

WINTHROP PLACED BEHIND BARS.

Says He Enjoys Speaking Acquaintance With Campbell.

DELAY IN COURT PROCEEDINGS.

Still Hunting for "Pete"—Campbell Identifies Winthrop—False Reports Regarding Plaintiff's Habits—Police at Work Gathering Evidence, Etc.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 11.—Captain Lees added a notch to his record yesterday when, after four days of searching he put the alleged kidnaper, Oliver W. Winthrop, behind the steel bars and heavy doors of the City Prison. He has piled up enough evidence, moreover, to make matters look dubious for the captive, and has followed out the clues so well that the capture of Pete, the man of the mask and revolver, is said to be the next step in this singular case of crime.

Winthrop was captured by Detective Cody in Oakland yesterday morning, and he was taken to the City Prison in San Francisco before noon. The arrest was made on Sixteenth street, near San Pablo avenue, and it is believed that Winthrop had been to the Postoffice a short time before and was then preparing for an early flight from the State. He had a ticket for Mojave, bought on Saturday, and was waiting only for final word from his family. In case of alarm he was prepared for instant departure, and the Chief of Detectives thinks he meant to fly last evening.

Soon after his man had arrived, Lees served on him two bench warrants, and at 4:30 p. m. had him taken from the detectives' room in the City Hall to the City Prison, and there formally charged with robbery and assault with intent to commit murder. Winthrop was cool and unconcerned, but there was a nervous twitching of his clean-shaven lips which betrayed his emotion and distress. After being booked, he asked to be put in the same cell in which he had been previously confined, as he evidently thought it would again prove to be put in the same cell in which he was lucky. He will be arraigned Friday.

When Campbell was brought into the room with Winthrop the prisoner inquired casually of his Hawkshaw vis-à-vis "Who's that?"

And then the Hawaiian patriarch, lifting his hand dramatically, said thrice, "That is the man. That is the man. That is the man."

Winthrop did not flinch. Instead he coolly bit a piece from the plug of tobacco he carried.

When interviewed his first statement—in fact, the sentence that alternated with every other one—was, "I've nothing to say."

H. W. Matthews, the attorney who defended him successfully on the murder charge before, had talked with him and he had taken his warnings to heart.

"I'm as mum as an oyster until my attorney releases me," he said.

"Yes, I know Campbell," he said, in response to a question. "I've seen him twice."

"Have I spoken to him? Well, yes; once."

The name of Donald Archibald Urquhart has been connected with the Campbell kidnapping affair, but Captain Lees professes to believe that there is "nothing in it." The coincidences are strong enough, however, to provide a basis for rumors that the young mining man's connection with the case did not end with Winthrop's invitation to assist in the abduction business.

The friends of Campbell are indignant of the reports that he is given to going on sprees and afterward tells marvelous stories of being kidnapped and robbed. They denounce these stories as part of the plan of the defense of Winthrop.

Fred Wundenberg, a well-known Honolulu man, who was formerly Postmaster-General of the Hawaiian Government, said yesterday: "I cannot understand why these stories are circulated against Mr. Campbell. I have lived all my life in the Hawaiian islands, and I have known Campbell for twenty-five years or more. I never heard of this man James Douglass who pretends to have been steward on Government vessels. This statement shows the man a liar, as the steamers are not Government boats, but belong to the Wilder Steamship Company, of which Consul-General Wilder is a member.

"I have asked many people who have lived in Honolulu if they ever heard of Douglass and they say they have not. I have known all the stewards of the two steamers in question for many years and no Douglass ever served in that capacity on them to my knowledge. Though Douglass is not known by people from Honolulu, he may have been a hanger-on around the low saloons he mentioned. Mr. Campbell never went to them. The Keystone became so notorious it had to be closed up, and the Anchor was of the same class."

Consul-General Charles Wilder endorses the statement made by Mr. Wundenberg and adds: "I never heard of Mr. Campbell going on sprees and telling wild stories of his robbery. Had Mr. Campbell been in the habit of doing what this man Douglass says it would have been known all over Honolulu. I can truthfully say that I never heard of anything of the kind."

James Campbell was seen at the Hotel Vendome in San Jose last evening. He said he did not know Douglass and that there was not a word of truth in his story.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 15.—Winthrop's second season in the criminal court opened yesterday, when he appeared before Judge Wallace to be arraigned for the kidnapping of James Campbell.

A discussion arose during an endeavor of the defense to postpone the arraignment, but the Court would not hear to it, saying there was no reason why the arraignment should not be made at once. Then followed the reading of the indictment.

At the conclusion of the reading the accused was requested to plead, but Attorney Bell interposed an objection, asking a week's time in which to plead. Black said he was anxious to have the case proceed, but Bell insisted that he had not had time to examine the indictment or the qualifications of the Grand Jurors, and the sufficiency of the indictment might be attacked. Black said he wanted a speedy hearing in order to be sure of the attendance of the prosecuting witness. Bell asserted that he was equally anxious for a speedy hearing, and the Court gave the defendant until 10 a. m. Monday to plead.

The identity of "Pete" is still as much a mystery as ever. Josephine Dunton, the adopted daughter of Mrs. Margaret Dunton, is the only person besides Campbell who saw the man at the California-street house and who can give a description of him. She says she went there to get her books, and knocked on the back door. A man came out of the house, carefully closing the door into the conservatory behind him, thence into the yard, and asked her what she wanted. During the conversation that ensued she had a good opportunity to examine him. She says he was about five feet three or four inches in height, of slim build, small-featured, brown-haired and dirty. His hands were small, and evidently unused to toil. He smoked a cigarette. He was in his shirt sleeves, and his vest and trousers were of some dark material. He talked and acted like a hoodlum, she says, but the most remarkable fact about his appearance were what she describes as "streaks" upon his face.

Settle Venezuela Affair.

LONDON, Aug. 14.—First Lord of the Treasury, A. J. Balfour, in the Commons today, replying to Harcourt, who requested information relative to the progress of negotiations for the arbitration of the Venezuela dispute, asking whether the apparent difficulty had been removed by the proposal of the United States contained in the dispatch of June 21st, said the Government was still considering the latest proposals of Secretary Olney, which are regarded as opening the way for an equitable settlement. Balfour added that the Government had every reason to expect the pending negotiations would lead to an early settlement of the dispute.

MR. BRYAN ACCEPTS HIS NOMINATION.

Talks Silver to Thousands of Gold New Yorkers.

HAROLD AGAINST ELDER SEWALL.

Makes His First Republican Campaign Speech—Hilborn Sure of Renomination—Fusion in Washington and Iowa—Gold Democrats Conferring.

NEW YORK, Aug. 12.—That the interest of the whole city of New York was focused today upon Madison Garden, where William J. Bryan of Nebraska and Arthur Sewall of Maine, who were to be formally notified of their nomination by the Democratic party for the offices of President and Vice President of the United States, was proved by the groups of sovereign electors, which as early as the middle of the afternoon began to come under the trees in Madison Square. By 5 o'clock they had been reinforced by hundreds, and at 6 o'clock were multiplied to expectant thousands, and before 7 o'clock were swelled to a straining, clamorous army.

Bryan came on the platform on the arm of Chairman James K. Jones, followed by Sewall with George Stone of Missouri, and Bland with Elliott Danforth. Senator William M. Stewart and Senator John P. St. John occupied the boxes. The cheers for Mrs. Bryan had not ended when the foremost personage of the hour, the Democratic candidate for President, appeared and pushed in through the same doorway.

As the young statesman stood at the front of the platform a flag was raised and waved just above him in the gallery, so that its folds swept down as a background for his form and made him the one figure of the whole assemblage. The cheer that broke forth was of tremendous force. Fans and hats and handkerchiefs fluttered in the thick, sultry heat, and the cry of "Bryan! Bryan!" was repeated until the crowd wearied.

The candidate bowed his head several times, but it was only when he sat down at the right of the stand that the people took notice of the men who accompanied him.

Bryan's reply to the notification address was devoted almost entirely to the money question. In his opening remarks he said:

"We do not underestimate the forces arrayed against us, nor are we unmindful of the importance of the struggle in which we are engaged, but, relying for success upon the righteousness of our cause, we shall defend with all possible vigor the position taken by our party. We are not surprised that some of our opponents, in the absence of better arguments, resort to abusive epithets; but they may rest assured that no language, however violent, or invectives, however vehement, will lead us to depart a single hair's breadth from the course marked out by the National convention. The citizens, either public or private, who assail the character or question the patriotism of the delegates assembled in the Chicago convention assail the character and question the patriotism of the millions who have arrayed themselves under the banner raised there."

"It has been charged by men standing high in business, in political circles, that our platform is a menace to private security and public safety; and it has been asserted that those whom I have the honor for the time being to represent not only meditate an attack upon the rights of property, but are the foes of social order and national honor. Those who stand upon the Chicago platform are prepared to make known and to defend every emotion which influences them, every purpose which animates them and every hope which inspires them. They understand the genius of our institutions; they are staunch supporters of the form of government under which we live, and they build their faith upon the foundations laid by their fathers."

After the meeting adjourned Bryan spoke to a crowd of 10,000 people in front of the Bartholdi Hotel. His audience was largely workmen and he was loudly cheered.

Actress to Talk for Bryan.

KANSAS CITY, Aug. 19.—Miss Helena Hartnat Mitchell, an actress, will shortly take the stump for Bryan. Miss Mitchell will open at Bloomington, Ill., on Labor Day, and from that time up to election will make daily speeches over the country.

SON AGAINST FATHER.

Harold M. Sewall Speaks for the Republican Party.

FOXCROFT, Me., Aug. 14.—The Republican campaign was opened here tonight by a big rally, at which Harold M. Sewall of Bath, Me., son of the Democratic candidate for Vice President, delivered his first speech on the issues of the day. Republicans and Democrats came from far and near. The meeting was held in the open air and over 2,000 people attended. Sewall declared for protection, which he said was first in importance in the campaign, and then delivered a strong argument in favor of sound money. Sewall will stump the State in opposition to the ticket of Bryan and Sewall. He is on good terms with his father, and they agree on everything except politics.

APPEAL TO GOLD DEMOCRATS.

Call for a State Convention in New York.

NEW YORK, Aug. 19.—The sub-committee of the Democratic party reform organization met this afternoon and after a consultation issued a call for a State convention to be held at Syracuse on Monday, August 31st, to choose delegates to the convention of the National Democratic party at Indianapolis, and to nominate or provide for the nomination of Presidential Electors, Governor and other State officers, or to take such action in the premises as the convention may determine to be advisable.

Fusion in Washington.

ELLENBURG, Wash., Aug. 14.—Fusion of the Populists, Democrats and Free Silver men who left the Republican party has been effected in the State of Washington, and the name of the combined party will be the People's party.

Hilborn Will be Nominated.

OAKLAND, Aug. 15.—Congressman Hilborn swept Alameda county in the primaries today, and his renomination is assured, since he has pledged to him more votes for the Vallejo convention than are necessary to bring about that result.

Fusion in Iowa.

OTTUMWA, Iowa, Aug. 13.—Complete fusion was effected by Democrats, Populists and Free Silver Republicans at the Democratic State convention here yesterday.

MRS. DOLE INTERVIEWED.

Say Everything Is Quiet and Nothing to Tell.

Mrs. Sanford B. Dole, wife of the President of the Republic of Hawaii, arrived here yesterday by the Peru from Honolulu, says the Call of August 12th. She will start this evening for the East. When seen at the Occidental last night she said:

"All that I can say regarding Island affairs is that everything is quiet. There is simply nothing to tell. Mr. Dole is well, and just as I was leaving he was starting for one of the other islands on a little vacation trip, which he is probably enjoying now. My visit here is a private matter. I am on my way East, first to see my nephew, Guy T. Dennett, entered in Williams College. Afterward I shall visit New York and Boston before returning here."

Gail Hamilton Dead.

HAMILTON, Mass., Aug. 17.—Miss Mary Abigail Dodge (Gail Hamilton) died at her home here at 9 o'clock tonight from the effects of a stroke of paralysis received yesterday. She never recovered consciousness, and breathed her last quietly and painlessly, surrounded by all the members of her family.

ATHENS, Aug. 19.—A telegram from Tarrisa, Greece, says that the Turkish troops have massacred eighty old men, women and children in the villages of Trambuno and Komino, Macedonia. The remainder of the inhabitants escaped to the mountains. The troops carried off the crops and burned both the villages.

NEW YORK, Aug. 19.—A special to the Herald from Canea, Crete, says: The Deputies were called together by the Porte's special commissioner, who received them in a most friendly manner. He came at once to the point by drawing their attention to the fact that there were in the demands they had formulated several which were detrimental to and were attacks upon the supremacy of the Sublime Porte, and that these would have to be withdrawn.

He said the truth of this was apparent in such clauses, for instance, as that which asks for the powers to make commercial treaties. When this clause and others of a similar nature are withdrawn it is quite probable that the demands will be granted.

The Greek Government is at last tendering wise advice to the Deputies, and recommends them to continue negotiations. The Deputies are now in council. The Imperial Commissioner will probably give a reply to the Deputies this week.

NANSEN HOME AGAIN.

But He Didn't Reach the Pole—Dogs Gave Out.

CHRISTIANIA, Aug. 13.—The Aftenposten announces that Dr. Nansen, the Arctic explorer, has arrived at Vardoe Island, Norway, on board the steamer Windward, which recently went to Franz Josef Land to bring back the Jackson-Farnsworth expedition.

The Verdensgang, a daily newspaper of this city, has received the following telegram from Dr. Nansen: "Home safe, after a fortunate expedition."

VARDOE, Norway, Aug. 14.—Dr. Nansen says the Fram drifted with the ice in a westerly direction to 84 degrees, and he expects the vessel will eventually arrive at Spitzbergen. He adds that wherever they penetrated the ice was found to be broken. Large patches of water were also found 3,800 metres deep. Below a depth of 150 metres the water was apparently warmer, probably owing to the Gulf stream. Rocky points of which the explorers had no knowledge prevented entrance into the Olenek river for days.

In consequence of a scarcity of dogs Dr. Nansen was compelled to turn back at 86 degrees 15 minutes. He added that if he had been provided with a sufficient number of dogs and canoes the pole would have been reached.

School Question Settled.

OTTAWA, Aug. 19.—It has been ascertained on good authority that the Manitoba school question is as good as settled, and there will not be any necessity for remedial legislation. The decision has been arrived at after numerous interviews between the members of the Provincial Government of Manitoba and the Dominion Government.

Possible Revolt in Philippines.

HAVANA, Aug. 17.—A majority of the Madrid press insists that there is still serious menace of a fresh revolt in the Philippine Islands, and the Japanese, for selfish reasons, are openly encouraging the dissatisfied native element in constant conspiracy against the Spanish rulers in the islands. The embers of revolution were apparently never extinguished after the last war. The Cortez in Madrid has urged the passage of an extraordinary budget to allow an increase in the naval forces in the Philippine Islands.

CETTINJE, Montenegro, Aug. 18.—Victor Emanuel, Prince of Naples, the eldest son and heir apparent of the King of Italy, is betrothed to Princess Helene of Montenegro, the third daughter of the reigning Prince of Montenegro.

WINS JAPANESE LINE.

New Steamships Will Make San Diego Their Port.

SAN DIEGO, Aug. 19.—A dispatch from Chicago, signed by A. H. Butler, published here this morning, says:

"Arrangements with the railroad are complete. I have written authority that the steamers will go to San Diego if San Diego and Los Angeles comply with requirements made when we were there. I leave here for San Diego tomorrow, stopping one day in St. Louis. Mr. Asano leaves tomorrow for New York."

This refers to the arrangements between the Toyo Kisen Kaisha Steamship Company of Japan and the Santa Fe Railroad Company, to run steamers between Yokohama and San Diego for handling overland business, especially cotton, to Japan.

At a conference with San Diego and Los Angeles people Mr. Asano stated what the company wanted, which was a guarantee of 4,000 tons a month cargo on the outbound steamers. He had no doubt as to cargoes bound for this country, but wanted to be sure of return cargoes. Arrangements with the Santa Fe, he thought, would be such as would settle the question of handling the cotton through this port, so that the bulk of the freight would be provided for. Perhaps 2,000 tons of cotton per month would be handled.

After a canvass of the situation San Diego and Los Angeles committees agreed to enter into a bond to guarantee 4,000 tons of freight per month, with the further agreement that if freight was not forthcoming the amount would be made up in cash at the rate of $3 per ton gold or $6 per ton silver.

There will be a naval review and a great show of pomp. On Sunday Li will visit the tomb of General Grant and in the evening will dine with John Russell Young, George F. Seward, John E. Ward and other Americans with whom he became acquainted in China.

SEWALL'S SHIPS LIBERED.

Some Trouble for One of Mr. Bryan's Running Mates.

NEW YORK, Aug. 14.—Two ships belonging to Arthur Sewall, the Democratic vice-presidential candidate, were seized by the marshal on Hbels yesterday morning, but were subsequently released on the filing of a bond. Mr. Sewall is the head of the firm of Arthur Sewall & Co., ship builders of Bath, Me. His partner is unknown to the libelants, who designate him in the complaint as "John Doe."

The two ships, the Iroquois and W. F. Babcock, were repaired on July 2 and July 15 last at the dry docks of the John N. Robb Company. The amount of the bill was $848 and $852. The repairers declare that they have repeatedly asked for the payment of their bills, but could get no money. A second attachment against the Iroquois was obtained by Lewis Davis, owner of the barkentine E. S. Powell, which was injured in a collision with the Iroquois off Long Branch on June 22, and damaged, it is alleged, to the extent of $8,000, for which amount action was now brought.

ANOTHER RECORD BROKEN.

St. Paul Makes Fast Passage From Europe.

NEW YORK, Aug. 14.—The American liner St. Paul, Captain Jameson, arrived from Southampton this morning after another record breaking passage of six days and thirty-one minutes. This beats her own former best record by five hours and one minute, and that of her sister ship, the St. Louis, by one hour and fifty-three minutes. The St. Paul, just off the dry dock, left Southampton last Saturday at twenty-two minutes past noon, passing the Needles at 1:44 p. m. She reached the Sandy Hook lightship at 9:15 o'clock this morning, covering a total distance of 3,046.1 knots in six days and thirty-one minutes. This eclipses all previous records. The average speed was 21.8 knots per hour. The run of each day was as follows: 493.1, 524, 516.3, 525.1, 530.8, and 456.2; total distance, 3,046.1 knots.

HOLY WAR THREATENED.

Very Unpleasant State of Affairs in China.

VANCOUVER, B. C., Aug. 12.—The steamer Empress of Japan, which arrived today, brought mail advices from the Orient as follows:

The news from Kansu is to the effect that the famous Tung Fuhshang, in obedience to the imperial command, has begun a massacre of all Mohammedans that he comes across. At Hsinlingfu he slew 3,000 business men and sold their wives and female children. Fears are entertained of a general rising, especially in Pinliantu and Hattien, which have hitherto remained faithful. The rebellion hitherto was confined to a few Mohammedans, the declaration of the "holy war" being withheld until necessary as a measure of self-preservation. The Mohammedans across the Russian frontier have promised their aid, and it is feared a little spark lighted near the Thibetan border may grow into a great conflagration embracing Central Asia and India.

Importing Gold.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 19.—Acting Secretary Curtis today received a telegram from the Assistant Secretary at New York stating that arrangements had been made there to import $6,000,000 in gold from Europe. While foreign exchange is slightly above the importing point, it is said that should it decline during the next few days as rapidly as during the last week, gold importations from Europe would yield a good profit. The officials are hopeful that the tide has turned, and that from now on the reserve will be rapidly increased.

Noted Scientist Dead.

BOSTON, Mass., Aug. 19.—Josiah Dwight Whitney, LL. D., professor of geology at Harvard, the oldest instructor of the university on the basis of length of service, and the most famous geologist of the country, died today at New London, N. H. He was appointed State Geologist of California in 1860, and conducted a topographical, geological and natural history survey of that State. Besides various pamphlets and reports, he issued six volumes on this subject.

Tennyson's Widow Dead.

LONDON, Aug. 10.—Baroness Tennyson, widow of the late poet laureate, is dead. She was a daughter of Henry Sellwood of Somerset and a niece of Sir John Franklin.

When the late poet laureate first met her at Somerset she possessed much beauty and charm. Carlyle described her as having bright, glittering blue eyes, "and," he adds, "were it not that she seems so very delicate in health, good might be argued of Tennyson's adventure."

KATE FIELD'S LAST WISH.

The Woman's Press Association Takes Action.

The Pacific Coast Woman's Press Association took official action yesterday in regard to bringing home the remains of the late Kate Field, says the Chronicle of August 11. The expressed sentiment of the members was that they would co-operate with the San Francisco Press Club, which had given $50 to the fund, or if desired they would take the initiative. The sum of $30 was contributed from the association funds and many of the members signified their intention of personally contributing.

A committee composed of the president, Mrs. Ada Henry Van Pelt, Mrs. Ella M. Sexton and Mrs. Frances Fuller Victor were appointed to attend to all details. They intend to solicit all press clubs throughout the Union to contribute. This is to give all a chance to honor the memory of Miss Field, and also to have a subscription sufficiently large to place a monument over her last resting place when her last wish shall have been fulfilled.

Short addresses were made yesterday by Mrs. Sarah B. Cooper, Miss Agnes Manning, Mrs. S. L. Foster, Mrs. Ada Van Pelt, Mrs. P. T. Dickinson and Mrs. Florence Percy Matheson.

It is estimated that a fund of $1,000 will be required. The club expects to take charge of the remains when they reach San Francisco, and a memorial service will be held.

Cholera in Egypt.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 12.—"Increase of cholera in Egypt" is the principal feature of the report received from the land of the Pharaohs by Surgeon General Wyman of the Marine Hospital service. "Notwithstanding the measures taken by Dr. Rogers Pasha," says the report, "the proportions of the cholera outbreak show that the disease has got beyond the control of the sanitary authorities."

Wreck of the St. Paul.

MONTEREY, Aug. 9.—The steamer St. Paul, Captain Downing, bound to San Francisco from San Pedro, was wrecked last night at 11:30 about one mile below Point Pinos; no lives lost so far as known.

ROYAL WIDOWS.

One or More in Nearly Every Country in Europe.

It is just a thought astonishing to reckon the number of royal widows, regnant or uncrowned, now more or less in public view. First, of course, comes her majesty, Victoria, empress of India, queen of England, Scotland and Ireland. Next to her one must rank her eldest child, Victoria, empress dowager of Prussia, more commonly known as Empress Frederick. Then, in the same family circle, there are the Duchess of Albany, born Princess of Waldeck-Pyrmont, and widow of the English queen's youngest son, and the Princess of Battemberg.

Upon the continent there are a pair of widowed queens regent—Christine of Spain and Emma of Holland. Both have won golden opinions from those they govern, no less than from impartial onlookers. Queen Emma is, by the way, sister to the Duchess of Albany, who is said to have been the first choice of the gay old reprobate, King William of Holland. She refused him, but her sister threw herself into the breach, inspired doubtless by the knowledge that reigning sovereigns, even though somewhat battered and the worse for wear, were not likely to come often a-wooing in staveling if princely households. So they were married, and there is a little queen of Holland to cheat the anticipations of the house of Cumberland.

But none of the queens or empresses can put out of court Dagmar, sometime of Denmark, now the widowed zarina, Marie Feodorovna. It must have gone hard with her, in spite of the splendors the change implied, to give over her Danish name, which means "day dawn," for an appellation so cumbersome. Feodorovna means, by the way, "daughter of Theodore," as does Paulovna ("daughter of Paul"). The termination "ovna," or "owna," has in all cases that significance in Russian names, just as the suffix "vitch" means always "son of." Thus Alexandrovitch is "the son of Alexander."

Austrian royalty has two widows outright, between whom it is hard to say which has the more tragic story. All the world still remembers the tragedy of Meyerling—how the Crown Prince Rudolph shot himself and the beautiful Marie Vecsara, leaving his wife, Stephanie of Belgium, by no means disconsolate, as the pair had been on the point of judicial separation. Still the shock and shadow of it all for the time overwhelmed her. But she has no continuing sorrow such as has driven to madness Carlotta, once empress of Mexico, who missed seeing her husband, Maximilian, shot only because she had gone to Europe asking help for him, where no help was. Yet it is a question if, in spite of all, she is not less unhappy than her sister, the Empress Elizabeth of Austria, who has been for long years widowed in all but name.

Besides Empress Eugenie, widowed, childless, a withered shadow of her beautiful self, France has a Duchess of Orleans, whom the Legitimists rank as queen dowager—not to mention the wife of her murdered president, Carnot. And there is more than a Gallic trace in the youngest of royal widows, the Bonaparte princess, who married her uncle, the Duke d'Aosta, and since his death has set the Italian court wild with her freaks.—New York Journal.

The Musical Cat.

My blue Persian cat is a gentle, sentimental creature, slightly inclined to melancholy and, strangely, even troublesomely, affectionate to one or two select friends. She had been accustomed from the time I first had her—last summer—to be continually with me, generally on my lap or shoulder. When the winter evenings began to draw on, I took to playing the piano, which I had not done during the summer. The cat could not understand why, when this was going on, she was not allowed to take up her usual position. In order, I suppose, to show her disapproval of my occupation, she would continually climb up either on to me or the piano and pat my hands with her paws, and pull them off the keys—very gently and without scratching at all. This became such a nuisance that I could not play unless I put her out of the room, but she would sit outside and howl, and when any one opened the door she would rush in and begin da capo. At last I thought of a way of treating her—viz, like a rational being. I placed a chair next to the music stool, as though for a duet, and put her on it, and explained the matter to her, and from that time I have had no further trouble, unless I forget to put her chair for her when I begin to play.—London Spectator Correspondence.

Boston Culture.

"Deliver us," says the Boston Traveler, "from the New Yorker's use of the letter r, as it occurs in 'church,' 'first,' 'bird' or as it appears when they pronounce the words Cuba or banana. The New Yorker speaks of his 'chunch,' tells how he was 'faist,' loves the pretty 'buids' and believes in the cause of 'Cuber.' We must concede that we are a bit off in a few words, 'grass' being one of them. The New Yorker pronounces grass as it is spelled, the Bostonian draws it out as 'grurse.' For all our shortcomings there is less slurring in our pronunciation than in any other city, and it is a well known fact among our English cousins of the better sort that Bostonians speak cleaner English than citizens from any other city of the Union."

A Division of Labor.

The statesman who is new to public life had been interviewed, and he felt nervous. "Now, you understand," he said, "that I don't want to be misrepresented in anything that I have said." "Of course. Do you want to be quoted literally?" "N-no. I don't know as I do. I believe in every man stickin to his particular line of duty. I'll put in the opinions and you put in the grammar."—Washington Star.

WANTED TO BE AN OCTOPUS.

The Country Swain's Statement and His Sweetheart's Fond Reply.

Surfeited with wonders, the young couple from the country had succumbed to fatigue and were seated on a bale of hay in an obscure corner of the menagerie tent. The band played in the distance, and the voices of the side show lecturers were only a confused buzz when they penetrated this quiet nook. The man who was carrying water to the elephant paused to look at them, but they were oblivious to his presence.

"Well," she said, "I dunno as I want ter see no more sights fur a long time."

"That's just how I feel," he replied. "I'd be satisfied now ter settle down an live quiet the rest o' my life."

"What do ye reckon is the most astonishing thing we've seed?"

"It's hard ter make a choice. But I know which one I'd rather be this minute."

"I reckon ye'd like ter be the flyin trapeze man," she ventured.

"No, siree."

"Mebbe the ringmaster."

"Nope."

"Which would ye rather be?"

"Do ye remember the animal in the glass tank they called an octopus?"

"Course."

"He had nigh on ter 100 arms."

"I guess he had, though I didn't stop ter count 'em."

"I'd like ter be him."

"What fur?"

"So's I could use all them arms in huggin you 100 times all ter once."

"Josier," she said gravely, "that's a very wrong wish."

"Tain't neither."

"Yes, 'tis. It's sinful ter waste time wishin fur the impossible 'stead o' makin the best o' sech opportunities ez ye happen ter have."

The man who was carrying water to the elephants turned hastily away and proceeded with his duties. There are moments which defy intrusion.—Detroit Free Press.

How It Started.

Pinkie—How lovely! I see you have one of those splendid new Nonesuch bikes.

Ethel—Yes. Isn't it a dear? What make do you ride?

Pinkie—Oh, I ride a Scorchem.

Ethel—They're magnificent.

Pinkie—Yes, so light and durable.

Ethel—How much does your wheel weigh?

Pinkie—Twenty-two pounds.

Ethel—Twenty-two pounds? Why, mine only weighs 21.

Pinkie—But then yours, you know, is not so durable.

Ethel—The Nonesuch not durable! Why, that is admitted by every one.

Pinkie—Nonsense! A friend of mine bought one and it went to pieces in a month.

Ethel—I don't believe it.

Pinkie—What! You don't believe me?

Ethel—No, I don't. One Nonesuch will outlast a dozen Scorchems. They're the worst looking rattlers I ever laid eyes on.

Pinkie (furiously)—You're a horrid, contemptible thing, and I hope you'll never speak to me again!

Ethel (complacently)—Don't worry. I wouldn't compromise myself by speaking to any one who rode a Scorchem.—New York Sun.

An Easier Method.

Old Flintrock (sarcastically)—Huh! That's just like a woman. After I have told you about a bloodthirsty wretch who went out and bought a hatchet and split his wife's head open with it just because she asked him for $50 to buy a new hat with, you remark that it was "perfectly ridiculous!" That's feminine intelligence for you! Bah!

Mrs. Flintrock (meaningly)—I meant that he went to a deal of unnecessary trouble. If he had simply handed her the money without a word of protest, the poor woman would have fallen dead on the spot, and he would not have needed to bother about the hatchet.—New York World.

Political Measurement.

"I've seen the machine workers," said Senator Sorghum's emissary.

"How do they feel?"

"Their enthusiasm is beyond measure."

"No, it isn't. There is always one way of measuring their enthusiasm."

"How?"

"By the barrel."—Washington Star.

As It Struck Uncle Zeke.

Uncle Zeke (from Upcreek)—What's that long thing that looks like a ladder runnin clean up to the top of that tall buildin?

City Nephew—That's a fire escape.

Uncle Zeke—Gosh! Can't it escape through the chimney?—Chicago Tribune.

Only One of the Kind.

"Most extraordinary man."

"In what way?"

"I think he's the only man in the country who has a manufacturing plant of any description and hasn't begun to make bicycles."—Chicago Post.

She Loved Him.

He knew she had had her dinner and had laid down for a nap.

He silent stood and listened, for he dreaded some mishap.

And yet he feared to rouse her as her breathing, low and clear,

Rose o'er his gentle footsteps, making music in his ear.

For months he'd lived so near her that he knew her every way:

He'd seen her in her varied moods, both angry and at play,

Now romping with the children, now her eyes in angry glare.

And once she had transfixed him with a solid, stony stare.

Still he knew she dearly loved him, and in her artless way

"He's good enough to eat," she said, "or will be some fine day."

And yet he feared to rouse her as he moved about the house.

You see, she was the pussy cat and he a small brown mouse.

PUZZLE NO. 2.

Mr. Armstrong Smith, the well known teacher, submits the above for solution. The idea is to make two straight cuts and have the pieces form a perfect square. Answers will be received up to Friday.

A Boy's Sympathy.

A 14-year-old boy went into his mother's presence with one eye black, his lips swollen and a ragged scratch across his cheek, the blood from which he had wiped off with his shirt sleeve. "Nicomachus," cried the parent as he crawled in, "have you been fighting again?"

"No," he sullenly grunted.

"Then what on earth ails your face?"

"Jim Green's ma's dead," he replied.

"Well, suppose she is. What's that to do with your disfigured face?"

"I seed Jim just now," answered the boy, "and he looked awful sad and lonesome."

"Well?"

"I didn't know what ter do ter make him bright and happy like, and, feelin sorry for him, I jest went up and let him hit me a few licks."

"Did it help him?" asked the mother.

"Help him?" echoed the boy in a surprised tone. "Of course it did. Don't you think it'd make you feel good to bust a fellow that way what had licked you every week for a year?"—Pearson's Weekly.

A Horse Tale.

There are some people who will not believe the following story of a horse which takes the end of a hose pipe in his mouth and holds it there until his thirst is quenched, but it is said to be a fact. The horse is owned by F. S. Brown of Ansonia, Conn., and the horse is stabled at Curtis' livery barn. It was several days ago that one of the stablemen, while fooling with him, offered him the end of the hose pipe, through which the water was flowing, and, to his surprise, the horse took it in his mouth and held it there until he had a good drink. The next time the horse was led to the trough he of his own accord took hold of the pipe and succeeded in getting the end in his mouth and had a good drink and continues to do so day after day.—Boston Herald.

A Terrible Strain.

Son—If you think I can be a newspaper writer like you, what is the use of my taking up so many studies on subjects that newspapers never talk about?

Father (a dramatic critic)—They are simply for mental discipline and the cultivation of the powers of memory analysis, etc.

Son—What good will that do?

Father—If you do not acquire great powers of concentration, combined with wonderful penetration, backed by enormous retention, you will never be able to get the hang of the family history outlined by the servants in the first act of a new play.—London Answers.

WALLACE R. FARRINGTON, EDITOR.
FRIDAY, AUGUST 23.

The catalogue of Oahu College, recently published, and copies of which will be forwarded to the United States by the next mail, is one of the best pamphlets of the kind that has ever been issued in this country. It is an evidence of the progressive character of the institution, and sets forth in interesting detail what is being done to place the best educational advantages at the disposal of the young men and women of this country.

The biggest stir this Puritan place has had in many a year was caused by the appearance this morning of the first number of the Sunday edition of the Daily Star. All the up-to-date population heartily indorse the advance step, but the enterprise is bitterly denounced by a number of the church party. The Star people are serene. They and they have made a hit, and in answer to ensure point to the publication of the old missionary paper on Monday mornings, necessitating all Sunday work, and to the Sunday band concerts and Sunday target shooting lately indorsed by the Government. An attempt will be made to stop the Sunday Star, but its managers announce that they intend to keep it up any cost in the way of defense in court.—Honolulu correspondent of the Chronicle.

Yes? Possibly some one connected with the paper "without strings" knows the author of the above. The statements made are entirely misleading, and misrepresent the Government as well as the community. As to the Sunday paper we have no fight, but it is about time a band was put around the head of one of our local correspondents.

One of our correspondents suggests that now the opera house has been completely renovated and is to all intents and purposes a new structure, it be given a new name. This is by no means an untimely suggestion although the matter of a name is not a question of supreme importance. The place first went under the name of Music Hall and later was given the title of the Royal Hawaiian Opera House. Undoubtedly the old title would serve every purpose, but we suggest that the Irwin Opera House might fit the present building very neatly, besides paying a pleasant tribute to the gentleman to whom the city is indebted for the modern reconstruction of the building. Mr. Irwin has spent his money without stint and has given the country the best the market affords. The past record of the opera house in this country has not been such as to warrant any man building as a financial investment. The time and money Mr. Irwin has expended is practically a gift to the community, and the least the people who profit by his liberality can do is to associate his name with this feature of Hawaiian progress in which he has been the prime mover.

GERMAN INFLUENCE IN JAPANESE LAW.

Japan, following out the spirit of modern progress that has obtained a firm footing in its official circles, has of late undertaken the revision of the civil and criminal legal code of the Empire, which has now been reconstructed on modern lines. This action gives added interest to a work published by Prof. Lonholm of the University of Tokio, in which the influence of European nations in the legal development of the country is reviewed. He divides the history of this development into two periods—the older French and the later German.

In the earlier days, when the French exercised the controlling influence, the Japanese were passive, trusting the construction of the legal code entirely in the hands of a French professor. Later, however, when the Japanese became more independent, thought and acted for themselves, they leaned more toward the basis of German ideas and ideals. In the first period the legal code was a faithful reflex of French methods and customs, while in the present code the German system has been taken as an example, and modified to suit the Japanese peculiarities. Prof. Lonholm maintains that "throughout the chain of islands from Riu-Kiu to the boundaries of Kamtschatka German civil law ideas and methods are in force."

While this may be regarded as extraordinary by many, the author states that it is only an evidence of the diminishing power of France in the Orient, and the steady growth of the German influence, which is slowly but surely crowding out the French that was predominant there for centuries. Another evidence of the growth of the German power is given in the fact that Prof. Rosler of the University of Rostock was selected to prepare a body of mercantile or business laws for the Empire. This system is described as essentially German, although dotted here and there with English and French elements.

MRS. WHITING WRITES.

Would Have Miss Field's Body Rest in Hawaii.

BOSTON, Mass., Aug. 11.—Miss Lillian Whiting, an intimate friend of the late Kate Field, returned last week from a European trip and today made public the following letter regarding a report that she had sent for Miss Field's body to be exhumed and forwarded to her here in Boston:

In the first overwhelming sorrow for the loss of the earthly presence of my most beloved friend when the tidings reached me in Paris and made me feel that "the world's great space held nothing but a vacant place;" in this first shadow of a great grief, I wrote instantly to Miss Field's cousin and dearest relative, George Riddle, and also to Consul-General Mills at Honolulu expressing my earnest wish that the casket containing her mortal form should be brought to Mount Auburn and her grave be made beside her parents and other relatives buried there. This was merely an earnest wish, not a command, which I have no right to give; but when I came to know of that wonderful outpouring of love and devotion to Kate Field by the people of Hawaii then I came to fully concur with Mr. Riddle's decision that the casket should receive final burial in the lot of one of Miss Field's nearest friends in Honolulu, Mrs. Wilder, who wrote begging that this might be granted. And so the cousin who was dearest to her and other of her nearer friends have fully accepted this arrangement.

I have united with Mr. Riddle in letters to the San Francisco papers, begging that their action cease, gratefully as their interest is appreciated. To her grave I am soon to make my pilgrimage, to meet the friends whose tender devotion to her has so comforted those who knew and loved her here; to study the scenes whose beauty delighted her eye and often engaged her pen. I have returned from Europe in midsummer in order to the more quickly set off on this journey—one that though sacred should not be wholly sad. Kate Field's richly versatile genius transplanted to more favorable conditions will find its perfect flowering in the life beyond and her mortal form will lie undisturbed under that flower-laden tomb in Honolulu. LILLIAN WHITING.

GAELIC ASHORE.

Shimoneseiki, Japan the Place of the Unfortunate Occurrence.

Ten Feet of Water in Her Hold—Towed Off and Taken to Yokohama Dry Dock.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 17.—The O. & O. steamer Gaelic, from Hong Kong, August 8, for San Francisco, via Yokohama, went ashore yesterday morning near Shimoneseiki, Japan, and was not floated until this morning. She was towed to Nagasaki and will have to go on the dry dock. Her cargo will probably have to be discharged, for there was twelve feet of water in her fore hold and some of the shipments were damaged. The amount of damage to the vessel is not yet known. The Gaelic was in charge of Captain Pearne and was to have brought a large cargo of tea to this port. She is one of the regular Occidental and Oriental line of steamers.

At the office of the Pacific Mail Steamship Company the news of the Gaelic being ashore had been confirmed by a cablegram from Yokohama to the managers here. The message, it is alleged, did not give any particulars of the disaster except that the steamer was beached in the soft mud and had been pumped dry enough to permit of her being towed to a dry dock. The O. & O. officials say that the vessel was taken to Yokohama, not Nagasaki. They can not tell how long it will be before the big liner is ready for service.

The impression prevails here that the ship must either have been in collision with another steamer, as a steamer is reported to have stood by her.

It is thought that the Gaelic was beached to prevent her sinking, for it is hard to understand how a vessel could get twelve feet of water in her hold after running into soft mud.

Another theory is that the Gaelic struck on the rocks, started one of her plates and was then headed for the beach.

TO SUPPLANT THE MONOWAI.
New Steamer to be Put on the Oceanic Line.

James Mills, managing director of the Union Steamship Company of New Zealand, is expected in San Francisco in a few days en route to Auckland, says the Chronicle of August 10. Mills has been in Scotland inspecting the new steamer which is now being built by Denny Brothers, the celebrated shipbuilders of Dumbarton. This craft is destined to take the place of the Monowai, which is scheduled to make but two more round trips between here and Sydney. According to Glasgow papers, the steamer now in the course of construction will be far ahead of any steamer that ever made the trip between America and Australia, and will compare with the crack steamers of the Pacific and Oceanic line of Australia. The tonnage of the new steamer will be fully 4700, while the length is 350 feet. The steamer is to be fitted up with every modern improvement, and in this respect will be modeled after some of the famous steamers running between New York and Europe. The new vessel will have a first-class passenger capacity of 250 and second-class accommodations for 150.

The Union Steamship Company of New Zealand owns fifty steamers. It is also having built a 3000-ton passenger steamer for the New Zealand and Australian trade.

Coptic's Splendid Record.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 14.—The China steamer Coptic came in between the heads at 7:30 o'clock yesterday forenoon, proudly awaiting the opportunity to announce that on her trip she had broken two records important in the shipping annals of San Francisco. First, she had come from Yokohama in less time than the voyage was ever before accomplished by an Occidental and Oriental line ship. She made the trip in 12 days and 12 hours, exceeding her own record and coming within less than four hours of the Pacific Mail steamship China's fastest time, which is 12 days, 8 hours and 40 minutes. Secondly, she brought the largest cargo of tea ever landed in this port. She carried 1,200 tons of Formosa tea.

But a feat accomplished on her voyage which the Coptic's crew takes the greatest pride in was the beating of the world's record between Nagasaki and Kobe, on the Japan coast. Heretofore the Canadian Pacific steamer Empress of Japan has held the fastest record for the run, but the Coptic lowered it by twenty-five minutes. The Coptic averaged between 17 and 18 knots an hour on this short run.

Prince Louis in Brazil.
NEW YORK, Aug. 19.—The Herald's correspondent in Rio de Janeiro cables: The Italian cruiser Cristoforo Colombo, with Prince Louis of Savoy on board, entered port today. The Prince was visited by the Italian Minister and his suite and by representatives of the Italian colony.

W. W. DIMOND.

By the Albert which arrived a few days ago we received 128 Gurney Cleanable Refrigerators, ranging in size from the small household ice box to that used in a grocery store. It was a large invoice—not consigned, but bought outright. These refrigerators and ice boxes have nine points of excellence, to wit:

Cleanliness, free circulation; economy in the use of ice; condensation and dry air; low average temperature; freedom from condensation on the inner walls; freedom from damage by the use of ice picks; proper location of drip pipe and long life. These points are found only in the Gurney cleanable.

Now for the reason for the large purchase. There are 128 persons in Honolulu who need refrigerators, many of them have old ones. We propose leasing these refrigerators on the following term: The selling prices of the article is divided by six; when the refrigerator is delivered one-sixth of the price is paid in cash and monthly thereafter in equal payments until the entire amount is paid. If before the expiration of the six months, the lessee wishes to pay off the balance he will be entitled to a discount of five per cent. on the amount unpaid. If a customer wants to buy outright for cash, he gets five per cent. discount on the entire amount.

The Gurney cleanable can be had only of us.

SOCIETY FLURRIES.

Rumors That Mr. Astor Will Wed Royalty.

His Suit for the Daughter of the Prince of Wales—A London Sensation.

NEW YORK, Aug. 13.—The World's London cable says: High life in London has taken seriously the possibility of William Waldorf Astor marrying the Prince of Wales's daughter, Victoria. The ugly things that are said prove that British pride is touched to the quick. High life in London is no more apt to be thrown into a flurry of excitement by fanciful rumors than to be shocked by common-place immorality. But drawing-rooms and clubs have had no sensation like this for months, nor have they been so wrought up.

Ask an English woman of the circle her grounds for alarm for supposing the son of the Queen of England will permit his daughter to marry the grandson of a German fur peddler and she will answer, "But the diamond he gave the Princess Maud." It is a fact that Astor's New York properties have contributed a gem worth a fortune to the royal bride, but the circumstance that the gift was not returned is significant. It will be hard for Americans to understand how much this really means, and it is this that has set London agog. It is a tacit recognition of the renegade American on the plane of a British nobleman of the first rank.

Astor, with his millions of New York rents, has been stalking high game. To every one who has taken the trouble to observe the cautious, deliberate course adopted by the American millionaire, it has been apparent from the very outset that he had in view some definite aim, some object upon which his ambition was centered, and to which everything, his newspapers, his magazines and his vast wealth, were subordinate.

After having during the first few years of his sojourn here maintained the most reserved demeanor, that, in fact, of a social chrysalis, he has this year burst forth as a full-fledged butterfly of the most gorgeous and magnificent species, a butterfly, indeed, who manifests supreme disdain for all but the very choicest flowers of England's aristocracy. At one moment it was reported he had in view a marriage with Lady Randolph Churchill, and many even went so far as to question her sons as to the date fixed for the wedding. But it has since become apparent that W. W. Astor flies at far higher game, that he aims at nothing less than a match with the British royalty in the person of Princess Victoria, the only unmarried daughter of the Prince and Princess of Wales.

Slight as may appear the possibility of Mr. Astor's becoming the grandson-in-law of Queen Victoria, the matter is very seriously discussed as not at all unlikely in the drawing-rooms of Mayfair, in clubland and in court circles. And let it be understood right here at the very outset, there is nothing whatsoever in the English Constitution or law to stand in the way of such an alliance. One of Queen Victoria's daughters, the charming Princess Louise, is married to a commoner, her husband, Lord Lorne, being only accorded the title of Marquis by courtesy, and being nothing more than mere John Campbell in the eyes of the law.

In marrying Princess Victoria Mr. Astor would probably, like his future brother-in-law, receive the title of Duke on his wedding day, and might become as much a factor in the history of Great Britain as the lamented husband of Queen Victoria, known by the title of the Prince Consort.

A BIG BENEFIT.

Tendered the First Regiment by Elsie Adair Company.

The program for the benefit performance to the First Regiment by the Elsie Adair Company and local talent next Saturday night promises to be a great artistic success.

The entertainment will begin by a musical farce in which Miss Adair and Mr. Vanderlip will take part. In this there will be singing and dancing. Mr. Emmett is down for a number in which he will give imitations of various instruments and animals. Master Russell will sing his always popular illustrated ballads.

That part of the program in which the local talent will take part will include the great Burt Finney, if his hand is well enough, in a club swinging act with colored calcium light effects. A quartette of Hawaiians in native songs and a musical quartette of guitars, violin and mandolins. Then there will be a leaf from the book of Confucius by the great delineators of Chinese acting, Vierra and Jackson.

The box plan is at Jacobsen's jewelry store and seats should be secured at once.

This will be a genuine benefit as the Adair company and the other performers have volunteered their services.

Installation Plan.

W. W. Dimond has started an innovation in the method of selling refrigerators and ice boxes. He has just received an invoice of 128 Gurney Cleanable refrigerators which he will sell on the installment plan, taking one sixth of the purchase price on delivery and the balance in five monthly payments. The Gurney Cleanable refrigerator is well known here and has stood all kinds of tests in the matter of keeping food fresh and pure.

Funeral Yesterday.

The funeral of the little daughter of W. A. Bowen took place from the family residence at 4 p. m. yesterday. The services were conducted by Rev. S. S. Palmer and J. Leadingham, and were very impressive. Hymns were sung by Mrs. Warriner and H. F. Wichman, Miss Kelsey being accompanist. The casket was borne to the hearse by Walter Dillingham, J. A. Gilman, John Waterhouse and Ed Hitchcock. There was an abundance of flowers in various designs. The interment took place at Nuuanu cemetery.

COURT NOTES.

Suit for Damages Against Dr. McLennan—Insurance Case.

H. Leonard has filed a suit for damages to the amount of $1000 against Dr. D. McLennan for injuries sustained by the plaintiff while being treated by the doctor for a malady.

The doctor who intends leaving on the Monowai today has filed a bond for $1050 to compensate plaintiff in the event of the suit being decided in his favor.

It seems that plaintiff had some trouble with one of his legs and the doctor advised him to heat a brick, cover it with flannel moistened in vinegar and apply it to the pain. The patient did so and the result was a badly burned leg which bothered him and prevented his working for a month and a half. The result was the suit filed yesterday.

The suit of H. W. Schmidt & Sons against the Royal Insurance Company was decided in favor of plaintiff. The jury stood 9 to 3.

The Morrow assault case was on trial all of yesterday and at 6:30 p. m. the jury returned a verdict of guilty, three dissenting. Attorney Creighton for the defense noted a number of exceptions and will probably appeal the case.

PORTUGUESE DIFFERENCES.

Domingos Ferreira Behind the Bars of the Police Station.

Domingos Ferreira was arrested yesterday afternoon on the charge of using indecent language toward Gloria Medeiros, with intent at assault. Upon making complaint at the police station the woman stated that she wished Ferreira to be put under bonds to keep from further molesting her.

The story told by Ferreira was to the effect that he had written several letters to Gloria and that she had answered them favorably.

A day or two ago he sent Frank Pestano, a young Portuguese boy, to the house of Gloria to tell her that he was waiting near by in a brake, and that if she was so inclined he would take her for a drive.

Gloria beat the messenger so that he was black and blue all over his body. This she did in payment for the impertinence of at least suggesting her taking a drive with Ferreira.

In the police court yesterday morning Gloria plead guilty to the charge of assault and battery and was fined the usual amount.

THE PASTEUR FILTER

STANDS ALONE IN THE WORLD AS A GERM-PROOF FILTER.

"The very best filter yet devised cannot rid the water of all micro-organisms, with the sole exception of the PASTEUR FILTER."

—From report prepared for the Parliamentary Bills Committee of the British Medical Association, of England, in the "British Medical Journal," July 6th, 1895.

"In a report just issued, General Zurlinden, the French Minister of War, reviews the progress made in the army since 1886, in point of prophylactic measures. The most striking results are still as they were in Mr. de Freycinet's reports from 1889 to 1892, those relating to typhoid fever. In 1886 the number of cases of this disease was 7,771, being over 14 per 1,000; in 1894 it was 3,060, being under 6 per 1,000; a reduction obtained by an almost progressive decrease in each year. This result is shown by a detailed examination of the circumstances of those stations where the reduction has occurred to have invariably followed on the purification of the drinking water supplies. The report instances twenty-nine of the garrisons most subject in earlier years of typhoid fever, in each of which the introduction of an uncontaminated water supply has been followed by the disappearance of the disease, except in isolated cases, the majority of which were shown to have been contracted outside the barracks. In those cases where a new water supply has been provided, and the water was drunk UNFILTERED, epidemics followed from time to time on the contamination of the source, and disappeared on the application of PASTEUR FILTERS."

First Regiments and the Kamehamehas at the baseball park tomorrow afternoon. Plenty of excitement. The Kams talk of doing something to the Regiment boys. Woods is lame and his hand is very sore, but that doesn't make any difference to him.

Hugo A. Fisher, the famous water color artist from San Francisco, leaves for the volcano on the Kinau today. While away he will make sketches of various points of interest on Hawaii. J. T. Stacker of this paper will accompany Mr. Fisher on the trip and furnish descriptive matter for an illustrated brochure on Hawaii, which Mr. Fisher will publish on his return to California.

The Monowai has on board nearly a thousand tons of flour, oil, doors, hoes, canned goods and nails. There are also aboard four fine trotters and a number of greyhounds for the Colonies.

As the Monowai was approaching the Oceanic wharf last night one of the bags containing San Francisco Examiners for Wall, Nichols Co. fell overboard. There were thirty-six files contained in the bag, consequently thirty-six subscribers will be disappointed.

The Ruling Fad

Fac similes of your signature accurately engraved, no matter how badly or how well you write. No matter how many flourishes you affect, we'll portray it exactly as you write it.

The "Four Hundred" are using this style, which for the time being is superceding the plain script; yet for all that it must not be inferred that it is the only correct thing; as even a plain block letter has made its appearance.

Tastes and a leaning to "Fads" have much to do with ruling styles.

We stand ready to cater to your taste.

Our suggestion might help you some also; for you know we keep posted on correct things in that line.

Safe Deposit Boxes

WE HAVE A FEW MORE BOXES in our Safe Deposit Vault which are not yet rented. There are four sizes, varying in price from $12 to $30 per year. Any private papers left in these boxes are perfectly safe, as the vaults are fire-proof and are fitted with time locks, which makes them absolutely burglar-proof. There are two keys to each box, both of which are given to the party renting box, and should these keys be stolen they would be useless to bearer, as he could not open the box without our master-key being first inserted.

Parties leaving the Islands for their summer vacations will find it a convenient place to leave any valuables.

Captain Hubbard's Dog.
SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 15.—Yesterday morning the barkentine S. N. Castle sailed for Honolulu. Captain Hubbard took a well bred pointer to sea with him, but while the vessel is now well out to sea the dog is back ashore. About noon Dave Crowley and R. Sennett of the Golden Shore were within a couple of miles of the whistling buoy on the outlook for incoming ships. Suddenly they saw something swimming in the water, and on pulling toward it discovered a pointer dog. They pulled it on board and then discovered that the poor brute's hindquarters were almost paralyzed. They rubbed and worked over it and finally after two hours' labor they brought him around. The Castle went out on the early morning tide, and the dog must have been four of five hours in the water before he was picked up.

My little boy when two years of age was very ill with bloody flux. I was advised to use Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, and luckily procured part of a bottle. I carefully read the directions and gave it accordingly. He was very low, but slowly and surely he began to improve, gradually recovered and is now as stout and strong as ever. I feel sure 't saved his life. I never can praise 't Remedy half its worth. I am sorry every one in the world does not know how good it is, as I do.—Mrs. Lina S. Hinton, Grahamsville, Marion County, Florida. For sale by all druggists and dealers, Benson, Smith & Co., Agents for H. I.

WHARF AND WAVE.

AT DIAMOND HEAD SIGNAL STATION, Aug. 27, 10 p. m.—The weather is clear; wind light, northeast. S. S. Monowai bound in.

The Waialeale is expected in from Kauai ports today.

Dickey Davis is now freight clerk on the Kinau in place of W. Beckley.

Tom Patterson is now mate of the steamer J. A. Cummins under Captain Searle.

The Hawaiian bark Santiago, 978 tons, will return to Hilo in the Spreckels line.

The Kaala came in from Malakal yesterday. She will sail on her regular Oahu route at 9 a. m. today.

The Kinau took on enough freight to nearly fill her up yesterday. There is but very little freight space left. She will sail at 10 a. m.

The barkentine Irmgard needs about 6500 bags of sugar to top off her cargo. Captain Schmidt expects to get away about Wednesday of next week.

Captain Gregory will go as mate on this trip of the Kaala to Oahu ports. He will resume his old post as soon as the James Makee has completed repairs.

The Lehua came in from Hawaii ports yesterday morning with a cargo of sugar and 35 head of cattle. Fine weather is reported along the Hawaii coast.

A recent San Francisco paper states that the well known four-masted schooner Olga is probably a total loss in the Amoor river. The chances of getting her off are very slight.

The S. C. Allen will finish discharging during the forenoon. She will load sugar after the Irmgard and leave for San Francisco about September 3rd, or a week sooner than anticipated.

There were several very large hauls of puhiki off Waikiki yesterday morning, some 8000 of the fish being brought in to the market. Inspector Kelipio had all he wanted to do for a little while counting them out. There were also a large number of u-u from Waialeale.

Captain W. A. Clark, who was master of the Pacific Mail steamship Colombia when she was wrecked off Pigeon Point on July 14th, has been found guilty of negligence, unskillfulness and violating marine regulations, and his license as a master of steam vessels has been revoked.

The O. S. S. Monowai, Carey, commander, arrived in port at 11 o'clock last night and hauled alongside the Oceanic wharf. Following is the purser's report: Left San Francisco at 8:15 p. m. on August 20th, 6 1/2 hours late, and discharged pilot at 9:05 p. m. same date. Fine weather was experienced throughout the trip.

There was great excitement similar to that of the recent "fishmarket volcano" at the Irmgard wharf yesterday afternoon. Someone spread the report up town that the derelict bark Sumatra had been blown up and that two men had been killed while passing by in a row boat. A large number of people went down to the wharf, but all that could be seen was several Chinamen pumping water out of the bark.

The following vessels have arrived in San Francisco from ports on these islands: Aug. 10—Schr Mary Dodge, Hansen, 37 days from Kahului, Aug. 13—Schr Muriel, Carlson, 25 days from Honolulu, Aug. 17—Haw bk Santiago, Johnson, 31 days from Hilo. Following are the vessels that have sailed from San Francisco for ports on these islands: Aug. 14—Bktn S. N. Castle, Hubbard, for Honolulu, Aug. 16—Schr Mary Dodge, Hansen, for Kahului, Aug. 18—Schr Transit, Jorgensen, for Honolulu.

Bennington for Honolulu.

VALLEJO, Cal., Aug. 9.—The gunboat Bennington left the yard yesterday for San Francisco, where a supply of coal will be taken aboard. It is the intention then to proceed North and join Admiral Beardslee's squadron for fleet drill, after which the little gunboat is expected to steam away for Honolulu.
