Territorial Ballots
Produced And
Confirm County Vote
8TH OF 5TH BAG IS OPENED

This afternoon the Supreme Court resumed the proceedings in the recount case. W. Lono Austin, one of the inspectors in the Fifth of the Fourth, was sworn and testified that his duties were confined to the reading of the names on the ballots while others tallied. He said that Brown's name was read off by him as well as others. Sydney Jackson with others were there watching the inspectors. In response to Gear's question the witness stated that there were six people in the booth and that four of Brown's men were always standing and watching from behind his back.

Kinney, at the conclusion of the examination, called Brown to the stand and commenced asking questions which did not help his case materially.

Brown said that three of his policemen were there watching the work of the inspectors; but denied that he appointed them for political purposes. Among those who were present in behalf of Brown were Zablau, Kuphea, Cockett and the Manuwal brothers. Brown said that as far as his belief and conviction was concerned he thought they were loyal to him.

At the conclusion of Brown's testimony, Kinney asked the Court that the Territorial election bag of the Eighth of the Fifth should be opened to make comparison with the number of ballots in the bag which was in County Clerk's possession. The Court, after consultation, announced that the bag might be opened.

Chief Clerk Buckland of the Secretary's office, advanced with the bag in his hands and gave it to the clerk of the court. The number of ballots cast in the County election agreed with the tally list in the Territorial bag, which broke down Kinney's contentions. The total number was 219 ballots.

A. T. Brock, chairman of the Inspectors of the Fifth of the Fourth, told of the manner in which the voting was conducted in his precinct. He stated that when the day's voting was finished the official list was incorrect, but that the two lists kept by Ludloff and himself agreed on 402, which agreed with the number of ballots in the box. He also described the manner of voting. Brock stated that he tried to keep a check on Austin but was unable to do so on account of having to pick the ballots out of the box and look for the water marks.

Brock explained that after seeing the way that the Supreme Court had ruled, he felt sure that there would be many ballots which would be rejected on the recount. In this way he explained the statements made to Judge Gear and Attorney Kinney shortly after the recount commenced. He stated that the inspectors agreed before counting the ballots that they should count on what they believed the intention of the vote would be.

When the Supreme Court opened its session this morning in the recount case Inspector of Election George Barker was placed on the witness stand. In response to questions from Attorney Kinney he stated that he believed

GUILTY CHINESE
TELLS WEIRD TALE

They were trying a Chinese gambling case in Police Court this morning. Two of the witnesses were also Chinese. They were professional informers, of the usual smooth and guileless variety and each one told a beautiful tale, perfect in every detail—and absolutely at variance with the tale told by the other.

Prosecuting Attorney Andrade listened for a while, and an expression of sadness gradually overspread his face. Truth might lie at the bottom of a well, but it was apparent that one or both of the witnesses were lying on the witness stand.

Slowly and sadly he arose and moved that a nolle prosequi be entered, as it was apparently impossible to sift out the truth of the matter from such testimony.

The case of Che But Hin, one of the men arrested on the charge of selling adulterated liquor, was today continued to December 10.

GRAND JURY MAKES ITS FINAL REPORTTwo Indictments Brought
In Today By Federal Body

The Federal Grand Jury completed its session today and handed in its final report. Before being discharged by Judge Dole a set of resolutions was adopted, thanking the various officers of the court and the Judge for the untiring courtesy which had been shown throughout the term.

Judge Dole replied briefly, laying stress on the character of the work which was taken before a Grand Jury and the desirability of having a good class of men for this work. He complimented the retiring body on its personnel.

Only two indictments were returned this morning, these being against Dora Lancaster and William Monroe on charges of adultery. The Court adjourned till 10 o'clock tomorrow when the two will be arraigned.

S. W. Logan, one of the defeated candidates for Supervisor for the district of Koolauapoko, County of Oahu, by his attorney, W. C. Aehl, filed a petition in the Supreme Court this afternoon, contesting the election of J. M. Kealoha, the successful Home Rule candidate.

The grounds given in the petition are as follows:
1. That Kealoha was not in Oahu County for one year before election day.
2. That Kealoha was not in the district of Koolauapoko continuously for three months before he registered.
3. That Kealoha was not residing in the district of Koolauapoko immediately before election day.

IMMIGRANTS PROVE
VEXING PROBLEM

The investigation which Immigration Commissioner Sargent has been conducting the Portuguese immigrants was concluded this morning. Governor Carter and R. W. Breckons, together with Ray C. Brown, were closeted with Mr. Sargent, and the Governor was called upon to explain several matters which have come up and which have proved of considerable interest to the Commissioner.

It is rumored that the interview between the Commissioner and the Governor was a serious one and that there was a rapid fire of questions directed at the Governor by the Federal representative.

Governor Carter stated that among the matters which were taken up was the treatment of the immigrants, the matter of who paid their passage and whether or not they were brought by the Immigration Board, and the question as to whether they came here entirely of their own free will. Their various destinations was also the subject of pointed inquiries. Mr. Sargent wanted to know whether or not they were allotted to certain plantations before their arrival and also whether they were at liberty to remain in Honolulu or go to such places as best suited them.

What answers were made to these questions Governor Carter would not state. Commissioner Sargent's conclusions are also unknown. In fact he says that he has not yet arrived at any definite conclusions in the matter.

"What do you think of the entire matter?" was the question asked the Commissioner this morning by a couple of newspaper men.

Mr. Sargent studied for a few moments with a grave expression. Finally he replied:
"It is a problem. I don't know yet what to think. I should prefer not to answer that question this morning. I want to think the matter over. By tomorrow morning I think I can give you my conclusions regarding the immigrants."

In regard to the stowaways, who it is stated, were considerably more in number than the thirty-seven told of by the Sueric's officers, it has been concluded by Commissioner Sargent that they were not stowaways in the meaning of the term as used by the Immigration Bureau, and they were, therefore, allowed to remain. Those who have been investigating the matter, carefully avoid referring to them as stowaways. The only one of the immigrants deported was the man found to be slightly unbalanced in mind.

Mr. Sargent states that he will leave for the Coast en route to Washington next Tuesday.

COLON CASE TAKEN UP BY GRAND JURYTerritorial Body Also Looks Into Chinese
Murder Case

The Territorial Grand Jury was hard at work today and was considering one murder case and one of assault with intent to kill. The latter is by far the more interesting, being that of Mateo Colon, who will probably be indicted on two counts for attacking a nurse at the Japanese hospital and also a Japanese.

The other case which is up at present is that of Lem Kau, who is accused of murder. It is claimed that he killed another Chinaman at Waipio, whom he claimed was stealing rice at the time. The case has created a great deal of interest among the local Chinese, who side in a great degree with the murdered man and against the man accused.

Investigation Of The
Suveric Immigration
Is Started By Sargent
GOV. CARTER AND SEC'Y ATKINSON TESTIFY

Commissioner of Immigration Sargent has been holding an investigation of the manner in which the Portuguese immigrants who came in on the Suveric have been handled since their arrival and also what connection there has been between the Board of Immigration and the subscribers to the fund which is at the disposal of the Board.

In speaking of this matter to a Bulletin reporter this noon Governor Carter stated:

"I spent the larger part of the morning in attendance on the investigation being conducted by Mr. Sargent and was called to testify as to what I had seen and what I knew of the conditions under which the immigrants were brought here and had been handled while here. Sargent seemed to have noticed statements in the local press to the effect that the immigrants were brought here by the planters and that they had been allotted to the various plantations. This would of course be in violation of the law which forbids the importation of contract labor."

"I was able to testify myself that I knew of cases in which labor from the Suveric had been obtained by people in the Territory who had never subscribed a cent to the funds of the Immigration Board. I also could tell of other cases in which men came here and have not taken employment at all but have gone to live with their relatives in this city."

"The question was mainly whether the immigrants were being forced to certain occupations or were free to choose their own. I think that from the testimony which was given Sargent is fully satisfied that the Immigration Commission has acted independently of the planters. He also asked what money had been subscribed and by whom it had been subscribed. The books showing these subscriptions were thrown open to him and from this it was possible to see whether the immigrants had been allotted in proportion to the amount of money subscribed or not."

"The Commissioner spoke sharply about the food which had been furnished the immigrants on the way across. He showed some samples which were enough to satisfy any doubter. There was one loaf of bread which I should not care to eat and then he threw overboard. The Immigration Board was very careful that they should have cooks of the same race as the immigrants, in order that they might have the food which they were accustomed to. In place of being good cooks the men who took the position evidently had had no experience in this work and they did very badly. Mr. Sargent asked in the future that the Board should look after this more carefully."

Secretary Jack Atkinson, E. D. Tenney and a number of others have been called to testify before the Commission.

IS BACK ON COMMISSION

Secretary Jack Atkinson has been reappointed a member of the Board of Immigration by Governor Carter. While Atkinson was in Washington it became necessary to appoint a new Superintendent of Immigration, so E. D. Tenney was given the place, which he will still occupy, but his place on the Commission has been taken by Secretary Atkinson.

Dear Sirs:—About two years ago a very fine, well bred mare I own got what seemed to be a bad sprain of the off fore fetlock, which made her very lame; I blistered her and let her run out for about four months, when I took her up she was better but still lame and got worse when worked. I then tried another kind of blister with about the same results.

Last Spring I bought a bottle of your Save-the-Horse from your agent in this city. After treating the mare with this for about two weeks I gave her some slow driving; she improved very much, and by the time I had used up the bottle I was able to drive her twenty or thirty miles without any apparent bad effects. She now goes sound; I also with the same bottle removed two wind galls from her hind legs.

Hoping that this will be of some benefit to you, I am, your truly,

MOORE ATTACKS CAPTAIN BERGER

Wants His Salary Cut In Half Or To Fire Him

Supervisor Moore has a good friend for whom he has staked out Captain Berger's job. Last night at the Supervisor's meeting he proceeded to try to get it for him, and made a valiant attack on the band and all connected therewith, but it fell flat.

It started when Moore wanted to know about the band. Smith said that it had been settled at the last meeting that it was employed from December 1. Moore said he had not understood it so. The other Supervisors agreed with Smith.

Lucas moved that the band be engaged from December 1.

Moore moved, with some heat, that the band pay roll be cut to $1200, that some members be cut out, and that Berger's salary be cut to $100 or that another man be given the job.

Lucas' motion passed, whereupon the matter of appropriation came up.

Moore said a native by the name of Naone should be given Berger's job. Berger had been running the Board, he said.

Dwight reminded Moore that he was a bit inconsistent. Moore had opposed band reductions at the former meeting.

Moore still wanted Berger's salary cut, but Lucas opposed it and the matter was postponed.

On motion by Lucas the Clerk was instructed to publish notice to all people having claims against the County to present them before the end of the year.

A resolution was also introduced and passed to the effect that the Kalaheua avenue property-owners must cur their sidewalks.

Moore still kicked about the band. He said it would be very difficult to make estimates if the band appropriation were allowed. This money would have to be taken from the road work.

Dodge said that the Bishop Estate trustees wanted to do some repair work on the road near the Kamehameha schools. He wanted the use of steam rollers and oil sprinkler.

Lucas said outsiders generally paid for such things. This appeared to be satisfactory to Dodge.

The next meeting of the Board will be held on December 15.

TOY SHOP DOLLS NOT FORGOTTEN

By some accident the Bargain Dolls were shamefully neglected when the list of names was published last week. It is had enough to be "marked down," but to be obliterated or annihilated is awful! The "Candy Dolls" and "Gingerbread Men" were also overlooked and one candy doll, poor little fellow, suffers from having his name spelled in so many ways, each one wrong, that he hardly knows himself. Now we are going to start fair and try to clear up all past errors.

Here are the useful, spicy Gingerbread Men: Le Roy Bush, Albert Bush; Cyril Tinker, Lorrin Thurston; The Baker, Vernon Tenney.

No sea-faring man ever spun a yarn of more thrilling interest than Mr. Noah's tale of adventure. "I could a tale unfold," but I won't for Noah can do it so much better. The "cheerful liar" is quite overshadowed by the barefaced statements of this venerable antediluvian, his wife and boys, who back him up without flinching. They all look exactly as if they had "just stepped out of the ark," the kind we used to play with Sunday afternoons, you know, and are a most interesting family. Their skill as raconteurs is only equalled by their grace and their musical ability. Then there is the heavy tragedy of— but I must not tell, you should hear it only from the head of the family.

BAND PLAYS AS THE ALAMEDA DEPARTS

For the first time for several months, ever since going on its trip to the States, the band was down on the Oceanic dock this morning to speed the Alameda on her way with the strains of Aloha Oe.

The steamship sailed for the Coast on time this morning with a small list of cabin passengers, but with about 200 in the steerage. Of these there were about 160 Japanese, the remainder being scattering.

The freight cargo was also small this time, there being only about 1000 tons. No sugar was taken, but on her next voyage it is expected that the steamer will take a large consignment.

Among those who sailed on the Alameda was Attorney Frank Thompson. He was loaded down with all the leis that could find lodgement on his person. He goes to the Coast on a business trip.

APANA GETS BUNCH OF CHINK GAMBLERS

Police Officer Apana gathered in six more Chinese today for gambling. Apana and Officer Rose were looking for another Chinese against whom a warrant had been issued, and in their search they entered a house on the mauka side of River and Kukui streets.

The six Chinese were sitting there enjoying a dice little game of fan tan. The officers took them along to the station house, together with the evidence, consisting of a set of dominoes, buttons, dice and six bits in coin of the realm.

Apana is the star gambler-catcher of the force. Whenever he feels the need of a little exercise, he goes out and collects a few Chinese and breaks up a fan tan or pai kau game.

Hongkong, Dec. 4.—The Canton Chinese have sent a protest to Peking against the Kowloon railway loan, which they say is particularly advantageous to the foreigners. They claim that the benefits should go exclusively to the Chinese.

LUCAS ROASTS PALOLO FARMERS

Scores Petitioners For Not Telling The Truth

The meeting of the Board of Supervisors last night was made interesting mainly by the appearance of a couple of petitioners from Palolo, whom Lucas scored for fibbing. The men admitted the facts, as Lucas stated them, and Lucas thereupon, bearing no grudge, himself moved to grant their petition.

The special committee on police was, at Dwight's request, granted further time. Lucas reported on the proposition of building a new road at Pili, Manoa, that nothing could be done with it at present anyhow, and that the matter would be one for the coming Board to take up. Regarding the Houghtaling road Lucas said that this was a legacy, which had been left it by the Public Works Department, which had not fulfilled the obligations which it was under, under its agreement with the Bishop Estate. Johnson said it was no good finishing the lane unless the School street extension was also worked on. Lucas said that as far as Kalakaua avenue was concerned, about $25,000 had already been spent on this road, and there was no more money to be spent on that at present.

P. S. Dodge wanted to know if any more curbing was to be done on Kalakaua avenue. The Bishop Estate had laid 2200 feet of curbing with the understanding that the rest of the property owners should do the same.

Lucas said that many of the others could not afford to pay for curbing, and he was loth to force them to do so by means of an ordinance.

Smith asked about the Manoa road work. Lucas answered there was not enough money on hand to pay for it.

Petitioners were read from residents of Iwilei and the Kalihi Camp. They asked for a direct road between these two places, that Dr. Day and McVeigh avenues be macadamized, and for electric lights.

Dodge gave the Board a pointer, stating that the roads were private.

People from Palolo, including one Pringle, who at the last Legislature achieved rather unenviable notoriety on account of his animated but unsuccessful fight against the Rapid Transit, asked for the assistance of the Board to fix a road in the upper end of the Palolo Valley. They said the settlers had heretofore done all the work on these roads themselves.

Sam Johnson stated that the County had done considerable work on these roads. The road in question was bad, but it was a territorial homestead road. Lucas said he did not like the statement of the petitioners that the County had done nothing. He wanted them to tell the truth. One of the Palolo men admitted that the County had done something. Lucas gave another short but artistic roast of the Paloloites.

Pringle made a touching appeal, telling nothing new, but presenting the case more melodramatically, almost tearfully. He had personally put in sixteen Sundays at work on the road. "We are here tonight," he said sweetly, "not to complain, but to see that something be done."

His appeal evidently touched a soft spot in the heart of the chairman, who said that he was sure that something would be done forthwith.

Moore reported on estimates. The estimates as passed for December amounted to $36,425, of which $15,100 goes for road work, $1600 worth of which will be done in the outside districts.

This estimate is exclusive of the pay of the band for the month, which will be appropriated for at the next meeting.

Moore thought the $200 necessary for the Palolo road could be spared, and also for the Pili road. It was finally decided to do the Palolo work.

Dwight wanted something done to the Queen street-extension bridge. Johnson said that something should be done, but that some work would have to be cut down, when expenses were cut down.

The following bills were passed: Koolau road district, $116.40. County office rent, $120.00. Waianae road district, $198.65. Kapiolani Park, $343.50. Ewa road district, $956.25. Ewa road district, $436.25.

WEDNESDAY, DEC. 5, 1906

The band boys are looking for the ghost of Joe Cohen. It is not Joe they want.

The President may be expected to show his teeth should it be a fact that the State is greater than his sword.

Should a new election be ordered by the Supreme Court, the control of the police will be in the hands of Deputy Sheriff Jarrett for a time.

How would it do to let the Governor
count the Supreme Court's recount,
and then let Secretary Atkinson check
off the Governor's figures?

Those who have seen the splendid exhibition at the Promotion Committee Rooms declare that there cannot be better photographers in any other city in the Union.

There seems to be no difficulty about the Portuguese going to work, and the new arrivals have been handled ex-pediently with credit to all the officials concerned.

The Territorial Central Committee
did well in refusing to accept the resignation of Chairman Robertson. It should now continue its good work by getting ready for the Legislature.

According to the Governor, work is needed to get the Congressional held in Honolulu. But he believes in work as a remedy for all things and is never afraid to set the example.

There was general surprise expressed yesterday at the proposal of President Roosevelt to naturalize Japanese, but the sentiment was that it would be well to await fuller particulars before giving voice to opinions.

Now that General Weyer is at the head of the War Department of Spain, he may conclude to assist the insurrecto Cubans and stir up more trouble in the island where his reputation is none of the most savory.

Congressman Kahn is evidently looking forward to some foreign trouble, and asks for an appropriation for placing torpedoes in San Francisco bay. We have not heard of anybody rushing to the relief of Hawaii.

Of course we have not heard the last of the Sheriff contest, and it is quite possible that it may give rise to an effort to unseat candidates in the Legislature. We may consider ourselves lucky, then, if we reach the end of the election of 1906 when the time arrived to cast our ballots in 1908.

HAWAII AND JAPAN

The Bulletin does not anticipate that there will be any trouble between Japan and the United States over the San Francisco school question. Should there be, however, at any future time
the position of Hawaii is not an enviable one under existing conditions.
This Territory is absolutely defenseless in the event of a declaration of war between the two nations. Japan could quickly place in front of our harbor a fleet of warships that could wipe out anything the United States might send here from the Pacific Coast and the Orient. With Honolulu in its possession and the tens of thousands of Japanese residents here, available for any emergency, an American force could be prevented from landing. Japan would have the coaling station and the advantage of a base for supplies. Our ships would be two thousand miles away from their nearest home port. Before the United States could send a large fleet here from the Atlantic, this port would have been rendered almost impregnable by a vast force of Japanese rushed here with guns and ammunition of a character that is not available in the American army. What the United States has failed to do, and has hardly even contemplated would be rushed to a finish by the busy Oriental workers with a rapidity that would astound

the world. In short, the Territory of Hawaii would be absolutely at the mercy of Japan, and any Japanese military and naval force that might be sent here.

This is not written in any alarmist spirit or intended to create a feeling of dread among our people. It is simply the truth, often told and often spoken of, and its publication may, perhaps, be the means of drawing the attention of the Federal Government and of Congress to the absolutely helpless condition of this American Territory in the Pacific. As regards the Philippines the situation is even worse.

SECRETARY ROOT FOR COMMERCE

Secretary Root has been more than favorably impressed with the relations between the United States and the South American republics, and the opportunity offered for a mighty American commerce. He has also declared himself strongly in favor of a ship subsidy law, deploring the decline of our merchant marine and saying that the American shipowner could not carry freight in competition with subsidized foreign vessels. Speaking at the Trans-Pacific Commercial Congress, Mr. Root used these strong words:

We are living in a world not of national competition, but of a subsidized competition. State aid to steamship lines is as much a part of the commercial system of our day as State employment of Consuls to promote business. For the American shipowner it is not a contest of intelligence, skill, industry and thrift against similar qualities in his competitors; it is a contest against his competitors
and his competitors' government and his own government also.

Hawaii should now take advantage of Secretary Root's evident disposi-

TRANS-PACIFIC CONSULS

There are no less than one hundred and thirty-six American consular officers in the countries and possessions, bordering upon the Pacific Ocean, that belong to foreign nations, not including commercial agents who are usually citizens of the country in which they live. There are twenty Consuls General, of whom six are located in China. There are fifty Consuls, of whom no less than seventeen are in Mexico, with which country the United States transacts a much larger proportion of trade than with any other of the American republics. And there are sixty-six Vice-Consuls. As there is general interest in the Trans-Pacific trade project just now, the whole list
is given as follows:

that the ballots rejected by the court had been passed by the inspectors.
Kinney asked if he had not told him
at the foundry that no marked ballots had been passed. Barker replied that Kinney had made a heavy black mark and rubbed it out with his finger. He stated that a crazy man could have seen that mark, and suggested that Kinney came to see him there with a dishonest purpose.

He stated that Stroup had on one occasion read out the name of Trent
when the name on the ballot was that of Waterhouse.

Hanahi, a Democratic watcher in the Eighth Precinct, was called and asked by Kinney if he had challenged a voter, Malao. He stated that he had on the ground that Malao had been convicted of a felony. He stated that Ma-lao had worn an A. V. Gear button and was asked if he had any conversation with Malao as to whom he voted for.

Gear objected to this as the matter
had not been mentioned in the petition.

A long dispute, in which many authorities were quoted, followed.
The court sustained the objection
on the ground that the registration list was final so far as the board of inspectors was concerned. Justice Frear also stated that the court was bound by the registration list and that the only recourse was in action against an illegal voter for perjury.

Kinney offered to show that Malao had been sentenced to prison for five years on a charge of attempt to commit rape, being released Nov. 6, 1895.
That he voted at the election and for
A. M. Brown. He asked that this might be placed on the record.

He also offered to prove that Jas.
Moenshaele was under 21 years of age
and had voted for Brown in the Sixth Precinct of the Fourth.
Clerk of Court Thompson was sworn.
He testified that the result of the recount showed in Fourth District Brown 1341, Lauka 1283; Fifth District, Lauka 1301, Brown 1343; total: Lauka 2684, Brown 2684.

Gear asked where he got his figures.
He stated that he had not taken the count himself but had gotten them
from Chillingworth.

Justice Hartwell stated that the count of the court varied from that of Clerk Thompson in one precinct and called for the ballots from that section that they might be recounted.

Clerk Thompson's count was examined. Chief Justice Frear acting as auditor, and found to show a mistake of one vote in transcribing. A sigh of relief passed through the courtroom.
The court adjourned at 11:30 till 2
o'clock this afternoon.

Just before the Court adjourned the records of the election of the Eighth Precinct of the Fifth District were ordered produced before the Court this afternoon. This was done on the suggestion of Chief Justice Frear that the registration records might be compared with the returns. The records in question are in the keeping of the Secretary of the Territory.

The following table shows the votes which were counted by the Court for both Brown and Lauka:

GREAT SWIMMER COMING

C. M. Daniels, of the New York Athletic Club, the greatest swimmer that the world has ever seen, will pass through here on his way to Australia next Spring. Mr. Wright, of the First National Bank of this city, had a letter in the last mail from a friend of his who will probably accompany Daniels. Wright was asked to look up the proposition and see if arrangements could be made to have Daniels give an exhibition while here.

Wright has referred this matter to the Hotel Bathing people and they will complete arrangements with Daniels and try and induce him to exhibit in their tank. This tank is the same size as the N. Y. A. C. tank and is also fresh water so Daniels would be right at home.

In the event that arrangements are made with Daniels, one of the greatest exhibitions ever seen here in this line will be given the local people. Daniels is a human fish and can go through the water as fast as a person can walk. He holds most every record from 25 yards up to half a mile and in fact is the greatest swimmer that the world has ever known. He won the amateur championship of the world at Athens this year. The local people will be indeed fortunate to see such a crack in action. It was this same Daniels who defeated our own Dan Reecer.

The special swimming suits for the new Hawaiian swimming club arrived on the Nebraska and are quite satisfactory. They are maroon in color and have a white monogram of H. S. C. on the breast. The new club will give its first show when the Baths open the latter part of this month.

WHAT IS AN AMATEUR?

There has been some talk lately of the local clubs becoming affiliated with the Amateur Athletic Union of the United States. Their rule defining an amateur is very strict and wonder is expressed as to how many of our local athletes have over-stepped the bounds. Here is the rule as found in the A. A. U. bylaws:

"No person shall be eligible to compete in any athletic meeting, game or entertainment given or sanctioned by this Union who has (1) received or competed for compensation or reward, in any form, for the display, exercise or example of his skill in or knowledge of any athletic exercise, or for rendering personal service of any kind to any athletic organization, or for becoming or continuing a member of any athletic organization; or (2) has entered any competition under a name other than his own, or from a club of which he was not a member in good standing; or (3) has knowingly entered any competition open to any professional or professionals or has knowingly competed with any professional for any prize or token, or (4) has been or allowed to be issued on his behalf any challenge to compete against any professional, or for money, or (5) has pawned, bartered or sold any prize won in athletic competition, or (6) is not a registered athlete."

This rule would be hard on local baseball players, as, according to the strict meaning of the same, all of our local baseball players are professionals.

An alliance with the A. A. U., however, would be a wise step and would help keep our athletics clean.

The record of 58.5 for 100 yards made by Dan Kelly at Spokane last June, over which there was some contention, has been officially recognized.

by the Amateur Athletic Union and it now stands as the world's amateur mark.

It is claimed that Terry McGovern has changed his style of boxing and now fights with a crouch like James Jeffries. He is not the mixer that he once was.

Cyclone Thompson is in San Francisco to box Lew Powell.

Manager McCarey of the Pacific Athletic Club has been trying since the Memsie-Nearby battle to secure a match between Memsie and "Fighting" Dick Hyland, but without success.

Truck Egan, the ball player, is now a fight promoter.

Walch has arrived in Los Angeles and is training for Attell.

BLIND FOOTBALL PLAYERS

The most wonderful football teams of the country are the two eleven of the Kentucky Institute for the Blind. The institute placed its first football team in the field last year. At first it was marveled at that blind boys could play football at all. Then they met boys of their own weight with good eyes, asking no concessions from them, and held them to such close scores that every one was amazed.

But this year the blind boys are so football crazy that it has been found necessary to place a second team in the field. They are playing all around their opponents with good eyes. The first team, which has played the eleven of the two high schools at Louisville, has not been able to cross the goal line of its opponents. It has held them to a tie in both games. The second team, on the other hand, has won both its games, shutting out the opposing teams. They have the Broadway line down to defeat, 17 to 0.

A majority of the players of these teams are wholly blind. Those who can see at all have such imperfect vision that it can not be of the slightest help to them in the strenuous game into which they have entered. But the senses of touch and hearing, and that subtle added sense of the blind, are brought into play in such a manner that one sees the blind boys on the gridiron is not aware that they are handicapped by not seeing the ball.

All they ask their opponents is that they call out "Pass" when the ball is put in play. The blind eleven will play all the eleven of their weight around Louisville this season, and, judging from their start, will have a remarkable record.

FATE OF CAPTAIN IN THE BALANCE

Inspectors Disagree As To Wreck Of Mongolia

Captain John Bermingham, Supervising Inspector, has before him two expert opinions as to the blame that should be attached to Captain W. P. S. Porter for the stranding of the Mongolia at Midway island. O. F. Bolles, Inspector of Hulls, and John K. Bulger, Inspector of Boilers, agree that Andrew Martin, first mate of the Mongolia, should be suspended for six months; but they are hopelessly divided as to Captain Porter. Bolles wants to take his license away for six months, while Bulger thinks he should be exonerated. Both have set forth their opinions at length, and Captain Bermingham must decide.

Bolles, in his decision, reviews the circumstances of the stranding, telling of the Mongolia leaving Yokohama on September 9th, and stopping at Midway island on September 19th to land George Ward, vice president of the Pacific Cable Company. When the island was approached the boat was stopped, and lights burned to attract the attention of people on shore. There were answering lights, as though from a small boat approaching. The Mongolia was ordered half-speed ahead, and First Mate Martin sent forward to take soundings. He came back and reported 150 fathoms and no bottom. Captain Porter told him he should be able to find bottom there, and told him to use the sounding machine continuously. At 10:20 p. m. Martin still reported 150 fathoms and no bottom. The boat was then ordered stopped. At that moment Captain Porter saw a white streak ahead and ordered full speed astern, but before the order could be obeyed the ship struck.

Bolles, in recommending the suspension of Captain Porter, says: "I am satisfied that Captain W. P. S. Porter was unskillful in navigating the steamship Mongolia on September 15, 1906. In approaching this island at night he should have ascertained the correct position and distance that the ship was off when he saw the light from the bridge deck at 8:56 p. m., and not placed so much reliance on his judgment of the distance of the ship from the island at that time. When the first mate did not get soundings in the position the ship should be in by courses and distances run from point of departure taken at 8:36 p. m., Captain Porter should have stopped the vessel dead still in the water and have ascertained the exact depth of water, character of bottom and correct bearing of light. The Mongolia is a large and heavy ship of 13,000 tons, with a draft of water about twenty-six feet, and holds her headway through the water for some time after the engines are stopped."

Bulger lays the entire blame for the disaster on the first mate, Martin, who he says was inexperienced. He says: "I am of the opinion that if Chief Officer Martin got these soundings, which he swears he did, if he knew his business when he got forty fathoms of water with 107 fathoms of wire, and immediately thereafter he got bottom with fifty fathoms of wire, instead of waiting eight minutes to reel in the line, examine the lead and the patent recorder, it was his place to have telephoned or gone in person to the bridge and notify the captain that the water was rapidly shoaling. By so doing, that would have saved the Mongolia from stranding, as the evidence proves that she did not take the bottom until seventeen minutes after he says he took this cast; and that he was getting ready to take another one when she grounded. I am also of the opinion that the steamer was on soundings for one hour before she grounded, this being confirmed by the bearings laid off on the chart by Captain Porter; also that Mr. Martin got bottom and did not know it, and by his negligence, or inexperience in using the deep-sea sounding machine, he misted Captain Porter, causing the Mongolia to ground."—Chronicle, November 22.

PERSONALITIES

(Birmingham Age-Herald.)
If William Jennings Bryan should have his trousers pressed
And John Sharp Williams plaster down his hair,
Then Speaker Joseph Cannon might no longer be profane
And Tillman would assume an humble air.
If Theodore the Strenuous should quietly settle down,
If William Randolph Hearst were understood,
The chances are that Joseph Folk would start to dissipate
And lose the gentle art of being good
If Taft were lean and skinny and a runner of renown,
And Fairbanks were a merry sort of chap,
We'd probably be dazzled by the brightness of his smile,
Like the ray of Winter sun that warms the Lap.
If Charley Schwab would quit roulette and other games of chance
And Gates should never make another plunge,
Then we'd see old Carrie Nation lost in silent meditation
And "Marse Henry" soaking water like a sponge.
