Latest War News.

Mukden, Nov 18—It is believed there will be a battle Friday.

St Petersburg, Nov 18—The authorities are confident that Port Arthur will hold out until the arrival of the battleship squadron of the Baltic fleet.

Chefoo, Nov 18—The crew of the Reatoropy have been taken aboard the Chinese gunboat Hainyang for safe-keeping.

Harbin, Nov 18—Chinese bandits are active. The Japanese are enlisting Chinese militia at thirty cents a day.

Children Must Go Home.

High Sheriff Henry announces his intention of enforcing the old curfew law, which provides that children must be off the streets by 9 p. m. The law forbids children under 15 years of age appearing on the streets between the hours of 9 p. m. and 4 a. m. unless accompanied by some adult person.

"The Spy" Staged.

The Opera house was quite well filled last night for the amateur play "The Spy." As a rule the work was very good for raw material. The performance will be repeated Saturday night.

Planters' Meeting.

The sugar planters resumed their annual session this morning, hearing further reports. Tonight the big banquet of the Association will take place at the Moana hotel.

Rio de Janeiro Case.

Washington, Nov 7—Chief Justice Fuller of the United States Supreme Court today announced that the court has refused a writ of certiorari in the case of the Pacific Mail Steamship Company vs Sarah Guyon. The case involved the question of damages on account of the wreck of the passenger steamship City of Rio de Janeiro, which sank off the Golden Gate at San Francisco in 1901, carrying 120 persons, including Consul General Wildman.

The case was a test one, and it was charged that although twenty minutes' time elapsed after the signal to lower the boats before the catastrophe occurred, only one boat was floated. This, the steamship company claimed, was due to the fact that many members of the crew were Chinese and could not understand the orders given them, but the court refused to limit liability on this account.

The purpose of the petition for a writ of certiorari was to bring the case to the Supreme Court for review, and the denial has the effect of making final the decision of the Circuit Court of Appeals for the Ninth Circuit, which was favorable to the passengers.

All criminal matters in Judge Gear's court have gone over to Monday, when the case of Aroki, charged with assault with a dangerous weapon, will come up. The Stephen Mahan's embezzlement case will follow that.

Pierce Anderson, a through passenger in the Doric, has been commissioned to design a new residence site for Manila. It will be located away from the business section and will have the best sanitary appliances known to science.

IT MAY BE FEASIBLE.

The plan to promote local self-government, ascribed to Senator McCandless' initiative in last evening's Star, by electing the road supervisors and various other district officers, including the magistrates, seems to us to be a very feasible proposition, if put to trial and the test. Its feasibility may be only in language, i. e., theory, but not in practice, but a test will show. In all matters, we can never find out the practicability of anything that looks well theoretically, not until it is attempted and tried.

On the face of it and on first hearing it, it seems, as already inferred, to be very feasible and quite plausible. But an attempt must first be made through the proper channels of legislation, and when gained, then it must be put into practice. Yet it is not county government, but it is the first step leading up to it, that of township or district control of affairs, and in other words, having a tendency towards local self-government, just what is desired by the people. But at this writing, we are not prepared to give this proposition the seal of approval nor that of advocating it. We need further light on the matter, for what we now know is only casually, and that from two politicians, Senators Achi and McCandless, both of whom are looking forward to future popularity for further political aspirations.

It was from Senator Achi that we first heard of a similar proposition, and now comes Senator McCandless with a like proposition. The plan may work, providing both will work together for its adoption. Each claims the credit of proposing it, both claiming that either advanced it to the other, and there we are in a pickle, we don't know to whom to give the full measure of credit. We have to believe some one, and that's where the rub comes in; we can't give the benefit of the doubt to the one, because the other came out with it first in print, and there we are, between the devil and the deep sea. Let the Senators, both Republicans, fight it out between themselves, and whoever scores, to him shall the credit be. But above all, let us have something showing a tendency towards self-government. Let clique rule come to an end.

Must Bear The Load.

The Republican party, by virtue of its overwhelming majority in the Legislature, has had entrusted to it the well being of Hawaii-nee for the next two years. With the laurels of honor and power, however, must come the yoke of responsibility. Our new law makers cannot wear the one and draw away from the other. It is to be hoped that not one of them feels that he may, for that is the surest forerunner of chaos, in the present state of things, that can be imagined and we have had enough of chaos already, heaven knows.

The sweeping majorities obtained by the Republicans represent the results of ante election promises. Many of these promises were, to the minds of conservative people, extravagant; but hundreds and perhaps thousands of Democrats and Home Rulers accepted them at face value and voted for the Republican nominees. It is now up to the successful candidates and the successful party to make good. Will they accomplish that fulfillment of ante-election pledges that will justify the course taken by the voter in the election? We shall see.

Sad Court Case.

In the District Court the other day, there appeared, to us, the sorry spectacle of a once nice Hawaiian woman, since gone wayward, so it appears, being maltreated by a negro with whom she was living with as man and wife. There's more white in her make-up than there is native. We are informed that she has received a fairly good education, but the lowness she has gotten herself in is something to be deplored. Her people are good and known among us, some of whom say that they have tried to do something for her, but that she is past redemption. We can't believe that she is past redemption, and we do earnestly hope that something may be done by somebody inclined with the good Samaritan spirit and redeem her from the depths to which she has so far fallen. She was once married, so we are informed, but that she and her husband have been separated for many years by a cruel and ruthless visitation, yet not death. But here she is, her friends shun her; her people will protest her if she will but amend her ways and be once again—a woman. Everything hinges on herself.

TOPICS OF THE DAY.

It is common talk on the streets that no native is wanted in governmental affairs, and that none need expect to be postmaster nor are any kanakas wanted on the Board of Health.

Some one asked us the following: Why is it that Governor Carter is opposed to Clarence Crabbe for postmaster? And someone near by answered—Because he is a native. Senator Crabbe is a sunburnt son of the soil, but he leans more the other way than towards home.

The offer made by the Democratic Central Committee, prior to election day, still holds good, i. e., that it will pay a reward for evidence that will lead to the conviction of any person voting illegally, or otherwise violating the election laws of this Territory. The "notice of reward" is still to be seen elsewhere in this paper.

Some say that Senator Linc is a success as a well borer and he is of account as a borer, but not as a member of that accounts commission. He's a misfit there, but as a legislator, he may be all right. But why wasn't Senator Achi placed on that commission, he being a more capable man? It is said that if it was Achi, he'd know too much in course of time to upset the Governor and whatever plans he may have.

Why is it that the morning paper during the campaign always referred to the Democratic speeches as "rehash," and to those of the Republicans as "magnificent" or "telling" addresses? And yet among the Republican speakers there wasn't one who could hold a candle to orators like Kinney, Waller and Iaukea. How very childish or narrow minded a man must be, who cannot see the good points in an opponent.

We quite agree with the remarks of a politician the other day—"Why bring a man's wife and family into any public controversy? Attack a man for all he's worth, but cut out his family." Right; that's where we are too. If we have attacked anyone's wife or family, we have done it unintentionally and without in the least attempting to cast any reflection upon any innocent party or parties; but should they lay themselves open, then they are liable to be attacked. If we have wronged anyone recently without in the least attempting to throw odium upon them, we are sorry for it, and this we do of our own accord without being thereto urged.

It is to be presumed that Deputy Sheriff Richard Lane will lose his job on the evidence of three Japanese who have been arrested as distillers. Is a man to lose his job on the unproven say-so of men who are held as criminal offenders? Nay, nay, Mr Henry; the evidence must be more emphatic and conclusive. It looks to us as if it is a conspiracy of three unreliable men against one reliable man, who may have put their heads together in order to wreak vengeance on an official whom they think is persecuting them by giving testimony against them. If Lane is to be decapitated in that manner, how about the High Sheriff's father-in-law, Deputy Sheriff Pahia, through whose criminal neglect a Japanese lost his life?

Detective Hatter, a number of witnesses and a bevy of bar-tenders were before the grand jury today.

After the first of the month High Sheriff Henry will begin war on illicit liquor dealers and Sunday sellers.

There has been another big advance in sugar and it looks as though the figures will go even higher.

Mrs D McConnell has moved from No 9 Garden Lane to No 1223 Emma street. Furnished rooms.

Colonel G W Macfarlane will be a passenger by the Korea tomorrow on his way to Cuba. He will be gone several months.

An execution in the suit of A Ltd gate vs Honolulu Clay Co., Ltd., has been returned unsatisfied. The amount involved is $6,263 81.

The new gas company will have about twenty miles of pipe line in Honolulu. It is not known yet where the works will be established.

One of the subjects to be discussed at the next meeting of the Medical Association is that of the reported cures of leprosy in Louisiana.

There will be a parade of the National Guard on Thanksgiving Day. In all probability the troops from Camp McKinley will also be in line.

The Grand Jury is inquiring into the case of Mr Toepelmann, the chemist, who was arrested and locked up for the night while very sick of a brain trouble.

Deputy Sheriff Lane has denied the story of the three Japanese from Kahana to the effect that he accepted $75 from them as pay for the privilege of distilling liquor.

The Iroquois is again said to be in a very bad way. It is believed among naval men that the best thing to do is to condemn and sell her for use as a merchant tug.

There promises to be quite a squabble over the office of postmaster of Honolulu. There are about a half dozen candidates, all of whom have been working like beavers for the place.

The wedding of Mrs Margaret Winter, widow of the late "Jack" Winter, and Gustav Delling, which was scheduled for Saturday, has been postponed on account of a sudden call of the prospective groom to Germany. No new date has been set.

Swimming Races.

The swimming races in the harbor tomorrow afternoon promise to attract a very large crowd and to be among the most interesting of similar programs ever held here. The judges and officers of the races have not yet been selected but will be during the afternoon and evening.

The first race, which is 100 yards dash, will be between Dan Renear, Ernest Kopke and Kimokeo. Renear is the favorite in the betting, although Kopke has friends. Kimokeo claims to be out of training but that may be a hoax. He has beaten Renear before.

Cavill, the noted swimmer who trained young Kopke at Stockton and is considered one of the best swimmers in the world, was here a few days ago on his way to Australia. To members of the boat clubs he remarked that Kopke had gone to pieces since he left California and he did not believe he had a show against Renear.

Hotel To Be Reorganized.

There is a movement on foot to reorganize the Volcano House Company in such a way as to put it on a sound financial basis. Overtures are being made to small holders for their shares. The second part of the plan is to establish a branch hotel in Hilo. For this purpose the sum of $10,000 will be borrowed. Two automobiles will be put on at the other end for the conveying of passengers from the end of the car line to the Volcano house. It is believed that with these conveniences the trip will be made quite comfortable. In addition it is felt that the advantages of comfort in travelling, will attract many hundreds of tourists to the volcano and also prove a strong drawing card for the islands.

District Court Doings.

Second Judge Judd again presided today. Jos Spencer was sent to the Reformatory school for six months for disobeying his parents, and Mau Yau, for doing the same thing, was discharged. One case of drunkenness was fined as usual. All other cases went over.

Iron Works Busy.

The Honolulu Iron Works is extremely busy just now. Between 300 and 400 men are regularly employed, and lately they have been required to work overtime and far into the night. New mills and parts of machinery constitute the bulk of the business.

"No More Broke."

The treasury will on Monday begin paying all outstanding warrants, whether registered or not. This will probably boom Christmas business.

Prince Fushimi, of Japan, who was in Honolulu a few weeks ago, is being shown every courtesy at Washington. Yesterday he was escorted to Mount Vernon and shown the tomb of George Washington.

The Democrats will hold their "consolation" meeting at Aala park tomorrow evening. A program of speakers is being made out and the affair will doubtless be among the most interesting aftermath of the election.
