GOVERNOR CARTER TAKES OFFICE AND DELIVERS HIS INAUGURAL ADDRESS

Clean-Cut Utterances of Hawaii's New Executive—A Strong American Policy—The Old Throne Room Crowded With Officials, Foreign Visitors and Leading Citizens.

Governor George R. Carter took the oath of office and delivered an inaugural address, in presence of one of Honolulu's best audiences filling the old throne room of the Capitol to overflowing, at eleven o'clock yesterday morning. For the ceremony the Governor took his stand upon the dais where the thrones of the kingdom used to be set, under the same canopy the late sovereigns of Hawaii stood beneath at Royal state receptions. The dais and its steps were tastefully decorated with palms, maidenhair ferns and carnations, and a fresh bouquet of violets in a cut-glass bowl graced the desk.

Chief Justice Frear immediately after the prayer read the oath to Governor Carter, obligating him to protect the constitution and laws of the United States and faithfully administer all the duties of Governor of the Territory of Hawaii.

"I do," the prescribed response, was uttered by Governor Carter in a clear and emphatic tone. He then delivered his inaugural address as printed below, reading it with good elocution from manuscript.

THE GOVERNOR'S LEVEE.

After the applause greeting the conclusion, the Governor's reference to American citizenship having also been applauded, Governor Carter withdrew to the front entrance of the Capitol, where he received the congratulations of the people as they passed out. He gave a jolly word to his more intimate acquaintances and a hearty handshake to everybody. He cordially reciprocated the good wishes of Treasurer Kepoikai, despite the unpleasantness between them of the past fortnight.

The band gave a concert in honor of the occasion from the bandstand in the Capitol grounds, playing the Star Spangled Banner as Governor Carter entered the assembly hall.

Following is a partial exhibit of the attendance, brilliant with the full uniforms of military and naval officers:

GOVERNOR CARTER'S INAUGURAL ADDRESS

Fellow Citizens, Ladies and Gentlemen: A man can hardly find himself in a more difficult position than one in which he must speak about himself. Such is my position today, for I have to tell you that only the true and serious conviction that I owe a citizen's duty to this Territory, and also my deep and earnest love for this land of my birth, have led me to accept this high office, to which the President of our great Republic has been pleased to call me.

Fellow citizens, this is a most noble position that I am called to, yet were it not for the sense that President Roosevelt has confidence in me, and that many and able men of this Territory are ready and willing to assist me, I should hesitate before accepting. This task which has come upon me is one which I assume with grave misgivings. I am young and impulsive, but youth is not always a bar to administrative success, and in spite of my temperament, I hope to show you that an earnest and fearless worker can produce results which are worthy of your estimation, if not of your entire approbation.

This I can tell you: I shall devote myself, heart and soul to the duties of my high office. The country of my birth shall never say that I spared myself in serving her. In accepting the Governorship, I dedicate such talents as I have to the best interests of Hawaii and Hawaii's people.

I stand here today anxious to champion the just cause of every man, woman and child in these Islands, and still more anxious to advance Hawaii and Hawaiians in their progress to statehood.

Grand as the position is which I have to assume, great are the responsibilities; and knowing my own shortcomings, as no one else but myself can know them, it is with the greatest diffidence that I come before you today as appointed Governor of this Territory. Most thoroughly do I realize the peculiar conditions and difficulties which surround the position.

I know that matters may often go wrong and that I shall be sharply and, no doubt, very wholesomely criticised for them. I know that when right I shall often be thought wrong by those who do not view or understand the whole situation. It is clearly the duty of a man in the position to which I have been appointed to do right, no matter what adverse opinion there may be.

GOVERNOR GEORGE R. CARTER.

FACTS ABOUT GEO. R. CARTER.

He will be thirty-seven years old on Dec. 28.
He is a wealthy man.
He has taken a great deal of interest in all sports.
He comes from one of the earliest missionary families.
He has considerable banking and general business experience.
He was married in 1892 to Miss Strong, of Rochester, N. Y.
He is a staunch Republican.
He is well acquainted with all of the needs of Hawaii.

Little did Captain Oliver Carter, master of a whaler, think when he visited the shores of these islands, between the years of 1820 and 1830, that his grandson would, almost a century later, become governor of the islands.

Or little did the late Dr. Judd, the trusted adviser of the Kamehamehas, think that his daughter's son should rule the islands and that the monarchical line which he served would crumble away and be replaced by American government. The new governor of the Territory of Hawaii comes from a family of very prominent early connections here.

George R. Carter was born December 23, 1866, in Honolulu, in a little house on the north side of Kukui street. His father and mother were both born in the Hawaiian Islands. H. A. P. Carter, his father, was a successful man of affairs for many years and at the time of Geo. R. Carter's birth was in business here. At one time the elder Carter was Hawaiian Minister at Washington. Thus the new governor's ancestry is a combination of sea captain on one side and missionary on the other.

HIS EARLY SCHOOL TRAINING.

George R. Carter went to school first in Nuuanu Valley, in a school presided over by the late Mrs. Lowell Smith, wife of the pastor of Kaumakapili church, of venerated memory. Later he attended St. Alban's College, A. T. Atkinson's institution, and when that was abandoned he attended the old Fort street school, where M. M. Scott was then assistant principal. He was in this way educated locally, among children of all nationalities—which he considers one of the wisest things his parents ever did for him.

From the Honolulu schools Carter went to Phillips Academy, Andover, Mass., and graduating there in 1885, entered the Sheffield Scientific school, of Yale University, where he finished a three years' course in 1888. His father's injunction to him for his college career was to have a good time and make a good character. Carter secured both. After graduation he took a post-graduate course and spent some time in the experiment station of Rhode Island.

AS AN ATHLETE.

Carter always took a healthy interest in athletic sports and while at Yale was a member of the Varsity football teams of '86, '87 and '88, and was also a member of Yale boat crews of '87 and '88.

Two years after his graduation from Yale he married Miss Helen Strong, a daughter of H. E. Strong, of Rochester, N. Y.

On returning to Hawaii the first post offered him was that of assistant manager of Pahala plantation. His father would not allow him to accept this position. He went to Seattle in 1889. A bank was started there in which he was offered a position. He was with the bank three years when, after a difference with the cashier and having come to the conclusion that that official was not conducting the bank as it ought to be conducted, he undertook to have the cashier removed. This is what he has called his "first scrap." On the showdown on bank election day Carter did not have enough stock to control the bank. But to his surprise and amazement men whose support he did not expect joined him and carried the election, and the institution was saved. The former cashier's friends had to put up $50,000 the next morning to make good the "discrepancies." Carter had no connection with the bank thereafter except as a director. For that period, from 1889 to 1893, his time was occupied with a lawsuit over a building in which his father was interested. The last year he was in Seattle Carter was cashier and representative of the Mutual Life Insurance Co. of New York. He was taken ill there and during his illness the trouble occurred in Honolulu which culminated in the death of his brother, Charles L. Carter. Six weeks after the occurrence of this event Geo. R. Carter heard of it for the first time and, recognizing the distressful state in which his mother and the family would have been thrown, Mr. Carter considered it the part of a dutiful son to return home. Therefore he pulled up his stakes and came down here.

AMERICA BUYING A DUCAL LONDON EMBASSY

(ASSOCIATED PRESS CABLEGRAM.)

LONDON, Nov. 24.—It is reported that the United States has acquired the Duke of Richmond's house for an embassy.

The house of the Duke of Richmond, at 49 Belgrave Square, S. W., London, is one of the finest mansions in London. An agitation has been going on for some time to secure a better home for the American embassy in London. The Earl of March, who recently became Duke of Richmond on the death of the late Duke, lived at the ancestral home before the death of his father and he prefers to sell the town property and reduce the incumbrances on the larger portion of the country estate.

Governor of Utah Orders Out the State Troops to Cope With Miners—Reyes' Sanguine Hopes—Attempt to Wreck Royal Train. Fate of Labrador Explorers.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS CABLEGRAMS.)

SALT LAKE, Nov. 24.—The Governor has sent the entire National Guard of Utah to cope with the lawless coal strikers of Carbon county.

CHICAGO, Nov. 24.—During the day mobs obstructed tracks in this city and stoned street cars. The police and rioters exchanged shots and a number of men were injured. It is announced that a settlement has been reached.

DELCASSE TALKS OF PANAMA AND DISARMAMENT

PARIS, Nov. 24.—In the Chamber of Deputies Premier Delcasse read assurances that the new republic of Panama would respect Colombia's contracts to protect French interests. On that account, he said, France had extended recognition.

Regarding armaments the premier stated that France could not initiate reductions.

Liliuokalani in Washington.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 24.—Former Queen Liliuokalani of Hawaii has arrived for her annual winter stay.

CHERBOURG, Nov. 24.—A soldier has been arrested for an attempt to wreck the train conveying the King and Queen of Italy.

EXPLORERS OF LABRADOR THOUGHT TO HAVE DIED

ST. JOHNS, Nov. 24.—It is believed here that the Labrador exploring party headed by Leonidas Hubbard, Jr., of New York, has perished.

Leonidas Hubbard, Jr., assistant editor of the "Outing" magazine, and a party were sent out by that magazine to explore the wildernesses of Labrador. Some weeks ago Mr. Hubbard and one white companion started out in a canoe with an Indian guide to go to a point seven hundred miles beyond the farthest inland post of the Hudson Bay Company, a point to which no white man had ever reached. This is in a portion of unknown country along the George river and the explorers expected to reach the place at a time when a primitive tribe of Indians were holding their annual gathering there. Explorer Hubbard is fifty years old. Editor Caspar Whitney, of "Outing," recently stated that he was confident that Mr. Hubbard would return from the interior later with flying colors.

the inevitable attacks of those who disagree with him. But the true citizen stands firm, and in spite of opposing views and antagonistic ideas, carries an honest and honorable policy to its legitimate end and stands or falls by his ideals.

Fellow citizens, that is what I intend to strive for, and it is to reach that end that I need your utmost help. It is your interests, not mine, that I shall serve.

Our Island home, my fellow citizens, is a beautiful one. There are few more beautiful. The colors of Italy and Greece, the scenic beauties of Spain, the marvels of India's vast plains and Africa's grand plateaus may be vaunted, but none of them can reach the rich coloring of sea and sky, the cool, varying greens of our tropical forests, the rich shadows of our receding valleys, the soft breezes which waft the sweet perfume of our beautiful flowers, and the gentle tenderness of our climate. I love Hawaii, from the rugged crown of Mauna Loa to the sunlit breakers that dash upon the fringing coral reefs.

But it is not our beauty that we must consider; there are other and more practical things that you and I must study.

Hawaii has a present, and also a future. Her present gives her great resources. Her rich plains and her mountain slopes; her recurrent showers and the limpid waters from her valleys give her exuberant crops, which support all her population in comparative affluence. There are few countries in the world so blessed—few whose present is more prosperous. The future—that grand and wonderful future which is looming before us, portentous with great events, will find the Territory of Hawaii a central figure. The Pacific is going to be the theater of the world's history. The untold tale of human existence is going to be unfolded about the shores and in the waters of earth's mightiest ocean.

The waters of this ocean wash the coasts of continents—on one of which is the oldest empire, on another the mightiest Republic the world has ever seen. Our small Territory is geographically so situated that the great lines of commerce must pass our doors. In Hawaii, the Occident and the Orient meet. In Hawaii the Anglo-Saxon population of Australia shakes hands with the equally sturdy population of North America. It remains with Hawaii to wield her influence to make herself great.

When I consider this; when I realize that the peace, the prosperity, the honor and the happiness of this my birthplace are staked for four long years on the issues of this day, I humbly pray for the wisdom, the patience, the fairness, the clear judgment and ability so greatly needed.

It is no light burden which is put upon me. In that it is an honor, I am proud. In that it is a trust put upon me to give the best I have to my fellow citizens, I accept it.

I shall aim in my executive control to give this Territory an administration frugal in public expenditure, thus lightening the burdens of the poor.

I intend to be scrupulously honest in the payment of all governmental debts and obligations, thus sacredly preserving our good faith and credit. To all there will be fair treatment.

As a true Republican and a good citizen, I hope by my conduct and actions to allay many of those jealousies and the feelings which seem to exist, unnecessarily and unhappily, in our midst.

Times change, and we have to change with them. If we are to reach the full fruition of our position and wield an influence in the future, perhaps as a sovereign state, it can only be by the union of all elements—by harmony, with one end in view.

As a man born and bred in this country, I am an Hawaiian in thought and feeling. In all the Islands of the broad Pacific there is no aboriginal people equal to the Hawaiians—the flower of all Polynesia. Among them and with them, I hope to carry out the traditions of the Anglo-Saxon race, from which I spring, that point towards liberty of thought, freedom of speech, and a high standard of virtue.

In taking this high office, with all its advantages and all its heavy burdens, I ask you to grant me your indulgence in my errors of judgment or misplaced confidence.

Believe me, my honored fellow citizens, I take this position not for gain, not for emolument, not for pride, not for popularity, not for power, but because, in my humble way while my life lasts, I desire to do all the good I can.

I know that in taking charge of your affairs as I do this day, I must sacrifice many friendships, and so much of my domestic felicity as service night and day in your interests will require. I should not be worthy if I did not. I know that I will often be misunderstood; that is what I expect. But this I will say, at the outset of my career as Governor: that no matter what my friendships may be; no matter what the misunderstandings may be, I George Robert Carter, will be constant and faithful in your service—will give you the best that there is in me, and will be ever honest and honorable in my conduct. I will also strive, that when I lay down my office and another takes it, I shall be able to look you in the face and say, I have done my best; my conscience is clear.

But I shall want more; I shall want to say: I was born a Polynesian, reared among Hawaiians. The crowning work of my life was in representing the administration of the United States among the Hawaiians, and that there are not a few among them who join me in this: That the highest standard in the world, the thing that I am most absolutely proud of, the thing that is greater and grander than any Polynesian ideal, is THAT I AM AN AMERICAN CITIZEN. May the word American ring from Hawaii to Nihoa among the most earnest, most loyal, most patriotic people under the Stars and Stripes.

It is with such objects and such aims that I take up my Governorship.

NO APPOINTMENTS MADE

"I have made no appointments yet. It would not be appropriate to make appointments directly on the heels of the recommendations of the Republican Central Committee, without taking some time for consideration. It might be treading on the toes of the public.

There are other important interests to be considered. I think probably the appointments will be made tomorrow." To the foregoing effect Governor Carter answered a question regarding appointments, put to him at 4:30 yesterday afternoon, upon the first opportunity an Advertiser reporter had in two hours. All the afternoon in fact the Governor had been receiving deputations of politicians, now in the Governor's office and again in the Secretary's—abandoning one place for the other as the callers changed. Once he turned everybody excepting his stenographer out of the Secretary's office as he brought C. C. Kennedy of Hilo in there for a private interview, which, by the way, lasted about half an hour. Evidently "the Hilo idea" had a good airing.

Just previously Senators Achi and McCandless had been closeted with Governor Carter in the inner executive chamber for more than an hour. Following Mr. Kennedy the next to have the Governor's private ear was Edgar Cayless, the defeated candidate for Oahu county attorney, the fitting time being from the Secretary's to the Governor's office. Mr. Cayless had come to make his return of election expenses and just before the door slammed upon the tete-a-tete he said he only wanted to say "Aloha," but the event proved that the eloquent Hawaiian salutation is capable of more attenuated utterance than a Honolulu street campaign speech—on this occasion, say, twenty minutes.

Governor Carter's reference to the Republican Central Committee is explained by the following communication:

Honolulu, November 21st, 1903.

Hon. George R. Carter, Acting Governor, Territory of Hawaii.

Dear Sir: I am instructed to inform you that at a meeting of the Executive Committee of the Republican Territorial Central Committee, held in the forenoon of this day, it was unanimously voted that the following be recommended to your consideration for appointment as various department heads:

C. S. Holloway for Superintendent of Public Works.

Lorrin Andrews for Attorney General.

J. H. Fisher for Auditor.

Alatau T. Atkinson for Superintendent of Public Instruction.

J. W. Pratt for Commissioner of Public Lands.

Also that the committee recommend to you that an Hawaiian be appointed to the office of Secretary of the Territory and that the name of Mark P. Robinson be submitted for your consideration.

Also that the Committee present for your further consideration the name of Frank D. Creedon as Private Secretary to the Governor.

W. H. CONEY, Secretary.

PLANTERS MEET AND DISCUSS SUGAR INDUSTRY

E. D. TENNEY, PRESIDENT OF THE PLANTERS' ASSOCIATION.

With nearly all of the regular business out of the way the Hawaiian Sugar Planters' Association adjourned at 4:30 o'clock yesterday until ten o'clock this morning. Reports were made during the day by the president, secretary and nearly all of the committees and the work of the meeting will be wound up today after an executive session. E. D. Tenney is the new president of the Association.

Much valuable information regarding the sugar industry was imparted in the reports, many of them technical, given yesterday. The only paper which aroused discussion was one on methods of cane handling by C. C. Kennedy. He made the suggestion that the Association offer some incentive to inventors in their labors to perfect a machine for handling and transporting cane, which though heartily seconded was not acted upon.

MEETING OPENS.

The meeting was called to order by President Isenberg, in the Castle & Cooke hall at ten o'clock. The following members were present: A. Ahrens, H. A. Baldwin, D. B. Baldwin, J. T. Crawley, George Chalmers, T. C. Davies, G. F. Davies, B. F. Dillingham, G. F. Eckart, D. Forbes, W. W. Goodale, William M. Giffard, S. K. Gjerdrum, George Gibb, James Gibb, R. Hall, C. Hedemann, John Hind, J. T. C. Hagens, H. A. Isenberg, C. C. Kennedy, T. S. Kay, D. C. Lindsay, A. Lidgate, J. A. Low, John T. Moir, F. B. McStocker, William Pullar, G. F. Renton, G. H. Robertson, G. N. Rolph, F. M. Swanzey, J. A. Scott, F. A. E. D. Tenney, L. A. Thurston, F. Weber, W. G. Walker.

PRESIDENT'S ADDRESS.

After the reading of the minutes President H. A. Isenberg read his annual address which was as follows:

Gentlemen: It is with much pleasure that I welcome you to the twenty-third annual meeting of our Association.

In looking back upon our past business year we cannot say that the same has been one of extraordinary prosperity, although a marked improvement took place in the price of sugar as compared with the previous year. Our anticipation in connection with the adoption, by most of the sugar-growing countries of Europe, of the Brussels convention did not fully materialize; the change thereby created in Europe had no effect on the American market, but proved the latter to be absolutely independent of the former. It is astonishing how very quickly the Cuban crop recuperated from the setback caused by the insurrection and war, and the estimates for the coming crop are reported to be far in excess of any crop ever harvested in Cuba. Notwithstanding these facts, the United States government proposes to grant a tariff concession of twenty per cent on Cuban sugars and there seems to be very little doubt of the United States Congress passing the respective bill. It remains to be seen what effect this action will eventually have on the price of our sugar, the same being sold on the Cuban basis.

Your trustees have held forty-nine meetings, the labor question again being the foremost subject of discussion. Although there has been somewhat of an improvement in the labor conditions of the islands, during the past year, there are still times when the supply is inadequate and the subject of obtaining a sufficient number of suitable field laborers remains one of constant anxiety. Among those who have sought for work as field laborers there have been a small number of Koreans, who, so far, have given satisfaction. Two meetings of your trustees with delegates from the four islands have been held for the purpose of discussing all matters surrounding the labor question. These meetings have been quite useful and I would recommend a continuation of the same. Our islands have been favored with a visit from Mr. F. P. Sargent, Commissioner General of Immigration, who made a personal study of our labor conditions and immigration matters. This gentleman expressed himself as highly pleased with the conditions he found upon the plantations and I record with particular interest his statement in the presence of all of our trustees that he had fully convinced himself of the fact that the work in the Hawaiian cane fields is not adapted to white people and that our sugar industry could not get along without Asiatic labor.

The crops of many plantations have been seriously damaged during the past year by the new insect pest, called the leaf-hopper; however, there is reason to believe that this danger will be entirely removed after enemies have been distributed and increased in sufficient numbers to check the propagation of the leaf-hopper. Reports received from various districts indicate the coming crop to be in splendid condition and it is to be hoped that the weather will continue to be favorable so as to somewhat offset the many hardships we have to contend with. An understanding has been reached with the new Department of Agriculture and Forestry, for the joint employment of two additional entomologists and I would recommend that the planters freely avail themselves of the services of these gentlemen whenever needed. Professor Koebele, to our regret, returned in very poor health from his successful trip to Mexico in search of lanternia destroyers and it was absolutely necessary for him to take a much-needed vacation. He is, however, at the present time engaged in the search for enemies of the various insect pests, particularly the leaf-hopper.

Mr. William Haywood, the Washington representative of this Association, whose services proved to be quite satisfactory, has been re-engaged for another year.

Mr. H. M. Whitney, for many years editor of the "Planters' Monthly," has retired from active business. Your trustees filled the vacancy by the appointment of Mr. Royal D. Mead, our assistant secretary, who, in the short time of his editorial work, has shown himself to be competent in every respect.

It is with deep regret that I have to record the death of Mr. Joseph B. Atherton, one of your trustees, who, at the time of his death, held the office of vice-president.

In conclusion, I wish to mention that the reports of various committees will be submitted, as usual, for consideration, and I trust much good will result therefrom.

SECRETARY'S REPORT.

W. O. Smith, secretary of the Association, reported in part as follows:

"Owing to the death of Mr. J. B. Atherton, which occurred on April 17th, Mr. E. D. Tenney was appointed to fill the vacancy on the Board and was elected vice-president.

"Death of Mr. Atherton—Mr. J. B. Atherton was one of the oldest of those interested in the promotion of the sugar industry of these islands. He was one of those who formed the first organization of sugar planters and was ever an earnest and faithful member. "His death was regretted by all and at a meeting of the trustees of the Association appropriate resolutions of respect were adopted.

"Committees—The standing committees appointed at the last annual meeting were upon the following subjects: Labor, Cultivation, Fertilization, Irrigation, Handling and Transportation of Cane, Manufacture, Machinery, Utilization of By-Products, Diseases of Cane, Forestry, Experiment Station. "The chairman of each of these committees with possible exception of one or more who have been prevented, will present a report upon the subject assigned to the committee. "The value of these committee re-

"Hawaiian Planters' Monthly—This periodical, which has been published monthly since April, 1882, has during the past year maintained its high standard. It is being more and more sought for abroad in sugar growing countries and many extracts and quotations from it are found in the sugar journals of other countries.

"Papers and information on any of the phases of the sugar industry and subjects relating thereto are always welcome by the editor.

"Experiment Station—The report of the committee on this section will doubtless deal fully with this subject. The importance of the work can hardly be too greatly emphasized. The experiments in cane cultivation and irrigation, and with various varieties of cane as also the results of chemical analysis and experiments are of very great scientific and practical benefit.

"The station has been during the past year under the charge of Professor C. F. Eckart assisted by an able corps of competent men.

"Forestry—The organization of a Government Board of Agriculture and Forestry is deserving of more than passing notice.

"For many years the subject of forest preservation has been discussed and efforts have been made both by the Government, this Association and individual land owners to encourage the protection and planting of forests. A great deal has been accomplished in this direction, but of a desultory character but under the act passed at the last session of the Legislature 'To provide for the encouragement and protection of Agriculture, Horticulture and Forestry,' provision has been made for the prosecuting of the work in an organized and systematic manner.

"Public spirited and qualified citizens have been appointed upon this Board and with the powers granted by the act and the help which will be afforded by assistants in the various districts of the islands, it is to be hoped that great advances will be made in the matter of the conservation of the forests and in tree planting.

"The Bureau of Forestry under the department of Agriculture at Washington is taking a lively interest in the subject and there seems to be good reason to believe that more will be accomplished in these directions than ever before."

THE NEW GOVERNOR.

Governor Carter's inaugural address impressed those who heard it as the utterance of a man who meant, as Territorial Executive, to do his best for the land and the people. It was the address to be expected of a Governor of the faith of Roosevelt. It promised hard work, fair play, confidence in the people and economy and integrity in office; and it was strong in its Americanism.

The new Governor begins his administration with growing harmony in his party. No faction is critical of him; all the Republican and semi-Republican papers of the Territory unite in wishing him well and in summoning their friends to his support. We believe the new Executive will pay particular attention to the welfare of his party as becomes a political leader, just as he will to the welfare of the Territory as becomes an administrative chief.

But Governor Carter's service will not be wholly local. It will extend to Washington, where the greater concerns of the Territory are worked out. Many such services as are rendered States by Senators will be given to Hawaii by its Executive in his capacity of friend and welcome counselor of the President.

THE NAVAL DEMONSTRATIONS.

The orders given the Battleship and Cruiser squadron on Asiatic service to rendezvous at Honolulu is, of course, a move in world-politics. Doubtless it has reference to Panama affairs. That any trouble with Europe is impending, does not strike us as a tenable theory. Europe wants a Panama canal; and the prompt recognition of the new isthmian republic by great powers shows that there is no disposition in the Old World to challenge the claims of the Panama insurgents or of the United States as their protector.

But what of the New World? When the news came about the Panama revolt and the American part of it, the Advertiser remarked upon the bad effect it was certain to have upon the Latin American republics. At last the North Americans had resumed their southern march. First they had wrested an empire from Mexico; now they were making trouble south of Mexico and getting a sovereign position on the soil. What next? Might not these land-hungry expansionists—men who had even crossed the widest of oceans to wrest provinces from Spain—might not they, with all their talk of Manifest Destiny, go on to some more imperial conquest than Panama? Having the New World to protect under their Monroe doctrine, might they not choose to own it and command its trade? A strenuous President is in power at Washington; to what far regions might his ambitions not extend?

We may be sure that these apprehensions were felt by every Latin American when the full story of the Panama revolution went abroad. Here were the Yankees at last, come to their very doors. Foreign traders, uneasy over the prospects and anxious to embitter South America against North America for trading purposes, played as best they could and are still playing, upon the chords of prejudice and passion. Without a doubt the President of Colombia has been and is now appealing to all South America to enter into an offensive and defensive alliance. Some understanding, leading that way, was reached long ago when the Diaz Monroe doctrine was proposed—a South American pact against any and every interloper. The latent hostility of Chile to the United States may be counted on. Venezuela, owing to our claims against her and our failure to interfere when Europe pressed hers, does not love us. Ecuador, the other day, expressed official sympathy for Colombia. Is it not probable that the envoys of the latter power are at work in every South American capital to secure the enunciation of a policy forbidding any foreign state to acquire sovereignty over Latin-American soil and to frame a joint ultimatum to the United States? What more natural under all the circumstances? What else is there left to Colombia to do in her own defence save, single-handed and alone, to enter a disastrous war?

Assuming that matters are so shaping themselves in South America, we have a fair explanation of the latest naval news. A powerful squadron is ordered here to await a summons to join the fleet of Rear Admiral Glass at Panama, thus making a large enough naval force combined to threaten every Spanish-American port on the Pacific side. Two battleships, carrying another Admiral have gone to Colon and back of them, conveniently stationed in the West Indies, is the North Atlantic fleet to which they belong. At a word the whole of the South American coasts may be patrolled by the strongest fleet ever seen in those waters. There can then be no sea-transfer of troops to Colombia and a land-transfer is impossible.

Perhaps the simple concentration of ships will checkmate the Colombian diplomacy; perhaps the mere threat of it will, as it did when the orders to Rear Admiral Watson in 1898, to go to Spain brought back Camara's fleet from Suez and made Watson's voyage unnecessary. As to that the events of December will probably make clear. Meanwhile the immense strategic utility of Hawaii—one of the strong arguments for its annexation—will have been demonstrated.

COUNTY GOVERNMENT LAW.

It is absurd to suppose that the county law, if it is vulnerable, can be saved from attack by a political agreement. The first citizen who suffers from its effects will have the right and the incentive to challenge it in court and his chances of winning, as Mr. Cooper did in his attack on the part creating a Board of Public Institutions, will not be impaired by any special enthusiasm for the new law among politicians and office-holders. The question simply is whether we are going to have the Supreme Court pass upon the County Act sooner or later.

There are some good public reasons why it should be sooner. From what we hear of the personnel of county government in East Hawaii and of the malign influences which lay behind the election of a Home Ruler for District Attorney of Kauai, those counties are in for a season of political misfortune. No doubt Maui, before it gets through, will wish it had never heard of county government. In view of these facts and probabilities, if the County Government law is not good law, a service might be done good government by proving the fact now.

A cruiser is said to be worth about $9,000 a month to Honolulu and a battleship about $15,000. Three battleships would pay out $45,000 and seven cruisers $33,000 for supplies making $108,000 for a month and $54,000 for a fortnight. This is irrespective of what officers and men would personally spend ashore.

Neptune Greets the Guests.

Captain Zander and the officers of the German training ship Herzogin Sophie Charlotte last night entertained a large number of friends on board the vessel. The cadets went through the ceremony of Neptune, accompanied by his suite, boarding the ship, with the attendant ludicrous formulae of baptism of the neophytes, shaving, and other pranks. The cadet band played in addition to the Hawaiian musicians. The ship was beautifully decorated with flags of all nations, palms and flowers. Dainty refreshments were served and everything was characterized by the best of taste and the warmest hospitality. Rarely has such an entertainment been given on board a ship and this will long be remembered by those who were privileged to be present. Many of the leading German residents of the city were aboard.

The handicraft sale will be held at the Y. W. C. A. rooms Friday and Saturday. It will be solely for the benefit of those who place their work on sale. Those who intend to participate are requested to bring in their work and decorations Wednesday afternoon. The sale will be open Friday evening. There will be no gymnasium classes Friday or Saturday.

Orpheum Company Scores Again.

The Sanford Company scored another success before a crowded house last night at the Orpheum in "The Sidewalks of New York." The famous melodrama was well acted and staged. William Desmond, as the hero, sustained his reputation in difficult role, and was greeted throughout with the heartiest kind of applause. The play was filled with comedy when Tommy Shearer and Adelaide Smith kept at the bubbling point. The play is a strong one, and the climaxes are thrilling. The same play will be repeated this evening.

Next Saturday afternoon a matinee will be given at which time "The Struggle of Life" will be played.

Mr. Kaai's ability and his aptitude for instruction is in itself a guarantee of the high excellence of the program.

George W. C. Jones Dying

FACTS ABOUT GEO. R. CARTER.

When Mr. Carter left here in 1889, with the idea of never returning, Judge Dole was at the steamer and bidding him "good-bye, made the remark, "George, my boy, some day you will be glad to come back to Hawaii." Referring to this incident after his nomination for Governor by President Roosevelt, Mr. Carter said: "I came back in October, 1895, just in time for the cholera. After being here a year I wondered why in the name of common sense I had stayed away so long as I had." On returning he at first went into the office of C. Brewer & Co., Ltd., as cashier and bookkeeper. As his father and P. C. Jones had been partners it was the ambition of the latter's son, Ed. A. Jones, and Carter to form a partnership and blend their fortunes as their fathers had done. They accordingly started the Hawaiian Safe Deposit Co. The untimely death of young Jones stopped that plan, but the company was finally merged into the Hawaiian Trust Co., Ltd.

Mr. Carter managed the corporation just named until February 22, 1903, Washington's birthday, when he took the office of Secretary of the Territory upon the appointment by President Roosevelt, confirmed by the U. S. Senate on January 23.

HIS RELATIONS WITH ROOSEVELT.

Some time before his acceptance of that office, Mr. Carter was more than surprised one day to receive a letter from President Roosevelt saying that he wanted Carter's assistance in reaching a conclusion as to what was best to be done for Hawaii. The President desired him to sit down and write to him fully as to the situation here. Mr. Carter concluded that such a request could only be responded to in person. Therefore he went to Washington. What the President wanted to know was whether Hawaii could be carried for the Republican party. Mr. Carter told him he thought it could, that the removal of Governor Dole would not affect the question and that he could see no grounds for his removal. He thought that the President's only course was to support Dole and to support him vigorously. The interview resulted in Governor Dole being called to Washington, when the President declared he would support him to the end of his administration.

On Mr. Carter's return from Washington he was made treasurer of the Republican Territorial Committee and did what he could to bring about what the President had required so solicitously. Wilcox was defeated by 1949 votes.

President Roosevelt nominated Geo. R. Carter as Governor of the Territory of Hawaii on October 31, 1903.

BABIES AND CHILDREN

should be fairly plump. They ought to put on fat as fast as they use it up; for fat is fuel, and the burning of it makes power and force. Thin children—even along to the age of eighteen or twenty—are in danger from consumption, and from other wasting complaints. The children who starve, and the young men and women who are consumed—why, the very idea of it is frightful. For such as they there is always what the Bible calls a "mighty famine" in the land. Food, though it may be taken plentifully, does not nourish them. It makes no fat; it gives no strength. To prevent this, to cure this, to save the young ones at the mother's knees, and the bright boys and girls who are just looking at the world with ambitious eyes, is the purpose of WAMPOLE'S PREPARATION.

Its success is decided and settled. Thousands owe to it life and health. It is palatable as honey and contains the nutritive and curative properties of Pure Cod Liver Oil, extracted by us from fresh cod livers, combined with the Compound Syrup of Hypophosphites and the Extracts of Malt and Wild Cherry. In building up pale, puny, emaciated children, particularly those troubled with Anemia, Scrofula, Rickets, and bone and blood diseases, nothing equals it; its tonic qualities are of the highest order. A Medical Institution says: "We have used your preparation in treating children for coughs, colds and inflammation; its application has never failed us in any case, even the most aggravated bordering on pneumonia. The children like it, they love the taste of it, it looks good to them, and it builds up their bodies; many little children owe their lives to it." Effective from the first dose. "You cannot be disappointed in it." Sold by chemists here and everywhere.

TO BENEFIT MILITIAMEN

Regimental Labor Bureau for National Guard of Hawaii.

The National Guard of Hawaii is about to have a labor bureau for the benefit of the rank and file. Colonel J. W. Jones has had this project under consideration for some months past, and now the preliminaries are nearly completed.

It will be a comprehensive institution, meeting the needs of the enlisted men in all branches of industry on the one hand, and answering all the purposes of an intelligence office to employers on the other hand. Members of the command finding themselves wanting employment will have their names entered in the bureau register, with the class of work they are able and ready to perform. The bureau will keep in touch with employers of every legitimate kind of labor, skilled and otherwise.

The Regimental Labor Bureau will be in charge of W. C. Weedon as secretary and manager, who will give a certain number of hours daily to conducting it. It is expected to open the bureau for actual operation about the first of December.

JUDGE DOLE HEARS PLEAS OF GUILTY

There were two pleas of guilty to indictments in the Federal court yesterday.

Manuel Ross, assistant postmaster at Puunene, Maui, pleaded guilty to embezzlement of United States postoffice moneys.

Hayashida, represented by Frank E. Thompson, pleaded guilty to violating the immigration laws, in importing laborers under contract. This is not in the category of immoral importation of human beings, which is a terribly long one at this time. Hayashida's offense is but a misdemeanor.

Judge Dole will sentence both Ross and Hayashida this morning.

All other defendants arraigned under indictments were allowed to reserve their pleas until Wednesday.

BANQUET TO PLANTERS

Sugar Men Guests of Ironworks at the Young.

The twenty-third annual meeting of the Hawaiian Planters' Association was marked last evening by an elaborate banquet given in honor of the Association members who came from almost every island in the group, by the president and officers of the Honolulu Iron Works. The banquet was held in the grill room of the Alexander Young hotel, and was one of the most elaborate dinner functions ever seen in Honolulu. There were nearly sixty guests who sat at tables arranged in the form of a T.

The banquet board was elaborately decorated, the color scheme being in yellow. In the center of the longer table was a huge candelabra with yellow shades. This was encircled with the waving plumes of ripe cane stalks, making an effective display in keeping with the industry with which the Planters' Association is so closely identified. Electric globes, also shaded with yellow, were arranged in profusion upon the napery.

At the center of the cross table sat Mr. F. M. Swamy, president of the Honolulu Iron Works, and also vice-president of the Planters' Association. Opposite him sat Mr. C. E. Hedemann, manager of the Honolulu Iron Works. Mr. Swamy was the toastmaster. In an address he hoped for the prosperity of the Planters' Association and for the success of the sugar industry. He spoke also of the gratification he felt towards the managers and representatives of the various plantations on the different islands, thanking them for the many courtesies extended to the representatives of the Iron Works on their professional tours. The occasion was also one which brought the planters together for an evening of pleasure.

Those who attended the banquet were, besides Mr. Swamy and Mr. Hedemann, Messrs. Goodale, C. C. Kennedy, B. Baldwin, Herman Focke, L. A. Thurston, A. A. Young, Gilman, Forbes, F. A. Schaefer, T. S. Kay, J. M. Dowsett, Hagens, Robert Hall, Geo. Gibb, Bush, Hind, Walter Dillingham, George Davies, J. T. Moir, Lidgate, Eckert, Weber, Koepke, Hartman, J. Low, J. A. Kennedy, Gjerdrum, Lorenz, Ahrens, Klamp, J. Scott, Boisen, B. F. Dillingham, Pullar, Geo. Ewart, M. S. Williams, W. O. Smith, Walker, Fox, Gartenberg, Geo. Chalmers, Ralph Ivers, Wodehouse, Lanz, Dyer, Jas. Gibb, John Watt, McCandless, G. H. Robertson, P. B. McStocker, J. T. Crawley, Catton, D. C. Lindsay, Kirkland, R. D. Mead.

At quarter past ten the guests arose and went to the main ballroom where the party broke into groups at little tables where they were served with King Alfonso's cigars, coffee and champagne. At this time the guests were entertained with piano selections by Mr. Lorenz and later by a vaudeville performance.

The amusement offered by the vaudeville performers was a pleasant diversion and thoroughly appreciated. Members of the Walter Sanford company, now playing at the Orpheum, were the entertainers, among whom Miss Adelaide Smith, the soubrette, made a most pleasing impression as a whistler. Miss Smith's appearance in the ball room was the occasion for an outburst of applause. She whistled in a manner which evoked every expression of pleasure from the planters, her clear, flute-like notes being accompanied upon the piano and violin. For an encore Miss Smith sang a captivating coon song.

Mr. Johnson sang a couple of coon songs in a way which produced hearty laughter. Mr. George Kunkel sang comic songs and Mr. Vandel rendered selections on the violin.

The menu was as follows:

Martini Cocktails
Toke Point Oysters on Deep Shell
Consomme a la Adeline

CHAMBERLAIN'S COUGH REMEDY is intended especially for coughs, colds, croup, whooping cough and influenza. It has become famous for its cures of these diseases over a large part of the civilized world. The most flattering testimonials have been received, giving accounts of its good works; of the aggravating and persistent coughs it has cured; of severe colds that have yielded promptly to its soothing effects; and of the dangerous attacks of croup it has cured, often saving the life of the child. The extensive use of it for whooping cough has shown that it robs that disease of all dangerous results. It is especially prized by mothers because it contains nothing injurious, and there is not the least danger in giving it, even to babies. It always cures and cures quickly. Benson, Smith & Co., Ltd., wholesale agents, sell it.

Major John Millsaps, who was one of the first men to enroll under the banner of the "Blood and Fire" in the early days of the Salvation Army in California, has been appointed to take command of the Salvation Army work in the Hawaiian Islands. He will arrive on the Korea. The Major is not a stranger here, as it was he who came with the first party of officers, including Adj. Egner, to commence their operations in Honolulu.

TUG BALDWIN OFF FOR KAHULUI

The tug Leslie Baldwin steamed out of the harbor yesterday afternoon for Kahului. The vessel came here some time ago for an overhauling, but her departure was delayed on account of the protest against the former master having control of the vessel.

Nevedan Sailed Yesterday.

Hackfeld & Co., agents for the American-Hawaiian Steamship Company, received a cablegram last evening from San Francisco announcing the departure in the afternoon of the steamship Nevedan for this port with mail as well as freight. The vessel should arrive here about November 30.

Shipping Notes.

The bark Andrew Welch may get away tomorrow for the Coast.

The Italian cruiser sails for Yokohama tomorrow morning at 9:30.

The barkentine T. P. Emigh sailed from Kaaupali for San Francisco on November 15.

Hackfeld & Co., local agents of the Pacific Mail, expect the Korea to arrive about daylight this morning.

The German training ship Herzogin Sophie Charlotte may sail for Sydney and Newcastle today or tomorrow.

The gasoline schooner Eclipse returned to Honolulu at 5:35 a. m. yesterday with fifty head of cattle from Kaula.

The Oceanic steamship Ventura is due from the Colonies this forenoon. The vessel will probably depart for San Francisco in the afternoon.

The S. N. Castle was shifted over to the Railway wharf yesterday to discharge about 300 tons of cargo. She will sail for San Francisco in about a week.

The Kinai will not sail for Hawaii until 5 p. m. today, in order to give the visiting members of the Planters' Association in attendance at the annual meeting an opportunity to remain throughout the session.

BY AUTHORITY. Thanksgiving Proclamation.

The President of the United States having appointed Thursday, the 26th day of November, as a day of praise and Thanksgiving to Almighty God, it is our duty as loyal American Citizens to join upon that day in thanking God for His goodness to us in the past and in beseeching Him to continue and extend to us His mercies in the future.

While in our early experience with a Republican form of Government we should pray for strength and guidance to wisely, honestly and fearlessly perform the duties of citizenship, and uphold the privileges already accorded to this Territory by the United States of America.

Our rejoicings on this day of Thanksgiving should be accompanied by a sense of grave duty that will enable us to show, in the years to come, that the responsibility which has been given us shall not have been misplaced.

NOW THEREFORE, I, George R. Carter, Acting Governor of the Territory of Hawaii, hereby recommend that all our people do, on Thursday, the 26th day of November next, render thanks unto Almighty God in their homes, and at their places of worship, that they cease from all manner of work and toil and make the day one of praise and Thanksgiving.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand, and caused the Seal of the Territory to be affixed.

Done at the Capitol in the City of Honolulu, Territory of Hawaii, this 26th day of November in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and three, and of the independence of the United States, the one hundred and twenty-eighth.

G. R. CARTER,
Acting Governor.

PLANTERS MEET AND DISCUSS SUGAR INDUSTRY

The officers elected were as follows:
President—E. D. Tenney.
Vice President—F. M. Swanzy.
Secretary and Treasurer—W. O. Smith.

Auditor—G. H. Robertson.
Mr. Tenney then took the chair making a brief address in which he thanked the trustees and the association for the honor conferred upon him and promised to use his best efforts to further the objects for which the association is organized and for the promotion of the sugar industry of Hawaii.

LABOR REPORT POSTPONED.
W. M. Giffard, chairman of the committee on labor, asked for further time, saying that the statistics were not all in and he was therefore unable to present his report. The report will probably be made today at the executive session of the association, where there will be ample opportunity for discussion.

REPORT ON CULTIVATION.
Geo. F. Renton reported for the committee on cultivation. He said that it was difficult to make a new report, as in the past the subject had been so fully and ably presented. In addition he was restricted, as other committees would report on fertilization and irrigation. Mr. Renton's report dealt with the preparation of the soil, planting of cane, the cultivation of unirrigated lands, etc. One of the greatest difficulties in securing statistics was the fact that there was no uniformity of accounts, to which was added the complication of local conditions, differences in temperature, in rainfall, class of lands, gulches and hills, winds, rich soils and poor soils, deep and shallow soils, etc. Fifty-two circulars had been sent to many plantations and answers had been received from thirty-six of them to the questions asked. Sixteen of the replies were from unirrigated plantations and nineteen from those using irrigation. One general principle Mr. Renton states is to plough as deep as possible, to loosen the sub-soil. Of the replies received, twenty managers use steam implements, five breakers, and eleven disc plows and sub-soil plows. With the report a paper was also submitted by J. M. Horner on the advantages of the disc plow. Mr. Renton in his report suggested that the disc principle could be carried out in steam implements, where the land was free from rocks, and said that it would be only a question of the strength of material before this could be accomplished. He suggested that the subject was one worthy of study. Mr. Renton stated that the steam plow is used wherever possible, and that the soil is tilled better.

The report also went into methods of planting and gave some statistics regarding the practice of stripping cane, saying this was a subject which might well be gone into at the Experiment Station.

VARIETIES OF CANE.

The report also favored long ratooning, and gave statistics showing that eight out of the thirty-six managers replying did not favorably consider the practice of ratooning. Hilling up cane on irrigated plantations is in general favor on Maui and Kauai. As to varieties of cane, the committee found that the Lahaina cane is the old stand by on irrigated plantations, other varieties being tested, had not been generally established. The Yellow Caledonia is found to be the best variety on the unirrigated plantations, having replaced the rose hamp. The committee made the prediction that the yellow Caledonia would be replaced in years to come, by some of the canes now being tested at the Experiment Station. Mr. Eckart of the station, advises that the Demerara is the best variety for the irrigated plantations.

FERTILIZATION.
C. F. Eckart of the Planters' Experiment Station reported for the committee on fertilization. From replies to a circular letter he gave interesting statistics in regard to the use of fertilizers on plantations. The average use of fertilizers per acre has increased from 850 pounds in 1902 to 910 pounds in 1903. The percentages of fertilizer in the two years was as follows:

1902—Phosphoric acid, 8 per cent; potash, 9 per cent; nitrogen, 6 per cent.
1903—Phosphoric acid, 7.1 per cent; potash, 10.1 per cent; nitrogen, 6 per cent.

On the 90,000 acres of cane in cultivation 41,000 tons of fertilizer had been used in 1903. The cost of the constituents given above was $1,646,500, which with other fertilizer, etc., made the total expenditure in excess of two million dollars. With this enormous expenditure for fertilizers, so much greater than any other sugar producing country, the committee thought it wise to consider whether the gain is commensurate with the expenditure. The use of the fertilizer during the year had increased the sugar production about 23,110 tons in the islands, a gain of seven per cent, and the committee thought it was reasonable to suppose that the gain had been much more. The average yield per acre was 4.7 tons of sugar. The tendency during the year has been to reduce the phosphoric acid and increase the potash in the fertilizer. The increase in potash has been one per cent, and the decrease in the use of phosphoric acids the same percentage. The committee found that good results are obtained in the reduction of phosphates and increase in potash.

VALUE OF FERTILIZERS.
Mr. Eckart also found that the value of fertilizers was lessened if used too early or too late. The practice of applying it to the seed bed is falling into disuse. Also fertilizer should not be used so much during the winter rainy season as during spring and summer when the cane is growing rapidly. In conclusion the committee said that the subject of fertilization is a most complicated one and will have to be worked out by each individual manager. The gain per acre in 1903 in sugar production has been larger than for any previous year. A brief report on phosphoric acids was also submitted by J. T. Crawley.

H. P. Baldwin, chairman of the committee on irrigation, was not present, and the committee had no report ready.

HANDLING OF CANE.

C. C. Kennedy gave the most interesting paper of the meeting on the "Handling and Transportation of Cane." The committee had received replies from thirty-one plantations on cost of transporting and handling cane. The average cost, Mr. Kennedy said, was not accurate as some of the managers had overlooked such items as cost of repairs, time of overseers, etc. While there had been a great desire for cane-loading machinery but little had been accomplished. Such machinery is in use in Louisiana, and the committee had been told that there is a saving of five cents a ton over the methods in use here. In Louisiana the cane grows straight, while here it is crooked. Still, said the committee, there seemed to be no reason why an attempt should not be made to get cane-loading machinery here. Five cents saved on each ton would mean $500,000 saved to the planters of Hawaii. In Waialua and Wailua plantations cane loaders have been used. At Waialua all the cane is put in cars by loaders, and there is a saving of fifty men per day, while ten laborers are saved by the loaders. The cost, put on sleds was nine cents per ton, and for handling 11.12 cents. At Wailua a different loader has been in use. Mr. Kennedy thought that the plantations here are slow in making changes, when labor is plenty, but once let labor be scarce, as it is getting to be, it will be necessary to get labor saving machinery. At Waialua the wire rope and trolley system invented by Mr. Horner is in use. Some people say that fluming is cheapest, but Mr. Kennedy said he didn't believe this to be true. Mr. Kennedy suggested also that there must be some inventive genius in the islands, who could remedy conditions, and that some attention should be paid to this feature, instead of using everything for laboratory work. It cost $3.50 per ton of sugar to get cane to the mill after being cut, but nothing is done to reduce the expense, while all goes to scientific work after getting the sugar into the mill. Mr. Kennedy suggested that money be spent by the Association to stimulate the work of invention in this line. Such men as Horner, Grozier and Wilson had been given no encouragement. Mr. Kennedy said that more work is necessary outside the boiling house, than inside, and thought that the managers should meet the inventors at least half way. In conclusion some figures were given as to cost of transporting the cane. On Kauai where portable railway is used in five plantations, the cost averages 41.5 cents per ton of cane. On Oahu four places using portable railway, the cost is 41 cents. On Maui three plantations using railway and flume spend but 31.7 cents per ton of cane. At Kohala by wagon and flume the cost is 54 cents, in Hamakua fluming and gravitation cost 45.5 cents and at Hilo the cost is 42 cents.

GENERAL DISCUSSION.

Mr. Thurston suggested that Mr. Kennedy had touched one of the most important points in the questions before the planters, and that something should be done to improve the methods of loading cane out of the fields and transportation to the mills. He said that experiments had been made with the Gregg cane loader which did not show a saving over the old method.

RENTON'S OPINION.

Mr. G. F. Renton said that in his opinion loading cane by machinery was only a question of time. The cost of loading on the flimsy machine already tried had been several cents higher than by hand. Ewa plantation had been debating a trial of the Wilson cane loader. A proposition had also been made by Gregg for the sale of the three machines, but he would have to take chances on their success, and preferred first to try the Wilson machine. Wilson had figured that he could load cane cheaper than by hand.

M'STOCKER'S VIEWS.

F. B. M'Stocker, manager of Olaa, said Kennedy had touched the prime point in the sugar industry. Olaa had found the cost of transporting by portable track to be seventy-five per cent higher than by flume. He thought some method of assembling the cane was the first essential.

MANAGER LOW TALKS.

Manager Low, of Honolulu plantation, doubted the accuracy of the statistics given. The Oahu plantations all had the same system of bookkeeping and he doubted whether cane could be handled any cheaper than is done here, except by fluming. Mr. Low said he saw no reason why the association shouldn't spend money to help such an invention, as everyone wanted to get along with less labor. He had seen where labor had been minimized, and less by special superintendence. He said it was not only a question of cutting the price of handling cane below that of labor, but of doing away with labor. He favored the association spending money to get a machine which would do the work.

WILL MAKE TESTS.

In this connection Mr. Low stated that a representative of the Osborne corn cutter had been in the city en route to Australia and on his return, expected to spend four months in the cane fields here, in an attempt to adapt the corn cutter to cane fields. The objection Mr. Low found in wide furrows, this man had thought was an advantage.

WILSON CANE LOADER.

Manager Goodale detailed some of the experiments which had been made at Wailua plantation with the Wilson cane loader. This was the invention of a man named Webster and the objection to machines in the difficulty of moving over the high ridges on an irrigated plantation had been done away with by Wilson. The inventor also believed that the weight of the machine could be made less than eight tons, which also would help. The first two months of the tests had been very disheartening and no dependence could be placed on the machine, but the mill was closed down for a month, and alterations made in the machine and it had worked successfully for the remainder of the season. The highest average loaded in one day was 164 tons. Japanese did just as well in operating the machine as did the inventor, and Mr. Goodale believed that the presence of the machine was a great object lesson for the Japanese. The average during the season had been twenty to thirty cars a day. Mr. Goodale said the cost of one machine would be $3500 and ten or twelve thousand ton plantations would require seven of them. The cost per ton of loading has been seventeen and a half cents per ton. Mr. Goodale said all of the planters should be willing to help an inventor.

The report of Mr. Kennedy was adopted without any action being taken towards offering a prize for the invention of a cane loader.

John A. Scott, chairman of the committee on machinery announced that there would be no report.

THE MACHINERY REPORT.

J. A. Low started to read the report of the machinery committee which had been prepared by William Stodart. The report was fifty-eight pages in length and after Mr. Low read a fourth it was decided to have the report printed, so that the planters might study the data at their leisure. Returns from various plantations, twenty in all, showed the actual cost of producing one ton of sugar ranges from $4.07 to $17.02 per ton. The committee thought it possible to save from thirty to fifty per cent in the cost of building 100 to 150 ton factories by putting the crystallizers on the first floor, and by cutting out the useless ornamentation on buildings. Various interesting statistics were given in proof of this assertion.

USING BY-PRODUCTS.

Another very interesting report was that of the committee on "Utilization of By-Products," of which W. W. Goodale was the chairman. He estimated that the loss averaged fifteen per cent, and said that the by-products could all be saved as is now done in slaughter houses. He believed the matter was one for the scientific men. Because, the committee did not count as waste as it was used for fuel. As to molasses, he said that the sediment in the Territory fostered by the forefathers of the present plantation men, the missionaries, was against the use of molasses for liquor. A sub-report was read also from J. N. S. Williams who had made a study of the question on the mainland. He reported that while bagasse was valuable as a fuel the attempt to use it in the manufacture of paper had not met with marked success. The waste of molasses was fifty pounds for every ton of cane. The question of making this into alcohol had been considered, and Mr. Williams reported against it. The internal revenue tax of $1.10 per gallon was prohibitive if the spirits were made to sell in the United States. Again the sugar alcohol did not blend with other liquor. Alcohol could be used in the manufacture of smokeless powder, fuel for automobiles, etc., and for lighting purposes, but with the heavy tax, its sale would not be profitable. The cost of a distilling plant of 5000 gallons per day was estimated at $200,000, while the running expense per month would be $24,200. Germany put alcohol into Japan at 27 cents per gallon which cost in Germany 19.5 cents. The cost here would be at least 18.6 per gallon, and the conclusion was drawn that its sale even in Japan without the tax would leave too small a percentage of profit.

MOLASSES AS FUEL.

The use of molasses as a fuel was next considered, and the committee gave some interesting information as to the methods of burning, also giving descriptions of specially constructed furnaces. The committee also considered bagasse the more valuable of the by-products and molasses best as a fuel. With methods of manufacture being daily improved the percentage of sugar left in the molasses will be decreased. The practice of feeding to stock was also said to bring good results. The results of a sale of molasses to a San Francisco vinegar house was reported unprofitable, and although a new offer of two dollars per ton had recently been made, it was found that the use of molasses as fuel, fertilizer and feed would be of more value. The three methods given for disposing of the molasses were: (1) distillation; (2) burning in properly constructed furnaces; and (3) the use for feed. The committee recommended that a further study of the subject be made.

OTHER REPORTS TODAY.

The report by R. C. L. Perkins on "Diseases of Cane" was not given because of Mr. Perkins' illness. A report may be prepared this morning.

Mr. Smith presented an invitation from the trustees to attend the opening of the Bishop Museum today.

Further reports were postponed until today. After the regular session today a meeting between the trustees and plantation managers will be held to consider the various questions raised during the meeting. This will be an executive session.

HERPICIDE
Destroy the Cause,
you Remove the Effect

Newbro's Herpicide kills the dandruff germ which causes falling hair, and, finally, baldness. No other hair preparation kills the dandruff germ. Stop dandruff, there'll be no falling hair, no baldness.

DICKINSON, N. D., Nov. 8, '96.
Have been using Herpicide and have used about one-third of a $1 bottle, and find that it does all, and even more, than you claim for it. It not only cleans the scalp from dandruff and prevents the hair from falling out, but grows a new growth of hair, and also the quantity mentioned, and have more hair than I had for years. I feel that I also find that it keeps the hair soft and glossy.

SOCIETY AND POLITICS.

Society rarely has a voice in the selection of congressman, a senator or a governor, but it is a potent factor in the naming of diplomats. For example, it has taken to itself the naming of Sir Michael Herbert's successor as ambassador to Washington. The choice seems to fall upon Sir Henry Howard, who at present represents England at The Hague, Sir Henry, like Sir Michael, has an American wife. Lady Howard is the daughter of the late Francis Riggs, the prominent Washington banker. Both the Howard and the Riggs families are ardent Roman Catholics. In connection with this topic it may be said that society interference rarely counts for anything in New York city politics. This has been proved over and over again, and will likely be shown this fall. Young Mr. McClellan, the Democratic candidate for mayor, not only bears a great and glorious name himself, but he is allied by marriage with the greatest families in the East or in the country, for that matter. His wife is of an old Knickerbocker family and would naturally enlist the Astors, the Gerrys, the Isclins and a score of others. Indeed, Mr. Roosevelt's uncle, Robert, is one of McClellan's most ardent supporters. On the other hand, Mr. Low and Fulton Cutting (the latter will manage the fusion campaign) are hopelessly mixed up in the same families by consanguinity or marriage, so the best that either candidate can hope for is a "stand-off."

THEATER HAT IN NEW ZEALAND.

New Zealand is bothered by the theater hat question. Miss McDermott tried to settle it recently in a practical manner. She was seated in a theater of the town of Oamaru, and in front of her was Mrs. Brady, wearing voluminous headgear. As Mrs. Brady refused to remove the obstructive hat, Miss McDermott borrowed a gentleman's walking stick and tilted it out of her line of vision. But Mrs. Brady was not prepared to wear her hat at a rakish angle all the evening, and so she put it straight again. Every time she did so Miss McDermott repeated the performance with the walking stick. The magistrates decided that Miss McDermott had committed "a series of minor but aggravating assaults," and fined her $2.50, plus $14 costs. The money was promptly subscribed by the citizens as a protest against large hats in theaters.

Consumption occurred rarely, if at all, among negroes in slavery, but now, after a little more than a quarter of a century of freedom, it causes more deaths among them than all the other contagious diseases combined. The negro rate from consumption is more than three times that of the whites.

"But," protested the man, "I have admitted that I was wrong. Isn't that enough?" "No," replied the woman; "you must also admit that I was right."—Chicago Daily News.

ISAAC NOAR AND GOVERNOR CARTER

Isaac Noar sent the following interesting letter to the Governor yesterday, enclosing a picture of President Roosevelt:

Honolulu, Nov. 23, 1903.
To his Excellency G. R. Carter, Governor, Territory of Haw.

I take the honor to present to your excellency the picture of our esteemed President Theodore Roosevelt, in this magnificence of his chief commander over the armee and navy composed of 85 million free men the richest and mightiest nation on the face of this globe. He is young in years but old in wisdom he is the star descended from the north first magnitude illuminating the horizons of both hemispheres of our planet commanding respect from the powers of the world, and by his judicious conduct recognised in you uprightness and dignity, commissioned you with the highest honor of chief magistrate for this Territory.

I congratulate you and sincerely hope and believe that by your sagacity and prudence we consider you in the ranks of distinguishable Governors in the U. S. and with your Business Capacity your Administration will be a graith success and honor to this Territory a blessing and hapines to all our true citizen.

Your obident serwent,
ISAAC NOAR.

JURY PANEL EXHAUSTED

More Men Called for Trial of Jones.

Fourteen Jurors Already Excused on Sworn Examination.

Judge Robinson Prepares to Clear His Calendar—Probate and Other Matters.

Great difficulty is assured in obtaining a jury to try Edward M. Jones for murder. All of yesterday's session in Judge Gear's court was taken up with the examination of jurors under oath to ascertain if there was cause why they, individually, should not sit on the case. One after another was excused for cause, consisting in opinion already formed, scruples against capital punishment, etc.

Attorney General L. Andrews and Deputy E. C. Peters appear for the Territory, and A. G. M. Robertson and J. J. Dunne for the defendant.

Jones looked almost the most unconcerned person in the courtroom. He has improved in flesh, complexion and every apparent way since the night he surrendered himself at the police station about three months ago. Most of the time in court he works his jaws upon a cud of some kind. Beneath his composed exterior, however, there may be all the anxiety his terrible position ought to produce, for, although calm in demeanor, he never betrays any sign of levity in his glances of recognition toward acquaintances.

From the questions asked by the Attorney General, as well as counsel for the defense, it would appear that the prosecution will concentrate on the murder of Mrs. Parmenter, leaving that of Mrs. Jones in the background. Fourteen jurors were excused for cause when, with eleven in the box, the panel was exhausted. Judge Gear thereupon ordered a special venire for 26 men to issue, and at 4:30 adjourned court until 9:30 this morning.

NEW JURORS SUMMONED.

Following are names of the new jurors summoned to appear this morning: E. B. Friel, John Crowell, John Grube, Chas. Molteno, Manuel Richards, Jas. Young, C. A. Herring, J. A. Laweawe, David K. Hoapili, W. G. Rowland, Jr., Joseph Richards, David Aea, Alex. K. Aona, W. Wolters, E. M. Legros, Edgar Henriques, J. J. Sullivan, F. J. Turner, Crestol Bolte, Hiram Kolomoku, C. A. Vierra, M. I. Silva, John Emmeluth, Edward Worthington, W. M. Templeton and Edward Baker.

SUIT DISMISSED.

At the request of counsel for plaintiff, the ejectment suit of Puuki Hanapi et al. vs. Honolulu Plantation Co. was dismissed without prejudice by Judge De Bolt. It was for two apanas containing nearly eight acres at Halewa, Ewa, claimed by plaintiffs as heirs of Kealoahau, with damages asked of $2000. A temporary injunction was granted on the summons, which was issued on January 29, last. C. C. Biting for plaintiffs; Smith & Lewis for defendants.

PROBATE MATTERS.

F. W. Macfarlane, administrator of the estate of Bella D. Friel, has rendered his final account. Receipts are $887.82 and payments $782.47, leaving a balance of $105.35. A supplementary inventory shows $169.50 value of personal property and $562.50 real estate, a total of $732.

F. W. Macfarlane, trustee under the will of Adelia Cornwell, has filed his second account, which has been referred to M. T. Simonton, master, for report. Receipts are $9751.66 and payments $9872.95 leaving $31.29 due the trustee.

Hiram Kolomoku was appointed guardian of his six minor children under $700 bond by Judge De Bolt.

COURT NOTES.

Judge De Bolt resumed the civil jury trial of Hawaiian Trust Co. vs. Annie Barton et al. yesterday.

Judge Robinson called the calendar of all the remaining cases allotted to him for the term.

In the case of M. Silveria vs. L. Ahlo, Judge De Bolt has allowed defendant twenty days after the filing of transcript of evidence in which to file his bill of exceptions to verdict and judgment for plaintiff.

P. D. Kelleit, Jr., commissioner, has petitioned for confirmation of the foreclosure sale in the suit of Mary E. Foster vs. Lum Kin and others. Plaintiff was the purchaser, the property being a rice plantation and mill, for $6000.

Frank J. Turk has filed an answer to the cross petition for divorce of his wife, Estrella L. Turk, denying all of the allegations therein.

WHAT A BLESSING

Many People Are Learning to Appreciate in Honolulu.

What a blessing it is. Sought after by thousands. Honolulu is finding it out. Many a miserable man is happy now. Nights of unrest, days of trouble. Any itching skin disease means this. Itching piles mean it. Eczema just as bad, and just as bad to cure.

But Doan's Ointment relieve at once, and cures all itching of the skin.

A blessing to a suffering public. Here's proof to back our statement: Mr. H. Ryall, of No. 11, Grosvenor St., South Yarra, a very old resident of Melbourne, Australia, states: "For some considerable time I have been a sufferer from that annoying complaint known as irritating piles. At times the irritation was very annoying, especially at night, and in the warm weather. I applied some of Doan's Ointment, which I had obtained and I am pleased to say that it gave me the desired relief from this annoying disease."

Doan's Ointment is splendid in all diseases of the skin: Eczema, piles, hives, insect bites, sores, chilblains, etc. It is perfectly safe and very effective. Very frequently two or three boxes have made a complete cure of chronic cases that have not yielded to other remedies for years.

Doan Ointment is sold by all chemists and storekeepers at 50 cents per box, or will be mailed on receipt of price by the Hollister Drug Co., Ltd., agents for the Hawaiian Islands.

SHOULD ALIENS BE GIVEN ANY POLITICAL RIGHTS

Editor Advertiser: Should aliens be given any political rights? In Hawaii we have many aliens living amongst us, some of whom have brought large capital to the country and have done much to develop the wealth and resources of the Territory. From appreciation of this class a certain sympathy has arisen in the minds of some and suggestions made that they be given a voice in the politics of the country.

If we look into the history of the dealings of the nations of the world with aliens we will be astonished at the development, improvement, I might say, which has slowly taken place in this respect. It is distinctly noticeable from the fact that some nations maintain the same antagonism towards aliens which obtained two thousand years ago.

In ancient times the residence of aliens in a nation was not tolerated and when an alien vessel was wrecked on a coast the crew was ruthlessly slain. Some of the old customs or rights to land on the coasts of England, Germany, and France included the right to wrecks which should accidentally be thrown upon the beach. Gradually, because, perhaps, a living body was more valuable than a dead one, the crews and passengers were enslaved, the slaves being as much a part of the rights as the inanimate flotsam and jetsam which came ashore. Probably owing to Christ's teachings, which spread rapidly in the first two centuries of this era, a more merciful course was pursued with regard to aliens thus wrecked and they were allowed to return to their own country, and eventually their vessels were repaired and they were assisted.

Afterwards right of residence was granted and we find instances of governments soliciting immigration of certain classes of aliens on account of their skill, as weavers, jewelers, etc. Still the statutes prohibited the purchase or inheritance by aliens of real property or the appointing of an alien executor or administrator.

Gradually the right to purchase and devise and inherit real property was granted in many countries, although this is still barred in some of our States and in some other countries.

Governments have maintained their right to deal with aliens as they choose although the more powerful of them have in some instances insisted in maintaining consular courts in foreign countries where only their citizens may be tried for crime and misdemeanor, thus ignoring the laws of those semi-barbarous lands. Also all governments insist on their innate right to expel or repel any aliens whose residence or immigration might be fruitful of danger to citizens.

What the future holds in store for aliens it is not possible to prophesy.

That public sentiment on many subjects has changed and is changing is a fact. Already we see a movement for recognizing the necessity for giving political minorities a representation. It may be resident aliens will be advanced to such a position that they may take part in the politics of the land.

At the present day they are not only welcomed, given right to lease, purchase, devise and inherit real property, but are denaturalized, i. e., given all political rights, except the right to vote. Also if they elect to abjure their native sovereignty and take the oath of allegiance they are welcomed and put on a par with native born citizens, without having to wait twenty-one years for the right to vote.

It does not appear probable that in our day they will be allowed to take part in voting or making laws for a country to whose government they refuse to owe allegiance.

That they are compelled to give up a part of their property annually, as citizens do, for the protection of the balance, is right but it does not follow that therefore they should be allowed to take part in making the laws or in electing those who do so. It may be galling to an educated alien to witness illiterate citizens making laws which saddle property with heavy taxes but he knows it is optional with himself whether he will take part in making those laws, or rather unmaking them.

It would appear that the rights to which aliens may aspire has about reached its limit as there is quite an outcry through many of the States that our native born citizens should have to wait for twenty-one years for the right to vote and aliens are granted the same right on from three months to five years' residence. Also the bars are being raised against the unrestricted immigration of aliens, the law requiring moral and physical cleanliness as well as a certain degree of education to enable aliens to land on the shores of the United States.

KAMS CARRY OFF THE HONORS

It was an all-Kamehameha Day yesterday at Oahu College where the Kamehameha Boys' School football team defeated the Punahou, and the Kamehameha Girls' School basketball team won from the High School team. The football game resulted in the following score:

Kamehameha, 29; Punahou, 16.

The basketball score was as follows: Kamehameha Girls' School, 6; High School, 4.

Both games were played on the Oahu College campus at 4 o'clock. Big crowds witnessed the playing, which in each case was above the average.

The football game aroused intense interest, for despite the divergent score, the game was a lively one, and is considered the best game played this season.

The game showed splendid team work on both sides, although the Kams played the steadiest, most teamy game, which had but few vulnerable spots. Their line work was superior to Punahou's. The Kams broke through Punahou's center again and again and also went around the ends easily.

One of the surprises of the game was the initial kick-off by Lowrey of the Punahou, which scored a touchdown. It fairly took the breath away from the Kams and for a minute things looked dark to them, and there was a reluctant feeling among the Punahou rooters that everything was going their way.

Oliver of the Kams kicked the goals and C. B. Lyman did excellent work in running. Center Kealoa broke down the Punahou center frequently, opening up breaches for his team through which deadly advances were made.

The basketball brought out also the excellent team work of the Kamehameha Girls' School which was first brought to attention in their game on Saturday with the Y. W. C. A.'s. The game ended even, 4 to 4, when it was decided to try for the first point in a second play. This was won by the Kamehameha girls.

TO BE HAPPY

WEAK MEN CAN BE CURED

Those who are "only half men" can be made the most perfect specimens of physical manhood by wearing Dr. McLaughlin's Electric Belt. It is worn for six or eight hours daily, mostly during sleep. It pours a glowing stream of electric energy into the weakened nerves, filling them with the vigor of youth. From the first day a new spirit is felt in the veins, the joyous ambition of youth springs forth, and you are a man among men.

DR. McLAUGHLIN'S ELECTRIC BELT

Has made thousands of homes happy. It is as good for women as for men. Man and wife can use the same belt. The regulator makes it strong or mild to suit the wearer. It is the only Electric Belt in the world that can be regulated while on the body. You feel the power, but it does not burn or blister as do the old style bare metal electrode belts. If you are weak or in pain it will cure you. Will you try it?

I give a free test to all who call. If you can't call, I will send you my beautifully illustrated book with full information free. Call or write now. Don't delay.
