ARRIVES AT HONOLULU:

Wednesday, Jan. 3

Saturday, Jan. 13

For the money that has gone to the Rison Iron Works we have the efficient new dredge and a deepened harbor entrance. These works were obtained under the derided monarchial regime.

Our annexation contemporaries are still wearying their readers with lying rubbish about the monarchy from papers in the United States inspired by exiled revolutionists. The instigators of the slanderous stuff owe all they are and have to the benign and paternal laws of that same monarchy.

President Cleveland's decision is that the Hawaiian nation is represented by the Queen, people and constitution of the Hawaiian Islands. Any other combination is without the pale of international law and will doubtless be treated accordingly by the representatives of the United States.

There is not a particle of truth in the Advertiser's report of hundreds of Japanese residents being prepared "to assist the forces from the Naniwa in protecting the interests of Japanese subjects here," in the event of any trouble arising. It is like the false yarns sent abroad about the Japanese when the cruiser Naniwa was here before.

An Advertiser writer said the other day that the opium bill of 1892—passed by the co-operation of different parties—would have poisoned the United States with opium. Perhaps it is more agreeable to have the United States poison Hawaii with opium, as she is doing at a great rate under the lax enforcement of the prohibition law by the P. G.

Several of the bright particular stars of the conspiracy against the independence of the Hawaiian Islands deserted this country for good but were glad to come back to live under what they call the "rotten monarchy." Messrs. W. O. Smith, A. S. Hartwell and P. C. Jones are prominent among the number. National annexation might prove as disappointing to these gentlemen as did personal annexation.

PAYING FOR LUXURIES.

A correspondent says that as the Marshal is paying for the cigars and candies and beer for the "League" braves, he might pay the forty dollars due by the Maui Annexation Club to the Chinese caterer at Wai-luku for refreshments furnished them at their Fourth of July ball. That it was a brilliant affair is attested by the correspondence of the event in the columns of the Advertiser and Star. The only abiding relief of annexation now in existence on Maui is a reminder that the patriots got a forty-dollar feast, which in not being paid for stamps the character of the men and the movement. John W. Kalua, whom the "unco guid" have selected to insult by his presence the native children and parents of Kamehameha Schools, is no longer president of the club, as there is no club. He and the immaculate Geo. Hons, ex-treasurer, both boil their coffee under a tree in the back yard, lest the Chinese restaurant keepers should give them the sweets of croton oil which they well deserve.

REQUESTED TO STEP OUT.

What purports to be the gist of the address of Minister Willis to the Provisional Government, requesting its surrender of public affairs to the Queen, is given in this morning's Advertiser. According to this report, the Provisional Government is held as having assented to the arbitration of the United States Government, in accepting the Queen's surrender to the United States forces and noting her protest. After investigation the President of the United States has decided in favor of the Queen. Through the Minister, the Queen engages to grant amnesty for the past, to ratify all constitutional obligations made by the Provisional Government, and to govern faithfully in accordance with the present Constitution. Therefore, the Minister states it as his duty to ask the gentlemen of the Provisional Government to retire from the positions they hold, and surrender the government to her to whom it has been decided rightly to belong. Whatever answer the Provisional Government may make, the President of the United States has informed Congress that Minister Willis has been instructed "to undo the wrong that had been done by those representing us, and to restore as far as practicable the status existing at the time of our forcible intervention." The Minister has given the Provisional Government an opportunity to step out as gentlemen. Their refusal will not nullify his instructions "to undo the wrong."

The Minister further said he regretted that the Postmaster at Hana, Kauai, was deficient $3000 in his accounts. He sent the Postmaster-General there, but the Postmaster was so excited, having threatened to take his own life, that Mr. Oat (P. M. G.) could not gain complete satisfaction and returned to town for further instructions. After consultation with the Attorney-General, it was decided to arrest the Postmaster and he was now committed for trial.

Minister Damon also expressed regret that the weekly financial statements had not been published for some weeks. Some of the papers explained that the omission was due to a press of work or a lack of space, but the reporter of the Pacific Commercial Advertiser stated that he had instructions not to publish the statements. He thought it important the public should have the information, and if necessary would be willing to pay for its publication.

Minister Smith said President Dole was busily engaged and could not be there. The Executive had nothing ready to lay before the Councils.

Mr. Waterhouse moved the Councils adjourn. Carried.

Christmas Services.

Those who like to hear the old Christmas carols, should attend the 6:30 o'clock service of the Second Congregation of St. Andrew's Cathedral next Sunday evening, December 24th (Christmas eve). The choir will at that hour sing four carols besides other music. On Christmas morning, Monday, the service will commence at 9:30 o'clock, when an elaborate program of music will be sung by the choir, consisting of a Te Deum by Vogrich, Jubilate by Holden, anthem, "It came upon the midnight clear," by Sullivan, a carol, "Angels from the realms of glory," and two Christmas hymns. All seats are free and a cordial invitation is extended to the public to attend.

There is a complete trimming of trees, cutting of grass and cleaning out of footpaths in the Judiciary building yard.

MORE OPIUM.

A Native Arrested With Eight Tins and a Smoking Outfit.

Captain Langley, assisted by B. Zablun and Sam Stone, arrested a native named Kalua in a house on Nuuanu, near School street, last night for having opium unlawfully in possession. Kalua, it is said, is an old dealer in the contraband stuff, but nothing definite was known to the police until a few days ago, when officer Stone learned that Kalua had received a number of tins of opium recently landed from the S. S. Australia, under the Customs officers' noses. When the officers made the raid Kalua had retired, but, having a warrant, the officers searched the premises. Under the house in a kind of closet a complete opium smoking outfit was found, besides eight tins of the drug. The outfit and supplies with Kalua were taken to the Police Station. Kalua was released on $250 bail furnished by S. K. Kane.

An Old Resident Gone.

By the death of Robert Gray, this morning, another kamaaina has been removed from our midst. The deceased was born at Wemyss, Fifeshire, Scotland, and lived for some time in the United States and British Columbia. He arrived at these islands about 30 years ago, and his first employment was at Wilder's sugar plantation at Kualoa, Oahu. Subsequently he worked with the late Geo. McLean, druggist, Nuuanu street, eventually assuming the management of the business. Mr. Gray had been a great sufferer from asthma and lately, while temporarily residing in San Francisco, contracted a severe cold which ultimately was the basis of his last illness. He was carefully and lovingly nursed to the end. He leaves a widow and a large circle of friends and acquaintances to mourn their loss. At his death the deceased was 72 years and 6 months old. The funeral took place this afternoon at 3 o'clock, starting from the residence of Mr. Jas. L. McLean, stepson of the deceased. The place of interment was Nuuanu valley.

Sidewalk improvement enacted by the Legislature of 1892 is being steadily pushed all over town.

Saturday, Dec. 16, 1893.

The consumer of electricity for illuminating purposes finds himself in a position corresponding with Moses when the light was extinguished. We have no authoritative information as to just where Moses was, but the natural solution to the problem seems to be that he was in darkness. And such is the predicament of the users of the electric lights in Honolulu. It's an ill wind that is of no particular benefit to some one; the break in the lighting plant was the primary cause of our selling forty-three lamps to people who had abandoned kerosene for more modern methods of lighting their houses. Another reason for the trade in lamps coming to us is that we had the goods at prices suited to the times. To store-keepers in need of lamps we can offer some very pretty two, three and four-light Chandeliers at very low prices; they are exquisitely wrought in brass with either glass or metal founts.

Everyone reads the advertising pages of "Century" because the matter is so well prepared that it compares favorably with that on the inner pages. The advertisements of the Standard Manufacturing Co., with illustrations of their sinks, bathtubs and washstands appeal directly to people who believe that cleanliness is next to honesty when acquired in an enamelled bathtub. For the past year we have been the agents for the Standard Manufacturing Company for the sale of their tubs, etc., and as such we have introduced some people to the only tub in which they can thoroughly enjoy a bath. On the "S. N. Castle" we received another invoice of these goods having all the latest improvements. These will be ready for inspection to-day, and we will be pleased to show them to anyone.

The Wonderful Wertheim Sewing Machines which we imported a month or two ago jumped into favor so quickly that we deemed it advisable to order more and by the Mariposa we received what will be considered by judges the finest sewing machines, both for service and ornament, ever imported to the country. The "Wertheim Triplex" is a combination of three machines in one, producing three distinct stitches: the Lock, the Chain, and the combined Lock and Chain or Embroidery Stitch. Every dressmaker appreciates the advantages of the Chain Stitch in elasticity and the ease with which it can be ripped. With this machine the process of tacking can be rapidly performed without any hand sewing whatever. Besides being the easiest running and best all 'round machine for home or tailors' use the tables of the Wertheim are far handsomer than those of any other make. The wood is selected according to the beauty and evenness of the grain, while the handsome inlaid work commends them to all lovers of the beautiful.

The handsome piano and banquet lamps in our store which have won your admiration as you passed by would probably occupy a place in your dwelling if you would but ask the price. The Alameda will bring us more of them just in time to be selected for Christmas presents, than which nothing could be more appropriate.

We have some handsome pieces of Cut Glass, Rookwood Pottery and small bits in Silverware of about the right value for Christmas gifts. These are articles that will never weary the eye: like the landscape, there will always be found something pleasant to look upon.

The Prize Awarded!

Wins the Prize at the World's Fair with their

"EAGLE" Brand Beer.

St. Louis, Oct. 28, 1893.

Messrs. MACFARLANE & CO., LTD.,

Honolulu, H. I.

Dear Sirs:—We have mailed you a copy of the Globe-Democrat announcing the great victory won by the ANHEUSER-BUSCH ASSOCIATION with their "EAGLE" Brand of Beer.

(Signed) ANHEUSER-BUSCH BREWING ASSOCIATION.

(Special Despatch to Globe-Democrat.)

World's Fair, Chicago, Ill., Oct. 20.—

No award has ever been made so gratifying to St. Louis people and so justly merited as the one given to-day by the Columbian jury of the World's Fair, consisting of connoisseurs and chemists of the highest rank, to the Anheuser-Busch Brewing Association.

By methods of unrivalled business enterprise, and by using the best material produced in America and Europe, excluding corn and other adulterants or surrogates, the different kinds of the Anheuser-Busch beer have become the favorites with the American people, and have now conquered the highest award in every particular, which had to be considered by the Columbian jury. The high character of the award given to-day by the jurors will be better understood when it is known that the different beers exhibited by the Anheuser-Busch Brewing Association had to compete with hundreds of the most excellent displays of other brewers. The fact that no other concern has received so many points for the various essential qualities of good beer confirms anew the firm's reputation as the leader of all American beers, and Mr. Adolphus Busch can feel proud over this result so justly merited.

The above is a fac-simile of the Label of the "EAGLE" Brand which took the Prize.

In ordering this Beer be sure to ask for the "EAGLE" Brand.

Queen's Hospital Rules.

The trustees of the Queen's Hospital held a special meeting in the Chamber of Commerce room at 10:30 o'clock this morning for the purpose of adopting specific rules and regulations defining the duties of the different employees in the Queen's Hospital. These rules are intended to govern every department in the institution. They were handed in type-written, but as the trustees had only time to glance over them, the meeting was adjourned until Wednesday next at 10:30 o'clock.

Will Not Carry Papers.

Three files of papers were sent from the Advertiser office on board the U. S. revenue cutter Corwin yesterday, addressed to San Francisco. In the evening a lieutenant returned the files to the office, saying that the cutter was not to carry papers from any office. The lieutenant was directed to the Advertiser office by a policeman and a boatboy. The Advertiser must have terrible "gall" (and plenty of it, too), to try and despatch papers to the Coast by the Corwin after announcing in yesterday's issue of that journal that none would be carried by the cutter.

The Bonaventure, one of the new British cruisers which is to be placed on the Australian station, has had her coal-carrying capacity altered from 400 tons to 1000 tons. This alteration will enable her to steam 14,400 knots at ten knots per hour, or during sixty days, without recoaling. In other words, this cruiser can go round Cape Horn and come to San Francisco without stopping, or proceed similarly round the Cape of Good Hope to Yokohama. She may even be able to go to Australia.
War vessels which can do that are not likely to be caught short of coal in face of the enemy.

ITEMS OF THE SUSPENSE.

Movements of Naval Men—Notes from Public Buildings.

Unusual quietness prevailed about town this morning, very little business being done. There were very few people lounging about the city front. About 10:30 o'clock an ordinary from the U. S. S. Philadelphia was landed in the cruiser's steam launch in company with a lieutenant.
Shortly after Captain Rooke, of H. B. M. S. Champion, came ashore in his gig and went straight to the consulate, remaining about an hour. A lieutenant came ashore in another boat later. The men on the warships were lounging about on the decks all forenoon.

A drill was held on the U. S. S.
Philadelphia. It being a call to quarters preparatory for action, it was viewed by a few from the wharves with little interest.

Messrs. Grace and Clifford, the latter late marine reporter of the Star, are acting as body guard in the Marshal's office. Clifford told several that he was doing clerical work for the Marshal at $5 a day.

The Palace, now known as the Executive building, is being provisioned. Four large tanks of water have been placed in the basement.
This is taken as a sign that the P.
G. are going to resist.

Several large water tanks have been placed in the cross hall of the Judiciary building, was drilling his company on Palace Square this afternoon.

While in the Finance Office getting the weekly statement our reporter met Minister Damon. He evinced his pleasure over the payment of the Risdon Iron Works claim, and was much gratified at the way money had been coming into the treasury. The increase of deposits in the Postal Savings Bank he thought remarkable in view of the public excitement. Mr. Damon could not say whether the answer of the Government to Minister Willis's request for a surrender to the Queen would be ready for submission to today's session of the Councils, or whether the request and answer would be available for publication at the close of the session.

Secretary Potter of the Foreign Office could give no information on the great question of the day. None of the documents were in the office at the time. He did not think Minister Willis had specified a time for requiring an answer, but had an impression that the Minister desired an answer as soon as possible.

Mr. John W. Kalua, the native annexation champion of Maui, was pacing up and down in the upper hall of the Executive building, and said jokingly that he had charge of the place.

Just before the Councils met this afternoon, it was not known at the Executive building whether President Dole had the answer to Minister Willis ready.

Late this afternoon a prominent Government official said that nothing had been heard from President Dole to-day. He added that the Government had not fully considered the answer and was not in a great rush about the matter.

The same official said he had it on good authority that Minister Willis had given out that he had no desire to precipitate matters. He believed the Minister was willing to wait to the end of this week at least.

Further, our informant said he likewise had reason to believe that the Queen had only consented to an amnesty on condition that the United States Minister should restore her to the throne immediately.
She didn't want any "monkey business" about it, as the official put it.

An orderly from the flag ship Philadelphia came ashore at 3 o'clock, and soon afterward U. S. naval officers were seen going to the landing.

Business dead? Not much!
Leastwise it is not so with the California Feed Company. We have made a business for ourselves, which has steadily grown through all the hard times other people are complaining about.

We have just secured from Mr.
J. F. Colburn his old stand, corner Queen and Nuanu streets, and taken possession of those large and convenient premises.
We had to do so, because our old place at Lelele is too small for our fast-increasing business.
In a few days the bark "Mauna Ala" will be here again with her fourth full cargo of Hay and Grain, bought by our Mr. J. N.
Wright who will arrive on that vessel. We prefer to select our merchandise ourselves rather than have others do it, which means that we get better goods at a less price.

We thank our many friends for their liberal patronage for the past three years, and hope by strict attention to a business we thoroughly understand to merit the patronage of as many more.

The People will have Hood's

Mr. Dorman's Experience

"My boy, now 9 years old, had Scrofula in one eye from the time he was a baby; discharging all the time. Of late we have been giving him Hood's Sarsaparilla, and it has done all that medicine can do. The Scrofula has disapfully believe Hood's Sarsaparilla is the best medicine in the market. I keep a general store, and it is not a trick to sell Hood's Sarsaparilla, for the people will have it. I sell more of Hood's Sarsaparilla than all other medicines together and the store would not be complete without it. My wife has also been entirely cured of Scrofula by Hood's Sarsaparilla, and I am heartily thankful for what it has done for us." JOHN DORMAN, Shy Beaver, Pa.

A CARD

FROM

VETERINARY SURGEON

Australian Veterinary Establishment, Syd-ney, N. S. W.

(ESTABLISHED 1902.)

I take pleasure in announcing that I have established an Agency in Honolulu for the sale of my well-known Remedies, and have appointed Mr. CLARENCE W. MACFARLANE my Sole Agent for the Hawaiian Islands and United States.

(Signed) JOHN POTTIE, P. E. V. M. S.

Calling attention to the above announcement, I beg to inform plantation owners, ranchers and the public generally that I am now in full supply of all of Dr. Pottie's Celebrated Remedies, together with his treatises on the principles of doctoring animals and the remedies to be used.

Dr. Pottie stands pre-eminently at the head of the veterinary profession and his leading remedies are known throughout the whole civilized world. No system known has shown such splendid results. During the 20 years in which Dr. Pottie has had charge of the Government stables of New South Wales not a single death occurred. During the outbreak of "Pink Eye" in Australia over £60,000 worth of horses were lost, but of the cases treated by Dr. Pottie's remedies LESS THAN ONE PERCENT DIED. Last year over 7,000,000 animals were treated by Dr. Pottie and his corps of assistants, which will afford some idea of the magnitude of his business and the efficiency and popularity of his remedies.

Special cases of assorted remedies can be had at prices ranging from $5 to $150, suitable for plantations, stables and ranches; these remedies keep for years.

I especially call attention to Dr. Pottie's celebrated and un-failing remedy for MANGE, which is so widely prevalent among horses in these Islands at this time. I regard this as a certain cure, and can show testimonials for cures already effected of very aggravated cases.

The following comprise some of the principal Horse, Cattle, Sheep, Dog and Pig Remedies, viz.:

PROPRIETARY MEDICINES.

Sole Agent for Dr. Pottie. (1m)

A Humorist on Humor.

[By the late James Russell Lowell.]
James Russell Lowell was so essentially a humorist—his most appreciative admirers prefer to think of him as the author of the inimitable "Biglow Papers" rather than as the professor, the diplomatist or man of the world—that any posthu-mous thing he has to say upon humor will be welcomed as coming from an expert, the more so since until now it had never seen the light of cold print. Lowell delivered many lectures during the years of his professorship of Belles-Lettres at Harvard. They were rapidly written: many of them bear marks of hastiness of composition, and some, indeed, were delivered extem-poraneously from full notes, while others have never yet been printed. In the new number of the Century Magazine one of these old lectures is published for the first time, but in the prefatory note which intro-duces it we are warned that "frag-ments must be read with the fact constantly held in mind that they do not always represent Lowell's mature opinions; that, in some in-stances, they give but the first form of thoughts developed in other con-nections in one or other of his later essays; that they have not received his last revision; that they have the form of discourse addressed to the ear, rather than that of literary work finished for the eye."

THE FIVE PERIODS OF A MAN'S LIFE.
Lowell disagrees with Hippel, the German satirist, who divides the life of a man into five periods. Six, he thinks, is the more accurate number. This passage, moreover, forms an interesting reminiscence of the poet's early life, since in it we are introduced to that famous garret in which he wrote so much of his most charming poetry:

Hippel, the German satirist, divides the life of a man into five periods, according to the ruling de-sires which successively displace each other in the human soul. Our first longing, he says, is for trousers, the second for a watch, the third for an angel in pink muslin, the fourth for money, and the fifth for a "place" in the country. I think he has over-looked one, which I should be in-clined to place second in point of time—the ambition to escape the gregarious nursery, and to master of a chamber to one's self. * * * I remember (for I must call my memory back from this garrulous rookery of the past to some perch nearer the matter in hand) that when I was first installed lord of such a manor, and found myself the Crusoe of that remote attic-island, which for near thirty years was to be my unmoored hermitage, I cast about for work of art with which to adorn it. The garret, that El Dorado of boys, supplied me with some prints which had once been the chief ornament of my great-grandfather's study, but which the growth of taste or luxury had banished from story to story till they had arrived where malice could pursue them no further. These were heads of ancient worthies—Plato, Pythagoras, Socrates, Seneca, and Cicero, whom, from a prejudice acquired at school, I shortly banished again with a grotesque landlord. Be-sides those I have mentioned, there were Democritus and Heraclitus, which last, in those days less the slave of tradition, I called Hera-clitus—an error which my excellent schoolmaster (I thank him for it) would have expelled from my head by the judicious application of a counter-irritant; for he regarded the birch as a kind of usher to the laurel, as indeed the true tree of knowledge, whose advantages could Adam have enjoyed during early life, he had known better than to have yielded to the temptation of any other.

LOWELL GIVES A DEFINITION OF HUMOR and at the same time contrasts it with mere wit.

Humor—taken in the sense of the faculty to perceive what is humor-ous, and to give it expression—seems to be greatly a matter of tempera-ment. Hence, probably, its name. It is something quite indefinable, diffused through the whole nature of the man; so that it is related of the great comic actors that the audience begin to laugh as soon as they show their faces, or before they have spoken a word. The sense of the humorous is certainly closely allied with the understanding, and no race has shown so much of it on the whole as the English, and next to them the Spanish—both inclined to gravity. Let us not be ashamed to confess that, if we find the tra-gedy a bore, we take the profoundest satisfaction in the farce. It is a mark of sanity. Humor, in its highest level, is the sense of comic contradiction which arises from the perpetual comment which the un-derstanding makes upon the impres-sion received through the imagina-tion. We find it very natural accordingly to speak of the breadth of humor, while wit is, by the necessity of its being, as narrow as a flash of light-ning, and as sudden. Humor may pervade a whole page without our being able to put our finger on any passage and say, "It is here." Wit must sparkle and snap in every line, or it is nothing. When the wise deacon shook his head and said that "there was a good deal of human nature in man," he might have added that there was a good deal more in some men than in others. Those who have the largest share of it may be humorists; but wit demands only a clear and nimble intellect, presence of mind, and a happy faculty of ex-pression. This perfection of phrase, this neatness, is an essential of wit, because its effect must be instan-taneous: whereas humor is often diffuse and roundabout, and its im-pression cumulative, like the poison of arsenic.
