PROGRESS.

The Life of the Land is Established in Righteousness.

HONOLULU, SEPT. 18, 1893

TO OUR READERS.

The HAWAII HOLOMUA appears to-day after two weeks suspension in a new form. The HOLOMUA PUBLISHING COMPANY having become proprietors of the paper have decided to issue an English daily paper to be published every afternoon. This step has been taken according to the often expressed desires on the part of our patrons, and we hope it will be satisfactory to them. We have noted with some amusement the haste and glee with which our alleged demise was hailed by the two annexation-organs. The Editor of the morning paper has even braced up during the last week, and become quite fresh—he needs salt—while the dreary Star man has somewhat prematurely read his R. I. P. over our supposed corpse. The HOLOMUA is still to the fore, and will remain there in spite of the croaking of the would be official journals and their handful of political supporters.

The Star and the Advertiser have taken occasion to repeat the lie invented some months ago for political purposes by themselves, that Her Majesty the Queen has been supporting this journal or was in any way financially interested in it. We fail to see what possible benefit the annexation cause can gain by the constant reiteration of this assertion which both the editors referred to know to be a lie, but we shall confine ourselves to once more stamp the statement of the two papers as utterly false and untrue and positively declare that the Queen in no way ever has been or is interested in the HAWAII HOLOMUA.

The policy of the HAWAII HOLOMUA will be continued on the same lines as has heretofore been the case. The proprietors and conductors of this journal firmly believe in the honor of the United States, and are convinced that the great wrong done to Hawaii and to the Hawaiian people in the name of the Great Republic will be undone, and that all possible redress will be made for the outrage committed by John L. Stevens—the man chosen in a moment of evil to Hawaii and to the United States to represent the American administration in Hawaii. That justice will be done to the Hawaiians we have never doubted, and that the self government deprived of a free people through the agency of United States troops and guns will be re-established, no man can refuse to believe who knows the character, the principles and the high sense of honor of that true American who to-day by the will of the American people is placed at the head of the United States' government.

The HAWAII HOLOMUA will fearlessly handle the topics of interest to the country and to the people, and will never hesitate in telling the truth, independently of who will get hurt, but, there will in these columns be no prying into the affairs of private individuals, no Hosanna sung over the misfortunes of political enemies, and no scandal-mongering for the satisfaction of the male and female gossips so abundant in this Paradise of the Pacific. The HAWAII HOLOMUA is pledged to support the rights and privileges of the Hawaiian people, the interests of the laboring man and good and honest government for the whole country, and to the fulfillment of that pledge, we will devote all our efforts and all the means at our disposition.

TOPICS OF THE DAY.

It is too bad about that ball at the Hawaiian Hotel to-morrow night, which is given as a farewell to the officers on the Boston, and as a welcome to the Philadelphia officers, and which does not receive the countenance of the annexation club and of the Star editor. The last named complains because the ball is to be given at the Hotel, a building which has a royalist flavor, and which is too small to hold the members of the club. The Star editor evidently intends to issue invitations for the ball to his chums in the club, and if the 2,000 Portuguese are included in that number, the Hotel will undoubtedly be too small to hold them. But the leading annexationists' who prophecies that the ball will be a failure, because they "ain't going" should have kept still until they received their invitations. It may sound unnatural to the editor of the Star and the leading annexationists, but it is yet a fact that a ball can be given and be a great success, and that the officers on the Boston and Philadelphia may be able to meet all they care to meet of Honolulu society without a single member of the club or the Star editor being present. It may seem impossible to the great guns in the club and brother Smith, "but them's are the facts."

We had decided to throw a veil of oblivion over all the ebullitions which have appeared in the annexation organs for the last two weeks, and we were prepared to ignore all the usual or unusual rot which the two editors hurled in during the suspension of our paper, but when Mr. Johnstone calls Editor Logan an "excuse for an editor," we must compliment him for speaking about what he knows for once. When Mr. Johnstone at one time was the editor of the Bulletin, Mr. Logan had constantly to be "an excuse" for him, and satisfy the clamor of the "devils" for copy by writing the editorials himself. The reason—why we tell it not in Gath.

We would like to know where in the world a detachment of regular soldiers with a cannon is even used for the purpose of arresting one (1) criminal. If the police force is unable to perform the simplest duties, generally attached to such an organization, they should be disbanded and relegated to sell leis on Nuuanu Street among the other old women.

A contemporary states that $100 was offered as an inducement to find out if the criminal in Ewa was really dead after the one thousand (more or less) shots had been fired into the house where he was known to be. The policemen must be well off indeed, even for these bad times since even $100 were not sufficient temptation for any of them to go and take a look at the bad, bad corpse.

In the expedition to Ewa, the Foreign Office was represented by Mr. Hatch's Aide de camp Major Potter. His presence is accounted for by the possibility that diplomatic negotiations might have been necessitated between the learned Attorney-General and the Leper, and the Major could then have been used to carry the white flag or otherwise exhibit his military and diplomatic proclivities.

The Star contained a glorious description of the fertility of the Puuwaawaa land in Kona Hawaii the other day and made the mouths of the "young men with savings" in Honolulu water by explaining the prospects of making a fortune by taking up homesteads in that God-forsaken district. It was quite interesting to read about the band of cattle which the Star-correspondent and other enthusiastic homestead-boomers drove to the fertile plains of Puuwaawaa ably assisted by Colonel the Hon. C. P. Laukea homestead-promoter-in-chief of the P. G. The Star forgot though to tell its readers that the last heard from Puuwaawaa about the band of cattle was that the boys were busy skinning the horned quadrupeds—everyone of them having died from disgust and despair by looking at the Star's fertile homesteads. The Colonel arrived in Honolulu without being skinned.

The P. M. S. S. China Arrives.

The P. M. S. S. China, Captain Seabury, arrived this morning from San Francisco, which port she left on Monday, the 12th instant, at 3 o'clock p.m. She carries a large list of passengers for Yokohama and Hongkong, and is unable to take any passengers from this port. The Chinese ex-Minister to Washington is returning to China by her. Among the kamaainas returning to Honolulu we notice Hon. August Dreier, who has spent several months in Germany and the United States. Mr. Dreier is looking unusually well, and has enjoyed his trip greatly. The China leaves this afternoon at 5 o'clock.

The mail brought by the China contains little of interest to Hawaii except the appointment of the successors to Minister Blount and Consul-General Severance—Mr. Albert S. Willis of Kentucky has been selected to represent the United States in Hawaii while Mr. Ellis Mills who was here as secretary to Mr. Blount has been appointed Consul-General. Both appointments will be hailed with great satisfaction in Honolulu, where Consul-General Mills has won many friends. The new officials did not arrive by the China, but may be expected by the next steamer from the coast.

Mr. Vizzavona, the French Commissioner, called on board the Philadelphia this forenoon, and received the usual salute.

THE NATIONAL BAND.

We are authorized to state that the item in regard to a contemplated tour of the National Band to the United States which appeared in this morning's Advertiser is utterly false. The boys are going to remain right here in Honolulu and have no intentions of blowing the horn for the benefit of Mr. Thuston or the other annexationists. If satisfactory arrangements can be made with acceptable parties, the band may decide to go to the Midwinter Fair in California.

The Supreme Court.

The banco term of the Supreme Court opened this morning at 10 o'clock. The Aldrich bankruptcy case was argued and submitted. Mr. Hatch appeared for the creditors and Mr. Peterson for Mr. Aldrich. The different cases of the Provisional Government vs. Sam Gee, Ah Sam and Ah Faw are being argued by Deputy-Attorney General Wilder for the prosecution, and Mr. J. L. Kaukua for defendants.

Mr. Ables, the manager of the Ice Company met with a painful accident yesterday in that he sprained his knee through a fall from an ice wagon. He will consequently be confined to his house for some time.

A number of lepers in the Wainiha valley on Kauai have surrendered to the authorities, and will be brought to Honolulu on the James Makee which has been chartered by the government to perform such service.

The trotting match between Lot Slocum and Gerster for a purse of $1,000 a side comes off next Saturday at Kapiolani Park. It is understood that Mr. Hollinger will have the use of Mr. Horner's pneumatic tire sulky while Lot Slocum will go to a road cart.

Hon. W. H. Cornwell arrived by the Claudine from Maui yesterday. The Colonel intends to bring his family to town next week, where they will take up their residence permanently, occupying the beautiful house on the corner of King and Pukoi Streets, which Mr. Cornwell purchased from the estate of the late Judge Preston.

We are pleased to state that Dr. Foote is improving, and that there are good prospects that he shortly will be fully restored to health and able to show his genial features around the town again.

Cloys, criminal libel against Captain Ferguson, waived examination and was held to appear at the November term of the Circuit Court.

THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.

The company which, under the name of the Associated Press furnishes to the newspapers of the United States news of all kinds, and from all parts of the world has heretofore been considered a reliable and honest enterprise, the principle of which was to give to the civilized world in a systematic way all facts which might be considered of universal interest to the readers of American newspapers. To judge from the manner in which the affairs of Hawaii have been presented to the world through the Associated Press, and more especially through the branch office in San Francisco, it is obvious that the usefulness of the company has sadly deteriorated. The San Francisco branch, under the management of Chas. S. Diehl has furnished reports of Hawaiian affairs which have been written under his instructions in a biased and dishonest manner. The special correspondents sent to Hawaii, and later on the local correspondents appointed to work for the Associated Press have competed with each other in filling their dispatches with direct lies, with misstatements, and with fakes and canards. The papers in the Western States which receive their news from the San Francisco branch of the Associated Press should be made aware of the unreliability of the dispatches issued from that office. It is something new that an association like the Associated Press Company should take sides in political matters, and doctor the dispatches published to suit the views and sentiments of the jingoists and annexationists in the States. But anybody conversant with affairs in Hawaii will know such to be an undisputable fact. The Republican papers which desire to convey the TRUTH to their readers should sever their connections with the San Francisco branch of the Associated Press; the Democratic papers should never accept and publish a dispatch from that company, at least, as long as the present manager is running the shop for the purpose of airing his individual political ideas.

The most childish and absurd fake which yet has been spread through the Associated Press dispatches from Hawaii is the Japanese canard. The American papers have solemnly written editorials about the "Japanese cloud in Hawaii," about "Blount's taking a hand in the Japanese demands in Hawaii," and about "Blount's hurried departure on account of Japan's attitude in Hawaii." We have in former issues pointed out the absurdity of supposing that the American minister to Hawaii ever committed the blunder of interfering in a question between the governments of Hawaii and Japan, arising simply from the different interpretation of the treaty existing between those two countries. The annexation organs which have attempted to insult Mr. Blount, by accusing him of taking such an undiplomatic action have failed to produce the letter which they claim Minister Blount wrote to Mr. Dole, although both editors are ready to claim that they have free access, both to the Hawaiian Foreign Office and to the confidence of Mr. Dole. The truth is simply that the Hawaiian Government under Mr. Dole's presidium shirked the responsibility of answering Japan by advancing the excuse that they were only "provisional," and were neither a permanent nor stable government, and therefore unable to take action in such a vital matter. While the Japanese Government evidently feels satisfied by having no dealings with the Hawaiian "Provisional" it is safe to suppose that the question of Hawaii fulfilling its treaty obligations has neither been shelved nor forgotten, but will be fully ventilated and brought to the surface when the "Provisional" vanishes into thin air, and is succeeded by a permanent and stable government based on the will of the Hawaiian people.

But all the talk about Blount's interference is simple a canard invented by the Associated Press correspondents for the purpose of creating a feeling in America against Japan, and thereby, if possible, to bring the hopelessly lost annexation cause. The men who invented the murder society, and the dynamite conspiracies and all the other sensational yarns will of course stop at nothing, and nothing which they can write need surprise anybody. That the San Francisco branch of the Associated Press should publish such r t and thereby impose on its patrons is a great deal more of a surprise, and it is a disgrace to that company.

LOCAL NEWS.

Mr. Canavarro the Portuguese charge d'affaires visited the Philadelphia this morning and was saluted.

Marshal Hitchcock returned by the Clantine after having made an official tour of inspection on Maui and Molokai.

The numerous friends of Mr. Frank Pratt will be glad to learn that he is on the high road to recovery, and is expected soon to be able to leave his house.

The British Minister Resident Major James H. Wodehouse made an official visit on board the Philadelphia to day, and was received with the usual honors.

The ball at the Hotel to-morrow night promises to be a great success. The management will spare no effort in making the occasion as brilliant as possible.

The arrests to-day consisted of six Chinamen who were caught gambling, one Hawaiian charged with malicious injury and one Chinaman accused of being a vagrant.

Mr. Antone Rosa returned from Kauai yesterday, where he had been attending court. Mrs. Rosa and the great baby who have enjoyed a two weeks' residence at Waimea also returned.

Admiral Skerrett and staff went on board the Boston this morning for the purpose of making an official inspection of that vessel, previous to her departure. A salute of thirteen guns was fired.

A number of the Philadelphia officers visited Sans Souci yesterday, and enjoyed the fine bathing there. The Long Branch bathing establishment and the "Villa" were also well patronized during the day. With the cheap and easy facilities offered by the tram cars and the different bathing resorts, there is no reason why the public shouldn't get washed every day.

to an operation which was performed on his mouth aboard of
Mr. Benedict's yacht. Mr. L.
Clarke Davis, of the "Public Ledger," Philadelphia, who is an intimate friend of the President, denies indignantly that the President is suffering from any disease which could cause the country and the friends of Cleveland any alarm or uneasiness
whatsoever.

The Chronicle of the 9th inst.
contains a lengthy Washington
dispatch in which it is stated that Minister Will's will be instructed to make arrangements
for an election to be held in Hawaii, to decide on the future
form of government to be established according to the will of the Hawaiian people under a mild American protectorate,
which will guarantee non interference of any foreign powers and the preservation of internal peace and quietness. The Chronicle further states that the U. S.
forces in Honolulu will be reinforced by other men-of-war
while the election and establishment of the new government
takes place.

In regard to the Chinese exclusion act, a special to the New York World from Washington, on September 11th, says:

The decision of the Administration to enforce the Geary Act
so far as the funds available will permit has drawn a vigorous protest from the Chinese Government, which was presented to-day
to Secretary Gresham by Yang
Yu, the new Chinese Minister,
and the situation has become seriously complicated. The statement that it has been decided to suspend the operation of the law,
however, is flatly denied by Secretary Gresham, who said to the World correspondent to-night that neither the President nor any member of the Cabinet would or could suspend the operation or execution of a law of Congress,
and it is not true that the Chinese Minister has been assured that the Geary law would be suspended pending the passage by Congress of other legislation.

Secretary Gresham declined to say anything further in regard to his interview with the Chinese Minister, excusing himself upon
the ground that the conference was official, and that it would be contrary to diplomatic procedure
to make anything public regarding it.
