PLAGUE DEATH LAST NIGHT

NATIVE WOMAN SUCCUMBS TO THE MALADY.

Came From Ahl Premises in Nuuanu Street—Positive Indications—Body Burned at Midnight.

The sixth case of plague was discovered about 8 o'clock last night. It was a native woman named Maria in a section of the Ahl premises at Nuuanu and Pauahi streets. The woman was dead when found.

Dr. Garvin and others were despatched at once to the scene and made a preliminary examination. There was a cut on the dead woman's arm from which she had suffered for two weeks. The examination revealed very suspicious circumstances, however, and the body was taken to the Board of Health morgue.

There for some time the physicians had strong hopes of finding that blood poisoning was the cause of death. Such, however, was not to be. The indications were plain and the opinion of the examiners was unanimous. The body was forthwith cremated.

News of this case spread all over town in the early evening and renewed in a large measure the old alarm. Groups of men stood around everywhere and talked over the situation. There was a general expression of regret that the period of quarantine should have again been extended.

It is worthy of note that Dr. Emerson joined in the verdict of plague in the case last night. He was doubtful as to the other two from the same premises. "The woman, Maria, undoubtedly died of plague," affirmed the doctor this morning.

There were no cases of plague today. The case of last night was the last. An opinion has gained ground about the city that that case was not plague. It is said that the woman had syphilis for the past ten years and that of that disease. Still, the doctors are positive of plague symptoms. The bacteriological examination has not yet been completed.

The temporary alarm and set-back of last night is not felt this afternoon. In fact there is assurance all along the line.

RELIEF WORK BEGUN.

Board of Health Supplying Food to the Needy.

Captain George Ashley, commissary N. G. H., acting under the Board of Health, is caring for all the poor in the quarantined district. His relief corps was organized yesterday morning and went to work at once. Before night every person in need of assistance was located and had proper, wholesome food for today. Poi and fish is supplied in abundance to natives in the district. All the sick of ordinary causes, are provided with milk and such delicacies as the doctors prescribe. Chinese and Japanese insist upon eating their own food, and this is allowed.

Two wagons have been kept busy transporting food into the district. Poi, fish and the like is transferred at the corner of Nuuanu and Hotel streets to the commissary department in the district.

A great deal of relief work has been done. Kikahaie, Puukoa, Kekaulike street and several other districts are filled with native families, the heads of which are fishermen or day laborers and live square up to their earnings. It is this community, which is most in need of help, and it is now receiving it.

OUTGOING VESSELS.

Rules That Will Govern Them as Well as Passengers.

President Cooper has issued the following instructions to quarantine officers on board of vessels:

You will, under no circumstances, allow any person to go on board of the vessel you are in charge of.

You may allow provisions and other supplies for the support of passengers and crew to go aboard the vessel, provided that no Chinese or Japanese goods or provisions of any kind will be allowed.

No freight or provisions will be allowed on board the vessel unless the voice or list of provisions has the approval of an agent of the Board of Health.

In case of stress of weather, you will allow the ship to leave anchorage and proceed to some place of safety; but you are to allow no communication with the shore until the full time of quarantine has expired.

If any disease breaks out among the passengers or crew, you will at once notify this office.

If the ship remains clean for the period of seven days she may proceed on her voyage to her ports of destination.

MEETING OF INSPECTORS.

Heads of Cleaning Gangs Make First Reports.

There was a meeting at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon of sanitary inspectors with President Cooper, of the Board of Health, to make reports on the conditions in the various districts. Each inspector gave details as he found them and a campaign of continuing the work of cleaning with more vigor was inaugurated.

It was a notable fact that the inspectors recommended the burning of several rows of houses in Chinatown as a sanitary measure. One of these blocks is on the mauka side of Pauahi from Nuuanu to Smith. Numerous other houses have already been burned. In many cases mattresses and other bedding has been piled into the streets and cremated.

The work will not stop. Sub-inspectors have been appointed for each district so that a head may be on duty at all times. A complete census of each district is being made.

EFFECT ON BUSINESS.

Plague and Quarantine Bring it Almost to a Standstill.

Business shows the effect of the plague. The tabu on inter-island shipping has cleared the streets almost completely of drays and trucks. So large a part of town being in quarantine brings a large proportion of many kinds of business to a standstill. The general apprehension and feeling of uncertainty has affected retail trade in general and the holiday trade in particular. Only the stores seem to be doing the usual trade and they largely in the line of disinfectants and sanitary appliances and articles.

ISLAND TRAFFIC.

The Inter-Island and Wilder steamship companies are keeping as many of their vessels free from the quarantine restrictions as is possible by not allowing them to enter the harbor beyond the light house. The Maui and Waialeale are loading near the channel from lighters, the Board of Health having given permits for the shipping of freight that is approved. The Ke Au Hou and Kinau are also free and will be kept away from the wharves when they arrive. The Mauna Loa and Niihau, which leave today, have been loading at the wharves and were ordered to join the anchored vessels. They will have to wait seven days.

If the quarantine is not over when the vessels now held return to Honolulu they will all be free and will be kept so. This will be a great relief to passenger traffic, unless the present orders are changed, but freight may be sent about as usual, except such as has been handled by Chinese or Japanese firms. There will be some delay and extra charges, on account of the necessity of sending stuff out on lighters.

RUNNING QUARANTINE.

The strict quarantine declared in the district infected by the plague has not kept a considerable number of people who were in the line when the quarantine was established from getting out. Last night a native who has been kept in since the first managed to escape through the lines and he was on the water front looking for stevedores work this morning and boasting of his achievement. No one seemed to be alarmed at his presence. He associated with his companions as usual and if he carries a population of the deadly bacilli he remains very cheerful about it.

In many cases passes are said to have been given for prisoners on the ground to get out, in order that they might attend to their business. Quite a number of laborers who were not able to get out yesterday were at work this morning, some of them claiming to have been given permission to leave. One of these is employed at the custom house and was confined in Chinatown for half a day.

TRACING INFECTION.

So far persistent and active effort does not seem to have been made to trace the course of the infection. Five of the deaths from plague apparently have no connection with one another. It is argued that if investigation should at show that the victims ate at the same place, or handled goods from the same shipment or were exposed to the same set of conditions it might be an important clue leading to the original source of infection. It is pointed out that in the cholera epidemic when it was discovered that the harbor was the source of contagion, the community felt easier because it recognized that preventive means could be intelligently applied, and the epidemic very soon afterwards came to an end.

JAPANESE PHYSICIANS.

A number of Japanese physicians have tendered their services to the Board of Health in a letter addressed to President Cooper of the Board. The following is the letter:

Dear Sir:—We, the undersigned, do hereby offer our services to your service, and will be glad to co-operate with you and undertake unhesitatingly, whatever work that the honorable Board may request us to do, in order to prevent, if possible, the threatening epidemic of bubonic plague.

Your obedient servants,

Drs. T. Mitamura, T. Mori, T. Katsumura, S. Kobayashi, N. Ogawa and S. Okawara.

THE ARTILLERY QUARANTINED.

The Sixth Artillery has been quarantined against Honolulu. There are 200 men at Fort Honolulu. They are confined strictly to camp and not allowed to visit any other place. The National Guard has instructions to arrest any artillerymen found in town. This is at the request of Major Mills.

A guard of Artillerymen in charge of hay and other stuff at the wharves is supplied from the old barracks. They all keep Chinese and Japanese from the neighborhood.

CLEANING NEEDED.

Complaint is made about a very objectionable cesspool at the corner of Fort and Allen streets. It is a hole into which dirt and water has been running for months, apparently with no outlet, and it now contains an ill-smelling pond of stagnant water quite near the surface. People employed in the local-ty would like to have the Board of Health give it attention.

WHO OWNS CHINATOWN?

The reports of indescribable filth and unsanitary condition which the inspection of Chinatown has brought forth, has started the inquiry as to who owns the property there. It is argued that the Chinese and Japanese who are mere tenants for the most part are not wholly to blame for the condition of things and that the owners of the property have some responsibility in the matter.

NEEDS FUMIGATING.

EDITOR STAR:—In the universal clean up, may I ask the attention of the authorities to a place on King street opposite South. There is a Chinese restaurant and a store and several cottages on the same premises. Judging by the odor that assails passers-by the cesspools need a thorough cleaning, and the whole place a thorough fumigation.

RESIDENT.

SIMMERSON IS CONFIDENT.

Captain Simmerson, of the Mauna Loa, says he has no fears but that the people of west Hawaii will receive his freight and passengers when he arrives there ten days hence. In cholera times he had no trouble. This time he will be most careful while in quarantine and believe the people will receive his boat without question. The Mauna Loa anchored in quarantine just before noon.

VISITED THE FLEET.

Attorney-General Cooper visited the fleet of island steamers off port at 10 o'clock yesterday afternoon. He went out on the tug, returning in an hour. Instructions were given at long range to the inspectors on the vessels.

KING STREET BRIDGE.

While quarantine is in force and the bridge not in use, it is suggested that it would be a good time to repair the King street bridge.

IS THE PLAGUE ON MAUI?

REPORTS OF MANY DEATHS FROM THERE.

Much Oriental Merchandise has been Sent there Lately from Here—Dead Wagon Busy at Kihai.

The Kinau is expected to return tomorrow with news from Maui that will settle the question of whether the plague has reached there. Reports from natives and others that have been there lately tell of an alarming number of deaths and it is feared that the disease which has caused so much trouble here may have gotten a footing on Maui. Much of the Chinese and Japanese freight that is supposed to be dangerous here has been sent to the other islands and the germs may therefore have been carried there.

From Kihai comes a report that the dead wagon has been very busy during recent days. At the plantation there are not very good facilities for finding out by microscopic examination what is the nature of a disease, and it might be possible for an outbreak of plague to occur without it being known to a certainty what the trouble was. The quarantine possibilities and other facilities for fighting the disease are also inferior.

PLAGUE NOTES.

The Chamber of Commerce will hold a special meeting at its rooms tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock, to consider the question of relief to the poorer classes in the quarantine districts.

The agricultural office in the Judiciary building was taken by the Board of Health this morning to be used as barracks for its employees.

It is urged today that an inspector be placed on each of the tram cars to have them washed and disinfected every day. The cars are undoubtedly contagious carriers.

In the last two cases of sickness the bacteriologists have so far made their official report as to say "similar to plague" in place of the real article.

A special meeting of the Medical Association of Hawaii is called for Saturday evening at 8 o'clock at the Pacific Club. All members of the profession are invited.

Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy can always be depended upon and is pleasant and safe to take. Sold by all dealers and druggists. Benson, Smith & Co., general agents, Hawaiian Islands.

POLICE AND THE SOLDIERS

GUARD LAST NIGHT CAUSED A CLASH.

Private Hunt, Company H, Bayoneted a Jap and Was Arrested by Police. Police Withdrawn.

There was a bit of clash between police and military authority yesterday afternoon, as a result of which the men with clubs were withdrawn at noon to day from Chinatown and the infected district is now in the hands of the N. G. H. alone. Police may enter the district only when sent there by the department, with a pass from the Board of Health, signed by Colonel Jones.

At 5:30 yesterday afternoon Private Hunt, Company H, native Hawaiian, while on duty on Beretania near Smith streets, jabbed his bayonet into the leg of a Japanese. The weapon entered the skin at the rear of the right thigh. After some inquiry from onlookers Hunt took him to the station house. Deputy Marshal Chillingworth ordered the soldier back to his beat, and instituted an investigation.

Hunt's story is that the Japanese had repeatedly tried to escape from quarantine. He applied numerous times for permission to go out and finally became very insulting. At last he attempted to run by the guard and was given the bayonet. Hunt says he submitted to arrest by the police because the status of the military in the district had not been clearly defined.

The police have another story. They say that the Japanese did not attempt to run the guard, but that Hunt was having a little "sport" with him. They say that the Jap turned back when ordered, said something and Hunt ran after him, toward the infected district, prodding after him several times. The wound is certainly in the back of the man's leg. Names of a number of witnesses who corroborate this story have been taken and the matter will most probably be aired in police court after the quarantine is raised.

Deputy Marshal Chillingworth's opinion after the affair last night was this: There is no martial law. The police and military are acting together in carrying out the quarantine. At the same time the police are carrying out the civil laws in the district. An infraction of the civil law by a soldier lays such soldier liable to arrest. Either the military or police have authority to use force to the extreme to prevent anyone escaping from quarantine; but neither the military nor police have authority to commit assaults in that district or any other.

This opinion was given to Major Ziegler, who had officially asked for "an explanation."

The position of the military is that it is in active service and can not be interfered with. If Hunt was wrong he should be handled by the military authorities alone, the policeman, if they saw any part of the affair, being witnesses at the courts martial. It is held that the military are in entire control.

Be the controversy as it may the military will now have absolute control. Complaints will go to the military commander. This ruling is important as it defines the relative position of the military and police when the former is in active service with no martial law.

JOHNNY HASSINGER DEAD.

End Came at Early Hour This Morning. Funeral Sunday.

Johnny Hassinger, only son of John A. Hassinger, chief clerk Interior department, died at about 3:30 this morning of typhoid fever after an illness extending over a period of nearly two months.

Deceased was an island boy in every respect, having been born and reared here, though at school abroad. He was in his twenty-first year. He was an electrician and was recently employed at the works of the Hawaiian Electric Company.

"Johnny," as he was called, had many sincere friends and was very popular in a large circle of the younger people of Honolulu. He was, besides, a most promising young man and his untimely demise is generally regretted by the whole community.

The funeral will take place the Hassinger residence at 3 o'clock Sunday afternoon. Rev. Alex. Mackintosh will conduct the service.

SHORTAGE OF PROVISIONS

A RISE OF TWO CENTS IN THE PRICE OF BEEF.

Plague Causes a Boom in the Grocery Business But Makes Other Lines Dull.

A rise of two cents a pound has taken place in the price of beef and there is a general advance in the prices of staples of all kinds at the grocery stores, some of them being almost altogether out of stock. The plague has not had much to do with these conditions. The main cause is the derangement in shipping which has prevented supplies from getting here. Dealers say that one of the principal difficulties is getting goods across the continent to San Francisco, railroads in the States not being able to handle all the business.

Potatoes are out of stock altogether. There are stores in quarantine which have some, but they cannot be got at. Lewis and company refuse to sell more than a small bagful to any one customer and have refused all orders from vessels, retaining the few sacks they have for their private customers. Kinau may bring some, if she was allowed to enter Hawaii ports.

The rise in beef does not effect the best meat. It applies only to the cheap beef, which is used principally by vessels in large orders. The reason for the rise, which is likely to be permanent is the decrease in the island product. Lands that were once used for large sugar plantations and the island beef supply threatens to come to an end.

The other staples that are higher and scarce, such as table fruits, canned meats, barreled salmon, etc., are nearly all in the harbor on various vessels and the shortage will very soon be relieved.

The effect of the plague upon the grocery business has been to create a great demand. Many people anticipated a serious outbreak and at once placed orders for large quantities of goods, in the expectation that all stores might be closed. In other lines, such as dry goods, the business has been dull, as ladies have not left their homes to come down town as much since the danger began.

COMMENDABLE ENTERPRISE.

The Honolulu Steam Laundry with commendable enterprise has doubled their force and will run night and day to accommodate the increased demand upon them for washing. In addition they have arranged to thoroughly disinfect and sterilize all washing that goes through their hands, and return it done up in special prepared paper. This in addition to the great accommodation it will be to the community is a sanitary measure that will add to the speed of extermination of the disease. They will call for and deliver the washing, and all that is necessary, is to ring up their telephone No. 583 and give them your order and place of residence.

MEMORANDA.

The W. G. Hall, which was anchored among the quarantined vessels, was allowed to go to Koloa last night to take a physician there to attend a serious case of illness. She will have no other connection with the shore than the landing of the doctor.
The S. N. Castle leaves for San Francisco with a conditional bill of health, containing a statement of the existence of plague here.

A HAPPY POLICEMAN.

The luckiest policeman in the United States is Thomas Mulvey of Greater New York. By a curious concatenation of circumstances he finds himself to be a regular patrolman on a salary of $1400 a year and at the same time an ex-patrolman with an annual pension of $1000. This gives him quite a comfortable little income to keep the wolf from the door. The envious authorities undertook to deprive him of one of these sources of emolument, but the Appellate Court of New York has decided that he is legally entitled to both of them, and Thomas goes on his beat rejoicing. He can only be removed, and reduced to $1000 a year for cause, and he will doubtless take care that no cause shall be found. In this case, certainly, it cannot be said that the lot of the policeman is not a happy one.—Republican Standard.

IMMENSITY.
The immensity of the universe is aptly illustrated by Astronomer Newcomb in a current magazine. He says that if an express train running sixty miles an hour day and night without stopping kept it up for 350 years, it would just about complete the diameter of the circle made by the earth in its yearly journey around the sun. Now let this immense circle be presented by a lady's finger-ring, and taking that as the standard of measurement, the nearest fixed star would be a mile distant, and the furthest visible through the telescope at least twenty miles.

OVERSTUDY.
Long continued concentration of the mind weakens the nerve forces and wastes the vitality, so that disease finds an easy victim. Dr. Miles' Nerve Tonic renews the wasted strength and builds up the worn out nerves. "I studied too hard at school and when my nervous system gave way I was attacked by St. Vitus' dance. I was in an awful condition and had very little control of my body. Home physicians could give me no help so I began taking Dr. Miles' Nerve Tonic. It helped me from the start and after using it a few months my health was restored."

W. E. STEVENS,
Dalton, Mass.
All druggists are authorized to sell Dr. Miles' Nerve Tonic on a guarantee that first bottle will benefit or money will be refunded. Be sure and get Dr. Miles' Nerve Tonic. Take nothing else. Write us about your troubles and ailments and we will give you absolutely free of charge the honest advice of a trained specialist. Booklet on heart and nerves sent free. ## NOVEMBER'S DRY RECORD

THE DRIEST FOR TWENTY-SIX YEARS.
No Record of a Time When the Rain-fall Was as Small—Drought Throughout the Group.

Last month was the driest November recorded since records were kept, a period of twenty-six years. The rainfall has been only .67 of an inch while the normal is 5.52 inches. The total rainfall since January 1 has been 22.26 inches, which is 11.52 inches below the normal of 33.78 inches. But notwithstanding the drought of November the artesian well level rose during the month from 34.50 feet to 34.75 feet above sea level. Professor Lyons, the Government meteorologist, accounts for this by the fact that the rice lands are dried at this time of the year for the winter harvest, giving opportunity for the rainfall of October to take effect on the artesian supply.

The rainfall has been very deficient throughout the group, excepting in Hamakua. At Hilo, the rainfall has been the lowest on record for the month of November. Prof. Lyons' meteorological summary for the month of November gives:

Temperature, mean for the month, 73.5 Fahrenheit; normal, 73.8; average daily maximum, 79.5; average daily minimum, 69.0; average daily range 10.5; least daily range, 6.0; highest temperature, 82; lowest, 63.
Barometer, average, 30.01; normal, 29.96; (corrected for gravity); highest, 30.16; lowest, 29.88; greatest change in 24 hours, .09. The atmospheric pressure accompanying the dry weather has been unusually high.

Relative humidity, mean of 9 a. m., and 9 p. m., 78.5; normal, 75.0; mean dew point, 62.5; normal, 65.0; absolute moisture, 6.27 grains per cubic foot, normal, 6.93.
Trade wind days, 25; normal, 17. There has been an unusual lack of south wind so far during the season. Cloudiness, tenths of sky, 2.7; normal, 4.5.
Earthquake reported from Hawaii on November 11 at 8:20 p. m., at Hilo, Kohala and Hamakua; also Hamakua, 18th at 8:40 a. m.

Temperature at Waimea, Hawaii, 2700 feet elevation, mean maximum, 79.3; mean minimum, 64.2. At Pepee-keo, Hilo, maximum, 78.5; minimum, 67.7. At Dr. Bond's, Kohala, mean maximum, 80.0; mean minimum, 68.7.

KRUGER'S SUPERSTITION.
President Kruger is minus the thumb of his left hand. In his youth it was badly wounded, and he has since been the troublesome member, he cut it off. Some time ago, in discussing the present situation, and wishing to illustrate how he would do with Sir Alfred Milner, as he had with his predecessors, he began with the little finger of his left hand. "I was too much for Sir George Gray." Then, annotating with his third finger: "I was too much for Sir Howard Berkeley." Passing to the middle finger: "I was too much for Sir Bartle Frere." Next with the index finger: "I was too much for Sir Hercules Robinson and I shall be too much for Sir—alle Maagte!" he exclaimed, for he had come to the place of the missing thumb. The incident is said to have depressed him not a little, as he is very superstitious.

WE INVITE INSPECTION Pacific Heights

Residence lots on Pacific Heights are now offered for sale. No residence property having similar advantages and attractions, as far as healthfulness of location, having an elevation of from 170 to 800 feet, and affording the grandest marine and scenic views, as also its proximity to the business part of the city being less than a mile from the Progress Block, has ever before been presented to the people of Honolulu.

One of the main features of this property, and procured at great expense, is the abundant supply of pure spring water, pronounced by Dr. C. B. Wood as being the purest and best drinking water obtainable in the Island, which is now being conducted into storage reservoirs upon the property by an independent pipe line, and will be supplied to residents at Government rates.

OUR GUARANTEE.—We guarantee to all purchasers of lots on Pacific Heights that we will, within six months, provide rapid transportation to the highest lots on the property, connecting the same with the Honolulu Rapid Transit Co.'s line on Pauoa Road at the beginning of Kaiulani Drive.

Some one suggests that the Board of Health might look up the tram cars and have them properly cleaned along with the Japanese tenements and other haunts of filth. The tram car people have quite given up all idea of either sweeping out or washing their cars.

Aguinado's race is run. There will be very little more fighting in the Philippines, if any. There probably would never have been as much as there was had it not been for the delusive hopes held out by Atkinson and the anti-expansionists. They have many deaths to answer for.

The Governor of Utah will now order a new election, and it is quite competent for Roberts to run again. Should he be re-elected it will equally competent for the House to turn him down again. Bradlaugh was returned seven times in succession to the British Parliament, and he managed to get in at last. But he was a very tame Bradlaugh when he got through with his experience.

In a speech recently delivered by ex-Chief Justice Chambers of Samoa urged strongly the building of the Nicaragua canal. He knows the advantage of it. He knows that the carrying of goods in an American bottom, without the necessity of trans-shipment is what the Eastern States ship master wants and what he yearns for. The Nicaragua canal once completed the expansion of American commerce will be phenomenal.

The rumor that Lord Roberts of Candahar is to supersede General Buller in South Africa probably springs from the desire of a certain portion of the British public to have a decisive and brilliant action. The Duke of Wellington suffered from the same kind of outcry during the time he was preparing the celebrated lines of Torres Vedras, but he went calmly on his own path and when he was ready he drove the French out of the Peninsula. Half a dozen generals were rumored at that time to succeed him. This is probably the situation in South Africa. General Buller has made no mistakes yet. When he is ready he will strike and then on a sudden become a popular hero.

Considerable indignation has been expressed by the community at the filthy condition of the Japanese and other houses in the infected district of Honolulu. But these people are only tenants and the property owners certainly should bear some share of the blame. Most, if not all of the people occupying the houses are tenants at will and it is quite competent for the owners to insist on their premises being kept in decent order, or making the tenants quit. There is a distinct obligation on the owners to see that their property does not become a menace to the health of the community. If they allow people of dirty habits to occupy their tenements, they should see to it that their tenants keep them in proper sanitary condition. In many countries when buildings are found as filthy as these are the city authorities clean them out, and charge up the amount to the owners, not to the tenants.

UNFAIR CRITICISM.

It is no light thing for a city to have been suddenly brought to a standstill as this has been, have its business disorganized, its trade thrown out of gear, its domestic life interfered with, and a sudden disruption of the usual methods brought about. Were there no cause for this it would be little short of criminal to have been instrumental in its taking place. But is there no cause?

A few laymen are not satisfied upon the point. What do they know. Has any one of them the slightest idea of bacteriology. Can one of them make a culture of bacilli, and if such culture is made, has any one of them sufficient knowledge and skill to recognize the bacilli of Bubonic Plague from the bacilli of yellow fever or from those of influenza.

That there should be criticism of the Board of Health is but natural. People don't like to have their comfort curtailed. But had the Board been lax in its duties. Had it waited and dilly-dallied till the embryo dragon of disease had grown into an inexorable and all devouring monster. What then? No word of reprobation would have been deep or ugly enough in tone.

Surely this community is sensible to praise the Board for what it has done. Expert bacteriologists tell us the disease is black or bubonic plague. If such is the case there was, under the circumstances, only one policy to initiate, and that was what the Board carried out. As to the manner of carrying out criticism can come later. The present moment is no time at all to hamper the action of Board by adverse criticism. It does no good and it undermines discipline. What the Board needs now is loyal support, and it seems to be getting it in most circles. Where it meets with opposition and ungenerous criticism is from those who are prejudiced, or who would like to see the city rot with plague so as to get an opportunity to lay blame on the authorities.

ANOTHER CASE.

Another case of plague was discovered last evening. Hopes had been entertained that it would have been possible to raise the quarantine at least in part by next Tuesday, but this case will throw the quarantine forward for another week or ten days.

A strict enquiry should be made as to how it was that the inspector in charge of the block, in which this last case of plague occurred came to pass it over. It is clear according to evidence, that the woman had been sick for some days. If the house to house inspection which is made twice a day is properly carried out, such an omission should not have taken place. If one omission has taken place may not others have taken place. It is a very serious matter and should be scrutinized carefully.

Those who take up the duties of inspectors have a very responsible position and most of them fully realize it, but it may be that some hardly appreciate the gravity of the situation. Of course it is quite possible that this Hawaiian woman was able to appear and to deceive the inspectors. Exactly at what time the second inspection was made yesterday has not transpired, but seeing that there had been a case of plague already taken from the Ahl premises, there should have been extra care to examine everybody in the vicinity.

In fact in such a case as this there should have been medical inspection of the people not only in the Ahl place, but of all places in the immediate vicinity. One of the greatest difficulties met by the inspectors in Bombay, Hongkong and other cities which have been attacked by the plague, has been the strong effort upon the part of the native population to hide the disease, and we may be satisfied that in spite of all our vigilance, similar effort will be made here. That the Board of Health is straining every nerve, is believed by all, but there must be no laxness among its instruments.

GOOD ADVICE.

The Board of Health has issued a circular with regard to plague, which is timely. The circular should be translated into Hawaiian, Portuguese, Japanese and Chinese, and distributed freely. It is just as well that all should understand the symptoms of the disease, because then, people who are attacked may wish to conceal their condition, but those about them are liable to tell.

The precautions against plague are clearly set forth. The idea of cleanliness is strongly put forward. The main battle against plague is fought with the pall and broom, the whitewash brush, the excavator and the garbage cart. In this direction the Board is making a good fight, if it be a tardy one, and every householder can assist the Board in its struggle.

While devoting its energies to the infected district there are other districts which should be examined and it would be a good thing if the authorities called for an examination of the slopes of Punchbowl and the Pauoa valley road, with all the inner portions which are away from the road.

The advice which is given with regard to food is also timely. This is especially necessary for Hawaiians, Chinese and Japanese. However how the Hawaiian, who lives chiefly upon poi, is to beware of cold food is not very clear. The only way would be to supply those in the infected district with rice. In many parts of the Islands when the supply of poi runs short, its place is well filled by rice and the Hawaiians thrive on the diet. This seems to be a ready solution of one portion of the difficulty.

Apart from plague the suggestions made by the circular of the Board of Health are useful at other times and would answer for general rules of hygiene. The trouble is people will seldom follow rules, but will do as they please and—get sick.

CABINET MEETING.

At the Cabinet meeting this morning Minister Mott-Smith presented a letter to Hawaiian consuls abroad forbidding the issuance of certificates to ship goods other than from their own districts.

The question of the limits of quarantine was discussed.

KAUAI RECEIVES THE NEWS

STEAMER NOEAU, WHICH TOOK IT, RETURNS.

Big Crowd at Nawiliwili as the Non-Arrival of Regular Steamers Had Aroused Very Great Interest.

The steamer Noeau which was sent to Kauai to notify the authorities there of the existence of the plague here and to take the instructions of the Board of Health, returned to Honolulu this morning.

J. P. Cooke who went as the representative of the Board says: "We arrived at Nawiliwili at 7 o'clock Thursday morning. There was a big crowd at the wharf, for the non-arrival of the W. O. Hall and the Mikahala on their scheduled time Wednesday, had aroused great interest and curiosity to know what was the matter. Senator George N. Wilcox, suspected that some epidemic was the cause and so kept the crowd back from the wharf as we approached. The Noeau did not touch at the wharf, but stood off a little distance. Senator Wilcox, Senator W. H. Rice, Sheriff Coney and Deputy Sheriff Prosser alone came down to the end of the wharf, and to them we stated the situation. We told them the orders that had been made in regard to shipping and the fumigation of oriental merchandise. We notified them of the departure of the schooner Blanche & Ella. She had not arrived at Hanalei, but we were told that when she did she would be sent back. We delivered the instructions of the Board, and a fumigated mail.

"The news seemed to be received very calmly by the crowd at the shore end of the wharf when it was given them by those to whom we spoke. No one from the Noeau went ashore and not even a line was thrown out.

"There is no sickness on Kauai other than the usual amount and kind and nothing resembling plague. Kauai, of course, is wholly dependent on Honolulu for supplies, and some inconvenience may be felt until the steamers now in quarantine can reach there."

SICK MEN FROM THE WARREN.

Lieutenant and Three Men Sent to Buena Vista.

Four sick men have been sent ashore from the transport Warren since she put out from the harbor to anchor in quarantine. The men were sent to the Buena Vista hospital. Their cases are not thought to be anything serious, except that of Lieutenant Butler of Company F, who is suffering with pneumonia. Two of the men, including the Lieutenant, were brought ashore this morning and landed on the Oceatic dock. They took back a supply of newspapers for the officers on the vessel. One of the men came up town, while the rest remained on the wharf. No precautions are being neglected on the big transport. The greatest care is being taken to see that the ship does not start from here with any suspicious cases of sickness on board. All the men are examined every day and if any are found to be suffering with any sort of fever they are sent ashore. The Warren will probably leave here on Sunday morning if nothing happens to delay her.

MIKAHALA SIGNALS.
At 1 o'clock today, the Mikahala, anchored outside in quarantine, displayed a flag on her forward peak. This was the signal agreed upon in case assistance was needed from the shore. Captain Campbell of the Inter-Island Company at once telephoned for Dr. Garvin and sent out to the vessel.

SIMMERSON-PAHAU.
There was a brilliant twedding at the Catholic cathedral early last evening. The contracting parties were W. Simmer, son of Captain Simmer, of the Mauna Loa, and Miss Mary Pahu. After the marriage there was a reception and luau at the home of the groom's parents in Palama. Several hundred people called. The festivities were kept up until after midnight.

BIG GAME.
Harvey Chase pleaded guilty to permitting gambling at his place near the Waikiki road. He was fined $100. When first arraigned he pleaded not guilty. But it is said he changed his plea so as not to bring into publicity as witnesses the men who were playing there. Rumor has it that the stakes were high, there never being less than $500 on the table at one time.

Only last week we examined the beer brewed by the Capital Brewing Company of Olympia, Wash., and it is a perfect illustration of the quality of beer which we are always glad to commend, for the analysis showed it to be entirely free from any trace of any injurious substance. Such a high grade of beer is most beneficial in its use, for none of the pure malt and hops have been displaced by harmful ingredients.
Every hygienist will concur with us in saying that a beer of such superior excellence is a very wholesome beverage.
Physicians often have occasion to prescribe a pure beer for cases of debilitation, and they can safely order
this beer, made by the Capital Brewing Company.

HEALTH BOARD ADVISES

CIRCULAR ISSUED BY PRESIDENT
COOPER.

Plague Defined—Period of Incubation.
Symptoms—Advice as to Food, Liquor, Cleanliness and Rest.

Office of the Board of Health,
Honolulu, December 14, 1899.

REGARDING PLAGUE.

PLAGUE, called also Asiatic Plague, or Bubonic Plague, is an infectious and contagious disease, capable of communication from the affected person to another, by bodily contact, and this may occur during any stage of the disease.
It may also be communicated by means of the excretions from the sick, such as saliva, phlegm, sweat, and the discharges from the bowels and bladder,
also by the blood and matter from abcesses and sores. The material that causes the disease is therefore likely to be contained in the clothing, dressings, and bedding, etc. that have come in contact with the sick; dishes and utensils that have been used by the sick are also foul.

In order to produce its effects on the human body it must gain access to the blood, juices and soft parts of the interior, and in the great majority of cases its door of entrance is through the delicate and moist membranes of the mouth, nose, eyes, etc., or through some cut, scratch or abraded skin-surface on any part of the body.

PERIOD OF INCUBATION. The period of incubation, during which the evil remains quiet in the body and makes no sign, may be as short as two days or perhaps less, or it may continue five days, or even longer; but five days is generally regarded as the limit of this period.

FIRST SYMPTOMS. The earliest symptoms of plague, though varying somewhat in different cases, are likely to be marked by headache, a sensation of fullness in the head, dizziness, a feeling of great weariness and languor, paleuess of the face, and perhaps even a staggering gait; there may be also nausea and vomiting, and perhaps diarrhoea; or the opposite condition
may prevail in the bowels, that of constipation. The eyes are often bloodshot, and the surface of the body may be affected with blotches and patches of a red, or purple, color. After a short time, varying in length, from one to two days, fever may set in and swellings appear in the groin, arm-pit, neck, or other parts of the body.

Persons affected in any of these ways, though the trouble may prove not to be the plague, had better call in physician at once.

CLEANLINESS. PRECAUTIONS
AGAINST THE PLAGUE. The virus of plague flourishes in filth and uncleanliness, and maintains itself in garbage, stale food, and in damp and dark places. Sunlight and fresh air are quickly fatal to the germs of plague. It is of the highest importance, therefore, to keep the body scrupulously clean by the use of the bath and by frequent changes of clothing. Special care should be taken to wash the hands frequently, and to do so before eating, and not to touch
the lips or mouth, or to rub the eyes,
with unclean or unwashed hands.

2. All cuts, scratches, or abrasions of the skin, should be at once washed and covered with some protecting shield, such as adhesive plaster. It is not well to go bare-foot; but any one so doing should look well to his feet.

FOOD. Raw, uncooked food, or food that has become cold after cooking may be the carrier of plague; not so food that has been recently exposed to a boiling, or roasting heat. Therefore beware of cold or uncooked food, or of fruits that have been exposed to the attacks of flies or other vermin; of dishes of cold food that have stood uncovered any length of time after preparation, etc., and do not eat of any fruit without first removing its skin, or rind, or peel; and do not use the teeth in skinning any fruit. All food and water should be kept covered and protected from flies and insects; and it is well to drink only of such water as has been boiled. Alcoholic liquors are not a protection against plague. Over-eating, or any indulgence to excess in diet, is detrimental and to be avoided, and the same is true of all undue exposure to cold or wet, or to any exhausting influence. Be temperate and take plenty of sleep.

Fear, over-anxiety, and worry are influences that lay the system open to the attack of plague, as is true of many other diseases.

The experience of other lands teaches that the clean, the temperate, the careless, the well-nourished and the well-rested are not the ones who take plague.

Inspectors, nurses and others, after coming in contact with the disease, are advised to take the precaution to change their clothes, and if possible to use a bath, disinfecting the hands and the soles of the shoes; hang the clothes out in the air and sunlight.

SYMPTOMS OF PNEUMONIA.
Pains in the chest when a person has a cold indicate a tendency toward pneumonia. A piece of flannel dampened with Chamberlain's Pain Balm and bound on to the chest, over the seat of pain will promptly relieve the pain and prevent the threatened attack of pneumonia. This same treatment will cure a lame back in a few hours. Sold by

WET LIME CAUSED FIRE

THE SCHOONER HERA BURNED
AT SEA.

She Was Bound for Honolulu from Seattle—The Libertad Also—Total Loss.

The American schooner Hera, which left Seattle on November 17th for Honolulu, was destroyed by fire off the Vancouver coast, after a fearful experience just after she started out. The storm was the cause of the fire, as it resulted in water getting into the hold and this mixed with a quantity of lime in the cargo.

The Hera had a general cargo for this port. After leaving Seattle she ran at once into the storm. The buffeting she got soon damaged her hull and she sprang a leak. The lime was in the afterhold and as soon as the water got to it, flames broke out. There was no hope of saving the vessel and those on board, among whom were the part owner of the vessel, E. W. Sherk and his daughter, appeared to have little chance of escape. All sails were set and the Hera headed for the coast.
Anchor was dropped in Clayquot Sound only an hour before the schooner was aflame to the water's edge. All on board got ashore, the crew and passengers behaving splendidly. Captain Vareen says that the vessel was experienced before the fire broke out was the worst he has ever known.

The Hera was owned in Seattle. She was of 288 tons gross register. She was built in Boston in 1889 and had been in the coast trade for many years.

The Peruvian bark Libertad, Captain
Orens, was also lost in the same seas.
She also sprang a leak and after working at the pumps till they were exhausted,
the men abandoned her, and reached the north end of Vancouver island, from which point they had a four day's walk to a mining camp.

The schooner Hera's local consignees are not known positively, as advice of her departure had not been received.
A schooner from the Sound was expected by J. W. McChesney and Sons and it is likely that the Hera was the one.
She had a quantity of flour and bran for McChesney and Sons and several hundred barrels of lime for Davies and Company.

The Hera also had 700 barrels of bottled
beer, for Hackfeld and Company,
J. M. Camara and Company and C. J.
McCarthy.

METHODIST MISSIONS.

Some to be Established in Colonies
at Once.

The mission board of the Methodist Episcopal church is still discussing the plan of establishing missions in the new colonies, and will probably decide to go into the work extensively, particularly in the matter of education.

"We will not establish any missions in Cuba for the present," says Dr. Leonard, one of the missionary secretaries
because the Methodist church south is already doing so well, however, provide for beginning work in Puerto Rico and the Philippines right away.
An understanding has been reached between the missionary boards of the several denominations in order to avoid duplication and interference. We had a conference in New York for the purpose.
All the denominations except the Episcopalians, who work independent of everybody, have agreed that the principal supports of the new colonies shall be regarded as common territory and open to all, but in the interior there will be no interference, and wherever any missionary board of other denominations has driven a stake they will be left to care for the people without our assistance. I cannot give you any of the details because they have not been agreed upon, but we are going to do all that we can to educate the ignorant people which Providence has placed in our care, and give them the light of the gospel."

McKINLEY'S DANGER.

The members of the Chicago anti-imperialist conference did not adjourn
without making an impressive threat.
They declare their intention of contributing to the defeat of any anti-Aguinaldo party.
The full strength of the conference is 160 votes. Let the Republicans beware.—New York Sun.

All the old passes of the Board of Health were revoked this morning and new ones, in special cases, are now being issued.

There is a strong idea in town that there is something in the story of plague on Maui. Latest reports from Kaanapali and Kihel seem to support the belief.

It is already practically certain that the Australia next Wednesday will come right into port and leave again on schedule. Other steamers will likely stop outside.

STOCK OF LIME ALL SOLD

"No lime for sale" is the rule now at the local commission and shipping houses. The demand of the Board of Health and private parties for lime to use in disinfecting their premises has resulted in large sales and now the stocks on hand are being held by the owners for their own use.

has 1500 barrels on board but it is all sold, most of it for shipment to other islands. The result is that a number of private buyers, who wanted to spread time around their homes, have not been able to secure any. The Board of Health has been able to get all it needed so far.

If the plague should become a more serious affair than it has yet proved, lime would probably be obtainable from some of the firms that are now holding it for their own use.
