IIWILEI IS SUPPRESSED BY PRIVATE INITIATIVE

Trustees of Kaumakapili Church Give the Slaves at Least Temporary Liberty.

Cause Must Be Shown Why the Injunction Should Not Be Perpetual—Acting Gov- ernor Cooper Decides to Help Abolish the Corral.

Acting Governor H. E. Cooper yesterday afternoon held a conference on Iwilei for which he had arranged several days ago. Members of the Ministerial Association and heads of departments conferred with him in the executive chamber. Afterward the Acting Governor and several of the officials consulted over the matter in private.

The result of the after council was a decision that there should be a change in the mode of executing the Act to Mitigate. It was only at the conference, incidentally, that the executive learned of action having been taken independently of the Territorial authorities for the suppression of the immoral slave pen of Iwilei. The die had been cast by the trustees of Kaumakapili church.

Iwilei Is Enjoined.
A bill in equity for injunction and damages was brought before Judge Gear in the District Court, upon which a temporary injunction was issued along with an order to show cause, on the first day of July, why the owner, lessees and managers should not be perpetually enjoined and restrained from carrying on the unlawful business set forth in the complaint.

S. M. Kanaokalani, president of the board of trustees, and Asa Kahala, W. B. Kanehale, M. K. Nakuna, S. K. Kane, S. H. Oni, J. W. Nakuna, S. K. Kamae, W. H. Kallina, Chas. Mahoe, S. Kaloa and Nahala, members of and composing the board of trustees of Kaumakapili church, are the plaintiffs. The defendants are John E. B. O'Connell, Eugene O'Sullivan and Kamehameha, lessees and managers of the Iwilei stockade.

The complaint gives the status of Kaumakapili church as having been ever since February 27, 1875, a regularly organized, religious, evangelical Christian association, etc. This association was authorized by a resolution passed at a special meeting of the trustees held on a day in June, 1901.

It then goes on to say that ever since a day in July, 1900, the defendants—whose relations to the place are stated as above—have been in control of those certain premises known as Iwilei, consisting of about a half an acre of land enclosed within a stockade and situated opposite to and southeast of Kaumakapili church building. A description of metes and bounds is given, and it is added that, with reference to the premises of plaintiffs, the stockade Iwilei is across the street and not more than one hundred feet distant therefrom.

Complainants allege that defendants, knowing the use to which said premises were being put, have been each of them since a day in July, 1900, and now are "engaged in keeping, maintaining and conducting in and upon said Iwilei a public nuisance, to wit: a notorious bawdy house, which has been and is being, notoriously and openly kept and maintained and conducted by defendants for lewd, lascivious and unlawful cohabitation and sexual intercourse between men and women not married to each other."

It is set forth that the injury to plaintiffs is a special and separate injury apart from the injury inflicted upon the people, in that said bawdy house lessens the value of plaintiffs' property and diminishes and interferes with its use and enjoyment thereof by plaintiffs and the congregation of Kaumakapili church, to plaintiffs' damage in the sum of five thousand dollars, and inflicts upon the plaintiffs great and irreparable injury not capable of estimation or compensation in damages, and that plaintiffs are without remedy at law.

The prayer is for an award of $5000 damages to plaintiffs, and "that the defendants and each of them, their agents, servants, employees, tenants, sub-tenants and all persons claiming or to claim under, through or by them, be enjoined and restrained from keeping, maintaining, conducting or promoting, or suffering to be kept, maintained or conducted in, upon or about said premises known as Iwilei and particularly described in this bill of complaint, any bawdy house, house of prostitution or resort for the purpose of unlawful cohabitation; that such injunction issue pending the final hearing and determination of this action, and that upon such final hearing and determination such injunction be made perpetual; and for costs and for such other and further and different relief as equity and good conscience call for and as the court may see fit."

Those, Fitch and S. K. Kane are attorneys for complainants.

Affidavit by Mr. Arbill.

Among appended documents is an affidavit by Rev. W. K. Arbill. He de-poses to the common bad reputation of the house, declaring that it has been and is occupied by more than one hundred public prostitutes, who have been and are openly and notoriously plying their vocation therein. Most of the inmates so described are named by deponent. He further gives the names of twelve women who, on the 13th of last April, between 8:30 and 11 p. m., were each locked in a room with a man not her husband for a space of time from fifteen to sixty minutes.

The Proceedings.
Judge Gear issued an order to defendants to appear at 9:30 a. m. on July 1, or as soon thereafter as counsel could be heard, and show cause why the prayed-for injunction should not be made perpetual, in the meantime putting the injunction temporarily in force.

A bond for costs was accepted in the sum of $200, being signed by G. P. Castle, W. R. Castle and S. M. Kanaokalani.

The Conference.
The conference in the Governor's room was attended by Revs. W. M. Kincaid, W. K. Asbill, W. D. Westervelt and A. E. Cory of the Ministerial Association. With Acting Governor Cooper were present Attorney General E. P. Dole, Superintendent of Public Works J. H. Boyd, High Sheriff A. M. Brown, Commissioner of Agriculture Wray Taylor, Dr. C. B. Cooper, president of the Board of Health; Dr. R. P. Myers, indoor city physician, and Julian Monsarrat, member of the House of Representatives.

Attorney General Dole was seen shortly after the conference. He said it was called by invitation of the Acting Governor. The subject of Iwilei was discussed with the clergymen from every point of view so far as they were concerned. Being asked if measures were considered for preventing the spread of the evil throughout town upon the now seemingly inevitable dissolution of the foul spot, the Attorney General answered in the affirmative, but declined to give particulars of either discussions or decisions—explaining that his reticence was not from a belief that the information ought to be withheld from the press, but because he did not consider himself the proper one to give it out.

"After the conference with the members of the Ministerial Association," Mr. Dole said, "the heads of departments consulted with Mr. Cooper, and it was the consensus of opinion that there should be a change." Asked to state if this meant the abolition of Iwilei, Mr. Dole replied:

"A change in the operation of the Act to Mitigate."
Mr. Dole was asked at the outset if the conference had to do with the question of what action the Government would take relative to the injunction proceedings instituted by Kaumakapili church. His answer was to close Iwilei. Regarding the conference of that afternoon, Mr. Asbill said:

"Some days ago, when I was in conference with Mr. Cooper on the matter of pardoning Japanese prisoners unlawfully convicted, Mr. Cooper said that since taking the position of Acting Governor he had been giving attention to the subject of Iwilei for himself. At this instance I gave him my views upon the subject. He expressed a desire to have a discussion with the Ministerial Association, and accordingly he made an appointment for yesterday's conference."

"In the meantime, at Mr. Cooper's request, I accompanied him to the stockade and gave him information and reasons why the place should be closed, especially the evil of involuntary servitude."

"It was a remark of Mr. Westervelt at the conference which apprised the Acting Governor of the injunction proceedings."

"Every phase of the subject was discussed. Mr. Kincaid insisted on enforcing the law, not against those outside the stockade alone, but against the inmates of that place and all concerned in its maintenance."

"The alternative of breaking up Iwilei was discussed, Mr. Cooper wishing to know what he believed would be the result. Mr. Boyd had expressed fear of danger to Hawaiians."

"In response to these remarks we said that we had a Rescue Home started by the Salvation Army and that we were taking steps to provide another home for friendless, not fallen, women. The whole Christian community was ready with zeal and assistance to support the Government. We knew of no other remedy except to carry out the law and abide by the consequences. The point was made that there are a great many Japanese women in whom their masters would not be interested except for gain. These would be abandoned, and we were prepared to take care of all such."

Injunction Becomes Operative.

High Sheriff Brown deferred putting the injunction in force until 9 o'clock last night, so that all of the regular denizens of the place might be there to learn the decree. At 10 o'clock an inquiry from The Republican office by telephone was answered by the policeman on watch, to the effect that the gates were not closed, but that there were no women inside the stockade. Iwilei is therefore suppressed temporarily, with every prospect of the suppression being made perpetual. Between the attack made upon the slave corral privately by Kaumakapili church and the avowed intention of the executive to withdraw the props of official sanction, by which alone such an institution could have existed in violation of the laws, Iwilei may be regarded as fallen.

Uniform for the "Finest."

The uniforms for the Police baseball team have been decided upon. Manager Charles Chillingworth selected a combination of blue and white as the colors which will carry the peace officers onward to victory in their contests on the grassy diamond.

Chinese Registration.
Roy Chamberlain, Collector of Internal Revenue, was able to announce yesterday that the total number of Chinese registered for the Territory was 28,936. From this is to be deducted perhaps a hundred for blanks spoiled in transmission, etc.

JULY FOURTH CELEBRATION OM TTED AFTER MANY YEARS

The meeting of the Fourth of July Committee at the Drill Shed yesterday evening brought out G. W. Smith and about half a dozen other patriotic citizens who declared with Mr. Smith that as things had gone so far and nothing had been done there was how no time for a regular public celebration. The rowing races at Pearl River will take place on the morning of the Fourth and mostly everybody will be there, not returning until afternoon when any parade or exercises would come to be held. It was deemed that coming home from the races the people would be too tired to be patriotic and so the meeting adjourned.

This is the first time in a generation, probably, that Honolulu goes without a public Fourth of July celebration.

NEWS OF THE TOWN.

F. M. Swany has returned from a business trip to Kaula points.

The drought in Hamakua continues. Kau and Kona report quite frequent showers.

Harmony Lodge No. 3, I. O. O. F., held a regular meeting yesterday evening at Harmony Hall.

The pipe organ for Kawaiahoe church arrived from San Francisco in the bark Mohican Sunday.

Mrs. W. H. Rice and Miss Emily Rice were among the returning passengers in the Mikahala from Kaula Sunday.

Miss Griswold's farewell concert will be the event of this evening. All lovers of good music should secure seats this morning.

The flags for the championship races at Pearl Harbor on July 4th were placed on the course Sunday afternoon by Guy Gere and Arthur Wilder.

Theo. Wores, artist, has just completed a fine life-sized portrait in oil of Hon. A. S. Cleghorn. The picture will be hung in the Pacific Club.

J. K. Burkett, school inspector for the island of Kaula, has returned from an extended visit to the schools of the Garden Isle. He came in the Mikahala Sunday.

Dr. Taylor and Dr. Wayson have been appointed on the board of medical examiners for licenses to practice medicine in the Territory. The board now consists of Drs. Taylor, Wayson and Andrews.

The Independent learns that Anthony L. Ahlo, the young Honolulu Chinaman, has graduated at Cambridge as a Bachelor of Arts, also that he has acquired a wife and her since going to England.

J. W. Bergstrom, the Fort street music dealer, was made the happy recipient of a bouncing son which put in an appearance at his home yesterday morning. All pianos looked alike to Mr. Bergstrom yesterday.

The Territorial band entertained a good-sized throng at Emma Square yesterday evening at the regular weekly concert. Hawaiian songs and special music assisted in completing a very enjoyable program.

Andrew I. Straum and Mrs. Ura Scrimger were married at Inglefield, Vineyard street, at 8:30 last night by Rev. G. L. Pearson, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church. Without display or a large company, it was a pleasant wedding.

A host of Aberdonians is employed among the granite workers on the Young building. One of them named Murray is the champion Scottish dancer of the Western States and an excellent piper. He will play the bagpipes at the Thistle Club meeting next Friday evening.

TRADE SECRETS AND HONEST HORSE-RACING

HORSE TALK IN THE POLICE COURT

CUNNINGHAM-MORGAN CONSPIRACY CASE LAUNCHED YESTERDAY AFTERNOON.

Failing Memory of Witness Exasperating to Attorneys—That "Pill" and How It Was Not Administered Leeper Quizzed on Past Turf Life.

To the innocent and unsophisticated in race track lore, the few hours spent at Judge Wilcox's court yesterday afternoon certainly proved profitable as well as startling.

The conspiracy case in which charges were made against W. M. Cunningham and J. A. Morgan was shown yesterday on the boards at the District Court throughout the entire afternoon. The session dragged along until almost five o'clock, when Judge Wilcox becoming restive informed the attorneys that while they might have a vast amount of gas concealed about them, nevertheless they would be unable to furnish artificial lights when the orb of day sank slowly into the west. Tom Leeper, the first and chief witness for the prosecution, was still on the stand undergoing a wearisome and unprofitable cross-examination at the hands of Attorney W. L. Stanley when the court adjourned.

Horse owners, trainers, jockeys, and a general ensemble of race track followers were out in force to witness the trial. Through channels dark and devious the questionable methods employed by followers of the race track at a modern and up-to-date race meeting were brought out in all their sordid rottenness. Long drawn out explanations in regard to the manner a horse could be "fixed" in order that certain members of the betting fraternity could have a double-barreled clinch upon the money of the sucker were outlined in detail. Veiled references were made to "doping the animal." The definition of "a slicker" was made for the edification of the court and ignorant attorneys. The slang of the race track and the horse paddock floated about the confines of the court room in solid chunks. The very atmosphere became so surcharged with horse talk that a faint odor of the equine was perceptible, as the debate warmed up to the point of summer heat.

The first half hour was spent in a wrangle between the attorneys of the opposing sides of the case. Prince David was represented by Attorney W. A. Kinney. Messrs. Cunningham and Morgan's interests were taken in hand by a galaxy of legal stars including Attorneys Thomas Fitch, Andrews and Stanley. Attorney Fitch took the ground in the beginning that the facts stated in the complaint against the defendants did not constitute a case, as the acts which are claimed to constitute a crime are not set forth in proper manner. He claimed that the complaint failed to state the nature of the "drug" to have been administered to the horse. There was nothing to show in said complaint that there were any harmful properties contained in the drug.

Attorney Kinney for the prosecution maintained that the defendants should be held for malicious injury in the first degree. The battle between the legal lights continued to range until Lorrin Andrews attempted to file a demurrer verbally. The court promptly called him down. "We want the papers in this court. We want every phase of this loose way of doing business," insisted Judge Wilcox. "First thing I know, they will be sending over from the higher courts requesting the original documents, and I will not have them." Attorney Fitch proceeded to write out the demurrer.

Andrews and the court had several tilts over legal points before the case came properly to trial. While the prosecution was ready for trial forthwith, the defense endeavored to have the case carried up to a higher court.

"I think your memory is quite bad when you set up the claim that cases are continually going up from this court to the higher ones," said the court, addressing himself to Andrews. Words passed back and forth in merry fashion for a time until reference was made to the constitution following the flag.

"Yes, I have heard a good deal about the constitution following the flag for the past week or so," mused the court. "However, I am of the opinion that it depends considerably on which side the attorneys are on in determining the exact status in the matter."

The last engagement between the attorneys for the defendants and the court resulted in defeat for the lawyers. A ruling was made that a separate trial for the two defendants would not be allowed. The trial then proceeded.

Tom Leeper was the only witness examined. Evidently Leeper is a young man who possesses a very limited knowledge of Honolulu, its streets and localities in general. On the other hand he is, as he justly claimed, "a wise guy" when it comes to the intricacies and ramifications of the race course. Throughout his long session in the witness box Leeper affected a remarkable poor memory. Dates apparently were entirely foreign to him. In direct testimony conducted by Attorney Kinney, the young man succeeded in relating a pretty fairly connected story of the overtures alleged to have been made to him by Cunningham and Morgan in regard to "queering" Prince David's horse. Weiler, in the long-winded cross-examination conducted by Stanley, the witness at times showed signs of becoming angry, and for several stretches at a time it was a case of give and take between the witness and the attorney with the honors very even.

In his testimony Leeper stated he was a care taker at Prince David's stables. He been in Honolulu for the past two months; previously coming from Hilo. Met Cunningham and Morgan soon after his arrival. Had been stationed at the track for the past six weeks. Witness then related the events leading up to the alleged conspiracy said to have taken place on the evening of June 10 as stated in the complaint. Claimed to have had a conversation with Morgan on the evening in question at Waikiki Inn. Leeper met Morgan, while he was about to secure a meal at a restaurant at Waikiki. Morgan called him over to the Inn, and the two proceeded to slake their thirst at the bar.

The scheme was there planned and details arranged. Leeper was shown the sum of two hundred dollars in greenbacks, which was promised to him if the job was performed satisfactorily. Leeper then stated that he came into town and soon met Morgan. They drifted into the Cunningham saloon, and there met Cunningham. The three then proceeded some distance away in a dark recess of a fence corner, and there fixed a deal. Some money was placed upon "the field" at a downtown saloon. Leeper also claimed that Cunningham offered him the pill, telling him in the meantime that the little thing was not harmful in the least. It would only act as a physic, there being nothing poisonous about it. Leeper told of his trip to the pool room located in a boat house on the water front, where pools upon the Kamehameha Day races were sold contrary to the laws of the Territory of Hawaii, and with the full knowledge and consent of its police officials. At this point there was much squirming upon the part of some of "those present," and the matter was hurriedly passed over to more congenial testimony. Upon leaving the pool room, Leeper was accompanied by Morgan and Bob Burns to the race track.

Leeper gave a detailed description of his sleight-of-hand performance in pretending to administer the pill to the horse in the presence of Morgan. "Oh, I fooled them all right," he said. "I was too sharp for them. While I was behind the horse's head I slipped the pill into my pocket. I afterward met David and Trainer McCauley and related the whole thing to them. I gave David the pill. Yes, Morgan appeared satisfied with what I had done."

It was during the cross-examination of Leeper that his previous record at California tracks was brought out. The attorneys for the defense endeavored to cause Leeper to admit that he had been compelled to leave the race tracks in and about San Francisco for the same reason. The young man was interrogated at length concerning certain operations at Oakland and Tanforan tracks during the years '95 and '96. Leeper admitted he was approached in a similar manner over on the Mainland. He admitted he was ruled off the Oakland track for some irregularities. He did not wait for an investigation, as he was advised to come to Honolulu. Leeper was questioned concerning the death of the horse Sly at Inglefield. He denied any responsibility in the matter.

The cross-fire was again directed to recent events. Leeper declared that Cunningham's money looked like "bad money" to him. This was too much for the unsophisticated Stanley, who, not being up in the latest nomenclature of south of Market street, thought he counted a rat, seeing visions of counterfeit charges in the hazy distance.

Leeper went on to explain that the term "bad money" meant that the money was bad business for Cunningham, as he was to get the severe throw-down. The attorneys for the defendants were wrestling in the throes of several pungent slang phrases when the court, looking at the clock and the deepening dusk that began to fall upon the courtroom, reminded the legal fraternity that it was time for an adjournment.

The case will be continued this morning in connection with the disposition of the regular Police Court docket.

Epworth League Social.

Last night the Epworth League of the Methodist Episcopal church gave a delightful and successful social for the benefit of the church funds. It was announced by a quantity worded card for "Epworth Methodist meadow." The spacious lawn and broadly hospitable lambs of the parsonage were in the event found to be the best place, especially with the cordial welcome of Rev. and Mrs. Pearson thrown in. Lemonades and less wet—hardly like hot cakes but just like themselves at this season—at a rate that made the church debt diminish after the manner of the cube the iceman leaves when it is not hoisted quickly into the refrigerator. Besides the satisfaction of helping the church, both the League caterers and their guests had a jolly good Methodist time, than which there is no better.

ROWING ASSOCIATION.

Annual Meeting Yesterday Afternoon—Fourth of July Races.

The annual meeting of the Hawaiian Rowing Association was held yesterday afternoon at the law offices of Robertson & Wilder. All the delegates were present. At the election of officers for the ensuing year A. L. C. Atkinson was made president; S. E. P. Taylor, vice president, and A. A. Wilder, secretary and treasurer.

A. G. M. Robertson, the retiring president, was one of the organizers of the association seven years ago, and since the organization has been the only president, being elected to succeed himself at each annual meeting.

Besides the officers the following members were elected as the Regatta Committee. A. A. Wilder, chairman, Frederick J. Church and S. E. P. Taylor. It was the sense of the meeting that the races at Pearl Harbor this year should start at 9:15 a. m., and that the train for the races should leave the depot for the course at 8:45 a. m.

This business being transacted the meeting adjourned.

Difference of Opinion.

Treasurer Wright says that the statement published in the Star that he was "at loggerheads" with the Acting Governor over the granting of a brewing license to the Honolulu Brewery Co. was scarcely correct. There is no question as to the Treasurer's independent power of issuing licenses, including those of saloons except where they are outside of established limits.

Where a difference of opinion had really arisen between Mr. Cooper and himself with regard to the deposits of Chinese, engaged under the Republic to return to China after serving a three-year contract on the plantations unless they renewed the contract, in the Postal Savings Bank. These deposits amount to $250,000, not $180,000 as reported, and Mr. Wright can find no authorization in any law for using the money as part of current receipts or otherwise.

INDUSTRIAL WORK BY YOUTHFUL ARTISANS

GRATIFYING PROGRESS NOTED AT BOYS' BRIGADE ANNUAL MEETING.

Wide Variety of Products Turned Out From the Brigade Shop—Club Rooms Being Fitted Up—Growth of Military Companies.

Oahu College commencement last night filled the beautiful Punalu ball at Punahou with a brilliant assemblage of people invited by card. Decorations of foliage and flowers were elaborate and tasteful. The 1901 class motto—"Fides"—was conspicuous.

The graduating class consisted of Ethel Moseley Damon, Charles Sheldon Judd, Mary Hester Lennon, Sarah Irene B. L. Lyman, Antonio Quilho Marcellino, Edward Perry, James Lawrence P. Robinson and Kuli Far Yap.

Miss Damon was the valedictorian. The address was graceful and sensible. Besides salves of applause, the winsome orator was almost overwhelmed with Honolulu's highest and sweetest word of admiration and affection—flowers wrought into bouquets and garlands. And it was fitting, too, if she had only said "Aloha," for from Maine to Manila no "sweet girl graduate" this summer of 1901 could more effectively have represented the flower of fair young Columbia, taking comeliness of person and tastefulness of attire as the criteria.

Miss Lyman represented the graduating class with infinite credit as the pianist of the evening.

The exercises opened with Mendelssohn's "Hymn of Praise" as an overture. Miss Woods performing on the violin. Prof. Ballasey on the organ and Miss Lyman on the piano. An invocation was pronounced by Rev. W. M. Kincaid, D. D.

President David Starr Jordan, LL. D., of Leland Stanford Junior University, delivered the address to the graduates. It was an amplification of his remarks to the graduates of the High School, reported pretty fully in The Republican. The graduates were advised to continue their studies in colleges of national standing, among whose faculties the best of instructors were to be found.

An "Impromptu" of Schubert's composition was beautifully played by Miss Lyman. Then came the valedictory, followed by the presentation of diplomas and a brief statement of the work and scope of the college by President Arthur Mason Smith.

The college chorus sang with fine effect "Heaven and the Earth Display," by Mendelssohn, and Rev. Hiram Bingham, D. D., dismissed the gathering with the benediction.

The graduates on receiving their diplomas were given hearty applause, emphasized with gifts of flowers from classmates and friends.

LOAN ACT KILLED IN THE SENATE

Minority Was Caught Napping With That Sad Result.

BILL INTRODUCED BY G. BROWN

MEASURE MET ITS WATERLOO AT THE STAGE OF SECOND READING.

Flushed With Victory Independent

Senators Take an Adjournment

Until Wednesday Morning—Yesterday's Session Brief.

If a loan act is evolved from the protracted grinding of the legislative mill now in progress it will have to be constructed upon far different lines than the measure recently introduced into the Senate by Cecil Brown. At the session of the Senate held yesterday morning the new loan act came up for disposition. From the gleam in the eyes of the Independent senators the idea gained currency that the measure was destined to sure and instantaneous death.

The Cecil Brown act called for a special appropriation for the use of the Territory of Hawaii during the ensuing biennial period.

The bill opened by Mr. Kanahele offering a motion that the various items contained in the Governor's message be stricken from the appropriation bill, the reason being that they were provided for in the act introduced by C. Brown. The motion was put to a vote and lost.

Mr. Kanahele then moved that the appropriation bill pass second reading. John T. Brown explained that all of the items, outside of those contained in the Governor's special message, had been opposed. The bill then passed, and final reading was set for Wednesday morning.

C. Brown's bill was then taken up for consideration, on motion of Mr. Kanahele.

The first section was then taken up and read as follows:

"Section 1. The following sums, amounting to $1,079,800, are hereby appropriated out of any moneys which may be received by the Treasury during the ensuing biennial period from the sale of any bonds which may be issued in accordance with any law now in force or that may hereafter be enacted: (Here follow the entire list of appropriations, aggregating the total sum given.)

Mr. Kanahele moved to strike out the section. The first commenced in earnest. Mr. Paris, for the Republican minority, had an anxious look as he arose and made a protest against the cutting off of the loan provision in such hasty fashion. Mr. Paris also painfully noted the fact that there were several Republican members absent from the session, including Mr. Brown, the introducer of the bill.

The Senator from Hawaii therefore sparred for time. He moved to defer consideration, but the motion was lost in the shuffle. The Independents had evidently not forgotten the swift and unpremeditated disposition of the military appropriation some days ago during the absence of some of its bitter opponents, to overlook the chance to strike a deathblow to the pet bill of the Republican Senators.

The vote to kill the first section passed by a strict party vote.

J. Brown then followed with a motion to strike out the title of the bill. A wrangle ensued. Mr. Carter moved to adjourn. Mr. Achi amended the Carter motion to adjourn sine die. Both failed to carry. J. Brown then moved that the second section of the bill be knocked out.

Mr. Achi arose upon a point of order and maintained that a bill could not be killed upon a second reading. The chair, being appealed to, declared that the bill could be thrown out on any old reading, provided there were enough opposition on hand to perform the autopsy. The second section was then consigned to oblivion by the same party vote.

Sections 3, 4, 5 and 6 were similarly treated, in order to "make sure that the job of undertaking was properly performed," as one sardoniously remarked at the close of the session.

During all this time the hands on the clock were nearing the hour of 11. There did not appear to be much of a startling nature in sight and business began to drag.

Mr. Achi again moved that the session of the Senate be adjourned sine die. The motion again failed to carry.

The motion to adjourn to 10 o'clock Wednesday carried.

Pacific Heights Line Extended.
The announcement has been made that the Pacific Heights extension to Nuuanu street to connect with the Palm system will be in operation commencing today. The new line extends from the Pacific Heights electric power house to the tramway terminus. It covers a distance of 1300 feet.

THERE was a smile all over the waterfront yesterday and all because of the exploit of the old steamer Zealandia in arriving back here in less than twenty-four hours after she had sailed for San Francisco.

All but those on the ship looked up on the Saturday evening excursion as nothing but a joke. The passengers were all pretty mad and many of them received a good deal of joshing from friends who had been at the wharf to see them off on Saturday, and who all turned out Sunday to welcome them back again.

From the estimate of those most interested in the vessel it is safe to say that she will not leave again until she is permanently repaired and that may take ten days or two weeks. However all speed consistent with good workmanship will be made and there will be no turning back next time she starts.

All but those on the ship looked up on the Saturday evening excursion as nothing but a joke. The passengers were all pretty mad and many of them received a good deal of joshing from friends who had been at the wharf to see them off on Saturday, and who all turned out Sunday to welcome them back again.

From the estimate of those most interested in the vessel it is safe to say that she will not leave again until she is permanently repaired and that may take ten days or two weeks. However all speed consistent with good workmanship will be made and there will be no turning back next time she starts.

and favorably known as any skipper engaged in the trade in the Pacific, and his many friends here were congratulating him yesterday on the splendid trip made by his ship on the present voyage from New Zealand. The big vessel came here with a full cargo of coal consigned to the captain, in a little less than thirty-seven days. This run almost equals the record of the Marlon Chilcott, made last year, in which the distance was covered in thirty-three days.

Captain Morse's two sons are at present here with him. Percy, the eldest, is local agent of the American Hawaiian Steamship Company, and the other, Goodie, is mate of the bark Olympic. The Fort George will load sugar here for San Francisco. It has not yet been decided who will succeed Captain Morse in the command of the fine ship.

Great Race on Lake Erie. That was a good race on Lake Erie Tuesday between two commercial steamers. The struggle was between the City of Erie and the Tashmoo, the course from Cleveland to Erie, 95 miles, for $1,000 a side, the money to go to charity. The race created more excitement on the lakes than any event since the memorable contest between the Ocean and the Empire State thirty years ago. It is estimated that $100,000 changed hands in wagers.

The test was one of types. The Tashmoo is but two feet short of the Erie's length, but her displacement is only 1,200 tons, compared with the Erie's 7,800. Her breadth is 70 feet, the Erie's 78 feet. The Erie, built to carry a heavy cargo of freight and passengers, and lie deep in the water, is equipped with engines of a maximum horse power of 6,000, while the Tashmoo's horse power is limited to 2,800. These two boats of widely different types made a thrilling race of it over every inch of the course.

The start at Cleveland was witnessed by several thousand persons and enthusiasm ran high. The Erie had 200 tons of freight for ballast, while the Tashmoo was stripped of every unnecessary pound, even to her life-boats. The City of Erie entered the harbor of Erie so little in advance of her rival that it looked like a dead heat, but as she steamed in she pulled away from the Tashmoo and had 45 seconds to spare, leading by 1,200 feet. The average time for the course of 95 miles made by the winner was 21:53 miles an hour. The best mile was run at a speed of 22:73 miles an hour. The victor returned to Cleveland to make her regular run to Buffalo the same night.—N. Y. Marine Journal.

Changes at Custom House. It has been stated upon good authority that there will be no deputy collector appointed to take the place made vacant by the resignation of George C. Stratemeyer from the custom house. Instead of appointing John W. Short to the position he will succeed to the salary and stay at the head of the liquidating department where his ability will be of greater benefit to the office than if he was down stairs with the outside force. The first of the month which is the beginning of Uncle Sam's fiscal year will see instead of a special deputy, a discharging inspector in charge of the watches at an increased salary. He will have charge of the day watches and the discharging officers, and will be directly under the supervision of the collector. There are two men among the discharging inspectors who are looked upon as the men from whom the selection of the collector will be made. Both men have been in the employ of the customs service for many years and are well and favorably known in the community. They are both men of ability and it will be hard work choosing between them. The men are Inspectors E. A. Jacobson and M. J. Scanlon.

Hilo Excursion Boats. A reduced rate of fare for the round trip to Hilo and return has been made by the Wilder Company, and on Tuesday next the Kinau and Claudine will leave here for the big island. The Kinau sails at noon as usual and will take her regular route to Hilo, taking passengers from Maui ports. Returning she will leave Hilo on the evening of the 6th, arriving here on Sunday afternoon.

The Claudine leaves at 5 o'clock in the afternoon of the 2nd, and takes in her return to Maui ports, arriving at Hilo on the evening before the 4th. She will remain at Hilo until after the celebration and leave there the same evening that the Kinau leaves, returning here on Sunday night, via Maui ports. The bookings on both vessels for the trip are many and the vessels will have all the passengers they can carry by the time the last Maui port is reached. The band will go on the flagship Kinau. The fare for the round trip has been fixed at $15.

Sailor Jumped Overboard. Harry Hix, one of the sailors of the brig Tanner, while suffering from an attack of delirium tremens, jumped overboard and was drowned while the vessel was on her way here. Every effort possible was made to rescue the man, but without avail. Boards were thrown to him and as quickly as possible a boat with the mate in charge was lowered and search made for Hix.

Will Resign Command. Captain C. C. Morse of the American ship Fort George is to close his sea life on arrival in San Francisco. For many years Captain Morse has followed the sea and has done so with a good deal of success. He is as well

Diamond Head, 10 p. m.—Weather clear; wind light.

He was not seen again after he plunged from the rail of the vessel. The dead man is thought to have been an Irishman, although he appears on the ship's articles as Harry Hix. It is said that his real name was Patrick O'Brien.

SHIPPING NOTES.

The Sonoma from San Francisco is due here today. She will have many passengers for Honolulu.

The steamer Sierra is due to sail for San Francisco today. The Sonoma from the Coast should also arrive today.

The schooner Annie M. Campbell arrived from Port Gamble yesterday after a trip of twenty-one days. She has a cargo of lumber for Lewers & Cooke.

The bark Mohican, barkentine Planter and ship Fort George, all arrived Sunday. The Fort George made a remarkably fast run of 36½ days from Newcastle.

The Claudine sails this morning for the W. G. Hall on the Mauna Loa route at 12 noon and the Kinau for Hilo and way ports at the same hour sail today.

It is rumored among the deep water captains at present in port that when the American ship C. F. Sargent leaves for the Sound she will have a new made bride aboard.

The bark Mohican, thirteen days, and the barkentine Planter, ten days from San Francisco, arrived Sunday. Both vessels had pleasant trips and brought large cargoes and several passengers.

The Kinau and the Hall at noon for Maui and Hawaii ports and the Mikahala at 5 o'clock this afternoon for Kauai will take many passengers, and among them a great many school children and teachers on their way to the country for their vacations.

Under the supervision of Captain MacAllister and Mate Dan Flavey, the old tug Eleu looks as epic and span as a brand new shoe. Mate Flavey is a worker from way back, and it is safe to say that when things get to rights again on the old boat there will not be a better kept vessel in the harbor.

The little schooner Carrie and Annie arrived from San Francisco on Sunday. The vessel has been chartered by the American Board of Missions to take the place of the old Morning Star. Aboard the vessel are Captain Garland, who is in command, Mrs. Garland and Dr. Reif and wife and family. The vessel is on her way to the Marshall Islands.

Captain Fuller did a ticklish piece of work yesterday in hauling the big ship W. H. Smith out of the navy slip out to the stream. The Smith is high out of the water in ballast, and in getting out of the slip she had to pass between the schooner William Bowden on one side and the Balclutha on the other. A very large crowd of interested spectators watched the clever work of the harbor master as it was going on. The Smith will sail for the Sound this morning.

THE REPRESENTATIVES PILE ON THE AGONY

Yesterday's Session Adds $1,500,000 to the Bill.

MR. DICKEY PROPOUNDS A PLAN

NEARLY A MILLION VOTED FOR ISLAND OF OAHU'S PUBLIC WORKS.

Report for Hawaii is Adopted and That for Maui Referred Back for Correction—Claim of Nahiku Sugar Co. Omitted.

The House knows no bounds to its appropriations. Money cuts absolutely no figure with the Representatives, for yesterday they overshot the available revenue mark by over $1,500,000. The Oahu report from the delegation from this island was adopted as follows:

Department of Public Works, $184,800; Sewerage, Honolulu, $44,500; Roads and Bridges, $562,000; Water Works, $69,000; Fire Department, $34,500; Commission of Public Instruction, $8,950; Commission of Agriculture, $2,300; Board of Health, $31,200; grand total, $937,250. Signed by Makinal, Mahoe, Paele, Mossman, Gillilan, Hoogs, Aylett, Emmeluth, Kelki and Prendergast.

Dickey attempted to expedite matters by introducing a resolution, relative to the Income Tax. In support of his resolution he asked that it be referred to a special committee composed of one man from every island. The resolution is as follows:

Whereas, all the estimated income of the Territory excepting the proceeds of the income tax has already been appropriated, and

Whereas, the highest estimate of the receipts from said income tax for the biennial period is $700,000.

Therefore, be it resolved, That the proportion of said amount due to each island in accordance with the proportion of the estimated receipts from each island be set apart as below and that each island committee apportion the same and report back to the House the items to be inserted in the Appropriation bill to cover same. Oahu 50 1/2 per cent, $353,500; Hawaii 24 1/2 per cent, $171,500; Maui and Molokai, 13 1/2 per cent, $94,500; Kauai and Niihau, 11 1/2 per cent, $80,500. Total, $700,000.

Resolved, further, That items for new improvements in the several islands be postponed until an appropriation bill under the unexpended balance of a former loan bill, $799,000, is introduced.

Hoogs had what he thought a still better plan and offered the following resolution which he hoped would pass.

Be it resolved, That the Supreme Court be instructed to declare the "Income Tax Law," constitutional forthwith.

Speaker Akina directed that it be relegated to the lowest depths of the waste basket.

The Hawaii report was then adopted after some talk.

The allotments by districts are as follows: Hamakua, $114,000; North and South Kohala, $52,400; North Kona, $41,900; South Kona, $21,900; South Hilo, $172,000; North Hilo, $58,000; Kau, $70,150; Puna, $58,375. Total, $559,925.

The Maui report was as follows: Hana, $158,000; Makawao, $57,300; Wailuku, $100,250; Lahaina, $56,600; Molokai, $25,008; Lanai, $1,000; Lahaina, $45,000. Total, $398,158.

Hoogs moved that the report be referred back to the Maui committee, as no item had been inserted for the claim of the Nahiku Sugar Company amounting to $985. His motion carried.

The House adjourned at 4 o'clock.

Unnecessary Loss of Time.

Mr. W. S. Whedon, Cashier of the First National Bank of Winterest, Iowa, in a recent letter gives some experience with a carpenter in his other mechanics. He says: "I had a carpenter working for me who was obliged to stop work for several days on account of being troubled with diarrhoea. I mentioned to him that I had been similarly troubled and that Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy had cured me. He bought a bottle of it from the druggist here and informed me that one dose cured him, and he is again at his work." For sale by Benson, Smith & Co., General Agents, Territory of Hawaii.

Nerves of Weak Men

I have demonstrated the fact that weakness of men, the result of early or later indiscretions, such as Drains, Impotency, Lane Back, Varicocele, etc., will not yield to a stimulating treatment. This accounts for the fact that drugs never cure. The medicines given for these troubles, essentially poisons, are intended only to stimulate. Continuous stimulation must result in harm. Thousands of patients have said to me: "Doctor, when I took this or that medicine I felt better in an hour, but after a month my weakness returned, and I was worse off than ever." "Better in an hour" means a powerful stimulant—means a wrecked constitution.

Electricity Is Strength!

That's what you want, strength, not stimulation. Electricity will never cure in a day; it does not cure in a week. It takes two months, it may take three, but the results are there to stay. I am the inventor and introducer of the famous Dr. Sanden Electric Belt, with attachment for men. It embodies the best efforts of my 30 years as a specialist. ## RIGHT TRIUMPHS AND IWILEI IS CLOSED.

At last right has triumphed over wrong in Honolulu.

The human slave pen known as Iwilei has been closed, notwithstanding the efforts of certain Territorial Officials to maintain this foul den under police protection.

In July of last year The Republican instituted its fight against Iwilei, declaring that the place was a shame and a disgrace to the city and a reproach upon the good name of every decent man and woman in Honolulu for silently ignoring the existence of the most degraded spot to be found under the American flag.

It was met with rebuffs on every side. Men whom it would naturally have been expected would be in favor of suppressing open and notorious vice openly advocated the continuance of this resort. Every art and device known to inhuman monsters were put forth to prevent the destruction of Iwilei, and this too by men who pose as honest business men and Christian gentlemen. The Republican was denounced by this class for stirring up a nuisance, as they called it, as though the body politic could be cleared of vile pus without creating some stench.

Almost alone and unaided The Republican waged war against Iwilei, declaring that it would never cease from its attacks upon the place until it had accomplished the object set out for—the closing of such a vile resort. One other man who deserves especial praise for laboring along the same lines and to the same end is the Rev. W. K. Ashbill. Mr. Ashbill was already working against Iwilei, but unknown to this paper, when The Republican began its crusade. He assisted the paper in every way in its fight, despite the most bitter opposition and malignancy. Mr. Ashbill was called an old fraud by the defenders of open pollution and decay in every mean and dishonorable way just as this paper was. The Rev. A. E. Cory also rendered yeoman service in the cause. The combined efforts of The Republican, and the Revs. Ashbill and Cory, finally awoke many other God-fearing men of the community to the terrible consequences in the future of permitting such a resort as Iwilei to exist in our midst.

All of this moral force meant the accomplishment of results sooner or later. The advent here in February last of the Misses Murcutt and Ackermann called attention anew to the evils being perpetrated at Iwilei as a thing to be proud of. Judge Humphreys called the attention of the grand jury to Iwilei in August of last year, and again in February of this year. But owing to the fact that the grand juries were drawn by the High Sheriff, who was decidedly in favor of the continuance of this evil resort, but little was accomplished, though both juries condemned Iwilei as a vile spot that ought to be closed. Then Judge Estee called the attention of the United States grand jury to the evils of Iwilei and that body condemned it most bitterly, saying that it should be suppressed and blaming the Territorial officials for not suppressing it.

Throughout all this campaign The Republican has steadily held that the one man responsible for the existence of Iwilei was the Governor of the Territory. The Governor appoints the Attorney General and the High Sheriff and one word from the Governor to these appointees that he wanted Iwilei closed and its gates would have been shut. The Republican openly charged Governor Dole with being responsible for the existence of Iwilei in an editorial on August 30th, 1900, entitled "What Would McKinley Do?" It called attention to the clean and spotless administration of President McKinley and begged of the Governor to make his administration equally as clean by giving the word for the closing of the most disgraceful den of vice that ever existed under the American flag. It called his attention to the fact that a grand jury notoriously favorable to the High Sheriff and to his derelictions of duty had said that Iwilei was "under the general management and supervision of the Police Department and the Board of Health." But the Governor refused to heed the request. He ignored Iwilei and its existence, contenting himself that the sons and daughters of this community might be ruined by the score and the hundred by the evil influences of Iwilei so far as he was concerned, for he could answer, "Am I my brother's keeper?"

But The Republican did not propose to be put off in this way. With others it called the attention of the authorities at Washington to the evils of Iwilei. This resulted in the sending of a member of the secret service here who reported on Iwilei, describing it as it is, as the most degrading slave pen to be found in the world, and he further said in his report that it was maintained under the protection and care of the police and the Territorial authorities. This report has been followed by instructions from the authorities at Washington that Iwilei must be closed. It was because of instructions of this kind that Secretary Cooper, in the absence of Governor Dole, suddenly awoke to the fact that Iwilei existed and asked the members of the Protective League to join him in a conference in regard to the closing of the resort.

But this action came too late. Others besides The Republican and the few faithful men who stood by it from the first have joined in the good work. The trustees of Kaunakapili church, who own a chapel and ground immediately across the street from the stockade at Iwilei, applied to the court for an injunction to close the place as a common nuisance. This injunction was granted yesterday and placed in the hands of the High Sheriff for service about 4 o'clock in the afternoon and served upon the inmates and others last night. Very naturally The Republican takes to itself a large part of the credit for the closing of Iwilei. It was the constant hammering at the place by this paper which kept the subject before the people and finally aroused public sentiment to such a pitch that it demanded the closing of the resort. The Republican was also instrumental in laying the matter before the authorities at Washington and in inducing action there which placed the subject fairly before the Territorial officials with instructions to act promptly.

ILLEGAL LAND SALES.

The decisions of the United States Supreme Court in the insular cases bear out the squatters in the contention that the Constitution of the United States has at all times and under all circumstances governed the public domain of the United States in the Hawaiian Islands from and after the 13th day of August, 1898, and that all laws enacted and other official acts concerning such public domain is subject to the constitutional limitations and that all laws and official acts contrary thereto are void.

The status of Hawaii is clearly defined, although the constitution had to be woefully stretched to cover other insular acquisitions. The Court decides that after acquisition the provisions of the constitution immediately extend to the acquired Territory until such time as Congress organizes it under a civil law and that Congress can then extend the Constitution to such Territory at its pleasure; but, "where the constitution has been once formally extended by Congress to the Territories, neither Congress nor the Territorial Legislature can enact laws inconsistent therewith."

Section 5 of the Organic Act reads as follows: "That the Constitution, and, except as herein otherwise provided all the laws of the United States which are not locally inapplicable, shall have the same force and effect within the said Territory as elsewhere in the United States: Provided, That Sections eighteen hundred and fifty and eighteen hundred and ninety of the Revised Statutes of the United States shall not apply to the Territory of Hawaii."

One of these Sections, so excepted, relates to religious and charitable institutions and the other to approval of the laws passed by the Territorial Legislature. Thus the Constitution and "all" the laws of the United States, with the two exceptions above named, were extended to Hawaii and Congress and all courts and all officers are bound to govern themselves accordingly. In the Foraker Act, the constitution was not extended to Porto Rico and experiments will be tried there but not in Hawaii. The decisions plainly show the United States can not carry out any provisions of the Annexation Resolution which conflict with the Constitution and wipe out a whole paragraph of the resolution relating to the collection of customs. Let us see what the Supreme Court once said about the public domain.

EXCLUSIVE POWER OF CONGRESS TO LEGISLATE AS TO PUBLIC LANDS.

Gibson vs. Choteau. U. S. 13 Wall. Page 92. Opinion by Justice Field. "With respect to the public domain, the constitution vests in Congress the power of disposition and of making all needful rules and regulations. That power is subject to no limitations. Congress has the absolute right to prescribe the times, the conditions and the mode of transferring this property or any part of it and to designate the persons to whom the transfer shall be made. No state legislation can interfere with this right or embarrass its exercise; and to prevent the possibility of any attempted interference with it a provision has usually been inserted in the compacts by which new states have been admitted into the Union, that such interference with the primary disposal of the soil of the United States, shall never be made.

The same principle which forbidding state legislation interfering with the power of Congress to dispose of the public property of the United States also forbids any legislation depriving the grantees of the United States of the possession and enjoyment of the property granted by reason of any delay in the transfer of title after the initiation of proceedings for its acquisition. The consummation of the title is not a matter which rests entirely with the Government. With the legal title, when transferred, goes the right to possess and enjoy the land, and it would amount to a denial of the power of disposal in Congress if these benefits which should follow upon the acquisition of the title could be forfeited because they were not asserted before the title was issued. It is said in (Bogert vs. Broderick), Congress has the sole power to declare the validity and effect of titles emanating from the United States, and the whole legislation of the Federal Government; in reference to the public lands dictates the patent the superior and conclusive evidence of legal title. Until its issuance the fee is in the Government, which by the patent passes to the grantee and he is entitled to receive the possession in ejectment."

How will some of our local land dealers "on the side" fit up to these requirements? They don't fit. It is evident that the first public land case taken to the United States Supreme Court from Hawaii will cause some consternation among the land speculators in this Territory and it is equally evident that every land transaction, from and after the 28th day of September, 1899, will be totally wiped out.

The Territorial Land Department claims to be authorized under Section 73 of the Organic Act to dispose of public land. Let us see if this is true. On pages 28 and 29 of Report of the Commissioner of Public Lands of Hawaii for the year ending December 31st, 1900, submitted to the Legislature appears the following:

"PUBLIC LANDS NOTICE."

"OLAA TRACT, PUNA, HAWAII.
"On Thursday, September 20th, at the office of E. D. Baldwin, Hilo, Hawaii, will be sold at Public Auction about 200 lots of 50 acres each, at up to prices of from $1.00 to $12.00 per acre on following terms and conditions:

Purchaser may not acquire more than one lot.

The purchase price of the land to be paid within ten years, either in full at any time within said period of ten years, or in installments of one or more tenths of the purchase price on any interest date. Interest at the rate of 6 per cent per annum from date of Agreement on unpaid balance of purchase price, payable semi-annually, in advance. Purchaser shall substantially improve his holding within one year from date of agreement, and shall from the end of the second year have under cultivation at all times, not less than ten per cent of the premises.

To entitle him to Patent Grant giving fee simple title, he shall continuously maintain his home upon the premises for a term of six years and have at the end of such term 25 per cent of the premises under bona fide cultivation, or shall have maintained his home continuously upon the premises for four years and have under cultivation, at the end of such period, 50 per cent of the premises, such maintenance of a home to begin at any time before the end of the fourth year from date of agreement. He shall plant if not already growing and maintain in good growing condition from end of second year until termination of Agreement an average of not less than ten timber, shade or fruit trees per acre. He shall allow the Agents of the Government at all times to enter and examine the premises, and shall pay any taxes that may become due on the same.

At the end of the tenth year or earlier if all conditions necessary thereto have been substantially complied with, the purchaser shall be entitled to a Land Patent conveying in fee simple title to the land described in Agreement of sale. In case of default or failure to perform the required conditions the Commissioner may take possession of the premises and may sell the same at auction, either as a whole or in parcels, for cash or on terms of time payments; and if such sale results in advance on the original price, the original purchaser to receive therefrom the amount of his payments to the Government on account of purchase, without interest, and a pro rata share in such advance in proportion to the amounts of his payments. If such sale shall result, however, in a less price than the original amount returned to him shall be charged with a pro rata amount of such decrease proportioned to the amounts of his payments.

An Agreement of sale covering such conditions shall be made with the Government and no assignment of interest under such agreement shall be made without the written consent of the Commissioner of Public Lands.

J. F. BROWN,
Commissioner of Public Lands.
August 1, 1900."

We challenge any one to find these terms and conditions in any land law either of the United States or of Hawaii. Yet the Supreme Court in the above mentioned case says: "Congress has the absolute right to prescribe the times, the conditions, and the mode of transferring this property or any part of it and to designate the persons to whom the transfer shall be made." Did Congress do that in case of the Olaa lands? No, J. F. Brown did it. He was the law unto himself. Congress could not legally and constitutionally delegate to J. F. Brown any such power, if it intended to do so, and Congress never intended to do so. Congress has not done so either by Section 73 of the Organic Act or in any other way.

It is to be regretted that the Automobile Company has been compelled to shut down its service. The people can rest assured that when the company opens for business again it will be prepared to do all it promises to do. It is a pretty well assured fact that concerns J. R. Atherton is connected with must be up to the highest standard or else quit business. Pity that Honolulu has not many more citizens of the type of Mr. Atherton.

Will the Attorney General take notice of the pool selling on the Kamehameha Day races under the eyes, if not the open protection, of the police? Does the fact that a member of the police force was one of the proprietors of the pool room on the water front make any difference in the Attorney General's action?

If liquor selling without a license in Hawaii is in open violation of the law, will the Attorney General of the Territory tell us why liquor selling was permitted at the race track under the eyes of the police during the recent race meeting?

Healanis to Make Merry.

The Healanis Boat Club proposes to make merry on the afternoon of the Fourth of July. They have planned an interesting series of events. There will be exhibitions of high and fancy diving, and other aquatic performances. Dancing will also be engaged in and refreshments will be served. The friends of the club are cordially invited.

A Good Cough Medicine.

It speaks well for Chamberlain's Cough Remedy when druggists use it in their own families in preference to any other. "I have sold Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for the past five years with complete satisfaction to myself and customers," says Druggist J. Goldsmith, Van Eiten, N. Y. "I have always used it in my own family both for ordinary coughs and colds and for the cough following la grippe, and find it very efficacious." ANCIENT CASES ARE DISMISSED

J. J. BYRNE IS ATTACKED WITH STRONG LANGUAGE IN VOELLER'S BRIEF.

Famous Case of False Prosecution

Dropped—Mrs. Batchelor Defaults

In Her Old Suit Against Marshal

Wilson—Some Probate Matters.

Fanny Strauch vs. Cecil Brown, ejectment, was resumed on jury trial yesterday morning before Judge Gear, and occupied the entire day.

Judge Gear has modified the order allowing the libellee in the divorce suit of Marie Josephine Hall vs. Wm. A.
 Hall to mortgage his property for $6, 000, so that now he may mortgage it for $7,500.

Catherine Batchelor's trespass suit against Charles B. Wilson for $1,500 damages has been dismissed for want of prosecution. It dates back to 1892.

Defendant was sued as Marshal of the Kingdom for setting a jewelry store belonging to plaintiff, in the McInerney block, under an execution.

A release has been filed in the malicious prosecution suit of Kaimama vs. J. H. Kamaunu, by Chas.
 Creighton and T. McCants Stewart for plaintiff. This case has been before the courts for years. Plaintiff claimed damages for having been prosecuted as a kahuna, her trial having proved the charge to have been an egregious mistake. The defendant was a deputy sheriff of Kohala.

Magoon & Thompson have filed a brief for defendant in James J. Byrne vs. P. J. Voeller. It claims, after relating full details, that plaintiff has failed to prove any ground for damages. He undertook to run defendant's grocery store while the defendant was absent in San Francisco. There was no agreement about pay, but plaintiff claimed he intended to charge $100 a month as soon as the business could stand it. After keeping Voeller's store for nineteen months or so he was discharged, "the direct cause being his outrageous mismanagement." The brief does not mince matters in attacking the plaintiff's integrity as well as competency.

A. G. Correa, master, finds the accounts of S. W. Kaleikini, guardian of Kapunikaia, correct, and gives Henry Smith, who was administrator of the ward's mother's estate, credit for keeping the accounts accurately for the guardian. Since the guardian's first account he has invested $200 in government bonds at 5 per cent. The ward is attending the Kamehameha School.

F. A. Schaefer, administrator of the estate of Samuel Johanowitz, deceased, has filed an inventory with a valuation of $2,315.50.

C. C. Bittling files a report as master on the final account of J. H. Kamio, guardian of Puhipako Malama, a minor. He doubts the propriety of a charge of $12 to the minor for two barrels of poi, a pig and two chickens, while the minor is charged in the same account $302 for board. Also he points out disproportionate lawyer fees, in that Humphreys & Gear received but $25 for successfully appearing to contest the removal of the guardian, while George A. Davis was paid $50, not keeping unreasonable, for services in passing accounts. It is found that the estate of the minor was insufficient for her support, and that there seemed no evidence of maladministration. Therefore, after further examination by the judge into the items to which attention has been called, the master respectfully suggests that the account should be passed.

Accounts of S. W. Kaleikini, guardian of Kapunikaia, a minor, are approved on master's report and the master is allowed a fee of $25.

Taxation of costs has been filed in
 J. A. Magoon vs. T. B. Murray.

Taxation of costs has been filed by Magoon & Thompson for plaintiff in E. R. Burns vs. S. A. M.

Appeals have come up from the District to the Circuit Court in the following cases: Territory vs. Ng Pak, assault and battery; Territory vs. August de Rego, Manuel Rozen and An-tone Correa, larceny in the second degree in stealing fruit from Dr. C. B.
 Wood's premises; Territory vs. H.
 Kit, assault and battery; Territory vs.
 Frank Fisher, assault and battery on Annie Claudine; Territory vs. Oliwa
 Kane, heedlessly driving a tramcar; Territory vs. Ah Soon, obstructing a police officer; Territory vs. Kawamoto, selling milk diluted with water;
 Territory vs. Yokiyama Matsutaro, keeping disorderly house; Territory vs. Ah Ung, Ah Choy and Ah Tim, conducting a lottery game known as che fa; Territory vs. Mark Kong and Chun On, conducting a lottery game known as pakapio; Territory vs. Emalia Leah, selling liquor without a license; Territory vs. Antone Richard, Jr., selling milk diluted with water, and Territory vs. Ah Fong, assault and battery.

Kalikea vs. John Hapa et al. was argued before the Supreme Court yesterday. It is an appeal from the First Circuit Judge. Davidson for plaintiff;
 Stewart for defendants.

....Good Bye, Organdies....

One short week ago we should have had to ask you from 39 to 40 cents for these beautiful Organdies. Just pause a moment and scrutinize the price tickets if you want to know what the goods are really worth. The better you are as a judge of values the more likely you will be to buy.

Why are we selling them so cheap?

Because we don't want to carry them on our shelves for another season. You wouldn't think so much of our store if we did that.
 Rather lose money than your good opinion.

There are not very many of them. Not enough to last the week out perhaps; so you'd better hurry. Rich pickings for those who are first. All of them.

THE OAHU COLLEGE GRADUATING CLASS

PAUHAU HALL CROWDED LAST NIGHT WITH BRILLIANT AUDIENCE.

President David Starr Jordan of Stanford University Addresses the Graduates—Ethel Moseley Damon Delivers the Valedictory.

Industrial work carried on by the Boys' Brigade, at its King street headquarters, is moving along at a most gratifying pace. That the experiment has proved entirely successful since its inception was indicated by the reports received at the annual meeting held yesterday evening in the parlors of the Young Men's Christian Association. At the same time officers to serve for the ensuing year were elected. Practically the entire board was again chosen to fill their respective positions for another year.

President Richards' report enlarged at length upon the work of the Brigade. The original scheme of meeting once a week had become relegated to the past and meetings are now being held daily. It was stated that the boys take very kindly to the industrial work and club life as afforded at the Brigade headquarters.

In regard to military matters, the Brigade has made rapid and substantial progress. The discipline and precision maintained in the companies under the efficient direction of Major E. J. Wilson was pronounced strikingly successful. The companies are steadily growing in membership as well as in the employment and knowledge of the manual of arms and field tactics. The announcement was also made that the Brigade has the option upon five acres of land controlled by the Bishop estate at Kewalo. The land has been tendered to the Boys' Brigade for a term of years rent free, with the stipulation that it be placed in proper condition for field work and athletic contests. The plan is being favorably considered, although no action was taken in the matter at the meeting yesterday evening.

In the matter of entertainments, the Brigade is promised some very interesting events for the coming season. As in the past, some of the best talent obtainable will be employed. Stereoscopic lectures and short practical talks upon scientific subjects will be given from time to time. Those in charge hope by this means to impart much that is instructive and useful.

In the industrial department great progress has been made by the lads in the manufacture of useful and ornamental articles including furnishings for the club house. The energies of the members of the industrial classes have been confined to the creation of anything ranging from a crab net-pole to a bookcase. Within a short time there have been turned out of the institution tool cases, benches, large chests for tools, mallets, step-ladders, turning lathe benches, a large amount of wainscoting for the club rooms, material for the ceiling, tables and benches for the club room and office furnishings.

By the united efforts of the boys the rooms and general workshop are rapidly being placed in first-class condition. At present there are 30 odd boys at work in the manual training classes. Another 25 come semi-occasionally, but are not regular attendants.

Through the report of the treasurer the cost of maintaining the institution was shown as being comparatively small. There is very little material wasted in the construction work by the classes. The tools are in first-class condition. It is expected that before the year closes several wood-working machines will be installed. The treasurer also submitted a statement of receipts and expenditures from the tournament. The entertainment netted the institution $1957.15. The annual statement showed the finances of the Boys' Brigade to be in a very healthy condition. There was a snug balance remaining in the treasury after all expenses, including cost of materials, running of plant, salaries, etc., had been deducted.

It can well be said that the work being done by the Boys' Brigade in Honolulu is certain to redound to the welfare of the community in the years to come, in that it tends to the education of a class of youth who would never be reached by any other method.

SEEKS A BROADER FIELD.

Helen Veeder Johnson, the Art Teacher, Returns to Mainland.

Miss Helen Veeder Johnson, who has been the art teacher at Oahu college the past year, leaves by the Sierra for the coast, being desirous of entering a broader field than is afforded in Honolulu. Miss Johnson has done most excellent work both at the college and at the Punahou preparatory, the pupils making remarkable progress under her talented instruction. Besides being an excellent instructor, Miss Johnson has a pleasing personality, and she leaves many friends in this city, who regret exceedingly that she is not content to remain in Honolulu. Wherever she goes Miss Johnson will be successful, and in all her work she will have the best wishes of her hosts of friends in this city.

HOP CHAN,

24 Hotel Street.

The famous lecturer C. J. STODDARD in his lecture on Japan said, "Nature here extended herself to show her utmost artistic capabilities -- and the picturesqueness of the landscape is enhanced by the inherent good taste of the people as exemplified by their dress, etc."

A striking local example of this good taste can be seen in the selection of

Silks, Children's Kimonos, Tidies, Latest Golf Shirts,
Pajamas, Etc.

That are offered at a Surprising low figure by
