ROYAL GUEST FROM CHINA IS WELCOMED DEMOCRATS REVOLT AGAINST THE BOSS

Royal Salute To Chinese Prince

Received With Full Honors Of Military Escort---On Way To Mainland

Long before the Manchuria entered the inner harbor the escort for Prince Sun and party was in waiting in front of Alaka street wharf and there was a great crowd of spectators kept in line on the sidewalk by marine patroling each side of the street.

Nothing or nobody was allowed to pass out of Alaka street toward the water and for a block on each side of the wharf the roadway was kept clear.

The Manchuria decorated with ship's flags from stern to stern and with the Dragon Banner of China fluttering from her foremast was an impressive sight as she came in through the channel and made for the wharf. In order that the noted visitors might use the starboard side of the steamer in disembarking backing into the wharf was tried but it was found to be impossible without too much delay and so the big ship came in bow first as usual.

Secretary Mott Smith, Admiral Ross and Colonel Schuyler went on board as soon as the gang plank was made fast and escorted the visitors to the wharf.

There in the middle of the wharf automobiles were in waiting and here the whole party embarked.

EXPERT CARL SMITH MAKES REPORT ON THE HILO ROAD CONTRACTS

HILO, Sept. 10.—The report of Carl Smith, who was engaged as special counsel by the Board of Trade to report on what steps might be taken in connection with the irregularities which the Board's committee had found in connection with the Honolulu contracts, was finished last Thursday, and was submitted to the officers of the Board.

The report goes into the details of the various matters which were taken up by the Board of Trade, and the remedy, or reason why there is no remedy, is set forth in every case. The report which will be taken up at the regular meeting of the Board of Trade reads in full as follows:

September 7, 1910.
E. E. Richards, Esq.,
President, Hilo Board of Trade,
Hilo, Hawaii.

Dear Sir:
Some weeks ago you placed in my hands a communication dated August 5, 1910, signed by D. E. Metzger and others, who had theretofore been appointed a Committee to investigate the construction of the New Honolulu Road. I have very carefully examined the document left with me and have made

"BUTCH" LEADS OTHER NEWSIES

Boys Sell Many Thousands of Papers in Contest for Prizes.

ORDER OF STANDING.

- 1—Joe Carvalho.
- 2—John Hooman.
- 3—Poipoi.
- 4—James Hawaii.
- 5—Oliveiro.
- 6—Akana.

Master Joe Carvalho, known to a legion of newsboy cronies, as well as many of the patrons of the street news merchants, as "Butch," leads off in the Bulletin's newsboys' contest, with a score of two thousand four hundred and eleven papers sold in twelve days. And the circulation manager says that is going some for one small boy.

It is just a few papers, but when you know how determined "Butch" is to win the Sterling bicycle that the Bulletin has offered to the boy who sells the most papers in a stated period, it is not so surprising that the prize creates the energy and the paper does the rest.

But "Butch" is not to have that bicycle without a contest. There is a native son of these islands hot after him, who promises to show the diminutive news butcher what it is to sell papers. And his total of sales for the two weeks past makes it evident that it is not all talk on his part, either. He closes the two week period with a total of two thousand

WILHELMINA'S CREW TALKS

Quarantine Doctor and Ship's Officers State All Hands Were Vaccinated.

Regarding the unpleasantness between the officers and crew of the Wilhelmina, and which terminated in a lookout for the members of the crew that went ashore last night against the orders of the officers of the ship, a delegation, consisting of nine of the crew called at the Bulletin office this morning and stated their side of the story which is as follows:

After leaving Hilo the captain of the Wilhelmina gave orders that all of the effects of the crew, including the engineers and stewards departments should be piled into the "glory hole," the place where the crew lives, and that the same be fumigated. This move was protested against by the whole crew and a delegation called on the doctor of the ship for the day on such a move. The ship's doctor professed ignorance on the subject. The belongings of the crew were not fumigated however at that time, but as soon as the ship was tied up to the quarantine wharf the crew were hustled ashore with all of their belongings and a thorough fumigation was given and all of the crew vaccinated. The officers of the ship did not share in this fumigation business, neither did the stewardess, who handled the men who were down with the emalgama is the claim of the men.

When they arrived on this side of the bay all hands except the crew were allowed to go ashore, even those

PROHIBITION DID KUHIO IS NAMED THINGS TO TERRITORY'S MAINE DELEGATE

(Associated Press Cable.)

PORTLAND, Me., Sept. 13.—Final returns from the State election show that the Democrats have elected the Governor, a majority of the Legislature and two Congressmen.

The Congressmen elected are Guernsey, Republican, from the First District, and Asher Hinds, Republican, from the Fourth District. Hinds has been for years the parliamentary clerk of the House of Representatives, and now takes the seat once occupied by Thomas B. Reed.

The Democrats elect Congressman S. W. Gould in the Second District, defeating ex-Governor E. C. Burleigh, who has served the district in Congress many terms and was next to Congressman Barthold in the ranking member of the House Committee on Public Buildings. In the Third Congressional District, formerly represented by C. E. Littlefield, the Democrats elect Dan J. Gilliguddy in place of Swosey, renominated by the Republicans. Mr. Gilliguddy has been the Democratic candidate for Congress in nearly every campaign for the last fifteen years.

The Democrats have secured a majority of both houses of the Legislature and will elect a successor to United States Senator Hale.

One of the leading features of the Democratic campaign on the State ticket was the demand for resubmission of the Prohibition question to a vote of the people. This can only be accomplished through a vote of the Legislature to revise the constitution of the State. Such a vote, though often attempted, could not be secured from a Republican Legislature.

HIGH BAIL FOR MEAT PACKERS

(Special Bulletin Cable.)

CHICAGO, Ill., Sept. 13.—In the cages of indictments of meat packers in this city on charges of conspiracy in restraint of trade, bail in each case has been set at $20,000.

The indictment of two other packers is expected shortly.

PANAMA MAN CALLED HOME

(Associated Press Cable.)

WASHINGTON, D. C., Sept. 13.—Secretary Marsh of the American legation of the Panama Republic has been replaced by Charles Campbell, who is now connected with the American embassy at Tokio. Marsh, a few days ago, gave utterance to belligerent threats of what the United States would do if the Panama Republic elected an anti-American President.

Prince Nominated for Fourth Time on Republican Platform.

CALLS ON CONVENTION FOR UNITED EFFORT

The Territorial Republican Convention has finished its labors, has promulgated the Republican platform principles for the campaign of 1910 and has nominated Prince Kuhio for the fourth time as Delegate to Congress.

The convention completed its labors at its session last night, which convened at 7:30.

Kuhio was placed in nomination by A. J. C. Atkinson, who, in making his remarks on the good work of the Delegate, stated that it was almost useless to nominate him for that was done to all intents and purposes by the platform. Atkinson pointed out the party promises that have been fulfilled by the ability of the Delegate. He referred to the large appropriations for public works that have been secured by Kuhio. Atkinson spoke of the manifest absurdity of having the Territory represented by a Democrat at Washington, declaring that the welfare of Hawaii demanded that Kuhio be returned to Washington as Delegate to Congress for another term.

Kuhio's nomination was seconded by Stephen Desha of Hilo, who spoke in Hawaiian and in the manner which has won him fame throughout the Territory as an eloquent speaker. Desha's remarks were applauded liberally and when he concluded Chairman Crabbe caused laughter by asking if there were any further nominations.

On the motion of C. A. Rice of Kaula Kuhio was then nominated by acclamation and after being escorted to the platform by Carl Smith and

THE HAGUE COURT DECISION IS ACCEPTED

(Associated Press Cable.)

THE HAGUE, Sept. 13.—The New Zealand fisheries award is now irrevocable. Under the rules of the International Court, an award becomes established if the parties there to fail to dispute the action of the court within five days of the submission of its decision. Neither Great Britain nor the United States has presented any objection to the award, which was in favor of the United States on five of seven points.

REFERENDUM FOR ARKANSAS

(Associated Press Cable.)

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., Sept. 13.—Returns from the State election show that the Democrats carried the State by nearly 20,000, which is the normal majority. The main issue of the campaign was the declaration on the proposal to apply the initiative and referendum to State legislation. It now appears that the vote is favorable to this new departure.

Name Legislative Nominees Tonight

Brown, Chillingworth and Judd Favorites For Senate Nominations

The candidates for nominations to the House and Senate on the Republican ticket are busy today lining up their forces for the final session of the City and County and District Convention which convenes tonight, a close contest being promised in the balloting for nominations.

Cecil Brown seemed to have gained considerable strength in the course of the last few days and Charles Chillingworth and Albert Judd are considered to be the other two candidates for nomination who have the best chance to secure the endorsement of the convention.

The four other Senatorial candidates Clarence Crabbe, John Hughes, Joe Cohen and Charles Achi are generally considered to be the weakest of the aspirants, whose names will be voted upon tonight. Cohen is conceded to be out of the calculations. Hughes and Crabbe may show unexpected strength and be able to poll more votes than the supporters of the other candidates expect.

The selection of a man representative of the Portuguese citizens is one of the problems that will come before the convention, Marcellino being generally favored as a successor to Castro who is now on the mainland but

LOCAL AUTHORITIES IN SEARCH FOR WOMAN WHO IS WANTED AS WITNESS

It is pretty well established that of San Francisco, declaring that a lady Luella Smith the star witness in the Burke case which agitated the mainland for some time, was for a short while a resident of Honolulu. Some weeks ago Chief of Detectives McDuffie received a cable from San Francisco asking him to arrest Luella Smith who was supposed to be at a hotel at Waikiki. The chief once made investigations but discovered that no such person had ever resided at the hotel in question. A cable was sent to the coast telling of the facts, and immediately another message came from the police

There were some nervous jurors in Judge Cooper's court this morning soon after the salute-firing in the Palace grounds commenced, that giving them more interest in life than the monotonous droning of the jurors put to witnesses by Attorney Quinn.

After the first few shots of the first salute were fired, a crack appeared in the ceiling of the courtroom just over the jury box, and with each succeeding report of the guns the crack widened a little.

REPUBLICANS PLAN LUAI

Republicans in general—insurgents, standpatters, successful candidates and defeated candidates—are going to celebrate the conclusion of conventions and the beginning of the campaign. The celebration is going to be a banquet of generous proportions and lengthy program.

It is intended to make the luau something to be remembered, and it is expected that it will throw a spirit of harmony upon the Republican atmosphere and make a fitting opening for the campaign.

BELMER CHOSSES WATERY GRAVE

British Steamer Romera Arrives Minus An Oiler.

Evidently tiring of life, and being of a "spooky" disposition, Belmer, an oiler on board the British steamer Romera, which arrived this morning, jumped overboard and was drowned at sea.

It was about 11 o'clock at night, a week ago, that Belmer bade farewell to his friends and, leaving his stateroom, quietly walked forward and jumped overboard. A few minutes afterwards some of his friends found that he was missing. A careful search of the steamer further assured those on board that he was missing. The matter was reported to Captain Fair, who stopped the steamer at once with a view to picking up the missing man.

After some time spent in search for the suicide, without avail, Captain Fair proceeded on his way to Honolulu.

The Romera, which made a passage of 61 days from Newport News, brought about 6500 tons of coal for the naval station, which she is unloading at the naval wharf.

The Romera belongs to the MacLay & M. Irvine Steamship Company of Glasgow. The date of her departure has not yet been stated.

About 1,000,000 square miles of the Russian Empire is covered by forests, of which the Government owns about 50 per cent.

An inquest is being held on the body of the Japanese woman who died from the effects of a fall from a Rapid Transit car last night.

Another suit in the matter of the estate of Frank Antonio which has been before the courts for twenty years, is now on before Judge Robinson.

The name of the Japanese woman who fell from a Rapid Transit car last night and was killed, turns out to be Euki Homen, and she hailed from Keala plantation, on Kauai.

Charles Chillingworth and Frank Thompson pulled so hard in their training yesterday afternoon that two cars snugged in two. Six out of fourteen cars that have been purchased by the Healeys lately have all broken at the same place—just outside the carlock.

This afternoon at 2 o'clock a prisoner named Wahlan, who was confined at the police station, tried to escape by scaling the wall at the back of the station. He succeeded in getting over the wall, but a trusty saw him and grabbed him before he got down the street.

Royal D. Mead, head of the planters' labor bureau, was a passenger on the Nippon Maru today for Manila. Mr. Mead goes to the Philippines to look over the situation as regards further immigration. L. E. Pinkham and Mr. Steven are now in the islands operating under the auspices of the bureau of which Mead is the director.

In the first machine was Prince Sun and Councillor Tschel of the foreign office accompanied by Chief of Detectives McDuffie.

Admiral Sah was the only Chinese occupant of the second machine accompanied by Secretary Mott-Smith, Admiral Rees, Colonel Schuyler and Secret Agent Connell of the Treasury Department.

Following these two in other machines came the members of the party and the consular representatives of China in Honolulu.

As soon as the palace grounds were reached the leaders of the escort halted at the right of the palace steps the band at the left and the remainder of the escort in open order the automobiles passed through a draw up at the steps and were escorted into the presence of Governor Walter F. Frear in the throne room where they were welcomed to America.

When the car-bearer Prince Sun entered the grounds the national salute was fired, and a like honor was given him when he entered the car to depart after the audience was over.

Leaving the palace grounds after posing for the moving picture man at the top of the steps the route was taken out into King street, thence to Richards, Hotel and Bishop in front of the Young Hotel which the party entered and there the formal call of Governor Frear was made.

From the Hotel after the audience with the Prince the whole party proceeded to the Naval Station and there were accorded a salute.

After making the call at the naval station, all the party, with the exception of Prince Sun, went on board the Kukui for the trip to Pearl Harbor.

As the prince was not feeling well, he preferred motoring around the city and environs until the hour for the lunch given by the Chinese Consul and other members of the Chinese colony.

The party was met at Pearl Harbor by automobiles in charge of Secretary Mott-Smith and was taken back to Honolulu overland.

After the luncheon this afternoon the party was again taken in charge by the Territorial committee and, in machines, started off to inspect the forts and fortifications.

At the conclusion of this trip the members of the party will be taken back to the Alakea wharf, arriving there a few minutes before the Manchuria calls for San Francisco—at 5 o'clock.

GERRITT WILDER WRITES OF HIS WORLD TOUR

Gerritt Wilder sends the editor of the Bulletin a postcard from Paris, under date of August 29. Mr. Wilder, commenting on the photo of the tomb of Napoleon, says: "This is a most impressive place, and having seen the field of Waterloo and his tomb, I have seen the two places which Napoleon could not conquer. Am having such a fine trip, and go by way of Azores and Barbados and Havana to Mexico. Then home to San Francisco and Honolulu—1911."

who had come in contact with the sick man. This did not seem to be right to the crew and they entered a strong protest with the officers against their detention on the ship when all others, including the unforgotten ones were allowed shore liberty. Stevedores and others were allowed the full run of the vessel.

When night came the crew concluded that they had as much right and more so to go ashore than those who had not been fumigated and accordingly they fled down the gangway for an evening ashore. When they returned to the ship in a quite seasonable hour they were prevented from going on board by officers stationed about the ship.

The men are at a loss to understand the move on the part of the ship's officers in the matter, and one of them suggested the idea that if it were possible to keep the men off the ship twenty-four hours they were subject to a fine of a day's pay.

The men are orderly, and have given on the local police no trouble whatever, nor did they make any fuss at the ship last night when refused admittance to the Wilhelmina.

An inquiry at the ship brings forth statements from the officers in direct contradiction to those made by the men who left the Wilhelmina against orders.

"Since the Wilhelmina was placed in quarantine, everyone on board the ship was fumigated and vaccinated. This includes the officers, the stewards and the crew."

Dr. Edward Marshall, one of the quarantine officials of this port, made the above statement today when asked about the quarantine regulations, which affects the Maunaloa liner Wilhelmina, which is docked at the Railroad wharf.

He said that a certain number of the officers of the steamer have been permitted to come ashore to transact steamship business. The crew are not allowed to come ashore. They are detained on board the steamer, where they will remain until she sails for San Francisco tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock.

Asked why it was that a certain number of officers were allowed to come ashore and the crew were refused the same privilege, Dr. Marshall said that the officers are better able to take care of themselves, while ashore, than are the members of the crew.

One of the principal reasons why the crew were not allowed to come ashore, while in quarantine, is because they are more likely to get mixed up with those who are not over careful in regard to health conditions.

In order to ascertain more accurately the condition of the men now on board the steamship, Dr. Marshall this forenoon made another inspection. Purser Drew assisted him in his medical inspection of the Wilhelmina men.

When Dr. Marshall was leaving the Wilhelmina at noon today, one of the crew descended the gangplank and insisted on coming ashore. He was politely told by Dr. Marshall to stay on board or else he would get into trouble.

"What's the difference between allowing the officers to come ashore and the crew?" he asked Dr. Marshall.

"Never mind about arguing. You had better stay on board or else you'll get into trouble," answered the doctor.

Although at present there are eighteen men of the crew missing from the Wilhelmina, their places will be filled by local men before the vessel sails tomorrow morning for San Francisco.

Dr. Marshall will be a passenger on the Wilhelmina when she pulls out for the mainland tomorrow. He will go to meet his family, who are to return to Honolulu.

The Wilhelmina will take as part of her cargo 3500 tons of sugar, 10,000 cases of pineapples and general island products. A number of island people will be among the outgoing passengers.

TOMORROW morning, the steamer W. G. Hall of the Inter-Island fleet will return from Kanaul with a big list of passengers. She will sail again on Thursday, at 5 o'clock in the afternoon.

THE STEAMER Kinau will sail this afternoon at 5 o'clock for Kanaul with passengers and general cargo. She will return again to this port early next Saturday morning.

COURT HANDS DOWN DECISION

Opinion Rendered in Case of Segelken Versus Trust Co.

The Supreme Court has handed down a decision in the case of Gerhard Segelken versus Hawaiian Trust Company, Limited, administrator of the estate of Charles W. Booth, deceased, and Ida E. Hall, holding that the claim against the trustee was not enforceable until the death of Booth and that it is not barred by lapse of time.

Opinion of the Court by De Bolt, J. This is an interlocutory appeal brought by Charles W. Booth, one of the original respondents, from a decree overruling his demurrer to the complainant's bill in equity for an accounting. Since the appeal was taken Mr. Booth deceased. His death having been duly suggested, the Hawaiian Trust Company, Limited, a corporation, as administrator with the will annexed of the estate of Charles W. Booth, deceased, has been duly substituted as a party respondent in this cause in the place and stead of Charles W. Booth, deceased.

The facts alleged in the bill are, in substance, that the respondent, Mrs. Ida Elizabeth Hall, being the owner of a one-eighth interest in certain land, subject to the dower right of Mrs. Anne Long in the entire land, mortgaged her interest to the complainant, Segelken, to secure the payment of the sum of $4000; that thereafter a partition suit was brought by other parties also interested in the land to which suit Mrs. Hall, Mrs. Long and Segelken were made parties; that by consent of all the parties to the suit an order was entered directing that the land be sold and the proceeds divided among the parties according to their respective interests; that pursuant to this order the land was sold and the proceeds returned into court for division; that thereafter (August 16, 1882, also by consent of all the parties, a decree was entered directing that two-thirds of the proceeds of the sale of the land be divided among the persons therein named. Mrs. Hall being one of those, but that her share, $3500.42, be applied as follows: $533.35 in payment of a certain claim and the balance, $2967.07, in part payment of the Segelken mortgage, which, with interest, amounted to the sum of $2438.99; that upon the payment of this sum of $2967.07 Segelken, in accordance with the terms of the decree, executed a release of his mortgage to the purchasers of the land; that the remaining one-third of the proceeds of the sale, $14,500, was decreed to be invested by a trustee and the income thereof to be paid to Mrs. Long as dower during her life, and upon her death to be divided in the same manner as the two-thirds had been, the share of Mrs. Hall, however, to be charged with the payment to Segelken of the sum of $1103.83, with interest being the balance due him on the mortgage debt; that the respondent Booth having been duly appointed trustee, Mrs. Hall's share in the trust fund came regularly into his hands; that Mrs. Long died June 17, 1908, at which time there was due the complainant from Mrs. Hall the said sum of $1143.82, with interest, which was a charge upon Mrs. Hall's share in the trust fund in the hands of the respondent Booth; that the respondent, Mrs. Hall, claims some interest in the trust fund, but that her claim is subject to complainant's claim. No relief, however, is sought as against her.

JAPANESE WOMAN IS DEAD FROM BAD FALL

Last night at the corner of King and South streets, a Japanese woman jumped from a Rapid Transit car as it was in motion and, landing on her head, was rendered unconscious at once. The unfortunate woman, who appears to have come to town from some plantation, was taken to the Queen's Hospital, where it was found that her skull was badly fractured.

This morning at an early hour the woman, who still remains unidentified, died without recovering consciousness. An inquest will be held by Coroner Rose this evening at the police station.

There has been a big run of inquests lately, and the one held last night in the death of Mrs. Kanaia Lila resulted in a verdict that the deceased came to her death through accident, and that the whole blame was on her own shoulders. She had attempted to alight from a train while it was in motion and had fallen to the platform.

KUHIO IS NAMED TERRITORY'S DELEGATE

Desha, subscribed to the party plank and promised to uphold every plank in the Republican declaration. Kuhio then spoke on united support for a straight Republican ticket. He defended the immigration plank in the platform to which Eli Crawford had just objected, declaring that immigration had built up the islands and was a principle by which the party could safely stand.

The Prince declared that he would be the first to suffer if the immigration plan did not have the confidence of the people but insisted that he had no doubt as to the result.

Upon the conclusion of Kuhio's remarks the convention adjourned, the central committee organized with A. L. C. Atkinson as chairman, vice chairman A. S. Mahauli; secretary A. D. Cooper; treasurer W. H. Hoogs. Eli Crawford appeared as the objector to the immigration plank in the platform, declaring that it would not be supported by the Hawaiians and would be a mistake. Crawford voiced his objections after the platform was read but his ideas did not find favor with the convention and there were only two votes against it.

The districts presented lists of members for the Territorial Central Committee as follows:

First District (Hawaii).

Central committee—Carl S. Smith, S. L. Desha, H. S. Rickard, A. J. Wilhamson.

TO ARREST CHIEF M'DUFFIE

Lightfoot Will Swear Out Warrant For Malicious Prosecution.

Attorney Bert Lightfoot announced this afternoon that his father, J. Lightfoot, had been retained by the bunch of alleged gamblers whom Chief of Detectives McDuffie arrested last Sunday evening. The accused were on Monday discharged as not guilty by Judge Andrade, as the evidence was not sufficient to convict them. R. W. Breckons appeared for the defendants on that occasion and now Attorney Lightfoot is taking up the matter.

McDuffie will, according to Lightfoot, be charged with malicious prosecution, and the warrant will be sworn to this afternoon or tomorrow morning.

DULL IN STOCKS

The excitement in the city due to the arrival of the Chinese Prince had a depressing effect on the local stock market.

The only transaction reported between boards was the sale of 150 shares of Oahu Sugar at $2.50. This is a shade to the good over the last previous sale of this stock.

At session sales the only transaction was a changing hands of $2000 worth of McDuffie 6s at 98.25.

A WORD TO MOTHERS

DOES YOUR DAUGHTER NEED MORE STRENGTH?

This Tonic Treatment Solves One of the Most Puzzling Problems for Parents of Girls in Their Teens.

A growing girl who is confined within doors too much of the time, who overworks, overstudies or is depressed by worry or care, needs the tonic treatment if she would avoid injury to her health which will mar her whole life.

In addition to a proper tonic the patient should have nourishing and easily digested food, pure air and sunshine, rest and sleep. Parents whose daughters grow debilitated as they enter their teens should not watch them fade and droop but should ensure their healthful womanhood by the treatment which is endorsed in the following statement from Miss Frances R. Roche, of No. 1626 E. Evans Avenue, Pueblo, Colo. Miss Roche says:

"I suffered from weakness for nearly a year when I was changing from girlhood to womanhood. I became all run down in health and had but very little blood. I did not have any strength and could hardly drag around. There seemed to be no life in me. Every month I passed through intense suffering. I had dizzy and vomiting spells and constant headaches. I was obliged to give up my work for a time.

"I took medicine from a doctor but without relief. Through a friend's advice I gave Dr. Williams' Pink Pills a trial and was completely cured. I am well now and have had no return of my trouble. My mother has since used the pills as a tonic and thinks as highly of them as I do."

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are guaranteed to be safe and harmless to the most delicate constitution. They contain no morphia, opiate, narcotic, or anything to cause a drug habit. Owing to their blood-building property they are invaluable in the treatment of such diseases as anemia, green sickness, rheumatism, and the after-effects of fever.

A new edition of our booklet, "Diseases of the Blood," giving more information about the treatment will be sent free on request to anyone interested.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are sold by all druggists, or will be sent, postpaid, on receipt of price, 50 cents per box; six boxes for $2.50, by the Dr. Williams Medicine Company, Schenectady, N. Y.

liner and made quick work of the inspection of the passengers. Dr. Ramus said that he was requested by the Governor and Admiral Rees, commandant of the naval station, to render quick service in honor of the Chinese prince.

Chinese Consul Greets Prince.

As soon as the pratique was raised, His Imperial Chinese Consul Liang Kwo Ying and Secretaries Tang Watt Wan and Li Kau Song, who went out in Admiral Rees' private launch, met the royal party on board the liner. The consul was accompanied by Chief of Detectives McDuffie and Mr. Connell, the secret service man, who was sent here especially by the Federal government. Mr. Connell will accompany the prince on from here.

Once on board the steamer and the Chinese Consul, Liang Kwo Ying, had met His Imperial Highness, the prince was handed a bunch of Chinese letters, which he minutely examined before greeting the local government officials who went out to meet him and to extend to him the welcome aloha of Governor Frear and Admiral Rees.

Lieutenant-Commander Houston represented Admiral Rees, and Captain Timberlake of the United States Army represented Colonel Schuyler. They, together with Chief McDuffie and Mr. Connell, were presented to His Imperial Highness by the Chinese Consul. He greeted them most cordially. The Hon. Chow Tszchi, secretary of the Chinese Foreign Office, acted as official interpreter to the prince.

As soon as the Manchuria passed the lighthouse, a salute of twenty-one guns was fired from the naval station battery. The prince was at the time donning his Chinese official uniform.

Greeted Officially.

As soon as the big steamer docked at Alakea street wharf, Secretary Mott-Smith, representing the Governor; Admiral Rees and Colonel Schuyler of the Lilehua garrison went on board the liner and were greeted by the prince in the reception room of the Manchuria.

Secretary Mott-Smith, in the name of Hawaii, as part of the United States, welcomed the Chinese prince. Admiral Rees and Colonel Schuyler, respectively, greeted His Imperial Highness.

During the official reception on board the liner, the prince, Admiral Sah, the Hon. Chow Tszchi, with eight commanders of the Imperial navy, attired in Chinese costumes, lined up according to their rank and greeted the officials who were on hand to meet the prince, who was standing at the head of the receiving line.

JUDGE AHLO ON MANCHURIA

Will Study American Legal Procedure in United States.

A. L. Ahlo, officially known as Li-Fang, one of the Justices of the Supreme Court of Peking is a passenger on the steamship Manchuria, which sails this afternoon at 5:20 o'clock for San Francisco.

Aside from his judicial position, Mr. Ahlo is delegate of His Imperial Chinese Majesty's Government to the International Prison Congress, which will be held shortly in Washington. Mr. Ahlo is an island boy, being the son of the late Mr. Ahlo, one of the well known Chinese rice planters. During his short stay in port, he was entertained by his mother, Mrs. Ahlo, the widow of the late Mr. Ahlo.

In speaking of his mission this morning on board the liner Manchuria Judge Ahlo stated that it is his intention to go to the States to be present at the International Prison Congress, which meets in Washington, to familiarize himself with the prison system, which is practiced in the United States.

"The Imperial Chinese Government is gradually but surely progressing," said Judge Ahlo this morning. "It is fast gathering modern ideas, which are adopted in the United States and other civilized countries in Europe."

"One of the important matters that I will look into, while in the States, is the proper procedure of legal aid."

Of which 1147 tons are for Honolulu. The Honolulu cargo consists of 86 packages maiting, 25 cases whiskey, 1492 bags bone meal, 3419 packages provisions, 62 packages medicine, 279 mats beans, 22 cases firecrackers, 221 cases oil, 129 chests tea, 260 cases wine, 52 packages hammon, 267 cases dry goods, 4 cases silk goods, 824 packages rice, 12,066 mats rice, 244 cases curio, 616 cases sake, 2878 tube shiro and miso, 148 packages merchandise, 300 tubs soy, 60 cases porcelain and crockery, 30 bags peanuts.

The Manchuria, which experienced fair weather throughout the entire trip from the Orient, will leave for San Francisco this afternoon at 5:20 o'clock.

fairly. In the Court, over which I preside in Peking, there is no attorney. The defendants are tried without the assistance of the lawyers. It is something unusual; but on the other hand, it has been the custom in existence for many years.

"The government officials of the Imperial Chinese Government are gradually picking up the new and modern idea of running the government properly."

"His Imperial Chinese Prince Sun is going to the States to study naval matters, which are very important in China. His brother, who passed through here not long ago, studied military affairs in the States. He is in China now, and is already making improvements in matters military."

"Admiral Sna, and the eight commanders of the Imperial Chinese Navy, who are also going to the States, have been educated abroad. Almost all of them speak English fluently, many of whom, having been educated in England and the colleges in the United States."

"One of the naval commanders, who did not want to disclose his name, for some reason, best known to himself, said this morning that the Chinese Navy will be materially strengthened in the course of time. The speaker was educated in the United States; but he would not say what particular college. At any rate, he is a fluent conversationalist. Asked how many warships there are in the Chinese Navy, he simply said "very few." No sooner had he said this than he walked away without further comment on Chinese navy."

THIRTEEN DEATHS FROM TUBERCULOSIS

During the month of August there were 13 deaths from tuberculosis and only four from all other contagious and infectious diseases in the city.

There were 26 new cases of the disease reported during the month which tends to show the importance of a strenuous fight against the increase of this disease which has increased yearly during the last ten years.

COSTA IS FOUND GUILTY

Soon after twelve o'clock today the jury in the Federal court returned a verdict of guilty against Manuel Costa charged with adultery under Edmund's Act.

The case was nearly concluded yesterday and this morning the court was occupied in the addresses of the attorneys to the jury.

Andrews made a strong plea for his client and also in its course said some pointed and sarcastic things about the manner in which the office of the district attorney was conducted.

saw three hundred and twenty-three papers sold. In his present standing, if the contest were brought to a close, he would be the winner of a brand-new suit of clothes with long pants.

Poi-poi, another native son, is in line at the present time for a pair of shoes, while James Hawaii of the same race is in the position that will get the boxing gloves to be awarded for fourth place; Olivero stands to win the football, which is the last prize, but Akana, one of the hustling Chinese newsboys, says that time will tell and that he is booked for one of the prizes higher up. There are half a dozen other newsies who say the same, and the boys in winning positions are not any too confident that they can hold to their present standing.

Just at present there is a great argument going on among the boys as to whether they can sell more papers when there is a United States fleet in Honolulu or a Republican Territorial and County Convention in session.

For a time the jurors thought that the whole building was about to tumble about their ears, and some made ready for a hasty exit; through the windows at the rear, but calmer minds prevailed and they once and all held their seats, watching with fascinated interest the crack in the ceiling grow larger and larger as the shots continued.

Finally, however, the saluting was finished and the ceiling still held, though it showed the ravages of the bombardment.

As the echo of the last shot died away, the jurors again settled themselves in their chairs to pay strict attention to the business before them.

TUESDAY SEPTEMBER 13, 1910

Promises may get thee friends, but nonperformance will turn them into enemies.—Franklin.

Having the opposition of the morning paper to his credit, W. C.
Achi has a fair chance of being nominated for the Senate.

E. A. C. Long and Ed. Towse are two men whom the delegates from the Fourth District will do well to place on the ticket of the Republican party for the House of Representatives. Mr. Long should be returned in recognition of his excellent service in two sessions of the Legislature. Towse is a natural candidate of the east end of the district as a consequence of the retirement of Dan Logan from the Supervisor slate and his refusal to run for the House.

This is the day for the Republican party on the island of Oahu to prove its ability in getting together
for a first-class legislative ticket
with which to supplement the high-grade Territorial and County ticket already placed in the field. There is plenty of good material from which to select. The great danger is that in the multiplicity of good men, weak ones may slip through.
This will not result if the men who credit themselves with the bigger and better brains don't become so positive in their superiority that they will wreck the whole ticket on the rocks of personal prejudice and personal ambition. The people want a ticket that is not the product of the fine work of dictators or grafters.
They want fair-minded men, preferably those with experience who have done work for the party and given freely of their time and effort for the public good.

OUR DELEGATE.

Republicans of Hawaii renominated
Delegate Kubio as a matter of course.
The people will elect him as a matter of course.

Delegate Kubio has represented the Territory of Hawaii in a successful manner that would not be and is not possible for any other man in these islands to duplicate.

He is regarded in Washington with that kindly interest which goes out from the American people to the Hawaiian people as a race and a former independent nation. He is respected as an able representative of a kindly people. More than that, he is held in high esteem in the halls of Congress and throughout the Federal departments as a type of the rising generation in Hawaii that adapts itself to the changing conditions in the Pacific and vigorously steps forward to do its share in shouldering the responsibilities and cares as well as reaping
the benefits of American citizenship.

That's where Delegate Kubio "gets his pull" in Washington. Call it "pull" if you will, but do not use the word in the contemptuous sense that is sometimes done. It is the "pull" of efficiency, the "pull" of a representative man, the "pull" of a gentleman who knows how far a Delegate can go in "reforming" Congress; the "pull"
of a man who minds his own business
and is always on hand when the interests of his particular district coincide with the interests of the nation
as a whole; the "pull" of a representative who goes before his associates
in Congress with plans for constructive development as against the whine
and the complaint of a partisan critic; the "pull" of the modest, dignified,
and kindly natured Hawaiian-American who understands conditions and does his utmost to get the best results for Hawaii as an integral part of the United States and for Hawaii
as a Territory.

The only danger that threatens the Territory today is the possibility that the people have come to regard Delegate Kubio's successes as so much a matter of course that they may get an idea that the Democratic candidate
or the House Rule candidate might do
as well.

Seeing the history of these islands has been given to the people of Hawaii to make a greater mistake

than this would be.

The Bulletin does not believe that the electorate will make such an error. At the same time the leaders who appreciate the great importance of Hawaii's continued representation
in Washington by Delegate Kubio cannot fail to appreciate the evil effects of two years of studied misrepresentation that has been going on under local Democratic auspices. Just how deeply this work has struck in,
is not known. It is certain however that the people can afford to take no chances.

Delegate Kubio and those associated with him in the Territorial field
should make a vigorous and painstaking campaign. The Delegate should go into the country districts as well as the more populous towns and personally present the political situation
as it is, to the people direct.

If this is done, the Delegate, backed
by his splendid record of achievement,
will be elected to Congress for the fourth time by the largest majority
that has ever been known in this Territory.

Get together and get to work.

THE PLATFORM.

Republicans have a platform that lives every issue honestly, fearlessly,
and, where problems are involved,
points a definite way out.

The main thought of the document is that the Republican party is not afraid of anything it has done, and, if in the maze of new problems that have to be met from day to day, there have been errors, the party will make the necessary corrections, which it is better able than its opponents to do.

This is particularly true of the immigration question, that has been selected by the Democratic boss as the issue of his campaign. Immigration is a necessity of the further development of these islands. There isn't any doubt of that. The Republican party will not disgrace its record with evasion or a promise of retrogression.
That is left to the opposition, led,
codded and driven by the boss who is looking for personal honors at the expense of the prosperity of the people.

The educational plank presents the first promise of a definite solution of the ways and means to permanently
provide sufficient money for educational purposes that has ever been put before the people.

The plank on wharves and landings
pledges the party to save the waterfront of the principal ports to the people, by constructing wharves with loan funds. When private individuals can borrow money at six per cent to build private wharves, and make good on the investment, the Territory can certainly afford to build its own wharves with money borrowed at four per cent, and at the same time protect the people from the gouging rates of private corporations.

The liquor question is taken out of politics. The Republican party is pledged to protect the license law
now on the statute books.
Amendments of the election laws
and the declaration for a direct primary law are suggested with a view to protecting the voter from loss of franchise by technicality, and securing a fair expression of the wishes of the people in the nomination of candidates for office.

Conservation is to be continued for the preservation of the natural resources of the Territory.

Promotion is supported. The duty of the people toward the Queen is recognized.

Congressional visits are to be continued. The ultimate aim of statehood is repeated as a reminder of the fact that the Republicans stand as a unit against any movement to side-track Hawaii into any schemes of governmental experimentation to which the "provisional" may fall victim.

Decentralization of government and greater power for the Counties and a prominent place, and the party

Finally, the party reminds the people that a desertion of the Republican policy of tariff protection would be ruinous for Hawaii.

The record of achievement is magnificent. The assurance of better things in the future is certain.

The Republican party by its platform proves its right to the claim of being the party of progress. That is what the people want.

OUR CHINESE GUEST.

Prince Sun of the Chinese Imperial household, following in the wake of other Chinese dignitaries and a large delegation of Chinese students
bound for the leading American colleges, constitutes a very significant sign of the times in our relations with the Chinese empire.

Americans have been taught that their method of treating the Chinese government as if it were civilized, re-mitting the Boxer indemnity fund and showing other evidences of kindness and good will, is accepted by the Oriental as an expression of weakness.

We have been told that the only way
for the Caucasian to reach the heart of the Chinese is to bat him over the head and force him to be obedient and courteous. That is the way Europe has done it, and we have been informed that the Americans don't know how.

But these royal world tours of Chinese authorities with America the first and in some instances the only country visited, and the education of an increasing number of Chinese youth in American schools, all go to prove that despite the many injustices and difficult problems of the Chinese exclusion law America possesses the good will of the Chinese nation and may look upon that great

empire as a friendly and appreciative Oriental power.

Under such conditions it is useless to attempt to convince Americans that the policy of diplomatic friendship
and that our most exceptional acts of international kindness have been an error.

Our domestic conditions, that make a large influx of Chinese laborers undesirable, are quite apart from the attitude of our Government in standing firmly by China in the preservation of its national integrity, and demonstrating the honesty of our motives by such incidents as the indenmity matter for which we were so generally criticised.

Here in this city where the first words of the American welcome are extended to the Chinese prince, we have proved that a kindly attitude toward the Chinese is always reciproc-ated, with a certainty indeed that is seldom equaled by any nationality on earth. We have proved here in Hawaii that the Chinese is excellent material for American citizenship when given a fair opportunity to make good on an equality with the people of other races and nations.

MAINE AND PROHIBITION.

If anyone wants to know what the citizens of the State of Maine think of the Prohibition law, they should read the result of yesterday's election in which the Democrats swept the State for the first time in sixty years or more.

The Democrats stood for re-submission of the miserable Prohibition
farce to a direct vote of the people.
The Republicans backed the miserable farce without equivocation as it stands on the statute books.

The result is that the young men of Maine turned the whole political situation topsy turvy. They have elected a Republican plurality of six thousand to a Democratic plurality of nine thousand. A Democrat will occupy the seat to be vacated by Senator Hale, and two Congressmen are lost to the Republicans.

The election this year does not mean that Maine has gone into the Democratic column to stay. It does mean, however, that the rising generation of the State refuses to be ruled by hypocrisy and cant, even if in throwing off that rule they have to butler and maul such an ancient and honorable institution as the Republican party of the State of Maine.

LEGISLATIVE NOMINEES

who is expected to return to the Territory in the near future.

Ed. Towse is making a determined fight to land a nomination for the House although he is being opposed
by Douthitt of his own precinct.
Towse has strong backing for the place and there is good reason to believe that he will be able to muster winning support at the convention
tonight.

Candidates for Legislative nominations who will be voted on tonight for the Senate and House:

SENATE—A. F. Judd, Clarence
Crabbe, J. C. Cohen, Cecil Brown,
Charles Chillingworth, John Hughes
and Charles Achi.

HOUSE—John K. Kamanoulu, Robert H. Baker, A. Q. Marshall, William Williamson, George Maka-
lena, Norman Watkins, Lilikalan, A.
St. C. Pihana, Hiram Kolomoku, C.
H. Brown, M. S. Deponte, E. A. C.
Long, Ed. Towse, J. H. S. Kalea, 5th District—A. L. Castle, Edward Fernandez, Charles Kanekoa, S. P. Correa, William Isaac, William Kane, A.
S. Kaleopu, B. J. Kaea, Eli Crawford,
Ruel Kinney, S. K. Mahoe, Frank
Archer, S. K. Kamakala, David Kama
and John Kalana.

The Democrats profess to be highly pleased with the terms of the Republican platform for campaign material
but they are finding hard work to make light of the serious split that has appeared in the Democratic ranks
as a result of the immigration problem. McCandless has announced himself as an out-and-out radical, opposed to the Republican immigration policy
as carried out the past two years,
while many members of the party are afraid of the issue presented and think that too radical stand will lose them the advantages to be surely gained by an attitude of moderate opposition.

The defection of Col. McCarthy on the immigration issue has been a sorrow blow to the party and the Democrats are busy stating that the real reason for McCarthy's withdrawal is the desire of his wife to have him
give up the game of politics.

Democratic activities are set for Thursday, beginning with the Territorial convention at 10 o'clock in the morning and followed by a County
and District caucuses in the evening.
The Democratic County convention will open on Friday and is expected to be concluded Friday night.

JAVA SUGARS REACHING OUT

RAWS.—Interest centered this week in the course of the London market, where prices for old crop beet have, for a long period, been much inflated. Liquidation of August contracts brought about a sharp decline, as might have been expected, from 11s. 11-14d. last week to 11s. 2-12d. at the close.

September beet, also, declined from 14s. 6-14d. to 13s. 1d., closing at 13s. 3-4d. In the meantime October-December beet only declined from 11s. 10-12d. to 11s. 8-14d., and October delivery opened today at 11s. 8-14d., which is an indication of the strength of the position of actual sugar and showing a steeper market in Europe.

It will now be interesting to watch the course of prices for October beet, an advance in which would not be surprising to many of the trade here and would be of help to the speculators in September deliveries.

Cane sugars, on the London market, declined from 14s. to 13s. 9d. "floating landing" terms, being still above the parity of our market.

The effect here of the weakness in London was to bring out more sellers at last week's current quotation of 3.99c. c. & f. for Cubas, equal to 4.45c. landed, at which moderate sales were made to refiners and, finally, to influence the sale of 10,000 bags from store here, owned by a Cuban planter, at 4.425c. basis, 96-degree test, thus reducing spot quotations .025c.

The greater part of the sugars in importers' stocks here were put in store for account of European operators, who hold them much above current quotations and are making no effort to sell at present.

The decline now appears to be checked, and the offerings are quite moderate; a few Cubas might possibly be bought at present basis of 3-1-16c. c. & f. (4.425c. landed), shipment first or second half September, buyer's option; perhaps 100,000 bags are obtainable at 3-3-32c. c. & f. (4.45c. landed), but otherwise owners are holding at 3-1-18c. c. & f., or higher, with buyers simply looking on.

Java is getting into closer competition with Cubas, being offered moderately at 12s. 9d. c. f. & l., equal to 4.48c. landed, basis 96-degree test; there are rumors of a sale to New York refiners, which are not confirmed, but if the business has been done, it is believed to be on basis of 12s. 7-1-2d. c. f. & l., equal to 4.45c. landed for sugars affoot; some holders are still asking 13s. to 13s. 1-1-2d. c. f. & l.

Receipts for the week at United States four ports were very small (21,131 tons), and stocks are steadily decreasing.

Our market is now close to the parity of October (new crop) beet, which is quoted on the London market equal to 4.47c. for centrifugals at New York, and as the fluctuations in prices of that delivery will influence the English demand for available Javas, they will in turn also influence the course of the market here.

Weather conditions continue favorable for the growing beet crop in Europe and cane crop in Cuba.

The United States beet crop conditions are rather more satisfactory, but the outturn promises to be smaller than last year's, due principally to the decrease in sowings in Colorado.

WOMAN WANTED AS WITNESS

The much wanted witness will be secured before long.
Dr. Burke was charged with having attempted to dynamite the house in which Luetta Smith and her child were living. The child is said to be Burke's and, in some manner it and its mother were spirited away so as not to give evidence against Burke.

The case caused a sensation at the time the details were made public, and the mainland papers gave a lot of space to it. Luetta Smith arrived in Honolulu some three months ago and was seen in town by a lady who knew her well in the States. For some reason Miss Smith did not at first confide in her one-time friend and led her to believe that she was staying out at the beach. As the liner for the Orient was in port on the day that the Honolulu resident met Miss Smith, it may have been doing the town while the ship was in port, and that she continued her voyage on the same ship as she arrived on.

REPORT ON HILO ROAD CONTRACTS

An effort to supplement the information contained in the report of your Committee by visits to the County office and otherwise. Knowing that the matter is of very considerable importance to yourself and those who are associated with you, I have given more than the ordinary attention to the consideration of this project and the principles of law which it involves. Your request made at the time of leaving the document with me was that I should thoroughly consider all phases of this project and fully advise you with reference to whether the law had been evaded or broken and if so what remedy, if any, exists whereby the public may be protected and the persons who may have broken the law may be properly punished.

There seems to be a considerable public misimpression on the part of the public relative to the exact status of the Board of Supervisors and the limitations placed upon the Board in the performance of public duties conferred upon counties. Among the members of the Board of Trade there generally obtains a view that all county work involving the expenditure of $500 or more must be let to public tender, and that upon the making of the contract there must be demanded from the contractor proper bonds for the performance of the work contracted for. The law relative to contracts for public work was amended by Act 62 of the Session Laws of 1909. Under this law no expenditure of public money where the sum to be expended shall be $500 or more shall be made, except under contract let after public advertisement for sealed tenders, but a special provision is inserted that any county, if its board of supervisors shall so decide, may expend sums in excess of $500 upon road work or repairs without contracting therefor. As a consequence of this statute I have to advise you that it was not necessary for the Board of Supervisors to ask for public tenders for so much of the new Honolulu road as comes strictly within the term "road work." This would apply to the letting of the first contract to John T. Brown, dated July 12, 1909, for 2220 feet of subgrade at a price of $3987. With reference to the action of the Board of Supervisors in letting this work to public tender, I have to advise you that the Board of Supervisors was under no obligation to let this work to public tender, and the fact that they did so did not bring them within the section of the law regulating the taking of bonds and the making of the contract with the lowest responsible bidder. The same observation can be made relative to the second contract, dated September 14, 1909. Also the sixth contract for macadamizing and the seventh contract with Arioli, so far as the Arioli contract refers only to road work.

I have to advise you that so long as the Board of Supervisors do not act arbitrarily and do not expend upon any one piece of work more than a reasonable amount for the performance of the road work or repairs upon the road, their action can not be reviewed by the courts or any other tribunal. As a limitation upon this, let me point out the fact that as soon as the Board of Supervisors shall undertake to parcel out road work or repairs under contracts or contract, the price of which is so far in excess of the reasonable price, which the work could otherwise be done, as to lead a court to the conclusion that the work was tainted with fraud, then upon the proper application of citizens the circuit court will take jurisdiction of the matter and prevent further work under such contract.

This, however, is solely upon the theory that fraud or corruption has entered into the transaction. The mere fact that the Board of Supervisors have acted unwisely or extravagantly is not sufficient for the interference of courts. The Legislature has conferred to the Board of Supervisors certain discretionary powers, and so long as the board shall exercise those powers with a reasonable degree of discretion, their action is not reviewable and the citizens have no redress, except at the polls.

It is my opinion that the building of bridges, culverts and the laying of pipe lines do not come within the provision of Act 62 of the Session Laws of 1909. As a result of this, it is evident that before the public money can be expended for the building of bridges, culverts or the laying of pipe lines, where the sum to be expended is $500 or more, they must be let to public tender upon advertisement as provided by law. With reference to these contracts there is a considerable strictness and a very slight departure from the letter of the law avoids the contract. After specifications have been advertised and bids received thereon, the contract must be in strict accordance with the advertised specifications, and any substantial departure therefrom renders the contract void, and the contractor is not authorized to collect either the contract price or the reasonable value of his work and the materials used. From the information contained in the committee's report, I have to advise you that the contract for the building of the concrete arch bridge for Mailli stream, between Stations 13 20 and 15, is void and the contractor is not entitled to receive anything for the work or materials, which have gone into the bridge. The alterations which were made in the original contract were of so substantial a nature that it was necessary to submit the matter to competitive bids before making a new contract. There are a number of other defects in the contract for the building of this bridge, which may be unnecessary now to point out, inasmuch as I have advised you that the contract is void. The action of the Board of Supervisors in purchasing reinforced material at a cost of $1154.16 and furnishing this to the contractor is entirely irregular, but it is an irregularity which does not affect the contract and can not be of any interest to you, inasmuch as the contract, as a whole, is of no validity. I am also of the opinion that, without further evidence of fraud on the part of the Board of Supervisors, their action in purchasing this material can not result in any penalty upon them.

PARIS MEDICINE CO., 30 N. 1st St., N. Y. C.

In this connection I wish to call your attention to that portion of the contract to be found on page 7 of your committee's report and which provides that the contractor shall thereafter receive from the county "such sum or sums of money which shall become available for the construction, building and completion of said sections, subgrades, concrete bridges, concrete arch bridges and such other work as mentioned above and to build the said road; and which shall hereafter be mentioned and specified in the contract or contracts for the completion of the new Honolulu road, etc." This is a peculiar device, evidently contrived for the purpose of avoiding the section of the statute which provides that the county shall not undertake or contract for work to be done in excess of funds on hand at the time of contracting for the work. Under this section it is apparent that the contract was undertaken by the contractor and the chairman of the Board of Supervisors. So far as the written contract above quoted is concerned, it is void because there was not sufficient on hand, on the date when it was executed, to pay for the work contemplated. It can not be considered a new contract with the county for the reason that it was never made with the Board of Supervisors acting on behalf of the county.

Inasmuch as the principle involved in the foregoing paragraph is involved in other contracts described in the committee's report, it may be well for me to call your attention to the fact that in order to have a binding contract with the county the matter must be decided upon by the Board of Supervisors at one of their regular or special meetings, and that understanding of the members of the board made between meetings can in no way bind the county. It is also a principle of law that the chairman of the board can not bind his fellow members by a contract which has not received the prior sanction of the board at a regular or special meeting.

Your committee has pointed out the fact that specifications have been prepared and bids publicly advertised for on work which consists of a large number of sections, such as the bids opened September 2, 1909; that the sum total of the various items contracted for is taken as the basis of accepting or rejecting bids. When the bid has been accepted as a whole one of the particular sections of the successful bid is then made the basis of a contract with the county. Under this arrangement it is possible for a bidder to have a secret understanding with a majority of the Board of Supervisors, whereby his total bid would be ridiculously small for the entire work, while bids for one, or two sections would be far in advance of the similar bids made by his competitors, and the Board of Supervisors would then enter into a contract with the successful bidder for the high-priced sections. Referring to page 5 of your committee's report, I beg to call your attention to the fact that the successful bidder might have had a secret understanding with the board, whereby he should enter into contracts for section 2 at $14,000 and section 7 at $1245. Such an arrangement is a familiar contrivance in corrupt municipalities upon the mainland and is invariably built into the work which has been done under the bids advertised for in August, 1909, is concerned. I have to say that so far as I have been able to understand stand there is no specific evidence of corruption which would warrant a further investigation. Much of the work under this contract has already been completed. The citizens of this county are therefore without remedy. Such of the work as has not yet been completed can be stopped by a procedure which I shall describe later in this opinion. For the future, however, you may assume that any contract entered into by competitive bids, such as I have described above, will be void, and that any citizen can take the proper steps to restrain the execution of the contract or the payment of county money.

From the examination which I have been able to make of the facts in the case of Honolulu road, I am inclined to believe that the conditions of several of the bonds had been violated. This is a matter which is beyond the reach of the citizens of the county, except at the polls. These bonds are made in favor of the county and only the county, through its regularly elected attorney, who can appear in court and ask for judgment upon the bond.

I wish to advise you as to the remedies which are open to the citizens of this county, upon any of the matters referred to in this opinion or the report of your committee. If the Board of Supervisors can be shown to have acted in gross disregard of their official duties or if it shall appear that corruption or fraud had entered into the making of any contract, then upon the petition of twenty-five citizens the Supreme Court of the Territory will consider the evidence, and if it is found sufficient the supervisor or supervisors then before the court may be impeached and dismissed from office. This is practically the only redress which can be had against the supervisors, and in the case as it is now submitted to me, I have to advise you that I am clearly of the opinion that no case for impeachment can be made out. Whenever a contract, such as the contract above pointed out, is void for any reason, any citizen is entitled to file with the circuit judge a bill in equity asking that the county auditor be enjoined from issuing a warrant for payment of any portion or the whole of the contract price. This is the most effective remedy open for a private citizen. The sixth contract, made July 20, 1909, for macadamizing 1170 feet of road at a cost which would amount to $16,566.53 per mile, clearly comes within the category of a contract which upon its face is subject to interference by the court, upon the petition or bill in equity for this purpose.

With reference to further relief from the condition of affairs, which is described in the report of your committee, I suggest that amendments to the present law be drafted further restricting the scope of authority given to supervisors. A large number of States have statutes which may serve as models, and upon your further request for assistance I shall be glad to draft such amendments to the present law and submit them to you, so that they may be forwarded to the next Legislature.

Trusting that I have covered all of the matters upon which you wished to be advised, I beg to remain, very respectfully yours,

CARL S. SMITH.

REGATTA.

MUCH TALK ABOUT SHELLS

HEALANIS MADE STRAIGHT
OFFER FOR RACE

Proposed That Four Seniors
From Each Crew Should Meet in Shell Event—Keen Rivalry Between Clubs.

There was a big crowd at the boat-club last evening, and from 5 o'clock on till dark the harbor was dotted with boats manned by the crews which are to race next Saturday in the big annual regatta. Both the Myrtles and Healanis were well represented on the water, and the Out-rigger crew, which is going to paddle against the plik of the islands, was also out doing some fast work.

From all appearances there is going to be some good racing on Saturday, and although some people seem to think that the Myrtles will have it all their own way, they are going to be mistaken for sure when it comes to a showdown in the actual races.

The terrible tales that are going the rounds about the Healanis becoming scared are just as much poppycock and worthy of no credence. "The Healanis may be beaten, but they will never quit," declared Bert Lightfoot this morning, when commenting on the biased article in the morning paper. "Yes," chimed in George Gall, "that's the dope, and the Healanis won't train by moonlight, either."

That there is intense rivalry between the boat clubs is very apparent, and as long as the affair does not become too bitter, it is all for the good of the sport. Still, it is a great pity to hear a member of one club talk about the rival shed for publication, and the remarks attributed to some of the Myrtle men are, to say the least, not quite the correct thing.

The Healanis deserve great credit for the way they have pulled the club together during the past year, and now that a lot of new members have settled down to hard work, everything is going on all right. To say that there is any discord in the club is to state something that would be better left unsaid.

All the bitterness that was shown by the statements in the morning paper seem to have arisen over the subject of a shell race. The Healanis consider that they should not be asked to compete against a crew of oldtimers, and as they only intended to use men in their crew who had failed to make the other crews, they would appear to be in the right.

Now for a more pleasant subject, and that is the big list of invitations that has been made up. The Healanis have sent out over twelve hundred of the badges that will act as passports to both boatclubs. The Myrtles have also issued a tremendous number of the ribbons, and there will surely be a great gathering at the clubhouses on Saturday. A great number of country people will be present, and the presence of the Kona, Hawaii, crew of canoe paddlers will make one race, at any rate, an interisland affair.

Bert Lightfoot states that some of his men wanted a shell race and that Bert Heilbron went to the Myrtles and said: "We will take four men out of our senior crew and race them in a shell event against four men from your senior crew." There was nothing doing, and the matter dropped right there. The offer was a straightforward one, and one that would have resulted in a fine race. However, it can't be done now, and the shell race is out of the question.

LIGHTWEIGHTS.

WOLGAST AND M'FARLAND

MEN ARE AT LAST
MATCHED FOR BATTLE

Will Box at Milwaukee on September 30—Took Long
Time to Arrange Match—
Great Go Expected.

After trying to get a match with Ad Wolgast ever since the latter won the title from Bathing Nelson, Packey McFarland, the Chicago lightweight, finally has succeeded, says the Call of September 3. The champion and challenger will battle in a 10-round no-decision bout at Milwaukee on September 30.

In former attempts to match the stars of the lightweight division the weight question always has kept them apart. McFarland journeyed to Milwaukee last night to witness the White-Conley match and there met Tom Jones, Wolgast's manager. No sooner had they gotten together than Jones said he would agree to let Packey weigh in at 5 o'clock on the day of the fight.

Jones came down to Chicago today and covered McFarland's $500 forfeit money, which has been posted for some time. As soon as the club which is to take the mill posts its forfeit, the fighters will begin training.

The bout will be Wolgast's only real engagement since he hurt his hand in a battle in Milwaukee. It also will be McFarland's first go since he battled 20 rounds to a draw with Fred Welsh in London and it will be the first time he has ever met the champion in his class.

PITTSBURG, Sept. 1. — Pitcher Christy Mathewson of the New York Nationals may go to a hospital for an operation. His stomach has been out of order for a month and he expects to take a week off in New York to enter a sanatorium. He has been advised by physicians to have an operation performed for "mouth breathing." The nasal passages are so constructed that he can not breathe freely through his nose, making it necessary to breathe through the mouth.

HOW WHITE WAS BEATEN

DETAILS OF DEL MONTE
BIG GOLF TOURNAMENT

Whitney Played Splendid Game—White Looked Like
Catching Up Every Time
But Failed Somehow.

Although Austin White was beaten by Whitney for the golf championship at Del Monte, he put up a good game, and the following details of the play will be read with interest:

Plain golf divided the first two holes four to five in each case. A well recovered mashie gave White a chance on the third, despite Whitney's good approach, and it was halved in five. Whitney used his cleek for driving throughout the match almost invariably, and on the fourth got off a short ball, landing him on the far side of the bunker. White laid down an approach in fine style, which resulted in his taking the hole four to five and honors. One up leading off for the fifth, White was overconfident, a bad drive resulting, which landed him in the rough. His approaches were good, but Whitney squared the honors by laying down one for a full eighty foot, which gave him the hole.

White took the sixth with two nice puts, but the match was again squared on the seventh. White mashed out in grand style, after being in trouble with a pulled drive on the eighth, with the result that Whitney's poor puts allowed him to gather the hole. Both narrowly missed twos on the turn, which was halved in three. White's cleek shot following his drive on the tenth just cleared the bunker, and bounding high, disappeared in the rough. Luckily for him, it landed in an open spot and he gained the fair green with one, but that one stroke squared the match, after he had missed the cup for a six.

Whitney gained the eleventh, the twelfth being halved in four. Playing the thirteenth White made a brave attempt to escape a three-quarter style, but the sliced put stuck on the cup rim, and Whitney was 2 up. White laid a nice drive on the short fourteenth and reduced Whitney's lead when the latter's put stuck at the very rim of the hole. White should have had a three on the fifteenth, but failed to come through after being on the green with his drive, the hole being halved in four.

The sixteenth showed some good puts, being halved in three, the forenoon's play ending with Whitney one up, the remaining holes being halved in fours.

The second half's play was of much the same order. Neither player put up the game of which he was capable except in rare spots. After White's nice approach of fifty yards on the twenty-first hole, Whitney laid himself a stylic with an over-run put, but he mashed out in fine style for honors, 4 to 5. White's bunkered approach on the twenty-third gave Whitney another opportunity and placed him three up. White's fine drive brought him the next, 3 to 4.

On the twenty-sixth and twenty-seventh golfing luck stayed White off for honors, when he narrowly missed two long puts.

A feeble drive of Whitney's gave White a chance on twenty-eighth, but he needed everything offered, as a result of his own poor approach, the holding of a twelve-foot put reducing Whitney's lead to two up. White was laid a stylic on the twenty-ninth, and his sliced put stuck to the cup's lip, trembling, but still losing him honors. The next four holes were halved quickly. White had a pitifully short put on the thirty-third, where he had a chance, only the jumping of Whitney's ball over the cup preventing the ending of the match at that point. Playing the thirty-fourth, which it was necessary for White to win in addition to those remaining to stave off defeat, both had short drives.

Whitney assured himself of the championship by laying down a seventy-five-foot approach within two feet of the hole. It was halved in three and the gallery immediately congratulated Whitney as coast champion.

NOTHING MUCH DOING
IN SPORTING LINE

Baseball Quiet And Only Juniors on Job—New League

With the exception of the regatta there is nothing much doing in the way of sport, and things are very quiet around the town. The Oahu league has not yet arranged its schedule for the second half of the season, and it would seem as if there will be some delay in getting it going. The Oahu Juniors are playing whenever they can, at the Athletic Park, but the wet weather has interfered a lot with the games.

There is some talk of a league being started up by the commercial houses of the city, and the St. Louis College No. 2 team, the Spaldings, the Reaches and the Postoffice nines could meet in the series.

Spalding's Irrepressibles have done all that was possible so far on the diamond. They have only played one game, and that was last week against the Saints. The Spalding outfit won that easy enough, and now they are looking around for some other bunch to tackle.

The special series that was proposed between the Saints No. 1 team and the Punahou, has been dropped, as no agreement was possible once the suggestion that a purse be played for was made.

NEW FOOTBALL RULE
IS MUCH DISCUSSED

Y. M. C. A. Is Going Strong on Sports—Dr. Hand on Deck.

Things will be lively at the Y. M. C. A. within a short time, as the members are getting ready for indoor baseball and other games. The gymnasium classes are getting into proper order now that Dr. Hand is back again, and the general director of sports is feeling settled once more.

The business men will in future have the use of the gymnasium every day, excepting Saturdays, from half-past four till 6 o'clock. Dr. Hand will be in charge of the floor every Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday afternoon.

The football rules for 1910 were discussed yesterday by Dr. Hand, and he said that the rules were very simple with the exception of the one applying to the flying tackle. The rule reads that the tackler must have one foot on the ground at the time that the attack is made. This will be difficult for a referee to settle, as the time is so brief between the moment of attack and tackle.

"Kicker" Chillingworth is a fine football kicker, and he did some good work down at the Athletic Park last Sunday. "Kicker" plays the game well, too, and if he were to take to hockey, he would soon shine as a star player, so he has all the earmarks of a champion dodger.

PROTEST AGAINST FIRE HOUSE REMOVAL

Hilo Citizens Sign Petition to Keep Fire Fighting Machine Handy.

(Special Bulletin Correspondence.)
 HILO, Sept. 10.—The question of the location of the Hilo fire station came up very suddenly last Thursday afternoon, when a petition was sent forth for signatures all over town, asking that the present site on Wai-anuehue street be retained for the station. The question of the location of the station has been up for discussion for some time past, as a matter of fact, the cutting through of a new street makai of the federal lot is bound to have some effect on the situation matter, as Firemen's Hall is standing partly on the ground where the new street is to go. However, the matter came up with great suddenness last Thursday, and it soon took into itself the proportions of a burning question (no pun meant).
 In the meantime Manager Richards of the Hilo Telephone Co. heard of the matter. He was interested on account of the fact that the corporation had applied to the Superintendent of Public Works to have the lot on the corner of the proposed street and Wai-anuehue street, where the station now is, put up for sale. He announced that if the public wanted the lot for a fire station, the application would be withdrawn. The petition was subsequently amended to cover merely the general location in that neighborhood.
 The petition therefore read as follows in its final form:
 "We, the undersigned citizens and taxpayers of the Town of Hilo, do hereby urgently petition and request that the fire station be not removed to any other portion of the town. The present site is situated at an elevation which is higher than any business portion of the town, and with the present fire fighting apparatus being hand driven, the volunteer fire company can reach any portion of the town, when their services are needed, from this point quicker than from the point to which the fire station is intended to be moved.
 Furthermore, if said fire station is to be removed from its present site it will be a burden to the business houses in the matter of insurance rates, as without any fire protection in the neighborhood they will be called on to pay a heavier rate of premiums than they are paying at present.
 "Even if the corner lot should be taken, we believe that there will be space enough between the building to be erected on the said lot and the Masonic block for the fire station, and urgently request that the fire station remain in the neighborhood of the present site."
 This petition was signed by a very large number of business firms and individuals.
 Fire Chief Johnson submitted to the Supervisors a letter from the Superintendent of Public Works, the text of which explains the position taken by the Territory. It was as follows:
 "This is to acknowledge receipt of your favor of Aug. 4th, in reference to fire station site in the city of Hilo. The Territory is willing to grant to the County of Hawaii the necessary land on Front street for a fire station. The present site is not the best one, considering the fact that the federal building will be located in the immediate neighborhood.
 "The Government has received an offer for the site you apply for, the parties agreeing to construct a building to cost not less than $20,000 and with a possible maximum cost of $40,000. It will be a building of considerable architectural pretensions and will unquestionably be an addition to that portion of the city of Hilo.
 "Under the circumstances, the fire station must be removed to the Front street lot, as I feel that it would not be right to leave the station at the corner of Wai-anuehue street and the new street. As soon as the county signifies its intention to make use of the site on Front street I shall be glad to set aside the same for the uses and purposes of the Hilo Fire Department."
 Supervisor Kalauiwa subsequently introduced the following resolution:
 "Be it resolved by the Board of Supervisors in and for the County of Hawaii, that the Governor and the Commissioner of Public Lands be and hereby are requested to set aside that portion of the government lot on the makai side of the proposed 'New Federal street' and running along the proposed 'New Federal street' for the purpose of a fire station site for the District of South Hilo, County of Hawaii, and
 "Be it further resolved that the County Clerk be and hereby is requested to forward a certified copy of this resolution to the Governor and the Commissioner of Public Lands."
 This was adopted, and Debra, who was going to Honolulu, was instructed to take the matter up with the officials named. He was asked to get both the makai and the old site if possible.
 There has been considerable talk about the attitude of the Telephone Company in this matter. Manager Richards, when asked to outline his stand, stated that the company was willing to save the people of Hilo wanted the corner lot for a fire site, to withdraw its application to have it offered for sale. He did not think that the station should be on Wai-anuehue street at all. If the Telephone Company got the lot it was the proposition to erect a fine building thereon, and with the fine Masonic building on the other side, it seemed only proper that the lot between these two buildings should be the site for another fine structure. Furthermore, the street was needed for business purposes, and the fire station would make dead property as far as business was concerned. Still, he did not believe that the company would withdraw its application for the sale of the corner lot, even if the station were placed on the lot makai thereof. There was, however, plenty of room for a fire station on the public lot facing Bridge street on the Hamakua side of the Masonic building, and it would be just as good a place for the fire station as the present site.

MAINE HAS DEM. GOVERNOR

(Associated Press Cable.)

PORTLAND, Me., Sept. 12.—For the first time in thirty years the State of Maine has elected a Democratic Governor, Frederick Plaisted, the Democratic candidate for the chief executiveship of the Pine Tree
State, being elected by a plurality of 9900.

The indications are that Maine
will send a solid Democratic delegation to the national house. The count at present indicates that Congressman F. E. Guernsey of the Fourth District and Congressman E.
C. Burleigh of the Third have been defeated, and it is probable that Asher Hind, the candidate in Reed's old district, and Congressman Swaney
will also be defeated for reelection
by the Democratic candidates.

The Maine Legislature is now Democratic, also.

PHOENIX, Sept. 12.—The first elections held in Arizona since it attained Statehood resulted in a decisive victory for the Democrats. Arizona, as a Territory, was staunchly Democratic, but the Republican leaders were trying to swing the State
into the other column, without success.

It is probable that the Democrats have fifty-two delegates to the constitutional convention, against thirty-six Republicans.

The Democratic platform contains planks calling for the initiative and referendum, the recall and the direct primary in elections for Senators. It is probable that all these will be incorporated in the constitution when drafted.

BEET TRUST KINGS INDICTED.

(Associated Press Cable.)

CHICAGO, Sept. 12.—The investigation of the beet and refrigerator
trusts, which has been proceeding steadily here under the direction of the government, resulted today in three indictments being returned against the men prominent in the packing business in Chicago.

The men are charged with conspiracy in restraint of trade and for the consequent creation of a monopoly. L. F. Edwards, Charles Swift, Francis Fowler, director of the Swift company; Edward Tilden, president
of the National Packing Company;
J. Ogden Armour, Arthur Meeker,
general manager, and Thomas Connor, superintendent of the Armour
company, and Edward Morris and L.
O. Heyman, manager of the Morris Packing Company, are those who are named in the indictments.

This is the second attempt of the government to break up the alleged beet trust which has once escaped on technicalities. Attorney General
Wickersham has directed the present
attack.

FLYING RECORDS SMASHED.

(Associated Press Cable.)

BOSTON, Sept. 12.—More records were broken here at the commencement of the aviation meet today,
Ralph Johnstone, in a Wright bi-plane, smashing both the American endurance and distance records in one flight. He covered seventy-five miles in his machine, remaining in the air for three hours, four minutes

DOTS AND DASHES.

C. W. Short, who takes the greatest interest in football, is leaving Honolulu in the near future. He used to reference the big games on the main-

of the rules of football resulted in his publishing a book on the subject.

The defeat of Mrs. Coulter did not surprise many people in Honolulu, as it was seen by the games she put up against the local men players that she could not have much chance against the tip-top women players of the States.

The death of Dick Stone, the famous bull dog, which occurred in London on September 4, was a serious loss to his owner, who was offered the enormous sum of $60,000 for the animal some little time before it died.

The Ottawa champion eight may go to Henley next year, and then they will have a chance of competing against the best oarsmen in the world.

SENSATIONAL CASE

UP FOR DIVORCE

Holds Wife a Prisoner Till Separation Is Granted.

(Special Bulletin Correspondence.)

HILO, Sept. 10.—A divorce suit with some sensational frills came up before Judge Parsons last week. It is still pending. The libellant is a Japanese named E. Shirashi, the owner of a store on the makai side of Front street. He sues Tsuen Fujii Shirashi,
a rather prepossessing Japanese lady,
for divorce, alleging that between the fifteenth and the twenty-fifth of last month the lady was guilty of serious misconduct. One Asayama is named as co-respondent.

Last Thursday morning the bombshell was sprung when the father of the lady, through his attorney, Carl Smith, filed a motion in court asking that Shirashi be ordered to produce his wife in court and that he be ordered to show cause why an order should not issue compelling him to restrain his wife from her liberty. In this motion it was set forth that the father, on hearing that his daughter was being used for divorce, had gone to see her, and that he had been informed by Shirashi that he had the lady in his custody and that he would not allow her to leave his house until the divorce had been granted. As a consequence she had no access to either
her friends or to legal counsel.

Attorney Irwin, Shirashi's counsel,
moved to strike out the motion on the grounds that it was not properly endorsed, and this was granted.

Smith contended that no petition was necessary, anyhow. The court he argued, of its own motion, should examine the woman and find out if she were restrained of her liberty. He added that fifteen minutes before Shirashi had attempted to wrest the woman from Smith's own counsel chamber, and if the court took no action she would be held a prisoner as soon as she left the court room. Irwin said that that was not so.

The court said that such procedure
would be a very novel one, and after argument it was decided that Smith
should file a properly endorsed petition. A few hours later Smith filed his amended petition, but by this time Shirashi had utterly disappeared, and service could, as a consequence, not be made on him.

SAMUEL RUMSEY IS DEAD

Passes Away at Los Angeles

—Ashes Are Taken to
New York State.

The news of the death of Samuel
Rumsey has been received in this city.
Mr. Rumsey formerly resided in Honolulu and was in the employ of Benson, Smith & Co. He leaves a widow, Mrs. Emma Forsyth Rumsey, whom he married in Denver. At the time of her marriage Mrs. Rumsey was a Mrs. Colcamp. She is a great-granddaughter of Governor Forsyth of Georgia, whose name figures promi-nently in the Revolution. Mr. Rumsey also came of revolutionary stock,
and the two families were connected
by marriage.

Mr. Rumsey's ashes were buried in the family lot at his old home at Goshen, New York. At this place his family held a deed for five hundred acres from the continental government, having possessed the land for three hundred years. He was the son of Phineas Rumsey.

He belonged to the order of the Sons of the American Revolution and to the following lodges: Pacific Lodge, No. 822, A. F. and A. M.; Honolulu Chapter, No. 1, R. A. M.; Ho-

THEY SAY

"One-Third Your Life Is Spent In Bed"

so naturally it behooves us to give some attention to the fittings of our bedroom. To awaken in a cheery, cosy bedroom gives one a feeling of happiness and perfect content and helps to start the day right, and it costs but little to accomplish this—it is money well spent.

BEDS

METAL BEDS are in most demand these days, of which we are showing a very comprehensive line in single, three-quarter and full sizes, from the plain light tube beds at $4.50 up to the massive two-inch posters at $50, with or without brass trimmings, in scroll effects, or those with perfectly plain lines, devoid of all ornamentation, known as the chillesse, while ivory and Vernis Martin and the popular finish, for those who would like a little more coloring, we have the mahogany, pink, green and combinations.

Perhaps you are tired of the metal beds. If so, we have a nice line of BRASS BEDS, in straight posts and bent pillar effects, in round or square tubing, in satin or bright finish, from $34 to $100. Or your fancy may run to WOOD BEDS say a genuine mahogany with its rich red grain, in Napoleon or Colonial designs, at $40 to $60; or the plain styles in quartered oak and birdseye, at $27 to $40.

BUREAUS

Our showing of BUREAUS is unsurpassed. Such a variety of designs and different woods and finishes is seldom shown in a community of this size.

The soft-toned birdseye in natural finish is quite the vogue, and deservedly so. What could be more appropriate for the young lady's room or the guest chamber? Nothing cooler and cleaner looking, and at prices to suit all—$30 to $93.

Then there is the genuine mahogany, that for richness of color and beauty of grain we must look to when more elaborate furnishing is considered. In this we are showing some beautiful reproductions of the earlier periods, from $45 to $100.

In oak we have the largest showing, both plain and quartersawn, in golden and fumed finish; every conceivable design in plain or shaped fronts; and oval, square or shaped mirrors. Solid oak dressers, $18 to $68; imitation golden oak as cheap as $12.75.

CHIFFONNIERS

Maybe you lack closet room. Then one of our chiffoniers will be just the thing. All sizes from 26 inches to 42 inches in width, with and without mirrors, in mahogany, birdseye, quartered oak, golden or fumed finish, plain and imitation oak in golden finish, some to match the bureaus and some odd. Prices from $9 to $75.

To sum it all up, we are justly proud of our assortment of bedroom furniture and its reasonableness, and we want to show it to you. It will give us pleasure to do so.

FORT SHAFTER NEWS

To the surprise of many of the men of this post, an order came last Wednesday afternoon for the battalion to make preparations for a three-day hike to the vicinity of Pearl City. The order read that E, G and H companies would leave the post Thursday morning in full field equipment, entrenching tools and signal flags to be carried. Wagons were loaded and everything was made ready for an early start.

Left the Post.
Promptly at 8 o'clock Thursday morning the battalion was formed, and after G Company had received the flag, under the command of Captain Chapman, post commander, the battalion left the post—H Company, G Company and F Company, respectively. The strength of the command was about one hundred and twenty-five. Line officers present were Captain Chapman, Captain Mearns, Lieutenant Chilton and Lieutenant Bowen. Lieutenant Smith of the Hospital Corps accompanied the battalion to supply the necessary medical attention. The lieutenant took with him Private Tarro of the corps to assist him.

Mascot Heads the Column.
During the entire trip to and from Pearl City, Kahana, the battalion mascot, headed the column. His feet never seem to give out, for he was just as fresh returning as when the battalion started on the hike.

Hot Hiking.
Hiking up a dusty road, through cane fields, over hills and through valleys, under the tropical sun, is not what it is said to be, but after marching nearly four hours the battalion arrived and pitched camp out on the Peninsula, about a mile past Pearl City, at 11:49 a. m. After corned beef and tomatoes, the afternoon was given over to the soldiers for their own pleasure.

Fine Swimming.
From the end of the Peninsula one can look across the bay, and for miles away in the distance can be seen Pearl Harbor, the growing city. It is in this bay that the soldiers took their dip. A fine wharf out from the land affords an ample place for diving, and not long after the arrival in camp every soldier was taking a salt-water bath.

Night Operation.
At retreat Thursday night the men were given instructions not to leave the near vicinity of the camp, and at 7 o'clock G Company fell in with bold bells and rifles. Lieutenant Chilton, who had been waiting around most of the afternoon for information regarding the lay of the land, was in command. The problem was that Company G should leave the camp, acting as enemy, and try to capture it. Companies F and H were left behind to guard and if possible to prevent the enemy from entering.

Over Fish Dikes.
After maneuvering around, up this road and down that, for some thirty minutes, G Company finally arrived over the bay and directly opposite the fish dikes. These dikes were built of rock, some large and some small, making it rather difficult to walk in the dark, but after trials and tribulations the company landed on dry land not far from the place where the charge on the camp was to be made. Silence, the secret of success in this case, was kept, and after creeping along some two hundred yards the command, "To the charge," was given and G Company went triumphantly into camp. Patrol guard and sentry were of no avail, for the "enemy" company entered camp from a point least expected. Lieutenant Chilton deserves much credit for his ability in tactics of this sort.

Too Much Rain.
Thursday night "Father Dampness" came down in the form of rain, and the remainder of the night, Friday and Friday night the rain came down in torrents. Bunk fatigue was the order for Friday, and Friday night the entire three companies slept in the dancing pavilion. The "dog tents" lost their popularity for the time being, but it was soon discovered that sleeping under the canvas was much more pleasant than the hard wood floor the dancing hall provided.

Return Home.
The battalion broke camp at 8:10 a. m. The rain had ceased for a few moments, and the men made the hills and loaded them onto the wagons. The roads were wet and muddy, but the battalion, being in light march, ing order, did not notice it, and after two rests arrived at Moanalua Park. The heavy rains caused the creek in the park to be flooded, and the men were ordered to ford it. No near home it was no hard job to ford a stream of this kind, and just at 11 o'clock the post was reached. After a review by Captain Chapman the companies were dismissed and the men turned for a hearty dinner.

Company E Left Behind.
Owing to the fact that the Militia of Hawaii have their outing this year at Fort Shafter, Company E was left behind to take care of them. The platoon Waikiki was from the camp has been prepared for them. Company E is now camped in conical wall tents and ready for the maneuvers which are to take place.

New Change.
Private Jesse Nickels, Company E; Barney Oakley, Company F; Claude Plummer, Company G, and Frank Miller, Company H, who were detailed on extra duty and ordered to stand all calls, have been excused from all calls per Order No. 97.

Special Duty.
Private McGee of Company F, who has been on extra duty in the quartermaster's department for the past few months, has been relieved, and Private Tom Taylor of Company H is detailed in the capacity of teamster.

Short Stories For Evening Hours

RED ROSES.

"I'd like to know one thing," said the girl, settling herself comfortably after the young man came to call. "I'd like to know how many people in this town are capable of acting as silly as I did today."

"I might be able to tell you approximately if you would give me a little more information," said the young man. "Still, before you began your confession just now I didn't suppose you were capable of doing anything silly."

"Why, how nice of you to say that!" returned the girl.

"Proceed with the terrible details," said the young man.

"Well," related the girl, "my Aunt Isabel wrote that he son George—my cousin, you know—"

"Cousin, cousin," mused the young man, interrupting her. "Cousin George! But go on."

"She wrote that Cousin George was going to pass through Chicago today and she asked me to meet him and help him do some shopping for her. Well, I had never seen George in my life. So I wrote to Aunt Isabel to tell him to wear a red rose in his buttonhole and that I would wear a red rose also."

"Romantic, I must say."

"Wasn't it? We were to meet in the waiting room of a department store and George was to take me to lunch. It seemed so simple. It was simple, too—simple-minded."

"Why was it? I was just going to ask you to—but I interrupt your story. I suppose Cousin George wore violets when he met you because the red rose clashed with his tie."

"I made arrangements by telephone to have a table reserved for us in the tearoom," went on the girl.

"Then when I got downtown I stopped at a florist's to buy a red rose. The florist offered me a white one, which he said was fresher, but I told him the rose must be red. Then he said I would be surprised to know how many red roses he sold just for purposes of identification."

"Whereat you blushed becomingly and confirmed his suspicion?"

"I couldn't deny it, could I? So I told him I was to meet a cousin, but he did not seem impressed with my explanation."

"He may have even heard it before."

"Naturally, I regretted my lack of originality and wished I had chosen orchids or something of that sort. But I got my red rose and reached the waiting room five minutes before eleven. I hadn't been there a moment before a sweet-faced girl rushed up to me, threw her arms around my neck and kissed me."

"You tempt me to wear a red rose always," said the young man.

"I withdrew from her embrace as quickly as possible and assured her that he was mistaken in thinking me her cousin just in from Denver. I observed that the girl wore a red rose."

"I could not have been hard-hearted enough to disappoint her." She had hardly subsided when a little old woman came up wearing a red rose and asked if I was Sarah. When I told her that I was not, she almost cried. She said she was to have met her granddaughter there at 9:30 o'clock and the girl had not come."

"If you had said you were her granddaughter she might have left you everything she had in her will."

"I saw four other girls wearing red roses," went on the girl. "I thought it was only a minute before George rushed in. I recognized him at once; he was so tall and good looking. And his manners were so good."

"I have good manners myself," said the young man, ingratiatingly. "George was very cordial," the girl proceeded. "I am ever so glad to see you, cousin," he said. "Is that next chair taken, or may I have it?" Then he told me all about his trip. He said his mother sent her love to me and he explained that he had been late because he had stopped to check his suitcase. He asked me a lot of questions about myself. We were getting on famously when the crash came."

"The crash?"

"I didn't have a suspicion of it," declared the girl, meekly. "He began to suspect something only after I denied that I was a school teacher. Just then a big woman walked up and spoke to him so freely that I realized he wasn't Cousin George."

"What did he say, if I may be permitted to inquire?"

"She said, 'Philip, if you don't mind, I'd go to lunch now, but don't let me hurry you.' It seems that she had a photograph of her cousin."

"And a red rose?"

"Yes, both had red roses." "How about Cousin George?" "Poor Cousin!" sighed the girl.

"When I looked around for him I found him standing disconsolately at the desk inquiring whether any one had asked for him. A dreadful woman who was near snuffed audibly when I spoke to him, and she saw that we both wore red roses."

"Was it so very dreadful an experience or did you just regret the loss of that other fellow, that—er—that fellow Philip?"

"Oh, I haven't lost him," smiled the girl. "You see, Philip knows the Taylor girls and he's coming with them to call tomorrow night."

ARMY AND NAVY

Pearl Harbor Work.

An event of the hour failure may be the creation of a separate military department for these islands and under the command of a brigadier general.

This movement of forming a separate command was strongly urged by General Barry when he was in command of the department of California, and it is more than probable that it will be carried out.

In the event of such a move by the army powers it is expected that Major Dunning will be given the post as chief of staff here. The Major is well liked here and has created a large circle of friends during his residence on Oahu.

It is expected that Fort Shafter will be made a regimental post, and should such be the fact that will increase the size of that post somewhat.

There will probably be little work done in the line of barracks at De Russy until the reclamation of more of the duck ponds has been made but there are prospects that quite a sum will be spent on improvements at Fort Ruger.

A call for bids on Pearl Harbor work is expected to show up at any time now, and it is expected that a new set of bids will be called for on the barracks work at that place as the bids that have been submitted considerably overlap the appropriation that has been made for the work. The Lord-Young Construction Company was the lowest bidder for this same work but their bid was too high.

The naval work at Pearl Harbor will constitute the largest contract of its kind ever let in Hawaii. The principal construction work will consist of a great seawall along the navy yard frontage which will amount, in round numbers, to nearly a million dollars. The navy department plans a most elaborate system of roadways through the station, and to and from it, the work costing about $150,000. Sowers alone will cost about $50,000, and all telephone, electric light, power and other wires will be conducted at a big expense. A great coal hopper, alone, may cost about $300,000. There are machine shops which will cost about a quarter of a million.
