ATTEMPT WILL BE MADE TO VOTE HUSTACE OUT OF THE CHAIRMANSHIP

Five Supervisors Said to Be Against Him—Achi Names His Ticket—Time to Drop Party Lines.

"RESOLVED, THAT THE OFFICE OF CHAIRMAN OF THE BOARD OF SUPERVISORS IS HEREBY DECLARED VACANT."

This is a resolution which will be presented at the meeting of the Board of Supervisors on Tuesday night, for the ousting of Chairman Hustace. For the motion will be recorded the votes of Harvey, Fern, Keoloha, Dwight and Archer, while a temptation in the shape of the vacant position is being dangled before Cox to make him also vote against Hustace.

Following the carrying of the motion to fire Hustace from the chairmanship will come the discharging of Road Supervisor Sam Johnson, the filling of his place by Jimmie Boyd or some other henchman of Charley Achi's, the discharge of various other employes of the county and the substitution in their places of others of the Achi political stripe, Charley Clark, William Ilkiki, David Kama and others.

The wily Achi is making catpaws of the Supervisors, his expectation being to work them in this way and so to discredit them in the eyes of the haole voters as to make their reelection to office difficult and allow him to slip in himself with his own crowd.

So far Supervisor Cox has refused to bite at Achi's bait, being farther sighted than his colleagues and realizing that the deposition of Hustace at Achi's desire would lose him the confidence and respect of the better class among the residents and voters.

ACHI'S WILD AMBITION.

It is the wild ambition of Achi to be the first mayor of Honolulu and sign the city vouchers. To that end he is hard at work and the putting together of the machine is going ahead nicely. A slate has been partly prepared, an opposition to the slate announced as coming from Kaahumanu street, headed by Lane. The Achi slate is: For Mayor, William Charles Achi; for Auditor, James H. Boyd; for Treasurer, James Bicknell; for County Clerk, D. Kalaoukalani, Jr.; for Supervisors, Harvey, Fern, Frank Pahia; for Deputy Sheriff, John Bell.

As a matter of fact both Bicknell and Kalaoukalani are not acceptable to the Achi gang and they are only slated because they are supposed to be strong with a good many voters and are expected to draw strength to the ticket. Bicknell does not know how his name comes to be used and Kalaoukalani doesn't know as yet that Achi has so honored him.

CAUCUSING YESTERDAY.

Yesterday there were a series of little conferences between Dwight, Fern, Harvey and Achi. The day before there were other conferences. Boyd has also been hanging around. So has Charley Clark. Frank Pahia is getting ready to launch the Achi boom, which will be first sprung in Koolau. From there it is expected to sweep over the island.

LANE PARTY SCORNS ACHI.

The aspirations of the great and gifted labor leader are not regarded with any great favor by the party headed by Senator Chillingworth and Delegate Kuhio, whose candidate for Mayor is John C. Lane. As a matter of fact there are knives drawn already between these factions. Of Achi and his methods the followers of Lane publicly disapprove. Of Lane and his men Achi expresses the most sublime contempt, declaring that he has already beaten them in one election and is prepared to prove to them that it was no mistake.

LAUKEA ROASTS ACHI.

In connection with the Achi slate it was reported yesterday that Sheriff Laukea was to be provided with a place, the idea arising apparently from

A MIRACULOUS ESCAPE FROM LIVE ELECTRIC WIRE

Thirteen-Year-Old Son of Charles Girdler Is Saved by the Prompt and Efficient Action of A. Gartley.

Ralph Girdler, the thirteen-year-old son of Charles Girdler, had a most remarkable escape from death from a live wire yesterday afternoon. As it is, he is at Miss Johnson's sanatorium, out of danger for his life, but with two fingers burned off, and other severe burns on his hands and arms.

The Girdlers live at Keenamoku and Dominis streets. Miss Hopper lives next door. Yesterday afternoon a large algaroba tree in Miss Hopper's yard blew down, and carried with it the electric light wire which runs along in front of the place.

About half past five o'clock yesterday evening, Mrs. Girdler, expecting her husband to bring home a number of packages, sent Ralph to meet him, as he should get off the car, to carry some of the packages for him. The boy started out. He had to pass by where the tree had fallen and carried the electric light wire with it. Nothing is known of how he came to touch the wire, whether by accident or ignorance or by mere inadvertence. But in some way he caught the wire in his right hand. He could not let go of it, but apparently he neither cried out nor made other demonstration, for Miss Mist's attention was attracted to him by seeing his hands smoking. She was passing by in an automobile with A. Gartley, manager of the Hawaiian Electric Company, at the time. Just as soon as she saw the boy's hands smoking she called Mr. Gartley's attention to it. He recognized in an instant what was the matter, and stopping his auto he jumped out, seized an umbrella and ran to the boy. With the umbrella he knocked or drew the wire from the boy's hands. Released from the terrible grip of the electric force, the boy fell down unconscious. Mr. Gartley at once began manipulating his body to produce artificial respiration, in which he succeeded. Physicians were sent for as soon as could be, and the boy was taken to Miss Johnson's sanatorium.

All that had not been done for him before was done for him here. It was found that the second and third finger of the right hand had been burnt squarely off between the first and middle joints. The surgeons found it necessary, in order to secure a covering for the end of the bone, to cut away a little more of the fingers.

While Mr. Gartley was still working with the boy to produce respiration, a great crowd gathered around, and the first knowledge that the father had of the accident as he came up the street from the car was from the wild and exaggerated statements that instantly flew in every direction.

Speaking of the accident later, Mr. Girdler said: "It seems almost miraculous that Mr. Gartley should happen along just in the nick of time, for he of course realized what was the matter and what must be done. I haven't any doubt that I owe my boy's life to him."

Late last night the boy was reported as out of danger, though, of course, suffering from the burns he had received and the shock of the electricity and of the surgical operation necessary afterward. He is being attended by Dr. Hodgins.

A MILLION FOR TAXES IN OAHU

Yesterday Was the Last Day for the Payment of Taxes.

The tax office closed last night at 8 o'clock on the last day of the second period for the payment of taxes without the penalty.

The collections for the period have been very good. Based on an estimate of collections from the outside districts, the collections this period will exceed slightly the collections for the corresponding period of last year, and, added to the collections of the first period, bring up the amount of tax collections for the year for the island of Oahu to practically a million dollars.

The following is a statement of the tax collections, First Division, County of Oahu, being second instalment from July 1st to Nov. 15, 1907:

Collections all districts, July 1st to Sept. 30, 1907.....	$ 21,250
Collections all districts, Oct. 1st to Oct. 31, 1907.....	88,399
Collections Honolulu only, Nov. 1st to Nov. 15, 1907.....	223,700
Collections outside districts (approximate).....	100,000
Total.....	$ 433,349
1906 collections from July 1st, 1906, to Dec. 31st, 1906.....	426,496
Over.....	$ 6,853

LICENSE COMMISSIONERS GIVE CORDS A CHANCE

There was a meeting of the Board of License Commissioners yesterday afternoon. Gus Cordes, who has attempted to transfer his license without the consent of the board, asked to be permitted to regain the license by paying back the money he received from the Chinese to whom he had sold it. He was given until the first of next month to produce a release from the Chinese showing that he is the sole proprietor of the place. If he satisfies the board on this point he will be permitted to continue.

Hamanura Fukukatsu, who formerly ran the Togo saloon on Hotel street and latterly made application for a license at Aala and Beretania avenue and was refused July 10, made another application for the same premises yesterday. His application was ordered returned to him as not being in proper form.

MORMON GEORGE FOUND GUILTY

Jury, After Being Out Two Hours and a Quarter, Agree.

The jury in the United States Court, which for eight days has been listening to the evidence, returned a verdict of guilty in the Mormon case at 4:20 o'clock yesterday afternoon, after being out two hours and a quarter.

Notice of a motion for a new trial was given by defendant's counsel, Judge Perry, but sentence was set for 9 o'clock this morning. The maximum sentence that can be imposed is three years.

In this case George Kekauoha, Road Supervisor for Koolauloa, was indicted under the Edmunds Act for adultery with Amia-Lilihi committed February 12, 1907. It has acquired the designation of the "Mormon case" from the fact, partly, that both parties and most of the witnesses are Mormons, but more particularly from the fact that it was alleged that at a church meeting of the Mormon church held in July, 1906, the defendant and Amia confessed to adultery, and the question was raised whether this confession, being admittedly an affair of conscience and church discipline, was a privileged communication about which witnesses could not be compelled to testify. Judge Dole held that it was not such a privileged communication.

The testimony was concluded on Thursday. Yesterday morning was occupied by argument of counsel, and Judge Dole charged the jury shortly before 2 o'clock.

In his address, which occupied about an hour and a quarter, Judge Perry laid stress on two particular points. The indictment charged the offense to have been committed at the defendant's own house on February 12, 1907, the same being the Chinese New Year's. For the defense, the defendant testified that he was not at his house from early in the morning of that day until after 11 o'clock at night, but was at the house of David Malo some distance away. David Malo and his wife fully corroborated this testimony except as to the date, on which their testimony was that, on February 24, Kekauoha (Continued on Page Nine.)

SAN FRANCISCO WOULD SEND HER LEPERS TO MOLOKAI SETTLEMENT

(Associated Press Cablegrams.)

SAN FRANCISCO, November 16.—The Health Officer of San Francisco has issued a recommendation that the lepers in this city be sent to the leper settlement on Molokai.

The recommendation noted in this despatch has been made without any consultation in any way with the Hawaiian Board of Health or other government officials, and, judging from what has been done heretofore, it seems unlikely that any request from California that lepers from that State be sent here for treatment at Molokai would be agreed to. It is the policy of the Board of Health to refuse any request that might make of Hawaii a dumping-ground for those afflicted with the disease. Some time ago a request was made on the part of the health authorities of the State of Massachusetts, where two lepers had been isolated. The sentiment of the people here was opposed to the granting of the request, and the Massachusetts authorities built a leprosy in their State for the two patients at a cost of $100,000.

The only other request of this nature was made more recently, coming from the Soldiers' Home at Washington, where one veteran was found to be afflicted with the disease. While President Pūkham and the other members of the Board of Health were prompted from motives of humanity to accept the charge of the old soldier, yet the broad policy adopted made a refusal necessary. In this case the United States Government offered to pay all the expense in connection with the case.

It is probable that a formal application along the lines of the cable will be received shortly by the Board of Health, when it will be broadly discussed along broad lines.

SCARCITY OF MONEY NOW PRODUCING BAD EFFECT

SAN FRANCISCO, November 16.—The construction work on the new railroad line to Eureka has been stopped.

WORKING TIME REDUCED.

LEOMINSTER, Massachusetts, November 16.—The working time in the textile factories here has been reduced. Thirty thousand hands are affected by this cut.

READING LETS MEN OUT.

READING, Pennsylvania, November 16.—The Philadelphia and Reading Railway Company yesterday discharged seven hundred employes.

GOLD BOUGHT IN IMMENSE SUMS.

NEW YORK, November 16.—The total amount of gold engaged for importation to supply the currency deficiency now amounts to sixty-seven million nine hundred and five thousand dollars.

BRITISH RATE GOING UP.

LONDON, November 16.—The bank rate on gold will probably be raised to eight per cent. today. The British bankers will attempt by raising the rate to check the very heavy exportations of gold to the United States.

STANDARD PAYS FAT DIVIDEND NEVERTHELESS.

NEW YORK, November 16.—The Standard Oil Company yesterday declared a dividend of ten dollars a share.

FINANCIAL SPECIAL SESSION WORK.

SACRAMENTO, Cal., November 15. The proclamation calling a special session of the Legislature outlines the work to be done.

The first matter is to provide for the postponement of the payment of taxes and to sanction the right of the Treasurer of San Francisco to deposit city moneys in the banks and thus keep coin in circulation.

In addition, steps will be taken to enable the courts to proceed during the bank holidays, remove Railroad Commissioner Wilson, ratify amendments to the San Francisco charter and provide pay for the militia while on State duty.

SUICIDE OF BANK CASHIER.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., November 15.—Cashier Thomas of the Bank of Albany committed suicide today.

CLAIMED INCREASE IN JAPANESE IMMIGRATION

WASHINGTON, November 16.—The increase in the number of Japanese entering the United States during the month of October over that of any preceding month is the greatest in the history of the immigration service.

How this can be in the face of the restrictions on Japanese immigration is paradoxical. The total immigration of America is increasing rapidly and it is possible that the Associated Press has used the word "Japanese" inadvertently.

FUTURE BRIGHT FOR NEGRO RACE.

WASHINGTON, November 16.—President Roosevelt, in the speech delivered yesterday before the students of the Howard University, pronounced himself as optimistic in his views regarding the future of the negro race.

PLATFORM COLLAPSED.

WASHINGTON, November 15.—The temporary platform at the Howard University, from which President Roosevelt was about to speak, collapsed this afternoon. Many were slightly injured. The President had not taken his place on the stand.

WAR VESSEL HAS GREAT SPEED.

COWES, England, November 16.—The ocean-going destroyer Mohawk in her trial trip yesterday developed a speed of forty miles an hour.

PRINCE JUMPED HIS BUBBLE BILL.

SAN FRANCISCO, November 15.—A warrant was issued today for the arrest of Prince Salmon, the Tahitian prince who has been much in evidence. An automobile bill is the cause of all the trouble.

STREET CAR STRIKE IN SOUTH.

LOUISVILLE, Kentucky, November 15.—A general street car strike has been called.

DELAYED CHRISTMAS FREIGHT GETTING SERIOUS

The situation in regard to shipments of Christmas goods by the American-Hawaiian steamships seems to grow more disquieting, if not more alarming. At the request of a number of concerns who have goods coming, which were expected to be here for Christmas or before the first of the year, Agent Morse of the company cabled to find out if certain Honolulu shipments had been brought up by the Isthmus of Tehuantepec by the Alaskan, and when they would be brought here. It must be remembered that the Alaskan, instead of coming here from Salina Cruz, by way of San Francisco, with the Honolulu shipments, discharged her cargo at San Francisco and went north for a cargo of salmon.

The answer to the cablegram was to the effect that the Honolulu shipments from New York by the Virginian on her first and second voyages, by the Hawaiian on her fifth voyage, by the Oregonian on her fourth voyage and by the Lewis Lukenbach, were brought to San Francisco by the Alaskan and were discharged there, and that they will not be shipped to Honolulu until the Nevada.

The Nevada is now in Kauai waters. Her schedule calls for her to sail from San Francisco to arrive here December 21. Many of the shipments in question are of Christmas goods. The shipments from New York by the Virginian on her second voyage were nearly all Christmas goods.

In view of this information, a meeting of the directors of the Merchants' Association, together with several of the large shippers, was held yesterday afternoon and the following cable was sent to the New York office of the American-Hawaiian Steamship Company: "American-Hawaiian Steamship Company, New York.

"Merchants holding bills of lading Honolulu freight now discharged by Alaskan insist delay must be avoided. Suggest should be forwarded by you. Hiltonian sailing from San Francisco, November 21."

YEAR'S RECORD OF THE LIBRARY

Increase of Members---Largest Annual Circulation---
17,518 Volumes.

General interest will be taken in the following extracts from the report of the librarian of the Honolulu Library and Reading Room Association for the year ending October 1, 1907:

A comparison of the statistics for the last year with the reports of former years shows an increase in the work along all lines. The chief points of interest are as follows:

ACCESSIONS.

An inventory of the books in the library, completed December 21, 1906, showed a total of 17,089 volumes. Accessions made since that date bring the total number of volumes up to 17,518. This does not include U. S. Government documents and a large number of valuable pamphlets. During the year 162 books were presented to the library, besides a number of unbound volumes and 27 periodicals. The rest of the accessions were by purchase or by the binding of current periodicals.

Owing to changes in the personnel of the staff and the consequent changes in the manner of recording details it is feared that due credit has not been given in all cases. So far as the record shows, the donors were as follows:

Dr. W. D. Alexander, Mrs. W. F. Allen, C. H. Atherton, Dr. E. Armitage, H. Ashford, Lyle A. Dickey, J. T. Gullick, Mrs. J. F. Gray, Mrs. M. F. Grinbaum, Mrs. J. W. Kiefer, Dr. J. S. McGrew, R. W. Martinoff, Mrs. R. D. Walbridge, Miss Edith Mills, Miss A. H. Parke and Mrs. E. A. Weaver.

The thanks of the association are due these friends, also the proprietors of the Pacific Commercial Advertiser, the Evening Bulletin and the Hawaiian Star for free copies of their respective publications and other courtesies extended from time to time.

CIRCULATION.

The total circulation for the year was 18,841. This is the largest circulation for any one year, and an increase of 1511 over the last preceding report. This does not include the use of the reference department. It would be impossible to keep an accurate record of the number of books consulted therein.

INCREASED USE OF BOOKS OF REFERENCE.

The interest awakened by special lecture courses given under the direction of the literary and college clubs has perceptibly increased the work of this department.

USE BY PUPILS IN SCHOOLS.

Pupils of the Normal and High schools make constant and increasing use of the resources of the library, especially in history, biography and literature. The advantage to them would be greatly increased if a separate room could be provided where more freedom might be allowed and individual supervision given to their researches. The large number of children that visit the library on the afternoons when it is open to schools indicates their eagerness and emphasizes the need. A children's room is probably the most pressing need of the library at the present time.

STATISTICS OF CIRCULATION.

Total circulation as stated above	18,841
Largest circulation in any one month	1,808
Smallest circulation in any one month	1,182
Average circulation per month	1,570
Largest circulation in any one day	125
Smallest circulation in any one day	21
Average circulation per day	62

STATISTICS OF MEMBERSHIP.

Membership October 1, 1906	252
New members for the year	147
Renewals	12
Withdrawals	139
Membership October 1, 1907	272
Increase for the year	20
Juvenile cards issued	115

It is believed that the above showing should be satisfactory to the members and friends of the association. Without claiming anything phenomenal in growth or original in administration, the figures given show a natural and healthy growth in number and in work and a faithful and efficient carrying out of the legitimate objects and aims of such an institution.

Details of the numbers and percentages of books of different kinds added to the library and used by readers are given very fully in the librarian's report, but are omitted in this publication to save space. The librarian will be glad to answer questions and give desired information at all times.

NEW SCHOOLHOUSES WILL GO UP VERY SOON

Superintendent of Public Instruction Babbitt was yesterday engaged in designing plans for schools and cottages. He has about approved a design for a two-room addition to the school at Waipahu, and for a one-room schoolhouse at Wahiawa, and for a teacher's cottage at Waimanalo.

Plans are also well under way for the Waianae school, that at Alea, that at Ewa and that at Manoa.

As soon as plans are approved they will be referred to the Department of Public Works, which will advertise for bids and proceed to build the schoolhouses.

DEFERRED YACHT RACE TOMORROW

Contest Over Pearl Harbor
Course for Cooper Trophy.

Water sports and hundreds of others who enjoy their doings are hoping for good weather tomorrow that they may enjoy the race for the Commodore Cooper cup for second class yachts, which takes place over the Pearl Harbor course.

The recently purchased yacht Defiance, property of C. T. Schaefer, is the dark horse in the contest. Walker, the builder, expects she will give a good account of herself and there is much speculation as to where she will rank with local yachts at the finish.

She is acknowledged to be fast and to possess graceful though somewhat unusual lines, as compared to her local sisters. What the Maggie will do to her is the subject of considerable guessing.

The Myrtle and Malolo, smaller boats than the Defiance and Maggie which are of the same length, 26 feet, will be allowed a handicap which will give them an opportunity to get first.

The race was to have taken place last Sunday, but was postponed until tomorrow on account of unfavorable weather. A kona has been threatening for eight or nine days and it is hoped it will defer its anger until Monday at the earliest.

CUSTOMS TEAM ARE CHAMPIONS

Last night at the Hotel Baths alleys the Custom House defeated the Oahu College team, winning the championship.

When the third match of the tournament was played last week, the victory with the championship was counted for the Collegians. It appears that there was a miscout, though, and that match was canceled.

The College team won the first game last night, with a score of 572 to 552, but the Customs team won the two next games by 638 to 516 and 589 to 573 respectively. A net majority of 118 pins is the sum of the revenue men's victory in the closing match.

SAM MAHUKA COMES ON KINAU

Sam Mahuka, the King of Firstbase-men, will arrive today on the Kinau from Hawaii. Mahuka will join the All-Hawaii team this afternoon and have his first practise with them. He has been in training for the last three weeks on the Parker Ranch where he has a team of his own. Mahuka is a wonderful ball player as well as a very popular one. The old Kam boys as well as the boys that are now out at school are all enthusiastic over the prospects of again seeing the only Sam Mahuka in action. Mahuka will have all of next week with the team and will put in the whole of the afternoon with Reuter and Cunha and continue when the balance of the team turns out at 4 o'clock.

Fisher's team sails on the Alameda leaving Frisco this morning. They will arrive here next Friday morning at about nine o'clock and the whole town will turn out to welcome them. They will be met at the dock by the band and will be taken to the hotel in a carryall.

Everything possible will be done to welcome the boys to Honolulu and to make their stay pleasant while here. The All-Hawais are working hard to get into shape and they have been strengthened by the addition of Sonny Cunha, the old H. A. C. catcher and the man who first brought Barney Joy out. Sonny is a good man on any team and helps to put life into the boys. They will all work their heads off now that they have Mahuka.

The sale of tickets for the single games will open this morning at Gunst cigar store and any one who desires a good seat will do well to be on hand and secure the same.

JOHNSON IN THE LEAGUE.

Mr. W. Tin Chong of the Riverside Junior Baseball League received a letter yesterday from Samuel Johnson, acknowledging notification of honorary membership in the league. Following is a copy of the letter:

Road Supervisor's Office, Capitol Building.
Honolulu, T. of H., Nov. 15, 1907.
William Tin Chong, Sec. R J B L.
Honolulu.

Dear Sir: I am in receipt of your notification relative to having been elected an honorary member of the Riverside Junior Baseball League, and I hereby wish to express my hearty appreciation of same, and also to extend my best wishes for the future success of the league.

Yours truly,
(Signed) SAMUEL JOHNSON.

FISHER HAS ANOTHER STAR

Silent Bill Burns will be a member of Mike Fisher's Honolulu wonders. Fisher was a little short on pitching material, so he hunted about for another man. When he secured Burns he signed one of the very best twirlers in the Pacific Coast League. Burns and Gray virtually won the pennant for Los Angeles. With Henley and Burns alternating in the box the All-Hawaiian bunch will have to go some to win a game.

By the way, A. G. Spalding has finished the uniforms for the stars, and they are about as gay an assortment of rags as you ever gazed at. Captain Devereaux' regalia is a feast for the eyes. Don't miss seeing it next week. The suits consist of blue caps, white shirts, red pants, blue stockings, red collars, laced fronts and the word "Spalding" in blue script across the front of the shirts. The suits will be even louder than the ones that the All-Americans wore to California a few years ago. But a word more about the Red Dog's duds. Being captain, he will wear shoulder straps, which will indicate his rank. This is something new in baseball, but Brick is fond of novelties. There will also be a "C" of yellow hue on his cape. "C" is for captain. There will be no danger of the Honolulu fans confounding Devereaux with the poor privates under his command.

AN INQUIRY ANSWERED.

A gentleman at Bembesi, Rhodesia, writes to inquire where Chamberlain's Cough Remedy can be procured. He says he has learned of the good effects resulting from its use, and as children in that locality are often subject to coughs, he desired to give it a trial. This remedy may be procured from any store or chemist. For coughs, colds and croup there is nothing better, and as it contains no injurious substance it can be given to the smallest child with perfect security. For sale by all dealers. Benson, Smith & Co., agents for Hawaii.

INDOOR BASEBALL AT THE Y. M. C. A.

The fourth game of the Y. M. C. A. indoor baseball league was played at the gymnasium last night between the Financiers and Salesmen. It was slightly one-sided. The Financiers led from the start, the Salesmen making a brace in the last half of the ninth inning. There was a good attendance and a great deal of enthusiasm. The score was 25 to 11. Everybody in the audience last night had their hats off except an umpire.

The lineup was as follows:
Financiers—C. Lewis, c.; M. Keoho, p.; C. Gilliland, 1b.; J. C. Lo, 2b.; J. Clarke, 3b.; V. De Coito, rf.; I. Spalding, lf.
Salesmen—Alex. May, c.; M. Gurida, p.; L. Kerr, 1b.; M. Ferreira, 2b.; G. C. Bechert, 3b.; C. H. Nieper, rf.; S. Bunn, lf.

The score:
Financiers 25 2 3 3 1 4 0—25
Salesmen 0 2 1 0 3 0 1 4—11
Umpires—Ray Axtell, John Baptist.
Scorer—J. C. Gunnison.
Time—1 hour 10 minutes.

THE INAUGURATION OF FIFTEENTH NATIONAL IRRIGATION CONGRESS

(An address by Jas. T. Taylor, C. E., delegate from Hawaii to the Congress, before the Hawaiian Engineering Association, Nov. 14, 1907.)

There was never a convention that began its session more auspiciously than the Fifteenth National Irrigation Congress, which opened in Sacramento Monday, September the 2nd, 1907.

The gathering of delegates was larger and more representative than that in attendance at any convention of a similar kind ever held on the Pacific Coast. The number of prominent men present and the enthusiasm evinced has never been equaled on any like occasion in the history of California. The Vice-President of the United States, the Governors of six States, a number of Senators and Congressmen, legislators in all departments of the government—Federal, State and municipal—from every section of the country, were in their places when the president's gavel called the convention to order. One of the very notable groups on the floor of the vast convention hall consisted of a number of the most distinguished officials of the departments of the Washington Government, under the auspices of which is conducted the great project of conservation and development of natural resources.

A number of official representatives of foreign governments were on hand to participate in the proceedings of the congress.

In addition to these governmental figures the delegate body included hundreds of men of prominence in every line of human activity from every portion of the United States. No convention ever held in this country has brought together so large a proportion of distinguished men.

The opening function was one of great brilliancy. The vast auditorium, constructed expressly for the occasion, was magnificently decorated with bunting and flags and rare foliage.

Every detail that could add to the pleasure and comfort of the delegates was perfectly worked out. Nothing was omitted. A perfect service was provided to prevent confusion and facilitate the business of the congress, and it resulted in the preservation of the best order and a complete absence of annoyance and delay.

Delegates and visitors were seated without the slightest disorder and when the time fixed for opening the convention arrived, everything was in readiness to proceed.

Promptly at 1:30 p. m. Executive Officer Beard introduced Governor Chamberlain, president of the National Irrigation Congress, who took the chair. After an invocation, the "Irrigation Ode," a superb composition written for the occasion by Mrs. G. McClurg of Colorado, was sung by the Ogden Tabernacle choir of two hundred voices, one of the finest musical organizations in America. The rendition of this masterpiece was a magnificent performance and evoked thunders of applause.

Mayor Beard, in a clever speech of a few minutes' length, welcomed the delegates and visitors to the congress at Sacramento and extended to them the freedom of the city during their stay. He was followed by Governor Gillett, who offered to the city's guests the larger and far-reaching hospitality of the State. He gave them out of hand everything that California possesses, to have and to hold and to enjoy during the time they were within her borders, and said it was such a gift as no other State, and no other Governor, could offer. The Governor's talk won the audience by its heartiness.

Governor Chamberlain responded to these addresses on behalf of the congress. After paying a glowing tribute to the enterprise and hospitality of Californians, Governor Chamberlain said in part:

"The Federal Government has under consideration and construction projects of reclamation in Arizona, California, Colorado, Idaho, Kansas, Montana, Nebraska, Nevada, New Mexico, North Dakota, Oregon, South Dakota, Utah, Washington and Wyoming, covering more than three million acres, much of which is in private ownership and the balance owned by the States and the United States. The work entails the expenditure of vast sums, but the money involved is a mere bagatelle in comparison with the benefits received and to be received in providing homes for thousands and adding millions to the wealth of the Nation.

"In addition to the work now being done under government supervision, contracts have been entered into with private contractors for reclamation of large tracts of land in all the States which have accepted the provisions of the Carey Act. Some of these are making favorable progress; my experience has been, however, that whilst the government moves slowly, the work done by it is more substantial and in the end better, and more lasting results are likely to be attained."

Vice-President Fairbanks was the next speaker, and when he arose he was greeted with a storm of cheers.

Mr. Fairbanks has always been an earnest and influential advocate of all that the congress stands for. He has attended several previous sessions and has always manifested the liveliest interest in the movement and its purposes. He spoke in part as follows:

"The effect of irrigation in this Western country can be appreciated only by those who are familiar with it from personal observation. The change made in the conversion of an arid waste into fruitful fields seems almost incredible. There is no more radical transformation to be found anywhere than in the parched valleys and plains which have been irrigated, and which prior thereto produced nothing but sage brush. The most unproductive land has become the most fertile. From the worst, it takes rank with the best. There are promising fields today where there was no sign of habitation before we entered upon the present reclamation policy, and what has been done is but a part of what we shall accomplish if we faithfully adhere to the policy upon which we have entered and carry it out to the limits of its possibilities.

"We have long since passed the experimental stage, and it only remains to push the work wherever feasible with the utmost vigor.

"The reclamation of every ten or twenty acres of land means the creation of a homestead, which will comfortably support a family of industrious, intelligent and patriotic American citizens.

"The development of irrigation by the National Government must have a profound and far-reaching influence upon the general subject of irrigation throughout the country. It will tend powerfully to the extension of irrigation into portions of the country which have hitherto relied largely upon rainfall in the cultivation and growing of crops. There is no more important subject for the consideration of farmers in many of the humid and semi-humid regions than that of so-called supplemental irrigation. We must prepare more and more for the increased demand upon our food supply which comes with the multiplying millions of our population. Therefore, the development of the subject of irrigation is of interest not only to the farmers of these great Western regions, but to farmers and consumers everywhere.

"We do a substantial and permanent service to our country by enlarging the area into which men and women may come from congested cities and homes for their heads. Let a man own a piece of ground which he may cultivate, put him into partnership with nature, and it will intensify his love of country and make him a more stable, conservative and patriotic citizen.

"Closely related to the subject of irrigation is the work of forestry preservation. The two subjects go hand in hand. We have pursued a somewhat reckless policy with regard to the forests of the United States. In some sections of the country, in fact in almost every section, we have denuded our lands of timber in what now seems to have been almost a wanton fashion. We have thought only of today, having no proper regard for the future. The demand of the country for timber needed to build our railways, construct our cities and homes, has been tremendous. We have cut away our forests and paid no attention to the necessity of taking steps for their ultimate restoration.

"We now see that some of the older countries in their experience have seen that it is necessary to adhere to a rational, scientific forestry system, not only in the interests of our future forests, but in the interests of the important subjects of irrigation and navigation. It is but a truism that if the forests are swept away the rainfall quickly flows into the streams and is washed into the sea, whereas if the trees are properly preserved upon the watersheds the rainfall and melting snows are stored in nature's reservoirs and are gradually fed into the streams for the benefit of both agriculture and navigation.

"We have not fairly begun to appreciate the full value of our streams and rivers. We have not fairly begun to appropriate them to the benefit of our agriculture, industry and commerce. The waters which come down from the sides of these mountains may be converted into electrical power and carried hundreds of miles with but little loss to the initial energy, and appropriated to lighting and heating cities, operating mines and driving the wheels of industry. We have thousands of miles of rivers which may be made navigable with the benefits flowing from their use in carrying commerce. There are thousands of miles of rivers which are navigable in a degree but which should be deepened and improved so as to meet our growing needs.

"It is impossible to give too much emphasis to the importance of this subject. Our rivers are the natural highways of commerce and the growing density of our population and the increase of our production makes it essential that there should be additional facilities to insure cheap and ready transportation. The capacity of the railways of the country is already taxed to the utmost, and the rapid development of traffic makes it necessary that we should largely augment the means of carrying it in the future.

"Moreover, there is no better equalizer of rates than water competition. Water transportation is a perpetual and certain guaranty against monopoly on the part of the common carriers. We are earnestly carrying forward the construction of the Panama Canal, confessedly a work of great importance, not only to our commerce but to the commerce of the world. Important as this matter is, it is not more important than the improvement of navigation upon many of our rivers. The improvement of navigation upon them may well go hand in hand with work upon the great canal. The one is in a very considerable degree the complement of the other. This is a large subject and must be considered in a large way.

"Upon such an occasion as this I would not venture to obtrude politics—nothing could be more inappropriate. The fact is that we have a surfeit of politics. What we need most is more business and less politics. Unless the business affairs of the people are arrested by unwise policies; unless the seeds of distrust are sown among ourselves; unless commercial unrest is encouraged by doctrinaires, we shall continue to expand our industries, and the great West will continue to grow and fulfill her mighty destiny. Can we stand prosperity? We are in the midst of a prosperity the like of which was never before seen. Can we utilize it to our benefit? Can we retain it, or will we distrust each other and involve it all in hopeless confusion? There never was an hour when it was more important that we should be governed by sober judgment. We should sedulously cultivate a tolerant spirit and a spirit of justice toward each other. We should not forget that confidence is the sure foundation of prosperity and progress, and we should have a care that we do not undermine it."

At the conclusion of Mr. Fairbank's address Gifford Pinchot, government forester and personal representative of President Roosevelt at the congress, delivered the following message of the Country's Chief Executive, which came by telegraph:

"I send you hearty greetings, and my earnest wishes for the fullest success of your convention. I congratulate you on the progress of the great movement you represent. There is no movement more emphatically for the benefit of the small farmer and the small ranchman. There is no other way to assist the actual settler and homemaker who owns and tills his own land so powerfully as through this movement of yours for the wise use and preservation of the waters and the forests. The Reclamation Service and the Forest Service are directly adapted to help the small man make and maintain a prosperous home, and they are doing it. These services were recently inspected on the ground by the Secretary of the Interior and the Secretary of Agriculture, who have them in charge, and I congratulate you on the high standards of integrity and efficiency they have attained.

"It is a matter of sincere satisfaction to learn that you will not confine yourselves to questions of irrigation and forestry, nor even to the control, use, and conservation of streams, vastly important as these are to every citizen of the United States. I am glad to know that you will give attention also to that problem of which forestry and irrigation and water conservation form but a part, the fundamental problem of the conservation of all natural resources. The work of the Government along the line of this greater problem cannot be made effective without the approval and support of the whole body of citizens.

"By educating, guiding and crystallizing public sentiment in this direction, by bringing the needs of the people clearly and forcibly to the knowledge of their representatives, you are rendering a service of the first importance to the Nation as a whole.

"THEODORE ROOSEVELT."

Mr. Arthur Briggs and Senator Perkins followed the reading of the President's message with able and interesting addresses, which were cordially received.

Following the addresses of welcome came the responses of Governors and representatives of foreign nations. Governor Albert Mead of Washington extended the thanks of his State for the kind welcome and Governor J. C. Cutler of Utah made a happy address.

As the Chinese Consul-General, Sun Sze Yee, did not speak English fluently, the Vice-Consul spoke for him. Mr. King complimented the congress on the splendid work and declared China to be a pioneer in the work of irrigation. Franz Bopp, the Imperial German Consul-General, spoke as the representative of his country.

Andros Aldasora, sub-secretary of the Mexican Legation at Washington, D. C., was called upon as the representative of the Southern Republic, and made an eloquent address in Spanish.

CONSERVATION DAY—A NOTABLE SESSION OF THE CONGRESS.

The second day of the congress opened quite as auspiciously as the first. The attendance of delegates was large, filling the great auditorium comfortably. The deepest interest was manifested by the audience at the morning and afternoon sessions in the splendid papers and addresses. The enthusiasm of the delegates was kept up to a high pitch by a number of spirited exchanges on the floor of the convention during the progress of both sessions. Mr. Newell's illustrated lecture in the evening was immensely enjoyed by a large and appreciative gathering which included a majority of the leading delegates and prominent visitors. After the brief preliminary business of the meeting was disposed of, Governor Chamberlain, president of the congress, introduced U. S. Senator Francis G. Newlands of Nevada, father of the Reclamation Act and a member of the Inland Waterways Commission.

INLAND WATERWAYS COMMISSION.

Senator Newlands delivered a highly instructive address on the formation of that commission and the purposes of its work. After referring to the appointment of the Inland Waterways Commission by President Roosevelt, Senator Newlands said that the letter of instructions from the President enjoined upon the commission the study of all questions relating to inland waterways, with a view to recommending practical legislation upon the subject. The President's purpose was to undertake now a plan of practical utilization, improvement and development which might in the coming years be worked out comprehensively and successfully. "Whilst the primary purpose of this inquiry is to facilitate water transportation, it is impossible to perfect the machinery of the waterways without taking into consideration the related questions of forest preservation, of irrigation of arid land, of reclamation of swamp land, of bank protection, of clarification of streams, and other kindred questions.

"Whilst these questions are important, the use of these great waterways, lakes and rivers for purposes of transportation of men and of products, is the most important. Every creek, every brook, contributes in some degree to the volume of the river or lake which should serve as a part of the great machinery for transportation, and a thorough and comprehensive plan of artificializing waterways should be adopted, with a view of securing stability of channel. It is impossible to indicate now what the form of legislation should be. Individually, I should say that some plan in which the chiefs of the great scientific services of the country could be brought together in a national board of public works, with power to make comprehensive plans and to work them out gradually, might be the most efficient way.

"The people of the United States are awakening to the necessity of utilizing the national power for the promotion of the general welfare. We nationalized banking and currency because we realized the folly of having as many different financial systems as there were States, the danger of inflation and panic arising from careless and inconsiderate State action. We nationalized irrigation because we saw the futility of subjecting the treatment of the sources, the watersheds and valleys, of streams flowing through several States. We realized that every great river must be as a unit, regardless of the State lines, and that the action of the Union on national lines was therefore essential. We nationalized the quarantine because we realized that the health and safety of the entire Nation might be endangered by the carelessness or indifference of a single State. We are now taking up the question of nationalizing the development of the inland waterways, embracing lakes and rivers and connecting canals, and including all the related questions of forestry, of irrigation, of clarification, of bank protection, of channel opening, as well as navigation; and the South in this latter movement is taking the lead for national action, realizing as it does that the promotion of inter-state and foreign commerce was one of the primary causes of the union of the States as a Nation. Under national incorporation, the questions relating to inland waterways, railway and ocean transportation, will be solved."

At the conclusion of this address, which elicited the closest attention, W. A. Beard read a letter from Secretary of the Interior Garfield regretting his inability to be present, and commending in the strongest terms the work and purposes of the congress. The letter wound up by asking Governor Chamberlain to "express to the congress his appreciation of the assistance it has been to the Reclamation Service."

"Congresses and conferences," added the secretary, "when conducted in a spirit of suggestive criticism, are always helpful. I am confident that the water users, either individually or through their representatives, will always find the officers of the government willing to meet them half way in the discussion and settlement of any questions or differences that may arise."

At this point the secretary of the congress was instructed to wire the following reply to Secretary Garfield: "Sacramento, Cal., Sept. 3, 1907. The Secretary of the Interior, Washington, D. C. Your message to Honorable George E. Chamberlain, President of the Fifteenth National Irrigation Congress, DRAINAGE.

Hon. George E. Barstow of Texas, third Vice President of the congress, spoke on the claims of the National Drainage Association, of which organization he is the president. After extolling the hospitality of California and Sacramento, the speaker made a strong plea for the nationalization of the work of drainage. "Irrigation and deep waterways are related subjects, but why not work also for the drainage of the 80,000,000 acres of swamp lands in the various States from Maine to California? The work is too vast to be carried out on private lines and there is a demand for a national agency to do it and the people everywhere ask that it be done. The work of drainage should be placed under the control of the Reclamation Service. We have a most important precedent for the government's carrying on this work in the example of other countries. Holland, France, Germany and Italy are all doing it. The soundness of the policy of reclaiming the land stands beyond dispute, and there is no reason why drainage of lands should not be carried out."

THE PEOPLE NEED PROTECTION.

From the deplorable exhibition contained in the Advertiser's exposure of the condition of the Hawaiian Realty and Maturity Company, it must be evident that some legislation is needed for the control of all concerns of that nature. It is astounding that any fiduciary institution should be able to prey upon the people, in the manner in which the Maturity stockholders have been plundered, without apparent hindrance from the law of the land or interference by the officers of justice charged with the protection of the public. The condition of things is all the worse from the fact that the victims are largely, if not wholly, of a class illly capable in resources to stand being despoiled and poorly equipped in business capacity for self-protection against marauders.

That the lack of legal safeguards in the matter is but apparent, to some degree, may perhaps be surmised from incidents occurring in this Territory before the Maturity had developed the full measure of its iniquity. There was a get-rich-quick scheme imported two or three years ago from San Francisco, whose manipulator stole away from the Territory at the menace of prosecution after the Advertiser had exposed the character of his enterprise. A local concern, other than the Maturity, also brought a mutual enterprise dealing with realty to an abrupt ending when official investigation had placed it dangerously within the radius of the law's strong arm. Everything, it is now learned, was in readiness to make prosecution follow on the heels of a grand jury investigation in the case of the Maturity itself, but for reasons which may or may not be acceptable to the public the matter was pigeonholed and justice defeated.

Yet, so far as appears, the protection of law which exists only becomes active when actual fraud has been committed. Punishment of the agents of fraud, when it is accomplished, affords no compensation to the victimized. Their only recourse for being recouped lies in the recovery of something from the wreck of the fraudulent concern, which in the case of the Maturity seems to be slim indeed. Such law as there is would appear to be like a locked stable after the horse has been stolen, in so far as the matter of protection to the public is concerned.

What is needed is a general law of control of all concerns having mutual and maturity features and which solicit money in any way for investment. Rigid and frequent inspection and compulsory publicity ought to be among the principal features of such a law. Standard methods of accounting should be prescribed and strictly enforced. The matter of security for every dollar of trust money handled by any concern, incorporated or not, should be covered so thoroughly that there would be no door of escape for the abuser of a trust. Capital stock should be hedged about so impregnably as absolutely to prevent its being looted or in anywise diminished other than through the method provided by statute. No company ought to have its articles of association approved until its incorporators exhibit the actual paid-up capital required, or the evidences of tangible and quickly convertible property representing such, and the evasion of this requirement, through the production of merely "show" money or property evidences, ought to be made a felony with adequate penalties befitting any degree of the crime.

It is to be hoped that Boss Achi and his following will attend Mr. Kent's address on municipal reform tomorrow evening. Indeed, a reservation of pews for them might be arranged. The community would no doubt like to have a look at the camarilla in a body, so that it would know what manner of men are to bear rule over the coming City and County of Honolulu—that is, if the community will have it so. Also those who may be apprehensive of such a malign possibility would like to have Achi and his conductors hear the eminent expounder of the principles of honest and efficient civic government. Peradventure he will give a relation of warning examples from the mainland showing that the nemesis of graft, though mayhap slow, is unerring in pursuit. Such a phase of the discourse might have some wholesome effect upon the professional office-seeking cabal, from whose mental shell the positive tenets of righteousness and wholesome government of, for and by the people would be shed like raindrops from the plumage of a canvasback.

Sheriff Lauka's sentiments on the political situation, printed in this issue, are worthy of being emblazoned in letters of gold and disseminated broadcast over the Territory. They certainly should be placed within the reading of every Hawaiian citizen. The present time demands that every citizen possessed of like ideas should declare himself and dedicate all his energy to maintaining whatever of good government the Territory enjoys, both as a whole and in county affairs, and to the securing of good government for the future. It is a time when all who are to come under the operation of the affairs of the coming City and County of Honolulu must wake up and save the great interests of the municipality from being sacrificed through default of preventive action.

Some Honolulu organizations from time to time, but none of them all the time it would appear, maintain the office of press agent. The one holding it attends to the publishing of notices of meetings and entertainments, and sometimes to the furnishing of reports of events to the press. It would be a welcome thing to the Advertiser, and presumably its contemporaries, if all the local organizations had such an official. There would be much time saved at the telephone if the business mentioned were done by only one member of an organization, instead of having a newspaper office rung up several times a day to request the insertion of a single announcement.

Governor Frear is going to have full swing for the advocacy of the twin causes of the Chamber of Commerce and the Territory before the Trans-Mississippi Congress—namely, the improvement of Pearl Harbor and a visit of the Pacific Squadron to Honolulu. There is no doubt that the Governor will make a comprehensive and convincing argument on both subjects.

A state of affairs with regard to shipments of goods for Honolulu merchants which is positively unbearable has come to pass. The treatment our people are receiving from the company that has gained almost a monopoly of the ocean freighting business of the Territory is apt to stimulate the agitation for domestically owned steamships.

Everybody will agree with the members of the Buckeye Club that the McKinley Memorial pavilion, proposed by the Kilohana Art League, should have no gingerbread work about it. No ephemeral ornamentation of staff or stucco, but enduring concrete or basalt rock for the memorial arch, is the idea.

MUNICIPAL REFORM LEADER.

(Communicated.)

College men in particular and patriotic citizens in general throughout the city are on the qui vive over the announcement that Mr. William Kent of Chicago is to be heard in public before he returns on the Korea next Friday. He is a man of such wide interests that he appeals to all sorts of men, especially to those who love adventure. This feature of daring has characterized all his activities whether with fighting cowboys and sheep herders on the grazing lands, that formed so picturesque a chapter of life in the West a decade ago, or with grafting politicians in the fierce knock down fights of Chicago municipal contests. Get Mr. Kent to enter upon these experiences and he is most entertaining.

It is hoped that he will open a chapter of what he has known in his battle for clean politics, when he speaks tomorrow evening. The story of what had to be done to redeem Chicago and how it was accomplished is what Honolulu people want to hear. It will vastly strengthen the hands of those who are ready to fight for good government here to get into touch with their compatriots in Chicago through such a virile representative as Mr. Kent. The indications are that the seating capacity of Central Union church will be taxed by the number of men who intend to accept the invitation of the Civic Federation to be present at its good government rally. The women of the College Club who are studying the question of city charters also mean to be on hand in a body.

PUBLIC WORKS GO TO THE BASEMENT

In accordance with a resolution of the last Legislature calling for the room now occupied by the Department of Public Works for a Senate chamber plans are being made and preparations carried forward for the removal of the Department of Public Works to the basement of the Capitol. The department will occupy the Ewa half of the basement, the rooms formerly occupied by the water office and by the Assistant Superintendent of Public Works, when there was one, and by the draftsmen of the department.

PUPILS PLANTED TREES YESTERDAY

The third Arbor day celebration in this Territory was that of yesterday. The day is being observed this year in all the schools of the Territory, though owing to the fact that in schools it was understood that the first Friday instead of the third Friday in November was the day, some schools celebrated the day two weeks ago.

The prizes that were awarded last year are handed down this year from one grade to the next or where the prize was considered a prize of the school it is still so held. Trees are being planted at every school house in the Islands. The trees have been supplied either directly by the government nursery or through the Board of Education.

Superintendent Babbitt says that the influence and sentiment of Arbor day is effective throughout the Territory and has proved most excellent. It has developed a splendid spirit among the pupils and every school yard in the Territory shows the effects of this spirit.

In Honolulu there were observances appropriate for the day at nearly every school, and at some of them there were quite elaborate ceremonies. Among those where much was made of the day was the High School, the Kaahumanu School and the Kailani School.

iff, and certainly I am not going to allow myself to be put in nomination for any office on any ticket on which he appears.

"I have not the least doubt that I have made an enemy of Achi in refusing to appoint on the police force men recommended by him, because I did not think they were the class of men I wanted to have around me. I do not doubt that I have made enemies in my own party by refusing to put on the force the men in that party who are office-chasers and from whom I could not expect efficient work. My one endeavor has been so to conduct police affairs that when I leave this office it will be with a clean and honorable record. I will not, so far as I am able, keep one man on the force who is a grafter or who is even suspected of being one, and I have appointed men only whom I believe to be both honest and capable, not the heelers of Achi or anyone else.

"In so far as anyone thinking that I would approve of any plot to have Hustace voted out of the chairmanship of the Supervisors, I wish to say that I would be very sorry to see any such motion carry. In spite of the fact that there has been friction between Hustace and myself when I thought he was interfering in my department, personally I have never questioned the honest intentions of Hustace nor the value of having an experienced business man such as he is at the head of the board. Without disparaging in any way any of the other Supervisors, I think that Hustace is the best man in the board for chairman.

TIME TO DROP PARTY LINES.

"In the whole matter of local politics I think the time has come when good citizens should disregard party lines for the time being and unite in seeing that good men are nominated and elected to all our offices. I talked with the Delegate today on this same matter and he was in thorough accord. It is time that those who are in politics simply for what is in it should be set aside in the interest of good and honest government. Within the week I talked with W. A. Kinney and he also favored such action. Political spoilsmen and heelers should not have the sway they have in the direction of our public affairs and they would not if those who want good government would combine to elect good men.

"Speaking as a Hawaiian, I must say that I am opposed to the placing in positions of trust of Hawaiians who have already proved that they are not trustworthy, men who have had their day and proved unworthy of confidence. There is now, I regret very much to say, a feeling that Hawaiians are not capable of holding positions of trust, and how can we remove this feeling if those Hawaiians who have already proved faithless be the ones now selected for office? In this country there is a desire to have Hawaiians in office. The whites have shown that desire, but what support can we as Hawaiians consistently ask from the whites if our nominees and appointees are such as some of those who have been talked about?"

ACHI BACK OF BROWN.

It is expected now that the matter of the back pay of Prosecuting Attorney A. M. Brown will be discussed on Tuesday night, with the possibility of the Supervisors allowing it. In connection with the Brown appointment and his ultimate confirmation by the Supervisors, it is being stated that Achi pulled the strings, his idea being that Brown would in turn throw his political strength to Achi. Whether there is any such agreement between Brown and the Boss can not be learned to any degree of definiteness, but it is said that at any rate Brown does not propose to use for himself any political strength he may have left. Politically he is pau for the present so far as running for office is concerned.

WEIGHING MAIL OF THE UNION

Will Cost $1,500,000 --- The Chance of Padding is Slight.

(Mail Special to the Advertiser.)

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 31.—It costs $533,000 to weigh eight States of this glorious Union. That is the word of Postmaster General Meyer, who has watched the proceeding. The figures, which have just been brought to him,
are compiled from operations of 105 days during which postal clerks and special employees in Indiana, Illinois, Iowa, Ohio, Michigan, Missouri, and Wisconsin have been determining the average amount of mail transported daily over railroad lines.

It will cost about $1,500,000 to weigh the whole country and the whole country, according to law, must be weighed in quarter sections in the course of every four years. It costs twice as much to weigh the big and expensive granger states as it does to weigh some other quarter sections, notably the South where the scales will be set up in all postal cars sometime next spring.

"Nothing could be more erroneous,"
said the Postmaster General today,
"than statements one still hears occasionally, that the mails are heavily padded at weighing time. Every possible safeguard is taken to prevent it.
There are special employees on every train where the weighing is in progress and they have instructions to report immediately to the department any development that seems suspicious.
Most of these special employees are men who have applied for positions as railway postal clerks and are on the waiting list. They therefore have an additional incentive to perform their full duty."

"The cost of the weighing is a considerable item for the government, as these figures I now have at hand show. The advantage is in one particular with the Postoffice Department, as the contracts are awarded for a four year period on the basis of the weighing. In that time, of course, there is generally quite an increase in the volume of mail carried, it being the result of the normal growth of the postal service."

Mr. Meyer gave very careful attention last spring to the plans for the weighing, which began in February and was not concluded till early June.
Detailed regulations were issued with a view to eliminate any unfair advantage for the railroads, to whom, for mail transportation all over the country, the government makes an annual payment of something like $50,000,000.

The large sums thus paid have led to wide criticism and it is generally conceded that in the disbursement of this transportation fund there has been much scandal. The Postmaster General is studying the matter of cost, as is the second assistant, Mr. McCleary, who has the transportation of mails under immediate supervision. It is Mr. Meyer's idea that probably the mail transportation contracts could be awarded more equitably on the space basis but he is awaiting the reports from very comprehensive investigations that have been in progress for six months before announcing any positive conclusions.

"We can not compare the cost of carrying mails here with the cost in France," said he today, when his attention was called to the fact that the French railroads carry mails for almost nothing. "Most of the French railroads are government owned and any payments for mail service are a transfer of money from one pocket to another. It is simply a matter of bookkeeping."

The investigations for determining what the United States ought to pay the railroads for mail service are probably the most thorough and comprehensive ever conducted by the postoffice department of any nation. For six months every ounce of mail originating in every postoffice has been weighed in the aggregate and by classes and the records are now pouring into the department. That weighing has been entirely distinct from the weighing on the railroads in what is called the third contract section, which includes the big states up and down the Mississippi valley. During thirty days of October there has been a special investigation in 311 selected offices to obtain some statistics on the average haul of mail. In this investigation, in other words, note has been made of the distance to the state of its destination of every piece of mail.
These figures will demonstrate also the average load of a postal car.

For seven days during the middle of October reports were required on the receipts for each class of mail in each postoffice in the United States and the average revenue derived from each piece of mail.

When the data is all in hand, which will be before long, the compensation for transportation will be one of the postal questions to be taken up for adjustment. Apparently there must be some reform, because it is believed the railroads have been receiving too much money for the service they perform.
Some claim the railroads should furnish the service at small cost, if not gratis, but that idea is not considered seriously at the department. There probably is no justification for paying a railroad many times as much for carrying mail than is charged express companies—which is a favorite comparison. Mr. McCleary pointed out today a sharp difference between the character of material that passes through the mails and that handled by express companies.

"Between storage mail," said he,
"and express matter, there is a closer comparison, but the postal cars we rent from the railroads are used as traveling postoffices. I suppose one of

DROGGED DOWN BY DESPAIR

Hundreds of Others in the Same Plight.

Mrs. John H. Cole, of 32 Arlington street, South Framingham, Mass., was for years a martyr to kidney trouble, but at last found a cure in Doan's Backache Kidney Pills. She writes:

"I suffered greatly with periodical headache, terrible bearing-down pains and a whole train of minor symptoms.
My back was always weak and the kidneys terribly disordered. I could not rest at night and in the morning would get up feeling ill, tired, and discouraged, and without the least ambition to go about my household duties.
If I sat down I felt as though I never wanted to get up again; I grew thin and haggard and developed deep circles beneath my eyes. My appetite grew less and less as the days went by until at last I did not eat enough to keep a child alive."

"During all this time I was doctoring and dosing myself with first one remedy and then another until my stomach fairly rebelled. I called in a doctor but soon saw that he did not understand my case. Well, you may believe I was in despair for I had come to that state where I did not care what happened, when a friend told me what a fine remedy and cure for kidney disease Doan's Backache Kidney Pills were. I bought a box and before I had taken all of it I felt much better, my back felt stronger and I rested much easier at night and was not troubled with nightmares and fits of wakefulness as formerly. After that first box was gone I bought another and still another, each one helping me and making me stronger and better, until I had taken twelve boxes. By that time not a vestige of my old trouble remained and it is the greatest pleasure to my life to say that Doan's Backache Kidney Pills saved me from an early breakdown."

Doan's Backache Kidney Pills are for sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents per box, six boxes for $2.50, or mailed on receipt of price by the Hollister Drug Co., Ltd., Honolulu, wholesale agents for the Hawaiian Islands.

AN EVEN DOZEN IN CHAIN GANG

Captive Planters to Be Shown
How Cain Is Raised Upon
Hot Sand.

The sentence of the potentate is about to be carried out upon twelve victims captured in the last foray of the Arab Patrol. Today, as the sun reaches that point in its great arc, three times thirty minutes past the meridian, the ten shrieking prisoners will be given the ordeal. Glory be to those who may survive, and for them the rights and privileges of the Mystic Shrine. Oblivion to all who fall, a nameless grave in the red hot sands and a gunny sack of quicklime.

An even dozen novitiates will take the pledge, assume the veil and don the fez, unless they falter by the wayside and succumb to the strain. They are J. T. Moir, William McKay, H. H. Ren-ton, W. T. Robinson, Captain H. G. Pierce, Captain W. A. Clark, Frank Hatch, R. H. Trent, A. Blom, E. Mun-roe, James Laird and John Ross, the latter two being recent captures, the victims of a raid on the Sugar Planters' Association. The chain gang, chanting their swan song, will be exhibited in the course of a parade beginning at the corner of Fort and Beretania, down Fort to King, to the Capitol, back along Hotel street to Alakea, thence to the hall by way of Beretania, starting out escorted at half past one.

It is being whispered about that Fred. C. Smith, general passenger agent of the Oahu railway, will pass a female rock for the occasion.

A short exhibition drill of the Arab Patrol will be given at Palace Square.

The Shriners feel that they need the exercise and will have it this way. They feel that the husky dozen, the candidates, need stimulating and they will see that they get it. In the general order issued to the Nobility of Aloha Temple and the Nobles of the Shrine sojourning within the Desert of Hawaii, it is proclaimed by Recorder C. F. Murray and commanded by Potentate M. Phillips, as follows:

"Whereas, Our Patrol have become lazy and need limbering up, more especially since they returned from the Oasis of Los Angeles; and

"Whereas, Our camels, cages, wagons and other implements of torture have been overhauled and are in perfect running order; and

"Whereas, It is time to get busy, so it is decreed that on this date at 1:30 p. m. you will assemble for parade so that we can open our newly-fitted temple with unusual ceremonies, for its housewarming, at 3 p. m. sharp.

"The audience will not trespass on the actors, nor encroach on the menagerie, for you will want to keep both eyes open all the time, and as all will want to see the show, it will be best to keep your seats. Heed my words!

"THE POTENTATE."

"CANDIDATES ARE REQUESTED—"

"Not to hold confidential communications with the Nobles concerning the work."

"Not to take a Noble's word for anything during the session."

"Not to expect to be let off easy."

"Not to play the baby act, nor invalid's role."

"Not to be surprised at what may occur."

"Not to take anything for granted."

"Not to care what happens."

"Not to get angry when kicked."

"Not to kick when they get angry."

"Not to let go of the rope."

"Not to refuse obedience to orders."

"Not to try to be funny."

"Not to expect to go home until after it is out."

The general order also contains the following for the benefit of the "dearly beloved novices":

"During this pilgrimage to Mecca you will be under the immediate guidance of our Director Noble C. G. Bartlett, who is your friend. Should our Patrol slight you in any way, report such infraction to him, as he is the only one to hear your complaints. Many a grievance is straightened out by a slight kick, but remember to talk aloud, as he is deaf in one ear and hard of hearing in the other. Come with a sunny disposition, a full sense of humor and a due appreciation for the ridiculous. There will be plenty of entertainment furnished—for others—at various wells by the wayside. Like Billy Hoogs, you may not see the funny side until you witness the next ceremonial. Wear anything you wish, but wear nothing you wish to wear again. Our camels, who have been in summer quarters, are somewhat fractious, so we do not hold ourselves responsible for accidents by the way, so see that you have accident policies, as they are very convenient to have when taking the Shrine degrees. Don't show a greedy disposition by always wanting a front seat. You will secure what is coming to you in time. Don't get gay, as such dispositions show a lack of the use of Mother's dear old slipper that may have to be corrected. The Patrol—who, by the way, are also your friends—will attend to your wants in a spirit of brotherly love and kindness that you will never forget. Remember throughout this journey, as through life, that pride goeth before a fall and that all elevated positions in life of whatever kind are places of danger, and, lastly, children of the prophet, under all circumstances,

"HANG ON TO THE ROPE."

Country Doctor—That's the worst case of wry neck I ever see. Peleg. How'd you get it? Peleg—Drivin' that new mare o' mine an' everlastin' lookin' behind t' see if an auto wuz comin'—Puck.

IN THE DISTRICT COURT OF THE UNITED STATES FOR THE TERRITORY OF HAWAII.

Whereas, A libel was filed in the District Court of the United States for the Territory of Hawaii on the 13th day of November, A. D. 1907, by Y. Kanja, M. Takashita, T. Marutani, H. Iwasaki and G. Ujia, versus the American schooner Luka, her tackle, apparel, boats, furniture and appurtenances, and against all other persons intervening for their interests therein, respondents, in a cause of libel in rem, civil and maritime, to recover the sum of $339.57, interest, costs and expenses, as by said libel, reference being hereby made thereto, will more fully and at large appear.

Now, therefore, in pursuance of the motion and under the seal of the court to me directed and delivered, I do hereby give public notice to the American schooner Luka and all other persons claiming the said American schooner Luka, her tackle, apparel, boats, furniture and appurtenances, or in any manner interested therein, that they be and appear before the said District Court, to be held in the city of Honolulu, on Friday, the 22nd day of November, A. D. 1907, at ten o'clock in the forenoon of that day, provided the same shall be a day of jurisdiction; otherwise on the next day of jurisdiction thereafter, there and then to inter Castle & Cooke, Limited, the local agents for the Matson Navigation Company, announce that, owing to the fact that, under her present schedule, the S. S. Hilonian will not arrive at Honolulu until the day after Christmas on her December trip, they have made arrangements to have the S. S. Enterprise, at present operating in the Hilo service of the company, call at Honolulu on her December trip to Hilo, leaving San Francisco on December 19 and arriving at Honolulu on December 19.

This action was taken to accommodate the many patrons of the company, as, at this season of the year, most of all the merchants receive consignments of goods intended for what is known as the "Christmas trade," and it is generally desirable to receive the shipments some few days before Christmas, that they may be offered for sale to the Christmas trade.

This action on the part of the Matson Navigation Co. and their local agents, Castle & Cooke, Ltd., will undoubtedly be appreciated by the merchants and shippers of Honolulu.

MONGOLIA SAILS TODAY.

P. M. S. S. Mongolia sails today from San Francisco to resume her run to and from the Orient. She is expected here on Friday next. Fourteen months ago she went on the Midway reef and upon reaching San Francisco, via this port, was temporarily repaired, making two round trips before going on the drydock. She is now off the drydock. Her repairs cost $300,000. Captain Hathaway comes in command of the Mongolia. William Fisher will be first officer, A. E. Rennie, purser, with G. A. Hodson as his assistant and W. Hawes as chief steward.

A Hawaiian workman on the new Alakea street wharf yesterday morning thought he saw a body floating near the piles and, with a penknife in his hand, with which he had been whittling, he jumped overboard to bring the supposed corpse ashore. He discovered that he had dived after a shark. The big fish went for him, but the Hawaiian so pluckily wielded his small knife that the shark quit.

NO DELAY IN START.

It is denied that the repair work on the Connecticut will delay the battleship fleet in its start for the Pacific.

The situation at the Pacific Coast Naval stations and yards is such that some means must be found to secure additional skilled mechanics, for there is insufficient labor to repair the battleship fleet; there is even not a large enough force to keep up with demands for repairs to ships already on the Pacific Coast.

SHIPPING NOTES.

Steamer Maui yesterday morning at 8:30 o'clock arrived from Kawaihae.

with 75 head of cattle, 25 bales of leaf tobacco and a lot of miscellaneous freight.

Steamer Kinau will arrive from Hilo and way ports about 8 o'clock this morning.

O. & O. S. S. Asia, Captain Gaukroger, sailed for China and Japan ports and Manila at 2 p. m. yesterday.

The transport Buford, en route to Guam and the Philippines, is carrying $1,800,000 in treasure and 4000 tons of Army supplies.

Matson Navigation S. S. Enterprise will make a special trip to Honolulu on the next run from the Coast, arriving here on December 19, with a large cargo of Christmas freight. After discharging Honolulu goods she will go to Hilo to complete unloading.

Reinsurance on the American ship Arthur Sewall, 226 days out of Philadelphia for Seattle, is now sixty percent. She was not sighted on November 2, as reported in the S. F. Call. The Erskine M. Phelps, a sister ship, was mistaken for the Sewall which is now believed to have been lost.

VANCOUVER JAPS IN BAD PLIGHT

The Hawaii Shinpo publishes the following letter from its special correspondent in Vancouver. The statement that the Canadian Government has canceled its order refusing admission to Japanese unprovided with passports for Canada direct, and the frank admission that most of the Japanese sought Vancouver in order to slip across the line, are interesting. The Shinpo correspondent says:

"The man who agitated the trouble here is now in the insane asylum, being adjudged insane. The Canadian Government has been very vigorous in suppressing the riotous spirit and an act was passed fixing the sentence at seven years' imprisonment for such agitators, and although there is some little such spirit yet prevailing, yet there is no fear of it breaking out again as it did. The Canadian Government had also announced that it will not admit any Japanese not having a passport from the Japanese Government for Canada. The Japanese Consulate has protested against the order of the Canadian Government regarding this and it has been canceled, instructions having been sent to that effect to the immigration officials."

"During last year a large amount of capital was invested in different industries near the cities of Vancouver and Seattle and an overproduction resulted. As a consequence the price of lumber has gone down and many Japanese have been discharged from the lumber mills, about eight hundred being out of employment here. The business depression is more keenly felt now than at any time recently. The future of these laborers is in doubt. When good times prevailed they were getting $1.60 a day, now the pay is only $1.25, and while the work may be easier than in the cane fields of Hawaii, yet, as most came here with the object of entering the United States and not because of the vigilance of the American officials, the future prospect is worse than if they had stayed in Hawaii. At present Mr. King, of the Department of Labor, is investigating the damages and other matters in connection with the riot, but as Minister of Labor Lemieux is now in Japan, it is probable that the Japanese labor problem will be solved in Tokyo in the near future to some extent."

told them he had been indicted for an act alleged to have been committed February 12, which he said, to them was the day he was at their house, and that they thus remembered and fixed the date.

The other point on which Judge Perry dwelt was the alibi for Amia Lillii, which was based on the testimony of two women who say she was at the house of one of them, distant from the defendant's house, for some of the hours during which it is alleged she was at the house of the defendant. One of these witnesses fixed the day by reason of the fact that her husband is a Chinaman, and that this was Chinese New Year's, and the other by reason of the fact that it was the day before her child, born February 6, was blessed by the Mormon elders, which was the thirteenth.

This evidence, Judge Perry claimed, established an alibi for both the man and the woman.

J. J. Dunne for the government pointed out the weak places, as he viewed them, in these alibis, and urged the overwhelming evidence of other witnesses, and what he claimed was the evidence of error and falsehood on the part of the witnesses testifying in behalf of the defense.

The jury stood for a long time nine to three in favor of conviction but finally the three were won over, and the jury was unanimous.

In Judge Dole's charge to the jury there was very much that was interesting aside from its relation to the case at bar. He began by saying:

"It is not a pleasant task to try charges under the Edmunds Act. The United States Government has adopted the policy of prosecuting crimes against the marriage status and other offenses under the act, which are carried on conspicuously, and it is the duty of the court, of which the jury is an important part, to try such cases as carefully as any other, and fairly to both sides. The following are the general rules which guide the actions of juries in weighing evidence in all cases."

He then gave some of the leading principles of law applicable, defining reasonable doubt, direct and circumstantial evidence, and the necessity of proving every material fact essential to the complete chain of facts to establish guilt, beyond a reasonable doubt.

Continuing, Judge Dole said:

"Subject to these rules I instruct you specifically as follows:

"This is a charge of adultery against the defendant, and in order to find a verdict of guilty against him it must be shown to your satisfaction, beyond a reasonable doubt, that the defendant Kekauoha was previously married to another woman, and that such marriage continued up to the time of the charge of adultery, and that no divorce from that marriage had taken place, and unless it affirmatively appears from the evidence in this case that such divorce has in fact taken place, you are to consider such marriage as actually continuing up to the time of the charge of adultery. Secondly, it must be shown that the defendant has had sexual intercourse with Amia Lillii at the time charged. In regard to the proof of such sexual intercourse it is very rarely that the act of adultery or illicit sexual intercourse can be testified to by eyewitnesses. It is more usually proved by circumstances.

"You may, in deciding this case, properly exercise your own judgment and apply your own judgment and experience in regard to the general subject of inquiry. In construing and applying testimony you may make reasonable inferences and deductions; it is proper for you to apply to the facts proved your general knowledge as intelligent men; you should test the truth and weight of evidence, and what it proves, by your knowledge and judgment derived from experience, observation and reflection, and it is competent for you to use your knowledge of human nature and of the customs of society, in your efforts to interpret conduct and judge of its indications.

"The law does not require demonstration; no human testimony is superior to possible doubt, and all that is required is that the testimony convince you, as reasonable men, to a moral certainty and beyond a reasonable doubt, that the defendant committed the acts charged in this indictment. If the testimony does so convince you, then I charge you that it is your duty to convict accordingly.

"Testimony has been given in this case of circumstances which took place at different times previous to the time of the offense charged, tending to show illicit relations between the defendant and Amia Lillii at such times. The presumption of law in such cases is, that if a man and a woman show by their conduct toward each other that they have a lustful passion which is mutual and which is so pronounced that it may be called an adulterous inclination toward each other, they are likely to gratify such passion whenever they have an opportunity.

"The character of illicit sexual passion is different from honorable sexual passion in this way: where two lovers seek each other's society with a view to marriage, there usually exists both the physical attraction and the higher spiritual affinity, both of which influences tend to bring them into very intimate relationship and eager anticipations of the consummation of their desire for each other by marriage, by which they intend to assume all the responsibilities belonging legitimately to such a relation; whereas the man and woman who are attracted to each other by sexual passion, but who, either because of obstacles like marriage relations between one or both of them and other persons, or because their attraction is merely physical, assume sexual relations lightly without the moral and legal responsibilities which they should assume, violate both the law and the principles of morality, and the latter because of this absence of responsibility. Sexual passion between a man and woman once developed is likely, but not sure, to continue.

"The indictment charges that the act of adultery therein said to have been committed by the defendant and Amia was committed on February 12, 1907, and the ultimate question before you is whether or not the evidence satisfies you beyond a reasonable doubt that such offense was committed by those parties on that day. Evidence has indeed been adduced at this trial for the purpose of showing the commission of other acts of adultery by these same parties on various occasions prior to February 12, 1907, but, as I said to you briefly when such evidence was being admitted, it was admitted and is before you now solely on the issue of whether or not prior to February 12, 1907, an adulterous disposition existed on the part of the defendant and Amia towards each other, and such evidence is proper to be considered by you on that issue, but, nevertheless, before you can convict the defendant you must find that the prosecution has proved beyond a reasonable doubt that on February 12, 1907, the act in question was committed; therefore, even if you find from the evidence, and whether or not you do so find is for you alone to determine, that prior to February 12, 1907, the defendant and Amia did on one or more occasions commit adultery, still, if upon all the evidence you are not satisfied beyond a reasonable doubt that they committed adultery on February 12, 1907, you must find the defendant not guilty.

"Evidence has been introduced by the defendant tending to show that on the evening of February 12, 1907, the defendant and Amia were not at the place where the adultery charged is alleged to have been committed. This defense is what is called an alibi. While it is the law that the burden of proving an alibi is upon the defendant, still it is also the law that he need not prove it beyond a reasonable doubt, nor even by a preponderance of the evidence, and if, after considering the evidence on the subject of an alibi, and also all the other evidence in the case, you have a reasonable doubt that on February 12, 1907, the defendant and Amia did commit adultery, then you must find him not guilty. If, however, you should find that an attempt has been made to prove an alibi by false or fabricated testimony, that would be a circumstance for you to take into consideration in weighing the evidence supporting the alibi."

COLBURN CLAIMS SOME HOLT LANDTwo Petitions Filed By John F. Colburn in Circuit Court.

In the matter of the estate of R. W. Holt, deceased, which has been in the courts in one form or another for fifty years, two petitions were filed yesterday by John F. Colburn. In the first petition he alleges that he has become the owner of the interests and rights in the estate of John Dominis Holt and of James Robinson Holt. He therefore asks that there be awarded and distributed to him as trustee, an undivided two-sixths interest in certain property of the estate which he describes.

In a second petition he makes the same allegations of ownership by conveyances of the rights and interests of John Dominis Holt and James Robinson Holt, and asks that his interest in certain other property which he describes be set out to him upon his returning to the estate within a reasonable time $9713.32. It is stated that this petition does not waive his right of appeal from the denial of the other.

SHE NEEDS THE MONEY.

Rienne Rodanet as trustee under the deed of Alfred A. Todd, yesterday filed her accounts and her petition asking permission to sell land in Kona for $15,000 and 250 paid up shares of the Kona Vineyards Company of the par value of $20. The estate, she says is indebted to her for money advanced to keep it intact and for the support and education of the minor children, something over six thousand dollars. She says she needs the money and therefore wants permission to sell this property and repay what she has advanced.

THE LOWRIE CASE.

Judge Silliman occupied the whole of yesterday in argument before Judge Robinson in the Lowrie case. In reply to the claim of the defendants that Lowrie's alleged contract with them was void as against public policy, he cited cases in which it was held that where the defendant still retained the benefit of such a contract he was estopped from setting up the illegality of the contract, even admitting that the contract in the present case was illegal against public policy.

MANDATE FROM WASHINGTON.

A mandate was received from the Supreme Court of the United States yesterday by the Supreme Court of the Territory of Hawaii, dismissing the writ of error in accordance with the stipulation of counsel in the case of Frank Godfrey, trustees vs. Helen Rowland. This is the formal conclusion on the record of the long litigated differences between the parties regarding land claimed by both and by decision of court awarded to Godfrey as trustee.

LOVERS THROW LAMPS IN FURY

Manuel Silva in police court yesterday was accused of assaulting a lady friend who stated that she had found him with other women who were kissing him. One of the osculators threw a chair at the intruder and Manuel assisted in the reception by projecting a lamp in her direction. Manuel showed the court an eye which was discolored and stated that his former love had thrown a lamp at him with such force that she fractured the lamp; he was but returning the compliment when he flung a lamp at her. Incidentally he exhibited a scar on his breast, saying the woman had in her fury bitten him. It was the opinion of the court that the mix-up had been a free-for-all and Manuel was allowed to go unpunished.

Dora Lancaster and Mary Nahoo-lewa, candidates for trouble most of the time, were charged with vagrancy. Dora pleaded not guilty and her case was deferred. Mary admitted the facts and was sent to jail for thirty days. Mrs. E. K. Van Giesen was reprimanded for using harsh language and for assaulting her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Margaret Van Giesen.

A MUCH CONGRATULATED PAPER.

To have served its country and the public in general with disinterestedness and zeal for sixty-one years, to have behind it a record of stability and integrity reaching back to the early childhood of many of its oldest readers, this is an honor not possessed by many newspapers today, but is due to the Montreal "Witness," published by Messrs. John Dougall & Son, Montreal.

It must indeed be a source of gratification to the proprietors of this paper (which has been in the hands of the same family for the entire sixty-one years), that all through the past years its mails have been filled with letters from all classes and conditions from the Atlantic to the Pacific testifying most heartily to their high regard for the "Witness" and their admiration for its staunch adherence under all circumstances to the principles for which it has always stood.

Premiers, Judges, Lawyers, Financiers, Ministers of the Gospel of all denominations, have expressed their views frankly in letters that have been published in the "Witness" and have been seen and read, and more than that, endorsed by many thousands throughout the Dominion. A large number of people in the adjoining republic and Great Britain and many of the finest men and women today are proud to boast:

"I was brought up on the 'Witness.'" As a sample of the congratulations received by the "Witness" during the past year, we give two that we noticed particularly reproduced in its columns. They need no introduction or comment from us:

"The Premier, the Hon. Sir Wilfrid Laurier, wrote: 'Personally, it has always been a source of high gratification to me when you have found it consistent with your own conception of public duty to support me in the different subjects of public policy with which I have to deal.'

"On the other hand, whenever you differed from me, and thought me in the wrong, your criticisms derived all the greater force from my intimate conviction that they were inspired by that same sense of public duty."

Mr. R. L. Borden, K. C., M. P., the leader of the Opposition in the House of Commons, Ottawa, wrote: "The responsibilities of a public journal are not less than those of a public man. In fulfilling these, the 'Witness' has manifested, in an eminent degree, the qualities of courage and sincerity. Moreover, it has always aimed to uphold the standard of journalism in this country."

The "Witness" (Daily and Weekly) gives all the news that is worthy the attention of the average reader."

The "Witness" editorial pages are acknowledged by its readers on all sides to be both fair and forceful.

The "Witness" Financial Review and Market and Stock Reports are known throughout the Dominion for their reliability.

Other interesting departments, such as Literary Review, Legal, Medical, and General Queries; Boys' Page; Home Department; Agricultural Departments, etc., etc., are ably conducted by specialists at a large expense, offering a most valuable privilege to "Witness" readers.

One makes no mistake when, in addition to his local paper, he subscribes for the "Montreal Witness," published by Messrs. Dougall & Son. Indeed, such a step places him at once in line with the best and ablest in the Dominion.

The "Weekly Witness and Canadian Homestead" is only one dollar a year. The "Daily Witness" is three dollars. Postage, extra, Weekly $1, Daily $3.

Yesterday was the last day for the payment of taxes without the ten per cent. penalty.

It may be that the Hilonian will be fitted with wireless apparatus while in San Francisco on this trip.

Treasurer Campbell is expected either on the Alameda, on November 22, or on the Mongolia, on the 23rd.

It is said that objection is made to the shape of the lots, and to the terms on which they are offered, of the summer lots near the Volcano House.

Ed. Politz, the broker, says that nothing has been settled on in the deal by which it is proposed to merge Kihel in Hawaiian Commercial & Sugar Co.

Acting Governor Mott-Smith, as Secretary of the Territory, was occupied much of yesterday with matters connected with certificates of Hawaiian birth.

Dr. C. B. Wood left by the Iwalani last night for Kauai to testify as an expert in the Enoke Lovell manslaughter case. He expects to return Sunday morning.

Dr. Cofer, for several years in charge of the quarantine service in these islands, has been ordered to Seattle to take charge of the quarantine service there, plague being reported there.

In the way of pleasure, nothing is more enjoyable than to attend a good dance. Olive Branch Rebekah Lodge, I. O. O. F., will give a dance that will be worth attending on the 27th at the Young. Secure your ticket now from any of the members.

There will be a ceremonial session of Aloha Temple, Mystic Shrine, on Saturday, November 16. Nobles will meet at K. of P. Hall, corner Fort and Beretania avenue, at 1:30 p. m. for parade. Dress suit and fez. Visiting nobles are cordially invited to the session and banquet. Arab Patrol and candidates will assemble at Masonic Temple at 1:30 p. m.

Rev. John W. Wadman, superintendent of Hawaiian missions of the Methodist Episcopal church, is no longer residing in the Methodist parsonage, but at 1725 Thurston avenue, and his phone is 1351. He may also be found in the Korean compound, Punchbowl street, near Beretania avenue, every day from 10 a. m. to 12 noon; phone 1203. Rev. David W. Crane resides in the parsonage and his phone is 1353. This is a new number and Dr. Crane's name does not appear in the phone directory.

CLEANING THE TOWN.

Chief Taylor has caused to leave the city several of a gang of Spanish toughs, stokers and oilers by profession, persuading them to get out on steamers rather than run the risk of landing in the penitentiary. There are a couple more in town who are being watched and who have been advised to get out if they value their liberty.

ANOTHER CAR TUMBLER.

A young Japanese woman at 9:34 o'clock last night jumped off Car 23 on Liliha street, going up, as it was crossing school street and slowing down for the switch. She sustained a contusion of the head and considerable shock and is now in the Queen's Hospital.

An old Georgia negro having told the judge that he had "been in three wars," was asked to name them, when he replied: "I wuz a cook in de Confederat war, an' after freedom broke out I wuz married two times!"

THANKSGIVING DAY UNION SERVICES

The Ministerial Union has arranged a general thanksgiving service for Thursday morning, Nov. 28, at 11 o'clock, to be held in Central Union church auditorium.

Acting Governor Mott-Smith will attend and read the proclamation. Rev. H. H. Parker will deliver the discourse and the several members of the Union as well as representatives of the Episcopal church will take part in the service.

The music will be under the direction of Mr. Livingston, who will lead a chorus choir made up from the various churches of the city.

An invitation is extended to all churches and people to join in these anniversary day exercises.

A freewill offering will be received and divided between the Leahi Home and the Japanese and Chinese hospitals for the maintenance of their charitable work.

BUCKEYES WANT NO GINGERBREAD EDIFICE

There not being a quorum present the Buckeye Club, at its meeting held at the residence of C. H. Dickey last night, did not formally pass upon any matter of business.

Nevertheless, it was the unanimous opinion of those present that the club should approve the Kilohana Art League's plan of converting the disused market into a McKinley Memorial building—provided, with great emphasis, that a sufficient sum of money can be raised to make it a substantial and dignified memorial. "Nothing gingerbread about it," they all said.

THE HART PROPERTY.

There was filed yesterday with Registrar Merriam for record, the affidavit of Annie S. HAWAII GIVEN FRONT POSITION

Governor Frear Has a Special Place Assigned Him at Muskogee.

Governor Frear will be treated like a lord at Muskogee, Oklahoma, on the occasion of his attendance at the eighteenth annual session of the Trans-Mississippi Congress, Nov. 19 to 22 inclusive. Secretary Wood has received the following letter:

"Muskogee, November 2, 1907.
"Mr. H. P. Wood, Secretary Chamber of Commerce, Honolulu, Hawaii.

"Dear Sir: Answering your cable message of the 1st inst., I beg to advise you that Governor Frear has been placed upon the official roll call of the Congress representing the Chamber of Commerce of Honolulu and a place has been set aside for him to address the Congress upon the resolutions already submitted, and now on file.

"The local executive committee will give special attention to your representation, accommodations, etc.

"Thanking you for your prompt and courteous action, I am,

"Yours truly,

"ARTHUR P. FRANCIS,
"Secretary of the Congress."

These are the subjects of the resolutions, upon which Governor Frear will address the Congress:

1. Endorsement of Honolulu Chamber of Commerce resolution regarding the improvement of Pearl Harbor.
2. Approval of sending the Atlantic squadron to the Pacific, with recommendation that the cruise include the Hawaiian Islands.

PROCEEDINGS HAD ONCE BEEN BEGUN

The investigation of the affairs of the Hawaiian Realty and Maturity Company brought out little that was tangible yesterday except the fact that the Grand Jury that had made a preliminary investigation in 1906 had ordered the Attorney General to go right ahead with proceedings against the concern, proceedings which resulted in quo warranto papers being prepared and then dropped. The then Deputy Attorney General Prosser prepared the papers but was called away to the Coast, his absence resulting in nothing being done, although he expected that the proceedings would go ahead just the same in his absence.

The fact was also brought out yesterday that during the Grand Jury investigation it had been found necessary to bring Kentwell to the Attorney General's office with his books, he having rather flippantly refused to come of his own accord. It was the persuasive influence of Chester Doyle that overcame him.

So far Treasurer Hapal has not been able to make much out of the books of the concern he has in his possession, these having been so badly kept as to be almost unintelligible.

Attorney General Hemenway yesterday appointed Wade Warren Thayer special attorney to investigate the Hawaiian Realty & Maturity Co.

Thayer will begin proceedings either to have a receiver appointed or to have the company declared a bankrupt. Whether other civil or criminal proceedings follow will be determined by what is discovered in the course of the investigation and is brought out in the receivership or bankruptcy proceedings.

Thayer has been attorney for a number of persons who were stockholders in the concern but found difficulty in getting their money out. He has stood ready to bring bankruptcy proceedings several times, but each time Kentwell always came up with the particular client's money, so there was no cause of action.

The report of E. H. Cutting, made at the instance of the grand jury, has been found. It is simply a financial statement of the affairs of the company as Cutting was able to find them. This statement showed that the property which the company valued on its books at over $20,000 was assessed for taxes at less than $5000. Cutting said, however, that it was impossible from the books to make a statement of the exact financial condition of the company.

Cresolene is a Balm to Asthmatics.

Does it not seem more effective to breathe in a remedy for disease of the breathing organs than to take the remedy into the stomach?

Cresolene cures because the air, rendered strongly antiseptic, is carried over the diseased surface with every breath, giving prolonged and constant treatment. It is invaluable to mothers with small children.

Those of a Consumptive Tendency will find immediate relief from Coughs or Inflamed Condition of the Throat.
