HIGHWAY ROBBERY, THIS

MISS JULIA KALUAKINI THE VICTIM.

Knocked Down While Wheeling to Her Home in Manoa, Nearly Killed and Robbed of $15 in Cash.

Real highway robbery was committed in Manoa Valley just after dark last night.
A well known young Hawaiian lady, Miss Julia Kaluakini, while wheeling to her home was knocked down and robbed. The first blow on the back of the head hurled her from the bicycle and she fell senseless upon the ground. A second blow, with a stone or heavy piece of wood, landed between her shoulders as she was falling.
Strange to say a young Hawaiian is charged with the crime and is under arrest. He is William Ikua, also well known. Marshal Brown feels sure he is the guilty party. The young woman positively identifies him as her assailant. Another remarkable feature is that the young people are friends and had been at the same house at an entertainment earlier in the evening.
Miss Kaluakini started home alone up the Manoa road. She was on her wheel and going at an easy gate when she saw another wheel behind her. Half turning she recognized Ikua as the rider of the second machine, and was about to speak to him when she was dealt a terrific blow back of the left ear, which sent her sprawling. This was the last she knew. When she recovered consciousness she screamed for help. A white man and several natives answered the call. It was then discovered that her pocket had been cut open with a knife and $15 taken therefrom.
The young lady was taken into the residence of Attorney-General Cooper, where her wounds were dressed. Mr. Cooper immediately notified the police. This morning a warrant was made out and the supposed highwayman was arrested by Detective David Kaapa. He is now in jail and will arraigned before the district magistrate tomorrow morning.

FOR AMERICAN PRODUCTS

The Dairy Division of the Department of Agriculture of the United States is engaged in a very elaborate and comprehensive plan for enlarging the market for American dairy products. The plan is based on the idea of practical cooperation. The department proposes to find out just what the demand for dairy products is in the several countries which promise the possibility of a market, how the demand can be increased, what form of packages best meet the demand, and the best means of preparing it for transportation. In order to find these things out, practical and not merely theoretical, actual shipments of dairy products selected with this view and to be sold under regular ordinary commercial conditions are made, a detailed report of results being made to the department by an agent appointed for that purpose.
The second of these experimental shipments to Honolulu was received by the Coptic and has been consigned by the Department to Lewis & Co. It includes some choice brands of cheese, and natural cream prepared by a mechanical and chemical process that preserves all its good qualities.

THE GLENOGLE LEAVES THE STRIKING BOILERMAKERS.

Will Have Machinery Attended to Here. She Carries Half of the Thirty-Second Infantry.

The transport Glenogle arrived in port this morning with a part of the Thirty-second Infantry. The boiler-makers' strike, by which she was delayed in San Francisco, was not settled when she left, nor were the repairs to her machinery completed. She left on the first of October. She will remain in port here long enough for the completion of the work that should have been done in San Francisco. There was no extra danger, say those on board, in allowing her to start as she did. The event seems to show that she made excellent time. The Glenogle brings mail and news of a day later than that on the Sheridan.

The Thirty-second Infantry is under command of Colonel Louis A. Craig of the Sixth Regular Cavalry. During the war he was Major and Assistant Adjutant-General of Volunteers, and was on the staff of General J. H. Wilson at Porto Rico. He organized the Thirty-second at Fort Leavenworth, Kansas, the men being from the states of the Middle West. About a third of them have been in service before.

The Glenogle has 730 men and thirty officers. She is in charge of Quartermaster Captain Johnson. The officers on board, besides the Colonel, are:

Captain and Adjutant George T. Sumner, Captain and Quartermaster Edwin J. Griffith, First Lieutenant and Commissary George A. Denmore, Captain John P. Grinstead, Gravelly Sevier, Amos W. Brandt, Frank M. Rumbold, Laurier Cravens and Jacob H. Culver; Lieutenants Charles C. Smith, G. E. Goodrich, A. C. G. Williams, Foote, H. K. Love, W. H. Clifton, Jr., R. T. Crawford, H. E. Shark, W. S. Hayes, C. H. Wilson, James L. Long, G. A. Smith, H. C. Clark, M. Rumbold, R. W. Morrison, John M. Shook, Adjutant; Dr. Enders, Acting Assistant Surgeon.

The Glenogle is a British steamship owned by the Northern Pacific Company. She was built in 1882 in Glasgow and was one of the Glen line, plying between London and China and Japan. Her gross tonnage is 3750, her engine horse power, 700, and her speed, 14 knots. This is her first visit to Honolulu. The officers in command are Captain R. D. Jones, First Officer J. H. Hutchings, Second Officer John W. Wren, Third Officer H. Morse, Fourth Officer J. W. Finnis, Chief Engineer D. Auld, Dr. J. Nicholson, Purser Percy C. Marrington, Chief Steward C. Irving.

TROOPS IN KINETOSCOPE

TWO REGIMENTS TAKEN THIS MORNING.

Thirty Second and Thirty Third in Motion. With the Executive Building for a Background.

Two regiments of United States Infantry had their pictures taken in front of the Executive building this morning by the new biograph process. This instrument is capable of taking 8,000 views a minute, and presents them in an improved shape in the kinetoscope. All of the men appear life size and in motion.

The instrument was set in the entrance to the Judiciary building grounds. It was operated by an agent of the company, assisted by a number of soldiers. The troops formed on Union square and Merchant street. First came the band of the 33rd Infantry, playing, followed immediately by the companies in company front. Next was the band of the 32nd Infantry, with the regiment bringing up the rear. The column was taken in the continuous view.

In the pictures taken will be shown a large section of the Executive building grounds, together with a glimpse of the building itself. It was for this background that the site for the views were chosen. The views will go into kinetoscope and will be shown over the United States at Manila.

NOT THE WISEST WAY.

It is not always best to wait until it is needed before buying a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. Quite frequently the remedy is required in the very busiest season or in the night and much inconvenience and suffering must be borne before it can be obtained. It costs but a trifle as compared with its real worth and every family can well afford to keep it in their home. It is everywhere acknowledged to be the most successful medicine in the world for bowel complaints. For sale by all dealers and druggists. Benson, Smith & Company, general agents, Hawaiian Islands.

LAND AND SEA PAGEANTS

NEW YORK'S GREAT WELCOME TO DEWEY.

Naval Parade Up the Hudson to Grant's Tomb—Land Parade From Grant's Tomb to Washington Arch.

NEW YORK, September 30.—Ideal weather marked the second day of New York's welcome to Admiral Dewey. Many people were out at sunrise to secure desirable points from which to view the parade. The first ceremony today was the presentation at the City Hall of a gold loving cup to the Admiral by Mayor Van Wyck on behalf of the city of New York.

Eleven o'clock was the time set for the parade to get under way, and, considering the formalities crowded into the preceding hours, the start was made with remarkable promptness. What with the gay uniforms of the waiting soldiery, the excitement and ceremony incident to landing the sailors from the war ships strung out in the river below, the crowd had plenty to occupy it.

Major-General Roe, with his glittering gold-laced staff, followed immediately on the heels of the police, and Sousa's Band, breaking into one of the airs that men have been marching to and dying to during the last year or more, took up their place at the head of the men who had made this superb demonstration possible. There had been a few little tentative attempts at cheering, but as the battalion of sailors from the Olympia swung into place the crowds struck the note that was to echo down all the miles of streets over which the parade was to pass.

moment afterward the carriage containing Dewey and the Mayor appeared in the wake of the Olympia's men. The people saw then—most of them for the first time—a rather under-sized man with bronzed, kindly face, that even all the bravery of the gift of Admiral's full-dress uniform cannot obscure. By his side sat the still smaller Mayor of New York, plain, formal, in his conventional frock coat and silk hat, and trying to look as though riding beside returning conquerors was part of his daily duties. The cheering that hailed the Olympia's men was a commonplace vocal demonstration in comparison to that which greeted their honored chief.

The line of march was from Grant's tomb and ended at the Washington arch at Washington Square.

In the line of march were the West Point cadets, the regulars, all the New York National Guard, the 19th Pennsylvania, and the Pennsylvania National Guard, and National Guard regiments from New Jersey, Connecticut, Maryland, South Carolina, and a number of other states in nearly every case headed by the governor of the state from which they came.

The streets through which the procession marched were lined on either side of hundreds of thousands of enthusiastic spectators.

NEW YORK, September 29.—New York has just witnessed one of the greatest naval pageants ever seen, and has expressed the sentiment of the American people for Dewey. Yesterday the day of the naval parade was the day of the land parade. Grant's tomb and back again. It was exactly 10 o'clock when the fleet with anchors short hove began to move. Just as the anchors were weighed the four starred flag which Farragut ran the forts at New Orleans, broke from the main peak of the Olympia. The flag floated proudly all through the pageant today. It is the most precious possession of Farragut's pupil, and when it is struck on Monday it will probably be for ever, as it is altogether unlikely that Admiral Dewey will ever command another fleet.

When the ships had straightened out for their journey across the upper bay, the spectacle they made will ever be treasured in the memory of those who saw it. In advance of the Olympia was a double line of patrol and fireboats, a Lilliputian fleet to clear the way of unofficial trespassers. It did not require much persuasion either, as the Gleaners occupied the Oceanic and Pacific Mail wharves, the former to stay at least until tomorrow and the latter for several days. Merchantmen are discharging or receiving cargoes at every other dock and several more transports may arrive at any time. The colonel occupied the Oceanic and Pacific Mail wharves, the former to stay at least until tomorrow and the latter for several days. Merchantmen are discharging or receiving cargoes at every other dock and several more transports may arrive at any time. The colonel occupied the Oceanic and Pacific Mail wharves, the former to stay at least until tomorrow and the latter for several days. Merchantmen are discharging or receiving cargoes at every other dock and several more transports may arrive at any time.

On the port beam of the Olympia was the escorting ship Sandy Hook, with the Mayor and other dignitaries aboard, and in her wake at intervals of 400 yards, stretched a long line, were the great towering warships, the armored cruiser New York, the battleships Indiana and Massachusetts, the cruiser Brooklyn, second-class battleship Texas, the old wooden frigate Albatross, the gunboat Marietta and the Chicago, the flagship of the South Atlantic squadron. Old Glory fluttered from each masthead and taffrail. On each quarter of the New York were the black, tow-lined torpedo-boats, three on each flank. The rest of the procession tailed out for miles. Slowly and majestically the procession moved across the shiny waters.

Admiral Dewey went up on the after bridge as soon as the start was made and remained there throughout the parade, a heroic figure outlined against the skies for the thousands aloft and ashore.

Passing Grant's tomb at Riverside the war vessels each fired a national salute of 21 guns. Dewey stood on the bridge of the Olympia, his head bared.

Old fashions in dress may be revived, but no old-fashioned medicine can replace Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. For sale by all dealers and druggists. Benson, Smith & Company, general agents, Hawaiian Islands.

OVERTAKEN BY DARKNESS

CAMPERS SPEND A NIGHT ON KONA HUA NUI.

Police Locate Them After a Search—They Arrive Home Cold and Drenched After Waiting for Daylight.

A party of well known young people of Honolulu were overtaken by darkness while making a trip to Tantalus on Saturday and were compelled to spend the night on Kona Hua Nui ridge, 2,000 feet above sea level. They were drenched and cold before morning but luckily the drenching was only that of damp air and grass. Had the usual heavy rain fallen they would have been in a serious plight. They were located on the ridge by two police officers who were sent to search.

The party included E. O. Hall, Jr., Miss Florence Hall, and Philip Hall, Miss Sophia Judd and Charles Judd, Miss Anna Kincaid, Donald Cruzan and two teachers of Punahou college, Messrs. Williamson and Handingway.

The young people left Honolulu on Saturday morning, intending to climb Tantalus and have a day's outing. When night-fall came they were on the way home after a pleasant day, but before they could make the descent from the ridge the sun had gone and the climb became dangerous. The mountain side is very steep and to attempt to reach the bottom in darkness would have meant great risk of accident, so there was nothing for it but to camp and wait for the day. The campers suffered a great deal with the cold and dampness but were otherwise in no danger during their long wait. When the sun showed itself on Sunday morning they descended the mountain to find their waiting friends in Nuuanu valley, one sent by Mr. Hall and the other by the Judd family.

The absence of the excursionists occasioned a good deal of worry at their homes on Saturday night. When darkness came and the mountain climbers did not return it was feared that some accident had occurred. Two police officers were sent to search. They made Nuuanu valley re-echo with halloo until finally an answering cry was heard. The policemen found that the campers were all right, but in a place to which the officers could not climb in the dark. Any more than the campers could leave it.

None of those in the camping party are any the worse for their experience, but they are not anxious to await the welcome sun on Kona Hua Nui ridge again.

WILL NOT WAIT AGAIN

TRANSPORTS HAVE FIRST CALL AT THE WHARVES.

Colonel Ruhlen Issues a Peremptory Order That Makes Trouble for Masters of Freight Vessels.

Captains of merchant vessels along the waterfront were disagreeably jarred this morning by an order from Colonel Ruhlen, which reached them through the custom house, to the effect that they must be ready at a moment's notice to give way to army transports. There is to be no more delays of the latter for lack of wharf room. The colonel this morning took the matter into his own hands and issued the order mentioned, which is the end of the friction that has been going on for some time among the various parties interested in getting room at the docks here.

The colonel's peremptory order is a result of the experience of the transport Grant, which lay anchored outside the harbor for twenty-four hours, all of which time was a dead loss. This morning the Sheridan and the Gleaner occupied the Oceanic and Pacific Mail wharves, the former to stay at least until tomorrow and the latter for several days. Merchantmen are discharging or receiving cargoes at every other dock and several more transports may arrive at any time. The colonel occupied the Oceanic and Pacific Mail wharves, the former to stay at least until tomorrow and the latter for several days. Merchantmen are discharging or receiving cargoes at every other dock and several more transports may arrive at any time.

Colonel Ruhlen's order means a lot of trouble and expense to freight vessels and their masters are full of discontent. Freight clerks have been notified to keep the wharves as clear as possible, so that there will be room without delay for the transport business. When a transport is sighted the colonel will say what wharf it is to have any vessel that is there must stop loading or unloading, cut loose and anchor in the stream. This is an added hardship to vessels that have already had to wait two weeks or more to get a place at all, but the colonel has decided that nothing must be allowed to stand in the way of the United States army business.

THE TRAM COMPANY ACTS

BEGINS DOUBLE TRACK ON KING STREET.

Old Concern Goes the New One Better At An Early Hour This Morning—Attorneys Talk About It.

At last another development in the tramway situation has come to pass. As was anticipated it was the other side of the game of tag that has been going on between the rival companies for some months.

At an early hour this morning the Hawaiian Tramways Company began laying double track on King street. The start was made on Union square. Twenty Chinamen and Japs were at work there. They tore up the road bed and by this afternoon all was ready for the track. The flat girder rails recently authorized by the Cabinet will be laid down.

"We will go right ahead laying double track on both King and Beretania streets," said Attorney Paul Neumann this morning. "The rails laid down by the Rapid Transit will not stop us nor will they interfere in the least with our operations."

"When we reach these rails they will come up," continued the attorney. He would not say, however, whether his men would pull them up or the Rapid Transit people would remove them. "The laying of those rails by the Rapid Transit men was purely a game of bluff," added the attorney, "and we fear no trouble on their account."

Mr. Neumann stated that the Hawaiian Tramways Company would now have its double tracks and also electric cars, in spite of a good many things he mentioned. There had been a good deal of talk on the outside of consolidation, but this had been opposed inside of the companies. His own opinion was that consolidation would better serve the convenience and requirements of the community.

Mr. Thurston was asked what his company intended to do now. He replied that no conclusion had yet been reached. Asked if his company intended getting out an injunction to stop the work of the Hawaiian Tramways Company on Union square he replied that he did not know.

OPPORTUNITIES OF HONOLULU.

A Honolulu correspondent of the New York Times writes that there are "abundant opportunities for capital" in the islands. But as to labor he is not so glittering. He says: "The competition of coolie labor, with their low rate of wages and contentment to live on rice and fish, will make Honolulu undesirable for the workingman." That is to say, Honolulu is a good place for a rich man to get richer and for a poor man to get poorer. We may question whether the correspondent meant to convey such an impression, and it is probably an extreme view. But it does not give a very clear answer to the query, Of what use are our new possessions to the common people of the United States?—New Bedford, (Mass.) Republican Standard.

In the same breath California is talking about quarantining that state against consumptives and sending her lepers here.

The horseless carriage is here. Wireless telegraphy is coming. There is talk of a creedless church. Who says Honolulu is not keeping up with the procession?

Scribner's Magazine in the October number has begun the publication of Robert Louis Stevenson's letters written after he began to seek health in the Pacific. In the introduction to the letters it is stated that in 1888 he left Tahiti and "sailing due north through forty degrees of latitude arrived at Honolulu, the more than semi-civilized capital of the Hawaiian Islands."

There are nearly 900 cities and towns in the United States having a population of 4,000 or over. The number is being added to every year. There are about 200 cities and towns which have postoffice buildings, built and owned by the Federal Government. With this showing, what are Hilo's chances of getting an appropriation from Congress to build the postoffice she needs so badly? In the last Congress, the chairman of the Committee of Public Buildings in the House, could not even get a postoffice appropriation for his own town.

THE POWERS INTERVENE.

Another factor has been injected into the Transvaal situation. It is a factor that makes for peace, strained as the situation is.

The powers have intervened. Strong representations have been made to Lord Salisbury against Chamberlain's proposition striking at the independence of the Boers. This is a factor that cannot be ignored. Indeed the dispatches say that as a result of these representations the high handed return of the ultimatum demanding a return to the provisions of the Pretoria convention of 1881 will be eliminated.

To understand just what this means it must be remembered that the Boers in their origin as a nation were British subjects who withdrew further and further into the wilds of South Africa in order to preserve their primitive agricultural life, the peculiar religious views and the strong but simple virtues which characterized them. As long as this was their main object, the question of whether they were nationally independent or acknowledged suzerainty to Great Britain did not appeal to the Boers as important. Hence the Pretoria convention of 1881 by which their suzerainty was acknowledged. But "times change and men change with them." Isolated as the Boers were they could not escape the influence of the world's progress. Their austere views yielded here and there. They became more approximated to the advance of European civilization with its ideals and purposes. As they did so the national spirit rose and then a desire for independence as well as autonomy began to be felt. This produced the struggles of the later eighties and the early nineties ending in conventions which though not decisive of the question left more and more in doubt the suzerainty of the British crown and gave more and more color to the idea of national independence.

The present struggle began because of the agitation of the Uitlanders for the right to the electoral franchise. Chamberlain, keen, shrewd, persistent, saw that logically he had no basis other than comity for demanding the franchise for Britons unless the Transvaal were a dependency of Great Britain. He may have been influenced in this, too, by his Imperialistic ideas.

At any rate, reviving the old, almost forgotten claim of suzerainty he has based on it all his demands and claims for interference in the domestic affairs of the Transvaal. Ignoring the later conventions he has set up his claim on the basis of the Pretoria convention of 1881. In the abstract his position was a strong one. The point if carried would ultimately mean the complete amalgamation of the Transvaal into the British Empire.

If the form in which he has based his demands is modified by the representations of the powers, it will mean opportunity for more negotiations and the possibility of a settlement of the present difficulty without a resort to arms. But it will be only a temporary victory for the Boers. The question of sovereignty will come up again and again, until the Transvaal becomes strictly and formally a part of the British Empire in Africa. In the language of the street, the Boers, though blind can see their finish as a nation.

It will be published in the reading columns of the Journal of Health without the slightest cost to you, as we accept no pay for the article and charge nothing for the circulation we give it, and would ask you to send us all the information in regard to pure food.

Yours respectfully,
AMERICAN JOURNAL OF HEALTH,
J. A. DAVIS, M.D.,

Only last week we examined the beer brewed by the Capital Brewing Company of Olympia, Wash., and it is a perfect illustration of the quality of beer which we are always glad to commend, for the analysis showed it to be entirely free from any trace of any injurious substance. Such a high grade of beer is most beneficial in its use, for none of the pure malt and hops have been displaced by harmful ingredients. Every hygienist will concur with us in saying that a beer of such superior excellence is a very wholesome beverage. Physician often have occasion to prescribe a pure beer for cases of debilitation, and they can safely order this beer, made by the Capital Brewing Company.

McInerny's Shoe Store

FORT STREET, HONOLULU.

"KEEP THOU THY SHOP AND THY SHOP WILL KEEP THEE!"

There is but one successful way to do this—
Do it by being systematic!

Don't think that after you have opened your store in the morning, swept and dusted, your day's work is done; for the serious part of it has just begun. From that hour until closing time you begin to change a large stock of goods into money, and to do this you must know what you are doing.

DO YOU KNOW WHAT YOU ARE DOING?

If you are still using old pound and ounce scales, you are not keeping your shop; you are unconsciously giving it away! You can keep your store by locking the doors, if everything else fails, but you can not increase your profits.

With the Money Weight System

everything in weighing and changing goods into money is safe and certain. Every merchant needs a tonic these days, and the Money Weight System is that tonic. It is not only a system regulator, but a well regulated system for safely handling merchandise.

AUTOMOBILE ABOUT TOWN

OBJECT OF MUCH ATTENTION TODAY.

Various People Take It Out for a Spin and are Delighted With the Novelty. More are Coming.

Baldwin's automobile has been the object of much attention about the streets today. It has been flying in and out almost all the while. This morning Theo. Hoffman, manager of the Hawaiian Electric Company, had it out for a spin. He took with him different friends.

This automobile is not large, nor excessively heavy. The body is the exact size of an ordinary top buggy. The seat is made for two, but seems rather narrow for some of Honolulu's heavy weights. Having a top it is just as serviceable as a buggy in rainy weather.

The mechanism, as is well known, is simple and can be manipulated by anyone. Any speed desired can be attained, up to that of an electric car. The vehicle carries bicycle tires and its transit is noiseless. A bell warns pedestrians of its approach at street corners. It can be stopped quicker than a horse and started as easily as an electric car.

There has been little trouble with it about town. Very few horses have attempted thus far to step on it. This morning a Chinese stevedore, riding away from the mysterious roadster, probably the first time he had taken so much exercise in 27 years, but did no damage. Other horses eyed the intruder suspiciously, but seemed to size it up as one of the accidents of this "transition" period in Hawaii's political history.

Numerous people have had rides in the vehicle. Among them have been E. D. Tenney, J. B. Castle and E. R. Folsom. They all express themselves as much pleased with the novelty. Several automobiles are now being constructed for Honolulu, and in a few weeks they will be as common here as vegetable wagons.

Electric

Company.

The cleanest, brightest and really the long run, the cheapest and best light for use in the family residence, is the incandescent electric light. Safe, nothing could be safer. A few days ago a prominent gentleman of Honolulu came rushing down to the office of the Electric Company and said: "Give me figures for wiring my house, and I want it done at once; no more lamps for me. Last night a lamp tipped over and it came so near setting fire to the house and burning my children and I take no more risks." This is the sentiment of quite a number in the past few weeks, who have ordered their houses fitted with the perfect light. Just think it over and make up your mind that you want the best and safest light; send the Hawaiian Electric Company and tell them what you want.

Little Appetite and no Energy.

These are symptoms that effect a large number of people. Below we give the testimonial of Mrs. A. Morgan, of East Brisbane, Queensland, who does not hesitate to tell you of just the remedy that cured her.

DR. AYER'S Sarsaparilla

cured me. As a blood purifier and tonic for those who are affected by the intense heat of the Queensland summer it is unequalled. I am pleased to recommend it to all those who need a reliable remedy."

HEROES TO THE FRONT

TEXAS RANGERS AND ROUGH RIDERS.

The Sheridan Brings a Regiment Containing Many Men With Records for Bravery in Action.

A regiment of Texas Rangers, Rough Riders and others who saw hard service in Cuba is the Thirty-third Infantry, which arrived late Saturday afternoon on the big transport Sheridan. The regiment is famous for its marksmanship, having a record of 72 per cent. and on its muster roll are the names of many privates and officers who won distinction for heroism in the field, both in Cuba and as Indian fighters.

Lieutenant McClelland of Company G was promoted from a private in the Seventy-first New York for bravery in action at San Juan Hill. After being wounded five times he crawled to the front and continued shooting. The regiment is in command of Colonel Luther R. Hare and was organized by him in San Antonio, Texas. The size of the men and their records and soldierly qualities make it conspicuous among the regiments that have gone to the front.

The other officers of the regiment are Lieutenant Colonel John J. Breton, Major John A. Logan, Major Cronin, now Captain in the Twenty-fifth Infantry at Manila; Major March, commander of the Astor Battery in the Philippines; Captain James Burrows, adjutant, and Captain Ashburn, quartermaster. Major Logan is a son of General Logan, and in the recent war with Spain served as Assistant Adjutant-General in General Bates' brigade. Captain Hulen was Lieutenant-Colonel of the First Texas Cavalry. Captain Jenkinson was Captain in the Sixth United States Immunes. Lieutenant S. J. Jeffers was formerly Captain of Company I, First Arkansas. Lieutenant McKibben is a nephew of General McKibben, now in charge of the Division of Texas. Captain Shields of St. Louis is a brother of General Shields, retired. Captain Sirmeyer was Second Lieutenant in the negro regiment which gallantly rescued the Rough Riders when they were ambushed at San Juan Hill. He received special mention, as did also Captain Ashburn. Captain Schultz, late of the Sixth Missouri, saw service in Cuba. Lieutenants Case and Fickler took part in the Porto Rican campaign.

There are a number of Indians from the Indian Territory in the regiment. There are 1637 men on the Sheridan. Of the Thirty-third there are 1266 men and 47 officers, and in addition to these there are 17 officers and 351 men belonging to various regiments. The Sheridan is very similar to the Grant and Sherman in size and construction. Her officers are almost all the same as when she was here before. They are Captain Pierce, First Officer Fraser, Second Officer Hillman, Third Officer Randall, Fourth Officer Fisher, Chief Engineer Paul, First Assistant, Dibble, Second Assistant Brown, Third Assistant Bunker, Steward Poisman and Surgeon Holloway.

TRY THIS IF TROUBLED WITH RHEUMATISM.

Our little boy was afflicted with rheumatism in his knees; and at times unable to put his foot to the floor. We tried in vain, everything we could hear of that we thought would help him. We almost gave up in despair, when some one advised us to try Chamberlain's Pain Balm. We did so, and the first bottle gave so much relief that we got a second one, and, to our surprise, it cured him sound and well.—J. T. BAYS, Pastor Christian Church, Neodesha, Kan. ### FIRST UND LAD.

The leader of a German orchestra had considerable trouble with some of his instrumentalists who persisted in coming late for rehearsals. Finally he said to him: "Dis will not do no more. Dis was a business pandt. You come late some more voice and I pounce you quick."

Hoffman was on hand earlier the next night, still earlier the night following and kept on improving his conduct in this way until at the end of a week he was the first man to report to the leader. The leader was greatly pleased. "Dis was pedder Hoffman," said he. "You was behind before, aber you was early of late, and now you was fiersd and lach already. Better you told me how you was do it."

"Vel you see," said Hoffman, "I vos have to come in mit an old horse behind before, und so I vos think me I vos get me a Sterling Bicycle, down mit the Pacific Cuycle Company's place, and now I vos here mit the first already. I like does Sterlings. They go Oh! so easy! as never was any other."

THE POWERS INTERVENE

PROTEST AGAINST ENGLAND'S TRANSVAAL POLICY.

Insist That Chamberlain's Proposal to Destroy Transvaal Independence Shall Not be Carried Out.

LONDON, September 30.—Great Britain's aim to assert her paramountcy in South Africa is fully revealed as the actuating motive of her policy. The pretense that there is a question of a franchise for Uitlanders is being abandoned. It is now one of vassalage or extinction for the Boers.

President Kruger's reply to Colonial Secretary Chamberlain's dispatch of last Friday was received this evening at the Colonial Office. It is unflinching and curt, declaring adherence to the convention of 1880, which Secretary Chamberlain professed to override.

It is learned that energetic representations have been made to Lord Salisbury by the Ambassadors of Germany, Russia and Portugal against the proposal in Chamberlain's dispatch to destroy the independence of the Transvaal by reverting to the condition of things under the Pretoria convention of 1881. These representations will probably lead to a modification if not an omission of that proposal, although England will ultimately carry her point.

The dispatch had not yet been forwarded, and will possibly be withheld until after Tuesday's Cabinet meeting.

CARTER IN PRISON.

Sentence of the Embezzling Officer Approved by McKinley.

NEW YORK, September 30.—The President today approved the findings of the court-martial which convicted Captain Oberlin M. Carter, and tonight Carter sleeps in a cell at Governor's Island. He is under sentence of dismissal from the Army, five years' imprisonment at hard labor, and in addition must pay a fine of $7,000. He was convicted of misappropriating $1,750,000 in Government funds. Instead of a detail of men being sent after Carter, he was quietly taken into custody by Major Simpson, an officer specially sent from Washington.

MAUI PERSONALS.

Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Smith arrived Wednesday and are visiting their daughter, Mrs. H. A. Baldwin at Hamakua. Mr. Smith returns tonight, but Mrs. Smith remains several weeks.

W. F. Meier, formerly of Kaula and Miss Edith Meier of Honolulu, are visiting Mrs. R. von Tempelky at Kula. Mr. Meier returns to Honolulu tonight.

A brother of Manager W. J. Lowrie after 20 years spent in the Klondike is visiting him at Spreckelsville.

J. B. Castle has been at Spreckelsville during the week.

POLICE COURT.

The following business was finished up by Judge Wilcox on Saturday: See Chai and Ah Yat, fined $5 each for violating carriage regulations; James Nicholas, assault and battery on W. McShane, $2; Manuel Moses, cruelty to animals, $10; Nahikikola, assault and battery on his wife, 10 days; Ikeda and Hamasu, affray, $2 each; J. Cummings, furious driving, was deferred to Wednesday morning.

DOCTORS' TALK.

The October meeting of the Medical Association was held at the residence of Dr. Day Saturday evening. Dr. Cooper's paper on beriberi was the subject discussed. Nearly all present had something to say. Dr. Wood showed some pathological specimens illustrating the disease.

SCHOOL BUILDINGS.

HAMAKUAPOKO, October 7.—The old Hamakua school building was removed this week, and the new school house shows up very well. One of the old buildings has been moved off to one side, and is being fitted up for a kindergarten.

LABORERS FOR NAHIKU.

NAHIKU, October 7.—S. Fukuda, a merchant of this place has gone to Japan to engage 1,000 Japanese laborers for Nahiku plantation under the agency of Alexander & Baldwin. He expects to return in December.

COFFEE RANCH.

NAHIKU, October 7.—D. B. Murdock of Ewa, made the circuit of East Maui last week, going by way of Uluapala and returning through Nahiku, for the purpose of inspecting his coffee ranch at Kaupo.
