Chief Legislation for Which Session Was Called Found to be Unnecessary

Revenues Will be Sufficient Since Corporations Will Probably Pay Two and a Half Times as Much Taxes as This Year; Teachers Salaries to Wait and Foreign Language School Legislation May Not be Reported Upon Until Regular Session.

Little of the legislation for which the special session of the legislature was chiefly caused will be enacted as the indication in the reports coming from Honolulu. After the legislature had assembled information the Governor had not previously had was secured to the effect that the income taxes would be more than $1,000,000 more next year than it has been this. The finance committee of the house has reported against the passage of the bill to increase the revenues, which was to permit taxing of amounts paid on income taxes to the federal government.

Other legislation which promises to go over includes increases in pay to the teachers and the foreign language school measures. The house committee has decided to delete the appropriation in the school bill by $157,000 and allow the $224,000 required to meet this year's deficit. The senate favors a full investigation of the foreign language school situation and the various bills looking toward their control or elimination and a report on the bills at the regular session.

Governor is Quoted

Relative to the sufficiency of revenue next year Governor McCarthy is quoted as saying:

"On the day the special session opened, I was given certain figures which came from one sugar agency which showed the amount of money that agency's plantations has paid during 1920 to the territory as income tax, and which also gave an estimate of what they expected to pay as income tax in 1921. These figures showed that in 1921 they would pay approximately two and one-half times as much as in 1920. If these figures had been given to me earlier, it is just possible that there may not have been a special session of the legislature.

"In April," the governor continued, "I received a statement from the auditing department showing that the expenditures of the territory amounted to about $750,000 more than the revenues. This amount being only for nine months, it showed that we would be short about a million dollars for the calendar year, or approximately $2,000,000 for the biennial period.

1920 Income Tax

"The tax assessor at my request furnished me with an estimate of the income tax for the calendar year of 1920, which amounted to approximately $857,000. When these figures were shown to the treasurer, he stated he believed they were too conservative, and desired to go into the matter himself. After he had taken up the matter, he made a report that the receipts would be more than a million dollars. The actual receipts for the fiscal year ending June 30 amounted to $1,050,000.

"As I stated in my message to the special session, the estimates made and presented to the last legislature were on the basis of $2,900,000 in income taxes for the two years, or $1,450,000 for a single year. As shown above, the actual cash receipts for one year were $400,000 below the estimate. The treasurer of the territory has no means of knowing what the prospective revenue of the territory will be until the month of February, when most of the corporations hold their annual meetings, and when reports are made as to their financial standing.

"In the meantime, any estimate that the treasurer should make is merely guesswork, and in making these guesses he necessarily must be very conservative.

Shortage in April

"In April of this year I gave for publication a statement that the territory was experiencing a shortage in revenues and suggested as a method of raising the necessary funds that we amend the income tax law so as not to allow deductions of taxes paid to the United States.

"This was no new thing at the time. One of the newspapers objected editorially to the plan on the ground of its legality. I took this matter up and found that there was no question as to its legality.

"Up to the time of the opening of the special session, no statement had been made to me or other officer of the government that the revenues of the territory were likely to be improved. On the day the session opened I was given certain figures coming from one sugar agency. These showed the amounts the agency's plantations had paid during 1920 to the territory as income tax; and gave an estimate of what they expected to pay in 1921. It was shown that for 1921 they would pay approximately two and one-half times as much in 1920. If these figures had been given me earlier, it is just possible that there may not have been a special session.

"Then, again, it is probable that what applies to the one sugar agency in question may not apply all along the line, taking into consideration the fact that I have the estimates of only one agency covering five plantations. Up to the present we are in the dark as to what increase, if any, in income taxes will be paid by the other corporations."

Funds for Sanitarium and Hospitals Provided; Bill Passed by Senate

For the purpose of providing sufficient funds for the proper upkeep, maintenance and improvement of Kula Sanitarium and Maui's county hospitals without diminishing county funds so that road upkeep and improvements would suffer, Senator Harold W. Rice introduced Senate Bill 13 at the special session of the legislature and it is one of the first senate bills to pass third reading and go to the house. It provides that the tax assessor of the second taxation division shall, commencing with the year 1921 and each year thereafter, increase the tax rate on real and personal property in said taxation division over that provided in any other law to an extent sufficient to provide the annual sum of Two Hundred Thousand Dollars ($200,000.00) which shall, when collected, be paid to the treasurer of the County of Maui and be held by him in a special fund for the use with other moneys made available by the Board of Supervisors and by the Legislature of the Territory of Hawaii for permanent improvement, maintenance and equipment of the Kula Sanitarium and the County Hospitals of the County of Maui.

If the bill pass the house and meet the approval of the governor it will add .42 to the tax rate of the county provided valuation of real and personal taxes is unchanged. The measure is the one Senator Rice mentioned to the members of the Chamber of Commerce at the last meeting of that body. Until now the county has been able to care for the sanitarium and the hospitals from the general funds but to make the necessary improvement and the increasing costs of maintenance would deplete the county's general fund and cause cessation of other work unless a remedy were found such as is offered in the bill.

Trial Term Is Delayed Court Fund Too Meager

Owing to lack of funds the jury term of the Circuit Court has been postponed to the tentative date of November 29 awaiting passage of a bill at the special term of the legislature and subsequent appropriation of money for court expenses by the board of supervisors.

At Saturday's meeting of the supervisors the county attorney rendered the opinion that the board is without authority to make the appropriation for the costs of the proposed term of court asked by Judge Burr because such appropriation would bring the total appropriation for the court for the year in excess of $6000. He cited decisions in support of his opinion. It was then determined to secure the necessary authority from the legislature and the county attorney has drafted and sent to Honolulu a bill which covers the situation. As it is emergency legislation speedy passage is expected. When advised of the passage of the act Chairman Kalama will call the board into session and pass the appropriation.

When court was convened on Monday Judge Burr announced the jurors were relieved from duty until the tentative date of November 29.

Money for High School Building Provided for in Bill in Legislature

Maui's new high school building is provided for in Senate Bill No. 12 introduced by Senator Harold W. Rice. The measure provides for the raising of $60,000 by taxation and reads:

Section 1. In addition to all moneys heretofore set aside or appropriated for new buildings, additions, improvements and equipment of schools in the County of Maui, the Tax Assessor of the second taxation division is hereby authorized, empowered and directed to increase the rate for the taxation of real and personal property within the County of Maui, so as to raise during 1921, the sum of Sixty Dollars ($60,000.00) which said additional sum shall be added to all moneys otherwise available for the same or similar purposes and be set aside in the special school fund for the following purposes: Building a new high school at Hamakua, Maui, and equipping the same.

Section 2. The board of supervisors of the County of Maui is hereby empowered immediately to contract against, appropriate and expend for the purpose hereinabove provided, the full sum thereof with all other funds heretofore appropriated for similar items, and for the purpose of meeting any obligations arising out of any such immediate contract or expenditure, the board of supervisors is hereby empowered when the necessity arises to transfer a sufficient sum to said special school fund by way of advancement from the general fund of said county, which advancement shall be repaid into such general fund from the said special school fund from moneys derived from the special tax provided for by Section 1 of this Act.

Foreign Language School Bills May Produce Prolonged Session

Foreign language schools are subject for legislation in several bills introduced in both houses at the special session of the legislature. In the senate the first sentiment was for investigation only at this session with reporting of bills out at the regular session in February. In that body there appeared to be some unwillingness for action at this time as expressed by Senator Tavares who was quoted as saying:

"In the first place, it is going to precipitate a lengthy debate that may keep this special session going indefinitely, and in the second place, while the Japanese on the islands know very well what is going to happen, I believe it is hardly fair to cut off the language schools suddenly. Let's give them a show. There's no need to rush the thing through."

The bills introduced by Senator Baldwin as chairman of the committee selected to introduce administrative measures in the senate went to committee with a clear expression of sentiment for full investigation and against an early report. Such sentiment appears to have changed with the introduction by Senator Baldwin, not as special committee chairman, of the measure finally approved by the Honolulu Chamber of Commerce. It is now considered possible that action may come at the present session in which event the session may be somewhat prolonged.

Last Measure Presented

The text of the last bill introduced follows:

"Section 1. The term 'foreign language school' as used in this act shall be construed to mean any school which is conducted in any language other than the English language, except Sabbath schools. The word 'department' shall mean the department of public instruction of the Territory of Hawaii.

Teachers Must Obtain Permits

"Section 2. No person shall conduct a foreign language school in the Territory of Hawaii unless and until he shall have first applied to and obtained a permit so to do from the department of public instruction of the Territory.

"Section 3. No person shall teach in a foreign language unless and until he shall first have applied to and obtained a permit so to do from the department.

Qualification to Teach

"Section 4. No permit to teach in a foreign language school shall be granted unless and until the department is satisfied that the applicant for the same is possessed of a reasonable knowledge of the ideas of democracy, knowledge of America history and institutions, and knows how to read, write and speak the English language.

Provisions Liberally Construed

"Provided, however, that the provision concerning knowledge of the English language shall be liberally construed during the two years after this act goes into effect; it being understood that it would be difficult within that time to secure teachers fully qualified under this section and at the same time qualified to teach a foreign language. And providing further, and it is hereby declared that the object of this act is to reasonably regulate and not to prohibit the conducting of foreign language schools and the teaching of foreign languages, but to regulate the same so that the Americanism of the pupils may be promoted and the department is hereby directed to carry this act into effect in accordance with the spirit of this declaration.

Pledges Must Be Made

"Section 5. Before issuing a permit to conduct foreign language schools or to teach in such a school the department shall require the applicant for such a permit to sign a pledge that he, the applicant, will if granted, a permit to conduct or teach in such a school, abide by and observe the terms of this law and the regulations and orders of the department and will, to the best of his ability, so direct the minds and studies of pupils in said school as will tend to make them good and loyal American citizens, and will not instruct or permit said pupils to receive instruction in said school in any way inconsistent therewith.

Language School Hours

"Section 6. No foreign language school shall be conducted in the morning before the school hours of the public schools or during the hours which the public schools are in session. Nor shall any foreign language school be in session excepting one hour each day, nor exceeding six hours in any one week.

"Provided, however, that the department may, in its discretion modify the terms of this section, if it deems that it can do so consistently with the declared object of this act.

Department to Prescribe the Courses

"Section 7. The department shall have full power from time to time to prescribe the course and courses of study and the textbooks to be used in any foreign language school, and no other course of instruction or textbooks shall be used in such schools, except the ones prescribed by the said department. No books used in any foreign language school shall be furnished at the expense of the department.

Permits May Be Revoked

"Section 8. If the department shall at any time become satisfied that any holder of a permit to conduct a foreign language school or to teach, therein does not possess the qualifications here in required, or shall have violated or failed to observe any of the provisions of this act, or of the regulations or orders of the department the department may then and thereupon revoke the permit theretofore granted, and the same shall thereupon be and become null and void.

"Provided, however, that before so doing the department shall first notify the holder of said permit to show cause, why such action should not be taken and shall give such holder full opportunity to be heard in defense.

The Penalty

"Section 9. Any person who shall conduct a foreign language school, or who shall teach in a foreign language school, contrary to the provisions of this act, or who shall violate any of the terms hereof, or of the regulations or orders of the department, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof punished by fine not to exceed $25.

"Section 10. This act shall take effect on the first day of July, 1922."

Bids for School Buildings too High

Board of Supervisors Determines to Let Only One Contract Where Accommodations are Most Needed at Present Time.

Only one of the proposed four new school buildings for which bids were opened by the supervisors last Saturday will be built at this time. The Makawao school building was considered so important that it could not wait, irrespective of the matter of costs, that the bid for it was accepted. New chairs for the Maui High School will also be purchased. Other school building will wait until more funds are available and the subject will be up again probably early in the year.

For a one room school building at Waihee there were two bids, E. C. Mellor $3000 and D. I. Kalakaua, $2900.

Next to be opened was the bid for Makawao two room building, there being only one, D. I. Kalakaua $5000, the work to be completed in 30 days. The third set of bids was for a two room addition to the six room building at Paila for which there were two bids, D. I. Kalakaua $4800 and E. C. Mellor $5250.

Mellor was the only bidder on the High School gymnasium and commercial building, his offer being $3200.

For the arm or tablet chairs for the High School, Kahului bid $925 for a hundred chairs, Maui Dry Goods and Grocery Co., being $25 higher.

Following a vote on the acceptance of the two bids and the rejection of all others a motion for the return of checks to unsuccessful bidders was adopted.

The meeting was held at the hospital owing to illness of the chairman, only the most pressing business was transacted and an adjournment taken to the call of the chair.

Luther D. Timmons One Time Editor of Maui News Taken by Death

Luther D. Timmons, at one time editor of Maui News and one of the oldest newspaper men in Hawaii in point of service died in Queen's Hospital in Honolulu early Saturday morning following a hemorrhage of the lungs. Though not in the best of health recently his illness was of only a day or two. Funeral services were held in Honolulu, Monday afternoon. He is survived by a widow, who was Miss Anna Streubeck of Wailuku, and an 18 months old child.

Mrs. Streubeck received word last Saturday morning that Mr. Timmons was ill but was expected out in a few days and a short time later came the wireless announcing his death.

Mr. Timmons, who was born at Timmonsville, North Carolina, 46 years ago, came to the islands in 1893 with the commission sent by President Cleveland to investigate the revolution that resulted in the deposition of Queen Liliuokalani. Before his arrival in Hawaii he had some newspaper experience and he remained after securing a position on the Star. Since then he had been connected with most of the English language papers at different times and for short intervals had been engaged in mercantile pursuits.

Several years ago Mr. Timmons left Honolulu for Kauai where he was connected with the Eleese store and later left it to take editorship of the Garden Island. While there he was secretary of the Kauai Chamber of Commerce, secretary of the Kauai Industrial Accident Board and deputy assessor of taxes. About that time he declined the Libue postmastership.

Leaving Kauai he came to Maui and was editor of Maui News while Will J. Cooper was in the officers' training camp. From Maui he went back to Honolulu where he was on the Advertiser's staff for a time, leaving it for the Star-Bulletin. On the latter paper he edited the financial and real estate sections and the sugar news besides covering the business beat. In 1919 he covered the senate proceedings for his paper and was doing the same work at the special session when he was stricken with his final illness.

About three years ago Mr. Timmons married Miss Anna Streubeck. While on Maui, as in Honolulu and Kauai, he made large numbers of friends and his conscientious and painstaking newspaper work was recognized by those who came in contact with him.

The third is that he fell from the bridge, which is quite probable.

The bridge runs across the stream to a narrow rock where one must turn at an angle as the rock projects into the stream. It is possible that Remington was hurrying across the bridge in the dusk, did not know of the turn and so fell into the stream below.

The dead engineer left a mother and other relatives on the mainland. He was a native of Watertown, New York.

Teachers Disappointed In Hopes for More Pay

Teachers on Maui, as in other parts of the islands, are outspoken in their disappointment over the action of a house committee in eliminating from the school appropriation bill $157,000 for salary increases. In some instances Superintendent MacCaughy is being blamed for putting into the budget from which the bill was drafted appropriations for school buildings, equipment, and play ground equipment, which the teachers complain, could have been left to the regular session for action.

Reports from Hilo say that some of the teachers on the Big Island are threatening a walkout or strike as an expression of their dissatisfaction but nothing of the kind is talked of on this island. Another Hilo report is that numbers of the teachers will give up their positions the first of the year unless they secure assurance of salary increases at the regular session which will open in February.

Honolulu reports which quote the Territorial Treasurer as saying that warrants for the teachers pay will have to be discounted by the banks has been another source of alarm, some of the teachers wondering if they would lose the amount of the discount the banks would be expected to charge.

Japanese Save Bonus—Many Japanese of this island are going into the pineapple business on their own account instead of working on plantation. Y. Sato, director of the Oahu Japanese labor union told Nippu Jiji after a visit here. He said the high bonus had enabled some of the Japanese to save as much as $150 a month which they purposed using by growing pines on their own account.

Expert on Mentality Of Children Coming

Dr. E. B. Hoag, whose studies of juvenile delinquencies and mental deficiency have attracted wide attention in Honolulu and Kauai and who is now on the Big Island, will be on Maui during the week from December 3 to December 10, according to advices received this week. He will conduct studies and investigation on those subjects here in the larger schools of the island, arrangements for which will be made by a committee prior to and at the time of his arrival and it is hoped he will address the Woman's Club and the meeting of the Teachers' Association which will be timed to be held during his visit.

Dr. Hoag is a mainland student of and expert on child mentality and has conducted wide and searching investigations into abnormality an subnormality and the best methods of handling such pupils. In the course of such investigations juvenile delinquency has come in for wide study and suggestions from him will be opportune when Maui is seeking to secure detention homes and salaried probation officers here.

Forty Per Cent Saved By County for Bridge

Between $3000 and $4000 has been saved to Maui County by having Hoalua Bridge in Makawao built under the direction of the county engineer instead of by contract. The saving has been approximately 40 per cent of the figures given by the bidders whose offers were turned down.

Two tenders for the construction of Hoalua bridge were rejected. The lower tender was for $8697 and the higher for $9338. The sworn statement of A. P. Low, county engineer, shows the work has been satisfactorily completed and at a cost of $5321.81, a clear saving of more than $3300 over the lowest offer to do the work by contract.

Pertinent Paragraphs

Four Plead Guilty—Pleas of guilty were entered this week to the indictments returned last week by the grand jury by Polito Perez, Masa Okamura, Jose Joseph and Atong Akiona.

Secure Film Attraction—"Broken Blossoms" will be shown in Hana at the Victory Theater, November 20. G. Errett secured the attraction for his theater on his visit in Wailuku this week.

Hoaioha Meets—The Hoaioha held its regular meeting and entertainment at the Paia Community House last Friday afternoon. A well arranged program was excellently carried out and a pleasant afternoon enjoyed.

Friday School Holiday—Next, Friday, the day following Thanksgiving Day, will be a holiday in the Maui schools. No sessions of the schools will be held from Wednesday until Monday.

Warrants For Teachers Pay—Treasurer Metzger is quoted as saying that nothing except some emergency measure not yet introduced can prevent the necessity of the Territory registering teachers' warrants in 1921.

Bi-Monthly Meeting—The bi-monthly meeting of the Wailuku Union Church for business and social purposes will be held in the residence of Dr. and Mrs. Omer, this evening. An invitation is extended to all members of the church and friends.

Mrs. Engle Loses Father—Mrs. Walter Engle received word yesterday of the death of her father, Mr. O. H. Lee, at Malibu, Washington. Mr. and Mrs. Engle and their baby will leave for the mainland on the Mauna sailing from Honolulu next Wednesday.

Will Trace Goods—Louis Amiel who is conducting the Boston Store sale at the Orpheum building, Wailuku, will go to Honolulu tomorrow night to trace some of the many boxes of goods which are being shipped from Honolulu to Maui for the sale.

Child Welfare Office—The office of the board of child welfare has been moved from the office of Alexander Settlement to the Alexander House Library. It was proposed to move it to the Chamber of Commerce office but greater convenience is offered in the library.

Would Benefit Maui—Representative Fassoth has introduced a bill known as House Bill No. 2 providing that vacancies in county offices be filled by appointment of board of supervisors, and that appointee hold office for the balance of the unexpired term.

Foresters Dance—In celebration of the first anniversary of the Valley Isle Circle Companions of the Forest a dance for Foresters and Companions will be held Saturday evening, November 27 at the Territorial Building, Kahului. Visiting Foresters and Companions are cordially invited.

House Bill 5—The measure which enables the issuance of $600,000 of bonds for the Kahului Wharf is known as House Bill No. 5. It has been referred to the finance committee instead of the special Maui committee over the objection of Representative Paschoal.

Thanksgiving Service—A United Thanksgiving service will be held at the Church of the Good Shepherd, Thanksgiving Day, Thursday, November 25, to which all in the community are cordially invited. The service is the morning at 10:30. Note the hour. "Let us give thanks."

Beautiful Koa Show—Arranged on a tapa table covering upon a large round table an array of Koa wood articles for Christmas gifts makes a particularly attractive display in Maui Book Store. The articles range from small ink wells and pen trays up to large trays and other useful and ornamental things.

Sale Does Well—Managers of the Boston Store sale which is being held in the Wailuku Orpheum building express themselves as well pleased with the patronage secured. Before the doors opened the first and second days there were lines of persons waiting in front of the building. Purchasers say they have found some exceptionally good values at the sale.

Seas Run High—Tuesday night and Wednesday there were high tides with heavy seas rolling in on Kahului. Between Wailuku and Kahului along the beach road, even inside the breakwater, the waves washed over the road leaving piles of rock, coral and sand behind. The Claudine made no attempt to take or leave passengers there Tuesday afternoon but proceeded on to Lahaina where landings were effected.

Double Suicide Pact—Indications of a "love suicide" at Ulumalu were furnished in letters found in the rooms of Kamahachi Honda, about 21 years of age, an auto driver, and Nami Hirada daughter of I. Hirada a storekeeper. Verification of the carrying out of the pact mentioned in the letter came with the finding of the body of Honda on the shore. Search is still being made for the body of the girl who was 18 years of age.

Division Commander Coming—Maui is to receive a visit from Brigadier Frank Waite, division commander of the Salvation Army in the Hawaiian Islands. Arriving in Lahaina Saturday morning he will come over to Wailuku and hold special meetings at Wailuku Salvation Army Hall Saturday and Sunday evenings and in Lahaina on Monday evening. The meetings will begin at 7:30 o'clock and all are cordially invited.

For Hana Pipe Line—Representative M. G. Paschoal has introduced a resolution under which he would save the legislature ask the Maui supervisors to prepare estimates and information regarding the proposed Hana pipe line, authorized by the last legislature. It was referred to committee following objections to immediate consideration offered by Lorrin Andrews who insisted it was an effort to have the legislature settle county affairs.

SOCIETY

FAREWELL DINNER

Mrs. Murdoch Weddick and Mrs. E. D. Baldwin entertained at dinner Wednesday evening at the Wailuku Hotel for Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Baldwin who are soon leaving for a trip for the mainland. In the private dining room decorated with roses and greenery and other flowers covers were laid for 26. The guests were:

Mr. and Mrs. John Walsh, Mr. and Mrs. Cummings, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Campbell, Dr. and Mrs. Geo. Aiken, Mr. and Mrs. W. Baldwin, Mrs. Me Loid, Mr. Frank A. Lufkin, Sr., Miss Winifred Weddick, Miss Lois Murdoch, Miss Minnie Weddick, Miss Jessie Baldwin, Mr. Seabury Short, Mr. Hosmer Rolph, Mr. Lester Watson, Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Baldwin, Mrs. D. Murdoch, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Mellor.

YOUNG SET DANCES

Mrs. George Aiken was hostess last Saturday night at her home on High Street, the guests at her dance being of the unmarried social set, numbering about 40 and including a number of the Maui teachers. One party of a dozen came together, Miss Weddick and her dinner guests going directly from the Wailuku Hotel to the dance. Music by a Hawaiian orchestra was furnished for the dancing and refreshments were served during an intermission. It was one of the most delightful dances Maui younger has known this season.

PUUNENE DANCE TOMORROW

There is no postponement in the date of the dance of the Puunene Athletic Club and it will be held tomorrow evening, the date announced in the invitations. After the date had been selected and invitations had been issued the committee learned that a special meeting of the Woman's Club was to be held at Paia the same night. In order to avoid a conflict of dates it was decided to postpone the dance one week but when the Woman's Club was notified it replied that this would be unnecessary as the special meeting had been abandoned owing to the inability of Dr. George Webb, one of the prospective speakers, to attend. And so the notice of postponement of the dance was speedily recalled and plans have gone on for the holding of it according to the first announced arrangements tomorrow evening.

MISS WEDDICK HOSTESS

Miss Winifred Weddick was dinner hostess to a dozen friends last Saturday evening at a charmingly appointed affair in the private dining room at the Wailuku Hotel. Roses and ferns formed the central decoration of the table and at each place there were bouquets for the ladies or buttonieres for the gentlemen. During the service of the dinner Hawaiian and other numbers were rendered by Hawaiian musicians. The guests were: Misses Muriel Duncan, Jessie Baldwin, Lois Murdoch, Billie Gardner, Rosecrans, Mr. Seabury Short, Mr. Lester Watson, Mr. Hosmer Rolph, Mr. McCluskey, Mr. Frank Lufkin and Franklin Richardson.

Maui Woman's Club

It is to be regretted that the evening devoted to Russian experiences had to be given up. Dr. Webb of Lahaina, who was counted on to give the story of his long sojourn in Russia, and his knowledge of Siberian conditions, was unable to carry out his part of the program.

But a letter just received from Mr. Vaughan MacCaughy, superintendent of public instruction, states that the distinguished child-welfare expert, Dr. E. B. Hoag of Los Angeles, will be on Maui from December 3rd to December 10th, and the Club has been informed that Dr. Hoag will be available for public addresses, in addition to his work among the schools. It is expected that a public meeting, with Dr. Hoag as speaker, will be arranged by the Club, the date of which will be announced later on. Honolulu and Maui have had splendid things to say of Dr. Hoag, and Maui may look forward to something unusual.

At the next general meeting of the Club, Monday, December 6th, there will be present Miss Robson, the new Librarian recently arrived in Honolulu from the Coast, who will speak to the Club members of library matters, in which the Club is so greatly interested. It is hoped that some plan may suggest itself through hearing Miss Robson, whereby the library now in existence on Maui may benefit.

The Civic Department meets on Monday next at 3 p. m. in the Home Service Rooms, Kahului, Mrs. F. E. Baldwin presiding. This department is going ahead in a most laudable manner toward the beautifying and improvement of Maui in general, with Wailuku as the starting point. Wailuku has great possibilities, which the Civic Department doubtless appreciates, and it is probable that the months to come will see many improvements carried out by this very valuable work department of the Club.

The Music Department has had no meeting as yet, owing to the absence of the leader, Mrs. Louise C. Jones, but as she will return at an early date, the department is expected to make a start before long. The study of Hawaiian music will prove very interesting and will doubtless attract many new members for this department.

People Pay More For a Used Hupmobile

Right here, in your own town, you must have noticed that when a man sells his Hupmobile, he always gets a good price for it.

As a rule, he gets more, in proportion to first cost and the car's mile age, than many others command.

This might strike you as unusual—but it really isn't unusual.

People know that the quality of the Hupmobile is uncommonly good; that it is almost impossible to wear it out, except by the severest use; and that it is exceptionally economical, in both running and upkeep costs. That is why owners hold their Hupmobiles high, and why buyers pay high prices for them without quibbling.

DEALERS

On The Other Islands

Kuhio Wharf Bonds—Of the half million dollars necessary to take up the bonds for Kuhio Wharf $365,000 had been subscribed, $75,000 more assured and only $60,000 remained to be cared for was the report rendered to the Hilo Board of Trade at its last meeting.

No Teacher Delegate—Plans of the Big Island teachers' union to send a delegate to Honolulu during the special session in advocacy of desired legislation were upset by objection to the plan by the department of public instruction.

Auto Traffic Halted—Shortage of gasoline at Honolulu, Hawaii, has practically brought to a halt auto traffic between that section and Kona and in the Kona section as well.

Cane Lands Withdrawn—Prospective homesteaders on the Big Island are reported to be disappointed at learning that several hundred acres of the best cane land were withdrawn and will not be included in the new Waialua lands expected to be thrown open at the end of the year.

Opens New Home—Delegate and Mrs. J. K. Kalaniana'ole held an all Hawaiian reception at their recently completed home on Waikiki Beach Thursday of last week. The reception was held in advance of the delegate's intended departure for Washington on the Matsunia last Wednesday.

Kauai Celebrates—Armistice Day was observed at Lihue with the greatest patriotic celebration the Garden Island has ever known. One of the features of the program was the polo game won by Kauai Team from the 17th Cavalry players 6 to 4.

St. Louis Ambitious—St. Louis College, Honolulu, is planning to raise a building fund of half a million dollars and Deputy Sheriff Julius Asch has been made chairman of the building committee.

Must Publish Accounts—Judge Banks has rendered a decision that the trustees of the Bishop Estate must hereafter publish in a Honolulu newspaper their annual accounts.

Butler Succeeds Mead—J. K. Butler, who has been traffic manager of the O. R. & L. Co., and whose appointment to succeed Royal D. Mead of the Planters' Association was announced a short time since, assumed his duties as secretary of the association Wednesday of this week.

Tax On Aliens—Provisions whereby an annual tax of $10 shall be paid by every male alien resident of the territory between the ages of 20 and 60 years for the support of the public school system, are contained in an administration bill introduced in the house by Chairman Henry J. Lyman of the educational committee.

Auto Underwriters Organize—The Hawaii Automobile Underwriters' association was formed at a meeting held last week and E. L. Knickerbocker was chosen president. P. F. Lee was selected vice president and Bernard Froiseth will be secretary and manager. The objects of the association are mainly to regulate the rates of automobile insurance in Honolulu.

Publicity For Islands—The Literary Digest promises the Hawaii Tourist Bureau to give Hawaii considerable free publicity in its December 12 number. Some time ago the Digest published a comprehensive, interesting article on "Summer Tours in America" omitting all mention of the Hawaiian Islands, evidently not appreciating the fact that the "Paradise of the Pacific" is as much a summer as a winter resort.

Hawaii Mills Building—Improvements by the Hawaii Consolidated Railroad and Brewer & Company plantations on the Big Island will approximate $300,000, is the report from Honolulu. Among the improvements are warehouses, one each for Onomea, Pepeekeo and Honoumuli and two for Hakalau. These are building to facilitate shipments by rail instead of to steamers direct.

New Mill Building—C. Brewer & Co., announces that Hilo Sugar Company is erecting a new and modern steel building over its Hilo Sugar Co. mill, the cost to be about $125,000.

Wood Will Go—Successor to Edward Wood as principal of Normal school will be made at a meeting of the commissioners of public instruction to be held November 20, it was announced in Honolulu last week. It is understood MacCaughy found the successor of Mr. Wood on his recent trip to the mainland. Woods says he has not quit and that he will seek exoneration.

Alien Homestead Case—Attorney General Irwin has filed a petition for the appointment of a United States citizen as guardian of the property of Echiro Okamura, four year old American born owner of 57 acres of Papahāna homestead land for the purpose of placing the land out of the control of the alien father.

Protection For Mothers—At the request of several organizations of women in the Islands Attorney General Irwin has prepared a resolution for the special session asking congress to include Hawaii in the bill for the protection of mothers and governmental efforts to cut down infant mortality.

More Homestead Lands—Assistant Territorial Surveyor A. S. Chaney is in Hilo under instructions from Commissioner of Public Lands C. T. Bailey to survey the Honoumuli lands, cutting them up into 30 and 40-acre lots for homesteads, says Hilo Tribune. Only the area in short cane will be surveyed and cut up into lots for the present, while the remainder of the 800 or more acres of excellent land in Honoumuli will not be opened until after the harvesting of the 1921 cane.

Honolulu Welfare Drive—Honolulu's annual welfare drive will begin November 29. The budget this year calls for $375,000 of which the Y. M. C. A. is to receive $79,866 for the central institution and branches.

Will Hold On—No other heads of the Federal Departments have as yet followed the example set by Governor McCarthy in announcing that they will tender their resignations on or immediately after March 4.

Honolulu Sewer Project—Plans are being made to start on or about January 1, on the Honolulu sewer project for which bonds were voted at the general election.

Year of Thirteen Months Proposed

Adoption of a new calendar of 13 months to the year to be known as the "Liberty Calendar" and to replace the Georgian Calendar now in use is provided in a measure now in congress and endorsement of the plan is asked of the Maui Chamber of Commerce in a communication which will come up at the next meeting.

It is urged that at present months are of differing length while under the proposed arrangement each month would be of 28 days, one would always know on what day of the week any day of the month would fall, on which day of the week the year would begin and on what day of the week each holiday would fall.

To carry out the plan New Year Day would become an independent legal holiday, not included in any week or any month, the remaining 364 days being equally divided by 13. Another independent holiday is provided in "leap year day" to dispose of the 366th day of each four years. It would stand between June and July and would not be included in either month nor in any week. In order to retain one seventh of the time for Sundays each seventh New Year Day would be New Year Sunday, and each seventh Leap Year Day as Leap Year Sunday. There would be four months of summer and three months in each other season. In naming the months the new month to be called "Liberty" would come between February and March, the names of the other months being unchanged.

Numerous favorable opinions to the project are contained in the communication.

THEATERS

"Broken Blossoms"
D. W. Griffith has produced a thing of rare and haunting charm in his latest picture, "Broken Blossoms." For whatever, that much abused word, art, may have come to mean or come not to mean by such application, "Broken Blossoms" has certainly a strong claim on it in its prime significance. First because of the delicate and directness with which the pathetic, horrible, exquisite story has been adapted for the screen; second, for the acting of Lillian Gish and Richard Barthelmess; third, for the photography, which has caught a beautiful effect throughout the whole piece.

The picture has been taken from "The Child and the Child," the first of the "Limehouse Nights" stories by Thomas Burke. Its scenes are laid in the dim lit alleys of the London "Chinatown," where the girl, "Lucia," twelve years old, having been beaten almost to death by her father, the prizefighter, Battling Burrows, is taken in and cared for by Cheng Huan, a young Chinaman. Cheng has watched her sufferings silently for a long time. His little room over his shop he fits up with silks and satins in honor of her coming. For three days he nurses her there back to health, tending her as his princess. Then the prizefighting father gets wind of where the child has disappeared and the tragedy follows quickly. Not, however, before some bits of almost lyric loveliness had penetrated through the sordid atmosphere of the tale.

Dorothy Dalton
An appealing drama of youth and its joys and follies is unfolded in Dorothy Dalton's new photoplay, "Guilty of Love."

The pretty star, playing the leading role, is Thelma Miller, a New England girl who becomes governess for a rich family. Falling in love with her employer's brother, her youth and innocence get her into difficulties. A forced marriage is the result, and Thelma disappears immediately afterward. Some time later, her husband discovers her teaching school in an outlying district and, by an unexpected turn of events, happiness is brought to them.

The heroine in "Guilty of Love" gives Miss Dalton just the type of emotional role for which she is best qualified.

Enid Bennett
It is rather a homely little drama of young married life that is unfolded in Enid Bennett's new picture, "Hairpins." It was adapted from an original story by C. Gardner Sullivan and produced in picture form by Thomas H. Ince.

Miss Bennett is wistfully appealing in the role of a young married woman who has become so much immersed in her household duties that she neglects her personal appearance and pleasures such as the theater and opera, which her husband likes to enjoy. Consequently, he turns his attention to his pretty stenographer and almost too late, the dutiful wife realizes the state of affairs. Blossoming almost overnight into a pretty society woman, she astounds her young husband and wins back his affection.—Adv.

REVENUES FOUND AMPLE

Fortunate indeed is Hawaii! When it looks forward to being financially embarrassed and casts about for ways and means to meet the expenses of government, just then it finds that it will have ample funds, even more than had been contemplated when the 1919 legislature made its appropriations and enacted means to meet the contemplated outlay. It is a rather peculiar state of affairs and appears to have arisen from Territorial officials not inquiring directly from the larger corporations of the Islands as to what incomes such corporations would have to report. From without there suddenly comes a bright light, away fly the glooms and sprightly joys replace them.

Governor McCarthy explains the situation in an article published elsewhere in this issue and the house committee has advised that the special income tax legislation be tabled.

And other legislation suggested by the Executive will go over to the regular session. This includes the proposed increase in teachers pay. The deficit in the school fund this year will, however, probably be provided for and made good. The legislature appears to be opposed to the Governor's plan to have the board of estimate, the school board and the treasurer determine the amounts needed each year for teachers' salaries and new school buildings and to fix the tax rate therefore, and that measure faces death. Thus the subjects for legislation which were given first place in the Governor's message seem destined either to fail or to be unacted upon at this time.

And the best of it all is that the people of the Territory do not seem to mind it at all and Maui has every reason to be pleased for its legislation is making good headway toward enactment.

The bill which permits of an increase in taxes for the upkeep and maintenance of Kula Sanitarium and county hospitals has passed the senate and is in the house, the measure for appropriation for a new high school building is in the same position, the Kahului Wharf bill seems certain of enactment and the bill which will provide funds for a jury term of court is in good position.

SAVING THE INNOCENTS

It was the Civic Convention at Hilo that there was voiced the startling information that in Hawaii nei 11 of every 100 children born failed to reach the age of one year. One in every ten lives flickers out within a year. Small wonder the women of Hawaii have been aroused, sickened, appalled and seek to find a remedy.

In congress there is pending a measure for the conservation of children and for the safe guarding of mothers. As is too often the case "Hawaii is not included in the provisions in that measure." Nowhere else is there greater need than here, it would appear. Leaving out the humanitarian aspects and considering the loss purely as a business matter necessity for action is apparent. Conservation of energy is a business maxim of this day and man is energy in the concrete, the child the source of future energy. One tenth of that future supply is being lost. To stop the loss is good business, but that has not been the moving influence of the women of Hawaii who have secured the drafting of a resolution asking the inclusion of Hawaii, which the legislature is to send to congress and which reads as follows:

"Whereas, it is shown by the vital statistics of the Territory of Hawaii that during the year 1920 a total of 1111 children have died while under the age of one year, constituting a death rate among such children of 109.30 per thousand, and that 61 mothers have died during the same period from puerperal causes, and

"Whereas, it is the opinion of the president of the territorial board of health and other competent authority that a very large proportion of this mortality could have been avoided by proper care of the mother during pregnancy and of such children immediately subsequent to birth.

"Whereas, there is now pending in the Congress of the United States a bill providing for the proper protection of maternity and infancy and providing for a method of cooperation between the government of the United States and the several states, and

"Whereas, by its terms the said bill excludes the Territory of Hawaii from participation in its benefits, and

"Whereas, the Territory of Hawaii contributes annually to the revenues of the United States a sum greater than that contributed by many of the states, and is with the states equally entitled to the assistance offered by the bill, and

"Whereas, the Territory of Hawaii is willing and anxious to cooperate with the government of the United States for the purposes and in the manner indicated in said bill.

"Now, therefore be it resolved by the Senate of the Legislature of the Territory of Hawaii, the House of Representatives concurring, that the Congress of the United States of America be and hereby is requested to amend said bill so as to authorize and permit the Territory of Hawaii to cooperate with the government of the United States for the purposes and in the manner indicated in said bill, and

"Be it further resolved that certified copies of this resolution be forwarded to the President of the United States, the president of the senate, the speaker of the house of representatives, the chairman of the committee on territories of the senate and the house of representatives and to the delegate to Congress from Hawaii."

FOREIGN SCHOOLS AGAIN

With several bills for elimination or regulation of foreign language schools introduced in the house and others in the senate, with Speaker Holstein urging passage of such legislation at this session and the early sentiment of the senate for no action until the regular session and with the Honolulu Chamber of Commerce swinging right-about from drastic legislation to favoring of a "regulation bill" presented to it by the Japanese, the subject seems to be almost as near settlement as it was when pending in the 1919 legislature. The lack of unanimity on the subject is quite as shocking now as then.

So far as the "about face" of the chamber of commerce goes, it seems to have been brought about by Lorrin A. Thurston who has proved an able advocate of regulation instead of elimination. It is admitted, however, the proposed bill is purely experimental. It places a considerable additional power in the department of public instruction and at the same time is conciliatory, a partial yielding to Japanese sentiment. It has been introduced by Senator Baldwin at the request

The Optimistic Pessimist

Hawaii's special legislative session develops the fact the Territory is far better off than it was thought. If the average person would from time to time have a "special session" with himself or with herself he or she would find himself or herself far happier than he or she thought.

Most of us get a whole lot more of the good things out of life than we deserve and if we would only be candid with ourselves we would admit it.

It's a good idea to cast up in one's mind causes for rejoicing on Thanksgiving day before dinner rather than afterward if one is inclined to suffer from indigestion.

At least the special session of the legislature will enable the old and the new members to get acquainted with one another.

Increase in the sugar crop the coming year over the one that has just passed will mean that a lower price for raws will not hit so hard after all.

The best way to be thankful is to make some one else happy by a kindly word or deed. A word of kindly commendation often is more valued than a costly gift.

One good thing about making a mistake is that one does not have to give an encore. One mistake is excusable but there is no excuse for repetition.

Half the world doesn't know how the other half lives but the two halves do not exchange calls or attend the same sewing circles.

The best thing about the magazines that start a story on one page, continue it 50 pages further back and then run a column or less between advertisements on succeeding pages is one doesn't have to read the darn things.

I'd rather be a Could Be
If I could not be an Are,
For a Could Be is a Maybe
With a chance of touching par.
I'd rather be a Has Been
Than a Might Have Been by far;
For a Might Have Been has never been,
But a Has was once an Are.
—Stanford Chaparral.

Here in the Islands next Thursday one will not have to listen to stories of "How I used to go skating on Thanksgiving Day" or how there always "used to be good sleighing at this season when I was a child."

Some people growl as much about kona storm as a New Yorker does when he hits Boston with the usual East wind a blowing.

One way a chap can make up for the fact that he missed out when a boy because there were then no Boy Scouts is to join in with the boys in their scouting now. Astonishing how it freshens a fellow up and brightens his outlook on life.

of the Honolulu Chamber of Commerce and may effect a compromise. Only one thing is clear and that is that in the business community and in both houses of the legislature sentiment has not fully crystallized and if action is to be taken at the special session it may mean prolongation of it.

HOME COMES FIRST

At the end of this month and the opening days of next Honolulu will have its United Welfare Drive and it is not unlikely that some Mauiites will be solicited to contribute. At such time it is well to remember in the giving that Maui has its own welfare work to continue and to enlarge and to use judgment in the giving.

Looking over the list of beneficiaries of the coming drive it can be noted that some of them are doing work in the whole territory with headquarters at Honolulu, others are essentially of interest and benefit to Honolulu and yet others duplicate work that is done on Maui. In the first class may be mentioned the Salvation Army's Girls' and Boys' Homes which meet a need which the Territory itself neglects, supplying an orphan's home and a place for youngsters who do not belong in the industrial schools and yet for whom no place is provided. Similar in scope is the King's Daughters home for aged women.

On the other hand the Y. M. C. A. and the Y. W. C. A. are doing work in Honolulu from which Maui receives only an indirect and remote benefit, the Boys' Clubs and Boy Scouts and Girl Scouts duplicate in Honolulu work Maui is doing at home and Palama Settlement is essentially a Honolulu concern.

It is possible for the giver to designate the institutions to benefit by his or her contribution and so it is possible in giving to make selection as one desires and to keep in mind that "Charity begins at home."

Honolulu swimming circles are reported as suggesting that a pension be tendered Duke Kahanamoku by the Territory. Duke is young, strong, perfectly able to win his own way as he wins his own races. Maui News does not believe he would accept a pension if offered to him and considers it would be an insult to him. It would make him a professional to accept it and if Duke wants to use his swimming prowess for living purposes he can make a great deal more than any pension that is likely to be considered.

Patient, of kindly disposition, never wilfully doing an act which might injure another, wielding the power which was his as an editor and a news writer so as to harm no one when harm could be avoided, preferring to dwell upon that which was good rather than that which was ill, the southern gentlemen in courtly manners, those who knew L. D. Timmons sorrow at his death, most especially those whose lot was to work beside or with him as did the editor of this paper for several months.

In the death of Dr. Victor Norgaard, territorial veterinarian, Hawaii has sustained a loss which those who know his work will appreciate. He was one of the leading authorities on contagious diseases in animals and treatment of animals for them. His faithful work when the anthrax epidemic was in the Islands can well be remembered at the time of his passing.

Blame for non-enforcement of the traffic ordinance to prevent glaring headlights should not be placed upon the sheriff and his deputies. The ordinance is so faulty and imperfect in that particular that officials can do practically nothing.

When Representative Norman Lyman as temporary speaker introduced H. L. Holstein as "speaker for the 1921 session," Lorrin Andrews shook his head violently," says The Advertiser. Perhaps some significance does attach to the head shaking, "Quien sabe."

Passage of the bill which enables Maui County to increase its tax rate to support Kula Sanitarium and the county hospitals without depleting the general fund will mean that road improvements can go on.

"Scandal enjoyed by large audience" says a headline. No news in that. Scandal seems to be enjoyed by small or large audiences any time it is talked.

"Kuhio says he is willing to take job of governor" is a Star-Bulletin headline. Would not the word "anxious" more clearly express the sentiment of the Delegate?

Fifteen Inmates of Leper Settlement Are Granted Their Parole

Fifteen inmates of Molokai Settlement were paroled by the board of health at the meeting held recently. These inmates will be free to leave the settlement and go wherever they may so desire, but a majority of them have agreed to report to the health authorities at stated intervals for observation and, should occasion arise, undergo further treatment at Kailahi hospital.

The action of the board was taken on recommendation of the parole commission which recently visited Molokai to examine 35 applicants who had asked to be paroled from the settlement. The commission examined 31 of the applicants, the one other failing to turn up for examination while the commission was on Molokai.

Three of the inmates paroled, two men and one woman, who have held minor official positions at the settlement, have asked to remain there as kokua, permission being voted by the board that they remain as such.

One of the paroled inmates had been at the settlement for 31 years, being now 59 years old. While he desired a parole he also wished to remain there. He was the first inmate known to have taken the Chaulmoogra oil treatment, though this was in its original, crude form and not the refined product which is now being used with what is claimed to be the most successful results. This inmate began to take the treatment in 1903.

It was reported at the meeting that there are fully 35 inmates at the settlement who could be paroled if they would only apply for this, but they have become so attached to the place, having formed new ties and connections on Molokai, that they do not desire to leave it.

Wants Government Aid.—Hawaii County, through its board of supervisors will take up the question of federal aid for building the Volcano road. The stand will be taken that it is a road leading into and through the Hawaii National Park and is along lines of a resolution passed by the Civic Convention recently held in Hilo.

Policemen Are Suspected.—Customs inspectors in Honolulu assert that certain police officers are regularly engaged in smuggling opium and in traffic in the contraband. An investigation is in progress.

With the Alert Boy Scouts of Maui

The Scout oath and law are bound together by the first and last utterances "On my honor I will do my best to do my duty to God." "A Scout is reverent." (The Boy Scout program is designed to supplement but not to supplant the Church, the School and the Home.)

The supreme contribution will be made by the Boy Scout movement if every man stands true to his own religious convictions and LIVES THEM before his boys. LIVES THEM but does not use his scout office as an opportunity to teach "religion" to boys. The teaching of religion is the function of the church. It is the function of Scouting to help a boy to live the religion he is taught.

REMEMBER YOU ARE DUST

There was a scoutmaster who continually got into trouble with his boys. He simply got in bad no matter what he did. No one could discover just why. Apparently he was all that a scoutmaster should be. Despairing and ready to give up, HE REMEMBERED.

He remembered what boys are made of. He remembered himself as a boy. He put himself in the boys' place.

Then he started in to curb his desire to see Scouting excellence in a boy the minute he put on a scout badge. When problems came up, he remembered in time, and looked at them from a boy's point of view. Each time he conceived some big idea for his troop, he remembered that they were boys, and brought his plans down to their limitations. Every time a scout or a patrol or the whole troop did something worthy of notice, he remembered how he would have felt had he been a boy in such a case, and how he would have coveted notice and applause. He is now the best Scoutmaster in his town.

WITH THE TROOPS

Waihee. Last Friday night was the first meeting of the Waihee with the commissioner. It will be a night long remembered by him, not because of the great size of the crowd, not because the boys were neatly uniformed, not because they were high school graduates, but because they were deeply interested in getting started in real scouting.

When the commissioner arrived he found a number of real live boys waiting in front of the old mill building. One boy had a small glass house lamp and another had the chimney.

Scoutmaster M. J. Sorpa called the meeting to order and after roll call the gang started in to learn the intricate work of knot tying. Can they tie knots? Well I guess yes!

The light was not bright, but the boys made up for this lack by the light hearted way in which they went to work.

With a little coaching Waihee is going to have a troop that will be a record maker.

STARTING THE TROOP RIGHT

The following taken from the Chicago Council, Boy Scouts of America is so good that I feel that all those interested in the Scout movement here should read it.

Things to Remember

1. Scouting is founded on the gang spirit. Boys are not taken out of their sphere into a strange one, to be PREACHED AT. Cultivate and direct this gang spirit until it takes on the form of organized Scouting.

2. Do not make the mistake of placing too little emphasis on the oath and law for "On my honor I WILL DO," and "A SCOUT IS THRUSTWORTHY" and all the rest appeal very strongly to the boy.

3. ACTION is the one word which explains why boys like it from the first. As the degree of action varies, so will the Scout's enthusiasm rise and fall.

4. Scouting is a GAME. Every boy likes to play. A boy never works quite so hard as when he plays—make his work play and he will not grow tired.

HELPS TO SCOUTMASTERS

Read carefully the literature and instructions to be obtained from the commissioner of Maui Council.

2. The Hand Book and the Scoutmaster's manual should be thoroughly studied before attempting organization.

3. The greatest help to you is the trained commissioner who gives all his time, thought and organizing ability to Scouting on this island.

4. The success of your Scout troop does not depend upon how soon you have the first meeting, nor on the large number of boys you enroll. Twelve boys make an ideal number for a new troop. This number might be increased to 15 without bad results, but the new Scoutmaster should not make more than that number unless he has another man who will devote as much time to the troop as himself.

Children's Corner

(By Miss A. W. Paul.)

Nickety Nip went to look for the boys in the same field where he saw them working the last time but could not find them, so he popped over to the reservoir thinking they might be fishing there, but no sign of them, so he climbed up one of the new telegraph poles and looked around, couldn't see them, he began to think it must be because the sun was in his eyes, so pulled one of his ears which were almost as big as his head, down over his eyes and had another look. This time he saw a lot of dust on the road, and thought maybe they were down there, and as it was a hot day, he made a raft of sugar cane and thought he would sail down the flume instead of walking, but he remembered that other people had tried that before, and fallen into deep holes and very nearly got drowned, so changed his mind, coiled up behind a clump of milk weed and waited until some one came along who would give him a lift.

Well the first thing which came along was, what do you think? a cow, so as Nickety knew that cows were not supposed to be in the cane fields, he caught hold of her tail, swung up onto her back, and away the two of them went at a line clip, and Nickety was glad because he was doing a good turn by driving the cow out of the field, as well as having a ride. As soon as they got to the road Nickety spied a lot of small boys and girls walking along, so jumped down and got behind the fence on the same side of the road to watch what they were doing, thought perhaps they were playing a new game which he could pass on to some other children, but soon found that they were not playing at all, and was just going to speak to them, in fact had cleared his throat with such a noise that one of the little girls thought the cow was cross, and began to cry, when along came a motor, and right away some of the children ran to the left and some to the right, and one even started to run back again, so that the driver nearly ran over them, and Nickety thought, it is about time someone taught these children to be careful, so he called out to them eh!, they looked round and saw him, and he climbed up the sign post and asked them if they understood what the words on it meant? and they saw that it was one which they saw every day, "Safety First," which means, when you are walking along the road always keep to the right hand side, and before you cross a road Stop Look and Listen, and then you will be quite safe from any fear of accident.

Remarks By the Principal

Song Cocoa Palm.

PLANTING TREES

The most enjoyable part of the program was music by the phonograph. Many of the children never saw or heard one before. When the first piece was played the little ones got so excited that their faces shone like sun because with eyes and mouth as big as saucers. They were so happy that any one who saw them can't help but enjoy themselves watching the different expressions on their faces.

Miss Peck, a book agent, visited our school and she too enjoyed watching the children. She was very kind to offer to send a new record for the school but we were sorry to tell her we didn't own one and that the one we were using for the program was a borrowed one.

The program closed by planting alligator pear trees. Maui needs fruits so we are going to plant trees in Kihai.

The three teachers and their pupils passed out in the yard and each with her group of children planted their trees. Each room is trying hard to keep it's tree looking the best.

Next year we want to plant some coconut trees and make Kihai a beautiful place.

So if any one has any coconut trees to spare the Kihai School wants some.

GARDENING AT KIHAI SCHOOL

We've just started our gardens. Seeds have been planted and they are now growing. Sorry we are not lucky, because the chickens ate up most of the young shoots.

Ha! Ha! By Tuesday those old chickens will be penned up and we are going to have vegetables—"Hurrah!"

The Deisel Engine

AN extraordinary efficiency, the highest so far known to the engineering world, an ability to assume immediately any change of load within its capacity automatically and with practically no variation in speed, economy of fuel consumption and small cost of attendance are some of the Deisel's claims upon your consideration. Seventy thousand horsepower of Diesel engines are in successful operation in twenty-six States of the Union.

SPORTS

Program of Sports and Masquerade Dance Will Usher in the New Year

Tentative program for New Year's sports and a masquerade dance was outlined by the Athletic Committee of the Maui County Fair and Racing Association at a meeting held Wednesday night. The sports program will include foot racing, baseball and soccer and the ball will be held New Year's eve.

Preliminary to the ball which is to be held in the Territorial building there will be a basket ball game, contestants to be later determined and named.

The New Year's day program will be varied with a good baseball game as an outstanding feature. Hilo is to be given first chance as an outside competitor. This was decided in view of the unfortunate situation that arose just prior to the Fair when uncertainty of the Big Island sending over a competitor necessitated the withdrawal of the invitation to a Hilo team to participate in the fair series. If, however, a Hilo team does not accept the invitation for the New Year's day game a strong team will be invited to come from Honolulu. The remainder of the athletic program will be arranged by a special committee. Mr. McNecke has charge of the securing of a visiting ball team.

Prior to the Athletic Committee's meeting that body met with the Ground Committee of the Fair and Racing Association and various subjects were discussed among them being the using of the Territorial Building for the basketball games, and the necessary improvements and fixtures were planned in detail. The improvement of the baseball diamond was also discussed and a general bill was considered necessary to bring the grounds into good condition for such sports as soccer and football. The matter of tennis courts, also having been brought up, it was decided that an area large enough for more than

Fair Tug o' War Cup Won by Wailuku Team

Wailuku's tug of war team takes the cup offered by the Fair and Racing Association. It won the pull off Sunday afternoon from Lahaina by gaining the requisite 18 inches of rope in 53 minutes. This gave the Wailuku their second victory in three trials and a happy, noisy bunch that roared home Sunday night.

After more than an hour of delays at Lahaina both teams were at last ready for the signal after 4:30 o'clock. When Starter Bowker gave the word the Wailuku team got the drop and took 5 inches on the jump. That advantage Lahaina was never able to make up to overcome. Wailuku held and made a gain of some two inches more up to 51 minutes of pulling. Then came the finish and the necessary eleven more inches of rope were gained.

From the start Lahaina's task was almost hopeless. As the teams dropped the rope slipped down from the waist of the Lahaina anchor and was around his leg. It was only a question of time that he would have to make an effort to get it in proper place. When the Wailuku captain and coach, C. E. N. Rose, saw the effort was to be made he gave his team the signal and it was all over quickly. Wailuku's team, considerably outweighed by the Lahaina's, was composed of Bill Cockett, Sam Naeole, Henry de la Cruz, Frank Lawrence, Sam Kaulane, Kahiki Peepoe and William Enos (anchor). Carl Rose was captain and coach.

Punahou, Kamehameha and McKeenley are now tied for the Honolulu Inter-scholastic championship each with two victories and one defeat.

Michigan has this year defeated its old time rival, Chicago, 14-0.

Two courts should be set aside to provide for the expansion of the courts when more than two were found desirable.

Sport Brevities

Kinju strengthened his hold on his wrestling title last week when he defeated Gene Rodgers of San Francisco in the Armory at Honolulu, taking first fall in 11 and second fall in six minutes.

Ball players from Waseda University, Japan, are expected to reach Honolulu in March.

Judge Landis has consented to head organized baseball to save the game for the kids. His acceptance is considered to automatically abolish the 12 team league for the formation of which steps were recently taken.

Members of the Davis cup team are expected to give an exhibition game of tennis in Honolulu tomorrow or Sunday while the Niagara is in that port.

Princeton Tigers fairly devoured Eli Yale last Saturday. The score in the Eastern football classic was 20 to 0 in favor of Princeton.

Harvard has defeated Brown University 27-0.

West Point ran up one of the biggest scores of the season when it met and defeated the Bowdoin eleven by 50 to 0.

HOLIDAY TRAP SHOOTING

Trap shooting will be the sports feature of Thanksgiving Day on Maui and one of the largest fields ever entered in such an event is expected to be at the Fair Grounds.

The match which is planned has resulted from a challenge from Lahaina and it is expected there will be at least four contesting teams, one from the challengers, two from Wailuku and one from Paia. If a recess is taken over the holiday by the legislature it is probable that some of the law makers will take their relaxation at the traps.

TEAM CHANGES NAME

The basket ball team formerly known as the Maui Drug Co. Team has changed its name. It is to be called the "Jazz Quintet." The boys are going to give demonstrations of their jazzing abilities in each game. They are determined to "jazz" away with the senior championship. Watch 'em!

Discrimination Alleged—Francisco Varona, special commissioner to Hawaii from the Philippines to investigate labor conditions for the Filipinos here is quoted in Hilo papers as saying his countrymen complain they are not so well treated as other nationalities. He considers perhaps the reason is that they are not here with the idea of remaining definitely or permanently.

No Favorites Played—An article touching on travel throughout the four main islands was written by the secretary of the Tourist Bureau for the Christmas number of the Paradise of the Pacific magazine.

Position in Washington In Tendered to McCarthy

Governor Charles J. McCarthy will enter on a two-year term June 1 as Washington representative of the Honolulu Chamber of Commerce.

This was decided at a meeting of the chamber last week when the recommendation of the board of directors for the appointment was approved by a unanimous vote.

George McK. McClellan, present Washington representative of the chamber, will retire from that position November 30 on the expiration of his term. The chamber will be represented in the national capital in the interval until June 1 by S. M. Ballou, Washington representative of the Hawaiian Sugar Planters' Association.

Raymond C. Brown, secretary of the chamber, will go to Washington in March to remain three months familiarizing himself with affairs for the benefit of the chamber. In addition to his salary he will be paid $2500 for expenses during his absence from Honolulu. He has not had a vacation in eight years.
