CARTER CONDEMNED BY HOME RULERS.

People Are In Arms Against The Outrage Perpetrated By President Roosevelt.

The greatest meeting of the county campaign was held by the Home Rulers at the Orpheum theater last evening. The play-house itself was jammed by voters and the passage-way leading to it was crowded. So many people gathered outside in the streets that it became necessary to organize and hold an auxiliary meeting. During the evening the following set of resolutions were introduced and unanimously passed:

Whereas, it is reported in the Press dispatches from Washington that the President has appointed Governor S. B. Dole to the position on the Federal Bench in this Territory rendered vacant by the very recent and deeply lamented death of Hon. Morris M. Estee, and that the President has appointed as successor to Hon. S. B. Dole, in the office of Governor of this Territory, Mr. George R. Carter, a resident of this city, and a man who is exceedingly distasteful to the Hawaiian people, as well as to a numerous element of the population of this Territory of American birth or ancestry; and,

Whereas, said appointments have been made by the President without consultation with or advice from any person or persons competent to advise him with reference to the sentiments of the Hawaiian people in the premises; and,

Whereas, our Delegate in Congress, Jonah Kalaniana'ole, is now in the United States, and in or near Washington, for the purpose of attending to his duties as such Delegate, at the approaching session of Congress; and,

Whereas, it accords with the American political system that the Delegate to Congress from a Territory, being of the same political faith with the National Administration, shall be consulted, and have his views considered and respected, in regard to presidential appointments within such Territory; and,

Whereas, the appointments herein mentioned were made precipitately by the President, and are of a character which, we feel assured, would not have been advised by our said Delegate;

Now, Therefore, Be It Resolved, by the Hawaiian people and electors of the city of Honolulu, in mass meeting assembled, and the majority of whom are of Hawaiian birth and blood, seriously and emphatically disapprove of the action of the President in so making such appointments, or either of them without having first paid to our Delegate in Congress the usual courtesy of seeking his advice in the premises; and,

Be It Further Resolved, That we, in particular, and most emphatically, object to and deplore the appointment of said George R. Carter to be our Governor; and we declare that he, said George R. Carter, has incurred, and now holds the profound disapproval of the Hawaiian people, because of his arrogance and inflexible political hostility to the Hawaiian people in the past,

VOTE THIS TICKET.

Tomorrow the voters of Oahu will be called upon to say whether the sugar planters of the Islands will rule this county or whether the people will be permitted to have a voice in their affairs. Two tickets have been prepared and presented. One contains such names as Robinson, Renton, Hocking, Gilman and Dwight, men tied up body and soul to the corporation interests and to the missionaries. A vote for either of them or any man on their ticket is a vote for the missionaries, for Dole, for the despicable Governor Carter, and for all these loathsome people represent. Are the voters of Oahu willing to stand for it? We give them credit for more common sense and decency. Herewith we hand you the official ballot, marked as you should mark it tomorrow. See that you do it!

TOPICS OF THE DAY.

The succession of Sanford B. Dole to the position so ably filled by the late Judge Morris M. Estee reminds one of a hole burned in a faithful picture of heaven.

Will the agents of the sugar plantations or the people rule the Island of Oahu? By voting for Renton, Gilman, Robinson, Dwight and Hocking tomorrow you sell out cold to the plantations. The men of the people and for the people are to be found on the other ticket.

James W. Pratt is still promising the voters that, if elected, he will see to it that there is an equal distribution of tax responsibilities and that there will be plenty of money in the treasury. That may be all right, but before voting we would like to know about those missing swords and the clock that went from the tax office after Pratt took charge.

Voters will tomorrow have the chance of giving the most severe rebuke to the Republican party for its high-handed methods in appointing such men as Dole and George R. Carter to the highest official positions in the land. Let every Republican on the county ticket be wiped off the slate. Roosevelt and the party of misrule, represented here by the missionaries, will by that act be taught a good lesson.

Republican speakers are giving as an argument in favor of the Republican candidates for the offices of Supervisor, as against the Home Rulers, that the former have credit at the banks and can borrow money while the latter cannot. The argument is not only the veriest rot but it means nothing as a political card. Why on earth should the County of Oahu wish to borrow money within the next year? The Republican legislature saddled up on the children of this county a big debt of more than a million dollars (Oahu's proportion in the Loan Act), which should be quite enough without giving more pap to Republican bankers.

Are the Portuguese and other Catholics of Honolulu cognizant of the report that George F. Renton, Republican candidate for Supervisor-at-Large, was a member of the original A. P. A. here, and is still hand and glove with that organization?

Republicans had another beer meeting at Kalihi camp yesterday. Hocking's brew flowed freely and in plenty. The boozers present were enjoined to vote for the Republican ticket and cheap beer. How's that?

Joe Gilman is a member of the directorate of the stevedoring firm located on the waterfront, employing mostly Japanese instead of natives. This is up to the wharfingers to remember tomorrow when casting their votes for their alleged employers and friends of Orientals.

Saloons will be closed tomorrow, so we are informed, between the opening and the closing of the polls, as is usual under the law, even if the Republican party desired otherwise; or else these same kind of people will see to it that water was not in abundance.

The following dispatch is alleged to have been sent last night to Chairman Dick, at Columbus, Ohio: "The Republicans are up a tree and cannot get down. Pilikia nui! Can't you look up Prince Kuhio and make him say that he didn't say it? Wikiwiki." To this Dick is reported to have replied: "Am sorry for the tree, but hope it is a tall one."

A. Hocking, Republican candidate for the office of Supervisor of the Fourth District, discharged the Asiatics working in his brewery upon the matter being forced by The Independent and his Republican bosses. After tomorrow he will again be at liberty to employ coolies, and it is a ten-to-one shot that they will all go back. Hocking is too much of a cheap-labor man to meet present-day demands in office.

Are the admirers of Superintendent Cooper going to the polls tomorrow and vote for a party that compelled him to get out of office at one of the most critical periods in its history? The Republican party not only forced George R. Carter down the throats of the voters, but, by elevating Carter to power, forced Cooper to resign. Friends of Mr. Cooper and the men who work under his department should tomorrow file their votes against the party that did him and them up.

Moses K. Nakuina is in the race for County Clerk for the express purpose of defeating Kalauokalani. His appearance in the field can have but one effect, and that is to split the vote that would naturally go to Kalauokalani and throw the election to Murray. Home Rulers that consider Nakuina their friend had best change their minds between now and tomorrow morning. Nakuina is a traitor in the camp, and F. W. Beckley is his lieutenant. They are both tools of the Republican party—wolves in sheep's clothing.

High Sheriff Brown and W. C. Achi had a meeting with the police at the station house yesterday during which they urged upon the officers the importance of getting out and working for Brown for Sheriff. Achi told them that nine Home Rule votes would be required from each of them, and that unless they rustled them up they would lose their jobs. How is that for politics? Is this an American country, in which a man is allowed to vote as he pleases, or is it a little Russia, as Captain Sam Johnson is trying to make it?

The appointment of George R. Carter to be Governor has forced H. E. Cooper, Superintendent of Public Works, out of office at one of the most critical periods in the history of his department. Plans had been made for extensive improvements and others were under way. Mr. Cooper was familiar with the details of all these vast projects. It will now be necessary, however, for a new man to take up the work—and make a fizzle of it. We do not blame Cooper for resigning; he could not remain in office under a tub of lard like Carter and retain his self-respect. But the voters and taxpayers are seriously injured by the maneuver. Roosevelt and the Republican party have struck Hawaii a blow below the belt. In tomorrow's election the people should make known their protest by sweeping everything Republican from the county board. Let the admirers of Superintendent Cooper join in with the people and show to President Roosevelt and the Republican party that they will not be dealt with in this high-handed and outrageous manner.

The Cupid Incident.

Republicans are making a great hullabaloo over a perfectly natural and innocent cablegram received by the business agent of Prince Cupid from Hawaii's delegate on Saturday. The Prince announced that he had arrived at Columbus, Ohio, and added that he was at the service of the people. This cablegram, when read out at a Home Rule meeting seemed to have gone among Republicans like a dynamite bomb with a short fuse. The facts were distorted, and an absolutely false report of occurrences was cabled to Prince Cupid, bringing out a denial. The case is one of Republican exertion to make campaign capital—that sadly failed.

Views on the Approaching Battle of Ballots on County Control.

Odds and Ends--What the Result Will Be.

By ABUIMAI.

Politics are warming; yes, and not only warm, but hot. From my own personal observations, I believe the outlook to be a Home Rule victory, i. e., in the majority of the officers to be elected. On the other hand, their Republican opponents look very glum and are down in the mouth, for the simple reason, the natives don't flock with them. Why should they? "Birds of a feather flock together."

As the Home Rule party is the Hawaiian party, there is no just reason for them to flock under the banner of those who downed them. In my opinion, it is not the party, but the men who are running it. The very men who stole the country, and then bartered it away for $4,000,000 and that without right, disposing the birthright of a nation for a mess of pottage, are the very same class of people who are prominent in that party.

But one thing I am sorry for, and that is, why keep up this monstrosity, as you call it, Mr Editor, of a mongrel party. This party ought to become the Democratic party, and they can easily become such by declaring themselves as such, and having the numbers, they can readily control it. I believe the present Democratic party is a poor makeshift, as it is only being run in the interest of a certain select few, who should now be wiped out of existence. Much can be gained by having only the two National parties.

In all my former papers under this heading of "Political Drift Wood," I have endeavored to show you, Mr Editor, and your readers as well, that I know most nearly all of the candidates nominated by our leading parties, either personally or by reputation. But in most of my sketches of the respective candidates, I have, with a few exceptions, abstained from attempting to dictate who the electors should elect, yet, in many cases, I have attempted to show fairness to all concerned by exposing their past failings and weaknesses, in some of which I have been very severe, but they were facts undeniable.

Many speakers I've heard say, both Republicans and Home Rulers, to forgive and forget the past, but I tell you, Mr Editor, it is a hard matter and a stiff proposition "to forgive and to forget." It is an easy thing to forgive but a hard one to forget, and I am one in that category. To forgive, I may; but to forget, I never will nor ever shall.

It is not likely that one can easily forgive and forget what has been done to him. When one class does dirt to another by doing him up for good and forever, it cannot be expected that the one done up can forgive and forget so very easy. Nay, nay. Many may think that it is unchristian to feel so, but is it natural?

I am not a believer in the Christian teaching that if "one strikes you on one cheek, offer him the other." My "physiognomy" is not built that way. I will resent it with power that in me lay, and that every time. Strike me on one side, I will not offer him the other, but will return him in kind, providing I am able to do so; and if not, I'll do the next best.

"For ways that are dark, tricks that are vain, the heathen Chinese is peculiar." And so is Charlie Aebi, the part-Chinese Republican boss of the Fifth. He's up to all sorts of tricks these days, but I am of the opinion that his days are numbered. Very soon they will not have any further use for him, for he'll be like an orange squeezed dry.

The Russian boss of the Fourth is not far behind in tricks. I notice that you have been getting after him for an attempt at boycott and coercion. But I assert, Mr Editor, he not only did attempt, but carried out such a program, thinking probably this country to be like Siberia, from which he fled. He ought to be there and get a taste of it rather than mingle with the people of a free country.

Desperation is a child born of despair, and I am given to believe that Republicans are resorting to desperate means in order to gain their ends. But I think they will not be able to gain those ends in such a way. They may as well give up the ghost now, as nothing will avail or save them.

In yesterday's Advertiser, I notice it gave a great account of the street corner Republican meeting of last Saturday night, outside Saloon door, where our alleged new Governor spoke. I must say that that report was a hoax and a fake as far as it went, very unbecoming a Sunday paper. Of the great Home Rule meeting at the Orpheum the same night, a few lines over half a dozen was all it saw fit to give. Yet the truth is very far from it and the people need never believe it, for its manner is well-known.

Even at this late day, I am still sorry that Mr Testa did not stay in the fight, for I believe him to be a good fighter and would stay by his convictions of what is right and proper for all concerned. As he is out of this fight, it may be just as well that he did remain out. There's one thing still to be said in his favor he has never yet been politically downed at the polls.

This campaign has mainly been one of beer and luau with the Republicans, and Home Rulers have mainly been benefitted, i. e., they have eaten and drank their fill at the expense of their political opponents. For myself, I don't blame them, for they were given these things without asking and they have availed themselves of the bounteous charity of these hypocrites who profess to love them more than themselves and their brethren.

But of the energetic and strenuous Republican county boss, Wm Henry, the jailor of Oahu Prison, he may yet have a better opportunity of feeding Pahia, his wife's relative, and will probably give him lots of s--- to fill his calabash. He may also likely feed Joker Lucas on prickly pears, for he knows what they are, to be followed up by a good, strong dose of a good and strenuous cathartic for a strenuous lot.

Time was that our supposed friends of the Republican stripe when they had no earthly use for the kanaka; but now, they have that heavenly and saintly love for them.
