VENTURE.

THIS fast trotting stallion has been withdrawn from training and will now be kept for stock purposes exclu sively. He has shown as much speed as ever and had it not been for an acci dent which befell him a few days be fore the race, he being dead lame on the 11th, we think that he would have giv en the gang a hard tussle for the money.
He is now all right again, and is being regularly jogged at the track, and can show close to a 2:30 clip at any time that he is called upon. This kind of treatment has been found by long ex perience to be the right plan to adopt with a stallion, as by it he is not only a surer foal-getter, but also he will transmit a greater amount of speed, energy and vigor to his offspring. This plan is now the rule in all of the large breeding establishments everywhere.
To parties owning good mares this is an opportunity that should not be ne glected, for Venture, with his fine breed ing and great speed, I consider the most desirable stock horse in the country.
Mr. Campbell tells me that of all of the horses that he has imported to this coun try, which is probably a dozen or more, he likes his colts by Venture better than any of them, which is surely proof enough of his qualities as a stock-getter.
Mares will be taken to the Park and returned free of charge. For any addi tional particulars apply to corner of Punchbowl and Queen Streets.

THE SITUATION.

A correspondent strikes a rotten plank in the ship of state, when he refers to the difficulty of securing an independent Legislature so long as salaried officials are eligible to seats in the Assembly. This and other grave abuses in the system of government can only be eradicated by all who are in favor of reform combining to stand and strive together until their aim is accomplished. Elections, and legislation, and cabinet-making will be, to a great extent, farces until a solid party is formed upon a basis of radical reform. Those who possess an intelligent appreciation of free and responsible constitutional government must, first of all, unite upon the requirements of the kingdom in that respect, and then, with unflinching purpose and indefatigable effort, pursue measures toward the desired end. No spasmodic effort on the eve of the elections, or popular ebullition of feeling during a legislative session to influence isolated acts, can have enduring results worth the trouble. As our correspondent's remarks imply, it is not so much the impregnable position of the present Ministry that stands in immediate necessity of being overcome, as the apathy and inactivity of those who possess the weightier interests in the welfare of the kingdom. In the meantime, the indications are that the next Legislature will be much less independent than even the last one. In that case, a spectacle of legislative tinkering will be presented which, perhaps, will be the first in a long series of retributive results upon the people for their neglect of duty. Before discussing an Opposition Cabinet, an Opposition party and policy should be formed.

PUBLIC SQUARES.

An abundance of breathing spaces is necessary in every town of any size, for the well-being and healthful pleasure of the inhabitants. Public squares should be so distributed over a town that nobody would have to go far from home to reach one. These places of resort should be fully supplied with conveniences for rest and recreation for old and young. They should have trees, flowers, fountains, aquaria, and other accessories of comfort and esthetic enjoyment; also, facilities and appliances for juvenile amusements. Such public squares as Honolulu has are not to be despised. As beginnings and promises of better things in the future they are in a degree creditable. Emma Square, the chief, is not unequal, unless on rare occasions, to the accommodation of all who patronize the delightful band concerts of evenings. But it has not the attractions to assemble ladies and children, for a pleasant airing, in daylight when there is no music. It is, moreover, not large enough to receive more furnishing of trees or other appurtenances without uncomfortably narrowing the spaces for the public. Thomas Square is much larger than Emma, and, although central to a large district, is out of the way of the majority of people most needing such a resort, namely, those living in the more closely-built parts. This square is, however, from its respectably-sized area, more capable of being made something approaching an ideal resting and pleasuring ground. At present a moderate appropriation by the Legislature is being applied to the improvement of Thomas Square. A street railway on King or Beretania Street would make it easily accessible to thousands with whom it is now unknown ground. In anticipation of the accomplishment, before many years, of some sort of easy transit, the improvement of this square should be carried on with expedition. It would be a good place now for an afternoon airing if there were any seats in it. These should be supplied at once, and the square then be given a share of the Royal Band's services.

There is need for other squares in the city, however hopeless it might be to advocate them at present. A pleasant little park could be made at one of several appropriate spots along the Nuuanu stream. Chinatown ought to have its solidarity broken up by two or three open squares. The whole block on which the Government buildings stand should, if possible, be secured for the public, and fitted up for band concerts. It is the centre of a populous district, and, with the additional attraction of the museum in Aliolani Hale, should be the scene of large and happy gatherings every afternoon. Like a great many other desirable objects for the common welfare, however, this matter of breathing spaces must, we suppose, be for the most part relegated to that glorious period in dim futurity when the citizens of Honolulu will have the privilege of taxing themselves for necessary improvements, and the intelligence to know that means of health and happiness for the people can scarcely be too dearly bought.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

A half-holiday on Saturday afternoon is working its way into favor in the Eastern States. The hour shorn from toil in this city on Saturdays is well appreciated, but half a day would be a great boon to all with sense enough to use it rightly. When times are dull, at all events, Saturday afternoon would never be missed in a week's business results.

Having promised a gentleman who has been referred to in discussions of a possible new Cabinet, to keep his name out of further communications, as he intends leaving the country and does not aspire to office if he stayed, his name has been substituted by an impersonal phrase in the letter of our friend "Awaiting Action." We are glad of our correspondent's disclaimer, as we had not imagined there was a sneer in his former letter at the gentleman in question, until another correspondent claimed to have detected it.

"WHAT'S THE ROW?"

EDITOR BULLETIN:—In the name of the "Prophet Figs," what's the row? Because I simply suggested in my article a somewhat different Ministry to that proposed by "Action" and said, to wait for the election was a farce, I am attacked and called a "nasty old fogey," and that I suggest the importation of French communists, &c., and that I am a newspaper man (save the mark), and that I have no vote, and that I have been bought up by W. M. Gibson to write articles to discourage voters, &c., and, lastly, that there is something wrong with my mind. Now, without going into a long discussion to disprove the above charges, I will put what I have to say in a few words.

So long as members receive $500 a session and then are appointed either as assessors or tax collectors (on the 30th June following the opening of legislature), and the same men run again for next term, so long will it be impossible to get an independent house, for if the city of Honolulu, which returns four members, return such, as they did last time, what can we expect of the outlying districts?

The reason I stated in former letter that it was 28 members vs. 20 Nobles and four Ministers, was, that even supposing we got influential leaders and did succeed in electing the whole 28 members as Independents, what could they do? A certain number of them would be bought, which would counterbalance the votes of the few independent nobles, and then we have the chance of the King's veto. So that a vote taken of want of confidence in the present Ministry would have a poor chance of success, at least so it has proved before, and will again, and that is why I call it a fallacy to wait for election.

For years the cry has been, "Oh, you wait till next legislature, and then see." Notably the last, when so much was expected, for, after all, what did the Opposition really do? How the Ministers must laugh in their sleeve, to see how very easy they can, and do, control everything, in spite of all newspaper talk and articles written on the abuses that arise from time to time.

Outside the correspondents who answered my letter I was honored by a leading article from "The Great Newspaper," P. C. A.—at least "Action" and myself were. That paper does not like the subject opened out, and in a calmly sarcastic article states that at present "there is no vacancy," &c. That's what's the matter. There should be, and put in men that have the confidence of the community and who have an interest and a stake in the country.

In signing myself one "Awaiting Action," I was also somewhat sarcastic, for I for a long while have given up hope of any improvement, for when our most influential and wealthy men, who have their all at stake, do nothing, what can the small fry do? And newspaper talk, without influence to back it, can and does do nothing. As I stated, I have no hope, for you could not get six men of any weight, to take any steps toward reform. Although all think it needed, their only hopes seem to be in a future legislature, which I call a fallacy. I do not advocate violence of any kind, more particularly as our war vote for troops was $80,000. I feel grateful to the editor that he expunged certain remarks in "Action's" second letter, for it seems a pity that one cannot write without being personal. Although I am supposed to have intended a sneer at an honorable gentleman in my first letter—so far from it, I would like him very much as our future Attorney-General, but did not suppose he would accept it. On the other hand I am delighted to read that others would accept "if it was the unanimous voice of the public."

But I will not trespass on your space any farther, but hope I shall not be called everything that is bad, because I am simply

AWAITING ACTION.

Honolulu, July 17, 1885.

NEW SYSTEM OF TELEGRAPHY.

An interesting exhibition of a new system of telegraphy, which is expected to measurably revolutionize telegraphic and telephonic service, was given in Philadelphia on Monday. There were present by invitation a number of New York and Philadelphia capitalists, electricians and representatives of the press. The tests were highly successful. A single ordinary telegraph wire conveys the electric current and operates the receiving machine. In appearance the sending machine is very much like an ordinary typewriter. The instrument has forty-two keys, the letters of the alphabet, the numerals and a few punctuation marks, and every letter or sign struck by the sending apparatus was instantly shown both upon that instrument and the receiver. Pressure upon any key caused a certain number of magnetic impulses to pass through the line. The number of these impulses differs for each letter, and they bring corresponding letters on the type wheel of the receiving instrument into such a position as to make the impression upon paper. Any person who can read can transmit and receive messages through it as correctly as could the most experienced expert using the Morse instrument. It is as rapid as it is accurate, all messages by it being automatically printed, both at the point of transmission and that of reception. It cannot be read by sound, and is consequently valuable for preserving privacy in electrical communication.

W. F. REYNOLDS is now prepared to offer the stock of this estate as it stands in the store, No. 109 Fort Street. The net value of said stock was carefully ascertained on the 1st day of June. It was taken at such prices as were guided by a knowledge of San Francisco business. The sales since that date are carefully recorded and a due allowance will be made from the gross value of the stock. This is a good opportunity for anyone desiring a good business. Any information can be obtained by applying at the store. Proposals should be made before the 25th of July. 72 1w

MR. T. W. Rawlins advertises 230 head of fine cattle for sale, full particulars of which are given in another column. He also informs his friends and customers that orders should be sent to him through Hawaiian Bell Telephone No. 29.

Is the Supreme Court this morning the case of the Hawaiian Bell Telephone Co. vs. Mutual Telephone Co. came up again. The evidence was all in at noon. At 1 o'clock the counsel's arguments on both sides commenced.

TO-morrow a mail will close at the Post-office for Fanning's Island per Jennie Walker and on Monday for Jaluit, Marshall Islands, per Ke Au Hou. The Yamashiro Maru will probably leave on Monday for Yokohama and carry a mail.

The funeral of Sister Julia of the sisterhood of the Sacred Hearts, took place this morning from the Roman Catholic Cathedral. Mass for the burial of the dead was said, and the interment took place in the Catholic Cemetery.

THE rest of this hot month promises to be quiet in the mail line, as well as in the news line. The only mail due will arrive on Wednesday next by the Alameda, and the first mail leaving for San Francisco will be by the same vessel, on Saturday, August 1.

TO-morrow afternoon the Honolulu and Oceanic try conclusions in a match game of baseball at Makiki. As the Honolulu have been somewhat strengthened since they last met the Oceanic, a very fine game may be expected. It will be called at four o'clock.

THE Advertiser states this morning that there were several rumors round town on Wednesday evening that someone had been locked up in the Government building, another that the place had been broken into, etc. It finishes by saying there was no foundation for the story. But there was, for two men, one a Government official, got locked up in the building, and made quite a noise before they were released.

CAHILL'S SENTENCE.

The impression seems to be the man Cahill was let off very lightly yesterday. Quite the contrary, for besides the two months for the assault, he was fined the heaviest penalty for contempt of Court, $50, which means seven months' imprisonment at hard labor. On the Wednesday previous he was fined $64.85 for malicious injury, so that altogether he will have to languish in Capt. Tripp's mansion over the reef for about seventeen months. He was taken over there yesterday and is now attired in a handsome suit of blue and brown denim, and at work.

PRICE OF MEAT REDUCED.

MR. G. J. Waller, the proprietor of the Metropolitan Meat Market, has reduced his prices of meat to suit the times, an announcement which will be hailed with much satisfaction. He always keeps the choicest meat from the finest herds. By means of a Bell-Coleman patent dry air refrigerator, all meats delivered from his market are thoroughly chilled immediately after killing. Of course this treatment causes the meat to retain its juicy properties and to keep longer. Families and shipping can be supplied on shortest notice. His telephone number is 45.

W. C. T. U.

The Woman's Christian Temperance Union held a meeting yesterday afternoon at the parlors of the Y. M. C. A. The meeting was not so well attended as usual, a good many of the members being away, but it was a very enthusiastic one. It was decided to print at once several thousand temperance leaflets for distribution among the Hawaiians, and arrangements are being made for other publications in the future. The society feels very much encouraged in its work amongst the Hawaiians, and Miss Mary Green left on Tuesday last by the Kinau, to work in the temperance cause on Maui and Hawaii.

IMPROVEMENTS.

Road Supervisor Hart is carrying out gradually his intentions made some time ago with respect to wooden bridges. As soon as they show signs of repairs wanted he will remove them and put in brick culverts in their places. He has nearly finished one at Kalaheiki, out beyond Kalihi. When completed this will be the third one that has been done recently. It will have a ten-foot span, and in place of a fourteen-foot roadway, it will be twenty-eight. Mr. Hart tells us he will attend to the bad place near the hydrant opposite Messrs. Hackfeld & Co.'s on Fort street in a day or so.

ANOTHER BURGLARY.

Last Monday evening the office of the Inter-Island Steam Navigation Co. was broken into by sneak thieves. Whoever the parties were they first gained admittance into the blacksmith's shop in rear of the Honolulu Planing Mills and carried off some tools. After they had got into the Inter-Island office they tried to get at the combination of the large safe but failed. They next tried a smaller safe but broke a chisel in trying to open it. This broken tool was found the next morning. All the booty they got was a lot of steel pens, paper, and other trifling things.

A gold pen valued at $5 laid on Secretary Ena's table escaped their notice. The watchman on that beat did not notice anything unusual, so that the parties probably were well acquainted with his movements and the premises.

QUEEN EMMA'S WILL.

This morning was the time appointed for the proving of the will of the late Dowager Queen Emma. It was heard at Chambers before His Honor the Chief Justice. Messrs. Cecil Brown and J. M. Monsarrat appeared for the executor, while Mr. L. A. Thurston appeared for Albert K. Kuniaka, who contests the will. The Hon. W. C. Parke was called and proved the death of the Queen, stating he had seen the dead body. There was no opposition to his statement. Dr. Robert McKibbin said the Queen was perfectly sane and competent to make her property away. He did not know anything of the will, had heard she had made one, and had it two or three weeks in possession before executing it.

Mr. J. M. Monsarrat said that he drafted the will and the Queen had it in her possession about three weeks before she executed it.

Mr. A. J. Cartwright, Jr., was also called. At noon the Court took a recess until 1 o'clock, at which time Mr. A. J. Cartwright, Sr., took the stand and the matter is still before the Court.

STRANGERS' FRIEND SOCIETY.

The annual meeting of the above society was held yesterday at the residence of Mr. E. C. Damon, Beretania street. The attendance was very large and very cosmopolitan, as no benevolent society in these islands draws so many from all classes and denominations. In the afternoon the business meeting was held, the election of officers for the ensuing year being as follows:—President, Mrs. S. C. Damon; Vice-President, Mrs. Alex. Mackintosh; Second Vice-President, Mrs. J. S. McGrew; Treasurer, Mrs. S. E. Bishop; Secretary, Mrs. H. M. Whitney; Directress, Mrs. Mary Dowsett. The reports of the officers for the past year were read, the treasurer's report showing that the society is in a flourishing condition financially. Hereafter a business meeting will be held on the first Monday of each month, and a social will be held quarterly. In the evening a social was held and largely attended. The occasion was much enjoyed by everyone present. Refreshments were handed round and the evening generally was given up to social intercourse.

Y. M. C. A.

The monthly meeting of the Association, last evening, was pretty well attended. The chair was taken by Mr. J. A. Dower. Reports of standing committees took up about all the time of the meeting. The treasurer reports the excess of receipts over expenditure to date, $109.84. An able lecturer is expected during the coming month, and a short series of interesting lectures may be looked for. Many persons have reported themselves to the employment committee during the past month. The applicants were assisted as far as the members of the committee had it in their power to do so. The Reading Room is well patronized by members and visitors. The membership of the Association is steadily increasing. Seven voting and eight associate new members were duly proposed and elected. To aid in Christian and benevolent work among the Japanese, Dr. Hyde announced that he can supply Japanese tracts and Scriptures to any person disposed to labor in voluntary mission service among those people. There will be a free entertainment in the main hall, upstairs, next week, at which all the members and the friends of the Association will be welcome. The programme will consist mostly of music, readings and impromptu addresses.

Collection, $10.60. Meeting closed with singing and prayer.

MRS. WALLACE'S SCHOOL.

The annual examination of Mrs. Wallace's Academic School, Nuuanu valley, commenced yesterday morning. During the term eighteen scholars have been in attendance. The subjects taken yesterday were French, Geography, Algebra and Arithmetic, in which the examinations were conducted by Mrs. Wallace. The pupils showed great aptness in the manner in which they answered the questions, showing that their instructions had been very thorough. Mrs. Wallace's system is one that commends itself to all teachers. The Latin examination was taken by the Rev. George Wallace. Afterwards there was a spelling match conducted by the latter gentleman. The result at the close was that Miss Bella Woods and Miss Edith Mist were last up and decided to be about equal. This morning other studies were taken up with the same satisfactory results as yesterday. Quite a number of parents and friends visited the school during the examinations.

The closing exercises took place this afternoon at half-past one o'clock. The large and commodious schoolroom was tastefully decorated, and at one end a small stage had been erected, the front of which was covered with palm leaves and ferns. The following programme was presented:—

- 1.—Piano Solo.....Miss Bella Woods
- 2.—Sam Weller as a witness: Sergeant Buzz-fuz, Miss L. Voss; Sam Weller, Miss L. Dowsett; Judge, Miss A. McBryde.
- 3.—Composition.....Ella Dayton
- 4.—The Little Quaker Sinner.....Lulu Makee
- 5.—Composition.....Miss Annie Dowsett
- 6.—Piano Solo.....Miss Belle Fuller
- 7.—Composition.....Miss Victoria Weller
- 8.—Somebody's Darling.....Miss Lily Butler
- 9.—Composition.....Miss Louisa Voss
- 10.—Piano Solo.....Miss Bella Woods
- 11.—Composition.....Miss Edith Mist
- 12.—Thirteen & Dolly.....Madge Wallace
- 13.—Composition.....Miss Belle Fuller
- 14.—Piano Solo.....Miss Bernice Barnard
- 15.—Farce—A race for a dinner: Feedwell—a landlord, Miss Benson; Sponge—a gentleman wanting a dinner, Miss Fuller; Dorie, Miss Barnard; Measureton—Architect, son-in-law to Dorie, Miss Ladd; Dalton—a rich merchant, Miss Lowery; Lovell—Dalton's friend, Miss Mist; Frank—Dalton's valet, Miss Woods; Gammon—a pretended police officer, Miss L. Dowsett.

The programme is not quite concluded as we go to press, so that a notice of its performance and particulars of the presenting of testimonials will have to stand over for to-morrow's issue.

POLICE COURT.

Chung Ying was charged with the embezzlement of $5 from Ah Ko at Wailua on the 18th of April last. He pleaded guilty and was sentenced to imprisonment at hard labor for three months. Costs $5. Mary Kapule, for heedless driving, was fined $5 and $1 costs. Elias, an express driver, for leaving his carriage contrary to the express rules, was fined $5 and $1 costs. Aola, for being drunk while in charge of his express, was fined $7 and $1 costs.

SCRAPS FOR THE CRAZY-QUILT.

The custom of brides wearing orange blossoms was derived from Saracens, among whom the orange blossom was regarded as a symbol of a prosperous marriage, a circumstance which is partly to be accounted for by the fact that in the East the orange tree bears ripe fruit and blossoms at the same time.

"O, isn't that just dog!" a Washington girl exclaims when she sees anything demanding the superlative form of an adjective. There is one Washington girl at least, who has not lost her confidence in the gallantry of the fool-killer.

A Chicago lady who made purchases of bric-a-brac in Paris to the amount of $4,000 got home to discover that every single article was on sale within half a mile of her home, and at much lower prices than she had paid.

A woman in Des Moines has sued twenty-seven different residents of that place for slander, and she wants $50,000 from each one of them. It is supposed that she wants capital to open a millinery store.

A Wilkesbarre (Pa.) woman fell off a chair and broke three ribs and a collar-bone while trying to hang a neighbor's cat for eating her chickens.

Ella Wheeler Wilcox has written 2,000 poems.

Mr. Dana says: "The handsome women in New York are not found in the circle which assumes to lead fashion. We do not see them in the boxes at the opera, but encounter them as we walk in the streets or travel in the cars, and they are not the daughters of the rich and luxurious."

A N. Y. dentist says that women who gossip a great deal lose their teeth soonest by decay, but this assertion won't stop a female tongue for ten seconds.

A couple recently married in Lynn, Mass., were at a loss for a bridesmaid. A friend called at an intelligence office in Boston and secured the services of a handsome woman to act in the capacity desired. He paid $3 for her services, besides paying her expenses both ways. She had never seen, nor did she know the contracting parties.

A jealous Boston Post writer says: "Angular writing is now the thing among Chicago ladies. No one is admitted into what Chicago calls good society unless she can write a tall, early English, antediluvian, pointed Gothic hand that it takes a couple of persons to read. As many Chicago people cannot write at all, a woman on Wabash avenue makes a good living writing angular-hand letters for Chicago's best people."

Miss Taylor of Wabaton is the new star of Dakota. She emigrated there three years ago. The first year she took a pre-emption and refused an offer of marriage. The second year she took a homestead and a tree claim and four offers to "jine." She has now a section of land, twenty-seven cows and innumerable calves. Has taken at the County Fair the first prize for butter and the last prize for pumpkins. Can ride horseback, shoot gophers, drink alkali water, and isn't afraid of mice.

Notice to the Public.

We take pleasure in announcing to the public that, in addition to our Pastry and Confectionery Business, We will open our Ice Cream Parlors!
Which have been fitted up elegantly according to our trade, on SATURDAY, APRIL 25th.

Our Cream will be only of superior quality, made of genuine cream. As we have made arrangements with the Woodlawn Dairy to supply us only with a first-class article from samples we have had of the same, we are able to guarantee satisfaction. The following assortments of Ice Creams and Sherbets we will keep at our opening, and many more kinds if trade will justify it:—

ICE CREAMS:
VANILLA, LEMON, CHOCOLATE, COFFEE, STRAWBERRY, PINEAPPLE and COFFEE GLACE.
SHERBETS:
ORANGE and STRAWBERRY.
Parties supplied any day except Sundays. Those wishing Ice Cream for Sunday must leave their orders on Saturday before 9 p. m., which will be delivered before 10 a. m. Sunday. The creams will be packed so that they will keep eight hours in a first-class condition. Hoping to get a share of public patronage, and thanking the public for their liberal past favors, we remain, respectfully,

MELLER & HALBE,

The Matchless Metal Polish
Best Made—Has no Equal.
Give it one trial on Tarnished Metals and be Convinced.
It is a vegetable polish and warranted free from Acids, Poisons or Gritty substances, and is superior to anything of the kind heretofore offered to the public for cleaning and polishing Metal Signs, Railings, Show Cases, Harness Mountings, Band Instruments, Brass or Metal Lamps, Faucets, Sash Rods, Locomotive Headlights, Gun Barrels, Brass, Copper, Silverware, Nickel, Tinware, Zinc, Steel, AND ALL METALS.

It is especially adapted to Marine Railroad, Stationary and Fire Engine Works (hot or cold), and being free from acids or grit will not injure journals, bearings, the black lettering on metal signs, harness leather, or scratch the finest polished surface.
The cleanest and best Polish for Ladies to use for Household and Kitchen use. It is put up neatly and conveniently to suit all, in 4, 8 and 16 oz., and five pound boxes, and every box guaranteed perfect.
Prices, 25c, 50c, 75c & $1.
Aside from its unequalled polishing qualities, its strongest claim on the public favor rests in its absolute purity and cleanliness, being a clean, creamy paste, easily and conveniently applied. For Sale only at

STEPPING STONES TO SUCCESS.
Learn your business thoroughly.
Keep at one thing—in nowise change.
Always be in haste, but never in a hurry.
Observe system in all you do and undertake.
Whatever is worth doing at all is worth doing well.
One-to-day is worth two-to-morrows.
Be self-reliant; do not take too much advice, but rather depend on yourself.
Never fail to keep your appointments, nor to be punctual to the minute.
Never be idle, but keep your hands or mind usefully employed except when sleeping.
Use charity with all; be ever generous in thought and deed—help others along life's thorny path.
Make no haste to be rich; remember that small and steady gains give competency and tranquillity of mind.
He that ascends a ladder must take the lowest round. All who are above were once below.

Think all you speak; but speak not all you think;
Thoughts are your own; your words are so no more—
Where Wisdom steers, wind cannot make you sink;
Lips never err when she does keep the door.

A MORAL COWARD.
Yesterday forenoon, at High Bridge, a gentleman, with his wife and little boy, left a table in one of the beer pavilions and started for the door, leaving his cane behind him.
Six waiters seized it and bore it to him in a body.
First (enthusiastically)—You forgot your cane, sir!
Second (triumphantly)—You forgot your cane, sir!
Third (confidentially)—You forgot your cane, sir!
Fourth (artlessly)—You
forgot your cane, sir!
Fifth (hopelessly)—You
forgot your cane, sir!
Sixth (self-assertively)—You forgot your cane, sir!
The unhappy man took the cane regretfully, handed each waiter a quarter, and rejoined his wife timidly.
Wife (threateningly)—How much did you pay them?
Gentleman (despairingly)—Dollar-and-a-half.
Wife (disgustedly)—And the cane cost?
Gentleman (gloomily)—Fifteen cents.—New York Sun.

A SIAMESE BAND.
One of the most curious, if not the most attractive, features of the musical exhibition at South Kensington will be the Siamese bands; and as the instruments upon which these bands will play have just arrived from Siam, their performance may now be daily expected. Few people know exactly what a Siamese band is; and misapprehension appears to prevail pretty generally.
Even the official guide to the exhibition goes astray when it announces performances "by the Court band" of the king of Siam; for that band (which is composed of females) never plays outside the king's palace. The performers, who arrived in England nearly a month ago, but without their instruments, include the three bands called the Mahoree, the Bimbhat, and the Klong-Kak.
The last named is a noisy trio of drummers, who perform after the Malay fashion. The Bimbhat is the orchestral and military band of Siam. It includes fifteen musicians, who play chiefly on wind instruments of cunning make. "Mahoree" means "music," and the band of this name will probably be found the most pleasant to listen to. It is composed of sixteen players on stringed instruments, the names of which we forbear to give. A singer is also included. It is to be hoped that when the Siamese do appear in the exhibition the management will take steps to keep them sufficiently warm, especially if they appear in native costume.—St. James' Gazette.

BOIL THE DRINKING WATER.
Spencer F. Baird, Secretary of the Smithsonian Institution, Washington, has issued the following letter, dated June 15th, 1885:— I wish to call the attention of your readers to the beneficial effect of boiling in increasing the potability of water, a fact which does not appear to be generally appreciated or understood. Had this practice pre-valled at the first outbreak of the typhoid disease at Plymouth, Pa., it is very probable that the number of cases of illness and of deaths might have been very greatly diminished.
In cholera season this treatment is especially important, as water is largely the medium of introduction of the injurious influences into the system.
During the centennial exhibition I was stationed in West Philadelphia, near the Centennial building, for six months, and although cases of diarrhea were prevalent all around me, the use of boiled water appeared to be an absolute preventive. We had several cases of illness of this class before we began to use this very simple precaution, but none afterward. The fishy taste of the Potomac water at the present time, due to the solution in it of decomposed vegetation or of fresh water sponges, can also be in great measure removed by the same process.

I have usually enough water boiled in the morning to last through the day. This is placed in a large water cooler, without ice, and drawn from when required to fill ice pitchers. The water should boil actively for half an hour, in order to kill the germs of disease. Of course, this is only effective in cases of organic impurity, as mineral poisons would not be destroyed thereby.

Kentuckian (rushing into a saloon in great haste)—Here, give me a drink of whiskey. Bartender—I'll have to go down cellar and tap a fresh barrel, colonel; the old one has run out. But it won't take me ten minutes. Kentuckian—All right, go ahead, but be quick about it. I've just heard that my house is on fire, and I've no time to lose.
