LOYALTY OF HONOLULU IS DEMONSTRATED

Crowd of 2000 of All Ages and Races, Imbued With Spirit of Patriotism and Sense of War-Time Duty, Turns Out for Exercises at the Capitol

EXCERPTS FROM DISTRICT ATTORNEY HUBER'S ADDRESS

"My hope is that on the morning of August 1 we can share in the pride that Hawaii has not a single slacker."

"I want to go on record here as backing the President in this new conscription law. Why should your son or mine shed his blood as a volunteer when some cowardly slacker stays behind?"

"Do your part. Volunteer now to aid on July 31, the day for registering in Hawaii. Give that day to your country."

"Cut down on needless expenditures. Stop all unnecessary waste. Check your extravagant habits."

"Of all our reasons for entering this war, the cause of humanity is our highest cause for allying ourselves with valiant France and England for bleeding Belgium and Serbia."

"When the peace council finally meets, I believe America's stand will insure absolute fairness to all. We have no wish to grow strong upon the weakness of others."

Forty-eight guns for the 48 states in the Union, fired at noon today in the Capitol grounds by the machine gun company of the 1st Infantry, National Guard, brought to a close Honolulu's official Fourth of July celebration that proved one of more than ordinary impressiveness.

America's entry in the great war was the keynote for a patriotic display, and found expression in the words of those who spoke to the crowd that gathered in the Capitol grounds and in the spirit of patriotism with which that crowd united in singing the national songs.

From the youngest Boy Scout to the oldest Grand Army man the sense of war and solemn duty of every citizen struck home.

Led by George Andrus and the Ad Club the crowd joined in the songs with enthusiasm uncommon for public gatherings in Honolulu, and when the band struck up "Johnny Comes Marching Home," two old G. A. R. men in the bandstand clapped their hands and cheered.

2000 Are Present
Fully 2000 people were present, of all ages and races. Boys and girls from the Japanese schools formed one section of the crowd and held flags and led in the singing.

China Reverts To Monarchy; Is In War Danger

New Regime Expected to Precipitate Uprising of People Who Resent Return of Manchus to Power

(Associated Press by U. S. Naval Communication Service)

LONDON, Eng., July 4.—A despatch from Tientsin confirms the fall of the Chinese republic. President Li Yuan Hung has escaped from the palace at Peking and taken refuge in the Japanese legation.

SHANGHAI, China, July 4.—Ex-Premier Tang Sha Yi gave out a statement to the press today in which he said: "The Chinese republic never had a chance. The real republicans were checked at the beginning by the reactionaries. China is reverting to the past."

The vernacular newspapers are unanimous in denouncing the restoration of the Manchus to the throne and predict that their reign will be short-lived. They say the country will rise up in protest.

The Shanghai Times says that a conflict between the north and south of China is imminent, and that much is dependent on the attitude of Vice-President Feng Kwo Cheng. It is generally believed that the navy will support the officials who are proclaiming the retention of the republic.

PEKING, China, July 1.—(Delayed)—An edict by the boy emperor, in which it appears that President Li submits to the monarchy and is offered a dukedom, is made public.

It names Changshun premier; Liang Tung Yen foreign minister; Chang Chen Fang minister of finance; Lei Chen Chun minister of war; Chu Chia Pao, minister of the interior; Wang Shih Chang chief of staff and Hsu Shih Chang and Kang Yu Wei guardians of the emperor.

China is to be governed by the constitution promulgated by the late emperor. The princes are not to interfere in politics.

Present treaties are to stand and the criminal code of Hsuan Tung is reinstated. Political offenders are to be pardoned. The wearing of queues is optional.

A hundred Japanese troops were stationed around the Japanese legation today to strengthen the legation guards but there were no disorders.

(Special Cable to Nippon Jiji)

TOKIO, Japan, July 4.—The Chinese republic went out of existence automatically today, when Li Yuan Hung, the president, retroceded the power of the state to the boy-emperor, Hsuan Tung. The emperor is only a youth of twelve and today he reigns over China as a full-powered emperor.

Up to noon today neither the local Chinese press nor the Chinese consulate had received any advice regarding the new political situation in Japan. Consul Tazang Wuhoan informed the Star-Bulletin that this afternoon he would communicate with the embassy in Washington with a view to securing further details of the change of government.

TEDDY SOUNDS PATRIOTIC NOTE

(Associated Press by U. S. Naval Communication Service)

FOREST FALLS, Long Island, July 4.—Col. Theodore Roosevelt in a ringing Fourth of July speech here today pleaded for a single standard of loyalty and patriotism for the United States.

The pro-Germans, he declared, are "moral traitors." Amid cheers he said that "either a man is an American and nothing else or he is not an American." We as a whole and a distinct nation are bound to give wholehearted loyalty to the flag. There must be one flag and one speech, which is English." He said that the United States is bound to the Allies by every tie and opposition to them would be dishonorable and treasonable.

LONDON, Eng., July 4.—The Stars and Stripes floated over parliament building today by order of the king. The American colors also were lavishly used in decorations elsewhere. The Welsh guards' band at St. James palace played American airs at a great reception attended by U. S. Ambassador Page. Foreign Minister Balfour gave a banquet in honor of the Americans.

BOY SCOUTS PRACTICAL PATRIOTS FOURTH OF JULY SIGNAL FOR WORK

Boy Scouts of Honolulu are doing patriotic work of a practical kind at the federal building site—the old Opera House site. Collector of Customs Franklin secured permission by cable from the treasury department to use the site for gardening and the Boy Scouts took hold with their accustomed energy. On the Fourth of July they are celebrating by looking after their gardens. At night the plot is guarded, and the Scout troops take turns in sending sentries with a tent for their accommodation. The photos herewith also mark the coming of the new Scout executive, Roger N. Burnham, who arrived from the mainland yesterday. In the first photo below he is shown on the left of the line of boys standing beside the flag.

HONOLULU WOMAN JUST BACK FROM GERMANY GIVES INSIGHT INTO WAR CONDITIONS THERE

Teutons Last Spring Had Sufficient Food on Hand to Last Two Years, Declares Mrs. Laura Wight—250,000 Fresh Troops Available for Armies Every Year

That Germany had sufficient food in store to last for two years, that the German people are not starving, and that the annual supply of 250,000 fresh troops every year is keeping the ranks of the German army filled, is the report brought direct from Germany by Mrs. Laura Wight, who lived in the American colony in Berlin and whose daughter was working in the American embassy when the United States broke relations with Germany last spring. They returned to Honolulu last month.

Mrs. Wight and her daughter left Germany with Ambassador Gerard's party. Other Americans in the country at the time were delayed several weeks by the long process through which aliens had to go in order to get permission to leave the country. Submarines

Coming from Berlin through Switzerland, France and Spain, Mrs. Wight said her voyage across the world back to the islands was untroubled in no way by war conditions. The German government was courteous in its treatment of the American party as it left Germany and in the trip across the ocean submarines were avoided by taking a southerly course.

Since the war broke out in 1914 Mrs. Wight has been able to observe war conditions in Germany at first hand, and in her association with the American colony has had a part in benevolent work which was carried on by Americans in Germany before the entrance of America into the war.

PINKHAM TO BE REAPPOINTED, IS WASHINGTON 'DOPE'

Attorney Frank E. Thompson Finds Belief Governor Will Be Named Again

"It is the general opinion that Governor Pinkham's name will go to the Senate for reappointment," is the way Attorney Frank E. Thompson, just home from a mainland trip that included Washington, sums up the "dope" in Washington on Hawaii's gubernatorial situation. Mr. Thompson returned yesterday.

Attorney Thompson said that while in Washington he had seen Franklin K. Lane, secretary of the interior, and commented on the political situation in Washington as it affected Hawaii, but that he had no first-hand word from him.

"The handling of the war problems in Washington is excellent," declared Mr. Thompson, who had an opportunity to observe these affairs at first hand.

It is true that there has been a great deal of criticism of the administration, especially on the grounds that the work is moving slowly, but you will notice that that criticism is generally not constructive.

"Of course, the work is moving slowly because it is so tremendous, but what is being done is a great credit to the men who are doing it. Senator Works and Senator Simmons have been doing especially creditable work in their attention to details which many pass over."

"Men have been voting for some of the bills blindly, but a few like these two have been of great service."

HINTS I. W. W. IS AIDING GERMANY

(Associated Press by Cable)
DENVER, Colo., July 4.—President Moyer of the Western Federation of Miners yesterday issued a statement charging that the Industrial Workers of the World are in a plot to shut down the country's copper mines. He said that the I. W. W., previously "broke," are now suddenly flush with money, and that the public may speculate as to its source.

U. S. TROOPS TO GO UP TO THE LINE SOON

(Associated Press by Cable)
PARIS, France, July 4.—The American troops will move from their present training camps into new camps close up behind the Allied lines at the end of this week.

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 4.—The last of the American contingent of troops arrived at a French port on Monday and was safely landed. Like those who had landed before them they were received with wild enthusiasm and the welcome extended to them was quite as hearty as that to the first who reached here. Immense crowds were at the quay as they debarked and still greater crowds lined the streets and windows were massed full of cheering women waving flags wildly as the khaki clad Americans passed beneath their eyes.

On Monday the American forces will go to the training camp that has been prepared for their coming and enter upon a period of intensive training to fully fit them for the strain which they must soon encounter at the front.

PARIS GIVES AMERICAN SOLDIERS MUCH ATTENTION

(Associated Press by U. S. Naval Communication Service)

PARIS, France, July 4.—The American barracks for the regiments which have arrived here to take part in the Fourth of July demonstration are in a five-story stone building, with individual baths and showers. After the arrival, the troops were given an excellent lunch together with French soldiers. They then formed into sight seeing parties for a few hours. There is much fraternizing between the American and the French soldiers.

It was announced today that the Lafayette Corps of Aviators, made up of Americans, will shortly be transferred into the American service.

In studying the exact content of all that comes up," said Mr. Thompson.

NO NEWS RECEIVED FROM RACES IN HILO

Wireless news of the boat races at Hilo this morning was expected early this afternoon, but at the time the Star-Bulletin went to press nothing had come from the Crescent City. The wireless service has been extremely poor in the past few days and it is believed the news is delayed in transmission. If it arrives in time it will appear in a later edition of the Star-Bulletin.

WATER DIVISION SHOWS GAIN IN 1917 RECEIPTS

Sewer Delinquents Warned to Pay Up, Else Suit Will Be Brought

An increase of $172,110 in receipts for the six months ending June 30, 1917, over the corresponding period in 1916 shows the growth of the water department in one year, according to the figures given out by Harry Murray, superintendent.

Last Saturday $105,581.69 had been received by the water department for the first six months of 1917 from both flat rate and meter rate consumers while during the same period in 1916 $103,858.59 was taken in.

In the sewer department, however, there is a slight decrease in receipts amounting to $200.95, but this is due, Murray says, not to a decrease in business but because many people think that as the legislature legislated free sewerage to take effect January 1, 1918, if they don't pay now they will get out of paying later. This, however, is not the case as everybody who has sewer connections will have to pay for them up to December 31. If they don't pay suit will be brought, as the bill is a lien against the property, he says.

At present delinquent payments total only $6145.20, which is a big reduction over former years. Of this $2859.65 is due from flat rate users who have been delinquent for some time and $3285.55, which became delinquent last Saturday, is due from meter users.

IRWIN ASKS POLICE COURT IMPROVEMENTS

"The condition of the court is such that an inhabitant of the lowest dive in Honolulu would feel perfectly at home," is the way Judge Harry Irwin described his court room and office in a letter to the board of supervisors in which he asks that repairs be made. It was referred to the police committee.

The judge wants the roof repaired, walls painted, roll curtains for the windows and the floor covered.

He also requests that a janitor be furnished, as the only one now employed is a trusty from the jail.

JONES JOINS AD CLUB DURING CAPITOL PROGRAM

F. C. Jones, capitalist and retired businessman, joined the Ad Club today during a brief lull in the celebration activities in the Capitol grounds.

Ad Club members turned out in force at the celebration and had a reserved section of the bleachers during the program. So smoothly do the wheels of Ad Club business machinery roll that few persons in the big crowd realized what was transpiring. Those who noticed, however, saw

WAR NOT TAKEN TOO SERIOUSLY SAYS PRINCESS

Wife of Delegate Says People of San Francisco Facing Situation Calmly

Impressed with the fact that in San Francisco the people are not taking America's entry into the war even as seriously as the residents of the Hawaiian Islands, Princess Kuhlō Kalanianaʻole, wife of the delegate to congress, has returned to Honolulu from a visit of six months in the California city.

"First of all, let me say that I am glad to be back in Honolulu again," said the princess this morning. "There have been some exciting times in San Francisco since the declaration of war, but I am inclined to think, and am impressed with the fact, that the people of San Francisco are not taking the war as seriously as the people here at home."

Princess Kalanianaʻole remained in San Francisco during the entire time she was away, occupying apartments in the city.

"If Congress does not adjourn before October or November, I probably will go to Washington with the delegate for a while," she says. "It is not certain yet whether he will return to Hawaii this fall or not. Business may keep him in the capital city."

For the present the princess is staying at her home in Waikiki.

EAST ST. LOUIS QUIET; GOVERNOR MAY LOOK INTO CHARGES AGAINST GUARD

(Associated Press by U. S. Naval Communication Service)

EAST ST. LOUIS, Ill., July 4.—After three days of bloody rioting directed against the negroes, the city is quiet today. No celebration of the Fourth was attempted. Governor Lowden manifests an intention to investigate charges of inefficiency and laxness of discipline among the militiamen on duty.

Twenty-seven dead and at least seventy-five and possibly many more wounded are the results of the continued rioting that terrorized the city national guard were last night patrolling the streets, despite which the rioting continued to be general, with lynchings frequent.

Direct charges that the militia is incompetent, with a failure to perform its duty that borders upon cowardice, are being made, the charges also including the city police, who have not declared one resolution of the chamber of commerce, performed one single act of bravery during the entire reign of terror that has lasted for three days.

Jones took over a five-spot and entered into the ranks of the busy organization.

Willie Chapman was fined $20 and $3.20 costs for profanity.

21-GUN SALUTE FIRED BY AZUMA IN HONOR OF U. S.

For the first time since the United States declared war against Germany, a foreign warship today fired in Honolulu a formal salute in honor of the 141st anniversary of the declaration of American independence.

Promptly at noon, the Japanese cruiser Azuma, berthed at the U. S. navy wharf, fired a salute of 21 guns. The reverberation boomed along the harbor and up town and rattled windows in the business district.

It will be recalled that the last salute fired here before today was last year on the occasion of the Kaiser's birthday. The U. S. S. St. Louis fired a salute in honor of the observance made of the day by the officers and crew of the interned German gunboat Geier. The St. Louis was berthed where the Azuma lay today, and the Geier was across the slip with the American cruiser.

LOCAL AND GENERAL

Motions for interlocutory appeals from Circuit Judge Ashford's decision holding the workmen's compensation act to be unconstitutional are expected within a few days.

The funeral of Mrs. Mary McGuire, who died Sunday at the home of her son, J. W. L. McGuire, is being held this afternoon at 3:30 from Silva's funeral parlors. Interment is to be made in Nuanuan cemetery.

Celebrating the first anniversary of the magazine, K. Isumi, editor of the Yoto, held a garden party at 1 o'clock this afternoon at the Tokiwa-ten garden, Nuanuan avenue. Editor Isumi chose the Glorious Fourth as a fitting day on which to hold the celebration. Addresses were given in American and Japanese and geisha dances were a part of the program.

Over $250 was realized at a benefit dance given by the Phoenix lodge in Phoenix hall last night and several tickets are still to be heard from. The money goes to a local family in very straitened circumstances. Over 100 couples danced to the lively strains of the Kawaihau glee club. The arrangements committee, consisting of Marcus Sanders, A. E. Carter, A. A. Werner, Neil Slattery, James Donald, Joe Lindo and B. L. Donaldson, extend thanks to everyone and especially enlisted men for support given.

At the request of the British government an officer has been given permission to examine the fragments of the bombs which were dropped recently on Zierikzee (Dutch Flanders) by an aeroplane of unknown nationality. The officer arrived at The Hague.

2000 TURN OUT FOR PATRIOTIC DEMONSTRATION

was the presentation by Governor Pinkham of the eagle decoration to two Boy Scouts—Alatau Wilder and Eddie Silva. The two scouts were escorted to the front of the bandstand by their comrades and there received this highest honor of scoutdom.

Governor Pinkham in a brief speech praised the work of the boy scouts, one of the finest organizations for the development of true manhood that exists, he said.

Attorney W. O. Smith was in charge of the program, and spoke briefly at the beginning. He said he saw in today's celebration one of peculiar interest. Yet it was not the time for condemnation of the enemy but rather a renewal of pledges of loyalty. The present contest would bring forth a world founded on those principles that our forefathers 141 years ago had declared themselves.

Minister D. C. Peters of the Christian church delivered the invocation, asking the blessing of the Almighty on America and the cause of right for which she is fighting.

Patriotic Hymns Sung

Following the prayer the audience, headed by the Ad Club, sang "Columbia, the Gem of the Ocean." The accompaniment was played by the Hawaiian band.

Judge S. L. Kemp read the Declaration of Independence and Governor Pinkham then bestowed the scout decorations, and another song, "The Battle Hymn of the Republic," ended this portion of the program. Attorney Huber was then introduced.

The speaker traced in a few words the history of our country from the first colonization, with the trials through which it has passed. Mindful of all these, he said, he yet believed the American people have never before been confronted with matters of such seriousness as those of today.

"Our forefathers," he said, "died for principles of justice rather than for actual burdens of oppression. America again holds these principles dear to the peace. We entered the war only after deliberation and not for desire of war or glory of battle."

Mr. Huber then referred to Germany's stand among the world powers, her refusal to abide by rules of modern warfare and civilization, thrusting herself through Belgium to attack France.

Upon the decision of this war rested the fate of democracy or autocracy, he declared.

In concluding his address, Mr. Huber brought home the spirit of patriotic service by referring to Hawaii's registration day as an opportunity for every American to aid his country.

Refers to Hawaii's Loyalty
"Hawaii came under the Stars and Stripes with its own consent. The Stars and Stripes were raised in Hawaii for the principles of the Declaration of Independence just as they were lowered in Cuba for the same reason. I have faith in the loyalty of the people of this country and this territory, far though it be from the mainland, in their ability, perseverance and courage, to maintain the flag from where it has never been lowered in this test of all tests," said Mr. Huber.

Following his speech "The Star Spangled Banner" was sung by the entire gathering, and as they sang on into the second verse, the salute to the nation of 48 guns began.

Among those in the speaker's stand were Brig-Gen. F. S. Strong, Brig-Gen. Samuel I. Johnson, Governor Pinkham, Lieut. Wallace C. Philson, aide to Gen. Strong; Lieut. E. F. Tilley, aide to Capt. George R. Clark; Gerrit P. Wilder, A. M. Nowell, Raymond C. Brown, D. C. Peters, W. O. Smith, Judge S. L. Kemp, Attorney S. C. Huber, members of the Sons and Daughters of the Revolution, and others.

The new veterinarians, both Californians, arrived in the steamer Maui yesterday at the instance of the board, and are prepared to begin work immediately. It was reported from the office of the board today that the anthrax situation on all islands is quiet, no deaths of animals having been reported since last Sunday.

MAJOR COSTER IS MEMBER OF BOARD OF REGISTRATION

Succeeds Major Redington as Recorder; Organization to Meet Tomorrow

Further steps toward completing arrangements for registration for military service on July 31 will be taken at a meeting at 2 o'clock tomorrow afternoon of the central registration board headed by Will Wayne, secretary to the governor and assistant to the adjutant-general, N. G. H.

Governor Pinkham yesterday appointed Maj. Charles M. Coster, N. G. H., to succeed Maj. Laurence W. Redington, N. G. H., as recorder of the board. Maj. Redington recently was appointed assistant to Col. James H. McRae, adjutant, Hawaiian Department.

Tomorrow's meeting of the board will discuss further work to be done toward getting registration information before the public. As already announced, 10,000 posters are to be scattered throughout the territory through the postoffices and the deputy sheriffs, printed in several languages and impressing upon all male residents within the age limit the fact that they are required to register whether they are citizens of the United States or not.

Sheriff Charles H. Rose, County Clerk David Kalanika, and the city and county physician, who compose the Oahu registration board, will attend the meeting tomorrow, and it is probable that several deputy sheriffs will be present, as they also have been called on to assist in the registration. It is expected that by the end of this week the 10,000 posters will be fairly well distributed throughout the territory.

WAYNE APPOINTED AS ASSISTANT TO GEN. JOHNSON

Not Likely New Secretary to Governor Will Be Named; Position Temporary

Although appointed to succeed Maj. Laurence Redington as assistant to Brig-Gen. Samuel I. Johnson, adjutant, N. G. H., Capt. Will Wayne, quartermaster corps, N. G. H., is not to give up his position as secretary to Governor Pinkham.

This announcement was made today, following the appointment of Wayne to the guard position late yesterday afternoon. As Wayne's new position is considered only temporary, a plan is being considered whereby, for the time being, at least, the work of the governor's office will be divided between Wayne and Eben Cushingham, chief clerk in the territorial secretary's office.

It was explained today, however, that the assignment of Captain Wayne may continue during the period of the war. Wayne is now busy compiling the governor's annual report to the secretary of the interior, and this work will necessitate his spending considerable time in the governor's office in addition to his new duties. It is expected that the report will be ready for transmission to Washington by the first of September.

Prior to his promotion to captain, Wayne was battalion adjutant in the 1st regiment. His salary as assistant to the adjutant-general will be $250 a month.

WIFE'S PERFECT CURVE WITH PLATE SENDS HUBBY TO HOSPITAL

Tom and Alice Pahu, man and wife, respectively, went home last night to their place on School street, near Liliha street. According to Police-man I. K. Waiolama, Tom started to beat up his wife and she ran for the telephone to call the police. When he approached her again she picked up a plate and landed it squarely in his face. The throw was perfect and as the sharp crockery caromed off Tom's right eye toward his chin it left a clean-cut gash that required 12 stitches by Emergency Hospital Aide Stephenson.

COP MIXES IN EARLY MORNING ROW AT HEINIE'S

Belligerent Guest, Resenting Officer's Interference, Smashes Him

A disturbance in which Manager Harry Sims of Heinie's Tavern and Mounted Policeman J. B. Kramer are both said to have been assaulted occurred about 1 o'clock this morning at the beach resort. As a result James F. Williams has been arrested on a charge of assault and the police say he will be booked on another charge of assaulting a police officer. He is out on $50 cash bail and will be arraigned in police court, probably tomorrow.

An associate of Williams, Henry Humann, was also taken to the police station in connection with the disturbance, but was not arrested. Kramer declares he went with Manager Sims to remove Williams from the dancing hall when the latter, it is charged, started a disturbance because waiters would serve him no more liquor.

Once on the outside, Kramer says, Williams struck Sims in the face when told to keep quiet and then Kramer placed him under arrest. Kramer says Williams then demanded "Who are you?" and on being told, Williams hit him in the jaw. Kramer then struck him with his black-jack. According to Kramer, Williams also used a vile epithet.

The policeman says Williams' friends crowded around in a belligerent manner and Humann sneaked up behind Kramer and was about to hit him, so Kramer says, when Ben Jacobson, the house policeman, caught him.

MAKING IT PLAIN

The Pure Food and Drug Laws aim to protect the public by preventing misstatements on the labels of preparations but some people continue to accept "extracts" of cod livers thinking they will get the benefits of an emulsion of cod liver oil.

The difference is very great. An "emulsion" contains real cod liver oil, which has had the hearty endorsement of the medical profession for many years, while an "extract" is a product which contains no oil and is highly alcoholic.

Scott's Emulsion guarantees the highest grade of real Norwegian cod liver oil, skillfully blended with glycerine and hypophosphites. Scott's is free from the false stimulation of alcohol and is endorsed by good physicians everywhere.

WHY FURNACE IN U. S. BUILDING AT HILO? HE ASKS

Official Thinks Local Architect Should Draw Plans for Local Structure

Why a furnace was installed in the new federal building at Hilo, with connections in every room for heat radiators, is a question at least one local federal official would like to have answered.

"In my opinion," he says, "the Chamber of Commerce and the people of Honolulu should get together and petition the treasury department at Washington to let some local architect draw the plans for the new federal building here."

The official in question is a kamaaina resident of the islands, and declares that, during the time he has lived here, it has never become so cold that artificial heat, let alone furnaces in homes and public buildings, was needed.

"We don't need that big steam heating system in the Hilo federal building, and we certainly do not need one in the Honolulu structure. Such a system in the local building would mean added expense for something that would never be used."

"In my opinion something should be done, and done quickly, so that a local architect will be allowed to draw the plans. We would then have a building that would be adapted to the Hawaiian climate."

HONOLULU WOMAN REVEALS GERMAN WAR CONDITIONS

"A card system is employed by the government to regulate the food consumption," said Mrs. Wight in telling of the food situation in Germany. "The government has control over all food and each person is allotted so much of different colored cards which they obtain from the government offices at different times."

"When I was there we were given these cards for the foods essential to life. For instance, we were given different colored cards for potatoes, beans, meat, or whatever foods might be on the program for the time. We watched the government bulletin boards, which told us at regular periods what was allotted to us, and after getting our tickets, we could go to the markets and purchase our food with them."

Six Potatoes a Day
"Each person was allowed six potatoes a day just before we left and in our household of three we were allowed a total of 18 potatoes. Potatoes during the winter before were selling at what corresponds to 60 cents in our money per hundred pounds delivered to the fourth floor of our house."

"We were allowed three-quarters of a pound of meat per week, which proved quite enough to get along on. Many people saved their cards for the week and obtained one especially good cut, but we found it more satisfactory to get the allotted amount each day. In this country, people often do not understand that the German pound is a little heavier than the American pound, so the meat given to each person is more than most people judge."

"There is lots of fish in Germany with which the people are generally well supplied. Other foods are not so abundant, but there is generally enough to get along on."

"When we left Germany there was enough food in store for two years, and that is not counting the food that is harvested each year on the fields. During the coming year Germany will also receive the produce of the fertile wheat fields of Rumania which previously went to Turkey. This will undoubtedly help matters considerably."

No Discontent Apparent
Upon being asked what she thought the possibilities of a revolt in Germany were, Mrs. Wight declared that she had found no discontent with the government among the people of Germany.

"We heard of a riot in Leipzig while we were in Berlin," said Mrs. Wight, "but after all, I believe that the riots which took place in New York at about that time were even worse."

"There is not much gaiety in Germany," said Mrs. Wight. "You don't see any dancing or like social activity. But the theaters are not closed. The streets are not darkened and people go out at night and the theaters were never better nor grander, more pleasing. Incidentally, the German interpretation of Shakespeare is wonderful. The German people are great admirers of Shakespeare."

Just before leaving Germany, Mrs. Wight had been actively engaged in the work of a kitchen for the poor, which was maintained by the Americans of Berlin. Here 200 people were being fed each day.

Actual fighting is so far away from Berlin that Mrs. Wight came into contact with it only through the fresh troops who left the city in which she was staying and the wounded soldiers who returned. Germany has lots of men left, according to Mrs. Wight.

"A new lot of 250,000 men are ready to take the places of the men who have fallen out," said Mrs. Wight. "and the men go willingly. When war was declared 80,000 young men under age volunteered in Berlin alone. At the time many were taken into the ranks, but it later proved a mistake, and now every man is chosen for the army by government draft."

Concerning the reported atrocities during the first part of the war, Mrs. Wight said that she had seen nothing nor had she seen any pictures of bodies of people who had been mutilated by the German people. She said that women in Serbia who had fled

REPUBLICANS RULE BOARD; DEM. TWIN PROTEST BUT MAKE NO SPLIT

G. O. P. Keeps Firm Hold on Committees — McClellan and Petrie Do Not Carry Fight Into Routine Business, and Supervisors Get Down to Work

STANDING COMMITTEES

- Road—Arnold, Ahia and Belina.
- Finance—Mott-Smith, McClellan and Hollinger.
- Parks, playgrounds and public buildings—Hollinger, Ahia and Petrie.
- Sanitation and health, water and sewer—Ahia, Arnold and Petrie.
- Police, fire and electric light—Bellina, Mott-Smith and McClellan.

Realizing the fact that the Republicans held the whip hand and their part in the running of the municipal machinery was to be a more or less perfunctory role at the beginning, the Democratic minority of two of the board of supervisors became reconciled to their fate and indicated at last night's meeting of the supervisors that, as their opposition would of course prove futile, they would fall in line with the majority's program and "do their bit" in speeding up administrative affairs.

But, the Democratic pair, Messrs. McClellan and Petrie, did not surrender without voicing a protest at not being allowed to have a voice in the disposition of weighty matters.

Mayor J. J. Fern was not yet strong enough to attend, so Charles Arnold took the chair while Ben Hollinger was the floor speaker for the majority.

Brooks No Interference
From the very first the majority made it plain in both actions and words that it intended to run the affairs of the city and would brook no interference of a political nature. Arnold crystallized this when he said:

"The mayor has seen fit to make certain nominations for positions already provided for by ordinances. We believe, therefore, that it is time to inform him and the minority that the majority proposes to retain all the prerogatives vested in the board."

This stand, however, was tempered as much as possible by the willingness of the majority to agree to any proposal of the minority when it did not tend to shear them of their power, and the Bourbons, seeing that the cards were against them, gracefully submitted and did everything to speed the work.

to the mountains when the army entered their country were devoured in numbers by wolves, and that horrible crimes had been attributed to the Cossacks in their military operations. "Switzerland has been turned into a hospital," declared Mrs. Wight, in telling of her trip back through the country. "It is surprising that so little is generally known about the work that the Swiss people are carrying on for the wounded."

Switzerland a Hospital
"During the early part of the war the belligerent nations agreed upon the request of the Pope to send the men who had been permanently disabled to Switzerland. There are 10,000 Germans, 10,000 French and 6000 English soldiers there now. They will remain there until the war is over."

"It is very touching to watch the men come into that country. Many of them must stay there for a long time and some have had their families sent to them. They have probably left home forever. There you see men without eyes, without legs, without arms, without faces even, come there to live. The work that the Swiss are doing for them is wonderful. In Norway and Sweden similar work is being done but not on nearly so extensive a scale."

Mrs. Wight did not care to speculate as to the outcome of the war, for she said she could not possibly tell. She and her daughter are now staying with S. G. Wilder on Judd street.

OUTWARD APPEARANCES OF WASHINGTON LITTLE BETOKEN WAR CENTER

The appearance of Washington, D. C., from a military standpoint is very much like that of Honolulu, according to residents of the capital who arrived here yesterday in the Maui. The party, which is at the Moana Hotel, includes J. A. Cassidy, his son, H. I. Cassidy, and his sister-in-law, Miss Esther Prager. Cassidy is a retired businessman and capitalist of Washington and is here for the first time.

Other than armed guards about various public works in Washington, Cassidy says there is little indication from the outside, at least, of real war and no visible excitement. The White House is guarded by soldiers in uniform at night and by plain-clothes men in the day time. The visitors were surprised to find armed guards on the streets of Honolulu.

Cassidy credits his trip to Honolulu to the lure Mark Twain threw around the "Sandwich" islands. "I have wanted to come here all my life," he says, "but never have found the time before. Reading Mark Twain when a boy was largely responsible."

—THE AD MAN.

In several cases Petrie voted with the majority, it is believed, in order that he could later ask for a reconsideration on any matter, if it seems desirable.

Petrie's Request Granted
Hollinger introduced the rules for the board. Petrie stated that neither McClellan nor he had seen them, and his request for a delay on their passage was granted, except as to the section appointing the standing committees, and this was passed to facilitate the transaction of business.

It did not pass, however, without opposition on the part of the two Democrats as by it the appointing power is taken away from the mayor and given to the board. Action taken resulted in the number of committees being reduced from seven to five with neither of the Bourbons given a chairmanship.

Speaking against this move Petrie said:

"I don't like to be continually kicking but I can't see why these changes should be made. I may be wrong but the minority has certainly not been considered and as I have said before it has political significance. McClellan and I are not looking for any particular committee as we are here to work, but it is playing politics to reduce the committees. Mayor Fern has been elected for the fourth time and therefore must hold the confidence of the people, but ever since his election members of this and the former board have passed rules designed to lessen his power and I claim it is against the wishes of the people."

Hollinger replied that the majority had not attempted to take any power away from the mayor given him by law, but that it is the prerogative of the board to make its own rules and it intended to do so. "The committees were reduced for efficiency," said Hollinger, "but if the minority can name two more appropriate committees we might consider it."

Petrie came back with the remark that the move may not be against the law but it is against precedent which he said sometimes is stronger than law.

Hollinger then named the standing committees which were approved.

McClellan, saying he wished to make it plain he was voting not against any committee member personally but against the tactics of the majority, voted yes. Petrie voted yes. "I'll not stand out on this," he said. The meeting adjourned until Friday night.

Hollinger Aims To Block Democratic Probe of City Coin

Because he believes that it is an insult to the auditor's department for the Democratic party to engage H. Gooding Field to make an inspection of the books, Ben Hollinger is on the war path to prevent Field from obtaining further figures.

"It is just the same as saying that the auditor's department doesn't know how to keep its books," Hollinger declared, "and I am going to have it stopped if I can. Once before Field, then representing the chamber of commerce, tried to get the figures and was prevented and the same situation applies now."

CITY BUSINESS AND SUPERVISORS' NOTES

The next meeting of the board of supervisors will be held Friday evening, July 6.

Bids for the supplies of the city for the next six months were opened and the purchasing agent ordered to tabulate them for the next meeting.

Bids for the burial of indigent dead were opened Tuesday night. Will Barthwick was the lowest bidder with an offer of $15 per person and H. H. Williams bid $17.50.

A resolution creating, defining and establishing the Beretania street improvement district from Alapai to Punahou streets was passed and also an ordinance fixing the grades and curb lines.

Lester Petrie introduced a resolution calling on the city and county engineer to prepare estimates for a cantonier system of roads for the county of Honolulu. It was referred to the road committee.

Because of the H. C. of L. the board of supervisors must now pay for the lights which it uses. In a letter from the directors of the McIntyre building, the building was offered at a rental of $240 a month, but on the condition that the administration pay for the lights.

Charles Arnold suggested that the members of the board take under consideration the proposition of appointing an engineer to inspect the construction of roads in subdivisions. He said at present there is no way by which the city can check up as to whether the roads are properly laid and as the city and county will have to maintain them after they are down it is very necessary to have an overseer.

PRUNING KNIFE USED ON MAYOR'S FUND AND AUTO

New Board, However, Sanctions Increase of $1785 in City Salaries

An increase of $1785 in salaries and for the maintenance and upkeep of the various city departments, was the first step taken by the new board of supervisors to fix the appropriation bill for the first three months of its term. At the meeting Tuesday night the bill passed on first reading but as there are several changes to be made, it was not ordered to print.

The total of the appropriation bill as passed is $272,506.11, of which $199,900 comes out of the general fund and the balance is to be drawn against the permanent improvement fund, special road taxes and the water and sewer departments.

The salary increases total $2800, while the decreases are $1015. There is also a further decrease of $6500 for election expenses which was placed in the previous bill but as it is in the nature of a special appropriation and only occurs every two years it can hardly be considered in the salary increases.

The departments which received increases are the attorney's office, $120, including higher salaries for the two deputies and the addition of a messenger; city and county physician $75, donation to the Hawaii promotion committee, $750; emergency hospital physician, $150; supplies for the emergency hospital, $5; incidentals of the jail, $175; maintenance and upkeep of Kapiolani park, $510; playgrounds instructor salary, $450; purchasing agent incidentals, $50; treasury department, $250, and treasurer officer's (fixed by legislature), $765.

Decreases occurred in the salaries of district court employees, $120; mayor's entertainment fund, $100; mayor's automobile, upkeep, $125; maintenance and upkeep of police force $370 and the support of prisoners, $300.

APPOINTEES OF ELECTIVE HEADS ARE CONFIRMED

The elected heads of the various departments of the city and county last night presented their appointments, which were approved by the board of supervisors and the salaries fixed.

They are as follows:
By Sheriff Charles Rose: Deputy sheriffs, John Fernandez, Ewa; Henry H. Plemer, Waiwala; Joseph Luahewa, Koolauloa; Robert W. Davis, Koolauoko, and Julius Aschi, Honolulu.

By James Bicknell, auditor: James Lloyd, deputy, $225; Edward Hopkins, $150; R. B. Bicknell, $115, and Eli Crawford, $100.

By David Kalanokalani, county clerk: Eugene Buffandeau, first deputy; Henry Van Gieson, second deputy; and I. J. Hopu and Fred Swan, stenographers.

The list submitted by Attorney A. M. Brown included A. M. Cristy, first deputy, $295; C. A. Davis, second deputy, $235; C. F. Chillingworth, prosecutor, $200; Patrick Silva, clerk, $130; Mary S. Sproule, stenographer, $130; J. P. Dias, messenger, $100; H. T. Lake, police assistant. Brown also asked for an assistant stenographer, no name given, but this was cut out on motion of McClellan. McClellan and Petrie also fought the confirmation of a salary for the messenger, a new job, but were overridden by the board, which confirmed all salaries with the exception of that for assistant stenographer.

Brown also asked for a few salary raises. This matter was referred to the ways and means committee.

Judge Harry Irwin of the district court submitted his list of appointments, already published in the Star-Bulletin. The appointment of Frank Benevides as Portuguese interpreter and assistant clerk was objected to by the Democratic minority as a contravention of law and the matter was referred to the police committee for a report.

PRESS REPORTS

UNDULY ALARM SUGAR CONSUMER

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 13.—Some of the press reports that have gone out from Washington, based on the recent statement of Herbert C. Hoover before the Senate Committee on Agriculture, are tending to cause alarm among the consumers of the country and to create the impression that we are likely to be faced by a sugar famine within the next few months.

Facts Distorted

This is not the fault of Mr. Hoover, for he was careful to make clear in his remarks that the acute shortage of sugar exists in Europe and not in the United States. His suggestion of the need of conferring authority through the food control bill to regulate the distribution of sugar, among other food commodities, was based upon his desire to provide a larger export supply from this side of the Atlantic for the use of our allies and not upon any threatened shortage in our own domestic supply. Many of the incomplete newspaper reports of his statement appeared under headlines announcing that "sugar may vanish in the United States as war progresses" and "May be all out of sugar in October." Naturally consumers took alarm at such announcements, which threatened to undo the good work accomplished by the sugar trade in recent months in convincing the public that there was no need for anxiety over the sugar supply and no occasion for hoarding.—Facts About Sugar.

CUBAN OUTPUT SHOWS DECREASE

(By WILLET & GRAY)
NEW YORK, N. Y., June 21.—Cuban figures are received by cable again this week. Receipts are 35,367 tons, against 19,742 tons last year. Exports total 52,267 tons, destined as follows: Thirty-six thousand three hundred twelve tons to U. S. Atlantic ports, 2686 tons to New Orleans and 13,269 tons to Europe. Stock is 74,621 tons, almost the same as last year's figure of 74,539 tons. During the week 23 factories finished their crop. Of these, 10 are located in the west and 13 in the east. Twenty-two of these factories made a crop of 1,978,400 bags, against Messrs. Guma-Mejers' December 11, 1916, estimate of 2,703,000 tons, based on a crop of about 3,600,000 tons. The falling off is principally in the estates located in the eastern portion of the island, due to revolutionary activity some time ago. Another factor contributing largely to small output is the fact that the crop figures given include those of at least three new estates. It is a very difficult matter to estimate the crop of a new factory, and the estimator usually errs on the "large" side. We estimate that 19 centrals are grinding, against 20 last year and 33 in 1915. Visible production continues to catch up on last year's total—standing at 2,679,641 tons, against 2,796,700 tons and 2,293,713 tons in 1916 and 1915 respectively. Early in the week the weather was generally rainy; later reports mention scattered rains. Our latest cable reports general rains.

EXPORTS IN MAY WORTH $130,383

Domestic merchandise exported from the customs district of Hawaii in May reached a total value of $130,383, according to a statement received from Washington in yesterday's mail by Collector of the Port Malcolm A. Franklin.
The largest individual item in the list of exports is sugar mill machinery, which is valued at $46,433. Most of it was shipped to Japan and the remainder to the Philippines and British Oceania.
Next in size is scrap iron and steel, of which 1965 tons, worth $34,290, were shipped to Japan.
The third item is green coffee, the total amount shipped having been 73,489 pounds, with a valuation of $11,960.
Tin scrap is fourth, with a valuation of $10,990.
Canned fruit is fifth, with a valuation of $5,476.
Canned salmon sixth, 24,902 pounds, worth $3513.
Bread and biscuit are seventh, 34,720 pounds, worth $2749.

HILO SUGAR CO. 'TO FURNISH GAS FOR EMPLOYEES

(Special Star-Bulletin Correspondence.)
HILO, July 2.—For the first time in the Territory of Hawaii a precedent is established by a sugar company in the abandonment of wood fuel to make way for the installation of gas. Through the efforts of its manager John A. Scott, the Hilo Sugar Company has contracted with the Hilo Gas Company for the supply of gas to all employees' camps at Wainaku and Amamulu, and by the latter part of September this new commodity will probably be in use.
According to arrangements made the Hilo Sugar Company will supply the gas free of all charges to their employees at Wainaku and Amamulu camps, and in addition will furnish gas ranges and other necessary appliances.

BUSINESS NEWS FROM HAKALAU

(Special Star-Bulletin Correspondence.)
HAKALAU, Hawaii, July 2.—Hakalau Mill's output to date is 15,250 tons. About 5000 tons more will finish the crop, which will be the banner one of this progressive plantation.
The nearly new Hakalau show house is being renovated and Manager J. M. Ross is leaving no stone unturned to make the resort commodious and pleasing to the neighborhood. The place and arrangements would do Hilo credit.
The new Hakalau 100,000-bag warehouse has been completed and partly filled with the everlastingly accumulating sweet goods. Modern loading and unloading appliances and devices are so arranged that steamers will be despatched in much less time than heretofore, and Landing Boss Kaptenberg smiles.
All the idle plots hereabouts are getting the shaking up of their life—beans, potatoes and what not of food-stuffs. There never was such an awakening to a sensible move; even wandering swarms of bees are corralled and commandeered to cater to the food hunt campaign. Heretofore they could have lit on bare noses and escaped apian duty.

FOOD CAMPAIGN BRINGS RESULTS

Replies to the food commission's 2500 queries which were sent broadcast to wholesale and retail dealers last week in the campaign for food conservation are being received rapidly, according to a report received from the commission yesterday. The replies to the queries are coming in at the rate of about 200 a day and already over 500 have been received.
The food commission's sub-committee on marketing held a meeting this morning to discuss plans for handling the produce on the several islands and arrange their marketing locally and in Honolulu. No definite policy was announced.
The marketing situation generally, it was reported, is very poor throughout Hawaii. Many individual instances are known in which consumers have bought foods that were raised here, shipped to Honolulu or the coast, and then shipped back, the consumer having to pay his share of the cost of all this wasteful transportation.
A definite scheme for eliminating this unwarranted and unprofitable feature of island agriculture and consumption probably will be announced in the near future.

The Matsuo liner Matsuo arrived at San Francisco at 8 o'clock yesterday morning.

PARCELS MAY BE SENT C. O. D. FOR FEE OF 10 CENTS

Further details concerning the C. O. D. feature of Uncle Sam's parcel post were received this morning from Washington by Postmaster D. H. MacAdam.
The latest information is that parcels may be sent C. O. D. for a fee of 10 cents in addition to the postage, provided the amount to be remitted is not over $100. On payment of this fee, insurance to a maximum of $50 goes on the parcel automatically.
The change in the old regulations is briefly as follows: That the fee of 10 cents will be charged when the value of the parcel is not over $50; when the value is between $50 and $100, a fee of 25 cents will be charged. By the change, such parcels will be automatically insured without additional charge, for the actual value up to $50 when the 10 cents is paid, and up to $100 when the 25 cents fee is paid.

WIDE INTEREST IN WRIGHT-DIETRICH PROGRAM SATURDAY

Rene Dietrich.

The program which Horace Wright and Rene Dietrich have arranged for their initial Honolulu recital, Saturday evening, July 7, at the Laniakea theater, is one which should be of unusual interest, as it embodies numbers ranging from grand opera selections to the very lightest of popular songs. These two versatile artists are bound to appeal to music-lovers in general, being equally delightful in the heavier numbers as well as those of a lighter vein. They have long been called the "somewhat different singers," a description gained by their peculiar ability to give an entirely new interpretation to whatever class of song they sing.

Miss Dietrich is not alone an accomplished singer, but a pianist and composer as well. Mr. Wright and Miss Dietrich visited the islands a little over two years ago and they were happy until they could "come back." They have taken one of the Moana cottages at Waikiki for the summer, and are enjoying every minute of their stay. They have many personal friends here—and no doubt many others who have become acquainted with them through their Victor records. Indeed Wright and Dietrich can truly be considered "Hawaiian promotionists," as they have done much toward giving a wholesome and accurate impression of the islands, throughout their travels.

Sir Alexander McCormick, consulting surgeon to the Royal Prince Alfred hospital, Sydney, has been appointed consulting surgeon to the Imperial army in France. He served in the same capacity in the British army during the Boer war.

LITTLE TALES ABOUT TOWN

Critics have commented volubly since the death of Jack London on whether his books would go down into the ages as popular as they are now and if so just what ones. Whatever may be the fate of his works in years to come certainly they are secure now, especially in an unexpected place—Russia—where, according to a prominent Russian journalist visiting in Honolulu, London is far and away the favorite author.

V. Krymoff, editor of the Moscow Russkoye Slovo, one of the greatest Russian newspapers which was quoted in the Star-Bulletin only yesterday in an Associated Press despatch, makes this statement. Krymoff is at the Moana hotel with Mrs. Krymoff and they are on their way to the States. The next boat from the Orient will probably take them.

Although a long way from Moscow, Editor Krymoff is still actively connected with the publication as a correspondent of keen vision on foreign affairs and he has already sent several articles on America—Hawaii style—since his arrival here, including one on Jack London.

The Russian writer is a great admirer of London and has in a quiet way done some careful research work on the life, habits and characteristics of the great author. Honolulu may think it knew London pretty well, but Krymoff does not think so.

"It is remarkable to me that so great an American writer is so little known here—right where he lived," he says. "Why, in Russia his name is on every child's lips and on many a man and woman's, too. His translated works have sold so rapidly in Russia that fifteen editions have already been issued. The Russians consider him the typical American and his stories true representations of the great republic to the west which they admire so much."

Thanks to lucky steamer schedules and to Postmaster D. H. MacAdam, the Honolulu postoffice force is having virtually a complete holiday today.

The force deserves it, too. Comparatively few people realize how fast the work in the local office has grown, nor how inadequate are the facilities in the cramped quarters, which is all that Uncle Sam has until the new federal building is completed.

Today there is no outgoing and but one incoming despatch of mail, the latter by the steamer Kinau from Kauai this morning. Kauai mail for boxes was distributed and perishable parcel post delivered. Train mail for Oahu points is all being despatched. Stamp, general delivery, registry, parcel post and money order windows are closed. No general carrier's collections or deliveries were made. The working force of the postoffice is entitled to a full holiday. Since steamer schedules permit, Postmaster MacAdam took great pleasure in ordering it.

The first despatch of steamer mail after today are those for Hilo by the Maui and for Kauai by the Mauna Loa Thursday afternoon at 5 o'clock. There is no postoffice transaction that could be made on the Fourth that would advance mail for island, South Sea, Oriental or mainland points.

SECOND CAPE CASE IS NOLLE PROSSED

At the instance of City Attorney A. M. Brown the case of Waldo E. Cape, formerly an enlisted man, charged with the commission of a statutory offense, was nolle prossed in Circuit Judge Heen's court yesterday. Cape was sentenced yesterday morning to four years in prison for assault with a dangerous weapon.

RILEY H. ALLEN

EDITOR

WEDNESDAY JULY 4, 1917.

Two Fourths

Fifty-six years ago today the Congress of the United States gave its first formal recognition to the battle to preserve the Union and free it from the menace of slave-power.

On April 12 the Confederate batteries had opened on Fort Sumter, the first "overt act" of the Civil War, but it was not until July 4 that Congress, summoned into special session by President Lincoln, ratified all of his previous acts with respect to the army and navy, authorized a further call for half a million volunteers, and arranged for a national loan of $250,000,000. That action of Congress made it certain that the Civil War would be fought to the finish.

The peril of internal dissolution that faced the United States on July 4, 1861, was no more imminent than the peril of external tyranny that faces the United States on July 4, 1917.

We have entered this war, as we entered the Civil War and the Spanish-American war, not for treasure or conquest but for democracy, human freedom, international rights—in short, for a principle. We have raised the greatest single war-loan in history, are raising a great army and are building a great navy.

Many Americans are slow to realize that the nation is actually in a war on which it has staked its very existence as an independent commonwealth. If the Central Powers win, the United States will be a vassal—a tribute-paying vassal—of Germany.

In the sixties it took a large part of the country a year to wake up to the fact that the war was no mere matter of a month's skirmishing. We shall now ere long that the present war is no mere matter of sending a division of troops and a fleet of destroyers to Europe.

And on this Fourth of July we take a solemn pride in the thought that our sacrifices are not for any man-made, arrogant kingship or lordly ambition for conquest, but for suffering Belgium, prostrate Serbia—and against domineering Prussianism.

Playing The Bigger Part

Honolulu's new supervisors settled down to business last evening with celerity and despatch, in spite of the fact that the Republican majority has frozen out the Democratic minority by its reorganization and makeup of the committees.

The Democratic minority accepted the minority role in good spirit, though not without a protest. Supervisor Petrie's statement that the majority's action in reorganizing the committees had political significance is unquestionably true. There is not the slightest doubt that the Republican majority has deliberately determined to rule city affairs with a firm hand, to reduce the mayor's prerogatives as much as possible, and, at least in the beginning, to minimize the Bourbon minority.

The Star-Bulletin has already recorded its opinion—and the opinion of a great many people already expressed—that this policy is a mistake, but it is not the sort of a mistake which should be allowed to prevent the board from doing effective work.

In accepting the situation, and in going ahead with the majority to transact general city business, supervisors McJellan and Petrie are playing a far bigger part than if they tried to fight back at every point. Their attitude last night wins respect from citizens in general. After their vote of protest against the committee reorganization steam-rolled through by the majority, they went on to the consideration of city business without a split. This is the sort of spirit which deserves appreciation by the voters and taxpayers, for it betokens their determination to be supervisors for all the city and not for any faction or party. If they maintain this attitude of rising above the snubs of the majority, they will justify the confidence of the people as proved in the last election.

SUMMING UP ISLAND PROGRESS.

The Star-Bulletin's Anniversary and Progress Edition of last Saturday has brought this paper many compliments, written and spoken. A number of businessmen have found occasion to say that they themselves had scarcely realized the growth of the city in recent years, and the tremendous possibilities for merchandising in the island market, until they saw so many phases of progress summed up in one newspaper issue.

The mails have taken out a great number of copies sent by business houses and individuals, and selected mailing-lists of people on the mainland have been filled by order, so that the edition will advertise Hawaii very widely.

ONCE AGAIN.

Honolulu's crying need for a city hall was never better demonstrated than last night, when a crowd of citizens vainly tried to get into the close-packed hall of supervisors for an important meeting.

The hall—called that by courtesy only—is about as uncomfortable as the Desert of Sahara; the corridor outside, ill-ventilated and filled with smoke whenever crowds gather, is as bad or worse. Small wonder that citizens are repelled from attending.

The board which brings a city hall about will deserve a laurel wreath and reelection.

J. F. G. Stokes has a local assessment scheme which he says will convince L. L. McCandless that local improvement is a good thing. It must be a curiosity, though J. F. G. S. says it doesn't come from the Bishop.

The Value of a Clean City

When public opinion and grand jury action forced the closing of Iwilei and the clean-up of Honolulu's organized "underworld," the city builded perhaps even better than it knew.

The drastic action was taken as a moral purgative, not on behalf of any particular class or element in the community, but to clear the whole atmosphere of its reeking, vicious taint of fast-spreading commercialized vice and petty graft. Honolulu awoke to the fact that Iwilei and vice regulation was a farce; that the city was filling with imported undesirable who were dragging into the net hundreds of young people here; and that if the city was to be even averagely clean, a mighty blow must be aimed at the center of the evil.

It was aimed, the grand jury delivered it, and after Iwilei was closed no man could say with truth that Honolulu citizens were not honestly trying to clean up a foul spot.

And these citizens by that action have preserved their city from the evil repute that has fallen on El Paso, Texas, and that may fall on Newport, Rhode Island.

El Paso's immorality has run so wide open that United States troops have been taken away by the thousand. Secretary of the Navy Daniels has warned Newport that unless there is a clean-up, the authority of the United States will be used to remove temptation from the young men of the navy there.

As to El Paso, here is part of a letter lately received in Honolulu from J. D. Shippee, financial secretary of the Y. M. C. A., army headquarters, on the border:

Things in El Paso are very quiet at this time. A great many of the men were taken away and transferred on account of the immoral conditions there. You know the lineup of politics, they would not clean up, so consequently the camps have been cut down there. At the present time, we only have three branches there. We gave up the store at 417 Masa avenue and built a headquarters building near the Ohio camp. Camp Stewart is open at this time, and we are also doing work at Base hospital—that is the extent of the El Paso work.

On the other hand, San Antonio got busy immediately and cleaned up, and by doing so, she has been awarded one of the largest aerial camps in this part of the country. They are putting in a big bunch of cantonments all around, and expect within a short time to have in the neighborhood of 60,000 to 70,000 men around San Antonio.

Uncle Sam's army and navy heads will not eternally tolerate vice and its ravages in the neighborhood of large bodies of their men. The attitude of the Hawaiian Department here is known to be strongly for civic cleanliness. What the citizens of Honolulu did a few months ago to force the closing of Iwilei must be followed by vigorous, intelligent and persistent campaigning on the part of the police force and the prosecuting attorney's office to get the city clean and keep it clean. There is known to be scattered vice now, a good deal of gambling, much "bootlegging" of booze. It is not easy to deal with this sporadic law violation, but the disposition to get after it unrelentingly is half the battle.

The old and utterly false and unjust story that Honolulu had to tolerate vice for the army is punctured, let us hope forever. It's up to Honolulu itself to make and keep this a decent city night and day, on every street and in every alley.

Probably no American city is having quite as big a Fourth as is Paris today. The French capital has gone wild with enthusiasm over the arrival of the American soldiers. France sees in American participation the certainty of an end to the cruel conflict. "France is on her knees, looking to God through her tears," says Billy Sunday and no better sentence has ever been coined to fit the situation. But, even on her knees, gallant France is fighting with heroic energy.

Hilo is moving ahead in the newspaper field. Two live dailies are now in the field, the Hawaii Post and the Hilo Tribune. The latter has shown commendable enterprise in securing an Associated Press morning and afternoon franchise and arranging for the most complete telegraphic service ever received by an island newspaper outside Honolulu. The men connected with these papers have a sublime faith in the future of their city and island and are backing that faith with hard cash.

The National Guard of Hawaii won't be wrecked unless its guiding powers quit cold or assume the attitude of innocent sufferers. What has been decided to reconstruct the guard and what has been decided on non-mobilization is part of the bigger scheme of national activity in the war, and Hawaii's first duty is to "play the game" for Uncle Sam, not for local self-interest.

Supervisor Arnold makes an effective chauffeur for the Republican steam-roller operated by the G. O. P. majority on the board of supervisors. He toots the horn to let the Democrats know the machine is coming—and sends it on its way without unnecessary excuses.

The British prime minister heard, 140 miles away, the noise of the Messines mine explosion. And Herr von Bethmann-Hollweg and his imperial master, wherever they were, heard it too.—Providence Journal.

China is the acrobat of the nations. It is nothing for this great country to turn a political double somersault.

Joe Fern is now a mayor entirely surrounded patronage that he can't use.

Uncle Sam is setting off a few real fireworks this Fourth.

HERE IS U. S. FLAG ETIQUETTE LOOK OUT FOR ANY VIOLATION

WASHINGTON, D. C.—Many inquiries concerning the proper method of displaying, hanging and saluting the United States flag are being received in the war department with the evident object of securing some authoritative statement relating to the subject.

In this connection it should be remarked that while it is within the province of the war department to prescribe rules and regulations governing the matter in question for observance within the army, yet it is beyond its province to prescribe any such rules or regulations for the guidance of civilians or to undertake to decide questions concerning the subject that are presented by civilians.

There is no federal law now in force pertaining to the manner of displaying, hanging or saluting the United States flag or prescribing any ceremonies that should be observed in connection therewith. In fact that are but two federal laws on the statute books that have any bearing upon this subject, one the act of congress approved February 20, 1905 (33 Stat. L. 725), providing that a trade-mark or not be registered which consists of or comprises, inter alia, "the flag, coat of arms, or other insignia of the United States, or any simulation thereof," and the other the act of congress approved February 8, 1917 (Public No. 305, 64th Cong.), providing certain penalties for the desecration, mutilation, or improper use of the flag within the District of Columbia.

Several states of the Union have enacted laws which, more or less bearing upon the general subject, and it seems probable that many counties and municipalities have also passed ordinances concerning the matter to govern action within their own jurisdiction. Warning against desecration of the American flag by aliens has been issued by the department of justice, which has sent the following notice to federal attorneys and marshals: "Any alien enemy tearing down, mutilating, abusing, or desecrating the United States flag in any way will be regarded as a danger to the public peace or safety within the meaning of regulation 12 of the proclamation of the president issued April 6, 1917, and will be subject to summary arrest and punishment."

It is the practice in the army, each day in the year, to hoist the flag briskly at sunrise, irrespective of the condition of the weather, and to lower it slowly and ceremoniously at sunset, indicating the commencement and cessation of the activities of the day, and to display it at half staff on Memorial Day (May 30) from sunrise until noon, and at full staff from noon until sunset, and also on other days specially designated for that purpose by the proper authority, the flag always being first hoisted to the top of the staff before being lowered to the half-staff position.

There has been some question among civilians concerning the exact location of a flag hung at "half staff." Theoretically, the flag is always hung on a separate staff, much shorter than the staffs usually erected on buildings, and as a consequence a flag hung at half staff would be located much higher on the ordinary flag staff than under the present practice, but still the custom of placing the half-staffed flag in about the center of the flagpole, whatever its length may be, is rather generally observed throughout the country and this department sees no real objection to this custom.

Considerable discussion has arisen throughout the country concerning the proper manner of hanging and displaying the flag for decorative purposes. As already stated, there is no federal law governing the subject, and individual opinion differs as to the procedure that should or should not be followed. It has been suggested that as far as possible the hanging of a flag should be restricted to suspending it from a flagpole, in the regular way, and not to displaying it otherwise; that for purposes of decoration only the national colors should be arranged in the form of bunting and not put used in the form of the flag; that if it is nevertheless the desire to use the flag for decorative purposes it should always be hung flat whether on the inside or the outside of buildings, with the union to the north or east, so that there will be a general uniformity in the position of the union of each flag displayed; that the flag should rarely be displayed in a horizontal position or laid flat; that under no circumstances should it be hung where it can easily be contaminated or soiled, or be draped over chairs or benches to be used for seating purposes, and that no object or emblem of any kind should be placed above or upon it. This department sees no objection to flying the flag at night on civilian property provided it is not so flown for advertising purposes.

It is becoming the practice throughout the country among civilians to display the national flag on all patriotic occasions, especially on the following days: Lincoln's birthday, February 12. Washington's birthday, February 22. Mothers' day, second Sunday in May. Memorial day, May 30. Flag day, June 14. Independence day, July 4. In certain localities other special days are observed in the same manner.

It seems to be appropriate that where flags or emblems are displayed on a pole or otherwise the United States flag should always be hoisted first and hung or displayed at the top; that in any parade the United States flag should always have the place of honor, and that the flag should never be hung or displayed with the union down, except as a signal of distress at sea.

Existing regulations governing the army provide that when officers and enlisted men pass the national flag, not encased, they will render honors as follows: If in civilian dress and covered, they will uncover, holding the headress opposite the left shoulder with the right hand; if uncovered, they will salute with the right hand salute. A flag unfurled and hung in a room in which officers or enlisted men of the army are present will be saluted by them the first time they have occasion to pass it, but not thereafter. The hand salute is as follows:

"Raise the right hand smartly till the tip of the forefinger touches the lower part of the headress above the right eye, thumb and fingers extended and joined, palm to left, forearm inclined to about forty-five degrees, hand and wrist straight; at the same time toward the person saluted."

"Drop the arm smartly to the side."

No anthem, hymn, or musical air has been recognized by any federal law as the national hymn, or air, but army and navy regulations provide that the musical composition familiarly known as the Star Spangled Banner shall be designated as the national air of the United States of America. It should be stated, however, that these regulations are binding only upon the personnel of the military and naval service.

Whenever the national air is played at any place where persons belonging to the military or naval service are present, all officers and enlisted men not in formation are required to stand at attention, facing toward the music, excepting when the flag is being lowered at sunset, on which occasion they are required to face toward the flag. If in civilian dress and uncovered, they are required to stand and salute at the first note of the air, retaining the position of salute until the last note of the air is played. If in civilian dress and covered, they are required to stand and uncover at the first note of the air, holding the headress opposite the left shoulder until the last note is played, excepting in inclement weather, when the headress may be held slightly raised. The custom of rising and remaining standing and uncovered while the Star Spangled Banner is being played is growing in favor among civilians.

Old or worn-out flags should not be used either for banners or for any secondary purpose. When a flag is in such a condition that it is no longer a fitting emblem for display, it should not be cast aside nor used in any way that might be viewed as disrespectful to the national colors, but should be destroyed as a whole, privately, preferably by burning or by some other method locking in any suggestion of irreverence or disrespect due the emblem representing our country.

It should be borne in mind that the views set forth in this circular are merely suggestive, and that it is not the intention of the department to give them out as authoritative.

The Adjutant General.

Ad and Rotary Clubs Offer Cooperation in City Betterment Movements

Extending the hand of friendship and expressing a desire to cooperate in every way with the new board for the progress of the city and a better and more economical administration, H. E. Vernon, representing the Ad and Rotary clubs addressed the supervisors last night. He said:

"On behalf of the Ad and Rotary clubs I take great pleasure in conveying to you and the mayor our hearty good will and assurance that your earnest efforts for a progressive administration in an economical and businesslike way of the affairs of the city and county of Honolulu will incite our approval and support. We will not be captious or unsympathetic and we believe you will welcome our cooperation and whenever the occasion arises be willing to submit for our consideration and helpful assistance matters that you properly feel should not be acted upon without sounding public opinion. I would recommend for your careful perusal and ultimate action the various matters so well outlined in F. C. Atherton's article in the Star-Bulletin of June 30. Also the advisability of carefully considering before appointing to office the ability and integrity of men and not their political affiliations."

"In closing I wish to say that since watching you this evening I believe that the $50 paid you is entirely inadequate and any action to increase the amount will receive my hearty support."

"The usual forms of entry and clearance in the foreign trade will be used by customs officers."

SOCIETY

MRS. HERBERT HOOVER AND BLINGUM HEROINES

From the San Francisco News Letter
The other day when a group of Burlingame women were invited to meet Mrs. Herbert Hoover at tea they laid before her their willingness to do or die for their country and her allies.

Now Mrs. Hoover is a large minded, deep experienced woman, who has watched Mr. Bretling see it through England, and she has a fine understanding of the time it takes to temper the spirit of a people to daily, small, undramatic sacrifices which in the aggregate will win this war and feed the allies.

So she listened sympathetically while this belle, who is doing a few weeks' hospital service to supplement her Red Cross work, told an anecdote of her work; while that matron who has rolled bandages, and the other dowager who has kept her knitting needles busy, unfolded their ambitions to soar in the rarefied atmosphere of heroism, to make the supreme sacrifice for an ideal, to join a consecrated army of pilgrims marching on to immolate themselves on the unknown altar of some beautiful, worth-while sacrifice.

"How many of you have ordered that no butter be used in cooking, even for company dinners?"

"How many of you have eliminated meat for one day?"

"How many of you are serving less when bread at your tables?"

Not a woman at that little tea party could truthfully answer that she was doing these things.

How many of us could make the right answer?

ENGAGEMENT AT EUREKA OF INTEREST TO HONOLULUANS

At a party given Wednesday in Eureka by Miss Muriel Falk, her engagement to Darrell J. Bogardus of this city was made known. The news comes as a surprise to the many local friends of the couple and follows the recent return of Bogardus from Eureka, where he had charge of the Liberty Loan bond campaign.

Both young people attended the University of California and took a prominent part in college activities during their student days. Miss Falk is a daughter of C. E. Falk, who has extensive lumber interests in Humboldt county. She is possessed of a talented voice and took a leading part in college dramatics, having been a member of the 1917 class and of the Delta Gamma sorority.

He was a member of the Phi Kappa Sigma fraternity, Golden Bear, Winged Helmet and several other honor societies and is a member of the Olympic Club.

The wedding will probably take place in the latter part of this year. San Francisco Chronicle, June 24.

$150,000 DONATED BY HAWAII TO RELIEF WORK SINCE WAR STARTED

Bulk of This Went to Europe: From Now on "America First" Will Be Rule

In a statement given the Star-Bulletin today, Alfred L. Castle, appointed last week as executive officer, secretary and treasurer of the War Relief Committee of Hawaii, makes public the fact that the committee has, up to June 30, 1917, disbursed a total of $154,054.49 for war relief.

This sum was practically all forwarded prior to America's entry into the war, and was disbursed as follows:

Belgium	$50,700.00
Prince of Wales Fund	75.00
France	10,200.00
Serbia	13,725.00
Austria	1,000.00
Children's Fund	11.15
Germany	43.00
Poland	27,225.00
American Red Cross	8,773.40
Urumbah	500.00
Armenia	33,600.00
Wireless Message	2.25
French War Orphans	4,850.00
Allied War Relief	300.00
Scottish Widows' Fund	50.00
American Ambulance	1,000.00
Blind Soldiers of France	50.00
Tobacco Fund	40.00
French Red Cross	1,000.00

Total $154,054.49

"All funds have been collected and disbursed without expense," says the statement, "The Bank of Hawaii charging us nothing for the forwarding of money. The amounts forwarded to foreign countries were practically all sent prior to America's entry into the war, either in the discretion of the committee or by direction of the donor. Since America's participation the money has practically all gone to the American Red Cross, and the principle of 'America First' will hereafter be followed.

$25,961 Sent Yesterday

"The War Relief Committee yesterday forwarded $25,961.25 to the American Red Cross in Washington. This is the result of voluntary donations sent in to the committee as a result of Red Cross Week, and the committee takes this opportunity of publicly thanking the donors. The donations that have come in are generous, but the number of givers is comparatively small, being to date an even 100.

Although the amount at first glance seems large it is really comparatively small. The American Red Cross asked for $100,000,000 during the special week, from the United States, this being approximately $1 per person for each person. At that rate Hawaii's share would be probably $255,000. It is apparent, therefore, that the people of Hawaii are not yet awake to the fact that America is in a real fight, and we must bear our share of the burden.

"With the object in view of trying to interest every person in Hawaii in America's cause the War Relief Committee will for the continuation of the war make an active campaign throughout the territory for funds to assist primarily the American Red Cross. Methods Employed

"Two methods will at present be used, first the subscription to the War Relief Committee and, second, joining directly the American Red Cross as members at large. Subscriptions made to the War Relief Committee will be forwarded to the American Red Cross in Washington unless some unforeseen emergency occurs. For instance, when our own people from this territory are in France—and I firmly believe that day is not far distant—it is quite conceivable that there may be actual suffering among families here, so that some relief work may be necessary at home. But for the present subscriptions go direct to Washington. To actively canvass for members in the American Red Cross the committee has wired for 10,000 membership application blanks. It is hoped to carry on this campaign among all nationalities. The committee, at the recommendation of General Strong and Col. Ebert, have written the American Red Cross asking its advice as to the advisability of the formation of a local chapter here, and requesting definite recommendations as to the best method for carrying on relief work here.

"Before the reply comes, however, there is no reason that the good work should not go on. Subscriptions in any and all amounts will be gladly received, either to the War Relief Committee, by way of membership in the American Red Cross, or for any other specific purpose named by the donor. People who can afford only to give $1 or less are just as welcome as any one else, and there should not be the slightest hesitancy in giving a small amount when the person himself can not afford more. The committee is forwarding every cent without any expense, all work being voluntary, and needs very expenses, such as stationery, etc., being subscribed by members of the committee.

"The work carried on by the War Relief Committee should not, and is not intended to conflict with the work of any other organization in the city. Particularly is this so of the ladies who are giving so much of their time and labor in the making up of war supplies. The active interest shown by them is splendid and under no circumstances should cease.

"But there are many people in the territory who are doing nothing. The Canadian War Relief Committee, I think, sends out little cards 'Serve or Pay,' and that is what Hawaii must come to. This has resulted in the collection of some $26,000,000. If one can not serve he can at least pay in what he can afford, by that means not only doing his bit to allay suffering, but taking a keener and more active interest in the great war."

Seventy dollars was collected for the blind soldiers in France following a talk on war conditions in that country by Dr. James R. Judd before the meeting of the graduate nurses at the library last night.

$33,000 PAID ON WATER INTERESTS

The interest and sinking fund paid June 30 by the water department on its bonded indebtedness was the first time in the history of the department that the entire amount was paid when due, according to Harry Murray, superintendent.

"This clearly indicates the sound financial basis upon which the water department is now operating," said Murray, "and what is of even more importance is that the same thing will be done from now on until all the bonds are taken up."

The amount paid was approximately $33,000 or about a third of the amount which the department took in during the first six months of this year.

In order to best protect all sorts of surfaces, wood, steel, iron, concrete, it is necessary to PAINT them with the best quality of lead and oil paints.

There is more real white lead in the gallon of Sherwin-Williams than any other paint we have discovered. This, with the high percentage of pure LINSEED oil, properly bound together with other ingredients and carefully mixed, forms a thick, hard skin that is impervious to moisture, and which withstands the fierce sunshine. That is why S-W paints do not crack, peel, powder, nor blister.

KAUAI GREET'S ALL-STUDENTS; WILL MIX BASEBALL WITH ENTERTAINMENT

Large Crowd of Fans Watches Honolulu Visitors at Initial Practice

By SUNN HUNG

Star-Bulletin Staff Correspondent with All-Student Team on Kauai Trip.

LIHUE, Kauai, July 3.—We had a pleasant trip all the way and not a single man in the crowd was seasick. We stayed up all night, until the boat landed. A big crowd of people greeted us, with many autos. We reached the hotel at 3:30 a. m. The rooms were pretty well taken and some boys had to sleep two in a bed. Most of the boys remained awake and at 5:30 went out for a sunrise walk. We visited the ball park at 6 a. m. The infield is somewhat rough and the outfield is hilly and a strong east wind blows and may bother the outfielders, but the All-Students will do their best.

Practice on Now Field

After breakfast we journeyed down to the field at 10 o'clock sharp with our uniforms and had two hours of hard practice. Henry Ah Lee of the Chinese team is with us and he is training the boys. Every member of the team had lots of "pep" with the exception of Chun Chew, who claimed to have sea legs still left. A large crowd of Kauai folk watched us in the workout and some stated that we can beat the other teams with ease. Perry was with us this morning and today he will be seen pitching against the Students.

Nushida to Pitch

In the initial battle tomorrow Nushida will oppose Perry and in the afternoon game Baldwin will pitch, with You Bun Hee at the receiving end. Lihue is a beautiful place and this afternoon the boys are going for a sight-seeing tour. We are boosting the capital city and the commercial firms with our uniforms.

A score of men were working in the park ready for the big Fourth. The grandstand will seat 500 people.

On the evening of the Fourth a grand luau will be given to the Students by the Garden Island ball tossers.

HONOLULU OARSMEN WELCOMED BY HOSPITABLE HILO SPORTSMEN

(Special Star-Bulletin Correspondence)

HILO, July 2.—There was a rousing reception given the Honolulu oarsmen when they arrived in Hilo on Sunday morning last and the Mauna Kea was greeted by a big crowd of people when she docked at the wharf. The rowers from Honolulu were a tired and worried-looking bunch and it is rumored that most of them paid tribute to Neptune while on the voyage from Honolulu to Hilo.

The Mauna Kea brought over 250 passengers to Hilo and, besides, dropped 45 or 50 at Lahaina, Maui. The arrivals at Hilo were composed of 35 oarsmen and their trainers and coaches, besides a bunch of substitutes who were ready to jump in and take an oar at any time.

The visitors brought two barges along with them and the manner in which they got these craft into the water after the Mauna Kea had docked was a treat to see. The barges had been placed on beams that were stretched out from the ship's boats as they lay in the davits ready for launching. When the time came for the racing craft to be placed in the water they were lowered in very easy fashion until the surface of the bay was reached. Then the two shells started off for the Hilo Club boathouse in tow of a launch. The boats were safely and quickly landed at the boathouse and then it was all Hilo's turn to inspect the craft and to talk about the various things in connection with the barges. That the boats are good ones is the verdict of the Hilo sportsmen but, all the same, they declare that their own craft can not be licked and neither can its crew.

After the boats had been properly fixed up the visiting rowers adjourned to the Hilo Yacht Club house and there witnessed the flag-raising episode. A new flag pole had been erected in front of the club house and at 1 o'clock Attorney Homer L. Ross delivered an address that dealt with the glories of the Stars and Stripes and what the grand old colors mean to the people of the United States. Mr. Ross made a splendid speech and declared that now that the United States, Great Britain and France are fighting together for the freedom of the world it is up to the men of America to sacrifice everything in order that the principles upon which the Stars and Stripes were founded be upheld.

Prior to the address by Attorney Ross, George A. Cool, president of the Hilo Yacht Club, made a few remarks during which he welcomed the Honolulu visitors and declared that what Hilo people wanted to see was the best crew win. Mr. Cool presented the freedom of the island to the visitors and told them that if anything was overlooked it would only be through an oversight and not intentional. He hoped that the visitors would have a good time and, no matter how the races turned out, would return to Honolulu declaring that it was well worth the trip.

After the flag-raising ceremony had been carried out with the aid of Miss Eleanor Patten, who hoisted the flag to the masthead and after the address had been delivered, the whole crowd sat down to luncheon, which was provided at the yacht club house.

Later on in the afternoon the Honolulu oarsmen were taken to the Volcano. Some of the visitors stayed on the mountain all night while others returned to their temporary homes in Hilo.

All Hilo is excited over the coming boat races and the consensus of opinion is that the Hilo crews will give the visitors a great go for the honors. It is realized that the Honolulu are a husky bunch of oarsmen but the Hilo people rely upon their trained-to-the-minute rowers bringing home the bacon in both races next Wednesday morning.

DOUBLE-HEADERS FOR HOME FANS ON THE FOURTH

TODAY'S BASEBALL

At Moiliili—Asahis vs. Hawaiians at 1:30; 25th Infantry vs. Ruger Giants, at 3:30.
At Athletic Park—Firestones vs. Portuguese at 1:30; St. Louis vs. Chicago, at 3:30.

Baseball on both sides of Honolulu is calling out the crowd of local sportsmen who were not fortunate enough to be able to arrange a trip to Hilo. Although the greatest attention is being centered on the games being played in Hilo, there is the immediate interest of local games for the afternoon.

While the Asahis are playing the Hawaiians in the first game of the afternoon at Moiliili, the Firestones are meeting the Portuguese at Athletic Park. The games begin at 1:30 with appropriate Fourth of July weather. Although the Portuguese did not live up to their reputation in the last game, they are proving the favorites this afternoon.

Duffy, formerly a University of Washington pitcher, is making his first appearance for the Portuguese first afternoon. Manager Canario found his new man at Fort Shafter and claims that while he was in the quarantine camp at the post he got fifteen strike-outs in one game and fourteen in another. Duffy worked this year for Spokane of the Northwestern league and in one game played against Vernon Ayau of Honolulu, who was with Seattle.

Good Games at Moiliili

At Moiliili, the Fort Ruger Giants are going to meet the 25th Infantry in the second game. Wilbur Rogan, although he does claim a sore arm, is going to pitch for the Wreckers, according to Gollah who is acting captain of the team. Rogan is making his first appearance since he left on a furlough. Kelley, who with Pruitt proved a trying man to the 25th Infantry in the last game between the teams, will again pitch for the Giants.

The lineups of the two soldier teams have not been materially changed for the game this afternoon and quite as close a race as was seen when they last played should be the program. The game will begin at 3:30 sharp.

MORIYAMA AND EN SUE NAMED ON STAR TEAM

These Players With Kualii Selected for Team to Meet Wreckers on Sunday

ALL-STAR LINEUP.

Catchers—Salmon, McGavin.
Pitchers—Crumpler, Williams, Brinza.
First Base—Kualii.
Second Base—Moriyama.
Third Base—Critchfield.
Shortstop—Chillingworth.
Leftfield—Akana.
Centerfield—En Sue.
Rightfield—Judd.
Utility—Lynch, Luck Yee, Dunlap.

When Fred Gollah, former captain of the 25th Infantry, said that he would get together a team from the 25th Infantry which would be able to win from any aggregation which could be gathered together in Honolulu, J. E. Higgins, manager of the Oahu-Service League, and Henry Chillingworth, manager of the All-Stars, opined that Gollah was making a bum guess. As a result Gollah's Thunderbolts will meet the All-Stars, somewhat strengthened on Sunday, July 8.

A committee of fans was asked to select the team which would make the best showing against the Wrecking Crew. Despite the fact that there are a number of stars on both the Giants and 32nd Infantry teams the committee decided that they would not make selections from these teams, as another game might be staged at Schofield. Ruger and 32nd Infantry will in all probability play at Schofield on Sunday.

Inasmuch as Crumpler, Brinza and Williams have pitched great ball this year, they were picked by the committee as the three leading twirlers. Luck Yee was named as the utility pitcher. Kualii at First.

Charley Lyman will leave soon for the mainland, and will in all probability be out of the game for some time. Kualii, the first sacker of the Chinese team, was selected by the committee as the choice for first base with Dunlap second choice.

Chinito Moriyama received the unanimous vote of the committee for the job a second base and the fast Japanese player will be seen at the keystone position. Moriyama and Chillingworth should make a great combination around the second sack, and with Critchfield at third base, the lineup would look pretty sweet.

En Sue on Center.
En Sue was picked as the player who would make a place in the All-Star lineup, and it is thought that the fast little centerfielder will be on the job to guard the jungle territory along with Lang Akana and Judd. En Sue was slated to play in a previous game, but was unable to appear. It is expected that he will be on hand for this game. The game will be called at 3:15. The Braves and Heanians will meet in the first game, which is scheduled to begin at 1:30.

What Healthy Nerves Mean to You

A strong, vigorous nervous system means health, strength and ability to endure hardship and also to enjoy the full pleasures of life.

The man with healthy nerves accomplishes greater tasks with less fatigue. He has a clear eye, an active brain and a sound body. He is enabled to think better and work faster. He has energy. With healthy nerves he can overcome the hardest competition, be successful and gain wealth.

The woman with healthy nerves is never listless, weak or hopeless; she is not irritable, she never suffers from hysteria, she has a reserved surplus of endurance. Healthy nerves will prevent the sleepless mother, although worn with care and nursing, from a "break down" caused by her double or triple duty.

All men and women who suffer from these forms of nervousness—known as Neurasthenia—who have "gone to pieces," who lack energy, who have insomnia, who have succumbed to nervous prostration or nervous exhaustion, either mental or physical, whose condition is one of irritable weakness, will find ready relief and cure in the peculiar properties of

Real Mellowness in Tobacco Must Be the Work of Time and Nature

A chemical process may make tobacco look mellow or even smell mellow. But when it comes to tasting mellow, that is Nature's job and it takes time. No getting around that.

VELVET is cured in Nature's way.

WE ask you to make the comparison yourself. Because Velvet's mild taste in your pipe is the strongest argument we can make in favor of the Velvet way of curing tobacco—two years natural ageing in the original wooden hogshead.

"German" Butcher On Maui Gets Job On Becoming Citizen

Reports were circulated around the waterfront today that Germans who were discharged from Matson steamers here when war was declared April 6, have been reinstated, and are working on the boats again.

Officers of the Matson liner Maui, now in port discharging cargo at Pier 19, said the only persons of German birth or descent now employed on the liner, are naturalized American citizens, with full citizenship papers.

One member of the Maui's crew, the butcher, who now has his second papers and is a full fledged naturalized citizen, experienced trouble when the war broke out, because when he applied for his first papers he stated that he was of German birth, whereas he was a native of Alsace-Lorraine and by descent a Frenchman.

The butcher was taken off the Maui when she arrived at San Francisco and was told he could not keep his job until he got his second papers. He had had his first papers for six years and was a member of the Alsatian Club, a French organization of San Francisco. The club took up his case and was able to get the man his second papers.

There are a few sailors of German birth on the Lurline and Mauna at present, according to the Maui's officers, but they all have their second papers and permits from federal officials in San Francisco to serve on American ships.

Of the eight or nine German sailors taken off the Matson liner Mauna here when war was declared, and paid off, nearly all are knocking around in San Francisco today, according to members of the Maui's crew. They were carried to the coast aboard the Maui.

There was a report heard late yesterday on the "front" that U. S. immigration officials here took a number of sailors of German parentage off a Matson boat and wired to Washington for further instructions, and that the reply was to put them back on board as no American sailors could be obtained to take their places. This could not be verified today as the local Matson agency, Castle & Cooke, and the local immigration station were both closed.

HARBOR NOTES

The Oceanic liner Ventura arrived at San Francisco at noon Monday.

Next mail for San Francisco will leave probably at noon Friday, mails closing at the postoffice at 10:30 a. m.

Crowded to the guards with excursionists from Honolulu, the inter-island flagship Mauna Kea left at 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon for Hilo.

"Joe" E. Farrell, former chief steward of the Matson liner Mauna, is now in the employ of the American-Hawaiian line in New York, under Capt. Fred Bennett, port captain of the company's fleet of freighters.

Next mail from San Francisco is due to arrive tomorrow morning in the American-Hawaiian freighter Texaco, which has one day's accumulation. She left the coast last Thursday, one day after the Maui, which arrived yesterday.

The Matson flagship Maui will leave for Hilo at 5 o'clock tomorrow afternoon. She will be the last of the big boats to call there, as their new schedule, cutting out inter-island business, is effective next month with the Matsonia.

Because today is a holiday, the inter-island rushed its vessels away last evening to have the port clear of its boats this morning. The Waiwale and Helene were despatched to Hawaii ports, and the Mauna Kea left at 5 p. m. instead of 10 a. m. today, her usual time.

At 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon the Matson liner Wilhelmina steamed for San Francisco, taking over 100 local persons, including Harry S. Hayward, manager of the Star-Bulletin's job printing department; Prof. and Mrs. W. A. Bryan, and Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Urice of the Y. M. C. A. The Urices are leaving the islands permanently.

EWA BEATS AIEA IN HOT CONTEST

Ewa defeated Aiea in a hot game at Aiea Sunday, 9 to 7, with some hard hitting and fast fielding enjoyed by the fans.

In the latter part of the game Pitcher Soares of Aiea asked the umpire to examine a bat used by the opposing side, which he thought was corked. The umpire ruled the bat was all right. Not long after this same bat was accidentally broken and Aiea made sure the stick was not corked.

SWITZERLAND IS ONE GREAT CAMP FOR THE WOUNDED

Swiss Visitor Tells of Work of Mercy His Country is Doing for Belligerents

One of the proudest of Switzerland's loyal subjects is A. Arbenz, a wealthy businessman of the Federated Malay States, who is making a lengthy visit in Honolulu at the Moana Hotel. Arbenz has not been home to Switzerland for six years, gets no mail from there which is not at least twice censored and therefore devoid of war news of importance and has not had any papers from home since the war started, but nevertheless keeps pretty well informed on affairs and conditions there. He doesn't say how he gets all his information about the wonderful little country, but he does, nevertheless.

Arbenz proudly points out that Switzerland has an army of 200,000 soldiers now constantly under arms. He shrugs his shoulders when asked how all these soldiers are to be paid and provided for by so small a government, but declares on the other hand that Switzerland could put 500,000 in the field if necessary.

Switzerland's great trial has been to stay friendly with all powers. She has probably succeeded best in this by turning her country into a great camp for the care and exchange of wounded prisoners of all nations.

"Switzerland must be pretty hard up with all her great summer resorts empty," someone said to Arbenz.

"Don't you ever think they are empty," he retorted. They are filled to overflowing with wounded of all nationalities. And their respective governments are paying for their keep and glad to do it, too."

The visitor explains that soldiers wounded beyond all possible chance of return to war are sent back to their respective countries through the medium of exchange, but soldiers who are subject to call again are retained by their captors.

According to Arbenz Swiss diplomats are also great believers in arbitration. Although they have no navy or sea commerce to invite the murderous submarines they have been sorely harassed on many occasions by aeroplane, and bombs have done considerable damage.

Arbenz says there is a portion of Northwest Switzerland that is hard to distinguish from a part of France and when the Germans bombard this section from the sky they always plead mistaking it for France and arbitrate.

Famous Composer Extols Honolulu's Beauties in Song

F. B. Silverwood, the Los Angeles philanthropist, better known to his many Honolulu friends as "Daddy," has not forgotten the islands he visits for long periods each year. The latest testimonial of the author of "I Love You, California," is a song "Honolulu, I'm Coming Back Again."

An advance copy and the first to be seen here have been received from Silverwood by local people. The piece bears some characteristic Hawaiian scenes on the cover and is full of island names and expressions set to a swinging one-step strain by David Lindemann.

The first verse goes like this:

Far out in the Pacific two thousand miles away,

There lies some magic islands, where all men stray.

The sea nymphs piled the coral up above the ocean's crest,

And then, the legend has it, the angels did the rest.

And the second verse:

They painted pretty valleys, and they dug out lovely canyons and they turned on laughing rills;

They scattered ferns and flowers in the lowlands and the high,

And when they were completed, why they called the group Hawaii.

The chorus follows:

I seem to hear the Pail calling me, I seem to hear the surf at Waikiki, And from Pacific Heights

I seem to see the lights Of a city that is very dear to me, I seem to see the waving sugar cane, The coco palms all nodding in the rain.

In fancy I am led back to dear old Diamond Head— Honolulu, I'm coming back again.

ADDITIONAL TELEGRAPH NEWS GERMAN SPY ACTIVITY SHOWN IN ATTACK ON U. S. TROOPS AT SEA

WASHINGTON, July 4.—Another serious demonstration of the activity of the German spy system in the United States was afforded in the fact that two attacks in force by German submarines were made upon American transports carrying the regiments of the Pershing expedition, attacks made under circumstances that left no doubt that full and complete advance information had been furnished the German admiralty regarding the dates of sailings of the transports and their probable routes.

American destroyers, conveying the transports, scored their first victory in beating off the attacking submarines, and at least one Hun diver went down with all his crew before the shells of the American gunners.

The transports were only four days out when the hostile underwater ships appeared, being sighted by the destroyers. The fact that the attack was made in waters more than half way to America from the submarine bases indicates that the submarine commanders were acting under orders to meet and destroy the American transports, orders that could have been sent only through the German admiralty and only through information received in Berlin of the date of sailing of the troopships. Twice during the trip did the attacks from the U-boats come. Pershing's Men Are Safe.

The announcement of the attack due to the treachery of someone living under the flag, and of the first American victory at sea for the war was made last night by the bureau of information, the announcement also including the news that the last of the American transports carrying troops for the Pershing expedition had reached a French port in safety and that the whole of the first American overseas force had been landed.

Secretary Daniels, in a statement issued last night, says that the reports from the destroyer commanders indicate that in all probability several of the submarines were either sunk or badly damaged.

"It is with joy and with great relief that I am now able to announce the safe arrival in France of every fighting man of our first expedition," said the secretary of the navy last night. "Now, that the last transport has safely docked, I am able to speak and to disclose the dangers that our men have been forced to undergo through the treachery of some living under the protection of our laws."

U. S. OFFICERS ON RUSS FRONT

(Associated Press by U. S. Naval Communication Service)

PETROGRAD, Russia, July 4.—Officers of the United States Army were on the Eastern front when the Russian troops launched their great offensive last Sunday, and began driving the Huns before them in Galicia, according to an official announcement issued here last night by the provisional government. Gen. Hugh L. Scott, chief of the American general staff, and a member of Ellhu Root's commission to Russia, together with Col. Robert E. Lee Michie, witnessed the offensive, and saw the Russian troops sweep over three lines of German trenches. They are reporting as being enthusiastic over the manner in which the Slav troops did their job, and to have complimented the Russian officers on the bravery and skill of their men.

The government also announced last night that the Cossacks in the army have adopted a resolution calling upon the entire country to continue the fight against Germany to the last ruble and the last man, and opposing the proposed dissolution of the duma.

SENATE VOTE ON FOOD BILL SHORTLY

(Associated Press by U. S. Naval Communication Service)

WASHINGTON, July 4.—No session of the senate will be held today. At the close of the session last night a recess was taken over the holiday until Thursday morning.

Material progress was made yesterday in the consideration of the prohibition provisions of the food control bill. Senator Chamberlain of Oregon therefore withheld his motion for a cloture rule to limit the debate. It appeared probable that a vote would be secured by Saturday or Monday.

Food Controller Hoover issued a strong and stirring appeal to the public yesterday. He urges that they organize at once and save food, especially bread stuffs.

WAR REVENUE BILL TO CAUSE HOT FIGHT

(Associated Press by U. S. Naval Communication Service)

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 4.—Representative Rainey last evening predicted that there will be a bitter fight in the conference that must come on the war revenue bill unless the senate shall radically change the draft which the finance committee has prepared for it. The money needed must be raised by taxation, he insists. The country has no right to mortgage its future above the seven billions of dollars for which Congress has already authorized the issuance of bonds.

CANNED FOOD EMPLOYEES MAY GET EXEMPTIONS FROM SELECTIVE DRAFT

(Associated Press by U. S. Naval Communication Service)

Albert Horner has received from S. F. Haserot, the Cleveland businessman who recently visited here, a copy of a resolution passed by the executive committee of the National Canners' Association in Washington, D. C., June 12 and 14. In this resolution the association urged that exemption privileges from duty under the selective draft be given employees in the canned food industry who are vitally necessary to the conduct of the business in view of the urgent necessity of the preservation of stocks of food.

Mr. Haserot writes that the war department has expressed itself favorably on the exemption plan.

This is of interest to Hawaii's canning industry.

SPECIAL ARMY ORDER TELLS OF PROMOTIONS

(Associated Press by U. S. Naval Communication Service)

Copies of a special order from the war department, announcing the names of a large number of lieutenants of infantry and field artillery for promotions, have been received at army headquarters. The order affects several local officers, the majority of whom had already received word of their commissions from other sources. Some of the promotions date back to November, 1916.

The recruiting committee of Western Australia has unanimously resolved that Mr. Hughes be asked to introduce immediately legislation compelling every eligible man in his proper turn to take his place at the front.

EXPORT CONTROL BEGINS MONDAY

(Associated Press by U. S. Naval Communication Service)

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 4.—Control of exports will go into operation Monday, when a proclamation affecting shipments of coal and of use of coal for bunker will be issued. This will be the first of the several proclamations needed to put the law into full operation.

There is a possibility that Monday will also bring a second proclamation, the one which will lay down the rules and regulations which will govern the shipment of foods and foodstuffs.

REICHTAG SESSION BEGINNING TOMORROW MAY SEE WAR DEBATES

(Associated Press by U. S. Naval Communication Service)

BERLIN, Germany, July 4.—The midsummer session of the reichstag opens tomorrow and while the call for its convening states that the session will be devoted to voting further necessary war credits it is believed that the session will be largely devoted to other purposes.

A debate upon the foreign policies of the government in connection with the progress of the war is regarded as a certainty, while it is also very probable that the question of internal electoral reforms will be brought up and fought bitterly.

The Tagblatt intimates that the imperial chancellor, von Bethmann-Hollweg, will make a formal reply to the speeches recently made by Premier Lloyd George of Great Britain at Glasgow and Dundee, in which he outlined in some detail the present attitude of Great Britain concerning acceptable peace terms and announced the British war aims.

CANADIAN LABOR MAN AGAINST CONSCRIPTION

(Associated Press by U. S. Naval Communication Service)

OTTAWA, Canada, July 4.—I. C. C. Waters, president of the Canadian Trades and Labor Congress, has issued a statement regarding the conscription bill which is now before the Dominion parliament, in which he advocates the conscription of material wealth, and the refusal of all workmen to sell for private gain if conscription becomes a law.

CHICAGO WON'T ALLOW KAISER EULOGIZED

(Associated Press by U. S. Naval Communication Service)

CHICAGO, Ill., July 4.—The board of education of Cook county yesterday concluded a contract for the publication of 40,000 new spellers for the Chicago public schools, to replace the spellers now in use, which are to be called in and destroyed. The spellers now in circulation contain an article eulogizing the Kaiser.

Iron Is Greatest of All Strength Builders, Says the Doctor

A Secret of the Great Endurance and Power of Athletes

Ordinary Nuxated Iron Will Make Delicate, Nervous, Runners Forget 200 Per Cent Stronger in Two Weeks' Time in Many Cases

NEW YORK, N. Y.—Most people foolishly seem to think they are going to get renewed health and strength from some stimulating medicine, secret nostrum or narcotic drug, said Dr. Sauer, a well known specialist who has studied widely both in this country and Europe when, as a doctor, he saw that the strength can only come from the food you eat. But people often fail to get the strength out of their food because they haven't enough iron in their blood to enable it to change food into living matter. From their weakened, nervous condition they know something is wrong, but they can't tell what, so they generally commence doctoring for stomach, liver or kidney trouble or symptoms of some other ailment, caused by the lack of iron in the blood. This thing may go on for years, while the patient suffers untold agony. If you are not strong or well, you owe it to yourself to make the following test: See how long you can work or how far you can walk without becoming tired. Next take two five-grain tablets of ordinary nuxated iron three times per day for two weeks. Then test your strength again and see for yourself how much you have gained. I have seen dozens of nervous, run-down people who were ailing all the while, double their strength and endurance and entirely get rid of all symptoms of dyspepsia, liver and other troubles in from ten to fourteen days' time simply by taking iron in the proper form. And this after they had in some cases been doctoring for months without obtaining any benefit. But don't take the old form of reduced iron, iron acetate or tincture of iron simply to save a few cents. You must take iron in a form that can be easily absorbed and assimilated like nuxated iron. If you want it to do you any good, otherwise it may prove worse than useless. Many an athlete or prize-fighter has won the day simply because he knew the secret of great strength and endurance and filled his blood with iron before he went into the arena, while many another has gone down in ignominious defeat simply for the lack of iron.

NOTE—Nuxated Iron recommended above by Dr. Sauer is not a patent medicine nor secret remedy, but one which is well known to druggists and whose iron constituents are widely prescribed by eminent physicians everywhere. Unlike the older inorganic iron products, it is easily assimilated, does not injure the teeth, make them black, nor upset the stomach; on the contrary it is a most potent remedy, in nearly all forms of indigestion, as well as for nervous, run-down conditions. The manufacturers have such great confidence in Nuxated Iron that they offer to forfeit $100.00 to any charitable institution if they cannot take a man or woman under 60 who lacks iron and increase their strength 200 per cent or over in four weeks' time provided they have no serious organic trouble. They also offer to refund your money if it does not at least double your strength and endurance in ten days' time. It is dispensed in this city by Hollister Drug Co., Benson Smith & Co., Chambers Drug Co. and all other druggists.

ACREAGE FOR CALIFORNIA TO SET NEW RECORD

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., June 9.—The area planted to sugar beets in California for 1917 breaks all previous records for the state by a substantial margin. The conservative unofficial estimate made on June 1, place this year's beet acreage for California in excess of 180,000 acres, compared with an estimated acreage planted of 152,000 acres on the same date last year.

Eighteen Per Cent Increase

These figures indicate that California's plantings were increased this season by approximately 18 per cent, and local beet sugar circles are confident that unless extremely unfavorable growing and harvesting conditions are met with the beet tonnage harvested for the state will exceed 1,700,000 tons in the coming campaign and the final sugar production will approximate 275,000 tons.

California's beet crop for 1916 amounted to 1,249,000 tons and the sugar produced totaled 236,000 tons, so that if anywhere near the 1917 estimates are reached the state's beet industry will have attained this year a record breaking and important growth.

While weather conditions this spring throughout the state were generally not favorable for planting, they have not been of a seriously detrimental nature. Some failures were reported, and in many instances replanting had to be resorted to three times, as the sugar companies and beet growers were determined to cultivate and harvest every acre possible this year.

Growing Conditions Favorable

Growing conditions since planting time have been more favorable and the crop generally throughout the state is in good condition. In many localities the beets are farther advanced than they were last year.

All of the California sugar companies are straining every effort to make this year's crop a record crop in tonnage harvested by urging beet growers to observe carefully cultural methods as the crop progresses and assisting them in every way possible to attain a maximum production per acre.

RUSSIANS TAKE CLOSE TO 20,000 IN FIERCE DRIVE

(Associated Press by U. S. Naval Communication Service)

NEW YORK, July 4.—Brzezany has fallen again into the hands of the Russian armies, together with large numbers of prisoners and huge quantities of booty of all sorts. The number of prisoners from the harried German and Austrian forces which have been taken by the Russians in their present drive is placed at not far from 20,000 and the totals are mounting with every despatch from the battle front.

The German general staff admits a defeat, but declares that the "Russians suffered severely in their attack which is rapidly widening the gap they have broken in the Teutonic lines in Galicia."

WAR DEPARTMENT IS CALLING RETIRED MEN

(Associated Press by U. S. Naval Communication Service)

Commenting on the news that Brig. Gen. Robert K. Evans, retired, had been recalled to active service and given command of the Philippine department, officers at headquarters say that this action is in line with what is apparently the policy of the war department.

Many officers now in the Western department have been recalled to active service since the beginning of the war.

Gen. Evans, who was commander of the Hawaiian department just previous to Brig. Gen. Frederick S. Strong, is well known to civilians as well as army people on Oahu and he will be kept busy with hand-shaking upon his arrival here. The general was in robust health upon his retirement last fall, and should be good for a number of years of busy service.

From official Belgian sources it is learned that in the army zone of Belgium Luxembourg the whole male population between the ages of 15 and 65 have been carried off for work on the Franco-German frontiers. In each commune only one priest and one notary are exempt.

COST OF BEET SUGAR

FACTORIES HAS DOUBLED

SALT LAKE CITY, Utah, June 11.—The cost of constructing beet sugar factories has doubled in the United States within six years, according to a statement made here by F. A. Monroe, Jr., of the Dyer Company of Cleveland, who has been in this city conferring with officers of the Utah-Idaho Sugar Company about the construction of new factories which the company has in contemplation at Mead and Bear River City, Idaho.

The tremendous increase in the cost of building materials, Mr. Monroe said, was bound to have a deterrent effect on building if it kept up, and there is every indication at present that it will. A factory which could have been built in 1911 for $500,000 will now cost more than $1,000,000 to construct, Mr. Monroe declared.

It is believed, says the Madgeburg Zeitung's Berlin correspondent, that a regency will shortly be established in Poland. He recalls that the Archduke Charles Stephen has already been mentioned as a candidate.

MEXICAN SUGAR INDUSTRY SLACK

(By Counsel William W. Canada, Vera Cruz, Mexico.)

None of the sugar estates in the Vera Cruz consular district is now being operated at full capacity. Approximately 5 per cent of the plants are working at 60 per cent of their capacity, 80 per cent at less than half capacity, and the remainder are idle.

As a result the production is about half the normal amount, and at the end of the current season the supply will be much less than the demand. The price is governed mainly by the figure at which foreign sugar can be imported. On account of the high cost of sugar in all countries and the present level of ocean freight rates, the retail price is two or three times higher than in normal years.

Current production being less than the domestic consumption, import duties have been removed from sugar.

Kind of Sugar Produced

In this district only one estate manufactures refined sugar, using the system employed in large refineries in the United States. The others produce the grade known as chemical or plantation white. Sometimes only an expert can tell the difference between this and refined sugar, but generally it is distinguishable by its color. Containing a very small proportion of glucose, it does not keep long, especially in the damp climate of the coast. The white sugar is made in three different forms—granulated and cube sugar, made by the estates with the best equipment, and old-fashioned sugar loaves of conical shape weighing from 12 to 25 pounds, packed in jute bags containing from 150 to 220 pounds; one estate packs it in muslin paper-lined bags holding 100 pounds. The cube sugar is packed in wooden paper-lined boxes of 100 pounds.

Some muscovado sugar, made from molasses boiled to what is known as "string-proof" and allowed to crystallize in sugar wagons or mechanically operated crystallizers, is used here by brewers, bakers, and confectioners.

In rare cases, where equipment is lacking or where there is difficulty in obtaining chemical substances for decoloring sugar, raw sugar is made almost exclusively for export to refineries in the United States.

According to the Deutsche Kirchenzeitung, Munich, the German Catholic clergy are organizing a peace movement on a grand scale under the banner of the Holy Eucharist. The newspaper says that the bishops of enemy countries have expressed approval and promise assistance.

An Amsterdam message says that the Hamburg prize court has condemned as prizes the Harwich steamer Brussels and

Dorothy Dix Talks

AT WHAT AGE SHOULD A MAN MARRY?
By DOROTHY DIX
The World's Highest Paid Woman Writer

A YOUNG woman writes me a letter in which she asks me at what age a man is likely to make the best husband.

This is a question that is impossible to answer by the calendar. It depends upon the individual man. Some men are easiest domesticated if caught while young and tender. Others can never be tamed until age and rheumatism make them feel that they would like to eat out of a good, kind, motherly wife's hand. And there are other men who can never be thoroughly housebroken at any age.

Generally speaking, however, a prudent woman who desires to be happy, though married, will avoid the extremes of age in selecting her husband, and will say "no" to both young Romeo and tottering Grandpa when they come a wooing.

Of course there is no denying that there is something peculiarly appealing and alluring to a boy's loveliness. He is so impassioned, so deeply earnest, so convinced that love is the only thing in the world, and that no human being in the whole history of humanity ever experienced the same emotions that are surging through his soul, that it is no wonder if a foolish girl is swept off her feet by it, and lets him persuade her to make the fatal journey to the altar with him.

Alas, it is the undoing of both of them. Cold statistics show that most of the marriages that end in divorce began in calf love romance and were entered into by boys and girls who were too young to know their own minds of what they really desire in a life partner. Common observation bears out the danger of early marriages, especially the marriages of boys.

It is a sinister and significant fact that in almost every scandal in which a married man and a woman figure you will find out that the man married when he was a mere lad. Also, when you see a faded, washed-out, neglected woman sitting alone at home while her goodlooking and fascinating husband roams around in society, and is pitted by all who know him for being tied to a dowdy wife whom he has outgrown, you will ascertain, if you investigate, that he picked her out when he was an unformed boy and is spending his maturity repenting his salad days tastes.

There are so such unfaithful husbands as those who qualified in the husband class too young.

The truth is that nothing equals the ease with which a boy can fall in love, except the facility with which he can fall out of love. Youthful passion in a masculine breast is a fierce flame that burns itself out so completely it doesn't even leave a cinder on the heart's hearth to remember the girl by.

The kind of a girl a boy adores in the early twenties bores him in the late thirties. This is the case whether he is married to her or not. That is why a woman is nothing short of an imbecile to trust her fate to a man before his tastes are formed; before he has seen enough of women to know what he is doing when he selects one for keeps, and especially before he has tasted enough of romance to have had his fill of it, and to be willing to settle down to a daily diet of the domestic brew.

Another reason why a girl is taking a long shot at happiness if she marries a very young man is because a boy is almost invariably selfish, undisciplined, and egotistical. He lacks the patience to bear with another's faults and weaknesses; the wisdom to steer the matrimonial ship into a safe port, and when he finds out that marriage doesn't mean billing and cooing, but bill and bad cooking, and heavy responsibilities, why, he's mighty apt to turn surly and grouchy and blame his wife for the hardships he has brought down on his own head.

He's just too young and weak to bear the load he has shouldered, for matrimony is a grown man's job, not a boy's.

But if a young boy makes a selfish and tyrannical husband, an old man makes a worse one. Never was there less truth in any adage than the one about being better to be an old man's darling than a young man's slave.

The young woman who marries an old man in the fatuous belief that she is going to be able to twist him around her little finger, finds out that she has made a mistake of her life, particularly if he is an old bachelor. He is encased from head to foot in a life time selfishness that she can no more break through than she could break through armor plate. He has habits fifty or sixty years old that make his character about as pliable as granite, and that he could not change if he would, and he wouldn't for any living woman.

Moreover, the old man is old. He has exhausted all of the pleasures of youth. He's tired. His old bones yearn for the comforts of redannel, and the chimney corner when night comes. Instead of the fox trot and draught theaters and ball rooms. He wants health food instead of lobster Newburg for dinner, and he expects any child of a girl to marry to fall in with his ways. At his time of life he isn't going to bother to change them to please her.

So the girl who had expected to be an old man's darling finds herself his slave and nurse instead, with always the barrier of age between them that grows higher and higher as he sinks into senility and she approaches her dull maturity.

What then, is the best age at which to capture a husband? When he is around thirty. He is then man grown. He has then come to himself, and taken the measure of his desires in a wife, and the one whom he picks out may rest satisfied that he will not tire of her or cease to love her. He has seen too many pretty faces to marry just for the sake of a dimple that the first spell of sickness will wipe out, or a curl that will lose its gloss with the passing of a few years.

A man of thirty, or thereabouts, thinks of something else besides a woman's looks when he marries her. He considers her soul, her mind, her heart, the sort of companionship she can give him, and the kind of a helpmeet she will be to him, and marriage founded on that kind of a basis never fails.

The man of thirty has also had time enough to establish himself in business and to acquire an income that keeps the wolf reasonably far from the door. And that is essential to a woman's happiness. The woman who marries a man before he is financially able to marry does both herself and him an irreparable injury.

The man of thirty is old enough to be guide and mentor to his wife, and young enough to be sympathetic with her. His character is still plastic so that he can adjust himself to the personality of another and an altered way of living. He is not so far in the melting pot of matrimony and out of such material is produced the perfect husband.

Therefore, girls, in choosing a husband, pick out one who is not too young and not too old, but just a happy medium.

A Hair Dresser's Advice

Sometimes my hair dresser grows talkative, and then she tells me all sorts of interesting and useful things about the hair, things based on her wide and personal experience, things too valuable to be lost in the tiny room where she wields a brush and a vibrator and where she juggles tall bottles of sweet smelling oils.

"The average woman is too harsh with her hair," she said, the other day. "Either she brushes it furiously, or she doesn't brush it at all, either she slicks over it when washing, or she washes the life from it." "Not all scalp can stand tar soap, though it is a good soap. But it is harsh. I use coconut oil, because it is mild and cleansing and nourishing, it is a dandruff preventive, and it will not hurt the most sensitive scalp. I use it for all colors of hair, except cases where there is too much natural oil, and then I use a soap with the least bit of borax in its makeup. If for any reason I run short of coconut oil, I use olive oil or castile soap."

"I use a free lather first, rinse, and use a very light lather. I can tell from the feel of the hair, though, whether one use of the soap is enough. I would massage the scalp dry if I could give the time to it, but as I cannot, I use a towel to wring out the superfluous moisture from the hair and then use the warm air fan. But I always massage the scalp after a shampoo and use the electric vibrator. This brings the fresh oils to the surface of the scalp."

Miss Hammond—Your letter was remailed to me but there was no stamped-addressed envelope in it. Perhaps you forgot to enclose it. Whenever I send the recipe for the curling fluid I do so with the warning that while perfectly harmless, it is not always effective. I have seen it make a wavy mass of one girl's hair, without giving the slightest wave to another head. And this, when the same bottle was used. Certainly, as I need not print an answer to your second one here.

Take care of the hair in youth and it will stay good all your life.

When it must be worn up, and hanging down is healthier for it. The answer to your letter has probably reached you already, as I need not print an answer to your second one here.

SURF RIDING IS GIVEN PUBLICITY

An attractive letter-head showing a picture of surf riders on the wave brought the Hawaii Promotion Committee a valuable bit of publicity in one of the leading sporting and pleasure magazines of the East. "The Spur" is the name of the publication, and, according to A. P. Taylor, secretary of the Promotion Committee, it reaches the richest class of tourist trade in the East.

The evidence of the work of that letter-head is in a prominently placed article by James Crowell entitled "Sidelights on Amateur Sport," which also shows a picture of a surf rider in the last number of this magazine, which reached Mr. Taylor this morning.

"In writing to the paper, which has given us a lot of valuable space in the past, I used this letter-head," said Mr. Taylor this morning as he showed the standard letter-head of the committee.

"I received word from the editor of the magazine that if I could send him a picture of surf riders similar to the one shown in the letter-head that he would be glad to publish it. I got a picture from Gurrey, which the magazine took to be one of Duke Kahanamoku, sent it to them, and they published it with the accompanying article," said Mr. Taylor.

WILL TEST ELECTION OF MAUI SUPERVISOR

A writ of quo warranto to test the right of J. N. Uahinu of Molokai to hold office as a member of the Maui board of supervisors, was filed in the circuit court at Wailuku recently by Attorney Bert Lightfoot.

Attorney Lightfoot said today that he filed the suit on behalf of T. B. Lyons of Wailuku, who also was a candidate for supervisor. There were 1917 votes cast in the Maui election, says Lightfoot, and 190 of the ballots were spoiled. It is asserted that Uahinu received 910 votes at the primary and was declared elected. Lyons contends that Uahinu should have received a majority to carry the election, says his attorney.

Circuit Judge Edings has certified the matter to the local supreme court for a decision.

GETTING OLD

It seems but yesterday that I was full of pep and was young and spry. I worked all day and I danced all night. And I got up feeling out of sight. But now, if I stay out once a week, my head feels dull and my joints all squeak. I've not changed much in my form or face. But I can't bat round with the old-time grace. The solemn truth is impressed on me, I'm not as young as I used to be. My hair is thinner by far on top, and now a young buster calls me pop. And another sign is on hand. Gee whiz! A little touch of the rheumatiz. Now any old color of tie will do; I'm wearing a chest protector, too. I've lost all love of the rowdy-dow. I'm playing cribbage and checkers now. The women's fashions are naught to me, I'm not as young as I used to be.

Just what will be done with the land on which Honolulu Hale, sold yesterday at auction to Frank Godfrey for $10, is now located, has not been decided by the governor nor the office of the land commissioner. According to the provision accompanying the sale of the house, it must be torn down and all debris removed within 60 days. After that time the land will be at the disposal of the government for whatever purpose it

WOMAN IN HOME AS IMPORTANT AS MAN WITH GUN, SAYS OGDEN ARMOUR

"The woman who is handling the food supply in the home is equal in importance to the man who handles a gun on the battlefield," says Ogden Armour, the Chicago packer, in the July issue of The Ladies' Home Journal. His statement, written several weeks ago, accords fully with the warnings issued more recently by President Wilson and Herbert C. Hoover, head of the food control commission. "The triumph of the soldier," says Mr. Armour, "depends on the efficiency with which the housewives of America conserve the food supplies so that hunger will not be added to the ranks. Speaking in his capacity as the greatest purveyor of foodstuffs in the world, Mr. Armour exhorts the woman to exercise intelligent economy—in other words to get the utmost use out of all food, thereby eliminating waste."

He makes it clear that there is no occasion for people to deprive themselves of the necessities; it is use of food in a way that obviates loss that is necessary in order to make it go around. The "cash and carry" system, he points out, will enable the retailer to aid in the conservation movement without incurring business disaster.

He particularly advises against the eating of veal, lamb and sucking pig. "The calves, lambs and pigs of today," he writes, "will be vastly more important in solving the food problem of tomorrow, than is the case today. Lambs in particular should be spared because the army needs wool and the supply is short. By letting the lambs develop into sheep, the wool clip of next year will be fifty per cent larger than this year."

The article closes with a plea to the housewives to protect themselves in the business of housekeeping as much for the sake of the nation as for their own benefit in meeting the increasing high cost of living.

PERSONALITIES

LEVI T. CHAMBERLAIN, the aged man who was mysteriously hurt in his solitary cabin near Kawaiahae church a few days ago, has been removed to the emergency hospital from the Queen's hospital to be under the direct care and attention of Police surgeon R. G. Ayer. The doctor believes the hurts received by Mr. Chamberlain were the result of an assault, but relatives think they might have been from a fall.

DRAWINGS ARE MOVED

The crayon drawings and plans by Architect Louis Christian Mullgardt of the proposed commercial center on Bishop street from King to Queen street have been moved from the rooms over the Castle & Cooke offices to Gurrey's art shop on Fort street, where they are displayed on the two walls to better advantage. Besides those already described at length in the Star-Bulletin are those of the magnificent proposed home at Black Point, Kaialaw, of Mrs. Selma C. Smith of Illinois, of the M. H. de Young family chapel in Holy Cross cemetery, San Francisco, and the home of National Food Commissioner and Mrs. Herbert C. Hoover on Reservoir drive, Palo Alto, Cal.

Willie Chapman was fined $20 and $3.20 costs for profanity.

KAULUKOU PAID TRIBUTE BY BAR

Resolutions of respect to the late John L. Kaulukou, for many years a member of the Hawaiian bar, have been prepared by the Bar Association and are ready for presentation in the Supreme court. The resolutions follow:

BLONDES HAVE BETTER NERVES, SAY EXPERTS

(By Associated Press)

LONDON, England.—Fair skinned people and those with gray or blue eyes have sounder nervous systems than those of dark complexion or dark eyes, in the opinion of the members of the army medical board, which is investigating cases of shock from exploding shells and similar nervous complaints in the military hospitals. Histories of thousands of cases are being tabulated and compared.

On May 4, five Austrian seaplanes bombarded the neighborhood of Castellamare, on the Adriatic. No damage was done.
