

CUTS DOWN ITS LICENSE

Kohala Water Plan Restricted After Discussion.

ONE MORE WEEK TO LOOK FOR FACTS

Prof. Lyons' Protest Causes Exclusion of Puukapu District From Jones' Scheme.

AFTER a long session, during which there was more or less acrimonious debate, the Executive Council passed over the matter of the license for the gathering of the waters of the Kohala mountain, for further discussion next week. The most tangible result of the discussion was the amendment of the application for the license, to exclude the Puukapu sources, which practically confines the application to the districts between the Waipio and Honokaa valleys, and the sea.

The meeting was well attended by those interested in the disposition of the waters of the mountain. Besides the members of the council now in the city, there were in attendance J. Q. W. Jones and his attorneys, Ballou & McClanahan; F. M. Swamy, of T. H. Davies & Co., with E. A. Mott-Smith as counsel; J. B. Atherton, for Castle & Cooke; Attorney Holmes and F. S. Dodge, for the Bishop Estate and Bishop Museum; F. M. Hatch, for Samuel Parker; Frank and Palmer Woods, for the Woods estate; J. S. Low, for Hind, Rolph & Co., and Hawaii mill, and Prof. Curtis J. Lyons, of the survey department, who was present on account of his technical knowledge of the entire district in question.

When the meeting opened Governor Dole explained that he was interested only in the conservation of the waters, and said that he was very much concerned in the matter, as he was thoroughly in favor of the collection of the water and its being taken upon the lands where it was needed. He said he was giving the problem all his attention.

Owing to the absence of information on the part of the Kohala people, there were only general objections made from the northern end of Hawaii, though all those present said that they were anxious to learn all about the plans of the promoters. Colonel Jones was asked specifically who was behind him in the enterprise, and responded that there was sufficient money to guarantee the rapid completion of the project, but did not give any names. At another time he stated that his company had already expended some $7,000 in the survey of the mountain and the districts about it.

When Colonel Jones was discussing the water situation in Puukapu the Governor called upon Professor Lyons to state his reasons for holding that the water of the district should be conserved for the development of the territory about Waimea. Professor Lyons gave the history of the water courses in the district about the village, and showed on the map the streams which carried the waters which were collected in the swamps of the mountain.

He showed that there could be no water taken from that district which would not endanger the future of the lands about the lower levels, and incidentally told of the previous surveys, those of Lydgate and that which was made at the instance of Claus Spreckels.

Governor Dole asked Mr. Holmes if the Bishop Estate was not now engaged in ascertaining the flow of water in the Waipio Valley for the purpose of attempting to provide water for the Hamakua country from that source. It was developed that the engineers of the estate were now making such surveys, with that object in view.

The discussion then turned upon the waters of the table lands on the sea side of the Waipio Valley, especially the Mulua district, which were stated to be ample for the supply of the Hamakua district. Colonel Jones said that there was a plan of which his company had knowledge, and had investigated, by which the water could be taken across the valley, other than by the use of an inverted syphon, and which would be very much less costly, and certain of success.

There developed some opposition to the plan of taking the water from the Puukapu district from the people of the Hamakua side of the Waipio Valley, as they have a stream which has its source in the same general district. There was some talk also that the Bishop Estate, which owns the valley, has some rights to water from the district which now finds its way into their streams. Both F. M. Swamy and J. B. Atherton thought that there should be some definite information as to the men who have the money to put into the plan, so as to assure the people of its ultimate success.

seemed to be greater satisfaction on the part of those present, although there was the same desire to have information as to the men in the company. It was decided that an amended copy of the license should be given to the men interested so that it might be submitted to the residents and business men of the Kohala district by today's mail, and the meeting of next Monday was planned to give time for the reception of reports from Hawaii, on which action might be based.

During the entire meeting there was not manifested any objection to a development of the water sources of the district, but the men who were asking for information seemed intent upon the conservation of the sources of supply for the upper plateaus. They were, they said, only anxious that the development be made, and no license granted which was not one which was certain to be utilized directly for the development of the water, and not as an asset to persuade capital to take up the plan.

Social at Y. M. C. A.

On next Saturday evening the social committee of the Young Men's Christian Association will entertain all persons who have joined the educational classes. The members of the classes will have an opportunity of meeting their teachers and spending a pleasant social evening.

Rev. J. Waiamau Dead.

The chaplain of every Legislature in the Islands from 1880 until the last one, the Rev. J. Waiamau, died in this city yesterday morning. He was educated as a preacher by Professor Alexander's father, and was pastor for several churches, the last being Kaunakapili. He had been suffering from paralysis for some time, and on Saturday a fall injured him. Mr. Waiamau suffered quite severely before he died. The deceased leaves two sons and four grandchildren. The funeral was held at 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon, and the body was interred in the Kaunakapili cemetery.

ICE CHEST AND OIL STOVE AGAIN

Murphy Club Men Need Them for the Coming Ball.

Murphy Club No. 1 is after the ice-chest and stove which were removed from the Murphy Hall during the Austin regime by Mr. Bradley, the former secretary. The directors of the club decided last night that they needed those two household appurtenances in their business, and that they would be indispensable at the ball which the club gives tomorrow evening. The ice chest is needed for the storage of soda water and ginger ale and several pounds of ice. The stove is necessary as an adjunct in the preparation of coffee, which will be served during the evening. A committee was appointed at last night's meeting to wait upon Mr. Bancroft, also an ex-official of the Austin regime, to obtain an order upon Mr. Bradley for the return of the two pieces of kitchen furniture. It is understood that Mr. Bradley will deliver up the articles and the incident will probably then close.

Tomorrow evening's ball was the principal topic of discussion at the club, and ample preparations were made to assure a social success. The room was to be tastefully decorated with flags of many nations, while potted plants will be banked in corners. The dressing rooms will be screened off from the main hall and lanais fitted up. Much interest has been taken in the ball, and those in charge are enthusiastic over the affair. Rosen's orchestra has been engaged to supply the music. The tickets, which are selling for fifty cents apiece, are for sale by the members. The floor is covered with wax at present, and will be in fine condition for the ball.

The following letter was received from H. P. Baldwin, which explains itself:

"Spreckelsville, September 20, 1901.
"Chairman Select Committee, Murphy Club No. 1.

"Your favor of the 15th instant duly at hand, in which you say that the Francis Murphy Club No. 1 has elected me Honorary First Vice President of the same. Many thanks for the honor conferred upon me."

The question of electing a president pro tem. to serve until the return of Francis Murphy was voted down, leaving Major Wilson at the head of affairs as vice president, he to serve as such until the return of the leader.

The members then adjourned in a body to the Christian Church, to pay their respects to Rev. A. E. Cory, who was tendered a farewell reception by the Young People's Society.

MINISTERIAL UNION MEETS.

Paper on Pacific Coast Read by Rev. W. D. Westervelt.

The Ministerial Union met yesterday forenoon at Central Union Church, the first meeting held since the summer vacations. Rev. J. P. Erdmann, the new president, addressed the union on the work to be done during the coming year. Rev. W. D. Westervelt, who recently returned from a vacation tour in British Columbia, read a paper on the Pacific coast line, showing how small a part England holds in the development of the Pacific northwest.

MORE OF A. S. HUMPHREYS' PETTIFOGGING ANSWER

The Branded Judge Explains to the Department of Justice How He Enforced His Whims.

PRESERVING the dignity of a court is the theme treated in the extract from the answer of Judge Humphreys in the Bar Association suit which follows. In the course of his reply to the specifications he deals with his personal application of the manner of the attorney addressing the court. His interpretations of the "warlike" utterances of the Attorney General are set forth at length and the inside light upon his reasons for contempt sentences is full of interest. The reply continues:

WHAT BITTING DID.

Asking you to bear the above considerations in mind, I beg to submit the following regarding the cases of contempt referred to in the charges against me.

(1) C. C. Bitting, in sentencing him, said C. C. Bitting, to ten days' imprisonment, for contempt.

On the 13th day of February, 1901, I had the grand jury then in session brought before me and charged them to investigate certain irregularities alleged to exist in the police court of Honolulu, and more particularly to investigate the alleged embezzlement of moneys belonging to litigants in that court by one Zablan, Clerk of said court.

After I had concluded delivering this charge, Mr. Bitting arose and said: "May I ask your Honor whether the stenographer made a record of your Honor's charge to the jury?" To which I replied that I did not know. Thereupon Mr. Bitting stated that he desired to take some exceptions to the charge "in order to challenge the array of the jury that would probably try the case," remarking that the charge was "very peculiar and unusual." I called him to the bar and asked him to explain what he meant by the expression "peculiar and unusual" as applied to the court, to which he replied that he desired to protect the rights of his client. I was then and I am now satisfied that he meant a great deal more than that, and that the language was intended to be insulting to the court, and I ordered him committed to jail for the period of ten days.

It will be observed that the grand jury was charged to investigate the accounts of one Zablan, a clerk of the police court. Zablan had not been arrested, no indictment had been returned against him, there was no issue before the Circuit Court, and Mr. Bitting's interruption of the proceedings of the court at that time was wholly irregular, his manner was offensive and his language sneering. He was in a state of gross intoxication. If I made any mistake in this matter at all it was in not having the record show Mr. Bitting's condition, for I was influenced by such fact in imposing sentence upon him to a greater extent than I was by his language or attitude.

The very same day Zablan, the clerk referred to, came to me and informed me that Mr. Bitting did not represent him, that he did not know that his office and acts were to be investigated by the grand jury, and that Mr. Bitting's purported representation of him was a piece of officious interference, which he repudiated. As corroborative of my statement that Mr. Bitting was grossly intoxicated at the time this sentence was imposed, I desire to say that Mr. Bitting sued out a writ of habeas corpus before Judge Estee for his release; that Judge Estee stated to me that the warden of the prison informed him that Mr. Bitting was on the verge of delirium tremens when he was taken from jail.

BERGSTROM'S FORGETFULNESS.

(2) J. W. Bergstrom, a juror, in fining said juror $100 for being late in attendance upon the court.

It appears from the record that the following proceedings were had:

"The Court: Is Mr. Bergstrom in court?"

"Q. Why didn't you appear this morning, Mr. Bergstrom?"

"A. Well, I have not any excuse to offer. The time passed more quickly than I noticed and I did not think of it until eleven o'clock."

"The Court: Now, the court has no desire to pursue any course toward any juror which may be regarded as arbitrary, but we are confronted with a condition here that the court in the exercise of its duty is called upon to meet. We have on our calendar some three hundred cases, the term of court is limited to four weeks and there is but one Judge. People who have liberty at stake, who have life at stake, who have property at stake, who have money at stake, are entitled to have their matters heard and disposed of by this court. At best it would be absolutely impossible to dispose of twenty-five per cent. of the business before the court if not a second's time were lost. It is a duty that the juror owes the community, aside from any obligation that he is under to the court, because no citizen is under any obligation to this court, but it is a duty which the juror owes himself, and it is a duty which he owes the community to respond promptly to any call which may be made upon him. The court, of course, realizes that the compensation which is paid a juror is totally inadequate. Many men are capable of earning much more than they are paid for their services as jurors; it is simply a tax which under a democratic or republican form of government is imposed upon intelligent and honorable citizens. No man knows when his life or liberty or his property may be in jeopardy, and if he does not respond to the demands which society makes upon him, he cannot expect others to respond to that demand."

"Now it seems to me that a man of your intelligence, and who with that intelligence ought to be inspired with a high sense of civic duty, ought to be held to a strict account for a delinquency of this sort, and particularly where the case is only that of a lapse of memory."

"The sentence of the court will be that you pay a fine of one hundred dollars and costs of this attachment, and that you stand committed to jail until the fine and costs are paid. You may take your seat."

In addition to what is disclosed in this record I have only to say that Mr. Bergstrom is a well-to-do, prosperous merchant in the city of Honolulu, and that I did not then, nor do I now, regard the punishment imposed upon him as excessive. Experience had taught me that fines of $25 and $50 were insufficient to secure a prompt attendance of well-to-do jurors.

MGURN WAS LECTURING.

(3) Albert McGurn, a Bailiff of the court, in rebuking and criticizing said officer before the court for alleged dereliction of duty and in fining said officer for contempt of court.

The matter took place during the month of August, 1900. Since that time very many other matters, many of which were of great importance, have engrossed my attention, and it is impossible for me, at this time, to recall with absolute precision all of the facts and attending circumstances of the case, but, assisting my memory by the incomplete record which has been filed with the Department, I make the following statement:

It became necessary for me to reprove

George Crozier of the yacht Myrtle said last night that he did not use his rudder until he had worked clear of the other boats. He said that in New Zealand the practice is a common one, and is not taken cognizance of by the judges. Mr. Crozier wants to know how he could have kept his boat straight in the calm had he not worked the rudder.

The Myrtle is a boat which, on account of her lightness, can readily be propelled by such means. She has practically no overhang and the rudder is hung on the narrow, which gives her a decided advantage over the other third-class boats at the paddling game.

It was rumored last night that a petition was being circulated among the yachtsmen to bar the Myrtle from ever again competing in local races.

N. A. Chapman of the Pirate, on being asked if he had heard anything about it, said that he had not, and would not sign it if it were presented to him.

The matter will undoubtedly come up at the meeting of the yachtsmen, to be held tonight, and some interesting developments may be looked for. If rudder-working in a race is permissible, there is no reason why a boat should not be fitted with a specially designed rudder.

There is talk of another third-class yacht race in the near future, it being universally recognized that Saturday's race was the worst kind of a fake. The proposition is to sail a series of races for a trophy, which will go to the boat obtaining the greatest number points. The yachts competing will probably be the Shamrock III, Pirate, Hihimani, Skip, Oio and Vi-Ke.

In Saturday's race the Hihimani and the Pirate lost their steering gear and met with other accidents which necessitated their dropping out of the race. The Hihimani and Dewey made port some time before midnight. The wind went back on them and they had to take a tow.

Judge Wilcox states that the Hawaii was not entered by him or anyone authorized by him, in Saturday's race for second-class yachts.

In past regattas there has been a five-hour time limit imposed in the race for first-class yachts. This year the matter was entirely overlooked.

A meeting of planters was held at the coffee plantation of the Louissou Brothers, in Hamakua. Those present were the Louissou Brothers, David Forbes, J. A. Watt, James Gibb, A. Lydgate, A. Horner and W. C. Walker. It was decided to send men from all the plantations to fight the forest fires. Albert Horner and W. G. Walker will direct the operations.

Mr. McGurn, who was my bailiff, for the manner in which he had executed an order given him by me. In the course of my observations I said that the bailiff should not have "sneaked out" to notify counsel whom he had failed to notify at the proper time. The word "sneak" is not an elegant expression and, under all the facts and circumstances of the case, it may have been unjust as applied to Mr. McGurn.

Later, Mr. McGurn asked to be allowed to make a personal statement, during the course of which he said: "I want to say I have done my duty in this case, and that the court should not call me a sneak. I am no sneak." Seeing at this time that McGurn was thoroughly aroused and that his manner was rude and threatening, and desiring to prevent a scene, I ordered him to desist, but he continued speaking and wildly gesticulating, saying: "I do not like to be called a sneak. I don't care if I have to go to jail for it. I think my standing in this court and this town is such that they would not call me a sneak." Thereupon I said: "For that last remark, Mr. McGurn, the court sentences you to pay a fine of $15 for contempt of court." In passing sentence upon Mr. McGurn I stated that I could bear testimony to his general reputation for honesty and probity, and proceeding, observed:

"The court saw proper to and did criticize certain acts of McGurn as bailiff of this court, certain statements of his to this court having been contrary to certain other statements made on another time and inconsistent with the sworn statement made by a member of the bar. After the court concluded its remarks, Mr. McGurn asked the privilege of making a statement in his own behalf. That privilege was accorded him. In making that statement he did not confine himself to giving a statement of the matter but proceeded to lecture this court upon the judgment it had pronounced, and after being warned and directed by the court to desist he persisted therein. Not only were his words contemptuous but his manner was such, and the judgment of the court will stand, and he will be committed until the fine is paid. If at any time the court deems it its duty to criticize a bailiff or any other administrative officer of this court, it will do so, and if in doing so it is to be lectured by the officers so criticized, then the court might as well adjourn sine die, and that the court does not propose to do."

MYRTLE MAY NOT COMPETE AGAIN

Her Rudder Working Propensities the Topic of Conversation Yesterday.

The main topic of conversation among yachtsmen yesterday was the alleged using of the rudder as a means of propulsion by the crew of the third class yacht Myrtle in the race last Saturday. Opinions on the matter were very plentiful, but the consensus of opinion was that the conduct of the Myrtle captain in allowing such action was unsportsmanlike in the extreme.

The joint protest of the Oio and Shamrock III was disallowed by two of the judges on the ground that there is no rule for disqualifying a boat for using its rudder as a means of propulsion in a race. The third judge was totally ignored in the matter.

As a matter of fact, there is a clause in the rules of nearly every prominent yacht club prohibiting the use of anything other than the sail as a means of propulsion. Rule 28 of the Corinthian Yacht Club of San Francisco is explicit on this point. The races on Saturday, however, seem to have been sailed under no code of rules whatever.

George Crozier of the yacht Myrtle said last night that he did not use his rudder until he had worked clear of the other boats. He said that in New Zealand the practice is a common one, and is not taken cognizance of by the judges. Mr. Crozier wants to know how he could have kept his boat straight in the calm had he not worked the rudder.

NO NEED OF PUBLIC AID

Hamakua Forest Fires Under Control.

GOVERNOR DOLE HEARS FROM BOYD

Later Reports by Mail and Telegraph That Government Aid Is Not Necessary.

Honokaa, September 23, 1901.
To Honorable S. B. Dole:
Just returned; forest fires still burning, but under control; government assistance is not necessary. Report later. No rain. BOYD.

The above wireless telegram was received yesterday afternoon by Governor Dole, supplementing an exhaustive report upon the forest fires received by mail from James H. Boyd, Superintendent of Public Works.

The news is a source of much gratification from the fact that the long-looked-for relief is in sight, and that the destructive fires are so well under control as not to require government aid, which Superintendent Boyd was fully empowered and prepared to extend. The next mail report from Mr. Boyd will very likely give full particulars of the fight which ended in the control of the fires.

Copies of the mail reports made by Superintendent Boyd under date of September 18th, received by Governor Dole yesterday, are given below:

Waimea, Hawaii, Sept. 18, 1901.

Sir—I desire to make a hasty report to the effect that we arrived at Kawaihae at early dawn this morning; excellent trip up. We leave immediately from Waimea, where we now are, for Hanalei first in this district, to investigate the present condition there, and later we will proceed to Hamakua. Weather shows indications of rain; fires yet in progress. Have arranged to meet Messrs. Albert Horner and Carter at locations. Very respectfully, JAS. W. BOYD, Superintendent Public Works.

The following letter was also received yesterday:

Sir—My previous communication to you was written on the morning of the 18th, just after arrival at Kawaihae, and indicating intention to proceed at once to source of Waimea district fires.

I now, sir, present this following additional report of events since dispatch of former note:

We left Akona's place, Waimea, at 11 o'clock on the 18th instant, to proceed to Hanalei and view the state of fire affairs there existing. Journey was rapidly made, and the rain indications crossing Waimea plains became tangible, fast successive heavy showers wetting us to the skin. Entering the region of fire we found that there was fire still existing, but the volume of smoke within the valleys had almost obliterated the trail from view, en route, and prevented a full knowledge of the existent condition other than the hearsay belief that there was but little more danger to be feared from the fire in this location. Completing a twenty-five mile ride to Mr. Albert Horner's place, I met him and Mr. F. W. Carter, and without rest we went forward direct to the scene of the Hamakua district fire. Mr. Horner guiding. A continued ride of some ten miles brought us to the edge of the 2,500 acres belonging to Mr. Horner, and a further fearful and dangerous journey along seven miles of fence enclosing a portion of the burned district, gave opportunity to see the complete destruction of the former existing tropical forests, and the great injury to the soil by the depth (over six feet) to which the fire had penetrated. Words cannot describe the condition of the district burned. Night coming on we were compelled to defer further inspection until today, for the consideration of the present status and the means to be used to stop further spread.

We returned to Mr. Horner's house at 11 p. m., and enjoyed his hospitality, tired and weary, after being nearly twelve hours continuously in the saddle, and having traveled over fifty miles in and about the burned districts of Waimea and Hamakua.

Mr. Horner has been indefatigable, and deserves great credit for his personal exertions, together with Mr. Carter, for the fire fighting done by them. It is too early to give any definite statement of the condition of things, and how to meet them, further than to say the fire is still smoldering, no rain and fresh winds. Will write at next opportunity. We leave in thirty minutes for Kaala, back of Ooaka. Respectfully yours, JAS. H. BOYD.

The first meeting this year of the Hilo Teachers Reading Club was held last Tuesday night in Hilo. Current news was read by Mr. T. C. Ridgeway, whereupon the main feature of the evening, a study of Egypt, was treated by several members.

MORTGAGEE'S NOTICE OF INTENTION OF FORECLOSURE AND OF SALE.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN THAT pursuant to the power of sale contained in that certain mortgage dated March 1, 1899, made by Catarina A. Wright, wife of B. Haywood Wright, of Honolulu, Island of Oahu, Territory of Hawaii, as mortgagor, and Emily C. Judd, of said Honolulu, as mortgagee, and recorded in the Registry of Conveyances in Honolulu, in liber 182, on pages 443 to 447, the mortgagee intends to foreclose the said mortgage for condition broken, to wit, the non-payment of principal and interest when due.

Notice is likewise given that the property conveyed by the said mortgage will be sold at public auction at the auction rooms of James F. Morgan, Queen street, Honolulu, on Wednesday, the 9th day of October, 1901, at 12 o'clock noon.

The property covered by said mortgage consists of:

First—All that certain parcel of land situate at Pawa, Honolulu, Island of Oahu, Hawaiian Islands, being a portion of the premises described in L. C. A. No. 523, Royal Patent No. 4425, bounded and described as follows, to wit:

Commencing at the west corner of this lot on the upper line of King street, at a point 290 feet from the south corner of the Brickwood lot, and running:
1. North 20° 42' east, true, 255.7 feet along lot 4 to line of Young street;
2. South 82° 45' east, true, 70 feet along line of Young street;
3. South 20° 42' west, true, 255.2 feet along lot 6 to King street;
4. North 69° 15' west, true, 70 feet along King street to the initial point, and containing an area of 18,581 square feet.

Together with the right and privilege to take water from the pipe or main running through said premises from an artesian well situate and being on lot 7, by connecting said pipe or main with a three-quarter inch pipe, said water to be used on said premises and none other.

Said above described premises and water privilege having been conveyed to the said mortgagor by deed of A. W. Carter, dated January 12, 1898, and recorded in the office of the Registrar of Conveyances in Honolulu, in liber 177, page 27.

Second—All of the mortgagor's undivided one-fifth interest or share in and to the estate of her father, Charles A. Long, deceased, and which estate of said Charles A. Long, deceased, comprises the following described lands, to wit:

THE STREET NUMBERING

Office Work Will Be Given Over to Statistics.

When the office and street work in connection with the numbering of the streets of Honolulu is completed, the system will be one of which the city will be proud. Under the direction of R. E. Murphy, of the Public Works Department, who is in charge of the bureau of street numbering, the work is progressing and in eight months' time he will have completed a work which will not only have provided every street and alleyway of the city with accurately gauged measurements for numbers, but will provide the Public Works Department with a complete compendium of every inch of property owned, name of owner, frontage, depth, number of buildings on each piece of property, and in future years, when a number is needed to be placed on a new building, the records will show that a number has been reserved for that special piece of land.

The compilation of the new directory for 1902 will be a vast improvement over all past ones. The 1902 directory will contain the accurate information as to where each person can be found, and with the number of his residence known, the section of the city can easily be thought out. For instance, the new directory containing the name of "John Smith, 62 Beretania street," will indicate positively that he lives between Punchbowl and Alapai streets, and on the lower side of the street. The value of the city directory for the coming year will be trebled with these additions.

Mr. Murphy is at present at work on fourteen maps, four by six feet each, covering every section of the city, and upon these the measurements for the street numbering are being made. The numbering of the streets is still being done by Stanley Stephenson, who was doing the work before the legislature convened. At that time the work was going on without compulsion; but only as a matter of convenience, and in anticipation of the establishment of the free delivery system of the postal department. Under the session laws passed by the recent legislature it is now compulsory for everyone to have a street number put upon his residence or place of business, in lieu of which the department will serve such persons with a legal notice. Thus far no action of this nature has been taken. Mr. Murphy states that quite to the contrary, tenants evince a desire to have their places numbered, and many applications are now being filed for the proper numbers.

JEWISH PEOPLE WANT CEMETERY

As a result of yesterday's observance of Yom Kippur by the Jewish citizens of Honolulu, a meeting of all those interested will be held next Sunday afternoon at Progress Hall for the purpose of organization, and to take steps looking to the purchase of a ground for a burial place.

The atonement day services yesterday at Progress Hall were conducted by Rabbi Meyer, and were of unusual solemnity and impressiveness.

Mr. E. Matthews also delivered a brief address, which took the form of an appeal to the Jewish residents of Honolulu for a more devout observance of their religion. He said it was not at all complimentary to the 120 Jewish people of the city to have no church or consecrated burying-ground, and urged immediate action toward that end.

As a result of his earnest talk it was decided to hold a meeting at Progress Hall Sunday afternoon, to which every Jewish citizen, both old and young, is heartily urged to be present. At this meeting preliminary steps will be taken toward the organization of a church, and the acquisition of a burial ground.

FAREWELL TO REV. A. E. CORY

Young People's Union Says Goodbye.

Rev. Abram E. Cory, the retiring pastor of the Christian Church, and his wife, were tendered a farewell reception last night in the church, by members of the Young People's Society. The church was crowded with the admirers of the young preacher who, on Friday of this week, departs on his mission to China, having spent more than two years in active missionary and church work in Honolulu. The large gathering last night listened attentively to the address made by Mr. Cory, which teemed with love for those with whom he has been associated here in his work to spread the gospel. In the audience were Hawaiians, Japanese, Portuguese, Chinese, all of whom showed the keenest interest in the leaving of Mr. Cory.

The platform was decorated with greens and potted plants, the chair space being banked with plants, which lent the interior a pretty and artistic effect. Rev. F. W. Damon opened the meeting with prayer, making an appeal for the welfare of his brother in Christ who was about to enter a new field for the continuation of his labors.

The young preacher's address was replete with expressions of regret at his leaving a field where he had made so many friends, but he felt that wherever God's work needed a laborer it should be a source of joy to him to go there.

"I want to thank you all," said Mr. Cory, fervently, "over and over again. I can do no better than to thank you for all the fellowship and friendship, and for all the close associations we have had together in the past months. I did not appreciate how much I had promised when I told your chairman I would address you this evening. He said you were going to have a meeting and he wanted me to say a few words. This gathering, this tribute, did not occur to me for an instant. When I was told what that gathering was for I was taken aback. I assure you tonight, young men and young women, and the older ones as well, that time can never erase from my memory the importance of this gathering, and of this tribute. I have no desire tonight to talk of myself or of anything I am doing. I feel that it is not as hard for me, or for my wife, to go to China as it is perhaps for some of you to say a word for Christ in your own home, or in this, your own city. It is simply the place where God has put us, and the place where God puts us is not a hard place. I regret that I can only express my feelings in the English language. I assure you that I wish I could convey them in the Hawaiian, in the Portuguese, in the Japanese, and in the Chinese languages. If they cannot understand me I trust they can understand the feeling of joy that is in my heart for knowing all these peoples."

Mr. Cory chose his text from the Philippians wherein Christ emptied himself of race prejudice, of self and of narrow mindedness. "In his heart there can be no hatred of race, for white or black, I say to the Hawaiians tonight, in your heart you must love the haele, and in your hearts the white peoples must love the Hawaiians, and the Japanese and the Chinese. All the races of the East must love the peoples of the Occident, because the Christ himself emptied himself of all race prejudice."

"It is not hard for me to go to China. It is the place where God wants us. I thank you again out of the depth of my heart. I know I am expressing the sentiment of myself and of my wife when I say that we appreciate this honor and this gathering, and as we go out and away from you we only ask that you pray for us. From all of you, Hawaiians, Chinese, Japanese and Chinese, we ask of you this one favor, that you pray for us. The eloquent prayer of Mr. Damon will linger long with us. The prayers that the Young People's Society is offering for us tonight will strengthen us."

The Chautauqua salute with handkerchiefs was given in honor of Mr. Cory when he finished his address. At the conclusion of the meeting Mr. and Mrs. Cory received the people present, grasping each one by the hand.

On Thursday evening a reception by the church members will be tendered Mr. Cory at the church.

RED MEN WILL DANCE.

Will Gather at the Drill Shed Wigwag on Thursday Night.

On Thursday evening the local tribe of Red Men will don their war-dance paint and feathers and seek the trail which leads to the drill shed wigwag of the pale faces. Their tepees will have been raised on the smooth floor of the great wigwag, and the braves and the squaws will follow their sachems and make ready for the big festival. The tomtoms will be there, and to their beating the children of the forest will dance about the council fire until most the hour when rosy morn breaks in upon the festivities. The runners of the tribe have been sent out bearing the word of welcome to the pale faces who are their friends. Upon this great occasion tomahawks and blankets will not be worn.

The following tribesmen have been appointed by the great sachem to arrange for the dance: J. W. Short, J. F. Eckardt, D. W. McNichol, F. C. Betters and W. F. Drake.

J. E. Goetts, the up-to-date grocer, has something to say in another column about new goods received.

I have devoted my life to the development of manly and womanly vigor. I've made a great success. My methods are approved by the greatest doctors and copied.

I've proven that electricity is the basis of all animal life, and that "weak men," dyspeptics, rheumatics, sufferers from lost energy, weak kidneys, pains in the back, head, chest and shoulders, are weak in electricity.

Describe your case to me, and if I say I can cure you I will guarantee to do so.

Drugs won't restore your strength. They only stimulate. If you have to take a stimulant, take whisky. Taken in moderation it does less harm than the others.

TUESDAY SEPTEMBER 24.

President McKinley's address at Buffalo, which we make room for in full, is worthy of the careful study which all citizens, wishing to keep in touch with the executive policies, will not fail to give it.

Scarcely do Wilder's sailors and "Red" McCarthy's Kakaako tribe get through fighting when the judiciary at the other end of the town goes at it hammer and tons. It is about time the rest of the people organized a posse comitatus to keep the peace or a Red Cross corps to carry away the wounded.

The Francis Murphy Club shows an encouraging desire to help itself. There is no more "grafting" and juggling nor any attempt to get money for private luxuries from people who give it for public good. The proposition is now one of fair play to all concerned and should gain for the organization a new lease of life.

THE SEA SERPENT.

It is the fashion to deride the sea serpent, but if there had been half as much contemporaneous evidence of Jonah's "great fish" as there is of a gigantic snake of the ocean, the higher critics would be slow to attack the Scriptural story.

No one would doubt the evidence of the commander of Sir Robert Hart's customs launch Lungtsing, supported as it is by that of his second officer, first engineer, first and second pilots and fourteen seamen, upon any other marine phenomenon than the sea serpent. But in this respect the people on the launch are put in much the same position as those aboard H. M. S. Daedalus, (Capt. McQuhae,) years ago, who saw and reported in their ship's log and individually, a reptilian monster of the same general characteristics of the one seen by the officers and crew of the Lungtsing. The public scoffed at the Daedalus story, making the usual talk about brand and vintage; yet the officers of Her Majesty's ship officially insisted that their log was correct and showed drawings of the serpent made by those who saw it. The reptile, it should be added, was seen in the Mediterranean.

The first view of the sea serpent on the American coast occurred in 1861 when reputable people, living on the shores of Penobscot bay, reported its presence in those waters. Says a history of the first century of the United States: "On the appearance of the serpent in Penobscot bay it was seen, among others, by a respectable and highly intelligent clergyman of the neighborhood, who, by request, prepared a particular description of the animal's appearance and movements. Several persons were with him at the time and had a full view of the monster for some minutes. They saw him at rest on the water and also saw him dart out to sea with great velocity." Other witnesses were Captains Little, Kent and Crabtree, all of them responsible and matter-of-fact citizens and sea-farers. A shipmaster reported the serpent during the same year off Plymouth, Mass., and it was again seen off Gloucester and Newburyport. About this time a small snake-shaped reptile was caught and sent to Boston for study. No such object had ever been seen before by modern scientists. In many important respects it looked like the great sea serpent, and judging from its age and structure the Boston ichthyologists declared that its female progenitor must have been over one hundred feet in length.

While the British scientist, Sir Charles Lyell, was in America he got the testimony of two Boston merchants, Messrs. Perkins and Cabot, and of about thirty others, who had seen the serpent close to shore. From time to time the monster was reported in the Gulf Stream and as far south as Cape Hatteras. United States Marshal Price and Mrs. Price also saw and the former described it in a letter to Judge Davis of Massachusetts. Testimony under the same head was given by five British navy officers on yachting from Halifax. In 1859 a snake sixteen feet long and resembling in color and other physical peculiarities the monster seen near Halifax and the New England coast was cast ashore on Bermuda.

Norway has seen a good deal of the marine reptile and so has the Mediterranean littoral. In fact few countries bordering the sea are without stories of traditions of a serpent, from fifty to one hundred feet long, with protuberances along the body and a gigantic head which, when the creature swims the surface, is held high above the water. All descriptions tally, that of the monster seen in Chinese waters last month being of a type made familiar by a score of previous descriptions in almost as many languages.

The fact that science knows nothing of the mighty snake, save by deduction from small specimens of what may be their progeny, counts for little. Last summer over thirty fish new to science were found in the waters of Hawaii. Having been so long in finding the denizens of the shallows and of the commercial fisheries, scientists have an excellent excuse for ignorance about the rare monsters of the vasty deep.

TOO MUCH SECRECY.

At a meeting of Territorial officials yesterday with gentlemen who wanted to monopolize a vast area of watershed the reporters were excluded. The policy was not without precedent in Hawaii; indeed it has always been the custom here to do public business in a private way; but we submit that in a matter where the rights and the property of the people are concerned the less official secrecy the better.

It does not suffice to give the press a colorless account, officially censored. That, too often, becomes what Carlyle called history—"A bundle of lies agreed upon."

The people's business for the people! Publicity for every public matter! The nearer the Territorial administration gets to this policy the better for its reputation and the better for good government.

KOHALA WATER PLANS.

Interest in the development of the water supply of the Kohala district grows with the probing into the license which is now before the Governor for confirmation. There could be no subject which is so vital to the people of Hawaii as water, and now that there seems to be a prospect that capital will be enlisted in the enterprise, very properly the entire subject is being threshed out.

The problem is one which calls for mature deliberation, as there are many questions which must be considered. Should the water be taken from the Puukapu district, as Prof. Lyons very properly observes, it would be at the expense of the people of the Waimea district in the end. It is not only that there is water needed in Hamakua, but there should be such care taken in the granting of licenses that this water may be taken from a district which does not now use it, and where it will probably never be utilized, and not from a district where it is of service and where in the future it will be the means of making much territory now comparatively valueless highly productive.

The future of the Hamakua and Kohala districts will be big with promise if water is brought from the Muliwai or Awini lands upon the fertile plains of those districts. The water is now going to waste and there is a mission for every drop of it. While the expense of handling it will be immense, yet the returns will be commensurate. The water is there, the users want it, and all they ask is that there shall be no robbing of some other district for their service, and that the licensees shall show themselves ready and capable of making the improvement, and within a reasonable time.

What is before the Waimea district it would be idle to guess. At one time, more than a half century ago there was cane grown there, now there is sufficient varied agriculture to show that there will be farms and a prosperous community, when the taking up of land receives the impetus which must come. It would be criminal to rob this district of water to supply another. More so when there are other sources of supply to be touched by the application of capital and enterprise.

While "vindictiveness" is in the air, what a pity it is that Julian Hayne cannot get out of jail long enough to claim his.

His Lordship Bishop Willis, can hardly feel at home in an American convention but he will be no more out of touch with it than the majority of Episcopalians here are with his church.

TO MEMORIZE.

Three little words we often see—An article, a, an, and the.

A noun's the name of anything. As school or gander, hoop or swing.

Adjectives tell the kind of noun. As, great, small, pretty, white or brown.

Instead of nouns the pronouns stand—John's head, his face, my arm, your hand.

Verbs tell of something being done—To read, write, count, sing, jump or run.

How things are done the adverbs tell. As slowly, quickly, ill, or well.

A preposition stands before A noun, as, in or through a door.

Conjunctions join the nouns together. As, men and children, wind or weather.

The interjection shows surprise. As, oh, how pretty! Ah, how wise! J. Neale.

FILLETED FALSEHOOD.

A Small Onion of Inaccuracy in the Vealy Bulletin's Daily Pot Pourri.

The Vealy Bulletin in its own sweet unreliable inimitable way stated yesterday that the disputed barge race between the Healanis and Myrtle crews would be rowed on Saturday. The paragraph read:

"It seems to be the opinion of those most interested that there will be no hesitancy on the part of the boat clubs about rowing the race over again on Saturday. It is not desired by either club that the race shall go for nothing. The Healanis think they can beat the Myrtles and vice versa."

The announcement was made long before the Bulletin went to press that Captain Harris had definitely decided not to row another race, feeling that the judges should have rendered a decision one way or other on Saturday's race. A trifling inaccuracy like this however is but a small onion in the afternoon tissue's highly reasoned pot pourri of errors.

The Horners have driven 400 head of horses to Waimea to get water for them. They would like to send more, but the water supply in Waimea will not be sufficient for a larger number.

HERPICIDE
HAIR LIKE THIS

is easily obtainable through the use of Newbro's Herpicide, the only preparation on the market that reaches and annihilates the germ or microbe that is responsible for all scalp diseases. It thus makes dandruff and falling hair impossible, and causes a thick, luxuriant growth to replace the former thin, brittle hair. The gentlemen will also find it an inestimable boon to them, as it works like a charm on bald heads, bringing forth a growth of soft, thick hair that anyone might be proud of. Even druggists proclaim its virtues, as per the following:

Office of W. H. MURPHY, Druggist, Prescriptions Dispensed, 12-14, 79, Market Street, Honolulu.

Dear Sirs: Herpicide is certainly a good article, and will do the work an advertiser says it will. I guarantee every bottle, and none has been returned. Please send me another dozen, and oblige, Yours respectfully, W. H. MURPHY.

HERE'S A NICE STATE OF THINGS

Two Judges in Saturday's Barge Race Myrtle Men—There Will Be No Rerow.

The disputed race for the barge championship will not be rowed and the trophy will go to the Healanis by default. This was decided yesterday by Captain Harris of the Myrtles, who takes the stand that it is simply a question of right or wrong. He holds that there is no question of a re-row at all, but that the judges' duty to have rendered a definite decision. He says that if he was right the race should go to his crew and if wrong, that the victory belongs to the Healanis. The proposition to row the race again, he absolutely refuses to entertain.

The Healanis, on the other hand, will have their crew fit and ready to row next Saturday.

Despite opinions to the contrary, the judges will have no option but to award the race to the Healanis by default, provided, of course, that they row over the course.

The Healanis, while indisputably entitled to the trophy, will probably not take it, as Captain Atkinson says that his club has no use for trophies which are not won in a fair and square battle.

It is sad, but true, that two of the three judges of the race on Saturday were members of the Myrtle club. It seems incredible that such a faux pas should have been made by the Regatta Committee.

FAST SPRINTERS GOING TO RACE

Virgie A. and Molly Connors Are Practically Matched at Six Furlongs.

A revival in local horse racing seems imminent, and the chances are that a card of races will be run off at Kapiolani Park on Thanksgiving Day.

Yesterday a match was practically made between Lieutenant Hancock's Virgie A., and Bob Ballentyne's Molly Connors. The parties have been on the verge of matching the two horses for quite a time, but the Virgie A. people have held out for a six-furlong race and no shorter. Ballentyne, on the other hand, has been unwilling to run Molly Connors at a longer distance than five furlongs.

Yesterday Ballentyne decided to let it go at six furlongs and it is expected that a forfeit will be posted in a few days.

The match, which will be for $500 a side, will come off in three weeks' time.
Both horses are in fair shape, Virgie A.
having been kept up with a view to a match.

If this match goes through, it is extremely likely that T. M. Hollinger will challenge the winner with either Racer or Aggravation.

Carter Harrison Jr., the Hilo horse, is reported to be looking in first-class shape, and to have recovered his former wonderful speed. John O'Rourke and J.
F. Clay are willing to match him at five furlongs for $1,000 against any horse in the Islands.

Carter Harrison Jr., as a two-year-old, worked three-quarters of a mile close to 1:15, and Ed Corrigan at one time refused $15,000 for him. He has not done much since then, and is evidently one of the kind known as "morning glories," which do wonders in their work, but shut up in a race, when it comes to a pinch.
The gelding was in no condition to run at Hilo last July, and may have returned to his best form, or indeed be better than ever.

Imported horses make phenomenal improvement when they come to the Islands, as witness the cases of Weller and Virgie A., both of which have shown more speed here than on the mainland tracks.

If Carter Harrison Jr. is sent down here he will assuredly get a race, but as he ships badly there is little chance of him leaving Hilo.

LIGHT HOLIDAY POLICE DOCKET

Patrolman's Horse Ate Sunflowers.
Verdict of Jury in Yonemura Inquest.

The holiday calendar in the police court yesterday was very light, and was disposed of by Judge Wilcox in short order. Thirteen Chinese pai kau players were fined $10 and costs each. They were arrested on Saturday night in a raid on King street, near Liliha street. The men pleaded guilty with the exception of three, who said that they were in the room for purposes other than gambling.

A dozen bibulous individuals were fined $2 and costs each. They were victims of the proverbial wetness of Regatta Day.

Teshiwaru, charged with driving a horse with a sore on its back, got the benefit of a nolle prosequi. The horse has since died, which fact prompted the action of the prosecution.

Maggie Arno and Blanche, charged with keeping a disorderly house on the road to Iwilei, were remanded until today, as was H. Hansen, the Russian Finn, charged with a similar offense.

J. E. Brown, who broke the head of Kaia with a 2x4, will explain matters to the magistrate this morning.

The case of Manuel Pemento, charged with malicious injury, was also continued until today. George Kaleo, of the mounted patrol, states that Pemento struck his horse with a brick because it was trampling the sunflowers and hollyhocks in his garden.

Antonio Barboza, a precocious small boy with a Reform School record, was charged with larceny in the second degree. He is said to have stolen a horse from S. E. Lucas. Defendant claims that Lucas owes him $3.50 for work done, and that he took the horse to ride the debt out. The boy took the horse from a lot and attempted to mount it, but the beast bucked, and refused to budge. The boy was discovered in the act of taking the horse away, and was arrested. He was remanded until today.

Yesterday's arrests included:
Noli Markle, desertion; Yamao, Geo.
Kay, drunkenness.

The coroner's jury in the case of Tonemura, returned the following verdict last night:

That the said Yonemura came to his death in Honolulu, Island of Oahu, on the 19th day of September, A. D. 1901, from injuries to the brain, due to an accident, to wit, by falling through an open trapdoor on the second floor of that building on the corner of Smith and Hotel streets, in Honolulu, aforesaid, said fall being due to his own carelessness. J. H. Flynn, F. W. Weed, J. J. Hogan, George Andrews, A. J.
McLellan, Fred Smith.

FOX AND AGNEW CONFER AGAIN

The evil work of the liniment on Jimmy Fox's ankle has been remedied and once again the sports are chatting over the prospect of a meeting between the ex-champion amateur feather and light-weight boxer of the Coast and Lon Agnew, the pet of the police force.

The two boxers met yesterday afternoon and agreed to spar a limited number of rounds before the Oahu Athletic Association two weeks from next Thursday. The contest will be for points, the point of the jaw and the solar plexus being the points most sought after.

Both men are in good shape and promise to abstain from the interper-ate use of liniments, salves and lotions until after the scrap. They are said to have improved the passing hours of late in the company of a smiling-bag and large dumb-bells.

The parties concerned deny that the affair will be pugilistic in any sense.
It will just be a good natured, gentle and joyous passage of fists to see who can hit the other hardest and oftenest.

NEW BUDDHIST TEMPLE OPENED

Dedication of the Structure Last Sunday Morning at Waipahu.

Waipahu became blessed with a new Buddhist temple last Sunday. A great number of people were present, about 300 coming from Honolulu and the rest from the plantations along the railroad line. The majority of the crowd was Japanese, but there were also many whites, natives, Chinese and Portuguese present. A procession went from the depot up to the temple. Imamura, the head priest, led it, and was followed by members of the congregation. The most important part of the procession was a long casket, containing the name of Buddha. This box was carried under a white canopy at the head of the procession, and when the temple was reached,
it was deposited on the altar.

The dedication services which were very impressive, took place in the afternoon. They were witnessed by great crowds. The temple, which is a very handsome structure in Japanese style, was built by Japanese workmen at a cost of about $2,000. Mr. Hons of Oahu plantation donated the site, much lumber, and $500 cash besides.

A CERTAIN CURE FOR DYSEN- TERY AND DIARRHOEA.

"Some years ago I was one of a party that intended making a long bicycle trip," said F. L. Taylor, of New Albany, Bradford Co., Pa. "I was taken suddenly with diarrhoea, and was about to give up the trip, when Editor Ward, of the Lackeyville Messenger, suggested that I take a dose of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. I purchased a bottle and took two doses, one before starting and one on the route. I made the trip successfully, and I never felt any ill effect.
Again last summer I was almost completely run down with an attack of dysentery. I bought a bottle of this same remedy, and this time one dose cured me. Sold by Benson, Smith & Co., Ltd., wholesale agents."

FORT AND HOTEL STS.WORKS IN A QUIET WAYCatholic Benevolent Union's Report.

The work of the Catholic Benevolent Union of Honolulu has been done quietly and without ostentation, although a large amount of charitable work has been accomplished. The society is young—not more than two years old—but it is already on a financial footing which will give it prestige for future charitable work. The financial report just compiled shows a healthy condition of affairs. The reports of the secretary and of the financial committee of the work done since the inception of the organization, are as follows:

Honolulu, June 30, 1900.
To His Lordship, the Bishop of Honolulu, the Officers and Members of the C. B. U.:

My Lord and Gentlemen: The first year of the existence of the Catholic Benevolent Union having been completed, I herewith present my report, as your secretary for that time.

Our first regular meeting took place on July 10, 1899, and there have been a total of nineteen regular and two special meetings during the year, with an average attendance of thirty-seven members. Our charter list closed with 170 names thereon; of this number seventeen have been stricken off for failing to pay the required fees, and two have died, leaving total number of charter members 151.

Admitted to membership, 82; of these one has died, leaving total number of members, 232.

The following donations have been recorded during the year: From Mr. Geo. Trimble, $5.00; Mr. C. J. McCarthy, $5.00; H. Hackfeld & Co., $1,000.00; Mons. H. Moet, Consul for France, $15.00; and from the Sociedade do Espirito Santo, $50.00.

On September 22, 1899, an entertainment was given at the St. Louis College Hall, for the benefit of our Union, and we realized thereby the handsome sum of $436.00.

On December 11, 1899, we met for the first time in our new hall, and the evening was devoted to appropriate exercises, a quartet from the Brothers of the St. Louis College added much to the pleasure of the evening. Another pleasant feature of evening was the presence of some U. S. soldiers on their way to Manila, on the U. S. transport Hancock.

The only amendment to our by-laws found necessary was changing the number of a quorum from twenty-five to fifteen members, which was adopted at our last meeting.

Besides the donations spoken of before, the Union has received from Mr. Julius Asch the gavel, used by our President; from Mr. A. S. Humphreys the piano which graces our hall; from Mr. F. C. Betters the silver plate on the piano, setting forth in its inscription who the donor is, and lastly, the silver badge to be worn by the sergeant-at-arms, from our Financial Secretary, Mr. A. W. Seabury.

That the Union has carried out the objects for which it was organized, cannot be doubted, and is evidenced by the large number of poor and needy who have been assisted during the year, and we may well be proud of the fact that our Union was the first society to so substantially aid the Home for Incurables. Trusting that the Union may have as successful a year before it as the one just closed, and that all its members will help along the good work so well begun, is the earnest wish of

Your obedient servant,
JOHANNES F. ECKARDT,
Recording Secretary.

Honolulu, Sept. 24, 1901.
To the Officers and Members of the Catholic Benevolent Union:

As a committee of one to examine the condition of the Union, I beg leave to submit the annexed report. I find on comparison of the books of the various officers that their accounts are correct and my report shows in brief what has been done during the past year.

Very respectfully,
J. H. FLYNN.

THE LILLIPUTIANS.

Grand vaudeville entertainments will be given by the Pollard Lilliputian Opera Company at the Hawaiian Opera House tonight and Thursday next. On Saturday evening, September 28, the "Belle of New York" will be produced, and on Saturday afternoon, September 28, the management has decided to give the little ones a treat by giving a matinee of the "Belle of New York." Children will be admitted to all parts of the theater at half price. Doors open at 1:30; performance to commence at 2 o'clock sharp.

Coming to Honolulu.

Mrs. D. W. Ketcham, who was taken very ill with pleurisy, while summering with Miss Sullivan and Miss Helen Kellar in Halifax, Nova Scotia, has so far recovered as to be able to be with her mother, Mrs. Sebree Smith, and her sisters in the Connecticut Hills. In October Mrs. Ketcham will join her husband, Capt. D. W. Ketcham, Artillery Corps, in Honolulu. Mrs. Sebree Smith's address is Brooklyn, Conn.—Army and Navy Journal.

THE LACE HOUSE
CARLINGTON BLOCK

DOOR JAPS WITH
COSTLY JEWELRYNumerous Claimants Before Fire Commission Owned Fifty Dollar Watches.

Between seventy-five and one hundred cases were disposed of by the Commission yesterday. The one peculiarity in a number of claims was the possession by some of the poor Japanese laborers of gold watches which comprised the greater part of their property. J. Nakagawa, whose total claim was $278, acknowledged the possession of a gold watch worth $50, and a gold chain valued at $10. He said he had purchased the watch from a soldier, and it was second-hand when he got it.

There were several other cases of $50 watches which led Commissioner to remark that the prevailing market price of gold watches during that time was about $50.

One man listed a plain band gold ring on his finger which had cost him $100. One of the other claimants had one also of about the same value, but the witness stuck to his story that he had paid $18 for the ring to a Japanese man-of-war.

One woman had a sewing machine which she claimed to have paid $55 for, and there were numerous claimants who had an amazing quantity of fine clothing at the time of the fire.

Brewery Must Enlarge.

Owing to the large consumption of beer in Honolulu, which is said to be 31,000 gallons of local beer a month, the Honolulu brewery will have to enlarge its storage capacity 200 per cent and also enlarge its plant. It has already been compelled to shut down on sending beer to any place outside of the city. The large consumption is accredited partly to the fact that more beer is used here, but also to the fact that the local beer is rapidly encroaching on the imported bottled beer. The building will be extended ninety feet and will add a storage capacity of 10,000 barrels.

ROBINSON—In this city, September 23, 1901, to the wife of Mr. W. J. Robinson, a daughter.

THEY WILL SAIL BY THEMSELVES

Yachtsmen to Meet Tonight to Organize an Independent Association.

A meeting of yachtsmen and yacht owners has been called for this evening in the basement of the Hawaiian Hotel, to consider the formation of a yacht club, and the hope is expressed that all interested in the sport will be in attendance at 7:30 o'clock.

This is a matter that has been many times discussed in the past, but the real need of a club has never been so much felt as since the races of last Saturday. Yacht racing here has always been clean and free from protests on the ground of unsportsmanlike acts and there has been little need of specific rules governing every point. Formerly when a misunderstanding arose, a quick expression of willingness to resign an event was always in evidence, showing that the participants were in it for sport and were true amateur sportsmen, and this has relieved the judges from handing down decisions which were really necessary.

As a matter of fact most of the races in the past have been sailed under the rules of the Royal Yacht Club of England, but it has seldom been necessary to even refer to the rules owing to the good feeling existing between the participants. This year however no official announcement was made of the code of rules governing the contests and the settling of disputes was left entirely to the judges. To be strictly correct it was left to some of the judges for the Myrtle protest was thrown aside by one of them as being too trivial for consideration, without the third judge being given an opportunity of even reading it.

The idea of the yachtsmen is to form an association which shall be entirely independent of the Rowing Association. Hitherto yachting interests have been mainly fostered by the boat clubs but in the light of recent developments the time has arrived when the apron strings should be cut.

McKINLEY TO THE PEOPLE

His Stirring Speech
at the Buffalo
Fair.

KEY NOTES OF AMERICAN DUTY

The Wise Words of a Great Leader
About to Feel the Assassin's Bullet.

BY REQUEST of several citizens who wish to preserve copies, the Advertiser publishes the full text, as follows, of President McKinley's great speech at Buffalo:

President Milburn, Director General Buchanan, Commissioners, Ladies and Gentlemen:

I am glad to be again in the city of Buffalo, and exchange greetings with her people, to whose generous hospitality I am not a stranger, and with whose good will I have been repeatedly and signally honored. Today I have additional satisfaction in meeting and giving welcome to the foreign representatives assembled here, whose presence and participation in this exposition have contributed in so marked a degree to its interest and success. To the Commissioners of the Dominion of Canada and the British Colonies, the French Colonies, the Republics of Mexico, and of Central and South America, and the Commissioners of Cuba and Porto Rico, who share with us in this undertaking, we give the hand of fellowship, and felicitate with them upon the triumphs of art, science, education, and manufacture which the old has bequeathed to the new city.

Expositions are the timekeepers of progress. They record the world's advancement. They stimulate the energy, enterprise, and intellect of the people, and quicken human genius. They go into the home. They broaden and brighten the daily life of the people. They open mighty storehouses of information to the student. Every exposition, great or small, has helped to some onward step.
Comparison of ideas is always educational; and as such instructs the brain and hand of man. Friendly rivalry follows, which is the spur to industrial improvement, the inspiration to useful invention and to high endeavor in all departments of human activity. It exacts a study of the wants, comforts, and even the whims of the people, and recognizes the efficacy of high quality and new prices in their favor. The quest for trade is an incentive to men of business to devise, invent, improve, and economize in the cost of production. Business life, whether among ourselves or with other peoples, is ever a sharp struggle for success. It will be none the less so in the future.

Without competition we would be clinging to the clumsy and antiquated processes of farming and manufacture, and the methods of business of long ago, and the twentieth would be no further advanced than the eighteenth century. But through commercial competitors we are,
commercial enemies we must not be.

PRaises EXPOSITION.

The Pan-American exposition has done its work thoroughly, presenting in its exhibits evidences of the highest skill and illustrating the progress of the human family in the Western Hemisphere.
This portion of the earth has no cause for humiliation for the part it has performed in the march of civilization. It has not accomplished everything; but from it, it has simply done its best, and without vanity or boastfulness and recognizing the manifold achievements of others, it invites the friendly rivalry of all the powers in the peaceful pursuits of trade and commerce and will co-operate with all in advancing the highest and best interests of humanity. The wisdom and energy of all the nations are none too great for the world's work. The success of art, science, industry and invention is an international asset, and a common glory.

After all, how near one to the other is every part of the world. Modern inventions have brought into close relations widely separated peoples and made them better acquainted. Geographic and political divisions will continue to exist, but distances have been effaced. Swift ships and fast trains are becoming cosmopolitan. They invade fields which a few years ago were impenetrable. The world's products are exchanged as never before,
and with increasing transportation facilities come increasing knowledge and larger trade. Prices are fixed with mathematical precision by supply and demand. The world's selling prices are regulated by market and crop reports. We travel greater distances in a shorter space of time and with more ease, than was ever dreamed of by the fathers. Isolation is no longer possible or desirable. The same important news is read, though in different languages, the same day in all Christendom. The telegraph keeps us advised of what is occurring everywhere, and the press foreshadows, with more or less accuracy, the plans and purposes of the nations. Market prices of products and securities are hourly known in every commercial market, and the investments of people extend beyond their own national boundaries into the remotest parts of the earth. Vast transactions are conducted and international exchanges are made by the tick of the cable. Every event of interest is immediately bulletin-
ed. The quick gathering and transmission of news, like rapid transit, are of recent origin and are only made possible by the genius of the inventor and the courage of the investor. It took a special messenger of the government, with every facility known at the time for rapid travel, 19 days to go from the City of Washington to New Orleans with a message to General Jackson that the war with England had ceased and that a treaty of peace had been signed. How different now!

WONDERFUL PROGRESS.

We reached General Miles in Porto

EMMA GOLDMAN

Who Is Charged With Complicity in the Attempted Assassination.

Rico by cable and he was able through the military telegraph to stop his army on the firing line with the message that the United States and Spain had signed a protocol suspending hostilities. We knew almost instantly of the first shots fired at Santiago, and the subsequent surrender of the Spanish forces was known at Washington within less than an hour of its consummation. The first ship of Cervera's fleet had hardly emerged from that historic harbor when the fact was flashed to our capital and the swift destruction that followed was announced immediately through the wonderful medium of telegraphy. So accustomed are we to safe and easy communication with distant lands, that its temporary interruption even in ordinary times results in loss and inconvenience.
We shall never forget the days of anxious waiting and awful suspense when no information was permitted to be sent from Peking, and the diplomatic representatives of the nations in China, cut off from all communication, inside and outside of the walled capital, were surrounded by an angry and misguided mob that threatened their lives; nor the joy that thrilled the world when a single message from the government of the United States brought through our minister the first news of the safety of the besieged diplomats.

At the beginning of the nineteenth century there was not a mile of steam railroad on the globe. Now there are enough miles to make its circuit many times. Then there was not a line of electric telegraph; now we have a vast mileage traversing all lands and all seas.
God and man have linked the nations together. No nation can longer be indifferent to any other. And as we are brought more and more in touch with each other the less occasion is there for misunderstandings, and the stronger the disposition, when we have differences, to adjust them in the court of arbitration, which is the noblest form for the settlement of international disputes.

UNEXAMPLED PROSPERITY.

My Fellow Citizens: Trade statistics indicate that this country is in a state of unexampled prosperity. The figures are almost appalling. They show that we are utilizing our fields, and forests, and mines, and that we are furnishing profitable employment to the millions of workmen throughout the United States, bringing comfort and happiness to their homes, and making it possible to lay up savings for old age and disability. That all the people are participating in this great prosperity is seen in every American community, and shown by the enormous and unprecedented deposits in our savings banks. Our duty is the care and security of these deposits, and their safe investment demands the highest integrity, and the best possible capacity of those in charge of these depositories of the people's earnings.

We have a vast and intricate business, built up through years of toil and struggle, in which every part of the country has its stake, which will not permit of either neglect, or of undue selfishness.
No narrow, sordid policy will subvert
it. The greatest skill and wisdom on the part of manufacturers and producers will be required to hold and increase it. Our industrial enterprises, which have grown to such great proportions affect the homes and occupations of the people, and the welfare of the country.
Our capacity to produce has developed so enormously and our products have so multiplied that the problem of their markets requires our urgent and immediate attention. Only a broad and enlightened policy will keep what we have.
No other policy will get more. In these times of marvellous business energy and gain, we ought to be looking to the future, strengthening the weak places in our industrial and commercial systems, that we may be ready for any form of strain.

By sensible trade arrangements which will not interrupt our home production, we shall extend the outlets of our increasing surplus.

MUTUAL EXCHANGE.

A system which provides a mutual exchange of commodities is manifestly essential to the continued and healthful growth of our export trade. We must not repose in fancied security that we can forever sell everything and buy little or nothing. If such a thing were possible it would not be best for us or for those with whom we deal. We should take from our customers such of their products as we can use without

FIRST MATE AMESBURY of the Carleton can spin a bunch of interesting yarns about the days when he was engaged in "black-birding" in the South Sea. The sight of the Porto Ricans being taken from the City of Para the other day brought back old reminiscences to him and he told many and queer tales which carried one back nearly to the adventurous days of Bully Hayes, when the happy isles in the South Seas were not having their palm groves blackened by the smoke of the big steamers.

"Black-birding," as the business of supplying kanaka labor to the Australian colonies was familiarly called, was a flourishing business in those days.
"Three pun 'ten" was paid for each kanaka landed, and on the trip back for more "blackbirds," it paid to take a return cargo of them from Australia to the islands. For this service the government paid thirty shillings a head.

"The thing was practically slavery," remarked Amesbury. "But as they were only kept in the Colonies for three years and then shipped back, and as they also received some pay it was just called 'importing labor.' The ka-nakas were not coming by their own free will but that didn't matter much.
Business is business."

The ships used for the trade were generally very fast tea-clippers, and the crew was a varied assortment.
These ships generally kept a large number of men on board, as the kanakas often showed fight, as was quite natural when they were taken away from their island homes. Thus a ship, calling for say, twenty men would ship sixty,
and so forth, the extra men being entered on the roll as "lower deck sweepers."

The methods employed in "blackbird catching" were varied according to the number and character of the islanders.
If the island visited had comparatively few and peaceable inhabitants, the sailors would just go ashore, surround them and drive them out in the water where well manned boats would be lying in readiness. The great difficulty in this game was, that when the natives got in the water, many of them would escape, as they swam like fish.

Another method which was considered safer when the number of inhabitants was larger and the people more warlike, was this. The ship would simply drop her anchor in some quiet cove, where there was a village, and await the arrival of the villagers. As the kanakas were very curious, it would not be long before the vessel would be swarmed with natives. Then the object was to get them so stupefied with liquor, that they could not offer much resistance. They were then stowed away under the hatches. It would often be necessary to visit six to eight islands to get a full load, after which they would set sail for Australia. Here it was a favorite plan to lie in some river's mouth where there were small islands upon which the blackbirds could be corralled. They were then counted and the money for them was paid over.

The ships would then take on a load of return passengers. Amesbury told a little story about how he once was upon a ship which, after taking on board a load of return passengers in one colony, set sail for another port, put their kanakas on a coral islet, and after they had received pay for them (three pounds ten a head) skipped out quickly for other climes.

The trade flourished for a long time.
There was big money in it and plenty of excitement, but soon the thing became too flagrant and finally a blackbird came under the same laws a pirate. Thus finished the picturesque days described by Luis Beche, and the old salts, who lived in and enjoyed those days, look back with regret to the time when the blackbird crossed the trader under the Southern Cross.

The Wharves Busy.

The waterfront was very busy today after the calm of Saturday afternoon and Sunday. A number of Island steamers and schooners were being loaded. The Kinau, Claudine and the Lehua, were at the Wilder wharf, getting ready to go out today. At the Inter-Island wharf were the Waialeale and the Mikahala, which has just come off the dry dock with a new copper sheathing on her bottom; both these steamers left last night. At the Naval dock No. 2 the small schooner Ottile Fjord had discharged her lumber and left in ballast for the Sound yesterday morning. The army transport Sumner finished her coaling, and is now waiting for her refrigerating apparatus to get into repair. She will probably sail tomorrow.

At the Irmgard wharf and the Fish-

The only wharf that seemed deserted was the Railroad wharf. Yesterday morning the Carleton went out and left only three vessels there. These were the Santa, that was taking in ballast; the Olympic, which took in 4,000 bags of sugar from the Ke Au Hou, and the Ceylon, discharging guano. In the afternoon the barkentine Coronado came from the Oceanic wharf and laid up by the Irmgard wharf.

Coronado Arrives.

At about 9 o'clock yesterday morning
the barkentine Coronado came in from San Francisco, and made fast at the Oceanic wharf. She made the trip in eighteen days, experiencing light winds through the whole voyage. She had some trouble in getting sailors, waiting for five days before she got her full complement. The men are all non-union sailors. This trip is the first voyage of the Coronado under this name. She used to be the J. C. Pfluger, but when she was bought by Spreckels she had her name changed, as well as her rigging, which was altered into a barkentine rig. The master, Captain Potter, is very well known in Honolulu, having been here innumerable times while he was in command of the Alden Besse. During the afternoon the Coronado was shifted from the Oceanic to the Irmgard

wharf.

Summer May Be Delayed.

The transport Sumner may not sail today as expected, as it is not yet known if her refrigerating machinery will be in repair today.

Shipping Notes.

The transport Sumner will sail today
if her refrigerating machinery is in order in time.

The American schooner Ariel was on the dry dock yesterday being scraped.
She will sail today if possible.

The schooner Mille Morris will remain in this port for a week to undergo a thorough scraping and painting.
Yesterday forenoon a native diver succeeded in getting off the rope which fouled the Eleu's screw on Regatta Day.

The James Tuft and J. L. Stanford have on board 3,000 tons of coal. They are at present on their way from Newcastle to Honolulu.

The transport Warren is due today.
She was to have left San Francisco on the 16th. She will probably bring four days later news.

The Mikahala started last night on her first trip since she came off the dry dock. She has been furnished with an entire new copper sheathing.

The bark Ceylon, which vessel has been lying at the Railroad wharf discharging guano, will be through with her cargo by this morning. She will go on the dry dock to be scraped and painted before she sails again for Lay-san Island.

The Norwegian bark Prince Louis, which arrived here from Rio de Janeiro on the 9th instant to load a cargo of coal for Honolulu, has been ordered to proceed in ballast to Puget Sound for orders, says the Sydney Herald of August 24th.

JEWELS

The big freighter Oregonian has just brought us a large shipment of our well known "Jewel" Stoves and Ranges, making our stock complete in twenty-nine different styles.

Jewel Stoves for wood, all sizes.
Jewel Ranges for wood, all sizes.
Jewel Stoves for coal, all sizes.
Jewel Ranges for coal, all sizes.

A number of each kind are fitted with our new special hot water coils, ready to be connected to the boiler.

We make a specialty of this work, which we perform in an up-to-date manner, at a reasonable cost.

Hot water can be obtained in a few minutes after starting the fire, by using our method.

We carry all the parts for our stoves and ranges, enabling us to replace any breakage or loss caused by accident, or wear or tear.

These celebrated Jewel Stoves and Ranges are made from the very best material, and are constructed on scientific principles, thereby obtaining the greatest amount of heat from the least amount of fuel.

We deliver to any part of the city, set up the stove, and connect to the chimney, free of charge (boiler connections extra),
and guarantee our work in every respect.

If you purchase from us, we will make a liberal allowance for your old wood or coal stove, regardless of the kind.

Call and inspect our samples on the second floor (House Furnishing Department), and be convinced that you can get the best at a reasonable price.

P. S.—The S. S. Californian, due here in two weeks, will bring us a very large shipment of our celebrated Gurney clean-able Refrigerators and Ice Boxes.

Refrigerators at $10.50 and upwards, and Ice Boxes at $7.50 and upwards, made of hard wood and elegantly polished. It will pay you to wait, as you will save money by buying a Gurney, as they use less ice than any Refrigerator made.

NEW VIEWS!

Mr. Melvin Vaniman is now at the Volcano, where he hopes to get a photo which will do the subject justice. His wonderful photo of Honolulu, the largest direct photo ever made in the islands, not to mention the smaller, but not less perfect pictures of the Paia, Waikiki Beach, etc., place him in the front rank of his profession. It is not unreasonable to expect equally good results from his present trip, which will include all points of interest between Honolulu and the Volcano.

When completed Messrs. King Bros., who are associated with Mr. Vaniman, will have a series of photos equal to anything made anywhere, and which will do more toward advertising the Islands than any other medium.

Part of the series are now ready and on sale at KING BROS. Photo Studio and 120 Hotel Street. Art Store.

FACILITY ON PARCELS

Treasury Gives the Collector More Power.

WILL AFFECT THE CHRISTMAS TRADE

Duties Up to One Hundred Dollars May be Remitted Here Without Question.

By a recent decision of the Treasury Department the reception of gifts coming from foreign countries, through the mails, will be expedited, though of course that was not the primary object of the ruling. The point came up in the report made to Washington, by Collector Stackable, of a transaction which seemed outside the regulations, but which involved the convenience of an importer.

The case was that of a retail merchant who had received silk American flags from Japan, the consignment arriving by mail a few days prior to the Fourth of July, which occasion made the demand for the flags of the nation. Had the usual course been followed there would have been necessary an appeal to Washington in the matter of the seizure, which would have taken some time as to cause loss in sales and probably loss of the goods. The regulations provide that for the first offense a remission of fines may be made by the Collector when the duties are not in excess of $25. The duties in the case in point amounted to $30.38. These were assessed and collected, the goods being released. In his report the Collector called attention to the business reasons for the action and asked that he be given more power than is granted in the regulations.

The Treasury Department then took up the matter and in the letter which has now been received says that in case of seizures here the Collector shall have the power to release goods in cases where the duties are not above $100. As this will cover almost every case where the goods are received through the mails, there will be little or no difficulty in the importations of materials for Christmas or other gifts. This of course means where the goods come from countries which have no parcels post convention with the United States, and where the importation under such conditions constitutes the first offense.

The regulations provide that goods may pass through the customs regularly when carried in the mails from countries which are in a parcels post convention with the United States. From all other countries dutiable goods coming in the mails must be treated as goods liable to seizure and so held. The first importation of this nature is treated as the first offense against the laws, and the remission of fines shall be permissible only when there is clearly no intent to defraud. The new order as affecting Hawaii gives large latitude to the Collector.

In the case of a second importation the penalty is heavy, the law being that there shall be assessed upon all such goods received their dutiable value, which is the foreign value with the addition of the duty. This would mean that such goods purchased abroad and coming in by mail would cost the importer twice the price and the duty as well. This is a very wide-reaching law, owing to the fact that there is now only one European country, Germany, which is in parcels post convention with the United States. England has not entered such an agreement and goods from that country will be subject to the penalty. There is a convention with Canada however, as there are similar agreements with the Central and South American countries.

A LOCAL ITEM.

There are a great many of them. Every paper has its share. Statements hard to believe; harder to prove.

Statements from far-away places. What people say in New York. Public expression from California. Oft times good endorsement there. But of little service here at home. Honolulu people want local proof. The sayings of neighbors, friends and citizens.

Home endorsement counts. It is beyond dispute.

This is the backing that stands behind every box of Doan's Backache Kidney Pills.

Mr. John E. Bush of Punchbowl st., this city, is attached to the Hawaiian Interpretation staff at the Supreme Court. He says: "I had kidney trouble, and, acting on the recommendation of a friend, who had tried your invaluable remedy, I got some of Doan's Backache Kidney Pills at Hollister Drug Co.'s store. They were just as beneficial to me as they had been to my friend. It is well the virtues of these pills should be made known, for they really are an excellent medicine for kidney trouble."

This is only one case in hundreds right here in Honolulu—people whom you may know—people whose statements can not be disputed.

Doan's Backache Kidney Pills are for sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents per box, or sent by mail on receipt of price by the Hollister Drug Co., Honolulu.

CREAM FROM CALIFORNIA.

Plans for Inauguration of a New Industry in Short Time.

There will be a new industry inaugurated, when the building now in course of erection at the triangle of King and South streets is ready for occupancy, which will mean the furnishing of cream in quantities to suit to the door of the consumer, in glass. It is expected that the price of the commodity will be greatly reduced, the present plan being to serve the people at seventy-five per cent of the ruling quotation.

The cream which will be supplied by this new company, to be known as the Honolulu Creamery Company, will be imported from California in bulk packages. Already there is a quantity of the cream here, having been brought down several weeks ago in sealed tins. In the future it is expected that the importations will be made in casks of large size. The cream will be put into cold storage as soon as it arrives and then will be served as desired in glass bottles, which will be like those used in the States for similar purpose. The cream has been found to keep for as much as seventy-two hours when taken out of the airtight cans and placed in glass. It is not only fresh, but having been treated by the Russell process, which kills the decomposition germs which are found in all milk, has been found to remain that way for an indefinite time in original package, and for varying periods when taken out.

The building of the company will be supplied with large refrigerators, and there will be arrangements for the use of the cream which is not taken, the butter made from it being of high class.

Auction Sale OF VALUABLE BUSINESS PROPERTY.

ON SATURDAY, OCTOBER 19
AT 12 O'CLOCK NOON.

At my salesroom, 65 Queen street, I will sell at Public Auction that VALUABLE BUSINESS PROPERTY, known as the "STAR BLOCK," and situated on the makai Ewa corner of Kukui and Fort streets, together with adjoining property.

This land has a fee simple title to a frontage on Fort street of 100 feet, on Kukui street of 120 feet and Ewa boundary of 210 feet.

Also a leasehold at $30 a month, with a frontage on Fort street of 61 feet and an average depth of 4 1/2 feet.

THE "STAR BLOCK" is a two-story building with 24 rooms upstairs, and 8 stores on the lower floor. Contains baths and patent closets complying with the latest Sanitary Regulations. This building brings in a monthly rental of $580.00.

In the rear is a partly occupied space, with room for another large rooming house with stores, fronting on Kukui street.

A five-eighths interest in this property will be sold at an upset price of $25,000.

Terms of the sale: Cash, U. S. Gold Coin. Deeds at the expenses of purchaser.

For further particulars, enquire of

PEARL HARBOR SUITS AGAIN

Jury Question Will Be Argued
Before Judge Estee
Monday.

The jury in the case of Cecil Brown, administrator of the estate of D. B. Smith deceased vs. the Equitable Life Assurance Co. of New York returned a verdict in favor of the plaintiff yesterday morning for the full amount of the policy, $25,000. Very little evidence was put on by defendant, and the arguments were also very brief. The court allowed the plaintiff's instructions to the jury, which were practically decisive, as under those instructions and that of the court, the jury could do nothing but find for the plaintiff. The jury was out but five minutes when they returned a verdict for plaintiff in the sum of $25,000 with interest at six per cent from July 5, 1900. Exceptions were allowed defendants.

By this verdict the insurance company may be compelled to pay the amount of the policy twice, as there is a suit against it on the same policy in the Federal court for the Southern District of New York.

THE LAND CASE.
In the case of Robert vs. Kaula, an ejectment suit which has been on trial before Judge Little for a week, the plaintiffs closed their case yesterday morning. The defendants immediately moved for a non-suit on the ground that the lease was not proven, nor the possession of defendants disputed. The case was taken under advisement by Judge Little, who will give his decision this morning.

NO BUSINESS IN GEAR'S COURT.
Yesterday was another slack day in Gear's court. After the conclusion of the insurance case, all matters were brought to a standstill, because nothing was ready for trial, though six cases had been ordered to be prepared for yesterday.

Judge Gear called in the attorneys in a vain endeavor to find something which could be heard immediately, and finally stated that hereafter cases answered ready, which were not ready, would be dismissed. The real trouble just at present is the land case in Judge Little's court, in which half a dozen attorneys are engaged. If the case is finished today there are several causes which can immediately be heard by Gear.

The Harrison-Magoon case has the right of way, and will be heard first in case Magoon is released from service in the other court. Then follow three Kapiolani estate cases, and then come insurance cases. If the land case in Little's court is not finished by the ruling on motion for non-suit, one of the insurance cases will be heard this morning before Gear.

Judge Gear made an order yesterday requiring all cases on the calendar numbering from 73 to 200, excepting those already disposed of, to be ready for trial Wednesday morning at 9:30.

COURT NOTES.

A return and account of sales in the Lazarus property has been made by Commissioner Thompson.

J. A. Thompson, master in the estate of James K. Kekaula, filed his report yesterday. A balance of $3,000 is on hand for distribution and payment of the expenses of administration.

Order has been made for the payment to J. H. Cummings of $774.70, a ninth share in the estate of W. H. Cummings, deceased. Cecil Brown, administrator, protested against the payment on the ground that it should not be made until a final settlement had been made, but Gear allowed Davis' motion.

A discontinuance has been filed in the matter of Bond Alwahi, an idiotic person.

In the case of Avery vs. Hawaiian Gazette Co., libel, plaintiff has filed a motion for an execution on the ground that the bill of exceptions filed are frivolous and immaterial, and to delay the payment of the judgment in this action, and on the further grounds that defendant's counsel had advised his client to pay the award of damages.

Replication to defendant's (Cotton's) answer has been filed by plaintiff in the case of John Fowler & Co. vs. Robert Cotton and George MacFarlane.

Deputy Sheriff Chas. F. Chillingworth was admitted to practice in the Circuit Court by Judge Gear yesterday.

The case of the Hollister Drug Co. vs. John F. Colburn was discontinued yesterday. This was a suit on account.

IN FEDERAL COURT.
The arguments for a jury in the Pearl Harbor condemnation suits will be heard by Judge Estee next Monday. Yesterday morning when the cases were called in Federal Court, Assistant United States Attorney Dunne presented a motion to strike out the amended answer of defendants, and also the demand for a jury. Mr. Dunne stated that while he did not wish for a delay, and would prefer to argue the case immediately, that it would probably be better to postpone the argument until answers had been filed by all respondents.

Attorney Hatch, representing the Oahu Sugar Company, Oahu Railway & Land Company, the Dowsett estate, and the Honolulu Sugar Company, the only respondents which have filed the amended answers, stated that he was willing to proceed immediately with the arguments on the jury question. He said his clients were not seeking a delay, and had filed their answers before the required time in order that the case might be heard at once. The Court did not believe any advantage could be gained by taking up the cases piecemeal, and stated that he had already listened to three or four hours' argument on the same question.

All answers must be in by Saturday, and Judge Estee fixed next Monday as the day when arguments as to the right to a jury trial should be presented.

The motion to strike out the amended answers alleges that they are unverified, unauthorized by any rule of law or order of court, that they are sham, irrelevant, unsustained, contradictory, insufficient, substituted but no amended matter, and not specific.

OTHER FEDERAL COURT MATTERS.

In the case of Brown vs. Davidson et al., for $10,000 damages because of injuries resulting from the agreement between master plumbers and journeymen, plaintiff stated his willingness to agree to the motion of defendants to dismiss as to such defendants as had not been served. The matter will be formally presented this morning.

In the case of Pearson & Potter Co. vs. the Bank C. D. Bryant, it was agreed to submit the case upon the facts as shown in the McNerny libel, the court to render his decision in order that plaintiffs might except, for the purpose of an appeal.

The libel of the Inter-Island Steam Navigation Co. vs. the schooner Dora Blum also went over until next Monday. Judge Estee appointed Daniel Kikha as bailiff for the Federal Court, because of the vacancy and promotion resulting from the death of Marshal Ray.

The compensation for the place is but two dollars per day, and it was with some difficulty that a satisfactory person was secured. The Court made the following order:

"Whereas, it appears to the satisfaction of said Court that by reason of the recent death of Hon. D. A. Ray, United States Marshal for said District, the congestion of business in the office of said marshal will deprive this Court of the services of Hon. E. R. Hendry, former Chief Deputy U. S. Marshal and now Acting U. S. Marshal, as court room bailiff; and that the proper administration of justice requires the appointment of a court room bailiff in and for said Court;

"Now, therefore, it is hereby ordered that Daniel Kikha be, and he is hereby, appointed court room bailiff until the further order of this Court, at the compensation in that behalf fixed by law."
