

MERCHANTS ENDORSE JAPANESE PETITION FOR SAKI DECISION

CALLING MEETING OF DIRECTORS RESULTS IN SUPPORT OF IMPORTER'S APPEAL TO PRESIDENT FOR SETTLEMENT OF DUTIES ON ORIENTAL DRINK—CARTER WOULD NOT STAND FOR BILL TOO HEAVILY TAXING JAPANESE BARBER SHOPS.

At a called meeting of the directors of the Merchants' Association in the Young Building quarters this morning it was decided to endorse the petition to the President of the United States of the Importers of Japanese sake for a decision in regard to the duties placed thereon.

It was chiefly for this purpose that the meeting was called.

The petition comes from Japanese Importers and it was the opinion of Director Fred Macfarlane that before action was taken some such petition should come from Hackfeld & Co., or some other house as deeply interested in the sake importation, then the directors of the Association could act on both petitions. After general discussion, however, the petition to the President, which will go through the Japanese minister at Washington, was voted endorsed.

It was believed that the matter would receive prompt attention, other Japanese matters having so recently been under consideration.

There were a few other matters attended to by the directors, since they were gathered together. W. W. Harris, chairman of the legislative committee, reported that they were watching all bills presented in the legislature and that those when amendments had been required for the good of the community and where postponement had been necessary had been attended to. In the matter of licenses and taxes it was thought best that all these go into the hands of the tax commission and, also, that the tax commissioners should be better remunerated, otherwise the best men would not be willing to give up time to attend to the work required of the commission.

Mr. Harris read a letter he had written to Governor Carter in reference to the advisability of better remunerating the commissioners. Harris would see the Governor further in the premises this afternoon.

One member, asked as to the status of the Standard Oil bill, remarked that it was being chloroformed.

Touching on the matter of the license measures, Fred Macfarlane drew attention to the contemplated bill requiring $25 fees for barber shops, with $5 extra for each additional chair over two. He said, laughingly, that inasmuch as this would seriously affect the Japanese Governor Carter would not be expected to stand for it.

Evelyn Nesbit Thaw and Her Chum.

Ever since the beginning of the trial of Harry K. Thaw for the killing of Stanford White the young wife of the prisoner has been constantly supported by the presence of Miss May MacKenzie, her old chum and companion of the days when both worked in the chorus. It was to May MacKenzie that Evelyn Thaw flew for comfort when Harry was taken to prison after killing White on the Madison Square Roof Garden and since that night the two girls have never been separated. Miss MacKenzie had the most intimate relations with Evelyn Thaw and it is this fact which the defense relies largely upon to prove the truth of Evelyn's testimony that Stanford White pursued her even after her marriage and sought to win her away from her husband. In this connection Miss MacKenzie's testimony is looked forward to with more than ordinary interest.

Washington Orders Army To Wipe Out Crimps And Shanghai Sharks

U. S. SHIPPING COMMISSIONER INSTRUCTED TO WAGE WAR ON SAILORS, ENEMIES.

United States Shipping Commissioner Almy received in the last mail orders from the Department of Commerce and Labor at Washington to institute the most thorough proceeding against crimps or unscrupulous shipping masters or sailors' boarding house keepers, runners or others who make sailors their prey, and he is instructed to call upon all the Federal powers necessary to enforce the law for the protection of seamen.

This follows the passage of the law making it a penitentiary offense to Shanghai seamen, instead of punishing the crime merely by fine.

The Shipping Commissioner is informed by the department that the American Consul at Cardiff, Wales, has prepared some valuable statistics and arranged an exposition of the methods of crimps and Shanghai shark and a copy of this consul's treatise forwarded the local commissioner to his study.

Commissioner Almy is doing much for the sailors in this port and will observe the instructions from Washington to the letter, placing in the hands of the United States Marshal and District Court any cases of or forced shipment or other wrong to seamen coming here.

HOWLAND IS KNIFED IN HOUSE COMMITTEE

ASSISTANT SUPERINTENDENT OF PUBLIC WORKS HAS HIS POSITION ABOLISHED BY HOUSE IN COMMITTEE OF THE WHOLE—TERRITORIAL SALARIES BILL NOW HAVING ITS INNINGS IN THE HOUSE—WARM DEBATES ON MANY ITEMS.

HOUSE.
THIRTY-SEVENTH DAY.
MORNING SESSION.

The action of the Senate in abolishing the position held by J. H. Howland, as assistant superintendent of public works, seems to have had its effect on the House, for when the lower body came to consider the Territorial Salaries Appropriation bill in committee of the whole, this morning, the action was repeated, and according to the verdict rendered, Howland will be left without a job. The Senate reconsidered its decision, and re-established the office before it allowed it to get out of its hands, but it remains to be seen whether the House will do the same. If it does it will be a hard struggle, for there is a strong force that is opposing Howland and will leave no stone unturned to pull his pegs from under him.

The whole proceedings of the consideration of the salaries bill were filled with ginger, and the cutting or boosting of the various salaries was fast and furious. It is probable that the most of the afternoon will be devoted to the same business, and there remains to be a still warmer time before the bill is reported.

On the Salary of Assistant Superintendent and Supervising Engineer and Superintendent of Water Works and Sewers, which was in the bill a $250, Kalepou moved to omit the item entirely and abolish the office. He said in important matters of engineering the department sent to New York for a man to do the work and he thought this position was superfluous.

Rice moved to amend the item by making it simply Superintendent of Water Works and Sewers, at a salary of $200.

Rawlins stated that there are now $655,000 invested in the Water Works department, of which $550,000 is loan money. He didn't know how much was in the sewers, but he couldn't believe that all this property should be left without a head.

DILLINGHAM TO MANAGE SHIPLOADS PEASANTS

At a meeting of the Board of Immigration this afternoon W. F. Dillingham was appointed as executive officer of the Board to receive and attend to the distribution of the immigrants to arrive in the steamships Hellipolis and Kumerie.

Mr. Dillingham will board the vessels upon their arrival and take full charge of ascertaining to what islands the Spaniards and others desire to go, arranging for their transshipment.

Tomorrow afternoon the Board will hold another meeting at which will be adopted resolutions outlining the policy of the Board in the matter of further immigration and the possibility of retaining here people intending to seek work elsewhere.

SENATE RUSHING TO KEEP HOUSE FROM ADJOURNING

PRESIDENT BISHOP SOUNDED WARNING THIS MORNING—SENATE AMENDS MUNICIPAL BILL SO THAT THE ELECTION WILL BE HELD JOINTLY WITH THE REGULAR TERRITORIAL ELECTIONS—BILL CERTAIN TO PASS IN UPPER HOUSE.

SENATE.
THIRTY-SEVENTH DAY.
MORNING SESSION.

The Senate got busy this morning. The fear that the House would adjourn on them for lack of work caused President Bishop to urge the members of the upper house to hurry through a sufficient number of bills to enable the lower body to work. The result was that several bills were passed third reading while the Municipal measure.

LATTER DAY SAINTS IN CONFERENCE

LARGE GATHERING OF DELEGATES AND MEMBERS OF THE CHURCH AT LAIE.

The annual conference of the Hawaiian branch of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints, will be held this week, commencing tomorrow, at Laie. This morning about 150 from Honolulu including a number of delegates, went to the scene of the conference, and more will go tomorrow. The conference is made up of delegates from all the islands of the Territory, and number about one hundred. The conference will continue three days. The conference will be in charge of Samuel E. Woolley, president of the mission, who has been in charge here for 12 years and in that time has seen the church, commonly known as the Mormon denomination, increase until it numbers over 7,000 converts throughout the territory.

Floating Oriental Brewery

NO PROMOTER'S FEES OR OTHER WATER IN THE STOCK—LAND AND WATER FOR SITE.

Subscriptions for the capital stock of the "Oriental Brewery, Limited," will be opened tomorrow at the office of Harry Arncliffe. This is the enterprise that has been under way for some time mainly by the men at the head of the Honolulu Brewing and Malting Company. The prospectus which will be published tomorrow sets forth that the capitalization of the concern will be $1,000,000 Hong Kong currency, or the equivalent of about $500,000 gold. The brewery will be located in Kowloon within a few minutes distance of the central point of shipping of Hong Kong, on a lot containing 3 acres and fronting on 21 feet of water. With the lot is a guaranteed supply of water. The lot and the water will be transferred to the company for $25,000 or 1,000 shares of the company's stock.

Among the advantages of a brewery at Hong Kong it is stated there is only one other in China and that port. Just how much it is impossible to say as no statistics of such matters are kept at Hong Kong.

Hong Kong is a free port, it is stated and there is no duty on anything, nor any excise on the manufactured product.

Ice sells at $16.50 a ton while they can make it for $4 a ton. Of the stock of the company $150,000 has already been subscribed in Honolulu and there is $100,000 more offered. There are no promoter's fees.

THERE IS NO OTHER. You can't find an equal to the imported German beer, Pilsener and Wurmburger, sold at the Criterion.

Supervisor Cox To Tour The World

FALLS HEIR TO TIDY BANK ACCOUNT AND WILL SOON ADVERTISE HAWAII.

The progress of King Kalakaua of Hawaii around the world will go down to history as a secondary consideration when Supervisor Andrew E. Cox of Wailua, Oahu, starts his contemplated circumnavigation.

Mr. Cox has fallen heir to a tidy fortune, left by Major Anderson, who died last Friday, and he has long considered a world journey.

Seen this morning, Mr. Cox said he would not start for several months. He will boom Hawaii wherever he goes and in this will his travels attract more attention than did the journeyings of Kalakaua, for the king had no Promotion Committee to supply him with literature.

Breakers Ahead?

Nobody knows. This world is like a big ocean. The frail, little craft that sail through it are liable any day to strike a reef and be seriously injured. While repairs are being made, there must be something to prevent leakage so that the whole crew, mother, father, and children, may not sink in the sea of despondency or debt. That something is a policy in the Standard Life and Accident Insurance Company.

An Important Land Measure

The House Committee on Public Lands has before it one of the most important bills which has been introduced in the legislature at this session. It is House Bill No. 66, introduced by Representative John Hughes, and remodels our public land laws, and adjusts our public land system to the present and growing sentiment of getting the lands into the hands of settlers and occupiers.

The bill embodies the ideas of Judge Dole, those he expressed at the Merchants' Association banquet some months ago, and their fuller working out and development. The bill, while not entirely drafted by Judge Dole, has received his careful oversight and revision.

The vital purpose of the bill is to make it easier for men who want to go on the land to cultivate it and live on it, to do so, and to get the public lands as rapidly as possible into the hands of those who do thus want to go on to them. The design is, without injury to present industries, to divide up all public lands as fast as they become free from leases; to put an end to the system of leasing great areas to one individual or one corporation.

The bill provides for the survey and classification of lands, and their division into tracts large enough in each class to support a family tilling it. It is to be sold to applicants on an appraisal, but in order to prevent the abuses that have been possible under the present system, or the use of dummies to secure lands for some other interest, applications are to be received, and when there are more applicants than there are parcels of land the land will be distributed by lot, as has become the practice of the United States Land Department in the opening up of public lands on the mainland. In this way, every individual has an equal chance.

There is probably no man who has given more thought or study to the land question in Hawaii than Judge Dole, nor no man who knows the lands or the conditions of the Territory better than he. Our present land laws were drafted by him, and were undoubtedly well adapted to the conditions and the policy that prevailed at the time they were drafted. Even now, it is well considered opinion that much of the complaint against them in the past has been the result of the policy adopted in regard to their administration, rather than to the laws themselves.

But conditions have changed since the present land laws were enacted. The outlook and attitude of Hawaii toward its future has changed. The strong and progressive sentiment of the people of the Territory now is toward Americanizing the country, making it a land of American ideas, American ideals, and American civilization. Our public lands can be made to play an important part in this process. They can be made to greatly assist in furthering these ideas, ideals and sentiments. The bill now before the House, from its genesis and its terms, gives every promise of being a wise measure. It is therefore to be hoped that the House will give it careful consideration, and bring the measure to public attention.

Our land system must be remodeled if the Territory is to get the greatest benefit from its public lands. There could be nothing more hopeful and reassuring to begin with than a measure drafted under the oversight, and embodying the knowledge of lands and conditions, and the views of Judge Dole.

The Ultimate Outcome

Just what the ultimate effect of the President's settlement of the California-Japanese question will be, is not easy to see. If utterances in the local Japanese papers are to be accepted as representing the sentiments of the Japanese colony, the settlement is not satisfactory to them, and is likely to produce a feeling here of unformulated dissatisfaction and impatience which may manifest itself in the most unexpected ways. The suggestion is given out that as long as Japanese laborers could leave here for the mainland whenever they wanted to, any dissatisfaction they might feel in regard to the conditions or treatment of their local employment they could readily swallow, and, quitting their employment, go to the mainland. But that if they are unable to leave these islands except to go home, they will not so lightly treat things in their employment to which they object. However there is nothing very definite in this, and there has nothing become public indicating that it has become more definite in actual experience.

There is much reason to believe, in spite of contradictory statements, that the settlement is not satisfactory to the people of Japan, probably because they do not understand it, and in the state of exaggerated importance in which the mass of the people of Japan now hold themselves because of their victory over Russia, they in some way think the settlement is in derogation of their national rights. At best it was expected to be only a temporarily settlement, but there has since been little talk of progress in the negotiation of a treaty which should fully settle the matter.

Dr. William D. Alexander

To Dr. William D. Alexander who now retires from the active service of the United States Coast and Geodetic Survey to take up historical research and study along lines congenial to him, Hawaii owes much. He is eminent in a number of departments of learning, and in each has contributed valuable and lasting results.

His original research and exhaustive study in the language, traditions and history of the Polynesian people, have given him an authority which no other man in Hawaii has, in the philology of the Polynesian languages, in the ethnology and archaeology of the race, and in its history and development since it came in contact with civilization.

Thus Dr. Alexander's grammar of the Hawaiian language has no rival or competitor, covering as it does, fully, the ground it purports to cover, and representing the highest scholarship in that department.

Among histories of Hawaii and the Hawaiian people, and there have been publications of this kind without number, there is none other that even attempts to cover the subject as does Dr. Alexander's, and none stands in the same class with it as an authority. Yet Dr. Alexander's History of Hawaii, the publication known by that title, is but an inconsiderable part of his historical publications, and represents only the result of his research within particular limits. On the philo-

ROOSEVELT "SLOPPED OVER." (From the San Francisco Chronicle). Senator George C. Perkins of this State is quoted as saying that there would have been no trouble in the Japanese matter if the President had not "slopped over" in his message. The Senator may be thankful that when making such a remark about the chief magistrate of his country he was not a subject of the President's great and good friend, the Kaiser Wilhelm. Had he been so mail and telegrams addressed to him would by this time have reached him only by the hands of a turnkey, and the truer the statement the deeper and darker would have been his dungeon. Happily the Senator is a citizen not only of the home of the brave, but the land of the free, and he walks the pleasant streets of Oakland in security. We fear that he has made himself persona non grata at what Roosevelt's recent predecessors called the executive mansion, but it is noticeable that as the days of the years of the President's term grow less there is increasing plainness of speech on the part of those who have frequent need to invoke the exercise of the appointing power.

The Senator, however, proceeds to justify our Legislature in heeding the President's request not to submit to the people of the State the question of whether they do or do not desire the exclusion of Japanese coolies. We do not see why the President should have asked that, or why our Legislature should have complied when he did ask. It is said that remonstrances have been sent from certain persons in this State against any interference with Japanese immigration, claiming that the agitation against them was inspired by demagogues who grossly misrepresented the people of the State. Such a charge, in substance, was made by the President himself, in his celebrated message, in which, according to Senator Perkins, he "slopped over." Evidently the quickest way to ascertain the truth was to ask the people themselves. An election is approaching which will afford a convenient opportunity and the result would be conclusive as to the opinion of our people. If the reason was a fear that the sensibilities of the Japanese might have been hurt by the result of the vote, all we have to say is that if it is proposed that from now to the crack of doom mankind is to step about on tiptoe for fear of disturbing the Japanese the proposition is absurd. We have not the slightest objection to having the Japanese Government take a vote by universal or other suffrage as to the opinion of the people of that country about California and its inhabitants and we claim similar privileges.

Congressman McKinley says that "the President freely admits that his message was a mistake," and that he is "now thoroughly in accord with California's wishes and views in the matter of excluding the Japanese from the United States." Perhaps that is so. The public has no means of knowing except from rumor, if it is true there is a proper way to make it known. The President's attack on California was included in a most formal official paper which will remain on record while time endures. The remonstrance, if there is to be one, should be equally formal, to the end that the same series of documents shall contain both. Thus far the President's last words are those of his message. We cannot go behind them.

logy, ethnology and archaeology of the Polynesian people, Dr. Alexander is an acknowledged authority, and probably no other man has followed so closely and comprehensively as he, the course of the Polynesian people in all their branches, since they came in contact with European civilization, or the effect and influence of that civilization upon them.

In more practical and less recondite matters, Dr. Alexander devised the system of surveys by triangulation for these Islands, and himself did much of the most important and difficult work. As Surveyor General of the Kingdom, and afterwards of the Republic he was able to carry on the lower order of surveys required by the practical exigencies of the times, which were principally for the determination of the boundaries of land grants and for purposes of land titles, without neglecting the higher purposes of bringing the surveys into harmony with their scientific aspects. The purposes of cartography, of navigation, of geology and geodesy were not neglected. The system of surveys he devised for these Islands was based on the highest scientific principles and purposes combined with the highest practical utility.

During the course of his half century of activity in Hawaii he has represented the country at a number of scientific and international congresses, and always with credit to the country and honor to himself.

It is therefore a cause for congratulation, both to him and to the country, that he is able now to lay down the burdens of public service, and with physical and mental health still unimpaired, and enthusiasm undimmed, to devote himself to still further and more systematic historical research than he has in the past been able to do, and to undertake to revise his own historical works and, it is to be hoped, find time and occasion to give to the world still further valuable contributions in departments in which he is a master.

Every advance in medical science has been made against sentiment which would define by law what can and what cannot be done as medical practice. Few important advances were ever made except against the opposition of the bulk of the profession. Jenner, who discovered vaccination, was derided as a quack and a faker by most of his contemporary practitioners.

Most men holding public office would resign at once on an intimation from the Governor if he were the appointing power, that their resignations were desired. Those who wouldn't would be very likely to regret removal even against an undated resignation, which even the Governor admits is of doubtful legal validity.

Never in the history of the grim old city prison in New York, which has for generations been known as "the Tombs," because the original building was patterned after ancient Egyptian architecture, has there been an inmate of such surpassing interest as Henry Kendall Thaw, and never has there a woman passed its portals who held the public's attention as has the young wife of the man now on trial for his life for the killing of Stanford White, when he died, was called the city's leading architect. Tombs tradition and ubiquitous reporters agree that only one day has passed since the tragedy on the Madison Square Garden roof last June that has not seen Mrs. Harry Thaw on a visit to her husband in his cell and that day was one of which serious illness made the visit impossible. Daily she cheers him with her presence and daily she carries him with her own love-weighted hands a basket of fruit or similar dainties. She enters and leaves the prison as all others do, by the main door, and has no privilege not granted to the friends or relatives of the poorest and most inconspicuous prisoners.

to strike out the entire item. He said there were plenty of men still left in the department who could well give time to handling the system.

Rice's amendment lost, and on putting the question on Kaleloa's motion to eliminate the office, it carried and the item was cut out of the bill.

The committee then arose and reported progress, and was given more time.

Second Readings.

The House passed to a second reading the following bills:

House Bill 174, providing for licensing the sale of awa.

House Bill 175, providing penalties for contaminating waters of Honolulu or Hilo harbors.

House Bill 176 exempting steamships of the Pacific Cable Company from taxation.

House Bill relating to injuring or destroying of growing timber on public or private lands in the Territory.

House Bill 178 providing for the election of a deputy sheriff and road supervisor for each district.

House Bill 181, to encourage the development of certain agricultural industries by exempting lands used for such purposes from taxation; and Senate Bill 80 providing for the removal of public schools in cities of over 15,000 inhabitants.

All the bills were referred to proper committees for report.

The House was called to order as usual at 9 o'clock by Speaker Holstein, and after a divine blessing was asked by the Chaplain the order of the day opened with the reading of yesterday's minutes which were approved.

Reports of Committees.

The Public Lands Committee reported on a petition from 190 citizens of Honolulu, asking for the extension of Prospect street to encircle Punchbowl Hill, recommended that $10,000 be inserted in the Loan Appropriation bill for the purpose of making the improvement asked.

House Bill 172 disqualifying public officials and employees who become delinquent in payment of their taxes, came up for a third reading.

Sunday Bill Killed.

House Bill 153 came up for a second reading, the report of the committee having been held up awaiting the presence of Kalua, the father of the measure. The bill provided a system of blue laws for Sunday observance, and the committee reported that it believed the present laws to be adequate and therefore moved to table it.

The report was on motion adopted.

The House then resolved itself into a Committee of the Whole to consider House Bill 73, the Territorial Salary Bill.

In opening the consideration by the committee Representative Rice stated that this bill, which carries $1,728,140.00, would have to be cut down in which it is thought will cause considerable debate in the House, was rushed through on third reading. The indications are that there will be few amendments to this important measure by the Senate.

Senator Chillingworth will probably have the oil storage bill, the Standard All measure, as it is called reconsidered. The measure failed to pass second reading several days ago, but Chillingworth is a very shrewd one and he proposes to bring it up, if possible, and get it through second reading.

The most important work done by the Senate this morning was to amend the Municipal bill on motion of Bishop, so that the present County officers will hold office to the end of their terms and the election under the Municipal act will be held jointly with the Territorial election in November of next year.

The first business after approval of the Journal were two reports from the Judiciary Committee, as follows:

The Judiciary Committee report consideration of Senate Bill No. 5, entitled "An act to amend Section 127 of the Revised Laws of Hawaii relating to assessment of person's interest."

The object of the bill is to exempt from taxation public lands held under other than upon improvements on the land.

We believe that the matter is deserving of consideration but, as a commission has been appointed to investigate and report upon the tax laws and taxation system and make recommendations in regard to the same, we believe that this matter should be presented to that commission.

The Judiciary Committee report consideration of Senate Bill No. 13, entitled "An Act to amend Section 37, 35 and 33 of Act 3 of the Laws of the Session of 1895, and Sections 67, 69, 70 and 71 of the Revised Laws of Hawaii, and to repeal Sections 72, 73 and 26 of the Revised Laws of Hawaii relating to elections."

The bill relates to elections and methods of voting. Sections 1 and 2 provides that the ballot boxes and ballots shall be furnished by the Secretary of the Territory instead of the Clerk of the County; and Section 3 provides that the Secretary of the Territory shall tabulate the election returns, which provisions we approve.

But the provisions of Sections from 4 to 10 inclusive do not meet with our approval. The main object of these sections is to provide a new system of ballots and voting and while the plan proposed has features which are commendable we believe that they will be found to be more complicated than the present system. And we therefore recommend that the bill be amended by striking out of the bill Sections 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9 and 10, and amend the title so as to read "An Act to Amend Sections 37, 35 and 33 of the Laws of the Session of 1895."

With these amendments we recommend the passage of the bill.

The Judiciary Committee have had under consideration Senate Bill No. 89 entitled "An Act to provide that all persons employed in the service of the government of the Territory of Hawaii or any County or Municipal subdivision thereof must be citizens of the United States of America" and we recommend that the bill be laid upon the table.

The bill provides that "all officers, deputies, clerks, assistants, interpreters, police, laborers and other persons employed in the service of the government of the Territory of Hawaii, or in the service of any County or Municipal subdivision of said Territory must be citizens of the United States of America," and we think that the requirement is too sweeping and would not be in the public interest.

Section 121 of the Revised Laws provides that no person shall be employed as a mechanic or laborer upon any public work carried on by this Territory, or by any political subdivision thereof, whether the work is done by contract or otherwise, unless such person is a citizen of the United States, or eligible to become a citizen. Under these provisions it has been difficult at times to obtain laborers to do necessary public work, and to extend it as contemplated by the bill under consideration would be illadvised. With the mixed population of the Territory it not unfrequently becomes desirable to employ interpreters and occasionally policemen who are not citizens; and in carrying on scientific and other kinds of professional work it is also desirable at times to employ persons who are not citizens.

Senator Makokau asked that the Judiciary Committee be instructed to return Senate Bill 60, relating to counties making loans. He complained that the bill had been in the hands of the committee for nearly two months.

Senator Smith said the committee would be pleased to be relieved of the work, but he called attention to the fact that Senator Makokau's statement about the length of time was incorrect, a fact that Makokau had to admit. His bill was therefore returned as a House measure has already been introduced to cover the same matter.

For the Committee on Public Lands Hayselden reported on House joint resolution No. 2, providing for the appointment of a joint committee, two from the Senate and three from the House for the purpose of inquiring into the management, ownership etc., of all public wharves. The committee favored the appointment of such commission. There was some discussion as to whether such commission would serve without pay and whether its work might seem to be a junketing expedition. However the report was tabulated to be considered with the resolution.

The same committee reported favorably on Senate Bill 83, empowering the Board of Agriculture and Forestry to make rules and regulations relative to the importation of bees, then preservation, protection and improvement. The purpose of the bill is to encourage the bee industry in the Territory. Several minor amendments to the bill were recommended, the report favoring the passage of the measure. The report went to the table to be considered with the bill.

Senator Lane reported for the Printing Committee that the Municipal bill was ready for distribution.

President Bishop said that unless the hurried its work the House would adjourn for three days for lack of work. He wanted to get to the smaller bills and defer Senate Bill No. 42, the Municipal bill, until some of the bills on third reading could be passed so as to give the House something to do. There was some discussion on this feature. Senator Lane consented to that suggestion but asked that Senate Bill No. 72, on third reading, be deferred until tomorrow. His motion was passed. This bill relates to the exemption of papers from taxation.

IN THE HOUSE

THIRTY-SIXTH DAY.
AFTERNOON SESSION.

The Senate reported the passage of House Bill 199, relating to costs and fees, by third reading with an amendment. The House on motion concurred in the amendment which was not material to the sense of the measure. Senate Bill 64 was also reported by the Senate to have passed third reading.

Rawlins introduced a bill providing for selling the license for sale of awa in each district by auction during the first week of June to the highest bidder; the upset price being $500 for the district of Honolulu; $100 for each other, except Lahaina, which is $50.

The bill passed first reading by title. Rawlins also introduced a bill punishing the crime of arson. First degree arson defined in cases where property to the value of $1000 or more is set on fire at night, in which case conviction carries a penalty of imprisonment for life. Second degree arson is punishable by imprisonment for not exceeding ten years. The bill passed its first reading.

Kaloupek introduced a resolution which was adopted authorizing the speaker to employ extra clerks and prepare for printing the House Journal and to call for bids for printing same.

Kalana introduced a bill relating to permits to treat lepers, providing that any person shall be given such permission, under regulations of the Board of Health, and revocable in two years or at the pleasure of the Board. The bill passed its first reading and was referred to the Printing Committee.

Kaloupek introduced a bill requiring all persons, firms or corporations, owning firearms or ammunition of any description to file a description of same with the County Clerk and imposing a fine of $100 for failure to do so. The bill passed first reading and was referred to the Printing Committee.

Rife introduced a petition from tax payers and residents of the District of Hanalei, Kauai, asking that a wharf be built at Kailua. The petition was referred to the Public Lands Committee.

The House then received itself into a Committee of the Whole to consider the claims appropriation bill.

The reconsideration of the unpaid claims took up a considerable part of the afternoon session. Many items were added by the committee, raising the amount from $797.17 to over $13,000.

At 3:30 o'clock the House resumed its regular function, the Committee of the Whole reporting progress in the consideration of House Bill 161, and asked for more time.

The Finance Committee reported on House Bill 172, disqualifying public officials or employees who are delinquent in paying their taxes, recommending a number of amendments which do not effect the intent of the measure.

The report was adopted and the bill passed a second reading.

The House adjourned at 5:45 o'clock until tomorrow morning at 9 o'clock.

IN THE SENATE

AFTERNOON SESSION.

At the afternoon session Superintendent of Public Instruction Babbitt was called to acquaint the Senate with certain details concerning the educational department, the Senate being in committee of the whole to consider the current expense bill. Prior to going into committee of the whole the Senate received notice from secretary Atkinson that the Governor had signed Senate Bill No. 68, relating to marriage contracts.

The Senate passed the item of $8,390 for furniture and fixtures of the school department.

Considerable discussion ensued over the item of $7500 for manual training. It was decided to first receive the information from Babbitt as well as other officers present before passing any of the items.

Superintendent of Public Works Holloway was next called. He was first questioned relative to the items of the agricultural and forestry items. Senator Smith questioned the wisdom of publishing the names of ships, etc., in connection with his report, details that materially padded the report and increased the cost. While the Senate was not considering this item, Holloway explained that the record of ships coming to and from Honolulu were valuable to business houses and he had received expressions of satisfaction relative to this feature of his report.

During the course of his examination Babbitt expressed himself as favoring a continuance of the late making course in the schools. Senator Smith supported this idea. Babbitt reported against an item for the repairs of the Honolulu schools house, which M. F. Bent claimed. The repairs were unauthorized by the educational department. Babbitt went into details of his estimate for the proposed work and how the money asked for this session will be spent.

Superintendent of Public Works C. S. Holloway was questioned relative to a number of items under his departmental expenses. Particular attention was paid to the item of $5,000

LAUKEA CRITICIZED; GARBAGE RATE FALLS

SPECIAL COMMITTEE OF SUPERVISORS FIND SHERIFF AT FAULT, THOUGH NOT WILFULLY, IN LEAVING PRISONERS UNGUARDED—POLICE SUBSCRIPTIONS TO PERIODICALS TURNED DOWN—OLD GARBAGE RATES PREVAIL FOR APRIL.

With all members present the Board of Supervisors last evening met in regular session and sat heavily on County Sheriff Curtis P. Laukea.

They found that the Sheriff had neglected his duty by not providing guards for circuit court prisoners on March 16.

They found that the Sheriff had committed wrong in subscribing to Anne Marie Prescott's monthly Honolulu Times, the County Beacon, conducted by certain Democrats, and the Kuukoa, a Hawaiian paper published by the Gazette Co.

Incidentally they decided that there was no gas needed at the police station, the premises being already well enough lighted by electricity.

Outside of anti-Sheriff business the most important action was to decide that garbage rates for April would be as they have been heretofore, the matter of raising the rates to be reconsidered in the meanwhile by the committee originally trying to fake six-bits grow where two-bits grew before.

Dwight moved to change Kapiolani park bill from $407.75 to $404, one man having been discharged. Carried.

Archer declared that he had a report on the matter of the investigation of the special committee (Archer, Cox and Keolaha) into the alleged negligence of Sheriff Laukea in leaving ten prisoners unguarded in the Circuit Court on March 16, asked if the report was to be read in public. The chair believed that the report should be published, the others agreeing that such was the course to pursue. County Clerk Kalamakalani read the report and appropriate silence on the part of the members.

The report, ignoring any understanding or misunderstanding, that may or may not have existed between Sheriff Laukea and High Sheriff Henry as to the guarding of prisoners, men just indicted for various alleged crimes, came to the unhesitating conclusion that Laukea should have provided a guard and that he had neglected his duty in failing to have done, though he may not have been wilful in neglect.

Harvey moved to refer the report to the County Attorney.

"What for?" asked Huestace.

"To give the Board more light in the matter," said Harvey. Fern seconded the motion.

Cox said the committee could not vote. He said it as a suggestion. He consulted Archer.

Deputy Attorney Olsen said: "I suppose the Board wants the advice of the Attorney's department as to the legal phases involved."

"Exactly," said Harvey in a relieved tone, carried.

Following is a portion of the report: "From the facts as developed by the interviews, your committee, without any reference to the law governing the control and custody of prisoners, and without reference to any understanding or misunderstanding between the County Sheriff and the High Sheriff would say that the County Sheriff in declining to send up an officer when notified of the unguarded condition of the prisoners, acted in an improper manner, and that he was careless in failing to see that the prisoners were properly safeguarded. If there was a question as to whether it was the duty of the County Sheriff or the High Sheriff to guard the prisoners, the County Sheriff, having arrested the men on bench warrants directed to him, should have seen that the prisoners were not left unguarded while he brought that question to 'a head' with the High Sheriff (see evidence of County Sheriff) If the County Sheriff had an insufficient force to properly guard the prisoners he should have taken some steps to prevent their being left unguarded while he brought that matter to 'a head' with the supervisors, (as was done) for fighting forest fires. Holloway said that he considered the item necessary. Forester Huestace presented his side of the case. Holloway stated that there was necessity for more wharfage in Honolulu. He had not favored the government spending any money on the old Hilo wharf.

Surveyor Wall was called. He stated that the work of the public lands department was being put back for lack of money. He was questioned relative to the $22,500 asked for its department but could not, off-hand, give the details of this estimate.

The committee rose shortly after 4 o'clock and then the Senate resumed its regular session.

Coxlie wanted to introduce a resolution closing the time for the introduction of resolutions. He was ruled out of order.

Huestace for the Ways and Means committee, reported adversely on the graduated income tax and favorably on the measure exempting from the income tax, incomes up to $1,000.

President Bishop suggested night sessions but Senator Smith demurred. An adjournment was then taken.

his statement according to the bailiff Mr. Quinn.) In other words, we think the Sheriff acted improperly in allowing prisoners to go at large because of some dispute with the Board of Supervisors, or unsettled question of duty between himself and the High Sheriff. If, one the other hand, it was the duty under the law for these prisoners arrested on Bench Warrants to be safeguarded by the County Sheriff, and if the custody and control of these prisoners by law was in the County Sheriff, then your committee must say that in leaving these prisoners unguarded and practically at large, the County Sheriff failed to perform his duty, and if he refused to safeguard the prisoners, then he refused to perform his duty under the law. But, as we have stated before, your committee does not pass on the law which prescribes the duties of the County Sheriff, as that is more particularly within the province of the law adviser of the board.

"A review of all the evidence leads us, inevitably to the conclusion that, in this matter, the County Sheriff did not do his entire duty as a careful, prudent officer, although we are not prepared to say that he wilfully intended to neglect or to refuse to perform the duties imposed on him by law.

"Accordingly your committee herewith submits its report to the Board of Supervisors, without any recommendation, leaving it to the Board to take such action on the facts as it may deem fit."

A committee of which Cox was chairman reported on investigation of items in the Sheriff's expense account regarding subscriptions to the Honolulu Times, the County Beacon and the Kuukoa. The committee thought the items foreign to the spirit of the appropriation and recommended that they be not allowed.

Harvey thought the sheriff should have the benefit of a warning suggestion that subscriptions be paid to date and the sheriff advised to sin no more. Huestace thought the sheriff should have asked the police committee permission.

Dwight said there was only the report before the Board and nothing else to be considered. The unfavorable report was adopted. Harvey said there was another bill from the sheriff for subscription to the Aloha Aina. This was for the time being apparently forgotten. Harvey thought the sheriff had subscribed to the papers in good faith. It was necessary for public men to keep in touch with events and ideas of the times.

A committee to whom had been referred the proposition of the Honolulu Gas Co. supplying the police station with light reported unfavorably to the idea, declaring that an investigation revealed the fact that the station was satisfactorily illuminated by electricity. Chairman Huestace reverted to the sheriff's subscription to the Aloha Aina.

"The County Sheriff" said Cox "says that the Supervisors have no business to turn down bills approved by himself. If I go to him again he will probably order me out of the office. I refuse to audit this bill."

"The chairman also refuses to audit it," said Huestace. "We'll send it back to him." Everybody seemed agreeable. Dwight reported Campbell avenue in bad condition, soon to be attended to. The road supervisor has in hand the matter of road repairs near the Gas company's works. Cox said he had looked into the Kailua police row. The board had already received a letter and had acted in the premises.

Dwight reported four men working on the Palolo valley road. The people were about satisfied now, thought Huestace. Cox asked for $150 more, special road tax, for April, for Palolo road work, making the total $400 for the month.

"To protect myself," said Harvey, "I want to bring up this matter of garbage. It is hard to go around the streets and have half a dozen men after you. They are after the road supervisor, too. I think Mr. Johnson will explain."

San Johnson explained that hundreds refused to pay the new garbage rates, declaring them exorbitant. "There's a bill now in the governor's hands," said Huestace "If that goes through we will have to pay out more for garbage handling. We better wait."

Harvey moved to refer back the garbage rates to the committee for revision. Archer declared there were some five hundred people who had refused to pay the new rate. The greatest complaint, said Archer, was because of the disproportionate charges. A man with a box of garbage was being raised as much as a man with a cart load of garbage.

Dwight said it had been up to Archer as a member of the committee to arrange the rates.

San Johnson said charges were made for the amount of garbage handled. In most cases 25 cent charges were now raised to 75 cents.

Archer moved to sustain the new rates. If the people wouldn't pay, then let them get rid of their own garbage. Dwight seconded Harvey's motion to refer to the committee for revision. Carried.

"Are we supposed to maintain this garbage department at all?" queried the chair "this might be considered by the committee when it is working on the revision of rates. I think if we just doubled the rates we'd get along."

The Treasurer's report for March was read and filed.

The Honolulu road department reported on three months work. Over two miles of new road had been built in addition to the regular repair and maintenance work. Storm damages were being rapidly attended to.

Dwight reported that a young lady had appealed to him to have the board pay her $15 for services in the hand engaged by Berger bandmaster. The lady had also consulted Chairman Huestace. There seemed to have been a misunderstanding as to terms and, unless stronger evidence of liability is forthcoming the lady will not get the fifteen dollars.

DOCTORS WERE QUITE AGAINST PRAYER

THEY APPEARED BEFORE THE SENATE COMMITTEE AND DISCUSSED THIS MEASURE.

The Senate committee on Health held a meeting last night to hear public expression relative to the insane asylum and the medical bills. Judge Perry was present and urged the enactment of the insane asylum measure, which places the control of the institution under a medical board or commission.

Senator Smith opposed such idea, Dr. Peterson the resident physician and medical superintendent of the institution persisted that there would be a clash of authority if there were to be two boards or medical heads. Smith said that he opposed the asylum being under the control of a single physician without being under the general supervision of the board of health. Dr. Hodgins of the Hawaiian Territorial Medical Society stated that the bill was a mistake and predicted a clash of authority. President Pinkham of the Board of Health and Dr. Wayson also opposed the bill.

The committee then took up the consideration of House Bill No. 94 relative to the practice of medicine. Drs. Brinkerhoff, Cooper, Wayson, Hodgins and Sinclair spoke against the possibility of Christian Science people being permitted to practice their belief or whatever it can be called. The physicians cited decisions from other states where the laws had been decided against such conduct.

The result of yesterday's shooting at Kakaako traps, by the members of the Hawaii Gun Club, was that the led the bunch with a score of 20 out of 30 targets. Among the shooters were J. A. Robb, who but recently returned to Honolulu.

The score was as follows:
Dr. S. J. Call, 20 out of 30.

J. A. Robb, 17 out of 30.

NOTES.

The local cricket enthusiasts will open the season on Saturday afternoon with a preliminary match at Makiki. The outlook for the game is good notwithstanding that many of the best players are absent from the Territory, and their places must be necessarily be filled with new men.

In the second game of the Tournament being held by the several bowling clubs at the Hotel Baths alleys, was played last night by the Wela

Ka Niois and the University Club teams. The result was a victory for the Wela Ka Niois by a score of 2025 to 1782.

The outlook for an inter-island polo tournament this year said to be very bright.

SPORTING NOTES.

Considerable interest has been aroused here by the report that The Hawaii Jockey Club has arranged for a big meet on July 4th, and has offered $1,000 as a purse for the mile and a quarter race, which is open to all Hawaiian bred horses. The events will of course be held at Hilo.

A good deal of interest in the matter arises from the fact that the organization was supposed to have been defunct, and there are a number of creditors of the club which bore the name who are pricking up their ears at the news that they have so much money to offer in purse.

BAND CONCERT.

This evening at 7:30 the band concert will be held on the brilliantly

DOYLE FALLS HEIR TO RARE VOLUME

STORY OF VOYAGE OF DISCOVERY ROUND WORLD IN 1740-4-TALK OF PANAMA CANAL.

In the pages of an old book brought here by the master of the ship Claverdon and now in the possession of Chester Doyle of this city in the course of an account of a voyage around the world, 1740, appears the statement that the cutting of a canal through the narrow neck of land joining the American continents if a passage did not already exist would add much to the commerce at Europe with the Pacific coast of South America. Thus was the Panama canal dreamed. Incidentally Hawaii was very narrowly missed by the expedition which crossed the ocean to China.

"A voyage round the world in the years 1740, 1741, 1742, 1743 and 1744, by George Anson, Esquire, late Lord Anson, commander in chief of a squadron of His Majesty's ships, sent upon an expedition of the South Sea, compiled from his papers and materials by Richard Walter M. A., chaplain of the ship Centurion in that expedition. Aberdeen. Printed and Sold by John Boyle, 1784."

Such is the title page of this rare old volume presented to Chester Doyle by Captain David Thompson, master of the British ship Claverdon "as a memento of his friendship for me and the ship they tried to set on fire in Honolulu and did not succeed."

This little book contains "observations and directions for facilitating the passage of our future cruisers round Cape Horn," which are followed until now. It also gives an idea of the great commerce then existing "between the city of Manila on the island of Luzon and the port of Acapulco on the coast of Mexico."

WELA KA NIOI BOWLERS WIN
Following is the standing of the Bowling league:

	P.	W.	L.	Pct.
Oahu	1	1	0	100
W. K. N.	1	1	0	100
H. A. C.	1	0	1	100
Aloha	1	0	1	100

Last evening the Wela Ka Nioi rollers put it all over the University club who will hereafter be known as the Alohas.

The W. K. N. team won every game and came out to the good with 242 pins. The games were played as follows:

W. K. N. 680, U. C. 617; W. K. 667, U. C. 586; W. K. N. 678, U. C. 580; total W. K. N. 2025, U. C. 1783.

The Alohas are composed of old timers who are some what out of practice but Captain E. J. Williamson claims that Babbitt and Murray are overweight and that it will take some time to get them into shape. When they do get going the other teams must look to their laurels.

The next game will be rolled on Monday evening next when the Alohas meet the Olohas.

KAPIOLANI ESTATE LOST APPEAL
The Supreme court today handed down an opinion on an appeal taken by the Kapiolani Estate Ltd., from a decision of the circuit court in favor of K. B. Porter to recover on two promissory notes, with interest and costs amounting to $529.57. The defendant brought a writ of error to set aside the judgment on three grounds. The court sustained the decision of the lower court.

MUNICIPAL BILL PASSED.
The municipal bill passed third reading in the Senate this afternoon after several lively debates over amendments, which failed to pass.

ARRIVING.
Sunday, March 31.
AT HILO—Am. sc. Metha Nelson, Jacobsen, from Gray's Harbor.

order that the expenditures may come within the estimated income.

He declared that as it stands at present the expenditures will exceed the income by $87,172; and that when the special claims which are to be considered, with some other expenditures there will be nothing left for permanent improvements.

The items on the bill were then taken up separately and a hot debate started almost immediately. The first row occurred over the salary of the Librarian of Public Archives, which Kaniho moved be reduced from $150 to $100 per month. He said the librarian only had to look over a lot of old relics and $100 he thought was enough for the duties performed.

Sheldon argued that the job was quite an important one and moved that it be made $125.00.

The motion being put, Kaniho was defeated and Sheldon's motion prevailed.

The next item related to the salary of Commissioner of Immigration, and resulted in a warm argument in which Kaniho led off by moving to reduce the salary from $200 to $100. Mahoe seconded the motion.

Silva thought that $200 was not too much for the importance of this office.

will buy a fine home.
Easy terms.

RENT & CO.

Kaniho didn't think the bringing of Porto Ricans and Portuguese here, only to have them leave, was worth while paying a big salary for.

Silva urged that the Commissioner was an independent official and no for the sole benefit of the plantation owners as Kaniho had intimated.

Kaleiopi moved to strike out the entire item, as under the present status of affairs, we don't know what will be the outcome of the immigration matter, and he didn't believe in appointing an officer whose duties are not defined.

Rice moved to defer action on the item in the hope that more light may soon be thrown on the immigration matters.

This last motion prevailed and the Commissioner of Immigration will be considered later.

The next snag on which the Committee hung was on the salary of the Territorial Treasurer.

Kaleiopi moved to cut the salary from $300 to $200 per month.

Pall moved to make it $250 the same as at present.

Kaniho made a blustering speech in support of Kaleiopi's motion.

Kaleiopi made a long speech in which he said he didn't like being called a grabber and thought this salary was ample at $200. Besides the duties had been reduced in the treasurer's office, and the salary should not be more than that of the County treasurer's salary.

Rice stated that the duties of the treasurer had not been reduced.

Sheldon thought $250 was not too much for the duties of the position; besides it should be remembered that the office of the treasurer's assistant should not be as great as the chief.

Kaniho thought that was no good argument. The assistant, he said, does the work. Consider the case in the House. Why do the stenographers, clerks, and others get more salary than do the members, who are the lords of the House? They get more than the legislators themselves. Why should it be different in the treasurer's department?

The motion to make the salary $250 then was put and carried. A standing vote was called and again carried.

The Registrar of Public Accounts also came in for a lively discussion. Sheldon wanted to leave it as a present, $225.

Kaniho and Kaleiopi argued to make it $250, as it appears in the bill.

Rice didn't want to cut the salary below what it is now bringing, but would not support any raise. He didn't think the members were consistent in their efforts to reduce expenditures, when on some they were trying to raise them.

The motion being put the salary was left at $225.

Rice moved to leave the salary of Book-keeper and Deputy Insurance Commissioner, at $175, which the Senate, had not deigned to increase, as in most of the other items.

Sheldon moved to add "fiduciary" Inspector to the title and increase the salary to $200 per month.

Kaleiopi supported this. He held that the duties of this officer were very heavy, and that besides the duties indicated in the title the office was required by a late law to examine the condition of the Nations banks.

Rice said that the U. S. Government paid for examining banks.

Rice's motion to allow the amount to stand at $175, carried, the amendment to make it $200 lost.

The next item caused Sheldon to deplore the inconsistency of the House, when Rice moved to pass the item of salary of License Clerk as in the bill, $140 per month, an increase over his present salary of $25.

Kaniho also wanted to maintain the old salary of $115.

Kahana thought that as the duties of the office had been increased, the addition to the salary was not inconsistent.

The motion to make the salary as in the bill, $140 carried.

On the item of the salary of the Tax Assessor of Oahu, fixed in the bill at $250, Kaleiopi moved to cut it to $200.

Sheldon moved to make it $225; and this carried.

Rice moved to make the salary of Deputy Assessor, Oahu, the same as at present, and as in the bill, $175.00.

Kaleiopi moved to make it $200. The amendment lost, and the amount was allowed to stand at $175.

The items of Salaries and Commissioners of Deputy Tax Assessors and Collectors, Clerks, and Interpreters (in Oahu $46,000 per year; Maui $18,000; Hawaii $25,000; and Kauai and Niihau, $14,000) were on motion deferred for future action.

The salaries of Tax Assessors of Maui and Hawaii, on the bill at $20 each, passed without objection.

The salary of Tax Assessor of Kauai and Niihau, was on motion of Sheldon raised from $166 2/3 as in the bill to $175.

The next officer to get bumped over the rocky road, was the Superintendent of Public Works.

Kaleiopi moved to reduce this salary from $300 as in the bill to $200. He didn't believe he had anything to do anyhow.

Sheldon wanted to make the amount $250, as he said the official had great responsibilities and the amount was not excessive.

The amendment carried according to Sheldon's motion.

On the salary of First Assistant Clerk of the Superintendent of Public Works, fixed in the bill at $90, Corra moved to make it $125, and the motion carried.

Corra moved to insert new item of Second Assistant Clerk to the Superintendent of Public Works, at a salary of $90 per month.

Rice moved to defer this matter the motion carried.
