DOYLE FOR INTERPRETER

PETITION ADDRESSED TO JUDGE ESTEE.

Local Attorneys Ask for Chester Doyle as Official Interpreter for the United States Court.

A petition addressed to United States Judge Estee asking him to appoint Chester Doyle interpreter for his court is in the hands of Paul Neumann and has been generally signed by local attorneys. It will be presented to the judge immediately on his arrival, and the friends of Doyle hope that he will be the judge's choice. Doyle has been interpreter here for about eight years and can talk several dialects of Japanese as if he were a little brown man. He learned the language in Japan, where he spent many of his early years. The petition is as follows:

"Hon. M. M. Estee, Judge of the U. S. District Court for the Territory of Hawaii.

"Sir:—The undersigned members of the Bar Association of the Islands of Hawaii and practitioners of the Hawaiian courts respectfully recommend to you the appointment of Mr. Chester A. Doyle as interpreter for the Federal Court. Mr. Doyle has been the official Japanese Interpreter of our courts since the year 1892 and is fully qualified for the position.

"We beg leave to state to you that at the present he is unquestionably the fittest man for that position."

Paul Neumann's name heads the list of signatures and after it are those of about all the lawyers in Honolulu, among them being W. O. Smith, Cecil Brown, A. S. Hartwell, H. E. Cooper, E. P. Dole, A. L. C. Atkinson, A. S. Humphreys, W. A. Henshall, Kinney, Ballou and McClanahan, Judge Stanley, Chief Justice Frear, E. A. Mott-Smith. Judge Estee is expected to arrive here on the City of Rio de Janeiro when she comes back, on July 29, or on the Australia, August 1.

PAYING OFF DEPOSITORS

McLENNAN'S $750,000 IS BEING DIVIDED.

Investors in Postal Savings Bank Are Requested to Call at Once for Their Money—What to Do.

Mr. McLennan, the man sent here by the United States Government to pay off the depositors in the Postal Savings Bank, has all matters arranged and the cash is available today and henceforth. With today all interest ceases, so that depositors should draw their money as soon as possible. For this purpose, at a meeting between Mr. McLennan, Treasurer Lansing, Secretary Cooper and Governor Dole, held yesterday afternoon, it was decided to take immediate action in the matter of closing up the affairs of the bank. This was at the suggestion of members of the Government and of Colonel Macfarlane. The reason for immediate action is that depositors have calculated and made their arrangements to correspond with a change about this time.

The course for depositors to pursue is to present their pass books at the bank as soon as possible. For this purpose the bank will remain open this afternoon and will be open Monday. In exchange for the pass book the depositor will be given a plain certificate, certifying that the person named has so much to his or her credit at the bank. This certificate is signed by Governor Dole and Secretary Cooper. Upon receipt, or at convenience, the depositor presents the certificate at the First National Bank (formerly the First American Bank) in the Campbell block next to the Hollister cigar store where it will be paid the same as a check.

Mr. McLennan hopes to have all the deposits refunded in two or three days, as most of the depositors are in Honolulu. The total sum to be paid out is nearly $800,000. The agent brought with him $750,000 in the strong box of the Chicago & North Western.

This money turned loose will have a notable effect upon business. Some people imagine the depositors in the Postal Savings Bank a lot of misers who prefer safety to investments with some risk. Such, however, is not the case. Almost everybody in town has money in the bank. In the past few months many, if not most of them have obtained options and entered into bargains to be closed when the bank was no more. The money will come into circulation and will be felt in a very few days.

HAWAIIAN DEMOCRATS.

Delegation Leaves San Francisco For Kansas City.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 21.—The steamer Australia, which reached port yesterday, brought a delegation of Hawaiians who were to take part in the National Democratic Convention at Kansas City as delegates from the Islands. They are Prince David Kawananakoa, W. H. Cornwell, John D. Holt, and John H. Wise. Charles T. Wilder, who for many years filled the position of Hawaiian consul at this port, is also a delegate, and joined the visitors from the Islands upon their arrival yesterday. There was a sixth delegate chosen at the recent Democratic convention in Honolulu, but in his place one of the alternates, E. B. McClanahan, has come from the Islands and will accompany the rest of the delegates to Kansas City. The latter is now a guest at the Occidental. The other visitors are making the Palace their headquarters during their stay in town.

Most of the delegates are not unknown to San Francisco. Prince David who is a member of the royal family of Hawaii, has been here before. He now intends to take a hand in Democratic politics in the Islands, and it is said that if any of the delegates are seated he will be one of them.

The National Democratic Committee made no provision for the representation of Hawaii in the national convention, and the delegates do not know whether they will be seated. If Hawaii is accorded the same representation as other territories, two delegates will be seated, and they will probably be Prince David and W. H. Cornwell. The delegates from Hawaii intend to leave for Kansas City with the California delegation June 29.

SALOON MATTER SETTLED

NEW LINES ESTABLISHED FOR LIQUOR MEN.

In Future There Can be no Saloons in 100 Feet of West Side of Fort Street—Executive Conference.

At the Executive meeting this morning it was decided to amend the old limits for saloons so as to shut out liquor dealers from Fort street and to extend the lines in other directions in which saloons will be authorized. Present with the department heads were E. C. Macfarlane, J. G. Rothwell, L. H. Dee, W. M. Cunningham, Mr. Almy and D. H. Lewis.

The old limits of saloons were pointed out to be as follows: Both sides of Fort street between Beretania and Merchant; mauka of Beretania between Fort and Nuanuan; both sides of Nuanuan between Beretania and Merchant; mauka of Merchant between Nuanuan and Fort. The new lines are: 100 feet west of Fort street at the corner of King, down to Bethel, to Merchant, to Nuanuan, to King, to Maunakea, to Beretania, to within 100 feet of Fort street, and thence down to the starting point. In addition to this the saloon of E. S. Cunha and the Hawaiian Hotel are admitted. The ones cut out are the Criterion and the old Pantheon.

There were arguments on both sides. Governor Dole stated that with the growth of the city it was necessary to extend the saloon limits but he was firm in the opinion that they should be taken off of Fort street. He also expressed the intention of granting to every hotel where general conditions were satisfactory, a license of the kind given to the Moana Hotel at Waikiki.

JUDGES SWORN IN.

A Few Take the Oath and are Ready for Business.

Justice C. A. Galbraith, Judge Gilbert F. Little and Judge J. W. Kaula have taken the oath as new judicial officials under the Territory. Justice Galbraith's oath is different from the others, the first part of which is as follows:

"I, C. A. Galbraith, of Hilo, Territory of Hawaii, do solemnly swear that I will administer Justice without respect to persons, and do equal right to the poor and to the rich, and that I will faithfully and impartially discharge all the duties incumbent on me as Associate Justice of the Supreme Court of the Territory of Hawaii, according to the best of my abilities and understanding, agreeably to the Constitution and Laws of the United States, so help me God."

Then follows the ordinary oath administered to officers.

"BARON CHEVRIEL."

The Character Mr. Neill Will Portray This Evening.

The character of "Baron Chevrier," as played by James Neill of the Neill company, which is to be seen here at the Opera House this evening in "A Parisian Romance," is of a nature and cynicism. Mr. Neill as the pained old Chevrier is said to give a remarkable portrayal of the death scene at the banquet table, being as near an approach to the high ideal set by Richard Mansfield in the same part as would seem possible. As a matter of fact, Mr. Neill has secured the exclusive rights in America for the presentation of "A Parisian Romance" from Mr. Mansfield. The play is far removed from the sphere of what is considered in theatrical parlance—a stock play—it possesses great intrinsic power, and with the artistic and effective surroundings given it by the Neill organization, makes it one of the most effective productions now upon the stage. How greatly rich and appropriate accessories add to a play, is demonstrated in all the productions given by the Neill company. The elaborate scenery and the costumes worn by the actors and actresses, and the richly made costumes worn by the organization have assisted much in placing the performance of the Neill organization at the head of any other similar dramatic attraction in America. The gowns of Miss Edythe Chapman, the ladies of the Neill company, worn in the production of "A Parisian Romance," have been described as surpassing in richness and beauty, anything shown upon the stage this season.

INDEPENDENT MEETING.

A big mass meeting of the Independent was held last evening at Kamohi church. The building was crowded to the doors, and hundreds stood outside. Wilcox, Kaula, Kalauokalani and Mossman made speeches. This is the same quartette that made the tour of Oahu. All the speeches were on the same lines as those delivered in the same way, except that Kaula's snake took up a permanent location in the taro patch.

Next week the Independent leaders will leave for Kauai.

WORK OR FORFEIT BONUS

ALTERNATIVE PRESENTED TO PAIA STRIKERS.

Arrangements Made to Eject Them if They Would Not Work—They Concluded to Go to Work.

PAIA, Maui, June 29.—Maui's labor troubles have now completely quieted down. The last to give in were the Paia Japanese, who yesterday afternoon decided best to retain their homes and go to work.

Some time ago the plantation agreed to give to all the contract men a bonus of $250 a month under the condition that they satisfactorily worked out their contracts, the same to be paid to them at the end of their time. When they struck recently and demanded their contracts, they were told that under those conditions that bonus would be forfeited. This is what these last strikers have been holding out for. Arrangements were made for putting them out of their houses and the camp this morning, if they still refused to work, but happily the matter has been adjusted.

WHAT YACHTSMEN WANT

THEY REFUSED TO COMPETE FOR CASH.

Did Not Want to Lose Amateur Standing—Second and Third Prizes Are Asked For.

A number of local yachtmen have signed an agreement to refuse to race on the Fourth of July for the cash prizes offered by the Fourth of July committee. The yachtmen give as a reason for so doing the fact that contesting for money makes them professionals, and under the rules of amateur sport would bar them forever from taking part in any but professional contests hereafter. What the owners of the yachts want are cups for first prize, and banners or flags, suitably inscribed, for second prizes. These would be trophies worth keeping, and the winners would not be in danger of being barred out at some future date, when they might attempt to enter an amateur contest.

Among those who signed the agreement were E. O. White of the yacht Eva, H. M. Dow of the Abbie M., Emil Berndt of the Leova, C. W. Macfarlane of the La Paloma, Brotherton & Crozier of the Myrtle, C. H. Smith of the Bonnie Dundee and others. It is stated that all of the local yachts here are of the same opinion.

Another kick from the men with pleasure boats is on account of the lack of second and third prizes. In some of the races there is no doubt as to which vessel will come out first. The contest for first prize will be over in a few minutes after the start. "After that," said one yachtman, "there will be nothing to race for. Two or three might be about even and make a good fight for second place, and two or three others, a bit farther behind, might have an interesting contest to come in third. This would make the races interesting to all. This is especially needed in the fourth class contests in which there will be about eight yachts."

The Fourth of July committee has decided that it will offer trophies instead of cash, and now the yachtmen want the members of the committee to give attention to the matter of second or possibly third prizes.

AN HAWAIIAN GOD FOUND

LARGE STONE IDOL DISCOVERED IN KONA.

Was Probably Hidden Away by a Devout Idolater at the Time of the Destruction of the Gods.

The Mauna Loa yesterday brought an ancient Hawaiian idol from Kona which may go to the Bishop Museum. The finding of this idol was remarkable in itself, and in the light it throws on the religious history of the ancient Hawaiians.

The idol, which is a large stone one, was found in Honouliuli, about five miles eastward from Kailua. It had evidently been carefully hidden away, probably at the time of the breaking of the idols, and the destruction of idolatry, eighty years ago. A hole had been dug in the soil, and the bottom of the hole covered with tapa. Then the idol had been laid on its back, and a large flat stone laid to cover the hole, the top of the stone being about even with the surface of the ground. The idol itself was not covered with earth, but a space of six or eight inches was left between it and the covering stone. The way it came to be found was that the owner of the land, a Portuguese wanted to use the stone, which he had often seen lying there, it being a flat stone, and suitable from its shape for some purpose he had in hand. Upon taking up the stone, the idol was discovered.

The back of the idol, where it had lain on the tapa, is smooth and well preserved, and shows excellent workmanship. But the face of the idol, exposed as it has been to the chamber of air underneath the flat covering stone, shows plainly the disintegrating process of the years. It is supposed that at the time of the general destruction of the Hawaiian idols, some devout idolater, for the purpose of saving this particular one from destruction, hid it away in the place and in the manner in which it was found. It is probably not a household god, but an idol from a heiau, for there are the remains of an ancient heiau near where it was found.

The idol is made of the ordinary lava rock. It is about thirty inches in height, representing the figure of a man from the knees up. It is about fourteen inches across the shoulders and the head is twenty-five and a half inches in circumference. The face shows very well the eyes, mouth and nose of a man, not badly designed and worked out, though the disintegrating process has gone far. The left arm and hand hangs at the side with the back of the hand toward the front. The right arm and hand are hanging down, but with the back of the hand outward. The back of the idol which has been preserved from the disintegrating process, conforms rudely to the human form, but showing that the maker had just conceptions of anatomy. The rudely carved stone now weighs 112 pounds.

It was bought from the man who discovered it by W. Muller, and brought to Honolulu. Prof. Brigham of the Bishop Museum examined it this morning with a view of purchasing it for the museum.

MAHUKONA.

Departed—June 23, schr. John G. North, Austin, for San Francisco; 7,811 bags sugar, 585 bags coffee.

SHIPPING MEMORANDA.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 22.—The British ship Histon, Captain Joslin, 64 days out from Honolulu to Port Townsend, has been posted as overdue. It is likely she has blown some distance off the coast during the severe gales that raged along the Oregon and Washington coasts about a month ago. If she did not meet with more serious misfortune, Reinsurance is not quoted upon her.

The schooner Americana, from Caleta Buena, Peru, for this port, is out 114 days today. Reinsurance quotations remain 25 cent on the American.

The following dates for the sailing of the United States Army transports from San Francisco have been announced: Grant, July 1; Sumner, July 16; Hancock, August 1; Logan, August 16; Meade, September 1; Warren, September 16; Thomas, October 1; Sheridan, October 16, and Sumner, November 1.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 20.—The huge steamer Californian, built at the Union Iron Works for the American-Hawaiian Steamship Company, was to have been ready for her trial trip by Saturday next, but extra work will make it impossible for the vessel to have her test before early next week. She is to be ready for loading by July the first.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 22.—The American ship Tillie E. Starbuck has been purchased by Welch & Co. of Honolulu, and the bark Challenger by Hind, Rolf & Co., and will continue in the Hawaiian trade.

A CARD OF THANKS.

I wish to say that I feel under lasting obligations for what Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has done for our family. We have used it in so many cases of coughs, lung troubles and whooping cough, and it has always given the most perfect satisfaction, we feel greatly indebted to the manufacturers of this remedy and wish them to please accept our hearty thanks.—Respectfully, Mrs. S. Doty, Des Moines, Iowa. For sale by all dealers and druggists. Benson, Smith & Co., general agents, Hawaiian Islands.

Alsen Portland Cement

WE HAVE JUST RECEIVED a large shipment of this celebrated Cement, which is the STONGEST AND MOST SERVICEABLE CEMENT MADE, and will permit the admixture of a larger amount of sand or gravel, with less loss of strength, than any other brand; it is therefore the most economical. ALSEN has no equal in color, fineness and sand carrying capacity. It weighs less per bushel, measuring about 10 per cent more cement to a barrel than other brands, which very materially reduces its cost as compared with other cements is therefore an economical cement to use, and specially adapted for fine concrete work.

The following tests, made in actual work by Col. D. C. Houston, Corps of Engineers, U. S. A., at the seawall around Governor's Island, New York Harbor, has never been equalled by any other cement. It is as follows: Tensile strength per square inch—One day, 384 pounds; seven days, 600 pounds; thirty days, 818 pounds.

For sidewalks it gives the best color and the most durable wearing surface. A few of the large contracts in which Alsen Cement was used: Cable R. R., Baltimore, 35,000 barrels; Quebec Harbor Improvement, 20,000 barrels; Northern Pacific R. R. bridges, 20,000 barrels.

GOWNS THAT WERE SUPERB

AN ART EXHIBIT OF FAULTLESS
CLOTHES.

A Keen Drama Presented by the Neill Company With Incomparable Appreciation and Finish.

A short time ago "The Old Playgoer"
expressed in these columns a preference for the wholesome melodrama over the problem play. I hope he was present last night to witness the Neill company's presentation of "Lady Windemere's Fan." If he was, I think he will agree with me that he saw a play that in its keen, polished intellectual qualities is the equal of any problem play ever put on the boards, and in fidelity to truth, even in heart qualities, has as true, though it may not be as simple and conventional a ring, as the most touching melodrama of virtue triumphing and villainy thwarted, he ever saw.

But whether he agrees with me about the play itself, or not, I am sure he will agree with me about the presentation of it. It was superb. The play, in its scenes and characters presents a highly artificial strata of society, but not necessarily, on that account, a strata in which human interest and human character does not work out according to an unfailing and invariable laws as the simpler passions and sentiments of the conventional melodrama. But because of the artificial, the more elaborated strata of society it pictures, it requires higher skill to present it truthfully.
And in the fact of this requirement, and in the fact that it was fully met, consists much of the pleasure of witnessing
a dramatic performance, unless, indeed, one resigns all cultivated intellectual capacity on entering the theater.

But not to draw too fine a point, let me suggest some things in the performance that were a real delight to one who thinks the dramatic picture should be drawn true to life. One of these things was the gowns worn by the women on the stage, and the way they were them, and the perfection of appointment and grooming in the clothes and appearance of the men. This may seem like an anti-climax after what I have said about intellectual qualities, but it isn't. It may be no more than an accessory of those qualities, but it is such an essential accessory as to become a part of them. If a man or a woman doesn't "look the part," he or she falls of the highest characterization of the part. Much more so an actress or an actor. And herein lies the finishing and final touch of the capable artist.

But let us get to the gowns, remembering that the play is a present day
one, in a state of society where gowns,
and clothes and grooming are an important part of the scenes presented,
where last year's styles and last year's usages are as glaring defects as blouses, or the two-tined table forks of our grandmothers would be.

The play presents afternoon and evening scenes. Clothes must be not only appropriate, but irreproachable. They were last night. Edythe Chapman as "Mrs. Erynn" would not have been
"Mrs. Erynn" at all if she had not been properly gowning. As she was gowning no one could have been more
"Mrs. Erynn" than she was. Her ball gown was a faultless, perfect, ravishing
black spangled net gown, with the surpassing finishing effect of a large rose-ette of turquoise blue on one side of the bodice.

But having said this, how shall I find adjectives to describe the afternoon costume she wore? In material it was the most superb black lace over white satin,
with a collar of white ostrich feathers
—lavish and luxurious in its proportions that it came almost to the shoulders. With it she wore a hat that simply reveled in white ostrich plumes,
and to complete the wantonness of effect she carried a sunshade of white ostrich feathers.

This surely is not the simplicity of modesty and virtue unadorned. But then "Mrs. Erynn" was not playing the part of simple modesty and virtue unadorned, but was playing the part which her costume fitted to the nicety and clearness of a cameo. And the way she wore them was a lesson in good clothes properly worn, that few can expect to learn otherwise than by just such examples.

The other women in the cast wore gowns equally as appropriate to the characters portrayed, but as it should be, designed to heighten every effect.
Grace Mae Larkin as "Lady Windemere," wore for her ball gown a rose colored affair exquisitely set off with black and white net. Lillian Andrews as "The Duchess of Berwick," wore a ball gown of broadened satin, of a richness and incomparableness eminently befitting a duchess.

And the men! In a community which for eighty years almost, has boasted a court and has believed it paid some attention to the conventionalities of dress appropriate to a court, the men of the Neill company in last night's performance, showed a finish and appropriateness of dress that was truly refreshing to one who has some recognition of the relation of dress garments to one another, and to occasions.

I haven't said much about the acting in detail. But though it is slang, I am sure the "Old Playgoer" will understand me when I say it was in the same class with the play itself, and with the gowning and clothes I have tried to describe. A YOUNGER PLAYGOER.

ATTENTION WATER.
The new brewery, which has been boring for water on its Queen street premises, has struck a flow of about a million gallons a day. The well is 520 feet deep, about the deepest in Honolulu. At that depth the company found a very strong flow.

GARDNER CONVICTED.
In the police court yesterday, "Bob"
Gardner and AhFong were convicted of violating the liquor ordinance and sentenced to pay a fine of $100 each, with costs.

IN COURT.
B. L. Mary, administrator, has filed an inventory of the estate of the late John H. Winter, showing the same to be worth $7,745.

The deputy county clerk of San Francisco
has asked the local court if Mrs.
F. Schmitt, who died on March 24, left a will. He will be told that she left none.

A final ruling on the case of Wilder's
Steamship Company vs. the ship John C. Potter, libel for damages, will be given at 1:30 p. m., Monday.

Miss Mary Dinne having survived a leap from Brooklyn bridge, the question of woman's superiority to man may be considered settled.—Virginia Pilot.

OUR DELEGATES.

The Hawaiian delegation made a good impression at Philadelphia. Apart from the fact that the little Territory voted in convention for the first time, and that there was naturally some curiosity over the matter, the personnel of the delegation was especially striking, and would command attention in any assembly.

Colonel Parker and Judge Kepoikai are splendid specimens of their race. Both are men of the world and their English is irreproachable. That both delegates should be of Hawaiian blood was particularly fortunate, as it goes to show what interest the Hawaiians take in national politics. In the honor given to these delegates, the Hawaiians as a race are honored.

Gradually, as time goes on, the personal ties between the Mainland and the Territory will increase. The men of Hawaii will get to be known politically as the men of the various states and territories are known outside of the limits of their own locality. Hawaii has produced some brilliant men, but they have been lost in the small area in which they have played their parts. Now it will be different, they will have opportunity of getting in touch with the most prominent men of a great nation.

It is really inspiring to think of Hawaii being represented at the great gathering of the Republican party in Philadelphia. All conventions are historic, but this one will be remembered as the first one when both President and Vice-President were elected by acclamation. Hawaii's debut in American politics has been, therefore, most propitious.

The delegates, who have been sent to the Democratic convention, will doubtless receive as much attention as their confreres in the Republican convention. But the honor of taking part politically for the very first time in the affairs of the Mainland belongs to the Republican delegates. It is an honor, and the party here should take vast pride in the opportunity which fell to its share.

CASH RECEIVED.

The payment of the depositors in the Postal Savings Bank will relieve a serious stringency in the money market. A change of government such as we had was bound to have some little friction, especially as there was so much of an engrossing nature at the close of Congress that a small thing like Hawaii and her affairs could easily drop out of sight.

It was the intention of Congress to provide both for the loan, and for the depositors of the Postal Savings Bank, but in the rush of business at the end of session no provision was made. Fortunately the depositors in the Postal Savings Bank can get their money, through a New York banking firm. The postal savings bank depositors were in rather a bad fix, because until arrangements could be made by the American government, they were out both their money and their interest after July 1st.

The sections of the Act relative to the postal savings bank read as follows:

Section 102. That the laws of Hawaii relating to the establishment and conduct of any postal savings bank or institution are hereby abolished. And the Secretary of the Treasury, in the execution of the agreement of the United States as expressed in an Act entitled "Joint Resolution to provide for annexing the Hawaiian Islands to the United States," approved July seventh, eighteen hundred and ninety-eight, shall pay the amounts on deposit in the Hawaiian Postal Savings Bank to the persons entitled thereto, according to their respective rules, and regulations, needful orders, rules, and regulations for paying such persons and for notifying such persons to present their demands for payment. So much money as is necessary to pay said demands is hereby appropriated out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, to be available on and after the first day of July, nineteen hundred, when such payments shall begin, and none of said demands shall bear interest after said date, and no deposit shall be made in said bank after said date. Said demands of such persons shall be certified to by the chief executive of Hawaii as being genuine and due to the persons presenting the same, and his certificate shall be sealed with the official seal of the Territory, and countersigned by its secretary, and shall be approved by the Secretary of the Interior, who shall draw his warrant for the amount due upon the Treasurer of the United States, and when the same are so paid no further liabilities shall exist in respect of the same against the governments of the United States or of Hawaii.

Section 103. That any money of the Hawaiian Postal Savings Bank that shall remain unpaid to the persons entitled thereto on the first day of July, nineteen hundred and one, and any assets of said bank shall be turned over by the government of Hawaii to the Treasurer of the United States, and the Secretary of the Treasury shall cause an account to be stated, as of said date, between such government of Hawaii and the United States in respect to the Hawaiian Postal Savings Bank.

Fortunately the act itself reads, "so much money as is necessary to pay said demands is hereby appropriated out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated." It is under this clause that the New York Bankers have been able to work.

The rapid payment of this money will be of incalculable advantage to the credit of the Territory, and the confidence in financial circles. There is nothing so timid as money. Though thoroughly explainable, the fact that there seemed a hitch about payment of the depositors on July 1, as was contemplated in the act, had already had its influence upon the money market. The amount, even in the aggregate, was not very large, only three-quarters of a million of dollars, but it was spread among a very considerable number of depositors, and the effect of a hesitancy in paying was bound to be widespread.

The Hawaiian bonds, to the amount of $4,000,000 depend upon the Newlands' resolution and will require a special act which will undoubtedly be passed at the commencement of next session. According to the theory of the secretary of the Treasury, the indebtedness of Hawaii, up to the amount above mentioned, was assumed by the United States Government at the time of annexation, and though the Hawaiian government, during the transition period, has paid the interest regularly, the United States Treasury owes the Territorial Government the interest which the Hawaiian Government has paid.

On July 1 there will be a considerable amount of interest due in London and in San Francisco. This has all been provided for already, the money having been forwarded during Mr. Damon's administration. Interest due in Honolulu will be paid by the Treasurer out of the Territorial funds, so that there will be no blot upon the financial good name of Hawaii.

Theoretically the Territorial government is under no obligation to pay interest upon four millions of dollars of its debt. It is clearly the duty of the United States to do so, and has been, according to Secretary Gage since August 12, 1898. But even if Secretary Gage's theory is not correct, it is certainly the duty of the United States to assume all responsibility of our bonds from the date of the passage of the Territorial act, April 30, 1900.

The question is one that will probably be argued pro and con at some little length in Congress, but it is after all one of detail, for the responsibility of the United States is clearly set forth in the Newlands' resolution. Meanwhile, the Territorial government is doing its duty, and protecting its good name by scrupulously paying interest on its debt, interest, be it remembered, that it is not really responsible for.

U. S. TREASURY.

The receipts at the treasury for the month of May amounted to $45,166,653, an increase of close upon $400,000 upon the receipts of the parallel month of 1899. The expenditures for May have been $40,351,525, a decrease of $550,000 over the month of April, and of $160,000 as compared with the month of May last year. Thus it will be seen that the excess of receipts over expenditures is $4,814,528, which represents a very satisfactory financial condition.

But the comparison of receipts and expenditures for the eleven months of the fiscal year are also well worth considering. The receipts for the eleven months amounted to $517,533,115. The expenditures for the same period amounted to $454,213,498, which gives a surplus amounting to $63,300,000 excess of receipts over expenditures. Few, if any, countries in the world, can show such a brilliant and satisfactory financial condition.

The Y. M. C. A. people have organized a summer camp for boys and young men. This is a very good idea. Many young men have no where to go during their vacations. This will enable them to get fresh air, rest, and pleasant recreation during the hot months of the year.

The arrival of the commissions for the judges puts an end to the long delay in organizing the Supreme Court. There will be plenty of hard work before the judges in order to wipe off a long arrears of cases, but the bench is a hard working one, and will fulfill its duties with vigor.

The Japanese on Maui seem to have returned to their work without any further rioting, and it may be almost taken for granted that the acute stage in our labor troubles has passed by. When we consider the magnitude of the change which has taken place, it is really remarkable that we have got through as easily as we have. The planters have wisely made reasonable concessions and the question pending between the labor companies and the laborers will be settled by arbitration, between representatives of each, the planters meanwhile retaining the $2.50 draw back until the matter is finally adjusted. The Japanese Consul will have a good deal of influence in bringing about this final adjustment.

Complaint was made in these columns about the telephone. It does not seem as if matters were getting any better. The other day, from the Board of Education it was found impossible to send an important message, and finally it had to be sent by hand, after a delay which took up the valuable time of half a dozen people. Last evening an effort was made to communicate by telephone and for ten minutes the person strove to get a connection but had to give up in despair. There was no doubt about the ten minutes because a watch was looked at when the connection failed, and examined again when the party gave up in disgust. The complaints all over town are continuous, and it seems impossible to get any satisfaction. One is utterly helpless, for except by note it is next to impossible to reach the superintendent. Honolulu used to boast of her telephone system, now she can only be heartily ashamed of it.

THE FOURTH IN HAWAII

HOW MAUI WILL CELEBRATE THE DAY.

Races, Speeches and a Dinner at Hilo—Polo at Makawao—Horse Racing at Spreckelsville—Tennis at Paia.

HILO, June 28.—A petition goes to Secretary Cooper by the steamer tonight requesting that the Government band be permitted to visit Hilo on the Fourth of July.

All entries for horse races for July 4th and 5th must be in the hands of George Bayless by noon on Saturday, June 30.

It has been decided by the dance committee of the Fourth of July celebration to charge $1 admission to the ball. This is done in order that the floor will not be crowded with persons who do not dance.

Judge G. F. Little will deliver the address at the opening of Honolulu Park on July 4th.

Paia, Maui, June 29.—The glorious Fourth of July will be celebrated on Maui in good style. An interesting program of races has been arranged for at Spreckels Park, Kahului, and the sports and others look forward to a good time.

Makawao district will celebrate by a grand picnic at Sunnyside, Paia, the residence of Rev. E. G. Beckwith. The day will commence at 10 o'clock in the morning with tennis, croquet and other games. About noon a bountiful lunch will be spread, and there will be speech making and patriotic music. After noon, commencing about 2 o'clock, the Makawao Polo Club will take the field, and give an exhibition of that exhilarating sport. A very enjoyable time is anticipated, and the public generally is invited to attend. The Stars and Stripes will be in evidence and the first Territorial Fourth amply remembered.

WORTHINGTON VS. NUTTING.

Suit and Cross Suit Between Employer and Employee.

Henry R. Worthington Company has entered suit against L. B. Nutting, agent for the concern here, to recover something over $5,000, alleged to be company money deposited in the Bank of Hawaii and not properly turned over. Today Nutting began a suit against Worthington for assumpsit, claiming the exact amount in the bank as due to him. The attorneys for Mr. Nutting have addressed the following letter to the attorneys for the company:

MR. NUTTING'S SIDE.
Honolulu, H. I., June 30, 1900.
Messrs. Kinney, Ballou & McClanahan, Attorneys for E. W. Husted, Auditor, etc.

Sirs—I enclose Mr. Nutting's check on the Bank of Hawaii for the sum of $5,792.01 to the order of the Henry R. Worthington Company, the amount standing in Mr. Nutting's name in the bank, concerning which you have instituted suit against him in the name of the Worthington Company for breach of trust.

This check is given without prejudice in any respect to Mr. Nutting's rights or claims in the premises, whether against the Worthington Company or against Mr. Husted. You have been made aware of Mr. Nutting's claims against the company for commissions and expenditures made by him by authority of the company, by which the company is indebted to him over and above this balance in the bank for a large sum of money.

Mr. Nutting has, in acting for the Worthington Company in Hawaii, as its manager and sales representative, collected over $100,000 and has always remitted promptly, in some instances paying considerable sums of money out of his own funds in excess of the balance remaining in bank here, to meet the requirements of the company. The very money now paid over to you would regularly, in the absence of Mr. Husted, have been used for payment of bills here against the company, and it is partly to avoid any question on this subject that we have advised him now to take this action.

We will say further that since the demand was made by Mr. Husted upon Mr. Nutting for this money, he has been ready to act upon the advice of counsel in retaining or paying it over. He still retaining the position of manager for the Henry R. Worthington Company, this suit was served upon him prior to receipt by him of your letter of the 27th instant, in which you refer to his failure to attend to the company's business or meet its obligations to the Honolulu Iron Works and others out of the funds of the company. He denies entirely his failure to attend to the business of the company properly and in all respects when not interfered with by Mr. Husted, and he denies Mr. Husted's authority to bring this suit against him, as well as the truth of the injurious charges which Mr. Husted has seen fit to make against him.

Yours truly,
ALFRED S. HARTWELL,
ATKINSON & JUDD,
Of Counsel and Attorneys for L. B. Nutting.

GET ACQUAINTED.

The more people you know the greater your chance of finding a full friend among them. The same principle obtains as to labor-saving conveniences. It is much better to get a light by pressing a button at your bedside than to rise, strike a match and set the gas going. The more things you know how to do, the more thoroughly safe guarded you are in emergencies and times of trouble. It is ignorance along these lines which induces incalculable loss of time, money and health. "Oh, if I had only known of it in time," is the sad, doleful cry of multitudes who find themselves in the grasp of some disease from which a certain remedy might have delivered them. Now, information comes through the eye and ear. It is reasonable, therefore, to suppose that what we are now going to tell you about

WAMPOLE'S PREPARATION

may be the most valuable intelligence printed in this newspaper. It is palatable as honey and contains the nutritive and curative properties of Pure Cod Liver Oil, extracted by us from fresh cod livers, combined with the Compound Syrup of Hypophosphites, Malt and Wild Cherry. It has no equal for the use of Invalids and Consumptives. In all cases of Fevers, Anemia, Nervous Debility, Pneumonia, Scrofula, Rheumatism, etc., it may be implicitly depended on. Progressive physicians endorse and prescribe it. Thin and wasted patients quickly gain new health and strength. One sufferer gained twelve pounds in weight from a single bottle. If you need it now take it now. If not, get acquainted with it and know what to do when occasion arises. One bottle convinces. Effective from the first dose. "You cannot be disappointed in it." CONSUMPTION COMMITTEE

THE BOARD OF HEALTH GETS A MOVE ON.

Will Devise Plans for Stamping Out the Disease in the Hawaiian Islands—
Houses to be Burned.

The Board of Health purposes taking the bull by the horns in the matter of consumption in the Hawaiian Islands.
For several months there has been a strong undercurrent of popular opinion in favor of immediate and drastic measures, and this has made its impression upon the authorities in a way that may bring substantial results. The steady increase of the number of tubercular cases and the appearance of a case at the head of a public school a short time ago, brought the matter up
in its strongest light.

At yesterday's meeting of the Health Board the report of Dr. Day was brought up. Dr. Wood spoke most enthusiastically on the subject and advanced action right now. He submitted at the same time statistics showing the alarming advance of the disease in the past several years. At the conclusion of his remarks Attorney General Dole, Dr.
Cooper and President Wood were appointed a committee to devise means for handling the question.

Dr. Carmichael served formal notice that the quarantine against San Francisco had been lifted by Surgeon General Wyman. This was a disappointment, as the Board feels that the precaution is still necessary. While the local Board has the power to act over the head of the Marine hospital service
it is not desirable to take such steps as will cause friction. The Marine hospital service directs national quarantine; the Territorial Board of Health has full power to quarantine against any other part of the United States.
Just what course will be taken has not yet been determined but it is safe to say that proper precautions will not be omitted by the local authorities, no matter what the course of the Marine Hospital service may be.

It was decided to destroy the old plague hospital and morgue in Kaka-ka by fire. The suspect camp at the saluting battery will be torn down and removed.

L. W. Zumwalt, health agent at Kahululu, resigned. J. J. W. W. W. W.
tendered him for his services.

THE NEW OCEANIC LINE

AUSTRALIA AND MARIPOSA FOR TAHITI.

The Tahiti Government Gives a Subsidy
of Thirty Thousand Dollars a Year—
First Class Passenger Steamers.

WASHINGTON, June 18.—J. Lamb Duty, consul of the United States at Tahiti, has reported to the State Department regarding an American steamship line between Tahiti and San Francisco, as follows:

"For the annual sum of 150,000 francs
($30,000 in United States gold) to be paid by the Tahiti government, and exemtion from port charges, the Oceanic Steamship Company is to operate an American steamship of about 3,000 tons
gross register, performing eleven round trips per annum at an average speed of not less than 13½ knots. The contract is awarded for a period of five years, the first voyage, which is to be made not later than November 1, 1906, and earlier if possible.

"It is the purpose of this company
to use a first class passenger steamship and make the service attractive in all particulars; and it is anticipated that this will become a favorite route
of travel when the charm of the climate and scenery of Tahiti become known.

"The inauguration of this line will give great impetus to United States trade with Tahiti, and, in general, with other islands of Eastern Polynesia. The Pacific coast of the United States will be particularly benefitted, as perishable goods—such as fruits, vegetables and meats—which now are received exclusively from New Zealand, will then come from San Francisco.

"For over thirty-four years a regular monthly sailing vessel service has been maintained between Tahiti and San Francisco. It may be predicted that if the Oceanic Steamship Company continues in this business for five years
the trade between the United States and Tahiti will not only experience a great extension, but that the proportion of value will increase from 50 to 75 per cent."

The Australia and Mariposa are both reported to be intended for use in the Tahiti trade, when the Oceanic Company gets all its new steamers ready.
