safe on Shim's error and stole second but died on Dayman's out; four runs and four hits. Puunene came right back at 'em and scored another run on Enos' three sacker and Masaichi's single. Tadashi and Silva singled and Shim sacrificed by Nakamura retired the side.

Puunene Ices Game
In the fifth for Puunene, Nakamura was safe on Ledward's error, Haake sacrificed, Bal singled, Enos walked, Masaichi hit safely as did Freitas who took second on Kaluakini's error but was out at third when Tadashi took first on a fielder's choice but was left as Silva went out to Ventura; Puunene 6, Lahaina 4 and the game on ice as it proved. After the second Lahaina was unable to get men on except in the eighth and ninth. In the eighth Gichi singled when two were down and in the last effort Ventura drove a three sacker with two already gone and Chartrand was retired Nakamura to Bal.

Puunene was retired in order in the sixth and in the seventh but put Silva across the pan in the eighth. He hit for three bags when two were down and scored on Shim's safe one. Shim pliffed second but died there when Nakamura popped to Kaluakini.

Paia Comes Back
With the exception of the sixth inning Paia played good ball and except in the second and sixth Foster Robinson was cutting the corners in old-style and had the Wacs helpless. In the latter inning W. Cockett and Medeiros both singled, Cockett stole second and scored on F. Bal's fly.

It was in the third that some of the Wacs staged an exhibition that made the team look ridiculous and the Paia's were not slow to take advantage of it. Hits by Gomes, Souza and Robinson combined with three errors and a passed ball gave Paia 5 runs. In the fourth the Wacs thought they heard an encore and repeated the alleged comedy. Roach was hit by pitcher and walked, Gomes singled, Yemoto sacrificed, Robinson tripped, English singled and mixed up with the clean hitting was another bunch of errors, bringing in 5 runs. But the climax was the seventh when base on balls, singles by Yemoto, Coleman and Roach and four bingles put six more Paia batters across the rubber. Just to show they had not forgotten how the Wacs made two more errors in the eighth, Robinson singled to bring Yemoto home. And the spectators were glad that Paia did not have to come to bat again in the ninth.

Best Card Seen For Several Years Will Be Offered July 4th

With more than a dozen horses already training at the Fair Grounds and with more than that number of others training elsewhere prospects for the best program of horse racing seen on Maui in several years loom up for Fourth of July big with promise. One has only to go to the track and see how good are the horses there to have an assurance of real sport in store. The track has been banked up and is being put in splendid condition and will be better than ever before on Independence Day.

Looking over the "Pontes" that are shaping up down at the track it appears that there are three from the J. C. & S. Co., five from Haleakala Ranch, two from Raymond Ranch, two to be entered by Foster Robinson and two by Joe Pavoe. Denervo and Welcome Boy are also being worked out for their harness race.

Even greater interest is reported to be shown by owners of prospective entries for the events open to Portuguese and Japanese owned horses. There is a big bunch of such animals and some mighty good and classy ones among them it is said.

All in all the preliminary showing is such as to encourage the management to declare that they expect the best card offered to Maui lovers of horse flesh for several years past.

ALL MAUI SWEEPSTAKES

Trap shooters will be out in force at the Fair Grounds Sunday morning at 10 o'clock for the All-Maui Sweepstakes and the best sport of the season is looked for. It will be an open free for all for Maui shots with second prizes and second prizes and a consolation prize.

Continued practice, often under difficulties and against high winds has gone on during the winter and spring months with the result that some of the gunners show a considerable improvement over last fall's scores. In consequence a keen competition and some excellent scores are expected.

Ethelda Bleibry has been invited to participate in a swimming meet in Hungary. Martieschen Weshslau reduced the record for the girls' 100 yard swim to 1:08 1/5 in Honolulu at the Punahou Girls' meet.

Harvard won its dual track meet with Princeton by the margin of a single point, 59 to 58.

Annapolis crew won the annual two mile boat race with Syracuse U. Forty Punahou girls have signed up to try for girls' track team.

Tennis

Lahaina's team, Miss Todd and Mrs. Bruss are the all Maui champions. Mrs. Deinert and Mrs. Moir put up a game struggle but went down to defeat, perhaps in part because they changed positions before the net from those in which they have been accustomed to play. The Lahaina team took the first set 6-3 and the deciding set 7-5.

No matches have yet been played off in the first round of the All-Maui men's championship singles tournament. This afternoon at the Settlement tennis courts, Dr. Ting will play against A. K. Jim. Tomorrow Eddie Tam will play H. B. Walker at Lahaina; D. C. Lindsay will play Frank Richardson at Paia; and Young Ting will play A. C. Jim at Wailuku. On Sunday J. T. Moir, Jr., will play Aleong Yee at Puunene.

Settlement Tennis Club Tournaments
In the finals of the ladies handicap doubles tournament, Miss Hassell and Mrs. Frances Wadsworth defeated Mrs. Deinert and Mrs. Moir, 6-2 and 8-6. In the men's handicap doubles tournament; Engle and Burns won from Wilmington and Dr. Dawson and Jim and Jim defeated Ting and Ting. This afternoon D. C. Lindsay and Frank Richardson will play against Yee and Yee at the Settlement tennis courts.

SPORTS BREVITIES

Babe Ruth continues hammering out home runs regularly and leaving Kelly of the Giants back in the ruck.

On Kauai a number of golf enthusiasts have organized a golf club. A course is to be cleared and laid out at Wailuku.

Charges are made that the Zybsko-Lewis mat match early this month was "framed."

Charles W. Paddock, Pacific Coast Olympic star and record breaker will compete in the sprints at an invitation meet at Harvard Stadium June 15.

Behave Yourself was winner of the recently run Kentucky Derby.

American golfers in England made practically a clean sweep in the first matches at Holyoke. They made a clean sweep in the foursomes and took five out of eight matches in the singles.

"Home Run" Baker has been reinstated in organized baseball.

Estelle Cassidy was leading point winner at the Punahou girls' swimming meet. It is only a few months ago she made her first appearance in competition and in the recent championships she was a place maker.

Waseda University defeated Northwestern University 17-1 at Chicago.

Sugar Crop Record—The greatest sugar crop of the United States was produced in 1920, according to final returns from producers of beet and cane sugar made to the bureau of crop estimates of the department of agriculture. The total is 1,266,148 tons, which exceeds the previous record crop of 1916 by 12 per cent and the low production of 1919, a year of exceptionally unfavorable weather, by 49 per cent. Beet and cane sugar combined first exceeded a production of 1,000,000 tons in 1913, and during the last eight years, the production has been below that quantity only in 1914 and 1919.
