Dear Senator Inouye:

I wish to extend to you my heartfelt congratulations on your brilliant success in the re-election as Hawaii's Senator to the U.S. Senate.

Last night in front of HIC a gentleman in a white suit came up and greeted me, shaking my hand. At that moment it did not dawn on me that the gentleman was none other than you, Mr. Senator. Ever since I read your inspiring keynote speech delivered at the Democratic convention in Chicago, your image was quite vivid in my mind. Nonetheless, to my great regret, I failed to recognize you and lost the great opportunity to express my congratulation personally. I wish to apologize for my oversight.

It is almost superfluous to say that your past activities in the Senate have enhanced immensely the prestige of American citizens of Japanese origin not only in Hawaii, but also in the other parts of the United States.

I am confident also that you will continue to further promote better understanding and friendly relations between the United States and Japan.

Although we have met in such a casual way, I could not pay an official courtesy call on you as yet. Therefore, I am looking forward to the opportunity of calling on you sometime in the near future.

With kindest personal regards and best wishes.

Very truly yours,

Akira Yoshioka

Dear Dan:

Please accept my warmest congratulations on your fine victory in the recent election.

Although our Party failed nationally to elect a President, we Democrats in Hawaii may take considerable pride in the fact that we gave Mr. Humphrey a substantial majority and that we maintained responsibility for State and County governments. I believe our Democratic victory is in large part recognition by the voters that our programs have been good for Hawaii.

The voters, through their endorsement of our Party, have now given us the opportunity to continue to meet the challenges of today as well as of the future. I know you join with me in the determination that we shall give our people the best government that we possibly can.

Dear Senator Inouye:

I am not surprised at your massive election victory. Why should I be? You have served the country with remarkable skill and effectiveness and the voters of Hawaii have extraordinary perspicacity.

I am sure that you know just how happy Louise and I are at the results. Additionally, from an Air Force legislative liaison standpoint, I look forward to our continued work together on military construction matters. Congratulations and warmest good wishes to you and your family.

Sincerely,
