ON THE COVER

In recognition of the 125th anniversary of the Hawaiian Historical Society, this year's cover features the Society's logo. Artist Linda Oszajca created the design in 1977 using elements from an older logo.

The last sentence of On the Cover in HJH 2016 should read as follows:

Palakiko speaks to one of the common names that Native Hawaiians had for leprosy, ma'i ho'oka'awale 'ohana, the "family-separating disease."
