PROGRESS.
The Life of the Land is Established

HONOLULU, MAY 21 1894.

The New Constitution.

The constitution for the "Hawaiian Republic" has been cut and dried and folded up several months ago, although the press would lead the public to suppose that the precious charter of our liberties might have been sent by its framers for revision to the caliph of Bagdad, or senator Morgan, or the Patriarch of Jerusalem, and is on its way out here by gravel train or some other protracted means of locomotion booked to arrive by the first of June. On its arrival, the country is to start on a new basis as a full blown Republic with a House of Representatives of its own, and a senate to be nominated by the Executive Council. Nobody in Hawaii, outside of the oligarchy, is particularly desirous of possessing an upper house, but the paternal solicitude of the Stevens directory is as boundless as its capacity for boodle and military Kindergartenism, and therefore it considers it necessary that the old irremovable disease of sugar-bag House of Lords should be bestowed upon the inhabitants lest they become too happy. Of course the new Senate will be chiefly composed of men who have been defeated candidates at previous elections, it being assumed that because a man was regarded by the electors under the Monarchy as unfit to legislate for a brief term of years, he is therefore eminently qualified to boss the legislation of the country for the period of his natural life, and when the supply of cast-off politicians runs short, the vacancies will be filled up by the derelict returned ward-healers and used up nominees, left over from the boodle-reform era.

There is an excellent material on hand out of which to construct this new aristocracy, and when the old honorables are assembled there is a prospect of a healthy and enlivening scrimmage for supremacy. A great deal depends on whether the Lower House hits the Upper with sufficient vigor at the start, and scares the misfit oligarchs into prompt submission, if it fails in the performance of this duty, trouble is inevitable. The fact that the "Lords" will possess a long lease if not a long life authority while the members of the Lower Chamber being subject to biennial election have only an ephemeral existence, fills the exalted senators with a deranged idea of their own importance which can only be taken down by judicious and well directed violence. The constitution which is intended for submission to the convention increases the Executive Council—Independent of the President—to six members, and so far marks an increase in extravagance and corruption of irresponsible rule.

It would be superfluous at present to indulge in speculation as to whether the world will continue revolving long enough on its axis to allow the proposed constitutional convention to assemble, but assuming that the convention will meet, and a majority vote for the establishing of an Upper House, the contingency will still remain, suspended like the sword of Damocles, that the nine-tenths of the people who are not represented in the convention may impress its opinion on the superfluous peerage that the dignity of an Upper House doesn't amount to anything, and that the House itself had better crawl under the bed and keep out of sight.

The combination at the Eagle House on Saturday night made a record which may not be acceptable to the HOLOMUA.

FILLIBUSTERING.

The Opinion of the Springfield Republican.

The observer of the Hawaiian affairs is interested in present proceedings. The regular news reports last week, coming from the censors who sent them out, were rosy in the extreme. The registration of voters was unexpectedly large—1500, as far as heard from. The Provisional ticket was sure of success. Every thing was a picture of contentment and order. The private advices that came by the same steamer were on the contrary quite otherwise. Some of the members of the Provisional Government, who are to be kept permanently in office, were afraid to register as voters lest it lose them their citizenship in the United States. They even asked the American Minister to decide that they could remain voters of Hawaii and citizens of this country, and of course got no answer. The request reveals the fillibustering character of the so-called government of the islands. At this moment it is plain that those who gave to Hawaii her civilization, her progressive spirit, her institutions, and led her people forward to a seat at the table of the nations, have no sympathy with the monstrous and intolerable proposition to disfranchise her citizens, confiscate their rights of person and property, and turn the country over to be eaten up by adventurous parasites.

We have been swift to protest against non-resident rule in Ireland, and not only has the government of that land from Dublin Castle been denounced publicly in this country by native Americans with no Irish blood in their veins, but vast sums of money have been contributed out of American thrift and industry to foster political revolt in the British islands favorable to the people of Ireland.

With this record, does any one suppose that we propose to tolerate the establishment by vagabond Americans of a non popular vote in Hawaii, which defies every element of justice, insults every safeguard of private character and personal rights, and establishes a tyranny that would disgrace the Akooond of Swat?

The answer made by the very few Americans who venture an apology is, that the members of the Provisional government are wise men.

The theory upon which this Republic is founded is, that no men are wise enough to be entrusted with autocratic and non terminable power. There have been and are wise things, but the proposition to exchange popular government for the rule of the Solomon of the lot would have no supporters here. Public opinion in this country is to have a powerful effect upon Hawaii. Let no American think so meanly of the institutions of his own country as to pretend that the oligarchy on the islands is a graft from them.

It is plain that peace and prosperity will not return to that country until power is restored to its people, and that can only be by the overthrow of the gang now in control.—Ware.

The Tariff Bill.

Reports from Washington are more favorable to an early decision on the Tariff bill. By voting in support of a plan to lengthen the daily time of consideration of the bill and hurry along the debate, the republican senators appear to have abandoned the program of obstruction which Senator Hoar had intimated was to be adopted by the minority. It is also said that the President and Secretary Carlisle have taken a hand in the work of adjusting the differences in the ranks of the majority, and that a tariff bill satisfactory to all will come out of the Senate deliberations in the end. The senators are just beginning to see that the country is in no temper to tolerate further trifling with this question.

A Cause Of Regret.

Major J. H. Wodehouse who for nearly thirty years has represented these islands will shortly be succeeded in his official capacity. The kamainas of this country have learned to appreciate the tact, goodwill, and diplomatic skill of the retiring official British representative.

No British diplomat has been so many years in this country as has Major Wodehouse. It is with the deepest regret that this community realizes that the unrelenting scythe-bearer "time" has again interfered and has relieved a well-known, a well-respected man, of his duties. Major Wodehouse arrived here in the 60's. We believe that he has found a home here, and that the children whom he has raised to the honor of these isles will always look back with pleasure, and gratitude to the Paradise of the Pacific.

The English Legation was represented here for many years. General Miller, one of the best-known diplomats represented the great Empire in the 50's. He was, if we are correctly informed, relieved by Mr. Took—Nicholas who was taken ill, and left the country as a hopeless invalid.

The late W. L. Green took charge of the consulate for a while until Mr. Synge arrived here as consul general of Great Britain. He was succeeded by Major Wodehouse who, since then, in his unassuming way has attended to the interests, not alone of his native country but of the country which has proved permanent homes for some of his children.

We do not know of any more popular family than the Wodehouses here. The departure of the Minister and his wife will be deeply felt, not alone in English circles, but among the many young Hawaiians befriended by them. When England again welcomes them on her shores many a kind thought will be wafted across the waves to the children and friends left behind and many a wish will go forward from here that the genial faces of Mr. and Mrs. Wodehouse will be seen in Hawaii again.

Among the valuable additions to our adopted country, for which we are indebted to the departing minister, we mention: Mr. and Mrs. Hy Wodehouse, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Wodehouse, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Von Tempsky. God speed, the good man who leaves Hawaii—nei; may the day come when he returns here and find better circumstances, more happiness and true loyalty.

Poor Morgan!

Senator Morgan is getting rebuked all around for his mean attacks on the President in his Alabama speeches. Several southern newspapers have called him sharply to account for charging that Cleveland's nomination at Chicago was bought with money, and are practically jeering at the list of authorities—Hill, Gorman and the like—whom Morgan cites in support of his charge. Morgan must have been in desperate straits for reasons to justify his antagonism to Cleveland, or he would never have exposed himself to the almost universal condemnation with which his section has greeted his scandal-mongering. The Louisville Courier-Journal has turned on him also and convicted him of flat self-contradiction in his present attitude on the tariff. When the McKinley bill was before the Senate, Morgan was one of the most strenuous advocates of free iron ore, and coal, especially the former. He spoke in opposition to any duty at all on ore, repeatedly, and made some of the most convincing arguments in the Senate on that side. Now he has flopped to the other side.

Hawaiian Oppression.

The rights of person and property in Hawaii are so plainly put in jeopardy by the pending propositions of the Provisional Government that alarm is spreading throughout the islands.

The monuments of power have been seized by men who use authority to destroy, and are not above enjoying the profits of their power to exempt threatened interests from calamity, for a consideration.

These men being in possession of the agencies of the Associated and United Press, have used their censorship to deceive the outside world by sophisticated transmitted news and by this means have deprived the substantial interests of the country of a hearing in the United States and in Europe.

It is a fact that American newspapers in aid of this conspiracy of blackmailers have recalled correspondents who told facts as they found them, and sent others instructed to invent fictions that would influence outside sentiment against the majority of Hawaii and in favor of the minority, which, backed by Stevens and our navy, robbed the people of their government, and now getting ready to rob them of their property. This is the situation as it is, without varnish or veneer. The public debt of the islands has been largely increased and the profits of private business have disappeared. The new constitution proposed by Dole for the commonwealth of Hawaii establishes a military oligarchy, disfranchises the people who hold actual citizenship by birthright or naturalization and puts the government in control of a small minority of foreigners who boast that Dole's arrangement permits them to rule Hawaii, while they remain citizens or subjects of the countries from which they came!

Such a proposition is so monstrous that it brings into hot focus the crime of Stevens, whose infamous assistance to a knot of traitors against the government to which he was accredited, has led to this assassination of the common rights of man. The United States cannot afford such a responsibility. It is the duty of this government to see that the power criminally created by its agents is not permitted to destroy a people with whom it is at peace. These people have patiently waited for advice and direction by our government, the responsible author of their distressing situation, and Congress should promptly relieve them of a strain which will break in carnage unless removed by the power that caused it.

The fillibusters who are organized for oppression and blackmail may soon discover that there are people in this country who so value national honor and international justice that they will volunteer for the task of at one blow cleansing our flag of the stain put upon it by Stevens, relieving our government of public responsibility for the continuance or termination of an oligarchy of blackmailers, and restoring the rights of person and property and self-government to the people of Hawaii.—Ware.

The Advertiser who catches a persons eye usually wins a customer. Many different styles of advertising have been adopted and with more or less success, by the believers in the use of printers ink. The manufacturers of Pears Soap, for instance, occasionally buy paintings that have been on exhibition in the Paris Salon and have lithographs made from them for the purpose of bringing their product before the people. In addition to such side issues, Pears spends hundreds thousands of dollars annually among the newspapers and magazines. Some years ago the Agents of certain article on sale in New York made a hit in advertising by having on Broadway during business hours two fatuously dressed Negroes wearing very high collars, on the backs of which was printed "Use Smiths Pills." The idea was novel and the public caught on. Rising Sun Stove Polish has been kept before the public for years through persistent, and sometimes expensive advertising. Twenty odd years ago the manufacturers of this polish started half a dozen men across the orniment to paint signs on rocks and fences. The Aeromotor Co., of Chicago have increased its sales more than five hundred per cent in two years by the use of printers ink. We believe we have been instrumental in increasing the sales of the Aeromotor by keeping everlastingly at it in Hawaii.

We do not wish to say that advertising will sell any manufactured article; there is no use spending money in advertising "cheap and nasty" goods because the people will not be hoodwinked. If Haviland China was not the superior article it is, all our advertising of it would not have sold the thousands of pieces that we have. We simply call the attention of the people to it and its superior quality is apparent to the customer directly a piece of it is examined.

Printers ink has helped the sale of the James Locked Fence but it would not have done so if it had been as flimsy as the ordinary wire fence. First, the economy there is in building it recommends it to the plantation manager and then its durability clinches the sale. If the stays and washers cost as much as an ordinary redwood post our sales of the material would not have reached such enormous proportions.

Our average sale of the Pansy Iron Stove is about two a day the year round. If was not the best iron stove on the market we would not sell that many in six months. Advertising is the tip to the public the good points in the article sells it just as the good qualities of the Fischer Steel Range make it a desirable article for people who wish to economize in the use of fuel.

We buy only what has proven good after people in the United States or Europe have given it a trial; we profit by their experience if the articles are good we buy and sell them; if they are poor we steer clear of them. When we advertise an article it is to attract attention to it; the newspaper is the button we push, the salesman does the rest.

Persistent advertising coupled with the article being a superior one has sold thousands of the Frank Walcott Emory File. If it had been no better than an ordinary scythe stone we probably would not have sold twenty. When a man finds out that his table knives may be kept sharp at all times at an expense of fifty cents and a very little elbow grease he is quite willing to try the experiment.

AS USUAL.

The Kams Beats the Crescents.

The third game in the series of baseball contests took place at the Recreation grounds on Saturday last between teams from the Crescent and Kam's clubs. The game looked interesting in the first round, but although a stubborn fight was made the Crescents got "knocked out." Following is the official score:

A Narrow Escape.

The many friends of Miss May Cummins were very uneasy last night by learning that the young lady had met with a serious accident. We are pleased to state that Miss Cummins has not been a sufferer, although she had a very narrow escape. The horse ridden by Miss Cummins took flight outside the residence of Mr. E. S. Cunha at Waikiki and threw its rider. The French Commissioner Mr. Verlaye whose carriage collided with Miss Cummins' horse extended all possible courtesies and caused her to be brought to her home. At first it was expected that serious injuries would result to the young Hawaiian lady, but we are pleased to state that aside from a pronounced fright Miss Cummins is without any injury. In the future it will be a good idea of our young horsewomen to see that the bit of the horse is placed properly in the mouth of the quadruped. Bridle rings are good and so are other rings, but in the mouth of a horse they are out of place.

The p. g. band will concertize at Emma square this evening.

Investigate the death of that native on Emma street, messieurs, the police.

A circus at the nomination meeting of the American (?) League this evening.

The Honolulu club beat the Champion team at cricket on Saturday last; score 71 to 53.

"Tom" one of the boys, builds various refreshments of a liquid nature; he may be called on at the Pacific Hotel.

Purser McCombe and Chief Steward James of the steamer Australia have furnished the usual news favors.

Don't forget if you desire to have a good kick coming or a buck a bucking then you should indulge in Bock beer at the Pantheon.

Enterprise.

The times are hard—so we are told, and we are inclined to feel the truth of the statement. The industries promised to be opened by Mr. Thurston and others have not yet materialized. In fact our reverend and virtuous ambassador to Washington has failed to connect. It is therefore a great pleasure to record that Mr. R. R. Hind a prominent and wealthy sugar-planter in Kohala, instead of throwing up the sponge and giving way to the "hard times" has faced the issue, and made arrangements in the shipping line which will materially help his plantation. Mr. Hind succeeded as a Noble in the last legitimate Legislature to pass a bill which created Honoipua a port of entry. Honoipua is a most excellent landing, and Mr. Hind together with other planters realized that it was as well to make money for the planters as well as for the Wilder's Steamship Company. Mr. Hind arrived here lately in a sailing vessel, and he brought with him a most excellent outfit of material which shortly will be put in shape, and which in the future will make the planters of Kohala dispense with the services of the Railroad Company and make the production of sugar cheap enough to meet the present prices. Why don't our other, and howling planters follow the example of Mr. Hind?

There is nothing like strength, and when one is spoken of as being as strong as a "buffalo" then people seek the source from which the strength comes. Col. George Hawkins and Captain Austin are now dispensing to customers samples of "Buffalo beer," which is on tap at the Royal Hotel.
