The Outside World.

Washington, March 2—Although only one protest has so far been filed with the State Department by European powers against the ratification of the Cuban treaty, it is learned that polite but pointed inquiries have supplemented the note filed by the British Ambassador from other parties in interest, notably France and other European beet sugar producing countries.

Chicago March 2—The citizens of Chicago had better provide themselves with lamps and candles. We are going to fight the gas trust to the end and gas may be cut off at any minute." Organizer John Fitzpatrick of the Chicago Federation of Labor made this announcement today.

Washington, March 2—Senate Foraker made an effort to pass the Hawaiian Ditch Company bill in the Senate today but failed. There is strong opposition to this bill. Foraker proposed a substitute extending to Hawaii the American irrigation laws so far as they are applicable, including a provision granting rights of way to any construction company over the public domain under proper conditions. But even this was opposed by Senator Teller and others, and it is probable the bill will be lost in the shuffle.

St. Louis (Mo), March 2—Copies of two letters bearing the signature of J R Burton, United States Senator from Kansas, showing his connection with the new defunct National Securities Company, may be used in the trials of Charles H Brooks and Percy D Smith, officers of that get-rich-quick concern One of Burton's letters follows:

"United States Senate, Jan 23, 1903—The National Securities Company, St. Louis, Mo.—Dear Sir: After arriving in Washington and giving your proposition some thought I decided to deposit $2000 with you under the 6 per cent per month plan, and so advised Mr — to make the deposit for me. I have this day received two certificates from your company of $1000 each sent to me through Mr —. From investigation that I have made I feel that my money deposited with your company will be safe, and I know it will be quite impossible for me to find a more profitable investment. Faithfully yours, J R Burton."

The Gridiron Club.

The Gridiron Club, which is composed of Washington newspaper correspondents, and has entertained every President who has been in the White House during nearly twenty years, always makes a great feature of its annual dinner. The members are no respecters of dignity. Every man who attends its dinners, even the President, knows perfectly well that the humorous side of his character will be portrayed in one way or another. It is not on record that any man who has been lampooned by the club has taken exception to the freedom with which his personality has been handled, and it is not on record that any guest or member of the club has ever overstepped the bounds of decorum laid down. According to the New York Herald, one of the rules of the club is, "Ladies are always present; reporters never." This means that coarse jest or insinuation is never permitted, and that any speaker can use the utmost freedom of expression without fear of his words being printed or repeated beyond the walls of the banquet hall.

AT REST.

Hawaii has again been called upon to mourn the death of one of its alii (chiefs) of high rank. The late Hon. Albert Kukulimoku Kuniakea was named, in Hawaiian, after the war god of Kamehameha the Great, and none but a chief of superior rank could be so named, he being the reputed son of Kamehameha III, surnamed the Generous or Beneficent. The dead chief's great ancestor, on his mother's side, was the High Chief Keliimaikai, brother of Kamehameha I, by the High Chief Keoua and the High Chiefess Kekulapoiwa; and was also, by his maternal grandmother, a descendant of John Young, whose son, also named John Young (Keoni Ana) was Premier (Kuhina Nui) during the reign of the third Kamehameha. He was first cousin to the late Queen Emma Kaleleonalani, consort of Kamehameha IV., whose mother, Fanny Kekelaokalani, Grace Hikon (Mrs. Dr. T. C. B. Rooke) and his mother, Jane Lahilahi, were sisters, all of whom were daughters of the elder John Young and sisters of the younger.

His father, Kaeo, was a Molokai chief. The Hon. Peter Young Kaeo was his elder brother, who died many years ago before the death of either Queen Emma or her mother. He was one of twin boys, his twin brother and the first-born of the pair died in infancy, shortly after being born. The deceased alii was better known as Prince Albert, called "Prince" only by courtesy, for from childhood he was brought up by being a "hanai" (child by adoption) of King Kamehameha III. and his consort, Hazaleleponi Kapakuhaili, better known as Queen Kalama, also a High Chiefess, and the child was a favorite figure in and about Iolani Palace grounds during those days. Even at the death of his reputed father, he remained with Queen Kalama up to the time of her death, with the exception of the days he attended school at Ahulama, under the tuition of the Roman Catholic Mission with Father Walsh as tutor.

He was a man of words, and that loudly too. His people called him pupule (not crazy, but nutty, to use a slang phrase, on account of being talkative in an indiscreet manner). It is said of him that thus trait befell him when he was yet in his infancy, and it came about in this wise: The King, his reputed father, visited the child in disguise, as he was wont to do at times when going out among his people, and found the child in his cradle asleep, unbeknown to the nurse (kahu), who was away washing, and, awaking him, took him up and nestled him on his lap, he being very fond of him, knowing him to be of his own flesh. When the nurse returned (who died a few years ago and was buried by the now departed chief) and saw the King with the child, she rebuked him, saying: "You have ruined my charge." And from that time, so it is said by those who pretend to know, began this trait in him, remaining with him to the end, as a punishment of the gods upon the faultless child, who was unaware of his fate. The reason for this was the reverence and awe in which the King was held, his rank being such that he was considered sacred (kapu), next to that of a god, and deemed likely to be worshipped by the other chiefs of lower rank and by the people. The first Liholiho (King Kamehameha II.), the High Chiefess Nahienaena, the King's sister, was held in the same respect, they being considered ali kapu (sacred chiefs), for they were the children of first cousins (being of the first blood, almost a brother and sister), Kamehameha I. and the High Chiefess Keopuolani.

But apart from all of these traits in his character, he was generous to others, not of his people or retainers, and a steadfast friend. On account of certain traits in him, their loyal friends and retainers did not stay around him, although when called upon, they always responded and respected him. It is true that he might have been King, but it was not so decided, his character being too well known and he was feared by the people, for they mistrusted him.

His first fiancée in his young days was the late Princess Likelike, their betrothal being much desired by those in authority as well as the other chiefs. But through some reason or other the engagement was broken, she later becoming Mrs. A. S. Cleghorn. In 1878, he was married to Mary Poll, the widow of the Rev. Z. Poll, who now survives him, a widow for the second time. After being released from a spendthrift guardianship, under which he had been placed by those who cared for his welfare, the people of this city, to show some confidence in him, elected him as a Representative of the Legislature of 1882. But he was never again reelected till under the Provisional Government, he was elected as a member of the Constitutional Convention of 1895.

He was born June 19, 1851, at the premises known as "Kuaikelani," now the present site of the Central Union church. His death occurred after 1 o'clock yesterday afternoon on the Ala Moana, where he has been lingering for some time past. His remains were removed to his residence at Kapalama, in rear of Senator Achi's, arriving there about 8 o'clock last evening, where a large concourse of his people had assembled to receive them. All honors are being given one due his rank and station among the people. The remains are laying in state today, from 11 to 3, and daily thereafter. Arrangements for the funeral, which will take place on Sunday, are not yet completed.

TOPICS OF THE DAY.

We understand Senator Achi wants to change the title of the Board of Health to that of "Board of Public Institution." Why so, Mr Senator; is it in order to make further provisions for evasions?

Two important resolutions passed the House yesterday forenoon without as much as a murmur or a ripple. They were the Kaniho, relating to subsidizing certain inter island steamer, and the Kelihoi on the Rapid Transit Co.

Although THE INDEPENDENT has not yet been delared of "general circulation," it is evidently being largely read, as we have been "seen" since its issue of last evening by quite a number of different parties. And yet it is not known—is it so?

"The last of the Kamehamehas" are remarks frequently used and heard since the death of Mrs Bishop in 1885, and still we hear it today in the death of Prince Kuniakea. The Advertiser evades those remarks by saying "the last of the Kamehameha heirs."

Monday's Advertiser article on the late Hon. James H. Blount is most despicable and unwarranted abuse of a man when dead. Mr. Blount did more for Hawaii from the Hawaiian standpoint, than any other one man of the present day, including even all the "family compact" cohorts.

It is now "Clerk of the Senate," just what it should rightly be, and no more the "Secretary," the high sounding title. We wonder whether "Willie" is sav (id) age now, or is he a cannibal to chew up the conservatives and aristocrats whole? Don't do it, Will, but be tempered coolly and "work for your money." What's in a name, any way, for a rose smells just as sweet by any other name.

And the Home Rule County Bill has been finally resurrected from its premature death and has taken the usual course of being translated and printed. It has taken weeks to bring the majority to time and those composing it to their senses, and this was accomplished without as much as a murmur or a ripple. That majority finally bit on the suggestion and advice of THE INDEPENDENT and rightly too. Who says that we are not it, although not yet approved as of "general circulation."

Representative Lewis yesterday introduced in the House a somewhat harmless bill, on its face being "an act for the relief of Antone G. Serrao." Aside from the resolution previously offered by the member, together with the petitions he presented, all on this same matter, now comes this little bill to pay Mr Serrao $3,462.75 out of any moneys in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated. We yesterday touched on the danger that would follow if this matter is allowed by the Legislature and it behooves the House to watch this innocent looking little bill. Don't ever allow it to go too far, but nip the bud in time, and if need be, stand it up to the Fire Claims Commission, which is still in existence, who will no doubt give all the information needed in the matter.

Senator Cecil Brown has given a somewhat new interpretation of the word "treatment," entirely so to us. While the Emergency Bill was being discussed in the Senate Monday afternoon, in which is an item under the Board of Health appearing as follows: "Segregation and treatment," which no doubt refers to the lepers. The Hawaiian translation of the word "treatment" was given as "lawelawe lapasu," meaning literally "medical treatment." Aged Senator Kaohi drew attention to this item, particularly to the "treatment" part of it. He said that he was a member of the Legislative committee that visited the Leper Settlement in March, 1901. During that visit a call was made at the Baldwin Home, and while there he saw many afflicted persons, young and old. On inquiring of them whether they received any medical treatment, the inmates answered that they did not other than the treatment they received from the Roman Catholic Brothers in charge. He therefore thought that the "treatment" part of the item was unnecessary and superfluous. But Mr Brown explained that the "treatment" meant was not the medical, but rather the "care," which we might add as "maintenance" or "support," whichever of these three words anyone might care to use. From our limited knowledge of English, we agree with whoever translated the "treatment" to mean "medical treatment," and cannot agree with the parliamentary authority. That's stretching a point to make it mean something else other than what is really meant to be conveyed. Mr Kaohi also hinted that the "medical treatment" of leper wards was utterly useless, as no attempt is ever made to that end. And we may as well believe with him. But if the treatment intended to be conveyed is care, maintenance or support, why not say so in plain straight English and be done with it, and not try to hedge around any bush. We hope that members of the lower house will take note of this and bear it in mind when the matter should come to them, as it is bound to in a few days.

THE LEGISLATURE.

Second Session of the Territorial Law Making Body of 1903.

THE HOUSE—EIGHTEENTH DAY.
(AFTERNOON SESSION)

On reassembling, Lewis introduced "an Act for the relief of Antonio G. Serrano." Passed first reading and took usual course.

Vida presented his bill for providing a home for needy Hawaiians at Kalihi Detention camp. He also gave notice to introduce further measures.

Pali, $2000 for repairing and improving the Lahaina fishmarket.

Kupihua, $8000 for the construction of a road from Iwilei to Kalihi Detention camp and $2500 for macadamizing the Puuloa road from the beach to the Railroad depot. Both to Public Lands.

Notices of bills were then given by Pulaa and Makaleka.

On motion, the order of the day was called up. The first business was the consideration of Concurrent resolution No. 2, introduced by Wright, to appropriate $5000 to send A. L. Louison to Washington in 1904 in the interests of the coffee industry.

Wright moved adoption and Aylett to refer to committee on Agriculture and Manufactures. The latter prevailed.

Consideration of Senate Bill No. 6, relating to the payment of the Fire Claims expenses, as well as the payment of the awards.

The matter being of such importance, the Speaker said that there should be no delay. The bill was read in full, the members copying it entire. On motion of Kumalae, it was referred to committee of the Whole, and Kumalae was called to the Chair.

Kaniho asked to suspend the rules, so that members may take their coats off and smoke and be at ease. On being carried, a few took their coats off and smoking apparatus were soon in use. The "Bulletin" man sent a cigar to Kaniho as a token of appreciation for the granting of this privilege.

After the bill had been read section, by section, Kaniho moved to amend to read $25,000. Much discussion was held pro and con, Pulaa sustaining the amendment, and Aylett, Andrade, Wright, Greenwell and Harris for the original amount. Finally it was agreed that it should pass as it came from the Senate. The committee rose and reported to the House that the bill pass its second reading; report adopted. Third reading today.

Kellinoi called attention to the death of Prince Albert K. Kuniakaa and moved adjournment out of respect, which prevailed.

THE SENATE—NINETEENTH DAY.

After the routine business, Wilcox from Health committee, reported Bill 77, for the incorporation of societies for the prevention of cruelty to children; to second reading.

Paris gave notice and introduced an Act to prevent the furnishing of liquors to inebriates and minors.

Achi, two bills, (1) to declare the effect of an adoption of a child, and (2) relating to attachment and garnishment. All passed first reading and took usual course.

Bills 15, 34, 61, 62, 67 and 71 all passed third reading; and Bills 13 and 83 to second reading.

At noon, it took adjournment.

THE HOUSE—NINETEENTH DAY.

Routine business being disposed of, a communication from the Senate, transmitting ten bills passed third reading. The bills were read by title and all passed first reading, viz: No's 34, 52, 43, 54, 53, 57, 81, 55, 58 and 63 (all heretofore referred to fully).

Nakaleka, a petition from voters of the 1st Precinct, 3rd District (Laper Settlement), praying that the Government send for Dr. Goto to be the permanent physician for that place.

Harris, from Finance committee, reported on Bill 70, the Emergency Appropriation bill, offering certain amendments by the insertion of certain items, and with such amendments, recommends the passage of the bill. Laid on table to be considered with bill.

Chillingworth offered a resolution that the Speaker proceed at his convenience to appoint a Conference Committee. Adopted.

Vida, that a special committee of three be appointed to investigate the condition of certain buildings built on the Bishop Estate property and used by the Board of Health as a place of refuge from the bubonic plague, and see whether they can be safely and conveniently arranged for workingmen's homes. Adopted. Vida, Kupihua and Gansall were appointed the committees.

Notices and introductions of bills were made. Among the bills introduced were two by Andrade, (1) relating to attachments and garnishments, and (2) to provide against the adulteration of food and drug; one by Kumalae, to pension Queen Liliuokalani; and one by Harris, relating to steam boilers and a boiler inspector.

Kaniho offered a resolution that the Territorial Band be instructed to serenade, once a week, upon the departure of the steamers Kinau, Claudine, Mauna Loa and W. G. Hall. He moved adoption, and said that he saw no reason why the Band should play only at the departure of steamers leaving for San Francisco and elsewhere.

Kupihua moved to refer Military committee.

Aylett said—"why refer? Adopt and be done with it, as the resolution was just and proper."

Knudsen moved to the Police, as there was not enough room to accommodate such a large body and the crowd might interfere with traffic, so that it was necessary to have the police about to prevent any trouble.

Kalawa got funny and said not many people heard the band at the wharves, so in order that all may hear it should march down from the Palace to the wharves every time it intended to play on steamer days. Adopted.

Kupihua, that the Health committee be instructed to furnish, within five days, a full statement of the Board of Health expenses, list of its officers and salaries, as well as persons employed during the past two years. Adopted.

Kealawa gave notice of introduction, and Kaniho, $15,000 as a pension to Queen Liliuokalani. To Public Expenditures.

Kupihua, $1000 to lay and construct a 5-inch water main and one hydrant on the Kalihi Receiving Station road from King street. To Public Lands.

Kalama, that clerk inform Superintendent of Public Works to place an electric light at the south east corner of the Judiciary Building. On motion to adopt, he said the corner was very dark.

Pointed out to him that he was mistaken as to the location and was asked to correct. And while doing so, the order of the day was taken up.

Third reading of the Senate Bill No. 6, Passed, 23 and 7 yeas, the yeas being Kaniho, Kaniho, Kealawa, Kou, Ohi, Paele, Pulaa and Purdy.

Third reading of House Bill No. 1. It was read through, and without being acted upon, recess was taken to 2 p. m.

Judge Little and also Editor Haworth, of the Hilo Tribune, arrived in this city and returned to Hilo yesterday.

The band will play this evening at Makea Island. An old time and oft repeated programme.

The Janet-Waldorf Co gave their first performance at the Opera House last night. On Thursday the "Lady of Ostend" will be given.

The "Tourist" a new paper which proposes to be "a valuable guide for the tourist" in Hawaii was issued today. It is clean, bright and interesting.

Fire This Morning

An alarm from box 63 at about 8 o'clock this morning was caused by a fire in the old "Eagle" now "Fort street" house. The engines were quickly on hand but a supply of water manethair efforts futile and the building was almost entirely destroyed. Detective McDuffee while making a tour of the burning building got a lady's watch which he holds now for the owner.

Islands News.

(FROM THE HILO TRIBUNE.)

Onomea Sugar Company began grinding at 8 o'clock Tuesday morning. Since September extensive improvements have been in the mill.

N C Willfong returned by the Kinau from a trip through Kohala. Mr Willfong reports the Kohala District especially prosperous just now. Crops are good.

The opening services at St James Mission for the Hilo Hotel last Sunday were well attended. Rev Sidney H Morgan, the rector, was given a hearty welcome. Mr Morgan is a good speaker and a pleasant gentleman to meet.

Albert Waterhouse of Honolulu arrived by the Kinau this week with a party of twenty-one tourists which he is personally conducting on a tour of this island. Yesterday the party spent the day in and about Hilo. They made a general onslaught with their Kodak battery and Hilo scenery will be distributed to all quarters as a result.

With mutilated coins as in many other things the Hilo Police Department is made the scape goat. It is charged that nearly all the scratched coins in the Island were "marked" by the police for the purpose of catching Che fa players and illicit sellers of intoxicating liquors. "Marked Coin" was a favorite form of evidence on the side of the Territory in the prosecution of cases at the recent term of Court. This fact has given currency to the story that the sheriff's office has debased the coin of the realm. The supply of marked coin left in this neighborhood will be sufficient to supply several detective agencies a number of years.

Some of the members of the legislature have gone on record in strong opposition to the policy of employing Japanese on government work. While contractors invariably have extreme difficulty in securing labor there are few of them that are not willing to comply with the sentiment expressed in the House. In this city work is progressing rapidly on the new dock. Inquiry yesterday by a Tribune reporter found that no Japanese are at work on this improvement.

(FROM THE MAUI NEWS)

Maui's spring crop of eggs is coming in lively, quoted at 35 cents per dozen.

Ex-Senator Billy White of Lahaina is in Honolulu, doing a little stunt of presumably profitable politics.

Mr F H Hayselden and his son Fred returned from Honolulu on Tuesday. Mr Hayselden will soon proceed to the island of Hawaii.

W A Baldwin, manager of Makaweli Plantation, Kauai, who had been seriously ill, is much improved in health.

Manager Lufkin of the Wailuku Bank visited Lahaina on Thursday in the interests of the proposed bank at that place.

The Meek and Lowly Editor.

When an editor makes a mistake in his paper, all the world sees it and calls him a liar. When a private citizen makes a mistake, nobody knows it except a few friends, and they come around and ask the editor to keep it out of the paper. When the private citizen dies, the editor is asked to write up all his good qualities and leave out the bad. When the editor dies, the private citizen will say, "Now that old liar will get his deserts."—Cleveland (Okla) Triangle.

The Black Cap.

The black cap has no specific relation to the hanging of a criminal. Its sinister reputation, its color and the fact that a judge when pronouncing a capital sentence always wears it have combined to attach to it a meaning and symbolism which it does not possess. It is really nothing more than a part of the full dress of a judge.—Genealogical Magazine.
