PRESIDENT DOLE'S ANSWER.

A Most Polite Refusal To President Cleveland's Request.

A VERY DECISIVE AND DIPLOMATIC DOCUMENT.

Full Text of the Reply to the Demand for the Provisional Government to Step Down and Out—Published For the First Time.

The response of the Provisional Government to the demand made upon it by Minister Willis was forwarded to the United States representative on the night of December 4th, and it was dispatched on the Corwin immediately. It has been withheld from publication hitherto, from diplomatic reasons, which no longer apply. The ADVERTISER is now enabled to offer its readers the full text of this important State paper:

EXECUTIVE BUILDING,
HONOLULU, Dec. 23d, 1893.

SIR: Your Excellency's communication of December 19th, announcing the conclusion which the President of the United States of America has finally arrived at respecting the application of this Government for a treaty of political union with that country, and referring also to the domestic affairs of these islands, has had the consideration of the Government.

While it is with deep disappointment that we learn that the important position which we have submitted to the Government of the United States, and which was at first favorably considered by it, has at length been rejected, we have experienced a sense of relief that we are now favored with the first official information upon the subject that has been received through a period of over nine months.

While we accept the decision of the President of the United States declining further to consider the annexation proposition of these islands, and the important and, to both countries, profitable reciprocal commercial interests which have long existed, together with our weakness as a sovereign nation, all point with convincing force to political union between the two countries as the necessary logical result from the circumstance mentioned. This conviction is emphasized by the favorable expression of American statesmen over a long period in favor of annexation, conspicuous among whom are the names of W. L. Marcy, William H. Seward, Hamilton Fish and James G. Blaine, all former secretaries of state, and especially so by the action of your last Administration in negotiating a treaty of annexation with this Government and sending it to the Senate with a view to its ratification.

We shall therefore continue the project of political union with the United States as a conspicuous feature of our foreign policy, confidently hoping that sooner or later it will be crowned with success to the lasting benefit of both countries.

The additional portion of your communication referring to our domestic affairs with a view of interfering therein, is a new departure in the relations of the two Governments. Your information that the President of the United States expects this Government "to promptly relinquish to her (meaning the ex-queen) her constitutional authority," with the question, "are you willing to abide by the decision of the President?" might well be dismissed in a single word, but for the circumstance that your communication contains, as it appears to me, misstatements, and erroneous conclusions based thereon that are so prejudicial to this Government, that I cannot permit them to pass unchallenged; moreover, the importance and menacing character of this proposition make it appropriate for me to discuss somewhat fully the questions raised by it.

We do not recognize the right of the President of the United States to interfere in our domestic affairs. Such right could be conferred upon him by the Act of this Government, and by that alone; or it could be acquired by conquest. This I understand to be the American doctrine conspicuously announced from time to time by the authorities of your Government.

President Jackson said in his message to Congress, in 1838: "The uniform policy and practice of the United States is to avoid all interference in disputes which merely relate to the internal government of other nations, and eventually to recognize the authority of the prevailing party without reference to the merits of the original controversy."

This principle of international law has been consistently recognized during the whole past intercourse of the two countries, and was recently reaffirmed in the instructions given by Secretary Gresham to Commissioner Blount on March 11, 1893, and by the later published in the newspapers in Honolulu in a letter of his own to the Hawaiian public. The words of these instructions which I refer to are as follows: "The United States claim no right to interfere in the political or domestic affairs, or in the internal conflicts of the Hawaiian Islands other than as herein stated (referring to the protection of American citizens), or for the purpose of maintaining any treaty or other rights which they possess." The treaties between the two countries confer, no right of interference.

Upon what then, Mr. Minister, does the President of the United States base his right of interference? Your communication is without information upon this point excepting such as may be contained in the following brief and vague sentences: "She (the ex-queen) was advised and assured by her ministers and leaders of the movement for the overthrow of her government that if she surrendered under protest, her case would afterward be fairly considered by the President of the United States. The queen finally yielded to the armed forces of the United States then quartered in Honolulu, relying on the good faith and honor of the President when informed of what occurred, to undo the action of the Minister and reinstate her and the authority which she claimed as the constitutional sovereign of the Hawaiian Islands." Also, "It becomes my further duty to advise you, Sir, the Executive of the Provisional Government and your Ministers, of the President's determination of the question which your action and that of the queen devolved upon him, and that you are expected to promptly relinquish to her her constitutional authority." I understand that the first quotation is referred to in the following words of the second: "Which your action and that of the queen devolved upon him" (the President of the United States), and that the President has arrived at his conclusions from Commissioner Blount's report. We have had, as yet, no opportunity of examining this document; but, from extracts published in the papers and for reasons set forth hereafter, we are not disposed to submit the fate of Hawaii to its statements and conclusions. As a matter of fact, no member of the Executive of the Provisional Government has conferred with the ex-queen either verbally or otherwise from the time that the new Government was proclaimed till now, with the exception of one or two notices which were sent to her by myself in regard to her removal from the palace and relating to the guards which the Government first allowed her, and perhaps others of a like nature. I infer that a conversation with Mr. Damon, then a member of the Advisory Council, is reported by Mr. Blount to have had with the ex-queen on January 17th, and which has been quoted in the newspapers, is the basis of this astounding claim of the President of the United States of his authority to adjudicate upon our rights as a Government to exist. Mr. Damon, on the occasion mentioned, was allowed to accompany the Cabinet of the former Government, who had been in conference with me and my associates, to meet the ex-queen; he went informally, without instructions and without authority to represent the Government or to assure the ex-queen "that if she surrendered under protest her case would afterward be fairly considered by the President of the United States." Our ultimatum had been already given to the members of the ex-cabinet who had been in conference with us. What Mr. Damon said to the ex-queen he said on his individual responsibility, and did not report it to us. Mr. Blount's report of his remarks on this occasion furnished to the Government its first information of the nature of those remarks. Admitting, for argument's sake, that the Government had authorized such assurances, what was "her case" that was afterward to be "fairly considered by the President of the United States?" Was it the question of her right to subvert the Hawaiian Constitution and to proclaim a new one to suit herself, or was it her claim to be restored to the sovereignty, or was it her claim against the United States for the alleged unwarrantable

DOINGS OF THE BOARD OF HEALTH.

Contracts for the Supplies of the Leper Settlement Awarded—Several Applications for Positions as Government Physicians—Minor Matters of the Meeting.

The Board of Health met at 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon, President Smith in the chair. There were present members Waterhouse, Lansing, Ena, and Dr. Andrews and Agent C. B. Reynolds.

The minutes of the last meeting were read and approved.

The list of those who were awarded contracts for furnishing supplies for the leper settlement for the next six months was presented by the Secretary.

A letter from Mr. Myer, the superintendent of the leper settlement, pertaining to matters at the settlement, was read. It was as follows:

With regard to the little girl about whom I wrote to you. The father is all at once unwilling to let her go, unless I guarantee that she will be returned. This, of course, I can't do, as she is not a leper. It seems that the father prefers to see his poor daughter die, rather than to give her a chance to live.

Clean persons from the leper settlement have been admitted into the Queen's Hospital before this, without the least objection on the part of the then doctors and the trustees, and why not?

I beg to draw your attention to the pal-ai supply. Mr. Hutchinson informs me that the pal-ai supplied is old and sour and the people complain about it. Would you kindly ask Messrs. Lee Chu & Co. to try and remedy this.

Another trouble is, that the boats used in landing freight seem to be leaky and damage bread and other goods accordingly. Mr. Hutchinson writes that he spoke to the steamer people (probably the boat's crew only) and they paid no attention to it. I have asked Mr. Hutchinson to send me a written statement, signed by him and two trustworthy witnesses.

Yours respectfully,
R. W. MEYER,
Agent of Board of Health.

It was explained that, in regard to the young girl of whom he spoke, Mr. Meyer was laboring under a false impression. Dr. Wood's only objection was that he refused to operate on the child unless with the full consent of the parents.

It was moved that the surgeon write Mr. Meyer to assure him that after the operation, if successful, the girl would be returned to the settlement. Carried.

The secretary was instructed to notify Lee Chu & Co. that if the palai for the settlement was not improved in quality, it would be a breach of their contract.

Two tenders for beef cattle were read to the Board, one from Godfrey Brown, as trustee of the Parker estate, and one from Mr. Meyer, of the Molokai ranch. The contract was awarded to the latter.

A letter from Sheriff Williams of Hilo was read. He reported two new cases of scarletina in Hilo, both at Wainaku plantation. A quarantine was being strictly enforced.

A letter was read from Dr. J. McGettigan, asking to be appointed a Government physician when a vacancy occurred.

Hurley J. Aiken, of Napa, Cal., sent an application for the position of Government physician, of Makawao, Maui, in case a vacancy occurred.

The matter of the application of Dr. Robert P. Myers, for a license to practice medicine was brought up. Dr. Andrews reported his papers as correct, and, on motion, the President was instructed to recommend the Minister of the Interior to grant such license.

The following letter was received from Dr. C. M. Hyde:

HONOLULU, H. I., Jan. 3, 1894.
To the Honorable Board of Health.
GENTLEMEN:—On behalf of the Hawaiian Board (of the Evangelical Association) I am instructed to ask if the work done by your agent under provisions of the Act to Mitigate, etc., cannot be transferred from Miller street to the prison or to some other part of the city.

Sufficient funds have been secured to build a personage for the Portuguese pastor, and we should like to secure from the Commissioners of Crown Lands a lease of the lot now occupied by you on Miller street.

We are of the opinion that such a change would be in the interest of public morality and are hopeful that your honorable body will find it practicable to comply with the request herewith made.

Very respectfully,
C. M. HYDE,
Secretary.

Mr. Waterhouse moved that the committee on sanitation look into the matter, and report next week. Carried.
The Board then adjourned.

KNIGHTS OF PYTHIAS.

PRESIDENT DOLE'S ANSWER.

acts of Minister Stevens, or was it all these in the alternative? Who can say? But if it had been all of these, or any of them, it could not have been more clearly and finally decided by the President of the Provisional Government than when he recognized it without qualification and received its accredited Commissioners, negotiated a treaty of annexation with them, received its accredited Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary, and accredited successively two Envoys Extraordinary and Ministers Plenipotentiary to it; the ex-queen in the meantime being represented in Washington by her agent who had full access to the Department of State.

The whole business of the Government with the President of the United States is set forth in the correspondence between the two Governments and the acts and statements of the Minister of this Government at Washington and the Annexation Commissioners accredited to it. If we have submitted our right to exist to the United States, the fact will appear in that correspondence and the acts of our Minister and Commissioners. Such agreement must be shown as the foundation of the right of your Government to interfere, for an arbitrator can be created only by the act of two parties.

The ex-queen sent her attorney to Washington to plead her claim for reinstatement in power, or failing that, for a money allowance or damages. This attorney was refused passage in the Government dispatch boat which was sent to San Francisco with the Annexation Commissioners and their message. The departure of this vessel was less than two days after the new Government was declared and the refusal was made promptly upon receiving the request therefor, either on the day the Government was declared or on the next day. If an intention to submit the question of the re-instatement of the ex-queen had existed, why should her attorney have been refused passage on this boat? The ex-queen's letter to President Harrison, dated January 15th, the day after the new Government was proclaimed, makes no allusion to any understanding between her and the Government for arbitration. Her letter is as follows:

"His Excellency Benjamin Harrison, President of the United States:

"My Great and Good Friend: It is with deep regret that I address you on this occasion. Some of my subjects, aided by aliens, have renounced their loyalty and revolted against the constitutional government of my kingdom. They have attempted to depose me and to establish a provisional government, in direct conflict with the organic law of this kingdom. Upon receiving incontestible proof that His Excellency the Minister Plenipotentiary of the United States, aided and abetted their unlawful movements and caused United States troops to be landed for that purpose, I submitted to force, believing that he would not have acted in that manner unless by the authority of the Government which he represents.

"This action on my part was prompted by three reasons: The utility of a conflict with the United States; the desire to avoid violence, bloodshed and the destruction of life and property; and the certainty which I feel that you and your Government will right whatever wrongs may have been inflicted upon us in the premises.

"In due time a statement of the true facts relating to this matter will be laid before you, and I live in the hope that you will judge uprightly and justly between myself and my enemies. This appeal is not made for myself personally, but for my people who have hitherto always enjoyed the friendship and protection of the United States.

"My opponents have taken the only vessel which could be obtained here for the purpose, and hearing of their intention to send a delegation of their number to present their side of this conflict before you, I requested the favor of sending by the same vessel an envoy to you, to lay before you my statement, as the facts appear to myself and my loyal subjects.

"This request has been refused and I now ask you in justice to myself and to my people that no steps be taken by the Government of the United States until my cause can be heard by you.

"I shall be able to dispatch an envoy about the 2d of February, as that will be the first available opportunity, hence, and he will reach you with every possible haste that there may be no delay in the settlement of this matter.

"I pray you, therefore, my good friend, that you will not allow any conclusions to be reached by you until my envoy arrives.

"I beg to assure you of the continuance of my highest consideration.

"LILIOKULANI, R.

"Honolulu, January 18, 1893."

If any understanding her and the Government to submit the question of her restoration to the United States, some reference to such understanding would naturally have appeared in this letter, as every reason would have existed for calling the attention of the President to that fact, especially as she then knew that her attorney would be seriously delayed in reaching Washington. But there is not a word from which such an understanding can be predicated. The Government sent its Commissioners to Washington for the sole object of procuring the confirmation of the recognition by Minister Stevens of the new Government, and to enter into negotiations for political union with the United States. The protest of the ex-queen made on January 17th, is equally with any mutual understanding of any submission of her claim to the throne, to the United States. It is very evidently a protest against the alleged action of Minister Stevens as well as the new Government, and contains a notice of her appeal to the United States. The document was received exactly as it would have been received if it had come through the mail. The endorsement of its receipt upon the paper was made at the request of the individual who brought it, as evidence of its safe delivery. As to the ex-queen's notice of her appeal to the United States, it was a matter of indifference to us. Such an appeal could not have been prevented, as the mail service was in operation as usual. That such a notice and our receipt of it without comment should be made a foundation of a claim that we had submitted our right to exist as a Government to the United States, had never occurred to us until suggested by your Government. The protest is as follows:

"I, Liliuokalani, by the grace of God and under the Constitution of the Hawaiian Kingdom, do hereby solemnly protest against any and all acts done against myself and the constitutional Government of the Hawaiian Kingdom by certain persons claiming to have established a Provisional Government of and for this Kingdom.

"That I yield to the superior force of the United States of America, whose Minister Plenipotentiary, His Excellency John L. Stevens, has caused United States troops to be landed at Honolulu and declared that he would support the said Provisional Government.

"Now to avoid any collision of armed forces and perhaps the loss of life, I do under this protest and impelled by said force, yield my authority until such time as the Government of the United States shall, upon the facts being presented to it, undo the action of its representative and re-instate me in the authority which I claim as the constitutional sovereign of the Hawaiian Islands.

Minister of Foreign Affairs.

WM. H. CORNWELL,

Minister of Finance.

JNO. F. COLBURN,

S. B. DOLE AND OTHERS composing the Provisional Government of the Hawaiian Islands."

(Endorsed) "Received by the hands of the late Cabinet this 17th day of January, A. D. 1893, SANFORD B. DOLE, Chairman of Executive Council of Provisional Government."

You may not be aware, but such is the fact, that at no time until the presentation of the claim of the President of the United States of his right to interfere in the internal affairs of this country, by you on December 19th, has this Government been officially informed by the United States Government that any such course was contemplated. And not until the publication of Mr. Gresham's letter to the President of the United States on the Hawaiian question, had we any reliable intimation of such a policy. The adherents of the ex-queen have indeed claimed from time to time that such was the case, but we have never been able to attach serious importance to their rumors to that effect, feeling secure in our perfect diplomatic relations with your country, and relying upon the friendship and fairness of the Government whose dealings with us had ever shown full recognition of our independence as a sovereign power, without any tendency to take advantage of the disparity of strength between the two countries. If your contention that President Cleveland believes that this Government and the ex-queen have submitted their respective claims to the sovereignty of this country, to the adjudication of the United States is correct, then may I ask, when and where has the President held his Court of Arbitration? This Government has had no notice of the sitting of such a tribunal and no opportunity of presenting evidence of its claims. If Mr. Blount's investigations were a part of the proceedings of such a Court, this Government did not know it and was never informed of it; indeed, as we have mentioned above, we never knew until the publication of Secretary Gresham's letter to President Cleveland, a few weeks ago, that the American Executive had a policy of interference under contemplation. Even if we had known that Mr. Blount was authoritatively acting as Commissioner to take evidence upon the question of the restoration of the ex-queen, the methods adopted by him in making his investigations were such an examination or any examination upon which human interests were to be adjudicated. As I am reliably informed, he selected his witnesses and examined them in secret freely using leading questions, giving no opportunity for a cross-examination and often not permitting such explanations as were desired by themselves as they desired to make of evidence which he had drawn from them. It is hardly necessary for me to suggest that under such a mode of examination, some witnesses would be almost helpless in the hands of an astute lawyer, and might be drawn into saying things which would be only half-truths and standing alone would be misleading or even false in effect. Is it likely that an investigation conducted in this manner could result in a fair, full and truthful statement of the case in point? Surely the destinies of a friendly Government, admitting by way of argument that the right of arbitration exists, may not be disposed of upon an ex parte and secret investigation made without the knowledge of such Government or an opportunity for it to be heard, or even to know who the witnesses were.

Mr. Blount came here as a stranger and at once entered upon his duties. He devoted himself to the work of collecting information both by the examination of witnesses and the collection of statistics and other documentary matter, with great energy and industry, giving up substantially his whole time to its prosecution. He was here but a few months and during that time was so occupied with this work that he had little opportunity left for receiving those impressions of the state of affairs which could best have come to him incidentally through a wide social intercourse with the people of the country and a personal acquaintance with its various communities and educational and industrial enterprises. He saw the country from his cottage in the center of Honolulu, mainly through the eyes of the witnesses whom he examined. Under these circumstances it is probable that the most earnest of men would be able to form a statement that could safely be relied upon as the basis of a decision upon the question of the standing of a Government. In view therefore of all the facts in relation to the question of the President's authority to interfere and concerning which the members of the Executive were actors and eye-witnesses, I am able to assure Your Excellency that by no action of this Government on the 17th day of January last or since that time, has the authority devolved upon the President of the United States to interfere in the internal affairs of this country through any conscious act or expression of this Government with such an intention.

You state in your communication: "After a patient examination of Mr. Blount's reports, the President is satisfied that the movement against the queen if not instigated was encouraged and supported by the representative of this Government at Honolulu; that he promised in advance to aid her enemies in an effort to overthrow the Hawaiian Government and set up by force a new Government in its place; that he kept his promise by causing a detachment of troops to be landed from the Boston on the 16th of January, 1893, and by recognizing the Provisional Government the next day, when it was too feeble to defend itself and the constitutional Government was unable to successfully maintain its authority against any threatening force other than that of the United States already landed."

Without entering into a discussion of the facts, I beg to state in reply that I am unable to judge of the correctness of Mr. Blount's report, from which the President's conclusions were drawn, as I have had no opportunity of examining such report. But I desire to specially and emphatically state the correctness of each and every one of the allegations of fact contained in the above-quoted statement; yet, as the President has arrived at a positive opinion in his own mind in the matter, I will refer to it from his own standpoint.

My position is briefly this: If the American forces illegally assisted the revolutionists in the establishment of the Provisional Government, that Government is not responsible for their wrong doing. It was purely a private matter for discipline between the United States Government and its own officers. There is, I submit, no precedent in international law for the theory that such action of the American troops has conferred upon the United States authority over the internal affairs of this Government. Should it be true, as you have suggested, that the American Government made itself responsible to the queen, who, it is alleged, lost her throne through such action, that is not a matter for me to discuss, except to submit that, if such be the case, it is a matter for the American Government and her to settle between them. This Government, a recognized sovereign power, equal in authority with the United States Government and enjoying equal diplomatic relations with it, cannot be destroyed by it for the sake of discharging its obligations to the ex-queen.

Upon these grounds, Mr. Minister, in behalf of my Government, I respectfully protest against the usurpation of its authority as suggested by the language of your communication.

It is difficult for a stranger like yourself, and much more for the President of the United States with his pressing responsibilities, his crowding cares and his want of familiarity with the condition and history of this country and the inner life of its people, to obtain a clear insight into the real state of affairs and to understand the social currents, the race feelings and the customs and traditions, which all contribute to the political outlook. We, who have grown up here or who have adopted this country as our home, are conscious of the difficulty of maintaining unity which is made up of five races, of which the larger part but dimly appreciate the significance and value of representative institutions, offers political problems which may well tax the wisdom of the most experienced statesman.

For long years a large and influential part of this community, including many foreigners and native Hawaiians, have observed with deep regret the retrogressive tendencies of the Hawaiian monarchy, and have honorably striven against them, and have sought through legislative work, the newspapers, and by personal appeal and individual influence to support and emphasize the representative features of the monarchy, and to create a public sentiment favorable thereto, and thereby to avert the catastrophe that seemed inevitable if such tendencies were not restrained. These efforts have been met by the last two sovereigns in a spirit of aggressive hostility. The struggle became at length a well defined issue between royal prerogative and the right of representative government and most bitterly and unscrupulously has it been carried on in the interest of the former. The King's privilege of importing goods at his own use without paying the duties thereon, was abused to the extent of admitting large quantities of liquors with which to debauch the electorate. He promoted the election of Government officers, both executive and judicial, to the Legislative Assembly, and freely appointed to office elected members thereof. In the Legislature of 1886, of which I was a member, the party supporting the Government was largely in the majority, and nearly every member of such majority held some appointment from the Government, and some of them as many as two or three, thereby effectually placing the legislative branch of the Government under the personal and absolute control of the King. The constitutional encroachments, lawless extravagance and scandalous operations of patronage and privilege to the highest bidder by Kalakaua brought on at length the revolution of 1887, which had the full sympathy and moral support of all the diplomatic representatives in Honolulu, including Minister Merrill, who was at that time President Cleveland's Minister here. This revolution was not an annexation movement in any sense, but a movement toward an independent republic, but when it had the monarchy in its power, conservative councils prevailed, and a new lease of life was allowed that institution on the condition of royal fidelity to the new Constitution which was then promulgated and which greatly curtailed the powers of the sovereign. Kalakaua was not faithful to this compact and sought as far as possible to evade its stipulations. The insurrection of 1889 was connived at by him, and the household guards under his control were not allowed to take part in suppressing it. The Princess Liliuokalani was in full sympathy with this movement, being a party to it, and furnished her suburban residence to the insurgents for their meetings. The arrangements were there made and the insurgents marched thence for their attack upon the Government. The affair was suppressed in a few hours of fighting, with some loss of life to the insurgents, by the party which carried through the revolution of 1887.

The ex-queen's rule was even more reckless and retrogressive than her brother's. Less politic than he, and with less knowledge of affairs, she had more determination and was equally unreliable and deficient in moral principle. She, to all appearance, unhesitatingly took the oath of office to govern according to the Constitution, and evidently regarding it merely as a formal ceremony, began, according to her own testimony to Mr. Blount, to lay her plans to destroy the Constitution and replace it with one of her own creation. With a like disregard of its sanctions, she made the most determined efforts to control all of the appointments to office, both executive and judicial. The session of the Legislature of 1892 was the longest that had ever occurred in our history and was characterized by a most obstinate struggle for personal control of the government and the legislature on the part of the queen; this was strenuously resisted by the opposition. During this contest four ministerial cabinets were appointed and unseated, and the lottery franchise bill, which had been withdrawn early in the session for want of sufficient support, was at the last moment, when the opposition was weakened by the absence of several of its members, again brought forward and passed, through the exercise of improper and illegitimate influences upon the legislators, among which were personal appeals on the part of the queen to them. The Cabinet which represented the opposition and the majority of the legislature, which the queen had been compelled to appoint, was unseated by similar means, and with a new cabinet of her own choice, the legislature was prorogued. This lottery franchise was of a character corresponding with similar institutions which have been driven out of every State of the American Union by an indignant public sentiment. If it had been established here it would in a brief period have obtained full control of the government patronage, and corrupted the social and political life of the people.

Although the situation at the close of the session was deeply discouraging to the community, it was accepted without any intention of meeting it by other than legal means. The attempted coup d'etat of the queen followed, and her ministers, threatened with violence, fled to the citizens for assistance and protection; then it was that the uprising against the queen took place, and gathering force from day to day, resulted in the proclamation of the Provisional Government and the abrogation of the monarchy on the third day thereafter. No man can correctly say that the queen owed her downfall to the interference of American forces. The revolution was carried through by the representatives, now largely reinforced, of the same public sentiment which forced the monarchy to its knees in 1887; which suppressed the insurrection of 1889, and which for twenty years had been battling for representative government in this country. If the American forces had been absent, the revolution would have taken place, for the sufficient cause for it had nothing to do with their presence.

I, therefore, in all friendship for the Government of the United States, which you represent, and desiring to cherish the goodwill of the great American people, submit the answer of my Government to your proposition, and ask that you will transmit the same to the President of the United States for his consideration.

Though the Provisional Government is far from being "a great power" and could not long resist the forces of the United States in hostile attack, we deem our position to be impregnable under all legal precedents, under the principles of maritime intercourse and in the forum of conscience. We have done your Government no wrong; no charge of discourtesy is or can be brought against us. Our only issue with your people has been that, because we revered its institutions of civil liberty, we have desired to have them extended to our own distracted country, and because we honor its flag, and deem that its beneficent and authoritative presence would be for the best interests of all of our people, we have stood ready to add our country, a new star, to its glory, and to consummate a union which we believed would be as much for the benefit of your country as ours. If this is an offense, we plead guilty to it.

I am instructed to inform you, Mr. Minister, that the Provisional Government of the Hawaiian Islands, respectfully and unhesitatingly declines to entertain the proposition of the President of the United States that it should surrender its authority to the ex-queen.

This answer is made not only upon the grounds hereinbefore set forth, but upon our sense of duty and loyalty to the brave men whose commission we hold, who have faithfully stood by us in the hour of trial and whose will is the only earthly authority we recognize. We cannot betray the sacred trust they have placed in our hands, a trust which represents the cause of Christian civilization in the interests of the whole people of these islands.

HAWAIIAN GAZETTE COMPANY

H. N. CASTLE : : : EDITOR
THURSDAY, : JANUARY 4, 1894.

I am instructed to inform you, Mr. Minister, that the Provisional Government of the Hawaiian Islands, respectfully and unhesitatingly declines to entertain the proposition of the President of the United States that it should surrender its authority to the ex-queen.—[From President Dole's reply to President Cleveland.]

PANDEMONIUM is a place of peace compared with the royalist camp now-a-days.

MR. NORDHOFF's book contains an eulogy on the men whom he now maligns. "Oh that mine enemy would write a book." He has, and we are avenged.

A LETTER from an importer, which we publish this morning, endorses the demand for the appointment of an appraiser. We believe that business men generally approve of the proposition, and they are the best judges of its merits. The position will be one of great importance, and everything will depend on the appointment of a man qualified by his character and business experience to discharge its duties with fidelity and intelligence.

A NEWSPAPER SERMON.

The New York Herald is not a journal for which as a rule we entertain a very high regard, but we are willing to give the devil his due. It publishes every Sunday morning a short editorial sermon, and generally a very good sermon too. The warmly appreciative estimate of Gen. Armstrong which we reproduced yesterday was one of these Sunday sermons.

The character of Gen. Armstrong was one which commanded sympathy and admiration from friend and foe. It was a gentle, strong Christian character, and perhaps found nowhere a better, simpler expression, than in these words of his final testament. They express the quiet confidence of a courageous nature, of a perfect self-command. The faith is not dead which can still produce such men.

A SOLEMN MATTER.

Mr. Theo. H. Davies has written another letter. It is a plea to the Government to "rise to a deep and solemn sense of the gravity of the situation."

Mr. Davies himself takes a very "solemn" view of the situation. His situation, surrounded by annexationists and hard times, is like that of Daniel among the lions. He laments the fall of heathenism in Hawaii, as Jeremiah lamented the downfall of the Jewish State, and the utter decay of righteousness. With this marked similarity in temperament, however, the resemblance between Mr. Davies and Jeremiah ceases. Jeremiah bewails the triumph of heathenism; Mr. Davies its downfall.

As to the spirit with which the Provisional Government will deal with its problems, Mr. Davies need entertain no solicitude. We publish a State paper this morning which is animated by the highest sense of moral responsibility and the most scrupulous regard for the public welfare, as well as for those high and permanent interests of liberty and civilization for which true American hearts, and true British hearts too, have never ceased to beat. We commend these interests to the very particular attention, to the "solemn" consideration of Mr. Davies. It is the captious opposition of men like him which chiefly imperils the cause of progressive civilization in this country. That this civilization has triumphed, and will continue to do so, is an indication that the men of intelligence and wealth who have chosen to ally themselves with what is worst in Hawaii, are happily a pitiful minority.

These are very "solemn" facts, and we recommend them to the notice of the champions of retrogression, superstition and usurpation, wherever they may be hiding.

PRESIDENT DOLE TO PRESIDENT CLEVELAND.

We present our readers this morning with the full text of the reply of President Dole to the demand made upon this Government by the representative of the United States. It is a noble state-paper, strong, dignified and convincing, and will reflect lasting honor upon the able man who stands at the head of this Government.

The case of Hawaii against the Cleveland Administration is simply impregnable. The Government of the United States has no more right to interfere in the domestic affairs of Hawaii than has the Government of Great Britain. Hawaii is fully sovereign, and her sovereignty cannot be impaired without a violation of every principle of natural justice and of positive law.

On what does the Democratic administration base its claim to a controlling voice in the internal affairs of Hawaii? Plainly on the assumption that the monarchy was overthrown by the United States and that, therefore, justice requires that the status quo ante should be restored. The assumption in question is false and has been proved to be so. But supposing it were true, would it justify the conclusion?

To answer this question in the affirmative is simply to deny the right of revolution. The supporters of the Committee of Public Safety and the Committee itself, using the right of revolution were entitled to assistance from any quarter. If it had been offered then by the American Minister, or the British Minister, they would have been justified in law and in good morals in accepting it. According to the Cleveland administration a "great wrong" has been done in Hawaii. But on their own showing it was their own wrong, the work of the United States itself, acting through its regular representatives. Mr. Cleveland and Mr. Gresham nowhere contend that the Committee of Public Safety ever violated any principle of international law. The crime which they charge, and which they confess, is of their own commission, for which they themselves are solely responsible. To punish the Provisional Government for sins which it has not committed, and with which it is not even charged, is the most monstrous act which has ever been done in the name of justice.

If this is the kind of thing that is done for the sake of "abstract right" and "ideal justice" we need be surprised at nothing further. It need excite no wonder that the tribunal before which we are dragged is secret; that its method is inquisitorial; that the accused is tried without notice and condemned without a hearing, and that the criminal himself, the one who on his own confession is the sole author of the wrong, is at once prosecuting attorney, judge, jury and executioner.

A NEW YEAR'S GATHERING.

Portuguese Children Celebrate at Mrs. Frank Cooke's.

There was a pleasant gathering on the afternoon of New Year's Day at the residence of Mrs. Frank Cooke. Rev. Mr. Soares, pastor of the Portuguese Church, with the teachers and many of the scholars of his Sabbath school, were the invited guests. A variety of social games were indulged in by the party, on the lawn, where refreshments were served by the hostess, who made every one feel welcome. After this the company were invited into the parlor, where they joined heartily in the songs which they have learned to sing so well at school.

The presence of the venerable Mother Cooke, who has devoted so much of her life to the cause of education in these islands, added greatly to the interest of the occasion. Some of the company, who have left their homes in Jacksonville and Springfield, Illinois, to cast in their lot with those of their race in these islands, could not but contrast the green grass and sunny skies of Honolulu with the ice and snow with which their New Year's celebrations in the home land were always associated.

CHRISTMAS DAY IN KOHALA.

How the Holy Season Was Celebrated by Our Neighbors.

CHINESE SUNDAY SCHOOL SERVICES.

Feasts, Dances, and Serenades Form Part of the Holiday Celebration. A Large Fancy Dress Ball.—News of Congress' Action.

KOHALA, HAWAII, JAN. 2.—On Sunday the 24th, the churches in this place were decorated with flowers and foliage, and the general holiday festivities were fairly begun. Christmas gifts and remembrances had been pretty generally exchanged the evening before, and everyone felt in good humor and ready to respond to the message of good-will to men that the pulpits that day brought to their parishes. The decorations were beautiful, and the services were appropriate and attractive.

On Christmas Eve, the Christmas Tree at the Chinese church attracted a large audience. The way from the gate to the church door was lighted with torches and Chinese lanterns, and inside were numberless illuminations, including all previous efforts in that line. The great Christmas Tree was in the centre of the church, decorated with candles and tinsel and toys. The school was arranged in order in a convenient position for the ready performance of the exercises, which began with the twenty-third psalm in English by the entire school, after which the Rev. A. Ostrom of the Foreign church led in a short prayer and then continued to act as chairman for the evening. There were both singing and recitations in English and Chinese, by individual scholars, by classes, and by the whole school, all reflecting the highest credit upon both teachers and scholars. The teachers are Miss Akina Principal and English instructor, Mr. Kong Hyenk Poong Chinese instructor, Mrs. Ahi Kindergarten instructor.

One of the set pieces was by twelve scholars each one of whom bore a single large gilded letter so that when they were all in position the letters read "Christ Is Born." Another, was the wise men led by the star of Bethlehem. It was symbolic of the human search for light and truth. After a time the star disappeared, and in its place came the Bible, with which the search ended, amid a jubilee of song praise and thanksgiving. The Kindergarten exercises were heartily applauded, the choruses and evolutions of the little Chinese children of four years and upwards being very entertaining. A couple of babies who lisped a little duet deserve special notice. There was a large star of Bethlehem lit with many candles at which a number of the graces and virtues lighted their candles, with appropriate declamation, typifying the distribution of the light of the world. This part of the exercises ended with a flag work by the school to the sound of music. The flags were the Stars and Stripes, and it is considered by some that this scene was also typical of the distribution of the light.

The speaking of the children in English was singularly distinct, and the whole programme was most gratifying to the patrons of the school, and most creditable to Miss Akina and her assistants. It far surpasses all previous efforts. The Trustees are fortunate in having secured such a corps of teachers, and in having such an unwearied and energetic helper as Mrs. Ostrom to effectually carry through all their plans. The school building is to be enlarged.

After the Literary exercises, the main work of the evening began, as the children themselves looked on it. The great box of presents was deposited in front of the tree, and an impartial distribution of Christmas presents occupied the rest of the evening. The whole audience was liberally treated to oranges, cakes and candies, and if anyone went away empty handed, it was his own fault.

On Christmas day the Church of England had a long and attractive service, including a baptism. The church was crowded, the whole country side turning out en masse. The Rev. Mr. Abund officiated.

On Christmas day the news that Congress had taken the Hawaiian matter in hand, and had administered a rebuke to Mr. Cleveland for his piratical policy, came to us like a goodly greeting from the American people. And we went through the exercises peculiar to the day, with a feeling of good-will to all man-kind at large and the United States in particular.

There were Christmas feasts galore, beyond mention. It will be weeks before Kohala can look a turkey in the face without blushing. The serenaders were out in force from Christmas eve to New Year's night. If they would only take a hint, and come when people are awake, morning noon or evening, rather than in the middle of the night, they would reap a better harvest.

On Friday night the great Fancy Dress Ball came off. It was the most brilliant affair Kohala has seen in many a day. Everybody was there, and a great many were in costume. There were represented nationalities and Graces, Clowns, Queen's and Mashers, Zouaves, Middles and Butterflies, Sapphos, Portias and Angels—a medley of color and beauty. The most striking costumes among the fair sex were Folly, Miss Maude Wright; Night, Miss Woods, and Mrs. Malaprop, Mrs. Hind. Among the men, Highlander, Mr. Kay; Matador, Mr. Kempster; Chinaman, Mr. Tulloch; Sandwich man, Mr. Wallace.

The dancing was kept up till pretty near the day-dawn, though the "Belle of the Ball" and a few others left early. The supper could hardly be called a success, being excessive in quantity and hardly up to the mark in quality. But the Ball as a whole was such a success that it will probably be followed by another.

On New Year's day several horse races came off on the usual race course from Kohala landing to the railway track. There was a large crowd of people, and a good deal of money changed hands.

We have been entertaining Hamakua lately in the persons of Mr. and Mrs. Jas. F. Renton, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Horner, Jr., and the Misses Horner. Their stay is only too short.

The weather is acting most shamefully. Very little rain, notwithstanding great promise.

TWO GOOD LETTERS.

Encouraging Opinions of Good Will For the Government.

The following letters, received by a prominent business man of Honolulu, are indicative of the feeling that exists in the United States on the Hawaiian question. The first letter is from a Massachusetts State Senator:

MY DEAR —: I read with much interest in the morning paper the report of your earnest remarks at the recent meeting in Honolulu of the friends of the Provisional Government. It and the other speeches had the real flavor of freedom; the right ring.

The outrageous course of Cleveland and Gresham is inexplicable to the American people. I do not know a man who defends them. Practically all Americans are on the side of the Provisional Government.

This disgraceful episode is only one of the many mischievous results of the Democratic victory in 1892. As usual, the party is showing itself incapable of giving the country a broad, patriotic and constructive administration.

I rejoice in the grit and pluck that you and your friends are exhibiting. I think the Administration has got to "hedge" in the matter.

Be assured of my cordial sympathy and best wishes.

DEAR MR. —: Thanks very much for favor to hand last night. I was longing for an account of that meeting. I shall make good use of the news. Thurston's and Stevens' letters given to Associated Press have done much good; Democrats in reading them have thought there was more to your side of the question than Blount gave. The great majority in this country believe that Grover has committed a grave error in sending Blount to your city, and then acting upon his one-sided view of Hawaiian affairs. I believe you are nearer to annexation today than you have been at any time. The boldness and steadfastness of the Provisional Government is commended everywhere.

"BILL" AGAIN.

An Alaf-a Man Wants to Know His Record.

MR. EDITOR: I understand that you had some trouble with a W. Hammond, a preacher and a would-be physician, and a libel suit was brought by him against you, and at time of trial he had disappeared.

Now if you know anything about such a person, I would be pleased to know it, and I will make his life one to be remembered while he sojourns in Alaska.

Hoping to hear from you as early as possible and receive the desired information. I am,

Very respectfully,

J. C. KOOSHER,
Druggist and Pharmacist.
Juneau, Alaska.

Wants an Appraiser.

MR. EDITOR: The bill to create the office of an appraiser will come before the Councils today. I hope the bill will pass, as I consider the same a necessity. I am a large importer of general merchandise and I have reason to believe that I am at present, and have been for some time past, handicapped by my competitors making false entries at the Custom House here.

Every country has an appraiser. The Provisional Government has an eye on business, and I am sure they will see that by having an appraiser the revenue will be greatly increased. An appraiser is what is wanted; by all means let us have one, and every honest merchant will endorse me.

SOME RUMORED CHANGES.

The Annexation Club Want Walter G. Smith in the Advisory Council.

Mr. Hatch leaves for the Coast on Saturday, for a brief visit. He will resign the Vice-Presidency and the vacancy will be filled immediately, probably by the appointment of William C. Wilder. If the offices of Minister of Foreign Affairs and President are separated, the former position will be tendered to Mr. Hatch, and if he is induced to accept it, a vacancy will be created in the Council.

The officers of the Annexation Club have held a meeting, at which a resolution was passed unanimously recommending Mr. Walter G. Smith, of the Star, for any vacancy which may occur. The American League has also unanimously adopted a similar resolution. All of the officers of the Annexation Club were not present at the meeting mentioned, but most of them have since signified their approval of the resolution which was passed. It is reported that Mr. John Ena intends to resign from the Advisory Council.

Mr. W. N. Armstrong has been mentioned for the place of Minister of Foreign Affairs in case the bill separating the office is passed. Mr. Armstrong would be a great addition to the Government, as his long acquaintance with Hawaiian affairs, and his knowledge of men make his advice and counsel of the utmost value.

Mr. Walter G. Smith would be regarded as the special representative of the Annexation Club, and of the more radical element generally, in the Councils. He is a good speaker, having already had legislative experience, while as editor of the Star his able and aggressive fight for annexation has won him general admiration.

The resignation of John Ena would be generally regretted.

WILL PROBABLY RECOVER.

George Washington's Head Harder Than the Pickaxe.

George Washington, the negro who was so nearly murdered by Vina King on New Year's morning, is getting along finely. His wound has commenced to heal, and there is every chance that he will ultimately recover. If he does, he will have the distinction of having recovered from a wound that would have killed nine men in twenty.

The King woman still languishes in jail. She is becoming rather tired of the confinement, but does not seem to realize the enormity of her act. She says she did not mean to kill Washington, but only wanted to even scores with him, on account of the beatings he had given her.

A SPLENDID PROGRAMME.

Arranged For the Benefit Concert Saturday Night.

The Programme for Saturday night's benefit to Miss Albu appears in another column. It is an unusually good one, as will be seen, and one that will be greatly enjoyed by all lovers of good music.

The quintette club will be a feature of the programme. The Misses Albu are having several native songs arranged as duets, and the clubs will assist them in the choruses. The duet, "Hear me, Norma," which was so enthusiastically received at the first concert by the artists, is to be repeated at the request of many of those who heard it then. The box plan will be open at 9 o'clock this morning.

What is an Accident?

To the nonlegal mind the term "accident" would appear to be easily defined, but the late Lord Chief Justice Cockburn thought not, and on several occasions insurance companies have sought a definition in the courts of law. It has been decided that a sunstroke is not an accident, but that injury to the spine through lifting a heavy weight is one. Even if physical ailments contribute to an accident, it is covered by the policy.

The relatives of a man who, while bathing in shallow water, was seized with a fit and suffocated, sustained their claim, as did those of a man who, when similarly seized, fell under a train and was killed. Again, a person having fallen and dislocated his shoulder was put to bed and carefully nursed, but in less than a month he died of pneumonia. The connection between that complaint and a dislocated shoulder is not at once visible, but on the ground that the restlessness and susceptibility to cold produced by the accident led to the disease which killed him, the relatives were held to be entitled to the claim.

"The influence of intoxicating liquor," has been authoritatively defined as "influence which disturbs the balance of a man's mind or the intelligent exercise of his faculties," and injuries received while in that condition are not covered by an accident policy. Nor are those caused by running obvious risk, as crossing a railway, even at a proper place, without exercising due care to avoid passing trains.—Chambers' Journal.

A Luscious Sandwich.

There is served at the house restaurant—and for that matter at the senate restaurant—a dish that is fit for the interior of any man, high or low, rich or poor, old or young, whom the Lord has ever suffered to live and sin. It is composed of a couple of slices of tender beef, divinely roasted, inclosed between slices of bread, divinely browned, and over all is poured a half pint of the golden juice of the meat, vulgarly known as gravy, but whose right name is "ambrosia." This dish in its entirety is down on the bills as "hot roast beef sandwich." It had its birth in the once famed Astor House and is the favorite brain child of a cook upon whom one day descended an inspiration. For a long time it was distinguished upon the capitol cartes as "a la Astor House." It has become so much a favorite with the feeders in the big building, however, that its New York patronymic has been dropped.—Washington Post.

May I Have a Fit Here, Please?

Grocer Wessel of Twentieth street and Fourth avenue had a queer customer the other morning. A well dressed woman of middle age walked into his store, and addressing the grocer asked quietly: "Please, may I have a fit here, sir?" "Vot is dot?" asked the mystified Mr. Wessel.

"I would like to have a fit in your store," replied the woman, this time in a hurried, excited tone.

"Fit?" exclaimed the grocer. "We don't keep 'em, lady."

He had one in the store a half minute later, however, for his supposed customer fell to the floor in an epileptic convulsion. An ambulance was summoned, and she was taken to Bellevue hospital.—New York Sun.

Hair Drying Stoves.

In the hairdressing parlors of New York, where women pay 50 cents for a shampoo and 75 cents for a shampoo with whipped egg trimmings, the tresses are dried over a small sheet iron stove. The attendant mops the wig with a towel, and then wheels the tabled stove up to the customer's back, lets the hair hang down a tin spout, turns on the gas, gives her a fashion paper to read and goes off for 20 or 30 minutes to shampoo or curl another customer.

The Deadly Current.

Two horses attached to a vehicle were killed in Jersey City by coming in contact with the current from a trolley wire. It appears singular when it is stated that the accident occurred a quarter of a mile from the broken wire, the current having been conveyed along the track.—Exchange.

French dandies are now going about with a novel scarfpin under their chins. The ornament consists of a gayly plumaged singing bird connected by means of a tiny rubber pipe with a bulb in the wearer's pocket. Press the bulb, and the bird squeaks and waggles his head and tail.

The talent of success is nothing more than doing what you can do well and doing well whatever you do without thought of fame.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

Two more cases of scarletina are reported from Hilo.

A diamond ring has been lost. Finder will please return to this office.

The Executive and Advisory Councils meet at half-past 1 this afternoon.

E. A. Jacobson, the jeweler, is prepared to manufacture anything in his line.

Oily Bill has gone back to Lahaina to wait for another rumor of restoration.

A sale of Government land at Puna, Hawaii, will take place on February 2d.

Wing Wo Tai & Co. have received a large number of new grindstones.

Our 1894 Calendar should be received with every copy of today's ADVERTISER.

The annual meeting of the Sailors' Home Society has been postponed until tomorrow.

A ladies' gold watch, key winding, has been lost and a reward for its return is offered. Bring to this office.

James F. Morgan will hold an auction sale at the residence of Mrs. J. Ailan at 10 o'clock this morning.

The box plan for Saturday night's benefit concert opens at 9 o'clock this morning at L. J. Levey's.

An account of the proceedings of the Board of Health at their meeting yesterday will be found on the second page.

Wilder's Steamship Co. have declared a quarterly dividend, payable to the stockholders at the office of the company.

Those wanting extra copies of today's ADVERTISER to mail to their friends, can obtain them at this office or at the news stands.

W. H. Cummings, the Road Supervisor, was fined $10 and costs yesterday, for an assault and battery on Mrs. J. K. Iaukea.

Dr. E. L. Hutchinson, the dentist, has returned from Maui. He has opened an office at the corner of King and Richard streets.

The Chicago Inter-Ocean publishes a very clever cartoon in which Mr. Cleveland is rigged out as the famous Mrs. Malaprop.

Thomas Bartow has resigned as principal of the Miloli English school, Kona, Hawaii. He intends taking up his studies again at Oahu College.

The three members of the Board of Education who are at present in the city, tendered their resignations from that body at a meeting held yesterday.

The Paradise of the Pacific, the Anglican Church Chronicle and the Y. M. C. A. Review will all be published in time to be sent by the Australia next Saturday.

A large number of new subscribers have been enrolled on our books since the eight-page edition was started. The people want the news and know where to get it.

Advices from Wailuku indicate that the new year came with a quiet which contrasts very happily with the bombs and firecrackers of Honolulu. Not a single arrest was made.

Purser Munro, of the S. S. Miowera, is still on board that steamer. He paid out $500 to the men of the Miowera during the holidays, so they were not in need of money, as was reported.

The Provisional Government's answer to President Cleveland's request to step down and out, will be found on the first and third pages of this issue. It is now made public for the first time.

An inquest was held yesterday on the body of Kelihipa, the native who was found dead on Tuesday morning. The jury found that he came to his death from the effects of a fall while drunk, his head probably striking a sharp stone in the road.

The plaster in the room formerly occupied by the Auditor-General fell on Tuesday directly on the place where Captain Ziegler sleeps when off duty. Had he been taking a nap, as is his custom at the hour when the ceiling fell, he undoubtedly would have been instantly killed, as over five hundred pounds of plaster fell on his bed.

The Supreme Court was occupied most of the day yesterday with the Banning case. Judge Frear being disqualified, Judge Whiting took his place, but as he succeeded in convincing the Court that he was disqualified also, Cecil Brown occupied the vacancy.

Dr. Taylor, U. S. N., will be a passenger from here for the Coast by the S. S. City of Peking, now due.

Bill Williams, who had the contract to deliver 300 tons of stone ballast on board the Miowera, expects to complete his task this afternoon. The Miowera changed her position yesterday in order to put ballast in the forward part of the vessel. As there are over 150 tons of ballast yet to go on board the vessel, it is likely that the ship will not leave for San Francisco until tomorrow.

Outgoing Passengers.

The following passengers are booked at the office of the Agents, Messrs. W. G. Irwin & Co., to leave by the Australia on Saturday:

Marion Darche, by Marion Crawford.
To Right the Wrong, by Edna Lyall.

A Picturesque Spectacle.

Hilo was the scene of a singular spectacle on the day the Kinau sailed. Henry West, royalist, had unhappily staked his faith and his money on the restoration of Mrs. Dominis with the incoming of the new year. He staked and lost, of course, and was condemned to parade the quiet streets of Hilo clad in red, white and blue, and wheel a keg of nails through the streets of the sleepy little village in a wheelbarrow, decorated with the American flag.

Officers Elected.

The following officers were elected last evening, for a period of six months, by the International Schutzen Club: President, H. Klemme; Vice-President, Gus. Cordes; Secretary, F. Miller; Treasurer, E. Klemme; Sergeant-at-Arms, C. Wichert; Guard, Mr. Knudsen.

for the purpose of showing that the CALIGRAPH will stand rough usage.

Do you know that most business men who operate a typewriter themselves, prefer the CALIGRAPH to other machines? Why? Because having to use the machine, they buy the typewriter easiest to learn, combined with speed, durability and niceness of work. The CALIGRAPH possesses these qualities.

They're the official telegraph typewriter, being selected after exhaustive competitive contest. They're the best typewriter for you.

Some CALIGRAPHS in stock. Call and examine.

T. W. Hobron, Agent

How often it has been said by the croakers that there is no business, everything is dead, times are hard, and everything is going to the bad here in Honolulu, but the California Feed Co. are not built that way; we say business is good and getting better every month. And to prove what we say we have had to take larger and more commodious warehouses. We have just completed arrangements with Mr. J. F. Colburn, whereby he gives up his old stand, corner Queen and Nuuanu streets. We take possession on November 15th. Our old place at Lele is too small for our fast increasing business, hence the change. We expect the Hawaiian bark Mauna Ala to arrive here again in a few days with her fourth full cargo of hay and grain bought by our Mr. J. N. Wright who prefer to select our merchandise ourselves rather than have others do it, which means that we get better goods at a less price.

We thank our many friends for their liberal patronage for the past three years, and hope by strict attention to a business we thoroughly understand to merit the patronage of as many more.

We intend to keep a large, well selected stock of the very best hay and grain to be had in the California market, and we are going to sell it. CALIFORNIA FEED CO.

CURACOA, A QUEER ISLAND.

Dependent Upon Rain For the Water Supply—Some Odd Customs.

Curacao is one of the queerest little islands of the Caribbean sea. It lies 60 miles north of Venezuela, is about 60 miles long and 12 or 14 wide, and it has a population of more than 50,000.

There is no means of procuring fresh water on the island except by saving rainwater in reservoirs. A number of wells have been bored under the supervision of the Dutch government, to which it belongs, but each ended in failure.

A curious statement regarding these borings is made by the inhabitants of the island. They say that in each and every case after a certain depth was reached the tools dropped out of sight, indicating that there is no solid foundation to the island. The borings were made in low places and through hills, and in about 30 different places, each with the same ultimate result. A few wells have been dug to a lesser depth and brackish, unpleasant tasting water is obtained from them, fit only for manufacturing purposes.

The approach of the rainy season is always an interesting time there. The water in the reservoir is low at this time, and the natives eagerly await the opportunity to gather a fresh supply. Clothing is never washed there in fresh water, but at all hours of the day the beach is alive with women beating the clothes with clubs on the rocks.

The houses are all built in the Dutch style, and are mostly of stone, with tile roofs. The streets are very narrow, in some places so narrow that it is possible to shake hands with the occupant of a room across the street simply by leaning out of the window.

There is a scarcity of young women in the island, but an overplenty of old and wrinkled dames. It is said the young women leave home as soon as they are of marriageable age and seek husbands in Caracas, Venezuela, or some other South American city. Yet there are some of the prettiest girls there a traveler ever set eyes upon. They are the daughters of Dutch fathers and Spanish mothers, and the mingling of the two bloods has produced a beautiful race, which is growing quite numerous there.

Three-quarters of the population is of African descent, or mixed African, Spanish, Dutch and Indian. A few Indians, said to be descendants of the Caribs, are still to be found on the island living in huts of straw.

Their sole business in these days seems to be the peddling of lottery tickets. Everybody invests in the lottery there, and as there are drawings each day the peddling of tickets forms quite a paying business.

Some of the Africans there are magnificently formed, especially those employed along the lagoon in loading and unloading steamers and ships. They are at home in the water and will dive under a steamer for a "real" or 10 cent piece.

Of late years they are forced to wear suits while sporting in the lagoon near the settlements, but as the lagoon extends in the center of the island several miles each way they may be seen every evening making their way in punts to a point beyond observation where they can enjoy themselves untrammelled by clothing.

The Maca pruen, or monkey plum, is the favorite fruit, and the parrot is the favorite bird. For $1 a young parrot that can talk in Spanish may be purchased, and a mocking bird can be had for 50 cents.

None of the liquor which obtains its name from the island is made there now. The Dutch have taken hold of the manufacture of the liquor and have transferred the business to Holland.—New York Herald.

Booth as Billposter.
One story of Booth's trip to the Sandwich Islands remains with me. He had gone there in 1854 in company with his comrade, Mr. David C. Anderson, en route to Australia, and they were to play in the Royal Hawaiian theater. They had hired a native to paste up the bills announcing the performance. This had to be done with a preparation named "poe-poe," made from a vegetable called "tara-tara," which is a favorite food in Honolulu, but the poor man was so hungry that yielding to temptation he incontinently ate up the paste, and to their surprise no bills appeared. When the reason was ascertained, they feared to trust another native, and it was therefore agreed that as Booth was the younger he should act as billposter, and it came to pass that every night after the performance Edwin went about the city with his play bills and bucket of paste and put up with his own hands the posters announcing what the company would play on the following night. And he assured me that he did this honestly and did not eat any of the paste.—William Bispham in Century.Chewing Gum.
I asked a very famous physician the other day if it was injurious to chew gum—not that I do it—and he answered: "Yes and no.""And how?" I inquired.
"To chew gum for five or ten minutes after a meal is absolutely beneficial," said he, "especially for hasty eaters, who do not half masticate their food, because the action of the jaws causes the gastric juices to flow, and that is good. But so few people can use and not abuse it. They get the gum in their mouths and keep at it till they fairly dry up the saliva supply, bring on a headache and get generally nervous. This will cause indigestion."—New York Recorder.Never in Time.
The late H. J. Byron had a horror of funerals, but was once prevailed upon to attend that of a fellow Bohemian. After waiting long at the cemetery entrance, he and his companions followed a funeral into the chapel, and when the service was half over, discovered that it was that of a stranger. Their friend's funeral had not come yet.

"Ah," said Byron, "just like poor Bill—never in time!"—London Million.
